She would have been about 13 years old in Texas when Catholic JFK chose LBJ and his Baptist Wolrld Convention for VP. She would have been about 15 years old when JFK was assasinated.

She was discovered as a model upon graduating high school in Corpus Christi Texas and going to college.

Farrah Fawcett given Last Rites retrieved from Broadway World and copied or modified to here

According to ABC News reports, a Catholic priest has given actress Farrah Fawcett her Last Rites. Fawcett’s health is worsening and has sadly taken a very serious turn, resulting in the summoning of a Catholic priest to give her the Last Rites.

ABC reports that Farrah Fawcett is a devout Catholic Christian. A close friend has described her being “fearless” at the moment thanks to her faith. The Catholic priest reportly administered her the Last Rites in a Los Angeles Hospital. As Fawcett clings to life, members of her inner circle, Dr. Lawrence Piro and longtime boyfriend Ryan O'Neal are gathered at her hospital bedside.

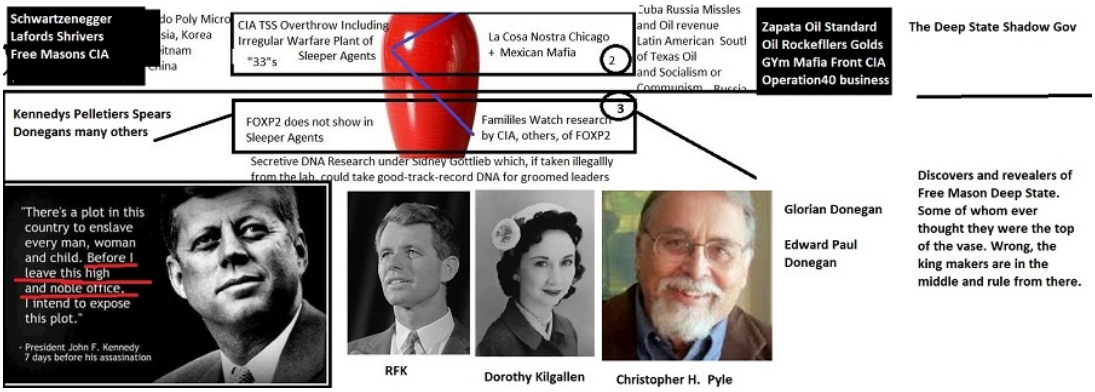
A Youtube version of Love Story theme with their pictures here added to the link

[This book]

Christopher Pyle is a Revealer

What has been done to the watched families was illegal and involuntary, their DNA used without permission including Glorian and Jim Donegan DNA and probably Malcom X DNA beyond what he approved. But Sidney Gottlieb was a determined researcher and was part of the evil tradiions of the CIA which ultimately even killed its own CIA like Leslie Ann Sheed and others.



Mostly drawn directly from Wikidia

Without scrutiny of the program there is not scrutiny of the motive nor scrutiny of the programmers of the programs run.

Welcome to the Police State, blunders, coverus, and murders of civilians by teams meeting the criteria of Death Squads.

America needs a 21st century Church Committee

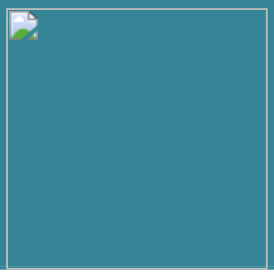
15 members and staffers from 1975 investigation argue that NSA revelations demand congressional action March 18, 2014 by Multiple authors @ajam

Christopher H. Pyle (born 1939) is a journalist and Professor of Politics at Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Massachusetts. He testified to Congress about the use of military intelligence against civilians, worked for the Senate Judiciary

Sen. Frank Church in 1976.Bill Peters/The Denver Post/Getty Images



In 1975 the public learned that the National Security Agency had been collecting and analyzing international telegrams of U.S. citizens since the 1940s under secret agreements with all the major telegram companies. Years later, the NSA instituted another watch list program to intercept the international communications of key figures in the civil rights and anti-Vietnam War movements among other prominent citizens. Innocent Americans were targeted by their government. These actions were uncovered - and stopped - only because of a special Senate investigative committee known as the United States Senate Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities, commonly known as the Church Committee.

We are former Church Committee members and staffers and write today as witnesses to history and as citizens with decades of collective experience in Congress, the federal courts, the executive branch and the intelligence community. We write today to encourage Congress to create a Church Committee for the 21st century - a special Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, as well as the Senate Committee on Government Oversight. He is the author of several books and Congressional reports on military intelligence and constitutional rights, and has testified numerous times before the U.S. Congress on issues of deportation and extradition.

Pyle graduated from Bowdoin College (1961) and earned LLB (1964), MA (1966), and PhD (1974) degrees at Columbia University.[1]

n the 1960s, Pyle served in the United States Army as a captain in Army Intelligence Command (now United States Army Intelligence and Security Command).

In the 1960s while an Army captain in intelligence, Pyle learned that “Army intelligence had 1,500 plainclothes agents watching every demonstration of 20 people or more throughout the United States,” (as later Pyle recounted on December 19, 2005, on Democracy investigatory committee to undertake a thorough and public examination of current intelligence community practices affecting the rights of Americans and to make specific recommendations for future oversight and reform. Such a committee would work in good faith with the president, hold public and private hearings and be empowered to obtain documents. Such congressional action is urgently needed to restore the faith of citizens in the intelligence community and in our federal government.

The actions uncovered by the Church Committee in the 1970s bear striking similarities to the actions we've learned about over the past year. In the early 1970s, allegations of impropriety and illegal activity concerning the intelligence community spurred Congress to create committees to investigate those allegations. Our committee, chaired by Sen. Frank Church, was charged with investigating illegal and unethical conduct of the intelligence community and with making legislative recommendations to govern the intelligence community's conduct. The bipartisan committee's reports remain one of the most searching reviews of intelligence agency practices in our nation's history.

Our findings were startling. Broadly speaking, we determined that sweeping domestic surveillance programs, conducted under the guise of foreign intelligence collection, had repeatedly undermined the privacy rights of U.S. citizens. A number of reforms were implemented as a result, including the Now[3] and again on ABC News on January 6, 2006, [4]) as part of a broad-based program of domestic spying. In January and July 1970, Pyle disclosed the Army's spying in articles that appeared in a new publication, Washington Monthly. The exposé went into syndication in more than 40 newspapers in the USA. While Pyle went on to interview more than 120 anonymous soldiers to document the practices, he himself came under attack in "bureaucratic retaliation" that included a spot on President Richard M. Nixon's "Enemies List." The upshot of investigations into Pyle resulted in the discovery by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) - that Pyle had overpaid his taxes.

Senator Sam Ervin investigated the Army's spying as chair of the Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, and Pyle worked as an analyst for his committee, testifying to Congress about his own findings (1971-1974). Ervin continued to investigate government activities; together with the Church Committee inquiries, these Congressional studies led to the drafting of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act. Pyle served as a consultant for three Congressional committees in this area: the Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights on the Judiciary Committee (1971-1974), the Committee on Government Operations (1974), the Select Committee to Study Government Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities (1975-1976). (Later in the 1970s Ervin served as chair of the Congressional committee that conducted hearings on the Watergate scandal.)[1] He also helped draft the Privacy Act of 1974.

creation of permanent intelligence oversight committees in Congress and the passage of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act.

Pyle also served as a consultant to the Office of Technology Assessment as well as a constitutional expert before Senate and House Judiciary committees and the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations.

In 1973, Pyle taught at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice through 1976.

Pyle first joined Mount Holyoke College in the 1970s. He has taught constitutional law, constitutional history, civil liberties, American politics, American political thought, and American bureaucratic politics; he chaired Mount Holyoke’s programs in American Studies and Complex Organizations and the Department of Politics (2011-2012).[

Pyle has taught politics to intelligence agents in the army; to policemen at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice; undergraduates at University College, Dublin; law students at Harvard University, and graduate students at Universidad Complutense de Madrid.

Pyle is a member of the board of directors of the ACLU of Massachusetts.

In 2004, Plye was elected chairman of the board of the Petra Foundation, a national organization that recognizes and assists “unsung heroes” who make extraordinary contributions to social justice.[1] He also chaired its awards committee.

Located in South Hadley, Massachusetts, Mount Holyoke College is a highly selective, nondenominational, residential, research liberal arts college for women that is gender diverse and welcomes applications from female, transgender and non-binary students. Mount Holyoke is renowned for educating women leaders, from medical pioneers to Pulitzer Prize-winning playwrights. The oldest of the Seven Sister colleges, we are a noted leader in liberal arts education with a mission grounded in the conviction that women can - and should - make a difference in the world.

Awards

- 1970: Hillman Prize for investigative journalism
- 1971: Polk Award for investigative journalism
- 2002: “Outstanding Academic Title,” Choice, for Extradition, Politics and Human Rights (2001)
- 2004: Luther Knight Mcnair Award from ACLU Massachusetts for contributions as “teacher, scholar, and model citizen activist
- 2007: Distinguished teaching award from Mt. Holyoke

Fellowships and Grants

- Russell Sage Foundationv
- Mellon Foundation

- National Endowment for the Humanities
- Institute for the Study of World Politics
- Aspen Institute
- Fulbright Program

Books:

Christopher Pyle has written several books on military surveillance, extradition, and issues related to the use of torture in intelligence gathering in the US war on terror, including:

- The President, Congress and the Constitution with Richard Pious (1984) ISBN 0-02-925380-2
- Military Surveillance of Civilian Politics, 1967-1970 (American legal and constitutional history) (1986) ISBN 0-8240-8290-7
- xtradition, Politics, and Human Rights (2001) ISBN 1-56639-823-1
- Getting Away with Torture: Secret Government, War Crimes, and the Rule of Law (Potomac Books Inc. (2008) ISBN 1-59797-387-4; ISBN 978-1-59797-387-8
- The Constitution under Siege with Richard Pious

Congressional Testimony

- “The Domestic Intelligence Community” (1971)
- “CONUS Intelligence: A Case of Military Overkill” (1971)
- “S.2318 and the Military’s Legitimate Intelligence Needs” (1974)
- Statement on Proposed Privacy Legislation
- “COINTELPRO, Preventive Action, and Proposals for Reform” (1976)

- “The Foreign Intelligence Bill of 1977 (S.1566)” (1978)
- “The FBI Charter: A Section-by-Section Analysis” (1979)
- “Provision of H.R. 3519 Regarding Military Assistance to Civilian” (1981)
- “Extradition and Political Crimes” (1981)
- “Extradition and Political Crimes” (1982)[14]
- “The Extradition Act of 1982” (1982)
- “Terrorism and Political Crimes Defense to Extradition” (1982)
- “Extradition, Political Crimes, and the Rule of Non-Inquiry” (1982)
- “The Defense Department’s Polygraph Regulations of 1982” (1982)

Congressional Reports:

Army Surveillance of Civilians: A Documentary Analysis with Lawrence Baskir (1972)[17], Military Surveillance of Civilian Politics (1973)[18] “Extradition, Political Crimes, and the U.K. Treaty” (1985) Articles: Pyle has written for hundreds of newspapers, including the New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, and Los Angeles Times, as well as magazines and journals including The Nation, Washington Monthly, Civil Liberties Review, Foreign Policy, American Political Science Review, Political Science Quarterly, and Boston University Law Review, including: “How to Brief a Case” (1982)[19] “Be Afraid, Be Very Afraid, of Spying by U.S. Army” (2003) “The Intelligence Revolution” (2013)

This book

Ted Gunderson right hand man of RFK against the Mafia

> Former FBI official Ted Gunderson died of cancer on July 31, 2011. Was his illness induced by silent electromagnetic assault or by other nefarious means? We will never know - and that's just the way certain entities want it.
>
> A former senior official of the Federal Bureau of Investigation says "rogue" military intelligence and law enforcement units of the federal government oversee a nationwide network of community-based "gang stalking" harassment, intimidation and domestic terrorism directed at thousands of U.S. citizens who have been extrajudicially targeted as "dissidents" or undesirables.
>
> Ted Gunderson, 82, who has served as the Special Agent in Charge of the FBI's Los Angeles, Memphis and Dallas FBI Field Offices, has stated in a series of public speaking appearances that he is now targeted by these same elements, and fears for his life and for the safety of his family. He reports that the windows of his home have been shot out, and he believes he has been poisoned and physically sickened by those seeking to silence him.
>
> "Based on my thirty years' experience and research, I have determined there are thousands of victims who have been targeted by an illegal U.S. government rogue criminal enterprise - military intelligence, probably, tied into CIA and FBI and so forth - that is active 24 hours a day throughout the United States," Gunderson stated in an October 2008 speech posted last fall on YouTube, three years before cancer consumed him.

Mr. Gunderson's assertion of other connected Mafia violence hired by elite politicians in the oil business, banking, media, or elsewhere.

His death and his claims he was being poisoned occured at the same time I asserted I was being poisoned by radioolical raw source, 2008.

I assert the Rouge Shadow Government attacked us both to cover-up the JIF assasinnation the FBI was tied to when the FBI used Malcom X DNA with GLorian DOnegna DNA.

> MURDER OF SUNNY BONO
>
> Ted Gunderson did not believe that Congressman Bono died accidently and the Catholic congressman Bony did attend some Scientology though always asserted he was Roman Catholic and was aslo anti mafia and anti drug dealing introducing [Further Reading]
>
> MC MARTIN PRE SCHOOL
>
> The school founded in 1966 in Manhattan Beach Los Angeles California was part of MKULTRA, the Manhattan Project, and studying eugenics and child development by the CIA studying children in that area, area of acting and voice coaching, the speech defect included FOXP2 Syndrome
>
> JEFFERY MACDONALD

A Catholic Green Beret doctor whose family was killed. He had attended Columbia Presbyterian Medical school and his wife was part of underground eugenics studies whose daughter showed symptoms the CIA Mafia needed to hide.

MARYLIN MONROE

FOXP2 person tied to others like Joe Dimagio and Albert Einstein and JFK and RFK. She was silenced too by the CIA mafia and again Gunerson knew the Mafia was behind it.

MURDER OF RFK AND JFK

He never doubted these were mafia international black opps assassinations.

HIS OWN MURDER

He asserted he was being poisoned and I believe on many basis. He cited the DOD MKULTRA killing machine being used of GangStalk guerilla warfare inside the USA by the NWO

Sonny Bono and Peter Lawford in Sounds of Silence Cyrano de Bricker Murder on the High Seas

St Josephs or RFK murder scene people ever talk to Sunny Bono?

GANG STALKING VIGILANTISM RUN BY U.S. GOVERNMENT, SAYS EX-FBI OFFICIAL *

Special Agent In Charge Ted Gunderson was a Model FBI Agent

Preparations to Be Together for an Unknown Period of Time (Hungarian is in the CIA Masonic Familes watch certain family lines over time, but keep that activity secret. That is also though secret beacuse of the other side of the vase at that level, 33 CIA using these family lines as sleeper agents for Britain if the FOXP2 gene is not detected at birth.

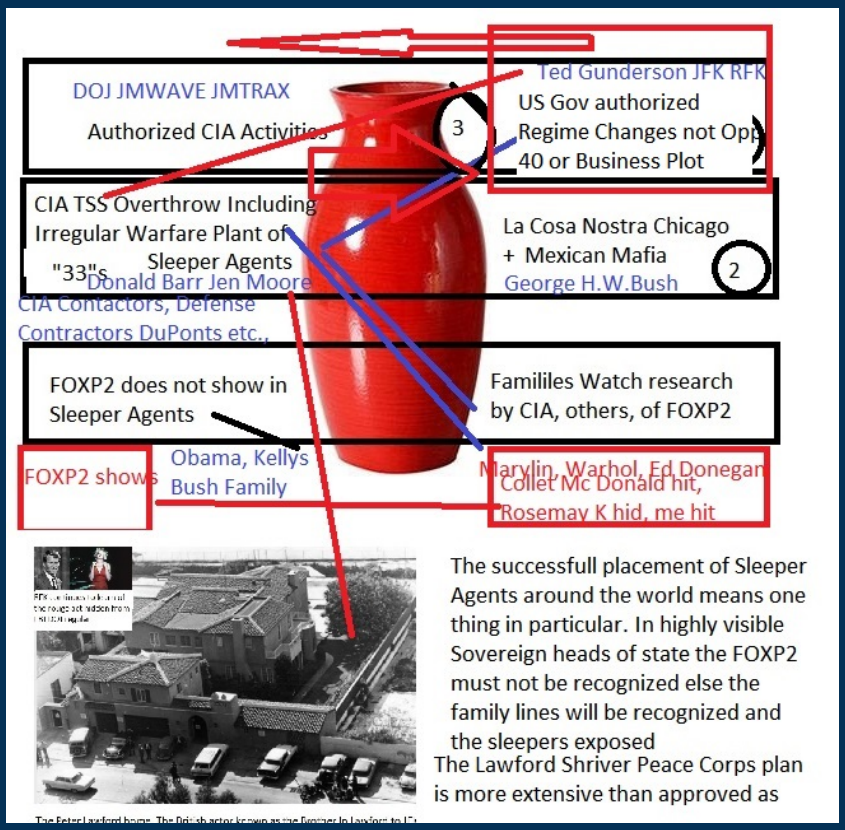
I Ted L. Gunderson, hereby swear under the pains and penalties of perjury that the following statements are true and correct:

1 . My name is Ted L. Gunderson. I am tire owner and operator of Ted L. Gunderson & Associates, an international security and consulting firm based out of Santa Monica, California. I am currently a licensed private investigator in the state of California. I have performed private investigation and security work for numerous individuals, companies, and governments worldwide since founding my firm in 1 979. 1 have worked for, amongst others, F. Lee Bailey, Esq., The California Narcotics Authority by appointment of Governor Jerry Brown, The 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Committee, and The 1979 Pan American Games in San Juan, Puerto Rico by appointment of then U.S. Attorney Genera) Griffin Bell.



1960 to 1964 and the Mob

RFK Attorny General January 21, 1961 - September 3, 1964 JFK assasinated November 22 1963

2. Previous to my work as a private investigator I spent nearly three decades in the F.B.L Between 1951 and 1960 I was an F.B.L Special Agent. In 1960 I was promoted as a supervisor at F.B.I. Headquarters in Washington, D.C., where I was in charge of Organized Crime and Racketeering investigations covering 26 F.B.L Field Offices nationwide. Following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, I was re-assigned to Special Inquiry White House Matters at F.BJ. Headquarters, In 1965 I was promoted again to Assistant Special Agent-In-Charge of Internal Security and Anti-Terrorism of the F.BJ. New Haven, Connecticut Field Office. In 1970 I was promoted to Assistant Special Agent- In- Charge of the F.B.I. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Field Office.

On July 12, 1972 1 successfully negotiated with two terrorist hijackers of National Airlines Flight 496 for the release of 1 19 passengers at Philadelphia International Airport. In 1 973 I was promoted to Chief Inspector at F.BJ. Headquarters. T also served as Special Agent-In-Charge of the F.B.L Memphis and Dallas Field Offices. I retired from the F.B X as Senior Special Agent-In- Charge of the Los Angeles Field Office of the F.B.1. with over 700 employees and a budget of over 22 million dollars in 1979. *

Though the Ted Gunderson page here does not appear on PatriotOrTraitor.com I have added that color scheme to match him in his mission and his murder to the mission and murder of Jen Moore both of whom found their life histories on a matter of world events would cross both their public and private sector work.

Although Ted Gunderson died in retirement he was murdered in connection with his government job and the lawfull performance of that office in defense of the United States and NWO victims such as myself.

Born: November 7, 1928, Colorado Springs, CO Died: July 31, 2011

Born November 7, 1928, Colorado Springs, CO, likely knew of or had connections to Missile Command and Cheyenne Mountains, Aurora.

He asserted the FBI CIA and others were poisoning and Gangstalking him.

Since his retirement from the FBI in the 1979, Gunderson has been a Southern California- based private investigator. He is most noted for his defense work on the murder case involving former Army physician Dr. Jeffrey MacDonald.

The ex-FBI official's comments represent the most compelling testimony to date indicating that "black operations" of the federal government are dedicated to waging a covert war of terror and persecution targeting American citizens.

"Based on my thirty years' experience and research, I have determined there are thousands of victims who have been targeted by an illegal U.S. government rogue criminal enterprise - military intelligence, probably, tied into CIA and FBI and so forth - that is active 24 hours a day throughout the United States," Gunderson stated in an October 2008 speech posted last fall on YouTube.

youtube.com/watch?v=o6MRciqml9I

NOTE: It appears that the link to the Ted Gunderson YouTube video has been sabotaged. Please search "Ted Gunderson" and "YouTube" and look for the link to his speech at the Gulf Symposium. I believe this is more blatantly illegal and malicious interference with telecommunications by operatives of Lockheed Martin, under contract to U.S. Homeland-mil-intel, or another entity representing the agencies, commands and corporations of the U.S. fusion center network.

TARGETED JUSTICE

The CIA has a long history of helping to kill leaders around the world

https://www.theguardian.com/ *

According to North Korea's ministry of state security, the CIA has not abandoned its old ways. In a statement on Friday, it accused that the CIA and South Korea's intelligence service of being behind an alleged recent an assassination attempt on its leader Kim Jong-un. [Fidel Castro displays murder plot headline Close but no cigar: how America failed to kill Fidel Castro]

The attempt, according to the ministry, involved "the use of biochemical substances including radioactive substance and nano poisonous substance" and the advantage of this was it "does not require access to the target (as) their lethal results will appear after six or 12 months".

... the US never totally abandoned the strategy, simply changing the terminology from assassination to targeted killings, from aerial bombing of presidents to drone attacks on alleged terrorist leaders. Aerial bomb attempts on leaders included Libya's Muammar Gaddafi in 1986, Serbia's Slobodan Milosevic in 1999 and Iraqi president Saddam Hussein in 2003.

- "The CIA formed ISIS." - Wayne Madsen, former Naval Officer and NSA Officer
- "The CIA is funding ISIS through secret Swiss Bank accounts." - Dr Scott Bennett, Army Intelligence Officer
- "There is no al-Qaeda. The so called al-Qaeda that we see are actually with Mossad & CIA ...trained mercenary gangs" - Robin Cook, British Foreign Secretary
- The CIA and FBI "are behind most, if not all terrorism." - Ted Gunderson, former FBI Chief
- "The CIA owns everyone of any significance in the major media." - William Colby, former CIA Director (Dead under suspicious circumstances trying to out the Family Jewels program)

Free Masons promote political participation

Upon graduating from Georgetown in 1968, Clinton won a Rhodes Scholarship to University College, Oxford, where he initially read for a B.Phil. in philosophy, politics, and economics but transferred to a B.Litt. in politics and, ultimately, a B.Phil. in politics.[20] Clinton did not expect to return for the second year because of the draft and so he switched programs; this type of activity was common among other Rhodes Scholars from his cohort. He had received an offer to study at Yale Law School, Yale University, and so he left early to return to the United States and did not receive a degree from Oxford.[11][21][22]

Patomic Fever

Beware catching Potomac FeverRobert UnderwoodFor PDN * carried in USA Today

Potomac Fever is that overwhelming sense of attraction to power by crossing the Potomac River into Washington D.C. It's that invigorating feeling that you are at the center of power and a potential mover and shaker. You look at the monuments, visit the Capitol Building and go to the museums. You don't think you are Franklin Roosevelt or Ronald Reagan, but you start to think you know them.

Jul 24 1963 Bill Clinton Meets President John F. Kennedy through the American Legion free masons program Boys Nation

Bill Clinton and Cohen were among 100 teenage boys representing their home states in an American Legion program, Boys Nation. They spent a week in Washington visiting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, holding mock elections, debating issues and passing legislation.

David Dean Rusk (February 9, 1909 - December 20, 1994) was the United States Secretary of State from 1961 to 1969 under presidents John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson. He had been a high government official in the 1940s and early 1950s, as well as the head of a leading foundation.

Born to a poor farm family in Cherokee County, Georgia, Secretary of State Dean Rusk graduated from Davidson College and was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University, where he immersed himself in English history and customs. After teaching college in California he taught at Mills College he became an army officer in the war against Japan. He served as a staff officer in the China Burma India Theater, becoming a senior aide to Joseph Stilwell, the top American general. As a civilian he became a senior official in 1945 at the State Department, rising to the number three position under Dean Acheson. He became Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs in 1950. In 1952, Rusk left to became president of the *Rockefeller Foundation.

Notable Events July 4, 1963 (Thursday)

CONSTITUTION OF AUSTRIA

The Constitution of Austria was amended to ease the 1919 act that had declared that “In the interest of the security of the Republic the former holders of the Crown and other members of the House of Habsburg-Lothringen are banished from the country”, providing an exception for descendants of the former monarchs if they elected to “expressly renounce their membership of this House”.[11]

BIRTH OF CHRISTOPHER G. KENNEDY

Christopher G. Kennedy, U.S. businessman, in Boston, to Robert F. Kennedy and Ethel Skakel Kennedy, the eighth of their eleven children

When does the CIA or OSS or big name politicians find themselves with something to hide?

It is my theory in writing this book and analyzing the attacks on me including Directed Energy Weapons (Dirty bombs by source materials exposure or directed energy from source materials) and other harassment of me.

It is my theory Colin and Alma Powell were part of this as were the Prescott Bush, George H.W. Bush bush family members, co-ordinating CIA backed oil, defense, and business ventures around the world and using American Legion and other ex military for hits to support doing business in places hostile to US businesses.

Google knowledge panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Colin Luther Powell is an American politician, diplomat and retired four-star general who served as the 65th United States Secretary of State from 2001 to 2005. Powell was the first African-American Secretary of State.

Born: APRIL 5, 1937 Harlem, New York, NY

This included grooming leaders for Indonesian ques like Barrack Obama and also assignations of unfriendly sovereign, this was Project Pegasus in which Columbia University Manhattan New York on the Columbia river planned out Barrack Obama’s career, back by republican Colin Powell.

In the 2008 time frame Barrack Obama was coming to power, probably backed by the Bush family, and it was similar to the Business Plot, but continued as Operation 40 with long term groomed leaders groomed as “the families” of elite societies and government secret programs.

February 18 dog whistle Jean name

Dear Ms. Taitz.

I have been monitoring your efforts at a distance reference the eligibility of Barack Obama to serve as POTUS. I see that you are now filing suit reference his many SSNs.

I have a copy of Obama’s selective service card with the SSN affixed. I, as a small business owner have access to the Social Security Number Verification System. As a result, I checked the SSNVS for the SSN Obama used for registering with Selective Service. The SSNVS search resulted in a report sheet that states that number Obama used to register for Selective Service was never issued.

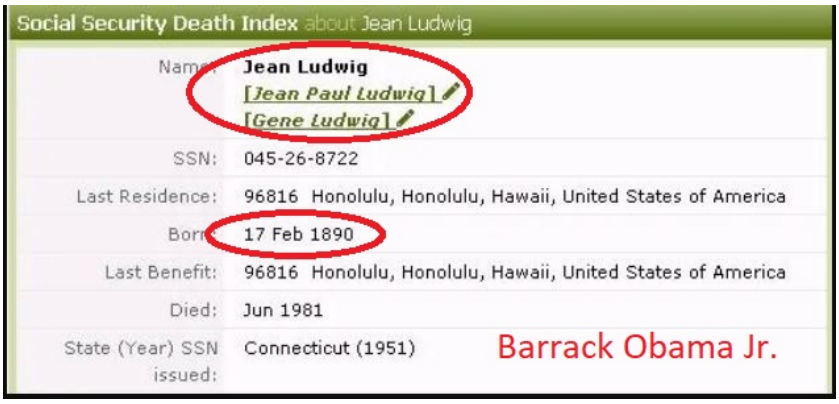
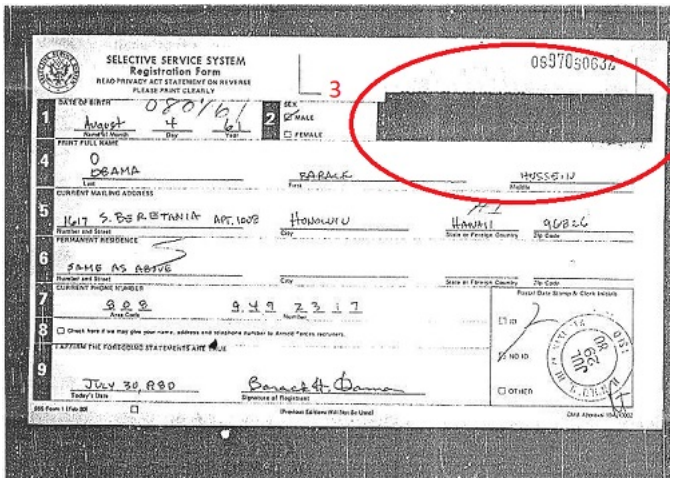
Let me be direct i have not agreed with many of your tactics in this endeavor. However, I have continued to follow your efforts to see where there may be synergy and this is one.



Therefore if you think the documents will be helpful, please let me know and I will send you the PDF files for both the Selective Service Card and the SSNVS report that states that SSN was never issued.



Sincerely

Greg Hollister

Gregory S. Hollister, Colonel, USAF, Retired, President, Hollister Enterprises, LLC2

A Colorado Springs “birther,” retired Air Force Col. Gregory Hollister, has Internet blogs abuzz with what may be an illegal foray into an online Social Security data base and how he obtained a copy of President Barack Obama’s draft registration from 1980.

“Col. Greg Hollister, USAF (Ret.) contacted the Selective Service, falsely impersonated President Obama, improperly registered his own address as President Obama’s address, and by this false impersonation and identity theft he managed to obtain a duplicate registration acknowledgement card with President Obama’s Selective Service information on it,” a blogger posted on gratewire.com last week. “This may violate several federal criminal statutes, and apparently caused the federal record of President Obama’s address with the Selective Service to be altered to show that he lives in Colorado Springs, CO.” *

Greg Hollister: Conceived and led test and evaluation effort to augment the Air Force Satellite Control Network with commercial services. Direct interface with SMC, HQ AFSPC and 50th Space Wing. Authored paper projecting the military space market and Co-authored paper projecting the military and commercial space markets.

United States Air Force Academy, Degree Name BS Degrees Field Of Study Management and Economics Activities and Societies: Intramural boxing, football, soccer, water polo, basketball BS Management/BS Economics

United States Air Force Academy Developing leaders of character for the nation’s Air and Space Forces

Cheyene Mountains and NORAD

In 2008 my father had cancer in his groin entering his lymph nodes, Gunderson said he was poisoned, my mother Glorian in odd and suspicious reported events had ovary surgery, and Brittany Spears got gangstalked and held incompetent FEB 20 and in that time Briana took over the song Umbrella and it referenced the Rockefeller and MKULTRA like program to bring up the economies of g5 countries.

I think this all ties to brain research and picking and chosing future leaders, and hiding those with similar brain genes from the success which would otherwise identify them.

> MEMPHIS, Tenn . - The son of former FBI special agent Ted Gunderson, who was head of the bureau’s office in Memphis during a long career, says his father has died at the age of 82.
>
> Greg Gunderson tells The Associated Press that his father died of cancer July 31 [a few days shout of AUGUST 4 2011] at his home in Memphis. Gunderson said his father worked on high-profile cases such as the death of Marilyn Monroe, the assassination of President John Kennedy, and

> He would also as an FBI and also as a private attorney upon retirement work on numerous cases including the JFK assassination, Mc Martin child abuse case of Manhattan Beach, California, with odd CIA activities testing children in odd secret ways in carefully hidden testing areas.
>
> I think these were were sleeper agenst were tested by people like Donald Barr and Sidney Gotlieb and Obama was among the various child developement studies going on at Manhattan Beach California
>
> Also in Colorado Springs NORAD NORCOM home of Ted Gunderson
>
> Jerome Archibald Gunderson [Father of Ted Gunderson] BIRTH Jun 16 1898 South Dakota, USA DEATH AUG 3 1951 (aged 53)
>
> At Any Price movie person caught in farming web while racing cars?
>
> Jerome A. “Jerry” Gunderson, 54, former owner of the Motor Parts company in Lincoln, died Wednesday morning in St. Paul, Minn. After living in Lincoln for about six years, Gunderson was transferred by the Ramco company to Madison, Wis., where he lived for over a year prior to his death. He had previously lived in Iowa City, Ia., Kansas City, Denver, and Colorado Springs. He was a native of South Dakota.
>
> He was a member of the First Presbyterian church and Elks while in Lincoln. Funeral services will be held here.
>
> He is survived by his wife, Blanche; a daughter, Joan, and a son, Ted. Another son, Jerry, Jr., was killed during World War II in the European theater. He was in the Army Air Corps.

The Lincoln Star, Lincoln, NE, Thur, AUG 2, 1951

The Lincoln Star, Lincoln, NE, Sat, AUG 4, 1951 Contributor: Kathy Monical (49101662)

USNORTHCOM's specific mission:

United States Northern Command Defends Our Homeland - Deters, detects, and defeats threats to the United States, conducts security cooperation activities with allies and partners, and supports civil authorities.

USNORTHCOM's AOR includes air, land and sea approaches and encompasses the continental United States, Alaska, Canada, Mexico and the surrounding water out to approximately 500 nautical miles. It also includes the Gulf of Mexico, the Straits of Florida, portions of the Caribbean region to include The Bahamas, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The commander of USNORTHCOM is responsible for theater security cooperation with Canada, Mexico, and The Bahamas.

NORAD PETERSON AIR FORCE BASE, Colo.

North American Aerospace Defense Command F-22 fighter aircraft, supported by KC-135 air refuelers, intercepted three groups of two Tu-142 Russian maritime patrol aircraft that entered the Alaskan Air Defense Identification Zone late last night.

NORAD employs a layered defense network of radars, satellites, and fighter aircraft to identify aircraft and determine the appropriate response. The identification and monitoring of aircraft entering a US or Canadian ADIZ demonstrates how NORAD executes its aerospace warning and aerospace control missions for the United States and Canada.

"Our northern approaches have had an increase in foreign military activity as our competitors continue to expand their military presence and probe our defenses," said General Glen D. VanHerck, commander of NORAD. "This year, we've conducted more than a dozen intercepts, the most in recent years. The importance of our continued efforts to project air defense operations in and through the north has never been more apparent."

Operation NOBLE EAGLE is the name given to all air sovereignty and air defense missions in North America. NORAD is a binational command focused on the defense of both the U.S. and Canada, the response to potential aerospace threats does not distinguish between the two nations, and draws on forces from both countries.

June 22, 2011. Number. 458. Captured. James Joseph "Whitey" Bulger Jr. later silenced by mob hit to keep him from talking.

US investigating possible mysterious directed energy attack near White House last year retrieved from KSL.com and copied or modified to here originally by By Katie Bo Williams and Jeremy Herb, CNN | Updated - Apr. 29, 2021

WASHINGTON (CNN) - Federal agencies are investigating at least two possible incidents on U.S. soil [including inside United States FMC Butner prison facility I should not have been under arrest and held in] , including one near the White House in November of last year, that appear similar to mysterious, invisible attacks that have led to debilitating symptoms for dozens of U.S. personnel abroad.

Multiple sources familiar with the matter tell CNN that while the Pentagon and other agencies probing the matter have reached no clear conclusions on what happened, the fact that such an attack might have taken place so close to the White House is particularly alarming.

Defense officials briefed lawmakers on the Senate and House Armed Services Committees on the matter earlier this month, including on the incident near the White House. That incident, which occurred near the Ellipse, the large oval lawn on the south side of the White House, sickened one National Security Council official, according to multiple current and former U.S. officials and sources familiar with the matter.

In a separate 2019 episode, a White House official reported a similar attack while walking her dog in a Virginia suburb just outside Washington, GQ reported last year.

Those sickened reported similar symptoms to CIA and State Department personnel impacted overseas, and officials quickly began to investigate the incident as a possible “Havana syndrome” attack. That name refers to unexplained symptoms that U.S. personnel in Cuba began experiencing in late 2016 - a varying set of complaints that includes ear-popping, vertigo, pounding headaches and nausea, sometimes accompanied by an unidentified “piercing directional noise.”

Rumors have long swirled around Washington about similar incidents within the United States. While the recent episodes around Washington appear similar to the previous apparent attacks affecting diplomats, CIA officers and other U.S. personnel serving in Cuba, Russia and China, investigators have not determined whether the puzzling incidents at home are connected to those that have occurred abroad or who may be behind them, sources tell CNN.

Miller said he began to see reports of these mysterious symptoms as a higher priority in December, after interviewing an alleged victim with extensive combat experience.

“When this officer came in and I knew his background and he explained in an extraordinarily detailed but more military-style that I could understand, I was like this is actually for real,” Miller said. “This kid had been in combat a bunch and he knew.”

The CIA began its task force in December 2020, and expanded its efforts under new Director William Burns, who vowed during his confirmation hearings to review the evidence on the alleged [FBI, CIA, and US Military] attacks on CIA personnel overseas [possibly in conjuction with US Dept of State security actors], which have long been publicly reported. The State Department named a senior official to lead the department’s response to the “Havana syndrome” attacks in March.

The Defense Department’s effort is thought to be among the most robust, potentially explaining why a defense official, rather than the intelligence community or the FBI, briefed lawmakers on the incident at the Ellipse, even though it took place on U.S. soil.

[a] Syria episode highlights the difficulties that U.S. officials face in trying to pin down what is and isn’t an attack. The symptoms often vary, and officials still have no clear sense of how the unknown adversary is doing what it’s doing. At least one former U.S. official with knowledge of the matter said that investigators still haven’t completely ruled out the possibility that the symptoms are caused by some kind of naturally occurring phenomenon rather than a weapon.

Happy “Official” Birthday Queen Elizabeth II! (Her “real” birthday is April 21.) The Queen of Hollywood met the Queen of England on October 29, 1956 while attending the Royal Command Performance of the film Battle of the River Plate

Glorian Donegan also born in 1926.

Google knowledge panel retrieved from Marilyn Monroe American actress and copied or modified to here

Marilyn Monroe was an American actress, model, and singer. Famous for playing comedic “blonde bombshell” characters, she became one of the most popular sex symbols of the 1950s and early 1960s and was emblematic of the era’s sexual revolution.

Born: June 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4, 1962, Brentwood, Los Angeles, CA

D State Aanlytis

GIbbson Island *

Our interest in Gibson Island started when a crowd-sourced effort noted that Robert S. Mueller III was a Summer resident, as was his father (the “2nd”) and grandfather (the “1st”.)

Since our first look almost four years ago, we have discovered a plethora of “coup-plotters”, “eugenics-promoters”, “false-flag fellows”, “assassination planners”, “cold-war conspirators” and other nefarious characters made their Summer home on Gibson Island or were members of the Gibson Island Club. [Guarded and gated Gibson Island only has about 150 homes now, and had only about 50 through the early 1960s, so we feel comfortable assuming most everybody knew each other.

If the “Deep State” was in the form of an international corporation’s organizational chart, quite a few of Gibson Island’s residents would be represented as Deep State board members, owners, or have “C” Suite positions in the “Deep State Parent Co.”

What’s In A Name? Or a calander date? Nov 18 Dec 13 Aug 4 and 1926
Name	Interesting Element	Possible Meaning	Intere Da

Queen Mother, mother of Elizabeth II			Born Au
Jean Paul “Gene” Ludwig BIRTH 17 Feb 1890 France DEATH 19 Jun 1981	Audubon Invasion? Jean was born in France in 1890, emigrated to the United States in 1924, and was assigned SSN 042-68-4425 in or about March, 1977	1977 Arnold in Streets of San Francisco, 1924 Wembley time frame, 1890 gene appears	Barrack Obama someth 1977
Queen Elizabeth II	Queen of Diamonds, Family Jewels, Manchurian Candidate in the USA she controls with the CIA and DARPA		BMarrie Prince I Novem
Lael or Gael what will be needed? Lael Brainard (born January 1, 1962) is an American economist who has served on the Federal Reserve Board of Governors since 2014. She previously served as the United States Under Secretary of the Treasury for International Affairs from 2010 to 2013. JOANNE ELEGANT WED; She Is Bride Upstate of Lieut Alfred P. Brainard, Army [SIGINT] Special to The New York Times. Sept. 2, 1956	Brainard, January 1, Wesleyan University in 1983, West German 1962 Intel Community, Diplomacy
Leslianne Shedd Shedd	Ann and “Shedd”	Anne, Princess Royal is the second child and only daughter of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, Shedd could be those not officially from Windsor family but known of out of wedlock	Born in Died No
Gene “Chip” Tatum	The name Gene	Born into and describes Project Pegasus special forces

		work, Colin Powell, Oli North, and related assasinations programs
Eve Meyer (born Evelyn EUGENE Turner died) ROBINA van Lanschot refused to reboard and was sole survivor of KLM. * The pilot of Flight 4805 was Jacob van Zanten, one of KLM's most experienced flyers. But on March 27, 1977, senior the pilot who had logged more than 11,000 hours in the cockpit made a mistake that still baffles aviation experts today.	Girls named Eugene	Evelyn EUGENE Turner December 13, 1928 - March 27, 1977)[1] was an American pin-up model, motion picture actress, and film producer. Much of her work was done in conjunction with sexploitation filmmaker Russ Meyer, to whom she was married from 1952 to 1969. She was killed in the Tenerife airport disaster in 1977.	Near Ap Canary Islands 543 pe dead as KLM plane a Pan plane DAC m profile: Netherl KLM Netherl Membe the OE Develo Assista Commi (DAC) s 1961
Julian Assange	Many Julius Julian Julius or July names	Born July 3 1971	Mitoch wiped b tube tu his hair NSA GC faked c prisone
Norma Jean	Normal Genes	Born in 1926, perhaps Three Tramps, Glorian, Victoria Windsor, or Dick Windsor, or others.	Born 19 died Au
Kristen Jean MacDonald	Like Norma Jean, killed by CIA, motichondria stolen from investigation. Investigage by Ted Gunderson, killed by the CIA.	Clone of Windsor Kutscheras	Feb 17 Chicag Columb Unviers

			died Fo Bragg M
Chelsea Victoria Clinton	(born February 27, 1980)
Robert Swan Mueller III	Swan (bird - ornathology and eggs, III 3rd grandson or grandaughter) Mueller was born on August 7, 1944, at Doctors Hospital in the New York City borough of Manhattan,[10][11] the first child of Alice C. Truesdale (1920-2007) and Robert Swan Mueller, Jr. (1916-2007). His father was an executive with DuPont who had served as a Navy officer in the Atlantic and Mediterranean theaters during World War II.[12] His father majored in psychology at Princeton University and played varsity lacrosse, both of which he followed	August 7, 1944 in the birthday week of August 4	A gradu Princet Univers and Ne Univers Mueller served Marine officer the Vie War, receivi Bronze for her and a P Heart. I subseq attende Univers Virginia School Mueller registe Republi Washin D.C., a appoint and reappo to Sena confirm position preside George Bush, E Clinton George Bush, a Barack Obama
Singer from Italy Sonny “Jean” Bono was born in Detroit	Bono was born in Detroit to Santo Bono (born in Montelepre, Palermo, Italy) and	Bono decided early in life to	Bono marrie times.

Died of massive head injury skiing, said to have hit a tree	Zena “Jean” Bono (née DiMercurio). The accident occurred when Bono left his family to ski alone on the afternoon of January 5 1998. He was reported missing several hours later, and his body was found that evening. Police said Bono had skied into a wooded area and hit a tree; the cause of death was massive head injuries.	become part of the music business, and began writing songs as a teenager.[5] “Koko Joe”, a song he wrote at age 16, was recorded by Don and Dewey in 1958, and later covered by several other artists including The Righteous Brothers.[6] Bono attended Inglewood High School, but did not graduate, opting to drop out so he could begin to pursue a career as a songwriter and performer.	marrie first wi Donna Rankin Novem 1954. daught Christi (“Chris was bo June 2 JULY 4] They divorce 1962.
Britney Spears	Britney (btw whattup with https://treykennedy.com/music/ Born Nov 17 1992)	Organized Stalk melts her down it appears THEN new Hostile Trust roadblocks her to Under My Umbrella and is rewritten to Rihanna Barbadian singer Rockefeller and OECD work Umbrella Man with the Umbrella and	Feb 20, commit psych w attacks Donega Gunder Rihann Barbad singer Februa 1988 ta over so written spears rewritte Rihann about work

		JFK murder? Three Tramps?
Brittany Murphy	Brittany	Girl Interrupted movie, Borderline Personality Disorder, suspicious death maybe poisoned Born Nov 10 1977 Atlanta Georgia,	Died: Decem 2009,
Glorian Donegan	Ann	Princess like Anne	Feb 20 18 Dec 1926 S Identity family l promis keep fo Edward Donega safety i return
Brit Hume American journalist	Brit graduated St. Albans School (STA) is an independent college preparatory day and boarding school for boys in grades 4-12, located in Washington, D.C.[2] The school is named after Saint Alban, traditionally regarded as the first British martyr. Founded in 1909 St. Albans had the 11th-highest success rate in placing graduates at 10 selective universities.	Sotts Heritage, British Military, Sandhurst Military namesake of Sandy Hume?	Sandy dead Fe 1998 ir Maryla Malia A Obama born JU 1998
Edward Donegan	Edward (Ned)	I have been told I was a grandson of an abdicated King, likely King Edward VIII with same FOXP2 gene	Feb 20 18 birth 19 Birth Certific Dec 13 Glorian Donega birthda
Malcom X and also his Shabazz and Little named relatives arrested or dead at anums	X of XY, Y is Glorian Donegan, FBI selected GLorian and Malcom X	Shabazz and Little other Malcom X family names, changed at	Feb 20 1962 d over th place ir magazi time FBI recruited him. Malcom X wrote FBI I think and FBI had a file on him, FBI might have decided he could be used as an asset inside the system for a long term goal	dead o Februa France

Barrack Obama Jr	Named changed from BHO for some possible reason	Wears Aristocrats clothing on November 19 portrait possible connected by painter to Bone Marrow and medicine	I think Nov 18 13, clai Aug 4 b Life Ma 1961 A mos sh from Fe marriag concep Madely Payne Dunhar
Antony Blinken 	Is son of Jewish Poles. Consider Manchurian Candidate 1962 and Mossad, England assassinate JFK DOJ Biden Kamala Harris appointee uses ABLinken (Abe Lincoln) as band name)	Blinken was born on April 16, 1962, in Yonkers, New York, to Jewish parents, Judith (Frehm) and Donald M. Blinken, the former United States Ambassador to Hungary.[	Born: A 6 (16), (age 59 years), Yonkers
Tom Cruise	Cruise Missiles	In the movie Minority Report and keeping or destroying files about what might happen in future crimes.	Born Ju 1962, y movie Manchu Candid 1962, Indepe Day it s but in Minorit Report, Precog

			William were destroy some fi about t future, keepin elsehw 58 min during Hydran genetic horticu At 1:23 wonder thing it be a Pr and sto conven policin needs, perhap Precog sort of Princed
Victoia Windsor	Victoria and Windsor	Ancestry researcher working with Micheal Hastings on Colubia University (MKULTRA) connected history of the 44th President, Project Pegasus
Victorias Secret	Victoria and Secret	Ghislaine Maxwell 25 December 1961 British Socialite tied to Epstien Brain Foundation research, yacht with large Rear End is yacht the Lady Ghislaine	awaitin Suicide federal detenti facility. Beware Quad o August
Jeffrey Eugenides	Eugenics, Jeffries Tube?	Wrote “The Bastar” and possible as The Bastard Children. Plot for move The Switch is when semen used wrongly, the personality of the born reveals true genetic origins by personality characteristics, behavioral observations

Joseph Robinette Biden Jr. (POTUS) was born November 20, 1942,[1] at St. Mary’s Hospital in Scranton, Pennsylvania,[2] to Catherine Eugenia “Jean” Biden (née Finnegan) and Joseph Robinette Biden Sr.[3][	Birds and Eggs?Audobon? Eugenia “Jean” Biden?	Neilia Hunter Biden (July 28, 1942 - December 18, 1972) was an American teacher and the first wife of Joe Biden, the 46th and current president of the United States. She died in a car crash in 1972 along with her one-year-old daughter, Naomi. Her two sons, Beau and Hunter, were critically injured but survived the wreck.	Born Novem 1942, f wife an other d car cra 18 197
Jonestown	Common generic name for US citizens	The settlement became internationally known when, on November 18, 1978, a total of 918[1] [2] people died, invstigated as CIA race	Novem research site for new peace outlook

Catherine Eugenia Finnegan	Eugenia	Long term Eugenics twins studies, POTUS Biden mother
Three Tramps	Some reference to the Kings Daghters?
Sidonie-Gabrielle Colette (French: [kɔ.lɛt]; 28 January 1873 - 3 August 1954), known mononymously as Colette, was a French author and woman of letters. She was nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1948 and was also known as a mime, actress, and journalist. Colette is best remembered for her 1944 novella Gigi, which was the basis for the 1958 film and the 1973 stage production of the same name.		Colette as a girl's name is pronounced ko-LET. It is of French origin, and the meaning of Colette is "people of victory".
Colette MacDonald (née StevensonO) wife of Dr .Jeffery McDonald who attended Columbia University Presbyterian Medical	Colette married, not Penny Wells	Colette as a girl's name is pronounced ko-LET. It is of French origin, and the meaning of Colette is "people of victory".
Roger Eugene Ailes	May 15, 1940 May 18, 2017	He married his third wife Elizabeth Tilson (born 1960) on FEBRUARY 14, 1998 Novermber 18th termination deal reached Head injury
Thomas Crane Wales (2006 anonymous confession of murder, 2006-2007 time frame after 2001 murder)	Crane (Bird)(Crane Group, CIA) Prince of Wales King Edward VIII (Not York) Queen Ann Seattle, "gidgt or "gadget?"	On August 3, 2001, Wales's office filed a response to	An AUS could g the ma cartel, Anderson's lawsuit in federal district court. " Cloning research associated date	they co kill him near th Vegas F Ground

The "Gadget" was the implosion plutonium device detonated in the Trinity Test in July 1945 Manhattan Project scientists had to overcome difficult scientific and engineering challenges design and build the Gadget.
Wilbur Crane Eveland was an intelligence agent known for his work with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in the Middle East. He was born on July 1, 1918, in Spokane, Washington	Crane, July 4, CIA Overthrows, Indonesia, Obama, 1962	Aug 4 Creates Obama for Suherto Group to overthrow indonesia

In 1940, Eveland joined the United States Army, where in January 1941 he was recruited as an agent for the Corps of Intelligence Police, later known as the Counter Intelligence Corps.

From 1959 to 1961 (MENA AIrport established), Eveland was on CIA assignment to Rome, Italy, under cover as a Vinnell Corporation engineering company executive in charge of petroleum related construction, maintenance, and training projects in the Middle East and Africa. In 1962, he resigned from the CIA to become the vice president of Vinnell, although he was retained as an unpaid consultant to the CIA to maintain his security clearances. In the 1970s, Eveland worked as a consultant for various companies in the petroleum industry.

In 1986 Eveland sued (was at odds with) the later existing CIA and its director at the time, William J. Casey over the conduct of the United States Government and its policies in the Middle East. Others named in the suit included Richard Helms, William E. Colby, Kermit Roosevelt Sr., Archibald B. Roosevelt, Henry Kissinger, Robert McFarlane, James J. Angleton and George P. Shultz. The suit was dismissed in April 1988.

What is the meaning of name Britney?

Google People Also Ask panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

What is the meaning of the name Britney? The name Britney is primarily a female name of English origin that means From Great Britain. Britney Spears, singer.

Britney's father Jamie filed court documents on Tuesday, June 29, asking Judge Brenda Penny to open an investigation into the "serious allegations" raised by his daughter in court. Britney claimed at last week's hearing, among other things, that she was forced to go on tour; put on lithium medication that she didn't want to be on and which left her impaired and scared; and taken away to a facility where she felt she "couldn't walk out the front door." Spears said she felt like she had her personal liberty taken away and wanted her IUD removed so that she could have more children, but was not permitted to do so.

In his court documents, Jamie now says he wants to find out whether Britney's claims are accurate. He told the court that he has "worked tirelessly to manage and protect" his daughter and her estate since he was appointed her conservator in 2008. Now, he believes "it is important for the integrity of the conservatorships and in the best interest of Ms. Spears for the court to order an investigation into the issues and claims" raised by Britney. If her claims are true, then "corrective action must be taken," and if not, then the conservatorship "can continue its course," according to his legal petition filed.

Wright said it has always been Montgomery's mission to "assist and encourage Britney in her path to no longer needing a conservatorship of the person." The statement also notes that there is nothing standing in the way of Britney's right to marriage or to have children, and that Montgomery is standing by ready to assist her with either: "Britney's choice to marry and to start a family have never been impacted by the conservatorship while Ms. Montgomery has been the conservator of the person."

A Bipolar desire to have a child *

Jodi [a conservator seemingly approved of by Spears though at odds with Jamie] filed her docs on Wednesday, claiming that she has been receiving threats of violence and death since Britney's explosive court statement in June. In the docs, Jodi asked for 24/7 security to be paid for by the estate, and claimed that Jamie was OK with such a request.

Per the most recent docs, though, while Jamie "is very concerned" about the "dangerous rhetoric" and "increasing number of threatening communications and social media posts" directed at people involved in Britney's case, he "objects to Ms. Montgomery's request for 24/7 live security services for herself at a cost of over $50,000 per month to the Conservatorship Estate for an indefinite period of time."

The docs allege that Jodi "has not provided sufficient detail, specific facts, or special circumstances to justify such an expense," additionally claiming that she "improperly and inexplicably seeks to shift the burden of ensuring her safety" to Jamie.

In the docs, Jamie's lawyers note that Jodi is not the only person involved in the case who has received such threats, pointing to Jamie himself and Britney's former court-appointed lawyer, Sam Ingham, as others who have experienced similar things.

LESLIANNE SHEDD, 1968-1996 Leslianne Shedd, who fulfilled a lifelong ambition to work in foreign service by joining the U.S. State Department right after graduating from the Jackson School of International Studies, died Nov. 24, 1996, in the crash of a hijacked Ethiopian Airlines jet, which fell into the Indian Ocean off the Comoros Islands

From: @EddoneganB to: @britneyspears via Twitter

if this can be done you and Jamie study #gangstalking #OrganizedStalks #TargetedIndividuals and how things vaguely but menacingly out of the ordinary are paid actors who do cause a sense of concern in the stalked person. Others activities distort viewer perceptions

@britneyspears @sftomdunham NOT CRAZY, NOT SEEING THINGS, rather experiencing out of place things by hostile parties goading, stalking, harrassing, menacing you you, even knowing things they shouldn't or woudln't know, and TAUNTING that! https://www.surveillancesurvivors.org/targeted-publications.html

Lawford Shrivers Connection

Google knowledge panel retrieved from Sargent Shriver Former United States Ambassador to France and copied or modified to here

Robert Sargent Shriver Jr. was an American diplomat, politician and activist. As the husband of Eunice Kennedy Shriver, he was part of the Kennedy family. Wikipedia Born: November 9, 1915, Westminster, MD Died: January 18, 2011, Bethesda, MD

Shriver was the driving force behind the creation of the Peace Corps, and founded the Job Corps, Head Start, VISTA (With the Herman Edward Butt family), Upward Bound, and other programs

RD.COM True Stories Bombshell: Documents Throw New Light on Marilyn Monroe's Death

Monroe was drawn to powerful men and keenly interested in politics. She had had an on-off dalliance with John Kennedy since before his election in 1960 and met Robert just before her 1962 Mexico trip, at the Santa Monica home of the brothers' sister Pat and her actor husband Peter Lawford. Knowing Robert would be present, she brought with her a prepared list of political talking points, which they discussed at length. "Bobby was enthralled," recalled guest Joan Braden

These little-known facts will change your perspective [on the FBI CIA murder of Marilyn Monroe in 1962].

July of 1962 was a tense time for the United States and the entire world, a period of perilous confrontation between the West and Communist nations. The Soviet Union declared that it would defend China against any attacker. Americans had begun to die in Vietnam. And in tests that month, the U.S. detonated a series of advanced nuclear bombs.

July of 1962 was a tense time for the United States and the entire world, a period of perilous confrontation between the West and Communist nations. The Soviet Union declared that it would defend China against any attacker. Americans had begun to die in Vietnam. And in tests that month, the U.S. detonated a series of advanced nuclear bombs.

On July 26 an official of the FBI's Domestic Intelligence Division - the counterespionage department - filed a cryptic note at headquarters in Washington based on reports from agents in Mexico City: "Info received from informants [names deleted] advised Marilyn Monroe attended a luncheon at the residence of Peter Lawford with President Kennedy. Informants characterized Monroe's views as positively and concisely leftist."

JFK at Lawfords Shrivers Peace Corps VISTA Schwartzeneger family, 2 year anum until JFK dead, and Marylin Monroe was poltically active with Lawfords Srivers, Sargent Shriver, Peace Corp and VISTA Program. Also my bith Edward Paul Donegan to James and Glorian Donegan and I think Barrack Obama Jr. too, the exprimental money Donald Barr is holding in a white house photo three days later.

Happy Birthday Mr. President

The performance at JFK's 45 birthday was one of Marilyn Monroe's last major public appearances before her death less than three months later on AUGUST 4, 1962. First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy, who rarely attended Democratic Party events, spent the day at the Loudon Hunt Horse Show with her children, John and Caroline.

The song contained a reference to siezure of US Steel perhaps Youngstown and what was sized from the Stanley Armour Dunham when he was caught steeling Boeing B-29 plans in WWII in hopes of getting them to Nazi Germany, caught by Madelyn Lee Payne CIA agent who "married" Stanley Armour Dunham for a few fake childbirth years, Stanely Ann Dunham the daughter in debt.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

On July 26 an official of the FBI's Domestic Intelligence Division - the counterespionage department - filed a cryptic note at headquarters in Washington based on reports from agents in Mexico City: "Info received from informants [names deleted] advised Marilyn Monroe attended a luncheon at the residence of Peter Lawford with President Kennedy. Informants characterized Monroe's views as positively and concisely leftist."

This strange document and others filed under Marilyn Monroe - Security Matter - C (the "C" stood for Communist) were to be withheld by the U.S. government for more than 40 years. Behind them lies a disquieting story that began five months earlier in an exotic foreign city.

Marilyn Monroe in a possible hit-job done by Behavioral Healthcare was placed in an institution and treated as though she were insane as she looked around and said there was NO REASON for her to be there and she was unlike other people in the institution, a regular event for me Edward Paul Donegan, at least 20 Psych Ward hit jobs on me setup by Gangstalk and systems of railroading, and I think Brittany Spears and Justina Pellatier too.

JFK Photo ARCHIVES MAN (Donald Barr) WITH A RESEARCH MONKEY AT A WHITE HOUSE BIRTHDAY PARTY 11/22/1861 back fro Inglewood California Nov 19 1961

A bookend piece on Edward Paul Donegan III my being a descendent of a King Edward via a Rodin sendup called Rheinhold's Affe mit Schädel and a few days after my birthday these two statues in my home, one in the Whitehouse

Another thing JFK may have disliked about the CIA FBI is their killing of Marylin Monroe because she knew about this little scene above in Santa Monica JFK also knew about.

Joseph Gargan retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Joe Gargan.jpg First Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts

Joseph F. Gargan Jr. (February 16, 1930 - DECEMBER 12, 2017) was an American lawyer and a nephew of Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy. He was one of only two men, along with Paul Markham, in whom Ted Kennedy chose to confide immediately after the Chappaquiddick automobile accident which killed Mary Jo Kopechne. Orphaned at the age of sixteen, Gargan spent two consecutive summers with the Kennedys, and being closer in age to Ted than the other Kennedy brothers were, developed a close relationship with his cousin Ted. Gargan was the campaign chairman for Robert F. Kennedy's 1968 presidential campaign.

Elsewhere in this book

`

http://www.arkdiscovery.com/ron_wyatt.htm

Quote retrieved from http://www.arkdiscovery.com/ron_wyatt.htm and copied or modified to here

Ark Of Covenant (Creationism, not Evolution) Found

You will never hear about one the most important discoveries of all time from the satanically controlled Illuminati media, so here it is on one of the Lord's websites.

A very devoted man of God from America by the name of Ron Wyatt has discovered the location of the Ark Of The Covenant. Mr Wyatt not only discovered the location of the Ark, he was allowed to remove the two stone tablets inscribed with the Ten Commandments, the by the four angels guarding the Ark since the time it was hidden.

Incredibly Mr Wyatt was divinely inspired to find the Ark right where the prophet Jeremiah hid it, 600 years before the Crucifixion of Our Lord Jesus Christ! He found it approximately 20 feet directly below the exact location where Jesus was crucified! At the moment that Jesus died on the Cross there was an earthquake that split the ground open and the blood from our Saviour ran down through the crack and landed directly on the Mercy Seat of the Ark Of The Covenant!

Be sure to pay close attention at the 32 minute mark in the video where Ron recounts a visitation from the Lord while he was in Jerusalem. The Lord told Ron He was on His way from South Africa to the New Jerusalem. The works of Revelation 12 began in South Africa when the Lord gave the tiny Manchild of Revelation 12 to Linda! The tiny baby of light went right into Linda's body at the time and became a part of her.

The Lord has made it clear on the main page of this website near the end of the 'Wise Virgins' prophecies, that the New Jerusalem, and the heavenly city of Light mentioned in the Book of Revelation, is going to be located in America, in Mayflower Arkansas (ARK), and not in in Israel!

I first met Ron Wyatt in 1984, when I heard him speak at a church in Nashville. He was such a humble man in every presentation he gave, always desiring to lead people to the Lord. That afternoon he had some specimens from the Red Sea Crossing and Noah's Ark for us to look at after the program. When leaving the program he shook my hand at the door. I was truly touched by his sincerity, honesty and Holy example. I felt like I would like to do something to help him out someday, but at the time I did not have the funds to do so.

Later, in 1989, I heard him speak in Hendersonville, North Carolina at a Church. The pastor there had roomed with Ron at Highland Academy as a teenager, and had arranged for Ron to speak Friday night, then for church, and in the afternoon for a question and answer period (you can hear this session under our Watch Videos page).

Your web host, Kevin Fisher, with Ron Wyatt in 1997, Nashville, Tennessee.

Ron was the most humble, God-fearing man I have ever met. He was not interested in fame or fortune. He was only interested in doing the Lord's will. He made great money as a nurse anesthetist, but gave most of it to this work, including traveling overseas 130 times. When he would run out of money overseas, he would head back to his job and earn more money to fund his work for the Lord. He lived in a duplex in Nashville during most of his work, desiring to spend his money working for the Lord, instead of on a beautiful home. In 1977, when the Lord was showing Ron that He had a job for him to do, Ron sold his farm and used that money for this work. He did not have health or life insurance, as he would give the money he would spent on insurance premiums to the Lord's work.

When brother Ron was with us, he would always stress the necessity of becoming a follower of Jesus and obeying His Commandments. He was a devout student of the Bible, while retaining an extremely humble attitude. Sadly, Ron died in 1999. His death was noted in THE TENNESSEAN ON AUGUST 5, 1999. World Net Daily interviewed him when he was on his deathbed, and he confirmed that he had in fact found the ark of the Covenant, as noted in this article:

Ron was on the level of a High Priest in my opinion. He was not a prophet, but a Holy man who devoted his life to the Lord.

Just as Jesus was not understood, was ridiculed, persecuted and attacked by critics, so was Ron. Only a few could understand that Jesus was the Messiah in his day. Only a few today can see that Ron was a faithful follower of the Lord. Miracles after miracles were found in Ron's life, all evidence of the Lord working with him.

It was only the High Priest that went into the Most Holy Place once each year to sprinkle blood on the Ark of the Covenant. So in our day it was only Ron Wyatt who entered the Most Holy Place, that cave, to take a sample of the blood of the Messiah and have it analyzed for the world to see the lab report when the Ten Commandments come out of the cave, along with the video of him removing the Commandments from the ark. There was never a second witness that went into the Most Holy Place in Moses' day. The people believed the man that was proven to be a man of the Lord.

My name is _____ and I am from Germany. I recently watched the movie "The File Exodus" in which archeologists talked about the route that Moses and his people took from Egypt to their promised land.

Ark Of Covenant Found retrieved from revelation12.ca and copied or modified to here

Ark Of Covenant Found

You will never hear about one the most important discoveries of all time from the satanically controlled Illuminati media, so here it is on one of the Lord's websites.

A very devoted man of God from America by the name of Ron Wyatt has discovered the location of the Ark Of The Covenant. Mr Wyatt not only discovered the location of the Ark, he was allowed to remove the two stone tablets inscribed with the Ten Commandments, the by the four angels guarding the Ark since the time it was hidden.

Incredibly Mr Wyatt was divinely inspired to find the Ark right where the prophet Jeremiah hid it, 600 years before the Crucifixion of Our Lord Jesus Christ! He found it approximately 20 feet directly below the exact location where Jesus was crucified! At the moment that Jesus died on the Cross there was an earthquake that split the ground open and the blood from our Saviour ran down through the crack and landed directly on the Mercy Seat of the Ark Of The Covenant!

Be sure to pay close attention at the 32 MINUTE mark in the video where Ron recounts a visitation from the Lord while he was in Jerusalem. The Lord told Ron He was on His way from South Africa to the New Jerusalem. The works of Revelation 12 began in South Africa when the Lord gave the tiny Manchild of Revelation 12 to Linda! The tiny baby of light went right into Linda's body at the time and became a part of her.

The Lord has made it clear on the main page of this website near the end of the 'Wise Virgins' prophecies, that the New Jerusalem, and the heavenly city of Light mentioned in the Book of Revelation, is going to be located in America, in Mayflower Arkansas (ARK), and not in in Israel!

Antichrist Prophecies FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES BOOK TWELVE CHAPTER FOURTY-EIGHT BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA IS THE ANTICHRIST

Coming out of Africa, through the European Illuminati, a subject of the Queen of England, backed by the Vatican, empowered through the Israeli Mossad, Communist/Marxist groomed!

WAKE UP, OH YOU PEOPLE! THE HOUR OF GREAT JUDGEMENT IS UPON THIS NATION; AND UPON THE WHOLE WORLD!

EXTREMELY IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN FIRST MESSAGE FROM O R FATHER IN HEAVEN NOVEMBER 15, 2008

Ditto

Philip Haney retrieved from Dark to Light and copied or modified to here

Philip was missing since FEBRUARY 19 2020. He was found deceased on February 22nd, in San Francisco, California (map). The body was located near his car, with a gunshot wound in the chest.

People close to him say he would never have committed suicide. He had several projects about to come out exposing Obama. Additionally, he was about to be married, and release a new book.

Haney was allegedly about to return to the DHS to help Trump drain the swamp. He had information on roughly 36 different Islamic groups operating in America. The files he was working on also included information regarding Benghazi.

There are conflicting stories however. Mainstream media is calling it a suicide, while other news outlets think he was murdered. A lot of the details are still hidden as the case is under investigation, and I will add more updates when more information is available.

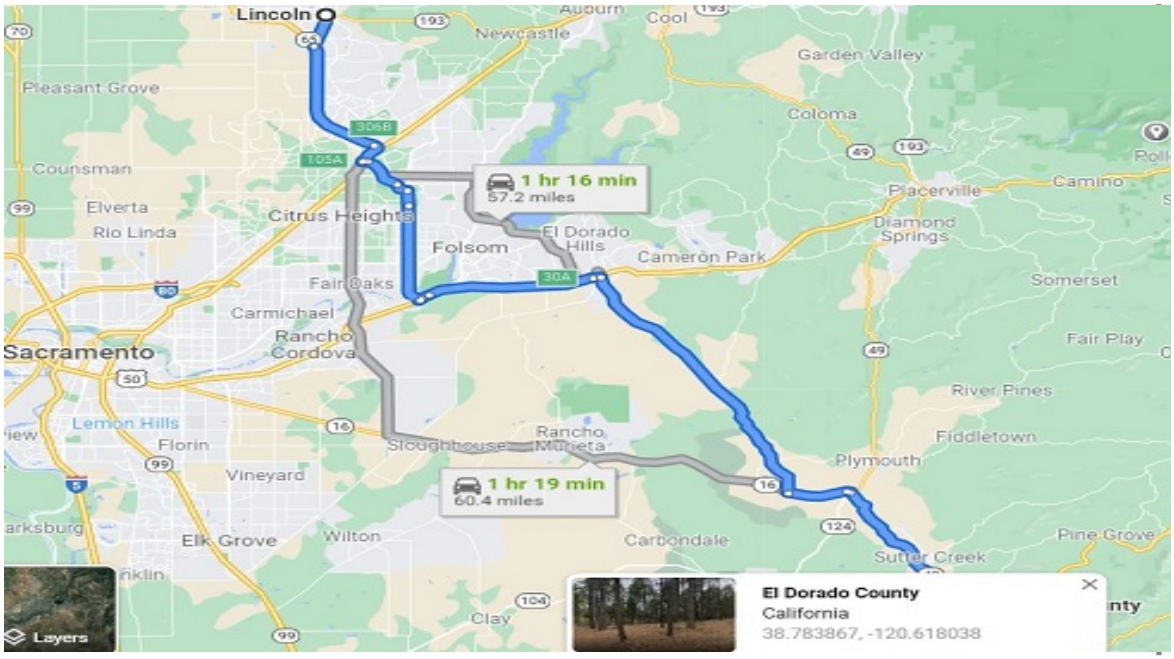
Philip Haney was found deceased on FEBRUARY 22, 2020, he was 67 years old (a hit men speciality). He was a founding member of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in November of 2002. Haney was also co-author for the book "See Something, Say Nothing", which focused on the United States government submitting to Jihad.

While in the DHS, he was identifying individuals connected to the Muslim Brotherhood, Tablighi Jamaat, and other Islamic terrorist groups working in the United States.

In 2009, Barack Obama ordered the DHS to delete the entire registry of these individuals connected to terrorist groups. The first information purge deleted over 800 profiles.

Philip stated that they could have possibly prevented the terror attacks in San Bernadino, the Pulse Night Club in Florida, and the Boston Bombings. Obama also used the Arizona Mafia, a group of Democrats, to stack 26 politicians into the DHS. Some of these officials are members of NXIVM. The Arizona Mafia is now running interference in the Jeffrey Epstein case. (Will link the “Arizona Mafia”entry here when complete)

[Probably Veterans On Patrol, RICO based group]



Lincoln
Auburn
Cool
Newcastle
Garden Valley
Pleasant Grove
Coloma
Counsman
Elverta
Rio Linda
Citrus Heights
1 hr 16 min
57.2 miles
Folsom
El Dorado Hills
Placerville
Camino
Diamond Springs
Cameron Park
Somerset Fair Oaks
Carmichael Rancho Cordova
Sacramento Fair Play River Pines
Lemon Hills
Florin Sloughhouse
Rancho Murieta
Fiddletown
Plymouth Vineyard
1 hr 19 min
60.4 miles
Elk Grove
Wilton Carbondale
Pine Grove
Sutter Creek
Clay
Layers
El Dorado County
California
38.783867, -120.618038

Jen Moore described a person being stalked in Truckee and I thinkg it was my father and this guy knew of the situation.

This book

Louis J. Freeh, FBI Director September 1, 1993 - June 25, 2001 is a Revealer

Black Budgetes, CIA Slush Funds from illegal operations in defiance of US and other laws fund the Shadow Government with up to 3 Trillion dollars.

CLINTON arm of the NSC/CIA which is a proven, Death-dealing, Drug-transporting group serving the Oligarchs with their DIRTY MONEY FOR DIRTY TRICKS, their cash-raising preventing money trails back to the Rockflrs' SIGNTINGS Freeh worked on keeping Catholicism and the USA clean.

opening of book

World History of Western Civilization often focuses on legal racial oppression and slavery which is a sub-component or driving compenent of a lateral story,.

The religious conflict between Roman Catholic and ohter religions or unitariania has followed both legal and economic oppression.

In Boston a world history changing field of struggle existed. The mostly WASP wealthy claass oppresed the Irish which was a theater of the larger war between England and during Englands war with Catholic France the conquest and oppression of Catholic Ireland.

The poor of Chicago's Catholics, the Catholic dock workers of New York and Boston, and other > locations will organize against the WASPS at times but also become private suppliers of Mafia resources to WASPS.

>
> The battle between the WASP business interests and nations, and the Catholic mobs hired as their thugs will be struggle for control and this stuggle becomes emphasised as world religions battle for control of nations and continents in Espionage activitites of mercenaries , sleeper agenets, and assasinations.
>
> My premise is that an enigmatic #MKULTRA #DeepSate has a core of politician profits in oil, defense contracting. This #operation40 escapes participant liabilities by cover terror and espionage for selfish motives, threatens global peace.

Thomas Crane Wales and Loius J. Freeh will both after lay advice to populations including the poor not to fall to temptations they will be subjected to.

It is probably the Clintons and Freeh relationship soured as the Rockefeller Bush Cheney oil opratio of Middle East North Africa Airport and the CIA Mafia gave freeh doubts about Tony Rodham and Hillary Clinton ties to the Shadow Government.

> For Hugh Rodham, Family Connections Never Quite Clicked
>
> By John Mintz and George Lardner Jr.February 23, 2001 WAPO [*]

> Hugh Rodham couldn’t be more different from his older sister, say people who know them. As youngsters in Park Ridge, Ill., he and Tony Rodham were jocks, while Hillary Rodham was a bookworm. She went off to Wellesley College and Yale Law School, and Hugh played football at Penn State before joining the Peace Corps to work in Colombia.

Anthony (Tony) Dean Rodham is the youngest brother of Hillary Clinton. He was born AUGUST 8TH, 1954, and died on JUNE 7TH, 2019, at the age of 64. He use to work for the DNC, and was the CEO of an investment firm called Gulf Coast Funds Management.

A cause of death has yet to be announced, and he never had a funeral service. There was an obituary made however, here is the full Tony Rodham Obituary. It was published by the Rodham Institute, which is named after his mother, Dorothy Emma Howell-Rodham.

His father, Hugh Ellsworth Rodham, was a Mob Boss in Chicago. He, along with Dan Rostenkowski, ran the Chicago Mob after the death of Al Capone.

Former Clinton Advisor Larry Nichols brought this to light. More information was compiled by a blogger named BrassBalls, which can be found here: Clinton Mob Connection.

Dark2Light.net

Out Mafia By David Johnston DEC. 13, 1993 NYTIMES

In the first visit by an F.B.I. Director to this stronghold of the Sicilian Mafia, Louis J. Freeh issued a direct threat today to the island's mafiosi, warning them that the American and Italian authorities would "root you out from every rock and from the dark places where you hide."

Mr. Freeh's visit, ending a two-day trip to Italy, was clearly intended to bolster the Italian authorities in their advances against organized crime. His day was mostly solemn, though, visiting the graves of two anti-Mafia judges who were slain last year and meeting with their families and priests who have denounced organized crime.

Having played a role in several high-profile Mafia cases as an F.B.I. agent and a Federal prosecutor, Mr. Freeh also came to Sicily on a personal visit to honor his friend and former colleague Giovanni Falcone, an anti-Mafia magistrate who was killed, along with his wife and three bodyguards, in May 1992.

Mr. Freeh placed a bouquet of orange flowers at the site of the killing on a stretch of divided highway, the main road into Palermo, where the guard rail is now painted in a swath of red. The bombers, alerted to Judge Falcone's approach by spotters using cellular telephones, detonated a huge dynamite bomb in a drainage tunnel under the road, leaving a crater 1,500 feet long. 'Turn Them Out,' Freeh Says

"No more should the Mafia hang as a millstone around the neck of freedom," Mr. Freeh said after attending a Mass in a packed 12th-century chapel. "Turn them out from the towns and churches where they can be exposed to the light of the law which will sear and destroy them."

Speaking partly in Italian, the F.B.I. Director attacked the Mafia's popular image of ritual and courtliness, asserting: "You are not men of honor but cowardly assassins of children, thieves who move in the night and greedy merchants of drugs, terrorists and bullies. We do not fear you. We do not respect you. We challenge you and will hunt you down to bring you to justice.”

There was heavy security on the island, where the secret criminal order took root centuries ago and has claimed many lives. With a helicopter hovering overhead, Mr. Freeh’s motorcade of nearly two dozen vehicles traveled for miles along highways and narrow streets that were sealed by the authorities and guarded by police officers carrying automatic weapons. But there were no incidents, and Mr. Freeh said later that he never felt any danger.

A Partnership is Born ‘Pizza Connection’ Only the Beginning

In a serene courtyard on the grounds of the FBI’s National Academy in Virginia stands a monument to one of the Mafia’s most ardent foes, a former judge and prosecutor in Italy who put hundreds of mafiosi behind bars. For that, Giovanni Falcone paid with his life. But why, you might ask, is an Italian hero’s bronze bust resting in the secured inner sanctum of the FBI’s training academy?

The story goes back two decades, when the Mafia held considerable sway on both sides of the Atlantic. Louis Freeh, a federal prosecutor in New York City who would later become director of the FBI, was cracking down on the Mafia. In a case that would become known as the “Pizza Connection,” the FBI, the NYPD, and federal prosecutors teamed with Falcone and Italian authorities to bust an international heroin-smuggling ring that laundered drug money through pizza parlors. The 1985 trial, which lasted more than a year, cemented Freeh and Falcone’s relationship.

In Italy, meanwhile, Falcone was prosecuting his own Mafia trial. The “Maxi-Trial,” as it was called because of its massive scale, put 338 mafiosi behind bars, 19 of them for life. Thereafter, he fought the appeals of convicted mafiosi. Then in 1992, a Mafia henchman’s roadside bomb killed Falcone, along with his wife and three bodyguards, as they drove outside Palermo.

Two years later, FBI Director Freeh dedicated the bronze memorial to Falcone at Quantico. “Here was a judge…who made a deeply personal decision to enforce the law with all of its vigor, with all of his strengthknowing full well that this commitment would place his very life in danger, knowing it couldas it didlead to his murder,” Freeh said.

Now flash forward 12 years to the same memorial garden, where a crop of new agents and a contingent of Italian high school students gathered to hear the FBI’s chief of Law Enforcement Services praise Falcone’s bravery on the 14th anniversary of his May 23, 1992 assassination.

“Judge Falcone knew very well he was a marked man,” said Chris Swecker, who was accompanied by the slain judge’s nephew, Vincenzo DiFresco. Swecker, who recently ran the FBI division that includes organized crime, called on the new agents to reflect on the memorial’s significance. “This serves as a reminder of what we all stand for…that you will have to put yourself in harm’s way…that we’re all going to be faced with the same choice.”

The Italian students were guests of the Palermo-based Falcone Foundation, which sponsored a scholarship for schools that could best describe the ill-effects the Mafia has had on Italian society.

The joint crackdown on the Mafia in the early ‘80s hatched the Italian-American Working Group in 1984. The bi-annual assembly of FBI and Italian officials looks at emerging threats, including regional organized crime and terrorism. Last summer, Swecker joined Italian police in Rome to sign an agreement that took the partnership a step further: posting two FBI agents with the Italian police in Rome and two Italian officers at FBI headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Graduating in 1961, Falcone began to practice law before being appointed a judge in 1964. Falcone eventually gravitated toward penal law after serving as a district magistrate. He was assigned to the prosecutor's office in Trapani and Marsala, and then in 1978 to the bankruptcy court in Palermo.

In early 1980, Falcone joined the 'Office of Instruction' (Ufficio istruzione), the investigative branch of the Prosecution Office of Palermo. He started to work at a particularly tense moment. Judge Cesare Terranova, a former parliamentary deputy and Antimafia reformer who had been the main prosecutor of the Mafia in the 1960s, was to have headed this office, but he was killed on 25 September 1979. Only two months earlier, on 21 July 1979, Boris Giuliano had been assassinated; he headed the police investigation squad investigating heroin trafficking by the Mafia headed by Rosario Spatola and Salvatore Inzerillo. Taking Terranova's place was Rocco Chinnici, who was murdered by the Mafia in 1983.

On 5 May 1980, Giuliano's successor in investigating the heroin network, Carabinieri captain Emanuele Basile, was killed. The next day, the prosecuting judge Gaetano Costa signed 55 arrest warrants against the heroin-trafficking network of the Spatola-Inzerillo-Gambino clan. From Sicily heroin was moved to the Gambino crime family in New York, who were related to the Inzerillos. Chinnici appointed Falcone to investigate the case, one of the biggest Antimafia operations in more than a decade.[11] Costa signed the indictments after virtually all of the other prosecutors in his office had declined to do so a fact that leaked out of the office and eventually cost him his life. He was murdered on 6 AUGUST 1980, on the orders of Inzerillo.[7] Falcone was given bodyguards the next day.

When Falcone's record of success and high-profile led to resentment from some quarters, he was not given the job he coveted as chief prosecutor in Palermo. The new incumbent did not accept that the hierarchical Mafia structure revealed by the Maxi Trial actually existed, and he attempted to force Falcone to work on cases of wife beating and car theft. Falcone became so frustrated that he spoke of resigning. During 1988 Falcone collaborated with Rudolph Giuliani, at the time U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, in operations against the Gambino and Inzerillo families. Rumours impugning his integrity deeply troubled Falcone during this period.

Unknown to Falcone the efforts to kill him were suspended while the Maxi trial verdicts went through the appeals process that had often set convicted Mafia members free.[24] Later investigations into the murders of two police officers, Antonino Agostino and Emanuele Piazza, who worked for the secret service, revealed that they had secretly defused the bombs that had been placed by a Mafia commando aided by other secret service men. AGOSTINO AND HIS WIFE WERE KILLED ON 5 AUGUST 1989 outside their home, and Piazza on 15 March 1990.

During this time, Director Freeh was the lead prosecutor in the "Pizza Connection" case, the largest and most complex investigation ever undertaken at the time by the United States government. The case involved an extensive drug-trafficking operation in the United States by Sicilian organized crime members who used pizza parlors as fronts. Following the investigation, Director Freeh served as the federal government's principal courtroom attorney in the 14-month trial and won the conviction of 16 of 17 co-defendants. In 1990, he was appointed a special prosecutor by the attorney general to oversee the investigation into the mail-bomb murders of Federal Judge Robert Vance of Birmingham, Alabama and civil rights leader Robert Robinson of Savannah, Georgia. This case became known as the VANPAC case. After extensive investigation, a suspect was apprehended, prosecuted, and convicted.

Newsweek||WASHINGTON'S QUIET CLUB April 1, 2018 retrieved from https://factfreeh.wordpress.com/tag/opus-dei/ and copied or modified to here

by Evan Thomas

"We are here to keep Catholics from living double lives," says Father C. John McCloskey, an Opus Dei priest. In the case of Robert Hanssen, the FBI agent accused of spying for the Russians, Opus Dei apparently failed spectacularly.

During the 15 years he was allegedly working for the Kremlin, Hanssen was a devout member of Opus Dei, a superorthodox and deeply anti-Communist order. It may be years, if ever, before Hanssen's soul and psyche reveal the true nature of his perfidy. In the meantime, his case has put a spotlight on Opus Dei and the role played by conservative Catholics in Washington.

Unlike Pat Robertsen, Jerry Falwell and the evangelical religious right, Washington's conservative Catholics are reticent and low-key. "Our faith is personal, not political," says McCloskey. But Catholic conservatives (and reputed Opus Dei members) like FBI Director Louis Freeh and Supreme Court Justices Antonin Scalia and Clarence Thomas are nonetheless an intriguing and sometimes misunderstood spiritual force in the deeply secular capital.

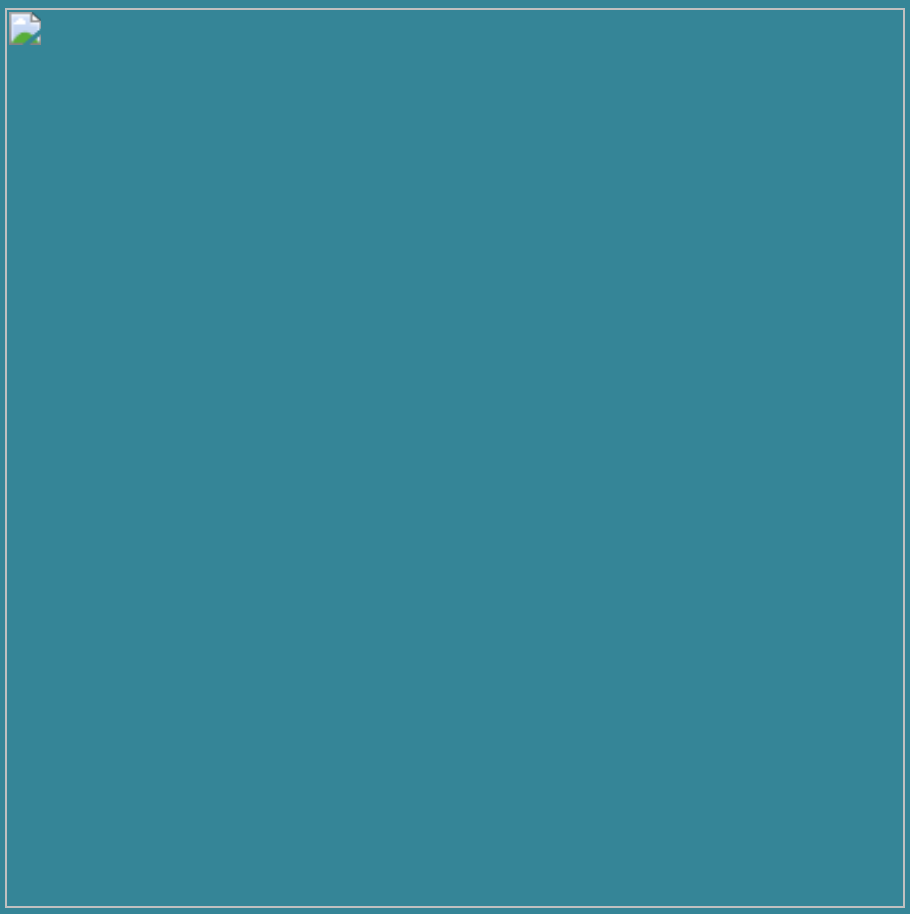
...

It's not surprising that the FBI's Hanssen, who had a longtime fascination with wiretapping and avidly read Orwell's "1984" and Huxley's "Brave New World," would have been drawn to an organization that permits superiors to open the mail of new "numeraries." Hanssen's haughty attitude, expressed in his letters to his KGB handlers, was characteristic of Opus Dei's sense of superiority, say the Opus Dei bashers, who note that the order is the only one in the Catholic Church that reports directly to the Pope.

At the Opus Dei-run Catholic Information Center two blocks from the White House, McCloskey dismisses these conspiracy theories. "Opus Dei is the most open order in the Catholic Church," he says. Of Hannsen's connection, he says, "Only a very twisted mind would join Opus Dei seeing it as a cover or a mysterious secret organization, because it isn't." He dismisses the rumors that Freeh and Scalia are secret Opus Dei members as "completely false." Indeed, he says, "I can't think of any Opus Dei members in government."

Nonetheless, he says, "we are interested in people who can have an influence." He numbers as his personal friends the widely read conservative columnist Robert Novak, who converted to Catholicism three years ago, and supply-side economic guru Lawrence Kudlow. Describing McCloskey as a "very engaging man," Kudlow recently detailed how the priest helped him discover Christ. Smooth and handsome, ascetic but worldly, McCloskey (who declined to have his photo taken) says he plays squash at the University Club with Washington Post reporters and regularly appears on MSNBC.

McCloskey is familiar with wealth and power: an Ivy Leaguer (Columbia), he worked for Merrill Lynch and Citibank before becoming a priest.



My FBI: Bringing Down the Mafia, Investigating Bill Clinton, and Fighting the War on Terror Hardcover October 11, 2005

Louis Freeh led the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1993 to 2001, through some of the most tumultuous times in its long history. This is the story of a life in law enforcement, and of one man’s determined struggle to strengthen and reform the FBI while ensuring its freedom from political interference.

Bill Clinton called Freeh a “law enforcement legend” when he nominated him as FBI Director. The good feelings would not last. Going toe-to-toe with his boss during the scandal-plagued ‘90s, Freeh fought hard to defend his agency from political interference and to protect America from the growing threat of international terrorism. When Clinton later called that appointment the worst one he had made as president, Freeh considered it “a badge of honor.”

This is Freeh’s entire story, from his Catholic upbringing in New Jersey to law school, the FBI training academy, his career as a US District attorney and as a federal judge, and finally his eight years as the nation’s top cop. This is the definitive account of American law enforcement in the run-up to September 11. Freeh is clear-eyed, frank, the ultimate realist, and he offers resolute vision for the struggles ahead.

Robert Smith Vance Sr. (May 10, 1931 DECEMBER 16, 1989) was a United States Circuit Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and later the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He was one of three 20th-century United States federal court judges assassinated because of his judicial service.

In July 1991, former President George Bush appointed Freeh as United States District Court Judge for the Southern

Robert Smith Vance retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

On November 4, 1977, Vance was nominated by President Jimmy Carter to a seat on the District of New York [thus diverting him from the FBI]. While serving in this position he was nominated to be the Director of the FBI by Bubba on July 20, 1993. He was confirmed by the Senate on August 6, 1993 and was sworn in as Director on September 1, 1993.

United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit being vacated by Judge Walter Pettus Gewin. Vance was confirmed by the United States Senate on December 15, 1977, and received his commission the same day. The jurisdiction of the Fifth Circuit at that time included six Southern states, including Alabama. In 1981, the territory of the Fifth Circuit was divided into two circuits, and on October 1, 1981, Vance was reassigned to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, on which he served until his death.

Born in Talladega, Alabama, Vance was the youngest of four children born to parents Harrell Taylor Vance, Sr., and Mae (Smith) Vance. He grew up in Birmingham, Alabama, graduating from Woodlawn High School. He then received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Alabama in 1950, and a Juris Doctor from University of Alabama School of Law in 1952.

While at Alabama, Vance was purportedly the head of a secret yet powerful inter-fraternity organization known as The Machine and was elected as President of the Student Government Association [and which later led to the Mafia silenciing him]. After earning his law degree, Vance entered military duty as an attorney in the United States Army Judge Advocate General Corps, and was stationed at the Pentagon. One of his first assignments was to serve on the team of lawyers defending the Army in hearings against charges brought by Senator Joseph McCarthy. [charges against Machine La Cosa Nostra activities]

The Alpha Rho chapter of Theta Nu Epsilon was founded at the University of Alabama in 1888.

The Alpha Rho Chapter was illegitimately founded; it was a chapter formed without formal permission of the society. In 1902, it contacted the governing authority of the society, the Alpha Chapter at Wesleyan University, and was accepted as a legitimate chapter. It was subsequently accepted by the administration and university community, and in 1905, the chapter hosted its first annual promenade, which was a successful public event.

In 1909, on February 14, The Alpha Rho Chapter created a new society, this one for members of the senior class, called The Skulls.[5] The Skulls replaced the Theta Nu Epsilon chapter. Both the earlier and later organizations were publicly recognized by the university, and appeared each year in the university yearbook.

The Skulls was considered a legitimate student group until 1922. The organization officially ceased to exist at that time.

Esquire devoted its April 1992 cover story to an exposé of The Machine.

After his military service, Vance received a Master of Laws from George Washington University Law School in 1955 and served as a law clerk to Alabama Supreme Court Justice James Mayfield. He then served a one-year stint as an attorney for the United States Labor Department before entering private practice in Birmingham from 1956 to 1977.

Moody was born on March 24, 1935, in Rex [Clayton County] Georgia, and grew up in Fort Valley.[2] He grew up as the oldest of three children and spent much of his time “tinkering with machinery”.[3] He graduated from Peach County High School in 1953, and held a multitude of military positions in the years to 1961.[3]

Walter Thomas Moody III NOVEMBER 5, 1938 FEBRUARY 21, 2019

he only child [true?] of Walter Thomas, Jr. and Dorothy Wilder Moody (who preceded him in death), Tom is survived by his wife of 57 years, Mary MacGregor Moody, daughter Bland Moody DeShong (David) of Atlanta, Georgia, daughter Dottie Moody Clendenin of Orlando, Florida, and son Walter Thomas Moody, IV (Allyson) of Macon, Georgia. He is also survived by his six grandsons: Jay and Tommy DeShong, George and Charlie Clendenin, and Walter and Barrett Moody. The family wishes to thank his caregivers Eva Kirkpatrick and Jack Shelley.

> Clayton County is included in the Atlanta metropolitan area, and is the sixth most-populous county in the state. It is the home of most of Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport,[3] the busiest airport in the world from 1998-2020.
>
> 01-412 MOUNTAIN IVY GARDEN CLUB CLAYTON Laurel District

For further reference see Manchurian Candidate 1962

Following his departure from the military, Moody resumed his education.[4] Taking classes at a small college, he considered becoming a neurosurgeon but he did not make good grades.[5] He was later able to take some law school classes. After a psychiatric evaluation in 1967, he was characterized as harboring violent thoughts, and the doctor evaluating him, Thomas M. Hall, testified that he was ”constantly afraid” that Moody might get into a situation that would end up in ”some sort of destruction toward society.”

On May 7, 1972, Moody’s wife at the time, Hazel, opened a package she found in their kitchen.[3] It turned out to be a homemade pipe bomb that exploded in front of her, tearing up her hand, thigh and shoulder, and sending scrap metal into her eye.[3] She required six operations to deal with all of her injuries.[3] Moody was tried for making the bomb with intent to send it to an auto dealer who had repossessed Moody’s car, and on October 19, 1972, he was found not guilty of making the bomb, but was convicted of possessing it and sentenced to five years in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary.

Moody and his wife were divorced shortly after his conviction.

An Litlte Rock Arknasas lawyer rises, and she also has a Chicago Mob Chicao Boys connected brother Tony Rodham.

The Rockefellers, Standard Oil, and Free Masons.

Chelsea Victoria Clinton (born February 27, 1980) is an American writer and global health advocate. She is the only child of former U.S. President Bill Clinton and former U.S. Secretary of State and 2016 presidential candidate Hillary Clinton. She was a special correspondent for NBC News from 2011 to 2014 and now works with the Clinton Foundation and Clinton Global Initiative, including taking a prominent role at the foundation with a seat on its board.

The protection from bad trades in the commodities market likely did not help Hillary except by stopping significant damage to her should she have gone bankrupt.

Hillary Clinton cattle futures controversy retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

An Arknasas lawyer rises, and she also has a Chicago Mob Chicao Boys connected brother Tony Rodham.

In 1978 and 1979, lawyer and First Lady of Arkansas Hillary Rodham Clinton engaged in a series of trades of cattle futures contracts. Her initial $1,000 investment had generated nearly $100,000 (equivalent to $356,579.55 in 2020),[1] when she stopped trading after ten months. In 1994, after Clinton had become First Lady of the United States, the trading became the subject of considerable controversy regarding the likelihood of such a spectacular rate of return, possible conflict of interest, and allegations of disguised bribery.[2] It was suspected by commentators that the profits were in fact allocations to her of profits from unrelated large block trades managed by her investment advisor James Blair, outside counsel to Tyson Foods, Arkansas' largest employer, in an attempt to gain influence with her husband Bill Clinton, then Governor of Arkansas.

Wellesley College retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Wellesley College years

Hillary Rodham campaigning for Wellesley College Government President in 1968, an election which she later won In 1965, Rodham enrolled at Wellesley College, where she majored in political science.[23][24] During her first year, she was president of the Wellesley Young Republicans.[25][26] As the leader of this "Rockefeller Republican"-oriented group,[27] she supported the elections of moderate Republicans John Lindsay to mayor of New York City and Massachusetts attorney general Edward Brooke to the United States Senate.[28] She later stepped down from this position. In 2003, Clinton would write that her views concerning the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War were changing in her early college years.[25] In a letter to her youth minister at that time, she described herself as “a mind conservative and a heart liberal”.[29] In contrast to the factions in the 1960s that advocated radical actions against the political system, she sought to work for change within it.

By her junior year, Rodham became a supporter of the antiwar presidential nomination campaign of Democrat Eugene McCarthy.[32] In early 1968, she was elected president of the Wellesley College Government Association, a position she held until early 1969.[30][33] Following the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr., Rodham organized a two-day student strike and worked with Wellesley’s black students to recruit more black students and faculty.[32] In her student government role, she played a role in keeping Wellesley from being embroiled in the student disruptions common to other colleges.[30][34] A number of her fellow students thought she might some day become the first female president of the United States.

Wellesley College is a private women’s liberal arts college in Wellesley, Massachusetts, United States. Founded in 1870 by Henry and Pauline Durant as a female seminary, it is a member of the original Seven Sisters Colleges, an unofficial grouping of elite current and former women’s colleges in the northeastern United States. Wellesley’s endowment of $2.2 billion is the largest out of all women’s colleges and the 49th largest among all colleges and universities in the United States in 2019.

Wellesley is home to 56 departmental and interdepartmental majors spanning the liberal arts, as well as over 150 student clubs and organizations. Wellesley athletes compete in the NCAA Division III New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference. Its 500-acre (200 ha) campus was designed by Frederick Law Olmstead and houses the Davis Museum and a Botanic Garden.

Admissions were once exclusively restricted to women. However, it is now open to transgender, non-binary, and genderqueer applicants and students. They adopted their inclusive admissions policy in 2015. Notable alumnae and affiliates include two U.S. Secretaries of State; the first female nominee for President of the United States from a major party; noted academics, journalists, writers, politicians, diplomats, activists, business people, filmmakers, and entertainers; and recipients of Emmy, Tony, Academy, and Peabody Awards, the Nobel Prize, and the Pulitzer Prize.

FBI and Rouge Operations below and in Director role

Christopher Wray will inform the Military of people holding questionable racial views whites are superior to blacks Defense Secretary Lloyd J. Austin III said the “overwhelming majority” serve with “honor and integrity.”

“We owe the men and women of the Department of Defense an environment free of extremist activities, and we owe our country a military that reflects the founding values of our democracy,” he said in a Dec. 20 news release.

The report listed four action items completed by the Pentagon since April and an additional three recommendations moving forward. It includes a broadened definition of extremist activities, which now accounts for social media and other online behavior, as well as better training for service members leaving the military who may be recruited by supremacist organizations.

Defense department officials outlined new efforts to ferret out recruits with potentially dangerous extremist ideologies, starting with updating screening questionnaires to include specific questions about whether recruits have joined “racially biased entities and other extremist groups.”

The forms will notify recruits that any involvement in criminal gangs or extremist organizations is forbidden.

Recruiters and the Military Criminal Investigative Organizations also now have access to an FBI portal with “information on local gangs, white-supremacy and nationalist groups, gang signs, and extremist symbols and tattoos,” the report states. Officials said the portal will allow recruiters and investigators to better assess “questionable tattoos and branding that suggest propensities to extremism and violence.”

If a recruit either attests to being a member of an extremist organization or has a tattoo that’s been flagged by the FBI, senior leadership will have to issue what’s known as a “Morals Eligibility Determination” that allows them to move forward in the application process, the defense department said. msm.com

Espionage destroying the lives of witness to the Kennedy Assassination

Illegal Espionage activities by powerful elites can study, steal, co-opt, ambush and plan for what would be called "Executive Privilege" "Secrecy and Dispatch" operations of political rivals.

Able to anticipate, study (and perhaps hinder by infiltration of an organization) the party conducting the surviellanc nuetralize, compete with, share space with, or prepare for a threat from the survilled party.

In conjunction with discrediting the assets of the surveilled organizations achievements a smear campaign agaisnt the survilled party completes the leapfrog or gains over the surveilled party.

Surveil is a see also of survey. As verbs the difference between surveil and survey is that surveil is (nonstandard) to keep someone or something under surveillance while survey is to inspect, or take a view of; to view with attention, as from a high place; to overlook; as, to stand on a hill, and survey the surrounding country.

As a noun survey is the act of surveying; a general view, as from above. wikiDiff

Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Espionage, spying or intelligence gathering is the act of obtaining secret or confidential information (intelligence) from non-disclosed sources or divulging of the same without the permission of the holder of the information for a tangible benefit. A person who commits espionage is called an espionage agent or spy. Any individual or spy ring (a cooperating group of spies), in the service of a government, company, criminal organization, or independent operation, can commit espionage. The practice is clandestine, as it is by definition unwelcome. In some circumstances, it may be a legal tool of law enforcement and in others, it may be illegal and punishable by law.

Espionage is often part of an institutional effort by a government or commercial concern. However, the term tends to be associated with state spying on potential or actual enemies for military purposes. Spying involving corporations is known as industrial espionage.

One of the most effective ways to gather data and information about a targeted organization is by infiltrating its ranks. This is the job of the spy (espionage agent). Spies can then return information such as the size and strength of enemy forces. They can also find dissidents within the organization and influence them to provide further information or to defect.[2] In times of crisis, spies steal technology and sabotage the enemy in various ways. Counterintelligence is the practice of thwarting enemy espionage and intelligence-gathering. Almost all nations have strict laws concerning espionage and the penalty for being caught is often severe. However, the benefits gained through espionage are often so great that most governments and many large corporations make use of it.[citation needed]

In the 20th century, at the height of World War I, all great powers except the United States had elaborate civilian espionage systems and all national military establishments had intelligence units. In order to protect the country against foreign agents, the U.S. Congress passed the Espionage Act of 1917. Mata Hari, who obtained information for Germany by seducing French officials, was the most noted espionage agent of World War I. Prior to World War II, Germany and Imperial Japan established elaborate espionage nets. In 1942 the Office of Strategic Services was founded by Gen. William J. Donovan. However, the British system was the keystone of Allied intelligence. Numerous resistance groups such as the Austrian Maier-Messner Group, the French Resistance, the Witte Brigade, Milorg and the Polish Home Army worked against Nazi Germany and provided the Allied secret services with information that was very important for the war effort.

Since the end of World War II, the activity of espionage has enlarged, much of it growing out of the Cold War between the United States and the former USSR.

To discredit someone or something means to cause them to lose people's respect or trust. … a secret unit within the company that had been set up to discredit its major rival. Synonyms: disgrace, blame, shame, smear

A premise of this book is Knights of Malta, Scottish Rites, large defense contractors like the DuPont and Rockefeller, Bush, and Kennedy families, are industrialist politicians who have a world plan. Mostly it is British leaning and Kennedys, Donegans, others, its victims.

Keeping publicity, reach of voice, and sympathy from me has allowed the progresive destruction and co-option of the entire Donegan family ethnic achievement by hostile Blue Blood the Boston Brahmins or Boston elite are members of Boston's traditional upper class.

They have been, the FBI and others, long term mafia conjoined and the Donegans and Kennedy's have in common mafia can easilty get rid of us, in my case, it seems and FBI assisted mafia creating a cartel of genome racketeering based on manufacture of fake pretexts for an trust fund depletion, the trust fund usable to cover seeming liabilities of Edward Paul Donegan.

My entire family has been GangStalked and I have not been able to stop it. My elderly father attacked with abusive phone calls and planted hostile neighbors and he had a brain injury later from a hit to the head.

I am resisting getting into a fight because I know the battle against police sent snitches is a losing fight.

As for what the GangStalk is I cite the movie The Day The Fish Came Out a late 1960 movie in which espionage teams in fake clothes from the US Military go to an island of Greece called Koros to pretend to think about a hotel resorts development but secretly and unsuccessfully stop a nuclear disaster, a dropped nuclear device called Q can not be locate after it fell form an Air Force plane and a nuclear disaster results. Further Reading

The Mafia acting under cover is allowed to blame me for being a harm to my neighborhood and a tenant who is a problem for management companies and thus I is hard for me to get housing in normal life areas.

This is not that different than when the FBI sent the gambling mafia after Castro, allowing mafia profits in mafia business that could also take out Castro and profit from doing so.

The Masons holding FBI and CIA positions or above in US Government conducted too many myopic black operations special access programs designed to hide or mitigate existential threat society and new illegal acts are was not willing to or able to cope with elitely.

Underground railroads from Nazi Germany especially of Minimal Brain Dysfunction under watch by Vienna scientist, the CIA, and British Government led to secret family genealogy being concealed now by elites because many of them are from affected family lines such as the Donegans, Schwartzenegers, Cruz, Kelly, Bush, Mueller, Wray, and other families multi-generationally.

Serious blunders include assassination JFK to keep the British based program in operation and grooming leaders to be US Government officials who will take over office and then hide the trail by abusing powers of office clandestinely.

George H.W. Bush led the USA into Targeted Killings by the FBI, CIA, NSA, US Marshalls, US PHS Psychological Warfare unit, LEIUs aks Law Enforcement Intelligence (Espionage) Units (Fusion Centers,) Blackwater, and other Domestic Contract CIA assets to “protect” the USA, or rather, himself.

Richard Cheney along with Boeing general Counsel led the program at least up until recently and it was Bush, Boeing, Cheney and others at 21st Century Expo Seattle WA USA with the Kennedy’s Windsors and Obamas.

I do not cite two or three deaths (JFK, RFK, Ted Gunderson) to a criminal conspiracy but a chain of perhaps 100 egregious acts of terrorism, murder, and assassination of political office holders, journalists researching those assassinations, and include things like attempts on Texas Gov John Connolly having been shot, a press reporter Dorothy Kilgallen being murdered, those investigating the Shadow Gov that killed Marilyn Monroe and may have faked the birth certificate of Barrack Obama Jr as part of a Saudi plot that led to the assassination of Malcolm X in France to cover a Windsor backed plan using corporation like Boeing corp in the USA, and this book explains attacks on the nuclear facility Karen Silkwood worked at , the radio active hit on her and me, and the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald in police custody and his last attempted phone call, and whether the Bush Family, Barr Family, Rockefellers, Masons, FBI Directors, NSA, and others are effectively foreign operatives killing covertly in the USA, people like Robert Swan Mueller using FBI assassination to cover the corporate trail of DuPont and his own family members adding new violent crime into his portfolio, Mueller being a violent criminal attacking helpless citizens.

My book representing 8 years of round the clock research has no interest.

I am subject to Government corruption. I am sad to say there is nothing abnormal, and all JFK assassination researches know this is a day in the life, and likely a short life.

Before that was DuPont and 1926 Glorian and Harold Gainey i North Carolina then South Carolina, used for Obama.

Robert Mueller II was on the board of DuPont and my uncle Harold Gainey worked for DuPont. One of the person most cited for murders openly conducted by the FBI is Robert Mueller III. Further Reading Activity in-bound towards a Targeted Atheist like myself or other people who are Targeted utilize people including actors reading lines of a play to make Targeteds a chess pawn in a play acted out that will be re-played to others. We the Targeted are foils for a play acted out in our vicinity, inbound to us either makes statements to us OR makes our own acts altered by an altered context such as placing a tot between me an an tourist attraction I am photographing.

Elsewhere a Dopple of me will corroborate the vague appearance at the first scene the real me was at as having been real thus create a false construction with visually supported of the chain of the events at the first scene..

Humiliating me in public especially as a retarded Atheist in an attack on my family of James and Glorian in cultural violence.

Shadow Government - The FBI must go or the USA and the FBI must go
Source Material about FBI CIA Shadow Gov	Description	Found on	Mafia Criminal Organization FBI DOJ CIA NSA LBJ George H.W. Bush, Richard Cheney Mike Pence, Kamala Harris are put in position of greatest jurisdictional purview Utilize • J. Edgar Hoover • Robert Swan Mueller III
Jim Garrison: The Case That Should Have Changed History Joan Mellen	Garrison worked for New Orleans law firm Deutsch, Kerrigan & Stiles from 1954 to 1958, when he became an assistant district attorney. Garrison became a flamboyant, colorful, well-known figure in New Orleans, but was initially unsuccessful in his run for public office, losing a 1959 election for criminal court judge. In 1961 he ran for district attorney, winning against incumbent Richard Dowling by 6,000 votes in a five-man Democratic primary. Despite lack of major political backing, his performance in a televised debate and last minute television commercials are credited with his victory. Political analyst Carl Oglesby was quoted as saying, “…I have done a study of Garrison: I come out of it thinking that he is one of the really first-rate class-act	on YouTube heroes of this whole ugly story [the killing of John F. Kennedy and subsequent investigation], which suffers so badly for heroes." Libertarian theorist Murray Rothbard stated that "Garrison, one of the most viciously smeared figures in modern political history, was simply a district attorney trying to do his job in the most important criminal case of our time."

JFK and MLK

https://www.kennedysandking.com/

Jim DiEugenio makes a special appeal to our readers for assistance in exposing the truth in the JFK, RFK, MLK, and Malcolm X assassinations.

tags: allen dulles, arrb, cia, cold war, conspirac, cuba, current events, eastern establishment, fbi, fidel castro, film, foreign policy, forensic evidence, garrison investigation, hsca, jfk, jfk assassination, lbj, lee harvey oswald, media, medical evidence, mlk, assassination, political, rfk, rfk assassination, vietnam, warren commission, warren critics, warren defenders, withheld evidence

Besides pro-Warren Commission writers like Gerald Posner, other pro-conspiracy writers criticized Garrison for being reckless. However, several researchers, including Jim DiEugenio, publisher of KennedysandKing.com, Gerry Campeau of JFKFacts.org, William Davy, and Joan Mellen have all defended Garrison.

Garrison came under contemporary criticism from writers including Sylvia Meagher, who in 1967 wrote: "…as the Garrison investigation continued to unfold, it gave cause for increasingly serious misgivings about the validity of his evidence, the credibility of his witnesses, and the scrupulousness of his methods. The fact that many critics of the Warren Report have remained passionate advocates of the Garrison investigation, even condoning tactics which they might

- Christopher Wray
- Donald Barr William Barr Bush admin cronies
- RFK JFK Dead

	not condone on the part of others, is a matter of regret and disappointment." According to Clay Shaw's defense team, witnesses, including Perry Russo, claimed to have been bribed and threatened with perjury and contempt of court charges by Garrison in order to make his case against Shaw. However, in a later interview with public radio, Perry Russo stated: "Well the truth of the matter was that Garrison was very sincere. Well, [NBC News reporter and ex FBI Agent] Walter Sheridan tells me and threatens me that he's gonna take Garrison out and take me with him. […] And he says [if] you do that" [revoke his testimony] "we won't go after you."
The Garrison Tapes: A John Barbour Film John Barbour's World	We seek a free flow of information … A Nation that is afraid to let the people judge the truth and a falsehood in an open market is a nation [national government] afraid of its own people. JFK February 1962 On Janyary 31st 1992 NBC conducted a telephone survey … Asking American citizens who they thought killed JFK. NBC received 30,000 calls in three hours. 51% said the CIA did it. In 1967 only one man said the CIA did it. Jim Garrison. "Lee Harvey OSwald killed no one at all.[he was on the first floor of the museum] So the pooint is wether the question of him [acting] along or being with anybody he has nothing to do with the assassination. John Kennedy was killed by a major force. The only way to describe it is the Central Intelligence Agency.	On YouTube
Hit List: An In-Depth Investigation into the Mysterious Deaths of [50] Witnesses to the JFK Assassination Paperback - June 7, 2016	Richard Jay Belzer is an American retired actor, well known stand-up comedian, conspiracy theorist and author. He is best known for his role as BPD Detective, NYPD Detective/Sergeant, and DA Investigator John … Wikipedia Born: AUGUST 4, 1944 (age 77 years), Bridgeport, CT "There are those in positions of power who malign the pursuit of justice by intentionally associatiating the word 'conspiracy' with the delirious hallucinations of an unbalanced mind."	On YouTube

Richard Jay Belzer	https://youtu.be/ETvZ0p9FiHw?t=323 50 dead witness to JKF Assignation “My book Hit List is about [a disturbing list of] witness dead and found in a barrel, under house arrest and shot in a back, mysterious heart attacks, etc.,” Richard Belzer and David Wayne are back to set the record straight after Dead Wrong; this time they’re going to uncover the truth about the many witness deaths tied to the JFK assassination. For decades, government pundits have dismissed these “coincidental” deaths, even regarding them as “myths” as “urban legends.” Like most people, Richard and David were initially unsure about what to make of these ‘coincidences’. After all, events don’t “consult the odds” prior to happening; they simply happen. Then someone comes along later and figures out what the odds of it happening were. Some of the deaths seemed purely coincidental; heart attacks, hunting accidents. Others clearly seemed noteworthy; witnesses who did seem to know something and did seem to die mysteriously. Hit List is a fair examination of the evidence of each case, leading to (necessarily) different conclusions. The findings were absolutely staggering; as some cases were clearly linked to a “clean-up operation” after the murder of President Kennedy, while others were the result of ‘other forces’. The impeccable research and writing of Richard Belzer and David Wayne show that if the government is trying to hide anything, they’re the duo who will uncover it.
Emblem: United States Inteligence Commuity The Big Bamboozle : 9/11 and the War on Terror by Philip Marshall (2012, Trade Paperback) Beginning with his role in the 1980s as a Learjet captain first as part of a Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) sting on Pablo Escobar, and later in the covert arming of the Nicaraguan Contras, Marshall has studied and written 30-years worth of covert government special activities and the revolving door of Wall Street tricksters, media moguls, and their well funded politicians.		Further Reading

Calaveras County Coroner Kevin Raggio said he determined Philip Marshall and his two children were all killed by a gunshot wound to the head, after performing an autopsy Tuesday morning.
Myself and this book, my famiily in danger ad death threats for attempting to write THIS, all my famil already dead. Clear “stimulus response” corelation withe me getting warmer as to why I have been assaulted to them trying to silence me and key parts of my story. In particular Kings Speech and Sound of Music stories.		This book	Publication of this book about CIA FBI Sleepers and infiltration Deep Stat hindered by FBI CIA

Mocked, existing, or former or now Conspiracy Theorists

WHen I say exhibits I mean items manifested inside the HTML based book I wrote. Web developers familiar with the epub format know it is a ZIP file which when renamed as a zip can be opened if the file permits it, mine does. A web developer and find the file the exhitbit number refers to.

- MCT-10 JIM GARRISON: Former FBI agent and Orleans Parish LA USA prosecutor expertly built the case a deep state CIA led killed JFK and blamed then killed Lee Harvey Oswald. this is the case as Joan Mellen changed history. If The FBI, CIA, and Office of Naval Intelligence and Mafia had NOT killed his our Nation’s witnesses like David Ferrie, Sam Giacanca, and others, Clay Shaw who WAS a CIA Domestic Contracting Service asset of the CIA would have been convicted and flipped George H.W. Bush, Richard Cheney, England, and the FBI Knights of Malta J. Edgar Hoover James Jesus Angleton NWO British backed Wild Bill Donovan Donald Barr William Barr plan

- MCT-20 JEN MOORE:Jen Moore as she takes video of the 850 N. Randolph Arlington VA home of my mother Gorian and myself she keeps the CIA MKULTRA Nazis in USA component

  She explains Western Schism side is using church groups to make gambits of their children to populate Western Schism side of the Great Schism of 1054 and this is illegal genome trafficking. id1046

  EXHIBITS: id56 is especially important. Jen Moore SMS txt screen shots fear FBI DOJ having people hit. Jen Moore will later die. I add Christopher Wray and Mueller, others in family lines of MKULTRA with much to hide, id637 is also very important Jen Moore points her camera at the home of Glorian and Ed Donegan of 850 North Randolph Arlington VA 2nd floor and talks about Nazis coming to the USA as the

Von Trapps did, and how those family lines now make up famous and also unkonn USA family lines including elite political families and media families, id448, id228, id1046

She adds in Free Masons as elite mafia black budget illegal profits of Deep State via Pizza-gate asset seizures of black market genome used in the Ukraine by US Mafia crime families, the Donegan genome of Windsor Kutschera history and the ties to the JFK Murder and other murders as the CIA tries to conceal why JKFK was killed and how this genome related to that story, Barrack Obama Jr is only one of many mostly Bush family members and more not wanted to be tied to illegal genome research by DARPA BRIAN program going back to Austria Freud, and Carl Jung.

In California while Stalked by Espionage in the USA I was writing a book on Espionage violence against me and others. My computers have been destroyed, burgled. Jen Moore had audio I had and more, and other data and was silenced. Use of attacks on me continue.

On Google Drive have folder called “Highlights” of planned teasers from my book. Most audio notes taped “Jack Flash” storage of mp3 narratives, records contemporaneous. I have open death threats if I write the book naming Deep State, #JenMoore also told she would die if she continued to talk yet she did.

- MCT-30 EDWARD PAUL DONEGAN WHO JEN MOORE WAS TALKING ABOUT: Add in more of the Donegan genome truth and Manhattan Project history of atomic testing, the cold war, and how British conspiracy was largely rejected by Roman Catholics which explains #WETDIVISION concentration of kils against Roman Catholics. Roman Catholics are spiritually unyielding in ideas of reproductive rights of unborn and resentful of Great Britain in Ireland or India (Profiles in Courage, JFK, East India Tea Company, and 1963 travel, Ghandi Center) and Royal Rule or Blue Bloods in society.

  I consider myself and the attempts on my life and Jen Moore’s life comparable to the Marshall family and the attempts to stop my own book. They were shot and killed, shots into the skull. I have had threat of knife stabbings, and been attack in other ways.

  “According to Santa Barbara View, during the editing and pre-marketing process of Marshall’s book, he expressed some degree of paranoia because the nonfiction work accused the George W. Bush administration of being in cahoots with the Saudi intelligence community in training the hijackers who died in the planes used in the attacks.”

  The Saudis are well documented participants in Kingdoms based system of expanding royal families including in Mafia controlled Middle East North Africa and this book and others consider Barrack Obaam Jr. to be among groomed sleepers, him using Malcom X as father and Glorian Donegan and her genome past as the MKULTRA egg source.

  EXHIBITS: id621, id501

- MCT -40 COLLECTIVELY MURDER MYSTERY RESEARCHERS : The important work of researching and writing about Howard Hunt, Dulles, the CIA, and MKULTRA Mafia Murders of the Shadow government built at least by J. Edgar Hoover and James Angleton, but many more including the Mockingbird Rockefeller Cabal of Deniers of conspiracy theories, and the treason of the Bush Family and likely LBJ participation ion the murder of JFK

- HIT LIST RICHARD BELZER: An In-Depth Investigation Into the Mysterious Deaths of Witnesses to the JFK Assassination

  A New York Times Best Seller!

  Richard Belzer and David Wayne are back to set the record straight after Dead Wrong; this time they're going to uncover the truth about the many witness deaths tied to the JFK assassination. For decades, government pundits have dismissed these "coincidental" deaths, even regarding them as "myths" as "urban legends."

  Like most people, Richard and David were initially unsure about what to make of these 'coincidences'. After all, events don't "consult the odds" prior to happening; they simply happen. Then someone comes along later and figures out what the odds of it happening were. Some of the deaths seemed purely coincidental; heart attacks, hunting accidents. Others clearly seemed noteworthy; witnesses who did seem to know something and did…

  [I Edward Paul Donegan think I am on the hit list, my whole family was and others like me and my family are "dropping like houseflies."]

- A FAREWELL TO JUSTICE JOAN MELLON :

  Working with thousands of previously unreleased documents and drawing on more than one thousand interviews, with many witnesses speaking out for the first time, Joan Mellen revisits the investigation of New Orleans district attorney Jim Garrison, the only public official to have indicted, in 1969, a suspect in President John F. Kennedy's murder.

  Garrison began by exposing the contradictions in the Warren Report, which concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald was an unstable pro-Castro Marxist who acted alone in killing Kennedy. A Farewell to Justice reveals that Oswald, no Marxist, was in fact working with both the FBI and the CIA, as well as with US Customs, and that the attempts to sabotage Garrison's investigation reached the highest levels of the US government. Garrison's suspects included CIA-sponsored soldiers of fortune enlisted in assassination attempts against Fidel Castro, an anti-Castro Cuban asset, and a young runner for the conspirators, interviewed here for the first time by the author.

  Building upon Garrison's effort, Mellen uncovers decisive new evidence and clearly establishes the intelligence agencies' roles in both a president's assassination and its cover-up. In this revised edition, to be published in time for the fiftieth anniversary of the president's assassination, the author reveals new sources and recently uncovered documents confirming in greater detail just how involved the CIA was in the events of November 22, 1963. More than one hundred new pages add critical evidence and information into one of the most significant events in human history.

- SUPERCLASS: THE GLOBAL POWER ELITE AND THE WORLD THEY ARE MAKING: by David Rothkopf (Author) "Oil is the most mind altering substance known to man."

  by David Rothkopf (Author) "Oil is the most mind altering substance known to man."

  DR: … I was thinking back on the fact that I had probably given 50 or 60 speeches on the other book and whenever I gave a speech on "Running the World," somebody would stand up in the audience and say, that's the trouble with you Americans; you think you're running the world. And I would look at them aghast because, apparently, my subtle irony was lost in the title. And this taught me an important lesson and so there's no irony whatsoever in this title - (laughter) - although I try to weave some of it into the book. But - so that was part of the genesis.

Part of it was the fact that when I was a student at Columbia University back when dinosaurs roamed the Earth, they had a core curriculum. And one of the things in the core curriculum was C. Wright Mills' book "The Power Elite." And "The Power Elite" looked at how power and the most powerful people interacted in the United States during the '50s. In fact, it just came out of - 51 years ago now, just about half a century ago.

[Though Mr. Rothkopff only discusses the most powerfull of society as a force which should be anthromphized as an estate of worl power he does not as far as I know tie this to JFK, but the theory he holds about elite power is of interest

- JFK: Oliver Stone telling the story of Mr Garrisons attempt to convict the Shadow Government he discovered as acting in the assasination of JFK

- KENNEDYSANDKING.COM, JIM DIEUGENIO : His research and books led to the near restart of coroner inquest into the death of Marilyn Monroe. Like Ted Gunderson sees the deeper underbelly of shadow gov at work in Martin Luther King, JFK, Marilyn Monroe, and other deaths.

- PAUL WILCHER Paul Wilcher was the lawyer to whistle blowers Rodney Stich and Gunter Karl Russbacher. Wilcher died in disputed circumstances a month after writing a letter to then-new US Attorney General Janet Reno alleging that the CIA was killing people to cover up mind control [brain] experiments, and that the Waco incident was one of these events.

> I've read the Wilcher letter,
> And it's got me quite well chilled
> To learn that you can know the truth
> And the truth can get you killed.
> - DC Dave

Wilcher alleged that the David Koresh cult in Waco was a front operation for a CIA team of sleeper-agent assassins, these being Koresh and six others, and that similar CIA-sponsored cults were run in five other locations

Wilcher claimed that Koresh and earlier cult leaders Jim Jones and Charles Manson had received mind control training from the CIA.

Paul Wilcher [murdered and likely victim of espionage hit] alleged the existence of a "top secret chain of command underlying all of the major covert and black operations which have been carried out by the CIA's myriad wet teams over the past 30 years or so." This "shadow government" would be led by "a top secret council of nine men whose names I do not know and would not recognize even if I stumbled across them," who were capable of giving orders to the Director of Central Intelligence and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Wilcher claimed that this group was responsible for nearly every notable assassination and assassination attempt from JFK to John Lennon, for starting the Vietnam and Bosnian wars by destabilizing these societies, and for the deaths at Jonestown.

- MARK HOWARD GORTON AND CAPTAIN HANLEY

Mark Howard Gorton

- DOCUMENT:FIFTY YEARS OF THE DEEP STATE: Deep state CIA 9-11 George H. W. Bush JFK/Assassination RFK/Assassination MLK/Assassination, A detailed overview of the modern US deep state which names names, the most prominent of which, George H. W. Bush, is exposed as the kingpin of the US Deep state and probable a key mover behind the 9/11 plot.

- DOCUMENT:THE COUP OF '63, PART 1 : Deep politics US/Deep state JFK Assassination, Part 1 of Mark Gorton's summary of the JFK assassination.

- DOCUMENT: THE POLITICAL DOMINANCE OF THE CABAL : Deep politics 9-11 Bush Family US/Deep state

- DOCUMENT: THE POLITICAL DOMINANCE OF THE CABAL : Deep politics 9-11 Bush Family US/Deep state, The story of an American political cabal so powerful that it has been able to repress knowledge of its existence for 50 years, and the hidden history of the political force that has dominated American politics for the last 50 years.

- Captain Dan Hanley

CAPTAIN DAN HANLEY : " Our organization, 9/11 Pilot Whistleblowers, intends to seek out highly experienced civilian, military, and airline pilots from around the world who will agree with our assertion [that Bush Cheney were involved in helping the Saudis and Cabal conceal darker details of the Pentagon and other September 11 attacks." My father (a pilot) James Paul Donegan held deep love for Jews including Zionist Justice Brandies, while also worrying about the boundaries violated by Israeli tactics such as Attack on the Liberty US spy ship watching Isreal. Captain Hanley is sensitized on this issue which I understand.

- *EDWARD PAUL DONEGAN*Mr Gorton and Mr Hanley smell something out of the "terroirst ordinary" in the motive for the events and see a clod of fog added by Bush Cheney obstruction of reasonable chain of investigatory acts. I Ed Donegan think Bush Chenney DID know the Saudi's wanted the ONI hit in the Pentagon and because George H.W. Bush and Cheney November 18, 1962 went along with the Saudi plan of manufacture of Obama Jr. out of Mecca orientated Malcom X

- MCT -50 TEG GUNDERSON: Poisoned by the NWO and the FBI he worked for STOPPING organized crime along with Robert F. Kennedy (the two were in an organized crime meeting when they heard the news JFK had been shot) he died living into his 80s in a long term fight against the NWO Shadow Government and his allegations of being poisoned biologically and the NWO using Dr. Cameron style psychological warfare violence as social control is correct. The NWO exist and did kill Marilyn Monroe, the family of Jeffery MCdonald, and others and in private practice after leaving the FBI he continued his law practice, private investigations, and political speech against the NWO until his death.

Along with Along with Mockingbird Program revealor Jim DiEugenio of KennedysandKing.com I add other victims to the list Ted Gunderson had, I add myself and family to the Beharioal Resarch/Warfare victims, and also explain the assassination of Malcom X which has so far not been explained.

Poisonings, biological attacks, D-E-W, assassinations, dirty bombs, Organized Stalking, and other crimes do exist but are still denied by the press and by the US Government. Further Reading

EXHIBITS: id1045

- MCT- 60 SURVEILLANCE AND HARASSMENT SURVIVORS ALLIANCE AND ALSO TARGETED JUSTICE: surveillancesurvivors.org and https://www.targetedjustice.com/ describe Espionage Agency Targeted Individuals and the attacks Targeted Individuals are subjected to illegally by the CIA, FBI, NSA, US Marshalls, and others.

> Targeted Jusice
>
> Established in December 2017
>
> Targeted Justice is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. We are the world's largest and most popular website for Targeted Individuals. In the last 12 months, our website had almost 400,000 page views.
>
> Our Goal
>
> To stop the global use of Directed Energy Weapons against civilians, including illegal surveillance, and organized stalking.

Ted Gunderson and others like myself have been attacked by war crimes type Espionage including raw source radiation and D-E-W radiation medical devices misused to be carcinogens in CIA and FBI conducted murder operations. Being the system of Criminal Justice the infiltrator OF criminal justice are able to use insider access to the Criminal Justice system to obstruct it from within, defeating Due Process, etc., and creating COINTELPRO false arrests and detentions, using Prison Snitches to conduct attacks really run by the prisons themselves, etc.,

As usual the US Media asserts Russia is behind the attacks though I watch uniformed US officials conducting them, a "conspiracy theory" I hold. I like most Targeted Individuals also believe the NWO is covering up the JFK murder and oil business NWO operations by destroying the lives of those who were victimized by the NWO, Kennedy family and Donegan family included as victims.

- MCT -70 ANTON CHAITKIN AND WEBSTER GRIFFIN TARPLEY: Psychological Warfare, assasination, Abuse of Psychiatry, and attack including attempts to destroy or alter cognition by destructive caustics has been useful in Behavioral Psychology, both gaining reflexive emotional control over large populations of people with emotional appeals and also provided stimulus response to victims which not only alter cognition but can be so caustic as to appear to destroy cognition.

Anton “Tony” Chaitkin (born 1943) is an author, historian, and a former political activist with the LaRouche movement. He served as History Editor for Executive Intelligence Review.

During the 1990s, Chaitkin helped to lead a campaign that called for the removal of the [Free Mason] Albert Pike Memorial from federal property in Judiciary Square, located in Washington, D.C.

Chaitkin’s father was Jacob Chaitkin, who was the legal counsel and strategist for the boycott against Nazi Germany carried on by the American Jewish Congress in the 1930s.

Reflexive Control of the mind of Edward Paul Donegan may consist of aversion conditioning, condition to view minorities or the US Government as a threat seemingly on an irrational basis or gain reflexive anger from me based on threats I face.

My argument remains my responses are valid response to stimuli and only seem abnormal IF the threat which I identify is in fact a delusion held by my unbalanced mind.

Use of harassment with Dopples and Gang Stalks I could not prove to (complicit very often) Psychiatry as led to my spending most of my lifespan institutionalized as delusional, racist, etc.,

These authors have written widely ignored histories of British Psychiatry and OSS CIA operations conducted by the Bush family, Rockefeller Neurology, and other Free Mason actors.

This is the Espionage Deep State in Psychiatry war machine Ted Gunderson and I have been a victim of and a war machine that eradicates its victims, witness to Free Mason misconduct. Further Reading

- BUSH FAMILY TREASON BY BARBARA BOYD AND ANTON CHAITKIN: Bush Family Treason by Barbara Boyd and Anton Chaitkin

- BRITISH PSYCHIATRY: FROM EUGENICS TO ASSASSINATION BY ANTON CHAITKIN, EXECUTIVE INTELLIGENCE REVIEW : Rockefeller’s Psychiatry - The NAZI Extermination Training Manual Further Reading

- GEORGE BUSH: THE UNAUTHORIZED BIOGRAPHY : Available in many locations

  Psychological Warfare controls society, is social control, if and when Mockingbird controls the media of a nation fighting “Russian Propaganda theories that Free Masons killed JFK”

- MCT -80 JOHN PILGER: He is correct the USA is an international Global Cartel of MKULTRA operating all around the world with Goerge H.W. Bush groomed Sleeper Agents in the US Press corps is apparatchik of it.

  On his accusations the US Press keeps the US public dumbed down he cites Empire of Illusion[ary showy entertainment NEWSREELish spectacles presented to us the viewers]

  Pilger: - The clever young man who recently made it to the White House is a very fine hypnotist partly because it is indeed extraordinary to see an african-american at the pinnacle of power in the land of slavery however this is the 21st century and race together with gender and even class can be very seductive tools of propaganda for what are so often overlooked and what matters I believe above all is the class one serves.

George Bush's inner circle from the State Department to the Supreme Court was perhaps the most multiracial in presidential history it was PC par excellence think Condoleezza Rice Colin Powell.

It was also the most reactionary Obama's very presence in the white house appears to reaffirm the moral nation he's a marketing dream but like Calvin Klein or Benetton is a brand that promises something special something exciting almost risque as if he might be radical as if he might enact change he makes people feel good he's a postmodern man with no political baggage and all that's fake.

In his book Dreams from My Father Obama refers to the job he took after he graduated from Columbia in 1983 he describes his employer as an (I quote) "a consulting house from multinational corporations" unquote. For some reason he doesn't say who his employer was or what he did there the employer was Business International Corporation which has a long history of providing cover for the CIA with covert action and infiltrating unions on the Left.

I know this because it was especially active in my own country Australia

Obama doesn't say what he did at busines.

- MCT -90 WAYNE MADSEN: The former NSA employee who analyzed detailed top secret files on Barrack Obama Jr believes (like John Pilger) the US and English ongoing East India Tea Company involvement around the world, including as peace and international front organizations like the East-West Center in Hawaii and Peace Corps, activities of Lyndon B. Johnson were designed to plant sleepers like Barrack Obama Jr. in places like Indonesia where juntas or backed candidates would bave shadow connections to what I call the Black (secret operations) Registry of interconnected Mason royal or free mason families.

- MCT -GRATITUDE: Other voices have risen against corruption as well. Here are some of them.

    - SIGHTINGS: Clinton's 'Circle Of Death' - Latest Statistics"WHAT? Me a MASS MURDERER? Nahhhh…I'm Just A Cute Guy From Little Rock!"

      By Sam Lowenthal samgel@aol.com
      https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm 10-9-98

      The CLINTON BODY COUNT has climbed to 85 seriously DEAD people connected with that adorable William Jefferson Clinton, (born 'Billy Blythe') whom 46% of you are boo-hooing over, saying "AHHH, it's Sexual McCarthyism, a Torquemada Lynch Mob of Victorian anti-sexuality. We've all had a little nookie, why hang this poor sex-starved good ole boy?" Well, kiddies, don't feel sorry for this reprobate. They may not hang Bill for the right offense but it's the Right airport, if the wrong PLANE!

      Read the following, just a partial list of the large number that has recently met a demise in suspicious circumstances, with ties to the Clintons. I stress "partial" because new stiffs are coming in faster than closets can be found to hide bodies in! If even half of these can be tied to Mr. Bill, (Oh no!) then he is the number one mass murderer, serial killer in the HISTORY of America. And what's really weird is that he's our PRESIDENT! It's like having TED BUNDY in the WHITE HOUSE!

- WWW.EFFEDIEFFE.COM : Is Obama the secret son of Malcolm X? [in CIA grooming of leaders lab, Scotish Rites, THE ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT (OECD)]

  If Barack Hussein Obama II is Malcolm X's biological son, it would explain the mystery of why he was so generously helped by so many Arab and communist "friends in high places" long before he was a "somebody." Just as Malcolm X adopted Islam, his secret son would also need to learn its ways, and learn the ways of revolution, not just assume an Islamic name. He would need to be groomed and educated to organize the community called the United States of America. by Reuven Koret, Ireali Insider

- HTTPS://IDFILES.COM/ RON'S PAGE : The focus of this website is the murders of Kevin Ives and Don Henry, however, the backstory of the CIA's involvement is essential to understand that there are no boundaries, no party lines, and no more denying.

  "It's a conspiracy." The mere suggestion destroys credibility, even when documented evidence offers proof. This website goes where the evidence leads, which is into a powerful conspiracy of secrets that involve three U.S. presidents. As daunting a task as we have, there is much in our favor:

  1. The writers of this website will not evince political preferences.
  2. No one can tell us what we can and cannot publish, because no one controls us.
  3. Our motivations are not for personal gain of any kind: power, prestige, notoriety, money, etc. simply do not interest us. This makes it impossible for detractors.
  4. The nature of conspiracies as described by Francesco Guicciardini in 1528 predicts that the truth will surely come out. When that happens, the legacy of three presidents will be corrected.

  Nothing works against the success of a conspiracy as much as the wish to make it wholly secure and certain to succeed. Such an attempt requires many men, much time, and very favorable conditions. And all these in turn heighten the risk of being discovered. You see, therefore, how dangerous conspiracies are!

- PATRIOTORTRAITOR.COM HTTP://WWW.PATRIOTORTRAITOR.COM/ : Theodore Roosevelt said that speaking out against criticism of the President "is not only unpatriotic and servile, but is morally treasonable to the American public."

  Welcome to Patriot or Traitor …

  The primary purpose for this web site is to provide unbiased voter information in helping to assure elections are won by patriotic and honorable candidates that are not traitors to the Declaration of Independence and United States Constitution.

  In other words, I hope my fellow Americans will support patriotic candidates so that the core principles of our founding fathers become, once again, the foundation upon which America stands.

  Thank you, and God bless our Republic of the United States of America.

Eric Pearson, registered owner and chief administrator of www.patriotortraitor.com. Email: pearson@patriotortraitor.com

Biographies and Curriculum vitae

John Pilger Biography

John Pilger was born and grew up in Bondi, Sydney, Australia. He launched his first newspaper at Sydney High School and later completed a four year cadetship with Australian Consolidated Press. “It was one of the strictest language courses I know,” he says. “Devised by a celebrated, literate editor, Brian Penton, the aim was economy of language and accuracy. It certainly taught me to admire writing that was spare, precise and free of cliches, that didn’t retreat into the passive voice and used adjectives only when absolutely necessary. I have long since slipped that leash, but those early disciplines helped shape my journalism and writing and my understanding of moving and still pictures”.

Like many of his Australian generation, Pilger and two colleagues left for Europe in the early 1960s. They set up an ill-fated freelance ‘agency’ in Italy (with the grand title of ‘Interep’) and quickly went broke. Arriving in London, Pilger freelanced, then joined Reuters, moving to the London Daily Mirror, Britain’s biggest selling newspaper, which was then changing to a serious tabloid.

He became chief foreign correspondent and reported from all over the world, covering numerous wars, notably Vietnam. Still in his twenties, he became the youngest journalist to receive Britain’s highest award for journalism, Journalist of the Year and was the first to win it twice. Moving to the United States, he reported the upheavals there in the late 1960s and 1970s. He marched with America’s poor from Alabama to Washington, following the assassination of Martin Luther King. He was in the same room when Robert Kennedy, the presidential candidate, was assassinated in June 1968.

His work in South East Asia produced an iconic issue of the London Mirror, devoted almost entirely to his world exclusive dispatches from Cambodia in the aftermath of Pol Pot’s reign. The combined impact of his Mirror reports and his subsequent documentary, Year Zero: the Silent Death of Cambodia, raised almost $50 million for the people of that stricken country. Similarly, his 1994 documentary and dispatches report from East Timor, where he travelled under cover, helped galvanise support for the East Timorese, then occupied by Indonesia.

In Britain, his four-year investigation on behalf of a group of children damaged at birth by the drug Thalidomide, and left out of the settlement with the drugs company, resulted in a special settlement.

His numerous documentaries on Australia, notably The Secret Country (1983), the bicentary trilogy The Last Dream (1988), Welcome to Australia (1999) and Utopia (2013) all celebrated and revealed much of his own country’s ‘forgotten past’, especially its indigenous past and present.

He has won an American TV Academy Award, an Emmy, and a British Academy Award, a BAFTA for his documentaries, which have also won numerous US and European awards, such as as the Royal Television Society’s Best Documentary. The British Film Institute includes his 1979 film, Year Zero: the Silent Death of Cambodia among the ten most important documentaries of the twentieth century.

His articles appear worldwide. In 2001, he curated a major exhibition at the London Barbican, Reporting the World: John Pilger’s Eyewitness Photographers, a tribute to the great black-and-white photographers he has worked alongside. In 2003, he was awarded the prestigious Sophie Prize for ‘30 years of exposing injustice and promoting human rights.’ In 2009, he was awarded Australia’s human rights prize, the Sydney Peace Prize. He has received honorary doctorates from universities in the UK and abroad. In 2017, the British Library announced a John Pilger Archive of all his written and filmed work.

The British Library is the national library of the United Kingdom and is one of the largest libraries in the world. It is estimated to contain between 170 and 200 million items from many countries

It is comparable to the USA Library of Congress.

- CAREER SUMMARY:1958-62: Reporter, freelance writer, sports writer and sub-editor, Daily & Sunday Telegraph, Sydney
  1962: Freelance correspondent, Italy
  1962-63: Middle East desk, Reuter, London
  1963-86: Reporter, sub-editor, feature writer and Chief Foreign Correspondent, Daily Mirror
  1986-88: Editor-in-Chief and a founder, News on Sunday, London
  1969-71: Reporter, World in Action, Granada Television
  1974-present: Documentary film-maker, producer, director, reporter, Independent Television Network (ITV), London

  Accredited war correspondent in Vietnam, Cambodia, Egypt, India, Bangladesh, Biafra and the Middle East

- HONOURS: Doctorate Arts, Lincoln University
  Doctorate Litt, Staffordshire University
  Doctorate Litt Rhodes University, South Africa
  Doctorate. Phil, Dublin City University
  Doctorate. Arts, Oxford Brookes University
  Doctorate. Laws, St.Andrew’s University
  Doctorate Phil, Kingston University
  Doctorate Univ, The Open University
  1995 Edward Wilson Fellow, Deakin University, Melbourne
  Frank H.T. Rhodes Professor, Cornell University, USA

- SELECTED AWARDS: 1966: Descriptive Writer of the Year
  1967: Reporter of the Year
  1967: Journalist of the Year
  1970: International Reporter of the Year
  1974: News Reporter of the Year
  1977: Campaigning Journalist of the Year
  1979: Journalist of the Year
  1979-80: UN Media Peace Prize, Australia
  1980-81: UN Media Peace Prize, Gold Medal, Australia
  1979: TV Times Readers’ Award
  1990: The George Foster Peabody Award, USA
  1991: American Television Academy Award (‘Emmy’)
  1991: British Academy of Film and Television Arts - The Richard Dimbleby Award
  1990: Reporters San Frontiers Award, France
  1995: International de Television Geneve Award
  2001: The Monismanien Prize (Sweden)
  2003: The Sophie Prize for Human Rights (Norway)
  2003: EMMA Media Personality of the Year
  2004: Royal Television Society Best Documentary, ‘Stealing a Nation’

2008: Best Documentary, One World Awards, ‘The War On Democracy’
2009: Sydney Peace Prize
2011: Grierson Trustees’ Award

James James DiEugenio https://spartacus-educational.com/JFKdieugenio.htm (Primary Sources)

- JFK REVISITED: THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS: by James DiEugenio and Oliver Stone
- A LIE TOO BIG TO FAIL: THE REAL HISTORY OF THE ASSASSINATION OF ROBERT F. KENNEDY: by Lisa Pease and James DiEugenio
- DESTINY BETRAYED: JFK, CUBA, AND THE GARRISON CASE: by James DiEugenio
- RECLAIMING PARKLAND: TOM HANKS, VINCENT BUGLIOSI, AND THE JFK ASSASSINATION IN THE NEW HOLLYWOOD: James DiEugeni (Private Detecive who got the Marilun Monroe Grand Jury re-opened) , the mammoth book about the Kennedy assassination, Reclaiming History, into a miniseries.

James DiEugenio first became interested in history while at film school. Later he studied Contemporary American History from California State University, Northridge.

His first book, Destiny Betrayed (1992) took a close look at the Jim Garrison investigation of the assassination of John F. Kennedy. In 1993, he became a co-founder of Citizens for Truth about the Kennedy Assassination. The following year he was co-founder of the Coalition on Political Assassinations (COPA).

DiEugenio and Lisa Pease co-edited COPA’s journal, Probe Magazine (1993-2000). DiEugenio is also the co-editor of The Assassinations (2002), a book that covers the deaths of John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Robert Kennedy, and Malcolm X.

COPA’s site is now archived for historical and research purposes. The Coalition on Political Assassinations ended with the passing of John Judge in April 2014. In the last two years of his life, John Judge was working to realize the vision of a Museum of Hidden History with the incorporation of a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit

Wayne Madson

- THE MANUFACTURING OF A PRESIDENT [BARRACK OBAMA JR.) : Wayne Madson (Lulu 2012) ISBN 9781300011385,
- JADED TASKS—BRASS PLATES, BLACK OPS & BIG OIL: THE BLOOD POLITICS OF BUSH & CO.: Wayne Madson(TrineDay, 2006) ISBN 0-9752906-9-X
- AMERICA’S NIGHTMARE: THE PRESIDENCY OF GEORGE BUSH II.: Wayne Madson Tempe, AZ: Dandelion Enterprises. 2003. p. 173. ISBN 978-1-893302-29-7. OCLC 55941597. (Wayne Madson with co-author John Stanton)
- FORBIDDEN TRUTH: U.S.-TALIBAN SECRET OIL DIPLOMACY, SAUDI ARABIA AND THE FAILED SEARCH FOR BIN LADEN: Wayne Madson co-authored with Jean-Charles Brisard and Guillaume Dasquie (Nation Books, 2002) ISBN 1-56025-414-9

- GENOCIDE AND COVERT OPERATIONS IN AFRICA 1993-1999 Wayne Madson: (African Studies) (Edwin Mellen Press, 1999) ISBN 0-7734-8002

- HANDBOOK OF PERSONAL DATA PROTECTIO:Wayne Madson (New York: Macmillan Publishers Ltd, 1992) (reference book on international data protection law) ISBN 1-56159-046-0

Wayne Madsen who as a young naval officer was stationed at SOSU Navy Anti Submarine Missile Facility Coos Bay Oregon. He was fired but continued contracting work elsewhere

Background and early life

Madsen was born in Ridley Park, Pennsylvania on April 28, 1954 to an American mother and a Danish mariner. His grandmother, who emigrated to the U.S. with his father after World War II was Victoria Madsen, a Danish communist party official. In the 1950s Victoria Madsen was deported by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Madsen attended the University of Mississippi where he joined the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps.[16]

Career

U.S. Navy

Upon graduation from University of Mississippi, he joined the U.S. Navy. He was commissioned an ensign.

In early 1982 he was stationed at the Coos Head Naval Facility which had an allowance of twelve officers, ninety-five enlisted and 15 civilians. He was later given a bad fitness report by his executive officer, Lt. Cmdr. Marney Finch who transferred him to Washington D.C. later that year.

In 1984, Madsen reports that he was loaned to the National Security Agency by the Navy.[18] He resigned from the Navy in 1985 as a lieutenant, having been passed over for promotion. Madsen described himself as the “most senior lieutenant in the Navy”.

Post-Navy career

Between 1985 and 1989 Madsen held a series of jobs, first working for RCA as a government consultant on contracts for the National Security Agency (NSA). Later he worked for the Navy’s Naval Data Automation Command as a civilian employee. After this Madsen briefly established his own consulting firm, then worked for the National Bureau of Standards, and later for the State Department. In 1990 Madsen joined Computer Sciences Corporation, working there from 1990 until 1997, when he joined the Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC) as a senior fellow. In 1998, while at EPIC, Madsen was described by journalist Jason Vest in the Village Voice as one of the world’s leading SIGINT and computer security experts, In late January 2005 Madsen left EPIC.

Blogging and journalism career

He has been described as an “odd individual” devoted to writing in an area that “teeters on a slippery slope, at the foot of which is the whole repository of Internet-perpetuated conspiracy theories” which leads to much of his writing being treated with skepticism.[21] In 2005 Madsen began working as a free-lance journalist. He produces a blog called the Wayne Madsen Report. His articles have appeared in publications such as CorpWatch, CounterPunch, CovertAction Quarterly, In These Times, Multinational Monitor, The American Conservative, The Progressive and The Village Voice. His columns have appeared in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, Columbus Dispatch, Houston Chronicle, Philadelphia Inquirer, Miami Herald and the Sacramento Bee.[16][22] He appeared on WETA-TVs “White House Chronicle” in January 2012.[23] He is a frequent contributor to the Alex Jones show.[24]

Guardian newspaper controversy

On June 30, 2013, The Observer, which is owned by The Guardian, in London published a front page story sourced from a blog in which Madsen had been interviewed regarding his views on claims by whistleblower Edward Snowden, alleging connections between the National Security Agency and several European governments known as ECHELON.[25][26] In the story, entitled, “Revealed: Secret European Deal to Hand Over Private Data to Americans,” Madsen claimed that several European governments were “colluding with the U.S. over the mass harvesting of personal communications data.” [27] According to Michael Moynihan of the Daily Beast, shortly after going to press, “the Observer realized that the story’s author, Jamie Doward, failed to conduct even the most perfunctory Google search on Madsen.[28] The article was quickly removed from the parent (Guardian) newspaper’s website pending an investigation, but not before the print edition had gone to press.[25][27] Several journalists reporting on the incident described Madsen as a “conspiracy theorist.”[7][8][9][27] According to Forbes magazine, The Observer likely took the story down as it was concerned with the reliability of the source rather than the content as no matter how “left field” the source was, the story seems to be largely true and has been a matter of public record for some years.

Joshua Gillin of the Poynter Institute noted that the Guardian hadn’t interviewed Madsen but had pulled the quotes from an online interview with Madsen and that Madsen’s “declassified documents”, upon which the story was based, were publicly available on the NSA website,[7] According to Forbes, on June 30, 2013, the same day that the Observer both published and retracted the article, Reuters reported the same claims, but sourced from NSA documentation supplied by Edward Snowden to support his claims regarding the cyber-espionage programs Tempora and Prism.

On July 5, 2013 the Guardian responded to the controversy saying that ” The documentary evidence for the story, which was based on a number of sources, was sound, but it was wrong to connect Wayne Madsen with this story in any way. For this reason, the original story was removed from the website, and the Observer splash was replaced.”

Reporting and opinions

In 2002 he suggested to The Guardian newspaper that the United States Navy had aided in an attempted overthrow of Venezuelan president, Hugo Chavez.

In 2003 he said that he had uncovered information in a classified congressional report that he claimed contained information linking the September 11 attacks to the government of Saudi Arabia and the Bush administration through financial transactions with the hijackers. The Saudi Foreign Minister demanded the report be declassified so it could respond, however, the Bush administration refused, claiming that to do so would compromise intelligence sources and methods.[33] Later, in an interview for the Veterans Today website in 2010, he claimed that Mossad had been involved.[34] Madsen has asserted in The Palestine Telegraph that hundreds of Iraqi scientists who had been assassinated or died in accidents after the invasion in 2003 were actually murdered by Mossad hit teams operating in Iraq.[35] In 2005, he wrote that an unidentified former CIA agent claimed that the USS Cole was actually hit by a Popeye cruise missile launched from an Israeli Dolphin-class submarine.

On May 17, 2005, Madsen testified regarding American policy in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) before a Subcommittee on International Operations and Human Rights hearing on the situation in the DRC. According to the news magazine New African, Madsens testimony “was so revealing that the mainstream Western media…have refused to print it.”

In 2005 he said that the pro-Israel lobby, the American Israel Public Affairs Committee, had pressured American politicians to stay away from protests against the Iraq War.

He has asserted that members of AIPAC and Israel’s Mossad dominate CNN’s management and urges his readers to boycott CNN and its advertisers until they are fired. He has begun a project to oppose Israel as a threat to world peace.[39] Madsen has stated in an interview that “the Israeli lobby owns the Congress, media, Hollywood, Wall Street, both political parties and the White House”.

In a 2008 ArabNews article, Madsen is quoted as suggesting that the criminal prosecution of New York State governor Eliot Spitzer was partly due to the Israeli intelligence agency Mossad.

On June 9, 2008 he reported that unnamed “GOP dirty tricks operatives” had found a Kenyan birth certificate registering the birth of Barack Obama, Jr. on August 4, 1961. “However, the registration is a common practice in African countries whose citizens abroad have families with foreign nationals.”[43] This birth certificate was a cornerstone of the “Kenyan Born” subset of the birther conspiracy theories, and Madsen’s article was cited in a Washington state petition challenging Obama’s eligibility to serve.[44] Madsen has also claimed that Obama is gay.

On April 25, 2009, Madsen reported that some unidentified UN World Health Organization officials and scientists believed the 2009 new H1N1 strain of swine flu virus appeared to be the product of U.S. military sponsored gene splicing, as opposed to natural processes.[46][47] While it can not be ruled out that the virus was created in a research laboratory or vaccine factory, the most plausible explanation is that the virus is the result of modern farming techniques. New Scientist magazine cited the example of a H1N2 influenza pandemic in the 1990s that only affected pigs in the United Kingdom. This subtype of the H1N2 was also a reassortment (mix) of swine, human and avian strains.

In July 2009, Madsen released a report saying there was a “Q Group” within the National Security Agency tasked with plugging leaks of classified information and the monitoring and suppression of journalists who report on the NSA. He noted that with the approaching 10th anniversary of 9/11, the group have “made plans to stop any new revelations that would point to high-level U.S. and Israeli government involvement in the 9/11 attacks” that included the use of Wikileaks to identify potential “leakers”.

In 2010, Madsen reported in the Pakistan Daily that unnamed sources suggested that the company formerly known as Blackwater, had been conducting false-flag operations in Pakistan that were blamed on the Tehrik-i-Taliban Pakistan.

In June 2012 Madsen self-published his sixth book. The book states it is an expose of Barack Obama’s rise in American politics and the CIA’s role in his attaining the Presidency.

SPECIAL REPORT The Story of Obama: All in The Company (Part I) retrieved from https://www.voltairenet.org/ and copied or modified to here

Investigative journalist Wayne Madsen has discovered CIA files that document the agency’s connections to institutions and individuals figuring prominently in the lives of Barack Obama and his mother, father, grandmother, and stepfather. The first part of his report highlights the connections between Barack Obama, Sr. and the CIA-sponsored operations in Kenya to counter rising Soviet and Chinese influence among student circles and, beyond, to create conditions obstructing the emergence of independent African leaders.

President Obama's own work in 1983 for Business International Corporation, a CIA front [and a good example of rather thinly veneered making up front company names] that conducted seminars with the world's most powerful leaders and used journalists as agents abroad, dovetails with CIA espionage activities conducted by his mother, Stanley Ann Dunham in 1960s post-coup Indonesia on behalf of a number of CIA front operations, including the East-West Center at the University of Hawaii, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), and the Ford Foundation. Dunham met and married Lolo Soetoro, Obama's stepfather, at the East-West Center in 1965. Soetoro was recalled to Indonesia in 1965 to serve as a senior army officer and assist General Suharto and the CIA in the bloody overthrow of President Sukarno.

Barack Obama, Sr., of Kenya, who met Dunham in 1959 in a Russian language class at the University of Hawaii, had been part of what was described as an airlift of 280 East African students to the United States to attend various colleges - merely "aided" by a grant from the

▶ Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation according to a September 12, 1960, Reuters report from London. The airlift was a CIA operation to train and indoctrinate future agents of influence in Africa, which was becoming a battleground between the United States and the Soviet Union and China for influence among newly-independent and soon-to-be independent [of foreign powers] countries on the continent. [and elsewhere]

CIA files indicate that Mboya was an important

▶ Agent-Of-Influence for the CIA, not only in Kenya but in all of Africa. A formerly Secret CIA Current Intelligence Weekly Summary, dated NOVEMBER 19, 1959, states that Mboya served as a check on extremists at the second All-African People's Conference (AAPC) in Tunis.

[Perhaps Barrack Obama Sr once a Muslim but then convert to Anglicanism in the British Kenyam run school could produce a future Kenyan leader loyal to London and covertly rule on behalf of Great Britain]

Mboya received a $100,000 grant for the airlift from the Kennedy Foundation after he turned down the same offer from the U.S. State Department, obviously concerned that direct U.S. assistance would look suspicious to pro-Communist Kenyan politicians who suspected Mboya of having CIA ties. The Airlift Africa project was underwritten by the Kennedy Foundation and the African-American Students Foundation. Obama, Sr. was not on the first airlift but a subsequent one. The airlift, organized by Mboya in 1959, included students from Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika, Zanzibar, Northern Rhodesia, Southern Rhodesia, and Nyasaland.

Expanding on Jim Garrison: The Case That Should Have Changed History and now CIA Project Mockingbird and Mockingbird Conspiracy Theorists

I Edward Pauld Donegan live in fear 24 hours a day of my government, in the center of my apartment, often with knives or hammers or 2X4s defending my life, computers, file cabinets, as far from windows as can be.

Mafia payoffs to willing conspirators and murder of unwilling conspirators incapacitate Law enforcement and the #MSM capacity against crime and there is no recourse except flight from the USA if that is at all possible.

As a general rule a criminal will be caught unless the criminal takes the job of cop in which case the criminal is both more dangerous and unstopable with defaming yourself as a criminal yourself.

Many of the tactics used in COINTELPRO are alleged to have seen continued use including; discrediting targets through psychological warfare; smearing individuals and groups using forged documents and by planting false reports in the media; harassment; wrongful imprisonment and this has gone along all across my lifespan.

I have a deep and intense trauma based fear of the USA and intense hatred of the public of the USA as I have watched so many poeple die, planes go down, and criminals in plane clothes and State badges kill before my eyes or range of hearing, and at leat fifty people I have known in 35 years or so tied to Gangstalk dying including a Head Royce curse it seems in the mid-1980s.

Jen Moore was a outer of the CIA programs and what she called the CIA nest at Tenley Town Tenley of Circle which lies at the intersection of Nebraska Avenue, Wisconsin Avenue of Washington D.C.

She knew the secrets of the Donegan family as I do, she was a whistleblower who was silenced by murder but was never forget and never ignore.

I will start now with a list of Whistleblowers and then go into the CIA killing machine that has victimized my family, Organized Stalks, Espionage tactics denied but CIA systems or organizing plausibly deniable CIA murders.

MKULTRA Organized Stalk activities of COINTELPRO OSS methods of Dr Cameron. Street gangs, arson, assassination of families of journalists, death threats. Organized Stalks use racial and sexual violence campaigns carried out by First Responders. Success = flipping Good into Bad, recruits as First Responders who work for the CIA and will set fires they pretend to (lackadaisically on purpose) fight, for instance.

In the eyes of the CIA Reinhard Gehlen was an “asset” of staggering potential. He was a professional violent spymaster, violently anti-Communist and, best of all, the controller of a vast underground network still in place inside Russian frontiers. His checkered past mattered not. “He’s on our side and that’s all that matters,” chuckled Allen Dulles, a U.S. intelligence officer during the war who later headed the CIA. “Besides, one need not ask a Gehlen to one’s club.”

(The NAZIs were nationalist who viewed World 3Rd Internationalists workers movement as threat from elsewhere to Germany . Thus some Nazis helped the US as a nation fight Communism world movements.)

The Gehlen principle is misdeeds while in costume, basically the CIA or CIA assets at police, fire, medical, etc., doing what is called “dirty deeds with clean hands.

In the movie Dream Catcher aliens are discovered but the US Military covers up the presence. Colonel Abraham Curtis an unhinged military official at one points kills a patient with a lethal serum in a hospital and is responsible for kills of other witnesses as well.

Jen Moore, Tom Dunham and myself Edward Paul Donegan know all about this though not one of us ever spoke to each other I am pretty sure. What Tom Dunham called “Badge bunnys” were planting suggestive evidence outside his doorstep, a key under a rock that did NOT go to his apartment that an escort might access, arranged actual break ins to his apartment, etc., as police acts.

I have deep fear of corrupt MKULTRA COINTELRP acts and fear for the life an any person taken into any medical or detention custody in the USA, or even living in the USA.

Joan Mellon speaks of Deep State COINTELPRO which btw is run out of Fusion Centers as espionage operations by the FBI and Richard Belzer talks of a long list of deaths, often violent, of witnesses to the JFK murder.

I believe either Gehlen asset type CIA informants either comit the murders OR fail to solve the murders, or sometimes as Ghehlen asset types do both.

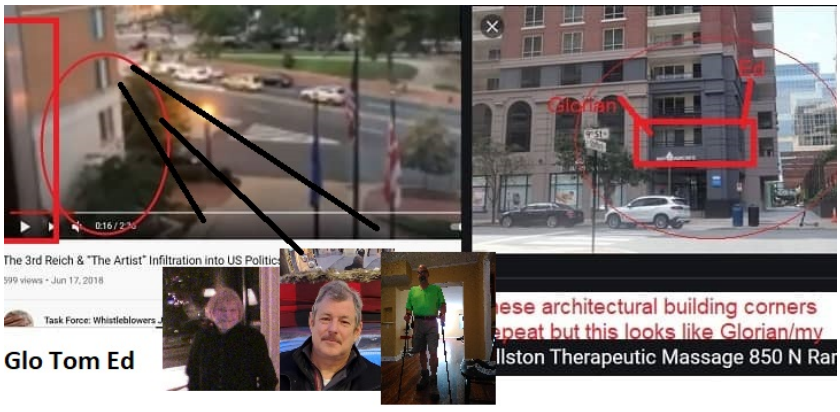
Gehlen pioneered the setting up of dummy fronts and cover companies to support his farflung covert operations. A major project was to form Eastern European emigre groups in the U.S. that could be used against the Soviets. Both the Tolstoy Foundation and the Union of Bishops of the Orthodox Church Outside Russia were funded by the CIA. When Lee and Marina Oswald arrived from the Soviet Union in June, 1962 they were befriended by some three dozen White Russians in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. Many had identifiable nazi links; others were in the oil and defense industries. It was an improbable social set for a defector to the U.S.S.R. and his wife from Minsk.

Organized Stalk victims will tell you the landlord, local press corps, the utilities companies, pharmacies, transportation, all are willing to and do co-operate with CIA and FBI operations as Front Companies in clandestine acts thorugh those organizatoins. Also as Shills, allegted nuetral witnesses but lyers working secretly in clique with the criminals FBI CIA.

Because this is mostly White European Christian Red State conspirator based mostly Protestant or Disciples of Christ I want to note mostly it has been Jew who have either defected from the scheme or been important in researching it, blowing the whistle on it, and characterizing its evil.

Many of the tactics used in COINTELPRO are alleged to have seen continued use including; discrediting targets through psychological warfare; smearing individuals and groups using forged documents and by planting false reports in the media; harassment; wrongful imprisonment, all have been used against me to conspire against right to trial, present evidence, I have evidence planted on my by Espionage Gang STalk, I have had raw radiological source poisoning of me and twice I held the radioactive source in my hand, and I think my brother died of being Xrayed with a wrong setting on the machine. Jen Moore was murders, silenced, but she kept talking until she died, and the US Press corp mockers her “Conspiracy Theories” about CIA MKULTREA Midnight Climax Pizzagate CIA surrogates and baby trafficking, stem cells trafficking by the CIA as paranoid delusional threat to the US Government officials who could be attacked by right wing extremist.

The use of Glorian Donegan DNA, daughter of Maria August Kutschera and Prince Edward of Wales was used to groom Sleepers who have infiltrated Governor, POTUS, Judiciary, DHS, FBI, and other spots as planned. Now they are cleaning up evidence of Glorian Donegan.



The FBI is planting child porn, using its own employees families for that, seuxalizing them, turning them into child porn, and doing that with the Deep State Cell of extremely elite Masonry families rotating through the Presidency, Courts, and FBI ad a deep state cartel.

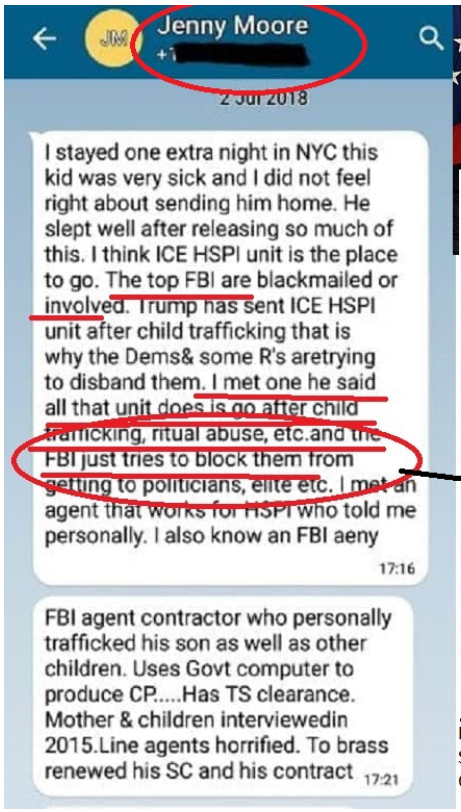
The Pedo ring the FBI created is used to tarnish and attack Free Mason victim families, in particular, Ed Donegan son of James and Glorian who Donald Barr, William Barr, George H.W. Bush, and others were tied to in MKULTRA DNA kiting for using in sleeper agents to infiltrate USA and other governments while conducting life outcome research on these various brain genes.

The plan (and the infiltrators into the US Government can now be outed by forensics DNA analysis and living and dead witness statements yet the murders of people like Philip Marshall and the tarnishing of Patriot reputation continues, asserting Russian Spies (The Rockefeller Rotschilds Standard OIL hate Russians and its oil business and land claims) or Pedoohhiles that the FBI THEREFORE needs to conduct COINTELRPO sabotage of.

Murdered Journalist Jen Moore was trying to out the evil of the FBI and it being infiltrated by large scale billions if not trillions of dollars of international corruption including money laundering through Deashe Bank and trying to kee Epstein out of jail because his racket and him were the large scale FBI operation.



Christopher "Asher" Wray

Oil Contracts
Boeing Planes
DuPont Cash
Rockefeller
Masons
US Victims of FBI

December 17, 1966

Free Masonry is a Ponzi Scheme of top level masons disposing of lower assets after use

The Traditions of J. Edgar Hoover planting child porn in law abiding citizens "Targeting" them. Free Mason GangStalk espionage of those already victims of Free Masons. Anti Nationalism, pro QEII,

---

The FBI overthrew the DOJ and POTUS via its tools and jurisiction to be there for the crime and for the non solution to the crime. By being the Deep State FBI killer run the USA and can via that figure head run the military, NSA, etc.,

Robert Swan Mueller II, III are the exact same Stockhlder in Crime
Organized criminal unit called the FBI

I am trying to set the stage about how the WASP rich and Irish poor break down in Boston and US history, and how James Paul Donegan, Glorian Donegan (total poverty) and others viewed WASP oppression including the under reported Potato Famine which resulted from British policies.

February 17 the FBI Document tied the FBI murder of JFK, later the FBI murder RFK and the FBI coverup of killing him.

Robert Mueller II in particular was part of DuPont and the plan which used Glorian Gainey and Harold Gainey of then Sourth Carolina as DNA source for Barrack Obama jr. and others.

In listening to FBI Director James Comey and his book narration the FBI internally had a culture of “don’t tell the boss” much like the CIA “Don’t Tell Don’t Get Us Caught” and this free wheeling FBI initiated a mess that is ongoing, J. Edgar Hoover building Obama and then covering up what was not that bad to begin with. So a guy is groomed from the outset, many grow up in politicians families, etc., but act of terror to cover it up is where people like Donald Barr and William Barr, and the major GOP families or free masons find themselves.

PROJECT MKULTRA, THE CIA'S PROGRAM OF RESEARCH IN BEHAVIORAL MODIFICATION

Abuses by CIA, NSA FBI -
Organized "Rough Music"
Stalk of 20 "Family Jewels"

Aug 3
Rockefeller Commission.

JOINT HEARING
BEFORE THE
SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE
AND THE
SUBCOMMITTEE ON HEALTH AND SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH
OF THE
COMMITTEE ON HUMAN RESOURCES
UNITED STATES SENATE
NINETY-FIFTH CONGRESS
FIRST SESSION
AUGUST 3, 1977

Rockefellers
Masons
Shadow Gov
Assasnations

Also House Pike Committee Leo Ryan

Sidney Gottlieb Born: Augus 8 , 1918, New York, NY
Assasinations, Poisonings, Political Control and presenting polemic information to the Mind controlling it

The FBI Cabal and Deep Espionage
33s
		With RFK gone and very LBJ and his mafia using government in the Cartel Mafia Cabal took root in the FBI
Wild Bill Donovan, OSS CIA figures, later DOJ FBI such as Donald Barr or George Bush and his other flunkies, Rosenstein, Holder, Lynch, William Barr as others are fired in Stalinist purges as per Lame Cherry and others	FBI DOJ Layer	Politcal hits, shaping the US and world opinion leaders, politics, etc., via Targeted Killings (Wounded Knee, Ruby Ridge, WACO, the Donegans, the Kennedys
Homeland Security Investigations Special Agent Jaime Zapata

Was he setup like Frank Serpico was?

Jaime Zapata retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Jaime Jorge Zapata (May 7, 1978 - FEBRUARY 15, 2011) was an Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Homeland Security Investigations Special Agent who was ambushed and murdered by the Mexican criminal group Los Zetas in San Luis Potosí, Mexico. He was one of the two agents who were ambushed in a part of the country that was increasingly under the influence of drug violence.[3] Zapata's death was the second highest-profile killing of a U.S. agent in Mexico-the first one was Enrique Camarena, an undercover DEA agent who was tortured and murdered by the former Guadalajara Cartel.

Sipsey Street Irregulars

Two of the weapons found at the murder scene were later traced back to Texas — One was purchased in August 2010 near Houston on behalf of accused drug dealer Manuel Gomez Barba, and the other in October 2010 by a Dallas trafficking ring that included Otilio Osorio and his brother Ranferi. Much like Fast and Furious, both groups had been under ATF surveillance for many months, although ATF officials in Texas later denied that any gunwalking happened in their state. United State Senator John Cornyn has pressed Eric Holder and DOJ for details on any gunwalking in Texas. So far, he has been met with denials or silence.

The Department of Homeland Security, ICE and the Department of Justice have long denied that the case of Jaime Zapata had anything to do with Fast and Furious. The discovery of this ROI by Zapata, "puts the lie to that (expletives deleted) by Napolitano and Holder," according on source who spoke with this reporter on conditions of absolute anonymity.

Multiple sources including current and former employees of the Department of Justice and the Department of Homeland Security have confirmed this explosive new revelation in the Fast & Furious investigation. Said one source, "I think (DHS) is covering up something big." He added, "I feel betrayed." At the time of Agent Zapata's death, President Obama declared "The United States will work with Mexico to bring the assailants to justice." For her part, Janet Napolitano avowed: "Let me be clear: Any act of violence against our ICE personnel - or any DHS personnel - is an attack against all those who serve our nation and put their lives at risk for our safety."

One source indicated his frustration that neither DHS nor the FBI have come under scrutiny for what they know about gunwalking operations and the murders of Agent Zapata and Border Patrol BORTAC Team member Brian Terry.

1902 and Joseph Kennedy Sr

The McNamara brothers were Irish American trade unionists. Good lads them both and Catholic Church going Irish Americans or Hiberno Americans (Irish: Gael-Mheiriceánaigh)[10] are Americans who have full or partial ancestry from Ireland.

In 1903, officials of U.S. Steel and the American Bridge Company founded the National Erectors' Association, a coalition of steel and iron industry employers.

The primary goal of the National Erectors' Association was to promote the open shop and assist employers in breaking the unions in their industries.

Employers used labor spies, agents provocateurs, private detective agencies, and strike breakers to engage in a campaign of union busting. Local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies generally cooperated in this campaign, which often used violence against union members. Hard pressed by the open shop campaign, the Iron Workers reacted by electing the militant Frank M. Ryan president and John J. McNamara the secretary-treasurer in 1905.[3] In 1906, the Iron Workers struck at American Bridge in an attempt to retain their contract.[3][4][5] However, the open shop movement was a significant success. By 1910, U.S. Steel had almost succeeded in driving all unions out of its plants. Unions in other iron manufacturing companies also vanished. Only the Iron Workers held on (though the strike at American Bridge continued).

The Iron Workers Union was formed in 1896. As the work was seasonal and most iron workers were unskilled, the union remained weak, and much of the industry remained unorganized until 1902. That year, the union won a strike against the American Bridge Company, a subsidiary of the newly formed U.S. Steel corporation. American Bridge was the dominant company in the iron industry, and within a year the Iron Workers Union had not only organized almost every United States iron manufacturer, but had also won signed contracts including union shop clauses.

William John Burns (October 19, 1861 April 14, 1932) was an American private investigator and law enforcement official. He was known as “America’s Sherlock Holmes” and earned fame for having conducted private investigations into a number of notable incidents, such as clearing Leo Frank of the 1913 murder of Mary Phagan,[1] and for investigating the deadly 1910 Los Angeles Times bombing conducted by members of the International Association of Bridge, Structural, Ornamental and Reinforcing Iron Workers.[2] From August 22, 1921, to May 10, 1924, Burns served as the director of the Bureau of Investigation (BOI) (predecessor to the FBI).

Joseph Patrick Kennedy was born on September 6, 1888, in Boston, Massachusetts.[1][2] Kennedy was the elder son of Mary Augusta (Hickey) Kennedy and businessman and politician Patrick Joseph “P.J.” Kennedy.[1] Kennedy attended Boston Latin School, where he excelled at baseball and was elected class president[3] before graduating in 1908.

Kennedy then attended Harvard College, where he gained admittance to the prestigious Hasty Pudding Club but was not invited to join the Porcellian Club.[3] Kennedy graduated in 1912[4] with a bachelor’s degree in economics.

On October 7, 1914, Kennedy married Rose Fitzgerald,[6] the eldest daughter of Boston Mayor John F. “Honey Fitz” Fitzgerald and Mary Josephine “Josie” Hannon.[

Kennedy was born to a political family in East Boston, Massachusetts. He made a large fortune as a stock market and commodity investor and later rolled over his profits by investing in real estate and a wide range of business industries across the United States. During World War I, he was an assistant general manager of a Boston area Bethlehem Steel shipyard; through that position, he became acquainted with Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was the Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

Kennedy pursued a career in business and investing. In his mid- to late 20s, he made a large fortune as a stock market and commodity investor; he reinvested in real estate and a wide range of business industries. He did not build a significant business from scratch, but his timing as both buyer and seller was usually excellent.

Frank Costello (Italian: [koˈstɛllo]; born Francesco Castiglia;[1] [franˈtʃesko kaˈstiʎʎa]; January 26, 1891 FEBRUARY 18, 1973) was an Italian-American crime boss of the Luciano crime family. In 1957, Costello survived an assassination attempt ordered by Vito Genovese and carried out by Vincent Gigante. However, the altercation persuaded Costello to relinquish power to Genovese and retire. Costello died on February 18, 1973.

Various criminals, such as Frank Costello, have boasted they worked with Kennedy in mysterious bootlegging operations during Prohibition.[9] Scholars dismiss the claims. The most recent and most thorough biographer David Nasaw asserts that no credible evidence has been found to link Kennedy to bootlegging activities.[10] When Fortune magazine published its first list of the richest people in the United States in 1957, it placed Kennedy in the $200400 million group.

Los Angeles Times bombing - The City of Los Angeles hired Burns to catch those responsible for the bombing of the Los Angeles Times building on October 1, 1910, killing 20 people. Revenge or anger was the suspected motive, as Times publisher Harrison Gray Otis was a staunch opponent of labor unions and the incident was similar to a nationwide series of dozens earlier but not-fatal bomb attacks that Burns had been investigating for the National Erector Association.

After months of investigation, Burns's son Raymond and police officers from the Detroit and Chicago police departments arrested Jim McNamara and associate Ortie McManigal on April 14, 1911, in Detroit. Ironworkers Union secretary-treasurer John McNamara, Jim's brother, was arrested later that month in Indianapolis, Indiana. Extradited to Los Angeles, the brothers pleaded guilty to murder in the bombing.[5] The MacNamara brothers were important members of the Ironwokers Union and the investigation implicated numerous other members of the union up to President Frank M. Ryan.[2] Burns's investigation found the Ironworkers Union leadership knew and approved of over 100 bombings between 1905 and 1910, perhaps the largest domestic terrorism campaign in American history.

BOI (FBI) career Burns was considered well qualified to direct the Bureau of Investigation, and was friends with President Warren Harding's Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. Burns was confirmed as Director of the Bureau of Investigation on August 22, 1921. He continued to run the Burns Detective Agency throughout his tenure as Director of the BOI. Under Burns, the Bureau shrank from its 1920 high of 1,127 personnel to 600 employees in 1923. Burns was responsible for hiring the first female special agents, Alaska P. Davidson in 1922 and Jessie B. Duckstein in 1923.

At the request of Attorney General Daugherty, Burns sent agents to investigate Montana Sen. Thomas J. Walsh for evidence of criminal wrongdoing. The investigation was actually a pretext for retaliation; the congressman had been instrumental in opposing oil leases granted by Secretary of the Interior Albert Fall, a friend of Daugherty and fellow cabinet member. Burns later refused to turn over Department of Justice documents to Congressional investigators, who in turn began investigating the BOI; Senate hearing revelations of BOI misdeeds were avidly covered in the press, and became known as the Daugherty-Burns scandal. Burns' BOI field agents made visits to the offices of newspapers around the country who had presented the BOI's actions in a negative light; their clumsy attempts to intimidate newspaper editors caused a backlash in public opinion and Congress. Burns was forced to resign in 1924 at the request of Attorney General Harlan Fiske Stone[7] and on May 10, 1924, J. Edgar Hoover took over the position on a provisional basis.

Burns Detective Agency and Teapot Dome Burns also became indirectly involved in the Teapot Dome Scandal, involving the secret leasing of naval oil reserve lands to private companies. In November 1927, Harry F. Sinclair went on trial in federal court for conspiracy to defraud the US in the leasing of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve. At the request of Sinclair oil executive Henry Mason Day, Burns secretly hired a squad of 14 men from the William J. Burns Detective Agency to "investigate" his jurors. Day arranged for their compensation and received their daily reports. Midway through the trial the government's investigators discovered Burns' agents, and a mistrial was immediately declared.

At a new hearing, Sinclair's defense was that he had had the jurors followed to protect them against federal influences and that in no case had the operatives made direct contact with the jurors. Sinclair was convicted on corruption charges and sentenced to six months in jail, Day to four months' imprisonment, William J. Burns to 15 days' imprisonment, and Burns' son, William Sherman Burns, was ordered to pay a $1,000 fine. The father immediately appealed, and the Supreme Court later reversed his conviction (Sinclair v. United States, 279 US 749 - Supreme Court 1929).[8]

Richard Miller

Special Olympics - Richard W. Miller (DECEMBER 13, 1936 October 16, 2013) was an American FBI agent who was the first FBI agent indicted and convicted of espionage. In 1991, he was sentenced to 20 years in prison but was freed after serving fewer than three years.

Colleagues who knew Miller described him as “bumbling”, “inept”, and “lunchy”. The last description referred to his unkempt appearance, and the fact that he often was observed with food crumbs and stains on his clothing. Former FBI Special Agent and author Gary Aldrich described Miller in this manner:

> Most agents assigned to Los Angeles during that time who knew Miller would probably agree that he should never have been hired in the first place. How he even got through the FBI Academy was a big mystery. But how Miller avoided losing his job for being one of the dumbest, most unkempt, most unpopular misfits the agency had ever hired was not a mystery. The management should have watched Miller more carefully.

Or was he Office Mobbed by hostiles? I suspect that happened to Bolton who I admire as a leader and thinker. James Flynn was driven out similarly at DIA. Office Mobs are conniving groups of cheap shotters who have it in for you in the office as frenemies #FOXP2Purge

Richard William Miller was born in Wilmington, California, on December 13, 1936.[1] He graduated from high school in Lynwood, California. He completed a two-year Mormon mission to Latino communities in Texas, and then attended Compton Junior College. He was a 1963 graduate of Brigham Young University, and a 20-year veteran of the FBI at the time of his arrest.

> After 20 years with the bureau, Miller had a personnel file filled with doubts about his job performance. His superiors had repeatedly admonished him to control his ballooning weight. And in 1982, a psychologist (CHarney?) examined Miller and told the FBI that he was emotionally unstable and should be nurtured along in some harmless post until retirement.

An ordinary every day guy who could pass as an undercover asset anywhere

After his arrest, a fuller portrait emerged of Miller.[4] According to news accounts, Miller occasionally took three-hour “lunches” at the 7-Eleven near his Los Angeles office, gorging himself on stolen candy bars while reading comic books.[4] He was alleged to have cheated his own uncle by selling a muscle-relaxant device he’d patented, and skimmed cash from bureau coffers meant for one of his informants.[4] Miller also ran auto-registration checks and searched FBI criminal indexes for a local private investigator at $500 per search.[4] In early 1984, the LDS Church excommunicated Miller for adultery.[4] He was divorced from his wife, Paula Miller, in late 1988.[citation needed]

This book

Rod Rosenstein is a Designated Concealer

Rod Rosentein, Robert Swan Mueller III, Christopher Wray, Mayorkis, the Bush family, and many others including the family members of Rod Rosenstein and family members of Eric Holder both with NSA operate the Wet Division Shadow Government partly built around protecting multi-racial test eugenics research from 1902 on as some groomed leaders including the Kelly brothers from aerospace and Bush and OBama families from politics continue as CIA backed candidates and long term studies and whose identities are protected by assassination, and in the Donegan family and our family line I have first had knowledge of parts of this all through my relatives and this ties to the Kennedy Curse as the assassination of Kennedys and various US officials and media protected the identity of these test births some using Glorian Donegan ovum under Sidney Gottlieb, Donald Barr, Columbia University, St Josepsh Danid Freeman hospital, and elswehre.

> The assassination of diplomat Anne Smedinghoff was directed from 1600 Penn Avenue, in a fringe control cell, run out of the NSA. In the Smedinghoff sanction, Homeland Director Janet Naps Napolitano knew of this operation, the CIA knew of this operation as she was one of their "own" and the NSA proper knew of the assassination.
>
> Lame Cherry is a Revealor [*]

This cell in the NSA was cleverly put together, and the NSA director is disavows any direct knowledge of operations, so it is never under Congressional oversight. The coordinator for this cell is Eric Holder, and is why he was brought into the Obama regime for the beginning in order to run this cell, as it was Holder who was the hatchet man in the Clinton Administration who under Janet Reno ran the Waco operations that murdered the Branch Davidians and burned their children alive for political effect, and it was Holder who ran the mass assassination of the group around Sec. Ron Brown Further Reading when he was executed with an ice pellet bullet, and the surviving flight attendent on ground after the crash was murdered as she wandered around ground zero. Vince Foster's termination was coordinated by the hatchet man Eric Holder.

Holder is the enforcer for the cartel at 1600 Penn Avenue. His cover is Attorney General, but in working the NSA cell, he never answers to Congress as they would never inquire to him about NSA matters, as he is not overtly in control of the NSA, as this all falls under Janet Napolitano's arena, but how the cell operates, is Napolitano is often in the dark about operations being run in the high profile, and that includes the murder of Hugo Chavez. Napolitano knew nothing of this operation run out of Homeland by Holder in this NSA cell.

> FBI Director Robert Swan Mueller III son of Cartel Grand Master Mason Piere Dupont board member Robert Mueller II) is aware of this NSA cell, but he is not a part of it. [I Edward Donegan believe he and through DuPont Corporations' Robert Mueller II and COINTELPRO cover-up of FBI Misconduct in NSA operations.

Rosenstein, Holder, Machen Jr protect State secrets from leaks, but is "BC" Blind Conservator and I in a blind conservancy likely run by Kamala Harris along with Tom Donegan rigged some scam into law?

Did Tom Donegan, Kamala Harris, Eric Holder, Sharon Holder, Rod Rosenstein, Robert Swan Mueller III setup some kind of conservatorship of my DNA when I was stuck in rigged facts-faked proceedings?

Rod Rosenstein is closely tied to Eric Holder and operations asserted to have killed Branch Davidians, , and many others.

It was Holder and Rosenstein who sought information in the assassination of Thomas Crane Wales and I think that was "Controlled Opposition."

@RobertKennedyJr while files not released Regime Change and Infiltration plans for 21st New Century @SecretService
1	2	3 (1960)	4 (2020)
Regime Change	Overthrow System	Assassination	New Groomed

			leader possibly already in Vice President or narrow election loss role
Masonry	USA and Cuba	CIA OSS TSS
George H.W. Bush, DuPonts, Boeing, British Pilgrim Society, Council on Foreign Relations, Donald Barr, Robert Swan Mueller II	US deomocratic government	Cuban and Latin American Governments - Castro, JFK, RFK, TK	Robert Swan Mueeler III, Meyorkas, Christopher Wray, George W. Bush, Cheney, Barrack Obama Jr., etc., in office on oil and defense contracting money on compaign trail

The Opposition to some event or person is really under the control or the same as those who actually favor the event or cause.

Rod Rosenstein used Tom Donegan to assist in my arrest with the NIH. Before I was contacted Tom Donegan and Glorian DOnegan had already been contacted by Rosestein and Mueller, both were working my case across USA and even international locations I was contacting in regards to my web site which made use of world data.

This also seems to have led to a meeting with Time Kaine during the detention in Tom Donegan's home, focusing on Tom's poltical goals, gay rights and protection of gays from Neo-Nazis perhaps. Tim Kaine was under consideration for Obama VP but Joseph Biden JR was selected instead from the shor-list.

After I was arrested private conferences with Magistrate Day and the prosecutors were setup, my lawywer was changed out, and I was not in any of the conference held which were pretrial but Tom Donegan and Mark Wierness were i those conferences. I was in custody.

He along with Christopher Wray and Loretta Lynch both from the New York Criminal Division) and Mueller head of the FBI and Rosenstein US Attorney for Maryland prosecuted me for requesting a document from the NIH regarding a NY Criminal Division use of a grant I idea I came up with. I was arrested for requesting that grant document. Jen Moore calls the Rosenstein familial group the FOIA Blockers, harassing FOIA on behalf of Government clients.

Rod Rosenstein has a history of a complex and bungled prosecution of me. It could have been prosecuted as felony of me threatening the FBI in which I put up a defense of they had illegally initiated a threat situation with me I could not prevent. Instead I had a year long mental commitment.

Rod Rosenstein has two other roles. Anti White Hate, a Jewish political interest in studying and disrupting the Alt-

Right I am in and also as an Eric Holder Barrack Obama Jr. designated protector MKULTRA - Level secrets and allegedy it was Rod Rosenstein who hired thugs to threaten Seth Rich over leaking, it is said without authorization the thugs hit Seth Rich going to far.

It follows that since his sister worked at National Institute of Health CDC or other type work he would prefer Maryland and siince his wife worked DC Circuit type litigation he would prefer the D.C. area as well as his own career in D.C. so it was not a surprise he was US Attorney for Maryland.

Rod Rosenstein retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Rosenstein was born in 1965 to an Ashkenazi Jewish family in Philadelphia. His father, Robert, ran a small business, whilst his mother, Gerri Rosenstein, was a bookkeeper and local school board president. Rod grew up in Lower Moreland Township, Pennsylvania.[18] Rosenstein graduated from Lower Moreland High School. He has one sister, Dr. Nancy Messonnier, director of the National Center for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. His wife VIctoria Nooland works for many government clients including the CIA via the Department of Justice litigation cases.

During the Clinton Administration, Rosenstein served as Counsel to Deputy Attorney General Philip B. Heymann (1993-1994) and Special Assistant to Criminal Division Assistant Attorney General Jo Ann Harris (1994-1995). Rosenstein then worked in the United States Office of the Independent Counsel under Ken Starr on the Whitewater investigation into President Bill Clinton.

I Edward Donegan was a class below Stephen Heyman and knew him fairly well. He want to be the US Attorney for Massachusetts during the Boston Bombing and that was my brother's Head Royce class Stephen Heyman was in so they may have stayed in touch.

It was Rod Rosenstein who represented the Maryland based National Institute of Health against me as US Attorney for Maryland.

Rosenstein attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1986 with a Bachelor of Science in economics.

After graduating from Penn, Rosenstein attended Harvard Law School where he was an editor of the Harvard Law Review. While at Harvard, Rosenstein landed an internship with then acting United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts Robert Mueller. Rosenstein graduated cum laude in 1989 with a Juris Doctor degree.[22] He then served as a law clerk to Judge Douglas H. Ginsburg of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.[23] He was a Wasserstein Fellow at Harvard Law School in 1997-98.

Update on General Flynn: DAG Rosenstein wife s DOJ attorney..what?

Youtube

Victoria Nuland at the Senate Intel Committee…Russia Russia Russia retrieved from Jen Moore on YouTube and copied or modified to here

okay I am losing my voice

Here I am I left the Senate Intelligence Committee because I was getting sick to my stomach listening to them I thought it was gonna be on Horowitz it actually was with Victoria Nuland who was an ambassador to to the ambassador for the United States under Barack Obama and the Clintons and going back 32 years .

She's well known for basically leading the Ukrainian coup when the Americans our country got involved in the election of their country so she's the last person I want to hear about with regarding election integrity or about Russia in general.

I'm actually sick of hearing Russia Russia Russia they're in there talking bad about POTUS and his decisions regarding the g7 in his mentioning of wanting Russia to be there.

Vladimir Putin talking about how he's so mean to our allies but just welcomes these [other and Saudi and Pakistani] dictators it's just it's a sickening joke and the Senators and their questions are just repeatedly ridiculous they got into the the dossier that was done by Steele and Victoria Nuland admitted that she first saw it in July of 2016 which to me I look at that and say why is an ambassador seeing excerpts of the still dossier in 2016 and then she said that they they stated that a Christopher Steele came to the US State Department to brief who knows who in October of 2016.

So my question was when was steel fired from the FBI can someone research that again was he already fired when he briefed them in October for lying so you know a lot of these facts that are coming out it's just disgusting to watch these the Senators not even questioned some of this and instead attack the sitting president United States using the administration and Victoria Nuland was discussing dirty money and I put out a tweet where you know she just left the government she's been a government worker all over life and she just bought a 1.5 million dollar home so just kind of wondering where all that money comes from since it seems like everybody that works for the government within a few years becomes multimillionaires.

So I don't know if she's the right person to talk about dirty money either so I left because I couldn't put up with it anymore it's the same questions over and over and over again senator burr senator Warner are talking about they need to police the social media companies even more because they can't handle it themselves because of "Russia's interference" and social or social media in the United States that affected the election and so it's just ridiculous going on and on and on and it's a big waste of time a waste of money they should be looking into more serious issues.

In this video Jen Moore a Pizzagate reporter is in disgust Flynn and his son Flynn Jr. ended up getting prison sentences rather than new medals for opposing Pizzagate Human Trafficking. Mike Pense and Rod Rosenstein George H.W. Bush globalists endorse the plan, Sovereignty interests including Roman Catholics like Scalia oppose it

Like I don't know hild trafficking drug running the spy ring in Congress so many other issues they seem to be so concerned about Russia penetrating our system but we actually have a Pakistani ISI aspiring in Congress that works in the IT department that stole information terabytes of information downloaded and sent to Pakistan no one seems to be concerned about any of that but they just want to scream Russia Russia Russia so I'm done with listening to those guys it’s a waste of time and you know that that’s all for the report so they sorry for my voice I don’t know why it just keeps going out but maybe from what I have wanting to scream inside at the D and just in the the lack of ethics that you see in this city and around this place so I’ll be checking out for now and going on to do maybe find something much more important or word about then these guys who just repeat themselves over and over and over again

---

okay it is Friday afternoon and I came down here to 333 Constitution Avenue in Washington DC att he William Bryan annex the United States courthouse

I came down here because today was supposed to be a sentencing update for General Michael Flynn and with judge Sullivan who is his new judge Rudy Contreras was removed from his case and if everyone is using noise got some cars coming out so if everyone remembers Rudy Contreras was involved in the FISA warrant and he was also a friend of Peter agent Peter struck and Lisa Paige and that was never disclosed in the court or by the special counsels team so the cases moved to judge Sullivan int his court here

Michael Flynn’s case General Michael Flynn his case was today was supposed to be a status update I believe it’s called hearing on sentencing and so I came down here to see if that was going to happen and I went inside and waited and tried to figure it out and apparently it was scheduled out again before I think August 24th and they’re supposed to comeback with them and sort of case presentation or something to that effect

I’m hoping and praying as many Americans are that even more and more of this total corruption and lies and the things that have been part of the upper echelons of the FBI and DOJ will be even more exposed at that point so that an American patriot General Michael Flynn can be released and set free from these this attack that has occurred against him for standing up for the right thing.

so I wanted to do that and give an update and then I also stopped by again and got some copies of some papers I'm gonna show you here and what I have is the books these are all the cases that Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosensteinn's wife whose name is Lisa Barsoomian

she goes by her maiden name only and she is a u.s. Unites States government attorney she represents the United States government in many different sections both FBI multiple times CIA DOJ

She represented she was one of Bill Clinton's personal attorneys I guess you could say in his impeachment process back when he was going through the impeachment with the Senate over the Monica Lewinsky caper and what's curious about that is Rosenstein steamed her husband was actually on the Ken Starr team the the team that was prosecuting or doing the investigation into Bill Clinton so Rod Rosenstein was on one side Lisa Barsoomian was his defense counsel

Jen Moore notes the very top FBI DOJ are participating in the operation, horror from rest of FBI over the program

I'm not sure why that wasn't a conflict to introspect then but it surely seems like a conflict of interest now I mean I can go through all these pages there's 15pages and 165 cases and this isn't even all of them and she has represented the FBI CIA like I said DOJ pretty much all the presidents she’s represented many different defendants are employed by the United States Government and the list just goes on and on and on so you would think that would be a conflict of interest or something at least excuse me they’re bars are coming out here knowing that you would think that something that is something that should be disclosed to the Congress had delivered the this information to five congressmen last week.

I believe I put it out on Twitter as many other people have and I’ve got the cases and you know like I said hand-delivered them so you would think this would be the the one of the biggest conflict of interest she’s known as the FOIA stopper she’s actually in here in these pages representing the United States of government are representing the FBI against Judicial Watch who is you know the one the group that is constantly trying to get FOIA releases on the Clinton investigation and the different government cases and she’s known as the FOIA stopper.

So my question is and and was when I turn this information over to some of the congressman if she’s representing the DOJ as an attorney and her husband Rod Rosenstein is the department or the Deputy Attorney General who is in conflict with the Congress right now over turning over documents and her job is to is to somehow stop or prevent some of the documents from coming out is that not a conflict of interest I don’t know that she’s assigned to do that specifically right now but I don’t know that she’s not and no one’s really brought this up and I think it’s a really important point did she in fact read the OIG report

We know mr. Rosenstein got a copy of it yeah the other parties involved got a copy of it what and the question is has if it wasn’t altered in any way did she read the report did she have access to it as you know as representing the Department of Justice is she one of the lawyers representing the Department of Justice while her husband in this conflict in running the Russia Investigation [which is Robert Swan Mueller III of Dupont Corp Grand Master Masons trying to find Donald J. Trump a Russian spy] and in a conflict with the Congress who are deserving of the documents.

so that I think that’s a question that we the American people it stated with the our documents who we the American people should know and I think it should be brought up by congressman Jordan and meadows and gates and Trey Gowdy and Devin Nunez and you know the Democrats as well but they’ll neve mention it but it should at least be brought out that this is going on and discussed whether this is a conflict of interest or not so I just want to show you I could go through all these cases but it’s just you know on and on the kind of the same government agencies that she was the personal attorney for so that’s the update here from the courthouse at 3:33 Constitution

---

http://www.patriotortraitor.com/jen-moore/

The FBI Along With The Other Divisions Of The U.S. Department Of Justice Are Treasonous And Corrupt [at the top] … Every American should forget everything they were taught or felt about integrity, honesty, guilt or innocence within the FBI and other divisions of the U.S. Department of Justice.

- CLICK HERE to read how the FBI operates like a Gestapo Secret Police Force.
- CLICK HERE to read about the FBI’s reign of terror as a secret police force.
- CLICK HERE for a short history lesson on how the FBI is treasonous and corrupt.
- CLICK HERE for ten examples that prove the FBI is treasonous and corrupt
- CLICK HERE for more information about the FBI Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Eric Pearson writes to you “Welcome to Patriot or Traitor…

“The primary purpose for this web site is to provide unbiased voter information in helping to assure elections are won by patriotic and honorable candidates that are not traitors to the Declaration of Independence and United States Constitution. Further Reading

http://www.patriotortraitor.com

Lame Cherry is a Revealor

MKULTRA was a large conspiracy of the Special Relationship led by England and Free Masonry along with Vatican II to groom Masonic leaders for development around the world. Working with OECD and Scottish Rites the sleeper agents plan would win military and industrial relationships for the West via puppet governments.

What the assassinations are hiding is that Glorian Donegan DNA was considered a good candidate for use, unknown but coming from established world events figures family lines.

THe string of Scotish Rites acts with grooming and Eugenics created POTUS figures like Obama, Bush, and Biden, while killing RFK, JFK almost TK, and others as the plan was placed into action by big business of industrial leaders of such wealth and power political and media companies were synonymous with them and part of CIA orgainzed Cartel operations much in the same way Political Action Committees can be sources of wealth directed illegally by co-ordination with office holders or candidates.

Lame Cherry

https://lamecherry.blogspot.com/ *

> The lame cherry, the mystery of life’s experts coupled in the mind of ignorance > too much the enigma to understand.

Assassination Incorporated 1600 Penn Avenue: The Smedinghoff Murder retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Once again another Lame Cherry exclusive in matter and anti matter……

The assassination of diplomat Anne Smedinghoff was directed from 1600 Penn Avenue, in a fringe control cell, run out of the NSA.

In the Smedinghoff sanction, Homeland Director Janet Naps Napolitano knew of this operation, the CIA knew of this operation as she was one of their "own" and the NSA proper knew of the assassination.

David Plouffe (born May 27, 1967) is an American political strategist best known as the campaign manager for Barack Obama's successful 2008 presidential campaign. A long-time Democratic Party campaign consultant, he was a partner at the party-aligned campaign consulting firm AKPD Message and Media, which he joined in 2000.

Plouffe was an outside senior advisor to Obama since the president's first day in office and was then appointed as a Senior Advisor to the President (inside the White House) in 2011 following the resignation of David Axelrod, who went on to start Obama's reelection campaign. In September 2014, he became the Senior Vice President of Policy and Strategy for Uber.

What this cell is, is a melding of the political wing of Valerie Jarrett David Axelrod, David Plouffe and Michelle Robinson Obama, with full knowledge by Birther Hussein Obama, in this "committee to re elect the

In May 2015, he left that role to become a full-time strategic adviser for the company.[In January 2017, he joined the Chan Zuckerberg Initiative to lead the policy and advocacy efforts of the initiative. In 2019, POLITICO reported he joined the Board of Directors of liberal nonprofit ACRONYM, where he would advise an anti-Trump digital campaign.

In 1994 Plouffe managed Delaware Attorney General Charles Monroe Oberly III United States Attorney for the District of Delaware from 2010 to 2017 (born NOVEMBER 9, 1946 unsuccessful US Senate campaign against Senator William V. Roth.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

birther" and to provide political opportunities in staged crisis to not take advantage of. Rahm Emanuel never quite knew the depths to what his statement would devolve to.

[Further Reading on Valerie Jarrett Nesbit and Whitaker Birther/Truther]

The reason Smedinghoff was terminated, was her indirect knowledge in being the "cancer courier" who provided the wafer to the priest who fed this bio toxin to Hugo Chavez. Smedinghoff did not know her mission in Venezuela, but after reaching her new assignment in Afghanistan, became concerned over the perilous things that Birther Hussein was exposing the Israeli state to and the treatment of Jews, that in conversation with a Mosaad operative, a recruitment was initiated, and Smedinghoff divulged her part in the Venezuela operation which the Israeli operative helped fill in the details to bring to the conclusion of why international headlines were speaking of the cancer weapon, and Smedinghoff was made to realize she was the loaded gun.

This information found it's way through the NSA network and Smedinghoff was sourced as the conduit. It was at this point that this double agent was sanctioned for termination to cover up what was becoming a story pointing fingers at the Obama regime as Murder Incorporated.

Bluntly put, there is no difference in Smedinghoff, Benghazi with Ambassador Stevens, the SEALS loaded into one helo and murdered and Hugo Chavez. All of these operations were run out of 1600 Penn Avenue by the cell operational with full knowledge of the NSA Director.

This cell, was behind the setting up of the fake bin Laden compound in Pakistan for a future political event.

The reason the CIA, NSA and Napolitano were informed of the Smedinghoff assassination, was this was one of their own and would bring high attention as Chris Stevens. There could not be "inquiries" into this, as Anne Smedinghoff like Chandra Levy left strings which if pulled would reveal other higher profile operations.

Janet Napolitano was born on NOVEMBER 29, 1957, in New York City, the daughter of Jane Marie and Leonard Michael Napolitano, who was the dean of the University of New Mexico School of Medicine.

Right-wing extremism memo - Napolitano was the subject of controversy after the release of a

This cell in the NSA was cleverly put together, and the NSA director is disavows any direct knowledge of operations, so it is never

Department of Homeland Security threat assessment report that was seen as derogatory towards armed forces veterans. The report focused on potential threats from the radical right. Rightwing [sic] Extremism: Current Economic and Political Climate Fueling Resurgence in Radicalization and Recruitment was made public in April 2009. The report suggested several factors, including the election of the first black or mixed race president in Barack Obama under Congressional oversight. The coordinator for this cell is Eric Holder, and is why he was brought into the Obama regime for the beginning in order to run this cell, as it was Holder who was the hatchet man in the Clinton Administration who under Janet Reno ran the Waco operations that murdered the Branch Davidians and burned their children alive for political effect, and it was Holder who ran the mass assassination of the group around Sec. Ron Brown Further Reading when he was executed with an ice pellet bullet, and the surviving flight attendent on ground after the crash was murdered as she wandered around ground zero. Vince Foster's termination was coordinated by the hatchet man Eric Holder.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Holder is the enforcer for the cartel at 1600 Penn Avenue. His cover is Attorney General, but in working the NSA cell, he never answers to Congress as they would never inquire to him about NSA matters, as he is not overtly in control of the NSA, as this all falls under Janet Napolitano's arena, but how the cell operates, is Napolitano is often in the dark about operations being run in the high profile, and that includes the murder of Hugo Chavez. Napolitano knew nothing of this operation run out of Homeland by Holder in this NSA cell.

FBI Director Robert Mueller is aware of this NSA cell, but he is not a part of it. [I Edward Donegan believe he and through DuPont Corporations' Robert Mueller II and COINTELPRO cover-up of FBI Misconduct in NSA operations. Further Reading

This NSA group scares the CIA and FBI, as those finding the tracks of their operations, know this is all sanctioned and protected at the highest levels, and those matters are not to be spoken of.

Andrew Breitbart was assassinated by this political assassination committee. [He had pictures of Micheal OBama as a man before being used as a spacer splice figurehead mohther to a genetically woven in genome in slight of hand.] Further Reading

The "cell" was involved with Sandy Hook, the Colorado Joker and Gabrielle Giffords [And Judge Role and later Justice Scalia in the same pattern [of clandestine Eugenics] operations. Further Reading

As stated, Homeland Director Janet Naps Napolitano knows this NSA cell is run by Eric Holder, but has been informed it is "hands off" and she knows to keep distance from it. [Michael Hastings and Andrea Parhamovich were killed over discussions they had of MKULTRA in Vienna Austria and hoped to meet there. Further Reading

This cell was behind the set up of CIA Director David Patreaus. It was the Committee to Re Elect Obama at all costs and to remove all political competitors to Obama.

Vice President Joe Biden knows that Eric Holder is the "hatchet man" for the Obama regime. That is what Eric Holders specialty has been since the Clinton era and why he is so heavily protected from any investigations.

The machinations of what would become Gun Runner and Fast and Furious, were run out of this NSA cell operating out of the White House.

This is Assassination Incorporated, and it fields the entire scope of national and international assassins both American and foreign terrorist to progress the Obama regimes feudal agenda for the [Fuedalism Masonic] World Order. [Contorversially conspiring against the Nationalism of Ireland, Packistan, and other Sovereign conuntries.]

Journalist Phillip Marshall was targeted by this committee for assassination. The current high profile assassination target for this cell is Kim Jong Un of North Korea.

[Marshall asserts that the Saudi government was the true executioners of the 9/11 attack and framed their enemies while CIA special operations set up an elaborate decoy named Osama bin Laden to divert attention away from the Saudi operation] Further Reading

Phillip Marshall, author of, The Big Bamboozle: 9/11 and the War on Terror" is a Revealer

In his books and his social media bios (including multiple Facebook accounts, his Twitter account and a Tumblr), he claims to have served as a contract pilot for the CIA's Special Activities Division during the Iran-Contra affair, flying shipments to and from Nicaragua.

> Philip Marshall, a veteran airline captain and former government "special activities" contract pilot, has authored three books on Top Secret

America, a group presently conducting business as the United States Intelligence Community.

Beginning with his role in the 1980s as a Learjet captain first as part of a Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) sting on Pablo Escobar, and later in the covert arming of the Nicaraguan Contras, Marshall has studied and written 30-years worth of covert government special activities and the revolving door of Wall Street tricksters, media moguls, and their well funded politicians.

David Plouffe
@davidplouffe

Combatting destructive disinformation with factual and compelling information is the major front in the battle to save our Democracy. And across so many issues, as we are reminded daily. Good for @taraemcg and team for getting in the trenches.

axios.com
Reid Hoffman and George Soros back new media firm to combat disinformation
"The information crisis we're in is so much bigger than politics," its founder said.

Tara McGowan
12.1K Tweets

Follow

Tara McGowan
@taraemcg

civic media builder 🔗📲🛋️ founder of @goodinfoinc, @couriernewsroom + @FWIWnews . @barackobama + @60minutes alum. #yeswecan was always about the 'we' 🇺🇸

Rhode Island, USA fastcompany.com/90581541/acron...

Exclusive: Billionaires Soros back new media firm to combat disinformation retrieved from Axios.com and copied or modified to here

Exclusive: Billionaires back new media firm to combat disinformation by Sara Fischer Sara Fischer, author of Media Trends

A new public benefit corporation backed by billionaires Reid Hoffman, George Soros, and others is launching Tuesday to fund new media companies and efforts that tackle disinformation.

Why it matters: Good Information Inc. aims to fund and scale businesses that cut through echo chambers with fact-based information. As part of its mission, it plans to invest in local news companies.

- ACRONYM invested in for-profit companies that built media and technology solutions for progressive causes. It ran one of the largest digital campaigns to defeat President Trump in the 2020 election, totaling $100 million.
- One of the companies it invested in, called Shadow, made headlines last year for contributing to the delayed reporting of the Iowa caucus results.
- Hoffman, the founder of LinkedIn, backed ACRONYM

Also see Sightings and Obama Dead Pool and Rudy2's blog or Surveillance Survivors (or Kennedy Assassination material) or what I will call the Oil Business Rockefeller Bush Rothschild Clinton Wet Division

Leonard Napolitano, PhD retrieved from University of New Mexico and copied or modified to here

Leonard Napolitano, PhD Anatomy Dean, UNM School of Medicine (1972-1994) 1930-2013

Dr. Napolitano was born in 1930 in Oakland, CA, one of three children and the only son of Italian immigrants. He attended Santa Clara University where, in 1950, he quarterbacked the Broncos to an upset Orange Bowl win over Bear Bryant's Kentucky Wildcats. [He is the father of

You shared a photo.
Dec 22, 2021

Independent fact-checkers reviewed a similar photo and said it was false.
Apr 29, 2019

Facebook determined your post has the same false photo and added a notice to the post.

People who repeatedly share false information might have their posts moved lower in News Feed so other people are less likely to see them.

om independent fact-checkers

FACT CHECK: Did JFK Plan To Expose A Plot To 'Enslave Every Man, Woman And Child' Before

No, JFK didn't say he would expose a slavery plot PolitiFact

Th su pri
Jo

former DHS Secretary Janet Napolitano]

Dr. Napolitano earned a PhD in anatomy from St. Louis University and proceeded to teach at Cornell Medical School and the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine. He moved to New Mexico in 1964 to become one of the seven founding faculty at the newly established School of Medicine at UNM. He became interim Dean of the medical school in 1972 and was named permanent Dean the following year, serving in that capacity until his retirement in 1994.

Dr. Napolitano presided over the dramatic expansion of the medical school and health sciences complex on the North campus of UNM, creating an environment known nationally and internationally for its innovative teaching curriculum. He was a highly effective advocate for the medical school at the legislature in Santa Fe. Due to these efforts, the medical school and the associated health sciences campus became one of New Mexico's chief assets. Among his many honors, Dr. Napolitano received the medical school's first Living Legend award in 2009.

Dr. Napolitano loved opera, Tony Bennett, good food, and good company. He was an avid reader and a passionate supporter of the arts. He loved his family and had deep and enduring friendships all over the world.

The Hidden Power The legal mind behind the White House's war on terror. retrieved from By Jane Mayer June 25, 2006 The Newyorker and copied or modified to here

On DECEMBER 18TH 2006 Colin Powell, the former Secretary of State, joined other prominent Washington figures at FedEx Field, the Redskins' stadium, in a skybox belonging to the team's owner. During the game, between the Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys, Powell spoke of a recent report in the Times which revealed that President Bush, in his pursuit of terrorists, had secretly authorized the National Security Agency to eavesdrop on American citizens without first obtaining a warrant from the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, as required by federal law.

According to someone who knows Colin Powell, his comment about the article was terse. “It’s Addington,” he said. “He doesn’t care about the Constitution.” Powell was referring to David S. Addington, Vice-President Cheney’s chief of staff and his longtime principal legal adviser. Powell’s office says that he does not recall making the statement. But his former top aide, Lawrence Wilkerson, confirms that he and Powell shared this opinion of Addington.

Addington has been a hawk on national defense since he was a teen-ager. Leonard Napolitano, an engineer who was one of Addington’s close childhood friends, and whose political leanings are more like those of his sister, Janet Napolitano, the Democratic governor of Arizona, joked, “I don’t think that in high school David was a believer in the divine right of kings.” But, he said, Addington was “always conservative.”

The Addingtons were a traditional Catholic military family. They moved frequently; David’s father, Jerry, an electrical engineer in the Army, was assigned to a variety of posts, including Saudi Arabia and Washington, D.C., where he worked with the Joint Chiefs of Staff. As a teen-ager, Addington told a friend that he hoped to live in Washington himself when he grew up. Jerry Addington, a 1940 graduate of West Point who won a Bronze Star during the Second World War, also served in Korea and at the North American Air Defense Command, in Colorado; he reached the rank of brigadier general before he retired, in 1970, when David was thirteen. David attended public high school in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and his father began a second career, teaching middle-school math.

On the firing of US Attorneys

> “The conspiracy theorist in me cannot leave unmentioned the possibility that someone at the Bush White House-let’s call him “David Addington”-does nothing all day but mark up legislation to diminish congressional and judicial oversight while increasing executive branch authority. Someone at the White House figured out that with a little Wite-Out and the distractions of the Christmas season, the president could remove both the federal judiciary and the Congress from the U.S. attorney appointments process. Slate * “

Eric Holder and Aron Schwartz

Aaron Swartz retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Aaron Hillel Swartz (NOVEMBER 8, 1986 - January 11, 2013) was an American computer programmer, entrepreneur, writer, political organizer, and Internet hacktivist. He was involved in the development of the web feed format RSS, the Markdown publishing format,the organization Creative Commons, and the website framework web.py, and joined the social news site Reddit six months after its founding. He was given the title of co-founder of Reddit by Y Combinator owner Paul Graham after the formation of Not a Bug, Inc. (a merger of Swartz's project Infogami and Redbrick Solutions, a company run by Alexis Ohanian and Steve Huffman). Swartz's work also focused on civic awareness and activism. He helped launch the Progressive Change Campaign Committee in 2009 to learn more about effective online activism. In 2010, he became a research fellow at Harvard University's Safra Research Lab on Institutional Corruption, directed by Lawrence Lessig. He founded the online group Demand Progress, known for its campaign against the Stop Online Piracy Act.

In 2011, Swartz was arrested by Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) police on state breaking-and-entering charges, after connecting a computer to the MIT network in an unmarked and unlocked closet, and setting it to download academic journal articles systematically from JSTOR using a guest user account issued to him by MIT. Federal prosecutors, led by Carmen Ortiz, later charged him with two counts of wire fraud and eleven violations of the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, carrying a cumulative maximum penalty of $1 million in fines, 35 years in prison, asset forfeiture, restitution, and supervised release.[Swartz declined a plea bargain under which he would have served six months in federal prison.Two days after the prosecution rejected a counter-offer by Swartz, he was found dead by suicide in his Brooklyn apartment. In 2013, Swartz was inducted posthumously into the Internet Hall of Fame.

Carmen Milagros Ortiz (born January 5, 1956) is an attorney, college instructor, and former United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts.

In 2009, she was nominated to the position by President Barack Obama. Ortiz was both the first woman and the first Hispanic to serve as U.S. Attorney for Massachusetts. She succeeded Michael Sullivan in that position, with Michael J. Loucks serving as the interim U.S. Attorney between Sullivan's resignation and Ortiz's confirmation. Noteworthy prosecutions by her office include those of Whitey Bulger, Tarek Mehanna, and Dzhokhar Tsarnaev, as well as the controversial prosecution of Aaron Swartz which resulted in his suicide.

The Secret Service Files:

> While heavily censored, the interview of one of Aaron Swartz's good friends [redacted] by Special Agent [redacted] and Detective [redacted] on May 12, 2011, at the [redacted] had [redacted] insights into the philosophy and [redacted] of Aaron [redacted]. [redacted] [redacted] of [redacted]! [redacted]? *

In December 2016, Ortiz announced that she would step down from her post in January. Her announcement was not unexpected, due to the fact that President Donald Trump would have the authority to name new U.S. Attorneys.

Aaron Swartz: 26-year-old genius, computer prodigy, co-creator of RSS and Reddit, commits suicide after Obama DOJ harassment; 'kill list' critic; Attorney for Aaron Swartz: Prosecutors' Arguments Were "Disingenuous and Contrived"; Aaron Swartz dead; was this brilliant internet revolutionary 'taken out?' The cause of death is currently unconfirmed.: The father of information activist Aaron Swartz blames US prosecutors for his son's death: Aaron

Was Killed By The Gov't; Aaron Swartz' suicide raises questions for Eric Holder and the Justice Dept; Issa, Cummings press Holder for answers about Aaron Swartz trial; Aaron Swartz files reveal how FBI tracked internet activist; Daryl Issa (on Twitter): Very concerning allegations about DOJ's handling of Aaron Swartz case on pg. 67-68 of MIT Report; Documents show Secret Service kept tab of Swartz; First 100 Pages of Aaron Swartz's Secret Service File Released

This book

Robert Swan Mueller is a Deep State Assasin and Traitor cover up artist

subject matter retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Robert Swan Mueller III (/ˈmʌlər/; born AUGUST 7, 1944) is an American lawyer and government official who served as the sixth director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) from 2001 to 2013.

A graduate of Princeton University and New York University, Mueller served as a Marine Corps officer during the Vietnam War, receiving a Bronze Star for heroism and a Purple Heart.

In 1991, he declared the government had been investigating the Bank of Credit and Commerce International (BCCI) since 1986 in more-than-usual media exposure.[37] Also in 1991, he was elected a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers.

In 1993, Mueller became a partner at Boston's Hale and Dorr, specializing in white-collar crime litigation.[25] He returned to public service in 1995 as senior litigator in the homicide section of the District of Columbia United States Attorney's Office. In 1998, Mueller was named U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of California and held that position until 2001.

President George W. Bush nominated Mueller for the position of FBI director on JULY 5, 2001. He and two other candidates, Washington lawyer George J. Terwilliger III and veteran Chicago prosecutor and white-collar crime defense lawyer Dan Webb, were up for the job, but Mueller, described at the time as a conservative Republican,[39][40] was always considered the front-runner.[citation needed] Terwilliger and Webb both pulled out from consideration around mid-June, while confirmation hearings for Mueller before the Senate Judiciary Committee were quickly set for July 30, only three days before his prostate cancer surgery.

George James Terwilliger III (born JUNE 5, 1950) is an American lawyer and public official. He is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of McGuireWoods LLP where he is head of the firm's Crisis Response practice and co-head of its white collar team. He is a former United States Deputy Attorney General and acting United States Attorney General. Terwilliger, of Vermont, was nominated on February 14, 1992, by President George H.W. Bush to be Deputy Attorney General at the U.S. Department of Justice. He succeeded William Pelham Barr.

The Senate unanimously confirmed Mueller as FBI director on AUGUST 2, 2001, voting 98-0 in favor of his appointment. He had previously served as acting deputy attorney general of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) for several months before officially becoming the FBI director on September 4, 2001, one week before the September 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

January 20 2009 Barack Obama swearing the oath of office of the president of the United States using the Bible of Abraham Lincoln

I Edward Paul Donegan believe long term elites in Washington D.C. power families knew the Free Masons Peirs DuPont, the Rockeffellers, the Bush family, and others built Barrack Obama Jr as a groomed sleeper agent and also have killed to concearl Franz Kutschera DNA was used (uncle of Maria Augusta Kutschera) which becomes more problematic since Himmler, Mengele, and many other Nazis were tied to that chain of events of MKULTRA. Robert Swan Mueller II and Princeton University and Harvard University and other universities including University of Washington-Sealte are tied to that sleeper agent plan of Lyndon Baines Johnson and the oil business Mafia. This DNA came by way of Glorian Donegan used in a half twin of Edward Paul Donegan, Obamaa Jr.

In May 2011, President Barack Obama asked Mueller to continue at the helm of the FBI for two additional years beyond his normal 10-year term, which would have expired on September 4, 2011. The Senate approved this request 100-0 on July 27, 2011. On September 4, 2013, Mueller was replaced by James Comey.

In June 2013, Mueller defended NSA surveillance programs in testimony before a House Judiciary Committee hearing. He said that surveillance programs could have “derailed” the September 11 attacks.[58][59] Congressman John Conyers disagreed: “I am not persuaded that that makes it OK to collect every call.”[Mueller also testified that the government’s surveillance programs complied “in full with U.S. law and with basic rights guaranteed under the Constitution”.[He said that “We are taking all necessary steps to hold Edward Snowden responsible for these disclosures.”

Robert Swan Mueler retrieved from Truthout.com and copied or modified to here

From Truth-Out website: The last ten years have witnessed an assault on the constitutional rights of law-abiding Americans, led largely by the FBI. Appointed mere days before the 9/11 attacks, Director Robert S. Mueller III has guided the bureau through the resurrection of many long discredited practices from its COINTELPRO era. Yet, the Obama administration has proposed extending Mueller's term as FBI director. Congress should reject the proposal and insist on a nominee from outside the bureau to restore accountability, law and order. Just ask Nick Merrill in New York, Joe Iosbaker in Chicago or Ahmadullah Niazi in Los Angeles: three law-abiding Americans whose constitutional rights are among the casualties of the last decade.

The last time Congress extended the term of FBI director was in 1972, to keep J. Edgar Hoover in office. Years later, when the Church and Pike committees finally exposed the notorious counterintelligence program (aka COINTELPRO), Congress discovered that Hoover presided over severe abuses for decades

> Many of the techniques used would be intolerable in a democratic society even if all of the targets had been involved in violent activity, but COINTELPRO went far beyond that … the bureau conducted a sophisticated vigilante operation aimed squarely at preventing the exercise of First Amendment rights of speech and association.

Repeating errors from Hoover's discredited era hardly offers hope to restore law and order to the FBI. Given the bureau’s history as a recidivist agency notorious for recurring abuses of civil rights, why has the president [Obama] proposed to extend the director’s term for the first time in nearly 40 years?

Born Robert Swan Mueller III AUGUST 7, 1944

J. Edgar Hoover FBI Director -1924 - 1972 Robert Swan Mueller 2001 - 2013

About 60 total years of illegal criminal FBI acts.

> Later in life and after his death, J. Edgar Hoover became a controversial figure as evidence of his secretive abuses of power began to surface. He was found to have exceeded the jurisdiction of the FBI, and to have used the FBI to harass political dissenters and activists, to amass secret files on political leaders, and to collect evidence using illegal methods. Hoover consequently amassed a great deal of power and was in a position to intimidate and threaten others, including multiple sitting presidents of the United States.
>
> From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Mueller oddly enough is appointed by the Bush administration about a week before 9/11 destroys the ONI office files on MKULTRA Project Monarch Artichoke

Pentagon issues rules aimed at stopping rise of extremism amid the traditions of J Edgar Hoover

and Robert Swan Mueller

In the long tradition of constitutional violations in breach of office and oath, failed ideology, and inferior leadership, the US Military has harbored the ethnically offensive abuses (toxifying government with evangelical and corrupt industrial infiltration) while marginalizing and undermining constitutional rights and activities.

The DuPonts and GLorian Donegan. GLorian and Harold were moved to South Carolina Route 1 Bishopville after the death of Festus Gainey when my mother was 9 years old.

Pieres DuPont were huge DOD nuclear and gun powder US DOD Defense contractors and also Master Masons. Robert Mueller the II was on their board of directors. Robert Swan Mueller III is the Eugenics product of Eugenics.

He, Robert Swan Mueller is one of the most violent FBI terrorist in a long history of FBI illegal acts which simply cover up for big name politicians.

Long over staying office in the FBI I wonder what the story of James Comey is, probably also a 4AMP.

Did the Son of Sam have James Brien Comey Jr. and his family on the CIA hit list too?

J. Brien Comey retrieved from North New Jersey.com and copied or modified to here

J. Brien Comey age 89 of Allendale, died peacefully on Tuesday, March 24, 2020. Born and raised in Yonkers, NY, Brien moved to Allendale 49 years ago. He was a 1953 graduate of Manhattan College and received an MBA degree from Fairleigh Dickenson. After serving in the Army following college, Brien began his business career with Mobil Oil, selling motor oil to gas stations in the New York area and then selecting locations for new Mobil stations. Brien then took a job as Vice President and Director of Corporate Real Estate for the Curtiss-Wright Corporation managing the company's extensive real estate portfolio He retired from Curtiss-Wright in 1992 and began a second career as a Certified Financial Planner. Brien, who had originally trained to be a Capuchin priest, remained active in the Catholic Church and was a parishioner at Guardian Angel R.C. Church in Allendale, where he served as a Eucharistic Minister.

The [US Army] Air Corps placed an initial order for 524 P-40s. This was the largest single order for airplanes by the U.S. military up to that time. The first production model was the P-40 Warhawk, armed with two .50-caliber machine guns. There was only one P-40A variant which was a P-40 modified as a camera aircraft. The definitive pursuit model was the P-40B Warhawk, which retained the two .50-caliber guns of the P-40 and added two

Browning M2 .30-caliber machine guns to each of the wings.]

The Order of Friars Minor Capuchin (Latin: Ordo Fratrum Minorum Capuccinorum; postnominal abbr. O.F.M. Cap.) is a religious order of Franciscan friars within the Catholic Church, one of two “First Orders” that sprang from the Franciscan Friars Minor Observant (OFM Obs., now OFM), the other being the Conventuals (OFM Conv.). The Capuchins arose in 1525 with the purpose of returning to a stricter observance of the rule established by Francis of Assisi in 1209.

> The Curtiss-Wright Corporation is an American, global diversified product manufacturer and service provider, incorporated in Delaware with headquarters in Parsippany-Troy Hills, New Jersey,[3] which supplies the commercial, industrial, defense, and energy markets. Created in 1929 from the consolidation of Curtiss, Wright, and various supplier companies, by the end of World War II it was the largest aircraft manufacturer in the United States, supplying whole aircraft in large numbers to the U.S. Armed Forces. It has since evolved away from the final assembly of finished aircraft, becoming a component manufacturer specializing in actuators, aircraft controls, valves, and surface-treatment services. It also is a supplier to commercial nuclear power, nuclear navy > systems, industrial vehicles and to the oil and gas industries.

Joan M. Comey, age 79 of Allendale, died peacefully surrounded by her family on Sunday, August 19, 2012. Born and raised in Yonkers, NY, Joan moved to Allendale 41 years ago. She was a 1954 graduate of the College of New Rochelle and received her Master's degree in computer science from Iona College. Joan was the first woman underwriter for Mutual of New York Ins. She then became a substitute teacher in the Allendale School System, followed by her career in computer education with the Girl Scouts of America. Joan was a parishioner at Guardian Angel R.C. Church in Allendale where she served as a Eucharistic Minister and director of Religious Education. She was a volunteer at the Valley Hospital and with Friends of the Allendale Library. Joan also enjoyed the time she spent at Arcola Country Club where she was an active member of the women's golf program. [then] Surviving is her loving husband of 55 years J. Brien Comey, her devoted children,

The P-40 had no serious vices and was a pleasant aircraft to fly, and, when flown by an experienced pilot who was fully aware of its strengths and weaknesses, was able to give a good account of itself in aerial combat. Strangely enough, the P-40 continued in production long after later and more modern types were readily available, the numbers manufactured reaching the third highest total of American World War II fighters, after the Republic P-47 and the North American P-51.

The origin of the P-40 can be traced back to the Curtiss P-36 (Model 75) fighter, which was powered by a radial, air-cooled engine. A step in the direction toward what was early testing, the XP-40 was much slower than expected, reaching .5 miles per hour (507 kilometers per hour). (The P-36A Hawk had mum speed of 313 miles per hour). Engineers experimented with nt placement for the coolant radiator, oil coolers and the engine ke. The Air Corps project officer, Lieutenant Benjamin Scovill , had the prototype sent to the National Advisory Committee for utics (NACA) Research Center at Langley Field, Virginia, where -size airplane was placed inside a wind tunnel.

ırtiss-Wright XP-40 in the original configuration at Langley Field. (NASA)

two-month period, NACA engineers made a number of improve- The radiator was moved forward under the engine and the oil s utilized the same air scoop. The exhaust manifolds were im- as were the landing gear doors.

hey had finished, Lieutenant Kelsey flew the modified XP-40 eventually to emerge as the P-40 was the XP-37, in which the P-36 design was reworked to incorporate the Allison V-1710 liquid cooled V-type engine.

James Brien Comey Jr. (/ˈkoʊmi/; born DECEMBER 14, 1960) is an American lawyer who was the 7th director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) from 2013 until his dismissal in May 2017.[3] Comey was a registered Republican for most of his adult life; however, in 2016, he described himself as unaffiliated.

James Comey recalls a ‘life-changing’ run-in with a gunman who broke into his childhood home retrieved from ABC News and copied or modified to here

James Comey recalls a ‘life-changing’ run-in with a gunman who broke into his childhood home

James Comey - Born: DECEMBER 14, 1960 , Yonkers, NY

The drama unfolded back in October 1977, “at the same time that the Son of Sam, David Berkowitz, was terrorizing New York City, that summer of ‘77 was known as the time of the Ramsey rapist,” Comey told Stephanopoulos of the criminal who had been given the nickname based on the New Jersey town that he had been targeting.

“It was a Friday night. And — I was a nerd, so I was home working on a piece for a literary magazine. I was writing about peer pressure. And I was in my room when a gunman kicked in the front door of the house. And the next hour or so was terrifying and life-changing,” Comey said.

PHOTO: A Higher Loyalty: Truth, Lies, and Leadership by James Comey Flatiron Books Flatiron Books A Higher Loyalty: Truth, Lies, and…Read More

The retelling of the story about his run-in with the gunman - whom Comey believed was the so-called

Ramsey rapist - came when Comey met with Stephanopoulos in his childhood home as part of his interview about his new book, “A Higher Loyalty: Truth, Lies and Leadership,” which goes on sale on April 17.

From Truth-Out website: The last ten years have witnessed an assault on the constitutional rights of law-abiding Americans, led largely by the FBI. Appointed mere days before the 9/11 attacks, Director Robert S. Mueller III has guided the bureau through the resurrection of many long discredited practices from its COINTELPRO era. Yet, the Obama administration has proposed extending Mueller’s term as FBI director. Congress should reject the proposal and insist on a nominee from outside the bureau to restore accountability, law and order. Just ask Nick Merrill in New York, Joe Iosbaker in Chicago or Ahmadullah Niazi in Los Angeles: three law-abiding Americans whose constitutional rights are among the casualties of the last decade.

The last time Congress extended the term of FBI director was in 1972, to keep J. Edgar Hoover in office. Years later, when the Church and Pike committees finally exposed the notorious counterintelligence program (aka COINTELPRO), Congress discovered that Hoover presided over severe abuses for decades

NPR: The Secret Burglary That Exposed J. Edgar Hoover’s FBI

> Many of the techniques used would be intolerable in a democratic society even if all of the targets had been involved in violent activity, > but COINTELPRO went far beyond that … the bureau conducted a sophisticated vigilante operation aimed squarely at preventing the exercise of First Amendment rights of speech and association.

Repeating errors from Hoover's discredited era hardly offers hope to restore law and order to the FBI. Given the bureau's history as a recidivist agency notorious for recurring abuses of civil rights, why has the president [Obama] proposed to extend FBI Director Robert Mueller IIIs term for the first time in nearly 40 years it has been done for any FBI Director?

According to The Washington Post, the administration simply failed to get its act together in time: "The president's request that Congress tinker with the 10-year term limit sets a bad precedent.… It may be the path of less resistance to retain an FBI director.… But staffing an administration on schedule is part of the president's job." Sen. Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa) agreed that the proposed extension would be "a risky precedent to set. Thirty-five years ago, Congress limited the FBI director's term to one 10-year appointment as an important safeguard against improper political influence and abuses of the past."

Mueller's father, Robert Swan Meuller II, worked for the DuPont Corporation in New York, where Mueller was born. His mother was Alice C. Truesdale of Railroad fortune.

According to NBC News, Mueller, who was 74 in March 2019, was "born into a wealthy family in New York" and "attended a tony prep school."

According to his father's obituary at Legacy.com, Mueller's father served in World War II in the U.S. Navy. He died in Boston on December 26, 2007 at age 91. Mueller's mother died the year before. The obituary also shows that Mueller has four sisters, Susan M. Timchak; Sandra M. Dick; Joan B. Mueller; and Patricia H. Mueller.

Heavy.com Time.com

Anne Smedinghoff (September 18, 1987 - APRIL 6, 2013) was an American diplomat who last worked for the U.S. Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan.

https://lamecherry.blogspot.com/2013/04/assassination-incorporated-1600-penn.html?fbclid=IwAR3fWJwIdHfWdG2BUZwEfIEJUeJjGZy4c_PEW_0ViMO6uawxipercLd01JU

Once again another Lame Cherry exclusive in matter and anti matter……

The reason the CIA, NSA and Napolitano were informed of the Smedinghoff assassination, was this was one of their own and would bring high attention as Chris Stevens. There could not be "inquiries" into this, as Anne Smedinghoff like Chandra Levy left strings which if pulled would reveal other higher profile operations.

Smedinghoff born in 1987 grew up in River Forest, Illinois, a suburb about 10 miles west of Chicago.

This cell in the NSA was cleverly put together, and the NSA director is disavows any direct knowledge of operations, so it is never under Congressional oversight. The coordinator for this cell is Eric Holder, and is why he was brought into the Obama regime for the beginning in order to run this cell, as it was Holder who was the hatchet man in the Clinton Administration who under Janet Reno ran the Waco operations that murdered the Branch Davidians and burned their children alive for political effect, and it was Holder who ran the mass assassination of the group around Sec. Ron Brown when he was executed with an ice pellet bullet [into the brain], and the surviving flight attendant on ground after the crash was murdered as she wandered around ground zero. Vince Foster's termination was coordinated by the hatchet man Eric Holder.

Holder is the enforcer for the cartel at 1600 Penn Avenue. His cover is Attorney General, but in working the NSA cell, he never answers to Congress as they would never inquire to him about NSA matters, as he is not overtly in control of the NSA, as this all falls under Janet Napolitano's arena, but how the cell operates, is Napolitano is often in the dark about operations being run in the high profile, and that includes the murder of Hugo Chavez.

Napolitano knew nothing of this operation run out of Homeland by Holder in this NSA cell.

FBI Director Robert Mueller is aware of this NSA cell, but he is not a part of it. [I Ed Donegan dount that and think Mueller participates outside of regular US Government channels.]

This NSA group scares the CIA and FBI, as those finding the tracks of their operations, know this is all sanctioned and protected at the highest levels, and those matters are not to be spoken of.

Andrew Breitbart was assassinated by this political assassination committee.

The "cell" was involved with Sandy Hook, the Colorado Joker and Gabrielle Giffords in the same pattern operations.

As stated, Homeland Director Janet Naps Napolitano knows this NSA cell is run by Eric Holder, but has been informed it is “hands off” and she knows to keep distance from it.

This cell was behind the set up of CIA Director David Patreaus. It was the Committee to Re Elect Obama at all costs and to remove all political competitors to Obama.

Vice President Joe Biden knows that Eric Holder is the “hatchet man” for the Obama regime. That is what Eric Holders specialty has been since the Clinton era and why he is so heavily protected from any investigations.

The machinations of what would become Gun Runner and Fast and Furious, were run out of this NSA cell operating out of the White House.

This is Assassination Incorporated, and it fields the entire scope of national and international assassins both American and foreign terrorist to progress the Obama regimes feudal agenda for the world order.

Journalist Phillip Marshall was targeted by this committee for assassination. The current high profile assassination target for this cell is Kim Jong Un of North Korea.

The assassination of diplomat Anne Smedinghoff was directed from 1600 Penn Avenue, in a fringe control cell, run out of the NSA.

In the Smedinghoff sanction, Homeland Director Janet Naps Napolitano knew of this operation, the CIA knew of this operation as she was one of their “own” and the NSA proper knew of the assassination.

What this cell is, is a melding of the political wing of Valerie Jarrett, David Axelrod, David Plouffe and Michelle Robinson Obama, with full knowledge by Birther Hussein Obama, in this “committee to re elect the birther” and to provide political opportunities in staged crisis to not take advantage of.

Rahm Emanuel never quite knew the depths to what his statement would devolve to.

This book

Robert Swan Mueller III is probably a Mole (or briefed in Reticint by some accounts, aware of, but not opposing Holder and others) from the Allied (non Axis) WWII era Special Relationship world domination plan

Robert Mueller retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Robert Swan Mueller III (/ˈmʌlər/; born AUGUST 7, 1944) is an American lawyer and government official who served as the sixth director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) from 2001 to 2013.

A graduate of Princeton University and New York University, Mueller served as a Marine Corps officer during the Vietnam War, receiving a Bronze Star for heroism and a Purple Heart. He subsequently attended the University of Virginia School of Law. Mueller is a registered Republican in Washington, D.C., and was appointed and reappointed to Senate-confirmed positions by presidents George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, and Barack Obama.

Mueller has served both in government and private practice. He was an assistant United States attorney, a United States attorney, United States assistant attorney general for the Criminal Division, a homicide prosecutor in Washington, D.C., acting United States deputy attorney general, partner at D.C. law firm WilmerHale and director of the FBI.

On May 17, 2017, Mueller was appointed by Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein as special counsel overseeing an investigation into allegations of Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. presidential election and related matters.[6] He submitted his report to Attorney General William Barr on March 22, 2019.[7] On April 18, the Department of Justice released it.[8][9] On May 29, he resigned his post and the Office of the Special Counsel was closed.

Early life and education

Mueller was born on AUGUST 7, 1944, at Doctors Hospital in the New York City borough of Manhattan, the first child of Alice C. Truesdale (1920-2007) and Robert Swan Mueller, Jr. (1916-2007). He has four younger sisters: Susan, Sandra, Joan, and Patricia. His father was an executive with DuPont who had served as a Navy officer in the Atlantic

Bob (Robert Mueler II) died Dec. 26, 2007, in Dedham, Mass.

He attended Gilman School in Baltimore, and at Princeton majored in psychology. Bob was on the varsity football, hockey, and lacrosse teams and was a member of Cap and Gown Club. He also was, for three years, our first class president and was Ivy Orator senior year. https://paw.princeton.edu/memorial/robert-swan-mueller-jr-%E2%80%9938

After college Bob entered the Navy, serving as an officer in the Atlantic and Mediterranean during World War II. Postwar, Bob worked for DuPont until his retirement. He also was an avid golfer. His wife of 64 years, the former Alice Truesdale, recently predeceased him.

Bob is survived by his son, Robert S. III ’66, the current FBI director; four daughters, Susan M. Timchak, Sandra M. Dick, Joan B. and Patricia; 11 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. The class extends deep sympathy to all of Bob’s family as we share in the loss of this outstanding classmate.

and Mediterranean theaters during World War II. At Princeton Robert Mueller II majored in psychology at Princeton University and played varsity lacrosse, both of which he followed (see below).

Mueller is of German, English, and Scottish descent. His paternal great-grandfather, Gustave A. Mueller, was a prominent doctor in Pittsburgh, whose own father, August C. E. Müller, had immigrated to the United States in 1855 from the Province of Pomerania in the Kingdom of Prussia (a historical territory whose area included land now part of Poland and the north-eastern edge of Germany). On his mother’s side, he is a great-grandson of the railroad executive William Truesdale.

Bush becomes an Honorary FBI Agent and smiles

Mueller grew up in Princeton, New Jersey, where he attended Princeton Country Day School, now known as Princeton Day School. After he completed eighth grade, his family moved to Philadelphia while Mueller himself went on to attend St. Paul's School in Concord, New Hampshire for high school, where he was captain of the soccer, hockey, and lacrosse teams and won the Gordon Medal as the school's top athlete in 1962. A lacrosse teammate and classmate at St. Paul's School was future Massachusetts Senator and Secretary of State John Kerry [Note Manchurian Candidate 1962 Kerry 57 Varieties].

After graduating from St. Paul's, Mueller entered Princeton University, where he continued to play lacrosse,[18] receiving a Bachelor of Arts in politics in 1966 after completing a senior thesis titled "Acceptance of Jurisdiction in the South West Africa Cases."[19] Mueller was a member of University Cottage Club while he was a student at Princeton.[20] Mueller earned a Master of Arts in international relations from New York University in 1967.

In 1968, Mueller joined the United States Marine Corps. After his military service, he enrolled at the University of Virginia School of Law where he served on the Virginia Law Review and graduated in 1973.

Robert Mueller was inducted into the Ranger Hall of Fame in 2004.

As director, Mueller also barred FBI personnel from participating in enhanced interrogations with the CIA. At a dinner, Mueller defended an attorney (Thomas Wilner) who had been attacked for his role in defending Kuwaiti detainees. Mueller stood up, raised his glass, and said, "I toast Tom Wilner. He's doing what an American should." However, the

Following extensive military service training and roles in the Vitnam era and after receiving his Juris Doctor in 1973 from the University of

White House pushed back, encouraging more vigorous methods of pursuing and interrogating terror suspects.

When Bush confronted Mueller to ask him to round up more terrorists in the U.S., Mueller responded, saying, “If they [suspects] don’t commit a crime, it would be difficult to identify and isolate” them. Vice President Dick Cheney objected by saying, “That’s just not good enough. We’re hearing this too much from the FBI.”

Virginia School of Law, Mueller worked as a litigator at the firm Pillsbury, Madison and Sutro in San Francisco until 1976. He then served for 12 years in United States Attorney offices. He first worked in the office of the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of California in San Francisco, [25] where he rose to be chief of the criminal division, and in 1982, he moved to Boston to work in the office of the U.S. Attorney for Massachusetts as an Assistant United States Attorney,[11] where he investigated and prosecuted major financial fraud, terrorism and public corruption cases, as well as narcotics conspiracies and international money launderers

After serving as a partner at the Boston law firm of Hill and Barlow, Mueller returned to government service. In 1989, he served in the United States Department of Justice as an assistant to Attorney General Dick Thornburgh and as acting Deputy Attorney General. James Baker, with whom he worked on national security matters, said he had “an appreciation for the Constitution and the rule of law”

In 1993, Mueller became a partner at Boston’s Hale and Dorr, specializing in white-collar crime litigation.[25] He returned to public service in 1995 as senior litigator in the homicide section of the District of Columbia United States Attorney's Office. In 1998, Mueller was named U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of California and held that position until 2001.

Federal Bureau of Investigation

President George W. Bush nominated Mueller for the position of FBI director on July 5, 2001.[38] He and two other candidates, Washington lawyer George J. Terwilliger III and veteran Chicago prosecutor and white-collar crime defense lawyer Dan Webb, were up for the job, but Mueller, described at the time as a conservative Republican,[39][40] was always considered the front-runner.[citation needed] Terwilliger and Webb both pulled out from consideration around mid-June, while confirmation hearings for Mueller before the Senate Judiciary Committee were quickly set for July 30, only three days before his prostate cancer surgery.

The Senate unanimously confirmed Mueller as FBI director on AUGUST 2, 2001, voting 98-0 in favor of his appointment.[43] He had previously served as acting deputy attorney general of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) for several months before officially becoming the FBI director on September 4, 2001, one week before the September 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

Ranking Princeton's Eating Clubs retrieved from CommunituNews.org and copied or modified to here

Cottage Club

The current two and a half story Georgian Revival clubhouse was designed by Charles Follem McKim of McKim, Mead and White in 1903 and built in 1906. The library on the second floor is modeled on the 14th century library in Merton College, Oxford University. Many rooms are paneled in English oak, with carved ceilings and cornices. Great marble fireplaces grace several areas with mottoes over the mantels. In the dining room, one such carving reads “Ubi Amici Ibidem Sunt Opes” (“Where there are friends there are riches”) which has become over the years a motto of the club.

“Cottage has a fun environment that is evident from the moment you enter the front door,” writes William Haynes, 2018, club president. “On pleasant days our members can be found playing lawn games and soaking up rays. When the weather isn’t so kind, members will more likely be huddled around a fireplace playing Settlers of Catan and hanging out until the next meal. Rain or shine, our members never fail to enjoy each other’s company. Amidst the hustle and bustle of the Princeton school year, there’s no place I’d rather spend my free time than at Cottage.”

Over the years 15 members have been Rhodes Scholars. Women were admitted in 1986. Today the club’s purpose is not only to be a gathering place for meals and friendship, but also a sanctuary to study, relax, and enhance the quality of life for its current members, alumni, and their guests.

In 1999 the club was entered onto the New Jersey Register of Historic Places and the National Historic Register of Historic Places based on the architectural structure of the building and high degree of historic integrity. These recognitions will help to preserve this historic treasure for future generations.

Notable alumni: Edgar Palmer, 1903, developer; John Foster Dulles, 1908, secretary of state; James Forrestal, 1915, F. Scott Fitzgerald, 1917, author; Jose Ferrer, 1935, actor; Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, 1943, attorney general; Brendan T. Byrne, 1949, governor; Richard W. Kazmaier, 1952, Heisman Trophy winner; John McPhee, 1953, author, Pulitzer Prize winner; William W. Bradley, 1965, NBA player and U.S. senator; Robert Mueller, 1966, FBI director and special prosecutor; A. Scott Berg, 1971, author, Pulitzer Prize winner; William Frist, 1974, heart surgeon, U.S. senator; Mellody Hobson, 1991, business executive; and George Parros, 2003, Stanley Cup winning hockey player.

This book

Chrisotopher Wray is a Deep State mole

The Donald Barr WIlliam Barr Christopher Wray connnection is long running.

The FBI, US Overseas Intel Agency, British Intel Agents All Thought That Robert Maxwell was a Soviet-Russian Agent retrieved from Mining Awarness and copied or modified to here

A few of the FBI pages on Robert Maxwell, found below, point to an East and West German nexus, which could easily tie together old Nazis, East German Stasi agents, Soviet KGB agents, former US OSS agents-CIA agents, and black-market criminals-mafia. Recall that the Stasi card of KGB agent Putin was recently found. Although the Soviet Union cut deals and a non-aggression pact with the Nazis, they switched to the allied side, toward the end of World War II, after they were doubled-crossed by Hitler. However, some people stayed on the Soviet side, while remaining in the west. From Czechoslovakia, Robert Maxwell could have been such a person. Nonetheless, based on the FBI file, it appears that he may have done so for monetary gain. The head of Nord Stream is a former Stasi agent, friend of Putin, Matthias Warnig. He also serves on the board of Rosneft.

This book review discusses Maxwell's network: https://miningawareness.wordpress.com/2019/08/15/robert-maxwell-israels-superspy-the-life-and-murder-of-a-media-mogul-book-review/

Robert Maxwell was in occupied Germany with the British, in Berlin, after World War II. William Barr's father, Donald Barr, was also in Germany after the War, reportedly working in "denazification" of businesses.

Retyped from the FBI document, with CIA and Maxwell added for clarifty: “According to T-1 (the CIA), of known reliability, subject (Ian Robert Maxwell) and Kurt Wallersteiner, British citizens, business partners, are in contact with Russians in East Germany, who were prepared to facilitate trading by their companies with Eastern bloc countries in return for political and economic intelligence information regarding policies of the Western Powers, and the West German Government, in particular, towards East Germany; information regarding US and allied mililtary, political, and economic organizations in Germany; US and allied intelligence operations directed against the Soviet bloc; US contacts with underground movement in the USSR. Maxwell and Wallersteiner’s contacts, travels, and activities in the US and Canada, 1954, set out. East Coast INS and US Customs lookout placed for subject and Wallersteiner. Physical description of Maxwell set out.

British Pilgrim Society and Council on Foreignh Relations plot a strategy on industrial world might.

American automobile industry in the 1950s matter retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

1957 Chevrolet Bel Air convertible, one of the most iconic autos of the era

The export of automobiles and the import of oil and the manufacture of steel and all the other economic demands of producing cars from a materials and labor perspective were a major new global issue in an industry given a leap frog status by Robert McNamara, Henry Ford, and others. This was global. There were not enough dinosuars in Utah.

The 1950s were pivotal for the American automobile industry. The post-World War II era brought a wide range of new technologies to the automobile consumer, and a host of problems for the independent automobile manufacturers. The industry was maturing in an era of rapid technological change; mass production and the benefits from economies of scale led to innovative designs and greater profits, but stiff competition between the automakers. By the end of the decade, the industry had reshaped itself into the Big Three, Studebaker, and AMC. The age of small independent automakers was nearly over, as most of them either consolidated or went out of business.

A number of innovations were either invented or improved sufficiently to allow for mass production during the decade: air conditioning, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, seat belts and arguably the most influential change in automotive history, the overhead-valve V8 engine. The horsepower race had begun, laying the foundation for the muscle car era.

Automobile manufacturing became the largest industry segment in the US, and the largest ever created; the US auto industry was many times larger than the automotive industries of the rest of the world combined. By 1960, one-sixth of working Americans were employed directly or indirectly by the industry, but automation and imports eroded the need for such a large workforce within a couple of decades. The 1950s were the pinnacle of American automotive manufacturing and helped shape the United States into an economic superpower.

Fits WASP v Catholic split on joining with British Pilgrim Society Donald Barr advocated for , the Commonwealths as answer to waring NationStates

Cecil Wray of Enlands1700s likely not related but it goes to identifying WASP name

Sir Cecil Wray, 13th Baronet (3 September 1734 - 10 January 1805) was an English landowner and politician, and one of the Wray baronets.

Cecil Wray is on the right, portrayed as Judas Iscariot, for his apparent betrayal of his fellow whig Fox in this election

Cecil Wray NOVEMBER 19, 1934 Council on Foreign Relations father of Christopher Wray @FBIDirectorWray Christopher Asher Wray (born DECEMBER 17, 1966) unlikely investigator of British Pilgrims Society - CFR Deep State. @fbi

Christopher Asher Wray III is an American attorney who is serving as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation since 2017. From 2003 to 2005, Wray served as Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Division in George W. Bush's administration.

Wikipedia Born: DECEMBER 17 1966, Son is [Von] Trip Wray

Cecil Wray lawyer and mother of Christopher Wray retrieved from prabook.com and copied or modified to here

Wray, Cecil was born on NOVEMBER 19, 1934 in Memphis, Tennessee, United States. Son of Thomas Cecil and Margaret (Malone) Wray.

Cecil Wray, American lawyer, specializing in the field of Corporate Law, Corporate Financing Law, Securities Regulation Law, Mergers and Acquisitions, International Business Law.

Student, University of Virginia, 1952-1953; Bachelor magna cum laude, Vanderbilt University, 1956; Bachelor of Laws, Yale University, 1959.

Worked at Debevoise & Plimpton (New York, New York) specializing in General Practice. Admitted to the bar, 1959, Tennessee. 1961, New York

Phi Beta Kappa.

Order of the Coif.

The Order of the Coif /ˈkɔɪf/ is an honor society for United States law school graduates. The name is a reference to the ancient English order of advocates, the serjeants-at-law. A student at an American law school who earns a Juris Doctor degree and graduates in the top 10 percent of their class is eligible for membership if the student’s law school has a chapter of the Order. The Order of the Coif honor society was founded in 1902 at the University of Illinois College of Law.

Phi Delta Phi. Managing Editor, Yale Law Journal, 1958-1959. Law Clerk to Justice Tom C. Clark, United States.

Supreme Court, 1959-1960. Author: “Innovative Corporate Financing Techniques,” BNA, 1986.

Adjunct Professor, New York Law School.

Member: The Association of the Bar of the City of New New York American Bar Associations. American Law Institute.

Fellow, American College of Investment Counsel (Trustee, 1981-1986.

President, 1983-1984). Debevoise & Plimpton a preeminent international law firm, was founded in 1931 and today has over 370 lawyers with offices in New York, Washington, District of Columbia, Los Angeles, Paris, London and Budapest.

President Search & Care, Inc., New York City, 1981-1987, Episcopal Charities, New York. Vestryman St. James' Church, New York City, 1982-1987, warden, 1988-1994. TrusteeFondation des Etats-Unis, Paris, 1976-1979.

Board directors East Side Comty.Ctr., Inc., Hudson Highlands Music Festival. Board foreign parishes Episcopal Church, since 1995. Member Adirondack county Hudson Highlands Land Trust.

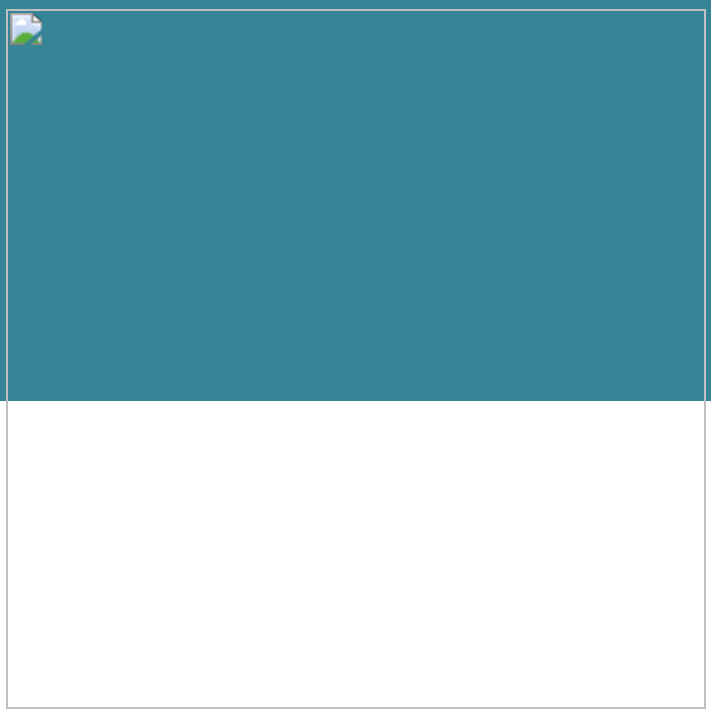
Fellow American College Investment Counsel (trustee 1981-1986, president 1983-1984);member American Bar Association, American Law Institute, Association Bar City New York, Council Foreign Relations., Ausable Club (St. Huberts, New York), Union Club, Century Club, Order of Coif, Phi Beta Kappa.

Connections Married Gilda Gates, September 11, 1964. Children: Christopher A., Kathleen Wray Baughman.

Father: Thomas Cecil Wray Mother: Margaret (Malone) Wray Spouse: Gilda Gates child: Christopher A. Wray III child: Kathleen Wray Baughman Wray

James Bovard is a revaaler about lethal FBI Psychiatric Shock Troops and Lethal Engagements of Compounds system

Historica Wiki Vicky Weaver wife of Green Beret Randy Weaver



Victoria Weaver was born in 1949 to a Community of Christ Mormon family, and she married US Army Green Berets soldier Randy Weaver, living with him in rural Iowa. She became a Christian fundamentalist who was convinced that an apocalypse was innocent, and she converted her husband to her faith; the two of them took their children with them to a remote cabin in Naples, Idaho (30 miles from the Canadian border), leaving behind Iowa in order to escape “corrupt civilization”. Vicki raised the children without television or other “graven images”, and she homeschooled them. She and her husband also attended Aryan Nations gatherings with the goal of making friends, and, while they disagreed on religious matters, they adopted their white supremacist views. In 1992, her husband was ordered to court for sawing off shotguns for the Aryan Nations, and, when he refused, federal agents were sent to arrest him on 21 August. They killed the family dog when it alerted the family to their presence, and they were forced to kill the family's 14-year-old son Samuel Weaver when he shot at the agents in revenge. The next day, federal agents fired on Randy Weaver as he walked to the shed where he kept his son's body, and Vicki and the others ran out to check on Randy. As they prepared to head back into the cabin on the porch, an FBI sniper shot and killed Vicki. For days, the agents were unaware that Vicki was dead, and used a bullhorn to call out for Vicki to send her children to have pancakes with the agents. The family believed this to be taunts, hardening Randy's resolve for the next eight days of the siege. Randy ultimately surrendered and served only 18 months in prison, and, in 1995, he was awarded $3.1 million in damages for Sam and Vicki's deaths.

20 Years Ago at Ruby Ridge: FBI Sniper Slays Mother Holding her Baby retrieved from The Wall Street Journal January 10, 1995 No Accountability at the FBI By James Bovard and copied or modified to here

Bovard speaking in Washington, D.C. in 2011 Born 1956 (age 65-66)

James Bovard (/bəˈvɑːrd/; born 1956) is an American libertarian author and lecturer whose political commentary targets examples of waste, failures, corruption, cronyism and abuses of power in government. He is a USA Today columnist[1] and is a frequent contributor to The Hill. He is the author of Attention Deficit Democracy and nine other books. He has written for the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Washington Post, New Republic, Reader's Digest, The American Conservative, and many other publications. His books have been translated into Spanish, Arabic, Japanese, and Korean.

Today is the 20th anniversary of the killing of Vicki Weaver 1949-22 August 1992). Following is an article I wrote on this back in 1995, followed by the response from FBI director Louis Freeh, which claimed that I "grossly mischaracterized" the details of Vicki Weaver's killing.

I wonder how much controversy such a killing would excite nowadays. It is amazing how much further government prerogatives have stretched in the past two decades. And it is perhaps even more amazing how much more docile many Americans have become towards unmitigated government BS.

FBI Director Louis Freeh last week announced that no FBI agents would be fired or severely punished for their role in the botched attack on Idaho white separatist Randy Weaver and his family in 1992, which led to the death of Mr. Weaver's son and wife. The announcement, which drew denunciations from both the American Civil Liberties Union and the National Rifle Association, is the conclusion of a patchwork of deception that has continued for more than two years.

Mr. Freeh, in his statement on Friday, declared that "the [Randy Weaver case] crisis was one of the most dangerous and potentially violent situations to which FBI agents have ever been assigned.” But this is patent nonsense. Given the growing importance of this case, a review of the facts is in order.

Randy Weaver lived with his wife and four children in an isolated cabin on Ruby Ridge in the Idaho mountains, 40 miles south of the Canadian border. Mr. Weaver did not favor violence against any other race, but believed that the races should live separately. Because of his extreme beliefs, he was targeted for a sting operation.

In 1989, an undercover agent of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms approached Mr. Weaver and pressured the mountain man to sell him sawed-off shotguns. Mr. Weaver at first refused, but the agent was persistent and Mr. Weaver eventually sold him two shotguns — thereby violating federal firearms law. A court official sent Mr. Weaver a notice to appear in court on the wrong day; after Mr. Weaver did not show up on the correct date, a Justice Department attorney (who knew of the error) got a warrant for his arrest. Federal agents then launched an elaborate 18-month surveillance of Mr. Weaver’s cabin and land.

David Nevin, a defense lawyer involved in the subsequent court case, noted later: “The U.S. marshals called in military aerial reconnaissance and had photos studied by the Defense Mapping Agency… . They had psychological profiles performed and installed $130,000 worth of solar-powered long-range spy cameras. They intercepted the Weavers’ mail. They even knew the menstrual cycle of Weaver’s teenage daughter, and planned an arrest scenario around it.”

On Aug. 21, 1992, six heavily armed, camouflaged U.S. marshals sneaked onto Mr. Weaver’s property. Three agents threw rocks to get the attention of Mr. Weaver’s dogs. As Mr. Weaver's 14-year-old son, Sammy, and Kevin Harris, a 25- year-old family friend living in the cabin, ran to see what the dogs were barking at, U.S. marshals killed one of the dogs. Sammy Weaver fired his gun in the direction the shots had come from. Randy Weaver came out and hollered for his son to come back to the cabin. Sammy yelled, "I'm coming, Dad," and was running back to the cabin when a federal marshal shot him in the back and killed him.

Kevin Harris responded to Sammy's shooting by fatally shooting a U.S. marshal. Federal agents falsely testified in court that the U.S. marshal had been killed by the first shot of the exchange; evidence later showed that the marshal had fired seven shots before he was shot himself.

After the death of the U.S. marshal, the commander of the FBI's Hostage Rescue Team was called in, and ordered federal agents to shoot any armed adult outside the Weaver cabin, regardless of whether that person was doing anything to threaten or menace federal agents. (Thanks to the surveillance, federal officials knew that the Weavers always carried guns when outside their cabin.)

With the massive federal firepower surrounding the cabin — the automatic weapons, the sniper rifles, the night vision scopes — this was practically an order to assassinate the alleged wrongdoers. Four hundred government agents quickly swarmed in the mountains around the cabin. Most important, the federal agents at that time made no effort to contact Mr. Weaver to negotiate his surrender.

The next day, Aug. 22, Randy Weaver walked to the little shack where his son's body lay. As he was lifting the latch on the shack's door, he was shot from behind by FBI sniper Lon Horiuchi. As he struggled back to the cabin, his wife, Vicki, stood in the doorway, holding a 10-month-old baby in her arms and calling for her husband to hurry. The FBI sniper fired again and hit Vicki Weaver in the temple, killing her instantly. (Mr. Horiuchi testified in court that he could hit within a quarter inch of a target at a distance of 200 yards.)

Reuters reported on Aug. 25, three days after the shooting: “FBI Agent Gene Glenn said that the law enforcement officers were proceeding with extreme care, mindful that Weaver’s wife Vicki and three remaining children … were also in the cabin. ‘We are taking a very cautious approach,’ he said in a statement to reporters.” An internal FBI report completed shortly after the confrontation justified the killing of Mrs. Weaver by asserting that she had put herself in harm’s way, the New York Times reported in 1993.

Though federal officials now claim that the killing of Vicki Weaver was an accident, the Washington Times’s Jerry Seper reported in September 1993: “Court records show that while the woman’s body lay in the cabin for eight days, the FBI used microphones to taunt the family. ‘Good morning, Mrs. Weaver. We had pancakes for breakfast. What did you have?’ asked the agents in at least one exchange.”

Neither Randy Weaver nor Mr. Harris fired any shots at government agents after the siege began. Mr. Weaver surrendered after 11 days. An Idaho jury found him innocent of almost all charges and ruled that Kevin Harris’s shooting of the U.S. marshal was self-defense. Federal Judge Edward Lodge condemned the FBI and issued a lengthy list detailing the Justice Department’s and FBI’s misconduct, fabrication of evidence, and refusals to obey court orders.

Justice Department officials launched their own investigation. A 542-page report was completed earlier this year that recommended possible criminal prosecution of federal officials and found that the rules of engagement “contravened the Constitution of the United States.” Yet Deval Patrick, assistant ttorney general for civil rights, rejected the findings last month and concluded that the federal agents had not used excessive force.

FBI Director Louis Freeh concluded that there was no evidence to show that Mr. Horiuchi intended to shoot Mrs. Weaver. Yet Bo Gritz, the former Vietnam War hero who represented the government when it finally negotiated Randy Weaver’s surrender after the death of his wife, declared that the government’s profile of the Weaver family recommended killing Mr. Weaver’s wife: “I believe Vicki was shot purposely by the sniper as a priority target… . The profile said, if you get a chance, take Vicki Weaver out.”

Mr. Freeh justified the FBI shooting of the Weavers because sniper Horiuchi “observed one of the suspects raise a weapon in the direction of a helicopter carrying other FBI personnel.” But other federal officials testified at the trial that no helicopters were flying in the vicinity of the Weavers’ cabin at the time of the FBI sniping.

One of the most disturbing aspects of Mr. Freeh’s slaps on the wrist last week is his treatment of Larry Potts, Mr. Freeh’s pick as acting deputy FBI director. Mr. Potts was the senior official in charge of the Idaho operation and signed off on the shoot-without-provocation orders. Despite the finding by the Justice Department that the orders violated the Constitution, Freeh recommended that the only penalty Mr. Potts face be a letter of censure — the same penalty Mr. Freeh received when he lost an FBI cellular telephone.

The Weaver case is by far the most important civil—rights/civil-liberties case the Clinton administration has yet resolved — and it resolved it in favor of granting unlimited deadly power to federal agents. If the new Republican congressional leaders let the Justice Department and the FBI get away with what may have been murder, they will be accomplices to a gross travesty of justice.

This book

Eric Hold Sharon Holder Jeh Johnson Barrack and Michell Obama

Holder Machen Jr. Rosenstein and MKULTRA Secrets of Massachusetts

Marshalls, the Secrets of Massachusetts, and Subversion Gangstalk of witnesses to CIA DARPA crimninality

Ronald C. Machen, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, and Rod J. Rosenstein, his counterpart in Maryland - to take over direction of existing investigations by the Federal Bureau of Investigation

In a program widely viewed as suspicious and unconstitutional the Obama Administration through Eric Holder appointed Machen Jr. and Rosensteind (of Maryaland Public Health Service and CIA) to keep the nations most secret sexrets secret

I believe this is where subverting Targeted Individuals come from.

By Charlie Savage JUNE 8 2012 WASHINGTON - Attorney General Eric H. Holder Jr. on Friday assigned two United States attorneys to lead separate criminal investigations into recent disclosures to the news media of national security secrets, saying they were authorized to “follow all appropriate > investigative leads within the executive and legislative branches of government.”

>
> But Mr. Holder instead assigned two prosecutors - Ronald C. Machen, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, and Rod J. Rosenstein, his counterpart in Maryland - to take over direction of existing investigations by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, elevating the stature of the cases but not giving them any special powers.
>
> Earlier Friday, President Obama declared that the White House had not been behind the recent leaks and vowed to prosecute the people responsible for disclosing classified information if they could be identified. NYT
>
> The geneology of Barrack Obama, both real and imagined, from around the world in world wide Sleeper Cells operations

Featuring the Obama Family themselves continuing Eugenics works likely with Glorian Donegan and Malcolm X DNA the Non White Protestantism or even Islamism indirect rulers the Queen has planned for the Commonwealth world runs into Catholic opposition including some Catholic geopolitics overlaying with Northern Ireland and Ireland and policy overlays of Abortion and Reproductive sanctity.

> Barrack Hussein Future Leader groomed Obama Jr.
>
> J Edgar H oover Lyndon Baines Johnson
>
> Loretta Lynch Dick WindsorGreensboroough North Carolina

Eric Jean ShrHimpton Holder

Micheal Lavon RobinRobin son Obama

Barrack Obama Jr., Michelle Obama, and the Obama chldren Sasha and Molia and many others are liklely long term Genetics and Eugenics study outcomes including of November 18 November 19 1961 Manhattan Beach Los Angeles County California and Chicago Trinity Baptist Church tied to Texas anti communist Protestanism from Ron Paul, Lyndon Baines Johnson and his wife, Gregg Abbot, Ken Paxton, and others.

The are the product of Eugenics which for a while included Spinn-Off Nazi Germany (into mass murder) but is larger umbrella than understood by the public which has been dumbed down.

As explained in James Corbett's documentary, Why Big Oil Conquered the World, (links to full transcript) in the 1920's and early 1930's, the idea of an "alternative social system", known as “Technocracy” started to garner serious consideration among the learned men of academia, government and industry.

“…It is a technological approach. Technocracy is the scientific answer to America’s social problems and technocracy is a new design for social operation that based on upon science. It is the vehicle by which we can move into a new era for better living.”

As the idea of a technocratic world gained followers, investments in science became even more necessary as well as collaboration. One of the more important collaboration conferences that these learned men would meet at each year was at the Gordon Research Conferences (GRC).

Further Reading

Jeh Johnson’s family legacy retrieved from Illinois Family Institute (IFI) and copied or modified to here

Jeh Johnson's family legacy

In researching the barbarous activities of the pseudo-civilized personalities stumping for baby-killing, I learned the sordid story of Dr. Kenneth Edelin, who died in 2014 and was the uncle of Jeh Johnson, President Barack Obama's secretary of Homeland Security. Johnson, it turns out, comes from a line of feticide-supporters and practitioners.

Johnson's mother, Norma (Edelin) Johnson, was an ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR of a Planned Parenthood facility in Poughkeepsie, New York, and his uncle was the infamous Dr. Kenneth Edelin who was at the center of a famous court case over his gruesome 1973 (legal) slaughter of a baby boy during his 24th week of development.

During Edelin's trial, it was revealed that the 17-year-old mother's womb had been injected with a saline solution which ordinarily burns and poisons the baby and initiates uterine contractions that lead to the expulsion of the baby. The injections were unsuccessful, so Edelin performed a "hysterotomy" in which he made an incision in the womb (as in a caesarean section), reached in, and by hand separated the baby from the placental wall.

According to Edelin's OBITUARY in the Washington Post, "A doctor who witnessed the operation testified that Dr. Edelin had watched a clock for at least three minutes while holding the fetus inside the womb in order to ensure that the fetus had died before it was removed."

Edelin disputed that claim and said that if the baby had been born alive, he "would have taken steps to get it to the nursery."

Wow. Such compassion to be willing to take a baby whom he hadn't successfully slaughtered to a nursery.

Edelin's compassionate side was demonstrated again in 1975 when he TOLD the New York Times that "Nobody likes to do abortions…but the least we can do is make it safe and humane."

Safe and humane for whom? For the baby boy pulled from the womb and suffocated?

Edelin, who became a hero to feticide fanatics, was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to a year's probation. Unfortunately, the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court later overturned his conviction, arguing that "only when a fetus had been born alive outside its mother could it become a 'person' within the meaning of the statute."

Edelin went on to become chairman of the board at Planned Parenthood Federation of America.

So, parents, teach your children well.

Please Prayerfully consider how you can support the work and ministry of IFI through a donation.

Baby Blood in the Water Tastes Like Money Written By Laurie Higgins 09.20.16 retrieved from Illiniosfamily.org and copied or modified to here

The pro-child-death regime seems to be kicking into high gear. It's unclear whether they fear a rising tide of opposition to womb-killing or if they smell the blood swirling in the miasmic waters that envelop the world.

Laurie's always easy prey for uncivilized peoples, are perhaps at greater risk and more devalued than at any time in modern life. Homosexuals who choose sterile sex and yet believe they are entitled to children are acquiring them like chattel to be raised without mothers or fathers and in the midst of soul-killing sexual perversion masquerading as “love.” The Internet devours children in its black hole of child porn sewage. Muslim extremists starve, kidnap, sell, rape, and murder children. And baby-killing profiteers can taste the blood of children, and it tastes like money.

Let’s take a metaphorical boat-ride around these bloody waters.

THE UNITED NATIONS

On August 17, 2016, 435 baby-killing enthusiasts sent an open letter to United Nations (UN) Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon and heads of all UN agencies announcing that they “support the proposal of the International Campaign for Women’s Right to Safe Abortion that you declare 28 September, International Safe Abortion Day, an official international UN Day.” Yes, nothing says “safety” quite like being slaughtered in utero.

One of the reasons feticide enthusiasts cite for an official International Safe Abortion Day is the increase in the number of annual abortions worldwide from 50.4 million every year between the years of 1990-94 to 56.3 million every year between the years 2010-14. Feticide enthusiasts want to ensure that the ghastly number of baby-killings each year won’t adversely affect the health of the babies’ mothers.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD

Here in the Land of Lincoln, the baby-killing machine, euphemistically named Planned Parenthood, colludes with the perverse “Shout Your Abortion” (#SYA773) crowd to celebrate the so-called “right” of mothers to kill their unborn babies-oh, and to profit from the bodies of the dead.

Evidently, the $300 million Planned Parenthood gets from the government isn’t sufficient to sustain their “charitable” work, so there are several frolicsome fundraising events planned at the Empty Bottle in Chicago to make money for Planned Parenthood. The “Shout Your Abortion” peeps describe the collusion thusly:

> The Chicago chapter of #ShoutYourAbortion (SYA773) and the Empty Bottle team up to raise money for Planned Parenthood, a vital American nonprofit.” [emphasis Lauries]

Just think, on November 4, 2016 at the Empty Bottle, you can enjoy an evening listening to the band Natural Child who are “Hellbent on finding the next beer, bong or girl to suck on” and make money for Planned Parenthood!

Or if you’re busy on November 4, on November 9, you can go hear MELKBELLY who “always turn that sh*t up to 11 whenever they hit the stage and we can’t wait to see how they kick this sh*tstorm into high gear tonight.” And in the midst of the “sh*tstorm,” you can help support the Planned Parenthood death squad. Sounds like a win-win to me.

“CATHOLICS FOR CHOICE”

In case you missed it, on September 12, 2016, apostate Catholics spent a boatload of money for full-page ads in major cities across the country to promote the peculiar view that slaughtering babies in utero comports with Catholicism and with justice.

The ad read, “Public funding for abortion is a Catholic social justice value.” Such a claim reveals the organization’s profound ignorance. Social means, “pertaining to, devoted to, or characterized by friendly relations” or more generally, “living together in communities.” There’s nothing less likely to foster good relations in a community than forcing community members to be complicit in killing developing humans in the womb.

Justice means “the principle of moral rightness; conformity to moral rightness in action or attitude; righteousness.” I can think of few things less “righteous” than requiring citizens to fund feticide-well, except for feticide itself.

And since the Catholic Church opposes abortion, the claim of Catholics for Choice that public funding for abortion is a Catholic value is a bald-faced lie. But hey, if men can call themselves women, why can’t Catholic apostates call themselves Catholics?

“LUKE, I AM YOUR…GRANDCHILD”: THE MYTH OF CHOICE

An unsavory family drama is unfolding in Luke Skywalker's family. The New York Post first reported that now-former girlfriend of Nathan Hamill, Mark Hamill's son, has been pressured by Nathan and his parents to abort her and Nathan's baby who is due in October.

After a failed attempt at a chemical abortion, the mother, Maegen Chen decided not to go through with another attempt, and the coercive efforts of the Hamills to have their first grandchild killed intensified, with Nathan's mother Marilou telling Maegen that her relationship with Nathan would end if she didn't kill Marilou's grandchild: "With baby, you won't see him; without baby, you will."

As virtually everyone knows the word "choice" is a politically strategic euphemism exploited to conceal and sanitize what is being chosen: the unjust slaughter of a tiny human in the womb. Why not just say it.

The Hamill story exposes the myth that women are freely choosing to kill their offspring. The truth is that often parents, boyfriends, and husbands pressure women to kill their children.

Quite obviously the product of conception between two humans is a human, and no human has a moral right to end the life of another. Lack of full physical maturation on the part of one human doesn't give other more developed humans the right to kill him or her. Neither does a human's imperfections, geographic location, dependency status, nor "unwantedness" grant more developed humans a right to kill him or her.

JEH JOHNSON'S FAMILY LEGACY

In researching the barbarous activities of the pseudo-civilized personalities stumping for baby-killing, I learned the sordid story of Dr. Kenneth Edelin, who died in 2014 and was the uncle of Jeh Johnson, President Barack Obama's secretary of Homeland Security. Johnson, it turns out, comes from a line of feticide-supporters and practitioners.

Johnson's mother, Norma (Edelin) Johnson, was an associate director of a Planned Parenthood facility in Poughkeepsie, New York, and his uncle was the infamous Dr. Kenneth Edelin who was at the center of a famous court case over his gruesome 1973 (legal) slaughter of a baby boy during his 24th week of development.

During Edelin's trial, it was revealed that the 17-year-old mother's womb had been injected with a saline solution which ordinarily burns and poisons the baby and initiates uterine contractions that lead to the expulsion of the baby. The injections were unsuccessful, so Edelin performed a "hysterotomy" in which he made an incision in the womb (as in a caesarean section), reached in, and by hand separated the baby from the placental wall.

According to Edelin's obituary in the Washington Post, "A doctor who witnessed the operation testified that Dr. Edelin had watched a clock for at least three minutes while holding the fetus inside the womb in order to ensure that the fetus had died before it was removed."

Edelin disputed that claim and said that if the baby had been born alive, he "would have taken steps to get it to the nursery."

Wow. Such compassion to be willing to take a baby whom he hadn't successfully slaughtered to a nursery.

Edelin's compassionate side was demonstrated again in 1975 when he told the New York Times that "Nobody likes to do abortions…but the least we can do is make it safe and humane."

Safe and humane for whom? For the baby boy pulled from the womb and suffocated?

Edelin, who became a hero to feticide fanatics, was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to a year's probation. Unfortunately, the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court later overturned his conviction, arguing that "only when a fetus had been born alive outside its mother could it become a 'person' within the meaning of the statute."

Edelin went on to become chairman of the board at Planned Parenthood Federation of America.

So, parents, teach your children well.

Please Prayerfully consider how you can support the work and ministry of IFI through a donation.

Jeh Johnson: On his grandfather and the costs of overheated rhetoric retrieved from Susan PageUSA TODAY and copied or modified to here

WASHINGTON - Homeland Security Secretary Jeh Johnson, decrying the tenor of the immigration debate today, offers a personal perspective on the costs and consequences of political rhetoric taken too far.

His grandfather, Charles Johnson, then president of Fisk University, was called before the infamous House Un-American Activities Committee in 1949 to be grilled on allegations that communists had infiltrated predominantly black colleges like his own. It is a story Johnson heard for the first time when he was preparing to deliver the Green Foundation Lecture at Westminster College in Fulton, Mo., last month.

His grandfather was “asked to deny if he is or ever has been a member of the Communist Party,” Johnson told Capital Download on Tuesday. “He went on to give a very impassioned prepared statement about the loyalty of the American Negro … and said that we are not disloyal, but we are expecting our country to live up to its promise and its values, which is why we are bringing to light the injustices” - a defiant declaration in the days before the Civil Rights movement.

“Those of us in public office and those of us who aspire to public office have a responsibility to be reasonable, fact-based, in our rhetoric and to not suggest things that are unreasonable, to whip up a lot of emotion in public, which can lead to government overreach, fear, suspicions and prejudice,” Johnson says, though he declined to discuss any particular candidates. “So the immigration space is a difficult space in which to make policy.”

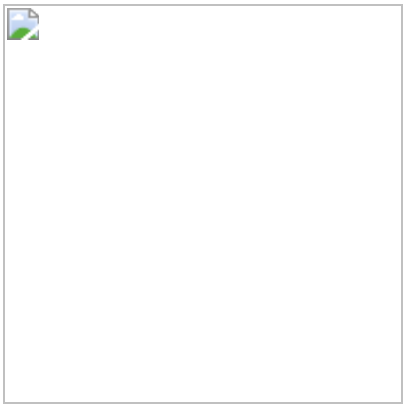
...

Charles S. Johnson retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Charles Spurgeon Johnson (July 24, 1893 - October 27, 1956) was an American sociologist and college administrator, the first black president of historically black Fisk University, and a lifelong advocate for racial equality and the advancement of civil rights for African Americans and all ethnic minorities. He preferred to work collaboratively with liberal white groups in the South, quietly as a “sideline activist,” to get practical results.



Johnson was born in 1893 in Bristol, Virginia, to well-educated parents. His father was a respected Baptist minister, and his mother was educated in public school. He attended a boarding school in Richmond, Virginia, then earned a B.A. in sociology from Virginia Union University. Afterward, he began graduate study of sociology at the University of Chicago, though his study was interrupted by service in France during World War I as a non-commissioned officer with the US army. After returning to the US, he resumed graduate work at the University of Chicago, where he earned his Ph.D. in sociology. In 1920 Johnson married Marie Antoinette Burgette. When he was appointed director of research and investigation of the National Urban League, the couple moved to New York City.

Johnson yearned to return to the South, not only to study race relations but to change them. In 1926 he moved to Nashville, taking a position as chair of the Department of Sociology at Fisk University, a historically black college. There he wrote or directed numerous studies of how combined legal, economic and social factors produced an oppressive racial structure. Two of his works have become classics: Shadow of the Plantation (1934), and Growing up in the Black Belt (1940).

In 1929 an American missionary in Liberia reported that Liberian officials were using soldiers to gather tribal people who were shipped to the island of Fernando Po as forced laborers.[6] The Liberian government denied the charges and invited a League of Nations commission of inquiry. Cuthbert Christy of Britain headed the commission. Johnson was the United States representative.[8] The former President of Liberia Arthur Barclay represented his country. The commission began work on April 8, 1930. The result of the inquiries was an outspoken report submitted in September 1930. It found that the laborers had been recruited “under condition of criminal compulsion scarcely distinguishable from slave raiding and slave trading.”[7] As a result of the Christy report, President Charles D. B. King and Vice-president Allen N. Yancy both resigned.

In 1930 Johnson was awarded the Harmon Prize for Science, for his work The Negro in American Civilization.

In 1946 Johnson was appointed as the first black president of Fisk University. He attracted outstanding faculty, including the author Arna Bontemps, James Weldon Johnson, Aaron Douglas and others.[3] In 1946, Johnson was one of 20 American educators selected to advise on educational reform in occupied Japan. He was also a consultant for several White House conferences related to youth in American society, and a member of the first Board of Foreign Scholarships for the Fulbright Program.

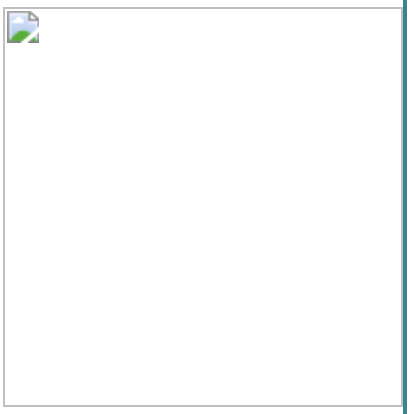
Johnson lived to celebrate the landmark Supreme Court decision Brown v. Board of Education (1954), which ruled that racial segregation in the public schools was unconstitutional. He played a key role in the effort to implement the decision in the face of “massive resistance” in the South. His work and that of his peers also contributed to passage of federal civil rights legislation of the mid-1960s.

Eric Himpton Holder retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here



Sharon M. Holder, PhD, MSc, MSW, is an embedded research scientist in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine at Prisma Health-Upstate and a research assistant professor at Clemson University, Institute on Family and Neighborhood Life.

Eric Himpton [Shrimpton factor girl] Holder Jr. was born in The Bronx, New York, to parents with roots in Barbados. Holder's father, Eric Himpton Holder Sr. (October 29, 1903 - February 12, 1998), was born in Saint Joseph, Barbados, and arrived in the United States at the age of 11. He later became a real estate broker. His mother, Miriam (January 25, 1924 - August 13, 2010), was born in New Jersey, while his maternal grandparents were emigrants from Saint Philip, Barbados. Holder grew up in East Elmhurst, Queens, and attended public school until the age of 10. When entering the 4th grade he was selected to participate in a program for intellectually gifted Black students.

In 1969, he graduated from Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan and attended Columbia University, where he played freshman basketball. He earned a B.A. degree in American history in 1973. Holder received his J.D. degree from Columbia Law School, graduating in 1976. He worked for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund during his first summer and the United States Attorney during his second summer.

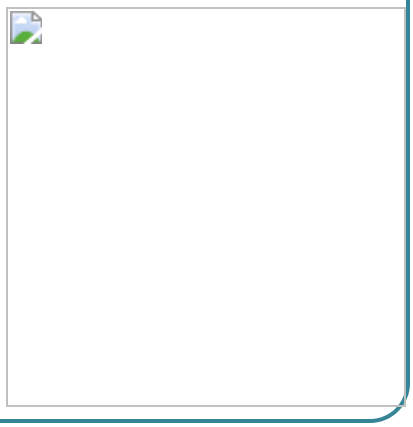
In 1969, while a freshman at Columbia, Holder was one of several dozen students who staged an occupation of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps office, renaming it as the Malcolm X student center.

Sharon Malone {Holder]: The First Lady of Justice retrieved from Essence and copied or modified to here

Education:	Sharon M. Holder,

Harvard University, Columbia University Vagelos College of Physicians and Surgeons

PhD, MSc, MSW, is an embedded research scientist in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine at Prisma Health-Upstate and a research assistant professor at Clemson University, Institute on Family and Neighborhood Life.



ALONG WITH BEING A DEDICATED DOCTOR, SHARON MALONE IS ALSO A MOTHER OF THREE AND WIFE TO THE FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN ATTORNEY GENERAL, ERIC HOLDER. SHE EXPLAINS HOW THEIR LIVES HAVE CHANGED NOW THAT HER HUSBAND IS A PART OF THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION.

President Obama and the First Lady aren't Black America's only political power couple in Washington, D.C. Standing next to Eric Holder, the newly appointed attorney general and first African-American to lead the country's Justice Department, is his wife of 20 years, Dr. Sharon Malone. A force in her own right, Malone is an obstetrician and gynecologist who has delivered more than 500 babies in the D.C. area alone. A mother of two teens and one preteen, she says she is delighted to see a Black president in the White House. The Alabama native shares with ESSENCE.com the emotions surrounding her husband's return to politics, the controversy over choosing not take his last name, and breaking out of the political wives' club.

Sharon Holder retrieved from PCORI and copied or modified to here

The Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute

Clemson University, Department of Youth, Family and Community Studies - Research Assistant Professor, Greenville Health System, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine - Embedded Research Scientist

STATE: SOUTH CAROLINA STAKEHOLDER TYPE: RESEARCHER

Sharon M. Holder, PhD, MSc, MSW, is an embedded research scientist in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine at Prisma Health-Upstate and a research assistant professor at Clemson University, Institute on Family and Neighborhood Life. She has worked in health care over the past 20 years and in research for the last 10 of those years. She has strong interest in stigma, behavioral health and mental health disparity among vulnerable and underserved populations.

Holder became involved with the ▶ PCORI Ambassador Program after receiving a Eugene Washington PCORI Engagement Award and serving as merit reviewer for PCORI. As a PCORI Ambassador, she has enjoyed fostering dialogues that promote mental health and substance use awareness and work toward eradicating the stigma and discrimination surrounding mental illness, mental health issues, and substance use treatment through research. She became motivated by PCORI's mission to make health care more patient centered and wipe out mental health stigma.

Vincent Stewart retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

UNCLASSIFIED//FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY: Vincent R Stewart, LtGen, CYBERCOM, Portrait

Vincent Raymond Stewart (born May 11, 1958) is a retired Jamaican American lieutenant general in the United States Marine Corps who most recently served as Deputy Commander at United States Cyber Command. He previously served as the 20th Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA). LtGen Stewart, who held that post from January 23, 2015 through October 3, 2017, was the first African American, first Jamaican American and first Marine to hold the position of Director of the DIA.

After earning his commission, he attended The Basic School (TBS) in Quantico, Virginia from 1981 to 1982 and was selected to become an Armor Officer. Upon graduation from this training, he was sent to the Armor Officer School in Fort Knox. He then received orders as a Platoon Leader to 1st Tank Battalion at Las Flores, 41 Area, Camp Pendleton, California. In 1984, he became the Executive Officer of Headquarters Company, 1st Tank Battalion.

He earned master's degrees in National Security and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College in 1995 and in National Resource Strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, National Defense University in 2002. On 23 January 2015, he left his position as the head of the Marine Force's Cyber Command to become the director of the US Defense Intelligence Agency, shortly before which he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant general.

LtGen Stewart retired from the U.S. Marine Corps at the Marine Barracks Washington on APRIL 5, 2019.

Vince Stewart replace Flynn as Barrack Obama fired General Flynn from the DIA just before leaving office. Donald J. Trump hired Flynn for his administration before Mike Pence and Rod Roenstein drove Flynn and Flynn Jr. from the administration. The Pizzagate operation underway was one of the primary areas of contention, Flynn opposed it, Pence backed it and its location on Sarosta Springs Florida near CENTCOM.

Trump aide Michael Flynn Jnr out after 'Pizzagate' tweets BBC *

D State analytics as a revealer of Eugenics and the Deep State

Expanded Research and Commentary related to the Deep State machinations and Bob Mueller, his Robber Barron Relatives and the Eastern Elite Families of Gibson Island, Maryland; when 140 Twitter Characters are not enough. on Twiiter @btaylor_71

Scientists used to meet on Gibson Island to discuss the latest developments in chemistry, biology & nuclear physics. We're suspicious.

Scientists used to meet on Gibson Island to discuss the latest developments in chemistry, biology & nuclear physics. We're suspicious.

A Rockefeller, a Morgan, and a Rothschild Walk into the Gibson Island Club. "Godfrey good fellow, a World Wildlife Fund or Foundation would make an excellent front charity for eugenics research and resource exploitation" said Prince Philip.

As explained in James Corbett's documentary, Why Big Oil Conquered the World, (links to full transcript) in the 1920's and early 1930's, the idea of an "alternative social system", known as "Technocracy" started to garner serious consideration among the learned men of academia, government and industry.

> "…It is a technological approach. Technocracy is the scientific answer to America's social problems and technocracy is a new design for social operation that based on upon science. It is the vehicle by which we can move into a new era for better living."

As the idea of a technocratic world gained followers, investments in science became even more necessary as well as collaboration. One of the more important collaboration conferences that these learned men would meet at each year was at the Gordon Research Conferences (GRC).

The first GRC was held in 1931 at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

> The meeting was convened by Professor Neil E. Gordon, a member of the chemistry faculty. Dr. Gordon's interest was to bring together a group of scientists working at the frontier of research of a particular area to discuss, in depth, all aspects of the most recent advances in the field and to stimulate new directions for research.

The 1932 and 1933 conferences were also held at Johns Hopkins, before moving to Gibson Island in 1934. As explained, "In search of a more isolated meeting site, the conferences moved to Gibson Island, Maryland in the mid-1930s." At about this time, the GRC also became affiliated with American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS)

During the late 30's and early 1940's the conferences were held in the Gibson Island Club House and after outgrowing that facility, was moved to the Symington house on Gibson Island.

> Seeking to expand beyond the limited facilities of the Gibson Island Club, Gordon secured funds from AAAS and some thirty-three corporations to purchase a property on the island, known as the Symington House. Conferences were held on the house porch as well as at the Gibson Island Club

Although the conferences continue to this day, the last year the GRC was held at Gibson Island was 1946. (The Gordon Research Conferences were often called the Gibson Island Conferences.)

A number of factors contributed to the change in venue, including changes in management and less than ideal dining facilities. A major contributing factor was racism.

> The committee also faced tensions with Gibson Island residents regarding conference growth and the participation of African American scientists. In a notorious incident, Percy Julian initially was not permitted to enter the Gibson Island Club to participate > in the 1943 hormone conference. He reportedly was only able to join the meeting “after three days of protesting by members of the conference”. Among the protesters was Gregory Pincus, who subsequently chaired a meeting on hormone research at Mont Tremblant, Quebec, which grew into the annual Laurentian Hormone Conference series

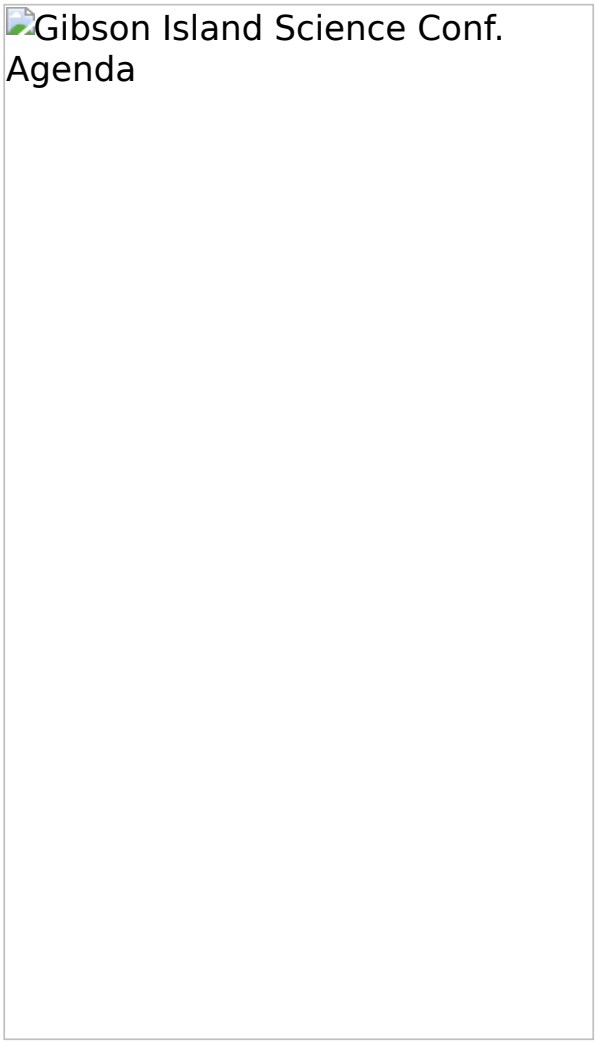
We can imagine it is difficult to lecture to a bunch of your scientific peers about some pseudo-scientific discovery that proposes some sort of African American inferiority when an African American scientist is staring you in the face, and a few of your peers are pointing at Percy Julian as proof that your ideas are nutty.

Other scientific conferences used Gibson Island as an attendee venue over the years, but the GRC put Gibson Island on the map where scientists could meet; presumably occasionally in secret.

Real Science and Nutty Nazi Politics

The early conferences were composed of different scientists from different disciplines. You might have a chemist, a nuclear physicist and a biologist all eating at the same lunch table. As the conferences became more popular and better funded, the different scientific disciplines were split, so their would be a chemistry conference for a few days, then an atomic science conference, and then a biology conference after that.

By 1944, eleven conferences were scheduled for the Summer, beginning June 12 and ending August 21.



Gibson Island Science Conference Agenda - 1944

Referencing James Corbett again, Eugenics was considered a serious scientific discipline until the Nazis gave it a bad name in the 1940s. Despite being based on spurious science to begin with, and the Nazi example of letting bad ideas run amok, instead of shelving eugenics as a scientific discipline, next to the phrenology books and Hollow Earth maps, it was re-branded and divided into different scientific disciplines.

We would argue that that Eugenics was a political point of view and not a science, all along. Prior to WWII, Eugenics was politically correct, after the example of the Nazis, it was not politically correct.

Although Eugenics lost its status as a legitimate science, any number of other legitimate scientific disciplines could be used to carry out the plans for the re-branded Eugenicists (as the political philosophy that it actually was.) In other words, actual scientific discoveries could lead to practical applications to advance the political plans of Eugenics promoters. For example, in the 1944 Conference referenced above, actual scientific findings presented at the Vitamins and/or Cancer conferences may have eventually lead to a better understanding of how to get rid of certain populations more quickly, and without calling attention to any efforts.

“On the Island there is an Aristocracy of Wealth … the conferences are an Aristocracy of Brains”

[Letter from Sumner Twiss (polymer chemist and conference organizer) reported to George Calingaert (Ethyl Corp. executive and chairman of conference management committee.) August 1946.]

As the title of this section suggests, Gibson Island combined the wealth of promoters of political eugenics with the scientists that had the knowledge of how to carry out their eugenic dreams.

The scientists that practiced in disciplines that may have had direct eugenics applications didn’t necessarily know that their findings might be used in evil ways. Maybe some did, and maybe some did not. Perhaps the decision to move the conferences was based in part on those types of factors.

Re-branding and more science

Prior to WWII, one could mention the “benefits” of Eugenics without be called a Nazi. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. was one of the more virulent promoters, and of course the wealthiest person on the planet. The Rockefeller Foundation, the Carnegie Foundation, the Ford Foundation and any number of other foundations, trusts, and wealthy individuals and families provided the funding the various studies, government lobbying efforts and university departments that promoted Eugenics.

Post WWII, the promotion of Eugenics focused on how actual science could positively affect long-term plans and re-branding, to avoid the Nazi taint.

Re-Branding

While it might have been perfectly fine to discuss the sterilization efforts of African Americans living in North Carolina in polite company in the 1920's and 1930's, by the early 1940's it was not "fine"; not that sterilization of Black people stopped. (North Carolina Woman on Eugenics Program: 'I Was Never Feebleminded!')

Instead of promoting Eugenics by arguing for the sterilization of African Americans, or Indians or Puerto Ricans (The Dark History of Forced Sterilization of Latina Women), the deaf (Alexander Graham Bell wanted to kill them all) or other people not born perfect, Eugenics was re-branded as "Population Control" or to "Save the Planet" or for "Family Planning."

More Science

The Gordon Research Conferences on Gibson Island (and other conferences on Gibson not affiliated with the GRC) did seem to have a significant "Family Planning" component.

As noted above, Gregory Goodwin Pincus (1903 - 1967) moved the Gibson Island Hormone Conference to Quebec. Pincus was an early pioneer in the science of mammalian reproductive systems.

From 1927 to 1930 he moved from Harvard to Cambridge University in England to the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for Biology with Richard Goldschmidt in Berlin where he performed research. He became an instructor in general physiology at Harvard University in 1930 and was promoted in 1931 to an assistant professor.

...

Dr. Pincus began studying hormonal biology and steroidal hormones early in his career. He was interested in the way that hormones affected mammals' reproductive systems.

Most importantly, Dr. Pincus was the co-inventor of the combined oral contraceptive pill.

McCormick and Sanger met with Pincus in 1953 to dramatically expand the scope of the research with 50-fold increase in funding from McCormick. Pincus was fascinated by Sanger because she revealed what life was like for women who were living in poverty who endured many pregnancies. Sanger indirectly influenced him to create a successful contraceptive to prevent unwanted pregnancies.

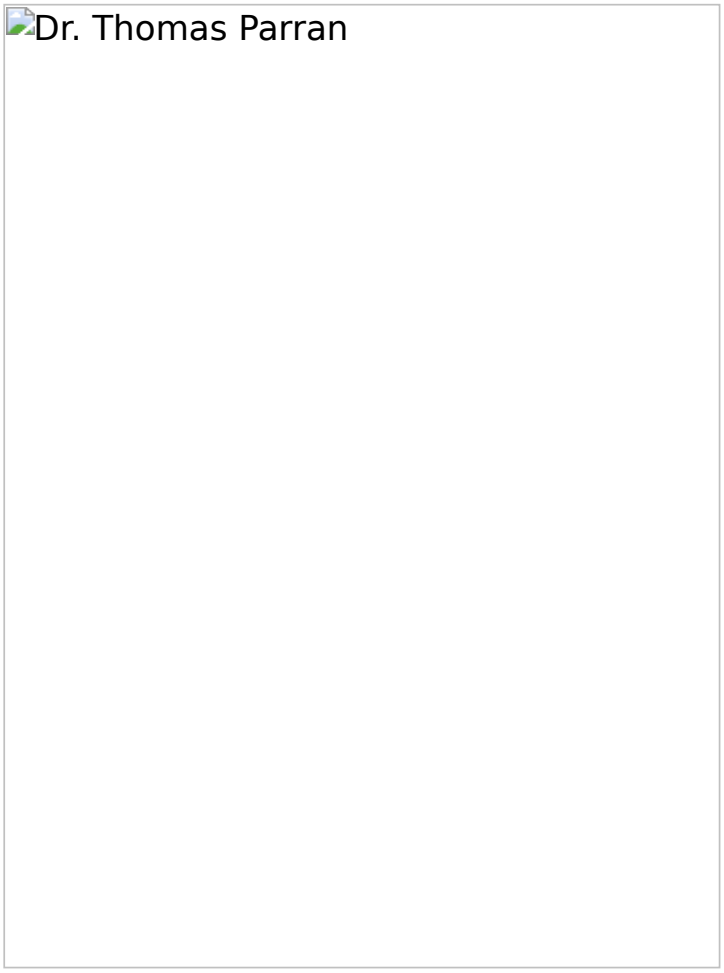
We are not suggesting that Dr. Pincus was some committed Eugenicist like his primary “influencer” Margaret Sanger, nevertheless, his earlier work as a Gibson Island conference attendee certainly became applicable to Sanger and her minions.

Aside from Pincus, a review of the biography his African American co-conference attendee, Percy Lavon Julian (who Pincus stood up for, admirably) was ;

…a pioneer in the industrial large-scale chemical synthesis of the human hormones progesterone and testosterone from plant sterols such as stigmasterol and sitosterol. His work laid the foundation for the steroid drug industry’s production of cortisone, other corticosteroids, and birth control pills.

Another important “player” in the medical sciences with potential eugenics applications, and conference attendee, was Dr. Thomas Parran Jr. (1892 - 1968.)



Dr. Thomas Parran (1892 - 1968)
Syphillis Spreader

Dr. Parran was an attendee at the Gibson Island Vitamin Conference of 1941 (July 23) and possibly later and earlier conferences. Dr. Parran was the sixth US Surgeon General, serving under FDR. Although Dr. Parran passed away in 1968, his name has been in the news lately.

> But Dr. Thomas Parran Jr., whose name graces the main building of the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health, has also been called an architect of the syphilis experiments on black men and women in Tuskegee, Ala. While he was surgeon general, he was also aware that U.S. public health researchers > were intentionally infecting with syphilis Guatemalan people who were mentally ill or in prison, in the name of research.

>
> Now, under pressure from students who say Parran's role in these experiments shows his disregard for human lives, the university is grappling with whether to strip his name from the building, and by default, the school he helped found after decades of public service. (Full Article.)

Parran is also connected to Gibson Island by marriage. His cousin, Anne Parran Somervell was married to Thomas B. Turner (1902 - 2002), dean of The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine for more than a decade, and Gibson Island resident since 1950. Turner's early work included research into syphilis and other STDs and their effect, and methods of treatment, prevention, etc. on US soldiers during World War II. His work or stewardship on the effects of syphilis is alleged to have included experiments on Guatemalan citizens which also involved Dr. Parran.

A 2016 lawsuit, on behalf of the survivors or the estates of the human "Guinea Pigs", was filed against Johns Hopkins University, The Rockefeller Foundation and Bristol-Myers Squibb Company. Turner is mentioned about 50 times in the 180 page filing, and Parran, as Rockefeller Foundation trustee is mentioned 81 times. (Full Document.)

Knowing what we know about Gibson Island, one can't help but think that some of the Island's residents saw some opportunities to promote their own bad ideas (ie. de-populating the planet) by co-opting the legitimate and sometimes beneficial work of visiting scientists like Pincus and Julian.

Other Resident Scientists

As noted in other posts, Gibson Island was developed as a Summer getaway for the wealthy and powerful beginning in the 1920s. There are currently only about 150 residential homes on the Island and through the 1950s, there were only about 50 homes. The pre-1950s families were a mix of Northern East Coast "Old Money" (Arrowsmith, Mueller, Rockefeller), "Confederate Royalty" (Old Virginia Families such as the Pearre Family and the McLean Family) and the "Baltimore Bourgeoisie." The Baltimore Bourgeoisie were composed of a mix of wealthy heirs and professionals and from nearby Baltimore and included the Symington Family, the Baltimore branch of the Hydes, the Orricks, and many others.

A number of Baltimore doctors made Gibson Island their summer home, and among those doctors were several pioneers in the field of reproductive medicine and related disciplines.

Dr. Hugh J. Davis

Another Gibson Island resident and scientist/gynecologist was also the inventor one of the more infamous birth control devices. Dr. Hugh J. Davis (1927 - 1996) was the co-inventor of the Dalkon Shield, an intrauterine birth control device that was marketed by the A.H. Robbins Company beginning in 1970. The Dalkon Shield would eventually be taken off the market for causing severe infections that lead in some cases to infertility, “septic abortions”, other complications and even some fatalities. The device was taken off the market and eventually more than 300,000 lawsuits were filed against A.H. Robbins Company.

The Doctors Jones

Georgeanna Seegar Jones, M.D and her husband Dr. Howard W. Jones, Jr., had a home on Gibson Island. The Jones’ conducted the first successful in-vitro fertilization in the United States.

> Dr. Georgeanna was elected President of the American Fertility Society in 1970, the first woman to reach that position. Her presidency was notable for her thoughtful discussions on the impact of reproductive technologies on society as well as the implications of advances in fertility control on women and their future. Obituary 2005

Other Areas to Look at

This post mostly focused on the reproductive components of eugenics (family planning, population control, etc.)

We hope to take a closer look at the cancer connection given the significant amount of cancer research that was presented at the conferences over the years. Our interest is partially motivated by the book “Dr. Mary’s Monkey: How the Unsolved Murder of a Doctor, a Secret Laboratory in New Orleans and Cancer-Causing Monkey Viruses Are Linked to Lee Harvey Oswald, the JFK Assassination and Emerging Global Epidemics” by Edward T. Haslam as well as the recent discussions on McDuff: Kennedy's Man to Smash the CIA Youtube channels and George Webb's Youtube channel.

Gibson Island, next to VI Brain Foundation Island of Epstein, same operation *

he following is a list of some of the more interesting current or former residents of Gibson Island, Maryland. We have highlighted Gibson Island in several previous posts and were always finding new names with interesting biographies retrieved from D State Analytics and copied or modified to here

The following is a list of some of the more interesting current or former residents of Gibson Island, Maryland. We have highlighted Gibson Island in several previous posts and were always finding new names with interesting biographies.

For more background about Gibson Island, please see this collection of posts that mention Gibson Island.

The Gang on Gibson Island includes the relatives of a number of famous politicians, industrialists and banking families. The CIA also figures prominently with names like Bagley, Asher and Amoss.

We also seem to run into a number of psychiatrists that are affiliated with nearby Johns Hopkins University. Given the CIA names on Gibson, and the Johns Hopkins psychiatrists, we are interested in researching connections to MK Ultra and related "mind control" program associations.

In the meantime, this list below, and and this version of the full Gibson Island Resident list here (and on the tab) is provided in case any names are recognized by the readers of this blog.

- Names in Green: Written about or mentioned in previous posts.

- Names in Blue: Psychiatrists & MDs affiliated with Johns Hopkins.
- Names in Red: Interesting names that need a closer look.

Jeff Bezos did not come from humble beginnings and build Amazon from his garage. LP Gise, his grandfather was instrumental in mass producing the US nuclear arsenal.
Both Gates and Bezos come from prominent Deep State Families. The whole narrative that they plucked themselves up from middle-class obscurity is a sham.
Insiders knew about 9/11 and stayed home. JP Morgan got off the Titanic and had his artwork removed. They always know. When your congressman leaves town for a vacation with the family, so should you.
The Deep State has been practicing Fake Alien Invasions Since 1952. Eleven years before the JFK Assassination, these connected conspirators cooked up a sighting.
Maybe Allen Dulles and the Young Turks Connects the CIA to Epstein Island via a Luciferian Cult founded by Sabetai Zevi in the 1600s. Re: FBI Vault Tweet about the Protocols of the Elders of Zion.
Maybe Allan Dulles Modeled the CIA after a Luciferian Cult learned about as a young Diplomat in Istanbul in 1921. Maybe that is why we have Epstein & Cannibal Pedos in Hollywood & DC. Maybe that is why the FBI tweeted out the Protocols of the Elders of Zion last week.
A bunch of connected people from WWI to the Great Reset “See Something, Say Something” - Signs popped up in this NJ ‘Burb last week and a County Sheriff just asked “Do you live here?” while on my morning walk. Probably not a domestic Gladio Op. Still…
Save your pocket change. An idea to upset the Great Reset.
Amazon is the Bezos family 4th fortune in the past 100 years. The Garage start-up story is BS. Grandpa founded DAARPA.
Tried to Connect Katy Perry to the Pre-WWI Illuminati Families but got distracted by the guy who owns a few Billion $ of the Ethereum Crypto Currency he created.
Agents of the Rothschilds - Then and Maybe Now - With a dubious shout-out to Wayfair
In 1951, J. Edgar Hoover said “There is no Mafia.” The entire quote though provides some context as to why the head of the FBI might say that. His 1956 quote is much more meaningful.
The Georgia Guidestones don’t look all that sturdy. How about a toppling? For the symbolism.

Twitter is suspending anyone who tweets lyrics by The Replacements.
A Rockefeller, a Morgan, and a Rothschild Walk into the Gibson Island Club. Some hidden history without any help from Wikipedia.
Katy Perry's Illuminati Family Tree
Only about a 20 minute boat ride from Little St. James (Epstein Island) is another small Island with very big connections to the Military and the Intelligence Community. A recently elected former VP seemed to like the place too.

A Rockefeller, a Morgan, and a Rothschild Walk into the Gibson Island Club. "Godfrey good fellow, a World Wildlife Fund or Foundation would make an excellent front charity for eugenics research and resource exploitation" said Prince Philip.

The Baer Branch in the Cabell Cabal. "Ex" CIA Operative & Current History Channel Host Still Pushing the Narrative that Lee Harvey Oswald Acted Alone retrieved from D State Analytics and copied or modified to here

The Baer Branch in the Cabell Cabal. "Ex" CIA Operative & Current History Channel Host Still Pushing the Narrative that Lee Harvey Oswald Acted Alone Bill Taylor October 2, 2019 3 Commentson The Baer Branch in the Cabell Cabal. "Ex" CIA Operative & Current History Channel Host Still Pushing the Narrative that Lee Harvey Oswald Acted Alone

Robert Booker Baer, has a "Cabell Cabal" last name, if that is his real name. We watched him on Newsmax last night where he promoted the idea that Lee Harvey Oswald was an assassin for the KGB.

There is nothing new or novel about the idea that Lee Harvey Oswald was an assassin for the KGB. Any casual subscribers to the "conspiracy theory" of JFK's assassination knows that Lee Harvey "defected to Russia" in October 1959 and returned to the USA in June 1962, with a wife. Beyond that, any number of respectable JFK researchers have presented evidence of Lee's motivations for moving to the USSR, means for getting there and back, and what he did when he was there.

Lee Harvey, Bill Murray

“Lee Harvey, you are a madman.

When you stole that cow, and your friend tried to make it with the cow.

I want to party with you, cowboy.”

Many in the JFK conspiracy theory community, which includes mostly objective researchers and authors, but also a small number of cranks, mostly believe that Oswald was sent to Russia under a “false defector” program, orchestrated by either James Jesus Angleton, or Richard M. Bissell (Robert Mueller’s first cousin once removed) or both. In short, Lee Harvey Oswald was a CIA operative when he went to Russia. There is very little evidence, if any, that Oswald went to Russia to learn the assassination techniques of the KGB and that he returned to the US to kill Kennedy.

There is still room for debate about why the CIA sent Oswald to the USSR as a false defector, but their is barely a sliver of room (and likely no room) to suggest that Oswald was a KGB assassin.

55+ years later, the CIA is still blaming Lee Harvey Oswald, why bother?

In the interim, from 1963 to the present, thousands of books have been written, documentaries made, podcasts recorded, essays published and symposiums attended. No one with even a cursory review of all the evidence and theories is buying the CIA narrative promoted by the Mainstream Media (MSM), that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone, or under KGB sponsorship.

The fact that the evidence points to CIA involvement is at this point in history, less interesting than the 55+ year cover up. If the CIA’s involvement was restricted to some rogue elements, now mostly all dead, with antiquated ideas about the dangers of Communism, or an attempt to take back the Cuban sugar fields and/or Mafia Casinos seized by Castro, then coming clean, at this point would give the CIA some credibility. That is, no one now, is going to blame anyone in the CIA today for what some long dead operatives did in 1963.

The entire CIA/MSM cover up of its involvement in the JFK assassination is still necessary, from their point of view, because the CIA’s institutional predecessors and successors were and remain sponsors of domestic assassinations, coup d’etats, and corrupt government official protection rackets.

If the CIA admits it had a hand in killing JFK, then what about RFK, and then MLK. Watergate looks like a Silent Coup if you read beyond the MSM narrative. If Oswald, Sirhan Sirhan and James Earl Ray were not lone gunmen, then what about John Hinckley.

Was Iran/Contra supposed to force Reagan out and George Herbert Walker Bush in?

Was the Lewinsky impeachment of Clinton intended to distract from more serious crimes?

Russiagate is of course a hoax.

If the CIA/MSM and underlying base of institutional sponsors and enablers admit the CIA was involved in the JFK Assassination, then 100 years of Deep State societal conditioning, the manipulation of markets in their favor, and the co-opting of legal systems will eventually come crashing down, forcing them to make an honest living once and for all.

Present Day Lone Gunmen Promoter, Robert Booker Baer

Robert Booker Baer (born 1952) is an ex-CIA case officer and prolific writer. In addition to numerous articles in respectable mainstream publications (The Wall Street Journal, Vanity Fair), Agent Baer has at least six books under his name; five films, including Syriana (starring George Clooney) and two television shows; Hunting Hitler and JFK Declassified: Tracking Oswald.

“CIA and FBI have never trusted Trump”

Ex-Agent Baer has clearly been a man in demand. He has been the go-to-guy for whenever the MSM needs a pithy comment of the expert opinion of someone who worked (works?) for The Company.

One can surmise that he has the approval of the CIA (or the CIA’s handlers) given his professional successes as a writer and TV show host. His biography on Wikipedia and other approved web sites is nicely consistent, with details about his professional successes, but there is limited information about his family background.

We can sympathize with any public figures desire to keep family information suppressed. Generally, family information is not important or relevant and the privacy of relatives of public figures deserves to be respected. The same holds for Robert Booker Baer. Nevertheless, Mr. Baer’s biography on Wikipedia and elsewhere does mention “…his mother, a wealthy heiress, took him to Europe…”

Even though the relatives of public figures don’t always deserve scrutiny, it is hard not to take a look a closer look of someone’s mother is identified as a “wealthy heiress.” Too many questions are begged. Is she related to the Rockefellers? The Rothschilds? His bio said he was born in Los Angeles, so maybe he is a Getty or a Hearst.

Booker Baer The one reference to his mother that we have found so far is that her maiden name was Eisele.

Before we look more closely into the Eisele name, we’ll look at the “Baer” name, which is low hanging fruit in the Deep State family tree. Unfortunately, Baer is a fairly common name of German origin and there are a variety of spellings, including Barr.

As a CIA guy though, and one that has been allowed to make a living telling CIA stories, he no doubt knows the right people. Perhaps he is related to General Charles P. Cabell of Bay of Pigs fame.

General Cabell’s grand father and uncle on his mother’s side both use the family name “Baer”, as in Major Charles Baer Pearre, Sr. (1834 to 1908); the grandfather.We admit that is not much of a connection, and we can’t even say for sure if Robert Book Baer is this ex-CIA officers real name.

The mother’s maiden name on the birth index screen shot is not all that helpful either. As a supposed “heiress”, the name Eisele should show up in duckduckgo and newspaper archive searches, but we have not had much luck yet.

We did run across a possibly suspicious death though. The most famous Eisele we have come across is Donn Fulton Eisele.

Donn F. Eisele (1930 to 1987) was a United States Air Force Officer, test pilot and NASA Astronaut. “He occupied the command module pilot seat during the flight of Apollo 7 in 1968.”

According to his Wikipedia biography, “After retiring from both NASA and the Air Force, he became the Peace Corps country director for Thailand, before moving into private business.”

“In July 1972, Eisele became Country Director of the U.S. Peace Corps in Thailand. Returning from Thailand two years later, he became Sales Manager for Marion Power Shovel, a division of Dresser Industries.”

It probably does not need to be said that Peace Corps in Thailand in the early 70's means CIA. Dresser Industries was also a Bush Family company, so there is another CIA connection.

Finally, "Eisele died at the age of 57 of a heart attack while on a 1987 business trip to Tokyo, Japan, where he was to attend the opening of a new Space Camp patterned on the one at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center in Huntsville, Alabama."

The Donn Eisele information is a bit of a side track from our Robert Booker Baer investigation. To get somewhat back on track, we plan to take a look at the Wirt branch of the Cabell family tree.

The Wirt family "rabbit hole" begins with this Corbett Report transcript from The September 11 Financial Heist: "Follow The 9/11 MoneyTrail" (Episode 308.)

In Episode 308, the following discussion is provided:

> Perhaps the most frank admission of insider trading is notable for three things: it was recorded on video, it has never been investigated by any agency or law enforcement official, and it was made by former CIA agent and frequent foreign policy commentator Robert Baer, the real-life inspiration for the character portrayed by George Clooney in "Syriana." Talking to citizen journalists after a speaking event in Los Angeles in 2008, Baer was recorded on video making a startling assertion about 9/11 insider trading:
> JEREMY ROTHE-KUSHEL: "…the last thing I want to leave you with is the National Reconnaissance Office was running a drill of a plane crashing into their building and you know they're staffed by DoD and CIA…"
>
> ROBERT BAER: "I know the guy that went into his broker in San Diego and said 'cash me out, it's going down tomorrow.'
>
> JEREMY ROTHE KUSHEL: Really?
>
> ROBERT BAER: Yeah.

> STEWART HOWE: That tells us something.
>
> ROBERT BAER: What?
>
> STEWART HOWE: That tells us something.
>
> ROBERT BAER: Well his brother worked at the White House.”

Earlier in Episode 308

> One lead is pursued by researcher and author Kevin Ryan. In “Evidence for Informed Trading on the Attacks of September 11” he examines an FBI briefing document from 2003 that was declassified in 2009. It describes the results of FBI investigations into two of the pre-9/11 trades that the Bureau had identified as suspicious, including the purchase of 56,000 shares of Stratesec in the days prior to 9/11. Stratesec provided security systems to airports (including, ironically, Dulles Airport, as well as the World Trade Center and United Airlines), and saw its share price almost double when the markets re-opened on September 17th, 2001.
>
> The trades traced back to a couple whose names are redacted from the memo, but are easily identifiable from the unredacted information: Mr. and Mrs. Wirt D. Walker III, a distant relative of the Bush family and business partner of Marvin Bush, the president’s brother. The document notes that the pair were never even interviewed as part of the investigation because it had “revealed no ties to terrorism or other negative information.”
>
> In addition to begging the question, this characterization is provably false. As Ryan noted in a conversation with financial journalist Lars Schall:

> KEVIN RYAN: “Wirt Dexter Walker at Stratesec hired several people from a company called The Carlyle Group and The Carlyle Group had Bin-Laden family members as investors. Also Wirt Walkers fellow (inaudible) director James Abrahamson was a close business associate of a man named Mansoor Ijaz, a Pakistani businessman and Mansoor Ijaz claimed to be able to contact Osama Bin-Laden on mulitple occasions.

It is not clear if Baer and Ryan are talking about the same “insider” traders, who appear to have had foreknowledge about the events of September 11th.

As noted in the transcript though, “Wirt D. Walker III” was a distant relative of George W. and Poppy Bush. Wirt is definitely an unusual first name, which probably means it is a family name. As it turns out, in addition to their being some Wirts in the Bush/Walker family tree, there are some Wirts in the Cabell family tree as well.

Finally, we note Robert Baer’s movie writing career.

Syriana is a 2005 American geopolitical thriller film written and directed by Stephen Gaghan, and executive produced by George Clooney, who also stars in the film with an ensemble cast. Gaghan’s screenplay is loosely adapted from ex CIA operative Robert Baer’s memoir See No Evil.

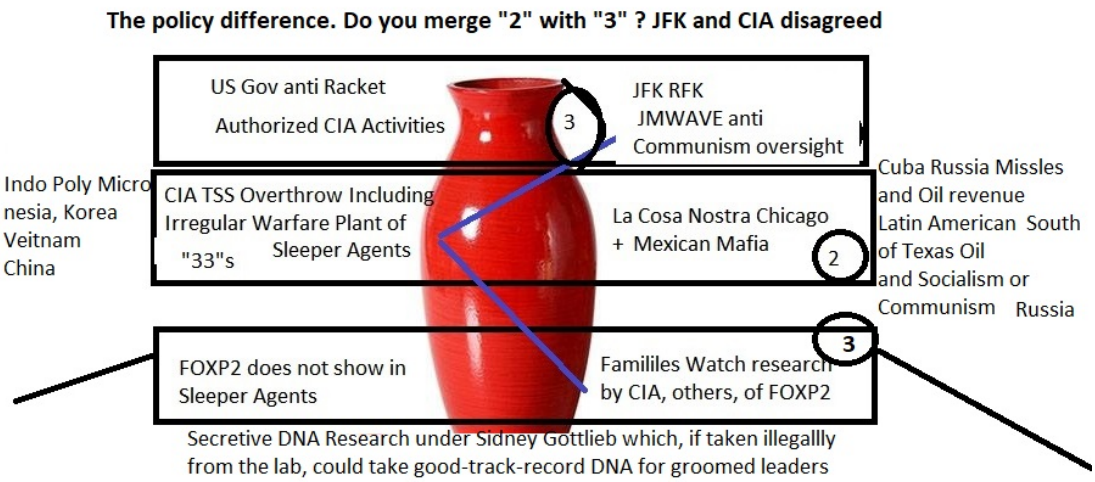
A recently published deep dive into George Clooney’s Deep State and intelligence connections is available here. Behind The Illusion; George Clooney by Tiffany Fitzhenry

For additional information about the Cabell Family and related branches, see The Cabell Cabal and Related Families

JFK Coup d’etat, Trump Coup d’etat, WTC - 9/11 9/11, Baer, Bush, Cabell, CIA, Clintons, Dresser Ind, Eisele, George Clooney, Hinckley, James Earl Ray, JFK Coup d’etat, Lee Harvey Oswald, Marion Power Shovel, Robert Baer, Robert F. Kennedy, Sirhan Sirhan, Trump Coup d’etat, Wirt

This book

PsyClops and the Storyh of How Malcom X was much like Catholics



Working the side of this vase again to understand who was assassinated by the Kabal Mafia and why.

Volunteer study participants “3” find out how the data is really being used and plans held by Mafia “2” which had not been disclosed. In fact Malcolm X may have suspected and may have been right HIS DNA was being moved around to others more so than he agreed to.

As families volunteering for Minnesota Twins Studies eugenics research volunteer themselves they find out the program isn’t just medical research it is for far reaching Commonwealth expansionism furthered by assassinations and Mafia groomed leaders moved into locations all around the globe; for instance Cuba where the mafia will have gambling and prostitution rights.

Malcom X looks at Barrack Obama April 1962, sort of, by picture plancemen in his own publication. Seatle Futurism and JFK Windsors
THE YOUNG LISTENER
THE OLD HEARD

Table of Contents

- The Medical State
- Prescience
- Geno Racket and the Reason...
- Dediction
- Acknowledgements
- Crypto Genocide
- Sidney Gottlieb
- The Ripeness of 1944 for CIA...
- Centering on Universit of W...
- About
- Racial Engineering, Genores...
- Spain
- Chart
- Ccentering On Prophecies
- MKULTRA Targeted Individual
- 200 Material Witness to a Pr...
- Psych Ward
- Psych Ward Ed
- Black Markets
- WETWORKS and Assassinati...
- Prelude
- Genomics and Air Travel
- Centering On 1996
- Need For Political and Religi...
- Opus Dei, Catholic, and others
- Centering on Genetics
- Planning Parenthood
- Centering On Family Memb...
- Materiality
- Forward

Monday, February 20, 1961

February 20, 1961

JFK met with U.S. Secretary General of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation (OEEC) Thorkil Kristensen at around 11 am in the Oval Office.

JFK and Thorkil Kristensen (center) with unidentified man - February 20, 1961

1962 February 21 — Meeting with presidents of Negro Colleges, 2:17PM

1962 February 21 — Meeting regarding the Seattle World's Fair, 12:5[illegible]PM

In 1962 the One Year Anniversary of the IFV testing a plan for the future of so called Negroes

Feb 23 1962

This edition of Muhammad Speaks, dated April 1962, has a front page caption that reads:

"More than 12,000 people on February 23 [illegible] Amphitheater to hear Messenger Elijah Muhammad speak on The Future Of The American So-called Negroes."

Inside the newspaper, on page 18, Ann and baby Barack are placed just below, to the left of a photo of Malcolm X with the caption "The Young Listened".

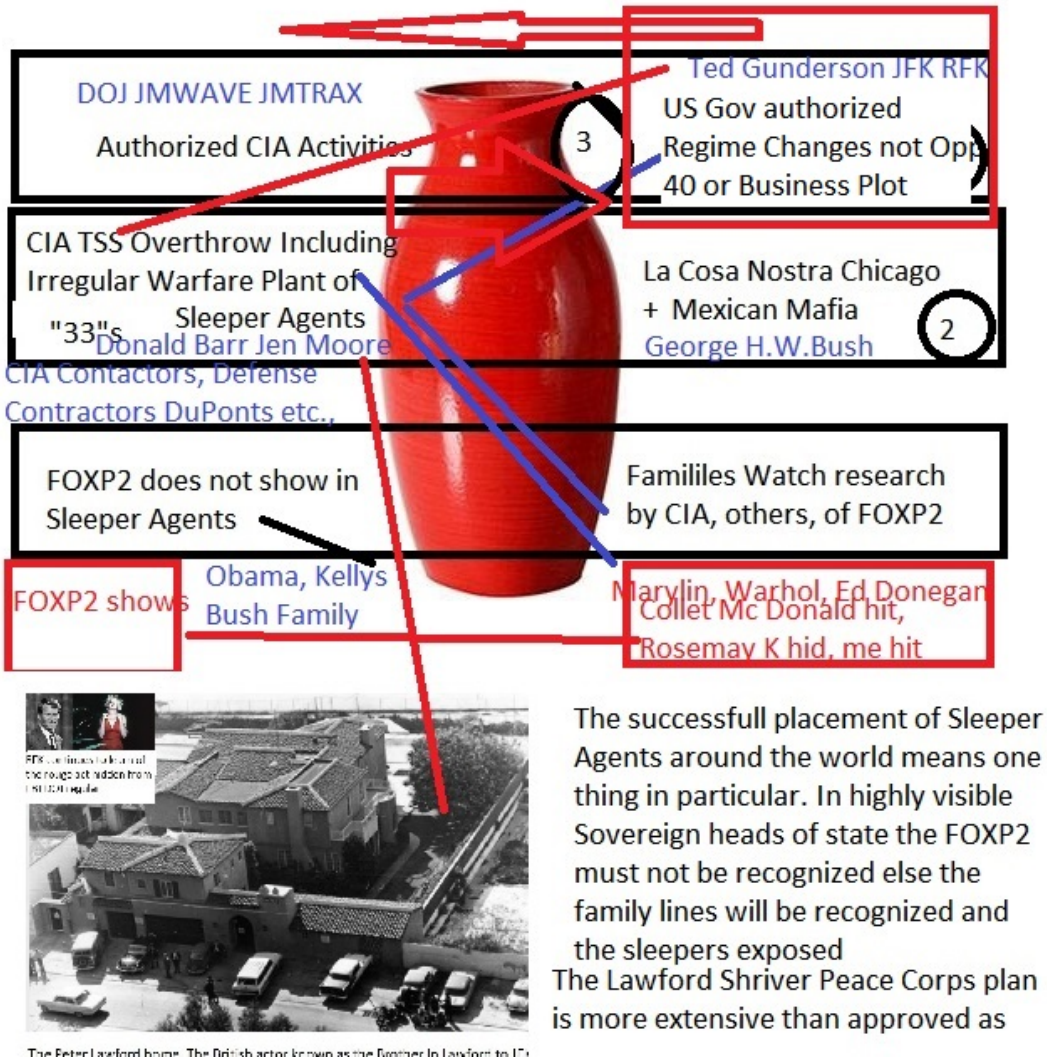
Malcom X looks at Barrack Obama April 1962, sort of, by picture plancemen in his own publication, Seatle Futurism and JFK Windsors

THE YOUNG LISTENER

THE OLD HEARD



Certain families and Malcom X being one of them were approached that speech defect research was being conducted and some twins or mix parents brothers or sisters with common mothers or fathers were being studied which carried certain attributes to see what would develop ion the children. Some great leaders DNA would be involved and his was selected as some other families were.

Malcolm X sees one birth carried out Barrack Obama Jr and Malcolm X now has a son destined for greatness perhaps in the Middle East or elsewhere. But there problems merging.

1. The Eugenicists are turning out too many experiments like (mot likely) the Kelly Brothers, who are whites

2. And the Queen of England and others Muslims have fought is too involved

3. JFK has already been assassinated probably over this and Malcolm X probably like Dorothy Kilgallen likely know who the Mafia are and what they are up to

This in fact matches the JFK RFK TK psychology.

Protaganist Nationalism	Antagonist Enemy
Malcom X and Middle East anti white or oil oppressors	QEII, Standard Oil, Judeic refugees of Nazi Germany
Ireland French Catholics

Trump Gaetz Green doubt the CIA

“In short, the Establishment Class, (the Deep State, the Powers that Be) did not just prefer a Hillary Clinton over a Mitt Romney or a John McCain (or a Jeb Bush if nominated) because of typical surface level “R” and “D” policy disagreements, they feared Donald J. Trump because he was a threat to the status quo.

The Robert Swan Mueller III Family Helped Found the Deep State

When Wikipedia leaves out important parts of a person’s biography, such as the name of their parents, or who other famous relatives are, one can be usually be assured its because the Deep State does not want you know.

That was the case with Bob Mueller. The George Webb crowd made it a priority to write the real biography of Bob Mueller. Combing genealogy websites and newspaper archives, instead of relying on Wikipedia or establishment controlled media sources, the “crowd” quickly figured out that Bob comes from a very powerful family.

The Mueller family was related to the Genera Charles Cabell and Richard Bissell, who were both fired by JFK over the failed Bay of Pigs Invasion. Robert Swan Mueller the 1st, became wealthy by ripping off the US Government in World War I, and may have been involved in the Businessmen’s Plot against FDR in the 1930s. Robert S. Mueller II, the special counsels father, worked for du Pont and seems to be connected to some incidents involving the transfer of nuclear technology and material.

Finally, the Muellers summered on Gibson Island for decades with the Rockefellers, du Ponts, Walkers, Symingtons, and a whole host of other coup plotters, false flag planners and general Robber Baron types of the 20th century.

Probably Not a Coincidence The JFK Assassination of course occurred a long time ago. More time has passed between the Trump Coup Era and the JFK Assassination (56 years) than the time that passed between the JFK Assassination and the end of WWI (46 years) or maybe a Wilson coup, as some of have considered.

Fifty Six years is a long time, and no one really expects to find JFK Coup plotting suspects involved in the attempts to take out Trump, at least since the death of George H.W. Bush (there’s that Walker name again!)

*

Who is Robert Mueller, the man behind the report on Trump?
retrieved from NBC News and copied or modified to here

Mueller was born in New York City in 1944, and raised outside of Philadelphia. His father Muelelr II was a World War II Navy veteran and an executive at DuPont.

He was nominated as FBI director by President George W. Bush, and unanimously confirmed by the Senate.

He was sworn in on Sept. 4, 2001 - one week before the country was hit with the deadliest terror attack in history, coordinated passenger jetliner attacks that killed thousands in New York, Washington and Pennsylvania.

It was the DuPonts that “rescued” the Von Trapps and placed Glorian Donegan in a DuPont workers family in South Carolina after Festus died in North Carolina, Greensborough area.

> The CIA and Russia have tried cooperation. Russia always ruins it. - The Washington Post
>
> WAPO
>
> Trump wants the CIA to cooperate with Russia. We tried that. It was a disaster.
>
> Putin doesn’t want a constructive relationship with the U.S. He just wants to beat us.”

The Trump wing of the GOP tend to like Europe United including East, Central, Western, the Three Crowns, and Latim America.

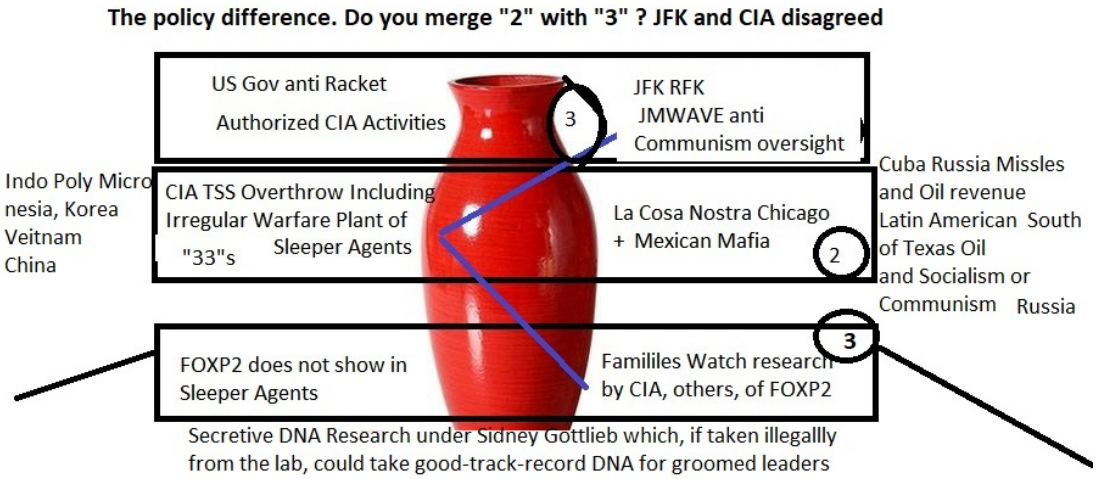
The British and Oil Money collective want Middle Eastern interference and overthrow as foreign policy and that does not sit well with many.

Many European countries have close ties to North Africa across the Meditaranian and many African and North African countries bitterly resent the USA and align with Russia for the same reasons Cuba chose to.

THe Bush wing of the party are at odds with these mavericks from Cartel CIA activities.

I believe since they could not stop Donald J. Trump Michelle Field part black Christian and Billy Bush grandson of Prescott Bush went after Trump and finaly got Mike Pence onto the ticket as some sort of likable Minister to the ailing and failing Donald J. Trump bringing the Evangelicals in.

The Trumps are one of the families with this line of genetics but the are trapped at “3” and can not break through “2” to get to the top spot, Oil Money has too much power soically including US MSM at layer “2”.



Billy Bush (William Hall Bush, Grandson of Prescott Bush)

William Hall Bush (born October 13, 1971) is an American radio and television host. He is a member of the Bush family, a nephew of President George H. W. Bush and cousin of President George W. Bush and Florida governor Jeb Bush.

Jonathan James Bush (May 6, 1931 - May 5, 2021) was an American banker who was the fourth child> and third son of U. S. Senator Prescott Bush and his wife Dorothy Bush.

William Hall Bush (Grandson of Prescott Bush Eugen was born in Manhattan, New York,[1] to Josephine Colwell Bush (née Bradley) and Jonathan Bush

---

Agent-In-Place	Agent-Of-Influence Placed Individual
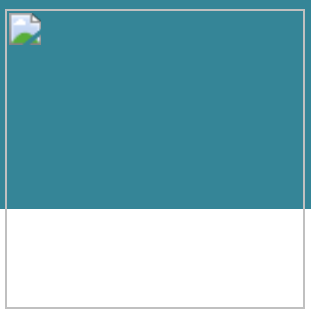
Targeted Individual (Targeted for recuitment as an asset or targeted for hostile acts)

With Donald Trump Ailing and Failing a minister was given to him in the form of Mike Pence which offset the public relations damage.

LeMay Was A Treasonous Self Protecting General and Mole who may have destroyed all of history

Curtis Emerson LeMay (NOVEMBER 15, 1906 - October 1, 1990)



Aug 3 and August 4 1945

5th Chief of Staff of the United States Air Force In office June 30, 1961 - January 31, 1965 former US Army Air Corp Pursuit (p-51 planes and B-17 and B-29 Bombers missions, possible person who caught Stanly Armour Dunham stealing the place designs for the Nazis

> Early afternoon: Tibbets and his bombardier, Thomas Ferebee, arrive in Guam to meet with General LeMay to complete the remaining details of the mission order.
>
> The first order of business is to find out which target city was preferred by LeMay.
>
> LeMay’s answer was “Paul, the primary’s Hiroshima.” Tibbets provided an immediate response: “I’ve always preferred it as the target.”

After some discussion on whether to fly into the wind or downwind for safety and bombing accuracy reasons, the conversation ends with a unanimous agreement to fly into the wind. The last order of business is for Ferebee to select his aiming point. Without hesitation, Ferebee places his index finger on the T-shaped Aioi Bridge located in the center of Hiroshima. LeMay nodded his head and Tibbets agreed, stating, “It’s the most perfect aiming AP [aim point] I’ve seen in this whole damn war.”

AUGUST 4: Tibbets briefs the 509th Composite Group about the impending attack. He reveals that they will drop immensely powerful bombs, but the nature of the weapons is not revealed the B-29 crews and P-51 escorts (both as recon camera crews and fighter protection of the B-29s]

Atomic Heritage Foundation in conjunction with National Museum of Nuclear Science & History

Curtis LeMay General, Europe Japan, Tinian Island Born Nov 15 1906 Government Official, Military Veteran

Distanly a Huguenot a religious group of French Protestants who held to the Reformed, or Calvinist, tradition of Protestantism. The origin of the term is uncertain, but was in European use by the 16th century. Hugenot was frequently used in reference to those of the Reformed Church of France from the time of the Protestant Reformation., and from a lineage of frequent job changes in life.

The Secret Team, or*ST*, is a phrase coined by L. Fletcher Prouty in 1973, alleging a covert alliance between the United States' military, intelligence, and private sectors to influence political decisions. He suggests the existence of a covert alliance between certain people within the U.S. intelligence community, the United States military, and American private industry who use their collective wealth, influence, and resources to manipulate current events to steer public policy and maximize profits. The term is pejorative since he accuses the organizations of prioritizing their personal fortunes above the national interest, as well as eliminating any opposition, whether through targeted propaganda or assassination.

[LeMay is believed by many to have particpated in the oil emperilism murder of JFK and I proport that the is secret British moles in the US Military and Media concealing themselves as "extranet" Windsor family in a secret ruling society hidign their identity.

Curtis Emerson LeMay (N was an American Air Force general who implemented an effective but controversial strategic bombing campaign in the Pacific theater of World War II. He later served as Chief of Staff of the U.S. Air Force from 1961 to 1965.

LeMay joined the U.S. Army Air Corps, the precursor to the U.S. Air Force, in 1929 while studying civil engineering at Ohio State University. He had risen to the rank of major by the time of Japan's Attack on Pearl Harbor in December 1941 and the United States's subsequent entry into World War II.

He commanded the 305th Operations Group from October 1942 until September 1943, and the 3rd Air Division in the European theatre of World War II until August 1944, when he was transferred to the China Burma India Theater. He was then placed in command of strategic bombing operations against Japan, planning and executing a massive fire bombing campaign against Japanese cities and Operation Starvation, a crippling minelaying campaign in Japan's internal waterways.

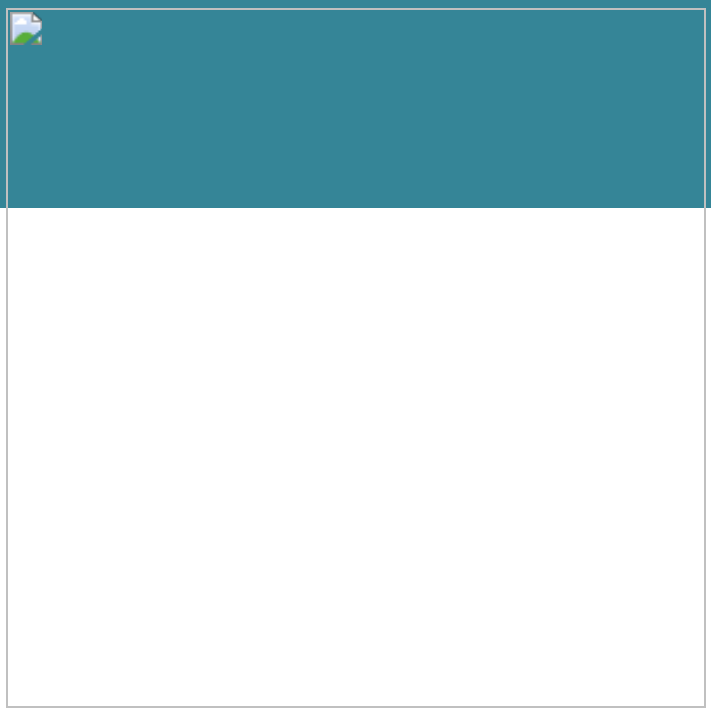
National Security Archive

Washington, D.C., August 4, 2020 - To mark the 75th anniversary of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in August 1945, the National Security Archive is updating and reposting one of its most popular e-books of the past 25 years. https://nsarchive.gwu.edu/

The Atomic Bomb and the End of World War II



A Collection of Primary Sources

Updated National Security Archive Posting Marks 75th Anniversary of the Atomic Bombings of Japan and the End of World War II

Extensive Compilation of Primary Source Documents Explores Manhattan Project, Eisenhower’s Early Misgivings about First Nuclear Use, Curtis LeMay and the Firebombing of Tokyo, Debates over Japanese Surrender Terms, Atomic Targeting Decisions, and Lagging Awareness of Radiation Effects

---

Along with the ethical issues involved in the use of atomic and other mass casualty weapons, why the bombs were dropped in the first place has been the subject of sometimes heated debate.As with all events in human history, interpretations vary and readings of primary sources can lead to different conclusions. Thus, the extent to which the bombings contributed to the end of World War II or the beginning of the Cold War remain live issues.

A significant contested question is whether, under the weight of a U.S. blockade and massive conventional bombing, the Japanese were ready to surrender before the bombs were dropped.

Also still debated is the impact of the Soviet declaration of war and invasion of Manchuria, compared to the atomic bombings, on the Japanese decision to surrender. Counterfactual issues are also disputed, for example whether there were alternatives to the atomic bombings, or would the Japanese have surrendered had a demonstration of the bomb been used to produced shock and awe. Moreover, the role of an invasion of Japan in U.S. planning remains a matter of debate, with some arguing that the bombings spared many thousands of American lives that otherwise would have been lost in an invasion.

After the war, he was assigned to command USAF Europe and coordinated the Berlin airlift. He served as commander of the Strategic Air Command (SAC) from 1948 to 1957, where he presided over the transition to an all-jet aircraft force that focused on the deployment of nuclear weapons. As Chief of Staff of the Air Force, he called for the bombing of Cuban missile sites during the Cuban Missile Crisis and sought a sustained bombing campaign against North Vietnam during the Vietnam War.

LeMay was of English and distant French Huguenot heritage.[2] His father, Erving Edwin LeMay, was at times an ironworker and general handyman, but he never held a job longer than a few months. His mother, Arizona Dove (Carpenter) LeMay, did her best to hold her family together. With very limited income, his family moved around the country as his father looked for work, going as far as Montana and California. Eventually they returned to his native city of Columbus.

LeMay attended Columbus public schools, graduating from Columbus South High School, and studied civil engineering at The Ohio State University. Working his way through college, he graduated with a bachelor’s degree in civil engineering. While at Ohio State he was a member of the National Society of Pershing Rifles and the Professional Engineering Fraternity Theta Tau. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Corps Reserve in October 1929. He received a regular commission in the United States Army Air Corps in January 1930.

LeMay became a pursuit pilot with his first duty station at Selfridge Field with the 27th Pursuit Squadron. After having served in various assignments in fighter operations, LeMay transferred to bomber aircraft in 1937.

While stationed in Hawaii, he became one of the first members of the Air Corps to receive specialized training in aerial navigation. In August 1937, as navigator under pilot and commander Caleb V. Haynes on a Boeing B-17 Flying Fortress, he helped locate the battleship Utah despite being given the wrong coordinates by Navy personnel, in exercises held in misty conditions off California, after which the group of B-17s bombed it with water bombs.

LeMay commanded subsequent B-29 Superfortress combat operations against Japan, including massive incendiary attacks on 67 Japanese cities and the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. This included the firebombing of Tokyo known in official documents as the "Operation Meetinghouse" air raid on the night of March 9-10, 1945 - which proved to be the single most destructive bombing raid of the war.[12]

Landsdale

Second World War , Soldiers , Edward Lansdale retrieved from 1997-2020 Spartacus Educational Publishers Ltd. and copied or modified to here

Written by John Simkin

Edward Lansdale was born in Detroit, Michigan, on 6th February, 1908. During the Second World War Lansdale was a member of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), an organization that was given the responsible for espionage and for helping the resistance movement in Europe.

According to Sterling Seagrave, Lansdale was sent by General Charles Willoughby to the Philippines after the war. Lansdale "joined the torture sessions of Major Kojima Kashii "as an observer and participant". As Seagrave explains: "Since Yamashita had arrived from Manchuria in October 1944 to take over the defense of the Philippines, Kojima had driven him everywhere."

In charge of Kojima's torture was an intelligence officer named Severino Garcia Diaz Santa Romana (Santy). He wanted Major Kojima to reveal each place to which he had taken General Tomoyuki Yamashita, where bullion and other treasure were hidden." Ray Cline argues that between 1945 and 1947 the gold bullion recovered by Santy and Lansdale was moved by ship to 176 accounts at banks in 42 countries. Robert Anderson and CIA agent Paul Helliwell set up these black gold accounts "providing money for political action funds throughout the noncommunist world."

Promoted to the rank of major Lansdale was appointed Chief of the Intelligence Division in the Philippines. His main task was to rebuild the country's security services.

On his return to the United States in 1948 Lansdale became a lecturer at the Strategic Intelligence School in Colorado. However, in 1950, Elpidio Quirino, the president of the Philippines, requested Lansdale's help in his fight against the communist insurrection taking place in his country.

In the early 1950s, Allen Dulles gave Lansdale $5-million to finance CIA operations against the Hukbalahap movement, the rural peasant farmers fighting for land-reform in the Philippines.

When President John F. Kennedy took office, Lansdale was appointed as Assistant Secretary of Defence for Special Operations. He argued that the CIA should work closely with exiles [led by George H.W. Bush] in Cuba, particularly those with middle-class professions, who had opposed Fulgencio Batista and had then become disillusioned with Fidel Castro because of his betrayal of the democratic process. Lansdale was also opposed to the Bay of Pigs operation because he knew that it would not trigger a popular uprising against Castro. Kennedy respected the advice of Lansdale and selected him to become project leader of Operation Mongoose.

Over 400 CIA officers were employed full-time on this project. Sidney Gottlieb of the CIA Technical Services Division was asked to come up with proposals that would undermine Castro's popularity with the Cuban people. Plans included a scheme to spray a television studio in which he was about to appear with an hallucinogenic drug and contaminating his shoes with thallium which they believed would cause the hair in his beard to fall out.

These schemes were rejected and instead Richard Bissell decided to arrange the assassination of Fidel Castro. In September 1960, Bissell and Allen W. Dulles, the director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), initiated talks with two leading figures of the Mafia, Johnny Roselli and Sam Giancana. Later, other crime bosses such as Carlos Marcello, Santos Trafficante and Meyer Lansky became involved in this plot against Castro.

Robert Maheu, a veteran of CIA counter-espionage activities, was instructed to offer the Mafia $150,000 to kill Fidel Castro. The advantage of employing the Mafia for this work is that it provided CIA with a credible cover story. The Mafia were known to be angry with Castro for closing down their profitable brothels and casinos in Cuba. If the assassins were killed or captured the media would accept that the Mafia were working on their own.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation had to be brought into this plan as part of the deal involved protection against investigations against the Mafia in the United States. Castro was later to complain that there were twenty ClA-sponsered attempts on his life. Eventually Johnny Roselli and his friends became convinced that the Cuban revolution could not be reversed by simply removing its leader. However, they continued to play along with this CIA plot in order to prevent them being prosecuted for criminal offences committed in the United States.

Lansdale later claimed that John F. Kennedy asked him to draft a contingency plan to overthrow Fidel Castro. But he added that the idea had not been viable because it depended on recruiting Cuban exiles to generate an uprising in Cuba, something that he said was impossible.

The Real Conspiracy Behind the JFK Assassination
retrieved from Mother Jones and copied or modified to here

Oswald was the lone shooter, but there was a plot involved in the president's death-and it was in plain sight. David Corn Washington, DC, Bureau Chief Bio | Follow

For 50 years, the murder of President John F. Kennedy has prompted dark suspicions about what led to those tragic moments in Dallas' Dealey Plaza. Hidden-hand theories about the assassination fueled numerous movies and books in the years that followed and shaped a national culture of conspiracy. The Oswald-didn't-do-it (or didn't-do-it-alone) theory is the granddaddy of conspiracy theories; it paved the way for alternative (and sinister) explanations for a variety of events, including the assassinations or RFK and MLK Jr. and the 9/11 attacks. The JFK theorizing-which, in certain cases, posits that a cabal of government evildoers schemed the most notorious crime of 20th-century America-made The X Files possible.

Like many late-year boomers, I grew up fascinated by the speculation, poring over the latest “revelations” and initially believing the worst-at one point, when I was 13, my best friend and I called Parkland Hospital in Dallas and asked to be connected to the wing where the supposedly still-alive Kennedy was being housed-but I came to conclude that much of the conspiracy-mongering was bunk. In Slate, Fred Kaplan does an excellent job chronicling his own similar trajectory, so I won’t detail my conversion. But as I spent more time investigating and reporting national security matters, I came to the realization that government officials, spies, and operatives tend not to be sufficiently competent to pull off the murder of a president (with a well-placed patsy as the fall guy!) and then mount a subsequent and wildly effective cover-up. Still, I’ve resisted getting drawn too far into the Kennedy conspiracy debates-a true black hole. But if you’re asking, I do believe that Kennedy was likely killed as the result of underhanded alliances and government misdeeds. It’s just that what transpired was more nuanced than a CIA-Mafia-Castro-Soviet-Lyndon-Johnson plot.

I assume that Oswald shot the president. That loses me many JFK truthers. But the story of what brought this one man to the sixth floor of the Texas Book Depository is what’s important and probably indeed the tale of an actual conspiracy-one that was in plain sight at the time.

Oswald was obsessed with Cuba and a public advocate for Fidel Castro’s regime. In the summer of 1963, he opened a New Orleans outpost of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, a pro-Castro organization. He tried to infiltrate a local anti-Castro group, and on August 9, 1963, he was arrested on Canal Street, after scuffling with three anti-Castro Cuban exiles. (More than a week later, he debated one of the Cuban exiles on the radio.) He printed up leaflets proclaiming “Hands Off Cuba”-a reference to Kennedy administration’s campaign against the Castro regime.

All sorts of wild plans were devised by Cuban exiles and their handlers for fomenting rebellion on the island. And, of course, there was the occasional plot to kill Castro.

Kennedy’s antipathy toward Castro was no secret. In the first months of his presidency, the CIA-backed assault at the Bay of Pigs was an embarrassing failure for Kennedy and the agency. The Cuban Missile Crisis of October 1962 justifiably caused a public freak-out across the United States. It was clear that Kennedy had a Cuban problem.

What wasn’t as clear was how Kennedy and his brother Bobby were prosecuting a secret war against Castro. In early 1962, the Kennedy White House approved Operation Mongoose, a plan cooked up by Brigadier Gen. Edward Lansdale that included economic warfare, psychological operations, and paramilitary action aimed at toppling Castro. The CIA station in Miami took the lead. (Years ago, I wrote a biography of Ted Shackley, who was the station chief at the time.) All sorts of wild plans were devised by Cuban exiles and their handlers for blowing up things inside Cuba and fomenting rebellion on the island. And, of course, there was the occasional plot to kill Castro.

But not much was immediately achieved on the boom-and-bang front. Toward the end of the Cuban Missile Crisis, Bobby Kennedy ordered Lansdale to cease all planning for sabotage and paramilitary operations. He didn’t want any “crackpot” individuals taking actions that could cause bigger problems. In early 1963, Operation Mongoose was terminated. Though Kennedy, as part of the resolution of the missile crisis, had pledged the United States would not invade Cuba, the CIA was ordered to keep devising paramilitary operations against Castro, and it continued working with its favorite exile groups

This book

Rudy2s blog is a Archstone of for Pillars of Truth

I find myself agreeing with something I heard spoken in a DVD of lectures in philosophy when I think of Rudy2's blog, and the constraint the brevity of life places on my learning.

I wish I had more time to look for more diamonds in his web postings but the shine of what I found, as dark as the imagery the crystals reveal, is too much at once to look for more.

At first I find a Patriot, a Hero, and A Victim, all in one lifespan, all in a life's work, Ted Gunderson and his work re-posted and supported by additional supporting links in Rudy2s blog.

You can find his blog at this address.

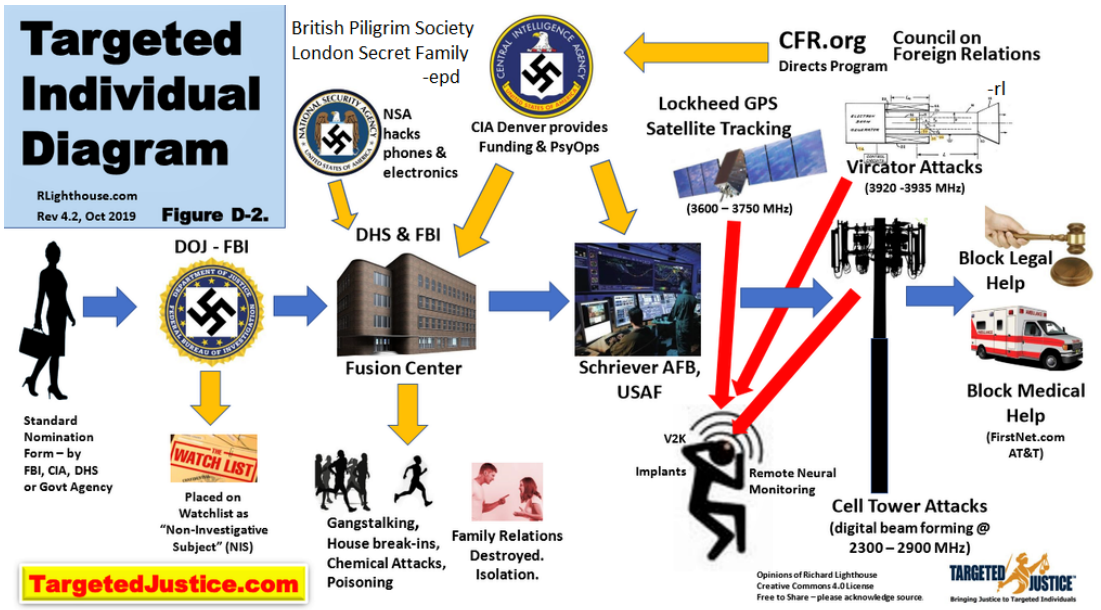
Rudy2's Multilingual Blog

https://rudy2.wordpress.com/

GANG STALKING VIGILANTISM RUN BY U.S. GOVERNMENT, SAYS EX-FBI OFFICIAL reads the post title on Rudy2s blog.

The ex-FBI official is Ted Gunderson mentioned earlier in this page and let's first look at Ted Gunderson's death.

In his 80s he said the United States Military was in an NWO overthrow plot and using Directed Energy Weapons on citizens, government officials, conducting poisonings, and other targeted killings on behalf of the NWO and he continued these assertions and writings until his death from Cancer, perhaps Cancer Type CIA-Havana Syndrome.



My personal experience and research is that I carry the FOXP2 Minimal Brain Disorder gene. Many NSA watched families do and those who show the defect are being driven from society and brain-slandered so that our brain which is a good brain with a slight hitch is not seen as the Rosemary Kennedy or Prince Albert of York gene, which it is. Glorian Donegan my mother and her brother both had the gene. It includes swallowing problems I have had too. Because our brain line is used in a quality control factory line (good brains in new clones, Abby Normal brains pushed into the pond as they say hello to the little girls) and this program exists to hide who the CIA created as sleepers to be secret Windsor twins which aslo is Franz Kutschera neice DNA, Maria August Kutchera, likely my mother and Mayline Monroe's mother of 1926 as Maria was forced out of the convent and into the USA with three unknown children and 7 known children.

Rudy2: Former FBI official Ted Gunderson died of cancer on July 31, 2011. Was his illness induced by silent electromagnetic assault or by other nefarious means? We will never know - and that's just the way certain entities want it.

A former senior official of the Federal Bureau of Investigation says "rogue" military intelligence and law enforcement units of the federal government oversee a nationwide network of community-based "gang stalking" harassment, intimidation and domestic terrorism directed at thousands of U.S. citizens who have been extrajudicially targeted as "dissidents" or undesirables.

> Ted Gunderson, 82, who has served as the Special Agent in Charge of the FBI's Los Angeles, Memphis and Dallas FBI Field Offices, has stated in a series of public speaking appearances that he is now targeted by these same elements, and fears for his life and for the safety of his family. He reports that the windows of his home have been shot out, and he believes he has been poisoned and physically sickened by those seeking to silence him.
>
> "Based on my thirty years' experience and research, I have determined there are thousands of victims who have been targeted by an illegal U.S. government rogue criminal enterprise - military intelligence, probably, tied into CIA and FBI and so forth - that is active 24 hours a day throughout the United States," Gunderson stated in an October 2008 speech posted last fall on YouTube, three years before cancer consumed him.

President Barrack Obama Jr. was sworn in January 20, 200 (replacing George W. Bush) as I watched with my brother in a North Carolina mental hospital, the red skin still on my body as I complained of Radiation Burns they said I did not have but were from a Dirty Bombing of me in FMC Butner AFTER the judge ordered my release, then I was NOT released, then I was dirty bombed, then I was placed in a mental hospital asserting I was dirty bombed.

Let's take a moment to look at his life. In his later life he defended Grene Beret doctor Jeffery Macdonald from a murder charge likely unust.

He felt some evil form of plot did lurk, and had killed McDonald's wife and child leaving MacDonald himself with few injuries and all the blame.

I think the US Military killed McDonald through assets or CIA officers direclty while at the same time shouting "kill the pigs" as though they were leftist crazies.

And the brains of the women were destroyed, I think the goal.

Perhaps days of surveillance picked the best time for the team to strike the mother and daugher, a time when Jeffery slept in the kitchen because his daughter had wet the bed in his own bed.

With FOXP2 child's development expressions, things like bed wetting or sucking thumb lat in life as well as dry throat are problems.

But the Santa Monica California Lawyer had tips and information of a military backed plot from much earlier, the JFK assassination which Gunderson worked as an FBI agent in Dallas Texas and Los Angeles for the FBI and I believe that investigation leads to this.

John F. Kennedy in Santa Monica on November 19 1961 at the time of my birth there, Inglewood, and I think a Department Of Defense sleeper agent also born from Glorian Donegan DNA and tied to twins study on the LONDON KE FAMILY FOXP2 gene which I carry and mother caries.

And Albert Einstein carried. And this out of wedlock Windsor Kutschera DNA is a source of military and Free Masonry Plots for sleeper agents around the world including in the USA as Obama was used for CIA backed presidency, and Bush Cheney and the Saudis and many others are in this plot, created by the FBI selecting Malcom X to be the father of half white Barrack Obama Jr, with Glorian as the unwilling mother , DNA accessed during atomic bomb blast radiation testing and voluntary and involuntary human tests.

The Jeffery McDonald murders, FBI interest Albert Einstein brain, the Marilyn Monroe murder by the CIA, and all of those same issues are covered not only by Gunderson but in this book as well.

The NWO Plot is English Queen of Diamonds and Saudi Royals funded and designed with the FBI and CIA world elites to run the world through Free Mason backed sleepers and moles, and the identity of the sleepers and moles and the origins of their DNA would be kept secret.

Genearl Shaw of the military would be tried in the murder of JFK and though acquitted likely guilty and likely it was part of Operation Northwood which would blame Fidel Castro and seek retaliation against Cuba.

ABOUT THIS [Rudy2’s] MULTILINGUAL BLOG

https://rudy2.wordpress.com/about/

English, français, deutsch, español, italiano, ελληνικά

ORGANIZED STALKING, REMOTE AGGRESSION WITH ELECTROMAGNETIC AND NEUROLOGICAL DIRECTED ENERGY WEAPONS AND REMOTE MINDCONTROL, IN GENERAL.

This blog is aimed at informing and at sensitizing the public on organized stalking,on remote aggressions by electromagnetic and neurological directed energy weapons and on remote mindcontrol in general.

Most documents on the issue are in English. This is why it was necessary to translate them into other languages (mainly in Spanish, in French, in German, in Italian and sometimes in Greek) so that they can be read by the greatest number of people worldwide.

HARCELEMENT COLLECTIF, AGRESSION A DISTANCE PAR DES ARMES ELECTROMAGNETIQUES ET NEUROLOGIQUES A ENERGIE DIRIGEE ET CONTROLE MENTAL A DISTANCE, EN GENERAL. Ce blog a pour but d'informer et de sensibiliser le public sur le harcèlement en bande organisée, sur les agressions à distance par des armes électromagnétiques et neurologiques à énergie dirigée et sur le contrôle mental à distance en général. La plupart des documents sur la question sont en anglais. C'est la raison pour laquelle il a fallu les traduire en d'autres langues (principalement en espagnol, en français, en allemand , en italien et quelquefois en grec) pour qu'ils soient lus par le plus grand nombre de gens dans le monde.

GRUPPEN-STALKING, ANGRIFFE AUS DER FERNE MIT ELEKTROMAGNETISCHEN UND NEUROLOGISCHEN GERICHTETEN ENERGIEWAFFEN UND GEISTIGE KONTROLLE IM ALLGEMEINEN.

Dieser Blog hat zum Zweck, das Publikum über Stalking durch organisierte Banden , über Angriffe aus der Ferne mit elektromagnetischen und neurologischen gerichteten Energiewaffen und über Mindcontrol aus der Ferne im Allgemeinen zu informieren, und es zu sensibilisieren.

Die Mehrheit der Dokumente über dieses Thema sind in Englisch. Das ist der Grund, dass man sie auf andere Sprachen übersetzen sollte (hauptsächlich in Spanisch, Französisch, Deutsch, Italienisch und manchmal auch in Griechisch), damit sie weltweit von so viel Menschen wie möglich gelesen werden können.

ACOSO COLECTIVO, AGRESIÓN REMOTA POR ARMAS ELECTROMAGNÉTICAS Y NEUROLÓGICAS POR ENERGÍA DIRIGIDA Y CONTROL MENTAL REMOTO, EN GENERAL.

Este blog tiene como objetivo informar y sensibilizar al público sobre el acoso organizado, sobre las agresiones a distancia por armas electromagnéticas y neurológicas por energía dirigida y sobre el control mental a distancia en general.

La mayoría de los documentos sobre el asunto son en inglés. Es la razón por la cual hubo que traducirlos a otras lenguas (principalmente al español, al francés, al alemán, al italiano y algunas veces al griego) para que sean leídos por el mayor número de gente en el mundo.

MOLESTIA COLLETTIVA, AGGRESSIONE A DISTANZA CON ARMI ELETTROMAGNETICHE E NEUROLOGICHE AD ENERGIA DIRETTA E CONTROLLO MENTALE A DISTANZA, IN GENERALE.

Questo blog ha come obiettivo informare e sensibilizzare il pubblico sulle molestie in banda organizzata, sulle aggressioni a distanza con armi elettromagnetiche e neurologiche ad energia diretta e sul controllo mentale a distanza in generale.

La maggior parte dei documenti sull'argomento sono in inglese. E' la ragione per la quale è stato necessario tradurrli in altre lingue (soprattutto in spagnolo, in francese, in tedesco, in italiano ed a volte in greco) perché siano letti dal più gran numero di gente nel mondo.

Ομαδική παρενόχληση, εξ'αποστάσεως επίθεση με ηλεκτρομαγνητικά και νευρολογικά όπλα κατευθυνόμενης ενέργειας και εξ Αποστάσεως νοητικός έλεγχος .

Το παρόν blog έχει ως στόχο την ενημέρωση και ευαισθητοποίηση του κοινού σχετικά με την οργανωμένη παρενόχληση, τις εξ αποστάσεως επιθέσεις με ηλεκτρομαγνητικά και νευρολογικά όπλα κτευθυνόμενης ενέργειας και τον εξ αποστάσεως νοητικό έλεγχο.

Τα περισσότερα κείμενα σε σχέση με αυτά τα θέματα είναι στα αγγλικά. Για τον λόγο αυτό, χρειάστηκε να μεταφραστούν και σε άλλες γλώσσες (κυρίως στα ισπανικά, τα γαλλικά, τα γερμανικά, τα ιταλικά και μερικές φορές τα ελληνικά) ώστε να είναι προσβάσιμα στον μεγαλύτερο δυνατό αριθμό ατόμων ανά τον κόσμο.

Επειδή γνωρίζουμε ότι η πλειοψηφία των ελλήνων αναγνωστών καταλαβαίνει την αγγλικά ή/και τη γαλλική γλώσσα, τα κείμενα δεν μεταφράζονται συστηματικά στα ελληνικά.

Elsewhere in this book …

> NOVEMBER 20, 2008 WASHINGTON (AP) - Attorney General Michael Mukasey was hospitalized but conscious and alert early Friday after collapsing during a late-night speech to a conservative legal group
>
> As an undergraduate student, Mukasey was the editorials editor of the Columbia Daily Spectator[11] at > Columbia University (MKULTRA Manhattan Project), where he received his Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1963, majoring in history. He received his Bachelor of Laws from Yale Law School in 1967.

>
> Forty-four American colleges or universities, 15 research foundations took part in MKULTRA

> Director Christopher Wray Born: DECEMBER 17, 1966
>
> In 2001, Director Christopher Wray III (FBI Director AUGUST 2, 2017 Present upon him replacing James Comey and William Pellham Barr replacing Jeff Sessions)joined the Office of the Deputy Attorney General, where he served as associate deputy attorney general and then principal associate deputy attorney general, with oversight responsibilities spanning the full Department.
>
> In 2003, Mr. Wray was nominated by President George W. Bush to serve as assistant attorney general for the Criminal Division.

This matches the time when bizarre and strange harassment of me began on the streets, the seeming impression I was imagining it all, and a bizzare component of race baiting fights with high intensity coming at me (or sexually abusive poses or activities near me, people groping themselves, fondling themselves, spreading legs, taking their clothes of in public locations, and other very bizarre conduct surrounded me which I now now is Organized Stalk of what were clearly some form of special form of police activities in inexplicable behavior.

Both my mother and father thought I was just losing it mentally and I thought they must at least be half right so I got rid of the meth, on a promise to my mother I had been talking about this all with from San Francisco, and then finally moved from San Francisco to Virginia where again by appearances and the behavior or others I was schizophrenic “bipolar delusional” about was I was seeing and hearing from “voices” and I was repeatedly hospitalized as was as plagiarized by the US Government, in Tandem acts, such as an article I wrote on Tribe.Net which was basically what I later wrote as the New Electro an Duex Electron, a Forbin project post on NGOs, high tech, and art.

I was told my allegation the State Dept field workers journal copied it was a act of delusion allegation, a situation with the Criminal Division of New York which would repeat itself with NIH.ASP which was my web site turned into an FBI Criminal Division study project which when I requested a copy of that grant wich related to Obama admin and sociology I was arrested for delusionally requesting the grant, that I was on a delusional quest just by seeking a copy of the grant from the FOIA office, and under that arrest and mental health commitment with the FBI then and after refusing copy of FBI Criminal Division based grant in New York under Christopher Wray’s and Loretta Lynchs jurisdictions.

I had bee raising issues about Barrack Obama, then a Senator tied to the Congressional Black Caucus participation in the Genome Program which I consider scientifically fraudulent, as well the sociology promoted by the Human Genome Program run by Francis Collins.

I have always been suspicious of Sociology, some weird ghosting of all my work by the FBI or State Dept, of Barrack Obama and bizarre ghosting of me by him though in Lefist racily collectivist transhumanism social justice applications of concepts I research and argued.

During all of this while I was in custody I was neurologically attacked and hospitalized for that. James Watson argued Africa was under endowed genetically, and both former FBI Gunderson and I asserted and were dirty bombed, in my case at least three times including in FMC Butner, Francis Collins when from head of the Genome program to NIH directed, Wray became FBI director, all are escalation in power including now Donald Barr’s son William Barr, all backers of Wray, and think al in the Deep State Gangsalking which physically murderd my father while he was in an institution.

Any normal activity of mine, visting a library, listening to Sir Isac Newton scientific paper read aloud by text to speech eithe turns in to direct physical attack on me or death threats of knives dran across the throat, objects thrown at me, loud noices, etc., and while I am seemingly retarded my assest are being seized by Free Masonry like Christopher Wray's programs.

I believe this to be the Bush family criminal empire all trying to stop the death penalty for themselves and all their illegal CIA cartel acts which including caerfully ushering Barrack Obama into power as a sleeper agent of the NWO.

Rudy2's Multilingual Blog

1.COVERTS AGENTS INFILTRATE THE INTERNET TO MANIPULATE, DECEIVE, AND DESTROY REPUTATIONS. with 17 comments

https://firstlook.org/theintercept/2014/02/24/jtrig-manipulation/

How Covert Agents Infiltrate the Internet to Manipulate, Deceive, and Destroy Reputations

Featured photo - How Covert Agents Infiltrate the Internet to Manipulate, Deceive, and Destroy Reputations A page from a GCHQ top secret document prepared by its secretive JTRIG unit

One of the many pressing stories that remains to be told from the Snowden archive is how western intelligence agencies are attempting to manipulate and control online discourse with extreme tactics of deception and reputation-destruction. It's time to tell a chunk of that story, complete with the relevant documents.

Over the last several weeks, I worked with NBC News to publish a series of articles about "dirty trick" tactics used by GCHQ's previously secret unit, JTRIG (Joint Threat Research Intelligence Group). These were based on four classified GCHQ documents presented to the NSA and the other three partners in the English-speaking "Five Eyes" alliance. Today, we at the Intercept are publishing another new JTRIG document, in full, entitled "The Art of Deception: Training for Online Covert Operations."

By publishing these stories one by one, our NBC reporting highlighted some of the key, discrete revelations: the monitoring of

YouTube and Blogger, the targeting of Anonymous with the very same DDoS attacks they accuse “hacktivists” of using, the use of “honey traps” (luring people into compromising situations using sex) and destructive viruses. But, here, I want to focus and elaborate on the overarching point revealed by all of these documents: namely, that these agencies are attempting to control, infiltrate, manipulate, and warp online discourse, and in doing so, are compromising the integrity of the internet itself.

Among the core self-identified purposes of JTRIG are two tactics: (1) to inject all sorts of false material onto the internet in order to destroy the reputation of its targets; and (2) to use social sciences and other techniques to manipulate online discourse and activism to generate outcomes it considers desirable. To see how extremist these programs are, just consider the tactics they boast of using to achieve those ends: “false flag operations” (posting material to the internet and falsely attributing it to someone else), fake victim blog posts (pretending to be a victim of the individual whose reputation they want to destroy), and posting “negative information” on various forums. Here is one illustrative list of tactics from the latest GCHQ document we’re publishing today:

Under the title “Online Covert Action”, the document details a variety of means to engage in “influence and info ops” as well as “disruption and computer net attack,” while dissecting how human beings can be manipulated using “leaders,” “trust,” “obedience” and “compliance”:

Other tactics aimed at individuals are listed here, under the revealing title “discredit a target”:

Then there are the tactics used to destroy companies the agency targets:

GCHQ* describes the purpose of JTRIG in starkly clear terms: “using online techniques to make something happen in the real or cyber world,” including “information ops (influence or disruption).”

Critically, the “targets” for this deceit and reputation-destruction extend far beyond the customary roster of normal spycraft: hostile nations and their leaders, military agencies, and intelligence services. In fact, the discussion of many of these techniques occurs in the context of using them in lieu of “traditional law enforcement” against people suspected (but not charged or convicted) of ordinary crimes or, more broadly still, “hacktivism”, meaning those who use online protest activity for political ends.

This is a copy of a signed and notarized letter from “Tara Potter” from the US Special Forces.

AUGUST 13, 2009.

http://api.ning.com/files/nkLEPVQ6s9ep7GoBWEArhb44zBWXLupw8ub

To whom it may concern

In 1977 and 1978 I was sent with a team of Army Special Forces ostensibly to topple the bloody Idi Amin regime. We lost the elements of surprise, and so, did not follow through on that part of our mission. While we were there , we were also asked to distribute a new miracle lifesaving vaccine.

Our superiors were vague as to which disease(s) this vaccine was to prevent. The final protocol in testing we were told was to vaccinate a small group of people, then wait 48 hours to observe any adverse reactions before distributing the vaccine widely.

In good faith, believing the vaccine was safe, we vaccinated the majority of our party, including myself. After 48 hours had passed, over a period of two days, I believe we vaccinated 2000-3000 people.

Eighteen months after we distributed the vaccine, we learned that 85 % of the people we vaccinated were dying of a dread new disease soon to be called AIDS.

Most of our Caucasian party became HIV positive but are still surviving. It is my belief that the United States Central Intelligence Agency succeeded in its stated purpose, (in subsequently leaked classified documents), of creating a pathogen deadly primarily to people of color. I further believe that the Agency succeeded in using our team as unwitting pawns in an unholy unconscionable act of genocide against the innocent people of Africa.

I do solemnly swear that the above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and I am willing to be held accountable for the veracity of these statements under penalties of perjury in a court of law, before Congress, or the United Nations or before an International Tribunal. This is a crime against humanity of unimaginable proportions and I demand justice.

“Tara Potter” aka : Ariel Felice Phillips aka : Suzanne Campbell

Diane K.Hendrickson Notary Public, Minnesota My commission expires Jan.31, 2010 Signature August 17, 2009

Rudy2’s Multilingual Blog

Suspicions Growing Over Death of Journalist Probing NSA and CIA Abuses with 8 comments

Monday, 08 July 2013 12:29

Suspicions Growing Over Death of Journalist Probing NSA and CIA Abuses http://www.thenewamerican.com/usnews/crime/item/15929-journalist-probing-nsa-and-cia-abuses-dies-in-mysterious-crash

Written by Alex Newman

Suspicions Growing Over Death of Journalist Probing NSA and CIA Abuses Weeks after the fiery death of investigative journalist Michael Hastings (shown), who was probing abuses by the CIA and NSA and had recently informed others that he was being investigated by federal authorities, suspicions about his mysterious car crash are still swirling around the Internet. While police officially ruled the death an “accident,” serious questions are still surfacing - even in the establishment media and among prominent officials. Based on e-mails Hastings sent out shortly before he died about working on a “big story” and needing to go “off the radar,” it has become clear that he was worried, too.

Hastings, who wrote for Rolling Stone, BuzzFeed, Gawker, and other publications, was probably best known for his award-winning 2010 article “The Runaway General.” The piece helped bring down U.S. Gen. Stanley McChrystal, commander of American and NATO forces in Afghanistan. Despite his establishment credentials and what analysts called his “Democrat-friendly” reporting, Hastings had become extremely alarmed about the “surveillance state” and other troubling developments in recent months. His last published story: “Why Democrats Love To Spy On Americans.”

When the Obama administration was exposed spying on journalists earlier this year, the investigative reporter blasted what he referred to as the president's "war" on journalism. "The Obama administration has clearly declared war on the press. It has declared war on investigative journalists - our sources," he said during a recent TV interview, blasting the administration's lawless behavior, obsession with secrecy, and vicious persecution of whistleblowers. Beyond simple criticism, though, Hastings openly said it was time for journalists to fight back.

"I think the only recourse to this kind of behavior by the government is to say back to the government, 'we declare war on you,' and from this point forward, we should no longer - the media as a whole - cooperate in any manner with the government," he continued. "We should withdraw all our cooperation and we should publish everything we know, because it's a free press, it's not a free-except-for-when-the-government-tells-me-to-do-it press, and we've been way too easygoing with these guys."

Less than 24 hours before his death, Hastings made it crystal clear that he was concerned about his own well-being. In an e-mailsent to numerous contacts and his employer, for example, Hastings noted: "The Feds are interviewing my 'close friends and associates.'" He also said that if authorities show up, it "may be wise to immediately request legal counsel before any conversations or interviews about our news-gathering practices or related journalism issues." The subject line read: "FBI investigation re: NSA." Perhaps most alarming of all, the e-mail concluded with this: "Also: I'm onto a big story, and need to go off the rada[r] for a bit."

While some friends and family members are reportedly too frightened to speak out, at least one recipient of the e-mail has gone public. Staff Sgt. Joseph Biggs, who became friends with Hastings while the journalist was embedded with his unit in Afghanistan in 2008, told KTLA that the "very panicked" message "alarmed me very much." According to Biggs, "I just said it doesn't seem like him. I don't know, I just had this gut feeling and it just really bothered me."

Biggs has spoken to Fox News and other major media outlets as well, saying Hastings was working on "the biggest story yet" about the CIA and that Hastings' wife vowed to "take down whoever did this." Apparently Hastings "drove like a grandma." In anextended interview with radio host Alex Jones, Biggs also said he knew Hastings was receiving “death threats” from military brass. The retired staff sergeant added that he was extremely suspicious about his friend’s death and vowed to do everything in his power to find out what happened.

Heavy-hitters from the government sector have expressed concerns, too. Former U.S. National Coordinator for Security, Infrastructure Protection, and Counter-terrorism Richard Clarke, for example, told The Huffington Post in late June that the deadly car crash was “consistent with a car cyber-attack.” Intelligence agencies for major powers - including the U.S. government - almost certainly know how to remotely seize control of a car, he added.

“What has been revealed as a result of some research at universities is that it’s relatively easy to hack your way into the control system of a car, and to do such things as cause acceleration when the driver doesn’t want acceleration, to throw on the brakes when the driver doesn’t want the brakes on, to launch an air bag,” Clarke continued. “You can do some really highly destructive things now, through hacking a car, and it’s not that hard…. So if there were a cyber-attack on the car - and I’m not saying there was - I think whoever did it would probably get away with it.”

So far, the FBI has denied that it was investigating Hastings. However, on June 19, the day after the mysterious crash, WikiLeaks released what has been interpreted as a bomb-shell to some analysts monitoring the investigation. “Michael Hastings contacted WikiLeaks lawyer Jennifer Robinson just a few hours before he died, saying that the FBI was investigating him,” the whistleblowing organization said through its official Twitter account, sparking worldwide press coverage. The allegation has not been independently confirmed.

According to the official investigation of the crash, Hastings ran a red light and was driving over 100 miles per hour in his brand-new Mercedes in the early morning when he suddenly crashed into a tree, causing his car to burst into a bizarre fiery inferno. The engine was found more than 150 feet from the wreck. Local news outlets in California, meanwhile, are reporting that the police report is still not publicly available and that officials have been ordered not to comment on the case. The crash itself has also been ringing alarm bells among experts and analysts.

On San Diego 6 News, national security reporter Kimberly Dvorak, for example, recently took to the air and talked about her conversations with sources surrounding the crash after spending a day in Los Angeles investigating. Noting that the police report was not available, she said law enforcement and fire department officials refused to comment, with some saying they had been instructed not to say anything. “That kind of stands out; we look at the NSA, the government says if you have nothing to hide, don’t worry,” she said.

Military officials, meanwhile, told Dvorak that the fire was “extremely hot” and “not something we normally see,” the reporter continued. The fact that the engine was between 150 and 250 feet behind the car was also strange, according to university physics professors she spoke with - it should have been in front, if anything. Another interesting fact highlighted in the report: There were no skid marks at the accident scene.

Mercedes, she added, insists that their cars do not blow up. In fact, the company has a reputation for building some of the safest cars in the world, but Mercedes has not yet been contacted by authorities, according to a statement.

I just wanted mention that I have been used by NSA for several years now, listening too their voices and dealing with the control of my career. I was kept from finding work in 2008-2009 and subsequently lost my condo to foreclosure. This was after my divorce and my ex-brother in law was a Long Beach DEA agent. This helped my ex-wife get 80-20 custody of my child and allowed her to move out of state. I’m a chronic pain sufferer that tore both my shoulders and for 14 years the doctors focused on my C6 and C7 spinal damage instead of doing a full exam. I’ve been going thru right back shoulder pain in my shoulder blade and shooting nerve pain to my neck for over 14 years. It cost my career, my marriage and sent me down a financial down fall. Now that I’m on Obama care, my new Neurologist took the time to examine both shoulders and found rotator cuff tears in both shoulders. So I’ve been on pain meds forever and had a bad accident in 2011 that damaged my spinal cord. They have falsified the doctors records that have missing info, altered the police report,

This book

William Binney is a Revealor

William Binney (intelligence official) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

William Edward Binney is a former intelligence official with the United States National Security Agency (NSA)[5] and whistleblower. He retired on October 31, 2001, after more than 30 years with the agency.

Occupation Cryptanalyst-mathematician Employer National Security Agency (NSA) Known for Cryptography, SIGINT analysis, whistleblowing

AwardsJoe A. Callaway Award for Civic Courage (2012) Sam Adams Award (2015) and Allard Prize for International Integrity

He was a critic of his former employers during the George W. Bush administration, and later criticized the NSA's data-collection policies during the Barack Obama administration. He dissented from the view that Russia interfered with the 2016 US election. More specifically, he was critical of the view that Russia hacked the DNC server.

Biography

Binney grew up in rural Pennsylvania and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics from the Pennsylvania State University in 1970. He said that he volunteered for the Army during the Vietnam era in order to select work that would interest him rather than be drafted and have no input. He was found to have strong aptitudes for mathematics, analysis, and code breaking, and served from 1965 to 1969 in the Army Security Agency before going to the NSA in 1970.

Targeted Justice *

Many famous people are Targeted Individuals: Ed Snowden, Julian Assange, and William Binney. Also, Roseanne Barr, Van Morrison, Randy Quaid, and John McAfee (dec.). They are hit with painful microwave attacks every day.

Binney was a Russia specialist and worked in the operations side of intelligence, starting as an analyst and ending as a Technical Director prior to becoming a geopolitical world Technical Director. In the 1990s, he co-founded a unit on automating signals intelligence with NSA research chief John Taggart. Binney's NSA career culminated as Technical Leader for intelligence in 2001. He has expertise in intelligence analysis, traffic analysis, systems analysis, knowledge management, and mathematics (including set theory, number theory, and probability).

After retiring from the NSA, he founded, together with fellow NSA whistleblower J. Kirk Wiebe, Entity Mapping, LLC, a private intelligence agency to market their analysis program to government agencies.

Binney's story is recounted in A Good American, a documentary film.

In September 2002, he, along with J. Kirk Wiebe and Edward Loomis, asked the U.S. Defense Department Inspector General (DoD IG) to investigate the NSA for allegedly wasting "millions and millions of dollars" on Trailblazer, a system intended to analyze mass collection of data carried on communications networks such as the Internet. Binney had been one of the inventors of an alternative system, ThinThread, which was shelved when Trailblazer was chosen instead. Binney has also been publicly critical of the NSA for spying on U.S. citizens, saying of its expanded surveillance after the September 11, 2001 attacks that "it's better than anything that the KGB, the Stasi, or the Gestapo and SS ever had" as well as noting Trailblazer's ineffectiveness and unjustified high cost compared to the far less intrusive ThinThread. He was furious that the NSA hadn't uncovered the 9/11 plot and stated that intercepts it had collected but not analyzed likely would have garnered timely attention with his leaner more focused system.

Post-NSA career

After he left the NSA in 2001, Binney was one of several people investigated as part of an inquiry into a 2005 exposé by The New York Times on the agency's warrantless eavesdropping program. Binney was cleared of wrongdoing after three interviews with FBI agents beginning in March 2007, but in early July 2007, in an unannounced early morning raid, a dozen agents armed with rifles appeared at his house, one of whom entered the bathroom and pointed his gun at Binney, who was taking a shower. The FBI confiscated a desktop computer, disks, and personal and business records. The NSA revoked his security clearance, forcing him to close a business he ran with former colleagues at a loss of a reported $300,000 in annual income. The FBI raided the homes of Wiebe and Loomis, as well as House Intelligence Committee staffer Diane Roark, the same morning. Several months later the FBI raided the home of then still active NSA executive Thomas Andrews Drake who had also contacted DoD IG, but anonymously with confidentiality assured. The Assistant Inspector General, John Crane, in charge of the Whistleblower Program, suspecting his superiors provided confidential information to the United States Department of Justice (DOJ), challenged them, was eventually forced from his position, and subsequently himself became a public whistleblower. The punitive treatment of Binney, Drake, and the other whistleblowers also led Edward Snowden to go public with his revelations rather than report through the internal whistleblower program. In 2012, Binney and his co-plaintiffs went to federal court to retrieve the confiscated items.

Allegations on intercepts

Binney is known for making the claim that the NSA collects and stores information about every U.S. communication. Binney was invited as a witness by the NSA commission of the German Bundestag. On July 3, 2014 Der Spiegel wrote, he said that the NSA wanted to have information about everything. In Binney's view this is a totalitarian approach, which had previously been seen only in dictatorships.[19] Binney stated that the goal was to control people. Meanwhile, he said that it is possible in principle to monitor the whole population, abroad and in the U.S., which in his view contradicts the United States Constitution.

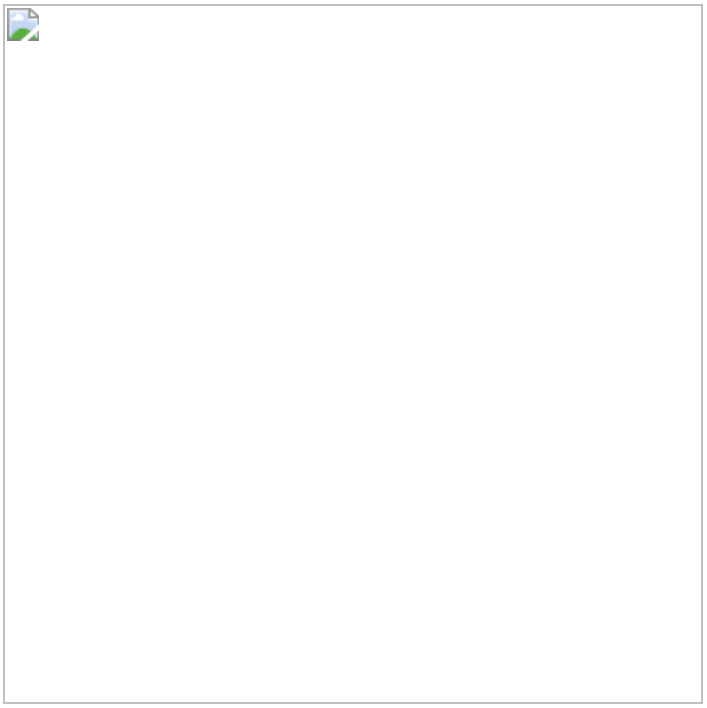
In August 2014, Binney was among the signatories of an open letter by the group Veteran Intelligence Professionals for Sanity to German chancellor Angela Merkel in which they urged the Chancellor to be suspicious of U.S. intelligence regarding the alleged invasion by Russia in Eastern Ukraine. In the open letter, the group said:

> [A]ccusations of a major Russian “invasion” of Ukraine appear not to be supported by reliable intelligence. Rather, the “intelligence” seems to be of the same dubious, politically “fixed” kind used 12 years ago to “justify” the U.S.-led attack on Iraq.[21]

TargetedJustice.com - Our Main Message: retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Richard Lighthouse has published more than 100 e-books, many of which are free on this website, BarnesAndNoble.com, Amazon.com, Google Play, Vixra.org, Lulu, Kobo, and other websites. The author holds a Master's Degree in Mechanical Engineering from Stanford University and has previously worked for NASA.

1. More than 200,000 Targeted Individuals in the U.S., are being tracked and attacked with High-Powered Microwave (HPM) weapons, from satellites and cell towers, 24/7. These weapons are controlled from Schriever Air Force Base in Colorado. See our pictures of microwave burns as proof: https://www.targetedjustice.com/microwave-burns1.html This is the same weapon system, that was used on the U.S. Diplomats in Cuba (Havana Syndrome).



Many famous people are Targeted Individuals: Ed Snowden, Julian Assange, and William Binney. Also, Roseanne Barr, Van Morrison, and John McAfee. They are hit with painful microwave attacks every day.

Most people in the world, are being precisely tracked by microwave pulses using Lockheed GPS satellites, operated by the U.S. Space Force, Squadron 2, at Schriever Air Force Base - Colorado Springs. This is the largest satellite operations facility in the world. (No, this is not Russia or China. It is funded and controlled by the CIA.

2. Targeted Justice points 2 and 3 and 4 sound somewhat paranoid but do seem to be true so they are only summarized here. It is said including by people who spoke to me some sort of electrochemical brain activity sensitive listening system can scan brain activity and by sonically inducing phonics into available influenceable anatomical structures or tissue even conduct sound into a persons perception. We the public will have to speculate, drink beer with Iodine in it or least with deep rich color texture and keep tinfoil on our head to be safe. Now on with other quotations.

Van Morrison retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Morrison performing on 23 August 2015

Sir George Ivan Morrison OBE (born 31 August 1945), known professionally as Van Morrison, is a Northern Irish singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and record producer whose recording career spans seven decades. He has won two Grammy Awards.

George Ivan Morrison was born on 31 August 1945, at 125 Hyndford Street, Bloomfield, Belfast, Northern Ireland, as the only child of George Morrison, a shipyard electrician, and Violet Stitt Morrison, who had been a singer and tap dancer in her youth. The previous occupant of the house was the writer Lee Child's father. Morrison's family were working class Protestants descended from the Ulster Scots population that settled in Belfast.

Morrison attended Orangefield Boys Secondary School, leaving in July 1960 with no qualifications. As a member of a working-class community, he was expected to get a regular full-time job, so after several short apprenticeship positions, he settled into a job as a window cleaner—later alluded to in his songs "Cleaning Windows" and "Saint Dominic's Preview".

He had been developing his musical interests from an early age and continued playing with the Monarchs part-time. Young Morrison also played with the Harry Mack Showband, the Great Eight, with his older workplace friend, Geordie (G. D.) Sproule, whom he later named as one of his biggest influences.

At age 17, Morrison toured Europe for the first time with the Monarchs, now calling themselves the International Monarchs. This Irish showband, with Morrison playing saxophone, guitar and harmonica, in addition to back-up duty on bass and drums, toured steamy clubs and US Army bases in Scotland, England and Germany, often playing five sets a night.

While in Germany, the band recorded a single, "Boozoo Hully Gully"/"Twingy Baby", under the name Georgie and the Monarchs. This was Morrison's first recording, taking place in November 1963 at Ariola Studios in Cologne with Morrison on saxophone; it made the lower reaches of the German charts.

Upon returning to Belfast in NOVEMBER 1963, THE GROUP DISBANDED

Dick Rowe of Decca Records became aware of one of this band's performances, and signed Them to a standard two-year contract. In that period, they released two albums and ten singles, with two more singles released after Morrison departed the band. They had three chart hits, "Baby, Please Don't Go" (1964), "Here Comes the Night" (1965), and "Mystic Eyes" (1965),[54] but it was the B-side of "Baby, Please Don't Go", the garage band classic "Gloria",[55] that went on to become a rock standard covered by Patti Smith, the Doors, the Shadows of Knight, Jimi Hendrix and many others.

Building on the success of their singles in the United States, and riding on the back of the British Invasion, Them undertook a two-month tour of America in May and June 1966 that included a residency from 30 May to 18 June at the Whisky a Go Go in Los Angeles.[58] The Doors were the supporting act on the last week,[59] and Morrison's influence on the Doors singer Jim Morrison was noted by John Densmore in his book [Ghost] Riders on the Storm. Brian Hinton relates how "Jim Morrison learned quickly from his near namesake's stagecraft, his apparent recklessness, his air of subdued menace, the way he would improvise poetry to a rock beat, even his habit of crouching down by the bass drum during instrumental breaks."[60] On the final night, the two Morrisons and the two bands jammed together on "Gloria"

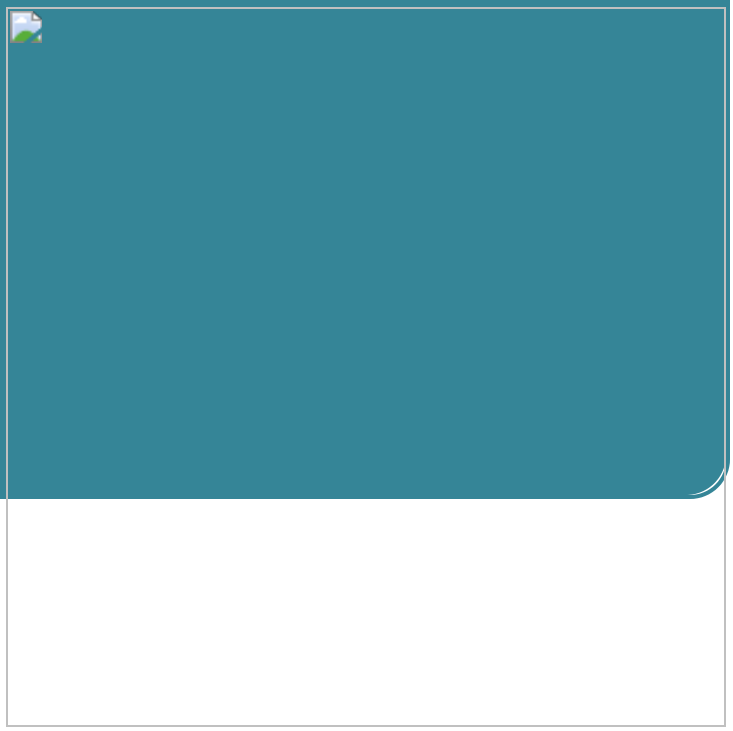
Roseanne Cherrie Bar retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here



Screenshot of Roseanne Barr from Jordan Brady's film "I Am Comic"

Barr was born on November 3, 1952, in Salt Lake City, Utah, to a Jewish family. She is the oldest of four children born to Helen (née Davis), a bookkeeper and cashier, and Jerome Hershel "Jerry" Barr,who worked as a salesman. Her father's family were Jewish emigrants from Russia, and her maternal grandparents were Jewish emigrants from Austria-Hungary and Lithuania.[7] Her paternal grandfather changed his surname from "Borisofsky" to "Barr" upon entering the United States.

When Barr was three years old, she got Bell's palsy on the left side of her face. Barr said, "[so] my mother called in a rabbi to pray for me, but nothing happened. Then my mother got a Mormon preacher, he prayed, and I was miraculously cured". Years later, Barr learned that Bell's palsy was usually temporary and that the Mormon elder came "exactly at the right time".

Barr has stated that she is on the autism spectrum.[10] At six years old, she discovered her first public stage by lecturing at LDS churches around Utah and was elected president of a Mormon youth group.

At 16 about 1970, Barr was hit by a car; the incident left her with a traumatic brain injury. Her behavior changed so radically that she was institutionalized for eight months at Utah State Hospital.

In 1970, when Barr was 18 years old, she moved out by informing her parents she was going to visit a friend in Colorado for two weeks, but never returned.

The following year, Barr had a baby, whom she put up for adoption. Seventeen years later, they reunited amicably.

This book

George W. Bush - Cheney ticket are Traitors to the USA and to the USA Military but very beneficial to my theory as being a Pox on the GOP house next to the Obama Jr. Pox on the DEM house

Russian Proverbs and Sayings retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

THE MILLS OF GOD GRIND SLOWLY.

Literal: God sees the truth, but won't tell soon.

Бог правду видит, да не скоро скажет

EVERY BARBER KNOWS THAT. (BADLY-KEPT SECRET)

literal = Big secret — all the world knows.

Большой секрет — знает весь свет.

FOXP2 is a disability for the purposes of concentration and certain fine neural control, though some pluses too. "For those trapped in the veneer of Glory tho FOXP2 pierces it, thus is an enemy." - a specific example of a thought attributed to Victor Hugo (Blue Blood wannabees are hiding their relatives who show Minimal Brain Dysfunction and the secret illegal sciences of it)

Fake Gatsby - the Defense Contractor families are mafia, but then so are most Blue Bloods of England

Ginevra King retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

American socialite and heiress Ginevra King pictured on the July 1918 cover of Town & Country magazine. In January 1915, a 16-year-old King met future novelist F. Scott Fitzgerald.

Ginevra King Pirie (November 30, 1898 DECEMBER 13, 1980) was an American socialite, debutante and heiress. She was the inspiration for several characters in the novels and short stories of American novelist Catholic F. Scott Fitzgerald, in particular, the character of Daisy Buchanan in The Great Gatsby. Protestant King and Fitzgerald shared a youthful romance from 1915 to 1917, but their relationship stagnated after King's father warned the impressionable young writer that "poor boys shouldn't think of marrying rich girls". Scholars regard King as a "prototype of the aloof, upper-crust woman who is popular and rich and for [Fitzgerald] becomes an archetype" of "the American dream".[6]

King's first husband, William "Bill" Mitchell served as the model for Thomas "Tom" Buchanan in the same novel. Mitchell would become a director of Texaco, one of the largest and most successful oil companies of the era. King later divorced Mitchell after an unhappy marriage. Her second husband, John T. Pirie, Jr., was a business tycoon and owner of the Chicago department retailer Carson Pirie Scott & Company.

But Fitzgerald became her most persistent gentleman caller and he would later use the courtship as a model for Gatsby’s youthful pursuit of Daisy. The rule that officers had to wear uniforms at all times, even while socialising, meant that he could disguise the extent of his threadbare poverty from Zelda. Gatsby later benefits from the same “invisibility cloak” with Daisy.

After being demobbed from the army in February 1919, Fitzgerald proposed to Zelda, who made it clear that she had no intention of being poor: “I’d just hate to live a sordid colourless existence.” In the novel, Daisy dispatches Gatsby less brutally but ostensibly for the same reason.

https://img.particlenews.com/image.php?url=27Z4a6_0cTULvSg00

From that moment the paths of Scott Fitzgerald and his creation, Jay Gatsby, separate into parallel arcs. While Fitzgerald heads to New York in an attempt to win fame and fortune, it’s implied that Gatsby enters the murky underworld as bootlegger to build an enormous fortune in prohibition era Chicago. Both are driven by the same objective: to make themselves wealthy and therefore worthy enough to win the girl.

“King” George W. Bush son of Eugenicist Prescott and George H.W. Bush born George [Sky] Walker Bush JULY 6, 1946)

George Walker Bush (born JULY 6, 1946) is a Eugenics breeding program product and an American politician and businessman who served as the 43rd president of the United States from 2001 to 2009. A member of the Bush family and Republican Party, he previously served as the 46th governor of Texas from 1995 to 2000. Bush flew warplanes in the Texas Air National Guard. After graduating from Harvard Business School in 1975, he worked in the oil industry.

A very Viscous Young Man

He appointed Justice Roberts who has no Divinci Code like birth month and day but Justice Roberts is married to Jane Sullivan whose birthday is AUGUST 3, 1958 which seem to be one of the DARPA Brain Program NASA program dates tied to the Queen Mother August 4th birthdays which Barrack Obama Jr. has as well.

In the Illuminati Spaced Out Aliens blog of Illuminati Shadow Government Linda Newkirk describes the Shadow Government an Allied led anti Russia hemispheric confederation as tied to the Rockefellers who landed the Illuminati in Little Rock Arkansas, with Camp Pike (Free Mason) and Fort RObinson where MKULTRA was conducted on WWII Axis prisoners as part of Project Monarch.

Linda Newkirk, the White plains buffalo woman describes racial and retardation experiments conducted with new Spiritual Code DNA and this DNA would be 360 all the world DNA under the Free Mason plan.

This was mostly republican but backed with some Democrat involvement in global medicine which is likely the Clinton family (along with the Huckabees GOP side) from Arkansas where the University of Arkansas overseen by Attorney General and Governor Bill Clinton has Special Access to secret programs on subjects considered requisite for Executive Privilege discussion and activity for the safety of participants and viability of research.

Part of this plan according to leaks was killing off certain democrats including one small plane air disaster for the Little Rock Cabal, lets say Unit 33, to have some running room if Unit 43+1 cleared the path.

Deaths I Woe and those I suspect

GEORGE W. BUSH: LIFE BEFORE THE PRESIDENCY
retrieved from millercenter.org and copied or modified to here

George W. Bush was the first child of Cape Cod's George Herbert Walker Bush and the former Barbara Pierce. George H. W. Bush enlisted in the Navy on his 18th birthday and became notable as the youngest pilot to earn his wings in World War II. Prior to enlistment, George H. W. Bush fell in love with Barbara Pierce, after meeting her at a country club dance in 1941. They were engaged in 1943, and Bush was deployed shortly afterward as a Navy pilot in the Pacific; he chose to paint his beloved Barbara’s name on the side of his plane. The two married shortly after Bush returned from the war, and George Walker Bush was born on JULY 6, 1946, IN NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT. The elder Bush attended Yale and graduated Phi Beta Kappa in just two-and-a-half years.

After graduation, the Bushes moved to Odessa, Texas, in 1948, and George H.W. Bush worked as an equipment clerk for an oil company. The young family rented a tiny apartment, which was so small that they had to share a bathroom with neighboring prostitutes. The family moved briefly to California, then returned in 1950 to Midland, Texas, which became George W. Bush’s childhood hometown. The young “Georgie,” as he was called, led the life of a typical suburban Baby Boomer that included playing baseball with the neighborhood children.

In the spring of 1953, Bush’s three-year-old sister, Robin, was diagnosed with leukemia. Seeking help, her parents took her to the state-of-the-art Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital in New York City. Despite the doctors’ best efforts, however, Robin died shortly before her fourth birthday. Just seven years old, George W. was not made aware of his sister’s grave condition. Shortly after her death, his parents came to pick him up early from school. He ran to the car, blissfully unaware that Robin had died two days before. After Robin’s death, George W. became very close to his mother, and many think he inherited or learned to adopt her quick temper, sharp wit, and blunt opinions. The Bush family continued to grow with the birth of Jeb, who was seven years younger than George W., followed by Neil in 1955, Marvin in 1956, and Dorothy in 1959.

Bush attended Sam Houston Elementary School in Midland and moved to Houston with his family in 1959, where he attended the private Kinkaid School. He spent his high school years at Phillips Academy Andover, in Andover, Massachusetts, which his father had also attended. It was a family tradition and a privilege to attend a school such as Andover, but it was not without drawbacks; life at the exclusive school was regimented, academically rigorous, cold, snowy, and devoid of female students. Bush learned to be self-sufficient but initially struggled in his studies.

For Bush, there was little question of where he would attend college. He followed his grandfather's and father's paths by attending Yale University. As he was settling in as a freshman at Yale, his father decided to make a run for the U.S. Senate. George H.W. Bush garnered more votes than any Republican up to that point in Texas history, but he still fell short of victory. George W. Bush assisted with the campaign as much as possible, although he was in Connecticut, and he learned some of the basic lessons of grassroots politics during the experience.

George W. Bush graduated from Yale in 1968, a year clouded by the assassinations of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Robert F. Kennedy, and the ongoing conflict in Vietnam.

During this the previous 10 years or so his father George H.W. Bush was working with the CIA through Zapata oil and Texas was entering politics as Lyndon B. Johnson joined the lower half of the the presidential ticket with JFK.

It was during the 1961 to 1963 years Donald Barr and others were later tied to the Bush administrations were involved in DARPA and the Manhattan Project, also for the CIA. The CIA attempted the overthrow of Cuba as Goerge H.W Bush attempted to recruit mercenaries friendly to the USA to be dropped off in a bay in Cuba to assault and take control of Cuba.

That CIA plan would fail and JFK and RFK would lose confidence in E. Howard Hunt and other contractors leading to the deaths of JFK and RFK.

The Bush cronies who fired many from the DOJ themselves would resign but simply moved on to other jobs in the legal profession and never faced criminal charges.

Donald Trump was nearly impeached for criminally firing James Comey and through Scott Newton Schools (sounds like a CIA name) the firings of the seven maybe eight US Attorneys an the firing of James Comey were the same scandal for the same shadow government purpose.

Christopher Asher Wray (born DECEMBER 17, 1966

Donald Barr William Barr Prescott Bush Goerge W. H.W. Bush Eugnecist

Targeted Killings program supervisor and anti white supremacist Free Mason Christopher Asher Wray is an American attorney who is serving as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) since 2017.[3] From 2003 to 2005, Wray served as Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Division in George W. Bush's administration. From 2005 to 2016, he was a litigation partner with the law firm King … Spalding.

- Ted Gunderson 2008 after alleging being posidened by the Deep state in the years before, just before OBama Jr during the Bush years

- I was radiologicaly attacked just days before Barrack Obama was sworn in

- Colin Powell long time Bush W. and Goergd H.W. Bush Cheney cohort I suspect of killing Jeffery MacDonalds family and may be the private hitman on the COP side

- Alberto Gonzales who is Hispanic from the Hill Country and took over the DOJ from Mueller Comey Ashcroft in a news flash ridden Bush led event. Alberto Gonzales as a profile matter fits the agenda of Lyndon B. Johnson, teach of under performing Hispanic children in the Hill Country Texas.

- Michael B. Mukasey was Attorney General then and although I am pro Jewish and luke war to any Isreal outside of the 1967 boundaries, Mr Mukesy is older than I am and we both feel defeats in WII, his greater. I see the death of White Race nationalists, his and my empathizes are with the murdered by the Nazi regime.

- Donald Barr likely creator of Barrack Obama Jr and the Kelly Brothers and others from 57-64 at least and his son William Barr are long time Bush legal flunkies and CIA OSS tied. IT was Donald Barr who wrote the Space Aliens Space Relations book about castrating twins who did not pass neural psychiatric testing during the animal husbandry studies, thus keeping FOXP2 quiet and hidden from the truth about those families, although Hemophelia is admintted. Further, FOXP2 is common in Central Europe and the royals are nothing special.

George W. Bush may need to cover up he was bred in genetic breeding and groomed to be president in the Eugenic and Genocidal Shadow Government of perfecting leaders to rule the world.

This plan involves …

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

ASSIMILATE, BREED, GENES FROM SOVEREIGN OR HIGH MILITARY OFFICE ROLES INTO THE FAMILY LINE

Imported from Latin, assimilate has the word similar within it and in fact, means “to become like something else.” If someone moves to another country, he or she will need to assimilate by adapting to and taking in the language, culture and customs of the new place. You can also turn the phrase around to say that a country assimilates immigrants, which means that a place accepts immigrants and allows them to adapt easily. In scientific use, the body assimilates nutrients as a part of digestion.

DISSIMILATE MINOR VARIATIONS, EXAGGERATE THEM, HIDE THEM, IN PARTICULAR FOXP2 IN THAT BRAIN CONSTELLATION OF GENES

1. v. become dissimilar or less similar “These two related tribes of people gradually dissimilated over time”

2. v. make dissimilar; cause to become less similar

3. become dissimilar by changing the sound qualities “These consonants dissimilate”

> After we destroyed their lives, slandered them, planted child porn, got them thrown out of apartment complexes, smeared them, used FBI CIONTELPRO they amounted to nothing.

I have said people with great power, great visibility, no spider hole secret enough, and much to hide are very dangerous and unlike the Second Generation experiments (Kelly Brothers, Obama Jr.) those descendents of Prescott Bush and George H.W. Bush who likely killed JFK for turning on Joseph Kennedy during the 1961 schisms of Great Brittain worldwide, the Bush family is a danger and danger to me.

The Bush administration issued changing and contradictory statements about the timeline of the planning of the firings, persons who ordered the firings, and reasons for the firings.[22][23][24] The origin and evolution of the list of attorneys to be dismissed remained unclear.[25][26][27][28] In response the Inspector General's report in September 2008, Attorney General Michael Mukasey appointed Acting United States Attorney for the District of Connecticut, Nora Dannehy as special prosecutor to determine if administration officials had perjured themselves in testimony to Congress.[29] Her investigation concluded that there was insufficient evidence to charge anyone with perjury.

Nora Riordan Dannehy (born March 13, 1961) is an American attorney. She was appointed Acting United States Attorney for the District of Connecticut on April 4, 2008. She is the first woman to hold the office, which was established in 1789.

Legal career Dannehy received her B.A. from Wellesley College in 1983 and her J.D.[1] degree from Harvard Law School in 1986. She joined the United States Department of Justice in 1991. Prior to her appointment, she had served as Professional Officer for the District of Connecticut.

Dannehy prosecuted political corruption in Connecticut and won convictions of former Connecticut Gov. John G. Rowland and former state Treasurer Paul Silvester.

Michael A. Battle (born October 15, 1955) [1] is an American attorney who served as the director of the Executive Office for United States Attorneys in the United States Department of Justice until he resigned, effective March 16, 2007. He was the person who informed seven United States Attorneys on December 7, 2006 that they were being dismissed.

On September 29, 2008, Dannehy was appointed by United States Attorney General Michael B. Mukasey to continue an investigation into the George W. Bush administration's dismissals of nine federal prosecutors in 2006. Her role was to determine if anyone should be prosecuted following the investigation by the Inspector General and Office of Professional Responsibility of the Department of Justice, which had concluded that political pressure drove the dismissals of at least three of the federal prosecutors in 2006.[4] Her investigation concluded that "Evidence did not demonstrate that any prosecutable criminal offense was committed with regard to the removal of David Iglesias," "The investigative team also determined that the evidence did not warrant expanding the scope of the investigation beyond the removal of Iglesias," and that "there was insufficient evidence to charge someone with lying to Congress or investigators."

Michael J. Elston (born 1969), is a United States lawyer who currently serves as Acting Secretary of the Board of Governors for the United States Postal Service (USPS), in Washington, D.C.[1] Elston has served as the Associate General Counsel and Chief Ethics & Compliance Officer for the USPS since 2014.[1] From November 2005 to June 2007, he was a political appointee in the administration of President George W. Bush, serving as the Chief of Staff & Counselor, Office of the Deputy Attorney General, United States Department of Justice, before resigning in the wake of the dismissal of U.S. attorneys controversy.[2][3] He was appointed as an Assistant United States Attorney in 1999 by Attorney General Janet Reno.

On December 10, 2010, Dannehy was named by Connecticut Attorney General elect George Jepsen to the post of Deputy Attorney General of the state.

On March 18, 2019, Dannehy returned to the U.S. Attorney's Office in Connecticut, as Counsel to John H. Durham.[8] She worked with Durham on an inquiry into the origins of the FBI investigation into Russian interference in the 2016 elections.[9] She resigned from the Justice Department on September 10, 2020.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Attorney General Gonzales, in a confidential memorandum dated March 1, 2006, delegated authority to senior DOJ staff Monica Goodling and Kyle Sampson to hire and dismiss political appointees and some civil service positions.

On May 2, 2007, the Department of Justice announced two separate investigations into hirings conducted by Goodling: one by the department's Inspector General, and a second by the Office of Professional Responsibility.[31] In testimony before the House Judiciary Committee, on May 23, 2007, Goodling stated that she had "crossed the line" and broken civil service laws regulating hiring for civil service positions, and had improperly weighed political factors in assessing applicants.

Monica Marie Goodling (born AUGUST 6, 1973) is a former United States government lawyer and Republican[1] political appointee in the George W. Bush administration who is best known for her role in the controversy about the politically motivated firings of several United States Attorneys in 2007. She was the principal deputy director of public affairs for the United States Department of Justice, serving under Attorneys General John Ashcroft and Alberto Gonzales. A Department of Justice investigation concluded that she had violated the law, but she was not prosecuted because she had been granted immunity in exchange for her testimony.

D. Kyle Sampson (born in Cedar City, Utah) was the Chief of Staff and Counselor of United States Attorney General Alberto Gonzales. He resigned on March 12, 2007, amid the controversy surrounding the firing of eight United States Attorneys in 2006[1] and was cleared of any criminal wrongdoing in July 2010.[2] In October 2007, Sampson joined the law firm of Hunton … Williams LLP as a partner in the firm's food and drug practice, where his practice focuses on FDA regulatory and enforcement matters.

As a young man, Sampson served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints among Hmong refugees who had emigrated from Laos to Minnesota.[5] After graduating from Brigham Young University in 1993,

Sampson earned a J.D. degree with honors from The University of Chicago Law School in 1996, serving as Articles Editor on the law review.[6] He clerked for Judge Karen J. Williams of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and then joined the Salt Lake City law firm of Parr Waddoups Brown Gee ... Loveless.

In 2006 a purge of US Attorneys at the DOJ

Kevin V. Ryan retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Kevin V. Ryan

Kevin V. Ryan (born 1957) is a former United States Attorney for the Northern District of California. He was one of the attorneys whose name was mentioned in connection to the Dismissal of U.S. attorneys controversy.

Ryan was born in Alberta Canada to the son of an Irish immigrant. Ryan was raised in San Francisco, graduating from Saint Ignatius College Preparatory. Ryan earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Dartmouth College in 1980, and received his Juris Doctor from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1984.

Ryan began his legal career in California as a prosecutor with the Alameda County California's District Attorney's Office. While working with the District Attorney's Office, he handled a variety of cases including homicides and violent gang prosecutions.

In 1996, while serving as a member of the Violent Gang Suppression Unit, Ryan was appointed by Governor Pete Wilson to serve as a Judge on the San Francisco Municipal Court.

President George W. Bush nominated Ryan as the United States Attorney for the Northern District of California. His nomination to was at the recommendation of Joseph P. Russoniello, a previous holder of the office.[citation needed] Ryan was confirmed by the United States Senate in July 2002.

In the 2006 purge of US Attorneys Ryan was replaced by Scott Newton Schools.

Schools is an American lawyer who currently serves as chief compliance officer of Uber.[1] Before joining Uber, Schools was the highest-ranking career civil servant at the United States Department of Justice, serving as Associate Deputy Attorney General. He has been characterized as “the most important unknown person in D.C.”

It has been reported that Schools was a significant advisor to top political officials Sally Yates and Rod Rosenstein, and in 2017 made a significant recommendation to dismiss James Comey who was the FBI Director.

Earlier in his career, Schools had served as U.S. Attorney for South Carolina and U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of California.

First Native woman sworn in as U.S. Attorney retrieved from www.indianz.com/News and copied or modified to here

Of the eight U.S. Attorneys who were fired, five were from states with significant Indian Country. And all five were prominent members on DOJ’s Native American Issues Subcommittee, whose chairman — former U.S. Attorney Tom Heffelfinger — was targeted for removal because he spent “too much time” on Indian matters, according to political appointees in Washington.

Heffelfinger ended up leaving before the purge. But his successor as chair of the subcommittee was among those who were fired last December.

Of the fired prosecutors, Charlton in particular was noted for his intense focus on reservation crime. “There was no one more committed to crime in Indian Country than Paul,” Heffelfinger told Indianz.Com earlier this year. U.S. Attorney General Alberto Gonzales eventually resigned after months of criticism for his handling of the controversy.

Humetewa, who is well-respected among Arizona’s tribes, faces a big workload when it comes to Indian Country. From July 1, 2006, through June 30, 2007, the U.S. Attorney’s Office in Arizona filed 326 cases in Indian Country, assisted 200 Indian victims and prosecuted 30 people in a major methamphetamine ring that affected one reservation.

Carol Lam retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

United States Attorney for the Southern District of California (fired by George W. Bush)

Carol Chien-Hua Lam (Chinese: □□□; pinyin: Lín Jiànhuá; born June 26, 1959) is a former United States Attorney for the Southern District of California. Lam was sworn into office on an interim basis on September 4, 2002. On November 12, 2002, Lam was further sworn in as a Senate confirmed Presidential appointee. She oversaw the Rep. Randy “Duke” Cunningham military contracting corruption case. Lam was one of eight attorneys fired in the Dismissal of U.S. attorneys controversy.

Lam received her B.A. from Yale University with a degree in philosophy. She received her J.D. from Stanford Law School in 1985

Lam began her legal career as a law clerk to the Honorable Irving R. Kaufman of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit from 1985 to 1986.

From 1986 to 1997, she served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Southern District of California and was Chief of the Major Frauds Section from 1997 to 2000. Lam convicted several high-ranking members of the Chicago organized crime family La Cosa Nostra; obtained a guilty plea and a civil settlement of $110 million from National Health Laboratories, Inc. in a Medicare fraud case; and briefed and argued the first appellate case upholding the constitutionality of “roving” wiretaps.

She then served as a judge of the Superior Court in San Diego, presiding over a criminal trial calendar.

In 2002, Lam was appointed U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of California by George W. Bush. In 2007, Lam was asked to resign by the Bush Administration.[3][4][5][6] Subsequent to the dismissal, [7] the Administration claimed that Lam did not allocate sufficient resources to prosecuting border crimes, echoing US Representative Darrell Issa's (R-CA) complaints.[3]

Healthcare Fraud. Lam was prosecutor of Tenent (which subsumed and closed Danieal Freeman Memorial Hospital

Lam was an expert in prosecuting healthcare fraud, having authored a 954-page textbook on the subject.[10] As U.S. Attorney, Lam took an interest in the case of San Diego's Alvarado Hospital Medical Center, which was owned by Tenet Healthcare Corporation, the nation's second-largest hospital chain.[11] In 2002, government agents raided the hospital. In June 2003, the hospital's chief executive, Barry Weinbaum, was indicted on one count of conspiring to violate the federal anti-kickback statute and seven counts of offering and paying illegal remuneration. The hospital and a Tenet unit were indicted a month later.[12] On February 17, 2005, a mistrial was declared when the jury failed to reach a verdict. Lam personally prosecuted the case in a second trial; after seven months in the courtroom and a record of four months of jury deliberation, the judge declared another mistrial on April 4, 2006.

Tenet settled. Denying that it paid kickbacks to doctors for referrals of patients to Alvarado, Tenet paid $21 million to the government, agreed to sell Alvarado Hospital[14] and admitted that the case has led to "significant reforms" at hospitals around the country and that the company had been "distressed" to learn of "excessive payments" to some doctors.[15]

Without Lam, U.S. Attorney's Office Takes Different Tack retrieved from Voice of San Diego and copied or modified to here

Lam, a healthcare fraud specialist, had branded herself a champion of these high-impact corporate and public corruption cases. As for border crime, she bypassed the small players and went after leaders of large drug- and human-smuggling rings and corrupt border officials.

That strategy did not win friends in the White House, Justice Department or among some members of Congress, such as Darrell Issa, R-Vista, who lobbied for change and got it.

When Hewitt, a Republican, took over from Lam, an independent, she had a clear mandate to do what Lam was unwilling to do. It was obvious to Hewitt's troops, the defense community and her counterparts at other federal agencies that priorities were about to shift.

And so they have, rather dramatically. Criminal prosecutions in fiscal 2008, Hewitt's first full year in office, have increased 54 percent since Carol Lam's first year in office, fiscal 2003, according to the Transactional Records Access Clearinghouse, which monitors federal prosecution statistics. Comparing the same five-year period, immigration cases in the Southern District of California are up 88 percent.

Also during that span, prosecutions of white-collar cases referred by the San Diego FBI are down 74 percent, from 78 cases in 2003 to 18 cases in 2008, the lowest level in two decades. And public corruption cases are down 71 percent, from seven cases to two. Under Lam, the number of such cases had reached the highest levels in two decades, hitting 12 in 2004, TRAC found.

"She's very aware of the reasons her predecessor was axed," criminal defense attorney Bob Rose said of Hewitt. "I really doubt she would like that to happen to her."

California Healthline Daily Edition

Monday JUN 3 2002 *

Tenet Healthcare Corp. announced plans last week to close Daniel Freeman Marina Hospital in Marina del Rey, the Los Angeles Times reports. The health system acquired the 166-bed hospital last December from Carondelet Health System, a St. Louis-based company, as part of the $55 million purchase of Daniel Freeman Hospitals, the last not-for-profit facilities in Marina del Rey and Inglewood. Tenet officials said that they would not close the 358-bed Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital in Inglewood and added that they plan to expand services at the Centinela Airport Medical Clinic at Los Angeles International airport (Ornstein, Los Angeles Times, 5/30)

Tenet Healthcare Corp. announced plans last week to close Daniel Freeman Marina Hospital in Marina del Rey, the Los Angeles Times reports. The health system acquired the 166-bed hospital last December from Carondelet Health System, a St. Louis-based company, as part of the $55 million purchase of Daniel Freeman Hospitals, the last not-for-profit facilities in Marina del Rey and Inglewood. Tenet officials said that they would not close the 358-bed Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital in Inglewood and added that they plan to expand services at the Centinela Airport Medical Clinic at Los Angeles International airport (Ornstein, Los Angeles Times, 5/30)

Was Dick Cheney the sleeze bag farmer or distributor who was caught in invovled in the blackmail scheme in the film At Any Price?

Ramin Bahrani, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., and Monsanto

Ramin Bahrani(born March 20, 1975) is an American director and screenwriter. Film critic Roger Ebert ranked Bahrani's Chop Shop (2007) as the sixth-best film of the 2000s, calling him "the new director of the decade".[1] Bahrani was the recipient of the 2009 Guggenheim Fellowship. Bahrani is a professor of film directing at his alma mater the Columbia University School of the Arts.

In 2021, Bahrani was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Adapted Screenplay for The White Tiger. He is a BAFTA and Emmy Award nominee.

He directed Randy Quaid in At Any Price.

An ambitious farmer Henry Whipple (Dennis Quaid) discusses with his son Dean (Zac Efron) about the art of sales. Dean is reluctant to be as ruthless as his father as they offer condolences and also unscrupulously attempt to purchase land during a family funeral.

After returning home they roll out the red carpet for their son who has left the farm and mentions returning via a postcard but appears unlikely to return. As the story progresses we see that Henry Whipple is having an affair with British and condescending Meredith Crown (Heather Graham) and his ongoing selfish decisions will continue to derail his future.

Henry Ripple uses a GMO from a company and gets a free sample too. THe GMO is analogous to Monsanto products and Ripple is being prosecuted for using seed from a bought product to resale as competing with the patented product.

This book

Jennifer Aniston is Overthrow Plot Conspirator Propogandist

Friends S3 E 5

The Shadow ["Ghosting" someone]Game *

Monica: Oh, we used to drive each other crazy playing the shadow game.
Phoebe: Oh, how do you play the shadow game?
Monica: Oh, how do you play the shadow game?
Phoebe: I just asked you.
Monica: I just asked you.
Phoebe: I don't have time for this.
Monica: No, that is what the game is.
Phoebe: You just gave up really quickly.

Pheobe has raised a question. Monica already had the floor. Monica raises that same question on the floor she is still on and Phoebe is in the shadow as the question was raised by Monica. Pheobe is a Ghost or has been Ghosted.

Leprechaun made in 1993 was #PostConditioning #Propoganda piece that like #AssignmentEarth used goring back into history to examine what was NECCESARY to do; for instance, stop the evil leprechaun in 1983 an #theTroubles 1983 and Jennifer Aniston in review.

George H.W Bush is vice President to Ronald Reagn who a March 1980 (just before CIA USAID) survived an assassination attempt

In the 1981 Irish hunger strike, ten republican prisoners (seven from the Provisional IRA and three from the INLA) died of starvation. The first hunger striker to die, Bobby Sands, was elected to Parliament on an Anti-H-Block ticket, as was his election agent Owen Carron following Sands' death. The hunger strikes resonated among many nationalists; over 100,000 people attended Sands' funeral mass in West Belfast and thousands attended those of the other hunger strikers. From an Irish republican perspective, the significance of these events was to demonstrate potential for a political and electoral strategy.

In the wake of the hunger strikes, Sinn Féin, which had become the Provisional IRA's political wing, began to contest elections for the first time in both Northern Ireland (as abstentionists) and in the Republic. In 1986, Sinn Féin recognised the legitimacy of the Irish Dáil, which caused a small group of members to break away and form Republican Sinn Féin.

In July 1982, the IRA bombed military ceremonies in London's Hyde Park and Regent's Park, killing four soldiers, seven bandsmen and seven horses.[156] The INLA was highly active in the early and mid-1980s. In December 1982, it bombed a disco in Ballykelly, County Londonderry, frequented by off-duty British soldiers, killing 11 soldiers and six civilians. In December 1983, the IRA attacked Harrods using a car bomb, killing six people.

Leprechaun (1993) set in 1983 is released with Jennifer Aniston help cure retarded Ozzie's brain with the protection of Sheriff Trip[l]et. The movie has all sorts of brown, yellow, and pink references and they have to fight the evil Leprechaun who is only after gold as they try to fix Ozzies brain at 33 minutes Hospital Trip Further Reading

Later she will star in Jeffery Eugnide's The Swtich Further Reading about DND in who by IVF and now tracking down by personality trait who got whose DNA and also Rumor Hast It in which she sets out to find her family story is the real basis for fictional movie story. Further Reading

33 Minutes a rush to the hospital ER. Ford Truck Jospehs Collectable Coins

Leprechaun is a 1993 American horror film written and directed by Mark Jones. It stars Warwick Davis in the title role, and Jennifer Aniston in her film debut. Davis plays a vengeful leprechaun who believes a family has stolen his pot of gold. As he hunts them, they attempt to locate his gold to vanquish him.

Brad Pitt was born on DECEMBER 18, 1963, in Shawnee, Oklahoma, to William Alvin Pitt, the proprietor of a trucking company, and Jane Etta (née Hillhouse), a school counselor. The family soon moved to Springfield, Missouri, where he lived together with his younger siblings, Douglas Mitchell (born 1966) and Julie Neal (born 1969). Born into a conservative Christian household, he was raised as Southern Baptist and later “oscillate[d] between agnosticism and atheism.” He later reconciled his belief in spirituality.

Justin Theroux retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Justin Paul Theroux (/θə'roʊ/; born August 10, 1971) is an American actor, director, producer and screenwriter. He gained recognition for his work with director David Lynch in the mystery film Mulholland Drive (2001) and the thriller film Inland Empire (2006). He also appeared in films such as Romy and Michele’s High School Reunion (1997), American Psycho (2000), Charlie’s Angels: Full Throttle (2003), Strangers with Candy (2005), Wanderlust (2012), The Girl on the Train (2016), The Spy Who Dumped Me (2018), On the Basis of Sex (2018), and Lady and the Tramp (2019).

Theroux made his film debut in 1996 in Mary Harron’s I Shot Andy Warhol (Andy Warhol Born: AUGUST 6, 1928, Pittsburgh, PA Died: February 22, 1987, New York Presbyterian Hospital, New York, NY.)

Theroux was born in Washington, D.C. His mother, Phyllis Grissim Theroux, is an essayist and author, and his father, Eugene Albert Theroux (born 1938), is a lawyer at Baker & McKenzie in Washington. Theroux is the nephew of the travel writer and novelist Paul Theroux, novelist and poet Alexander Theroux, author Peter Theroux, and novelist and educator Joseph Theroux; he is the cousin of British journalists and documentary filmmakers Louis and Marcel Theroux. His father is of half French-Canadian and half Italian descent. Through his mother, Theroux is a great-great-grandson of financier, banker and railroad magnate H. B. Hollins, and of music critic and author Gustav Kobbé.

Theroux attended Lafayette Elementary School, Annunciation School, and the Field School. He first started acting while in high school at the Buxton School, in Williamstown, Massachusetts. He graduated from Bennington College in 1993 with a B.A. in visual arts and drama.

Time traveling back to 1983 from 1993

Leprechaun (film) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Leprechaun is a 1993 American horror comedy film written and directed by Mark Jones. It stars Warwick Davis in the title role, and Jennifer Aniston in her film debut. Davis plays a vengeful leprechaun who believes a family has stolen his pot of gold. As he hunts them, they attempt to locate his gold to vanquish him. The film was originally meant to be more of a straight horror film, but Davis injected humor into his role. Re-shoots also added increased gore to appeal to older audiences.

In 1983 J. D. Redding a man and his teenage daughter Tory (Jenifer Aniston) rent the O'Grady farmhouse for the summer and find O'grady and the three painters.

Is SIMI Valleyu where Ronald Reagan lives and where the DOD COntractors are? SSFL?

Irish Dan O’Grady (Ronald Reagan?) returns to his home in North Dakota from a trip to his native Ireland, where he stole the pot of gold from a leprechaun he interrogated. After burying the gold, O’Grady discovers that the evil leprechaun has followed him home and murdered his wife. O’Grady uses a four-leaf clover to suppress the leprechaun’s powers and trap him inside a crate. Before he can burn him, he suffers a stroke.

Contract workers Nathan Murphy, his 10-year-old brother Alex, and their dimwitted friend Ozzie Jones help re-paint the farmhouse. Ozzie needs help with his brain.

The fight with the Leprechaun who wants his missing peice of gold back makes u the rest of the movie.

This book

Jeffrey R. MacDonald

The shooting death of Dennis Eisman APRIL 5, 1991 (an attorney for Michael Riconosciuto, who was a material witness in the House Investigation 102-857): DENNIS EISMAN - An attorney with information on INSLAW. Eisman was found shot to death on APRIL 5, 1991 According to the same TC Technical Consultant article, “In April, a Philadelphia attorney named Dennis Eisman was found dead, killed by a single bullet in his chest. According to a former federal official who worked with Eisman, the attorney was found dead in the parking lot where he had been due to meet with a woman who had crucial evidence to share substantiating Riconosciuto’s claims [regarding Inslaw].” He and his former law partner, Bernard L. Segal, had represented Green Beret Army surgeon Jeffrey McDonald, who was accused in 1970 of brutally murdering his pregnant wife and two young daughters at Fort Bragg, N.C. Mr. Eisman and Mr. Segal represented McDonald during Army hearings that resulted in the dismissal of military charges, Mr. Segal said. lpMcDonald was convicted in U.S. District Court of the murders in 1980 and is serving three life prison terms.

Ian Stuart Spiro (14 December 1946 - 8 November 1992) was a commodities broker who either murdered his wife and children, then killed himself in 1992 or was himself murdered along with his family. Police stated that he was a “low-level conduit by United States government intelligence agencies and the United Kingdom’s MI-6” from 1981 to 1986, and the case stirred a conspiracy theory that the family was murdered by assassins or terrorists because of Spiro's history as an intelligence operative.

Although MacDonald was dating multiple women at the time, he resolved to marry Colette upon learning she was pregnant with his child in AUGUST 1963. She in turn left college to raise their child.[11]

With the consent of Colette's family, the two married on September 14 1964..[4] One hundred people attended the service, with the reception held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The couple then honeymooned at Cape Cod. Their first daughter, Kimberley Kathryn, was born on April 18, 1964.[12][13]

The MacDonald murder case remains one of the most litigated murder cases in American criminal history

Shortly after MacDonald graduated from medical school in 1968, he and his family relocated to Bergenfield, New Jersey as he completed a one-year internship at the Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center in New York, specializing in thoracic surgery.

Questioned by the Criminal Investigation Division (CID), MacDonald claimed that at about 2:00 a.m. on FEBRUARY 17, he had washed the evening's dinner dishes before deciding to go to bed, although because his younger daughter, Kristen, had wet his side of the bed, he had taken her to her own bed.[39]

Not wishing to wake his wife to change the sheets, he had then taken a blanket from Kristen's room and fallen asleep on the living room couch.[28] According to MacDonald, he was later awakened by Colette and Kimberley's screams, and Colette shouting: "Jeff! Jeff! Help! Why are they doing this to me?"[40]

As he rose from the couch to go to their aid, he was attacked by three male intruders, one black and two white. The shorter of the two white men had worn lightweight, possibly surgical, gloves. A fourth intruder he described as a white female with long blonde hair (possibly a wig)[41] and wearing high heeled, knee-high boots and a white floppy hat partially covering her face. This individual stood nearby holding a lighted candle, chanting, Acid is groovy, kill the pigs!"[42]

Colette Kathryn Stevenson MacDonald

Colette Kathryn Stevenson MacDonald
BIRTH 10 May 1944 Patchogue, Suffolk County, New York, USA DEATH 17 FEB 1970 (aged 25)

Parents of Colette

Edward Cowles Stevenson said biological father of Collete

Mildred Madison Kassab BIRTH 11 AUG 1916 Pennsylvania, USA DEATH 19 Jan 1994 (aged 77) (said to me mother of Collete

1. Mildren husband (Fellowcraft member) Edward Cowles Stevenson, died suicide 52,

2. the SECOND Midred husband Alfred Gatas “Freddy” Kassab marries widowed

Alfred Kassab, second husnand to Mildrend Madison Kassab, was born in Canada, of Egyptian and Syrian descent. He was in British intelligence during World War II and parachuted behind German lines on six occasions to make contact with the French Resistance. His first wife, a Scottish woman, and their infant child were killed in the bombing of London.

1921 Alfred Kassab is born in Montreal, Canada, to wealthy Syrian parents. He would later become the husband of Mildred Kassab, stepfather to Colette and Bobby Stevenson, and father-in-law to Jeffrey MacDonald.

Note again

Google knowledge panel retrieved from [what does the name Colette mean] and copied or modified to here people of victory

Colette as a girl’s name is pronounced ko-LET. It is of French origin, and the meaning of Colette is “people of victory”.

Colette - Baby Name Meaning, Origin and Popularity

After the war he moved to New York and married Mildred, a widowed mother of two (Robert and Colette).

When Colette and her two children were murdered, the Kassabs stood by their son-in-law Jeffrey MacDonald, who was accused of the crime. However, as they became acquainted with all the facts, Freddy and Mildred became convinced that MacDonald was guilty.

Freddy Kassab’s persistence and dedication insured the case moved forward. He loved Colette deeply and considered her his own child.

MacDonald was convicted and sentenced for the murders.

Obituary - Edward Cowles Stevenson, 52, well-known Patchogue restaurant proprietor, was found dead Saturday night in his garage on Potter street, an apparent suicide. News of Mr. Stevenson’s shocked many Patchoguers who had known him as a cheerful and friendly man who often presided over the counter of H. & S restaurant on Main Street, near four corners, which he had operated for 28 years with Budd Hildreth of Blue Point. His body was found hanging from a beam in the garage by his wife at about 11 p.m. Mrs. Stevenson told police that she had been home reading for some time before she discovered that her husband was not asleep in his room. He had been suffering from insomnia, a heart condition from diabetes and had trouble sleeping for the past two weeks, according to Coroner P. Jerome Laviano, who issued a verdict of suicide after a brief inquest of the scene.

He was a member of the Southside Lodge, F. & A. M., Patchogue, and a member of the Fellowcraft Club, Patchogue.

March 9, 2004

WALLER MASONIC LODGE #808 AF & AM NEW MASON KILLED DURING FELLOWCRAFT CLUB INITATION IN PATCHOGUE NEW YORK

This news article is included on this site so the true story will be known. It was a group of individual men acting on their own

William James, a 47 year old, new member of the Southside Masonic Lodge in Patchogue, N.Y. was accidentally shot and killed Monday March 8, 2004.

James was being initiated into a private “Fellow Craft Social Club” whose membership was made up of some of the lodge members. The social club meeting was being held in the Masonic Lodge building’s basement. Although the club members are Masons, the club itself is not in any way a part of the Masonic Fraternity.

Albert Eid, a 76-year-old member of the social club, who was licensed by New York to carry a pistol, andhad 2 pistols in his possession, one loaded with blanks which was to be used during the imitation ceremony of the “Fellow Craft Club” and one loaded with real bullets.

Albert Eid, a 76-year-old member of the social club, who was licensed by New York to carry a pistol, andhad 2 pistols in his possession, one loaded with blanks which was to be used during the imitation ceremony of the “Fellow Craft Club” and one loaded with real bullets.

The climax of the Fellow Craft Club’s imitation ceremony was to be a simple prank where the new member would sit in a chair while one of the older members stood 20 feet away and fired a handgun loaded with blanks. It seems that their ceremony includes the loud noise to frighten the new member. The club members had some empty tin cans behind where the new member was sitting, facing the front of the room. One member was to fire the gun loaded with blanks while others knocked over the empty cans. Some how Eid took out the wrong gun and shot James in the head with a real bullet. William James was pronounced dead at the scene and Albert Eid was placed under arrest.

Steve Mayo, who said he is the Senior Deacon of the lodge, told reporters Tuesday that there is nothing in the Masonic Lodge that uses guns and that there is not any ceremony in Masonry where firearms are involved or even allowed within the Lodge.

Carl Fitje, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge Of New York, made it clear that guns positively do not play a role in any officially sanctioned Lodge ceremony.

> “This weapon was used on Colette and Kim. It’s a brutal weapon. We had three people that were over-killed, almost. And yet… they leave you alive. While you were laying there in the hallway, why not give you a good [blow] or two from behind the head with that club and finish you off? You saw them eye to eye. They don’t know that you wouldn’t be able to identify them at a later date. Why leave you there alive?”
>
> Investigator Franz Grebner, questioning MacDonald as to the minor nature of the wounds inflicted

---

After 30 years, a man notoriously convicted of murdering his family may be freed from prison. A celebrated filmmaker explains why he believes in MacDonald’s innocence. [*]

Helena Stoeckley confessed to being at MacDonald’s house the night of the killings, but she would change details from time to time. Doesn’t that undermine her confession?

I talked to Rex Beaber, a UCLA lawyer/psychologist, and he interviewed Helena in 1982. He explained the nature of memory to me by invoking The Sound of Music. “When Julie Andrews is on the mountain and she is singing ‘The Sound of Music,’ the big theme song, what color is her skirt? What’s growing in the field?,” he asked me. “You might give me an answer that would be your best recollection. And you probably would be wrong, half the time or more.” He told me that there’s a big difference between remembering whether you saw a film and recalling its content with any detail. Rex Beaber said crimes are like that. “A person could be an extremely impaired human being and can have all kinds of problems with the circumstances of viewing that event, and that basic fact would remain,” Beaber told me.

JOHN MERONEY APRIL 3, 2013 The Atlantic

According to a four hour speech on the NWO by Ted Gunderson * the Jeffery Mcdonald case turned on theories of reactions to Collete’s daughter bedwetting. The prosecution theory was that the bedwetting angered Jeffery MacDonald, probably less true of a physician. Quite the opposite, a defense argument might be they feared Dr. McDonald noticing developmental symptoms in the child which might be expressing FOXP2 including language effects in writing, speaking etc. I believe this is true because the governemnt fears the recognition of FOXP2 in me Edward Paul Donegan.

Acccording to Ted Gunderson * mitochondrial fraud at trial, candlewax used on Collete as wax job?? Hair fibers expert innefecticely argued hair fiber probaly not hers was hers thus confused real hair fiber connection to person with hair.

According to Ted Gunderson * the female who confessed to the murders was a part of a Transhuminst group, perhaps Alister Crowley type the CIA cultivated along with Jack Parsons and others at Cal Tech JPL hoping a wide swatch world spirituality connection quilt.

Consider in parallel

Marilyn Reese Sheppard BIRTH 14 Apr 1923 Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, USADEATH 4 JUL 1954 (aged 31)

Bay Village, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, USA

Homicide victim. Marilyn Sheppard, wife of Dr. Samuel Sheppard, wealthy Cleveland physician, who were both principals in a crime that baffled Cleveland police and became a national media circus for over sixty years. Marilyn, was found brutally bludgeoned to death, succumbing from between 20 and 30 blows on the head in the couple's lake shore home in Bay Village.

Samuel Holmes Sheppard, D.O. (December 29, 1923 - APRIL 6, 1970) was an American neurosurgeon. He was exonerated in 1966, having been convicted of the 1954 murder of his wife, Marilyn Reese Sheppard. The case was controversial from the beginning, with extensive and prolonged nationwide media coverage.

The U.S. Supreme Court determined that the "carnival atmosphere" surrounding Sheppard's first trial had made due process impossible; after ten years in prison he was acquitted at a second trial.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

This book

Jim Garrison was a Patriot and a Revealer

Limitations in Garrisons case against Clay Shaw

Jim Garrison with interference from tbe FBI and J. Edgar Hoover led a prosecution of Clay Shaw he believed (as I do now) tied to the assasination of JFK.

It is most likely the proseuction failed for two three reasons.

1. FBI INTERFERENCE : The FBI denounced Garrison and the prosecution and the arrest of Ferrie and others tied to the case against Shaw. Ferrie would be endangered by leaks and killed bfore the trial. THe US Government falsified witness statements including an important statement that Jack Ruby knew each other from Ruby's adult entertaiment club in Texas which Oswald was at least once associating with Ruby

2. THE LOSS OF WITNESSES : Many potential witnesses were not available because they had died since the assassination years earlier, during it, and even contemporenous with the prosecution such as Robert F. Kennedy who may have and input or recognized matters being testified to.

3. THE PROSECUTION THEORY MAY HAVE BEEN INEXACT : THe available data at the time of the court case was limited. The CIA (including James Jesus Angleton) and J. Edgar Hoover had not disclosed the CIA FBI NSA DOD Secret Service Marine Corps based activities of Oswlad or Shaw. It now seems Operation Pluto was to create a strop to the left government, provisional government of Cuba with Operation Mongoose creating the rebellion for a provisional government such as Ted Cruz Sr than after Evangelicals were in place a next generation of British Feudal tied families groomed for Indonesia (Obama under Suherto, Rafael Cruz Jr under Raphael Cruz Sr.) would be CIA backed governments

The absence of Texas

The assassination of JFK was a national matter without specific National jurisdiction (many crimes can be charged under the jurisdiction of the Commerce Clause as part of interstate commerce such as a traveling person from out of state) but in fact the presence of Shaw, David Ferrie, and government operations in Louisiana gave jurisdictional access of the suspect, Clay Shaw to Louisianan prosecutor Garrison.

Operation Mongoose, arming and creating an Cuban refugees and mafia cartel hoard to invade Cuba and invite the US Military in as protector of the provisional government came from the Texas George H.W. Bush and long-term Texan conspirator LBJ, and Rockefeller of Arkansas, Dean Rusk oil business and its politicians under William King Harvey and General Edward Geary Lansdale , a US Air Force officer who retired in 1963 and the two of those figures a Secret Team of rouge acts which included the assassination of foreign leaders and figures within the United States itself.

The Texas support for the Shadow Government operation and National support for those figures, those figures operationally supporting J. Edgar Hoover and James Angleton, George H.W. Bush, and LBJ, and the then CIA of the time made access to crime scene and law enforcement where the crime occurred a far reach from Louisiana and the formation of the Louisiana case against its suspects difficult.

James Carothers Garrison Born: NOVEMBER 20, 1921, Denison, IA Died: October 21, 1992, New Orleans, LA

James Carothers Garrison (born Earling Carothers Garrison; November 20, 1921 October 21, 1992)[2] was the District Attorney of Orleans Parish, Louisiana, from 1962 to 1973. A member of the Democratic Party, he is best known for his investigations into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and prosecution of New Orleans businessman Clay Shaw to that effect in 1969, which ended in Shaw's acquittal. The author of three books, one became a prime source for Oliver Stone's film JFK in 1991, in which Garrison was portrayed by actor Kevin Costner, while Garrison himself also made a cameo as Earl Warren.

Five US Espionage Agencies under J. Edgar Hoover in cash-for-crimes mafia corruption racket killed his witness David Ferrie who was needed to convict Clay Shaw who was needed to out George H.W. Bush, Dick Cheney, Felix Rodrigues or said another way, Zapata Oil and the Saudi Royal Family tied to QEII.

Clay LaVerne Shaw, moving Blue Hyndrangea out to the world?

The Garrison Tapes: A John Barbour Film *

Shaw, a native of Kentwood, Louisiana, was the son of Glaris Lenora Shaw,[2] a United States Marshal, and Alice Shaw. His grandfather had been the sheriff of Tangipahoa Parish. When Shaw was five, his family moved to New Orleans, where he eventually attended Warren Easton High School.

Glaris Lenora Shaw. Birth. 25 Nov 1887. Kentwood, Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana, United States of America. Death. 25 Nov 1966

Clay Shaw served as an officer in the United States Army during World War II. He served as secretary to the General Staff and later served in Europe. He was decorated by three nations: the United States with the Legion of Merit and Bronze Star, by France with the Croix de Guerre and named Chevalier de l'Ordre du Merite, and by Belgium named Knight of the Order of the Crown of Belgium. Shaw was honorably discharged from the United States Army as a major in 1946.[4]

Clay Shaw knew of MKULTRA, the Eugenics, its tie to the Manattan Project, and the ongoign work at Tulane University backed by the Mafia for profit businesses he was in including black market Eugenics.

It is my (Edward Donegan's) assertion David Ferrie was likely in on the overall plot as assisting the plant of a future President, Ted Cruz JR., a groomed sleeper agent born of Mary's Lab, though he may not have know of a plan to assasinate JFK or Castro in Ferrie's own time.

Fairhope man shares father's brush with JFK assassin Lee Harvey Oswald retrieved from https://www.fox10tv.com/ and copied or modified to here

The FBI questioned Ferrie just five days after the assassination. Some of his answers have been grist for conspiracy theories. For instance, he acknowledged being greatly upset by the failure of Kennedy to support the Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba by anti-communist rebels and admitted that he “might have used an off-hand or colloquial expression ‘He ought to be shot,’” according to the FBI report.

The report also states that Ferrie acknowledged criticizing Kennedy’s habit of riding in convertibles, stating that “anyone could hide in the bushes and shoot a president.”

But Ferrie denied actually wanting Kennedy dead and told FBI agents that he never had met Oswald.

During the 1950s, Ferrie was an instructor in the Civil Air Patrol, a congressionally chartered corporation that serves as a civilian auxiliary of the Air Force. He also was active during the 1960s in an anti-communist organization called the Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front. He told investigators that he helped collect food, money, medicine and clothing for the organization.

Waters said New Orleans at the time was known as a city where it was relatively easy to get through customs. He said CIA types and the Mafia would approach pilots to fly “special missions” for them.

“A number of those guys kind of got hooked into,” he said, pausing, “something. My dad said he was approached a couple of times. And he just totally avoided it.”

Waters said his father was convinced three or four pilots flew “unknown characters” in and out of Dallas, where the JFK assassination took place.

The Arrest of Clay Shaw By Rebecca Poole & Connie Gentry

https://neworleanshistorical.org/items/show/1487

On November 23, 1963, the day after the assassination, Oswald had been formally accused of assassinating Kennedy. Garrison, along with many Americans, found it hard to believe that Oswald acted alone. In 1966, Garrison began an investigation linking Oswald to two New Orleanians, David Ferrie and Clay Shaw. Ferrie was linked to Oswald through a 1955 photo that showed Ferrie and Oswald at a social event as members of the Civil Air Patrol. A dubious eyewitness, under Garrison's interrogation, recalled that he had heard Ferrie, Oswald, and Shaw discussing an assassination plot at a party hosted in Ferrie's home. Additionally, Garrison believed Shaw to be the unidentified "Clay Bertrand [Russell] " who, the day after the assassination, had phoned a New Orleans attorney requesting that the attorney represent Oswald.

Belgium is a sovereign state and a federal constitutional monarchy with a parliamentary system.

Belgium,[A] officially the Kingdom of Belgium,[B] is a country in Western Europe. It is bordered by the Netherlands to the north, Germany to the east, Luxembourg to the southeast, France to the southwest, and the North Sea to the northwest. It covers an area of 30,689 km2 (11,849 sq mi) and has a population of more than 11.5 million, making it the 22nd most densely populated country in the world and the 6th most densely populated country in Europe, with a density of 376 per square kilometre (970/sq mi). The capital and largest city is Brussels; other major cities are Antwerp, Ghent, Charleroi, Liège, Bruges, Namur, and Leuven.

German forces again invaded the country in May 1940, and 40,690 Belgians, over half of them Jews, were killed during the subsequent occupation and The Holocaust. From September 1944 to February 1945 the Allies liberated Belgium. After World War II, a general strike forced King Leopold III to abdicate in 1951 in favour of his son, Prince Baudouin, since many Belgians felt he had collaborated with Germany during the war.[40] The Belgian Congo gained independence in 1960 during the Congo Crisis;[41] Ruanda-Urundi followed with its independence two years later. Belgium joined NATO as a founding member and formed the Benelux group of nations with the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Belgium became one of the six founding members of the European Coal and Steel Community in 1951 and of the European Atomic Energy Community and European Economic Community, established in 1957. The latter has now become the European Union, for which Belgium hosts major administrations and institutions, including the European Commission, the Council of the European Union and the extraordinary and committee sessions of the European Parliament.

According to Garrison, Bertrand was Shaw's alias in the New Orleans gay society. (In his investigation Garrison often exploited Shaw's purported sexual preferences and his private life.)

It was this liason based clutch in which J. Edgar Hoover recruited underground operatives himself transsexual.

http://www.auxbeacon.org adds update: In 1979, Richard Helms, then a former director of the CIA, will testify under oath that Clay L. Shaw had been a part-time contact of the Domestic Contact Service of the CIA, where Shaw volunteered information from his travels abroad, mostly to Latin America.

In 1996, the CIA revealed that Clay Shaw, tried in February 1969 and acquitted for the assassination of JFK, had obtained a “five Agency” clearance in 1949.

In 1979, Richard Helms, former Director of the CIA, testified under oath that Shaw had been a part-time contact of the Domestic Contact Service (DCS) of the CIA, where Shaw volunteered information from his travels abroad, mostly to Latin America.[28] Like Shaw, 150,000 Americans (businessmen, and journalists, etc.) had provided such information to the DCS by the mid-1970s “on a nonclandestine basis” and that “such acts of cooperation should not be confused with an actual Agency relationship”.

In popular culture

Tommy Lee Jones portrayed Shaw in Oliver Stone’s 1991 film JFK.[30] He was nominated for the Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor for the role.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

James Carothers Garrison (born Earling Carothers Garrison; NOVEMBER 20, 1921 - October 21, 1992)[2] was the District Attorney of Orleans Parish, Louisiana, from 1962 to 1973. A member of the Democratic Party, he is best known for his investigations into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and prosecution of New Orleans businessman Clay Shaw to that effect in 1969, which ended in Shaw’s acquittal.

As New Orleans D.A. in late 1966, Garrison began an investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, after receiving several tips from Jack Martin that a man named David Ferrie may have been involved in the assassination. The end result of Garrison’s investigation was the arrest and trial of New Orleans businessman Clay Shaw in 1969, with Shaw being unanimously acquitted less than one hour after the case went to the jury though after David Ferrir, co-operating witness against Clay Shaw had been murdered.

David Ferrie lived in the upstairs of this two story house located on Louisiana Avenue Parkway in the Broadmoor section of New Orleans - Photo by Infrogmation Ferrie was born in Cleveland, Ohio. A Roman Catholic, Ferrie attended St. Ignatius High School, John Carroll University, St. Mary’s Seminary, where he studied for the priesthood, and Baldwin Wallace College. He next spent three years at the St. Charles Seminary in Carthagena, Ohio. He suffered from alopecia areata, a skin condition, which results in hair loss and whose severity may increase with age. Later in life, to compensate for his hair loss, Ferrie wore a homemade auburn wig and false eyebrows.

In 1944 Ferrie left St. Charles because of “emotional instability.”

Perry RussoRusso was an insurance salesman from Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He attended Tulane University, received a bachelor’s degree from Loyola University New Orleans in 1964, and attended one year of law school at Loyola.[2][3] He moved away from New

He obtained a pilot’s license and began teaching aeronautics at

Orleans in September 1965.[3] Russo came forward after his friend David Ferrie died on February 22, 1967, while being investigated by New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison in regard to Kennedy's death. "Dr. Mary's Monkey: How the Unsolved Murder of a Doctor, a Secret Laboratory in New Orleans and Cancer-Causing Monkey Viruses are Linked to Lee Harvey … Assassination and Emerging Global Epidemics Paperback April 1, 2007" [Obama reating Eugenics and Cloning Research

---

The animal model often uses primates for research. this includes fertility studies especially as semi erect animals can more closely approximate movement and ovulation, fertilizations, etc.,

Cleveland's Benedictine High School. He was fired from the school for several infractions, including taking boys to a house of prostitution.[5] He then became an insurance inspector and, in 1951, moved to New Orleans where he worked as a pilot for Eastern Air Lines, until losing his job in August 1961, after being arrested twice on morals charges.

Ferrie was involved with the Civil Air Patrol in several ways: He started as a Senior Member (an adult member) with the Fifth Cleveland Squadron at Hopkins Airport in 1947.[7] When he moved to New Orleans, he transferred to the New Orleans Cadet Squadron at Lakefront Airport.

There he served as an instructor, and later as the Commander.[7] After a Ferrie-trained cadet pilot perished in a December 1954 crash, Ferrie's annual re-appointment was declined. He was asked to be a guest aerospace education instructor at a smaller squadron at Moisant Airport, and lectured there from June to September 1955. On July 27, 1955, 15-year-old Lee Harvey Oswald joined this squadron.

In March 1958, a former cadet-turned-commander invited Ferrie back to the New Orleans Cadet Squadron. Ferrie served unofficially for a time and was reinstated as Executive Officer in September 1959. Ferrie quit the squadron in June 1960 after a disagreement during a bivouac. In September 1960, he started his own unofficial squadron, called the Metairie Falcon Cadet Squadron.

Anti Castro (led by Geroge H.W. Bush and E Howard Hunt) Connection

An offshoot of this group was the Internal Mobile Security Unit, a group formed for the fight against Fidel Castro's Cuba.[10] Over the years, he used both his official and unofficial squadrons to develop improper relations with boys ranging in age from 14 to 18, and his August 1961 arrests caused the Falcons to fold.

During Garrison's own 1973 bribery trial, tape recordings from March 1971 revealed that Garrison considered publicly implicating former United States Air Force General and Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency Charles Cabell of conspiracy in the assassination of Kennedy after learning he was the brother of Earle Cabell, the Dallas mayor in 1963.

Ferrie initially supported Fidel Castro's campaign against Fulgencio Batista in Cuba, but by mid-1959 became convinced that Castro was a Communist. According to the United States House Select Committee on Assassinations, Ferrie “found an outlet for his political fanaticism in the anti-Castro movement.” By early 1961, Ferrie was working with right-wing Cuban exile Sergio Arcacha Smith, head of the Central Intelligence Agency-backed Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front in New Orleans. Ferrie soon became Arcacha Smith’s “eager partner in counterrevolutionary activities.” Both were involved in a raid in late 1961 on a munitions depot in Houma, Louisiana, “in which various weapons, grenades and ammunition were stolen.”

Ferrie admitted to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, after the assassination, that when speaking about Kennedy, he might have used the expression: “He ought to be shot.” Ferrie insisted, however, that these words were just “an off-hand or colloquial expression.”

In the early 1960s, Ferrie became involved with Guy Banister, former Special Agent In Charge (SAC) of the Chicago office of the FBI, right-wing political activist, segregationist, and private investigator. Banister also worked with Ferrie’s associate, Sergio Arcacha Smith. In early 1962, both Banister and Arcacha Smith maintained offices in the Newman Building at the corner address of 544 Camp Street / 531 Lafayette Street, New Orleans.

As Garrison continued his investigation, he became convinced that a group of right-wing extremists, including Ferrie, Banister, and Clay Shaw, were involved in a conspiracy with elements of the CIA to kill John F. Kennedy. Garrison later claimed that the motive for the assassination was anger over Kennedy’s attempts to obtain a peace settlement in both Cuba and Vietnam.[34][35] Garrison also believed that Shaw, Banister, and Ferrie had conspired to set up Oswald as a patsy in the JFK assassination.[36]

Ferrie's autopsy was performed by Orleans Parish coroner Nicholas Chetta and pathologist Ronald A. Welsh. They concluded that there was no evidence of suicide or murder and that Ferrie died of a massive cerebral hemorrhage due to a congenital intracranial berry aneurysm that had ruptured at the base of his brain.[37][41][42][43] Upon learning of the coroner's findings, Garrison said, " suppose it could just be a weird coincidence that the night Ferrie penned two suicide notes, he died of natural causes."[34] On March 1, 1967, Garrison had Shaw arrested and charged him with conspiring to assassinate Kennedy.

Viola June Cobb was born on August 24, 1927 in Ponca City, Oklahoma to Jasper E. Cobb and Jesse Lois Sharp.[1] She graduated from Ponca City High School, and went on to attend University of Oklahoma for one year[2] in the mid-1940s.[3] She then worked at a Ponca City radio station and for a local newspaper as a courthouse reporter.[2] She was an adjunct of the Civil Air Patrol squadron in Norman, Oklahoma, attaining the rank of 2nd class Lieutenant.

CIA recruitment CIA agent Harry Hermsdorf, undercover as a European journalist in Cuba, first met Cobb in the Havana Hilton's hotel coffee shop while having coffee with Jorge Losada, the editor of Vision, a Latin American magazine. Losada introduced Cobb to Hermsdorf, who was using the alias Heinrich Heubner. Following a brief conversation, Cobb agreed to arrange meetings with Cuban officials for Hermsdorf and Der Spiegel correspondent Claus Jacobi.[24]

From May 24-26, 1960, Cobb met with Hermsdorf, who evaluated her at her hotel. Without mentioning the CIA, he offered her a long-term employment opportunity and invited her to meet him somewhere outside of Cuba. They arranged to meet at the Drake Hotel in New York on June 3. [5] Cobb traveled to the United States in early June 1960. She also stopped in Washington, D.C., where she stayed at the Raleigh Hotel. The CIA arranged surveillance of her hotel room and of a polygraph that she took.

What Could a Mysterious U.S. Spy Know About the JFK Assassination? retrieved from Politico Magazinek and copied or modified to here

[It appears to Edward Donegan it wa Civil Air Patrol and Waldorf Historia history]

Philip Shenon, a former Washington and foreign correspondent for the New York Times, is author of, mostly recently, A Cruel and Shocking Act: The Secret History of the Kennedy Assassination.

She may have been one of the bravest and best-placed American spies in the history of the Cold War, but few people outside the CIA know the mysterious story of June Cobb.

The existing information in the spy agency's declassified files depicts Cobb as an American Mata Hari-an adventure-loving, death-defying globetrotter who moved to Cuba to work for Fidel Castro, the country's newly installed strongman, then found herself recruited to spy for the CIA after growing disenchanted with Castro's revolution. The era's rampant sexism is obvious in her job evaluation reports: Cobb's CIA handlers wrote down speculation about her sex life and her failed romance in the 1950s with an opium farmer in the jungles of South America. And the reports are filled with appraisals of Cobb's looks, noting especially her fetching blue eyes. "Miss Cobb is not unattractive," her CIA recruiter wrote in 1960. "She is blonde, has a slender figure, although she has a somewhat hard look, making her appear somewhat older than her 33 years."

According to another, undated evaluation, she had a "wiry" figure but had been attractive enough to catch the Cuban dictator's eye. Cobb, the report said, was reputedly "a former girlfriend of Castro's." True or not, she was close enough to get a job on the Cuban dictator's senior staff in Havana in 1960, the perfect perch to spy for the CIA. Cobb's agency work in Havana and later in Mexico leads us to the most puzzling aspect of her life-that she later found herself drawn deeply into the mysteries of John F. Kennedy's assassination. After the murder, she reported to her CIA bosses that she had identified a trio of witnesses who could tie Kennedy's assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, to Cuban diplomats and spies in Mexico City, where Oswald had traveled just weeks before the assassination.

What did June Cobb know at the time? Historians of the Cold War-and anyone with an interest in JFK's 1963 assassination and the possibility of Cuban involvement-are on the verge of learning much more about the extraordinary, often bizarre, sometimes tragic life of the American spy who was born Viola June Cobb, the full name that appeared on her birth certificate back home in Ponca City, Oklahoma, in 1927. The National Archives has recently acknowledged that it is preparing to release a 221-page file of long-secret CIA documents about Cobb that-for reasons the Archives says it cannot yet divulge-are somehow linked to JFK's murder.

The Cobb file is among the most tantalizing of an estimated 3,600 assassination-related documents scheduled to be made public by late October under the 25-year deadline established by the JFK Assassination Records Collection Act. Under the 1992 law, the full library of long-secret files will be released automatically by the National Archives later this year unless President Donald Trump blocks their release on national security grounds. The White House has not signaled what Trump, who for years has promoted mostly baseless conspiracy theories, including about JFK's assassination, will do.

When JFK Won by Losing By THOMAS OLIPHANT and CURTIS WILKIE

What we know about Cobb so far comes largely from millions of pages of other documents from the CIA, FBI and other federal agencies that were declassified years ago under the 1992 law. Within those documents are dozens of files that identified Cobb as a paid CIA operative when she worked on Castro's staff in Havana and later when she moved to Mexico. Some of the documents tie her to a lingering questions about Oswald's trip to Mexico City in late September 1963, not long before Kennedy's November assassination. In Mexico, Oswald came under CIA surveillance when he met there with both Soviet and Cuban spies. Previously released documents also show Cobb's involvement in CIA surveillance of a U.S.-based pro-Castro group, the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, which Oswald championed in the months before Kennedy's murder.

There is one document about Cobb that has remained completely off-limits to the public all these years: the 221-page file identified as "FOLDER ON COBB, VIOLA JUNE (VOL VII)" on a skeletal index released by the Archives last year. It is one of the 3,600 documents that were withheld from public view entirely in the 1990s at the request of the agencies that originally produced them-in Cobb's case, the CIA. The index prepared by the Archives shows that, as of 1998, when her file was last officially reviewed, the spy agency said the document was "not believed relevant" to the Kennedy assassination but could do unspecified harm if made public before the October 2017 deadline.

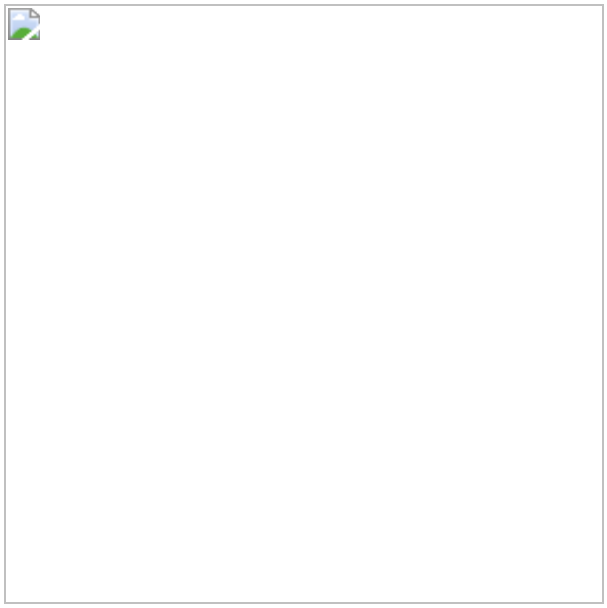
But the history of the assassination has needed to be rewritten since the 1990s, in part because of the CIA's documented duplicity, which raises the question of whether Cobb's file could in fact be relevant. A 2013 report by the CIA's in-house historian acknowledged that the agency had conducted a "benign cover-up" in the years immediately after Kennedy's assassination in an effort to keep investigators focused on "what the Agency believed at the time was the 'best truth'-that Lee Harvey Oswald, for as yet undetermined motives, had acted alone in killing John Kennedy."

New Orleans DA Releases Suppressed CAP Oswald Photo retrieved from Auxbeacon News and copied or modified to here

Jim Garrison releases 1956 photo of Lee Harvey Oswald proving membership in Civil Air Patrol

By New Orleans States-Item DA Releases 'Suppressed' Oswald Photo

District Attorney Jim Garrison has released a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald in a Civil Air Patrol uniform, a picture he claims the federal government attempted to suppress. The photograph of Oswald, who was named the assassin of the late President John F. Kennedy by the Warren Commission, was distributed yesterday afternoon during a press conference called by Garrison.



THE PHOTOGRAPH, Garrison asserted, proves that Oswald knew David W. Ferrie, whom he described as a “well known, literally famous adventurer in the CIA.” Garrison claims that Oswald, Ferrie and Clay L. Shaw conspired to assassinate President Kennedy. Shaw has been charged with conspiracy and was scheduled to go to trial June 11 here. A temporary restraining order issued by Federal District Judge Frederick J. R. Heebe Tuesday postponed the trial indefinitely.

FERRIE, WHO WAS a CAP commander here at one time, died just a few days after the DA’s probe of the assassination was made public. Shaw, a 55-year-old retired businessman, says he never knew Oswald or Ferrie.

The Warren Report, which Garrison has attacked, mentioned that Oswald “was briefly a member of the Civil Air Patrol.”

GARRISON SAID yesterday that it was when Oswald joined the CAP that he was inducted into the Central Intelligence Agency by Ferrie.

The DA said the photograph of Oswald was probably taken sometime between 1955 and 1957.

There have been assertions that Ferrie and Oswald were in CAP during the same period of time but that they never knew each other because they were in different squadrons. Garrison said, “Whether Oswald was in the New Orleans Squadron or the Moisant Squadron is unimportant, because the two groups met together.”

FEBRUARY 20, 1967 - District Attorney Jim Garrison claims Warren Commission was wrong

Earling Carothers Garrison was born in Denison, Iowa in 1921. He was the first child and only son of Earling R. Garrison and Jane Anne Robinson who divorced when he was two years old.[2] His family moved to New Orleans in his childhood, where he was raised by his divorced mother. He served in the U.S. Army Air Forces during World War II, having joined the year before the attacks on Pearl Harbor. After the war he obtained a law degree from Tulane University Law School in 1949. He then worked for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for two years where he was stationed with the Seattle office

Early life and career

Earling Carothers Garrison was born in Denison, Iowa in 1921.[3][4][5] He was the first child and only son of Earling R. Garrison and Jane Anne Robinson who divorced when he was two years old.[2] His family moved to New Orleans in his childhood, where he was raised by his divorced mother. He served in the U.S. Army Air Forces during World War II, having joined the year before the attacks on Pearl Harbor. After the war he obtained a law degree from Tulane University Law School in 1949. He then worked for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for two years where he was stationed with the Seattle office.

Leading up to the Korean War era Garrison joined the National Guard, even applying for active duty with the Army in 1951, but because of recurring nightmares of past missions Garrison was then relieved of duty by the Army. Remaining in the Guard when it became apparent that he suffered from shell shock due to his numerous bombing missions flown during World War II,[7] leading one Army doctor to conclude that Garrison had a “severe and disabling psychoneurosis” which “interfered with his social and professional adjustment to a marked degree. He was considered totally incapacitated from the standpoint of military duty and moderately incapacitated in civilian adaptability”

Yet when his record was reviewed further by the U.S. Army Surgeon General, he “found him to be physically qualified for federal recognition in the national army.”[9] Upon returning again to civilian life, Garrison worked in several different trial lawyer positions before winning election as New Orleans District Attorney, starting with his first of three terms in January of 1962.

As Garrison continued his investigation, he became convinced that a group of right-wing extremists, including Ferrie, Banister, and Clay Shaw, were involved in a conspiracy with elements of the CIA to kill John F. Kennedy. Garrison later claimed that the motive for the assassination was anger over Kennedy’s attempts to obtain a peace settlement in both Cuba and Vietnam

On the afternoon of NOVEMBER 22, 1963 - the day John F. Kennedy was assassinated and the day Carlos Marcello was acquitted in his deportation case - New Orleans private investigator Guy Banister and one of his employees, Jack Martin, were drinking together at a local bar. On their return to Banister’s office, the two men got into a heated argument. According to Martin, Banister said something to which Martin replied, “What are you going to do - kill me like you all did Kennedy?” Banister drew his .357 magnum revolver and pistol-whipped Martin several times. Martin, badly injured, went by ambulance to Charity Hospital.[17]

In the ensuing days, Jack Martin told reporters and authorities that Ferrie might have been involved in the assassination.

The New Orleans District Attorney, Mr. Jim Garrison, claimed that Lee Harvey Oswald was part of a conspiracy to assassinate the late President John F. Kennedy. He said his office has been conducting an investigation into what New Orleans newspapers say was an organised plot to kill

Mr. Kennedy. He called the Warren Commission’s Report that Oswald acted alone wrong. He said the same for author William Manchester’s conclusions. Manchester wrote the recent controversial account of the assassination of President Kennedy and the immediate aftermath. The New Orleans District Attorney added he plans to arrest several persons on conspiracy charges. He refused to name names. Garrison did say, however, that some persons that his office is investigating are in danger of losing their lives

[two days later: SILENCED ! On FEBRUARY 22, 1967, less than a week after the New Orleans States-Item broke the story of Garrison’s investigation, Ferrie was found dead in his apartment

Martin told the New Orleans police that Ferrie “was supposed to have been the getaway pilot in the assassination.“[1] He said that Ferrie had threatened Kennedy’s life, even outlining plans to kill him, and that Ferrie might have taught Oswald how to use a rifle with a telescopic sight. Martin also claimed that Ferrie had known Oswald from their days in the New Orleans Civil Air Patrol, and that he had seen a photograph, at Ferrie’s home, of Oswald in a Civil Air Patrol group.[18]

You do not believe the Warren commission’s report is that correct?

That’s correct.

i believe that one commission was wrong and uh will be shown to be wrong mr garrison william manchester’s book he says oswald acted alone and there was no conspiracy and certainly this part of the book hasn’t been challenged by the kennedy family what is your reaction to manchester’s account.

well ed i i was not there at the assassination scene but i don’t think mr manchester was either and i think that my office has put many more hours looking into that matter than miss manchester and i would reply that uh i believe that mr manchester is wrong

mr garrison on the basis of what you’ve just said do you feel there should be a new investigation into the slaying of president kennedy at a level higher than yours as someone suggested a new federal investigation well that actually i think that uh effective investigation by that i mean imaginative investigation in which there is effective evaluation and not simply the blind collection of volumes of evidence at every level is justified in a case like this i would have to answer yes except that i would hope that this time more premium would be placed on the evaluation function but of course it would be uh better if more agencies cooperated and gave each other information worked together a matter like this justifies a number of concurrent investigations is the investigation proceeding on the basis of what you’ve uncovered or what you think you will uncover our investigation is proceeding on the basis of what we have uncovered it is not based on uh supposition do you believe that local publicity of facts of the investigation has put any witnesses life in jeopardy uh i believe uh unfortunately that the irresponsible uh handling of this story by the newspapers yesterday and this morning in new orleans have placed the life of one witness in such jeopardy that i think there’s a real question about whether he will live or not do you believe sir that any new orleans residents were directly or indirectly involved in the assassination no comment mr garrison some names have been released on people that you have questioned uh particularly one person that you arrested uh 72 hours after the assassination as a fugitive from texas what comment do you have for this my comment is that i think that the newspapers in mentioning the names of people whom we have not charged whose names we have not mentioned is very unfair to these people in spite of the fact that we are investigating a number of individuals in this country we presume that people are innocent until they are found guilty and these individuals have not even been charged and their names have been mentioned in the newspapers in such a way as to create damaging inferences

---

Dr. Mary's Monkey: How the Unsolved Murder of a Doctor, a Secret Laboratory in New Orleans and Cancer-Causing Monkey Viruses are Linked to Lee Harvey ... Assassination and Emerging Global Epidemics Paperback - APRIL 1, 2007

The 1964 murder of a nationally known cancer researcher sets the stage for this gripping exposé of medical professionals enmeshed in covert government operations over the course of three decades. Following a trail of police records, FBI files, cancer statistics, and medical journals, this revealing book presents evidence of a web of medical secret-keeping that began with the handling of evidence in the JFK assassination and continued apace, sweeping doctors into cover-ups of cancer outbreaks, contaminated polio vaccine, the arrival of the AIDS virus, and biological weapon research using infected monkeys. This new edition includes a foreword from author Jim Marr.

Part of the series on the Jim Garrison investigation of the JFK assassination From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

What would gays, gay males, ever want access to for gay couples, and treat the stolen goods as ammunition, strength against competition?

Shaw served as an officer in the United States Army during World War II. He served as secretary to the General Staff and later served in Europe. He was decorated by three nations: the United States with the Legion of Merit and Bronze Star, by France with the Croix de Guerre and named Chevalier de l'Ordre du Merite, and by Belgium named *Knight of the Order of the Crown of Belgium. Shaw was honorably discharged from the United States Army as a major in 1946.

After World War II Shaw helped start the International Trade Mart in New Orleans which facilitated the sales of both domestic and imported goods.

Stone cold truth the British killed JFK with Protestants helping

I am a firsthadn witness to one otherwise unexplained piece of this, sufficeint a letter to solve the phrase missiong most of ite letters and can explain many scenes in this movie as a first hand witness whose model of understanding offers synergizing consistent gap filling in the missing text of the partial prhase.

New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison prosecuted Clay Shaw on the charge that Shaw and a group of activists, including David Ferrie and Guy Banister, were involved in a conspiracy with elements of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in the John F. Kennedy assassination. Garrison arrested Shaw on March 1, 1967. Garrison believed that Shaw was the man named as “Clay Bertrand” in the Warren Commission Report. Garrison said that Shaw used the alias “Clay Bertrand” in New Orleans’ gay society.

Kevin Costner plays Jim Garrison hobbled by dead witnesses and the assasinatio of RFK. He fails in the footsoldier battle of him against Claw Shaw, later found a CIA operative, but gains an indictment of the FBI, CIA, and US government hiding its corrupt acts. On YouTube One scene, an advert then the second part of the clip

The story is told starting with the death of Rose Cherami who I believe I can explain as a footsoldier of my “peoples” cause. Like many who knew of certain families carrying FOXP2 Minimal Brain Disorder and research of us and secret studies she was carrying news to JFK that the plan was to kill the FOXPs and use the non expressing family members for sleeper agents despite JFKs spite for the program. Further Reading

This was the very same Barrack Obama Jr planned by Free Mason Scotish Rites, the same Barrack Obama Jr taken to the White House nursery and groomed by the Chicago Trinity Baptist Church as a sleeper.

JFK (1991) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Jim Garrison

Kevin Costner as Jim Garrison

Kevin Bacon as Willie O'Keefe

Tommy Lee Jones as Clay Shaw / Clay Bertrand Clay Shaw likely gave himself, or British Intelligence gave Shaw the ▶ Bertrand Russell namsesake.

Laurie Metcalf as Susie Cox

Gary Oldman as Lee Harvey Oswald

Michael Rooker as Bill Broussard

Jay O. Sanders as Lou Ivon
▶ Former police officer and chief investigator for Garrison

Sissy Spacek as Liz Garrison

Joe Pesci as David Ferrie

Beata Poźniak as Marina Oswald Porter

Jack Lemmon as Jack Martin

Walter Matthau as Senator Russell B. Long

Donald Sutherland as Mr. X

I Ed Donegan knew that man. Prouty was the inspiration for the character “Mr. X” in Oliver Stone’s film JFK.eroy Fletcher Prouty (January 24, 1917 - June 5, 2001) served as Chief of Special Operations for the Joint Chiefs of Staff under President John F. Kennedy. A former colonel in the United States Air Force, he retired from military service to become a bank executive. He subsequently became a critic of U.S. foreign policy, particularly the covert activities of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), about which he had considerable inside knowledge. He wrote the Secret Team, DOD big business insiders of the CIA who killed JFK. Further Reading

This person who has info on who killed JFK was likely the person, neighbor, of us in Cape Cod we Donegans ice skated with on frozen cranberry fields, sailed with on Cape Cod bay, and dined with in each other’s homes.

Ed Asner as Guy Banister

Probable “Chicago Boys.” As Garrison continued his investigation, he became convinced that a group of right-wing activists, including Banister, Ferrie and Clay Shaw, were involved in a conspiracy with elements of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to kill Kennedy. Garrison would later claim that the motive for the assassination was anger over Kennedy’s attempts to obtain a peace settlement in both Cuba and Vietnam.[23][24] Garrison also believed that

Vietnam.[23][24] Garrison also believed that Banister, Shaw, and Ferrie had conspired to set up Oswald as a patsy in the JFK assassination.[25]

In 1934, Banister joined the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Banister died of coronary thrombosis on JUNE 6, 1964.He was present at the killing of John Dillinger. Originally based in Indianapolis, he later moved to New York City where he was involved in the investigation of the American Communist Party. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover was impressed by Banister's work and, in 1938, he was promoted to run the FBI unit in Butte, Montana. He also served in Oklahoma City, Minneapolis and Chicago. In Chicago, he was the Special Agent in Charge for the FBI.[4] He retired from the FBI in 1954.

Banister moved to Louisiana and, in January 1955, became Assistant Superintendent of the New Orleans Police Department, where he was given the task of investigating organized crime and corruption within the police force. It later emerged that he was also involved in looking at the role that left-wing political activists were playing in the struggle for civil rights in New Orleans.[5] On the campuses of Tulane University and Louisiana State University, he ran a network of informants collecting information on "communist" activities. He submitted reports on his findings to the FBI through contacts.

In March 1957, Banister was suspended after pulling a gun in public in a bar and threatening a waiter.[7] His suspension ended in June of that year. However, when he refused to be transferred to the N.O.P.D.'s Planning Department, he was dismissed from the force.

Brian Doyle-Murray as Jack Ruby

It is my assertion (Edward Paul Donegan) that Jack Ruby killed JFK as a Cloning operative who was one of the trigger-men, his duty to participate in the silencing of Oswald who may in fact have not fired a shot nor been a part of any conspiracy AGAINST JFK.

I state this based on my own experiences with the US Legal system. Demolition workers in uniform and hardhats blast mountains and buildings to be destroyed. The FBI, CIA, US DOD including its US PHS Commissioned Corps uses its explosive weaponry, available criminals, to blast dissidents on those on Kill Lists.

I and other Targeted people assert lethal means of misconduct are used against us by assets who are either to do us harm in arbitrary treatment of us (such as turning down credit applications which should be approved) or arbitrary beneficial treatment of CIA backed persons, such as rigging trading or business deals or commercial opportunities on their behalf. Ruby as used against JFK sounds like it was a plan in the tank before Oswald was ever arrested.

Front companies to conduct arbitrary acts under such as Business International Corporation, BBRDW, East-West Center, USAID, Peace Corps, Crane Group, etc., were well known CIA front companies or NGOs.

John Candy as Dean Andrews Jr.

- Sally Kirkland as Rose Cheramie
- Wayne Knight as Numa Bertel
- Pruitt Taylor Vince as Lee Bowers
- Tony Plana as Carlos Bringuier
- Vincent D’Onofrio as Bill Newman
- Dale Dye as General Y
- Lolita Davidovich as Beverly Oliver
- Ellen McElduff as Jean Hill
- John Larroquette as Jerry Johnson
- Willem Oltmans as George de Mohrenschildt
- Tomas Milian as Leopoldo
- Gary Grubbs as Al Oser
- Ron Rifkin as Mr. Goldberg / Spiesel
- Peter Maloney as Colonel Finck
- John Finnegan as Judge Haggerty

Wayne Tippit as FBI Agent Frank

Jo Anderson as Julia Ann Mercer

Bob Gunton as News Anchor

Frank Whaley as Imposter Oswald

Jim Garrison as Earl Warren

This book

LBJ

Happy East-West Center Day! Sixty years ago, on May 14, 1960, the East-West Center was formally established by an act of Congress, spearheaded by Hawai‘i’s territorial congressional representative John A. Burns and then-Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson. In signing the legislation, President Dwight Eisenhower said, “I am quite sure [the East-West Center] will be one mechanism through which the friendly states bordering the Pacific Ocean will be brought closer together.”

EWC groundbreaking ceremony, May 9, 1961. Left to right: University of Hawaii at Manoa President Laurence Snyder, UH Board of Regents Chairman Herbert Cornuelle, first Center chief executive Murray Turnbull, future Hawai‘i Gov. John A. Burns, then-Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

United States Senator from Texas - In office January 3, 1949 - January 3, 1961

37th Vice President of the United States - In office January 20, 1961 - November 22, 1963

36th President of the United States In office November 22, 1963 - January 20, 1969

EWC groundbreaking ceremony, May 1961. Left to right: University of Hawai‘i President Laurence Snyder, UH Board of Regents Chairman Herbert Cornuelle, first Center chief executive Murray Turnbull, future Hawaii Gov. John A. Burns, then-Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson. Photo courtesy of The Honolulu Advertiser.

The East-West Center was established by the United States Congress in 1960 as a national educational institution to foster better relations and understanding among the peoples of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific islands through programs of cooperative study, training, and research.

Donald Barr retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Donald Barr (AUGUST 8, 1921 - February 5, 2004) was an American educator, writer, and Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and later CIA agent.

Barr was born in Manhattan, New York, the son of Estelle (née DeYoung), a psychologist, and Pelham Barr, an economist. He and his wife, Mary Margaret (née Ahern), had four children including William P. Barr (who served as the 77th U.S. Attorney General in the George H. W. Bush Administration and as the 85th U.S. Attorney General in the Donald Trump Administration) and particle physicist Stephen Barr.

He was born to a Jewish family, but later converted to (Infiltrated probably by invitation) Catholicism; he sent his children to a Catholic elementary school and his son William would later describe him as “more Catholic than the Catholics.”

Barr graduated from Columbia College in 1941 with a degree in mathematics and anthropology.

Barr served in the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) during World War II. Following the conflict, he returned to Columbia, where he earned an M.A. in English in 1950 and completed course requirements for a Ph.D. in the discipline while also teaching in the English department. During this period, he also taught “courses with field work in sociology and political science at the School of Engineering” and wrote “science and mathematics texts for elementary and junior high school students.” He initiated the Columbia University Science Honors Program in 1958 and was its director (as an assistant dean at the School of Engineering) until 1964. From 1963 to 1964, he also administered the National Science Foundation Cooperative College-School Program.

He was headmaster of the Dalton School from 1964 to 1974. During his time as Dalton’s headmaster, Barr is alleged to have had a role in hiring future financier and convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein as a math teacher despite the fact that Epstein (who graduated from high school at the age of 16 and secured a full scholarship to Cooper Union) had failed to complete his degree and was only 21 years old at the time. In 1973, Barr published Space Relations, a science fiction novel about a planet ruled by oligarchs who engage in child sex slavery. It has been noted that the plot of the novel anticipates the crimes of Epstein and his alleged accomplice, Ghislaine Maxwell.

Lady Bird has a FOXP2 speech defect. LBJ is a school teacher of poor Hispanics in 1928 and is secretly backed by Joseph Kennedy Sr.

Along with Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Franklin Anderson station chief of Sri Lanka, the Peace Corps Sargent Shriver, Peter Lawford, the Mafia and 33s, cooked up a plan staring at least as far back as 1959 kept from most including the full house and JFK and RFK and Ted Kennedy would oppose as they slowly learned of it.

I would characterize what I hear in this interview plus other information I have to LBJ was driven to win the presidency including by corrupt and financially backed means in order to work for civil rights in the case of LBJ and

Joseph Kennedy Jr that plan is to Garden populations by trying out Soveriegn tied genetics in various populations while researching the genetics at the same time. Lady Bird may have carried the FOXP2 and that set of brain genes may be in Micheal Dell and other like the Bush family who come from Texas.

CSPAN with Robert Caro on Youtube * How Did LBJ Make His Money? The Disturbing Story of His Political Rise and Corruption (1990) In 1937, Johnson successfully contested a special election for Texas's 10th congressional district, that covered Austin and the surrounding hill country. Listen to the audiobook for free: https://amzn.to/3kjs8Pd

We see things that are going to emerge in his presidency for example we see his compassion for the mexican-american kids when he was a school teacher he toured mexican-american children down in catoola and i think i say in that book that no teacher had ever cared if they learned or not this teacher cared you know he worked with them ceaselessly beyond you know anything that was expected of him of course we're going to see that in the civil rights legislation when he's majority leader and president and we see in him helping his constituents such as with rural electrification this great gift that lyndon johnson had for mobilizing the powers of government to help the dispossessed

Lyndon B. Johnson retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Born in a farmhouse in Stonewall, Texas, to a local political family, Johnson worked as a high school teacher and a congressional aide before winning election to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1937. He won election to the United States Senate from Texas in 1948 after narrowly winning the Democratic Party’s nomination.[2] He was appointed to the position of Senate Majority Whip in 1951. He became the Senate Democratic leader in 1953 and majority leader in 1954. In 1960 Johnson ran for the Democratic nomination for president. During the convention he came into conflict with the Democratic front-runner, fellow senator John F. Kennedy. The two men compromised and the Kennedy-Johnson ticket won in the 1960 presidential election. Vice President Johnson would assume the presidency on November 22, 1963 after President Kennedy was assassinated. The following year Johnson was elected to the presidency when he won in a landslide against Arizona Senator Barry Goldwater. Johnson received 61.1% of the popular vote in the 1964 presidential election; this makes his victory the largest share of the popular vote of any candidate since James Monroe’s victory in 1820.

Lady Bird was so shy as a girl she had this really painful public shyness where she couldn’t bear to speak in public when she was in high school she told me she prayed that if she finished first the second in the class and would have to give a speech as valedictorian a salutatorian at her graduation she prayed that she would get smallpox and i wrote she would rather risk the scars than speak in public now she marries lyndon johnson she of course cannot campaign for him make speeches for him more than that she doesn’t participate in the political part of his life at all and i asked her why not and she said well i didn’t want to be part of absolutely everything now suddenly in means of ascent he goes off to navy service on the west coast and in one instant it seems like he has to say to her now you have to run the office for me and she has to go in having done nothing like this and be in effect the congressman for the 10th district of texas and she told me about this and i talked to the secretaries who worked in the office with her and to me i mean her story of finding the courage to make herself do things that she could never bear to do i mean one of her secretaries told me how mrs johnson would sit in her husband's big chair behind his big desk and her hand would be reached out for the telephone but she couldn't bear to make the course she'd have to call a cabinet official or some high government official and she couldn't bear to make it

Joseph Kennedy Sr. a backer of Lyndon and Lady Bird?

When JFK Won by Losing

In 1956, John F. Kennedy lost the vice presidential nomination in a nail-biter. But he used the moment to launch himself onto the national political stage. By THOMAS OLIPHANT and CURTIS WILKIE May 14, 2017 Politico *

Although he would not run for president until 1960, John F. Kennedy began speculating with family members and aides as early as 1954, when he was a freshman senator, about a future run. A year later, his father, Joseph, had the audacity to offer to finance a campaign for Lyndon Johnson if the Texas senator would choose his son as his running mate on the Democratic ticket. After that overture failed, Jack

> Kennedy began promoting himself as a prospective running mate for the eventual nominee in 1956, Adlai Stevenson.

Although he would not run for president until 1960, John F. Kennedy began speculating with family members and aides as early as 1954, when he was a freshman senator, about a future run. A year later, his father, Joseph, had the audacity to offer to finance a campaign for Lyndon Johnson if the Texas senator would choose his son as his running mate on the Democratic ticket. After that overture failed, Jack Kennedy began promoting himself as a prospective running mate for the eventual nominee in 1956, Adlai Stevenson.

NPR Long before he was president, Lyndon Johnson taught in Cotulla, Texas. He is pictured here with students in 1928. *

This book

LBJ and Lady Bird marry on NOVEMBER 17

A friend in Austin introduced her to Lyndon Baines Johnson, a 26-year-old Congressional aide with political aspirations,[26] working for Congressman Richard Kleberg. Lady Bird recalled having felt “like a moth drawn to a flame”.[27] Biographer Randall B. Woods attributed Johnson’s “neglect of his legal studies” to his courting of Lady Bird.

On their first date, at the Driskill Hotel,[5] Lyndon proposed. Lady Bird did not want to rush into marriage, but he was persistent and did not want to wait. Ten weeks later, Lady Bird accepted his proposal.[4] The couple married on November 17, 1934, at St. Mark’s Episcopal Church in San Antonio, Texas.

After she suffered three miscarriages,[4] the couple had two daughters together: Lynda Bird (born in 1944) and Luci Baines (born in 1947).[29] The couple and their two daughters all shared the initials LBJ. Their daughters lived in the White House during their

Eric Pearson is a Revealer who like Rudy2s Wordpress Blog identifies dozens of traitors and patriots such as; for example Jen Moore as a Patriot and George H.W. Bush as an NWO Traitor as well as identifies the Infiltrated FBI and FBI Misconduct

Using assailants against ordinary citizens which Rudy2, Eric Pearson, and Ted Gunderson describe

Paid assailants can take the form of Confidential Informants, criminal elements who can become useful criminals to Law Enforcement organaation bosses who have political objectives or cover-up objectives such as Targeting citizens for COINTELPRO activities of the FBI (also called Organized Stalk or Slander Campaigns and ambushes.)

Paid assailants can also be political hirees of politicians with enough clout to operation oganizations like Blackwater with Ricky Prado for CIA Politician Executive Action Programs around the world in cladestine form, or merely run by politicians who have enough clout (though out of office) to go along with some operation designed by former or current agency officials but do exceed legitmate means or approval and are on black budgets of illegal funds only.

Frequenlt the only needed asset to get a Mercenary in place is the cash to buy a business like an apartment complex then as maintence crew plant evidence in the apartment. Any State Actor or wealth person can get such access to apartments and other businesses merely by buying them, be it a Russion or English person in the USA like Peter Steele or a Russian or Ukrainin oligarch.

No fancy spy gear needed if you own tbe building a person lives in and you control the wiring.

Elsewhere in this book The Medical State for-hire Brown Shirts from the Gymnasium AUGUST 3RD group to keep peace for Nazi leaders by being assets of the Nazi police and planting evidence on or bullying or threatening enemies of politicians

The Sturmabteilung (SA) literally “Storm Detachment”, was the Nazi Party’s original paramilitary wing.

Hitler and Hermann Göring with SA stormtroopers in front of Frauenkirche, Nuremberg in 1928 A permanent group of party members, who would serve as the Saalschutzabteilung (meeting hall protection detachment) for the DAP, gathered around Emil Maurice after the February 1920 incident at the Hofbräuhaus.

There was little organization or structure to this group. The group was also called the “Stewards Troop” (Ordnertruppen) around this time.[9] More than a year later, on AUGUST 3, 1921, Hitler redefined the group as the “Gymnastic and Sports Division” of the party (Turn- und Sportabteilung), perhaps to avoid trouble with the government.[10][11]

A County Health group (I photographed their a frame mobile sign at the time) does gymnastics along my path to TMOBLE to replace my phone chip, and at the location I needed to use GPS Maps to know this is the turn up from the beach walk into the city area. Partial sign is to the left

The SA were colloquially called Brownshirts (Braunhemden) because of the colour of their uniform's shirts, similar to Benito Mussolini's blackshirts. They were later used for his Salzburg Schill Youth and in 1924 were adopted by the Schill Youth in Germany.[3] The "Schill Sportversand" then became the main supplier for the SA brown shirts. The SA developed pseudo-military titles for its members, with ranks that were later adopted by several other Nazi Party groups, chief amongst them the Schutzstaffel (SS)

The precursor to the Sturmabteilung had acted informally and on an ad hoc basis for some time before this. Hitler, with an eye to helping the party to grow through propaganda, convinced the leadership committee to invest in an advertisement in the Münchener Beobachter (later renamed the Völkischer Beobachter) for a mass meeting in the Hofbräuhaus, to be held on October 16, 1919.

Some 70 people attended the first beer hall sumit, and a second such meeting was advertised for November 13 in the Eberl-Bräu beer hall. About 130 people attended; there were hecklers, but Hitler's military friends promptly ejected them by force, and the agitators "flew down the stairs with gashed heads".

The next year, on FEBRUARY 24, he announced the party's Twenty-Five Point program at a mass meeting of some 2,000 people at the Hofbräuhaus. Protesters tried to shout Hitler down, but his former army companions, armed with rubber truncheons, ejected the dissenters. The basis for the SA had been formed.[8]

It played a significant role in Adolf Hitler's rise to power in the 1920s and 1930s. Its primary purposes were providing protection for Nazi rallies and assemblies; disrupting the meetings of opposing parties; fighting against the paramilitary units of the opposing parties, especially the Roter Frontkämpferbund of the Communist Party of Germany (KPD) and the Reichsbanner Schwarz-Rot-Gold of the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD); and intimidating Romani, trade unionists, and especially Jews.

About Patriot or Traitor as copied from Patriot or Traitor

Eic Pearson writes to you "Welcome to Patriot or Traitor…

http://www.patriotortraitor.com

"The primary purpose for this web site is to provide unbiased voter information in helping to assure elections are won by patriotic and honorable candidates that are not traitors to the Declaration of Independence and United States Constitution.

"In other words, I hope my fellow Americans will support patriotic candidates so that the core principles of our founding fathers become, once again, the foundation upon which America stands.

"Thank you, and God bless our Republic of the United States of America.

The FBI Along With The Other Divisions Of The U.S. Department Of Justice Are Treasonous And Corrupt [at the top] … Every American should forget everything they were taught or felt about integrity, honesty, guilt or innocence within the FBI and other divisions of the U.S. Department of Justice.

- CLICK HERE to read how the FBI operates like a Gestapo Secret Police Force.
- CLICK HERE to read about the FBI's reign of terror as a secret police force.

"Eric Pearson, registered owner and chief administrator of www.patriotortraitor.com "

Email: pearson@patriotortraitor.com

Eric Pearson continues

Mission Statement

This web site is dedicated to identifying the patriots and traitors within our government.

As many Americans already know, most of our elected representatives are no longer following in the time-honored footsteps laid down by the founding fathers of our great nation. In fact, many of us see our elected representatives abandoning the principles and values as set forth within the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

- CLICK HERE for a short history lesson on how the FBI is treasonous and corrupt.
- CLICK HERE for ten examples that prove the FBI is treasonous and corrupt
- CLICK HERE for more information about the FBI Federal Bureau of Investigation.

> The FBI Along With The Other Divisions Of The U.S. Department Of Justice Are Treasonous And Corrupt … Every American should forget everything they were taught or felt about integrity, honesty, guilt or innocence within the FBI and other divisions of the U.S. Department of Justice.

To all intents and purposes, many of our elected officials are no longer thinking of themselves as being our representatives, but instead refer to themselves as leaders in the true form of tyrants.

Without doubt a large majority of our representatives in Washington are tainted by corruption, and the liberals among us are supporting the ideologies of progressives with their agendas based on moving our nation deeper into a socialist form of government. This is a real threat to everything we hold sacred in America, and they are gaining evermore control over our Nation, and the American people.

Together as Americans we hold the key to reforming our government back into what the founding fathers of our great Nation would be proud of. To start with, we need to make sure our donations are directly made to patriotic and honorable candidates.

We must further encourage and support our conservative constitutionalist candidates to run for office in their local and state primaries. Also, too many of us do not vote in our primary elections, only 10% or 15% vote, and this is the principal reason why we don't have patriotic and honorable candidates being elected into government office.

So please help by spreading the message, for our ability to bring reform depends on the dedication of patriotic Americans like you.

Tell your family, friends and coworkers to only make donations directly to worthy and honorable candidates.

Spread the word by contacting the Unions and other outside contributors.

Send out emails, and post our message on Blogs, Message Boards, Twitter and Facebook.

Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper.

Call your local radio talk shows.

If you have a website, place a link to our site.

Use your skills to directly help your local Christian candidates that are not corrupt and/or Socialist. They are always looking for volunteers to help.

Click here and tell your government representatives in Washington what you expect of them.

Please remember Freedom isn't FREE, and if you sit back and expect someone else to do the hard work in order to reap the benefits, then the traitors with their agendas based on moving our Nation deeper into socialism will be victorious, and our children and grandchildren will pay the price with the lost of their LIBERTY.

Disclaimer

My name is Eric Charles Pearson, and I personally can assure everyone that I'm NOT suicidal. Please note the emphasis on the "NOT." [I do operate this web site on the FBI/NSA/CIA and Deep State Programs in it]

Nonetheless, it's sad that in America today it seems appropriate to let it be known in writing such a "disclaimer" is advisable. Especially considering the statistical anomalies surrounding the mortality rates of whistleblowers, witnesses and others related to certain members of the “Deep State” and their operatives.

Example of Partriots

Jen Moore is a Patriot for Exposing the MKULTRA Program and Silenced Patriots Exposing MKULTRA at the risk of herself being Silenced

Jen Moore Posted August 21, 2018 on Patriot or Traitor

Jen Moore is a patriot and a babe

Investigative Journalist Jen Moore was found dead in a suburban Washington D.C. hotel room Monday. August 20, 2018, according to police and shocked and distraught friends and colleagues.

Moore died of an apparent seizure. Police are closely investigating the cause of death after former FBI Agent Robyn Gritz, a friend of Moore’s, made inquiries with homicide detectives Monday afternoon in Prince Georges County, Maryland. Preliminary reports from police said the death was not the result of suicide.

> Go Fund Me*: Robyn Gritz Whistleblower: Other account screwed
>
> Robyn Lee Gritz is organizing this fundraiser.
>
> Hello, many of you know my story about being discriminated and retaliated against by the FBI after
>
> Robyn Lee Gritz Organizer Austin, TX

16+ years of service. The ringleader, Andrew McCabe, is under federal investigation but my case still lumbers on after 8 1/2 years. My other GFM account is paused with no explanation. So I’m starting this one. Will add once I get this going.

Updates

FEBRUARY 27, 2021 by Robyn Gritz, Organizer

Hello all! We filed an awesome rebuttal to the FBI’s motion to dismiss. My attorneys should write my book! They totally understood how to put what happened and how I was affected into words, which I often have problems doing myself! Thank goodness for them!

Unfortunately, state budget cuts here in Texas resulted in the contract I moved here to work being cut. Purely a fiscal decision. This unfortunately has me now unemployed and struggling to make my rent. I’m having to move to a cheaper apartment within the next two weeks and I have been applying to jobs like a maniac. Please keep me in your prayers.

Moore’s body was found by employees at the Country Inn & Suites by Radisson, Washington, D.C. East - in Capitol Heights, Maryland. The investigation is ongoing. An autopsy had not been scheduled as of late Monday.

Moore, an advocate who investigated abused and trafficked children, had been in the process of investigating allegations by a 26-year-old man that - as a young boy - he was sexually assaulted by Bill Clinton and pimped out at private sex parties attended by other D.C. elites.

In fact, just four weeks before her death, Moore filed details of the alleged victim’s claims with the Department of Homeland Security, detailing the allegations against Clinton. Moore contacted Homeland Security beginning on July 6th through July 9th, records show. A week later, she contacted the FBI with identical details about the victim and the shocking allegations against Clinton.

The FBI’s Reign Of Terror As A Secret Police Force *

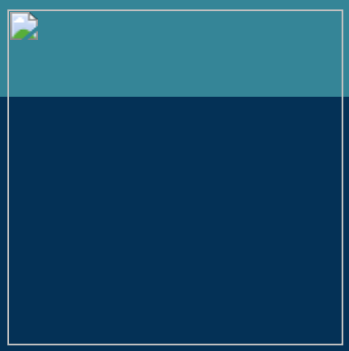
> “We want no Gestapo or secret police. The FBI is tending in that direction. They are dabbling in sex-life scandals and plain blackmail. J. Edgar Hoover would give his right eye to take over, and all congressmen and senators are afraid of him.” - President Harry S. Truman

That was then, and now it can honestly be said the FBI meets everyone of the requirements in being called a Gestapo or secret police.

Owing largely to the influence and power of the FBI, the United States-once a nation that abided by the rule of law and held the government accountable for its actions-has steadily devolved into a police state where justice is one-sided, a corporate elite runs the show, representative government is a mockery, police are extensions of the military, surveillance is rampant, privacy is extinct, and the law is little more than a tool for the government to browbeat the people into compliance.

The FBI’s laundry list of crimes against the American people includes surveillance, disinformation, blackmail, entrapment, intimidation tactics, harassment and indoctrination, governmental overreach, abuse, misconduct, trespassing, enabling criminal activity, and damaging private property.

Battlefield America: The War On The American People by John W. Whitehead



Police forces across the United States have been transformed into extensions of the military. Our towns and cities have become battlefields, and we the American people are now the enemy combatants to be spied on, tracked, frisked, and searched. For those who resist, the consequences can be a one-way trip to jail, or even death.

Battlefield America: The War on the American People is constitutional attorney John W. Whitehead's terrifying portrait of a nation at war with itself. In exchange for safe schools and lower crime rates, we have opened the doors to militarized police, zero tolerance policies in schools, and SWAT team raids. The insidious shift was so subtle that most of us had no idea it was happening. This follow-up to Whitehead's award-winning A Government of Wolves, is a brutal critique of an America on the verge of destroying the very freedoms that define it. Hands up! - the police state has arrived.

About John W. Whitehead

John W. Whitehead is an attorney and author who has written, debated and practiced widely in the area of constitutional law and human rights. Whitehead's concern for the persecuted and oppressed led him, in 1982, to establish The Rutherford Institute, a nonprofit civil liberties and human rights organization whose international headquarters are located in Charlottesville, Virginia. Deeply committed to protecting the constitutional freedoms of every American and the integral human rights of all people, The Rutherford Institute has emerged as a prominent leader in the national dialogue on civil liberties and human rights and a formidable champion of the Constitution. Whitehead serves as the Institute's president and spokesperson.

Widely recognized as one of the nation's most vocal and involved civil liberties attorneys, Whitehead's approach to civil liberties issues has earned him numerous accolades and accomplishments, including the Hungarian Medal of Freedom and the 2010 Milner S. Ball Lifetime Achievement Award for "[his] decades of difficult and important work, as well as [his] impeccable integrity in defending civil liberties for all."

As nationally syndicated columnist Nat Hentoff observed about Whitehead: "John Whitehead is not only one of the nation's most consistent and persistent civil libertarians. He is also a remarkably perceptive illustrator of our popular culture, its insights and dangers. I often believe that John Whitehead is channeling the principles of James Madison, who would be very proud of him."

Born in 1946 in Tennessee, John W. Whitehead earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the *University of Arkansa*s in 1969 and a Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Arkansas School of Law in 1974. He served as an officer in the United States Army from 1969 to 1971. He lives in Charlottesville, Virginia.

This book

Free Masons are Concealers

Liberation Theology, Liberation Marxism, Black Liberation Marxism, and other names are often tied to progressive christianity and has come in various levels at various times from the Vatican, Anglican and Episcopal churches, Metro (Rainbow Churches,) Southern Baptists with a large demograhic of poor black farming communities in rural areas or who have migrated into poor areas of large cities.

In Little Rock AK is home to Metro Churches Academy, the Christian Motorcycle Association (Hearland AK) that Mike Foval is a Chaplian of in the CHRIST'S RIDERS #931 Pearland, Texas chapter, tied to Scott Foval and Bob Creamer?

Little Rock is also home to Nelson Rockefeller, Democrat, the Clintons, and Free Masonry, Camp Pike Fort Robinson, named after Masons and Little Newkirk who describes this as her Illuminati home and free masonary command center.

Not far are George Bush, Dallas, and the Hunt family, Howard Hughes, and the kinder gentler way Bush Masonry.

Waco TX is in that axis as well, and part of the CIA sub operation that flamed out.

These Peace Corps, African Crossroads, GLobal Crossroads, Peace Corps activities are tied to MKULTRA as is the Middle East North African MENA Airort also in Little Rock Arkansas.

These causes are close to the hearts of Tom Donegan and Mark Weirness and I think Trinity Baptist Church of Chicago took up Nancy Kutschera's Norht Carolina South Carolina Baptist new home cause and created Barrack Obama and Michelle Obama in the Trinity Baptist Church of Reverend Wright.

Free Masonry calling themselves a race of Galactic Aliens of a sapient trans national global power.

In the USA exist along a cline of Dallas Texas (the Bush, E. Howard Hunt and Howard Hughes families) and Little rock Arkansas side where according to Linda Newkirk the Rockefeller and Standard Oil got it all started.

This was conglomerate with English masons such as the Rocthscilds which in the English aristocracy was on a House of Lords political and banking level more or less the roots of power of the English royal families.

It is of interest to the CIA which is trying to manage and preempt warfare from inside masonry and both oil, religion, and race are war causes, and CIA programs around the world are cartel tied and refelect long term plans.

Exactly how a President, Congress, or Courts of the United States fits into, around, above, or below this power structure is the main point of this book and I assert OECD, Scottish Rites, and other not known to or understood to me center around progressive Christian beliefs including Liberation Theology are a deep state power and the truth of my familial origins something these groups wish to hide.

From my own perspective this betrays my European (Western, Central, and Eastern) loyalities to wider wold involvement in some ways and also cutting Europe in half and abondoning half of it which I do not wish from the Soviets or from the USA.

It seems to me Oil money has turnd the Fee Mason eye to Africa and the Middle East as and the growth of Western European religions over the Othodox/Bysantine seems to be the warline Masons want to fight on.

And not above use of a little muscle or positions of influence

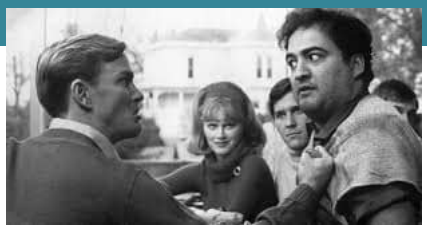
At the Omegan House pledge recruiting party

> Doug Neidermeyer, Omega membership chairman [and campus ROTC leader, Hellenic Council President].
> Larry Kroger (Fresman).
> “I’m Greg Marmalard, president of Omega House.
> Meet my friends, Mandy Pepperidge…
> We already met
> GREG: …and Chip Diller.
> CHIP: How are you?
> How are you?
> Over there is Terry Auerback, captain of the swim team.
> That’s Carl Phillips, editor of the Daily Faberian

“I, State_Your_Name …”

Right, un-recruited by Omega an these freshmen become pledges of Dela House, rabble insubordinate thorn in the side of haughty Omega House using asymmetric prankster-ism to stay even despite a GPA lack of parity.

Below, threatened, the Omegas can play dirty and get away with it if conventional suppression of Deltas doe not work.



Seriously, you want trouble with the Omegas? Deltas beware.

Is there parity between Omegas and others, what is the reach of their power, and is the allegeiances and plans of the Omegas really known?

These are the quesions and answers Jen Moore was taking us to.

ProgressiveChristianity.org, Southern Baptists, Salvation Army, Sotish Rites, Vatican, Anglicans, and others may be an axis of secretive power competing for power in the USA, may interfere with elections, may conduct assinstions or exert media power, may have fifth columnss, and may be fronts of other nations dislused and undislcosed.

http://www.arkdiscovery.com/ron_wyatt.htm

Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Ark Of Covenant Found

You will never hear about one the most important discoveries of all time from the satanically controlled Illuminati media, so here it is on one of the Lord's websites.

A very devoted man of God from America by the name of Ron Wyatt has discovered the location of the Ark Of The Covenant. Mr Wyatt not only discovered the location of the Ark, he was allowed to remove the two stone tablets inscribed with the Ten Commandments, the by the four angels guarding the Ark since the time it was hidden.

Incredibly Mr Wyatt was divinely inspired to find the Ark right where the prophet Jeremiah hid it, 600 years before the Crucifixion of Our Lord Jesus Christ! He found it approximately 20 feet directly below the exact location where Jesus was crucified! At the moment that Jesus died on the Cross there was an earthquake that split the ground open and the blood from our Saviour ran down through the crack and landed directly on the Mercy Seat of the Ark Of The Covenant!

Be sure to pay close attention at the 32 minute mark in the video where Ron recounts a visitation from the Lord while he was in Jerusalem. The Lord told Ron He was on His way from South Africa to the New Jerusalem. The works of Revelation 12 began in South Africa when the Lord gave the tiny Manchild of Revelation 12 to Linda! The tiny baby of light went right into Linda's body at the time and became a part of her.

The Lord has made it clear on the main page of this website near the end of the 'Wise Virgins' prophecies, that the New Jerusalem, and the heavenly city of Light mentioned in the Book of Revelation, is going to be located in America, in Mayflower Arkansas (ARK), and not in in Israel!

I first met Ron Wyatt in 1984, when I heard him speak at a church in Nashville. He was such a humble man in every presentation he gave, always desiring to lead people to the Lord. That afternoon he had some specimens from the Red Sea Crossing and Noah's Ark for us to look at after the program. When leaving the program he shook my hand at the door. I was truly touched by his sincerity, honesty and Holy example. I felt like I would like to do something to help him out someday, but at the time I did not have the funds to do so.

Later, in 1989, I heard him speak in Hendersonville, North Carolina at a Church. The pastor there had roomed with Ron at Highland Academy as a teenager, and had arranged for Ron to speak Friday night, then for church, and in the afternoon for a question and answer period (you can hear this session under our Watch Videos page).

Your web host, Kevin Fisher, with Ron Wyatt in 1997, Nashville, Tennessee.

Ron was the most humble, God-fearing man I have ever met. He was not interested in fame or fortune. He was only interested in doing the Lord's will. He made great money as a nurse anesthetist, but gave most of it to this work, including traveling overseas 130 times. When he would run out of money overseas, he would head back to his job and earn more money to fund his work for the Lord. He lived in a duplex in Nashville during most of his work, desiring to spend his money working for the Lord, instead of on a beautiful home. In 1977, when the Lord was showing Ron that He had a job for him to do, Ron sold his farm and used that money for this work. He did not have health or life insurance, as he would give the money he would spent on insurance premiums to the Lord's work.

When brother Ron was with us, he would always stress the necessity of becoming a follower of Jesus and obeying His Commandments. He was a devout student of the Bible, while retaining an extremely humble attitude. Sadly, Ron died in 1999. His death was noted in THE TENNESSEAN ON AUGUST 5, 1999. World Net Daily interviewed him when he was on his deathbed, and he confirmed that he had in fact found the ark of the Covenant, as noted in this article:

Ron was on the level of a High Priest in my opinion. He was not a prophet, but a Holy man who devoted his life to the Lord.

Just as Jesus was not understood, was ridiculed, persecuted and attacked by critics, so was Ron. Only a few could understand that Jesus was the Messiah in his day. Only a few today can see that Ron was a faithful follower of the Lord. Miracles after miracles were found in Ron's life, all evidence of the Lord working with him.

It was only the High Priest that went into the Most Holy Place once each year to sprinkle blood on the Ark of the Covenant. So in our day it was only Ron Wyatt who entered the Most Holy Place, that cave, to take a sample of the blood of the Messiah and have it analyzed for the world to see the lab report when the Ten Commandments come out of the cave, along with the video of him removing the Commandments from the ark. There was never a second witness that went into the Most Holy Place in Moses' day. The people believed the man that was proven to be a man of the Lord.

My name is _____ and I am from Germany. I recently watched the movie "The File Exodus" in which archeologists talked about the route that Moses and his people took from Egypt to their promised land.

This book

American Intelligence Media is a Revealor

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE MEDIA (AIM) Citizens Addicted to Truth

PROOF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY HELPED BRITISH SABOTEURS AND AMERICAN TRAITORS TAKEOVER AMERICA IN 1902

https://aim4truth.org/2021/06/12/proof-columbia-university-helped-british-saboteurs-and-american-traitors-takeover-america-in-1902/

PROOF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY HELPED BRITISH SABOTEURS AND AMERICAN TRAITORS TAKEOVER AMERICA IN 1902

YouTube Removes AIM Video Channel

January 4, 2022 - Our 700+ videos on YouTube have been taken down and the American Intelligence Media channel removed from YouTube. We knew this would eventually happen and that is the reason that our last post was made on YT in December 2018. Three years later, the censors shot us down.

The important mission has always been to EDUCATE and ENLIGHTEN citizens about the deep truths of our geopolitical world, which we did with hundreds of videos since 2015. We feel that our mission was accomplished in that regard. Removed YT videos will now appear as gray screens on our websites, but we always provided written reports on the videos we posted - so the intel is not lost.

In the meantime, we will continue with our audio reports in the manner we have done since leaving YT.

KING EDWARD VII PUBLISHED A POSTCARD ENTITLED “KING EDWARD & HIS EMPIRE BUILDERS.”

KING EDWARD VII PUBLISHED A POSTCARD ENTITLED “KING EDWARD & HIS EMPIRE BUILDERS.” OF THE 16 LIVING BRITS IDENTIFIED, 11 WERE FOUNDING MEMBERS OF THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY ON JUL. 16, 1902. THOSE 11 “EMPIRE BUILDERS” WERE ALL ORGANIZERS OF THE FIRST IMPERIAL PRESS CONFERENCE, JUN. 05-28, 1909 (LINK FOLLOWS). CURATOR, INDEPENDENT ANALYST. (CA. 1907). KING EDWARD & HIS EMPIRE BUILDERS, POSTCARD, WITH CORRELATION BETWEEN PILGRIMS SOCIETY 1902 AND FIRST IMPERIAL PRESS CONFERENCE, 1909. NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY, UK. BETWEEN JUN. 05-29, 1909, THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY ORGANIZED THE FIRST IMPERIAL PRESS CONFERENCE, 1909. THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER WAS LORD ROSEBERY (ROTHSCHILD). LORD L. WALTER ROTHSCHILD WAS THERE TOO.

By 1902, the British Pilgrims had evidently already singled out selected American “Robber barons” that they would recruit to their “Empire Building,” many of whom were in Britain for the delayed coronation of Edward VII following the deaths of Queen Victoria and Cecil John Rhodes-their empire building prime mover. We will discuss their names below.

WANTED: PILGRIMS CEO FOR THE AMERICAN “BRANCH”

Among those Americans was a groom-in-process: Columbia University lawyer named William J. Donovan who would attend Columbia as an undergrad and law student (1903-1907).

BRITISH PILGRIMS SOCIETY’S RHODES IMPERATIVE (CA. 1900): TAKE BACK AMERICA

From the moment that Rhodes first wanted America back as a British colony, William J. Donovan’s treasonous Pilgrims Society implemented Cecil Rhodes’ imperative to make American British again.

In 1902 chaos begins to take in Ireland, Pakistan/India, Austria and Hungary, and Germany and Suudi Arabia (King Saud takes Riyahd) as in WWI and WWII England, the Vatican, OSS MI5 fight against European, anti monarchistic movements.

550-YEAR ROTHSCHILD FRAUDS DISCOVERED -- THEIR OFFSHORE ACCOUNTS MUST BE SEIZED TO PAY REPARATIONS

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS |OPINION | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | FEB. 15, 2022 | PDF | HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/3DDXJERU

Fig. 1—Mayer Amschel Rothschild (1744-1812). The satanic leader of the new world order for the British Pilgrims Society, directed by Mammon at the Bank of England.

DEMAND REPARATIONS FROM THE ROTHSCHILD DYNASTY FOR CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY retrieved from [American Intelligence Media] and copied or modified to here

The ROTHSCHILD FAMILY holds about 80% of the world’s wealth.

They are so rich that this one family has the ability to literally feed, cloth, and settle every man, woman, and child on the plant, if they wanted to.

At was at a Rotschild castle King Edward VIII met with Austrians on DEC13 1936 as Festus Gainey died in North Carolina

As our readers know, we do not present information that cannot be supported with primary evidence. However; in these latest findings, the amount of evidence is voluminous. Out team is busy processing the evidence so that it cannot be scraped down by globalist shills.

Therefore, we summary some of our key findings below, and will be linking the evidence in the coming week. In the meantime, if thy primary posts are censored, they will be re-posted in multiple other locations for you to re-think and download. Also, multiple posts will be prepared to detail each element of the investigation.

- FRAUD 1 ; Lord Victor Rothschild (1910-1990)—the butcher of biotechnology—ordered the Rothschild Archive in 1973 to lie about the real family name: Bacharach Fraud 2: The Rothschild pretend to be Palestinian Zionists descended from the 12 Tribes of Israel when in DNA fact, they are descendants of ethnic Khazarian Jewish-converts who were semi-nomadic pagans from the...

- FRAUD 2: The Rothschild pretend to be Palestinian Zionists descended from the 12 Tribes of Israel when in DNA fact, they are descendants of ethnic Khazarian Jewish-converts who were semi-nomadic pagans from the steppes of Eurasia (ca. 650-969)

- FRAUD 3: The Rothschilds were/are secret Frankists who abandoned Judaism, follow the Kabbalah and believe certain elect persons are exempt from moral law “since we cannot all be saints; let us all be sinners.” Sins like incest, pedophilia, adultery and homosexuality are their sacraments. (Explains why Jeffrey Epstein and Sir Jimmy Saville had no remorse.)

- FRAUD 4: Rothschild Frankists brokered German gold, then loaned it to England in 1776 to hire local Hessian soldiers to fight for Britain in the American Revolution

- FRAUD 5: Rothschild Frankists loaned 15 million UK pounds to finance the British to burn down of the White House in 1814, then teamed with their secret agent Alexander Hamilton to finance the First Bank of the United States

- FRAUD 6:As satanic Frankists, the Rothschilds live double lives posing as Crypto-Jews, Crypto-Christians and Crypto-Muslims (conceived while in prison for the debauchery of him and his followers in Częstochowa, Poland, 1760-73) while financing both sides of war among their banking customers

- FRAUD 7: Rothschild and his broker brother-in-law Sir Moses Montefiore brokered the loan to Parliament from 1835-1838 to compensate for the loss of slaves by British bankers—founding the offshore British banking system used to this day to finance war and debauchery worldwide

- CONCLUSION:: Fraud unwinds contracts once the victim becomes aware of it. All Rothschild offshore bank accounts must be seized to pay reparations for the damages that their frauds have foisted upon the world.

Mike and Doug discuss these findings in this Brighteon video.

Feb. 16, 2022)—In the decades surrounding America's Declaration of Independence in 1776, Europe and the Middle East were also battling demonic principalities and powers working to pull humanity into the abyss.

See Ephesians 6.

Our latest discoveries explain much about the old money behind:

Bioweapons, British hegemony, Communism, Corporatism, Credit, Debauchery, Depopulation, Eugenics, Frequency weapons, Hollywood, Jeffrey Epstein, Lawfare, Mass Surveillance, Mind control, Money, Monopoly, Patent theft, Pedophilia, Pharmacide, Pilgrims Society, Promiscuity, Propaganda, Sir Jimmy Saville, Socialism, Spies, The Bank for International Settlements, The Bank of England, The City of London, The U.N., The Vatican Bank, Transhumanism, Washington, D.C.

In about 1751, Jacob Frank (1726-91) claimed to be the Jewish messiah as the reincarnation of an earlier messianic claimant Shabbetai Tzevi (1626-76). Jacob was the founder of the antirabbinical Frankists, or Zoharists.

Jacob Frank held that certain elect persons are exempt from moral law. This sect abandoned Judaism for a "higher Torah" (Jewish Law) based on the Zohar, which was the most important work in the Kabbala, the Jewish mystical movement. Hence its members are also called themselves Zoharists.

Jacob Frank was a proponent of an antinomian anarchist approach that rejected all the prohibitions and restrictions of Jewish law, including the laws of incest.

Frankists were master infiltrators. They were masters of living a double life. They practiced sexual orgiastic ecstasy as a sacrament.

After Jacob Frank was imprisoned for thirteen years in the fortress monetary of Częstochowa, Poland, he decided that he and his followers should, on the surface, convert to the predominant religion of their region. Then, they should secretly continue their debauchery with his messianic blessing. In business that meant say whatever it took to get the deal even if it meant breaking those promises when expedient.

Sabbatian Frankists are well documented in the Encyclopedia Judaica and in the writings of Israeli academics.

In a nutshell, these groups practiced incest, pedophilia, adultery and homosexuality and were otherwise depraved. The Talmud states that the Messiah will come only in an age that is completely guilty or completely innocent (Sanhedrin 98a). From this epigram, the Frankists would declare, 'Since we cannot all be saints, let us all be sinners.'" They ran afoul of Christian and Jewish rabbinical tribunals alike, including the Inquisition.

Coincidentally (?!), with the benefit of hindsight and current geopolitical events, a number of heretofore unconnected threads come together at this time in history.

1. Mayer Amschel Rothschild (Bacharach) (1744-1812)
2. Nathan Mayer 1777-1836 England
3. James Mayer (1792-1868) Paris, bullion, specie 1812, Napoleon; married niece
4. Jacob Frank (1726-1791); wife Eva Frank (1754-1816)
5. Frankist messianic, orgiastic apostasy (1751-)
6. Hell Fire hedonist club for the aristocracy including John Wilkes, ancestor of John Wilkes Booth, Abraham Lincoln's assassin
7. Rothschild-financed German Hessian soldiers (1776-1778)
8. Hyam Salomon (1740-d. 1785), Rothschild agent in America; First Bank of America (1781); Rothschild co-agent Alexander Hamilton
9. Second Bank of the United States (1816-1836); Rothschild co-agent Alexander Hamilton

SEMINAL ALIGNMENT OF GOOD AND EVIL FORCES IN THE WORLD (1740-1820) CENTERED ON THE ROTHSCHILDS TREACHERY

figcaption>Fig. 2 Rothschild Demonic Profligacy. (Compiled Feb. 14, 2022). Critical 18th Century Years When America Emerged to Counter a Satanic Global Takeover That's Still in Process. Anonymous Patriots.

They kept their enemies confused by refining the art of saying the opposite of what they really think.

If a Moslem was coercing them to convert to Islam, or a Christian to Christianity, or a Jew to Judaism, they converted without resistance, on the surface, while maintaining their Sabbatist beliefs and immoral practices secretly. Sound like Bohemian Grove? Epstein island? Marina Abramovic?

Frankists seek redemption through ritual sexual ecstasy and moral opposites.

Whatever the Ten Commandments taught, they did opposite. Don't kill. They killed. Don't steal. They stole. Don't commit adultery. They swapped wives. Don't lie. They lied. Don't sodomize. They sodomized, especially children. Don't mistreat children. They were pedophiles. And so on. They were a belief system of opposites, much like our maddening self-styled elitists today.

This Rothschild family heritage was certainly worth hiding. British Lord Victor Rothschild did just that in 1973.

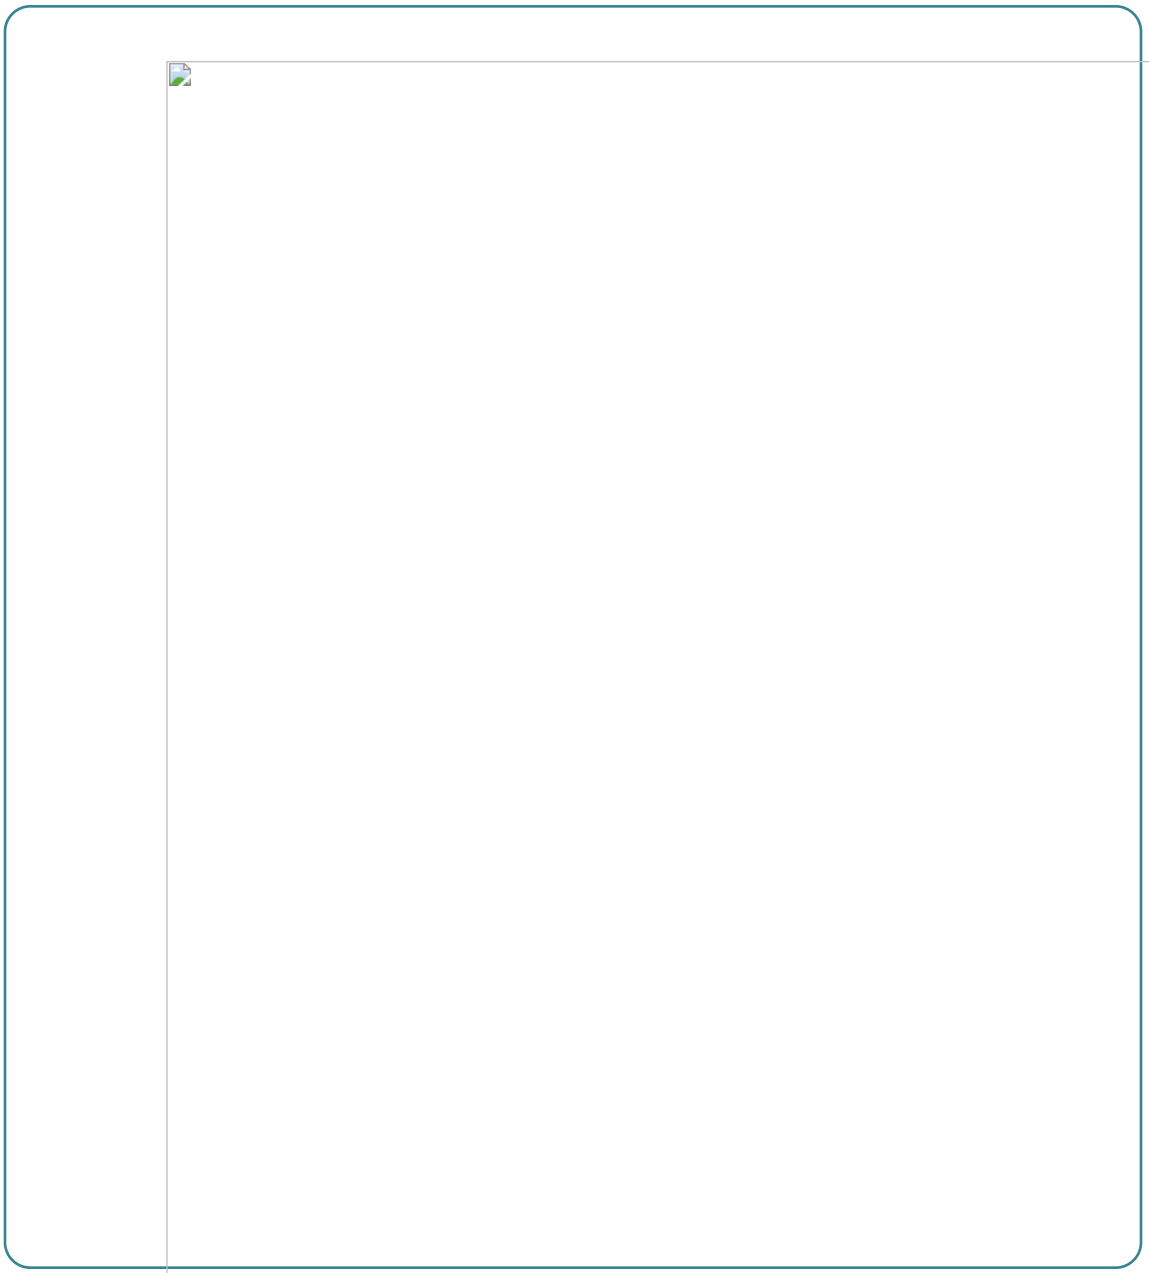

Fig. 2 —Rothschild Demonic Profligacy. (Compiled Feb. 14, 2022). Critical 18th Century Years When America Emerged to Counter a Satanic Global Takeover That's Still in Process. Anonymous Patriots.

In 1973, British Lord Victor Rothschild ordered an official family timeline. This occurred just after The Rothschild Report (1971) to the UK Parliament recommended a complete overhaul of research and development investing by the British government with a focus on computers, communications and biowarfare.

The Rothschild Archive Timeline opens with:

description

“a detailed Rothschild family tree was commissioned which traced the family back to ‘Uri Feibesh’ in 1450.”

Check out DNA information and charts under the link below:

https://americans4innovation.blogspot.com/2022/02/550-year-rothschild-frauds-discovered.html#rothschild-dna-tree

---

Dubiously, “Feibesh” should be spelled “Feibesch.” Why misspell it? (Thwarts searches.)

Remarkably, neither the misspelling “Feibesh” nor the correct spelling “Feibesch” appears anywhere else in the Rothschild Archive!

This opening statement is an evident lie, not just sloppy editing.

The year “1450” is also wrong. Numerous genealogies show that the Rothschilds ancestry includes:

Uri or Ori Feibesch (Fajsch) Zu Bacharach (1475-1588) from Frankfurt, Germany

Prior to Uri, the ancestry trail goes cold.

Why would the Rothschild Archive not disclose Uri’s full name, including “Bacharach?”

The Bacharach family is a rabbinical dynasty in Frankfurt, Worms, Poland. Remember Lord Henry de Worms, Lord Pirbright? British Privy Council, Lord Rothschild collaborator. The Wellcome Trust. Biowarfare.

For context, the Frankfurt Jewish community was just being established then.

We first note that Wikipedia participates in this Rothschild misdirection. Their “Frankfurter Judengasse” page states:

“It is likely that Jews were amongst the earliest inhabitants of Frankfurt.”

Even a history novice knows that Frankfurt is a Stone Age city (ca. 3000 B.C.)!!!

World Guides states: “The first mention of Frankfurt in official history records dates to 794 AD. It was noted that Franconovurt, or ‘City of the Franks’, was the meeting place for an important ecclesiastical council of Franconian noblemen led by Emperor Charlemagne (Charles the Great).” This is confirmed by City of Frankfurt resources that further states: “Frankfurt, as the location of the most important north-south river crossing in Germany… has been inhabited since the later Stone Age (c. 2000 B.C.). Until the Romans arrived (Emperor Augustus, 63 B.C. to 14 A.D.), the area had been controlled by various Germanic and Celtic tribes.

Why does Wikipedia misstate Frankfurt's history so ludicrously? Evidently it is because most drive-by "historians" will believe it. We see it as misdirection about Frankfurt's true history and the central role of the Rothschilds in world corruption.

The Jewish Virtual Jewish World traces the earliest Jewish communities :

> Evidence of a Jewish community in Frankfurt, a city on the Main river in western Germany, dates to the 12th century. At that time, a small group of Jewish merchants from Worms settled in the town, and quickly flourished and grew wealthy. Jews had been in Frankfurt prior to this period as well, but never as official residents - Frankfurt had long been a market town, and [Khazarian] Jews visited to trade there as early as the tenth century.

Uri was the son of father Eichanan Ben Zur Bacharach Zur Roten Rose (1496-1550) and mother Fogele Rose "Tzipora" Bacharach (born Worms Haas-Grotwohl) (1505-1550). Eichanan had alias names Elchanan ben Uri, Han, Hon, Hane, Elkan, Elchanan Bauer.

Eichanan was the son of father Uri Feibesch (Fajsch) Zu Bacharach (1475-1588) and mother Zu Bacharach (nee Zur Roten Rose (ca. 1496-1550).

ROTHSCHILD DELETED "BACHARACH" FROM THE FAMILY NAME

Lord Victor Rothschild dropped the "Bacharach" part of Uri Feibesch name? This is evident fraud.

We will not delve further into the Bacharach family name other than to say it has been a family with a strong rabbinical heritage.

The change from "Barcharach" to "Rothschild" is suspicious since the Bacharach name would normally be retained, and since Mayer Amschel would otherwise have thought so little of his Bacharach family heritage as to name it after a house instead!

CRYPTO-ROTHSCHILD BACHARACHS INFILTRATED THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

Notably, many Bacharachs emigrated to America in the late 1800s. Three Bacharachs are notable in the British Pilgrims Society's infiltration of the American government as crypto-Rothschilds (N.M. Rothschild and his son Walter were co-founders of the Pilgrims Society and tight allies of Cecil Rhodes, Lord Alfred Milner, Henry deWorms and Sir Harry Brittain.)

> Benjamin Bacharach (1865-1936), banker; merchant; pres.;Beth Israel Synagogue, Atlantic City.

> Isaac Bacharach (1870-1956), arrived Atlantic City 1881; banker; businessman; Councilman, Atlantic City (1907-13); Republican; State Assembly (1911); Congress (NJ-2nd, 1915); House Ways and Means Committee (1915-36); sponsored Federal Declaration of Taking Act of 1931—Eminent domain seizure of public lands permitted (the ability to seize public assets to back Rothschild loans).

Harry Bacharach (1873-1947), arrived Atlantic City 1881; Postmaster, Pres. McKinley, 1901; reappointed by Teddy Roosevelt 1905-1909 during the ramp up of British Marconi Wireless in the U.S. in the run up to the first World War; Mayor, Atlantic City (1911-15, 1916—19, 1931-34); Chairman, NJ Public Utilities Commission Member; Water Policy Commission; Banker; real estate developer; founder, Jewish Community Center, Atlantic City (1924-25); Betty Bacharach Home for Afflicted Children (Longport, New Jersey)

CONCLUSION—CALL TO ACTION:

The Rothschilds have totally hidden their real family name “Bacharach,” their depraved Frankist religion, and their Khazarian nomadic roots. Then, they moved in their crypto-Bacharach family Fifth column into America in the exodus of their fellow Khazarian Jews from Odessa and climes in the 1880s.

Their sinister promotion of British Zionism and a new world order in conspiracy with the Pilgrims Society must be evaluated in a whole new light.

Are the Jews of the 12 Tribes of Israel actually their spiritual enemies since they are only crypto-Jews at best?

The fraud and treachery of this family is off the charts.

Now the Rothschilds must be unwound and prosecuted as satanic oppressors of humanity.

This book

Dr. Eric T. Karlstrom is a Revealer of truth without Aliens metaphors

Appendix 29: the manual for organized gang stalking…. fbi's cointelpro, nato's operation gladio/stay behind armies, and u.s. military's global "unconventional,"/"civil-military"/"psy-war"/"information war" operations retrieved from 911NWO.com and copied or modified to here

Assasinated by GangStalk Rauni-Leena Luukanen-Kilde 15 NOVEMBER 1939 – 8 February 2015

Rauni-Leena Tellervo Luukanen-Kilde née Valve was a Finnish physician who wrote and lectured on parapsychology, ufology and mind control. Luukanen-Kilde was born in Värtsilä. She had to flee with her family in infancy during the Second World War and was raised in Helsinki. Born: November 15, 1939, Värtsilä, Finland Died: February 8, 2015, Vaasa, Finland

She appeared as a featured speaker at UFO conferences, helped organize the first international conference on extraterrestrials in Finland[7] and authored books about UFOs, alien abductions, mind control and conspiracy theories. Luukanen-Kilde claimed to have been "rescued" from danger by extraterrestrials, and to have esoteric skills and knowledge as a result of her relationship with them.[8] She said that there was a secret exchange program between humans and aliens that was being deliberately suppressed by "powerful Western governments", particularly the United States. Luukanen-Kilde also said that secret military and intelligence agencies were practising mind control technology on the world population using cell phones and supercomputers and that a plot to kill most of the Earth's population using the swine flu vaccine was being carried out by the WHO, Henry Kissinger and the Bilderberg Group. Her article on cybernetic implants as a means of control is widely circulated. She appears in the 1999 film Revelations: The End Times, Volume 2.

Intern and resident University Hospital Turku, City Hospital Turku, Regional Hospital Salo. Chief physician Pelkosenniemi-Savukoski Hospital. Physician United Christian Hospital, Lahore, Pakistan, 1968.

Acting surgeon general Finland, 1978. Acting director Department Environmental Health and Health Education, Finland, 1978. Chief medical officer Lapland, 1975-1987.

Member staff various hospitals Finland, 1969-1975. Chief medical adviser International Red Cross, Malaysia, Indonesia, 1979. Delegate, chief delegate Government Finland World Health Organization/Tropical Medicine, Geneva, 1978—1979.

Member committee Arctic medical research Nordic Council, 1981—1984. Member advisory board International Association Near-Death Studies, Connecticut, since 1983. Consultant, Mufon, Texas, 1991—1998.

Chapter 18 Overview of Harassment Methods Used By (FBI's) COINTELPRO, (OPERATION) GLADIO, Covert Community Recruits and Stay Behind (Armies): (OR "Instruction Manual for Community Gang Stalkers")

From Dr. Rauni-Leena Luukanen Kilde's "Bright Light on Black Shadows"

ETK Instruction: I have reproduced Dr. Rauni Kilde's chapter 18 here because it is an instruction manual for community gang stalkers. These same techniques, and perhaps this same manual, were evidently also used in the FBI's COINTELPRO (counter-intelligence program) and Operation Gladio/Stay Behind Operations in Europe between about 1950 and 1990. They also accurately describe the U.S. Military-Intelligence's ongoing, global gang stalking operations as documented in "New World War: Revolutionary Methods for Political Control" by Mark M. Rich (2011). All these top-secret operations went on, officially undetected, for decades; Gladio/Stay Behind functioned secretly and illegally throughout Europe for four decades, when it was exposed in 1990 by Italian Prime Minister Andriotti. Shortly thereafter, the European Parliament made a resolution condemning Gladio (see Appendix 1), but acknowledged that it may still be operational!

The Kingdom of Finland (Finnish: Suomen kuningaskunta; Swedish: Konungariket Finland) was a failed attempt to establish a monarchy in Finland in the aftermath of the Finnish Declaration of Independence from Russia in December 1917 and the Finnish Civil War from January–May 1918. The victorious Whites in the Parliament of Finland began the process of turning Finland into a kingdom and creating a monarchy. Although the country was legally a kingdom for over a year, that was headed by a regent; the king-elect never reigned nor came to Finland following Germany's defeat in World War I, and republican victories in subsequent elections resulted in the country becoming a republic.

During the Finnish Civil War of 1918, Finnish Reds on friendly terms with Soviet Russia fought Finnish Whites who allied with the German Empire. Direct aid from the German Baltic Sea Division aided the Whites who won the war. The provisional government established after the Grand Duchy of Finland's declaration of independence leaned heavily toward the Finnish right and included a number of monarchists. The parliament drew up plans to create a Finnish monarchy on the legal theory that the Swedish Constitution of 1772 was still in effect, but there had been an extended interregnum with no monarch on the throne. Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse was elected to the throne of Finland on 9 October 1918 by the Finnish parliament, but he never took the position nor traveled to Finland. Soon after the election, Finnish leaders as well as the population belatedly came to understand the grave situation their German allies were in, and the wisdom of electing a German prince their new leader as Germany was about to lose World War I was called into question. Germany itself became a republic and deposed Kaiser Wilhelm II, and signed an armistice with the Allies in November. The victorious Western powers informed the Finnish government that the independence of Finland would only be recognized if it abandoned its alliance with Germany. As a result, in December 1918 Frederick Charles renounced the throne and the Baltic Sea Division withdrew from Finland. In the March 1919 election, with the Finnish left and socialists able to vote, republicans won a crushing victory. Finland's status as a republic was confirmed in the Finnish Constitution of 1919.

Like American author, Gloria Naylor (see her book, “1996”), and countless others, Dr. Rauni Kilde was a “Targeted Individual” (TI) for decades. She was harassed, defamed, tortured,and eventually, on Feb. 9, 2015, murdered in this program.

As neither Dr. Kilde nor her publisher were/are native English speakers, there are minor grammatical errors in the text. To make the text read more smoothly, I occasionally add additional words, which I place in parentheses.

In her book, Dr. Kilde does not specify where she obtained this instruction manual or who authored it. However, as Chief Medical Officer for Northern Finland, she was an “insider” who was invited to many open and secret conferences. Her husband was also a political insider. Thus, she was privy to top-secret documents. Doubtless, she does not divulge the author(s) of this document in order to protect her informant(s).

I note that many phrases and spellings are peculiar to the British form of the English language. This could reflect Dr. Kilde’s spelling and usage patterns. OR, it could reflect the fact that the original document was written by British military-intelligence operatives. If so, we may speculate that it was authored by an individual or group associated with the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations, which grew out of the Psychological Warfare Division of the British Army at the close of World War I and has, for decades, been the world's "brainwashing center."

Regardless of its exact authorship, this is an extremely important document that should be read and understood by all "targets." Clearly, this is a manual for psychological warfare that presents the methods by which an extremely complex military-secret service hierarchy surveilles, punishes, "neutralizes" and ultimately murders its designated "targets." There are obvious comparisons to be made with the CIA's KUBARK torture manual, which has been employed in Vietnam, Latin America, the Middle East, and indeed, in CIA "black sites"/"extraordinary rendition" centers throughout the entire world. The psy-war system described herein bears a remarkable similarity to the operations and procedures of the U.S. military's "Fourth Generation Warfare"/"Civil-Military Operations"/"Military Operations Other Than War"/"Unconventional Warfare"/"Asymmetrical Warfare"/"Psychological Warfare" and "Information Warfare" operations as detailed in Rich's "New World War: Revolutionary Methods For Political Control." (See Appendices 2 and 3 for a comparison of key terms in each program.) Indeed, the systems are identical.

The remarkable revelation provided here is that modern organized gang stalking operations are identical with, or nearly identical with, those used in the FBI's secret COINTELPRO (counter-intelligence program) of the 1950s-1970s, the top-secret "Gladio" and other "Stay Behind Army" operations of Europe between 1950 and 1990, and the destabilization and citizen-elimination operations now being carried out in the name of "counter-terrorism" by the U.S. military in approximately 140 of the world's 195 nations

THE YMCA are British Espiongae Eugenics Front and mostly one with MI6

The SS Guide to Great Britain retrieved from A Historical Miscellany and copied or modified to here

2ND AUGUST 2013 BY CAECILIAJANE@GMAIL.COM http://www.danceshistoricalmiscellany.com/

"An excellent recruiting ground for British Intelligence Services"

About

Lawyer, enthusiast of depressing 19th century literature, frequenter of remote desert ruins. caecilia@danceshistoricalmiscellany.com twitter.com/CaeciliaDance

In June 1940, the French government surrendered to the German army at Compiègne. British morale was low, and Hitler hoped that the British government would soon cave in, cowed by the French defeat. Meanwhile, he was also drawing up plans for a potential invasion of Britain, known in English as ‘Operation Sealion’. There is still controversy as to whether the invasion plans were serious or just a bluff, and it’s unclear whether Operation Sealion would have succeeded had it gone ahead. Several senior German military figures later said that it would have proved near impossible due to the superiority of British air and naval power.

At any rate, plans to invade appear to have been serious enough that the SS officer Walter Schellenberg was tasked with preparing an informative handbook about Britain. 20,000 copies of the resulting Informationsheft GB were published, to be given to German officers in the event of an invasion. The idea was that having access to a detailed picture of contemporary Britain would help German officers to easily target hostile individuals and organisations.

Other sections of the handbook, influenced by Nazi paranoia about any non-National Socialist organisation, were less reliable. They contained assertions that the Boy Scout organisation was a covert spying operation for MI5 and MI6, and that the YMCA was dominated by Jewish Freemasons and could prove ‘a dangerous weapon in the hands of British plutocrats against National Socialist Germany’. Unsurprisingly, these organisations would be among the first to be banned, coinciding with the arrests of their leaders.

THE NIGHT THE FBI COLLARED A NAZI SPY AT THE YMCA retrieved from ©2020 Knoxville History Project Site by: Robin Easter Design and copied or modified to here

The man everyone knew as Walter Othmer, 35, worked quietly as an electrician for Briscoe Electric, at 722 Market St., near the Pryor Brown Garage. He lived at the YMCA, at Clinch and Locust. The Y offered simple, dormitory-like accommodations for guys who were new to town.

A thin man with wire-rimmed glasses and a very small mustache, Othmer impressed everyone as a humble, friendly fellow who missed his wife and kid back in Germany.

That Wednesday night, the local office of the FBI, on the fourth floor of the Holston Building, got word from the Washington office to close in. Special agent J.R. Ruggles and his men went to the YMCA and knocked on Othmer's door. He gave up without a fight, and went with the agents to their offices three blocks away. There, with little resistance, he confessed that he had been a spy for Nazi Germany.

The true story of Walter Othmer surprised his neighbors at the Y, even the few who had heard him say nice things about Adolf Hitler.

His full name was Maximilian Gerhard Waldemar Othmer. Born in Germany, he moved to America in 1929. He soon became an American citizen. However, living in Trenton, N.J., in the mid-'30s, Othmer became a leader in the pro-Nazi group Friends of New Germany, later the German-American Bund.

He'd returned to Germany on at least a couple of occasions, once in the winter of 1936-37. In November, 1938, he returned to enroll in an espionage training course. He became an expert in writing with invisible ink.

In early 1940, during the Lend-Lease program, the United States, not fully at war, offered major assistance to the British, mostly by naval convoy. Despite his pro-Nazi background, Othmer found work as an electrician at Camp Pendleton, near Norfolk, where he was able to watch the ships leaving the harbor, bound for Great Britain. By messages in invisible ink, somehow conveyed to a drop box in Milan, Othmer alerted the Germans, who did their best to torpedo them.

In November 1941, he got on a watch list as a possible “Gestapo agent of the Nazi Secret Service.”

Othmer claimed he quit spying after Germany declared war on the United States in December 1941. After that, his espionage would have been treason. But in February 1942, he received a payment, via Shanghai, of $500 for services rendered.

In early 1943, U.S. authorities issued an “individual exclusion order” to ban Othmer from Norfolk. About the same time, there was filed a petition to cancel his U.S. citizenship. One bit of evidence against him was his persistent interest in acquiring a painkiller called Pyramidon, an ingredient in an effective invisible ink.

He moved to Knoxville, a city of some interest to Nazi spies. It was home of Fulton Sylphon, which assembled a key component for the Norden bomb site, a known target of Nazi espionage. Knoxville was near Alcoa, a major supplier of material for war planes. It was home to the Tennessee Valley Authority, America’s biggest government-controlled energy source, which was involved in the war effort on several fronts.

And there was Oak Ridge. Othmer applied for work at the Clinton Engineer Works, then only dimly understood to be part of a major weapons effort that would become more famous as the Manhattan Project. He was declined because of his German background.

The FBI was tracking him. By some accounts, it sounds as if Briscoe Electric had been instructed to hire Othmer.

In the summer of 1944, in the weeks just after D-Day, the FBI was trying to root out agents of the Abwehr, Nazi Germany's intelligence organization. Mark Felt was studying Othmer's file in particular.

"Though Othmer claimed to be a minor agent," Felt later wrote, "his dossier suggested he was one of the most valuable Abwehr spies in the United States." He sent word to the Knoxville office to arrest and interrogate Othmer.

Othmer refused to name other spies. But on his way to the federal pen in Atlanta, Othmer told agent David Scruggs, "You have been kind to me. Now I want to do something for you." He told him to check through a steamer trunk in storage at the Y, in particular for a German book called Weyers Taschenbuch der Kriegsflotten, an illustrated guide to warships. Tucked in it was a negative photo of a typewritten page. It was a key to a Nazi code Othmer had used. The find, Felt said, was "an important link to other Nazi espionage cases."

Othmer was found guilty and sentenced to 20 years in federal prison. He was apparently free and living with his wife in suburban Richmond, 15 years later, when he died of cancer at age 50.

Three decades after the war, Agent Felt, who had become the FBI's associate director, was more concerned about the clandestine machinations of his own government. At age 91, the agent who set in motion the arrest of Waldemar Othmer in Knoxville would be revealed as the previously secret Watergate source known as "Deep Throat."

Not willing to “play ball with the Corridors of Power” thus Passed over for promotion and a leaker

Mark Felt retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Early life and career Born on August 17, 1913, in Twin Falls, Idaho,[6] Felt was the son of Rose R. Dygert and Mark Earl Felt, a carpenter and building contractor.[7] His paternal grandfather was a Free Will Baptist minister.[8] His maternal grandparents were born in Canada and Scotland. Through his maternal grandfather, Felt was descended from Revolutionary War general Nicholas Herkimer of New York.

After graduating from Twin Falls High School in 1931, Felt attended the University of Idaho in Moscow.[9] He was a member and president of the Gamma Gamma chapter of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity,[10] and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1935.

Felt then went to Washington, D.C., to work in the office of Democratic U.S. Senator James P. Pope. In 1938, Felt married Audrey Robinson of Gooding, Idaho, whom he had known when they were students at the University of Idaho.[12] She had come to Washington to work at the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Their wedding was officiated by the chaplain of the United States House of Representatives, the Rev. Sheara Montgomery.[13] Audrey died in 1984; she and Felt had two children, Joan and Mark.

Felt stayed on with Pope’s successor in the Senate, David Worth Clark (D-Idaho).[14] He attended the George Washington University Law School at night, earning his

J.D. degree in 1940, and was admitted to the District of Columbia Bar in 1941.

Upon graduation, Felt took a position at the Federal Trade Commission but did not enjoy his work. His workload was very light, and he was assigned to investigate whether a toilet paper brand, called “Red Cross”, was misleading consumers into thinking it was endorsed by the American Red Cross. Felt wrote in his memoir:

> My research, which required days of travel and hundreds of interviews, produced two definite conclusions:
>
> - Most people did use toilet tissue.
> - Most people did not appreciate being asked about it.
>
> That was when I started looking for other employment.

He applied for a job with the FBI in November 1941 and was accepted. His first day at the Bureau was January 26, 1942.

The Espionage Section was abolished in May 1945 after V-E Day. After the war, Felt was assigned to the Seattle field office. After two years of general work, he spent two years as a firearms instructor and was promoted from agent to supervisor. Upon passage of the Atomic Energy Act and the creation of the United States Atomic Energy Commission, the Seattle office became responsible for completing background checks of workers at the Hanford plutonium plant near Richland, Washington. Felt oversaw those investigations. In 1954 Felt returned briefly to Washington as an inspector's aide. Two months later, he was sent to New Orleans as Assistant Special Agent-in-Charge of the field office. When he was transferred to Los Angeles fifteen months later, he held the same rank there.[20]

Nixon passes over Felt for promotion

Felt returned to Washington, D.C., in September 1962. As assistant to the bureau's assistant director in charge of the Training Division, Felt helped oversee the FBI Academy.[24] In November 1964, he was promoted to an Assistant Director of the Bureau, as Chief Inspector of the Bureau and Head of the Inspection Division.[25] This division oversaw compliance with Bureau regulations and conducted internal investigations.

On July 1, 1971, Felt was promoted by Hoover to Deputy Associate Director, assisting Associate Director Clyde Tolson.[26] Hoover's right-hand man for decades, Tolson was in failing health and unable to carry out his duties. Richard Gid Powers wrote that Hoover installed Felt to rein in William C. Sullivan's domestic spying operations, as Sullivan had been engaged in secret unofficial work for the White House.[27] In his memoir, Felt quoted Hoover as having said, "I need someone who can control Sullivan. I think you know he has been getting out of hand."[28]

Nixon passes over Felt again

On FEBRUARY 17, 1973, Nixon nominated Gray as Hoover's permanent replacement as Director.[52] Until then, Gray had been in limbo as Acting Director. In another taped conversation on February 28, Nixon spoke to Dean about Felt's acting as an informant, and mentioned that he had never met him. Gray was forced to resign on April 27, after it was revealed that he had destroyed a file that had been in the White House safe of E. Howard Hunt.[53] Gray recommended Felt as his successor.

The day Gray resigned, Kleindienst spoke to Nixon, urging him to appoint Felt as head of the FBI. Nixon instead appointed William Ruckelshaus as Acting Director. Stanley Kutler reported that Nixon said, "I don't want him. I can't have him. I just talked to Bill Ruckelshaus and Bill is a Mr. Clean and I want a fellow in there that is not part of the old guard and that is not part of that infighting in there."[54] On another White House tape, from May 11, 1973, Nixon and White House Chief of Staff, Alexander Haig, spoke of Felt leaking material to The New York Times. Nixon said, "he's a bad guy, you see." He said that William Sullivan had told him of Felt's ambition to be Director of the Bureau.

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS | OPINION | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | JUN. 11, 2021, UPDATED JUN. 12, 2021 | PDF | HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/KP4NCYCS

This book

Arnold Schwarzenegger is tied to Windsors OSS plan and a Concealer

In the 1968 to 1972 time-frame he and Peter Lawford may have known each other, been close, and Peter Lawford as an iconic British actor with British accent may have had an influence affect on Arnold Schwarzenegger, aspiring actor who will have to wait 10 more years for a break-out role.

It is hard to know what Schwarzenegger knew or when he knew it, even RFK I am absolutely sure did not understand until 1968 and then partially, but the magnetism towards the British camp and allegiance was possible as an affect on Schwarzenegger.

His Rock and Hard Place disaster in history he has no way out of is best understood in a view of the play of Romeo and Juliet.

Bush and Barr family like Capulte Montague will produce a lab child non-white Christian for Indirect rule of some Island or somewhere else in a Consent of the Governed Commonwealth, and far beyond the British plot and foreign Island is the Kennedy Irish Mafia saying “You will not take this Island, Queen of England!”

House of Capulet Juliet Capulet is the 13-year-old daughter of Capulet, the play’s female protagonist.

House of Montague Romeo Montague the son is the play’s male protagonist.

The George H.W. Bush and Donald Barr families are agreeing, not feuding, Capulets and Montagues. A love child they will groom is CIA backed sleepers for the 21st Century. Barrack OBama Jr will be one, moderate leftist who can displace far Leftist socialist and communist governments and lead them back to the Right.

Donald Barr along with William Barr and Prescott Bush and Goerge H.W. Bush with Protestant or Universalists religions are going to sort of create a love child not actually of their own biology but some shelf DNA for a child, that child will be Barrack Obama Jr.

In Arnold Schwartzeneggers field of life he is in Eugenics program with England he loves and that program not concerned to much about strict Roman Catholic beliefs on assasination, suicide, or reproductive rights is going to IVF a baby already doubted as Natural Birth by some for Presidency and certainly of suspicous glances from practicing Roman Catholics.

George H.W. Bush, Rockefeller, ROthschilds, British Pilgrim Society, Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commision, Bilderburg, and a large conspiracy he is in wants to take Romeo and Juliets love child (out of wedlock IVF) and place it into power in Indonesia, Cuba, or wherever.

As dumb luck would have it the Kennedy's are strict proud anti British IRA type Roman Catholics who had to be assasinated.

Awkward.

Der Governator has to go and does like the Kennedys family functions but he and Peter Lawford know all about the goings on at the Rich Weirdo's estate and likley that JFK was shot over it.

In the architecture described above (tbd) in the graphic exhibit Arnold Schwartzengger is a fusion of criminality and possibly tied to Gym Stalk Waltham murders and other acts of terror.

He has a loyalty to Great Britain and resent to Nazis which arose in what he likely considered a populist movement which should have been stopped by elites of the world.

The Kennedy Family Assassinations are setup by longest reigning of Kingpins William Barr.

In Part I of the story below on February 20 1961 with Donald Barr (his CIA father) works with the Windsors and illegally the Donegans to fertilize Barrack Obama Jr. and others and I am in that "lot" of DNA test births coming from a CIA tested family line of DNA in atomic testing for several reasons.

Exhibits:id438 page in this book Donald Barr and William Barr are traitors covering errors, id479 a photo of Donald Barr with an "experimental monkey" having a birthday late November White House 1961 I say is CIA experiment and half brother of mine Barrack Obama Jr., id924 is a screen shot I took and modified of a 9 month surprise coming from a February 20 1961 fertilization I say becomes Experimental Monkey and myself, Other exhibits document Donald Barr and Jeffery Epstein in brain research tied to Columbia University or other DARPA tied NGOs.

Underneath the Donald Barr then Free Mason Kingpin were other Scotish Rites Free Masons (like himslef) including Thorkil Kristensen, London School of Economics, Oil and Overthrow Incorporated under the names Zapata Oil, Standard Oil, British Patroleum, and other names.

Operatives J. Edgar Hoover, James Jesus Angleton, and others explain the Middle East North Africa, Australia, Ireland, Indonesia, Hawaii plans to the Kennedy family and get at least early sign off but later the Troubles in Belfast will break the plan apart.

Although in a different branch of world wide Eugenics work being carried out and not in the USA the part of the fabric Arnlod Schwartzenegger is in for himslef and his marriage to Seargenet Shriver Eunice Kennedy daughter Maria Shriver will tie him by family and his own acts and British Commonwealth involvement into the full fabric of events.

I. This part is the rich weirdo Rocky Horror like experiment. As part of Donegan and Windsor DNA conducted by Deep State Assassination Overthrow work some sleepers will be groomed with bastard children of Windsor Kutschera hidden from public identity. Seargemt Shriver is working with East-West Center, LBJ, Crane Suherto Group CIA, NSA for sleeper leader who will grow up abroad into Regime Change inside foreign hostile nations.

   A. SARGENT SHRIVER AND WIFE EUNICE KENNEDY, THEIR DAUGHTER MARIA SHRIVER: Seargent Shriver American diplomant and politician was founder of the Peace Corp under JFK and married to Eunice Kennedy sister of JFK.

   B. PETER LAWFORD MARRIED TO PATRICIA KENNEDY SISTER OF JFK : Born in London in 1923, he was the only child of Lieutenant General Sir Sydney Turing Barlow Lawford, KBE (1865-1953

   C. THE HORROR: Under a plan desired by the British and now controlled by Kingpin Wiliam Barr secret Windsor-Kustschera DNA out of James and Glorian Donegan atomic testing DNA and Glorian Donegan’s ancestry will

1. Be tested inter-racially for race study, possible children being used around the world for Indonesia, Kenya, Cuba, Ireland, elsewhere.

2. Being tested for propagation of FOXP2 Minimal Brain Dysfunction propagation in gene pools larger and more diverse the the Windsor London KE Family line. Tom Donegan and Glorian Donegan are writing on the Rocky Horror wall as a C-Section is done and a baby hung by the ankle is brand spanking new into the world, that being a Eugenics experiment. Tom Donegan my older brother and Ed Donegan myself from Glorian DNA and James Donegan, myself born as a surrogate carried half twin of Barrack Obama that egg fertilized by FBI selected Malcolm X DNA

EXHIBITS: id845 picture of removal of child from C Section with writing of Tom Glorian on the wall, plane pilot, chicken and eggs

The FBI and its Free Masons have long been insuperable from the Military Industrial and Espionage Complex. the royal Windsor family is tied to other crowns such as England, Ireland, Saudis, seeking India back, and Saudies funded this tying to England in 1902 House of Saud. Most FBI Directors come from the families which rean the entire conspiracy like Free Mason Grand Master DuPont family of Manhattan Project, the Bush family of Office of Scientific Research, etc., and the Espionage Wetdivision are tied to leak containment as well as assassination and regime change has been INSIDE the USA as well as outside to keep long term goals and CIA DARPA Free Mason Chosen leaders.

The truth my family knows and abuse we have been through is why I think the USA and FBI “have it in for me” and my book as they cover-up they needed Roman Catholic US officials out of the way

, like the Donegans, Kennedys' Joe Dimagio, and more.

John F. Kennedy resented the East India Tea Company in India, wrote P=profiles In Courage for British MPs fighting that as well as other Imperialism abuses of State Power, JFK resented the British in France or Ireland or elsewhere, and the Saudi Royal funded plan outside true control of the JFK Family perpetuated only upon the assassination of JFK. Barrack Obama Jr fertilized on Feb 20 1961 born November 18 1961 with a birth certificate 022-46-3234 November 19 1961 was the secret Royal family emmber in the USA.

EXHIBITS: id234 Diagram of plan and its backers, id1047 Barrack Obama Jr on November 19 magazine cover as Royal Aristocrat, id52 image of cover of Behvaviroil Research Congress investigation of CIA investigation of Behavoir and btw behavoir of Minimal Brain Disorder and FOXP2. Tied to assasination if bastard children seem usable, not with recognizable family trait.

II. ARNOLD SHCWHARTZENEGGER : is still in London or Austria during most events in the USA but is also London tied and Euegneics study. Rockefeller Neurosiciences, Dr Sidney Gottlieb, the Vatican, or Dr Cameron or other genetics experts the Prescott and George H.W. Bush, Lyndon Johnson, and other families were working on were likely working with him too.

The idea of an Anschluss (a united Austria and Germany that would form a "Greater Germany")[b] began after the unification of Germany excluded Austria and the German Austrians from the Prussian-dominated German Empire in 1871. Following the end of World War I with the fall of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, in 1918, the newly formed Republic of German-Austria attempted to form a union with Germany, but the Treaty of Saint Germain (10 September 1919) and the Treaty of Versailles (28 June 1919) forbade both the union and the continued use of the name “German-Austria” (Deutschösterreich); and stripped Austria of some of its territories, such as the Sudetenland. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

After WWI Germany was constrained from it Austria-Hungarian-Gernman central might of Europe and Adolph Hitler wanted that central European power and position back and ethnic protection of central European DNA and political nationalism against English or European Royalty not tied to Gernmany and political nationalism from Internatioinlist Communisits who also wnated global inter-rule of nations.

With a rising tide from the 1920s (1925 in particular) into 1937 the Nazis grew in power. In 1925 the former centrail Euoropean family Windsors had adopted England as a home and adopted the area of Windosr Palace as a name for themselves even though the so called Royal greates carried a minor genetic flaw which tends to dampen many life activities such as rigorous studies thus leads to poorer outcomes against academic rivals, etc., in contest for top of the class or even graduation.

Arnold Scwhartzenegger had a Nazi police officer father and the FOXP2 gene runs in his family as it does the Windsors and Kutscheras, Franz Kutschera uncle of Maria Augusta Kutschera Von Trapp.

An underground railroad formed in 1925 -1936 bringing many to the USA or London including the Von TRapps, and their soon family members born in the USA in 1926 (two of whom were Harold Gainey and Glorian Gainey, Glorian Gainey my mother maried to Glorian Donegan.

With the Berlin Olympics of 1936 and major Nazi display Eugenics and Race become a major feature of racial war lines as well as political phiilosophy war lines, again, genetics a factor in Royal DNA and whether royals would lose throwns over genes if the defects were known.

It appears Arnold Schwartzenegger was an interesting subject for London genetics researchers both in body and mind.

I believe in secretive twins research and other genetics studies British and USA Espionage used him in secretive efforts that involved human and plant DNA just as DNA was being discovered in 1961 and the Peace Corps and USAID efforts including in Iran with Valerie Jarrett family and THorkill Kristensen and world IQ Brain and Economy studies led to Arnold Schwarzenegger and others British agents who with other British loyalists need to kill JFK.

The tie into the Donegan family and JFK murder is my family was of that same interest, in DNA testing in 1961, and illegal use of DOnegan DNA led to creation of Barrack OBama Jr and others who would have DNA tied to these family lines but the connections would be hidden from the public so the British could have secret family members in Commonwealth and retaken lost territories like Ireland as sleepers grew into political power, with JFK objecting the the assassinations and overthrow DNA schemes JFK and RFK were killed.

- BORN: July 30, 1947 Austria after it was freed from Germany and the Nazis.

- AUSTRIAN CITIZEN (18): 1947 1965

- AUSTRIAN ARMY 1965 (18): Schwarzenegger served in the Austrian Army in 1965 to fulfill the one year of service required at the time of all 18-year-old Austrian males.He went AWOL during basic training so he could take part in the competition and then spent a week in military prison: “Participating in the competition meant so much to me that I didn’t carefully think through the consequences.”

- BODY BUILDING 1965-1968 (21):During his army service, he won the Junior Mr. Europe contest. He went AWOL during basic training so he could take part in the competition and then spent a week in military prison: “Participating in the competition meant so much to me that I didn’t carefully think through the consequences.” He entered another bodybuilding contest in Graz, at Steirerhof Hotel, where he placed second. He was voted “best-built man of Europe”, which made him famous in bodybuilding circles. “The Mr. Universe title was my ticket to America—the land of opportunity, where I could become a star and get rich.” Schwarzenegger made his first plane trip in 1966, attending the NABBA Mr. Universe competition in London. He placed second in the Mr. Universe competition, not having the muscle definition of American winner Chester Yorton.

Charles “Wag” Bennett, one of the judges at the 1966 competition, was impressed with Schwarzenegger and he offered to coach him. As Schwarzenegger had little money, Bennett invited him to stay in his crowded family home above one of his two gyms in Forest Gate, London. Yorton’s leg definition had been judged superior, and Schwarzenegger, under a training program devised by Bennett, concentrated on improving the muscle definition and power in his legs. Staying in the East End of London helped Schwarzenegger improve his rudimentary grasp of the English language. Living with the Bennetts also changed him as a person: “Being with them made me so much more sophisticated. When you’re the age I was then, you’re always looking for approval, for love, for attention and also for guidance. At the time, I wasn’t really aware of that. But now, looking back, I see that the Bennett family fulfilled all those needs. Especially my need to be the best in the world. To be recognized and to feel unique and special. They saw that I needed that care and attention and love.”

Also in 1966, while at Bennett’s home, Schwarzenegger had the opportunity to meet childhood idol Reg Park, who became his friend and mentor. The training paid off and, in 1967, Schwarzenegger won the title for the first time, becoming the youngest ever Mr. Universe at the age of 20.[27] He would go on to win the title a further three times.[26] Schwarzenegger then flew back to Munich, where he attended a business school and worked in a health club (Rolf Putziger’s gym, where he worked and trained from 1966 to 1968), returning in 1968 to London to win his next Mr. Universe title. He frequently told Roger C. Field, his English coach and friend in Munich at that time, “I’m going to become the greatest actor!”

- 1968 COLD WAR IMIGRE INTO USA VIA SPORTS (21)
  Schwarzenegger, who dreamed of moving to the U.S. since the age of 10, and saw bodybuilding as the avenue through which to do so, realized his dream by moving to the United States in October 1968 at the age of 21, speaking little English. There he trained at Gold’s Gym in Venice, Los Angeles, California, under Joe Weider’s supervision. From 1970 to 1974, one of Schwarzenegger’s weight training partners was Ric Drasin, a professional wrestler who designed the original Gold’s Gym logo in 1973. Schwarzenegger also became good friends with professional wrestler Superstar Billy Graham. In 1970, at age 23, he captured his first Mr. Olympia title in New York, and would go on to win the title a total of seven times.

One of the first competitions he won was the Junior Mr. Europe contest in 1965.[10] He won Mr. Europe the following year, at age 19.[10][27] He would go on to compete in many bodybuilding contests, and win most of them. His bodybuilding victories included five Mr. Universe wins (4 - NABBA [England], 1 - IFBB [USA]), and seven Mr. Olympia wins, a record which would stand until Lee Haney won his eighth consecutive Mr. Olympia title in 1991.

- 1970 ACTING (23):Schwarzenegger wanted to move from bodybuilding into acting, finally achieving it when he was chosen to play the title role in Hercules in New York (1970). Credited under the stage name “Arnold Strong”, his accent in the film was so thick that his lines were dubbed after production.[26] His second film appearance was as a deaf-mute mob hitman in The Long Goodbye (1973), which was followed by a much more significant part in the film Stay Hungry (1976), for which he won the Golden Globe Award for New Star of the Year - Actor. Schwarzenegger has discussed his early struggles in developing his acting career: “It was very difficult for me in the beginning - I was told by agents and casting people that my body was ‘too weird’, that I had a funny accent, and that my name was too long. You name it, and they told me I had to change it. Basically, everywhere I turned, I was told that I had no chance.” Schwarzenegger’s breakthrough film was the sword and sorcery epic Conan the Barbarian in 1982, which was a box-office hit.

- LONDOM ROCKY HORROR ERA 1970-1975 (23-25) The play about a bodybuilder follows Arnold Schwartzengger from London to the USA about 2 to three years behind him. Richard O’Brien was living as an unemployed actor in London during the early 1970s. He wrote most of The Rocky Horror Show during one winter just to occupy himself.[Since his youth, O’Brien had loved science fiction and B horror movies.

EXHIBITS:id824 picture of Peter Lawford Estate, id786 page if this book explaining the SciFi Double Feature of two born brain study creatures was fictionalized reality

Arnold Schwwartzegger appears to be part of the story of building super beings by Eugenics in the Lab and the Slab. Meanhile a family meets in Denton, North Carolina, I think the Donegans and Gaineys. Nona Chafin Siki Pug Dog lifelong friend of all donegans of LA is in there too.

The play made into a film appears to tell the story of the creation of Barrack Obama Jr and the destruction of the life of Eddi including by writing on the wall. Further Reading

- MARRIAD TO MARIA OWINGS SHRIVER (39) : m. 1986; div. 2021 Shriver was born in Chicago, Illinois, on November 6, 1955, the second child of the politician Sargent Shriver founder of hte Peace Corps and activist Eunice Kennedy istern of John F. Kennedy. On February 3, 2008, Shriver endorsed Senator Barack Obama for the 2008 Democratic presidential nomination. The endorsement was given at a UCLA rally featuring Caroline Kennedy (Shriver's cousin), Oprah Winfrey, Stevie Wonder, and Obama's wife Michelle Obama.[68][69] Governor Schwarzenegger had endorsed Senator John McCain for the Republican presidential nomination a few days earlier on January 31, 2008.[68] Later that year, as in 2004, Shriver was in attendance at the Democratic National Convention when her uncle Ted Kennedy spoke.

- GOVERNER OF CALINFRONIA NOVEMBER 17,2003 (56) : The first term of Arnold Schwarzenegger as governor of California began on November 17, 2003, and ended on January 3, 2007. Campaigning for Governor of California as a member of the Republican Party, Schwarzenegger was elected on October 7, 2003, defeating incumbent Democratic governor Gray Davis in the California gubernatorial recall election. In the first year of his first term as governor, Schwarzenegger proposed deep cuts in the state budget and was met with opposition in the California State Legislature. When San Francisco started granting same-sex marriage licenses at the behest of mayor Gavin Newsom, the governor ordered state attorney general

Bill Lockyer to intervene in the matter and vetoed legislation that would have legalized same-sex marriage. Because of their opposition to his budget cuts, Schwarzenegger controversially called his opponents in the legislature girlie men. At the 2004 Republican National Convention, Schwarzenegger gave a speech endorsing the reelection of George W. Bush as President of the United States.

Methodists like Dan Coates, CIA people like Sue Gordon, and others hide who was in the NWO underground railroads. Those included FOXP2 Syndrome patients now under Espionage assault as their existence is denied, and existence which would prove the Twins Studies plans that were underway JFK and RFK objected to, grooming twins the non-symptomatic as Infiltrators and the symptomatic shrugged of a eugenically very far away, even left for dead. Further Reading on Kate Clifford Larson

"I or others will not be disavowed by my Nazi father for FOXP2. I will build a world where we understand it and breed it out and breed all equal"

Munchkinland the Land of Oz 1939

PRINCESS LOOKING GLINDA THE GOOD WITCH OF THE NORTH

She first appears in Baum's 1900 children's classic The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, and is the most powerful sorceress in the Land of Oz, ruler of the Quadling Country South of the Emerald City, and protector of Princess Ozma.

WICKED WITCH OF THE EAST

The Wicked Witch was a middle aged, malevolent woman who conquered and tyrannized the Munchkin Country in Oz's eastern quadrant, forcing the native Munchkins to slave for her night and day.

WICKED WITCH OF THE WEST

The witch's most popular depiction was in the classic 1939 film based on Baum's novel, where she was portrayed by Margaret Hamilton. Hamilton's characterization introduced green skin and this has been continued in later literary and dramatic representations

Secrets of Dan for True Men

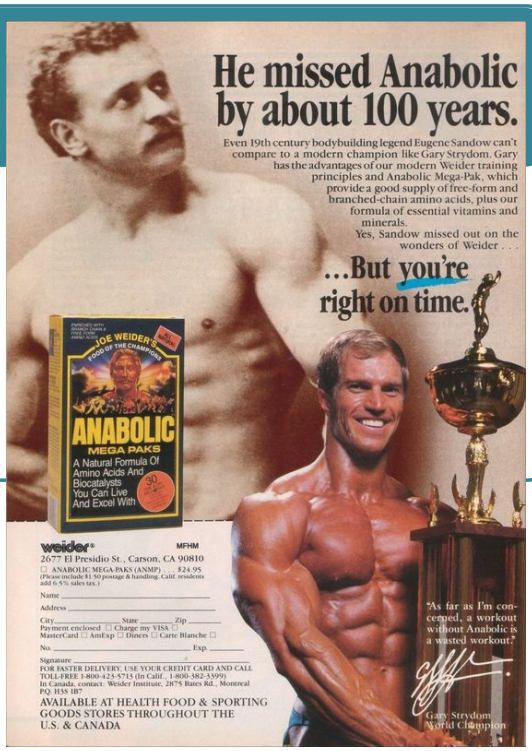
The signatures of Edward Donegan from Drivers Liscense, Arnold Shwatzenegger, and King Edward VIII.

1) Start the signature. 2) Start to give up. 3) Move the pen towards someone else because you in a hurry.

IN JUST 7 DAYS HAIR WEIDER AND HAIR ARNOLD CAN MAKE YOU A MAN

There has never been any doubt about Jews courage or intellect (knowing when to attemot escape and when not was a demonstrated skill) but athleticism has been in doubt.



Captain Von Trapp and his Austria Hungarian War history against Russia

George Soros[a] HonFBA (born György Schwartz, August 12, 1930 is a Hungarian-born American[b] billionaire investor and philanthropist.

Born in Budapest to a non-observant Jewish family, Soros survived the Nazi occupation of Hungary and moved to the United Kingdom in 1947.

He studied at the London School of Economics and was awarded a BSc in philosophy in 1951, and then a Master of Science degree, also in philosophy, in 1954. Soros was born in Budapest in the Kingdom of Hungary to a prosperous non-observant Jewish family, who, like many upper-middle class Ashkenazi Jewish (from Hungary) at the time, were uncomfortable with their roots.

In 1936, Soros's family changed their name from the German-Jewish Schwartz to Soros from Schwartz, as protective camouflage in increasingly antisemitic Hungary.[38][39] Tivadar liked the new name because it is a palindrome and because of its meaning. In Hungarian, soros means "next in line," or "designated successor"; in Esperanto it means "will soar."

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY BEFORE WORLD WAR I
https://alphahistory.com/worldwar1/austria-hungary/

In March 2017, six US senators sent a letter to then Secretary of State Rex Tillerson[131] asking that he look into several grants the State Department and the US Agency for International Development (USAID) have given to groups funded by "left-wing" Soros. In the same context, the conservative group Judicial Watch has filed a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) lawsuit against the U.S. Department of State and USAID compelling them to release records regarding $5 million transferred from USAID to Soros's Open Society branch in Macedonia.

The suit alleges that the money was deliberately used to destabilize the Macedonian government.[132] The Open Society Foundation has said its activities in Macedonia were aimed at ethnic reconciliation with the Albanian minority and other forms of assistance since the collapse of Yugoslavia.

The coming of the French Revolution created ideological solidarity between the absolutist monarchies including Russia and Austria, which both fought against France during the French Revolutionary Wars and the Napoleonic Wars.

The Russian Revolution was a period of political and social revolution that took place in the former Russian Empire and began during the First World War. Dates: Mar 8, 1917 Jun 16, 1923 that created an Anti-Monarchism fight along the Russian border pitting the monarchies of Europe against Communists people's government

In this context Maria Kutschera and Captain Von Trapp with the assistance of the Vatican left for England. England would rally countries in 1925 at Wemberly Park but face FOXP2.

The Lasting Impressions of a Bombed-Out London

In 1938, Roosevelt appointed Josehh Kennedy Sr as the United States ambassador to the Court of St. James's (Great Britain). Kennedy hoped to succeed Roosevelt in the White House in 1940 and it that family the Swartzeneggers would marry into.

Kennedy told a British reporter in late 1939 that he was confident that Roosevelt would "fall" in 1940 (i.e. in that year's presidential election).

Kennedy and his family retreated to the countryside during the bombings of London by German aircraft in World War II. In so doing, he damaged his reputation with the British.[43] This move prompted Randolph Churchill to say, "I thought my daffodils were yellow until I met Joe Kennedy".

This looks reversed, KE VIII has bad handwriting,
Prince Albert his younger brother does not. Coaching?

History In Ink™ Historical Autographs

King Edward VIII The Duke of Windsor, Prince Albert of York King George VI

Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David (1894-1972), King Edward VIII, 1936, Duke of Windsor, 1936-1972, and Albert Frederick Arthur George (1895-1952), King George VI, 1936-1952. Exquisitely framed signatures uncommonly signed together, Edward P, by Edward, then Prince of Wales, and Albert, by George, then Duke of York, on an octagonally trimmed sheet.

This piece is stunning. The kings' bold fountain signatures are triple matted in red and blue suede, with inlaid gold fillets, along with photographs from the British National Portrait Gallery collection and an engraved brass identification plate. The portrait of Edward VIII, made in 1936, is by Hugh Cecil; that of George VI, made in 1938, is by Bertram Park. The signatures are floated above the background mat, and the photographs are recessed from the upper mat, giving the piece a beautiful three-dimensional effect. The piece is finished with an ornate gilt wood frame.

A History In Ink framed original.

This item has been sold, but click hereto see other royalty and world leader items that we are offering.

Golds Gym appears in a Jodie Foste movie in a planted logo and also in Manchurian Candidate 1962 there is a fication character highly upset at the level of death that occured during WWII

One possibility is that either the Vatican OR OSS (CAI) of the USA or British Intelligence rescued Arnold from Gustav and may have known about FOXP2 even then, but not much about it. During that time the OSS CIA or British Intelligence would also likely have been interested in the SA (Brownshirts) and its officials (Gustav was a sergeant level operative) and thus Arnold was high on the underground railroad list of rescuees.

The Golds Gym founder started body building in 1960 Venice Beach as Lyndon B. Johnson was being chose as JFK Vice Presentment. After JFK was sworn in January 20 1961 on February 20 1961 I wa s likely fertilized along with Barrack Obama (Twins) never told of. Lyndon B. Johnson a WASP would appoint Herman Edward Butts daughter’s husband as Ambassador to Australia, and the Shrivers (Peace Corp 1961) would intermarry with the Kennedys.

NEGGER
Arnold Schwarzenegger had a brother, Meinhard Schwarzenegger who was avored by his father*(a former Nazi party member)* and died in a drunk driving crash at 24. Arnold did not attend his brother or dad's funerals.

How will the Nuremberg Race Laws leading into 1936 affect the Queen of England and others creating offspring, twins, and genetics studies around the world including with Jews?

The very gene that runs in the Swarchzenegger family.

September 15, 1935 The Nuremberg Race Laws were actually comprised of two separate pieces of legislation: The Law for the Protection of German Blood and German Honor, and The Reich Citizenship Law. The former law made a sharp distinction between “Germans” and “Jews,” forbidding intermarriage and sexual relations between members of these groups. The second stripped German Jews of their citizenship, by defining a Reich citizen as a “subject of the state who is of German or related blood,” a definition which excluded individuals of Jewish descent. In the following years, 13 supplementary laws were passed that further marginalized the Jewish community.

On NOVEMBER 14, 1935 a supplement to the Nuremberg Laws was issued, defining three different categories of “Jew”:

1. An individual with three or more Jewish grandparents was classified as a full Jew.

2. An individual with two Jewish grandparents was considered a “Mischling of the first degree,” or a half-Jew. This category was further broken down into sub-groups:

    a. First degree Mischlinge who were married to a Jew or were members of the Jewish community were referred to as Geltungsjuden. They were treated as full Jews, and were subject to the full extent of the Nuremberg Race Laws: they were stripped of their German citizenship, and prohibited from marrying or having sexual relations with German citizens.

    b. First degree Mischlinge who were baptized into the Protestant or Catholic tradition were known simply as Mischlinge. Under the original Nuremberg Laws there were permitted to keep their German citizenship, though this was later changed and members of this group were treated like Geltungsjuden.

3. Someone with one Jewish grandparent was considered a "Mischling of the second degree," or a quarter-Jew. They were permitted to keep their German citizenship, but later laws created barriers for them in the workplace and educational establishments.

The Nuremberg Race Laws were largely motivated by a Nazi racial ideology that was grounded in scientific racism and theories of eugenics. It was assumed that inter-marriage between the superior Master race of the Nordic German and the inferior races (Jews and Gypsies) would be detrimental to racial health; hence the need for racial hygiene.

-Erna Kurbegovic & Caroline Lyster

Mr. Olympia is the title awarded to the winner of the professional men's bodybuilding contest at Joe Weider's Olympia Fitness & Performance Weekendan international bodybuilding competition that is held annually by the International Federation of BodyBuilding & Fitness (IFBB). Joe Weider created the contest to enable the Mr. Universe winners to continue competing and to earn money. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

The 1969 Mr. Olympia and the Birth of Modern Bodybuilding retrieved from TheBarbell.com and copied or modified to here he Summer of '69. The moon landing, Manson murders, and Woodstock all within a momentous four weeks. Wonder and shock and joy. And this year, the 50th anniversary, there have been tributes and documentaries and a Tarantino movie, celebrating, mythologizing, memorializing. But there was another paramount event as that summer of '69 came to a close, only four weeks after Woodstock and a mere 100 miles southeast, but seemingly a world away. On September 13, 1969, in the Brooklyn Academy of Music, Arnold Schwarzenegger posed beside Sergio Oliva, and modern bodybuilding was born.

WEIDER

In the Weider version, the birth of the Mr. Olympia in 1965 is presented as light illuminating a dark wasteland. And Joe said, “Let there be an Olympia.” In retrospect, it can seem that way. At last, there was one ultimate contest. The truth, as usual, is more slippery. Well, the truth is Joe Weider was getting his ass kicked. Not when it came to magazines or supplements or training courses or all the various workout doodads he sold. No, the Canadian immigrant, then living in midtown Manhattan, was accumulating his first fortune in the ’60s.

Brooklyn Academy of Music

Brooklyn Academy of Music, home to the Mr. Olympia 1965-69 & ’73 / Jeffrey Bray But when it came to contests, his were perceived as second best. His and his brother Ben’s International Federation of Body Builders (IFBB) had already failed oncebrashly born in Montreal in the mid-’40s, it meekly vanished for virtually all of the ’50s (another truth excised from the mythology)and, after its return in 1959, its Mr. America and Mr. Universe trailed in prestige the AAU and NABBA originals for at least a decade, Pepsi to their Coke. Even Joe Weider couldn’t break the stranglehold of the long-established organizations.

But he kept trying. Why not just invent a new name? With the Mr. Olympia, he took on the NABBA Pro Mr. Universe as bodybuilding’s ultimate title. Still, as great as the first Mr. O, Larry Scott, was, the more-legendary Reg Park won (again) the NABBA Pro Mr. U that same year. The NABBA contest had 11 competitors, while the inaugural Olympia could scrounge up only three. Many believed Bill Pearl was the world’s greatest bodybuilder in the mid-’60s, a time when steroids were transforming physique size, but he never once competed in the IFBB and instead won the NABBA Pro Mr. U four times over 15 years, including 1967.

...

It is in 1977-1978 the GangStalk of me begins, the Leonard Skynard plane goes down, and Arnold Schwarzenegger guest stars on Streets of SF, filming there, about clinical defect of Legend about FOXP2 which appears to be the opposite, I tend to brush things off with humor though emotions under stress are strong.

Joe Weider retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Joe Weider

Joseph Weider (/ˈwiːdər/; November 29, 1919 March 23, 2013) was a Canadian bodybuilder and entrepreneur who co-founded the International Federation of BodyBuilders (IFBB) alongside his brother Ben Weider. He was also the creator of the Mr. Olympia, the Ms. Olympia and the Masters Olympia bodybuilding contests. He was the publisher of several bodybuilding and fitness-related magazines, most notably Muscle & Fitness, Flex, Men's Fitness and Shape, and the manufacturer of a line of fitness equipment and fitness supplements.

The International Federation of BodyBuilding and Fitness (IFBB), headquartered in Las Rozas (Madrid), is an international professional sports governing body for bodybuilding and fitness that oversees many of the sport's major international events, notably the World and Continental Championships.

In 1946, the IFBB was founded by brothers Ben and Joe Weider in Montreal, Canada under the name "International Federation of Bodybuilders". The two founding countries were Canada and the United States. Mr. Ben Weider of Canada served as the first IFBB President. In 1965 the IFBB Mr. Olympia was held, which was the IFBB's first contest.[5] From 1966 to 1970, the Federation experienced rapid growth as Joe and Ben Weider promoted the organization globally. By 1970, the IFBB had directors in more than 50 countries worldwide and the IFBB had its footprint in Africa, Asia, Europe, Australia, North America, and South America.

On September 4, 1970, the IFBB held its 1st International Congress in Belgrade, Yugoslavia where a Constitution was adopted and an Executive Council.[6] In 1971 Jim Morris became the first openly gay IFBB professional bodybuilder.[7] Also in 1971, the IFBB became a member of the Global Association of International Sports Federations (GAISF), now SportAccord. Upon receiving membership, the IFBB became the only official representative of bodybuilding to be recognized by world sport authorities. From the 1980s to his death in 2008, IFBB president Ben Weider petitioned the IOC for inclusion of bodybuilding in the Olympic Games.[8] Although bodybuilding had never been on the Olympic Program,[9] in 1998, the IOC granted the IFBB provisional recognition, which lasted nearly four years, but was withdrawn in 2001

Weider was born in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, to Louis and Anna Weider, Polish Jewish emigrants from Kurów, Poland. He published the first issue of Your Physique magazine in 1940,[1] and built a set of barbells out of car wheels and axles the same year out of the family garage on Coloniale Street in Montreal. He designed numerous training courses beginning in the 1950s, including the Weider System of Bodybuilding.

He married Hedwiges “Vicky” Uzar; together they had one child, Lydia Ross, and subsequently divorced in 1960.[2] During his marriage to Vicky Uzar he had met Betty Brosmer, who was then the highest-paid pin-up girl in the U.S.[3] In 1961 Joe and Betty married, and she began working alongside him as Betty Weider. Betty and Joe together authored books on bodybuilding.[4] Joe and Ben together were the co-founders of the International Federation of BodyBuilders.

Nutritional products

The family founded Weider Nutrition in 1936, considered the first sports nutrition company. Now called Schiff Nutrition International, they were the creators of Tiger’s Milk nutrition bars and related products, one of the earliest lines of sports foods.

Fitness publications

In 1953, Your Physique was renamed Muscle Builder magazine. The name changed again to Muscle & Fitness in 1980. Other magazines published by Weider's publishing empire included Mr. America, Muscle Power, Shape magazine, Fit Pregnancy, Men's Fitness, Living Fit, Prime Health and Fitness, Cooks, Senior Golfer, and Flex, in addition to the "skin magazines" Jem Magazine and Monsieur. The last two publications caused at least two clashes with obscenity laws. Weider has written numerous books, including The Weider System of Bodybuilding (1981), and co-wrote the 2006 biography Brothers Of Iron with Ben Weider. In 1983, Weider was named "Publisher of the Year" by The Periodical and Book Association. In 2003, his publication company, Weider Publications, was sold to American Media.

Legal issues

In 1972, Weider and his brother Ben found themselves the target of an investigation led by U.S. Postal inspectors. The investigation involved the claims regarding their nutritional supplement Weider Formula No. 7. The product was a weight-gainer that featured a young Arnold Schwarzenegger on the label. The actual claim centered on consumers being able to "gain a pound per day" in mass. Following an appeal wherein Schwarzenegger testified, Weider was forced to alter his marketing and claims.[7][8] Also in 1972, Weider encountered legal problems for claims made in his booklet Be a Destructive Self-Defense Fighter in Just 12 Short Lessons.

Weider was ordered to offer a refund to 100,000 customers of a "five-minute body shaper" that was claimed to offer significant weight loss after just minutes a day of use. The claims, along with misleading "before and after" photographs, were deemed false advertising by a Superior Court Judge in 1976.

In the 1980s, Weider found himself answering charges levied by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). In 1984, the FTC charged that ads for Weider's Anabolic Mega-Pak (containing amino acids, minerals, vitamins, and herbs) and Dynamic Life Essence (an amino acid product) had been misleading. The FTC complaint was settled in 1985 when Weider and his company agreed not to falsely claim that the products could help build muscles or be effective substitutes for anabolic steroids. They also agreed to pay a minimum of $400,000 in refunds or, if refunds did not reach this figure, to fund research on the relationship of nutrition to muscle development.

In 2000, Weider Nutritional International settled another FTC complaint involving false claims made for alleged weight loss products. The settlement agreement called for $400,000 to be paid to the FTC and for a ban on making any unsubstantiated claims for any food, drug, dietary supplement, or program.

Death

Weider died of heart failure on March 23, 2013, at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles, at the age of 93.

Honours and accolades

Sign at Venice Beach commemorating Joe Weider's donation.

Sign at Venice Beach commemorating Joe Weider's donation.

On Labor Day 2006, California governor and seven times Mr. Olympia winner Arnold Schwarzenegger, a Weider protégé, presented him with the Venice Muscle Beach Hall of Fame's Lifetime Achievement award. Schwarzenegger credited Weider with inspiring him to enter bodybuilding and to come to the United States.[14][15] That same year Joe and Ben received the lifetime achievement award by the Young Men's Hebrew Association.

The movie Bigger was released in 2018 focusing on the life of Joe Weider.[17] Tyler Hoechlin plays Joe Weider, while Julianne Hough plays Betty Weider, his second wife. Aneurin Barnard plays the role of Ben Weider, Joe's younger brother.

What if babe magnet on Venice Beach, the gym, and Hollywood Blvd, is The Greatly Built Gatsby and a criminal in a mansion? Maybe Rodney Dangerfield is right about Ulysses and self made real deal.

This plot using twins around the world some of who would be “shorter” than the super big I think is the planned groomed leaders around the world IF they do not show FOXP2 as I do which would undermine the whole royal genetics claim.

A Austrian health registry document describes Gustav Schwarzenegger as a “calm and reliable person, not particularly outstanding” and assesses his intellect as “average.” Ursula Schwarz, an historian at Vienna’s Documentation Centre of Austrian Resistance, has said that Schwarzenegger’s career was fairly typical for his generation,[3] and that no evidence has emerged directly linking him with participation in war crimes or abuses against civilians.[2] He resumed his police career in 1947.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

In 2021 in a video posted to Twitter, Gustavs son Arnold recalled, in a never before released public statement, how Gustav was frequently drunk and abusive to his family when he (Arnold) was young. Arnold attributed this behavior to guilt and shame over what Gustav and other Nazis and collaborators had perpetrated or enabled during the war.

“The Streets of San Francisco” Dead Lift (TV Episode 1977)

Dead Lift retrieved from IMDB.com and copied or modified to here

A champion bodybuilder visits San Francisco for a competition. A drug has made him incredibly buff and muscled, but has also left him extremely hypersensitive to criticism and with no control over his anger. When he shows off his poses for a young woman, he becomes enraged and unwittingly chokes her to death. He’s taken in by a couple and entered into the bodybuilding contest, but broods when he finishes only second. Stone and company suspect him in the death of the woman, and fear he may kill again if provoked.

Peter Harris

Cast (in credits order) Karl Malden Detective Lt. Mike Stone, Richard Hatch ... Inspector Dan Robbins, Arnold Schwarzenegger ... Josef Schmidt

International IQ Test and Similarity Transofmations in 1936
Group One		Group Two
Germany	Austria	England	Repuib of Ireland
Arnold Schwarzenegger		John F. Kennedy

Gym Roughians and the Waltham Murers

A triple homicide was committed in Waltham, Massachusetts, in the United States, on the evening of September 11, 2011.[1][2][3] Brendan Mess, Erik Weissman, and Raphael Teken were murdered in Mess's apartment. All had their throats slit from ear to ear with such great force that they were nearly decapitated. Thousands of dollars' worth of marijuana and money were left covering their mutilated bodies; in all, $5,000 was left in the apartment. The local district attorney said that it appeared that the killer and the victims knew each other, and that the murders were not random. -From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

In what I called the Protease Ploy (Restriction Enzymes are part of gene splicing. An enzyme like Protease restricts a gene from bonding to its surrounding structure by imposing itself in between) a group of actors who may be roughians surround a person and build an Legend regarding the surrounded person which will destroy the life and reputation of the surrounded person and may drive the surrounded person insane from mockery, harassment, insults or racial, religious, or sexually assaulting conduct.

The Legend imposed by Street Actors is not true, but the fight at the scene with the street actors may be risky. The Jewish operatives may have made The Tsarneves undersirable to other Muslim Immigrants keeping them isolated. Later the assets, the roughians, were eliminated so they would not compromise the mission. THe mission may have been getting the Tssarnevs upset with the USA, frustrated, and eager to bomb rather than well accepted in their immigrant community. That bombing depressed the level of investigation resources and attention to the JFK library bombing.

Waltham is a city in Middlesex County, Massachusetts, United States, and was an early center for the labor movement as well as a major contributor to the American Industrial Revolution. The original home of the Boston Manufacturing Company, the city was a prototype for 19th century industrial city planning, spawning what became known as the Waltham-Lowell system of labor and production. The city is now a center for research and higher education, home to Brandeis University and Bentley University as well as industrial powerhouse Raytheon Technologies. The population was 65,218 at the census in 2020.

In 1857, the Waltham Model 1857 watch was produced by the American Watch Company in the city of Waltham, Massachusetts. In the late 19th and early 20th century, Waltham was home to the brass era automobile manufacturer Metz, where the first production motorcycle in the U.S. was built.

Another first in Waltham industrial history involves the method to mass-produce the magnetron tube, invented by Percy Spencer at Raytheon. During World War II, the magnetron tube technology was applied to radar. Later, magnetron tubes were used as components in microwave ovens.

Waltham was also the home of the Walter E. Fernald State School, the western hemisphere’s oldest publicly funded institution serving people with developmental disabilities. The storied and controversial history of the institution has long been covered by local and, at times, national media.

The Walter E. Fernald State School, later the Walter E. Fernald Developmental Center, was the Western hemisphere’s oldest publicly funded institution serving people with developmental disabilities.[2][3] Originally a Victorian sanatorium, it became a “poster child” for the American eugenics movement during the 1920s. It later was the scene of medical experiments in the 20th century. Investigations into this research led to new regulations regarding human research in children.

The school occupies a 186 acres (75 ha) property off Trapelo Road in Waltham, Massachusetts.

Gustav Schwarzenegger died of a stroke in Weiz, Steiermark, Austria on 13 DECEMBER 1972 at the age of 65, where he had been transferred as a policeman. He is buried in Weiz Cemetery. Aurelia Jadrny Schwarzenegger died of a heart attack at the age of 76 while visiting Weiz Cemetery in August 1998, and is buried next to her husband. Their son, Arnold Schwarzenegger, stated in the film Pumping Iron that he did not attend his father's funeral, but later retracted this, explaining that it was a story he had appropriated from a boxer, to make it appear as though he could prevent his personal life from interfering with his athletic training.

News reports about Schwarzenegger's National Socialist links first surfaced in 1990, at which time Arnold Schwarzenegger asked the Simon Wiesenthal Center, an organization he had long supported, to research his father's past. The Center found his father's army records and NSDAP party membership, but did not uncover any connection to war crimes or the paramilitary organization, the Schutzstaffel (SS).[2] Media interest resurfaced when Arnold ran for Governor of California in the 2003 recall election.

Arnolds Nazi father Gustav preferred Arnold's older brother body builder Meinhard to him and Arnold may have had FOP2. Arnold did not attend the funernerals of his father or older brother, the older brother dying at 24 in a drunk driving crash. My brother Tom Donegan upon meeting Tim Kaine found he might be a candidate for Governer of Virginia, Tom Donegan did NOT show FOXP2 and always fancied himself having ancesterors ar an anscetor who was a royal.

The Governator dropped from the Sky retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

As a Republican candidate, Schwarzenegger was first elected on October 7, 2003, in a special recall election to replace then-Governor Gray Davis. Arnold Schwarzenegger received 48.6% of the vote, 17 points ahead of Democrat runner-up Cruz Bustamante. In an overlapp with the George W. Bush Dick CHeney POTUS term Anronld was sworn in on NOVEMBER 17 2003 to serve the remainder of Davis' term, and was re-elected in the 2006 California gubernatorial election with an increased vote share of 55.9% to serve a full term as governor.[7] In 2011, he reached his term limit as Governor and returned to acting.

Meinhard Scharzenegger Born: July 1946, Thal, Austria Died: May 20, 1971, Kitzbuhel, Austria Spouse: Erika Knapp Children: Patrick M. Knapp Schwarzenegger Parents: Aurelia Jadrny Schwarzenegger, Gustav Schwarzenegger Siblings: Arnold Schwarzenegger

Wandering Panther

Twitter @90Doses *

Parents: the late Meinhard Schwarzenegger and Maria Shriver Son: Patrick Knapp Schwarzenegger (probably didn’t even know what happened. thought she was just taking a “k”nap.) LOL just lightening the mood; if only a little.

Parents: Sandahl Bergman and the late Alfred-Roy Carey Daughter: Mildred Patricia Baena Parents: Mildred Patricia Baena & Arnold Schwarzenegger Son: Rogelio Baena

Parents: the late Aristotle Onassis and Maria Callas Children: Gustav and Aurelia Jadrny Schwarzenegger

Wandering Panther @90Doses · Mar 5, 2020

Patrick Knapp Schwarzenegger=John F. Kennedy
Patrick Schwarzenegger=Robert F. Kennedy

(which would get me thinking #WTF. They killed both John and Robert; what would be their plans for me?) but; that's just me.

Schwarzenegger was nicknamed the “Austrian Oak” in his bodybuilding days, “Arnie” or “Schwarzy” during his acting career, [8] and “The Governator” (a portmanteau of “Governor” and “Terminator”) during his political career. He married Maria Shriver, a niece of President John F. Kennedy, in 1986. They separated in 2011 after he admitted to having fathered a child with their housemaid in 1997, and their divorce was finalized in 2017.

Austrian Roots

Arnold Alois Schwarzenegger was born in Thal, Austria on July 30, 1947,[10] the second son of Gustav Schwarzenegger (17 August 1907 - 13 DECEMBER 1972) and his wife, Aurelia (née Jadrny). His mother was of Czech descent, while his paternal great-grandfather, Wenzel Mach, was also Czech and came from the village of Chocov near Mladá Vožice. Wenzel had a child out of wedlock with Kunigunde Schwarzenegger, and the child (Schwarzenegger’s paternal grandfather) was originally named Carl Mach but later adopted his mother’s surname Schwarzenegger.

Schwarzenegger - back in the private sector for more than four years now, after two terms leading the state from Sacramento - takes movie and business meetings here. Against a far wall are cases displaying “my trophies from old bodybuilding competitions,” he says. Behind his desk is a towering Andy Warhol silk-screen of Russell Means, the Native American actor and activist; below this sits a small photograph of Meinhard Schwarzenegger, Arnold’s strikingly beautiful older brother, who died in a car crash at 24. Schwarzenegger has forgotten what Meinhard’s voice sounded like. But he thinks of him often. “I have always been extremely pissed off about the idea of death,” he says. “It’s such a waste. I know it’s inevitable, but what the hell is that? Your whole life you work, you try to improve yourself, save money, invest wisely, and then all of a sudden - poof. It’s over.” Arnold Schwarzenegger is 67. “Death pisses me off more than ever,” he says.

The Rolling Stone

>Dpes Arnnold regret the deaths of those deemed unfit under Hitler as well?

5 Days later …”

Neilia Hunter Biden (July 28, 1942 - DECEMBER 18, 1972) was an American teacher and the first wife of Joe Biden, the 46th and current president of the United States. She died in a car crash in 1972 along with her one-year-old daughter, Naomi. Her two sons, Beau and Hunter, were critically injured but survived the wreck.

Karen Silkwood Born: FEBRUARY 19, 1946, Longview, TX Died: November 13, 1974, Crescent, OK. Longdiew is just inside Texas 3 hours from Little ROck Arkansas, Standard Oil, the Rockefellers, MENA Middle East North Africa Airport

At school, Schwarzenegger was reportedly academically average but stood out for his “cheerful, good-humored, and exuberant” character.

Is Arnold Schwarzenegger a Maria Von Trapp with FOXP2 who was recued fron Nazis??

Nazi Official Gustav Schwarzenegger married Aurelia on October 20, 1945; he was 38 and she was 23. According to Schwarzenegger, his parents were very strict: “Back then in Austria it was a very different world […] if we did something bad or we disobeyed our parents, the rod was not spared.”[20] He grew up in a Catholic family.[21] Gustav preferred his elder son, Meinhard, over Arnold.[22] His favoritism was “strong and blatant”, which stemmed from unfounded suspicion that Arnold was not his biological child.

Austrian police chief Gustav Schwarzenegger
Born 17 August 1907 Austria-Hungary Died 13 December 1972 (aged 65)

- Eldest Meinhard son Born: July 1946, Thal, Austria Died: May 20, 1971, Kitzbuhel, Austria
- Younger Son Arnold Swarzenegger (born under different name)

Schwarzenegger was born in Austria-Hungary, the son of Cecelia (née Hinterleitner, 1878-1968) and Karl Schwarzenegger (1872-1927).[1] He was a sportsman and loved music.

According to documents obtained in 2003 from the Austrian State Archives by the Los Angeles Times,[a] Schwarzenegger voluntarily applied to join the Austrian National Socialist Party on 1 March 1938, eleven days before the country was annexed. Austria became part of Nazi Germany after being annexed on 12 March 1938.[2] A separate record obtained by the Wiesenthal Center indicates he sought membership before the annexation, but was only accepted in January 1941.

Schwarzenegger also applied to become a member of the Sturmabteilung (SA) [Brown Shirt Gym Roughians destroying the lives of and attacking opposition in the streets) , the Nazi party's (NSDAP) paramilitary wing, on 1 May 1939, a year after the annexation of Austria, at a time when SA membership was declining. The SA had 900,000 members in 1940, down from 4.2 million in 1934. This six year decline in SA membership was an extended result of the three-day-long purge known as The Night of the Long Knives, a political purge carried out by Adolf Hitler against the SA, seen at that time as too radical and too powerful by senior military and industrial leaders within the Nazi Party.

Schwarzenegger's father was the local chief of police. After the Anschluss in 1938, he joined the Nazi Party and, in 1939 the Sturmabteilung (SA). In World War II, he served as a military policeman in the invasions of Poland, France and the Soviet Union, including the siege of Leningrad, rising to the rank of Hauptfeldwebel. He was wounded in the Battle of Stalingrad,[18] and was discharged in 1943 following a bout of malaria. According to Holocaust scholar Michael Berenbaum, Gustav Schwarzenegger served “in theaters of the war where atrocities were committed. But there is no way to know from the documents whether he played a role.”

SA; literally “Storm Detachment”) was the Nazi Party’s original paramilitary wing. It played a significant role in Adolf Hitler’s rise to power in the 1920s and 1930s. Its primary purposes were providing protection for Nazi rallies and assemblies, disrupting the meetings of opposing parties, fighting against the paramilitary units of the opposing parties, especially the Roter Frontkämpferbund of the Communist Party of Germany (KPD) and the Reichsbanner Schwarz-Rot-Gold of the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD), and intimidating Romani, trade unionists, and especially Jews.

The SA were colloquially called Brownshirts (Braunhemden) because of the colour of their uniform’s shirts, similar to Benito Mussolini’s blackshirts. The official uniform of the SA was the brown shirt with a brown tie. The color came about because a large shipment of Lettow-shirts, originally intended for the German colonial troops in Germany’s former East Africa colony,[2] was purchased in 1921 by Gerhard Roßbach for use by his Freikorps paramilitary unit. They were later used for his Schill Youth organization in Salzburg, and in 1924 were adopted by the Schill Youth in Germany.[3] The “Schill Sportversand” then became the main supplier for the SA brown shirts. The SA developed pseudo-military titles for its members, with ranks that were later adopted by several other Nazi Party groups, chief amongst them the Schutzstaffel (SS), which originated as a branch of the SA before it was separated from it after the Night of the Long Knives.

Seargent Shriver Peace Corp 1961 takes up Nationally as governemnt program what was formerly Africa Crossing program of Columbia University Shrivers Lawfords Kennedys JFK Schwarzegger

Schwarzen*egger*

As I moved to Corpus Christi PsyOps was attacking me by devaluing me by teaching me exactly what I was unique for (in public) and doing the same to a white female woman in AA at First United Methodist who reported having an autistic boy too. People were giving out her tips as though she did not know them herself.

Sept. 16, 2010 — In her new book, Katherine Schwarzenegger, Arnold Schwarzenegger's daughter, delves into her own life to help other girls and women develop a healthy body image.

Katherine Schwarzenegger DECEMBER 13, 1989 one copy of the gene or two?

Schwarzenegger talks about the influences and pressures on women and girls to be magazine-perfect. Her advice? Take a realistic, and happy, look in the mirror to see what is truly beautiful.

Read an excerpt of the book below and head to the "GMA" Library to find more good reads.

The December 13 daughter is exhibiting strong emotions and possible Borderlin Personality Disorder in internal struggle.

Red Sonja retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Power-hungry Queen Gedren (Sandahl Bergman) captures the priestesses guarding the Talisman, a mystical orb that created and can destroy the world. But one of the priestesses escapes and seeks out her warrior sister, Red Sonja (Brigitte Nielsen), to warn her about Gedren's plan for world domination. Lord Kalidor (Arnold Schwarzenegger), the Talisman's keeper, insists on helping Sonja, and though she scorns the assistance of any man, she soon gains respect for Kalidor's fighting prowess. Release date: JULY 3, 1985 (USA)

Twins matter retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Julius and Vincent Benedict are twins, the result of a secret experiment carried out at a genetics laboratory to combine the DNA of six fathers to produce the perfect child. To the surprise of the scientists, the embryo split and the twins were born. The mother, Mary Ann Benedict (Glorian?), was told that Julius died at birth, and not told about Vincent at all.

Vincent was placed in an orphanage run by nuns in Los Angeles and believed his mother abandoned him. With no one but himself to rely on, Vincent seduced a nun, escaped from the orphanage, and later became an indebted, small time criminal. Julius was raised on a South Pacific island by Professor Werner, one of the scientists from the experiment, who put him through intense physical training and extensive study. Both believed Mary Ann died during childbirth.

Each twin was unaware of the other's existence. On Julius' 35th birthday, Werner finally tells Julius about Vincent.[5] With Werner's blessing, Julius proceeds to Los Angeles to find his brother. Julius eventually tracks Vincent down in jail, where he is being held for unpaid parking tickets and driving with an expired license.

The plot fits the theory of this book The Medical State of Julius Ceaser born to be Emporors and elevated groomed support and others coming up short and perhaps even sabotaged and hidden who don't know their twins are Govenors and Presidents. Am I Danny Devito and is Arnold Schwarzenegger Barrack Obama Jr (Julius?)

Pumping Iron retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Movie poster for Pumping Iron (1977): It depicts Ed Corney in a victory pose, his hands raised above his heads, open palms towards the front.

Pumping Iron is a 1977 American docudrama about the world of professional bodybuilding, with a focus on the 1975 IFBB Mr. Universe and 1975 Mr. Olympia competitions. Directed by George Butler and Robert Fiore and edited by Geof Bartz and Larry Silk, it is inspired by a book of the same name by Butler and Charles Gaines, and nominally centers on the competition between Arnold Schwarzenegger and one of his primary competitors for the title of Mr. Olympia, Lou Ferrigno. The film also features segments on bodybuilders Franco Columbu and Mike Katz, in addition to appearances by Ken Waller, Ed Corney, Serge Nubret, and other famous bodybuilders of the era.

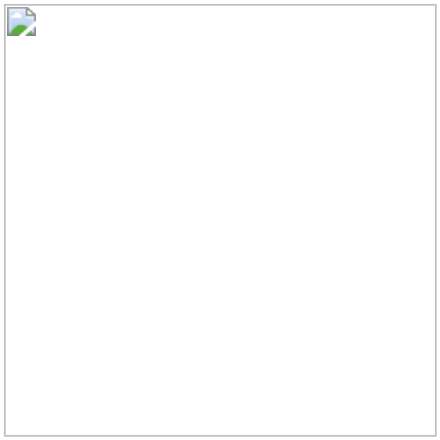
Notables

BILLY AND BOBBY MAUCH



William John Mauch (July 6, 1921 - September 29, 2006) and his identical twin brother, Robert Joseph Mauch (July 6, 1921 - October 15, 2007), were child actors in the 1930s. They had starring roles in the 1937 film The Prince and the Pauper, based on the novel of the same name by Mark Twain.

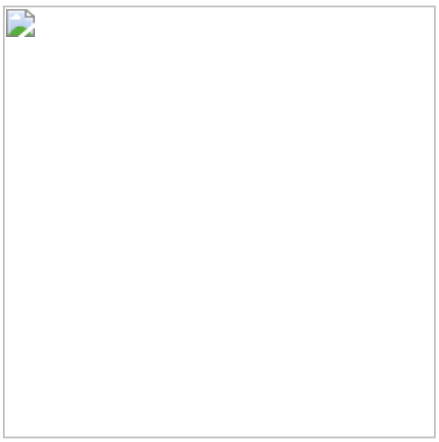
Recall the Anschluss, German: “Union”, political union of Austria with Germany, achieved through annexation by Adolf Hitler in 1938 foloowing the showmanship of the Berlin Olympics 1936 and claims of Aryan (Central European) genetic superiority.

Billy and his wife Marjorie, who were married 53 years, had one son, William J. Mauch II, named after himself. Billy died, aged 85, in his home in Palatine, Illinois.

Bobby Mauch married professional figure skater Georgia “Gigi” Shattuck, whom he first met at the Mar-Ken School in the 1940s,[2] but married in 1971. They had no children. He died, aged 86, at a nursing home in Santa Rosa, California.

SHAWN AND AARON ASHMORE

Roles in 2004 My Brother's Keeper Eric / Lou Woods pic from a Buzzfeed article

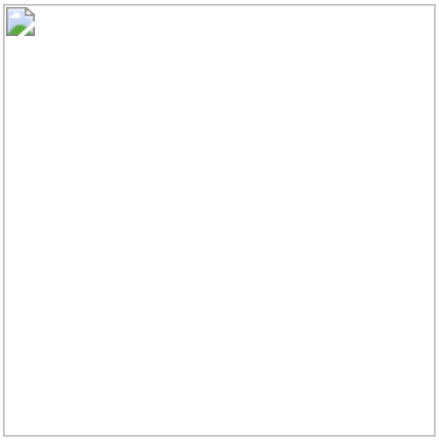


One of Shawn Ashmore's notable roles was as Iceman in X-Men and its sequels X2 and X-Men: The Last Stand. Ashmore also reprised his role as Iceman in the animated series The Super Hero Squad Show, as well as voicing the role for X-Men: The Official Game.

In 2020, Ashmore recurred in the second season of the Amazon Prime Video superhero series The Boys as Lamplighter, a former member of the superhero group the Seven.

In December 2004, Ashmore was cast in the lead role in the SciFi Channel mini series Legend of Earthsea, based on the novels by Ursula K. Le Guin.[11] He played the role of Ged, a young wizard-in-training, who takes advice from a Magus (Danny Glover) and falls in love with Tenar (Kristin Kreuk), the protege of the High Priestess of the Tombs of Atuan (Isabella Rossellini). Lowry, Brian (DECEMBER 12, 2004). "Legend of Earthsea". Variety.

GAYLE AND GILLIAN BLAKENEY



pic from Daily Mail UK Gayle and Gillian Blakeney are Australian Australian identical twins born 9 JULY 1966 (age 55) who performed together as actresses and as a dance/pop duo in the 1990s. Born in Brisbane on 9 July 1966, Gayle is older by nine minutes. They are most widely known for their stint in the soap opera Neighbours, as twins Caroline and Christina Alessi.

The girls knew from a young age that they wanted to be on television. After begging their mother to take them to singing lessons, she finally agreed and this led them to various talent quests around South East Queensland. As first prize at one event on the Gold Coast the girls won entry into a televised talent show on the Nine Network.

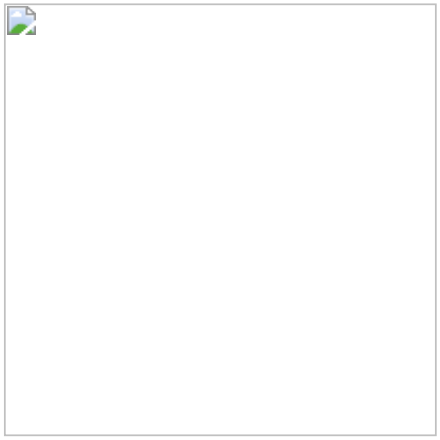
Gayle and Gillian then starred in numerous television commercials around Australia - including a series of Kelloggs' Corn Flakes commercials. They then decided to take the next step and auditioned for a lead role in a children's telemovie pilot called "Earth Patrol" starring Spike Milligan. Gillian won the lead children's role of Cassie. However, the producers were delighted with both twins' auditions and planned to write Gayle into the series as her twin sister if the pilot was successful. The pilot was not accepted.

The sisters continued their career in 1980 when they appeared in a video clip for the Australian group, The Monitors, "Singin' In The '80s", wearing make-up in the style of rock band Kiss.[1] They also appeared in other music videos by The Monitors between 1980 and 1982, most notably "Nobody Told Me" (dressed as schoolgirls in a jail) and "Having You Around Me" (dressed as 'beach babes'). The sisters also presented "Take Your Pick" with Des O'Connor.

The sisters have contrasting personalities. When sharing a flat together, Gillian did the man-about-the-house DIY work, while Gayle did the cooking and housework.

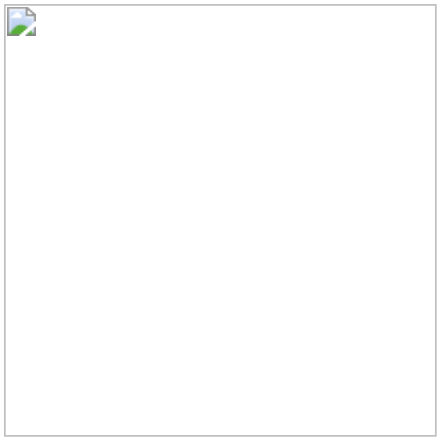
CHARLIE AND MAX CARVER



Max Carver (born Robert Maxwell Martensen Jr AUGUST 1, 1988) is an American actor. He is known for his role as Preston Scavo in the ABC television series Desperate Housewives,[3] as Aiden on the MTV teen-horror drama Teen Wolf, and in the first season of the HBO series The Leftovers; his twin brother Charlie Carver portrayed the twin of his characters in all three shows. pic from Pinterest

Max Carver was born in San Francisco, California, on August 1, 1988. His identical twin brother Charles was born seven minutes earlier on July 31.[4] Before he began acting professionally, he was known as Max Martensen.[citation needed] His father was physician, historian, and author Robert Martensen, and his mother, Anne Carver, is a philanthropist and community activist.[citation needed] In 1992, Anne and her new husband Denis Sutro moved the family to Calistoga in Napa Valley.[citation needed] He attended High School at St. Paul's Boarding School in Concord, New Hampshire, from which he graduated in 2007.[citation needed] In 2012, he graduated from the University of Southern California with a bachelor's degree in English.

CHRISTIAN AND JOSEPH COUSINS



Christian and Joseph Cousins (pic from Pinterest) (born March 17, 1983) are American actors who are identical twins. As with many cases of child actors who are twins, the roles they played were usually shared between the two. Their most famous role was as Dominic in the 1990 film Kindergarten Cop alongside Arnold Schwarzenegger.

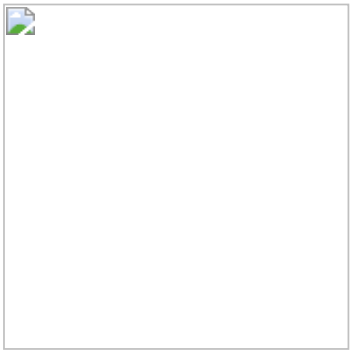
Kindergarten Cop: After years of pursuing Cullen Crisp, an infamous drug dealer (Hitler?), LAPD detective John Kimble arrests him for murder; a witness saw Crisp murder an informant after getting information regarding the whereabouts of his former wife, Rachel, who he claims stole millions of dollars from him before fleeing with his son. Partnered with former teacher-turned-detective Phoebe, Kimble goes undercover in Astoria, Oregon to find Rachel and offer her immunity in exchange for testifying against Crisp in court. Phoebe must act as a substitute teacher in Cullen Jr's kindergarten class at Astoria Elementary School. Phoebe gets a terrible case of stomach flu, falling ill at the last moment, so Kimble takes her place.

The suspicious school principal, Miss Schlowski, is convinced Kimble will not last long before quitting. Though initially overwhelmed, he adapts to his new status quickly, despite not having any formal teaching experience. With the use of his pet ferret as a class mascot, positive reinforcement, his police training as a model for structure in class, and his experience as a father, he becomes a much admired and cherished figure to the students.

Christian and Joseph's first role was playing Val and Gary Ewing's son Bobby Ewing on the soap opera Knots Landing, beginning in 1987.[2] The character was named after Bobby Ewing who died during the dream season on Dallas. Afterwards, they frequently appeared in various television series and films, including Twin Sitters and Critters 3, as well as episodes of Father Dowling Mysteries, Eerie, Indiana, and Wings.[3]

Eunice Kennedy Shriver visits with Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, during a reception at the White House, following the state funeral of President John F. Kennedy. Also pictured: Ambassador of the United Arab Republic, Dr. Mostafa Kamel; Director of the Peace Corps, R. Sargent Shriver; Naval Aide to President Kennedy, Captain Tazewell Shepard. State Dining Room, White House, Washington, D.C.

ARCHIVES 1961: ROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP, APRIL 22-MAY 21 (GHANA, NIGERIA, INDIA, PAKISTAN, BURMA, MALAYA, THAILAND, PHILIPPINES)



Reflections on Sargent Shriver, Peace Corps Director Extraordinaire and the 25th Anniversary of the Peace Corps September 1986 retrieved from American Diplomacy and copied or modified to here

Robert Sargent Shriver, known as Sarge since childhood, was a man of many accomplishments with an outstanding career in public and international service. In the late 1950s, as Head of Chicago's School Board and the Catholic Interracial Council, Shriver led successful efforts to integrate Chicago’s public and parochial schools. In addition to being the first Director of President John F. Kennedy’s creation, the Peace Corps, under the Johnson Administration, Shriver was Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity; helped establish the War on Poverty Program, the Job Corps, VISTA and Head Start, the Community Action Program, Legal Services to the Poor and Foster Grandparents. He was Ambassador to France from 1968 to 1970 and Vice Presidential candidate in George McGovern’s unsuccessful run for President in 1972. In the 1980s and 1990s, Shriver was Chairman of the Board of Special Olympics International, advocating against violence and discrimination directed at the intellectually disabled.

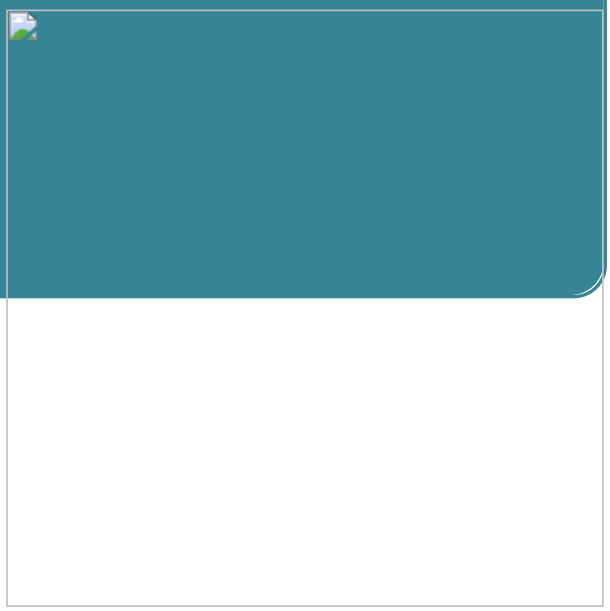
This book

Taking over my Gym Workout, road blocking my gym access

Joe Gold retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Joe Gold, American bodybuilder. Anonymous - Muscle Power Magazine. Union City, New Jersey. (December, 1954)



Joe Gold (born Sidney Gold; March 10, 1922[1] - July 11, 2004) was an American bodybuilder and businessman. He was the founder of Gold's Gym and World Gym. He has been credited with being the father of the bodybuilding and the fitness craze.

Joe Gold was the youngest of four siblings, Robert Gold (born Ruben Gold), Nathan Gold and Eunice Gold Fiss. His parents, Max Gold (born Abraham Mordechai Goldglejt) and Jennie Gold Glick Sussman (born Zelda Feierman) were both Jewish emigrants having relocated from Belarus to Boyle Heights, Los Angeles. Max Gold was the neighborhood junk collector and the family's back yard and garage served as a makeshift junk yard. His mother, JENNIE, was a seamstress who divorced Joe's father and remarried two additional times. Joe attended Theodore Roosevelt High School.

He developed an interest in bodybuilding at the age of 12, when he saw his sister-in-law's design for strengthening her arms. She had attached a filled bucket to each end of a broom handle and was using them as lifts. Joe and his brother, Robert Gold, got the idea for building their own equipment from scrap obtained from their father's scrap yard in Boyle Heights. As a teenager he headed for Muscle Beach in Santa Monica.

A machinist, he worked in the United States Merchant Marine and served in the United States Navy during World War II, where he was badly injured in a torpedo attack,[3] and also in the Korean War.

I was stalked in the gym including multiple gyms in San Francisco when I lived with DJ Slaveboy, before, and after but something new was added to it when I used Sport and Health Gym in 2010 in Arlington Virginia on Wilson Blvd.

I made many of my own custom workouts using Cyberlink. Many of my workout videos were on my own MP4s on tablet or cell phone and had Cyberghoth dancing because the high energy hand movements were perfent for jump rope.

I created this Jumpropestyle (Hard style, Gangham STyle, Frenchcore, etc.,) playlist which has videos like this.

Industrial Dance [[Hellektro Industrial Gore Girl]] - Noisuf-X

Industrial Dance (Biochemical) Alien Vampires - Control The Universe

As locally stored MP4s any wire tap did not reveal their origins but some very scuzzy blacks began losing control, watching the videos hiding behind exercize eqiupment or from outside windows resulting in police calls. Those in the gym then saw the others “peeping” and “fapping” not able to stop, and taking pictures of my videos playing “triggered” by the sight of it into a compulsion.

This subjected me to a study of what was it in the gym and and some black females from New York were then following me in Christain Jesus t-shirts, etc., I thought tied to Loretta Lynch New York US Attorney.

I have stalkers “paying” gym women, others for the “porn” of me (them) taking pictures of women in gym clothes, at the pool, etc., I beleive that sets the #PsyOps expectation I should be socially excluded from those locations, others instead of me.

When the person who is Fake Ed hires an adult model she arrives to find Fake Ed is really a child porn addict and owes for harm done to little minority children. I do not but my Trust Fund agrees with this which fits a Kamala Harris is a Hero narrative.

Missing Moto Jacket and Impersonation

“How do targeted victims & whistleblowers report child trafficking: Inside ICE-Dialing HSI?” - Jen Moore

I have gone to others. Had a hit job as a response. I want to walk this out to show how it works. I would rather be in danger than victims I already am. I have others working different angles, we have video evidence and will release at some point. Going through the motions as a demonstration.

When I had A1c 13.3 the first effort of hostile people, black and retarded and gay, was to deny me laundry, nutrition, clothing, equipment, and gym dues.

I found out the old school chest strap used a certain frequency OEM chip which worked easily with gym equipment and inexpensive equipment, but like googles (taken directly in front of me) and other equipment needs, the chest strap was stolen, seemingly by a trainer of Arlington Sport and Health and leftist telegraph ave type leftist women repeated my exercise moves (dumbbells on bikes) in front of me in exaggerated ways after I had already been doing those exercises.

There was also constant race baiting including a large white male wearing a hoody and in contemporary with the event making references to the victim hood of Trey Von Martin which would be avenged against whites.

Black males worked out white females to workout moves I had created while the white females made orgasimg sounds.

This bizzare scenario I now know is called Street Theater Gangstalk.

Animal Planet

A white guy got amazing results and quite a svelte and healthy body and used mostly gym music from a pasty white music scene, in no way exclusively but in fact hippy like including DJ Delite etc.,

Groovy black me gave me death threats, taunts, etc., in the gym, and made an “Unsportsman like conduct” taunting environment, creating people walking in front of me like I was after them, trying to destroy the timing of peddling, jump rope with shouting, blueotooth meddling, taunting on equipment near me, etc.,

During this the value, the proof of the value of my own workout was not properly realized as others literally took notes on my moves as I developed them as a program that could be taught to others.

I think the gym environment was a place blacks were accepted as athletes already and if social justice programs could make my own system part of Social Justice Behavioral Health of Yoga it could become an integration opportunity for non-whites; however, the program designed by behavioral health care was more based on hostility towards me and encouraged others to bring negativity and wrongful acts into the normally mentally healthy and safe gym environment.

It did fit the Cooption Monely Laundering model thought, that value which existed in my workouts not recognized but credited to others.

It was the gym environment that was abnormal, not me in any way, this was launched at me for no reason I understood.

i was a promoter and fan of great artists like Luccci in the Goth scene. Later I calculated how white the goth scene was might have been a factor and began to defend that was ok for it to be Western Eurocenttric including Hispanic and Russian.

Road Blocking especially form position of power rather than peer competition Goth Industrial and Hardstyle Music
Original Person (Sower) used it as gym music	Roadblock Often composed of victims, such as minors or vulnerable females as Crisis Actor Victims and the Reaper, a Crisis Actor pretending to be the Sower, exploiting the victims	Reaper has GOOD non masturbatory use of Hardtyle, Goth	Gym community in Sower's path Original Path now is now under way with identities of Sower and Reaper switched out
Reaper may dress as Sower and create a crisis masturbating pretending to be Ed	Discriminating Community acts on secretly held KOMPROMAT Road Roadblocks Sower on flimsy excuse but good enough excuse
Reaper will defame Sower to Community,

Ask to be accepted instead May also rob Sower's original work A1c 13.3 to 4.7
Sower did not move forward,does not have his or her own work result

It was race baiting about race and race wars I wanted nothing to do with and also about who would be working out white women.

Much of has centered around others force teaming themselvs with my tablet music, while asserting to me it had on only "porn" meaning, which Princess Apartments CC TX is continuing (You chould close your [cool wind permitting] door when that type of muisc is on, Ed, the black buidling management tolld me.

In a sudden change the Clarendon club next to my brother and Mark Wierness house will merge with the Wilson Mall location I worked out and a Gangstalk moves in to my gym from that gym, and suspicious trainers move in and suspicions activities.

Arlgton Now retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Sport & Health Near Clarendon to Close Next Month by Ethan Rothstein February 5, 2014

Located at at 1122 N. Kirkwood Road, the gym is one of four Sport & Health clubs in Arlington; there is one in Ballston and two in Crystal City. The comapny emailed its members earlier this week to tell them the gym would close March 5 due to concerns about building maintenance and "market conditions."

"The market conditions have changed and the facility that was created decades ago will not allow us to continue with our vision at the Arlington Sport & Health Club," Sport & Health Club CEO and President Mark Fisher wrote in the email. "While these market conditions and physical plant concerns have affected our ability to continue operating the Arlington club, we have built new clubs and reinvested in others. It is our hope that you will continue to give us the opportunity to help you reach your fitness goals and enjoy the club communities that we create."

The chain has 22 other locations in the D.C. region, and starting today it's allowing the members of the Arlington club to sign up for free at its other locations. The gym originally opened in 1977, according to General Manager Perry White.

Re: SSDI and Special Needs Trusts necessities

Tia Marsili tia.marsili@thearcofnova.org Tue, May 13, 2014 at 9:34 PM
To: Ed Donegan edinarlington@gmail.com>, Hannah Dannenfelser hdannenfelser@thearcofnova.org
Cc: "Ashley, Penny" pashley@arlingtonva.us

We need the entire contract. The pages you sent do not indicate that you are bound to an on-going contract.

Please understand that we are doing our duty as managers and are accountable. Half a contract is not sufficient supporting documentation.

Tia Marsili
Director of Trusts
The Arc of Northern Virginia

On Mon, May 12, 2014 at 3:42 PM, Ed Donegan edinarlington@gmail.com wrote:

Look for the giant type "Membership Agreement" at the top of page one to indicate it is a legal agreement in writing between two parties. Look in the section "monthly dues" for information on monthly dues. Look to page 2 for my autodeduct from my checking authorization.,

---

On Mon, May 12, 2014 at 3:04 PM, Tia Marsili tia.marsili@thearcofnova.org wrote:

Ed, That is my assumption, that it repeats, but the document doesn't state that. It states a beginning and end date as you and I have both noted.

Tia Marsili
Director of Trusts
The Arc of Northern Virginia

On Thu, May 8, 2014 at 12:44 PM, Ed Donegan edinarlington@gmail.com wrote:

Tia; you said regarding the 1st page of the gym contract I sent you

> "To date you have sent us a statement that has a September 1, 2013 start date and a September 30, 2013 end date. This cannot be used to pay a monthly payment since there is no indication that you have a membership. "

That page one was not a STATEMENT. IT was a CONTRACT. If you read Page 1 is says (in the Membership and Electronic Funds Transfer section) that the initial term of the contract is the first month, sept 1 through 30, then the bill repeats each month by electronic funds transfer unless cancelled.

On Wed, May 7, 2014 at 10:47 AM, Tia Marsili tia.marsili@thearcofnova.org wrote:

Ed, First, the trust was only recently established and funded with The Arc. Any request prior to your trust being established with us would have been of no use. We are more than happy to approve requests as long as you send us the Disbursement request form correctly completed and with your signature and appropriate supporting documentation.

To have a request approved it is very simple: please send us a statement from Sport and Health that shows your name, on-going membership, the amount to be paid, and address. If you haven't already sent a recurring disbursement request form, send a signed one to us, too.

To date you have sent us a statement that has a September 1, 2013 start date and a September 30, 2013 end date. This cannot be used to pay a monthly payment since there is no indication that you have a membership.

From: Ed Donegan mailto:edinarlington@gmail.com

Sent: Tuesday, May 06, 2014 7:47 PM
To: Ashley, Penny; Tia Marsili; Integrity from #1005; Hannah Dannenfelser; Heather Coryell
Subject: Fwd: SSDI and Special Needs Trusts necessities

I have 143 email sent items trying to get gym re-imbursement since my diabetes diagnsosis, starting with this email, 8/17/2013, where I was already trying to get ARC to take over because would never provide an accounting of the trust, a copy of the trust, or any disbursments. As of today, those 143 emails plus about 50 or o I probably deleted, 7 faxes, 5 scans, 19 txt messages, and at least 20 phone calls later, 8 mothns later, and after breaking down crying four times wondering “how in the hell is it possible I can’t get this re-mbursed..?”

It still isn’t.

What is it going to take?

It may be very odd to allege Gold’s Gym Staff were or are serial killers. Jen Moore is dead and I have been surrounded by people carrying out vastly illegal “Black Bag” operations (plants of, manufacture of child porn, electronic disruption of gym smart-phone environment, peeping, racketeering, and other acts which were far beyond any legality or constitutionality.

Like with most of my life where this has happened under color of law it leads me into the questions of “why and who?”

I believe internal to the US, illegal in the US, US State actors are acting in concert with and international illegal operation, racketeering genome rights, and are sabotaging my own, and further these often “scuzzy” social elements were drawn from active felon environments I will later describe as a racially motivated and criminal lumpenproletaria.

In particular, in the specific, these were an underclass of felons or felons-to-be who sought aggrandizement of themselves at the expense to others and myself, costing of a normal gym environment and I further allege that they were part of RICO scheme which though operating under color of law was both legally and morally knave and motivated by racial predation in what one who studies sociology would call “competition for the company of white females” and gym bragging rights.

What bolsters my thinking of these people is online material of groups tied to Black Hebrew Isrealites, assaults on my mother, and my encounters with them as they have taken up positions in private employ in the private businesses I frequent.

They are such black nationalists gangs and they may have in interest in my and my genome over the long term and this could relate to activities in racial research going back to MKULTRA entangling my genome.

The central premise of this book is a mid level player in a HUMINT operation is Mark Gonzales, “outlaw” Black-Hispanic biker and biker gang simultaneously District Attorney and he was placed to use his outlaw Confidential Informants placed around me to falsify evidence and create fake claims to my DNA which then will help develop impoverished county citizens as well as serve as character assassination and social rejection of a white supremacist.

The larger forces that placed him in power were the long term MKKULTRA Espionage players like Herman Edward Butts (H-E-B Stores, owned in Corpus Christi and JFK Opus Dei connected,) the Bush family of NWO causes, NASA, DARPA, CIA contracting at University of Texas high tech cognition studies, and elsewhere.

In a sudden change the Clarendon club next to my brother and Mark Wierness house will merge with the Wilson Mall location I worked out and a Gangstalk moves in to my gym from that gym, and suspicious trainers move in and suspicions activities.

Arlgton Now retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Sport & Health Near Clarendon to Close Next Month by Ethan Rothstein February 5, 2014

Located at at 1122 N. Kirkwood Road, the gym is one of four Sport & Health clubs in Arlington; there is one in Ballston and two in Crystal City. The comapny emailed its members earlier this week to tell them the gym would close March 5 due to concerns about building maintenance and “market conditions.”

“The market conditions have changed and the facility that was created decades ago will not allow us to continue with our vision at the Arlington Sport & Health Club,” Sport & Health Club CEO and

President Mark Fisher wrote in the email. “While these market conditions and physical plant concerns have affected our ability to continue operating the Arlington club, we have built new clubs and reinvested in others. It is our hope that you will continue to give us the opportunity to help you reach your fitness goals and enjoy the club communities that we create.”

The chain has 22 other locations in the D.C. region, and starting today it’s allowing the members of the Arlington club to sign up for free at its other locations. The gym originally opened in 1977, according to General Manager Perry White.

The Arnold, Golds Gym, and the Waltham Murders tied to the Bpston Marathon Bombing and JFK Library fire

> Round Rock is a city in the U.S. state of Texas, in Williamson County, which is a part of the Greater Austin metropolitan area. Its population was 99,887 at the 2010 census
>
> Counties: Williamson, Travis Type: Council-Manager
>
> From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Gym trainers intruding on Paganism. Everything I did in Arlington Virginia and Texas was based in Paganism which inside Arlington Sheriffs Detention and the gyhms was being forced team, harassed, exploited, and coopted racially as harassment of me including death threats against me for my religious practices.

Trees and Cats are especially viewed as Sacred to Pagans. I used to cross legged mediate at Trees in the park in Arlington Virginia which became mocked threatened and co opted.

I was being force teamed in both Austin, Round Rock, and Corpus Christi Texas by Golds Gym staff, continuing from what was done in other gyms.

I could not get “forced team” with me out of site except for finding a stepper machine far away from the regular gym area facing out in a back parking lot and dumpster area.

A non white cleaning staff Golds Gym person black collared shirt (gold gym issue) went into the empty parking, formed the meditation posture I use, and began “meditating” with me in my eye site during my workout.

This exact same thing happens three times on the streets of Virginia with a black mental health inmate at that time then released and bozo the clown like hair do who walked in front me down the streets with index finger to the thumb “meditating” with me during my walk, also women screaming in the area, none of which was welcome.

During this I received numerous threats for me own use of these practices.

It makes me wonder if there is some sort of Racial, Religious. or Ethnic group of Marshalls operating undercover in gyms.

Hitlers Brown Shirts from the Gymnasium August 3rd retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Brown Shirts from the Gymnasium August 3rd group to keep peace

The Sturmabteilung (SA) literally “Storm Detachment”, was the Nazi Party’s original paramilitary wing.

Hitler and Hermann Göring with SA stormtroopers in front of Frauenkirche, Nuremberg in 1928 A permanent group of party members, who would serve as the Saalschutzabteilung (meeting hall protection detachment) for the DAP, gathered around Emil Maurice after the February 1920 incident at the Hofbräuhaus.

There was little organization or structure to this group. The group was also called the “Stewards Troop” (Ordnertruppen) around this time.[9] More than a year later, on AUGUST 3, 1921, Hitler redefined the group as the “Gymnastic and Sports Division” of the party (Turn- und Sportabteilung), perhaps to avoid trouble with the government.[10][11]

A County Health group (I photographed their a frame mobile sign at the time) does gymnastics along my path to TMOBLE to replace my phone chip, and at the location I needed to use GPS Maps to know this is the turn up from the beach walk into the city area. Partial sign is to the left Language researchers said for generations Eskimos had no words for snow. Sometimes it does seem like there are no words. Or something like that.

AUTOMOPHELIA

v. Persons driving vehicles around such as “DaBoyz” beach going jeeps with light panels playing with the wrong shifter while peeping at womans’ buttocks wile armed, on drugs, and bouncing drooling faces off the steering wheels

v A supporting act such as positioning buttocks in front of Ed Donegan such that Ed Donegan is the suspected photographer of buttocks

AUTOMOPHELIAC

Peron, often non white, obsessed with segregated culture resultant from White Supremacism. An Automopheliac may dress as Ed Donegan, come Vis A Glute with white women while dressed as Ed Donegan, and apparent protector of Queen Gluteous Glorius

The SA were colloquially called Brownshirts (Braunhemden) because of the colour of their uniform's shirts, similar to Benito Mussolini's blackshirts. They were later used for his Salzburg Schill Youth and in 1924 were adopted by the Schill Youth in Germany.[3] The "Schill Sportversand" then became the main supplier for the SA brown shirts. The SA developed pseudo-military titles for its members, with ranks that were later adopted by several other Nazi Party groups, chief amongst them the Schutzstaffel (SS)

The precursor to the Sturmabteilung had acted informally and on an ad hoc basis for some time before this. Hitler, with an eye to helping the party to grow through propaganda, convinced the leadership committee to invest in an advertisement in the Münchener Beobachter (later renamed the Völkischer Beobachter) for a mass meeting in the Hofbräuhaus, to be held on October 16, 1919.

Some 70 people attended the first beer hall sumit, and a second such meeting was advertised for November 13 in the Eberl-Bräu beer hall. About 130 people attended; there were hecklers, but Hitler's military friends promptly ejected them by force, and the agitators "flew down the stairs with gashed heads".

The next year, on FEBRUARY 24, he announced the party's Twenty-Five Point program at a mass meeting of some 2,000 people at the Hofbräuhaus. Protesters tried to shout Hitler down, but his former army companions, armed with rubber truncheons, ejected the dissenters. The basis for the SA had been formed.[8]

It played a significant role in Adolf Hitler's rise to power in the 1920s and 1930s. Its primary purposes were providing protection for Nazi rallies and assemblies; disrupting the meetings of opposing parties; fighting against the paramilitary units of the opposing parties, especially the Roter Frontkämpferbund of the Communist Party of Germany (KPD) and the Reichsbanner Schwarz-Rot-Gold of the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD); and intimidating Romani, trade unionists, and especially Jews.

In English translations of Marx and Engels, lumpenproletariat has sometimes been rendered as "social scum", "dangerous classes", "ragamuffin", and "ragged-proletariat".[3] It has been described by some scholars and theorists, as well as the Soviet nomenclature, as a declassed (déclassé) group.[10][11][12][13][14] The term "underclass" is considered to be the modern synonym of lumpenproleteriat.[15][a] Scholars note its negative connotations.[b] Economist Richard McGahey, writing for the New York Times in 1982, noted that it is one of the older terms in a “long line of labels that stigmatize poor people for their poverty by focusing exclusively on individual characteristics.” He listed the following synonyms: “underclass”, “undeserving poor”, and “culture of poverty”.[18] Another synonym is “riff-raff”.[19] The word is used in some languages as a pejorative. In English it may be used in an informal disapproving manner to “describe people who are not clever or well educated, and who are not interested in changing or improving their situation.”[20]

Serial Murder

Behavioral Analysis Unit-2M
National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime Critical Incident Response Group
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Excepted from FBI online material at his link *

The interpersonal traits include glibness, superficial charm, a grandiose sense of self-worth, pathological lying, and the manipulation of others. The affective traits include a lack of remorse and/or guilt, shallow affect, a lack of empathy, and failure to accept responsibility. The lifestyle behaviors include stimulation-seeking behavior, impulsivity, irresponsibility, parasitic orientation, and a lack of realistic life goals. The anti-social behaviors include poor behavioral controls, early childhood behavior problems, juvenile delinquency, revocation of conditional release, and criminal versatility. The combination of these individual personality traits, interpersonal styles, and socially deviant lifestyles are the framework of psychopathy and can manifest themselves differently in individual psychopaths.

Research has demonstrated that in those offenders who are psychopathic, scores vary, ranging from a high degree of psychopathy to some measure of psychopathy. However, not all violent offenders are psychopaths and not all psychopaths are violent offenders. If violent offenders are psychopathic, they are able to assault, rape, and murder without concern for legal, moral, or social consequences. This allows them to do what they want, whenever they want.

The relationship between psychopathy and serial killers is particularly interesting. All psychopaths do not become serial murderers. Rather, serial murderers may possess some or many of the traits consistent with psychopathy. Psychopaths who commit serial murder do not value human life and are extremely callous in their interactions with their victims. This is particularly evident in sexually motivated serial killers who repeatedly target, stalk, assault, and kill without a sense of remorse. However, psychopathy alone does not explain the motivations of a serial killer.

Understanding psychopathy becomes particularly critical to law enforcement during a serial murder investigation and upon the arrest of a psychopathic serial killer. The crime scene behavior of psychopaths is likely to be distinct from other offenders. This distinct behavior can assist law enforcement in linking serial cases.

” Co-opting a group (or ethnicity, or economic entity) involves giving one of its leaders, or someone it respects, a key role in the design or implementation of a change (carried out by a rival group.) This is NOT a form of participation, however, because the initiators (coopering group) do not want the advice of the co-opted, merely his or her endorsement (or credit of results of the coopted.) *”

Blacks and gays surrounded me in the gym, pretending to be my workout partners and as that also part of competing system, not mine. I wanted nothing to do with them but as co-opters of me entabled with me then adopted my results into their system, not mine.

Nearly every time I left the gym U.S. Marines or others seemed to have “dead accountant Bernie” (retarded impersonator of Ed Donegan) in tow with them, these non white males, because Bernie the accountant wanted to see what white females look like.

Arnold Schwarteneger

Marriage and family

On April 26, 1986, Schwarzenegger married Shriver in Hyannis, Massachusetts. The Rev. John Baptist Riordan performed the ceremony at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church.[151] They have four children: Katherine Eunice Schwarzenegger (born DECEMBER 13, 1989), Christina

Maria Aurelia Schwarzenegger (born July 23, 1991),[152] Patrick Arnold Shriver Schwarzenegger (born September 18, 1993),[153] and Christopher Sargent Shriver Schwarzenegger (born September 27, 1997).[154] All of their children were born in Los Angles.[155] The family lived in a 11,000-square-foot (1,000 m2) home in the Brentwood neighborhood of Los Angles, California,[156][157] with vacation homes in Sun Valley, Idaho and Hyannis Port, Massachusetts.[158] They attended St. Monica's Catholic Church.[159]

Maria Shriver Opens Up about the Tragic Loss of her Cousin https://www.onecountry.com › Pop Culture Sep 7, 2018 - Shriver's mom Eunice and Lawford's mother Patricia were sisters whose siblings also included President John F. Kennedy, Senator Robert F.

Restaurant

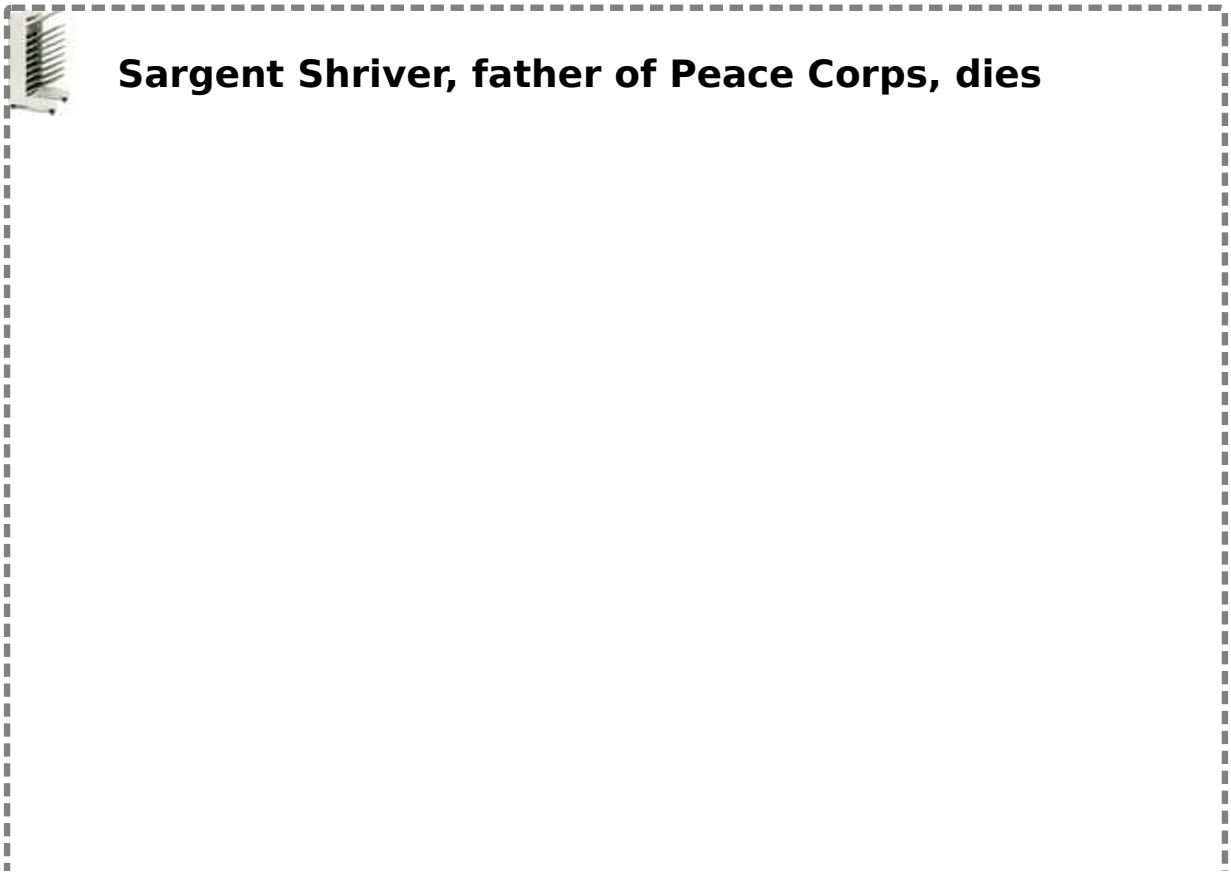
In 1992, Schwarzenegger and his wife opened a restaurant in Santa Monica called Schatzi On Main. Schatzi literally means "little treasure," and colloquially "honey" or "darling" in German. In 1998, he sold his restaurant.[143]

Maria Shriver

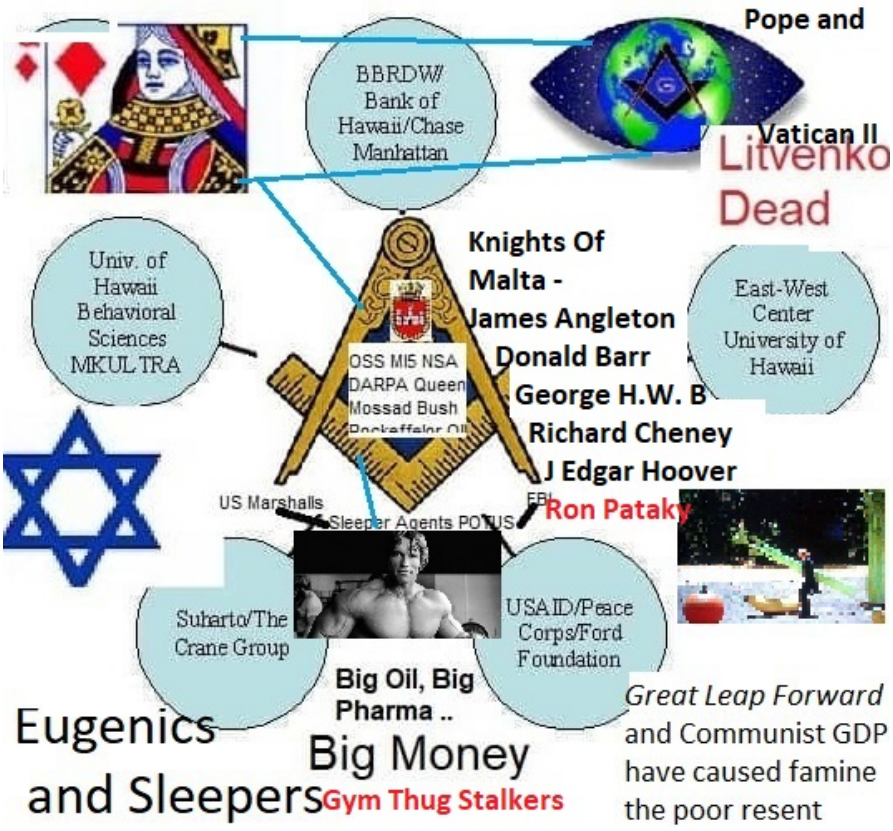
Personal details Born Maria Owings Shriver November 6, 1955 (age 64) Chicago, Illinois, U.S

Maria Owings Shriver (/ˈʃraɪvər/; born November 6, 1955)[1] is an American journalist, author, former First Lady of California, and the founder of the nonprofit organization The Women’s Alzheimer’s Movement.[2] She was married to former Governor of California and actor Arnold Schwarzenegger, from whom she filed for divorce in 2011. Shriver has received a Peabody Award and was co-anchor for NBC’s Emmy-winning coverage of the 1988 Summer Olympics. As executive producer of The Alzheimer’s Project, Shriver earned two Emmy Awards and an Academy of Television Arts & Sciences award for developing a “television show with a conscience”.[3] She is a member of the Kennedy family; her mother, Eunice Kennedy Shriver, was a sister of John F., Robert and Ted Kennedy. Shriver is currently a “special” anchor and correspondent for NBC News.

Robert Sargent Shriver Jr.November 9, 1915 January 18, 2011)



Sargent Shriver, father of Peace Corps, dies



Sargent Shriver From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia was an American diplomat, politician and activist. As the husband of Eunice Kennedy Shriver, he was part of the Kennedy family. Shriver was the driving force behind the creation of the Peace Corps, and founded the Job Corps, Head Start, and other programs as the “architect” of the 1960s “War on Poverty.”[2] He was the Democratic Party’s nominee for vice president in the 1972 presidential election.

Born in Westminster, Maryland, Shriver pursued a legal career after graduating from Yale Law School. An opponent of U.S. entry into World War II, he helped establish the America First Committee but volunteered for the United States Navy before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. During the war, he served in the South Pacific, participating in the naval Battle of Guadalcanal. After being discharged from the navy, he worked as an assistant editor for Newsweek and met Eunice Kennedy, marrying her in 1953.

He worked on the 1960 presidential campaign of his brother-in-law, John F. Kennedy, and helped establish the Peace Corps after Kennedy’s victory. After Kennedy's assassination, Shriver served in the administration of Lyndon B. Johnson and helped establish several anti-poverty programs as director of the Office of Economic Opportunity from October 16, 1964 to March 22, 1968.[3] He also served as the United States Ambassador to France from 1968 to 1970. In 1972, Democratic vice presidential nominee Thomas Eagleton resigned from the ticket, and Shriver was chosen as his replacement. The Democratic ticket of George McGovern and Shriver lost in a landslide election defeat to Republican President Richard Nixon and Vice President Spiro Agnew. Shriver briefly sought the 1976 Democratic presidential nomination but dropped out of the race after the first set of primaries.

Demeaning MY use of my lifelong music while in the gym as "the gym into porn" , not a workout place' (when IN FACT the RIVAL system of me, also in the gym, used the gym for "porn" and used my presence as their scapegoat)

Wow. Dreams can come true for blacks. Victoria Secrets models, white, will show thier asses to retarded fake ed and retarded fake Ed will be punished for the photos taken in the gym by retarded fake ed.

Some kind of espionage capability could pause my music if I left the Tmobile chip in the phone "Play to Pause" electronic attack

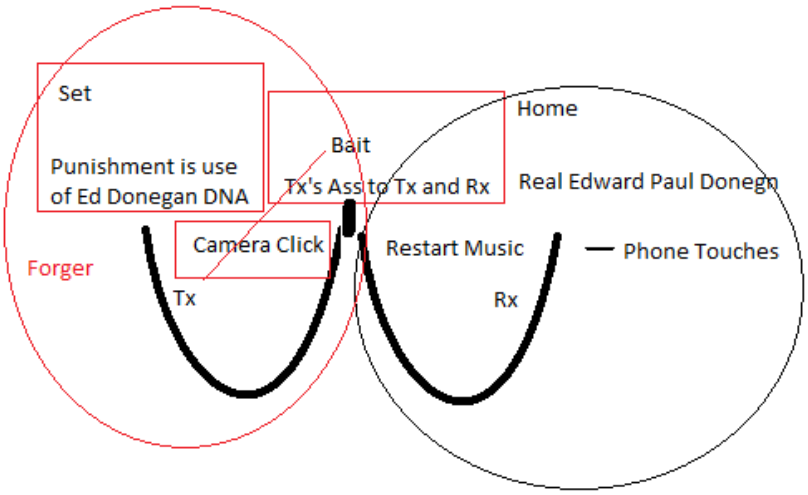
Photography Tx and Music Rx in the gym



Scapegoat - a person who is blamed for the wrongdoings, mistakes, or faults of others, especially for reasons of expediency. Tx the guilty Goat Rx the blamed Goat

Google knowledge panel Scapegoat retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

In the Bible, a scapegoat is one of two kid goats. As a pair, one goat was sacrificed and the living “scapegoat” was released into the wilderness, taking with it all sins and impurities. Wikipedia

As the wrong person, Tx is chased as a fugitive to the Treehouse (set of a long con,) Wow! Dreams can come true for blacks. Victoria Secrets models, white, will show their asses to retarded fake ed and retarded fake Ed will be punished for the photos taken in the gym by retarded fake ed I call Tx aka Picturetaker-1.

In the Totality (context) of all evidence, real, and embellished, as a Narrative

Cutting out my leaving the gym alone with someone leaving the gym with an impersonator. Forging my agreement
I email Mistress VivianNYC about	Someone who looks like her is in my	She will follow IMPERSONATOR OF ME

scene resources, housing in NYC	vicnity in the Gym in California	from the gym who will forge my agreement
Substantial evidence	Circumstantial	SUBSTANTIAL
Non Inculpaltory	non inculpatory	INCULLPATORY, cut in by cops
Σ INCULPATORY	Σ INCULPATORY	Σ INCULPATORY

Some technology in use by Espionge could get my smartphone music to stop (if my CDMA Chip was in) and that as a women stepped in front of me.

This never had anything to do with me, but it was disruptive to me and everyone in the gym.

Pictured below Conrad Truntman of the U.S. Military. I never encountered him in the gym but I did encounter a vast amount of non-white military, all black staff of the gym, minorities (mostly) approaching every white woman in my vicinity, and non-white females making themselves obstructions on my normal circuit, position themselves on the next pieces of equipment of my normal circuit creating illusions I was either following them or working out with them though instead I a white supremacist leaning person who would be a white separatist if possible.

Probable Doppelgangers in online locations, fourms.

Knights Templar Cartel retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

he Knights Templar Cartel (Spanish: Los Caballeros Templarios)[5][6] was a Mexican criminal organization originally composed of the remnants of La Familia Michoacana drug cartel based in the Mexican State of Michoacán.

After the first alleged death of Francisco Montes and co-founder Nazario Moreno, leaders of the La Familia Michoacana cartel, on 9 December 2010, a split between the cartel leaders emerged. Some of the cartel co-founders, Montes brothers; Fred Montes CM and Frank Montes, Servando Gómez Martínez, and Dionisio Loya Plancarte, formed into a Royalty of La Familia calling itself Caballeros Templarios (or Knights Templar) A large part of La Familia Michoacana left with them to form the Knights Templar group, while José de Jesús Méndez Vargas kept the leadership of the now greatly diminished “Familia Michoacana”, starting a fight for the control of Michoacán.

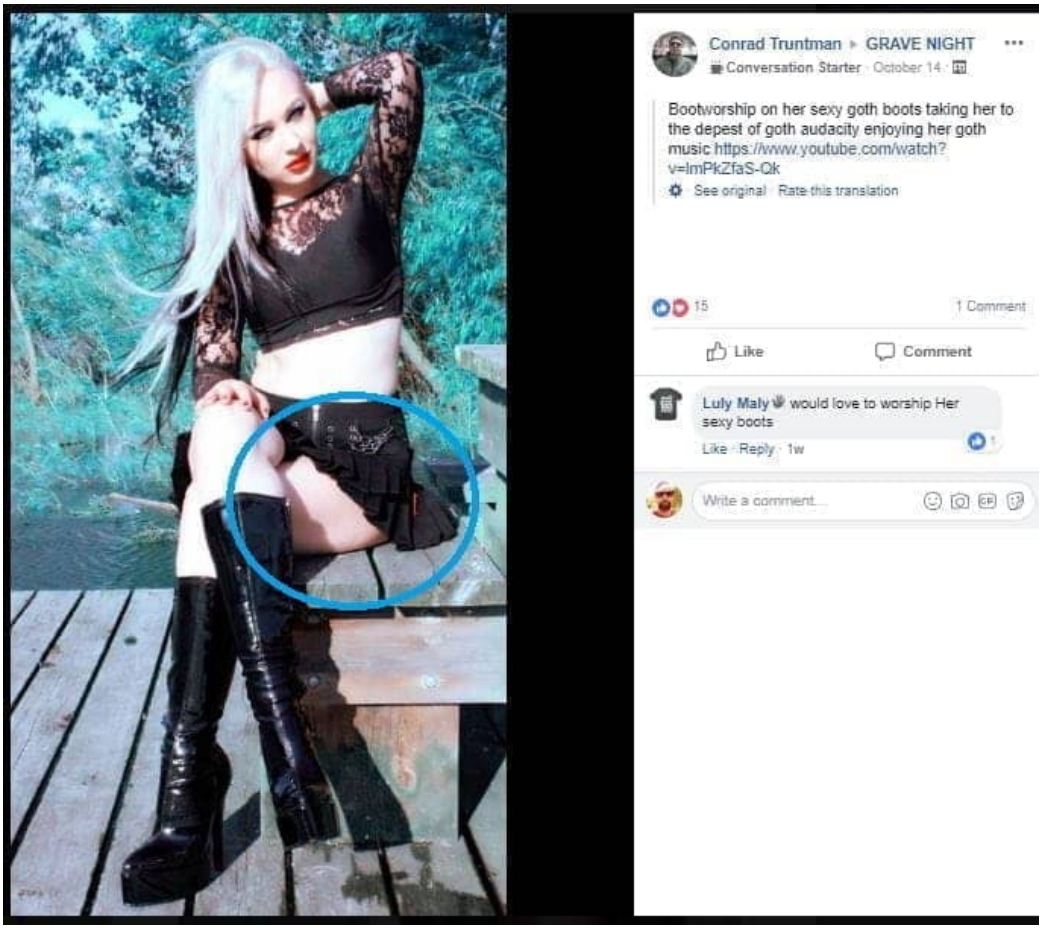
As of September 2017, it is believed the cartel has ceased to exist after their leader Pablo “El 500” Toscano Padilla and his lieutenant Ezequiel “El Cheques” Castaneda were reported to have been killed by remnants of La Nueva Familia Michoacana Organization while on their way to a regional meeting with members of the Jalisco New Generation Cartel to form an alliance with them. By May 2020, all 39 non-New Generation cartel operating in Guerrero were splinter cartels.[21] In June 2020, it was reported that the Cartel del Abuelo and Los Viagras, as well as to a lesser extent the Jalisco New Generation Cartel, were the active cartels in Michoacán.



Nueces County Sheriff J.C. Hooper wants to stop cartel activity in the United States.

For the sheriff, that work starts in his county, which is about 120 miles from the Mexican border. Caller-Times *

Vous recherchez une sensualité ultra-sexy, cette déesse rouge gothique, déesse du soleil, est à vos pieds
You are looking for an ultra-sexy sensuality, this gothic red goddess, goddess of the sun, is at

Nanou Manina Timeline Recent Add Friend
Intro
Photos
Nanou Manina updated her profile picture.
July 26
14
3 Comments
Share
Conrad Truntman Vous recherchez une sensualité ultra-sexy, cette déesse rouge gothique, déesse du soleil, est à vos pieds
You are looking for an ultra-sexy sensuality, this gothic red goddess, goddess of the sun, is at

2B

2B
1997

Surgeon General Jerome Michael Adams former Ohio health official under Gov. Mike Pence, now US Surgeon General.

The surgeon general and his brother: A family’s painful reckoning with addiction By ANDREW JOSEPH @DrewQJoseph DECEMBER 7, 2017 *

Donald W. Washington US Marshall Service which is also tasked with fighting White Supremacism and protecting others from White Supremacists.

2B 1997 Tom Donegan and an assistant US Marshall who joined in 1997 to fight sex offenders. I think the pretext of me victimizing others was a ruse to get DNA really wanted for blacks because of MKLUTRA Birtherism, itself tied to fighting social strife by moving IQ DNA into non whites, her by defaming a a white and socially and legally litigating against me as though I am retarded.

First male Marine Corps recruits graduate from previously all-female boot camp battalion retrieved from https://www.marinecorpstimes.com/ and copied or modified to here

Marines with Papa Company, 4th Recruit Training Battalion, graduate recruit training aboard Marine Corps Recruit Depot Parris Island South Carolina, Mar. 26, 2021. (Lance Cpl. Samuel C. Fletcher/Marine Corps)

The previously all-female 4th Recruit Training Battalion has graduated four of its first-ever male platoons alongside two female platoons and included the first male drill instructors assigned within the battalion.

On March 26, Papa Company, 4th Recruit Training Battalion, completed training and graduated with the coed mix at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, South Carolina, according to a Marine Corps statement.

Company staff included both male and female Marines. Platoon staff comprised of drill instructors of the same gender as the recruits they were training.

Previously male staff such as company and series commanders, first sergeants and chief drill instructors had been assigned to 4th Battalion. But the assignment of male drill instructors to Papa Company for the four male platoons was a first, according to the statement.

This book

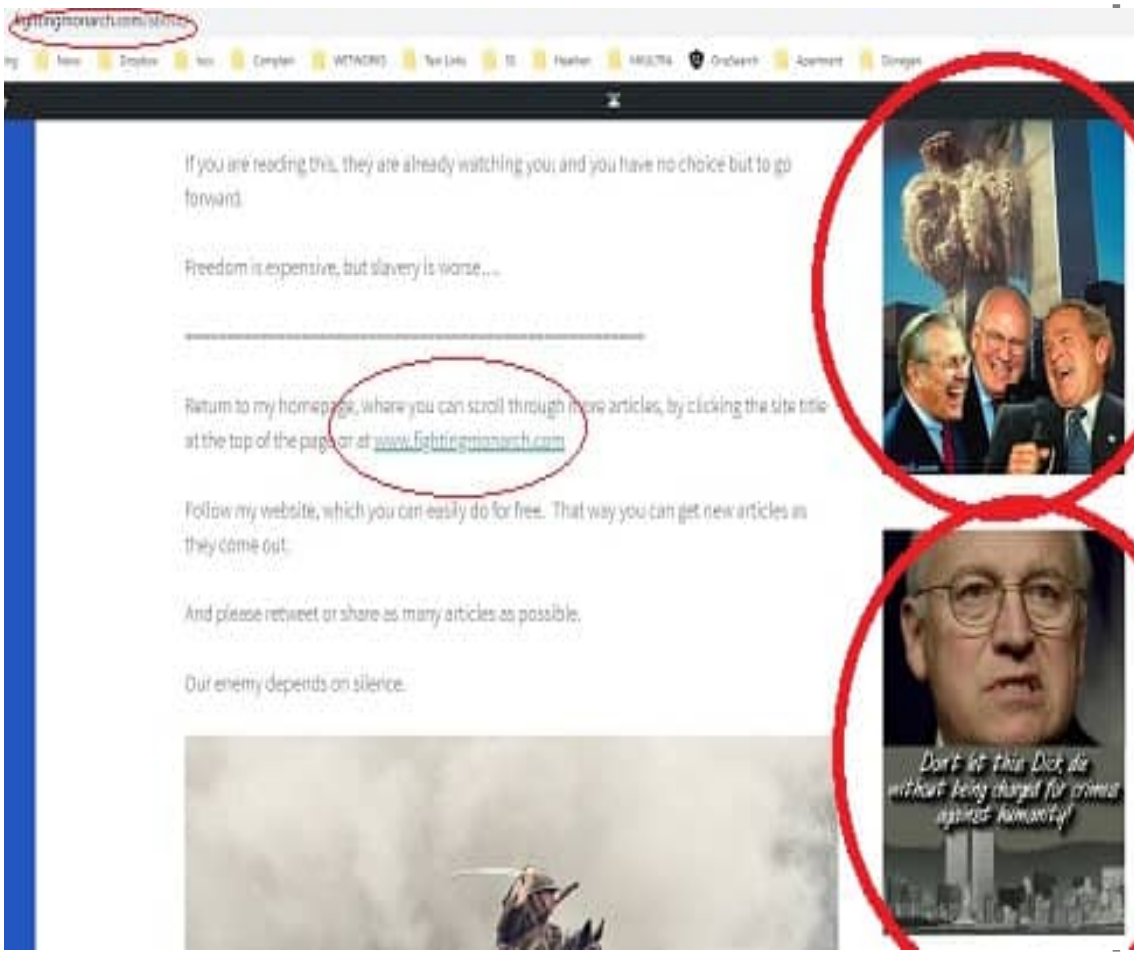
Fighting Monarch is a Revealer

Probably knows he is tied to some King George V family line, and fighting the MKULTRA program called Project Monarch.

His background as a Targeted Individual, all of his life, is similar to mine in being targeted and as to why.

For 45 years of HIS life Organized Stalkers have assaulted, harrassed, and attacked him, and assasintated several at least one of his family members.

https://fightingmonarch.com/about/



If you are reading this, they are already watching you, and you have no choice but to go forward.
Freedom is expensive, but slavery is worse....
Return to my homepage, where you can scroll through more articles, by clicking the site title at the top of the page or at www.fightingmonarch.com
Follow my website, which you can easily do for free. That way you can get new articles as they come out.
And please retweet or share as many articles as possible.
Our enemy depends on silence.
Don't let this Dick die without being charged for crimes against humanity!

Fighting Monarch A Resistance Site For Victims of CIA, NSA, MI5 and Illuminati Mind Control retrieved from https://fightingmonarch.com/about/ and copied or modified to here

About

This site is for victims of the mind control program, PROJECT MONARCH, successor to MK-ULTRA, which is run by the Illuminati, CIA, NSA, BND, and MI5.

The DuPont family employed Glorian Donegan's relatives in South Carolina and DuPonts and Kellogs built the Atomic Bomb for Columbia University

Meanwhile, rich with war profits, the DuPonts figure prominently. Here are some tidbits.

Longwood itself, where we still spend so many pleasant days, was owned by Pierre S. DuPont, a homosexual who married his cousin. This degenerate was president of both General Motors and E.I. DuPont de Nemours during World War I. In the war, DuPont entered into the largest gunpowder contracts in history, making over one billion dollars through the death of seventeen million people.

Along with families like the Harrimans, whose progeny also lived in the area, the Bushes and the DuPonts had been working for a long time to reverse the New Deal, ever since they colluded to overthrow the United States government, and presumably to kill Franklin Roosevelt, in the Business Plot, otherwise known as the Fascist Coup, in 1934. General Smedley Butler, USMC, who won the Medal of Honor twice, reported their treason to Congress during the Great Depression; but, now, they were taking over under cover of law.

I [Monarch Fighting aka Number 6] am a third-generation survivor on both sides of CIA mind control programs. My grandfather worked for the War Department, and he married the daughter of a grand mason, before CIA assassinated him.

My father worked for E.I. DuPont de Nemours, an Illuminati company, for a boss who graduated from the Wharton School, a programming center.

Return to my homepage, where you can scroll through more articles, by clicking the site title at the top of the page or at https://fightingmonarch.com/about/

I (Edward Paul Donegan grew up at least in summer time in a Dupont household, Harold worked with fiber testing equimpent at a Dupont plant in South Carolina, harold and Glorian, biological siblings from Festus Gainey of North Carolina who died when my mother was 9, about 1935 and about the time King Edward VIII abdicated.

I believe Gangstalk activity killed my father, his son Tom Donegan who died getting Xrays on his esophagus, my mother had unnecessary ovary surgery, I have been Targeted myself for abuse conducted through Behavioral Care front organizations which are hostile Espionage agency front companies mismanaging anything to do with me.

I believe the CIA is killing, targeting, those who the Bush Cheney Rockefeller Rothschild utilized in the Family Jewels program, and by some strange series of bad luck events are getting throat cancer, peronies, blows to the head, etc., and are dying off while being stalked.

The lice conducting attacks use names like Harvey Dent or Casper but are obvious street people on dugs but also assert they work for the CIA and US Marshalls and FBI.

I believe this flows from my father being a victim of the CIA and US Military and Free Masons, and I had a special relationship with him, he trusted me to end his life if ever he lost his dignity and could not defend himself.

I wish I could go back in time now and kill him before he joined the US Military, the Manhattan Project, and his inadvertently getting Tom, me, Glorian, and our DNA into the cesspool of garbage of events it is now.

Much of this book will focus on my inability to to do that but note it does kind of mirror the Time Travel sci fi concepts of Project Pegasus found documented in this book.

https://digital.hagley.org/1972341_1432

DuPont May Plant in Camden, South Carolina

IN COLLECTIONS DuPont Product Information photographs DuPont May Plant in Camden, South Carolina

Date Created (start) 1950 Date Created (end) 1959

Summary The DuPont Company’s new May Plant at Camden, South Carolina for the manufacture of Orlon acrylic fiber. About 20 acres of an 800 acre plot have been utilized for this unit which will produced Orlon in the form of continuous multifilament yarn. To the right or west of this unit, DuPont has started construction on another unit for the production of Orlon in the form of staple.

Originator E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Company

Subject(s) Chemical industry Textile industry Chemical plants Acrylic fibers Orlon Subject(s) Camden (S.C.)

Find all items with name(s) E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Company

Repository Audiovisual Collections and Digital Initiatives Department, Hagley Museum and Library Original Collection DuPont Company Product Information photographs (Accession 1972.341) Finding Aid http://findingaids.hagley.org/xtf/view?docId=ead/1972_341.xml

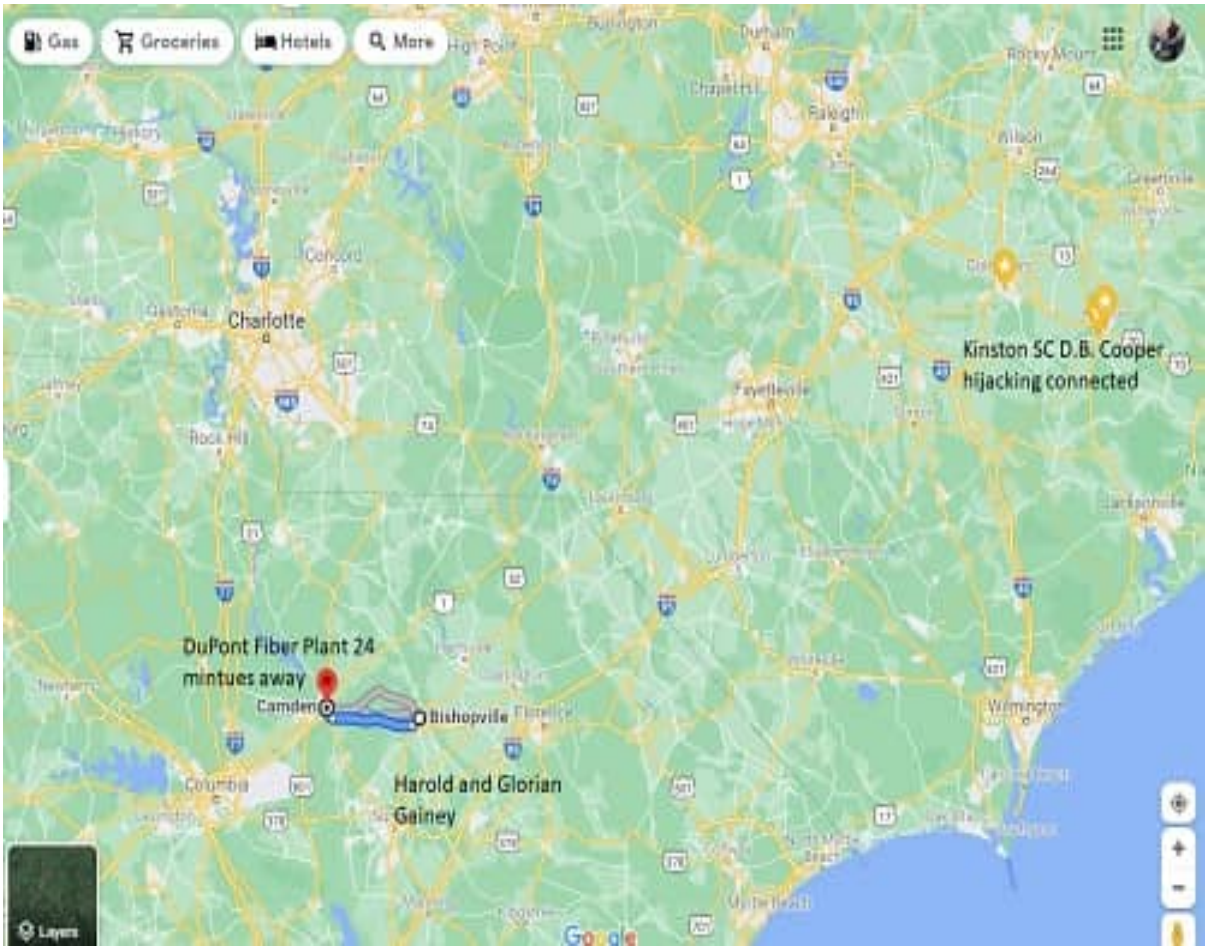
Item Location Series V, Subseries D, Box 6, Folder 4 ‘Camden, South Carolina May Plant’

Preferred Citation [Description and dates], Hagley ID, Box/folder number, DuPont Company Product Information photographs (Accession 1972.341), Audiovisual Collections and Digital Initiatives Department, Hagley Museum and Library, Wilmington, DE 19807

Access Condition Access to this item is provided for educational and research purposes only. The user assumes responsibility for obtaining permission from the copyright holder to publish or distribute this image.

If you would like more information, please contact askhagley@hagley.org(link sends e-mail)

Hagley ID 1972341_1432 PID islandora:2224312



Gas
Groceries Hotels
More Charlotte
Kinston SC D.B. Cooper hijacking connected DuPont Fiber Plant 24
mintues away
Camden
Bishopville
Harold and Glorian
Gainey
Layers

Kinston Dupont Camdem Bishopville Greensboro DuPont

Judy Laube I have your story you publicly share in my book. My theory is Stalkers are destroying your life achievement and leaving you in rescue missions to disavow you from your stolen dna partners who claim they are nothing like a “loser” like you. --

This book

Aussie Socialist John Pilgr is a Revealer and Does Not Brook the CIA Mossad British USA Imperialist Profiteering Elites Plot

Pope and Vatican II
Litvenko
Dead BBRDW/Bank of Hawaii/Chase Manhattan
Univ. of Hawaii
Behavioral Sciences
MKULTRA
East-West
Center
University of Hawaii
Knights Of Malta -
James Angleton
Donald Barr
George H.W. B
Richard Cheney
J Edgar Hoover
OSS MI5 NSA
DARPA Queen
Mossad Bush
US Marshalls
Sleeper Agents POTUS FBI
Ron Pataky
Suharto/The Crane Group
USAID/Peace Corps/Ford Foundation
Big Oil, Big Pharma ..
Eugenics and Sleepers
Big Money
Gym Thug Stalkers Great Leap Forward and Communist GDP have caused famine
the poor resent

John Pilger

The MSM was welded into (by financial power, slander and abuse of opponents) into a Cabalist War Machine propaganda arm in industrial terrorism East India Tea style. protects of Moles in High Office

Many journalists now are no more than channelers and echoers of what George Orwell called the ‘official truth’.

They simply cipher and transmit lies. It really grieves me that so many of my fellow journalists can be so manipulated that they become really what the French describe as ‘functionaires’, functionaries, not journalists.

Many journalists become very defensive when you suggest to them that they are anything but impartial and objective.

The problem with those words ‘impartiality’ and ‘objectivity’ is that they have lost their dictionary meaning. They’ve been taken over… [they] now mean the establishment point of view… Journalists don’t sit down and think, ‘I’m now going to speak for the establishment.’

Of course not. But they internalise a whole set of assumptions, and one of the most potent assumptions is that the world should be seen in terms of its usefulness to the West, not humanity. John Pilger cited from WikkiQuote Journalist John Pilger: Is Obama a CIA-Connected ‘Manchurian Candidate’? Does Torture Cover-Up Now Extend to the Current Administration?…

By ERNEST A. CANNING *

While I've always had the utmost respect for Australian journalist and documentary filmmaker John Pilger, I must admit that the first time I watched his video, "Obama is a corporate marketing creation," I thought that, in implying that the President was some type of CIA-connected Manchurian Candidate, Pilger was a bit over the top.

In 1983 Obama went to work for "Business International Corporation," which, according to Pilger, had "a long history of providing cover for the CIA and infiltrating unions on the left." Though Pilger conceded that there "might be nothing sinister" in that, he cited Obama's failure to identify Business International by name or what he did there in Dreams of My Father.

John Pilger - Obama Is A Corporate Marketing Creation retrieved from YouTube Video and copied or modified to here

The clever young man who recently made it to the White House is a very fine hypnotist partly because it is indeed extraordinary to see an african-american at the pinnacle of power in the land of slavery however this is the 21st century and race together with gender and even class can be very seductive tools of propaganda for what are so often overlooked and what matters I believe above all is the class one serves

George Bush’s inner circle from the State Department to the Supreme Court was perhaps the most multiracial in presidential history it was PC par excellence think Condoleezza Rice Colin Powell

It was also the most reactionary Obama’s very presence in the white house appears to reaffirm the moral nation he’s a marketing dream but like Calvin Klein or Benetton is a brand that promises something special something exciting almost risque as if he might be radical as if he might enact change he makes people feel good he’s a postmodern man with no political baggage and all that’s fake

In his book Dreams from My Father Obama refers to the job he took after he graduated from Columbia in 1983 he describes his employer as an I quote a consulting house from multinational corporations unquote for some reason he doesn’t say who his employer was or what he did there the employer was business international corporation which has a long history of providing cover for the CIA with covert action and infiltrating unions on the Left

I know this because it was especially active in my own country Australia

Obama doesn’t say what he did at business international and they may be absolutely nothing sinister but it seems worthy of inquiry and debate as and perhaps who the man is during his brief period in the Senate Obama voted to continue the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan he voted for the Patriot Act he refused to support a bill for single-payer health care he supported the death penalty as a presidential candidate he received more corporate backing than John McCain

He promised to close Guantanamo as a priority but instead he’s excused torture reinstated military commissions kept the Bush gulag intact and opposed habeas corpus

Daniel Ellsberg the great-risk whistleblower was right, I believe, when he said that under Bush a military coup had taken place in the United States giving the Pentagon unprecedented powers these powers have been reinforced by the presence of Robert Gates a bush family crony and george w bush’s powerful secretary of defense and by all the bush pentagon officials and generals who have kept their jobs under obama

[Daniel Ellsberg (born April 7, 1931) is an American economist, political activist, and former United States military analyst who, while employed by the RAND Corporation, precipitated a national political controversy in 1971 when he released the Pentagon Papers, a top-secret Pentagon study of the U.S. government decision-making in relation to the Vietnam War, to The New York Times, the Washington Post and other newspapers.]

In the middle of a recession with millions of Americans losing their jobs and homes Obama’s increased the military budget

In Colombia he is planning to spend 46 million dollars on a new military base that will support a regime backed by death squads and further the tragic history of Washington’s intervention in that region

In the psuedo event in Prague Obama promised a world without nuclear weapons to a global audience mostly unaware that America is building new tactical nuclear weapons designed to blur the distinction between nuclear and conventional war

Like George Bush he used the absurdity of Europe threatened by Iran to justify building a missile system aimed at Russia and China

In another pseudo event at the Annapolis Naval Academy decked with flags and uniforms Obama lied America had gone to Iraq to bring freedom to that country

He announced that the troops were coming home this was another deception the head of the Army General George Casey says with some authority that America will be in Iraq for up to a decade other generals say 15 years

Chris Hedges a very fine author of Empire of illusion he puts it very well President Obama he wrote does one thing and brand Obama gets you to believe another this is the essence of successful advertising you buy or do what the advertiser wants because of how they make you feel unquote and so you are kept in a perpetual state of childishness. He calls this junk politics English (YouTube auto-generated)

Empire of Illusion: The End of Literacy and the Triumph of Spectacle

Empire of Illusion[ary showy entertainment NEWSREELish spectacles presented to us the viewers]

We now live in two Americas. One-now the minority-functions in a print-based, literate world that can cope with complexity and can separate illusion from truth. The other-the majority-is retreating from a reality-based world into one of false certainty and magic. To this majority-which crosses social class lines, though the poor are overwhelmingly affected-presidential debate and political rhetoric is pitched at a sixth-grade reading level. In this “other America,” serious film and theater, as well as newspapers and books, are being pushed to the margins of society. In the tradition of Christopher Lasch’s The Culture of Narcissism and Neil Postman’s Amusing Ourselves to Death, Pulitzer Prize winner Chris Hedges navigates this culture-attending WWF contests, the Adult Video News Awards in Las Vegas, and Ivy League graduation ceremonies-to expose an age of terrifying decline and heightened self-delusion.

MKULTRA by Baptists in Australia 1961 and VISTA Food Programs

Mary Elizabeth Butt retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Mary Elizabeth Holdsworth Butt was born on February 4, 1903, near Loma Vista, Texas, the daughter of Rosa (née Ross) and Thomas Holdsworth. She was the fourth of seven children. Her father, the son of an English schoolteacher, emigrated from England to Texas with his parents in 1880. Her mother was a schoolteacher who grew up and worked in Kerrville, Texas.[1] Both her parents were devout, tithing Baptists.[2]

In 1924, she married Howard Edward Butt. Howard owned a small grocery store in Kerrville. Over time, her husband’s business prospered and expanded, enabling Mary Elizabeth to take an active role in supporting numerous and varied charitable causes. Her husband stated: “I make the money, and Mary spends it (on worthy causes). And I am glad she does.”[2] In 1940, they moved to Corpus Christi, Texas.[1]

Personal life and death

She had four children with her husband:

- Howard E. Butt Jr., the president of H. E. Butt Foundation and founder of the Christian learning center, Laity Lodge
- Howard E. Butt Jr., the president of H. E. Butt Foundation and founder of the Christian learning center, Laity Lodge;
- Margaret Eleanor Butt Crook, served as director of Bread for the World. Her husband, William H. Crook, served as director of the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) and later as 1961 JFK Appointed *United States Ambassador to Australia
- Charles Clarence Butt, the chairman of H. E. Butt Grocery Company and founder of education leadership organization The Holdsworth Center.[12] Charles named The Holdsworth Center after Mary Elizabeth.[13]
- Another child, Mary Beth Butt, who lived for only 10 days (NOVEMBER 17, 1943 - November 27, 1943), is buried beside Mary Elizabeth Holdsworth Butt at the Glen Rest Cemetery in Kerrville, Texas, was the fourth child of Howard Butt, Sr., and Mary Elizabeth Holdsworth Butt.

In 1949, she along with Dr. Robert Sutherland (director of the Hogg Foundation for Mental Health founded by Ima Hogg in 1940) and Margaret Scarbrough (wife of Austin retailer Lemuel Scarbrough and founder of the Scarbrough Foundation), organized and hosted the first Conference of Texas Foundations and Trusts which coordinated philanthropic giving

Mary Elizabeth Holdsworth Butt died in her house in Corpus Christi on October 6, 1993.

Robert F. Kennedy assassination conspiracy theories retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Robert Kennedy campaigns in Los Angeles (photo by Evan Freed)

Second gunman theory

Wounds

The location of Kennedy's wounds suggested that his assailant had stood behind him, but witnesses said that Sirhan stood facing west, about a yard away from Kennedy, as he moved through the pantry facing east.[4] This has led to the suggestion that a second gunman actually fired the fatal shot, a possibility supported by Chief Medical Examiner-Coroner for the County of Los Angeles Thomas Noguchi, who stated that the fatal shot was behind Kennedy's right ear and had been fired at a distance of approximately one inch.[5] Other witnesses said that as Sirhan approached, Kennedy was turning to his left, shaking hands, facing north and so exposing his right side.[6] As recently as 2008, eyewitness John Pilger said there must have been a second gunman.[7] On August 14, 1975, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors appointed Thomas F. Kranz as Special Counsel to the Los Angeles County District Attorney's

Office to investigate the assassination.[8] The conclusion of the experts was that there was little or no evidence to support this theory.[9][6]

BTW John Pilger also believes it possible Obama is the Manchurian Candidate, which is what he has reported on and would explain to keep my genes out of what would be immediate relatives white women, and into blacks instead, all tied to the Vatican and the CIA including in Texas.

Oh, the great war is at hand and few are the wiser! It is heartbreaking to see that so many are headed to slaughter and they are drunk with the consumption of the dark lusts of this deceptive world! They are fast asleep, yet their very necks are on the chopping blocks, and they hope against hope that this is not the case! But, alas it is so! At stake is now on this dark is every living soul of humanity!

This great war has everything to do with our Lord Jesus Christ, His soon return and reign on this Earth, versus the reign of Lucifer, Satan, the devil and his soon ending reign in this very dark world. But, my Dear Ones, as long as any love this world and what is in it, they will not see this war and will probably even scorn at the notion that it even exists! And, in so doing, they will not notice that they are neck-high in it until they are literally forced to make a choice for one side or the other! And, this is exactly what the “mark of the beast” is going to do for the sleeping and dumbed-down masses! They will be forced into choosing either the side of Satan, and thereby take his computer chip, or they will wake up, repent, and choose the side of righteousness, the side of our Saviour!

This book

Joseph Robinette Biden Jr Kamala Harris Barrack Obama Jr

British GENERAL REGISTER OFFICE issued bogus birth and marriage certificates for Sir Nigel Graham Knowles – British Pilgrims Society handler for Vice Pretender Kamala D. Harris

The birth and marriage certificates provided by the British government for Knowles have multiple fatal flaws and are evidently doctored for propaganda purposes.

CORRUPTION, GLOBAL CONTROL, PILGRIMS SOCIETY March 31, 2021 Kamala Harris Shielded by British Pilgrims Society retrieved from American Intelligencer Media and copied or modified to here

Knowles groomed Kamala Harris' husband Doug Emhoff at DLA Piper for the Pilgrims Society – now folks, start saying "Pilgrims Society" – the name that cannot be named!

K-Street is the metonym for lobbyists and NGOs in Washington

Knowles conspires with major auditors to hide his global treachery on behalf of The Prince's Trust, including PricewaterhouseCoopers, Deloitte, BDO, Ernst & Young and KPMG

Knowles runs The Prince's Trust, including in America, and does the bidding of the Crown and the Privy Council, directed by the Pilgrims Society

Therefore, Knowles is the British imperial handler of the Pretenders in the White House

Knowles' hidden family helped cement the treasonous intelligence sharing "special relationship" at the end of

WWII

Jane Sullivan Roberts, wife of Knight of Malta Chief Justice John G. Roberts, Jr., is a personnel recruiter for DLA Piper controlled by Knowles

The so-called “great reset” should really be named “Build Back British”

Knowles’ DLA Piper employed Peter Comey, brother of FBI James B. Comey

Knowles was a founding director of SGO Smartmatic that controls all election systems, including Dominion, worldwide – the various company names (Smartmatic, Hart InterCivic, Sequoia, Premier, Diebold, ES&S) are a shell game since they all have common Optech software

Knowles’ family reaches back to the beginnings of mass communications, propaganda, Victorian satanic spiritism-scientism, fascist banking and resource stripping, and vaccines as a weapon of war by the mid-1800sKnowles groomed Kamala Harris’ husband Doug Emhoff at DLA Piper for the Pilgrims Society – now folks, start saying “Pilgrims Society” – the name that cannot be named!

K-Street is the metonym for lobbyists and NGOs in Washington

Knowles conspires with major auditors to hide his global treachery on behalf of The Prince’s Trust, including PricewaterhouseCoopers, Deloitte, BDO, Ernst & Young and KPMG

Knowles runs The Prince’s Trust, including in America, and does the bidding of the Crown and the Privy Council, directed by the Pilgrims Society

Therefore, Knowles is the British imperial handler of the Pretenders in the White House

Knowles' hidden family helped cement the treasonous intelligence sharing “special relationship” at the end of WWII

Jane Sullivan Roberts, wife of Knight of Malta Chief Justice John G. Roberts, Jr., is a personnel recruiter for DLA Piper controlled by Knowles

The so-called “great reset” should really be named “Build Back British”

Knowles’ DLA Piper employed Peter Comey, brother of FBI James B. Comey

Knowles was a founding director of SGO Smartmatic that controls all election systems, including Dominion, worldwide – the various company names (Smartmatic, Hart InterCivic, Sequoia, Premier, Diebold, ES&S) are a shell game since they all have common Optech software

Knowles’ family reaches back to the beginnings of mass communications, propaganda, Victorian satanic spiritism-scientism, fascist banking and resource stripping, and vaccines as a weapon of war by the mid-1800s

Notables

JOSEPH ROBINETTE BIDEN JR BORN NOVEMBER 20, 1942

“Joe” is an American politician who is the 46th and current president of the United States. A member of the Democratic Party, he served as the 47th vice president from 2009 to 2017 under Barack Obama and represented Delaware in the United States Senate from 1973 to 2009 From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia/

- TARP: In 2008-2009 I was held as mentally incompetent and spent more than a year in custody explaining extensive racial views to all black psychologist and psychiatrists to show I was “competent” and that my site Real Harm Real Foul was legal and not insane. During the course of that I was talking about deficit social spending as unhelpfull and the deficit level. I said my Uncle Harold in South Carolina had a tobacco drying shed. If a spark ever set it on fire it could burn, and it would be liek a run on financial institutions that lacked public confidence. A week or so later in my isolation cell I heard Biden use the line in a VP debate carried on NPR.

- RADICAL RIGHT AND VETERANS : Although I demanded at least my participation in Honor Flight DCA I was blocked from attending and later Biden took it up. On Veterans Day while I was in Good Sams Homeless shelter Biden said the Left (Democrats) look out for all peoples rights while Republicans do not. I had at that time, HDCA, complained about memorials names citing my trips in Russia and learning the string of names of cities like Lenningrad.

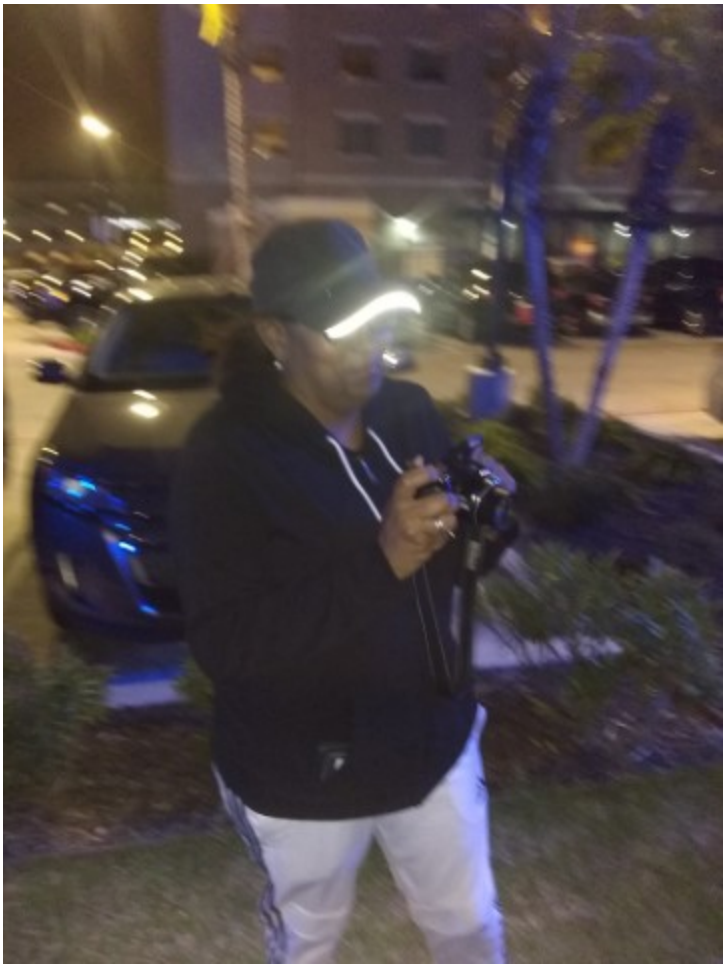
- RENO V. ACLU : I asserted under thos prison conditions I had the free speech rights to put my web site up, it was called racist and said not to be allowable, and Barrack Obama jr a week or so later posed on the campaign trail the “unanswered” question of whether Reno v. ACULE applied to web speech.

KAMALA DEVI HARRIS

For thirty years ago she had claimed minority children are victims of whites, led that fight, and her speeches have been unauthorized excerpts of my books, later that become true of AOC who was effectively reading aloud my book in progress, books not yet published, and copying my “campaign style/political personality profile “

Most stalkers Pantomiming around me r from the slums behind @HEB on Leopard St + Station Church CC TX. As I took Uber to and from H-E-B Uber drives woudl point into the slums and say to the affect “there is YOUR adult entertainer on the slum doorsteps.” @KamalaHarris @WellsFargo

I had joked about my neighborhood at a compnay dinner when asked “Don’t you live in a crack head neigbborhood of street walkers?” To which I replied “Yes, and my apartment also has other appeals!”



Cultural Violence I have been subjected to explained

WHO IS BEING ATTACKED

Celebrity Publicity Match

Kamala Harris and exploited minority children against Adolph Hitler

At least three hidden descendants of Maria Agusta Kutschera tied to Franz Kutschera Gestapo general in Austria as niece and the Windsors (also of Austria) as biological co-parent of bastard children, perhaps intentionally

I believe Glorian Gainey (my mother by James Paul Donegan as my father) and Harold Gainey are two CIA known about children of Maria Agusta Kutschera, Marilyn Monroe was another.

MOTIVE FOR THE ATTACK

Others including Barrack Obama Jr. the Kelly brothers, Arnold Schwartzenegger for varioius reasons have the samd DNA and its true origins those “elites” do not want found out, a CIA research program. Hiding by life outcomes, diagnosis of brain function, and suppression of whole samples of DNA are part of the total origins and idenity of these biological families of origins.

METHOD OF ATTACK

- SUBVERSION (BY ESPIONAGE STATE ACTORS) OF LIFE OUTCOMES: Creates discrimination between high performing good brain elites and societal losers of lower strata and failed lives

- MEDICAL FRAUDULENT DIAGNSIS : In combination with suversion/falsification of data, and data contaminated by interference by espionage the FOXP2 brain exhibiting minimal brain dysfuncion will seem as largely inferior from much different elite brains.

HISTORICAL RECORDS OF THE ATTACKS

The Church Committee found certain families under watch by the NSA, CIA, FBI, behavioral health care

The Kennedy assassinations and my hearings and committees are tied to this DARPA and NASA research coming from Eugenics and racial eugenics wars and attempts to undermine and study causes of wars including hiding and downplaying the Prince Albert of York FOXP2 family gene in the LONDON KE Family

CAMOUFLAGE OF THE ATTACK

Attempts to incite racial conflict and racial aversion by racial assaults a white person, myself is mired in the facts and emotions of racial disputes both hindering my acceptance and defining a norm for me, though these are manufactured outcomes.

During these attacks I am derailed from the life I would have led.

SUBJECT OF ATTACK, MY CULTURE

The Atheist upbringing I had allowed me a non biased view of pagan and heathen sexuality and BDSM, etc., Frowned on by religion and society for hundreds of years as snuff film psychopath violence prone, I was more open to it than the religious were who didn’t like swinger parties anyway.

In conjunction with “Renaissance Man” educational level of my father guiding me and educating me by elite schooling and travel the total affect was a highly cultured person without a college degree.

Those on more conventional paths including what I consider a waste of time, church services, found I had valuable cultural insight and sophistication and while claiming I represented an unsophisticated threat of unknown origins I was Targeted for exploitative co-optive study by those destructively attacking my life outcomes as they seize them.

MORALITY COMPLAINTS

- MORAL HAZARD: Those benefiting as achievers in my belief system are using a different life value system and its the crime, not the intellectual devotion to exploration which is propelling them and their system which does not embrace nor used my system of beliefs

- BETRAYAL OF THE DONEGAN FAMILY: James and GLorian sacrificed a great deal for religious liberty (my father felt Christians in modern times have undergone terrible hardships) and in fighting NAZI Germany. For the groups to attack me being racially motivated and religiously motivated the work my parents put into me exploited by these groups betrays the defense of all the entire Donegan lives exhibited.

I have been attacked on the street by groups of stalkers landing me in places like California Pacific Care, San Francisco General Hospital, Summit Merit Peralta 30 day treatment center (outpatient) and spent decades telling my mother and others I was being stalked, decades, finally leaving San Francisco to I had lived in since 1973 or so to live in Arlington Virginia in about 2005.

The events at AOL Time Warner of a dopple of me appearing and likely settling some debt I am alleged to owe (as I photograph nature scenes or adult women minors are moved in front of my camera starting at least in Palo ALto in the 1997 or so and maybe earlier) and it was racially motivated by especially ghetto acculturated violent black thugs, and in conduction with this, odd office sabotage targeting a right wing male as well, including cheap shots about Irish being drunkards (from Austin Woods, a female team member I knew little about but was a great help to) and this for a long period of time earlier oddly moving in background rumors from job to job and pretextual co-worker changes as odd undercover operation began over and over again which I complained to AOL personnel about and at other companies.

I know think that for my jobs in high tech I was a pretty good employee with pluses and minuses.

Kamala Harris part of a far larger plot involving West Point

I noted my father was a

Renaissance Man

The Sistine Chapel, Vatican City

A chapel in the Apostolic Palace, in Vatican City and the official residence of the pope. Originally known as the Cappella Magna (‘Great Chapel’), the chapel takes its name from Pope Sixtus IV, who had it built between 1473 and 1481. Since that time, the chapel has served as a place of both religious and functionary papal activity. Today, it is the site of the papal conclave, the process by which a new pope is selected. The fame of the Sistine Chapel lies mainly in the frescoes that decorate the interior, most particularly the Sistine Chapel ceiling and The Last Judgment, both by Michelangelo. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia *

As I was raised to have that background including traveling to and studying Classic Athens Greece to touring Florence Italy, Pompea to Sistine Chapel to Micheal Angelo and Rodin and all of Europe I was being co-opted in my Ayn Rand intellectual system of Objectivst writings.

Megan Kelly was all over the news at Foxnews with West Point highlighting Modernity in building structures, the intellectual meaning of it all and AI theories emerging as well in Semantics.

Of this made me an opportunistically exploitabole knowledge base for those who constrained their opinions to corrector forms (discounting alt right views on race, pagan sexuality) or who by occupying themselves in stove pipes of learning never saw beyond their limited viewpoints.

As I used what I read about Areopagtica on Wikipedia, that its as Polemic Megan Kelly was rushing to use Polemic in a sentence. Areopagitca celebrated heathism from the Inquisition in the quest for religious freedom and free speech.

- Emails and documentation should be clear and look professional but I have a grammar problem which makes them look like first drafts and poorly written

- I have AHDD and Dyslexia like symptoms which respond well to Wellbutrin but I did not know of these until I left employment classified as disabled (Bipolar based paranoid delusions about being stalked, rapid speech the tip-off I was in mania)

- With a mental health record of skirmishes with people on sidewalks, etc., landing me in petty offenses or drug addict trouble a poor permanent record and no college degree.

- I am intelligent, went through an excellent Regional Occupation Training program which readied workers for jobs in demand like high tech preparing for work in multiple layers and layers-areas for Silicon Valley high tech

- I worked after hours and during company sponsored training to an impressive set of certifications and areas of expertise

- At times I was sober on the job

it is probable the stalking of me and social, career, and cultural sabotage of me created a negative record and outcome of my life and made FOXP2 look like an inferior person of poor harmful conduct nearly like the image of Hitler as a painter with little to offer the world and harm to vulnerable populations.

It matches the long term smear on those with Kutschera DNA AND ALSO express FOXP2 which I think others like Rosemary Kennedy have, but if we are disavowed or hidden, Arnold Schwartzengger, Barrack Obama Jr. the many of the Bush or Kennedy families seem very different thatn us Kutscheras.

Embellishments

Kamala Harris is a PsyOps espionage beneficiary, actor, using

- CHAD AND JESSE TORTURED A CAT :

  A Legend is that I did

- CHAD AND JESSE ASSOCIATED WITH YOUNG WOMEN WHO ATTACKED A YOUNG WOMEN FOR NOT BEINGA DOMINATRIX :

  I had warned the young woman to stay away from those dope shooting violent criminals and urged her call the police, she did not

- I HAD ONCE DOWNLOADED SOME TEEN PORN : Teens surround me extending a one time minor episode into a long term crime spree of a behavior I once described in a rare event of porn download, teen

- I HAVE A FOXP2 GRAMMAR ERROR : Others like Kamala Harris treat it as retardation and group with retarded people needing asset management.

Together these embelishments creating a prosectuion of an alt-right white male (me) both defames me and funds social justice protected children with little resources.

espionage for private political gain and may have recruited a hit on Thomas Crane Wales, himself a FOXP2 person who might be on a hit-list while “serving his Sovereign” joking about Windsor bloodline.

She is a Neocon type in the Middle East policy area with strong pro Israel views.

uring intensive research into the RICO operations allowing racial and other minority females to false sue me (or rather my trust fund with Tom Donegan’s help) I first thought of Alma Powell.

Colin Powell named after or at least pronouncing his name as a famed WWII Boeing bomber pilot was married to audiologist speech therapist Alma Powell who I believe he met in speech research of 1961 twins studies marrying in Seattle Washington where Barrack Obama Jr would spend a few years and Seattle 21st Century Expo was held.

A string of murders including Jeffery McDonalds family could help conceal the speech therapy based FOXP2 Sydnrome OSS CIA MI5 London KE family line researchers and twins studies (which produced Barrack Obama Jr. and the Mark and Scott Kelley.)

The more likely nice sounding woman who called the likely Salvation Army recruited hit-man was Kamala Harris.

She (I believe) pipe bombed herself making it look like a very retarded FOXP2 Minimal Brain Dysfunction clipped grammar person from the right wing wrote it, she may have faked the minority suits of me when one time I downloaded some teen shower cam film, and she has likely been using that one time episode to stage further stage events claims I have been a peeper, and under that Law Enforcement false pretex mount the kind of claims for foreign economies the case before Judge Roll was pending in the amount of my mother’s trust fund.

She has always been a political stalker of reading my books I intend allow (or AOC does) and her stalking obsession with me could also be her stalking obsession with getting acccess to my mother’s genome and my extensive education in law, philospy, travel, history, and avant guarde lifestyle.

Much happened in 2001 she would likely not be a part of but working with Lloyd Austin, Leon Panneta, John Podesta, Barack Obama Jr. Vince Stewart, Jey Johson, Eric and Sharon Holder, Michelle Obama and others she had a tight knit cirle of high power internationally connected world and British connections that could tie to Seal Team Six EXTORTION17 flight (assets seized by a woman finding porn of 17 year-olds, then calling US Marshalls, FBI, or others) that Tom Dunham and I tracked to a fake teen porn ring run by Lori Cox and San Franicso Oakland child care and massage parlors wiht FBI helping the alleged ring and gettign confessions (from fake Ed and fake Tom Dunham.)

It fits a one time episode where in a vary rare event I had admited some teen porn to a Califronia dominatrix and some how or another in some conversation it came up that would be punished but I never heard from that dominatrix again, and seems to hyave been a basis of social sabotage of me and blackmale of a dopple of me who does photograph teens.

Black females like “Cynthia Nino” look out for little boys and girls, the legend built I am exploiting them, and that legend used in sabotage of me, pretexts for harrassement of me.

When the person who is Fake Ed hires an adult model she arrives to find Fake Ed is really a child porn addict and owes for harm done to little minority children. I do not but my Trust Fund agrees with this which fits a Kamala Harris is a Hero narrative.

Much of the Organized Stalk of me are paid or self-benefiting self-enriching (including benefiting their causes if not also benefiting themselves) who in the course of their Street Theater skit out that what Kamala Harris likely accused me of behind my back with Tom Donegan’s and others assistance is true or is only partially or minimally true.

It is true that 20s and 30s age athletic women of the Stanford California area or even Santa Cruz California (where I had some friends) are attractive to me and this is normal.

I once had a high power outdoor photography video camera mostly for family video usage (sending “letters from home” to my mother, me still in San Francisco area riding in the outdoors) and once I pointed it at pool in my apartment complex and left it with no teen or pedophilia in mind.

I did have some friends (Jessie, Chad) who were cruel to cats and in drug addicted psychosis at least if not permanent psychosis and I recognized the condition.

They were getting in street crime stupidity taking a baseball bat and wrapping it in barbed wire should they get in fights with the meth dealers who were providing the meth they were shooting into their viens.

They were driving around loaded I refuse to do, they were dating an underage Sherrif’s daughter and keeping her loaded, they were turning out by violence a women of age we both know and attacked her violently, all of these things independently and together I objected to.

The cat was terrified of them and I lived with Chad who was from Capitola originally and I finally was able to give the cat away after several tries to get the cat to safety. The cat did have flees when I gave it to an AA friend of mine.

All of these elements I oppose are being acted out as true parts of who I am when they are untrue, but the false narrative being acted out fits Kamala Harris hero San Francisco DA who was supposedly defending against me, not grand-standing framing me for political benefit to her and harm to me.

In the mid 1990s Kamala Harris was working as a Social Justice Warrior for minority children. I was being framed at the same time.

The situation continued to repeat itself and Kamala ran on stopping exploitation of minors, etc., defeating the existing District Attorney in San Francisco County.

During this time I was surrounded by criminal elements out of my control and during that the criminal elements were committing crime a VAGUE narrative suggested I was responsible for the crime as the real perpetrator was bought new clothes for (behind my back to others) pointing me out as in the area of the offense and that perp would make a statement to me full of innuendo but only to vague to construct innuendo.

I apply the model to what I call the Harvester H or the 4.5/5 Information Circuit

Information Circuit (formation of a Sentence, a Statement in Information)
People		Event
Scapegoat (law abider)		The law was obeyed
	Confusion at scene, several people dressed similary and clothing as identifier telling story, connecting events
Goat (Criminal)		The law was broken

When I worked at Wells Fargo in 2001 a strange meth dealer was introduced to me, the normal one had referred me to some new one. That new one asked I pick him up on the Tenderloin in my white Subaru station wagon 4WD my skiing loving father donated to me when he bought a Jeep.

The last facebook communication I had with Tom Dunham on Facebook which was part of this story was my saying in about 2019 or so that Kamala Harris seemed to be involved in all aspects of this and whether I said it or not that Dick Cheney's gay daughter was too.

Tom Dunham: Studied BS Mechanical Engineering at University of Missouri-Rolla Class of 1998.

San Francisco Natoma Street area actually Langton Street near the Stud Bar which was used by goth and industrial clubs as well as used by other venue renters.

Tom Dunham Facebook Profile

The meth addact made creepy gestures about little girls as he led me on a wild goose chase trying to give me directions to the place he said was his home to drop him off to. Along the way he was pointing out 10 year old girls and making creepy remarks I found horrifying.

A few days later a black thug attacked me out of the blue, and at the same time I was being fired from Wells Fargo for reasons they would not cite to me, but meth usage was adequate enough to be cited and I was using meth by accident on the job and at times when off the job it affected job performance and I was a liability to secure environment. The accidental usage was accidental ingestion of some stored methamphetamine.

I got several weird calls in a strange connection of calls. My mother was having weird and unexpected heart trouble and stomach bleeds. My uncle Harold had called from South Carolina about my mother.

The creepy meth dealer called me and said “let’s not do that ever again” and I assumed he meant the meth deal and I agreed completely especially with not doing a meth deal with him.

Finally, a few days after the phone call the meth dealer who was a skid row meth street person was stanmding outside the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals in brand new topcoat, scarf, fully dressed out in designer upscale clothes as he walked by me.

I believe he like some earlier people who had surrounded me were there to be a crime plague on society in the same vicinity I was in so a rumor coulf form I was part of that crime wave.

It fits this which has surrounded me since AOL in the 1990s and beyond.

In 2002 or so #KamalaHarris pulled the #uber stunt, also done in the late 1990s. sexualized tots are placed near me at the same time a Dopple is near me oogling them and photographing them. My reputation, jobs, apartments, lost to reputation damage. She reads my pol work as stump.

She made her career “defending” exploited children with a string of grand juries which were mere grandstanding for an anti establishment defense of the vulnerable social justice narrative but was really built on manufacturing abuse of gambit children she could later heroically represent against her political adversaries including other leftists, moderates, and far right wing.

This fit events aat AOL Netscape, San Francisco with Tom Dunham and myself, Salvation Army faking events in San Francisco AA meetings in their facilities, and other acts of Organized Stalk teams faking events with staged paid actors appearances as pretexts for illegal suvieallance, lawfare against the establishment for financial and poltical gain, etc.,

This patter continues in Corpus Christi Texas.

I apply the model to what I call the Harvester H or the 4.5/5 Information Circuit

Information Circuit (formation of a Sentence, a Statement in Information)
People		Event
Scapegoat (law abider)		The law was obeyed
	Confusion at scene, several people dressed similary and clothing as identifier telling story, connecting events
Goat (Criminal)		The law was broken

AOL Time Warner History as it applies to Tom Donegan and Ed Donegan

Tom Donegan was a very early employee of AOL and may have been AOL Tom. Working in Herndon Virginia after graduating GW (Where he suggested I attend and he showed me around right before I vomited all over his floor from driking too much) Tom was a marketeer sending out disks, etc.,

Vested in lots of early stock when the AOL Time Warner merger happened later he was a stock mulit millionaire and bought a nice house in Clarendon Arlington area Virginia much later moving back to Cape Cod Massavchussettes with Mark Weirness where the Donegans had grown up.

At about the time of the 1992 or was it 2000 election Tom was promoted to even higher position at the merged company.

THough he had worked at the company since the 1980s or so he was fired at 2007 almost the day I was arrested by the NIH and I think he was hired to help research my beliefs and personality.

In the late 1990s Tom Donegan lured me to AOL perhaps geniunely as a niceity but at AOL a Dopple of me emerged and I was fired under odd circumstances.

Richard Parsons (businessman) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Politico: President George W. Bush pursues Social Security reform, May 2, 2001

President George W. Bush meets with the leaders of his Social Security Commission, Daniel Patrick Moynihan (left) and Richard Parsons, in the White House on Oct. 30, 2001. | Susan Walsh/AP Photo

President George W. Bush pursues Social Security reform, May 2, 2001 By ANDREW GLASS 05/02/2018 12:00 AM EDT

Richard Dean “Dick” Parsons (born APRIL 4, 1948), an American business executive, is the former chairman of Citigroup and the former chairman and CEO of Time Warner. He stepped down as CEO of Time Warner on December 31, 2007. He was previously the interim CEO of the Los Angeles Clippers NBA franchise. In September 2018, Parsons became the Interim Chairman of the Board for CBS replacing Les Moonves. On October 21, 2018, he resigned for health reasons from CBS and was replaced by Strauss Zelnick.

Parsons was born to an African-American family in Brooklyn, New York, on April 4, 1948. He was one of five children. His maternal grandfather had been head groundskeeper at the John D. Rockefeller estate, Kykuit. Growing up in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn, Parsons’s father, Lorenzo Locklair Parsons, was an electrical technician and his mother, Isabelle (née Judd) was a homemaker. He skipped a grade in elementary school and another in high school. He later attended the University of Hawaii at Manoa, where at 6′4″ tall he may have played varsity basketball. After four years, he was seven credits short of his diploma. However, he discovered that he could get into a law school in New York without a college degree if he scored well enough on his pre-law exams. Parsons was accepted by Albany Law School of Union University, New York, where he earned a Juris Doctor in 1971, finishing at the top of his class.

Career

In 1971, Parsons served an internship at the New York State Legislature, at which time he was invited to work as a lawyer for the staff of New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller. When Rockefeller was appointed Vice President of the United States, in 1974, Parsons followed him to Washington D.C., where he worked directly with President Gerald Ford. He also met a deputy attorney general, Harold R. Tyler, and one of his aides, a young Rudolph W. Giuliani, with whom he was to be closely associated - supporting him in his campaign for New York mayor and heading his transitional council.

In 1977, Parsons returned to New York and became a partner after only two years at the Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler law firm; also working at the firm was Giuliani. During his 11 years at the firm Parsons took on Happy Rockefeller, the widow of Nelson (who had died in 1979) as a high-profile client.[9] In 1988, he was recruited to serve as chief operating officer of the Dime Savings Bank of New York by CEO Harry W. Albright Jr., who was a former Rockefeller aide. Parsons later became chairman and CEO[8] and oversaw a merger with Anchor Savings Bank, gaining a substantial sum when the Dime Bank was demutualized.

Three years later, in 1991, on the recommendation of Nelson’s brother Laurance Rockefeller to the then CEO Steve Ross, Parsons was invited to join Time Warner’s board; he subsequently became president of the company in 1995, recruited by chief executive Gerald Levin.[8] He helped negotiate the company’s merger with America Online in 2000, creating a $165-billion media conglomerate[10] that is “usually described as the worst merger of all time.”[11] In December 2001, it was announced that Levin would retire and Parsons had been selected as his successor. The announcement surprised many media watchers who expected chief operating officer Robert Pittman to take the helm. In 2003, Parsons made the announcement of the name change from AOL Time Warner to simply Time Warner.

Parsons was chairman of Citigroup from 23 February 2009[12] until April 2012 when he was replaced by Michael O'Neill.[13] He is chairman of the advisory board of Feigen Advisors, a CEO advisory firm run by Marc Feigen.

In September 2018, Parsons became the Interim Chairman of the Board for CBS, replacing Les Moonves.[3] In October 2018 Parsons stepped down from the position, citing difficulties brought about by his battle with Multiple myeloma. He was replaced by Strauss Zelnick.

Humanitarian causes

In 2007, Parsons became the chairman of the board of directors of the Jazz Foundation of America. He is also Chair of the Apollo Theater Foundation and co-chair of the advisory board of the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture.

In June 2016, Parsons was appointed Board Chair of The Rockefeller Foundation, a foundation promoting the wellbeing of humanity all over the world. He joined the foundation's board of trustees in 2008.

Prominent connections

From the early 1980s through much of the 1990s, Parsons owned a house near the Rockefeller family estate in Pocantico Hills (see Kykuit), where his grandfather was once a groundskeeper. For a brief time he worked for Nelson Rockefeller at the family office, "Room 5600", at Rockefeller Center.

Parsons became chairman emeritus of the Partnership for New York City, established by David Rockefeller in 1979, who has known him for many years. He became an advisory trustee of the family's principal philanthropy, the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, and he sits with David Rockefeller on the board of the World Trade Center Memorial Foundation. Parsons is also on the board of the family-created Museum of Modern Art.

In 2001, United States President George W. Bush selected Parsons to co-chair a commission on Social Security. Parsons also worked on the transition team for Michael Bloomberg, who was elected Mayor of New York City in 2001. In 2006, Parsons was selected to co-chair the transition team for the incoming Governor of New York, Eliot Spitzer.

In August 2006, an article in New York Magazine reported that Parsons would likely run for Mayor of New York City in the 2009 New York mayoral election. Parsons, however, repeatedly denied the reports, supported Mayor Bloomberg's efforts to repeal the term limits law, and supported Bloomberg for a third term in office.

Parsons was a member of the economic advisory team for President Barack Obama. He met with the then President-elect on Friday, November 7, 2008, along with many other economic experts, to discuss measures to solve the current economic crisis. After New Mexico Governor Bill Richardson withdrew his name from consideration for the position of Secretary of Commerce in the Obama Administration, Parsons's name was floated as a possible nominee.

On May 9, 2014, in the wake of the Donald Sterling racial remarks controversy, it was announced that Richard Parsons was appointed the interim CEO of the Los Angeles Clippers.

Personal life

In 1968, Parsons married Laura Ann Bush, a community activist with a doctorate in child psychology, who he met at the University of Hawaii. They have three grown children: Gregory, Leslie, and Rebecca.

In 2009, he had a child with model-philanthropist MacDella Cooper as a result of an extra-marital affair. Being of Liberian ethnicity, Cooper founded the MacDella Cooper Foundation in 2004 to help orphans and abandoned children in Liberia following the Second Liberian Civil War.

In 2015, Parsons was diagnosed with multiple myeloma, a rare form of blood cancer. Though he went into remission after Stem-cell therapy, complications in 2018 caused him to step down from his role as Interim Chairman of the Board of CBS.

Black Atomic Veterans were wronged by not being recognized, by being overloooked as victims

Hunters Point and Hunters Point Bayview Naval Shipyard

What happened to black San Francisco? retrieved from Jaimal Yogis | January 18, 2008 San Francisco Magazine and copied or modified to here

It was a dice game among friends. No one thought it would end in gunshots, much less murder. But few were really surprised, either. This was Bayview-Hunters Point, a neighborhood where just about every resident had lost a loved one at some point to bullets or drugs. This was San Francisco’s ghetto, and still is, a place many San Franciscans have never come and never will.

No one was willing to testify against the dice-game killer. Just as in ghettos across the country, a code of silence had developed in the neighborhood. It works like this: you don’t snitch unless you want to die or relocate to another state. So this murder, too, went unsolved and unpunished. When the screaming died down, it was just another funeral to attend.

The murdered man was Charles Oliver’s father. Charles, now 21, was 3 at the time, too young to understand, but he says he knew his dad was in a special place. Life in Bayview-Hunters Point remained tough for this family. When Charles was 9, he was beaten up by some kids from a rival block. This was just as the 1990s gang wars in the area were getting started. Stacked on top of his father’s murder, the beating was too much for his mother, Tonette Lane. She grew up here, too. But enough was enough. If her children were going to beat the statistics, she decided she had only one option: get out.

So she did. Like so many black families from San Francisco’s last remnant of an African American community, Lane moved her family to the suburbs. Their house is nothing fancy, but it’s a big improvement over those moldy, boarded-up projects in San Francisco. “I just remember it smelled bad over there,” says Lovetia, Tonette’s 15-year-old daughter. She was 5 when they left San Francisco. “It always smelled like pee,” she says, laughing. Everyone else laughs, too, because apparently it’s true. It did smell like pee.

?Census figures show that from 1990 to 2000, while San Francisco’s overall population increased more than 7 percent, the number of people who listed their race as African American fell from 76,343 to 58,791, a decline of 23 percent, more than any major city in the country has experienced. The black population has been decreasing steadily since its peak of 96,078 in 1970; …

Partly it’s the city’s extraordinary real estate market, which is pushing nonwealthy families of all races out of San Francisco. In a city with little room to expand, ut the streets of Bayview-Hunters Point teem with alternative theories. This is ethnic cleansing, some people say. It’s the San Francisco Redevelopment Agency trying to kick the African Americans out once again. It’s the result of the crack the CIA spreads so blacks will kill each other off. Or it’s an experiment the Navy has been conducting on toxicity: how long can these Negroes last near two Superfund sites? It’s the large-scale industries out here that won’t hire enough black youth. Or maybe it’s the white-owned media—MTV, VH1, and even BET—glorifying gangster rap, brainwashing young men into quitting school and selling drugs.

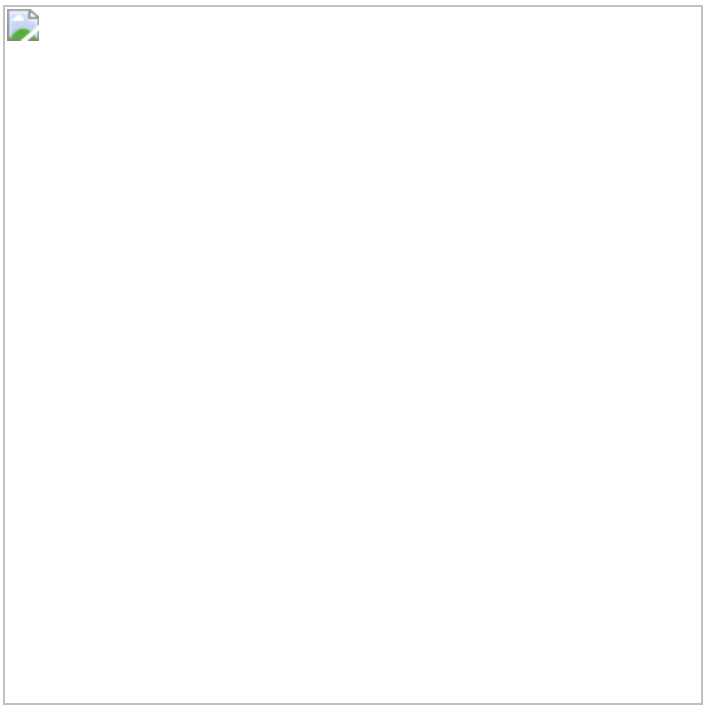
Or maybe it’s just history, others say. Residents speak of a dark cloud hanging over this part of the city, a cloud that will not disappear.

But this is not a story about theories. This is a story about three prominent families from Bayview-Hunters Point. The elders are leaders of the community who have fought hard, and are still fighting, to make the neighborhood a good place to live. They came here in the 1940s from the South with high hopes for a better life. They settled in, bought homes, raised children, and made the best of being relegated to the dirty industrial part of town. And they plan to live out their days here. Flawed as it may be, the Bayview is home.

…

Enlisted men, wounded in battle, on board the USS President Hayes in 1945 at Hunter's Point shipyard

Kamala Harris Charged With Obstruction Of Justice And Corruption retrieved from https://www.thesfnews.com and copied or modified to here



SAN FRANCISCO — On March 14, 2019, Kamala Harris was reportedly charged with obstruction of justice for her involvement in a corrupt cover-up of Hunters Point Ship-Yard and Treasure Island's (TS) radioactive contaminates.

According to Indybay, Harris was accused by former residents Felita Sample and Andre Patterson who claimed she had promised them she would shut down development on the island once she was voted in as senator. Harris kept quiet about the toxins that were poisoning low-income residents and reportedly conspired with Test America and Tetra Tech to falsify test results.

Both Patterson and Sample lived in low-income housing on TS from some time in the early 2000’s - 2017. Sample and Patterson are both cancer survivors, and they claim in a in an interview that their illness came from the toxic exposure of the island along with numerous other medical conditions. In the interview, Sample also claims to have lost her apartment on TS for speaking out about her sicknesses caused by the radiation.

Hunters Point was a formal Naval Ship-yard and was exposed to radiation contamination between 1946 and 1969. The site was reportedly a radiological defense laboratory used to study the effects of radiation on animals and other materials. Hunters Point Ship-yard was also reportedly used to decontaminate ships used in atomic bomb testing. TS and Hunters Point Ship yard share the same waters.

?Two Tetra Tech employees, Stephen Rolfe and Jason Hubbard, where sentenced to eight months in federal prison after admitting that they falsified test results on the site. According to a report by KTUV, Hubbard did not say why he substituted the false samples. However, in his March 14, 2017, plea agreement Rolfe said that “my motivation came from pressure applied by the Tetra Tech supervisors.”

According to The Labor Video Project, Kamala Harris refused to conduct any investigation about the illegal firing of 6 Tetra Tech whistleblowers. Although Harris is the only one involved in this specific charge, Patterson and Sample have also reached out to House speaker Nancy Pelosi, Sen. Dianne Feinstein, Gov. Gavin Newsom, Mayor London Breed and Sen. Scot Wiener, who all remained silent on the issue.

This book

Tom Donegan and Mark Weirness are concealers

Tome Donegan I think was murdered by an in vivo lethal medical study of his esophagus which is in the “one little detail play” of how a witness died. A random case of cancer.

IN VIVO

> Studies that are in vivo are those in which the effects of various biological entities are tested on whole, living organisms or cells, usually animals, including humans, and plants, as opposed to a tissue extract or dead organism. Wikipedia

POST MORTEM

> In Latin, mortem is a form of the word for “death,” and post means “after.” A postmortem, logically enough, is something that happens after death, usually an examination.

Three Donegans would have their esphogus studied. Glorian all her life had swalling prolems leading to choking and vomiting food up.

I did as well and learned non-autonomic (conscious mediation) of throat hydration was an intervention eliminated the swalling things like artichokes problem (reference a joke from Unlce Harold her brother)

I underwent an Upper GI drinking a nuclear waste contaminated milk shake (Three Mile Island Farms) and during that at Northern Virignia Medical Center I was also visiting my mother in that same hospital.

As for my records it was said I was in prison and could not have had that upper GI study leading to a long series of Social Security and medicare calls.

That issue appeared when I was trying to get Medicare to pay for a visit to pscyhiatrist who had an office at Northern Viriginia Hospial center.

During that visit I was describing my desire to mary and set down roots in the civil liberties community rather than club life. During that visit my brother called the appointment in progress and sought my civil commitment.

Randomly selected articles from the web compare In Vivo and Post Mortem organ or bjological study

Direct comparison of in vivo versus postmortem second-order motion-compensated cardiac diffusion tensor imaging retrieved from Christian T Stoeck 1 2, Constantin von Deuster 1 2, Thea Fleischmann 3, Miriam Lipiski 3, Nikola Cesarovic 3, Sebastian Kozerke 1 2 and copied or modified to here

Abstract

Purpose: To directly compare in vivo versus postmortem second-order motion-compensated spin-echo diffusion tensor imaging of the porcine heart.

Methods: Second-order motion-compensated spin-echo cardiac diffusion tensor imaging was performed during systolic contraction in vivo and repeated upon cardiac arrest by bariumchloride without repositioning of the study animal or replaning of imaging slices. In vivo and postmortem reproducibility was assessed by repeat measurements. Comparison of helix, transverse, and sheet (E2A) angulation as well as mean diffusivity and fractional anisotropy was performed.

Results: Intraclass correlation coefficients for repeated measurements (postmortem/in vivo) were 0.95/0.96 for helix, 0.70/0.66 for transverse, and 0.79/0.72 for E2A angulation; 0.83/0.72 for mean diffusivity; and 0.78/0.76 for fractional anisotropy. The corresponding 95% levels of agreement across the left ventricle were: helix 14 to 18°/12 to 15°, transverse 9 to 10°/10 to 11°, E2A 15 to 20°/16 to 18°. The 95% levels of agreement across the left ventricle for the comparison of postmortem versus in vivo were 20 to 22° for helix, 13 to 19° for transverse, and 24 to 31° for E2A angulation.

Conclusions: Parameters derived from in vivo second-order motion-compensated spin-echo diffusion tensor imaging agreed well with postmortem imaging, indicating sufficient suppression of motion-induced signal distortions of in vivo cardiac diffusion tensor imaging. Magn Reson Med 79:2265-2276, 2018. © 2017 International Society for Magnetic Resonance in Medicine.

Keywords: cardiac DTI; cardiac myofiber arrangement; diffusion tensor Imaging; in vivo; postmortem; second-order motion-compensated DTI.

© 2017 International Society for Magnetic Resonance in Medicine.

A Targted Idividual

Jeannette Hays @hays_jeannette · 15h
The burning continues along with strange marks on my nose and a bruise on my forehead. I can't take this anymore! Tentacle-like strands throughout my body, inflating & warping. Black synthetic nano dust all over my home.
#TargetedIndividual
#V2K
#CyberTorture
#The144Thousand
7 15
23

Can post-mortem MRI be used as a proxy for in vivo? A case study retrieved from www.researchgate.net and copied or modified to here

Post-mortem in situ MRI has been used as an intermediate between brain histo(patho)logy and in vivo imaging. However, it is not known how comparable post-mortem in situ is to ante-mortem imaging. We report the unique situation of a patient with familial early-onset Alzheimer's disease due to a PSEN1 mutation, who underwent ante-mortem brain MRI and post-mortem in situ imaging only 4 days apart. T1-weighted and diffusion MRI was performed at 3-Tesla at both time points. Visual atrophy rating scales, brain volume, cortical thickness and diffusion measures were derived from both scans and compared. Post-mortem visual atrophy scores decreased 0.5-1 point compared with ante-mortem, indicating an increase in brain volume. This was confirmed by quantitative analysis; showing a 27% decrease of ventricular and 7% increase of whole-brain volume. This increase was more pronounced in the cerebellum and supratentorial white matter than in grey matter. Furthermore, axial and radial diffusivity decreased up to 60% post-mortem whereas average fractional anisotropy of white matter increased approximately 10%. This unique case study shows that the process of dying affects several imaging markers. These changes need to be taken into account when interpreting post-mortem MRI to make inferences on the in vivo situation.

Why and how Tom and Mark were recurited by the progressive state churches and causes, making him a pawn of those he opposed like big oil money and rich families

They made a big deal, before the US Senate, with Orin Hatch, about their fight against White Supremacism and sparked fights with both my mother and I cause my mother and I to polarize against them to at least some level, the gay politics level, though both my mother and I ALWAYS wanted Tom and Mark in the family, loved, and as family, regardless of the behavior of Tom and Mark, behavior including hiding or stealing hats which may have hair

DNA failing to provider her or myself funds as needed medically, hiding pictures of her youth and family such as Festus Gainey, and I think trying to make my charming mother and I seem very different from a cognitive characteristics standpoint from the Obama family who is likely using Donegan biology from generation to generation.

It reminds me of the Parks Murder discussed elsewhere in this book.

The Parks Murder

http://www.geocities.ws/incindiary1999/jerryparks.html

"I'M A DEAD MAN," whispered Jerry Parks, pale with shock, as he looked up at the television screen. It was a news bulletin on the local station in Little Rock. Vincent Foster, a childhood friend of the President, had been found dead in a park outside Washington. Apparent suicide.

He never explained to his son Gary what he meant by that remark, but for the next two months the beefy 6′ 3″ security executive was in a state of permanent fear. He would pack a pistol to fetch the mail. On the way to his offices at American Contract Services in Little Rock he would double back or take strange routes to "dry-clean" the cars that he thought were following him. At night he kept tearing anxiously at his eyebrows, and raiding the valium pills of his wife, Jane, who was battling multiple sclerosis. Once he muttered darkly that Bill Clinton's people were "cleaning house," and he was "next on the list." [of secret identity Twins from a secretive study?]

In short they were Confidetional Informancs (CIs) harrassing their own family, Glorian and myyself (TIs) Targeted Individuals being Gangstalked, harrassed, and subverted by espionae agencies and actors including from Africa.

The Progressive and Social Justice and gay marriage participating churches and secular causes insuring social justice such as police oversight boards and the study of racism are where Tom Donegan and Mark Weirness, his gay marriage partner, have lived all of their lives.

I think they have used the concept of Money Laundering and Conspiracy Against Rights undermining my mother Glorian and myself not out of spite of either of us, but feigning that publicly so that the good quality brain genome can continue to be used in social justice church causes and social justice programs on a continuing basis, undetected, having started before Tom or I were born and before Mark or Scott Kelley were born or Barrack Obama was born or Michelle Obama was born or Brittany Spears was born or many others were born, and Tom and Mark's participation was needed, sought, and gained to keep the entirety of it secret through the cover up on the real truth of the Donegan genome.

Conspiracy Against Life, Liberty, and Property via various intrusive and illegal sham moves

The two key elements will be Money Laundering and Conspiracy Against Rights in will add up to Subversion of myself and the USA.

Consder again the 2.5/3 Information Circuit concept.

Value must upon a sham pretense moved between Node A, its owner, into Node B, its recipient, along a sham transport, some sort of tranport we will call smuggling.

Owner of Assets is Node 1, Recipient of Assets is Node 2, the sham vehicle used to move the assets is the .5 tansport, not a node, but the mechanism of transport.

Nodes	Transport	Life, Liberty, Property
Glorian, Ed, Trust Fund	Sham Claims of injuring social justice demograhic	Oppression of Me and Trust Fund ↓ ↓
Social Justice Social Ministries Projects		Value of my work and Trust Fund value is transported to here

One thing that makes the transport easier is to evade notice and thus the value of the asset is denied and not accounted for, thus the asset moves without due accounting procedures along the sham transport not noticed.

> Money Laundering Abstractly
>
> Money laundering is the illegal process of concealing the origins of money obtained illegally by passing it through a complex sequence of banking transfers or commercial transactions. The overall scheme of this process returns the “clean” money to the launderer in an obscure and indirect way.[1]
>
> In a number of legal and regulatory systems, the term “money laundering” has grown to include other forms of financial and business crime, and is sometimes used more generally to include misuse of the financial system (involving things such as securities, digital currencies, credit cards, and traditional currency), including terrorism financing and evasion of international sanctions
>
> From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Sham pretext created by the Left Globe Photographer in Conspiracy aginst my Life, Liberty, and Property, the Property moved to Social Justice causes away from me on the sham transport of sham claims against me

The Left Globe Photographer, I will also call him (Shizo the Disso soon and you will see why) while in me wide Wide Field Of Vision vicintiy takes a picture of a teen or tot who is in my Near Field of Vision vicinity.

Element A Consipracy Element B Conspiracy Element C is Rights

Violation under Pretext of A and B
Element A Near Edward Paul Donegan	Element B After separating from real Edward Paul Donegan	Element C, Rights violation of Ed Donegan under the pretext created by conspiracy elements A and B
Left Globe of minor aged female photographer A teen or tot exploitative photographed Outwardly Not Ed, I can not object, though that person oddly has his right side of head to camera and is covering right head area with a cap where I have scar By paperwork I can not see or object to has the idenity of Edward Paul Donegan	Schizo IS Ed Donegand asks Tom Donegan and ARC of NOVA to pay victim restitution Shizo is ALSO a member of the family or member of the church of the harmed minor female and NOW wants a car to patrol against Ed Donegan so the crime won't happen again, such as Ed using a smartphone in public, a baiss to attack Ed Donegan	Property loss and other retalation against Edward Paul Donegan and loss of value of Trust Fund to alleged victims who launch sham allegations
real Edward Paul		Loses property

Donegan		and rights here, and behind his back, Tom Donegan and Trust administering that Schizo the peeper does not have actual contact with the adult entertainer he confesses to nor the under age female he photographed, but at Element A the minor female and Schizo are near me and when the adult entertainer is at Element B that is near me. In both cases schizo may be hiding behind a curtain, actving from there, or with forged or stolen electronics from me.

The discontinuity of clear direct actors and whole picture line of sight is how identities are switched in and out and activities are wrongly linked to the correct identification or person.

This has been a lifespan long scheme by Tom Donegan and Mark Weirness to defame the mental state and genome of Ed and Glorian while ALSO smuggling it into social justice cause by conspiracy against Life, Liberty, and Property of Glorian and Ed Donegan.

That is it on the micro level but they were recruited on the Macro level for the Macro 360 Degree World effort of Progressives to gain financially and gnetically from Glorian’s genome line, and do so on a hotile robbery basis rather than sharing basis, to avoid the rights to the genome being in two places at once and detected in two places at once.

Jen Moore will believe Tom and Mark about my mother and perhaps me but during observation of me and my telling off the peoople attacking me Jen Moore will think I am an all right guy, telling it like it is, and as Trump supporter, she will not get behing the riff raff assault on me, the street people assaulting me.

Importantly Tom and Mark will sell the idea my mother and I are psychos and do not have readership or popular likable personalities, not leaders or liked at all.

The use of a Slander Campaign for legal and social assaults is based on paid actors surrounding me and committing disgusting acts attributed to my identity, misrepresentation of me to agree to guilt not mine, and use of word of mouth and defamation campaigns to spread the false word about me.

This is the large scale conspiracy against rights used by the powerful who have no where to run and liabilities about how I and my family have been treated, and using persecution of me including letting the disabled sue a right winger is part of building social disavowal of me and my voice.

It is also the gain of genomic assets I think have commercial and bedroom room value as OTHERS wish to offer them to women, my genetics, and taking that out to the party scene has been part of value theft from me.

I suspect this could be the funding source for Jeffery Epstein and that cash empire.

I have suspected the “psychiatrist” my mother said Tom and Mark spent the summer months with was Epstein, and that fits the August planning sessions.

Further when I tried to get Tom out of the trust position and tried to get ARC of NOVA in there was a huge delay, and later I found out a Rikki Espstein was the executive director.

This fits with my claim an Al Copone style operation is under way which people like Orkent would have studies, cartels which have charitable arms like the Rockefeller Foundation for the Kids help get the cartel operation accepted as a social good and the full details, like with most cartels hiding death of law enforcement, etc., never get revealed to the public.

Another factor in getting the cartel accepted in Corpus Christi with a large black and Hispanic skid row was the profits to be gained from the protection racket cartel shaking down my trust fund.

Elsewhere in the book I talk about revolutionary elements, subversive elements, useful idiots, that can become loyal to wealthy or powerful elite leaders of revolutionary or subversive movements.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

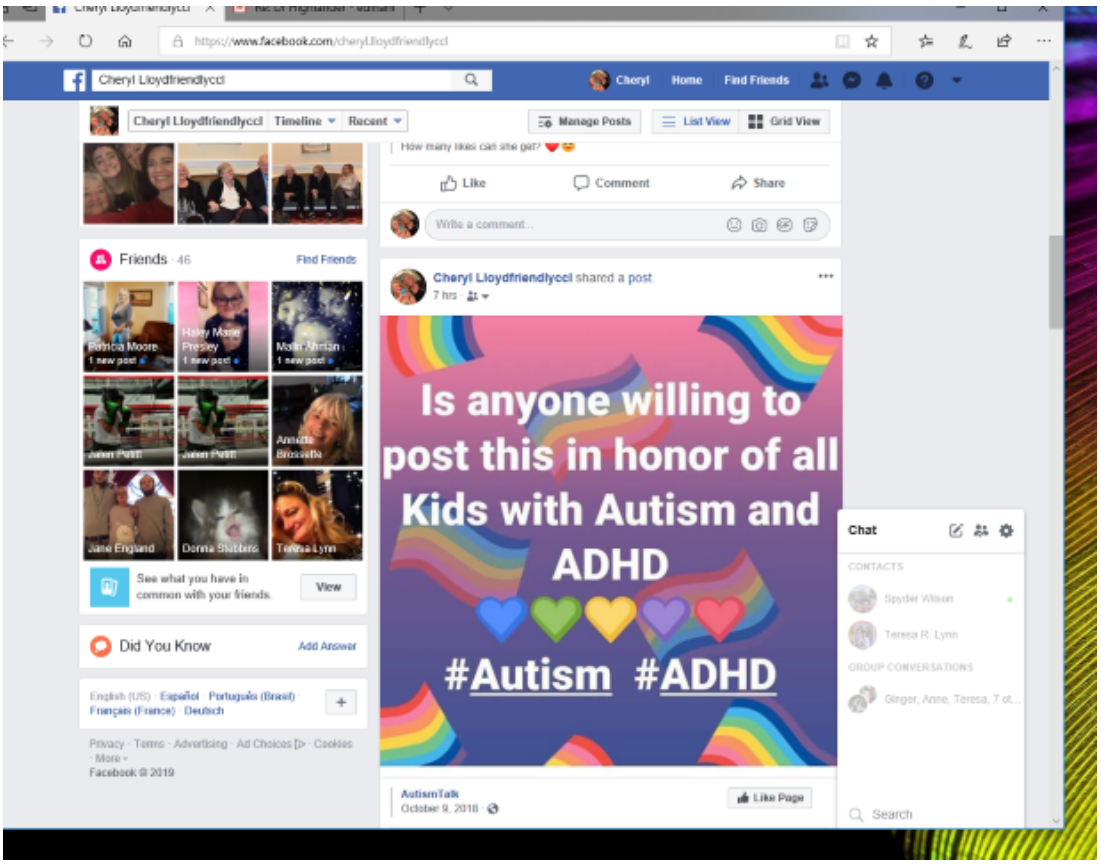
PROLETARIAT

The proletariat are the social class of wage-earners ideally at at least middle class level and perhaps by retirement accounts, savings, property ownership also participating in the investor class activities while working for wages as well.

LUMPENPROLETARIAT

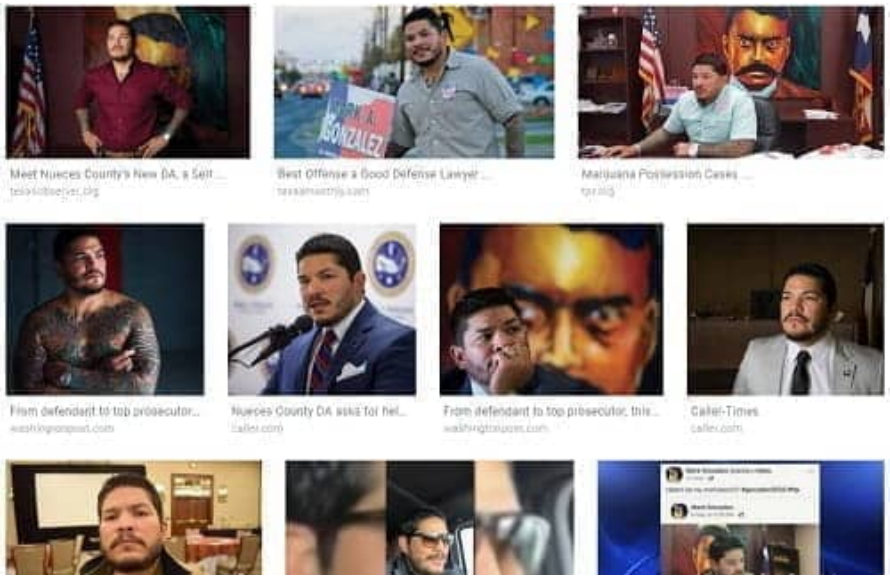
essentially parasitical group was largely the remains of older, obsolete stages of social development, and that it could not normally play a progressive role in history [on its own.] Indeed, because it acted only out of socially ignorant self-interest, the lumpenproletariat was easily bribed by reactionary forces and could be used to combat the true proletariat

During my mother's most difficult times, like her toilets and ktichen sink overflowing from builging plumbing problems, scavies likely inserted hostily, lack of medical care for broken stitches, lack of Nephro, lack of Sacral Sores cushions, Tom was often abuse and used the crisis for fights or attacking her exacerbating the problem.



or these people

Or these people



Perhaps these people are willing to help the poor at Glorian and Ed Donegan’s expense.

Paying off fake lawsuits, keeping me uneomployed, ouside of normal cities, normal life, and single are part of that.

If the skid row of older farming days of migrant workers can find what they want on a profit and employment level from the cartel that will also add to the accceptance of Cartel activitities, subvertiing law abiding government as the political will leans towards lifting up the poor and the cartel providing for their needs.

Nueces County Texas including the city of Corpus Christi was ripe for this elite backed cartel to take over the town and subvert its government using elite level subversion techniques and capabilities my brother Tom Donegna and Mark Weirness have as connections.

This book

Jen Moore was a Nazi hunter murdered because the was exposing the concealed Nazi ties of elite families and using celebrity out of wedlock Donegan-Gainey (Thus Windsor paternal - Gestapo General Kutschera neice Maria maternal Kutschera) DNA

Passing of Jen Moore retrieved from [Tracy Police Department on Fecebook] and copied or modified to here

Jen Moore of Tracy PD,California

Tracy Police: It is with deep sadness we announce the death of retired officer Jenny Moore who passed away on August 13, 2018 in Millersville, Maryland. Jenny served the community of Tracy from 1993 until her retirement in 2004. Jenny held the rank of Corporal, served in the then named Street Crime Unit as a narcotics investigator and worked in the Tracy Unified School District as a DARE officer. As a Field Training Officer, Jenny taught new officers how to police in Tracy and gave them an appreciation of what it meant to grow up in a town and later serve the same community. She also was a member of our adventure racing team competing in several events on the west coast.

Jenny graduated from Tracy High School in 1986 and later completed a Master's Degree in Psychology, which she put to good use as a psychologist at a non-profit organization.

Her mother, Jane Moore of California, survives her; her Father Bob Moore of Texas; her sisters Robin and Kelli, and brother Bobby, all of California. She also had numerous nieces and nephews.

The "issue" is that Kutschera DNA tied to Franz Kutchera family members and Kutscherea Nazi ally Heinrich Himmler is in STOLEN DNA when eggs were stolen from Glorian Donegan, moved into Barrack Obama, the Bush family, the Rockefellers and others of secretive DNA tests.

I am writing a "Submitted for inclusion Addendum to Coroner's Inquest suggesting a Homocide finding" by laying out the story Jen Moore was working on that was Glorian Donegan at 850 N. Randolph Arlington Virginia and the clandestine agencies and secret history of the real story of the Von Trapps and what happened with rescue-es and underground railroads including those with FOXP2 Syndrome medical condition which placed them at odds with growing Nazi disdain for genetic conditions.

Revealing that today's most powerful figures may include these genes lines is the story the elites are killing journalists to protect.

In 1972 James Angleton's close alley in Free Masonry J. Edgar Hoover dies. The worked with Pope Pius XII in a plan following WWII to do Mendellian like research in race studies including grooming Barrack Obama Jr. in race and FOXP2 studies which went to British history and the Central European family later calling itself the Windsors and their history.

JAMES PAUL DONEGAN, GLORIAN DONEGAN, TON DONEGAN, ED DONEGAN,

- James Paul Donegan (father): Grew up poori in Boston Massacussttes. IN WWII and Korea fighter pilot for recon, few with and did targetign with bombers including nucelar bomb drops and Japan and atimc blast radiation testing SSFL Nevada and California
- Glorian Dnegan nee Glorian Gainey sister of Harold Gainey and adopted by the Dew family in South Carolina when Festus Gainey dies. IT seems Glorian and Harold were two of three Maria Augusta Kutschera children other than the 7 Von Trapp family steot children to her
- Tom Donegan older brothe of Ed DOnegan but co-operationg with CIA and not trusted by Glorian Donegan for the will which was the sale of the Moraga house money
- Edward Paul Donegan, me, who like my mother has FOXP2 sympstoms showing and we both were gangstalked during our lives and often lived in two person households with each other.

BOSTON MASSACHUSETTS CAPE COD

Jim Donegan the son of Irish immigrants live on the wrong side of the tracks in Boston. His father worked in Ireland as an accounted but moved to Boston unable to work in that field and died a blue collar employee sweep floors at Hershey Chocalte plant. James Donegan told stories intensive abusive experiences his Irish Roman Catholic parents experienced in Boston while trying to raise him thus he pulled his own as an under-age painter until the US Army Air Corps began recruiting underage P-51 pilots and he took it as WWII reached Enlgand and the USA

LOS ANGELES COUNTY CALIFORNIA AND THE MANHATTAN PROJECT

In 1961 I was born in Danial Freedmaan Memorial St. Josephs Cahtolic Hospital in Manhattan Beech City of Los Angeles County. Part of Inglewood are of Los Angeles County Manhattan Beach this was the figher bomber developement by Boing and others to develop and dropt the atomic bomb. Afterwards it was above ground atomic testing and blast exposure testing in Nevada, Hawaii, elsewehre my fathe still in the military was invoveld with int he 1950s. In 1961 I am born in Inglewolood Manhattan Beach home of the P-51, Manhattan Project site (from the code name when Columbia Unviersity New York overlooks Manahttan Ilsand and Enrico Fermis "That can be our password! Manhattan Project!!"

BOSTON AGAIN AFTER A FEW YEAR IN CALIFORNIA MANHATTAN BEACH HOME

As my father flew for TWA in the 1960 including with the Chafin family of TWA bratts but then moving to Cape Code again, Marshfield, near the Kennedy compound and not the poor area of Boston.

1973 A MOVE INTO MORAGA CALIFORNIA IN A NEW HOUSE JUST BUILD TO OUR DESIGN AT 52 LAMBETH SQAARE

In Contra Costa County, the Eastern side of the Skyline Mountains hills Alameda County and my Oakland Hish School and frieds were on as well. (Honey Binning, Leanord Schaffer, etc.,)

RAYMOND JOHNSON BINNING obituary retrieved from East Bay Times and copied or modified to here

RAYMOND JOHNSON BINNING Raymond Johnson Binning in Piedmont on Sept. 13, 2003 of cancer. Beloved husband of Ann Taylor Binning. Loving father of Les Binning (Emeline), Honey Reid (Roland), Dawn Gibbs (Jess), and Elizabeth Binning. Stepfather of Dave Rompel and John Rompel. Dear son of Alice and Dean Webster. Also survived by 10 grandchildren. A native of Wyoming Age 66 years. A member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Memorial Services will be held Monday, September 22nd at 11 a.m. in the small chapel at the Interstake Center adjacent to the Mormon Temple on Lincoln Avenue in Oakland. Contributions in his memory may be made to LDS Foundation/ Humanitarian Services, 15 South Temple, Salt Lake City, UT 84150 (checks payable C.O.P.B. designating Humanitarian Services in memory of Ray Binning) or Boy Scouts of America, 1001 Davis St. San Leandro, CA 94577 OAK PARK HILLS CHAPEL 925-934-6500

Published by Oakland Tribune on Sep. 20, 2003.

I had met Honey Binning at Cal State Haward and we sometimes partied or kept company at her Piedmont home or my mother Moraga California home. She described her parents as Mormon and described Mormon requirements of faithfulness as highly socially conservative.

We also had visited a mother’s or father’s original home with relatives still at it in somewhere in Central California. During that time together she also talked about her parents holding strong religous beliefs and serious lectures her younger sister had revieved about becoming pregnant out of wedlock during that week or so or weekend long trip together we took.

Jim and Glorian will diverse in 1980 as I graduate Head Royce High School in Oakland just barely. I briefly attend University of Oregon but flunk out and return to Moragan to consider my options will working in fast food, drinking heavily, etc. in 1980 my brother Tom has gone to George Washing University and will graduate from there, my father moved out into a Condo in Walnut Creek, a Contra Costa County to the east of Moraga, though of similar demographics to the East Bay Contra Costa area, Moraga was gerrymandered as part of Alameda Cunty. and all locations were very close

In the house living alone Glorian my mother and I talked about the use of the house in the will. It will be stored in a bank account, segretated from other funds so no mixing. Glorian will live on the interest plust other income from the divorce. On her death I will get a car, much needed.

567 NATOMA ST, SAN FRANCISCO, CA, 94103 (SAN FRANCISCO COUNTY)

After drinking too much I went to AA. From there I tried career counseling, led to VOC REHAB tech school and gainful employment in high tech and I move to Sanf Francisco near my plat of work in San Francisco at Wells Fargo. At an earlier stop I worked for Netscape AOL after Tom Donegan invited me to but that seemed some kind of setup with a Dopple of me there.

777 MIDDLEFIELD RD, APT 131, MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA, 94043 (SANTA CLARA COUNTY)

The earlier location I worked at High Tech including AOL. During my time in the Silicon Valey area 9/11 hit and also during thsi time I got my networks security certification, one of them, Cisco PIX box later at Wells Fargo

26TH AND WISCONSIN IN SAN FRANCISCO CALIFORNIA, ROOM MATE SITUATION AS I LOOK FOR NEW WORK

I rented a room from a guy but based on some dirty tricks I was experiencing I felt lke my father during his divorce and started thinking Men’s Rights or White Rights and grew active.

850 RANDOLPH ST, APT 221, ARLINGTON, VA, 22203 (ARLINGTON COUNTY)

I used drugs again, was fired from Wells Fargo San Francisco California, ditched any friendship after a former friend ahd to eveict me (Jason) but at the same time I WAS being stalked, but the landlords were helping. I contributed to the problem but was not the problem, rather, a victim of it. GangTSalking

It is this apartment she suffers Congestive Heart Failure and we live together again talking about her will, and getting lawyers. Spliting the Moraga house sale proceeds between Tom and Ed are easy. A decades long seach for an Executor is the hard part of the will and David Donegan and others are approached but Tom will ultimately be the Executor.

3822 7TH ST N UNIT 14, ARLINGTON, VA

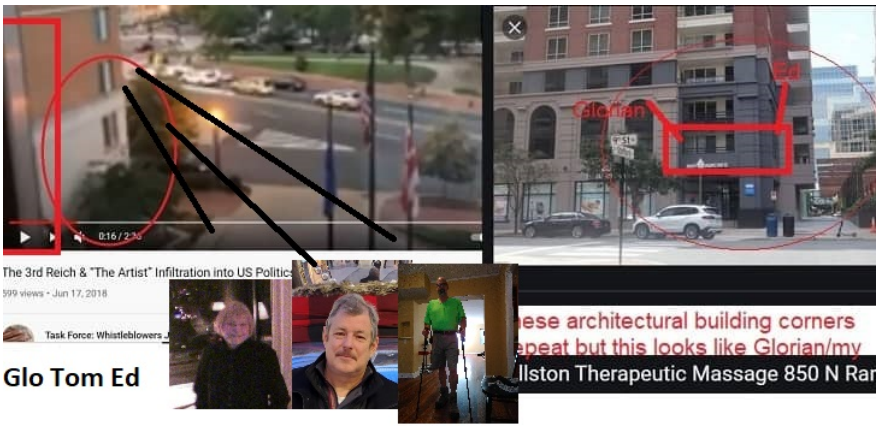
While my mother is still alive I move bearby to this address and walk back and forth to her house at 850 N. Randolph veyr close and where I used to live with her. Folloing her death I remain at 3822 7th street but am evicted from it after confronting a neigber over some wierd human trafficking ring Thea Smith and Tom Donegan created. Escorts were going to other units but comments were made to made “She is on the way” etc., but it really is going on behind my back and hidden from me. It is only made to appear I know about any actualy details or activities, I don’t

3253 STAPLES ST, APT 2, CORPUS CHRISTI, TX, 78411 (NUECES COUNTY) TEXAS

> Following eviction from confronting Virignia neighbors and my brother about the will and what was happening I fly to and arrive in Texas where more will shenanigans tied that Moraga house and its and GLorian's history unfold but attemppts are made to silence the truth and Jen Moore is murdered.

850 North Randolph, the mruder of Jen Moore, and how this affected the will of the rights to the house in Moraga Califronia

MKULTRA used NAZI scientists in military science in space medicine (flight surgeons, surviving space flight) rocketry, neurology, Eugenics, brain science, etc., The Grand Masters are the umbrella over both sides of WWII. Now they kill to \cover their trails.



Traitors, Infiltratoers covering their trail with CIA FBI COINTELPRO hits

> "%70 of Homicides I investigate are committed by the partners or ex-partners of the victim." - Detective, Below The Belt movie.

Add in "familial entities" actors, trust funds, social services? Jen Moore correctly observed abuse is being comitted through (not resolved by) Family Courts, the Family Courts a criminal syndicate front and abusive to those stuck in them like myself.

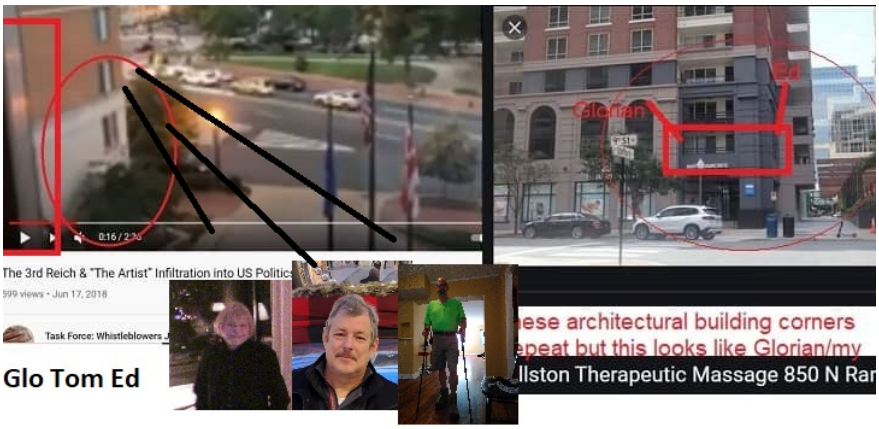
Infiltration of USA from MKULTRA Sciencits and Nazi Children Eugenics
DARPA British Vienna FOXP2 Minimal Brain Disorder London KE Family				Law Abing citizes and truth of MKULTRA under attack
	European Scientists, business, Political Figures	Moving them into the USA or Commonwealths with hidden identities increasingly	US Constitutional Offices	Wet Division illegal FBI and CIA Deep State

		whitewashed such as hiding ID of Franz Kutschera,, Himmler, and Mengle from Sound of Music, hiding of 3 children moved into the USA		operation to cover up real story of hidden identities of those moved into the USA OR Buenos Aires from Nazi Germany
European Grand Masters	King Edward VIII with Rotshcilds family in Austria and Kutschera family in Austria, children and other ties	European Royal and Business and Medical familes, Dr Cameron, Kamloops, other secret research sites in Canada, Austraila, Elsewhere	Barrack Obama Jr Scwhartzenegger and others born under this now in power, including likely Robert Swan Mueeleer III and George W. Bush family, and many business like Golds and HEM NAZI ties	~~Jen Moore~~ murdered as she was disclusing hidden identies in the USA of MKULTRA use of Nazis This as Obama Thank You Card is hiding in buses at Stay and Play August 2016
	Aristocray Military Science and Industrial Complex Duponts Kellogs Columbia OSR, CIA TSS Biology	Bush, Clintons, Obamas, Chenney, USAID, CIA, Dept of Defense, Vatican	Hit on ~~JFK, RFK, Dorothy Killgallen~~	WASP Deep State has clipped of top of control of USA
Windsors and Commonwealths	Vienna Eugenics and Brain Sciences WASP Big Big	USA Elites, BCCI, UBBC, Other Nazi ties of MKULTRA, Werhner Von	Hollywood Kabal free masons use metaphors	Kabal tied to England Will Bill Donavan

	Big Business, regime change, private wealth private security firms dirtyh deeds	Braun, Defense and Sciences of Nazi Germany		Donald Barr Wiliam Barr Christopher Wray Mueller J. Edgar Hoover Comey run the USA
US Grand Masters	DuPont Family and Grand Master Masons South Carolina - Sumpter Greensborough via Denton North Caroina	Rockefeller Sciences and Nuerology, ELI Lilly, George Bush, H.W. Bush, Neil Bush, GLorian Gainey and Harold Gainey Ed Donegan studies		Attempted hit on ~~Edward Donegan~~

850 North Randolph, the mruder of Jen Moore, and how this affected the will of the rights to the house in Moraga Califronia

MKULTRA used NAZI scientists in military science in space medicine (flight surgeons, surviving space flight) rocketry, neurology, Eugenics, brain science, etc., The Grand Masters are the umbrella over both sides of WWII. Now they kill to \cover their trails.



Traitors, Infiltratoers covering their trail with CIA FBI COINTELPRO hits

> “%70 of Homicides I investigate are committed by the partners or ex-partners of the victim.” - Detective, Below The Belt movie.

Add in “familial entities” actors, trust funds, social services? Jen Moore correctly observed abuse is being comitted through (not resolved by) Family Courts, the Family Courts a criminal syndicate front and abusive to those stuck in them like myself.

Infiltration of USA from MKULTRA Sciencits and Nazi Children Eugenics
DARPA British Vienna FOXP2 Minimal Brain Disorder London KE Family				Law Abing citizes and truth of MKULTRA under attack
	European Scientists, business, Political Figures	Moving them into the USA or Commonwealths with hidden identities increasingly whitewashed such as hiding ID of Franz Kutschera,, Himmler, and Mengle from Sound of Music, hiding of 3 children moved into the USA	US Constitutional Offices	Wet Division illegal FBI and CIA Deep State operation to cover up real story of hidden identities of those moved into the USA OR Buenos Aires from Nazi Germany
European Grand Masters	King Edward VIII with Rotshcilds family in Austria and Kutschera family in Austria, children and other ties	European Royal and Business and Medical familes, Dr Cameron, Kamloops, other secret research sites in Canada, Austraila, Elsewhere	Barrack Obama Jr Scwhartzenegger and others born under this now in power, including likely Robert Swan Mueeleer III and George W. Bush family, and many business like Golds and HEM NAZI ties	~~Jen Moore~~ murdered as she was disclusing hidden identies in the USA of MKULTRA use of Nazis This as Obama Thank You Card is hiding in buses at Stay and Play August 2016

	Aristocray Military Science and Industrial Complex Duponts Kellogs Columbia OSR, CIA TSS Biology	Bush, Clintons, Obamas, Chenney, USAID, CIA, Dept of Defense, Vatican	Hit on ~~JFK, RFK, Dorothy Killgallen~~	WASP Deep State has clipped of top of control of USA
Windsors and Commonwealths	Vienna Eugenics and Brain Sciences WASP Big Big Big Business, regime change, private wealth private security firms dirtyh deeds	USA Elites, BCCI, UBBC, Other Nazi ties of MKULTRA, Werhner Von Braun, Defense and Sciences of Nazi Germany	Hollywood Kabal free masons use metaphors	Kabal tied to England Will Bill Donavan Donald Barr Wiliam Barr Christopher Wray Mueller J. Edgar Hoover Comey run the USA
US Grand Masters	DuPont Family and Grand Master Masons South Carolina - Sumpter Greensborough via Denton North Caroina	Rockefeller Sciences and Nuerology, ELI Lilly, George Bush, H.W. Bush, Neil Bush, GLorian Gainey and Harold Gainey Ed Donegan studies		Attempted hit on ~~Edward Donegan~~

2009 to 2014 Housing of Donegan Family

My path from San Francissco to where i had worked in high tech at Wells Fargo until just after 9/11 was through Federal Medical Centers (FMC New York MCC Federal Prison and FMC BUtner Federal Medical Center after a 2007 dispute I had with the New York DOJ Field Office co-opting a grant I was seeking or seeking information on as to lawsuits in Social Justice and acts of anti European hate are or could be fueled by blaming “the system” and its “Man” on differences which may have to do with uneven evolved IQ.

I was arrested for contacting the National Institute of Health Freedom of Information Office (more formally the HHS Office) and held without trial as a lunatic and also I assert during this time frame I was radiolgically attacked.

On that assertion)like the assertion someone (the FBI in New York) had co-opted my grant) I was placed in a North Carolina mental hospital as delusional. During this time frame Ted GUnderson was asserting he was being poisened, Barrack Obama Jr was just being swarn in as I was released from the mental hospitable to Arlington Virginia and its mental health services as outpatient for a period of time.

Glorian Donegna had long ago moved to Arlington VA 850 North Randolph to be near Tom Donegan, long in the D.C. area living in Arlington Viriginia.

As I was released in 2009 and to 2014 the picture looked lie this.

GLORIAN DONEGAN 850 N. RANDOLPH ALRINGTON VA PERMANT ADDRESS (UNIT NUMBER CHANGED ONCE) FOR PERHAPS 20 YEARS, SHE DIED 2011 WITH THAT AS HER PERMANENT RESIDENCE. PLACE OF DEATH: EMERITUS WITH MY APRATEMNT 7TH STREET IN VIEW OF THE WINDOS AND WALKINGS DISTANCE TO 850 N. RANDOLPH.

TOM DONEGAN CLARENDON ARLINGTON VIRGINIA

3200 19th St N, Arlington, VA much of his adult life working at AOL in Herndon VA after colledge BS in Marketing

TOM DONEGAN 6 THISTLEMORE WAY, PROVINCETOWN, MA

He returns to Cape Cod, the Donegan relatives, and lives in Provinceton across Cape Cod Massaschussetes where he grew up. Before leaving for MA and Gay Marriage he helps with my mother while in Arlington VA then by phone and organization effrots from MA

ED DONEGAN 7TH STREET ARLINGTON

Upon that 2009 release for me from the psych wards Tom arranges for an apartment on 7th Street Arlington Virgina very close to him and Mark at 19th Street and even closer, footsteps, to my mother in 850 North Randolph. I occupy the apartment for sevearl years, twice in scrapes with my neigbero over a fraud I alledged of trafficking. On the second time I am evicted and move to Texas to get rid of Arlington Mnetal Health which seesm to be working against me and my brother had influcence over

JAMES AND SUE ANN DONEGAN LINCOLN CALIFORNIA

With a long love of Lake Tahoe and the Sirrea NEvada Jim and Sue Ann Donegan his new wife live in the Sierras. He is distraught I am under arrest for fighting with my neigbor Thea Smith and I break my arm slamming had prison cell structure worried about him, Jen Moore references the incident and my fight back, verbally, against some reall abuse I was taking.

Uopn the death of my mother GLorian at Emeritus care essentially acted as a hospice, and stay at Cherydale, Tom and I and Mark clear her old 850 North Randolph apartment. I am so tired I can not stand and he resents my observation of his work without sharing in it.

Jim will come out and visit as well at several points, and Jim, Tom, Ed, and Mark will tour National Air and Space Museum, WWII Memorial, all of D.C. on foot, and is the last ha-rah of any Donegans together.

Upon that final eviction from 7th Street all Donegans are gone from Arlington VA. Me evicted and flying to Texas homeless, Tom and Mark back to Massachusetts, and Jim back to Truckee where he will soon die, and me in Texas.

Jen Moore is a Patriot for Exposing the MKULTRA Program and Silenced Patriots Exposing MKULTRA at the risk of herself being Silenced

Jen Moore Posted August 21, 2018 on Patriot or Traitor

Jen Moore is a patriot and a babe

Investigative Journalist Jen Moore was found dead in a suburban Washington D.C. hotel room Monday. August 20, 2018, according to police and shocked and distraught friends and colleagues.

Moore died of an apparent seizure. Police are closely investigating the cause of death after former FBI Agent Robyn Gritz, a friend of Moore's, made inquiries with homicide detectives Monday afternoon in Prince Georges County, Maryland. Preliminary reports from police said the death was not the result of suicide.

> Go Fund Me*: Robyn Gritz Whistleblower: Other account screwed
>
> Robyn Lee Gritz is organizing this fundraiser.
>
> Hello, many of you know my story about being discriminated and retaliated against by the FBI after 16+ years of service. The ringleader, Andrew McCabe, is under federal investigation but my case still lumbers on after 8 1/2 years. My other GFM account is paused with no explanation. So I'm starting this one. Will add once I get this going.
>
> Robyn Lee Gritz Organizer Austin, TX
>
> Updates
>
> FEBRUARY 27, 2021 by Robyn Gritz, Organizer
>
> Hello all! We filed an awesome rebuttal to the FBI's motion to dismiss. My attorneys should write my book! They totally understood how to put what happened and how I was affected into words, which I often have problems doing myself! Thank goodness for them!
>
> Unfortunately, state budget cuts here in Texas resulted in the contract I moved here to work being cut. Purely a fiscal decision. This > unfortunately has me now unemployed and struggling to make my rent. I'm having to move to a cheaper apartment within the next two weeks and I have been applying to jobs like a maniac. Please keep me in your prayers.

Moore's body was found by employees at the Country Inn & Suites by Radisson, Washington, D.C. East - in Capitol Heights, Maryland. The investigation is ongoing. An autopsy had not been scheduled as of late Monday.

Moore, an advocate who investigated abused and trafficked children, had been in the process of investigating allegations by a 26-year-old man that - as a young boy - he was sexually assaulted by Bill Clinton and pimped out at private sex parties attended by other D.C. elites.

In fact, just four weeks before her death, Moore filed details of the alleged victim's claims with the Department of Homeland Security, detailing the allegations against Clinton. Moore contacted Homeland Security beginning on July 6th through July 9th, records show. A week later, she contacted the FBI with identical details about the victim and the shocking allegations against Clinton.

FBI sources report no case has been opened on the evidence supplied by Moore. Homeland Security officials could not be reached for comment.

Moore had approached True Pundit's Thomas Paine in June with the allegations against Clinton. Paine conducted a series of face-to-face interviews with Moore and the alleged victim in various locales. By July, the victim agreed to tell his story to Paine. But Moore and the traumatized victim wanted to contact Homeland Security and the FBI first to see if they would open a criminal case against Clinton prior to publicizing the claims.

"Jen thought that with a criminal probe, federal agents could use the victim possibly to dangle in front of Clinton to see if he made a mistake or tried to pay him off," Paine said. "She was worried about the safety of the victim and was working to find him safe harbor until this story broke.

Now she is the one who turned up dead."

Paine and True Pundit were vetting the details provided by the victim. Paine said the allegations were "credible" and the victim's testimony and details were beyond convincing.

Paine said Moore accepted the risks with the story and understood things could get very ugly very fast. Per conversations with True Pundit's Paine:

Secret Identities and the right of the US Public to know

I recently found evidence suggesting that the CIA has an interest in concealing it created Barack Obama to fight communism in Africa, and I am the Manchurian Son.

Former FBI Agent Speaks Out: 'I Was Not Protected retrieved from NPR, April 15, 2015 , Heard on All Things Considered by CARRIE JOHNSON EVIE STONE and copied or modified to here

For 15 years, Gritz says, she did her job well. Her bosses at the FBI gave her excellent or outstanding performance reviews, she says. But when a reporter made contact with her last year, she was selling cosmetics at Macy's.

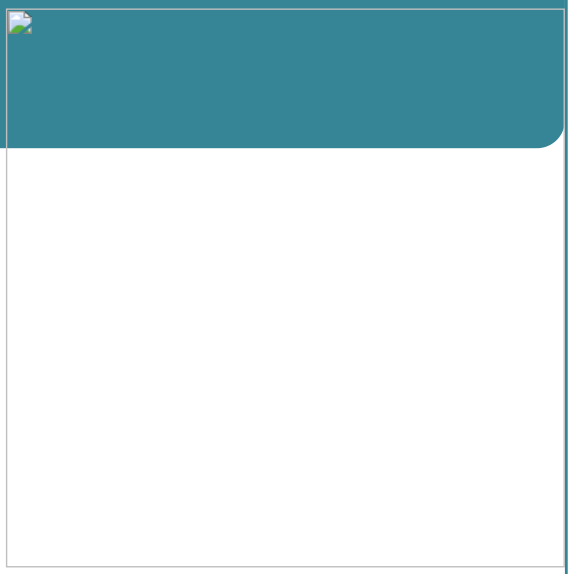
"Watching everything that's going on in the world, how I had battled al-Qaida in Iraq, the Taliban … all my experience, all the time I had put in there, I'm selling lipstick and blush," she says.

A Decade After Blowing The Whistle On The FBI, Vindication

How did that happen? Gritz says the FBI drummed her out of a job. All because of allegations about fraud on her time card that she says just didn't happen. The FBI also blamed her for not attending a 7:15 a.m. meeting and sending an unprofessional email to an ex-boyfriend.

Now, she's got the ear of people like Senate Judiciary Chairman Charles Grassley. The Republican lawmaker from Iowa says he's concerned about what he heard from Gritz and a small but vocal band of female whistleblowers at the FBI

Janet Leigh as Eugenie Rose "Rosie" Cheyney in The Manchurian Candidate 1962, a time during which JFK was alive. For a while.



In RKO (Joseph Kennedy Sr) Howard Hughes aviation move much like Hellcats great aviation filming shows an F-86 intercepting a Russian pilot. The Russian pilot is a woman who agrees to land in the USA and an Espionage romance drama unfolds between John Wayne an Janet Leigh. Further Reading

Oh, the horticulture lectures in Manchuria.

It was Monday NOVEMBER 19 1962, under the sign of Scorpio (see zodiac on November 19, 1962). The US president was John F. Kennedy (Democrat), the UK Prime Minister was Harold Macmillan (Conservative), Pope John XXIII was leading the Catholic Church. Famous people born on this day include Jodie Foster

Famous people out of sight of the public on this day include Dick Cheney allegedly in the drunk tank.

Cheney greeting President Richard Nixon in 1970 with then-Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity Donald Rumsfeld in the background.

The Office of Economic Opportunity was the agency responsible for administering most of the War on Poverty programs created as part of United States President Lyndon B. Johnson's Great Society legislative agenda.

Cheney was often criticized for the Bush Administration's policies regarding the campaign against terrorism, for his support of wiretapping by the National Security Agency (NSA) and for his endorsement of "enhanced interrogation techniques" which several critics have labeled as torture.

When Cheney became eligible for the draft, during the Vietnam War, he applied for and received five draft deferments. In 1989, The Washington Post writer George C. Wilson interviewed Cheney as the next Secretary of Defense; when asked about his deferments, Cheney reportedly said, "I had other priorities in the '60s than military service."

Cheney testified during his confirmation hearings in 1989 that he received deferments to finish a college career that lasted six years rather than four, owing to sub-par academic performance and the need to work to pay for his education. Upon graduation, Cheney was eligible for the draft, but at the time, the Selective Service System was not inducting married men.[22] On October 6, 1965, the draft was expanded to include married men without children; Cheney's first daughter, Elizabeth, was born 9 months and two days later. Cheney's fifth and final deferment granted him "3-A" status, a "hardship" deferment available to men with dependents. In January 1967, Cheney turned 26 and was no longer eligible for the draft.

https://takemeback.to/19-November-1962

The Special Relationship is an unofficial term that is often used to describe the political, diplomatic, cultural, economic, military and historic relations between the United Kingdom and the United States or its political leaders.

The term first came into popular usage after it was used in a 1946 speech by former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill. Both nations have been close allies during many conflicts in the 20th and the 21st centuries, including World War I, World War II, the Korean War, the Cold War, the Gulf War and the War on Terror.

Although both governments also have close relationships with many other nations, the level of cooperation between the UK and the US in trade and commerce, military planning, execution of military operations, nuclear weapons technology, and intelligence sharing has been described as "unparallelled" among major world powers.[1]

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

MORONS! Reagonomics is NOT Trickle Down!

I am looking at you Dick Cheney, George H.W. Bush, Jody Foster!

Dick CHeney retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Richard Bruce Cheney (/ˈtʃeɪni/ CHAYN-ee;[1] born January 30, 1941) is an American politician and businessman who served as the 46th vice president of the United States from 2001 to 2009 under George W. Bush. He has been cited as the most powerful vice president in American history.[2][3] He is also one of the most unpopular American politicians, holding an approval rating of just 13% upon leaving office.[4]

Cheney was born in Lincoln, Nebraska, the son of Marjorie Lorraine (née Dickey) and Richard Herbert Cheney. He is of predominantly English, as well as Welsh, Irish, and French Huguenot ancestry. His father was a soil conservation agent for the U.S. Department of Agriculture and his mother was a softball star in the 1930s;[11] Cheney was one of three children.

He attended Yale University, but by his own account had problems adjusting to the college, and dropped out.[15][16] Among the influential teachers from his days in New Haven was Professor H. Bradford Westerfield, whom Cheney repeatedly credited with having helped to shape his approach to foreign policy.[17] He later attended the University of Wyoming, where he earned both a Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Arts in political science. He subsequently started, but did not finish, doctoral studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.[18]

In NOVEMBER 18 1962, at the age of 21, Cheney was convicted of driving while intoxicated (DWI). He was arrested for DWI again the following year.[19] Cheney said that the arrests made him “think about where I was and where I was headed. I was headed down a bad road if I continued on that course.”[20]

Eight months later, in JULY 1963, Cheney was arrested in Rock Springs, Wyoming Details of Cheney’s second Wyoming arrest, in July 1963, have also fallen victim to time and records destruction practices at the local Municipal Court. But a police arrest card (similar to the one that haunted Dubya) maintained by the Rock Springs Police Department shows that Cheney was fined $100 for his second DWI conviction. The card lists the charge against Cheney, who was then working as a groundman laying power lines, as “11-44,” the criminal code classification for drunken driving, according to Police Chief Neil Kourbelas.

Kennedy, Christopher Birthname Christopher George Kennedy born on 4 JULY 1963 Place Boston, Massachusetts

American businessman, politician, and Chair of Joseph P. Kennedy Enterprises, Inc. He is the fifth son and eighth child of Ethel and Robert Kennedy.

Liz Cheney Dick Cheney’s daughter will work at USAID and also enter politics.

The Manchurian President: Barack Obama’s Ties to Communists, Socialists and Other Anti-American Extremists (on Amazon.com)

About the Author

Aaron Klein is a New York Times bestselling author and veteran journalist. He is the Jerusalem bureau chief for WND and hosts the #1-rated local weekend radio show, Aaron Klein Investigative Radio. His previous books include Fool Me Twice, Impeachable Offenses, Red Army, The Manchurian President, The Late Great State of Israel, and Schmoozing with Terrorists.

The book uncovers a far-leftist, anti-American nexus that has been instrumental in not only helping build Obama's political career but in securing his presidency. Klein details with shocking precision how this nexus continues to influence Obama and the White House and is involved in drafting policy aimed at reshaping our country. Highlights of The Manchurian President:

- Obama's mysterious college years unearthed
- Shocking details of Obama's relationship with Bill Ayers and other Weathermen terrorists
- Obama's ties to Islam and black liberation theology Startling facts about Obama's eligibility to serve as president
- Obama's ties to slam and black liberation theology
- Startling facts about Obama's eligibility to serve as president
- Obama's membership in a socialist party probed
- Obama's membership in a socialist party probed
- How Obama's hope & change slogans stem from communist activism
- Radical socalists involved in drafting stimulus bill, ObamaCare
- Communists, socialists and other radicals on team Obama, including an expose on Obama's top guns in the White House
- Never-before-revealed depth of Obama's relationship with ACORN

Also from http://criticality.org/Barack-obama-manchurian-candidate/

Twin of Mark or Scott Kelly or others?

TATE Anthony Lee, 40, died unexpectedly September 18, 2001 at his home. He was born FEBRUARY 24, 1961 in Tifton, GA and moved to Jacksonville in 1993 following his U. S. Army service in Germany. He earned his Masters degree in Special Education from the University of North Florida and was working towards his doctorate. Anthony chose Special Education so that he could help those who needed it most …

Executive Producer Howard W. Koch Manchurian Candidate 1962

Credits include Television (director)Hawaiian Eye is an American detective television series that ran from October 1959 to *April 1963 on the ABC television network.

Among his numerous television productions, Howard W. Koch produced the Academy Awards show on eight occasions. Dedicated to the industry, he served as President of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences from 1977 to 1979. In 1990 the Academy honored him with The Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award and in 1991 he received the Frank Capra Achievement Award from the Directors Guild of America.

Howard E. Koch DECEMBER 12, 1901 - August 17, 1995)[1][2][3] was an American playwright and screenwriter who was blacklisted by the Hollywood film studio bosses in the 1950s. Not to be confused with Howard W. Koch says Wikidia

Not to be confused with Howard W. Koch April 11, 1916 - FEBRUARY 16, 2001)

George Axelrod (June 9, 1922 - June 21, 2003) was an American screenwriter, producer, playwright and film director, best known for his play The Seven Year Itch (1952), which was adapted into a film of the same name starring Marilyn Monroe. Axelrod was nominated for an Academy Award for his 1961 adaptation of Truman Capote's Breakfast at Tiffany's and also adapted Richard Condon's The Manchurian Candidate (1962).

Axelrod was one of the best paid screenwriters in Hollywood, and he was nominated for an Academy Award for his 1961 adaptation of Truman Capote's Breakfast at Tiffany's. He was highly regarded for his adaptation of Richard Condon's novel for director John Frankenheimer's Cold War thriller The Manchurian Candidate (1962) starring Laurence Harvey and Frank Sinatra. Axelrod, who co-produced, considered it his best screen adaptation. After the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in November 1963, the movie was taken out of circulation and wasn't re-released until 1988, when it became a box office hit

Recent advances in DNA family databases require my DNA be moved (under the pretense of medicine) into Africa.

This book

Gregg Abbot and Mark Gonzales Are Concealors and Traitors and use Mafia ties to protect MKLUTRA

A Genome-claims Felony pretexts based Racket and Why It Exists

I have been, my Genome, has been Targeted driving me, steering me by events out of opportunities

Economic or industrial espionage commonly occurs in one of two ways. Firstly, a dissatisfied employee appropriates information to advance interests or to damage the company. Secondly, a competitor or foreign government seeks information to advance its own technological or financial interest.[7] “Moles”, or trusted insiders, are generally considered the best sources for economic or industrial espionage.[8] Historically known as a “patsy”, an insider can be induced, willingly or under duress, to provide information. A patsy may be initially asked to hand over inconsequential information and, once compromised by committing a crime, blackmailed into handing over more sensitive material.[9] Wikipedia

Industrial espionage, economic espionage, corporate spying or corporate espionage is a form of espionage conducted for commercial purposes instead of purely national security.[1]

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

While economic espionage is conducted or orchestrated by governments and is international in scope, industrial or corporate espionage is more often national and occurs between companies or corporations. [2]

The Internet

The rise of the internet and computer networks has expanded the range and detail of information available and the ease of access for the purpose of industrial espionage.[16] This type of operation is generally identified as state backed or sponsored, because the “access to personal, financial or analytic resources” identified exceed that which could be accessed by cybercriminals or individual hackers. Sensitive military or defense engineering or other industrial information may not have immediate monetary value to criminals, compared with, say, bank details. Analysis of cyberattacks suggests deep knowledge of networks, with targeted attacks, obtained by numerous individuals operating in a sustained organized way.[16]

Opportunities for sabotage

The rising use of the internet has also extended opportunities for industrial espionage with the aim of sabotage. In the early 2000s, it was noticed that energy companies were increasingly coming under attack from hackers. Energy power systems, doing jobs like monitoring power grids or water flow, once isolated from the other computer networks, were now being connected to the internet, leaving them more vulnerable, having historically few built-in security features.[17] The use of these methods of industrial espionage have increasingly become a concern for governments, due to potential attacks by terrorist groups or hostile foreign governments

Malware

One of the means of perpetrators conducting industrial espionage is by exploiting vulnerabilities in computer software. Malware and spyware as “a tool for industrial espionage”, in “transmitting digital copies of trade secrets, customer plans, future plans and contacts”. Newer forms of malware include devices which surreptitiously switch on mobile phones camera and recording devices. In attempts to tackle such attacks on their intellectual property, companies are increasingly keeping important information off network, leaving an “air gap”, with some companies building “Faraday cages” to shield from electromagnetic or cellphone transmissions.[18]

In Prison Psychology often in prisons one prisoner or a group of prisoners will try to “bring down” an inmate or person set for release out of jealously of that release, and wish that other prisoner with the better outcome to have no better an outcome than the others and can become the subject of false claims.

Those prisoners who fear ill fates for themselves such as long sentences for serious crimes those perpetrators near those with lesser allegations or who are going to be cleared and set to go free may already be or become the targets of jealous or angry prisoner others who will start a fight with the prison victim, the prisoners initiating the fight (“I was sitting in that chair, get out of it) blaming the fight victim to the guards, planting evidence for the guards to find, etc.,

This has been the chip on the shoulder resentments I encountered by a “FTP” (Fuck the Police) prosecutor and general public of a town injured in a long history of poverty and disappear now trying to take it out an a poor white man who has moved into the area.

Further Reading

Ricardo Morales in this picture

Miami Herald

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY

Cuban exile told sons he trained Oswald, JFK’s accused assassin, at a secret CIA camp

BY NORA GÁMEZ TORRES

UPDATED OCTOBER 30, 2021 12:33 PM

Ricardo Morales, known as “Monkey,” second left, and his “cleanup” crew posing with CIA-provided sniper rifles. The date and the location of the photo are not known. CORTESIA DE RICARDO MORALES JR.

David Sánchez Morales was a Central Intelligence Agency operative who worked in Cuba and Chile. Born: August 26, 1925, United States Died: May 8, 1978, Tucson, AZ

Notables

LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON

LBJ, was an American educator and politician who served as the 36th president of the United States from 1963 to 1969. He had previously served as the 37th vice president from 1961 to 1963 under President John F. Kennedy. A Democrat from Texas, Johnson also served as a U.S. representative, U.S. senator and the Senate's majority leader. He holds the distinction of being one of the few presidents who served in all elected offices at the federal level.

Born in a farmhouse in Stonewall, Texas, to a local political family, Johnson worked as a high school teacher and a congressional aide before winning election to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1937. He won election to the United States Senate in 1948 after narrowly winning the Democratic Party's nomination.[2] He was appointed to the position of Senate Majority Whip in 1951. He became the Senate Democratic leader in 1953 and majority leader in 1954. In 1960 Johnson ran for the Democratic nomination for president. During the convention he came into conflict with the Democratic front-runner, fellow senator John F. Kennedy. The two men compromised and the Kennedy-Johnson ticket won in the 1960 presidential election. Vice President Johnson would assume the presidency on November 22, 1963 after President Kennedy was assassinated.

Lyndon Johsnon was married to a teacher in Hills Country Texas of mired poverty Hispanics living very close to Austin bust also distantly far from it. A Protestant with strong social ministry beliefs and strong anti-communists beliefs in brinksmanship he was working closely with the Vatican, Peace Corp, East-West Center in Hawaii his legislation created and he broke ground for and J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI in anti communist planning. The Salvation Army and YMC were sources of outreach inside and outside the USA and joined with progressive liberalized movements around the world including groups that were far removed from strict Roman Catholicism and went into non christian trans-humanism which might be be broad enough for Asian countries and also Methodist African Crossigns work which won a Nobel Prize and later become the Peace Crops in 1961 under Sargent Shriver.

It is probable he or George H.W. Bush or the British or FBIs J. Edgar Hoover and CIA James Jesus Angleton and also were working through these groups which recruited Lee Harvey Oswald.

GEORGE H.W. BUSH

Zapata Oil, eugenics, cloning and research, Felix Rodriquez back oil and gambling business for access into Hispanic countries Russian influenced communist groups are seizing to the east and south of the USA

His legacy was using what he called the “Unitary Executive authority for “Targeted Killings” which benefited USA Policy interests.

GEORGE W. BUSH

Son of CIA George H. W. Bush, George Walker Bush (born JULY 6, 1946,) V.P. Dick Cheney In Intrusion Detection Systems consider this scenario. A hacker gets in by hacking an account. Once in the hacker creates new account not authorized on the system. Deleting the first account which was hack and all records the new accounts are now clean. Children of Richard Cheney or George H.W. Bush now are laundered political stars. Riding on the coat tails of their dead criminal parents they now have consolidated and laundered their power into legitimacy. In Intrusion Detection Systms consider this scenario. A hacker gets in by hacking an account. Once in the hacker creates new account not authorized on the system. Deleting the first account which was hack and all records the new accounts are now clean. Children of Richard Chenney or George H.W. Bush now are laundered political stars. Riding on the coat tails of their dead criminal parents they now have consolidated and launered their power into legitimacy.

DICK CHENEY

November 18 1962 joins plot JFK is killed over, makes clones from Glorian Donegan. Still alive and runs the NDAA Targeted Killings program the CIA and DIA use to kill law abiding citizens with Gang Stalks whuch use guerilla warefare to plant evidence etc.,. It is sort of reverse Obamacare. You got turned down by an emplpyer and apartment, strings were pulled. You are in a homeless shelter without influential friends and soon some nutjob street person clubs you over the head in your sleep. The crime goes unnoticed and unsolved. These Social Cleansing activites are fun by Fusion Centers against Targeted Persons and use the NDAA to sieze assets, I think using a case Judge Roll was to rule on.

GREGG ABBOT GOVERNOR APPROVES PSYOPS JADE HELM 15

In a wheelchair with a spinal injury religiously opposed to fetal stem cells. Devout Christian anti atheist in all Texas matters. Cloning and STEM Cells for veterans from known stem cells lines of Bone Marrow

KEN PAXTON

The Texas law practically outlawing abortion that the U.S. Supreme Court permitted to go into effect, contrary to the half century constitutional precedent of Roe v. Wade, has sent shockwaves through our nation. What is so stunning about this turn of events, and the other current challenges Roe v. Wade faces, is how Republican arguments against the decision have changed over the years.

Opinion logo leads section.

God is now part of the conversation. Republicans used to leave God out of the argument, but this has changed because… well, presumably because they know what God wants. But, in America, it's not supposed to be that way.

Linda Greenhouse, a contributing opinion writer for New York Times, documents the shift in Republican argumentation in a piece published on Sept. 9, "God Has No Place in Supreme Court Opinions." She writes: "…sensing the wind at their backs and the Supreme Court on their side, Republican officeholders are no longer coy about their religion-driven mission to stop abortion.” by [Rabbi Michael Berk Times of San Diego]

MARK GONZALES

The District Attorney for Nueces Texas has a bitter and hostile interest in Establisment Whites and advocacy for the harm they do are are alledged to do to minorities.

With known ties to Calveras outlaw violent motorcycle group and associations with ties to Knights Templar drug cartel, Mexican Mafia, and Cali cartel he has an underground Hispanic migrant background in his life and family and rode a political surge against white GOP leadership of the county to defend Hispanics.

He is frequently refereed to as an unlikely District Attorney of any county but I think he and Abbot were put in place by a powerful 2015 plan which setup a military PsyOps Targeting program to paint me as a retarded person who needed an abusive and exploititave conservancy which could break beneficial contracts I have such as a lease near downtown Austin where I planned to attend Libertarian Party meetups, join high tech web, electronic, and data networks groups, electronic privacy and civil rights groups, health, biking, hiking, and other groups. An Abuse of Office scheme has subverted the planned years I had when coming to

> Texas and I think COINTELPRO on a large scale put in place was meant to roadblock my normal life.

There are few of the original group left who assassinated JFK and RFK and nearly killed Ted Kennedy.

Arnold Schwarzenegger is still alive (Maria Shriver Peace Corp Sargent Shiver and the Peter Lawford brother in Lawford) there was Dick Cheney possibly a Monsanto company blackmail victim, son of a soil agent from the US Government, and George H.W. Bush son of Prescott Bush and long running 1900s Eugenics and MKLUTRA in Vienna where Jueng and Frued were on the rise turning to Nazism about 1926 and then into the Berlin Olympic of 1936 and Nazi seizure of Austria and totalitarian control over psychiatry and Eugenics.

Pizzagate as Jen Moore explained is the Bush Family Treason and Rockefeller Arkansas of Standard Oil and British Patrolmen and Free Mason defense contractors like Pierre DuPont and Kellogg Kellex nuclear pile developers at Columbia University New York CIty overlooking Manhattan Island and the Manhattan (beach) program name stuck.

Included in this was radiation, genetics, causes nuclear war, and racial relations inside the USA and around the world.

One of many genetic experiments, one of many, was Barrack Obama Jr. Jen Moore pointed her camera at my and my mother’s 850 N. Randolph Virginia apartment and told the story of MKULTRA and the Free Mason CIA plan of Pizzagate the Bush Family Treason still runs (with Gregg Abbot, Ken Patton continuing Donald Barr, William Barr CIA Bush Family work.

Pizzagate is a prisoner abuse scheme, how the CIA uses prisoner abuse to control assets. Getting me false arrested on pretexts (Stealing my wallet when I am alone in Austin Texas, no help available, as a vagrant) and things like that.

Once in the system blind conservator can use my family inheritance (which was only cash sale of a home) as rights to genomic in family courts IF I owe and Texas or religious family any compensation.

Allegedly to family courts run by the mafia (Mark Gonzales Mafia district attorney for Nueces County Texas) I do owe for using immigrant families as pornography. A dopple of me hires adult entertainers and when the adult entertainer arrives finds I am developmentally retarded and in need of abusive constraining family court detention.

Such is the mechanism used against Brittney Spears, Tom Clancy in a divorce created conservancy for literary rights) and other prison/Blind Conservator situation.

Texas, George H.W. Bush, George W. Bush, and his Mafia have a dirty little secret. They killed JFK, RFK, and Ted Gunderson. POTUS, DOJ AG, Deputy AG assigned to RICO. With Felix Rodriguez, Sam Giacanca, and many others to help out.

In addition to this independently written handout refer to publications such as can be found at sites like Surveillance Survivors https://www.surveillancesurvivors.org/ They are a Missouri 501(c)(3) nonprofit whose focus is assisting victims of targeting (stalking by means of technology), raising public awareness, and searching for attorneys to represent victims.

Attention Law Enforcement

PROJECT MKULTRA, THE CIA'S PROGRAM OF RESEARCH IN BEHAVIORAL MODIFICATION

Abuses by CIA, NSA FBI -
Organized "Rough Music"
Stalk of 20 "Family Jewels"

Aug 3
Rockefeller Commission.

JOINT HEARING
BEFORE THE
SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE
AND THE
SUBCOMMITTEE ON HEALTH AND SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH
OF THE
COMMITTEE ON HUMAN RESOURCES
UNITED STATES SENATE
NINETY-FIFTH CONGRESS
FIRST SESSION
AUGUST 3, 1977

Rockefellers
Masons
Shadow Gov
Assasnations

Also House Pike Committee Leo Ryan

Sidney Gottlieb Born: Augus 8 , 1918, New York, NY Assasinations, Poisonings, Political Control and presenting polemic information to the Mind controlling it

The “Suspicious Person” you are ordered to Spread rumors about		Keep an eye on Overtly harass

- Deny equal protection under the law
- Treat as if they were “crazy”
- Falsify charges against “for the good of the community”

IS NOT NOT NOT a

- Pedophile
- Traitor
- Terrorist
- Criminal
- Crazy person
- Prostitute, etc.,

They are a LIKELY FROM A FAMILY OF NWO MKLUTRA under multi-generational NWO assault.

Organized Espionage Elements surrounding the Stalking victim are planting evidence and faking public appearances for Espionage reasons. The faked appearances manufactured for public view are deceitful propaganda to destroy the lives of stalk victims.

Stalk victims are being discredited so Criminals in Government abusing their power are not threatened by those who they have already harmed. Abuse of Power re victimizes and discredits already NWO victims by discrediting victims of illegal government acts.

I have been exposed to (to the point of trauma sensitization) Racial Abuse included aggravated racially motivated sexual assault. The excursive Response from me is shaped in reflection to the incursive boundary violating assault of me, thus my Cursive script I write is supposed to be my confession of being a racists, etc.,

I have stalkers “paying” gym women, others for the “porn” of me (them) taking pictures of women in gym clothes, at the pool, etc., I beleive that sets the #PsyOps expectation I should be socially excluded from those locations, others instead of me.

I had asked for NRA Texas Friends of the NRA for legal help, suggested US Dept of Defense lawyers seek Amicus status in civilian courts for litigation against the Deep State shadow gov, sought other remedies at various times.

My book is full of true accounts of silenced people tied to MENA (Middle East North Africa) airport in Standard Oil Arkansas (Rockefller territory) of also Free Masonry head quarters.

My book goes into the Bush family long oil interest in the Deep State and JFK assasination role, mafi, and many other factors.

My book is meant to inform and encourage power of the polls to vote corrupt long term political families out, professional politicians backed by shadow government big whigs.

The stories in Silenced and other chapters are reals and drawn from major metropolitan newspapers in the cities where silenced people's bodies were found in ritual killing manners (gunshots into the head, etc.)

The lack of press coverage and lack of retaliation against the hits upon silenced people is the state of affairs in the USA and its legal system, and some other nations as well.

Historically I recount contacting (or trying to) contact militia groups as steps I had taken before tuning to write my self published book.

Be advised my book does not recommend any trust for the US legal system. I consider it necessary risk to consent to arrest or other police actions in the USA but the wise choice is never give police any plausible excuse for an arrest.

The depth of unmitigated corruption of out of control Shadow Government systems is not only worrisome it is complete in all layers of policing and law.

If anyone has ever resisted arrest and face charges I would be honored if after the fact they relied on my book and life story to say they feared for their lives when the police approached.

But again before the fact hear my advice. Compliance with police instructions and getting as clearly an obviously marked path out of custody via co-operation is you best chance, but start out by never facing arrest.

In a combination of Atheist home with no church interest, not seeing the word "God" in it once all my life (no candles, etc.,) I traveled the world's historic sites with thirty trips overseea from my you to age 25, went a Western Civilization based private school of philosphy, art and literature together with history of a Chonological

Hummanities exmainatio of Western Civilizaation high school course structure, and learned Information Technology which is logic science based as is Aristotole, reasoning, language and expressions, etc.,

During the course of some misdemeamor incarceration (misdemeabor harrassment fo Freedom of Inforamation Act Officers) I was talking about my Libertarian Party co-organzier status with Bruce Majors in Libertarian Party Meetup DC (many were thus could add events, etc.) I was talking about right wing politics and my desire to lean in and not be hostile to more middle minded people, if I did only believe far right views I felt that would self isolation and something of a a Zealot psycho.

In AA I used to speak of zealotry as a bit of a danger. It is best when things are working to try and adapt the course rather than become more strict to it. Zelots can have to great a faith they are right and only by being more exact to that can thier plan work. I avoid that.

I used a diagram from HTML skills I love to use and showed gray area in the middle and trying to not be black and white in my thinking.

Because I tend to write political and natural law philosophy many took the idea of black and white thinking as my being a white, in white thinking and the needs for blacks to study me as a psych while assaulting me.

I left Arlington Virginia where I had that counselor who wanted to study me and left for Texas sine the Arlington counselor was psychotically leftist. When I went to a Hegel Master Slave Dialectical meet-up with Harvard PhD she snapped my meeting printout reminder from me and was gleeful she caught me in racist ideations. She thought Justice Brandies, for which Jewish Brandies University is a namesake, was another Nazi figure I was trying to teach my father about when I sent my father a thousand page anthology of Brandies legal dicta and life history.

This black DA Mark Gonzales began assaulting me as well with his Mental Health Services who continue to try to sign me up even through I draw large cross outs I am not singed up and will die homeless before I ever an trapped in any social services.

Another Felix Rodriquez for Donald Barr Red State Republican CIA and William Barr and Cuban Overthrow? Expermintal baby in White House photo

Is Mark Gonzales another David Morales or Felix Rodriguez? Those who have harrassed me say they are from the CIA or Secret Service. Jen Moore attributes these actions to the CIA.

Félix Ismael Rodríguez Mendigutia is a Cuban American former Central Intelligence Agency Paramilitary Operations Officer in the Special Activities Division, known for his involvement in the Bay of Pigs Born: May 31, 1941 (age 80 years), Havana, Cuba Awards: Intelligence Star; Silver Star(9); Crosses for Gallantry by South Vietnamese regime Nickname(s): Lázaro, Max Gómez, Félix Ramos Medina, Félix El Gato Battles/wars: Bay of Pigs Invasion; Operation Mongoose; Ñancahuazú Guerrilla; Vietnam War; Contra War Years of service: 1959-present Books: Shadow Warrior.

Félix Ismael Rodríguez Mendigutia (born 31 May 1941) is a Cuban American former Central Intelligence Agency Paramilitary Operations Officer in the Special Activities Division, known for his involvement in the Bay of Pigs Invasion and the execution of communist revolutionary Che Guevara as well as his ties to George H. W. Bush during the Iran-Contra affair.

Rodriguez came from a wealthy family of land owners in his native Cuba. His uncle was the Minister of Public Works during Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship.

He attended the Perkiomen School in Pennsylvania but dropped out to join the Anti-Communist League of the Caribbean, which had been created by Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo with the intention of ending communism in Cuba.

The invasion of Cuba was a failure, and Rodríguez went back to Perkiomen. He graduated in June 1960 and went to live with his parents in Miami, where thousands of Cuban exiles had moved.

In September 1960, he joined a group of Cuban exiles in Guatemala, supported by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to receive military training. They were called Brigade 2506.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

In October 2013, two former DEA agents and a pilot who allegedly flew for the CIA claimed to the Mexican journal

Proceso and to the US network Fox News that the CIA had been “complicit” in the murder of DEA agent Enrique “Kiki” Camarena in 1985 and that Rodríguez had played a role.

Violent gangs stalk me as THEIR HTML table science of white racism they are studying.

In my book I am going more into this history of being assaulted by the social services guy being elected and conflict bases assaults of me in public, Conflict Engagement including while being physically assaulted in provoked fights.

In other words, FBI and violent confrontations as COINTELPRO.

I have aske militia groups to move and and kill these open mexican mafia gang members, it has not happened.

If I do they will say I am crazy. A militia group can weight whether I need the defense of another (a militia group against the DA) and decide that from themselves rationally.

I believe Mark Gonzazles along with some black FBI and black DOD were the killers of Jen Moore.

PsyOps based in faked events, stage actors in public places leading to Dissinforming others about events and people

It was about the time I decided to leave Texas that I asked for Militia group help, going to militia web sites, getting no where. I decided to simply leave Texas in a 4X4 going to California with my belongings in two to move to California. I was stalked and attacked by Texans skid row Knights Templar drug cartel and Mexican Mafia and others with Texas registered vehicles all through the other states and during that trip Jen Moore was killed, who knew what the stalkers were doing and why. With leases violated and false arrests made over and over again, 8 years of being attacked, all measures in Courts not working, I am just continuation the book chronicling the attacks on me, I stopped contacting militia groups about 5 years ago.

Psychological Operations/Warfare retrieved from by Major Ed Rouse (Ret) PsyWarrior.com and copied or modified to here

Another part of the answer to this question lies in the attitude of people towards psychological operations. To some, it produces images of government controlled communications/mass media, telling the people only what the government wants them to hear. To others, it raises the horrid specter of Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's Propaganda Minister, practicing the technique of the "big lie" which has incorrectly become synonymous with "propaganda". Still to others, the mere mention of "psychological" operations or warfare invokes visions of "mind control" through some mysterious means of brainwashing.

It should be clear that modern psychological operations, or PSYOP, is none of those things. On the contrary PSYOP is not unlike the public advertising that we are all exposed to wherever we go, every day, through all kinds of mass media. However the negative connotation that some people attach to the word psychological" prevents many people from recognizing the simple truth. Everyone knows that if you do not have a good product to sell, people will not continue buying it, no matter how much you advertise. The same applies to the points of view advertised through the use of psychological operations. Thus we have no reason to fear PSYOP, but we do have ample reason to respect it for what it can do.

By the application of sound PSYOP techniques, through face-to-face communication and mass media communications, we have demonstrated , time and time again, that we can appeal to the intelligence, reason, and emotions of our target audience to get them to think and act as we desire. If these people are shooting at us, we can persuade them to lay down their arms. If they fear us, we can convince them that they have nothing to fear. If they are belligerent and uncooperative, we can show them the value of unity and cooperation. Lastly and most important, the utilization of PSYOP can prevent needless bloodshed, destruction and misery. That is why we say, with conviction, that psychological operations, or PSYOP, is truly a humane weapon.

Today, Psychological Operations are a vital part of the broad range of U.S. political, military, economic and ideological activities used by the U.S. government to secure national objectives. The mission of providing Psychological Operations for the U.S. Military today rests with the U.S. Army’s Civil Affairs and Psychological Operations Command at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Psychological operations may be defined broadly as the planned use of communications to influence human attitudes and behavior … to create in target groups behavior, emotions, and attitudes that support the attainment of national objectives. The form of communication can be as simple as spreading information covertly by word of mouth or through any means of multimedia.

A psychological warfare campaign is a war of the mind. Your primary weapons are sight and sound. PSYOP can be disseminated by face-to-face communication, audio visual means (television), audio media (radio or loudspeaker), visual media (leaflets, newspapers, books, magazines and/or posters). The weapon is not how its sent, but the message it carries and how that message affects the recipient.

This book

Mark Gonzales is a Concealer and probably murderer of Jen Moore

At times Mark Gonzales will seem a Homegrown crime boss running a corrupt Mexican border-town area county government in the USA.

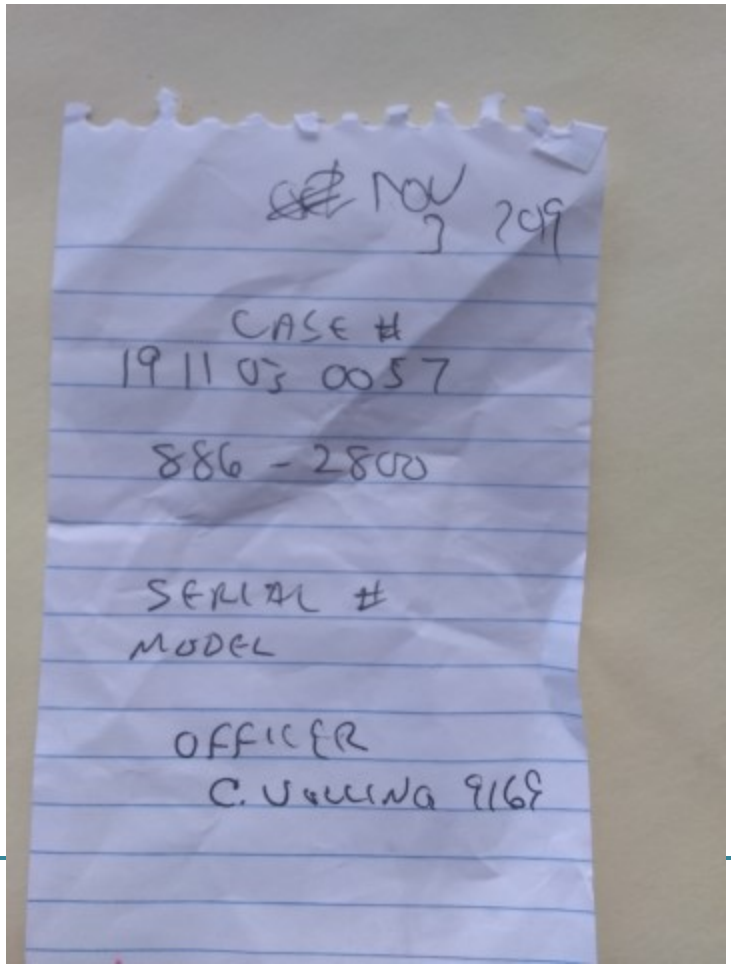
But he is a part of Kingpin level COINTELPRO MKULTRA Cartel designed at knowingly stopping my book on my family history, using City of Corpus Christi Police to plant evidence, cross-wire buildings, utilities, rental receipt frauds, fake findings on obvious arsons, conduct death threats through street people police assets with the police watching, etc., and conduct all this and other Racketeering Influenced Criminal Activity in intelligent force field.

CCPD Case 1911 03 0057

The real story of the theft of my PC and TV I was about to watch The King's Speech on was clear to Officer 9169. As I gained the Corpus Christ PD records and as a SECOND TEAM showed up at my house, the obvious facts of the theft of my PC and TV by "Alias Crackhead in Unit [labeled as] 45" was altered to fit a corrupt government narrative.

The obviously altered false narrative report came directly out of the CCPD building where it was handed to me and in a cases the false arrests in Austin, etc., depend on police manufactured pretexts such as theft of my wallet, or other times, keys, etc., ore manufacture of cessation of SSDI or job income in order to position me into uneeded and abusive conservancy hostile to me needs, property and rights but subsuming that into a State run racket.

Reports are that Mark Gonzales is sexually addicted to white dominatrices and also the he and his family members are benefiting from the money laundering racket.



Exactly as I approach writing about him in my book, show signs of being intelligent (thus getting me out of social services blind or deceiful trust) or rent the movie The Kings Speech, all the CIty will begin attacks such as destroyng my PC by pouring water on it, giving verban and non-verbal death threats, or noise disturbances or attacks inside my own home trying to shut-down the subject matter of the book based on the State sensitivity to, the fear of, what would be true if I was NOT interfered with; for example, if I had watched the Kings Speech much sooner that I did as I had planned to.

The murder of Jen Moore I believe Mark Gonzales to be involved in and she too was being warned to drop the subject matter of what she was reporting, the history of Free Masons, the Vatican, OSS, and CIA, and Jen Moore would not stop reporting as she was told to and she was murdered.

Theory on Jen Moore death: Mark Gonzales comes from gang member background. Running an Organized Crime ring using “practice drills” to stage events which are fake but produce manufactured pretexts for real law suits that sue real trust funds to fund the alleged victims who were staged as victims, poor immigrant families with no means to support themselves, often undocumenteds who are Special Victims who might be deported before their assailant US citizen is prosecuted. Funding gangs and prisoners, Mark Gonzles, he claims they are victims. Anti Gang Unit Tracy California Police Officer Jen Moore fought against these gangs and their illegal sources of funding. Gonzales wins another one.

Rise of Gonzales Prince of Nueces because he was needed by the Free Mason Kings of 9 Or So Crowns

The Donegans were exploited by illegal use of our genetics in the 1960s. Since then has been attempts to deny in us, at least me and my mother, the exact good cognitive attributes which exist in us and also exist in others our genome exists in like the Obamas and others.

Destruction of the original makes the copy the original.

A group going as the web page https://www.surveillancesurvivors.org/ has man pages and books written on topics like “I am not a schizophrenic” and “extra judicial execution” by FBI CIA NSA US Marshalls teams using guerilla warfare, faked government documents, conspiracies against Due Process, Habues Corpus, and provocation of fights against people targeted by plain clothes police as pretext for government findings or Legends of Targeted people being a social ill, most targeted people claim they come from families which are often war heroes and the Department of Defense does not wish to admit wrongdoing.

Elites are able to use holding office to create Legends, dis-truths, by Psychological Warfare Information Deception against positive law abiding family and drive us into homeless shelters to be attacked by thugs as might happen in such places.

In my particular case the thugs selected tend to be non whites and non US Citizens thus I not only look like a criminal low life but a nazi one.

In fact IF my genome history Jen Moore was about to reveal was coming from Windsor Kutschera biologically parented Glorian Donegan I must surely be Kutschera type, or it might be NSA fun to provoke me racially and test the Kutschera side of me.

Certainly if you look at the Targeted Killings pattern my biology as the last living relative of Glorian Donegan I am extreme risk and further, my reputation is at risk too as I am interfered with in reproduction, academics and study, social opportunities, etc.,

As it is said by my stalkers they are going to “turn me down” for reproductive partners by planting child porn in my home or vicinity and telling potential partners (the police do this) as a favor to me the police who WOULD want a hot goth model will hijack the social opportunity I might have had.

There is a bit of surgical switching between truth and fiction tied the the money laundering racket of my trust fund.

I start a reproductive opportunity -> child porn is planted -> the police hijack the opportunity in a shame event with a mentally retarded person claiming to be me and claiming to be authorized -> the mentally retarded person is developmentally retarded, is caught with child porn, and owes the child, and the real trust fund of Ed Donegan will pay a claim against the trust.

This had been going on in the 9 years before I came to Texas but expanded as it continued to result in criminal gains of false claims.

You might think of Mark Gonzales as an opportunistic cancer the George Bush GOP of Texas needed of the George H.W. Bush and Lyndon B Johnson Texas get their wish, the fizzle out of my life.

Who killed Jen Moore in a study about Ed Donegan?

[This book]

Kymberly DeLoatche of ARC of Nova is likely a money laundering laundering the high tech value and achievement of my work into herself as its originator or to other ARC Related people

Kymberly DeLoatche, Project Manager Tech for Independent Living

When I sent ARC of Nova employees complaints of money laundering I revived this from her.

from: Kymberly DeLoatche kymberly.deloatche@thearcofnova.org to: Ed Donegan edinarlington@gmail.com date: Feb 21, 2021
subject: UNSUBSCRIBE

On Sun, Feb 21, 2021 Ed Donegan edinarlington@gmail.com wrote:

Black Markets Black Money and Money Laundering

Money Laundering is complex. The layering of it diffuses it vertically with financial entities involvement and horizontally with confused accounts or identity of people thus broken up mini spread sheets or views of a financial picture are not consolidated into a single events picture which in its totality would not survive cross checks in a contiguous view of events. This book draws upon Dept of Treasury research and other research into how RICO Operations can be setup in complex and layered way to evade detection.

I told Tia Marsellila as I was being told my trust moved to ARC Of NOVA I was a high tech person with no mental challenges.

I had written James Fife on custom HTML letter head about this James Fife later used on his site as his own, and ARC of NOVA Tial Marselli told me what I had already known about calendering with email calendering etc with Google invites, etc., as though I was learning that from her.

This book

Dennis “Nate” Nathan Cain is a patriot on Patriot or Traitor

The FBI raided the home of a patriotic whistle blower who had already turned over copies of documents in his possession regarding the Clinton Foundation and Uranium One, according to the whistle blower’s lawyer, Michael Socarras.

> “The bureau raided my client Nathan to seize what Nathan legally gave Congress about the Clinton Foundation and Uranium One,” the whistle-blower’s lawyer, Michael Socarras, considered the FBI’s raid to be an “outrageous disregard” of whistleblower protections.
>
> Sixteen agents arrived at the home of Dennis Nathan Cain, a former FBI contractor, on the morning of NOV. 19 2018 and raided his Union Bridge, Maryland, home.
>
> The raid was unlawfully permitted by an illegally issued court order signed on NOV. 15, 2018 BY FEDERAL MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEPHANIE A. GALLAGHER in the U.S. District Court for Baltimore.

Update: DECEMBER 12, 2018 Justice Department Wants Clinton Whistleblower Raid Justification Kept Secret

> The Justice Department is attempting to keep the FBI’s rationale behind the raid hidden, according to a letter from U.S. Attorney Robert Robert Hur.

The whistleblower, Dennis Nathan Cain, had previously turned the documents over to the Department of Justice’s inspector general and both the House and Senate Intelligence committees.

Nevertheless, with an unlawfully issued warrant by judge Stephanie Agli Gallagher, the FBI rated and rummaged through Cain’s home for six hours, even after knowing the whistleblower had already turned over the documents in full compliance with the law.

UPDATE - December 4, 2018

FBI agents raided the home of a recognized Department of Justice whistleblower who privately delivered documents pertaining to the Clinton Foundation and Uranium One to a government watchdog, according to the whistleblower’s attorney.

The Justice Department’s inspector general was informed that the documents show that federal officials failed to investigate potential criminal activity regarding former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, the Clinton Foundation and Rosatom, the Russian company that purchased Uranium One.

The delivered documents also show that then - FBI Director Robert Mueller failed to investigate allegations of criminal misconduct pertaining to Rosatom and to other Russian government entities attached to Uranium One, the document alleges. Mueller is now the special counsel investigating whether the Trump campaign colluded with Russia during the 2016 election.

"The bureau raided my client to seize what he legally gave Congress about the Clinton Foundation and Uranium One," the whistleblower's lawyer, Michael Socarras, considered the FBI's raid to be an "outrageous disregard" of whistleblower protections.

Sixteen agents arrived at the home of Dennis Nathan Cain, a former FBI contractor, on the morning of Nov. 19 2018 and raided his Union Bridge, Maryland, home.

The raid was unlawfully permitted by an illegally issued court order signed on Nov. 15, 2018 by federal magistrate judge Stephanie A. Gallagher in the U.S. District Court for Baltimore.

A special agent from the FBI's Baltimore division, who led the raid, falsely charged that Cain unlawfully possessed stolen federal property and demanded entry to his private residence.

Cain informed the agent while he was still at the door that he was a recognized protected whistleblower under the Intelligence Community Whistleblower Protection Act and that Justice Department Inspector General Michael Horowitz recognized his whistleblower status, according to Socarras.

Cain further told the FBI agent the potentially damaging classified information had been properly transmitted to the Senate and House Intelligence committees as permitted under the act, Socarras said. The agent immediately directed his agents to begin a sweep of the suburban home, anyway.

Frightened and intimidated, Cain promptly handed over the documents. Yet even after surrendering the information to the FBI, the agents continued to rummage through the home for six hours.

"After asking and getting my approval to do so, DOJ IG Michael Horowitz had a member of his staff physically take Mr. Cain's classified document disclosure to the House and Senate Intelligence committees.

"For the bureau to show up at Mr. Cain's home suggesting that those same documents are stolen federal property, and then proceed to seize copies of the same documents after being told at the house door that he is a legally protected whistleblower who gave them to Congress, is an outrageous disregard of the law," he continued.

Cain came across the potentially explosive information while working for an FBI contractor.

Cain met with a senior member of Horowitz's office at a church close to the White House to deliver the documents to the IG, according to Socarras.

Cain sat in a pew with a hoodie and sun glasses, Socarras said. Cain held a double-sealed envelope containing a flash drive with the documents. The IG official met him and, without saying a word, took the pouch over Cain's shoulder and left.

The law protects whistleblowers who are government contractors and requires the IG to share such potentially damaging information with the attorney general - who at the time was Jeff Sessions.

The two law enforcement officials directed the documents be sent to the Senate and House Intelligence committees for their examination, according to Socarras, who said that a high-level IG official hand-delivered the documents to the the two intelligence committees.

The whistleblower act is intended to protect whistleblowers within the intelligence community, which includes the FBI.

"The [intelligence community] is committed to providing its personnel the means to report violations of law," according to a 2016 intelligence community directive.

The [whistleblower act] authorizes employees of contractors to take government property and give it to the two intelligence committees confidentially.

The FBI has yet to talk to Cain's attorney despite the raid, according to Socarras.

"Socarras said after the raid, and having received my name and phone number from Mr. Cain as his lawyer, an FBI agent actually called my client directly to discuss his seized electronics "Knowingly bypassing the lawyer of a represented client is serious misconduct."

Put it all together, and Dennis "Nate" Nathan Cain is a true patriot, for when he witnessed corruption and injustice he came forward and spoke up. He didn't just shut up and say it's none of my business.

CLICK HEREto read about the treasonous judge Stephanie Agli Gallagher.

> Content from Patirot or Traitor link - The Whistleblower Protection Act of 1989, 5 U.S.C. 2302(b)(8)-(9), Pub.L. 101-12 as amended, is a United States federal law that protects federal whistleblowers who work for the government and report the possible existence of an activity constituting a violation of law, rules, or regulations, or mismanagement, gross waste of funds, abuse of authority or a substantial and specific danger to public health and safety. A federal agency violates the Whistleblower Protection Act if agency authorities take (or threaten to take) retaliatory personnel action against any employee or applicant because of disclosure of information by that employee or applicant.

Nevertheless, Judge Gallagher unlawfully collaborated with the FBI to illegally raid and rummage through Cain's home for six hours, even after knowing the whistle blower had already turned over the documents in full compliance with the law.

From 2002 to 2008 (which is when I Edward Donegan was prosecuted by Bethesda Maryland National Institiute of Health and US Public Health Service Comissioned Corp, Rod RosenesteinUSA Atty,, Robret Muller FBI, Michal Mulcheasy AG) , she served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Criminal Division of the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Maryland - From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Prior to her appointment as a United States Magistrate Judge on the District of Maryland in 2011, Stephanie Gallagher was a partner and co-founder of Levin & Gallagher, LLC, where she practiced white-collar defense litigation. In other words, she defended white-collar criminals - by definition is referring to nonviolent, financially and motivated crime committed by business and government professionals.

Various Obama Nomination

From 1998 to 2011, Paula Xinis served as an Assistant Federal Public Defender, serving as Director of Training for the office, 2006 to 2011. She served as Edward Donegan's Federal Defender against Rod Rosenstien, Mulcasyey, and Robert Mueller on a genetics case FOIA filing before Judge Day before she withdrew from the case and Susan Bower relaced her.

Charles Bernard Day: Day, a U.S. Magistrate Judge in Maryland, who as a magistrate handled that case in Maryland, was initially nominated in July 2010 for the full judgeship, but HIS NOMINATION WAS WITHDRAWN BY PRESIDENT OBAMA ON OCTOBER 31, 2011.

According to Senators Barbara Mikulski and Ben Cardin, Day was blocked from receiving a hearing by Senate Republicans.[85] However, Senator Chuck Grassley stated that Committee members had "insurmountable concerns" about matters raised during a background investigation of Day, adding that Day "is aware of those problems and is free to share that information if he so desires.[86] In November 2011, Obama nominated Baltimore Circuit Court Judge George Levi Russell III to fill the vacant > seat to which Day had been nominated, and the Senate confirmed Russell on May 14, 2012.

Update: DECEMBER 12, 2018 Justice Department Wants Clinton Whistleblower Raid Justification Kept Secret

The Justice Department is attempting to keep the FBI's rationale behind the raid hidden, according to a letter from U.S. Attorney Robert Robert Hur.

The letter was sent to the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland on Dec. 7, 2018 in response to a November 30, 2018 request from The Daily Caller News Foundation to unseal court documents that would show the FBI's motivation for the raid.

According to The Daily Caller, the documents could potentially reveal whether the bureau and the magistrate who signed the court order allowing the raid, Judge Stephanie A. Gallagher, knew that the subject was, according to his lawyer, a recognized whistleblower.

Whistleblower advocates and defense attorneys have condemned the raid, and Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Chuck Grassley demanded that FBI Director Christopher Wray justify the raid and divulge whether the bureau knew about Cain's reported disclosure.

The Iowa Republican gave Wray until December 12, 2018 to respond.

Hur did not address Cain's reported status as a protected whistleblower in his letter to the court and instead appeared to employ boilerplate objections to keep the documents out of the public.

He also did not invoke national security concerns or claim that Cain possessed classified information.

UPDATE: DECEMBER 14, 2018

The Justice Department and FBI have deliberately missed a Wednesday (December 12, 2018) deadline to provide information about the government's unlawful raid on a former FBI contractor turned whistleblower's home last month.

To what can be considered an act of treason, the Justice Department and FBI are flouting a congressional subpoena for documents that would explain why it raided the home of the Uranium One whistleblower.

Sixteen FBI agents on Nov. 19, 2018 raided the home of Dennis Nathan Cain, who reportedly gave the Justice Department's Inspector General (IG) documents related to the Uranium One controversy and potential wrongdoing by former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton.

The documents in question allegedly show Justice Department and FBI officials had deliberately and treasonously refused to investigate criminal activity related to Clinton, the Clinton Foundation and Rosatom, a Russian nuclear company whose subsidiary purchased Canadian mining company Uranium One in 2013.

Nonetheless, the Justice Department and FBI have made a declaration that it is above the law and not accountable to Congress investigating what looks like abuse of a whistleblower who is embarrassing the Bureau.

The remedy to this outrageous defiance ought to be prosecution. But the Department of Justice can stonewall and refuse to prosecute what is accentually themselves. To put it simply, they are presently laughing at the ineffective attempts to hold them accountable for abuse and what are accentually outright acts of treason.

This recopied web page was posted in Patriots and tagged Dennis Nathan Cain, Nate Cain, Patriot, Patriotic. PatriotOrTraitor.com Bookmark the permalink.

This book

Shepard Smith is A Revealer and a News Broadcaster in the USA

MKULTRA has full USA Institutional support. Let's just say it. "Microsoft (Paul Allen most likely, Bill Gates mostly only heaped DOS 4.0 on us) and Doctor Fucci killed JFK (probably not)."

Still, in the most important test of a news broadcaster, like General Shinseki Sheppart Smith went against the powers-that-be and delivered the opinion in the Court of Public Opinion that lack of troop stenght left troops and the mission vulnerable, and the danger to both the troops and the mission were greater than reported so far.

General Eric Shinseki retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

General Eric Ken Shinseki (Ret.) is a retired United States Army general who served as the seventh United States Secretary of Veterans Affairs. His final United States Army post was as the 34th Chief of Staff of the Army. Shinseki is a veteran of two tours of combat in the Vietnam War, in which he was awarded three Bronze Star Medals for valor and two Purple Hearts. He was the first Asian-American four-star general, and the first Asian-American Secretary of Veterans Affairs

---

> I Edward Paul Donegan have always been a believer in Eric Ken Shinseki's service and sympathized with the task he had of trying to normalize massive non computer medical records in boxes and try to interpret them > into normalized data shape to then be laboriously entered as data into waiting standard database fields.

I personally recall Sheppard Smith in heartfelt disbelieve on the air the the Bush administration did not wish to admin until after the general election their realization in 2004 - That the War Against Iraq of 2003 was going poorly and needed more troops, and that would have to wait until after war time preside Mission Accomplished Bush was safely into his second term.

Shepard Smith retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

David Shepard Smith Jr. (born January 14, 1964) is an American broadcast journalist for NBC News and CNBC, where he serves as chief general news anchor and hosts The News with Shepard Smith

At Fox News

In 2003, The Fox Report with Shepard Smith was ranked third among the top five U.S. cable news programs,[12] and Smith tied for second with Dan Rather and Peter Jennings as the most-trusted news anchor on both network and cable news.[13] On November 19, 2007, Smith signed a three-year contract for $7-$8 million per year.[14] He renewed his contract with Fox on October 26, 2010 for another three years.[15] On September 12,

2013, he became managing editor of Fox News breaking news division and the host of Shepard Smith Reporting.[16]

In November 2017, Smith infuriated some Fox News viewers when he countered claims that the Obama administration approved a deal allowing a Russian company to buy a Canadian company with mining interests in the US in exchange for donations to the Clinton Foundation.[17] Smith's reporting put him at odds with colleague and Fox News prime time host Sean Hannity, who had supported the claim against Hillary Clinton.[18]

Post-Fox career

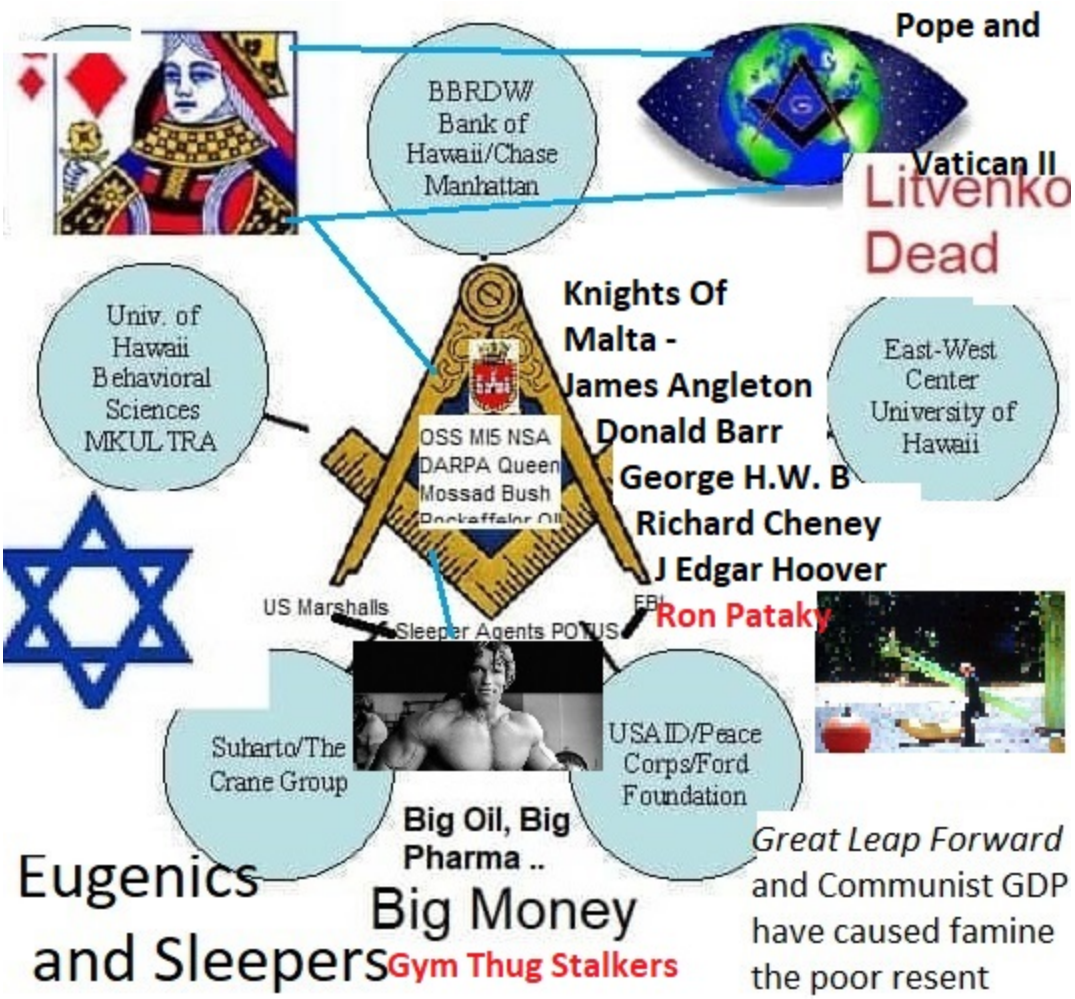
In a speech to the International Press Freedom Awards on November 21, 2019, Smith warned of authoritarian governments that make it dangerous and difficult for journalists to do their jobs, saying autocrats have learned to use online tools and social media to shore up their power.[23] At the event, Smith gave $500,000 to the host organization, the Committee to Protect Journalists.[24]

In 2003, The Fox Report with Shepard Smith was ranked third among the top five U.S. cable news programs,[12] and Smith tied for second with Dan Rather and Peter Jennings as the most-trusted news anchor on both network and cable news.[13] On November 19, 2007, Smith signed a three-year contract for $7-$8 million per year.[14] He renewed his contract with Fox on October 26, 2010 for another three years.[15] On September 12,

2013, he became managing editor of Fox News breaking news division and the host of Shepard Smith Reporting.[16]

This book

Wayne Madsen is a Revealer



Summery: the CIA Station Chief at Hawaii was working for Howard Hunt, others, created Obama, and killed JFK.

Investigative Journalist: Obama Grandparents CIA Connections; Bogus Harvard Certifica

Grandma “Toot’s” Hawaiian banking intrigue Via Helen Tansey | T-Room.us

By Wayne Madsen Wayne Madsen Report dot com

President Obama's grandmother, Madelyn Payne Dunham, the woman who actually raised the future President of the United States, served as the vice president and chief escrow account officer for the bank of Hawaii at an interesting time for the CIA's murky operations in the 50th state. Dunham retired from the Bank of Hawaii in 1986 but not before a massive financial network was exposed in 1983 as a result of the financial failure and Internal Revenue Service investigation of a major CIA proprietary headquartered in Honolulu, Bishop, Baldwin, Rewald, Dillingham and Wong (BBRDW), the Bishop being a member of one of Hawaii's landed gentry families and one that both Madelyn Dunham and her husband Stanley, as well as their daughter, Stanley Ann, had past interactions.

New York businessman Charles Reed Bishop married Bernice Pauahi Paki of the royal House of Kamehameha in 1850. Their descendants would play a major role in Hawaii to the present day. Charles Bishop, through the Bishop Trust, built a number of buildings at the elite Punahou School, where Obama attended. The Bishop Trust also funded the Bishop Museum for whom Obama's mother briefly worked as a Javanese history specialist.

For an agency that disavowed any connection to BBRDW, the CIA curiously maintains detailed files on the failed corporation that was involved, according to the editor's book, The Manufacturing of a President, in making pay-offs to Asian dictators who were allies of the United States. These payments were made via the escrow accounts overseen at the Bank of Hawaii by Obama's grandmother [who died and then burst into flames when alone with Barrack Obama on election night eve 2008.]

Among the CIA files is an obscure article on BBRDW written by John Kelly for the June-August 1984 issue of CounterSpy, a now-defunct magazine. BBRDW was an investment advisory firm on the surface but underneath its charade, it was a facilitator for various CIA clandestine operations.

Although the CIA vehemently denied that BBRDW belonged to them, One of the company's consultants and investors was John "Jack" Kindschi, the former CIA station chief in Hawaii who previously served in clandestine positions in Stockholm and Mexico City. More interesting, Kindschi's cover in Mexico City was the Robert Mullin Company, a public relations firm that employed one E. Howard Hunt, who would later emerge as one of conspirators in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Kindschi would most certainly have been known to Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and CIA veterans Stanley and Madelyn Dunham who arrived in Hawaii from Seattle just as Hawaii became a state in 1960. The CIA had cleverly provided Stanley cover as a "furniture salesman." In fact, Pratt Furniture of Honolulu, Dunham's alleged employer, never existed save for a filing in the business records held by the State of Hawaii.

When BBRDW founder Ron Rewald, CIA code name "WINTERDOG" and "R," attempted to commit suicide in a room at the Waikiki Sheraton in 1983, after BBRDW's financial collapse, the CIA's "plausible denial" machine went into full gear. CIA general counsel Robert Laprade stated in a sworn statement:

> "the CIA did not cause Bishop, Baldwin, Rewald, Dillingham & Wong to be created nor has the agency at any time owned, operated, controlled > or invested in Bishop, Baldwin, Rewald, Dillingham, Wong.”

End of the story?

Not quite.

While denying any CIA connection to BBRDW, Laprade asked that defense documents filed by Rewald in the government’s fraud case against the firm be sealed. Not only did U.S. Judge Martin Spence seal all the defense documents but he ordered sealed all documents mentioning the CIA and all attorneys, parties, and their agents were placed under a court gag order. Not coincidentally, one of the federal prosecutors, John Peyton, previously worked for the CIA’s general counsel’s office.

Rewald’s court affidavit stated that BBRDW was used by the CIA to “shelter monies of highly placed foreign diplomats and businessmen, who wished to ‘export’ cash to the United States, where it would be available to them in the event of emergency.” The CIA’s man in Cambodia, Marshal Lon Nol, availed himself of the accounts after he fled Cambodia to Hawaii after the takeover by the Khmer Rouge. Rewald bought a house form Lon Nol in Hawaii, an address that was later used for CIA cover companies.

The accounts held by BBRDW for foreign officials were held in “negotiable securities, wire transfers, or checks, many from the Chase Manhattan Bank.” Chase Manhattan was owned by David Rockefeller.

The Kelly article refers to letters between Kindschi and CIA agent Charles T. Connor that confirmed that BBRDW was providing such financial shelter for foreign officials, not just those in Asia but around the world. One letter from Connor to Kindschi stated that BBRDW provided a scheme for Greek elites to circumvent stringent Greek foreign exchange controls by investing in BBRDW. A CIA intermediary in Greece is named in the letter: Dino Goulos. Dino did not help the CIA because of his love for the agency. The letter states: “… if Dino can find investment friends seeking safe haven in dollar denominated investments with BBRD&W, we would be able to pay him a ‘finders fee’ of up to 5 percent …”

In other cases, BBRDW used joint business ventures to cultivate contacts with organizations such as the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC). At the same time that Barack Obama was working for the CIA’s premier corporate liaison and contact-development firm, Business International Corporation of New York, BBRDW had signed on as joint venture partners billionaire Philippines banker Enrique Zobel, Sultan of Brunei Hassanal Bolkiah, Crown Prince Saud Mohammed of the United Arab Emirates, and wealthy Indonesian businessmen Indri Gautama.

These four provided critical oil price intelligence to the CIA, particularly to major oil investor Bill Casey, the director.

BBRDW established the Hawaiian-Arabian Investment Company and U.S. & United Arab Emirates Investment Company with Saud Mohammed and Gautama and the Ayala-Hawaiian Corporation with Zobel. Zobel, who founded the Ayala Corporation in 1983, was a member of the influential and wealthy Ayala family of the Philippines. All were registered with the State of Hawaii and were as phony as Obama’s grandfather’s furniture company.

The Honolulu Star-Advertiser spiked a story by reporter Charles Memminger on Zobel’s ties to the CIA operation. The reason was that Zobel was part of the oligarchical opposition opposed to President Ferdinand Marcos, an opposition that was being groomed by the CIA. The CIA did not want Zobel and his allies burned. Eventually, Marcos, like Lon Nol before him, would flee to Hawaii in 1986 after being ousted. With Marcos came his massive wealth, much of it deposited in Hawaiian banks, including Grandma Toot's Bank of Hawaii, as the result of wire transfers from the Philippines National Bank.

Before Zobel broke with Marcos, the Philippines businessman helped arrange for BBRDW to obtain information on the purchase of two Hawaii estates by Marcos in 1977 and 1980. The first was an estate at 2338 Maikiki Heights Drive in Honolulu and the second was the Helen Knudsen estate, across the street from the first purchased estate.

Rewald was also a sleuth for the CIA. Court exhibits included information on Rewald filing a report to Langley with Tokyo CIA station chief Eugene Welsch. Rewald obtained the blueprints for Japan Airlines' top secret High Speed Surface Transport (HSST). Rewald was said to have obtained the prints from a BBRDW's client's son who worked for the Japanese Ministry of Railroads. BBRDW also was involved with a covert CIA funding contrivance in Japan called T&B International Co., Ltd.

.....

Sources: T-Room.us. www.WayneMadsenReport.com iew the complete Birther Report presentation at:

http://obamareleaseyourrecords.blogs…ist-obama.html

CONTINUED IN THE REPLY BELOW Last edited by bsteadman; 09-14-2013, 08:32 PM.

This book

George Walker Bush (Prescott to George H.W. to George Bush (born JULY 6, 1946) [MKULTRA] is an American politician and businessman who served as the 43rd president of the United States. #July3Aug4April1 Clone birthdays, George H.W. made a clone, George W. Bush.

SILVERADO S&L WAS NEIL BUSH's family mafia crime. He was butt buddies with the parents of the Hinckley, used as a MK ULTRA PATSY who went down on the ATTEMPTED MURDER OF REAGAN, that "would have put BUSH into the White House". (Good history lesson for BARACK OBAMA TO HEAR, so he does not put HILARY CLINTON ON HIS TICKET AS VICE PRESIDENT).

"During my time of service within the Proprietary Operations Division of the Central Intelligence Agency, I was approached while using the assigned name of Robert Andrew Walker to initiate contact with a nationally prominent brokerage house. (It must be noted that I had been a part of such brokerage facility under another alias/code name.) .. (continuing on)"

George Herbert Walker Bush is a Concealer and a Traitor

NOVEMBER 18, 1992 Clinton Arrival at White House President George H.W. Bush briefly told photographers that President-elect Bill Clinton would not take questions during a photo opportunity in the White House Rose Garden during Gov. Clinton's visit to Washington, DC.

https://www.c-span.org/video/?34850-1/clinton-arrival-white-house

Born: June 12, 1924, Milton, MA Died: November 30, 2018, Houston, TX

Son of MKULTRA principle Prescott Bush father of somewhat reluctant MKULTRA continuation president Georeg W. Bush

more of [Art and Life]

Bo Duke and Luke Dukeand their friends and their female cousin Daisy Duke, and other family (such as patriarch Uncle Jesse), have various escapades as they evade the corrupt law officers Boss Hogg and Sheriff Rosco P. Coltrane.

The Prescott Bush, George H.W., George, Neil Bush "Boss Hogg" family along with the Rockefeller Money, Nixon's-Secret Planners

"Boss" Hogg was the sole commissioner of Hazard County, Georgia, and thus held all executive and judicial powers therein. (In real life, Georgia is the only state which still allows this form of government,

Sheriff Rosco P. Coltrane (James Best) is the bumbling and corrupt sheriff of Hazard County and right-hand man and brother-in-law of its corrupt county administrator, Jefferson Davis "J.D." Hogg [Rangers and Texas Law Enforcement failure to communicate with Constitution which the South is famous for]

Texas

- I Edward Paul Donegan am being harassed and framed on trumped up matters which the Bosses need for their own objectives and ties to OSS CIA history of BUSH
- JFK Murdered in Dallas Texas
- WACO alleged compound of CIA Think Tank and Middle East North Africa propaganda arm refusing ebd 20 CIA further orders
- Scalia too, DOD DARPA activity, CIA labs, God being present missionary works from NGO groups,
- the place crawls in NGO arms and limbs and 25 trillion dollarws in NWO medicine and medical other genomics at stake, Oil is at stake, plans of CIA and Men.
- Operation 40 Bush Rockeller Howard Hunt Dallas Little Rock including George Bush CIA and Litle Rock operations, assassinations

For an agency that disavowed any connection to BBRDW, the CIA curiously maintains detailed files on the failed corporation that was involved, according to the editor's book, The Manufacturing of a President, in making pay-offs to Asian dictators who were allies of the United States. These payments were made via the escrow accounts overseen at the Bank of Hawaii by Obama's grandmother.

Among the CIA files is an obscure article on BBRDW written by John Kelly for the June-August 1984 issue of CounterSpy, a now-defunct magazine. BBRDW was an investment advisory firm on the surface but underneath its charade, it was a facilitator for various CIA clandestine operations.

Although the CIA vehemently denied that BBRDW belonged to them, One of the company's consultants and investors was John "Jack" Kindschi, the former CIA station chief in Hawaii who previously served in clandestine positions in Stockholm and Mexico City. More interesting, Kindschi's cover in Mexico City was the Robert Mullin Company, a public relations firm that employed one E. Howard Hunt, who would later emerge as one of conspirators in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. *

Mark Howard Gorton[1] is a businessman whose research into deep politics was published on Gawker in 2014.

Title	Document Type	Publication Date	Subjects	Description
Document:Fifty Years of the Deep State	Book	22 NOVEMBER 2013	Deep state CIA 9-11 George H. W. Bush JFK/Assassination RFK/Assassination MLK/Assassination	A detailed overview of the modern US deep state which names names, the most prominent of which, George H. W. Bush, is exposed as the kingpin of the US Deep state and probable a key mover behind the 9/11 plot.
Document:The Coup of '63, Part 1	essay	10 April 2014	Deep politics US/Deep state JFK Assassination	Part 1 of Mark Gorton's summary of the JFK assassination.
Document:The Political Dominance of The Cabal	essay	2 March 2014	Deep politics 9-11 Bush Family US/Deep state	The story of an American political cabal so powerful that it has been able to repress knowledge of its existence for 50 years, and the hidden history of the political force that has dominated American politics for the last 50 years.

Secret plans in the Nixon Library with the Rockefellers involving Standard Oil

Richard Nixon unsuccessfully ran for president in 1960, narrowly losing to John F. Kennedy. Nixon then lost a race for governor of California to Pat Brown in 1962. In 1968, he ran for the presidency again and was elected, defeating Hubert Humphrey and George Wallace in a close election.

Richard Nixon 36th Vice President of the United States In office January 20, 1953 - January 20, 1961

January 20, 1969 - August 9, 1974

From Steamshovel Press #4: *

A newly discovered FBI document reveals that George H.W. Bush was directly involved in the 1963 MURDER OF PRESIDENT JOHN KENNEDY.

The document places Bush working with the now famous CIA agent, Felix Rodriguez, recruiting right-wing Cuban exiles for the invasion of Cuba.

It was Bush's CIA job to organize the Cuban community in Miami for the invasion. The Cubans were trained as marksmen by the CIA. Bush at that time lived in Texas. Hopping from Houston to Miami weekly, Bush spent 1960 and '61 recruiting Cubans in Miami for the invasion. That is how he met Felix Rodriguez.

You may remember Rodriguez as the Iran-contra CIA agent who received the first phone call telling the world the CIA plane flown by Gene Hasenfus had crashed in Nicaragua.

As soon as Rodriguez heard that the plane crashed, he called his long-time CIA supervisor, who was now Vice President, George Bush. Bush denied being in the contra loop, but investigators recently obtained copies of Oliver North's diary, which documents Bush's role as a CIA supervisor of the contra supply network.

In 1988 Bush told Congress he knew nothing about the illegal supply flights until 1987, yet North's diary shows Bush at the first planning meeting AUG. 6, 1985. Bush's "official" log placed him somewhere else. Such double sets of logs are intended to hide Bush's real role in the CIA; to provide him with "plausible deniability."

The problem is, it fell apart because too many people, like North and Rodriguez, have kept records that show Bush's CIA role back to the 1961 invasion of Cuba. (Source: The Washington Post, 7-10-90.)

That is exactly how evidence was uncovered placing George Bush working with Felix Rodriguez when JFK was killed. A memo from FBI head J. Edgar Hoover was found, stating that, "Mr George Bush of the CIA" had been briefed on November 23rd, 1963 about the reaction of anti-Castro Cuban exiles in Miami to the assassination of President Kennedy. (Source: The Nation, 8-13-88)

On the day of the assassination, Bush was in Texas, but he denies knowing exactly where he was. Since he had been the supervisor for the secret Cuban teams, headed by former Cuban police commander Felix Rodriguez, since 1960, it is likely Bush was also in Dallas in 1963. Several of the Cubans he was supervising as dirty-tricks teams for Nixon, were photographed in the Zapruder film.

In 1959 Rodriguez was a top cop in the Cuban government under Batista. When Batista….

> In 1991, Bush gave his infamous 'New World Order' speech, which many people believe signaled the beginning of the PNAC plan also known as the [PROJECT FOR A NEW [21ST] AMERICAN CENTURY. In other words, Bush outright rejected his nation for the preeminence of the United Nations.

Prescott Bush

The Bush political family dynasty began with Prescott Sheldon Bush Sr. who helped Hitler's rise to power. Prescott also became the Director of Union Banking Corporation when it was suspected of concealing Nazi gold during the Second World War. Both Prescott's son, George Herbert Walker Bush, and grandson, George Walker Bush, became the 41st and 43rd Presidents of the United States, respectively, who both initiated wars with Iraq

Bush Family Treason by Barbara Boyd and Anton Chaitkin

Bush Family Treason by Barbara Boyd and Anton Chaitkin

Lyndon LaRouche describes Jeb Bush's Presidential candidacy as a deadly, unfolding strategic potential in a world already careening toward financial collapse and world war. A speculative monetarist cancer is destroying the nations of the trans-Atlantic system. Wishing to retain their hegemony, the Anglo-American oligarchy threatens Russia and China with nuclear war. The present ugly caricature of the once great United States can be attributed to George H.W. Bush's tenure in the Vice Presidency and Presidency, George W. Bush's eight years in office, and the six-plus years America has suffered under its successor-in-interest, Barack Obama-what LaRouche calls the Bush League of Nazis.

Bert and Prescott Bush, MKULTRA

Nazi Links: The relevant species history begins with E.H. Harriman acquiring the bankrupt Union Pacific Railroad, financed through the British royal family's private financier, Sir Ernst Cassel, Cassel's New York partner Jacob Schiff, and members of the Rockefeller family. Like everything else on Wall Street, the financiers traded on what others had created. In 1919, G.H. (Bert) Walker, a St. Louis-born, British-schooled operative of British and Morgan bankers, set up a private bank for E.H. Harriman's sons, Averell and Roland, W.A. Harriman and Company.

In 1926, Bert brought his son-in-law, Prescott Bush, into this enterprise, Prescott and Roland Harriman having sworn lifetime blood oaths to each other as members of Yale's secret satanic Skull and Bones society. Beginning in 1920,

In a joint operation with British intelligence, the Dulles brothers overthrew Mohammed Mossadegh, the democratically elected leader of Iran. In 1954, they staged a coup against Guatemala's President, who refused to obey the dictates of the United Fruit Company, utilizing a pastoral letter from Cardinal Spellman of New York, supporting the coup as a critical ingredient. Their “Gladio” operation, featuring unrepentant former Nazis as a first line against any putative Russian invasion of Europe, resulted in numerous terrorist destabilizations of Europe throughout the 1960s and 1970s, with its Nazi heirs forming Victoria Nuland’s “freedom fighters” in Ukraine today.

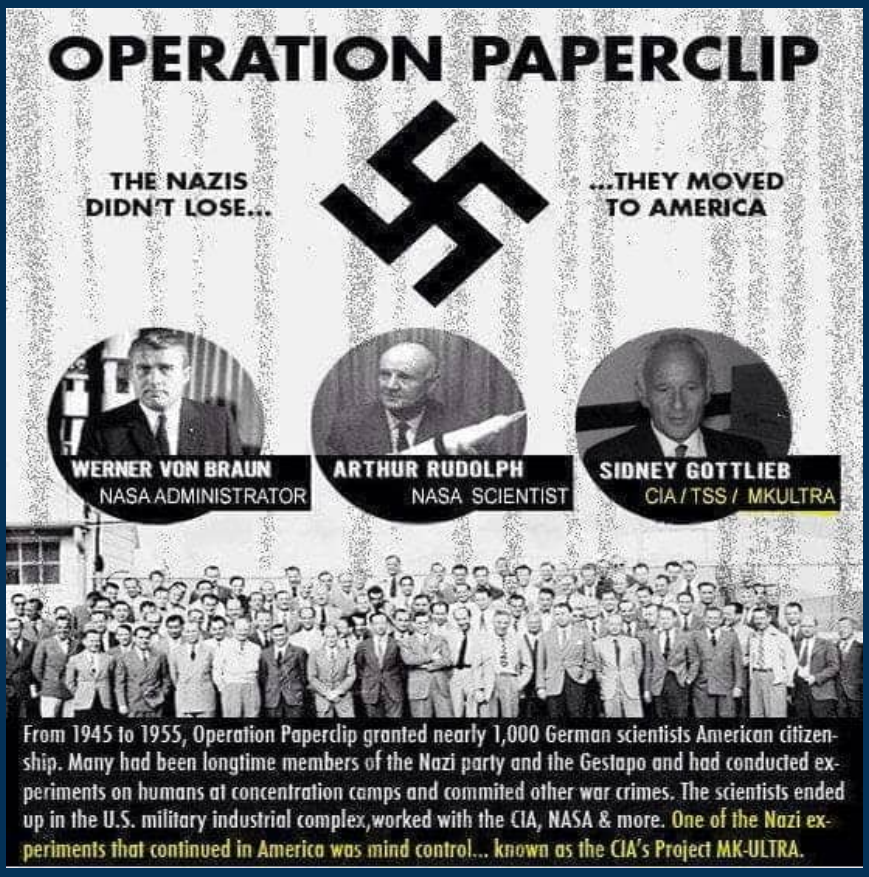
CIA’s MK-Ultra program, which featured large-scale testing of psychotropic drugs, including LSD, on unwitting U.S. citizens. The Foundation trained intelligence operatives for the U.S. government, including the CIA, and participated in off-the-books Agency operations.

The National Strategy Information Center was founded in 1962, in the wake of the Bay of Pigs fiasco, by Prescott Bush, Prescott Bush Jr., William Casey, and Leo Cherne.

Executive Order 12333, which Reagan signed in December 1981, reorganized the U.S. intelligence community, authorized widespread NSA spying and record collection on individuals deemed threats to the national security, and authorized the government to lie to the population about its covert operations. The intelligence reorganization was accompanied by something called, ironically, “Operation Truth,” an overt black and white propaganda campaign run through the State Department’s Office of Public Diplomacy and the CIA, to sell Washington’s foreign adventures to a hesitant U.S. population.

This author Edward Paul Donegan interjecting into Patriot or Traitor text offering the explanation Bush is is desperate out-of-band channels like Blackwater of Enroque Prado contractors to cover up his role in the MKULTRA plan he had been a part and included the assassination of JFK and misuse of Glorian Donegan DNA among “elites.”

The Bush oil family, Rockefeller Standard Oil family, Middle East plans, England the Rothschilds, Windsors, dynasty is tied to Michecal Mulcasey, Donal Barr, William Barr, MKULTRA, the assinations of some of Camelaot, and more.



From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

COVER-UP [OF MKULTRA ASSASINATIONS FROM BIOLOGICAL WEAPONS DIVISION?]

PROJECT MKULTRA (OR MK-ULTRA), ALSO CALLED THE CIA MIND CONTROL PROGRAM, IS THE CODE NAME … WAS ORGANIZED THROUGH THE OFFICE OF SCIENTIFIC INTELLIGENCE OF THE CIA AND COORDINATED WITH THE UNITED STATES ARMY BIOLOGICAL WARFARE LABORATORIES

A cover-up is an attempt, whether successful or not, to conceal evidence of wrongdoing, error, incompetence or other embarrassing information. In a passive cover-up, information is simply not provided; in an active cover-up, deception is used.

The expression is usually applied to people in positions of authority who abuse power to avoid or silence criticism or to deflect guilt of wrongdoing. Perpetrators of a cover-up (initiators or their allies) may be responsible for a misdeed, a breach of trust or duty, or a crime.

Initially a cover-up may require little effort; it will be carried out by those closely involved with the misdeed. Once some hint of the hidden matter starts to become known, the cover-up gradually draws all the top leadership, at least, of an organization into complicity in covering up a misdeed or even crime that may have originally been committed by a few of its members acting independently. This may be regarded as tacit approval of that behaviour.[citation needed]

While the terms are often used interchangeably, cover-up involves withholding incriminatory evidence, while whitewash involves releasing misleading evidence. See also misprision.

MISPRISION OF TREASON,

Misprision of treason, in the words of Blackstone, "[consists] in the bare knowledge and concealment of treason, without any degree of assent thereto: for any assent makes the party a principal traitor".[4]

According to Bracton, de Corond, seq. 118, failure to reveal the treason of another was in itself high treason, but statutes of 1551-1552 and 1554-1555 made concealment of treason misprision only. Most of the statutes regulating procedure on trials for treason also apply to misprision of treason. The punishment is loss of the profit of the lands of the offender during life, forfeiture of all his goods and imprisonment for life. These punishments are not affected by the Forfeiture Act 1870.

Misprision of felony is the concealment of a felony committed by another person, but without such previous concert with, or subsequent assistance of the offender, as would make the concealer an accessory before or after the fact. The offence was (and in the United States still is) a misdemeanour punishable on indictment by fine and imprisonment.

PATRIOT OR TRAITOR . COM

The truth about who is a patriot or traitor.

On Friday November 30th, the former treasonous President George H.W. Bush passed away at the age of ninety four.

While the establishment celebrates the life of the former president and Americans line up to mourn their fallen leader, the facts that are being reported in the mainstream media are far different than the legacy he is leaving behind.

The Early Years

George Herbert Walker Bush was born on June 12, 1924 in Massachusetts to Prescott Sheldon Bush and Dorothy (Walker) Bush. Shortly after his birth, the family moved to Connecticut where he began his formal education at Greenwich Country Day School. At the age of eighteen, Bush joined the U.S. Navy.

During his tenure in the Navy, Bush was stationed with Torpedo Squadron 51 aboard the USS San Jacinto. On August 1, 1944 his unit launched an operation against the Japanese in the Bonin Islands. On September 2, 1944, Bush's aircraft was downed leading to the death of eight Navy airmen, leaving Bush as the lone survivor. The episode later became known as the Chichijima incident and led to the future president being hailed as a war hero.

Political Career

Upon graduating from Yale, Bush began his career in politics and was elected chairman of the Harris County, Texas Republican Party in 1963. Three years later, Bush was elected to the US House of Representatives, marking the beginning of a meteoric rise which resulted in him being named director of the Central Intelligence Agency in 1976.

As Director of the CIA, Bush was responsible for overseeing the payment of hundreds of thousands of dollars to Panamanian leader and suspected cocaine trafficker, Manuel Noriega. Although Bush claimed he wasn't aware of Noriega's illicit activities until 1988, the CIA's involvement in Latin America would eventually in a national controversy during the Reagan administration, in what became known as the Iran-Contra scandal.

While Bush served less than a year as the head of the CIA, he was also caught destroying evidence of US war crimes. As reported by MuckRock,

"Declassified records recently unearthed in CREST show the CIA waffled on a promise to obey the law in destroying records of Agency's illegal activities and wrongdoing."

Four years after serving as the director of the CIA, George H.W. Bush was elected Vice President of the United States. Serving under former President Ronald Reagan, Bush kept a low profile and avoided making any key policy decisions or criticisms of the Reagan administration, but attended a large number of ceremonies and public events.

In 1988, Bush was elected president defeating Michael Dukakis of Massachusetts. Within his first year in office, Bush's approval ratings began to slip due to his inability to deal with Panamanian leader Manuel Noriega. Bush responded by deciding to invade Panama, and on December 20,1989 he deployed 25,000 troops to the tiny nation. Bush justified the invasion- code named operation just cause- on the grounds of national security. The president mislead the country by claiming Noriega had threatened the US, a claim which turned out to be untrue. After two weeks the conflict ended, resulting in the deaths of twenty American soldiers and as many as 2,000 Panamanians.

Less than a year after the invasion of Panama, Bush once again found himself responding to another foreign policy debacle. On August 2, 1990 Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein began an invasion of nearby Kuwait. In response, President Bush and the American media used the testimony of a 15-year-old Kuwaiti girl, known only by her first name of Nayirah to justify US intervention in Kuwait. However, Nayirah was later discovered to be the daughter of a U.S. ambassador, who was being coaxed by military psychological operations specialists.

In 1991, Bush gave his infamous 'New World Order' speech, which many people believe signaled the beginning of the PNAC plan also known as the Project For a New American Century. In other words, Bush outright rejected his nation for the preeminence of the United Nations. video

Life After Politics

After leaving office in 1993, George H.W. Bush retired with his wife Barbara and built a home in a community near Houston, Texas. Though retired, the former president would still face controversy.

In 1999, Former Brigadier General Russell S. Bowen published a book entitled, "The Immaculate Deception - The Bush Crime Family Exposed." In the book General Bowen details the Government's alleged role in covering up Bush's role in the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

The Immaculate Deception: Bush Crime Family Exposed 1st Edition by Russell S. Bowen (Author)

https://www.amazon.com/Immaculate-eception-Crime-Family-Exposed/dp/0922356807

Perhaps the most shocking book written this century about treason committed by the highest leaders within the US government.

This disturbing and thought-provoking expose is written by Brigadier General Russell S Bowen who has courageously come forward with the truth about his association with the OSS (Office of Security Services) and his 'drug running' activities on behalf of the 'secret' government which involves the highest US 'leaders' and which few Americans know anything about. The most startling details are revealed regarding Bowen's clandestine work including his work under the orders of George Bush.

Last year, during the height of the #MeToo movement, at least five women women claimed they were abused by the former president. In an interview with Time Magazine, a woman named Roslyn Corrigan claimed Bush sexually assaulted her in 2003 when she was only 16-years-old. At least five more women have accused Bush of sexual assault, including an unnamed Michigan woman who came forward claiming the former president groped her in 1992 at a campaign event. Actress Heather Lind also stated, in a now deleted Instagram post, that Bush groped her during a photo-op in 2014.

Perhaps, instead of blindly praising a documented criminal, Americans should consider asking themselves what other crimes the US government and the media are covering up for the former president.

Additional Information

The Bush family had a long history at Yale, with both George Senior and George W. Bush being part of the Skull and Bones society. The Bush senior was the second president to be elected with a “Bonesman” history, with the younger Bush the third President.

Skull and Bones Members, including George Herbert Walker Bush.

Skull and Bones Member - George Herbert Walker Bush.

George Herbert Walker Bush was also as a member and Director of the Central Intelligence Agency that is known to commit government cover-ups, drug smuggling and the assassinations of american citizens. He is also famous as the president who started the Gulf War bombing of Iraq. A war that his treasonous son George Walker Bush continued by lying to the American people about its dictator Saddam Hussein supposedly having weapons of mass destruction.

On Friday November 30th, the former treasonous President George H.W. Bush passed away at the age of ninety four.

Additional Information

The Bush political dynasty began with Prescott Sheldon Bush Sr. who helped Hitler's rise to power. Prescott also became the Director of Union Banking Corporation when it was suspected of concealing Nazi gold during the Second World War. Both Prescott's son, George Herbert Walker Bush, and grandson, George Walker Bush, became the 41st and 43rd Presidents of the United States, respectively, who both initiated wars with Iraq that profited companies with Bush family ties, such as Halliburton and KBR.

CLICK HERE to read about the traitor Prescott Sheldon Bush and others at Patriot Or Traitor Dot Com

CLICK HERE to read about the traitor George Walker Bush and others at Patriot Or Traitor Dot Com

Liz Cheney retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Elizabeth Lynne Cheney was born on July 28, 1966,[10] in Madison, Wisconsin,[11] the elder of two daughters of former Vice President Dick Cheney and former Second Lady Lynne Cheney (née Vincent).

She held several positions in the U.S. State Department during the George W. Bush administration.

At the time of her birth, her parents were studying at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She received her J.D. degree from the University of Chicago Law School (1996), having also taken courses in Middle Eastern history at the Oriental Institute.

She received her Bachelor of Arts degree (BA) from Colorado College, her mother's alma mater, where she wrote her senior thesis, "The Evolution of Presidential War Powers"

[13]Cheney worked for the State Department for five years and the U.S. Agency for International Development between 1989 and 1993.

After 1993, she took a job at Armitage Associates LLP, the consulting firm founded by Richard Armitage, then a former Defense Department official and Iran-Contra operative who later served as Deputy Secretary of State. [20]

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

THE PROJECT FOR THE NEW AMERICAN CENTURY (PNAC) [formed in the 20th Century] was a neoconservative[1][2][3] think tank based in Washington, D.C. that focused on United States foreign policy. It was established as a non-profit educational organization in 1997, and founded by William Kristol and Robert Kagan.[4][5] PNAC's stated goal was "to promote American global leadership."[6] The organization stated that "American leadership is good both for America and for the world," and sought to build support for "a Reaganite policy of military strength and moral clarity."[7]

Of the twenty-five people who signed PNAC's founding statement of principles, ten went on to serve in the administration of U.S. President George W. Bush, including Dick Cheney, Donald Rumsfeld, and Paul Wolfowitz.[8][9][10][11] Observers such as Irwin Stelzer and Dave Grondin have suggested that the PNAC played a key role in shaping the foreign policy of the Bush Administration, particularly in building support for the Iraq War.[12][13][14][15] Academics such as Inderjeet Parmar, Phillip Hammond, and Donald E. Abelson have said PNAC's influence on the George W. Bush administration has been exaggerated.[16][17][18]

A co-founder of the neoconservative Project for the New American Century,[4][5][6] Robert Kagan is a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.[7]

Robert Kagan was born in Athens, Greece. His father, historian Donald Kagan, a Sterling Professor of Classics and History Emeritus at Yale University and a specialist in the history of the Peloponnesian War, is of Lithuanian Jewish descent.[8] His brother, Frederick, is a military historian and author. Kagan has a BA in history (1980) from Yale, where in 1979 he had been Editor in Chief of the Yale Political Monthly, a periodical he is credited with reviving.[9] He later earned an MPP from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and a PhD in American history from American University in Washington, D.C.

Kagan is married to the American diplomat Victoria Nuland,[10] who served as Assistant Secretary of State for European and Eurasian Affairs in the Barack Obama administration. Nuland held the rank of Career Ambassador, the highest diplomatic rank in the United States Foreign Service. She is noted for her criticism of Russian policies.

See also editor @endtimezwarriorz.com

Jul 21, 2019 - G.W. Bush's grandfather, Prescott Bush, and his father in law, George Herbert Walker, initially made their fortune supplying the Nazi War

MK Ultra, The Bush's and World-Wide Deception: Prophecy Unfolding as The World is Enslaved By Eric Jewell 03/01/03

Neural and Behavioral Research, Eli Illy, Neil Bush, etc.,

Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

More than one journalist has uncovered corrupt connections between the Bush Family, psychiatry, and Eli Lilly & Company, the giant pharmaceutical corporation

A sample of those who have been on the Eli Lilly payroll includes:

- Former President George Herbert Walker Bush (one-time member of the Eli Lilly board of directors)

- Former CEO of Enron, Ken Lay (one-time member of the Eli Lilly board of directors)
- George W. Bush’s former director of Management and Budget, Mitch Daniels (a former Eli Lilly vice president)
- George W. Bush’s Homeland Security Advisory Council member, Sidney Taurel (current CEO of Eli Lilly)
- The National Alliance for the Mentally Ill (a recipient of Eli Lilly funding)

This book

Publicity photo of Clark Gable, Born: February 1, 1901, Cadiz, OH Died: NOVEMBER 16, 1960,

Clark Gabel was assassinated by E. Howard Hunt to protect the plot to create and insert Clones of Commonwealth world leaders

The Misfits are a group of refugees from Atomic families who form an ersatz one in Nevada and effectively raise Perc an internet cowboy type with lots of ongoing injuries who needs a family's care.

He died by heart attack awaiting the release of The Misfits with Marilin Monroe and about one year before my birthday of November 18 1961 and I believe he was aware of a plan to make a one year from then covert sleeper agent Barrack Obama Jr to be born one year later and already plants were underway to find a set of adoptive parents or location, perhaps Nevada or perhaps Trinity Baptist Church in Chicago.

Clark Gabel starred with Marilyn Monroe is a secret real back story then fictionalized film often used by the CIA. Among these were Animal Farm, the Misfits, Rocky Horror, Jet Pilot, Love Story, The Sound of Music, and The Prince and the Showgirl.

The Misfits and the Prince and the Showgirl are tied to the CIA murder of Clark Gabel and Marilyn Monroe to protect the back-stories from being revealed.

Clark Gable retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

William Clark Gable was born on February 1, 1901, in Cadiz, Ohio, to William Henry “Will” Gable (1870-1948), an oil-well driller, and his wife Adeline (née Hershelman). His father was a Protestant and his mother a Catholic. Gable was named William after his father, but he was almost always called Clark, and referred to as “the kid” by his father. Due to the doctor’s illegible handwriting, he was mistakenly listed as male and female in the county register; the clerk later corrected it to male. He had Belgian and German ancestry. Gable was six months old when he was baptized at a Roman Catholic church in Dennison, Ohio. When he was ten months old, his mother died. His father refused to raise him in the Catholic faith, which provoked criticism from the Hershelman family. The dispute was resolved when his father agreed to allow him to spend time with his maternal uncle Charles Hershelman and his wife on their farm in Vernon Township, Pennsylvania.[13] In April 1903, Gable’s father married Jennie Dunlap (1874-1920).

Actor Clark Gable Served in Uniform, Flew Combat Missions in World War II retrieved from BY ROBERT F. DORR - AUGUST 11, 2010 DefenseMediaNetwork.com and copied or modified to here

Clark Gable was a Hollywood star and among the most famous figures in the world when two events altered his life. First, the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, hurtling the United States into World War II. Then, the following month, Gable’s beloved wife Carole Lombard was killed in the crash of a DC-3 airliner returning from a war bonds tour.

Devastated, patriotic, and at age 40 a bit old for military service, Gable didn't feel that the work he and Lombard had been doing to raise money through war bonds was enough of a contribution. He sent a telegram to President Franklin D. Roosevelt asking for a role in the war effort. The president replied, "STAY WHERE YOU ARE."

"Tell the boys hello and tell 'em me and Clark Gable are putting this 351st outfit in shape."

Gable didn't. He volunteered for the Army Air Forces, went to the 13-week Officer Candidate School, and was trained as a photographer and aerial gunner. Because of his Hollywood connections, he was made a part of the ▶ First Motion Picture Unit (FMPU) located at what troops called "Fort Roach" - the Hal Roach Studios in Culver City, Calif. FMPU was commanded by producer Jack Warner, who was recruited as a lieutenant colonel. Flight operations were commanded by "Hollywood Pilot" Paul Mantz, famous for his stunt flying in films, who became a major. Other FMPU stalwarts included Alan Ladd, Ronald Reagan and Van Heflin.

Few of them went overseas, but Gable was assigned to go to Britain to film Combat America, a propaganda movie about air gunners.

One of the most important assignments of the unit was to develop navigational and topographic materials to support the bombing campaign against Japan. This top secret series of films, code-named "Special Film Project 152" was, according to Gregory Orr, "perhaps the most important and challenging effort to come from the First Motion Picture Unit." The unit was given forty days to produce the films which would be used by B-29 Superfortress crews.

SPY TRICKS: HOW THE CIA USED CLARK GABLE & ANIMAL FARM FOR PSYCH OPS retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

The CIA's Psychological Warfare Workshop was run by E. Howard Hunt in the 1950s, the spymaster later jailed as one of President Richard Nixon's Watergate 'plumbers'. Hunt's psych ops workshop was buried in the innocently-named Office of Policy Coordination, with a big budget and a wide remit: propaganda, economic warfare, sabotage, and subversion.

During WWII, Hunt served in the Navy, Army Air Corps, and Office of Strategic Services, the precursor to the CIA, in China. He refined his dark arts in Mexico and Guatemala: "The predisposition among Latin American intellectuals and students is a pro-Communist stance - they're good; the United States and democracy are bad. And I thought that we have to do something to change this mindset if we can, otherwise the whole continent is going to turn red."

Under his leadership, the CIA transformed into America's 'Ministry of Culture', an Orwellian doublethink operation channeling anti-communist messages through blockbuster movies like Animal Farm.

The spymaster decided to influence American hearts and minds by making a full-length animated film based on British author George Orwell's Animal Farm, a political satire where rebel animals seize their farm.

Animal Farm would be the first feature-length animated film ever made in the UK and a colossal challenge. The CIA and British Foreign Office's clandestine Information Research Department (IRD) weren't the only ones interested in acquiring the film rights.

The US Army also wanted to make Animal Farm, as well as the producers of Woody Woodpecker cartoons.

Hunt dispatched Carleton Alsop, an undercover CIA agent at Paramount Studios, and Finis Farr, a Los Angeles writer, to meet Orwell's widow, Sonia, when the author died in 1950. The men weren't in England to pay their respects. Their job was to persuade Sonia to sell the rights to Animal Farm.

"This she duly did, having first secured their promise that they would arrange for her to meet her hero Clark Gable," star of Gone With the Wind, writes Frances Stonor Saunders in Who Paid the Piper?

Hunt then spent $500,000 bankrolling Louis De Rochemont, a US producer who'd worked with the FBI on the anti-Nazi spy movie The House on 92nd Street (1945).

The CIA used hundreds of millions of dollars from the Marshall Plan for European recovery to finance its 'cultural' activities, according to Stonor Saunders. In the early years, money was seemingly no object.

"We couldn't spend it all," Gilbert Greenway, a former CIA agent, recalled in The Assassinations. "There were no limits, and nobody had to account for it. It was amazing."

Animal Farm

The CIA had taken a leaf from the KGB propaganda playbook, using literary and artistic expression as organs of state policy.

Animal Farm was part of a larger CIA culture war that extended to sponsoring Abstract Expressionist art exhibitions, musical concerts, magazines, and Hollywood movies to push the anti-communist agenda.

De Rochemont chose British animators Halas and Batchelor to design Animal Farm’s memorable characters, possibly because the duo had experience working on British propaganda movies or because De Rochemont questioned the loyalty of some Hollywood artists.

The ending of Orwell’s acclaimed novel would need to be changed to meet the CIA’s objectives. The book ends - [spoiler alerts ahead!] - with the animals and humans indistinguishable as corrupt, evil powers. In the movie, there is no mention of humans. Only the pigs are totally corrupt.

Animal Farm

The animated movie was released to acclaim in 1954 with a gala at the UN in New York. Many praised it. The New York Times called it “a vivid and biting animation of Mr. Orwell’s popular tale of social revolution and disillusion”.

The British also found Orwell’s work useful for propaganda. Britain’s National Archives later revealed that UK spies funded a newspaper comic strip in the early 1950s based on Animal Farm which ran in Brazil, Burma, Eritrea, India, Mexico, Thailand, and Venezuela.

E. Howard Hunt, CIA Spymaster E. Howard Hunt. Regrets? Maybe one.

E. Howard Hunt, the CIA officer who once said he “thought black”, later served 33 months in prison for organizing the bugging of the Democratic Democratic National Committee HQ during the ‘70s Watergate scandal that brought down Richard Nixon’s government.

Hunt spent his later years writing spy novels and died at age 88 in 2008, unrepentant to the end.

Asked if he had any regrets, Hunt told Slate: “No, none,” before reflecting on the disastrous CIA-backed invasion of Cuba in 1961. “Well, it would have been nice to do Bay of Pigs differently.”

Marilyn Monroe JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4, 1962 was going to be a Revealer

Consider this timeline.

> November 19 1961 the day after my and Barrack Obama Jr.s birth and day of Birth Certificate.

> The Misfits move release and death of Clark Gabel Novermber 19 1961. John Housing directing, Divinic birthday

> November 1962 Cheney and Bush of Zapata Oil likely join plan

> August 4 1962 Marilyn dead, RFK in the area, likely staging possible time-line of birthday party with Obama Jr.

> August 5 1962 Malcolm X invited to meet with black civil rights lawyer

> The Bush Cheney Zapata Oil faction of Boston Cape Cod are at odds with JFK and later RFK over assassination and moles.

She was placed in a psych ward during the filming of The Misfits and Clark Gabel and others would die in quick success as Monroe herself would.

The Misfits are a group of refugees from Atomic families who form an ersatz one in Nevada and effectively raise Perc an internet cowboy type with lots of ongoing injuries who needs a family;s care.

Recommended - Marilyn Monroe Declassified (TV-PG) directed by Paul Davids

"We had a lot of strange deaths and the all began with Marilyn Monroe [Yes, George H.W. Bush, you would have been hanged if people found out about you and Donald Barr and overthrow plans - Ed Donegan

Robert Kennedy along with the Lawford Shriver crowd were in Los Angeles connected to or present at events, Monroe died shortly before midnight, about 4:30 am (best estimates are 5 to 6 hours after body found) the following day police were called after the presence of the group of Lawford Shriver social circle were cleared from records.

In France the story of Bobby Kennedy was covered, not in the USA and not likely in England either. US Press corps immediately canceled interviews and coverage of that component Larry King b. NOVEMBER 19, 1933 *, and also Good Morning America cancel their coverage, Shriver takes over for King.

Albert Einstein Marilyn Monroe most Kennedys and some Donegans and some Windsors and Maria Augusta Von Trapp from the Kutschera side and Arnold Schwartzenegger: Dysgraphics FOXP2 Syndrome, half of descendants.

I assert the real birthday of Barrack Obama Jr was November 18th 1961 alongside me, Birth Certificate number 022-46-3233 November 1961, and the cover story birthday from the begging was August 4 1961 and the one year mark of that was a staged event with Lawford Shriver team and Marylin Monroe for a while only a while assisting.

The Inglewood Poject is Inglewood Califonnia birthplace but several “alternative meanings” like street names create some ambiguity as a safety measure.

Paul B Zuber invites Black Muslim leader Malcolm X to attend anti-segregation rally, Inglewood, NJ; plans boycott of … AUGUST 5, 1962

Paul B. Zuber (December 20, 1926 - March 6, 1987[1]) was a civil rights attorney who fought against inferior schools for African Americans in New York City’s Harlem neighborhood in 1958 and against segregated schools in New York State, New Jersey, and Chicago during the 1960s. He was the first African American tenured professor at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI). He briefly ran for the Republican nomination in the U.S. presidential campaign of 1964. He was married to illustrator Barbara Zuber. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Minimal Brain Dysfunction is under stimulation (or under available of brain metabolic function do to poor organic neurotransmitters in the brain such as Dopamine for which Dysoxin (Crystal Methamphetamine) or other amphetamines serve as an working analogy. Further Reading

This was a key fact in my long term relationship with my father. It is my belief Minimal Brain Dysfunction includes 20 percent bipolar all the time and the pole could be up or down, change frequently,, and like a broken watch even be correct some of the time, and can even be charisma holding the public sentiment of the day.

I Edward Donegan notice on the list of Dr. Max Jacobson “Dr Feelgood” (3 JULY 1900 - 17 December 1979) the following

JFK and Marylin Monroe took Desoxyn (Crystal Meth) used for Minimal Brain Dysfunction, or

- John F. Kennedy
- Nelson Rockefeller “Rocky” JULY 8, 1908 - January 26, 1979)
- Marilyn Monroe JUNE 1, 1926 - AUGUST 4, 1962)

Note that Rockefeller is tied to Rockefeller Psychiatry, the Nixon and many other administrations, and political office. Further Reading Dexapmphetamine. My father felt bad he did not allow the prescription when I was a child and i was diagnosed (I have seen the faded yellow written record, Minimal Brain Dysfunction) though in rehab in 2001 I was prescribed Wllbutrin.

My father wondered if I carried a small defective gene perhaps from eposure to toxins.

1961 November 22 Donald Barr CIA with a research monkey (MEtaphor for Barrack Obama JR.) at a White House birthday party. Minimal Brain Dysfunction are being studied wich runds in several families. Barrack Obama Jr does not seem to have it Aug 4 1962. That day is said to be Barrack Obama Jrss one year birthday party, Lawford involved with Marilin. RFK is there too though that is hidden. Marylin Monroe dies that day.

Dr CHarney told me ADHD which is included in Miniam Brain Dysfunction results from an turntable stule tone arm to lightly pressured thus it bounces between the grooves rather than stick with one. The focus on the current groove improves with brain (Executive area) stimulation. Further Reading

:Too much focus gets the needle stuck and is over focus also called a Tweek.

In the early 1960s, amphetamines were still widely accepted as innocuous medications. Apart from vast numbers of middle-aged, middle-class patients receiving low-dose prescriptions from family doctors to help them cope with their daily “duties,” in much the same way that their doctors prescribed minor tranquilizers,61 a significant quasi-medical gray market in amphetamines had developed. For instance, for his painful war injuries and also to help maintain his image of youthful vigor, President John F. Kennedy received regular injections containing around 15 mg of methamphetamine, together with vitamins and hormones, from a German-trained physician named Max Jacobson

I Edward Paul Donegan believe she was tied to out wedlock Windsor family descendents being used as charismatic sleeper agents for other countries. But to prevent the sleepers agents from being identified and the truth told those who were “source material” personages from the program and who were NOT sleeper agents had to be silenced before they spoke and if they did speak they had to have been discredited and limited in the reach of their voice.

Marilyn Monroe Born: JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4, 1962 Barrack Obama Jr and Seattle? JFK the Windsors and Barrack Obama Jr are connected to Seattle WA

1953 Major World Events

U.S. and North Korea sign armistice ending the Korean War

Speech Defect King George V Prince Albert of York dies 1952. 1953 Queen Elizabeth II of Great Britain crowned.

Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI) is founded The institute was formed with the goal of basic research including trying to understand, in Hughes's words, "the genesis of life itself" and the program operates in University of Washington Seattle

Marshal Tito is elected president of Yugoslavia.

Josef Stalin dies, Nikita Khrushchev becomes First Secretary of Communist Party who spends on missile rather than conventional forces

USSR explodes a hydrogen bomb (H Bombs are vastly greater destructive power than first-generation A (atomic) bombs,

In 1957 Sputnik 1 results from the Soviet Space Program

In an unpublished photo Marilyn Monroe is in Washington Seattle in 1953. Is University of Washington Seattle connected to the CIA autopsy of George V and studying the speech defect on behalf of CIA and Sri Lanka Station Chief Franklin Anderson? Stanley Armour Dunham was from Seattle anthropology 1960s and later LESLIANNE SHEDD, 1968-1996. Leslianne Shedd, who fulfilled a lifelong ambition to work in foreign service by joining the U.S. State Department right after graduating from the Jackson School of International Studies, died NOV. 24, 1996, in the crash of a hijacked Ethiopian Airlines jet, which fell into the Indian Ocean off the Comoros Islands. Further Reading JFK and the Windsors will gather there in 1962 oerhaps by telepone with Malcom X.

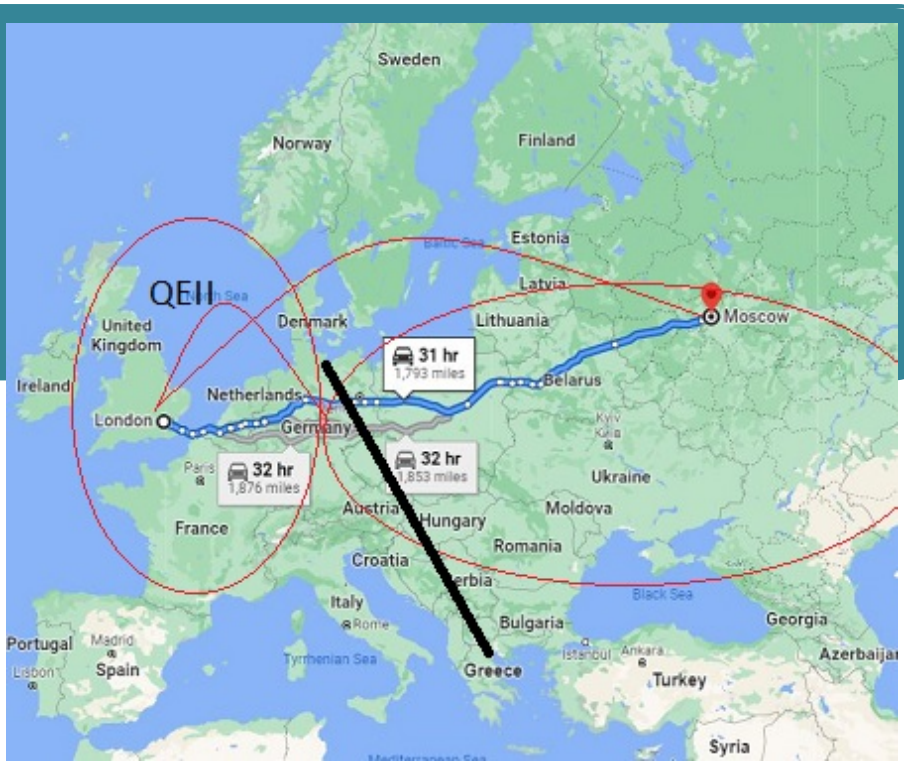
As a medical resident at Hopkins in 1922 Verne Rheem Mason gave the disease sickle cell anemia its name.1938, Mason was one of the physicians called to the sickbed of General of the Armies John J. Pershing. The commander of the American Expeditionary Force in France in World War I was in a coma and sinking. Mason made the medical report on General Pershing, who recovered and lived for 10 years more. When Howard Hughes lay near death in Los Angeles in 1946, following the crash of his experimental plane, the XF-11, he summoned Mason and asked, “Am I going to live?” “I don’t know,” Mason replied. “Then give this message to the Army,” Hughes said. “The accident was caused by the rear half of the right propeller, which suddenly switched into reverse pitch position.”

Verne Mason became Hughes personal physician as well as princple in HHMI

Verne Rheem Mason (AUGUST 8, 1889 - NOVEMBER 16, 1965) was an eminent American internist and associate of Howard Hughes. Mason was chairman of the Howard Hughes Medical Institute’s medical advisory committee. Mason was for many years a member of the medical faculty of the University of Southern California, a professor of clinical medicine, and an attending physician at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. He was considered a leading internist and diagnostician. Highly decorated, he served in both World Wars. Mason was chairman of the

Howard Hughes Medical Institute’s medical advisory committee. Verne H Mason served his country in World War II with the 451st Bombardment Group 726th Squadron Army Air Corps

Marilin in Seattle 1953



This candid shot of Marilyn Monroe was taken during a visit to the Seattle Post-Intelligencer offices on July 30, 1953. It wasn’t published at that time and didn’t appear in the P-I until April 2000, upon opening of an exhibit of historic P-I photos at the Museum of History and Industry. Handwritten on sleeve: Monroe, Marilyn; Films.

Nikita Khrushchev retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

On 5 March 1953, Stalin’s death triggered a power struggle in which Khrushchev emerged victorious upon consolidating his authority as First Secretary of the party’s Central Committee. On 25 February 1956, at the 20th Party Congress, he delivered the “Secret Speech”, which denounced Stalin’s purges and ushered in a less repressive era in the Soviet Union. His domestic policies, aimed at bettering the lives of ordinary citizens, were often ineffective, especially in agriculture. Hoping eventually to rely on missiles for national defense, Khrushchev ordered major cuts in conventional forces. Despite the cuts, Khrushchev’s time in office saw the tensest years of the Cold War, culminating in the Cuban Missile Crisis.

Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev[a] (15 April [O.S. 3 April] 1894 - 11 September 1971) served as the First Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union from 1953 to 1964 and as chairman of the country’s Council of Ministers from 1958 to 1964. During his rule, Khrushchev stunned the communist world with his denunciation of Stalin’s crimes, and embarked on a policy of de-Stalinization with his key ally Anastas Mikoyan. He sponsored the early Soviet space program, and enactment of relatively liberal reforms in domestic policy. After some false starts, and a narrowly avoided nuclear war over Cuba, he conducted successful negotiations with the United States to reduce Cold War tensions. His proclivity toward recklessness led the Kremlin leadership to strip him of power, replacing him with Leonid Brezhnev as First Secretary and Alexei Kosygin as Premier.

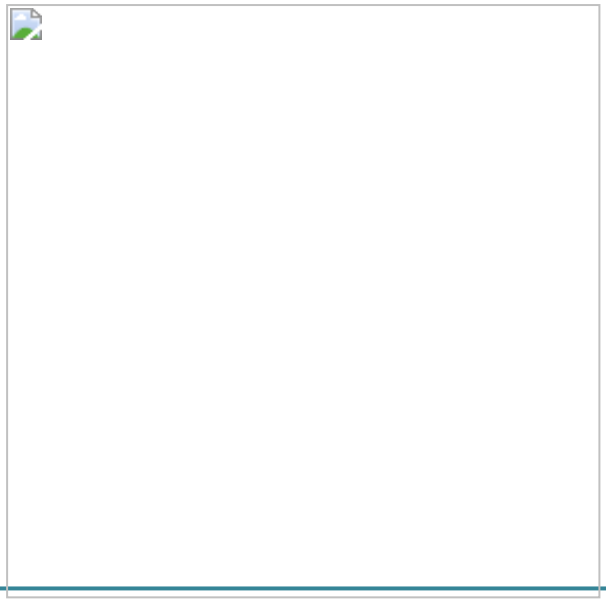
Marylin Monroe dies AUGUST 4 1962 on what will be alleged to be Barrack Obama Jr.s 1 year birthday and the August 4 1961 Life Magazine White House Nursery issue

“Happy Birthday Mr. PResident”



Life Magazine for November 24, 1961, “In the White House Nursery”

For NOVEMBER 24 1961 White House Nursery looks like Malcom X comments about Ornothology and Chicken Eggs

The Experimental Monkey is in the white house November 23 and the Aug 4 dates is going to be the other birthday available for Barrack Obama JR.

A passable person of dark skin and common appearance for nearly anywhere in the world, Barrack Obama Jr.

Marilyn is murdered before she reports on activities at Expo Seattle 1962 with Kennedys, Windsors, Malcolm “X” [Glorian Donegan “Y”

LIFE
EXCLUSIVE IN THE
WHITE HOUSE
NURSERY
Year-old JFK Jr.
Plays with Gifts from Charles de Gaulle

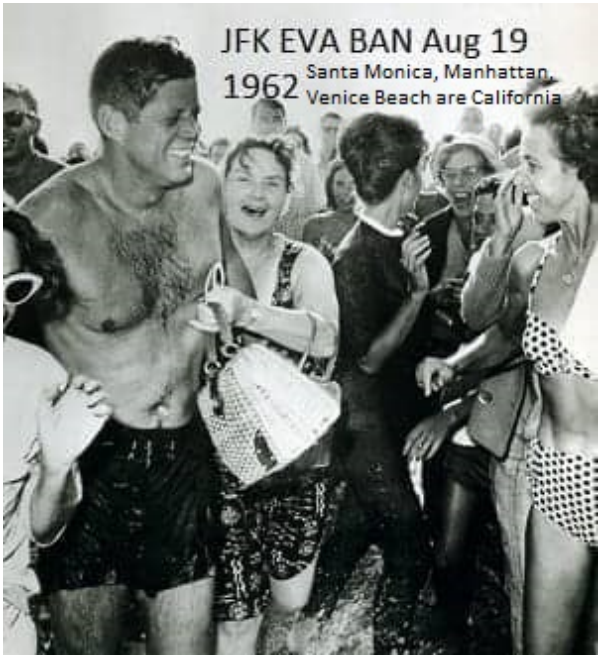
LIFE
'Any dangerous spot is tenable if brave men will make it so'
AUGUST 4 · 1961 ·
AUGUST 4 · 1961 · 20¢
675 × 900

Donald Barr CIA Free Mason with an experimental monkey having a birthday at the White House November 23 1961



Iñupiat retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The Iñupiat (or Inupiat, Iñupiaq or Inupiaq;) are a group of Alaska Natives, whose traditional territory roughly spans northeast from Norton Sound on the Bering Sea to the northernmost part of the Canada-United States border and often claim to be the first people of the Kauwerak. Their current communities include 34 villages across Iñupiat Nunaŋat (Iñupiaq lands) including seven Alaskan villages in the North Slope Borough, affiliated with the Arctic Slope Regional Corporation; eleven villages in Northwest Arctic Borough; and sixteen villages affiliated with the Bering Straits Regional Corporation.

The Aleut (Unangan) and Yupik peoples (Alutiiq/Sugpiaq, “Central” Yup’ik, Siberian Yupik), who live in Alaska and Siberia, are not Inuit, and do not generally identify as such. Nevertheless much of Alaska and the Pacfic Northwest and Atlantic North East are made up of Siberian immigrants who used dogs to travel the icy lands and fend off smaller more aggressive wolves.

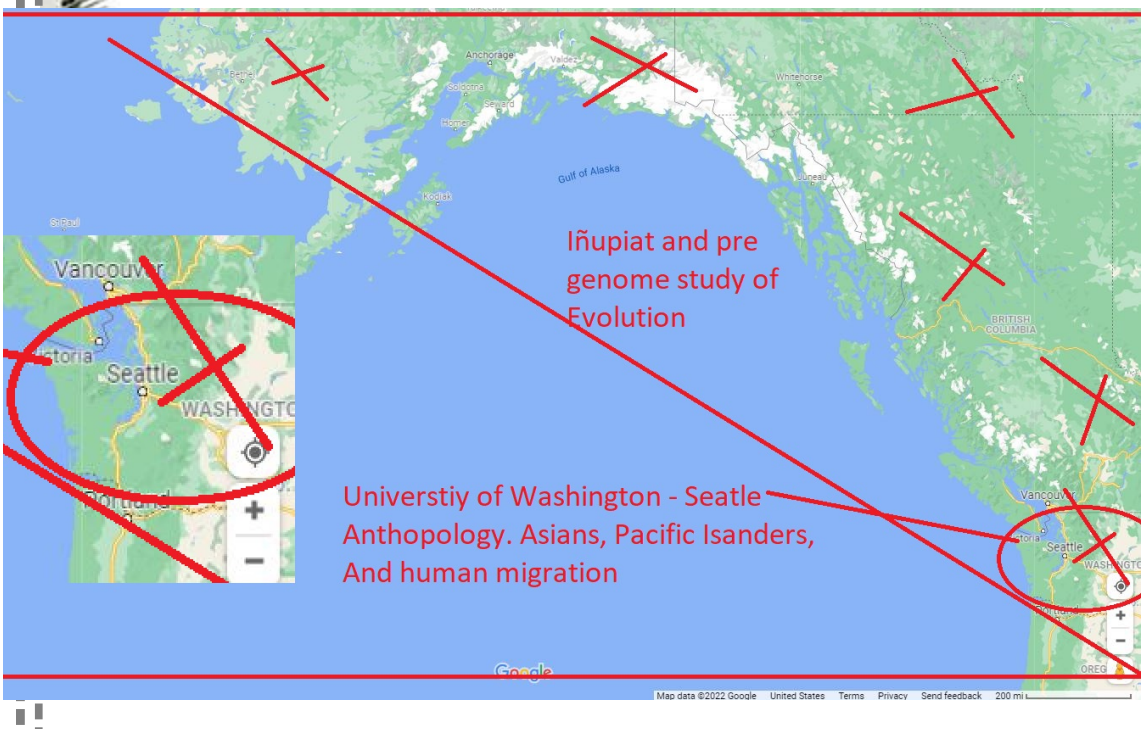
An Itch to great a Islander insert into Indonesia which would be passable in the 20th and 21st Centuries I think was the anthropology plan to creat Barrack Obama Jr. of a suitable mix of genomics.

Sue Gordon is a CIA Zoologist in Trump cabinet full of MKULTRA



Century 21 Exposition retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Donald Barr of the CIA likely with Barrack Obama Jr and Donald Barr with dangerously close access to JFK

The fair was originally conceived at a Washington Athletic Club luncheon in 1955 to mark the 50th anniversary of the 1909 Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, but it soon became clear that that date was too ambitious. With the Space Race underway and Boeing having “put Seattle on the map”[6] as “an aerospace city”,[7] a major theme of the fair was to show that “the United States was not really ‘behind’ the Soviet Union in the realms of science and space”. As a result, the themes of space, science, and the future completely trumped the earlier conception of a “Festival of the [American] West”.

Boeing was founded by William Boeing in Seattle, Washington, on July 15, 1916. The corporate headquarters were moved from Seattle to Chicago in 2001. Stanley Armough Dunham Barrack Obama Jrs white mother (he has a Kenyan born father tied an Anglican school run by the British) was from the Seattle area and may have been blackmailed to be part of the creation of Barrack Obama Jr. by the CIA. THis is one of many real stories that fit the narrative of At Any Price where a person caught in a misdeed is force to work for those who blackmail him.

Stanley Armour Dunham (March 23, 1918 - February 8, 1992) was the maternal grandfather of the 44th U.S. President Barack Obama.

Dunham was born in Wichita, Kansas, the younger of two sons to Ralph Waldo Emerson Dunham, Sr. (December 25, 1894, Sumner County, Kansas - October 4, 1970, Wichita, Kansas) and Ruth Lucille Armour (September 1, 1900, Illinois - November 25, 1926, Wichita, Kansas).[3] His father’s ancestors settled in Kempton, Indiana, in the 1840s, before relocating to Kansas.[4] His parents were married on October 3, 1915, at a home on South Saint Francis St. in Wichita, and opened The Travelers' Cafe on William Street situated between the old firehouse and the old Wichita City Hotel.

A rebellious teenager, Dunham allegedly punched his high school principal and spent some time drifting, hopping rail cars to Chicago, California, and back again. He married Madelyn Lee Payne on May 5, 1940, the night of her senior prom. He is alleged to have been caught by his CIA connected wife Madelyn Lee Payne stealing Boeing B-29 plans for the Nazis and thus he become a patsy (a person blackmailed to cooperate) for the CIA afterward Further Reading. During the war, Madelyn Payne Dunham worked on a Boeing B-29 assembly line in Wichita. Stanley Armour Dunham matches a fictional character in At Any Price. Further Reading

On NOVEMBER 25, 1926, at age 8, Dunham discovered his mother's body after she had committed suicide.

In June 1960, the Bureau International des Expositions (BIE) certified Century 21 as a world's fair.[8] Project manager Ewen Dingwall went to Moscow to request Soviet participation, but was turned down. Neither the People's Republic of China, Vietnam nor North Korea were invited.

The World of Science centered on the United States Science Exhibit. It also included a NASA Exhibit that included models and mockups of various satellites, as well as the Project Mercury capsule that had carried Alan Shepard into space.[29] These exhibits were the federal government's major contribution to the fair.

The United States Science Exhibit began with Charles Eames' 10-minute short film The House of Science, followed by an exhibit on the development of science, ranging from mathematics and astronomy to atomic science and genetics. The Spacearium held up to 750 people at a time for a simulated voyage first through the Solar System and then through the Milky Way Galaxy and beyond. Further exhibits presented the scientific method and the “horizons of science”. This last looked at “Science and the individual”, “Control of man’s physical surroundings”, “Science and the problem of world population”, and “Man’s concept of his place in an increasingly technological world”.

As it happened, the Cold War had an additional effect on the fair. President John F. Kennedy was supposed to attend the closing ceremony of the fair on October 21, 1962. He bowed out, pleading a “heavy cold”; it later became public that he was dealing with the Cuban Missile Crisis.

A potential explanation also exists that JFK and Marilyn Monroe were splitting with the Windsors system of stolen fertilized eggs as the OSS CIA plant to plant Windsor relatives aroudn the world. This may have had Catholic implications as well and I note Marilyn Monroe and Joe Dimagio were married 9 mos, officially excommunicated for the divorce afterwords, but I wonder if she gave a Catholic child into this plan with the Church arranging it.

THis missle crisis was in full swing during the Expo as were racial problems. In August 1962 the CIA OSS DOD Windsors may have had the ear of JFK but I think Marilyn Monroe then JFK then RFK decided to jump ship from the whole program and even reveal it.

MAFIA MURDER OF MARILYN MONROE retrieved from Youtube and copied or modified to here

hello my name is Bill Charles I am a general surgeon in Oklahoma City semi-retired and I wanted to talk about the Mafia murder of Mary Monroe I believe this information is probably generally known among a small group of people and maybe in a hundred years the government and others will come forward and say okay we're going to tell you what happened but until it happens I'm gonna give my best explanation.

there are two anecdotes that I have from people that I've known that have shed light on some of this situation the first is a FBI retired agent named Robert Fitzpatrick (Born: 2 JULy 1937, San Antonio, Texas Died: 23 October 2010, Los Angeles, Ca.) he worked with Bobby Kennedy and John Kennedy in Washington DC and he had an interesting story to tell John Kennedy would on occasion sneak out of the White House without the Secret Service knowing it and he would sneak out in the back seat of a senator's car or some other such way to get out and visit one of his girlfriend's houses and what would happen is that J. Edgar Hoover went ahead and bugged all the girlfriend's houses that JFK would frequent and when they would hear noise at one of the houses the FBI would call the Secret Service and say we got to tell you where John Kennedy is he over at such-and-such address and the Secret Service would would rush over with the nuclear football which had all the launch codes you know for the ICBMs in case of a sneak attack from Russia in those days and the it was so sort of embarrassing for the Secret Service but what this really tells you is that John Kennedy's girlfriend's houses most likely including Marilyn Monroe were in fact bugged by J Edgar Hoover who were in the FBI because they want they had to keep tabs where John Kennedy was so they could get the nuclear football to .

the second person atlanta group that I have is related to my Greek family extended Greek family in Chicago the story goes that a 18 year old girl named Eugenia

Pappas (Eugenia Pappas DECEMBER 18, 1954 - September 19, 2021 (66 years old) Chicago, Illinois) was an attractive Greek girl who was a hairstylist in distant a relative in the Greek family and she befriended a man named Frank schweiz SCH WI HS and French twice it turns out was in the Mafia but Eugenia dated him and relates to the story of traveling from kawaki airport a group of hitmen that flew to Los Angeles on the morning of August the 4th the day that Marilyn Monroe died the hitmen went to a a party and then they left the party and then they came back after a while and then the next day they flew back to Chicago Eugenia relates later after she broke up with Frank's why's that that this was a hit on Marilyn Monroe on orders from Sam Giancana.

now subsequently eugenia Pappas was killed and was found in the Chicago River several months later and many of the people that had been involved with the Marilyn Monroe murder were sworn to secrecy including a Jean Carmen (Jeanne Laverne Carmen was an American model, actress and trick-shot golfer. Wikipedia Born: AUGUST 4, 1930, Paragould, AR Died: December 20, 2007, Irvine, CA)who was one of Marilyn's girlfriends.

Jean Carmen later wrote a book called my wild wild life and Jean Carmen went into hiding for 16 years until Sam Giancana died was killed and then came out of hiding and tells her story of the Mafia involvement in the murder of Marilyn Monroe a couple of other anecdotes that were in the newspaper and well-known.

recently Marilyn Monroe's house in Brentwood was sold and the couple that bought at dinner renovation they knocked out some of the walls and they found within the walls hundreds of feet of wire that didn't connect to any electric outlets or anything else and that most likely were involved with wiretapping and prior to Marilyn moving into her house and which was only ten minutes away from Peter Lawford's beach house where the Kennedys were frequent Marilyn had the house renovated it's very possible at that time that the wires weren't certain in the walls and the house was bugged two of the men that were involved in wiretapping for J. Edgar Hoover and also sometimes for Jimmy Hoffa were Fredo Tash and Bernard spindle so it's fairly common knowledge that Marilyn's house was bugged Marilyn even knew that her house was bugged.

and what sometimes go down the stream and use a payphone and also they said that Peter Lawford at his beach house when at times go down to a payphone because he was suspicious that his house was bugged as well one other piece of information that I think is interesting is in the book by Sam and Chuck Giancana involving the Marilyn Monroe murder they mentioned that a suppository was concocted by university chemist that had Nembutal and chlorohydrate and that this suppository was a part of the CIA mafia plan to kill Fidel Castro and that the Mafia had this supposed to be available and had used it on some of their own victims and verified that indeed it did work in fact they found that with Marilyn Monroe she had 15 times the fatal level of chloral hydrate and Nembutal in her bloodstream that time she died.

and this had in my opinion been most likely from a suppository you couldn't get that many pills down somebody's stomach and get that high of a drug level also a gene karma relates that Marilyn had called her the night that she died and asked for sleeping pills because she was out of sleeping pills Jean Carmen declined and said I don't have any either but it's interesting that here Marilyn was out of sleeping pills and yet she’s been accused of taking an overdose of sleeping pills less than an hour after she had called Jean Carmen so it’s

… Video continues for one hour more.

And I want to say Robertg Kennedy was one of our greaterst Attorney Generals.

Norma Jean was analogous to Julie Andrews, but drawn to the Roman Catholic, French Cathlolic, and Suave Italian Dimaggio

Joe DiMaggio was raised a Catholic in the staunch Italian American tradion of the early part of the twentieth century. The Catholic Church did not recognize divorce-people remained married in the eyes of God til the end of time.

MARLIN MONROE WAS BORN NORAM JEAN OUT OF WEDLOCK WINDSOR

Born Norma Jeane Mortenson[a] June 1, 1926 Los Angeles, California, U.S. Died August 4, 1962 (aged 36) Los Angeles, California, U.S

THE PRINCE AND THE SHOWGIRL A 1957 ROMANTIC COMEDY FILM STARRING MARILYN MONROE AND LAURENCE OLIVIER.

ONe of many 1957 or so versions of blends of fiction and reality of “the Prince and the Singer” affair story lines. She and Julie Ansdrews star in them and she and Julie Andrews seem to have King Edward VIII as a secret uknown amazing parent.

The film is set in London in June 1911. George V will be crowned king on 22 June and in the preceding days many important dignitaries arrive. Among those arriving are the 16-year-old King Nicholas VIII of the (fictional) Balkan country of Carpathia, with his father the widower Prince Regent,

The British government decide that keeping Carpathia in the Triple Entente is critical during the rising tensions in Europe. They find it necessary to pamper the royals during their stay in London, and thus civil servant Northbrook is detached to their service. Northbrook decides to take the Prince Regent out to the musical performance The Coconut Girl. During the intermission, the Prince Regent is taken backstage to meet the cast. He is not particularly interested in engaging with the male actors but extremely interested in the physical charms of Elsie Marina, one of the performers, and he sends a formal invitation for her to meet him at the Carpathian embassy for supper.

The two eventually kiss and Elsie admits she may be falling in love, rebuffing Northbrook's promised feint to help her leave the embassy. Elsie then passes out from the many drinks she consumed before, during and after her semi-solitary supper. The Prince places her in an adjoining bedroom to stay the night.

The following day, Elsie overhears a conversation concerning the young Nicolas' plotting with the German embassy to overthrow his father.

CONNECTED TO LAWFORD SHRIVER SCHWARZENEGGER

The creation of a boy named Barrack Barry Hussein Obama Jr i a secret brain study

SHE LOVES JFK AND RFK BUT THE MOB WHICH MOVED IN FROM CHICAGO TO PALM SPRINGS AND NEVADA IS ALSO CONNECTED TO THE LAWFORDS AND OTHER POWERFULL BRITISH FIGURES.

It is believed Sam Giacana or his men killed her at the Cal Neva ldoge as she and Joe Dimagio were planning a press conference

HER ACTIVITIES INCLUDED FRANTIC CONTACTS WITH ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Robert F. Kennedy and John F. Kennedy were ANTI mob and Anti East India Tea Company brutal oppression of colonies yet her Sinatra freinds (unike Joe Dimagio) were mob connected

SHE WAS GANGSTALKED AND FORCED INTO MENTAL HOSPITALS PRIOR TO HER DEATH

The CIA NSA FBI were trying to limit public attention to and harm public perceptions of those who could or would out the program that was grooming secretly leaders who would be adored and not connected to the mental health patients being gangstalked.

She likely knew as my familiy seemed to the dark side of the Sound of Music. Windsors being out of wedlock fathers in not too serious a problem. Windsors using out of Wedlock to research Minimal Brain Dysfunction is a probleml for Windsor and out of wedlock children including sleeper agents via the neice of a Gestaop General is somewhate problematic.

Where have you gone, Joe DiMaggio? Check the pews at St. Patrick's. retrieved from [The Deacon's Bench By deacon greg kandra] and copied or modified to here

Few people knew how devout a Catholic he was," DiMaggio's longtime friend Dr. Rock Positano tells Page Six. "But he was essentially banned from the church after his divorce from Dorothy Arnold. And he was scolded by Bishop Fulton Sheen for marrying Marilyn Monroe. Sheen told Joe after the marriage dissolved, 'You had no right marrying her in the first place.'

"DiMaggio told Sheen where to go and scolded him that he had no right to tell him who to marry and never spoke to the bishop again," Positano says. "But despite that bitterness, Joe never left or turned his back on the Church. He loved to celebrate in St. Patrick's Cathedral and felt this place was more sacred than the Vatican."

DiMaggio thought people wouldn't recognize him when he quietly entered through the cathedral's discreet 51st Street door in sunglasses. But "one day he was recognized, and after a shout-out by John Cardinal O'Connor, he was given a rousing applause in the middle of Mass by all the parishioners," Positano recalls. "I quipped to him, 'Nice disguise, Joe, you really fooled them.' "

Another time at Mass, as parishioners turned to each other to offer a sign of peace, he extended his hand to a man who sat at his left. "The man said, 'Mr. DiMaggio, may the peace of Christ be with you,' and then immediately added, 'Would you mind signing this picture for me?' "

Where have you gone Joe Dimagio Simon and Garfunkle retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

St. Ferdinand, St. Gregory & Holy Redeemer YouTUbe video there are no blacksheep sermon below

I want to continue that idea of Jesus the Good Shepherd there was a song by Simon & Garfunkel years ago called mrs. Robinson and this is how it ended

> Mrs. Robinson
>
> American music duo Simon & Garfunkel from their fourth studio album, Bookends (1968). The song was released as a single on April 5, 1968, by Columbia Records. ***
>
> Where have you gone Joe DiMaggio a nation turns his lonely eyes to you what's that you say mrs. Robinson joltin Joe has left and gone away hey hey hey
>
> Where have you gone Joe DiMaggio a nation turns his lonely eyes to you what's that you say mrs. Robinson joltin Joe has left and gone away hey hey hey

Giuseppe Paolo DiMaggio was born in 1914 in San Francisco his father had come here through Ellis Island and worked his way across the country raising enough money to bring his family over and Giuseppe Paolo DiMaggio was one of eight children and his father was a fisherman in San Francisco and he expected his four boys to help him in the business but Joe DiMaggio hated the smell of fish he said it made him sick and he hated every night he had to clean the boat with his father when he came home from fishing all he wanted to do was play baseball and play baseball he did

at the age of 17 playing for the San Francisco seals he hit he had a hit in 61 straight games he went on to be the great Joe DiMaggio one of the greatest ballplayers of all time he once had a hit in 56 straight games of feat that will never be met Bement he married Marilyn Monroe he died a multi multimillionaire but for a while his father was so disappointed in him because he didn't like fishing he said you'll never be any good he thought that playing baseball was frivolous a waste of time he said you'll never make any money for a while the great Joe DiMaggio was what we call the black sheep.

black sheeps are everywhere they're in all kinds of families maybe you are a black sheep there are people that just don't connect with their families there are people that are sometimes ostracized or not spoken to they're not invited to things they're talked about all the time they're just out there well what Good Shepherd theme of John's Gospel reminds us that in in God's kingdom there is no black sheep maybe there's black sheep out there in our kingdom

She was born Norma Jeane Mortenson in a group of birthdays many have which include Independence Day from England.

Normal Jean respects anti colonial sovereignty rights.

The Monroe Doctrine was a United States policy that opposed European colonialism in the Americas. It argued that any intervention in the politics of the Americas by foreign powers was a potentially hostile act against the United States.[1] It began in 1823; however, the term “Monroe Doctrine” itself was not coined until 1850

After 1898, the Monroe Doctrine was reinterpreted in terms of multilateralism and non-intervention by Latin American lawyers and intellectuals. In 1933, under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the U.S. went along with this new reinterpretation, especially in terms of the Organization of American States.

Marilyn and Joe (and Frank Sinatra and others) knew out of wedlock Windsor and even Kutchera DNA was in the USA, and that this likely should be revealed. To do that however meant future sleeper agents being cooked up like Barrack Obama Jr or Ted Cruz Jr or may hundreds of others would be revealed in a Skyfall.

Marilyn Monroe was an American actress, model and singer. Famous for playing comedic “blonde bombshell” characters, she became one of the most popular sex symbols of the 1950s and early 1960s and was emblematic of the era’s sexual revolution. Wikipedia Born: JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA

Died: AUGUST 4 1962, Brentwood, Los Angeles, CA

Joseph Paul DiMaggio, nicknamed “Joltin’ Joe”, “The Yankee Clipper” and “Joe D.” was an American baseball center fielder who played his entire 13-year career in Major League Baseball for the New York Yankees.Born: NOVEMBER 25, 1914, Martinez, CA Born: November 25, 1914, Martinez, CA From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Why Frank Sinatra Believed Marilyn Monroe Was Murdered: A New Book Reveals retrieved from People.com and copied or modified to here

She [did not sleep with but Frank Sinatra (who feared she would be hurt as only a fling left behind)] did however confide her most intimate secrets including her affairs with John F. Kennedy and Robert F. Kennedy.

When the affairs ended abruptly, he continues, “Marilyn told Frank she didn’t understand why they’d shut her out completely once she stopped having sex with them.”

The weekend before her death, Marilyn Monroe spent time at the famous Cal Neva Lodge, outside of Lake Tahoe, partially owned by Sinatra.

Attorney Milton A “Mickey” Rudin BIRTH 1920 DEATH 13 DEC 1999

As an entertainment lawyer he counted among his clients Lucille Ball and Desilu Productions for 25 years, Warner Brothers for 30 years, Elizabeth Taylor, Norman Lear, Liza Minnelli, and Marilyn Monroe. As Monroe’s lawyer, and brother-in-law to her analyst, he was among the first on the scene at her death. He gained his most prominence from his decades as Frank Sinatra’s spokesman, adviser, friend, and confidant.

Marylin Monroe Born: JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4 1962, Brentwood, Los Angeles, CA

What the world didn’t know, the author reveals, was that she was there to spend time with her ex-husband Joe DiMaggio who was staying nearby and that Maryiln Monroe had decided to make a press announcement the following week that [she and Joe Dimagio] were getting back together.

And he says, “Frank [Sinatra on the Mafia side] believed if the press conference of Dimagio and Marylin hadn’t been announced, she would have lived a lot longer.”

Against the rules of Catholicism Marilyn Monroe and baseball legend Joe DiMaggio wed in 1954 (second marriages for both), and were divorced nine months later. He was only in his 40s when Marilyn died on August 5, 1962, but he never married again.

A MOTIVE KENNEDYS WOULD ORDER MAFIA MURDER

The news of a press conference sparked a rumor that Monroe was going to share details of her relationships with JFK and RFK. But, Oppedisano writes, “Frank said she’d never have spilled about the Kennedys because she still had feelings for [Jack.]”

A MOTIVE THE ANTI KENNEDY MAFIA WOULD HIT MARILYN

Marilyn’s real allegiance was with the class of Joe Dimagio she viewed as a gentlemen who also played baseball. She was leaning Catholic with him towards the Kennedys who were anti mob. Many entertainers like Farah Fawcett deal easily with Hollywood within their own boundreis and values they defend. Vegas was dirty with murders, etc., and she had access to see that world.

Within days of Monroe's death, he writes, Sinatra's attorney Mickey Rudin, who also worked with Monroe, told him that the actress had been killed. It was a rumor also circulating among Mob Boss Sam Giancana's men, some of whom claimed involvement. According to the book, Sinatra had several sources who told him the same story: "She'd been murdered with a Nembutal suppository and Robert Kennedy or the Mob was involved."

One step across the Cal Neva border will do you for gambling and marrying. Is a Vegas wedding legally binding? Easy too Google.

Sam Giancana and the CIA Family Jewels retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Giancana was murdered on June 19, 1975, in Oak Park, Illinois, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee.

Samuel Mooney Giancana May 24, 1908[nb 2] - June 19, 1975) was an American mobster who was boss of the Chicago Outfit from 1957 to 1966. He was shot and killed hours before he would have testified before the Church Committee on CIA Behavioral Research abuses

Giancana was born in Chicago to Italian immigrant parents. He joined the 42 Gang as a teenager, developing a reputation in organized crime which gained him the notice of Chicago Outfit leaders. During the late 1930s, Giancana joined the Chicago Outfit. From the 1940s through the 1950s, he controlled the illegal gambling, illegal liquor distribution, and political rackets in Louisiana. In the early 1940s, Giancana was involved in Chicago's African-American lottery payout system for the Outfit. In 1957, Giancana became the boss of the Chicago Outfit.

According to some sources, Giancana and the Mafia were involved in John F. Kennedy's victory in the 1960 presidential election. During the 1960s, he was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in a plot to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro. Conspiracy theorists consider Giancana along with Mafia leaders Santo Trafficante Jr. and Carlos Marcello associated with the assassination of Kennedy. In 1965, Giancana was convicted of contempt of court, serving one year in prison. After his release from prison, Giancana fled to Cuernavaca, Mexico. In 1974, he was deported to the United States, returning to Chicago. Giancana was murdered on June 19, 1975, in Oak Park, Illinois, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee.

After Giancana's return to the United States, police detailed officers to guard his house in Oak Park, Illinois, but on the night of June 19, 1975, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee,[37] which was investigating CIA and Cosa Nostra collusion,[38] a gunman entered the home through the basement and shot Giancana in the head and neck seven times with a .22 caliber pistol. At around 11 p.m., Joseph DiPersio, Giancana's caretaker, found his body on the floor of the basement kitchen where he was said to be frying sausage and peppers.[39][40] A week before his death, Giancana had gall bladder surgery in Houston.[39] Giancana was interred next to his wife, Angeline, in a family mausoleum at Mount Carmel Cemetery, in Hillside, Illinois.

According to the declassified CIA “Family Jewels” documents, Giancana and Trafficante were contacted in September 1960 about the possibility of an assassination attempt by Maheu after Maheu had contacted Roselli, a Mafia member in Las Vegas and Giancana’s number-two man. Maheu had presented himself as a representative of numerous international businesses in Cuba that Castro was expropriating. He offered $150,000 for the “removal” of Castro through this operation (the documents suggest that neither Roselli, Giancana, nor Trafficante accepted any payment for the job). Giancana suggested using poison pills to dose Castro’s food and drink. CIA gave these pills to Giancana’s nominee, Juan Orta, whom Giancana presented as a corrupt official in the new Cuban government and who had access to Castro. After six attempts to introduce the poison into Castro’s food, Orta abruptly demanded to be relieved from the mission, giving the job to another, unnamed participant. Later, Giancana and Trafficante made a second attempt using Anthony Verona, the commander of the Cuban Exile Junta, who had, according to Trafficante, become “disaffected with the apparent ineffectual progress of the Junta”. Verona requested $10,000 in expenses and $1,000 worth of communications equipment. How much work was performed for the second attempt is unknown, as the entire program was canceled soon thereafter due to the Bay of Pigs invasion in April 1961.

According to the “Family Jewels”, Giancana asked Maheu to wire the room of his then mistress Phyllis McGuire, singer of the McGuire Sisters, whom he suspected of having an affair with comedian Dan Rowan. Although documents suggest Maheu acquiesced, the device was not planted due to the arrest of the agent who had been tasked with planting it. According to the documents, Robert F. Kennedy prohibited the prosecution of the agent and of Maheu, who was soon linked to the wire attempt, at CIA's request.

Giancana and McGuire, who had a long-lasting affair, were originally introduced by Frank Sinatra.[30] According to Antoinette Giancana, during part of the affair, McGuire had a concurrent affair with President Kennedy.

CIA side-car Behavioral Research

CIA NSA USPHS FBI study FOXP2 Syndrome outside of Windsor name
Windors		Does Syndrome show?		World Sovereigns
Out of Wedlock Windors	FOXP2 Syndrome Shows	No	Grromed Sleeper Agent (Barrack Obama Jr,)	~~Original Sovereign~~ Groomed Planted Leader
		Yes	Harrased in life by CIA NSA called stupid, bipolar, etc., mis-diagnosed and	Unrecognized person contained into custody or very low profile very low performing homeless (Edward Paul Donegan)

Psych Ward Robert F. Kennedy

I will be expanding the RFK sections of this book over the next two or three weeks but I want to provide an over view I am sure will not change much.

Robert F. Kennedy was a lawyer who was deeply opposed to Labour Racket businesses (those that manufacture a need for themselves, then fill the need with their services) mob activities, mob profits, mob victims, and mob interference with policing dating back to prohibition and the Al Capone days.

The mob would ultimately cost him his own brother John F. Kennedy he was likely deeply closelty connected to during thier journey together.

RFK had a hard time reigning in the oil business, Teamseters, or any other activity including disagreement in the ranks with the DOJ utilized the mob against Castro.

RFK had mobster relatives through Peter Lawford but RFK wanted division between crime and government and crime and private business.

The Illuminati Free Mason families and their connection to Union Busting and other events such as that which the first FBI director was born out of is part of Irish history too as poor Irish attempted to form unions to fight the WASPs only to meet up with Pinkerton private policing, etc., or FBI dirty tricks because the FBI had been a tool of big business.

I have found the FBI is not political, it is for profit and has a history of backing CIA and politician backed NWO companies like Business International Corporation or others so USA interests can prosper and be advanced in foreign nations.

I think RFK's desire to play things straight and fight the mafia George H.W. Bush and others were building was the conflict he was killed over.

Richard J. Daley retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Richard Joseph Daley (May 15, 1902 - December 20, 1976) was an American politician who served as the Mayor of Chicago from 1955 and the chairman of the Cook County Democratic Party Central Committee from 1953 until his death. He has been called "the last of the big city bosses" who controlled and mobilized American cities.[1] Daley was Chicago's third consecutive mayor from the working-class, heavily Irish-American South Side neighborhood of Bridgeport, where he lived his entire life. He was the patriarch of the Daley family, whose members include Richard M. Daley, another former mayor of Chicago; William M. Daley, a former United States Secretary of Commerce; John P. Daley, a member of the Cook County Board of Commissioners; and Patrick Daley Thompson, an alderman of the Chicago City Council.

Richard J. Daley in 1962

48th Mayor of Chicago In office April 20, 1955 - December 20, 1976 Preceded by Martin H. Kennelly Succeeded by Michael Bilan

Daley is remembered for doing much to save Chicago from the declines that other rust belt cities such as Cleveland, Buffalo, and Detroit experienced during the same period. He had a strong base of support in Chicago's Irish Catholic community and was treated by national politicians such as Lyndon B. Johnson as a pre-eminent Irish-American, with special connections to the Kennedy family. Daley played a major role in the history of the Democratic Party, especially with his support of John F. Kennedy in the presidential election of 1960 and of Hubert Humphrey in the presidential election of 1968. He would be the longest-serving mayor in Chicago history until his record was broken by his son Richard M. Daley in 2011.

On the other hand, Daley's legacy is complicated by criticisms of his response to the Chicago riots that followed the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr. and his handling of the notorious 1968 Democratic National Convention that happened in his city. He also had enemies within the Democratic Party. In addition, many members of Daley's administration were charged and convicted for corruption, although Daley himself was never charged with any crime.

RFK JFK versus Mafia George Bush Donald Barr J Edgar Hoover and other 33s La Cosa Nostra

Teamsters

International Brotherhood of Teamsters retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The union, like most unions within the American Federation of Labor (AFL) at the time, had a largely decentralized structure, with a number of local unions that governed themselves autonomously and tended to look only after their own interests in the geographical jurisdiction in which they operated.[9][10][11] The teamsters were vitally important to the labor movement, for a strike or sympathy strike by the teamsters could paralyze the movement of goods throughout a city and bring a strike into nearly every neighborhood.[5] It also meant that teamsters leaders were able to demand bribes in order to avoid strikes, and control of a teamsters local could bring organized crime significant revenues. During Shea's presidency, the entire teamsters union was notoriously corrupt.

Influence of organized crime

Beck was elected to the Executive Council of the AFL on August 13, 1953, but his election generated a tremendous political battle between AFL President George Meany, who supported his election, and federation vice presidents who felt Beck was corrupt and should not be elected to the post.[56][57] Beck was the first Teamster president to negotiate a nationwide master contract and a national grievance arbitration plan,[58] established organizing drives in the Deep South[59] and the East,[60] and built the current Teamsters headquarters (the "Marble Palace") in Washington, D.C. on Louisiana Avenue NW (across a small plaza from the United States Senate).

But his intervention in a construction and a milk strike (both centered on New York City), and refusal to intervene in a Northeastern trucking strike created major political problems for him.[62] Perceiving Beck to be weak, Jimmy Hoffa began challenging Beck on various union decisions and policies in 1956 with an eye to unseating him as General President in the regularly scheduled union elections in 1957.

Infiltration by organized crime dominated the agenda of the Teamsters throughout the 1950s. The Teamsters had suffered from extensive corruption since its formation in 1903.

Although the more extreme, public forms of corruption had been eliminated after General President Cornelius Shea was removed from office, the extent of corruption and control by organized crime increased during General President Tobin's time in office (1907 to 1952).

In 1929, the Teamsters and unions in Chicago even approached gangster Roger Touhy and asked for his protection from Al Capone and his Chicago Outfit, which were seeking to control the area's unions.

Evidence of widespread corruption within the Teamsters began emerging shortly after Tobin retired.[66] In Kansas City, corrupt Teamsters locals spent years seeking bribes, embezzling money, and engaging in extensive extortion and labor rackets as well as beatings, vandalism and even bombings in an attempt to control the construction and trucking industries.[22][67] The problem was so serious that the U.S. House of Representatives held hearings on the issue.

Hoffa's attempt to challenge Beck caused a major national scandal which led to two Congressional investigations, several indictments for fraud and other crimes against Beck and Hoffa, strict new federal legislation and regulations regarding labor unions, and even helped launch the political career of Robert F. Kennedy.

In 1920,J Edgar Hoover was initiated at D.C.'s Federal Lodge No. 1 in Washington D.C., becoming a Free Mason at the age of 25, becoming a 33rd Degree Inspector General Honorary in 1955.

Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation In office May 10, 1924 - May 2, 1972

During the 1930s, Hoover persistently denied the existence of organized crime, despite numerous gangland shootings as Mafia groups struggled for control of the lucrative profits deriving from illegal alcohol sales during Prohibition, and later for control of prostitution, illegal drugs and other criminal enterprises.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

My belief is 33s like Donald Barr, Goerge H.W. Bush, and others viewed the Mafia from Chicago as allies, as muscle, as Propoganda Due, as Vatican backed covert dirty operations in places like Latin America where Socialist, Nattionalists, or Communists blocked the door to various busneness and countries from getting in.

This RFK versus the Mafia bifurcation will be present in Bay of Pigs and the Oil Barrell and Defense Department interest in the elimination of Castro.

Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev[a] (15 April [O.S. 3 April] 1894 - 11 September 1971) served as the First Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union from 1953 to 1964 and as chairman of the country's Council of Ministers from 1958 to 1964. During his rule, Khrushchev stunned the communist world with his denunciation of Stalin's crimes, and embarked on a policy of de-

Stalinization with his key ally Anastas Mikoyan. He sponsored the early Soviet space program, and enactment of relatively liberal reforms in domestic policy. After some false starts, and a narrowly avoided nuclear war over Cuba, he conducted successful negotiations with the United States to reduce Cold War tensions. His proclivity toward recklessness led the Kremlin leadership to strip him of power, replacing him with Leonid Brezhnev as First Secretary and Alexei Kosygin as Premier.

Paul G. Allen (1953-2018) Microsoft co-founder who established the Allen Institute for Brain Science. Seatle Washington.

In 1983 he withdrew from day-to-day involvement in the company to deal with early stage Hodgkin's lymphoma (although he remained on the board until 2000). This close encounter with death and his wealth freed him to pursue passions seeded in his youth - music, sports, the environment, science fiction, space travel and science.

Paul was attracted to the vast complexity of biology. He was intrigued by how the 3.2 billion nucleotide letters arrayed as strands of DNA in a single fertilized egg give rise to the 30 trillion cells that make up a human. In March 2002, after the success of the Human Genome Project, Paul convened meetings with geneticist James Watson and others to focus on a big biology project of his own. Nature.com

This book

How amphetamine acts in minimal brain dysfunction

Ann N Y Acad Sci. 1973 Feb 28;205:310-20. doi: 10.1111/j.1749-6632.1973.tb43188.x. How amphetamine acts in minimal brain dysfunction S H Snyder, J L Meyerhoff PMID: 4570236 DOI: 10.1111/j.1749-6632.1973.tb43188.x

No abstract available Similar articles Gilles de la Tourette’s disease and minimal brain dysfunction: amphetamine isomers reveal catecholamine correlates in an affected patient. Meyerhoff JL, Snyder SH. Psychopharmacologia. 1973;29(3):211-20. doi: 10.1007/BF00414035. PMID: 4512896 No abstract available.

Some copied related terms, some omitted

- Amphetamine / therapeutic use*
- Attention Deficit Disorder with Hyperactivity / drug therapy*
- Attention Deficit Disorder with Hyperactivity / metabolism
- Catecholamines / metabolism*
- Child Behavior / drug effects
- Dextroamphetamine / therapeutic use
- Norepinephrine / metabolism

Minimal Brain Dysfunction is under stimulation (or under available of brain metabolic function do to poor organinci neortransmitters in teh brain such as Dopamaine for which Dysoxin (Crystam MEthamphetamine) or other amphetamines serve as an working analogy.

Dr CHarney told me ADHD which is included in Miniam Brain Dysfunction results from an turntable stule tone arm to lightly pressured thus it bounces between the grooves rather than stick with one. The focus on the current groove improves with brain (Executive area) stimulation.

:Too much focus gets the needle stuck and is over focus also called a Tweek.

In the early 1960s, amphetamines were still widely accepted as innocuous medications. Apart from vast numbers of middle-aged, middle-class patients receiving low-dose prescriptions from family doctors to help them cope with their daily “duties,” in much the same way that their doctors prescribed minor tranquilizers,61 a significant quasi-medical gray market in amphetamines had developed. For instance, for his painful war injuries and also to help maintain his image of youthful vigor, President John F. Kennedy received regular injections containing around 15 mg of methamphetamine, together with vitamins and hormones, from a German-trained physician named Max Jacobson

Ralph Greenson retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Ralph R. Greenson (born Romeo Samuel Greenschpoon, September 20, 1911 - November 24, 1979) was a prominent American psychiatrist and psychoanalyst. Greenson is famous for being Marilyn Monroe’s psychiatrist, and was the basis for Leo Rosten’s 1963 novel, Captain Newman, M.D. The book was later made into a movie starring Gregory Peck as Greenson’s character. There has been much conjecture, by investigating officers, press and the public, about Greenson’s involvement in a possible cover-up concerning the circumstances of Monroe’s death.

Greenson was well known for his early work on returning WWII soldiers suffering from Post Traumatic Stress. He also had other famous clients, such as Tony Curtis, Frank Sinatra, and Vivien Leigh. Greenson and his wife, Hildi Greenson, were the darlings of the Southern California psychoanalytic community, intellectuals and with certain notables in the entertainment industry. They were good friends with Anna Freud, Fawn Brodie and Margaret Mead.

> Marilyn Monroe - Dr Ralph Greenson in secretly taped phone conversation
>
> Marilyn Monroe Video Archives 179K Youtube subscribers *
>
> I can't explain myself or defend myseelf without revealing things I don't want to reveal … you can't draw a line and say I'll tell you that … its a terrible position to be in to have to say I can't talk about it because I can't tell the whole story … Listen, talk to Bobby Kennedy.

Dear Dr. Greenson I hope all of your roses are in bloom today including the blackest red ones. Happy anniversary to you and Mr. Greenson. - Marilyn." Dr. Greenson will encourage Marylin to sever some certain contacts, unkwon which ones.

Dr Greesone was a fan of Sigmund Frued and theraputic cocaine. One little known fact about Freud was his 10-year addiction to cocaine. (although some claim he wasn't).He believed it was a miracle drug that broadened people's thinking (I'll say) and he prescribed it to many of his female patients, overlooking or perhaps not noticing the many negative side effects of the drug. Marilyn Forever https://marilyn4ever.wordpress.com/ *

Dr. Max Jacobson retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Dr. Max Jacobson (3 JULY 1900 - 17 December 1979) graduate of Friedrich Wilhelm University (also known as Humboldt University of Berlin) in 1925 the same years as the fame of the Wembley Stadium British Imperialism Speech Defect.

I Edward Donegan notice on the list of Dr. Max Jacobson “Dr Feelgood” (3 JULY 1900 - 17 December 1979) the following

- John F. Kennedy

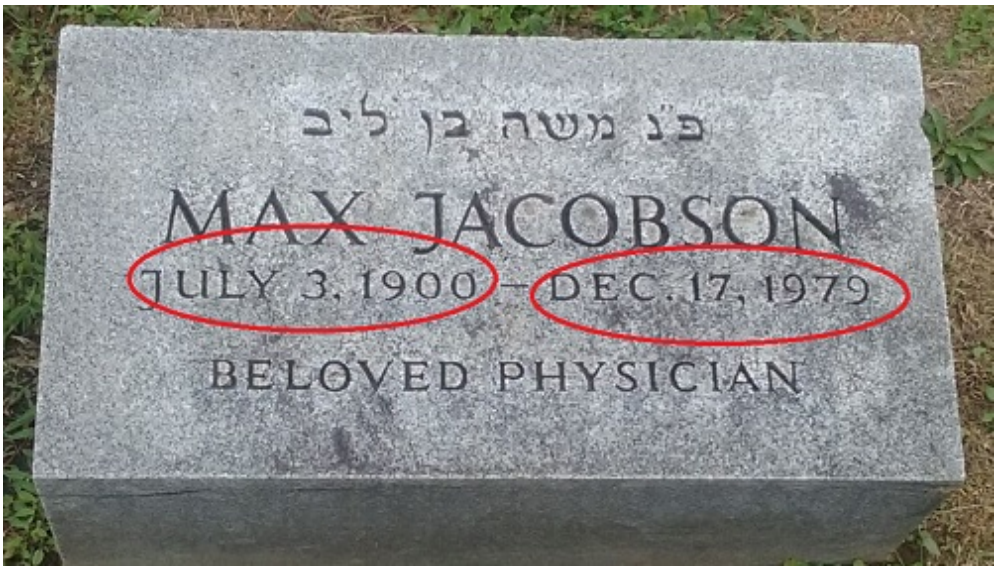
Oct. 16, 1957 - The famous American film director Cecil B. De Mille

- Nelson Rockefeller “Rocky” JULY 8, 1908 - January 26, 1979)
- Marilyn Monroe JUNE 1, 1926 - AUGUST 4, 1962)

Note that Rockefeller is tied to Rockefeller Psychiatrity, the Nixon and many other administrations, and political office.

accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Harper, and Dr. Max Jacobson have been received today by Pope Pius XII at his Summer residence in Castelgandolfo *.

Dr. Max Jacobson was a German physician and medical researcher who treated numerous high-profile clients in America, including President John F. Kennedy. Jacobson came to be known as “Miracle Max” and “Dr. Feelgood,” because he administered highly addictive “vitamin shots” laced with various substances that included amphetamine and methamphetamine.



Dubbed “Dr. Feelgood,” Jacobson was known for his “miracle tissue regenerator” shots, which consisted of amphetamines, animal hormones, bone marrow, enzymes, human placenta, painkillers, steroids, and multivitamins.

In September 1960, then-Senator John F. Kennedy first visited Jacobson shortly before the 1960 presidential election debates.[9][10] Jacobson was part of the presidential entourage at the Vienna summit in 1961, where he administered injections to combat severe back pain. Some of the potential side effects included hyperactivity, impaired judgment, nervousness, and wild mood swings. [I Edward Donegan dispute this, was Hyperactivity morbid and being treated by the amphetamines?

This book

Marilyn Monroe JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4, 1962 was going to be a Revealer

James Angleton searched Marilyn Monroe's apartment he stated hoping to find her diary.

James Angleton: CIA OSS Vatican Mossad QEII Kill Marilyn

From Idaho USA to Italy/Vatican in WWII OSS to London back to the USA for the Israeli Desk. Maria August Kutschera rescuer?

James Jesus Angleton retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

During World War II Angleton served in the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and led its branch in Italy.[1] He served under Norman Holmes Pearson in the counter-intelligence branch (X-2) of the Office of Strategic Services in London, where he met the famous double agent Kim Philby. Angleton was chief of the Italy desk for X-2 in London by February 1944 and in November was transferred to Italy as commander of SCI [Secret Counterintelligence] Unit Z, which handled Ultra intelligence based on the British intercepts of German radio communications [likely in conjunction with Princeton University and Bletchley Park].

In 1954 Allen Dulles, who had recently become Director of Central Intelligence, named Angleton chief of the Counterintelligence Staff,[1] a position that Angleton retained for the rest of his CIA career. Dulles also assigned Angleton responsibility for coordination with allied intelligence services. In general, Angleton's career at the CIA can be divided into three areas of responsibility: foreign intelligence activities, counterintelligence and domestic intelligence activities.

James Jesus Angleton (DECEMBER 9, 1917 - May 11, 1987) was chief of counterintelligence for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) from 1954 to 1974. His official position within the organization was Associate Deputy Director of Operations for Counterintelligence (ADDOCI). Angleton was significantly involved in the US response to the purported KGB defectors Anatoliy Golitsyn and Yuri Nosenko. Angleton later became convinced the CIA harbored a high-ranking mole, and engaged in an intensive search.

The conflict between the "Angletonians" and the "Anti-Angletonians" has played out in the public sphere generally in publications about the mole hunts and, in particular, in regard to two Soviet defectors (among many): Anatoliy Golitsyn and Yuri Nosenko.

Returning to Washington from Italy where he may have worked with the Vatican while working with the Italian Resisatnace, he was employed by the various successor organizations to the OSS, eventually becoming one of the founder-officers of the Central Intelligence Agency in 1947.[1] In May 1949, he was made head of Staff A of the CIA's Office of Special Operations, where he was responsible for the collection of foreign intelligence and liaison with the CIA's counterpart organizations. Beginning in 1951, Angleton was responsible for liaison with Israel's Mossad and Shin Bet agencies, "the Israeli desk", crucial relationships that he managed for the remainder of his career.

Angleton’s counter-intelligence staff undertook a most comprehensive domestic covert surveillance project (called Operation CHAOS) under the direction of President Lyndon Johnson. The prevailing belief at the time was that the anti-war and civil rights movements of the 1960s and 1970s had foreign funding and support. None was found by them, although the Soviet Union did influence the movements (see Soviet influence on the peace movement).

DCI William Colby reorganized the CIA in an effort to curb Angleton’s influence, beginning by stripping him of control over the Israeli “account”, which had the effect of weakening counter-intelligence. Colby then demanded Angleton’s resignation. It has been claimed that Angleton directed CIA assistance to the Israeli nuclear weapons program.

Throughout the 1960s and 1970s Angleton privately accused various foreign leaders of being Soviet spies. He twice informed the Royal Canadian Mounted Police that he believed Prime Minister Lester Pearson and his successor Pierre Trudeau were agents of the Soviet Union. In 1964, under pressure from Angleton, the RCMP detained John Watkins, a close friend of Pearson and formerly Canadian Ambassador to the Soviet Union. Watkins died during interrogation by the RCMP and was subsequently cleared of suspicion.[citation needed] Angleton accused Swedish Prime Minister Olof Palme, West German Chancellor Willy Brandt and British Prime Minister Harold Wilson of using their access to NATO secrets to benefit the USSR.

Albert Einstein Marilyn Monroe most Kennedys and some Donegans and some Windsors and Maria Augusta Von Trapp from the Kutschera side and Arnold

Schwartzenegger: Dysgraphics FOXP2 Syndrom, half of descendants.

I assert the real birthday of Barrack Obama Jr was November 18th 1961 alongside me, Birth Certificate number 022-46-3233 November 1961, and the cover story birthday from the begging was August 4 1961 and the one year mark of that was a staged event with Lawford Shriver team and Marylin Monroe for a while only a while assisting.

The Inglewood Poject is Inglewood Califonnia birthplace but several “alternative meanings” like street names create some ambiguity as a safety measure.

Paul B Zuber invites Black Muslim leader Malcolm X to attend anti-segregation rally, Inglewood, NJ; plans boycott of … AUGUST 5, 1962

Paul B. Zuber (December 20, 1926 - March 6, 1987[1]) was a civil rights attorney who fought against inferior schools for African Americans in New York City’s Harlem neighborhood in 1958 and against segregated schools in New York State, New Jersey, and Chicago during the 1960s. He was the first African American tenured professor at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI).[1] He briefly ran for the Republican nomination in the U.S. presidential campaign of 1964.[2] He was married to illustrator Barbara Zuber. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Minimal Brain Dysfunction is under stimulation (or under available of brain metabolic function do to poor organic neurotransmitters in the brain such as Dopamine for which Dysoxin (Crystal Methamphetamine) or other amphetamines serve as an working analogy. Further Reading

This was a key fact in my long term relationship with my father. It is my belief Minimal Brain Dysfunction includes 20 percent bipolar all the time and the pole could be up or down, change frequently,, and like a broken watch even be correct some of the time, and can even be charisma holding the public sentiment of the day.

I Edward Donegan notice on the list of Dr. Max Jacobson “Dr Feelgood” (3 JULY 1900 - 17 December 1979) the following

- John F. Kennedy
- Nelson Rockefeller “Rocky” JULY 8, 1908 - January 26, 1979)
- Marilyn Monroe JUNE 1, 1926 - AUGUST 4, 1962)

Note that Rockefeller is tied to Rockefeller Psychiatry, the Nixon and many other administrations, and political office. Further Reading

JFK and Marylin Monroe took Desoxyn (Crystal Meth) used for Minimal Brain Dysfunction, or Dexapmphetamine. My father felt bad he did not allow the prescription when I was a child and i was diagnosed (I have seen the faded yellow written record, Minimal Brain Dysfunction) though in rehab in 2001 I was prescribed Wllbutrin.

My father wondered if I carried a small defective gene perhaps from eposure to toxins.

1961 November 22 Donald Barr CIA with a research monkey (MEtaphor for Barrack Obama JR.) at a White House birthday party. Minimal Brain Dysfunction are being studied wich runds in several families. Barrack Obama Jr does not seem to have it Aug 4 1962. That day is said to be Barrack Obama Jrss one year birthday party, Lawford involved with Marilin. RFK is there too though that is hidden. Marylin Monroe dies that day.

Dr CHarney told me ADHD which is included in Miniam Brain Dysfunction results from an turntable stule tone arm to lightly pressured thus it bounces between the grooves rather than stick with one. The focus on the current groove improves with brain (Executive area) stimulation. Further Reading

:Too much focus gets the needle stuck and is over focus also called a Tweek.

In the early 1960s, amphetamines were still widely accepted as innocuous medications. Apart from vast numbers of middle-aged, middle-class patients receiving low-dose prescriptions from family doctors to help them cope with their daily “duties,” in much the same way that their doctors prescribed minor tranquilizers,61 a significant quasi-medical gray market in amphetamines had developed. For instance, for his painful war injuries and also to help maintain his image of youthful vigor, President John F. Kennedy received regular injections containing around 15 mg of methamphetamine, together with vitamins and hormones, from a German-trained physician named Max Jacobson

I Edward Paul Donegan believe she was tied to out wedlock Windsor family descendents being used as charismatic sleeper agents for other countries. But to prevent the sleepers agents from being identified and the truth told those who were “source material” personages from the program and who were NOT sleeper agents had to be silenced before they spoke and if they did speak they had to have been discredited and limited in the reach of their voice.

Marilyn Monroe Born: JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4, 1962 Barrack Obama Jr and Seattle? JFK the

Windsors and Barrack Obama Jr are connected to Seattle WA

Minimal Brain Dysfunction is under stimulation (or under available of brain metabolic function do to poor organic neurotransmitters in the brain such as Dopamine for which Dysoxin (Crystal Methamphetamine) or other amphetamines serve as an working analogy. Further Reading

This was a key fact in my long term relationship with my father. It is my belief Minimal Brain Dysfunction includes 20 percent bipolar all the time and the pole could be up or down, change frequently,, and like a broken watch even be correct some of the time, and can even be charisma holding the public sentiment of the day.

I Edward Donegan notice on the list of Dr. Max Jacobson “Dr Feelgood” (3 JULY 1900 - 17 December 1979) the following

- John F. Kennedy
- Nelson Rockefeller “Rocky” JULY 8, 1908 - January 26, 1979)
- Marilyn Monroe JUNE 1, 1926 - AUGUST 4, 1962)

Note that Rockefeller is tied to Rockefeller Psychiatry, the Nixon and many other administrations, and political office. Further Reading

JFK and Marylin Monroe took Desoxyn (Crystal Meth) used for Minimal Brain Dysfunction, or Dexapmphetamine. My father felt bad he did not allow the prescription when I was a child and i was diagnosed (I have seen the faded yellow written record, Minimal Brain Dysfunction) though in rehab in 2001 I was prescribed Wllbutrin.

My father wondered if I carried a small defective gene perhaps from eposure to toxins.

1961 November 22 Donald Barr CIA with a research monkey (MEtaphor for Barrack Obama JR.) at a White House birthday party. Minimal Brain Dysfunction are being studied wich runds in several families. Barrack Obama Jr does not seem to have it Aug 4 1962. That day is said to be Barrack Obama Jrss one year birthday party, Lawford involved with Marilin. RFK is there too though that is hidden. Marylin Monroe dies that day.

Dr CHarney told me ADHD which is included in Miniam Brain Dysfunction results from an turntable stule tone arm to lightly pressured thus it bounces between the grooves rather than stick with one. The focus on the current groove improves with brain (Executive area) stimulation. Further Reading

:Too much focus gets the needle stuck and is over focus also called a Tweek.

In the early 1960s, amphetamines were still widely accepted as innocuous medications. Apart from vast numbers of middle-aged, middle-class patients receiving low-dose prescriptions from family doctors to help them cope with their daily “duties,” in much the same way that their doctors prescribed minor tranquilizers,61 a significant quasi-medical gray market in amphetamines had developed. For instance, for his painful war injuries and also to help maintain his image of youthful vigor, President John F. Kennedy received regular injections containing around 15 mg of methamphetamine, together with vitamins and hormones, from a German-trained physician named Max Jacobson

I Edward Paul Donegan believe she was tied to out wedlock Windsor family descendents being used as charismatic sleeper agents for other countries. But to prevent the sleepers agents from being identified and the truth told those who were “source material” personages from the program and who were NOT sleeper agents had to be silenced before they spoke and if they did speak they had to have been discredited and limited in the reach of their voice.

Marilyn Monroe Born: JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4, 1962 Barrack Obama Jr and Seattle? JFK the Windsors and Barrack Obama Jr are connected to Seattle WA

Crypt 33: The Saga of Marilyn Monroe - The Final Word Hardcover - June 1, 1993 retrieved from Amazon.com and copied or modified to here

MILO SPERIGLIO

Marilyn Monroe: Murder Cover-Up

Crypt 33:: The Saga of Marilyn Monroe - The Last Word Adela Gregory and Milo Speriglio

Private Investigator Milo Speriglio had written several books and believed CIA Contract Killers murdered Monroe. The Los Angeles City council began a grand jury but the day later the foreman was replaced, a puppet installed who cancelled the proceedings.

Wiretape of telephone conversation between reporter Dorothy Kilgallen and her close friend, Howard Rothberg

(A); from wiretap of telephone conversation of Marilyn Monroe and Attorney General Robert Kennedy (B).
Appraisal of Content: [A portion redacted.]

1. Rothberg discussed the apparent comeback of subject with Kilgallen and the break up with the Kennedys. Rothberg told Kilgallen that she was attending Hollywood parties hosted by the “inner circle” among Hollywood’s elite and was becoming the talk of the town again. Rothberg indicated in so many words, that she had secrets to tell, no doubt arising from her trists [sic] with the President and the Attorney General. One such “secret” mentions the visit by the President at a secret air base for the purpose of inspecting things from outer space. Kilgallen replied that she knew what might be the source of visit. In the mid-fifties Kilgallen learned of secret effort by US and UK governments to identify the origins of crashed spacecraft and dead bodies, from a British government official. Kilgallen believed the story may have come from the New Mexico story in the late forties. Kilgallen said that if the story is true, it would cause terrible embarrassment for Jack and his plans to have NASA put men on the moon.

2. Subject repeatedly called the Attorney General and complained about the way she was being ignored by the President and his brother.

3. SUBJECT THREATENED TO HOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE AND WOULD TELL ALL. [ANOUNCED TO BE WITH JOE DIMAGIO CALNEVA PLANS]

4. Subject made reference to “bases” in Cuba and knew of the President’s plan to kill Castro.

5. Subject made reference to her “diary of secrets” and what the newspapers would do with such disclosures.

[An indented block of text is redacted near the bottom of the page, and the document is signed JAMES ANGLETON, who at the time was the Chief of Counterintelligence for the CIA.]

The UFO connection becomes all the more compelling with the discovery, described in Burleson’s UFOs and the Murder of Marilyn Monroe, of an imprint to the left of the “TOP SECRET” stamp near the top of the document; the imprint, when Burleson enhanced it by computer imaging techniques, turns out to contain the name of Brigadier General George Shulgen, who was formerly the chief UFO investigation-coordinator for the U.S. Air Force. (The imprint also refers to General Schulgen’s Intelligence Collection Memorandum, a document known to have existed.) This imprint or “bleed-in,” however it came to be on a CIA document about Marilyn Monroe, makes a clear connection between her murder and the question of UFO secrecy, as someone, somewhere at some time, evidently thought it logical to archive the documents together. When all the evidence is considered, the case becomes very strong that government people murdered Marilyn because of what she knew about the UFO coverup.

The Marilyn Monroe CIA Memo retrieved from http://www.blackmesapress.com/page4.htm and copied or modified to here

I was interested to see Paul Seaburn's new article, "New Film Suggests Marilyn Monroe Was About To Reveal Aliens." It's a saga that dates back to the mid-1990s and which is clearly not going to go away anytime soon, as this latest development shows. The vast majority of the story is reliant on a controversial document of questionable origins and of equally questionable authenticity. Allegedly, it's a CIA document dated AUGUST 3, 1962 and which deals with Marilyn Monroe's supposed knowledge of Roswell and UFO-themed conspiracies. You can find the document here.

What particularly interests me about the "Monroe document" is not so much what it says, but what it specifically doesn't say. Despite what many researchers have said, there is not even a single reference in the document to aliens, extraterrestrials, flying saucers, or UFOs. Not a single one. In fact, the wording could actually push the whole thing down a very different path. I'll explain what I mean by that. But, first, let's see how and under what circumstances the controversial one-page document surfaced.

It all began in 1995, at a Los Angeles-based press conference. It was a press conference held by a man named Milo Speriglio. He was a guy with a deep interest in the circumstances surrounding Marilyn's death. Speriglio was so interested in her final day that he wrote three books on the issues of her life and still-controversial death. They were Crypt 33, The Marilyn Conspiracy, and Marilyn Monroe: Murder Cover-Up. Until 1995, Speriglio had not made any kind of connection between the Hollywood uber-babe and UFOs. So, what was it that prompted Speriglio to head off into new and highly inflammatory territory? It was a revelation from a man named Timothy Cooper.

Today, many people within Ufology might not recognize that name. But, from the early-to-late 1990s, Cooper - of Big Bear Lake, California - was a well-known figure in Ufology. He was also a controversial figure, too. Most of the controversy stemmed from the fact that Cooper claimed to have received a wealth of old, sensational, leaked documents from retired figures in the intelligence community - almost all of them on crashed UFOs, Roswell, dead aliens, and the notorious Majestic 12 group.

Contextual figures

FBI Agent Ted Gunerson believed she was murdered, FBI Specia Agent in Charge, Los Angeles Field Office Further Reading, also right-hand man to RFK in RFK attempt to stop mafia. Andy Warhol Born: AUGUST 6, 1928, Pittsburgh, PA Died: FEBRUARY 22, 1987, New York Presbyterian Hospital, New York, NY using Empire State Building art also calls Marlin Monroe Diptych Further Reading

1953 Major World Events

U.S. and North Korea sign armistice ending the Korean War

Speech Defect King George V Prince Albert of York dies 1952. 1953 Queen Elizabeth II of Great Britain crowned.

Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI) is founded The institute was formed with the goal of basic research including trying to understand, in Hughes's words, "the genesis of life itself" and the program operates in University of Washington Seattle

Marshal Tito is elected president of Yugoslavia.

Josef Stalin dies, Nikita Khrushchev becomes First Secretary of Communist Party who spends on missile rather than conventional forces

USSR explodes a hydrogen bomb (H Bombs are vastly greater destructive power than first-generation A (atomic) bombs,

In 1957 Sputnik 1 results from the Soviet Space Program

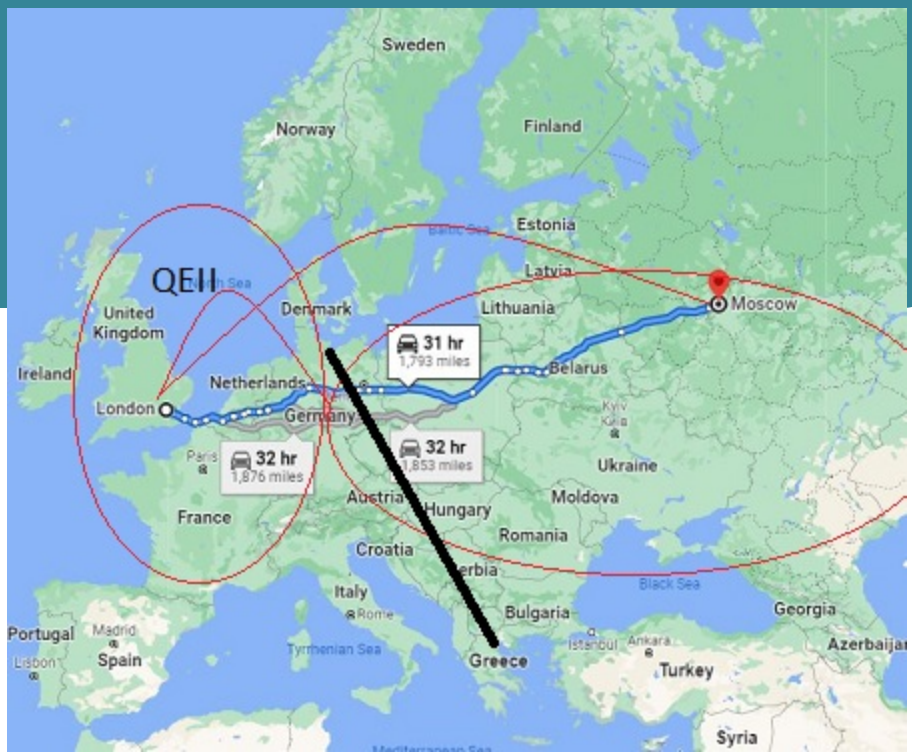
In an unpublished photo Marilyn Monroe is in Washington Seattle in 1953. Is University of Washington Seattle connected to the CIA autopsy of George V and studying the speech defect on behalf of CIA and Sri Lanka Station Chief Franklin Anderson? Stanley Armour Dunham was from Seattle anthropology 1960s and later LESLIANNE SHEDD, 1968-1996. Leslianne Shedd, who fulfilled a lifelong ambition to work in foreign service by joining the U.S. State Department right after graduating from the Jackson School of International Studies, died NOV. 24, 1996, in the crash of a hijacked Ethiopian Airlines jet, which fell into the Indian Ocean off the Comoros Islands. Further Reading JFK and the Windsors will gather there in 1962 oerhaps by telepone with Malcom X.

As a medical resident at Hopkins in 1922 Verne Rheem Mason gave the disease sickle cell anemia its name.1938, Mason was one of the physicians called to the sickbed of General of the Armies John J. Pershing. The commander of the American Expeditionary Force in France in World War I was in a coma and sinking. Mason made the medical report on General Pershing, who recovered and lived for 10 years more. When Howard Hughes lay near death in Los Angeles in 1946, following the crash of his experimental plane, the XF-11, he summoned Mason and asked, “Am I going to live?” “I don’t know,” Mason replied. “Then give this message to the Army,” Hughes said. “The accident was caused by the rear half of the right propeller, which suddenly switched into reverse pitch position.”

Verne Mason became Hughes personal physician as well as princple in HHMI

Verne Rheem Mason (AUGUST 8, 1889 - NOVEMBER 16, 1965) was an eminent American internist and associate of Howard Hughes. Mason was chairman of the Howard Hughes Medical Institute’s medical advisory committee. Mason was for many years a member of the medical faculty of the University of Southern California, a professor of clinical medicine, and an attending physician at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. He was considered a leading internist and diagnostician. Highly decorated, he served in both World Wars. Mason was chairman of the Howard Hughes Medical Institute’s medical advisory committee. Verne H Mason served his country in World War II with the 451st Bombardment Group 726th Squadron Army Air Corps

Marilin in Seattle 1953



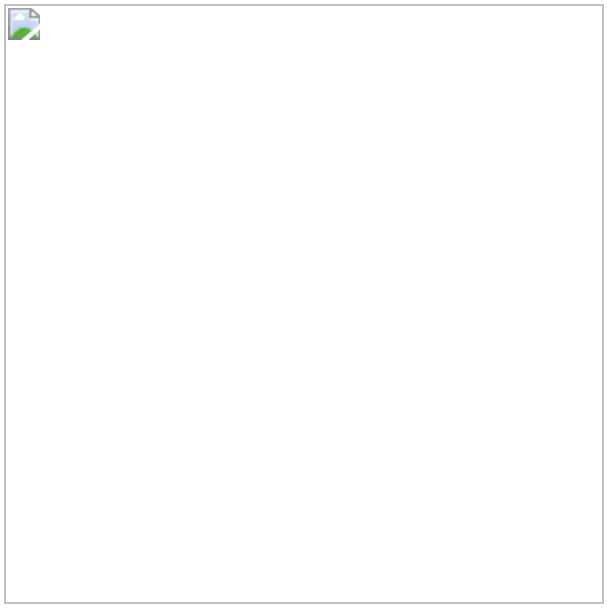
This can did shot of Marilyn Monroe was taken during a visit to the Seattle Post-Intelligencer offices on July 30, 1953. It wasn't published at that time and didn't appear in the P-I until April 2000, upon opening of an exhibit of historic P-I photos at the Museum of History and Industry. Handwritten on sleeve: Monroe, Marilyn; Films.

Nikita Khrushchev retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

On 5 March 1953, Stalin’s death triggered a power struggle in which Khrushchev emerged victorious upon consolidating his authority as First Secretary of the party’s Central Committee. On 25 February 1956, at the 20th Party Congress, he delivered the “Secret Speech”, which denounced Stalin’s purges and ushered in a less repressive era in the Soviet Union. His domestic policies, aimed at bettering the lives of ordinary citizens, were often ineffective, especially in agriculture. Hoping eventually to rely on missiles for national defense, Khrushchev ordered major cuts in conventional forces. Despite the cuts, Khrushchev’s time in office saw the tensest years of the Cold War, culminating in the Cuban Missile Crisis.

Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev[a] (15 April [O.S. 3 April] 1894 - 11 September 1971) served as the First Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union from 1953 to 1964 and as chairman of the country’s Council of Ministers from 1958 to 1964. During his rule, Khrushchev stunned the communist world with his denunciation of Stalin’s crimes, and embarked on a policy of de-Stalinization with his key ally Anastas Mikoyan. He sponsored the early Soviet space program, and enactment of relatively liberal reforms in domestic policy. After some false starts, and a narrowly avoided nuclear war over Cuba, he conducted successful negotiations with the United States to reduce Cold War tensions. His proclivity toward recklessness led the Kremlin leadership to strip him of power, replacing him with Leonid Brezhnev as First Secretary and Alexei Kosygin as Premier.

Marylin Monroe dies AUGUST 4 1962 on what will be alleged to be Barrack Obama Jr.s 1 year birthday and the August 4 1961 Life Magazine White House Nursery issue



“Happy Birthday Mr. PResident”

Life Magazine for November 24, 1961, “In the White House Nursery”

For NOVEMBER 24 1961 White House Nursery looks like Malcom X comments about Ornothology and Chicken Eggs

The Experimental Monkey is in the white house November 23 and the Aug 4 dates is going to be the other birthday available for Barrack Obama JR.

A passable person of dark skin and common appearance for nearly anywhere in the world, Barrack Obama Jr.

Marilyn is murdered before she reports on activities at Expo Seattle 1962 with Kennedys, Windsors, Malcolm “X” [Glorian Donegan “Y”

Donald Barr CIA Free Mason with an experimental monkey having a birthday at the White House November 23 1961

Iñupiat retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The Iñupiat (or Inupiat, Iñupiaq or Inupiaq;) are a group of Alaska Natives, whose traditional territory roughly spans northeast from Norton Sound on the Bering Sea to the northernmost part of the Canada-United States border and often claim to be the first people of the Kauwerak. Their current communities include 34 villages across Iñupiat Nunaŋat (Iñupiaq lands) including seven Alaskan villages in the North Slope Borough, affiliated with the Arctic Slope Regional Corporation; eleven villages in Northwest Arctic Borough; and sixteen villages affiliated with the Bering Straits Regional Corporation.

The Aleut (Unangan) and Yupik peoples (Alutiiq/Sugpiaq, “Central” Yup’ik, Siberian Yupik), who live in Alaska and Siberia, are not Inuit, and do not generally identify as such. Nevertheless much of Alaska and the Pacfic Northwest and Atlantic North East are made up of Siberian immigrants who used dogs to travel the icy lands and fend off smaller more aggressive wolves.

An Itch to great a Islander insert into Indonesia which would be passable in the 20th and 21st Centuries I think was the anthropology plan to creat Barrack Obama Jr. of a suitable mix of genomics.

Sue Gordon is a CIA Zoologist in Trump cabinet full of MKULTRA

Century 21 Exposition retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Donald Barr of the CIA likely with Barrack Obama Jr and Donald Barr with dangerously close access to JFK

The fair was originally conceived at a Washington Athletic Club luncheon in 1955 to mark the 50th anniversary of the 1909 Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, but it soon became clear that that date was too ambitious. With the Space Race underway and Boeing having “put Seattle on the map”[6] as “an aerospace city”,[7] a major theme of the fair was to show that “the United States was not really ‘behind’ the Soviet Union in the realms of science and space”. As a result, the themes of space, science, and the future completely trumped the earlier conception of a “Festival of the [American] West”.

Boeing was founded by William Boeing in Seattle, Washington, on July 15, 1916. The corporate headquarters were moved from Seattle to Chicago in 2001. Stanley Armough Dunham Barrack Obama Jrs white mother (he has a Kenyan born father tied an Anglican school run by the British) was from the Seattle area and may have been blackmailed to be part of the creation of Barrack Obama Jr. by the CIA. THis is one of many real stories that fit the narrative of At Any Price where a person caught in a misdeed is force to work for those who blackmail him.

Stanley Armour Dunham (March 23, 1918 - February 8, 1992) was the maternal grandfather of the 44th U.S. President Barack Obama.

Dunham was born in Wichita, Kansas, the younger of two sons to Ralph Waldo Emerson Dunham, Sr. (December 25, 1894, Sumner County, Kansas - October 4, 1970, Wichita, Kansas) and Ruth Lucille Armour (September 1, 1900, Illinois - November 25, 1926, Wichita, Kansas).[3] His father’s ancestors settled in Kempton, Indiana, in the 1840s, before relocating to Kansas.[4] His parents were married on October 3, 1915, at a home on South Saint Francis St. in Wichita, and opened The Travelers' Cafe on William Street situated between the old firehouse and the old Wichita City Hotel.

A rebellious teenager, Dunham allegedly punched his high school principal and spent some time drifting, hopping rail cars to Chicago, California, and back again. He married Madelyn Lee Payne on May 5, 1940, the night of her senior prom. He is alleged to have been caught by his CIA connected wife Madelyn Lee Payne stealing Boeing B-29 plans for the Nazis and thus he become a patsy (a person blackmailed to cooperate) for the CIA afterward Further Reading. During the war, Madelyn Payne Dunham worked on a Boeing B-29 assembly line in Wichita. Stanley Armour Dunham matches a fictional character in At Any Price. Further Reading

On NOVEMBER 25, 1926, at age 8, Dunham discovered his mother's body after she had committed suicide.

In June 1960, the Bureau International des Expositions (BIE) certified Century 21 as a world's fair.[8] Project manager Ewen Dingwall went to Moscow to request Soviet participation, but was turned down. Neither the People's Republic of China, Vietnam nor North Korea were invited.

The World of Science centered on the United States Science Exhibit. It also included a NASA Exhibit that included models and mockups of various satellites, as well as the Project Mercury capsule that had carried Alan Shepard into space.[29] These exhibits were the federal government's major contribution to the fair.

The United States Science Exhibit began with Charles Eames' 10-minute short film The House of Science, followed by an exhibit on the development of science, ranging from mathematics and astronomy to atomic science and genetics. The Spacearium held up to 750 people at a time for a simulated voyage first through the Solar System and then through the Milky Way Galaxy and beyond. Further exhibits presented the scientific method and the “horizons of science”. This last looked at “Science and the individual”, “Control of man’s physical surroundings”, “Science and the problem of world population”, and “Man’s concept of his place in an increasingly technological world”.

As it happened, the Cold War had an additional effect on the fair. President John F. Kennedy was supposed to attend the closing ceremony of the fair on October 21, 1962. He bowed out, pleading a “heavy cold”; it later became public that he was dealing with the Cuban Missile Crisis.

A potential explanation also exists that JFK and Marilyn Monroe were splitting with the Windsors system of stolen fertilized eggs as the OSS CIA plant to plant Windsor relatives aroudn the world. This may have had Catholic implications as well and I note Marilyn Monroe and Joe Dimagio were married 9 mos, officially excommunicated for the divorce afterwords, but I wonder if she gave a Catholic child into this plan with the Church arranging it.

THis missle crisis was in full swing during the Expo as were racial problems. In August 1962 the CIA OSS DOD Windsors may have had the ear of JFK but I think Marilyn Monroe then JFK then RFK decided to jump ship from the whole program and even reveal it.

MAFIA MURDER OF MARILYN MONROE retrieved from Youtube and copied or modified to here

hello my name is Bill Charles I am a general surgeon in Oklahoma City semi-retired and I wanted to talk about the Mafia murder of Mary Monroe I believe this information is probably generally known among a small group of people and maybe in a hundred years the government and others will come forward and say okay we're going to tell you what happened but until it happens I'm gonna give my best explanation.

there are two anecdotes that I have from people that I've known that have shed light on some of this situation the first is a FBI retired agent named Robert Fitzpatrick (Born: 2 JULy 1937, San Antonio, Texas Died: 23 October 2010, Los Angeles, Ca.) he worked with Bobby Kennedy and John Kennedy in Washington DC and he had an interesting story to tell John Kennedy would on occasion sneak out of the White House without the Secret Service knowing it and he would sneak out in the back seat of a senator's car or some other such way to get out and visit one of his girlfriend's houses and what would happen is that J. Edgar Hoover went ahead and bugged all the girlfriend's houses that JFK would frequent and when they would hear noise at one of the houses the FBI would call the Secret Service and say we got to tell you where John Kennedy is he over at such-and-such address and the Secret Service would would rush over with the nuclear football which had all the launch codes you know for the ICBMs in case of a sneak attack from Russia in those days and the it was so sort of embarrassing for the Secret Service but what this really tells you is that John Kennedy's girlfriend's houses most likely including Marilyn Monroe were in fact bugged by J Edgar Hoover who were in the FBI because they want they had to keep tabs where John Kennedy was so they could get the nuclear football to .

the second person atlanta group that I have is related to my Greek family extended Greek family in Chicago the story goes that a 18 year old girl named Eugenia Pappas (Eugenia Pappas DECEMBER 18, 1954 - September 19, 2021 (66 years old) Chicago, Illinois) was an attractive Greek girl who was a hairstylist in distant a relative in the Greek family and she befriended a man named Frank schweiz SCH WI HS and French twice it turns out was in the Mafia but Eugenia dated him and relates to the story of traveling from kawaki airport a group of hitmen that flew to Los Angeles on the morning of August the 4th the day that Marilyn Monroe died the hitmen went to a a party and then they left the party and then they came back after a while and then the next day they flew back to Chicago Eugenia relates later after she broke up with Frank's why's that that this was a hit on Marilyn Monroe on orders from Sam Giancana.

now subsequently eugenia Pappas was killed and was found in the Chicago River several months later and many of the people that had been involved with the Marilyn Monroe murder were sworn to secrecy including a Jean Carmen (Jeanne Laverne Carmen was an American model, actress and trick-shot golfer. Wikipedia Born: AUGUST 4, 1930, Paragould, AR Died: December 20, 2007, Irvine, CA)who was one of Marilyn's girlfriends.

Jean Carmen later wrote a book called my wild wild life and Jean Carmen went into hiding for 16 years until Sam Giancana died was killed and then came out of hiding and tells her story of the Mafia involvement in the murder of Marilyn Monroe a couple of other anecdotes that were in the newspaper and well-known.

recently Marilyn Monroe's house in Brentwood was sold and the couple that bought at dinner renovation they knocked out some of the walls and they found within the walls hundreds of feet of wire that didn’t connect to any electric outlets or anything else and that most likely were involved with wiretapping and prior to Marilyn moving into her house and which was only ten minutes away from Peter Lawford’s beach house where the Kennedys were frequent Marilyn had the house renovated it’s very possible at that time that the wires weren’t certain in the walls and the house was bugged two of the men that were involved in wiretapping for J. Edgar Hoover and also sometimes for Jimmy Hoffa were Fredo Tash and Bernard spindle so it’s fairly common knowledge that Marilyn’s house was bugged Marilyn even knew that her house was bugged.

and what sometimes go down the stream and use a payphone and also they said that Peter Lawford at his beach house when at times go down to a payphone because he was suspicious that his house was bugged as well one other piece of information that I think is interesting is in the book by Sam and Chuck Giancana involving the Marilyn Monroe murder they mentioned that a suppository was concocted by university chemist that had Nembutal and chlorohydrate and that this suppository was a part of the CIA mafia plan to kill Fidel Castro and that the Mafia had this supposed to be available and had used it on some of their own victims and verified that indeed it did work in fact they found that with Marilyn Monroe she had 15 times the fatal level of chloral hydrate and Nembutal in her bloodstream that time she died.

and this had in my opinion been most likely from a suppository you couldn’t get that many pills down somebody’s stomach and get that high of a drug level also a gene karma relates that Marilyn had called her the night that she died and asked for sleeping pills because she was out of sleeping pills Jean Carmen declined and said I don’t have any either but it’s interesting that here Marilyn was out of sleeping pills and yet she’s been accused of taking an overdose of sleeping pills less than an hour after she had called Jean Carmen so it’s

… Video continues for one hour more.

And I want to say Robertg Kennedy was one of our greaterst Attorney Generals.

Norma Jean was analogous to Julie Andrews, but drawn to the Roman Catholic, French Cathlolic, and Suave Italian Dimaggio

Filmogrophy and possible messaging

THE MISFITS (1961 FILM)

Directed by John Marcellus Huston August 5, 1906 -- August 28, 1987

The Misfits is a 1961 American drama western film written by Arthur Miller, directed by John Huston, and starring Clark Gable, Marilyn Monroe, and Montgomery Clift. The supporting cast features Thelma Ritter, Eli Wallach and Kevin McCarthy.

In Reno, Nevada, 30-year-old Roslyn Tabor files for a quickie 6 week residency divorce from her inattentive husband, Raymond. Afterward, Roslyn’s landlady Isabelle takes her to a cocktail lounge at Harrah’s for drinks. There they meet an aging cowboy named Gaylord “Gay” Langland, and his tow truck driver best friend, Guido. The friendly Guido, is and tells Roslyn and Isabelle about his unfinished house in the country. They become a group.

The Curse of its movie persons

- Directed by John Marcellus Huston AUGUST 5, 1906 - August 28, 1987

- William Clark Gable (February 1, 1901 - NOVEMBER 16, 1960 died about 12 days after making the film) Filming was completed on November 4, 1960, twelve days before Clark Gable's death, and The Misfits was released on February 1, 1961, on what would have been Gable's 60th birthday.

- Marilyn Monroe (born Norma Jeane Mortenson; June 1, 1926 - August 4, 1962) according to Huston in a 1981 retrospective interview Marilyn Monroe was drinking too much after work, and was using prescription drugs and was "absolutely certain that she was doomed" a conclusion he reached while working on the film: She died within a year of the release of the film.

- Edward Montgomery Clift. October 17, 1920 - July 23, 1966) Part of Clift's mother's effort was her determination that her children should be brought up in the style of true aristocrats. Clift then co-starred in John Huston's The Misfits (1961), which was the final film of both Marilyn Monroe and Clark Gable. Monroe, who was also having emotional and substance abuse problems at the time, described Clift in a 1961 interview as "the only person I know who is in even worse shape than I am". Clift appeared the movie in Judgment at Nuremberg (1961) Clift's last nomination for an Academy Award was for Best Supporting

Actor for his role in Judgment at Nuremberg (1961), a 12-minute supporting part. He played a developmentally disabled man who had been a victim of the Nazi sterilisation programme

Lorenzo James went up to say goodnight to Clift, who was still awake and sitting up in his bed. James asked Clift if he needed anything, and Clift politely refused and then told James that he would stay up for a while, either to read a book or watch some television. JAMES THEN NOTED THAT THE MISFITS (1961) WAS ON TELEVISION, AND HE ASKED CLIFT IF HE WANTED TO WATCH IT WITH HIM. "ABSOLUTELY NOT!", WAS THE FIRM REPLY. This was the last time Montgomery Clift spoke to anyone.

- Themla Ritter (FEBRUARY 14, 1902 - February 5, 1969) Ritter died of a heart attack in New York City on February 5, 1969

- Kevin McCarthy (February 15, 1914 - September 11, 2010)[Kevin McCarthy was born in Seattle, Washington, the son of Roy Winfield McCarthy and Martha Therese (née Preston).[6] McCarthy's father was descended from a wealthy Irish American family based in Minnesota. His mother was born in Washington State to a Protestant father and a nonobservant Jewish mother; McCarthy's mother converted to Roman Catholicism before her marriage.[7] He was the brother of author Mary McCarthy, and a distant cousin of U.S. Senator and presidential candidate EUGENE McCarthy of Minnesota.

Joe DiMaggio was raised a Catholic in the staunch Italian American tradion of the early part of the twentieth century. The Catholic Church did not recognize divorce- people remained married in the eyes of God til the end of time.

MARLIN MONROE WAS BORN NORAM JEAN OUT OF WEDLOCK WINDSOR

Born Norma Jeane Mortenson[a] June 1, 1926 Los Angeles, California, U.S. Died August 4, 1962 (aged 36) Los Angeles, California, U.S

THE PRINCE AND THE SHOWGIRL A 1957 ROMANTIC COMEDY FILM STARRING MARILYN MONROE AND LAURENCE OLIVIER.

ONe of many 1957 or so versions of blends of fiction and reality of “the Prince and the Singer” affair story lines. She and Julie Ansdrews star in them and she and Julie Andrews seem to have King Edward VIII as a secret uknown amazing parent.

The film is set in London in June 1911. George V will be crowned king on 22 June and in the preceding days many important dignitaries arrive. Among those arriving are the 16-year-old King Nicholas VIII of the (fictional) Balkan country of Carpathia, with his father the widower Prince Regent,

The British government decide that keeping Carpathia in the Triple Entente is critical during the rising tensions in Europe. They find it necessary to pamper the royals during their stay in London, and thus civil servant Northbrook is detached to their service. Northbrook decides to take the Prince Regent out to the musical performance The Coconut Girl. During the intermission, the Prince Regent is taken backstage to meet the cast. He is not particularly interested in engaging with the male actors but extremely interested in the physical charms of Elsie Marina, one of the performers, and he sends a formal invitation for her to meet him at the Carpathian embassy for supper.

The two eventually kiss and Elsie admits she may be falling in love, rebuffing Northbrook's promised feint to help her leave the embassy. Elsie then passes out from the many drinks she consumed before, during and after her semi-solitary supper. The Prince places her in an adjoining bedroom to stay the night.

The following day, Elsie overhears a conversation concerning the young Nicolas' plotting with the German embassy to overthrow his father.

CONNECTED TO LAWFORD SHRIVER SCHWARZENEGGER

The creation of a boy named Barrack Barry Hussein Obama Jr i a secret brain study

SHE LOVES JFK AND RFK BUT THE MOB WHICH MOVED IN FROM CHICAGO TO PALM SPRINGS AND NEVADA IS ALSO CONNECTED TO THE LAWFORDS AND OTHER POWERFULL BRITISH FIGURES.

It is believed Sam Giacana or his men killed her at the Cal Neva ldoge as she and Joe Dimagio were planning a press conference

HER ACTIVITIES INCLUDED FRANTIC CONTACTS WITH ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Robert F. Kennedy and John F. Kennedy were ANTI mob and Anti East India Tea Company brutal oppression of colonies yet her Sinatra freinds (unike Joe Dimagio) were mob connected

SHE WAS GANGSTALKED AND FORCED INTO MENTAL HOSPITALS PRIOR TO HER DEATH

The CIA NSA FBI were trying to limit public attention to and harm public perceptions of those who could or would out the program that was grooming secretly leaders who would be adored and not connected to the mental health patients being gangstalked.

She likely knew as my familiy seemed to the dark side of the Sound of Music. Windsors being out of wedlock fathers in not too serious a problem. Windsors using out of Wedlock to research Minimal Brain Dysfunction is a probleml for Windsor and out of wedlock children including sleeper agents via the neice of a Gestaop General is somewhate problematic.

Where have you gone, Joe DiMaggio? Check the pews at St. Patrick's. retrieved from [The Deacon's Bench By deacon greg kandra] and copied or modified to here

Few people knew how devout a Catholic he was," DiMaggio's longtime friend Dr. Rock Positano tells Page Six. "But he was essentially banned from the church after his divorce from Dorothy Arnold. And he was scolded by Bishop Fulton Sheen for marrying Marilyn Monroe. Sheen told Joe after the marriage dissolved, 'You had no right marrying her in the first place.'

“DiMaggio told Sheen where to go and scolded him that he had no right to tell him who to marry and never spoke to the bishop again,” Positano says. “But despite that bitterness, Joe never left or turned his back on the Church. He loved to celebrate in St. Patrick’s Cathedral and felt this place was more sacred than the Vatican.”

DiMaggio thought people wouldn’t recognize him when he quietly entered through the cathedral’s discreet 51st Street door in sunglasses. But “one day he was recognized, and after a shout-out by John Cardinal O’Connor, he was given a rousing applause in the middle of Mass by all the parishioners,” Positano recalls. “I quipped to him, ‘Nice disguise, Joe, you really fooled them.’ “

Another time at Mass, as parishioners turned to each other to offer a sign of peace, he extended his hand to a man who sat at his left. “The man said, ‘Mr. DiMaggio, may the peace of Christ be with you,’ and then immediately added, ‘Would you mind signing this picture for me?’ “

Where have you gone Joe Dimagio Simon and Garfunkle retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

St. Ferdinand, St. Gregory & Holy Redeemer YouTUbe video there are no blacksheep sermon below

I want to continue that idea of Jesus the Good Shepherd there was a song by Simon & Garfunkel years ago called mrs. Robinson and this is how it ended

Mrs. Robinson

> American music duo Simon & Garfunkel from their fourth studio album, Bookends (1968). The song was released as a single on April 5, 1968, by Columbia Records. ***
>
> Where have you gone Joe DiMaggio a nation turns his lonely eyes to you what's that you say mrs. Robinson joltin Joe has left and gone away hey hey hey
>
> Where have you gone Joe DiMaggio a nation turns his lonely eyes to you what's that you say mrs. Robinson joltin Joe has left and gone away hey hey hey

Giuseppe Paolo DiMaggio was born in 1914 in San Francisco his father had come here through Ellis Island and worked his way across the country raising enough money to bring his family over and Giuseppe Paolo DiMaggio was one of eight children and his father was a fisherman in San Francisco and he expected his four boys to help him in the business but Joe DiMaggio hated the smell of fish he said it made him sick and he hated every night he had to clean the boat with his father when he came home from fishing all he wanted to do was play baseball and play baseball he did

at the age of 17 playing for the San Francisco seals he hit he had a hit in 61 straight games he went on to be the great Joe DiMaggio one of the greatest ballplayers of all time he once had a hit in 56 straight games of feat that will never be met Bement he married Marilyn Monroe he died a multi multimillionaire but for a while his father was so disappointed in him because he didn't like fishing he said you’ll never be any good he thought that playing baseball was frivolous a waste of time he said you’ll never make any money for a while the great Joe DiMaggio was what we call the black sheep.

black sheeps are everywhere they’re in all kinds of families maybe you are a black sheep there are people that just don’t connect with their families there are people that are sometimes ostracized or not spoken to they’re not invited to things they’re talked about all the time they’re just out there well what Good Shepherd theme of John’s Gospel reminds us that in in God’s kingdom there is no black sheep maybe there’s black sheep out there in our kingdom

She was born Norma Jeane Mortenson in a group of birthdays many have which include Independence Day from England.

Normal Jean respects anti colonial sovereignty rights.

The Monroe Doctrine was a United States policy that opposed European colonialism in the Americas. It argued that any intervention in the politics of the Americas by foreign powers was a potentially hostile act against the United States.[1] It began in 1823; however, the term “Monroe Doctrine” itself was not coined until 1850

After 1898, the Monroe Doctrine was reinterpreted in terms of multilateralism and non-intervention by Latin American lawyers and intellectuals. In 1933, under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the U.S. went along with this new reinterpretation, especially in terms of the Organization of American States.

Marilyn and Joe (and Frank Sinatra and others) knew out of wedlock Windsor and even Kutchera DNA was in the USA, and that this likely should be revealed. To do that however meant future sleeper agents being cooked up like Barrack Obama Jr or Ted Cruz Jr or may hundreds of others would be revealed in a Skyfall.

Marilyn Monroe was an American actress, model and singer. Famous for playing comedic “blonde bombshell” characters, she became one of the most popular sex symbols of the 1950s and early 1960s and was emblematic of the era’s sexual revolution. Wikipedia Born: JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA

Died: AUGUST 4 1962, Brentwood, Los Angeles, CA

Joseph Paul DiMaggio, nicknamed “Joltin’ Joe”, “The Yankee Clipper” and “Joe D.” was an American baseball center fielder who played his entire 13-year career in Major League Baseball for the New York Yankees.Born: NOVEMBER 25, 1914, Martinez, CA Born: November 25, 1914, Martinez, CA From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Why Frank Sinatra Believed Marilyn Monroe Was Murdered: A New Book Reveals retrieved from People.com and copied or modified to here

She [did not sleep with but Frank Sinatra (who feared she would be hurt as only a fling left behind)] did however confide her most intimate secrets including her affairs with John F. Kennedy and Robert F. Kennedy.

When the affairs ended abruptly, he continues, “Marilyn told Frank she didn’t understand why they’d shut her out completely once she stopped having sex with them.”

The weekend before her death, Marilyn Monroe spent time at the famous Cal Neva Lodge, outside of Lake Tahoe, partially owned by Sinatra.

Attorney Milton A “Mickey” Rudin BIRTH 1920 DEATH 13 DEC 1999

As an entertainment lawyer he counted among his clients Lucille Ball and Desilu Productions for 25 years, Warner Brothers for 30 years, Elizabeth Taylor, Norman Lear, Liza Minnelli, and Marilyn Monroe. As Monroe’s lawyer, and brother-in-law to her analyst, he was among the first on the scene at her death. He gained his most prominence from his decades as Frank Sinatra’s spokesman, adviser, friend, and confidant.

Marylin Monroe Born: JUNE 1, 1926, Los Angeles, CA Died: AUGUST 4 1962, Brentwood, Los Angeles, CA

What the world didn’t know, the author reveals, was that she was there to spend time with her ex-husband Joe DiMaggio who was staying nearby and that Maryiln Monroe had decided to make a press announcement the following week that [she and Joe Dimagio] were getting back together.

And he says, “Frank [Sinatra on the Mafia side] believed if the press conference of Dimagio and Marylin hadn’t been announced, she would have lived a lot longer.”

Against the rules of Catholicism Marilyn Monroe and baseball legend Joe DiMaggio wed in 1954 (second marriages for both), and were divorced nine months later. He was only in his 40s when Marilyn died on August 5, 1962, but he never married again.

A MOTIVE KENNEDYS WOULD ORDER MAFIA MURDER

The news of a press conference sparked a rumor that Monroe was going to share details of her relationships with JFK and RFK. But, Oppedisano writes, “Frank said she’d never have spilled about the Kennedys because she still had feelings for [Jack.]”

A MOTIVE THE ANTI KENNEDY MAFIA WOULD HIT MARILYN

Marilyn’s real allegiance was with the class of Joe Dimagio she viewed as a gentlemen who also played baseball. She was leaning Catholic with him towards the Kennedys who were anti mob. Many entertainers like Farah Fawcett deal easily with Hollywood within their own boundreis and values they defend. Vegas was dirty with murders, etc., and she had access to see that world.

Within days of Monroe’s death, he writes, Sinatra’s attorney Mickey Rudin, who also worked with Monroe, told him that the actress had been killed. It was a rumor also circulating among Mob Boss Sam Giancana’s men, some of whom claimed involvement. According to the book, Sinatra had several sources who told him the same story: “She’d been murdered with a Nembutal suppository and Robert Kennedy or the Mob was involved.”

One step across the Cal Neva border will do you for gambling and marrying. Is a Vegas wedding legally binding? Easy too Google.

Sam Giancana and the CIA Family Jewels retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Giancana was murdered on June 19, 1975, in Oak Park, Illinois, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee.

Samuel Mooney Giancana May 24, 1908[nb 2] - June 19, 1975) was an American mobster who was boss of the Chicago Outfit from 1957 to 1966. He was shot and killed hours before he would have testified before the Church Committee on CIA Behavioral Research abuses

Giancana was born in Chicago to Italian immigrant parents. He joined the 42 Gang as a teenager, developing a reputation in organized crime which gained him the notice of Chicago Outfit leaders. During the late 1930s, Giancana joined the Chicago Outfit. From the 1940s through the 1950s, he controlled the illegal gambling, illegal liquor distribution, and political rackets in Louisiana. In the early 1940s, Giancana was involved in Chicago's African-American lottery payout system for the Outfit. In 1957, Giancana became the boss of the Chicago Outfit.

According to some sources, Giancana and the Mafia were involved in John F. Kennedy's victory in the 1960 presidential election. During the 1960s, he was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in a plot to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro. Conspiracy theorists consider Giancana along with Mafia leaders Santo Trafficante Jr. and Carlos Marcello associated with the assassination of Kennedy. In 1965, Giancana was convicted of contempt of court, serving one year in prison. After his release from prison, Giancana fled to Cuernavaca, Mexico. In 1974, he was deported to the United States, returning to Chicago. Giancana was murdered on June 19, 1975, in Oak Park, Illinois, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee.

After Giancana's return to the United States, police detailed officers to guard his house in Oak Park, Illinois, but on the night of June 19, 1975, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee,[37] which was investigating CIA and Cosa Nostra collusion,[38] a gunman entered the home through the basement and shot Giancana in the head and neck seven times with a .22 caliber pistol. At around 11 p.m., Joseph DiPersio, Giancana's caretaker, found his body on the floor of the basement kitchen where he was said to be frying sausage and peppers.[39][40] A week before his death, Giancana had gall bladder surgery in Houston.[39] Giancana was interred next to his wife, Angeline, in a family mausoleum at Mount Carmel Cemetery, in Hillside, Illinois.

According to the declassified CIA "Family Jewels" documents, Giancana and Trafficante were contacted in September 1960 about the possibility of an assassination attempt by Maheu after Maheu had contacted Roselli, a Mafia member in Las Vegas and Giancana's number-two man. Maheu had presented himself as a representative of numerous international businesses in Cuba that Castro was expropriating. He offered $150,000 for the "removal" of Castro through this operation (the documents suggest that neither Roselli, Giancana, nor Trafficante accepted any payment for the job). Giancana suggested using poison pills to dose Castro's food and drink. CIA gave these pills to Giancana's nominee, Juan Orta, whom Giancana presented as a corrupt official in the new Cuban government and who had access to Castro. After six attempts to introduce the poison into Castro's food, Orta abruptly demanded to be relieved from the mission, giving the job to another, unnamed participant. Later, Giancana and Trafficante made a second attempt using Anthony Verona, the commander of the Cuban Exile Junta, who had, according to Trafficante, become "disaffected with the apparent ineffectual progress of the Junta". Verona requested $10,000 in expenses and $1,000 worth of communications equipment. How much work was performed for the second attempt is unknown, as the entire program was canceled soon thereafter due to the Bay of Pigs invasion in April 1961.

According to the "Family Jewels", Giancana asked Maheu to wire the room of his then mistress Phyllis McGuire, singer of the McGuire Sisters, whom he suspected of having an affair with comedian Dan Rowan. Although documents suggest Maheu acquiesced, the device was not planted due to the arrest of the agent who had been tasked with planting it. According to the documents, Robert F. Kennedy prohibited the prosecution of the agent and of Maheu, who was soon linked to the wire attempt, at CIA's request.

Giancana and McGuire, who had a long-lasting affair, were originally introduced by Frank Sinatra.[30] According to Antoinette Giancana, during part of the affair, McGuire had a concurrent affair with President Kennedy.

CIA side-car Behavioral Research

CIA NSA USPHS FBI study FOXP2 Syndrome outside of Windsor name

Windors		Does Syndrome show?		World Sovereigns
Out of Wedlock Windors	FOXP2 Syndrome Shows	No	Grromed Sleeper Agent (Barrack Obama Jr,)	~~Original Sovereign~~ Groomed Planted Leader
		Yes	Harrased in life by CIA NSA called stupid, bipolar, etc., mis-diagnosed and contained into custody or very low profile very low performing homeless (Edward Paul Donegan)	Unrecognized person

Psych Ward Robert F. Kennedy

I will be expanding the RFK sections of this book over the next two or three weeks but I want to provide an over view I am sure will not change much.

Robert F. Kennedy was a lawyer who was deeply opposed to Labour Racket businesses (those that manufacture a need for themselves, then fill the need with their services) mob activities, mob profits, mob victims, and mob interference with policing dating back to prohibition and the Al Capone days.

The mob would ultimately cost him his own brother John F. Kennedy he was likely deeply closelty connected to during thier journey together.

RFK had a hard time reigning in the oil business, Teamseters, or any other activity including disagreement in the ranks with the DOJ utilized the mob against Castro.

RFK had mobster relatives through Peter Lawford but RFK wanted division between crime and government and crime and private business.

The Illuminati Free Mason families and their connection to Union Busting and other events such as that which the first FBI director was born out of is part of Irish history too as poor Irish attempted to form unions to fight the WASPs only to meet up with Pinkerton private policing, etc., or FBI dirty tricks because the FBI had been a tool of big business.

I have found the FBI is not political, it is for profit and has a history of backing CIA and politician backed NWO companies like Business International Corporation or others so USA interests can prosper and be advanced in foreign nations.

I think RFK’s desire to play things straight and fight the mafia George H.W. Bush and others were building was the conflict he was killed over.

Richard J. Daley retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Richard Joseph Daley (May 15, 1902 - December 20, 1976) was an American politician who served as the Mayor of Chicago from 1955 and the chairman of the Cook County Democratic Party Central Committee from 1953 until his death. He has been called “the last of the big city bosses” who controlled and mobilized American cities.[1] Daley was Chicago’s third consecutive mayor from the working-class, heavily Irish-American South Side neighborhood of Bridgeport, where he lived his entire life. He was the patriarch of the Daley family, whose members include Richard M. Daley, another former mayor of Chicago; William M. Daley, a former United States Secretary of Commerce; John P. Daley, a member of the Cook County Board of Commissioners; and Patrick Daley Thompson, an alderman of the Chicago City Council.

Richard J. Daley in 1962

48th Mayor of Chicago In office April 20, 1955 - December 20, 1976 Preceded by Martin H. Kennelly Succeeded by Michael Bilan

Daley is remembered for doing much to save Chicago from the declines that other rust belt cities such as Cleveland, Buffalo, and Detroit experienced during the same period. He had a strong base of support in Chicago’s Irish Catholic community and was treated by national politicians such as Lyndon B. Johnson as a pre-eminent Irish-American, with special connections to the Kennedy family. Daley played a major role in the history of the Democratic Party, especially with his support of John F. Kennedy in the presidential election of 1960 and of Hubert Humphrey in the presidential election of 1968.

He would be the longest-serving mayor in Chicago history until his record was broken by his son Richard M. Daley in 2011.

On the other hand, Daley's legacy is complicated by criticisms of his response to the Chicago riots that followed the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr. and his handling of the notorious 1968 Democratic National Convention that happened in his city. He also had enemies within the Democratic Party. In addition, many members of Daley's administration were charged and convicted for corruption, although Daley himself was never charged with any crime.

RFK JFK versus Mafia George Bush Donald Barr J Edgar Hoover and other 33s La Cosa Nostra

Teamsters

International Brotherhood of Teamsters retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The union, like most unions within the American Federation of Labor (AFL) at the time, had a largely decentralized structure, with a number of local unions that governed themselves autonomously and tended to look only after their own interests in the geographical jurisdiction in which they operated.[9][10][11] The teamsters were vitally important to the labor movement, for a strike or sympathy strike by the teamsters could paralyze the movement of goods throughout a city and bring a strike into nearly every neighborhood.[5] It also meant that teamsters leaders were able to demand bribes in order to avoid strikes, and control of a teamsters local could bring organized crime significant revenues. During Shea’s presidency, the entire teamsters union was notoriously corrupt.

Influence of organized crime

Beck was elected to the Executive Council of the AFL on August 13, 1953, but his election generated a tremendous political battle between AFL President George Meany, who supported his election, and federation vice presidents who felt Beck was corrupt and should not be elected to the post.[56][57] Beck was the first Teamster president to negotiate a nationwide master contract and a national grievance arbitration plan,[58] established organizing drives in the Deep South[59] and the East,[60] and built the current Teamsters headquarters (the “Marble Palace”) in Washington, D.C. on Louisiana Avenue NW (across a small plaza from the United States Senate).

But his intervention in a construction and a milk strike (both centered on New York City), and refusal to intervene in a Northeastern trucking strike created major political problems for him.[62] Perceiving Beck to be weak, Jimmy Hoffa began challenging Beck on various union decisions and policies in 1956 with an eye to unseating him as General President in the regularly scheduled union elections in 1957.

Infiltration by organized crime dominated the agenda of the Teamsters throughout the 1950s. The Teamsters had suffered from extensive corruption since its formation in 1903.

Although the more extreme, public forms of corruption had been eliminated after General President Cornelius Shea was removed from office, the extent of corruption and control by organized crime increased during General President Tobin's time in office (1907 to 1952).

In 1929, the Teamsters and unions in Chicago even approached gangster Roger Touhy and asked for his protection from Al Capone and his Chicago Outfit, which were seeking to control the area's unions.

Evidence of widespread corruption within the Teamsters began emerging shortly after Tobin retired.[66] In Kansas City, corrupt Teamsters locals spent years seeking bribes, embezzling money, and engaging in extensive extortion and labor rackets as well as beatings, vandalism and even bombings in an attempt to control the construction and trucking industries.[22][67] The problem was so serious that the U.S. House of Representatives held hearings on the issue.

Hoffa's attempt to challenge Beck caused a major national scandal which led to two Congressional investigations, several indictments for fraud and other crimes against Beck and Hoffa, strict new federal legislation and regulations regarding labor unions, and even helped launch the political career of Robert F. Kennedy.

In 1920,J Edgar Hoover was initiated at D.C.'s Federal Lodge No. 1 in Washington D.C., becoming a Free Mason at the age of 25, becoming a 33rd Degree Inspector General Honorary in 1955.

Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation In office May 10, 1924 - May 2, 1972

During the 1930s, Hoover persistently denied the existence of organized crime, despite numerous gangland shootings as Mafia groups struggled for control of the lucrative profits deriving from illegal alcohol sales during Prohibition, and later for control of prostitution, illegal drugs and other criminal enterprises.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

My belief is 33s like Donald Barr, Goerge H.W. Bush, and others viewed the Mafia from Chicago as allies, as muscle, as Propoganda Due, as Vatican backed covert dirty operations in places like Latin America where Socialist, Nattionalists, or Communists blocked the door to various busneness and countries from getting in.

This RFK versus the Mafia bifurcation will be present in Bay of Pigs and the Oil Barrell and Defense Department interest in the elimination of Castro.

Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev[a] (15 April [O.S. 3 April] 1894 - 11 September 1971) served as the First Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union from 1953 to 1964 and as chairman of the country's Council of Ministers from 1958 to 1964. During his rule, Khrushchev stunned the communist world with his denunciation of Stalin's crimes, and embarked on a policy of de-Stalinization with his key ally Anastas Mikoyan. He sponsored the early Soviet space program, and enactment of relatively liberal reforms in domestic policy. After some false starts, and a narrowly avoided nuclear war over Cuba, he conducted successful negotiations with the United States to reduce Cold War tensions. His proclivity toward recklessness led the Kremlin leadership to strip him of power, replacing him with Leonid Brezhnev as First Secretary and Alexei Kosygin as Premier.

Paul G. Allen (1953-2018) Microsoft co-founder who established the Allen Institute for Brain Science. Seatle Washington.

In 1983 he withdrew from day-to-day involvement in the company to deal with early stage Hodgkin's lymphoma

(although he remained on the board until 2000). This close encounter with death and his wealth freed him to pursue passions seeded in his youth - music, sports, the environment, science fiction, space travel and science.

Paul was attracted to the vast complexity of biology. He was intrigued by how the 3.2 billion nucleotide letters arrayed as strands of DNA in a single fertilized egg give rise to the 30 trillion cells that make up a human. In March 2002, after the success of the Human Genome Project, Paul convened meetings with geneticist James Watson and others to focus on a big biology project of his own. Nature.com

This book

Joe Biden is a Tulane Orleans Concealer

Notables Tulane

ANDREW BREITBART

Andrew James Breitbart (/ˈbraɪtbɑːrt/; February 1, 1969 - March 1, 2012) was an American conservative journalist,[1] writer, and political commentator who was the founder of Breitbart News and a co-founder of HuffPost.

DAVID FILO

David Robert Filo (born April 20, 1966) is an American billionaire businessman and the co-founder of Yahoo! with Jerry Yang. His Filo Server Program, written in the C programming language, was the server-side software used to dynamically serve variable web pages, called Filo Server Pages, on visits to early versions of the Yahoo! website.

JOSEPH R. BIDEN

Joseph Robinette Biden Jr. (/ˈbaɪdən/ BY-dən; born NOVEMBER 20, 19 * 42) is an American politician who is the 46th and current president of the United States. A member of the Democratic Party, he served as the 47th vice president from 2009 to 2017 under Barack Obama and represented Delaware in the United States Senate from 1973 to 2009.

NEIL BUSH

Neil Mallon Bush (born January 22, 1955) is an American businessman and investor. He is the fourth of six children of former President George H. W. Bush and Barbara Bush (née Pierce). His five siblings are George W. Bush, the 43rd President of the United States; Jeb Bush, a former governor of Florida; the late Pauline Robinson Bush; Marvin Bush; and Dorothy Bush Koch.[1] Neil Bush is currently a businessman based in Texas.

ASHLEY BLAZER BIDEN (BORN JUNE 8, 1981)

Ashley Blazer Biden (born JUNE 8, 1981) is an American social worker, activist, philanthropist, and fashion designer. Her parents are U.S. President Joe Biden and First Lady Jill Biden. She served as the executive director of the Delaware Center for Justice from 2014 to 2019. Prior to her administrative role at the center, she worked in the Delaware Department of Services for Children, Youth, and Their Families. Biden founded the fashion company Livelihood, which partners with the online retailer Gilt Groupe to raise money for community programs focused on eliminating income inequality in the United States, launching it at New York Fashion Week in 2017. She is married to physician Howard Krein.

SHIRLEY ANN GRAU

Shirley Ann Grau (JULY 8, 1929 - AUGUST 3, 2020) was an American writer. She was born in New Orleans,[1] and her work is set primarily in the Deep South[1] and explores issues of race and gender.

MARY LAURENCE “LAUREN” HUTTON (BORN NOVEMBER 17, 1943)

Mary Laurence “Lauren” Hutton (born NOVEMBER 17, 1943) is an American model and actress. Born and raised in the southern United States, Hutton relocated to New York City in her early adulthood to begin a modeling career. Though she was initially dismissed by agents for a signature gap in her teeth, Hutton signed a modeling contract with Revlon in 1973, which at the time was the biggest contract in the history of the modeling industry.[2]

DOUGLAS GERALD HURLEY

Douglas Gerald Hurley (born October 21, 1966) is an American engineer, former Marine Corps pilot and former NASA astronaut. He piloted space shuttle missions STS-127 (July 2009)[3] and STS-135 (July 2011), the final flight of the space shuttle program. He launched into space for the third time as commander of Crew Dragon Demo-2, the first crewed spaceflight from American soil since STS-135 and became one of the first two astronauts, together with Bob Behnken, launching aboard a commercial orbital spacecraft in spaceflight history.[4] He was also the first Marine to fly the F/A-18 E/F Super Hornet. His call sign is “Chunky”,[5] and he was sometimes referred to by this name on the communication loops.

NSA.GOV PDF NOV 19 Cites Rueter quoting Robert Morrow Morrow’s claims he worked with CIA and Mafia to plot JFK murder in a way the CIA would come out whislte clean.

Ex-CIA Agent Claims He Bought Rifles for Kennedy Killinghttps://www.nsa.gov › documents › jfk › jfk00020PDF GENCE AGENCY SAYS IN A NEW. SOOK TEAT EE 20UG2T AND CUSTOKISED FOUR RIFLES HE SAYS WERE USED. :SY THE CIA AND THE }’.AFIA TO KILL ?RES!DEKT JOHN F

CIA denies Morow was ever in agency, a contractor agent or asset, thereof, of the CIA

https://www.nsa.gov/portals/75/documents/news-features/declassified-documents/jfk/jfk00020.pdf

New Orleans, George H.W. Bush,

MORROW REFERRED TO OSWALD, LONG THOUGHT TO BE KENNEDY:S UNCLASSIFIED UNCLASSIFIED ASSASSIN, A PATSY:: IN THE WHOLE PROCESS, WHICH HE CLAIMS LED TO THEN VICE PRESIDENT LYNDON JOHNSON AND FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION DIRECTOR J. EDGAR HOOVER. HE SAID EE HAD HEARD OSWALD:S NAME MENTIONED BEFORE ~EE SHOOTING AS A LOW-LEVEL CIA OPERAT!VE WHO HAD BEEN SENT TO RUSSIA.~: MORROW CLAIMS IN HIS BOOK THAT HE CUSTOMISED THE RIFLES SO THAT THEY COULD BE DISMANTLED, HIDDEN AND REASSEMBLED QUICKLY. EE ALSO CLAIMS THAT HE SUPPLIED CIA OPERATIVE DAVID FERRIE WITH Foua RADIO TR~NSCEIVERS THAT WERE NOT DETECTABLE E! AN! COMMUNICATIONS EQUI?~ENT THEN AVAILABLE ON TEE MARKET. KORROW SAID HIS CIA CASE OFFICER ASSURED HIM AFTERWARDS TEAT HE WOULD EE CLEAN AS A wEISTLE:: AND COULD NOT BE IMLICATEDIN THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT. HE SAID HE DID NOT COME FORWARD WITH ANY OF THE INFORMATION BECAUSE BARNES TOLD HIM HE WOULD BE SENT TO PRISON FOR VIOLATING TEE OAT?. OF SECRECY THAT ALL CIA AGENTS TAKE.

MORROW ALS~ CLAIMS THAT U.S. PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH HAD FULL KNOWLEDGE OF THE ASSASSINATION CONSPIRACY, THOUGH nE D!D NOT S?ECIFY WHEN BUSH, DIRECTOR OF THE CIA FROM 1976 TO 1977, MIGET HAVE BECOME AWARE. OF IT. GEORGE BUSH KNEW EVERYTHING,:: SAID MORROW.

This book

The Cheney Family are USAID plans Concealers along who have ensnared family lines into Original Sin those families refuse to exit from

The Mafia Operation of Bush Cheney spins out of control into a 33 Wild Fire, and contract killings cover it up.

Malcom X thought too many were being made (clones.) GLorian and James Donegan never agreed to it. JFK and RFK only wanted limited tests highly secret.

THe Mafia wanted lots of test births and lots of sleeper agents in their families and others and factory line created factory soup cans of all flavors for everywhere.

Marilyn Monroe likly knew the story and George H.W. Bush mafia contractors tied to the overhtrow of Castro also killed Marlylin Monroe to cover the extent of the program of sleepers, of theft of Blue Hyndragea Egg, and this may also be in the plot of At Any Price. Further Reading where a farmer is caught in a murder and enslaved to some other agricultural party, I think QEII.

Mob boss Samuel Mooney Giancana already building Chicago Mafia to support George H.W. Bush Zapata Oil strike on Cuba and other countries also uses Giancana on Marylin Monroe to keep his operation secret. Giacana himself will be shot in the skull prior to the Warren Commision. Further Reading

Did Richard Cheney soil agent family kill Marylin Monroe August 4 1962, get arrested November 18 1962, and become a blackmailed patsy for Queen of England since? #AtAnyPrice ??? movie? Further Reading

Dick Cheney retrieved from Britannica.com and copied or modified to here

Dick Cheney, in full Richard Bruce Cheney, (born January 30, 1941, Lincoln, Nebraska, U.S.), 46th vice president of the United States (200109) in the Republican administration of Pres. George W. Bush and secretary of defense (198993) in the administration of Pres. George H.W. Bush.

Cheney was the son of Richard Herbert Cheney, a soil-conservation agent, and Marjorie Lauraine Dickey Cheney. He was born in Nebraska and grew up in Casper, Wyoming. He entered Yale University in 1959 but failed to graduate. Cheney earned bachelor's (1965) and master's (1966) degrees in political science from the University of Wyoming and was a doctoral candidate at the University of Wisconsin.

On August 29, 1964, he married Lynne Vincent. While Cheney worked as an aid to Wisconsin Gov. Warren Knowles, his wife received a doctorate in British literature from the University of Wisconsin. She later served as chair of the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH; 198693), where she was criticized by liberals for undermining the agency and by conservatives for opposing the closure of a controversial NEH-funded exhibit by photographer Robert Mapplethorpe in Cincinnati, Ohio. The couple had two daughters, Elizabeth and Mary.

Richard Bruce Cheney married Lynne Vincent August 29, 1964 after courtship. While Cheney worked his wife received a doctorate in British literature from the University of Wisconsin. They Cheney daughters are [Queen] Elizabeth and [Queen] Mary

In 1968 Cheney moved to Washington, D.C., to serve as a congressional fellow, and, beginning in 1969, he worked in the administration of Pres. Richard Nixon. After leaving government service briefly in 1973, he became a deputy assistant to Pres. Gerald Ford in 1974 and his chief of staff from 1975 to 1977. In 1978 he was elected from

Elizabeth Lynne Cheney born July 28, 1966 is an American attorney and politician

Mary Claire Cheney born March 14, 1969 is the younger of the two daughters of Dick Cheney, the former vice president of the United States, and Lynne Cheney. She is politically conservative and is involved with a number of political action committees.[1] She married her wife Heather Poe in 2012, and in 2013 was a signatory to an amicus curiae brief submitted to the U.S. Supreme Court in support of same-sex marriage during the Hollingsworth v. Perry case.

On January 31, 2007, in a forum by Glamour Magazine at Barnard College of Columbia University, Mary Cheney stated that: “This is a baby… This is a blessing from God. It is not a political statement. It is not a prop to be used in a debate by people on either side of an issue. It is my child.”[10] She gave birth to their first child, a son, in May 2007.

Wyoming to the first of six terms in the United States House of Representatives, where he rose to become the Republican whip. In the House, Cheney took conservative positions on abortion, gun control, and environmental regulation, among other issues. In 1978 he suffered the first of several mild heart attacks, and he underwent quadruple-bypass surgery in 1988.

From 1989 to 1993 he served as secretary of defense in the administration of Pres. George Bush, presiding over reductions in the military following the breakup of the Soviet Union. Cheney also oversaw the U.S. military invasion of Panama and the participation of U.S. forces in the Persian Gulf War. After President Bush lost his reelection bid in 1992, Cheney became a fellow at the American Enterprise Institute, a conservative think tank. In 1995 he became the chairman and chief executive officer of the Halliburton Company, a supplier of technology and services to the oil and gas industries.

After George W. Bush’s primary victories secured his nomination for the presidency of the United States, Cheney was appointed to head Bush’s vice presidential search committee. Few expected that Cheney himself would eventually become the Republican vice presidential candidate. Two weeks after election day, Cheney suffered another mild heart attack, though he quickly resumed his duties as leader of Bush’s presidential transition team.

As vice president, Cheney was active and used his influence to help shape the administration’s energy policy and foreign policy in the Middle East. He played a central, controversial role in conveying intelligence reports that Saddam Hussein of Iraq had developed weapons of mass destruction (WMDs) in violation of resolutions passed by the United Nationsreports used by the Bush administration to initiate the Iraq War. However, Iraq had no WMDs that could be found. Following the collapse of Saddam’s regime, Cheney’s former company, Halliburton, secured lucrative reconstruction contracts from the U.S. government, raising the spectre of favouritism and possible wrongdoingallegations that damaged Cheney’s public reputation. Critics, who had long charged Cheney with being a secretive public servant, included members of Congress who brought suit against him for not disclosing records used to form the national energy policy.

After leaving office in 2009, Cheney remained in the public eye, often speaking on political matters. In 2010 he suffered his fifth heart attack. Two years later he had a heart transplant. His autobiography, In My Time: A Personal and Political Memoir (cowritten with his daughter Liz Cheney), was published in 2011. Cheney also wrote, with his heart surgeon, Heart: An American Medical Odyssey (2013) and, with Liz Cheney, Exceptional: Why the World Needs a Powerful America (2015).

Mark Howard Gorton[1] is a businessman whose research into deep politics was published on Gawker in 2014.

Title	Document Type	Publication Date	Subjects	Description
Document:Fifty Years of the Deep State	Book	22 NOVEMBER 2013	Deep state CIA 9-11 George H. W. Bush JFK/Assassination RFK/Assassination MLK/Assassination	A detailed overview of the modern US deep state which names names, the most prominent of which, George H. W. Bush, is exposed as the kingpin of the US Deep state and probable a key mover behind the 9/11 plot.
Document:The Coup of '63, Part 1	essay	10 April 2014	Deep politics US/Deep state JFK Assassination	Part 1 of Mark Gorton's summary of the JFK assassination.
Document:The Political Dominance of The Cabal	essay	2 March 2014	Deep politics 9-11 Bush Family US/Deep state	The story of an American political cabal so powerful that it has been able to repress knowledge of its existence for 50 years, and the hidden history of the political force that has dominated American politics for the last 50 years.

@EddoneganB Targeted Atomic Veteran #Havanasyndromevictim @comey My ? (other than how a #fbi director got @comey no one else did) is did Lyndon B. Johnson kill #Irish #Catholic #JFK because of who #LBJ was, or did #Busch #Cheney #Windsor #Rockefeller #Kerry #Operation40 #Dulles #Hunt kill #JFK because of who LBJ was? @SixthFlrMuseum

Norma Jean: "Albert, let's keep up that work on thought experiments and FOXP2" Albert Einstien: "Its common in Austria Germany. Hitler, Windsors, so many."

Cheney was born in Lincoln, Nebraska, the son of Marjorie Lorraine (née Dickey) and Richard Herbert Cheney. He is of predominantly English, as well as Welsh, Irish, and French Huguenot ancestry. His father was a soil conservation agent for the U.S. Department of Agriculture and his mother was a softball star in the 1930s

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE retrieved from https://www.usda.gov/ Our Agencies and copied or modified to here

AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (AMS)

AMS facilitates the strategic marketing of agricultural products in domestic and international markets while ensuring fair trading practices and promoting a competitive and efficient marketplace. AMS constantly works to develop new marketing services to increase customer satisfaction.

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH SERVICE (ARS)

ARS is USDA's principal in-house research agency. ARS leads America towards a better future through agricultural research and information.

ANIMAL AND PLANT HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE (APHIS)

APHIS provides leadership in ensuring the health and care of animals and plants. The agency improves agricultural productivity and competitiveness and contributes to the national economy and the public health.

ECONOMIC RESEARCH SERVICE (ERS)

ERS is USDA's principal social science research agency. Each year, ERS communicates research results and socioeconomic indicators via briefings, analyses for policymakers and their staffs, market analysis updates, and major reports.

FARM SERVICE AGENCY (FSA)

The Farm Service Agency implements agricultural policy, administers credit and loan programs, and manages conservation, commodity, disaster and farm marketing programs through a national network of offices.

FOOD AND NUTRITION SERVICE (FNS)

FNS increases food security and reduces hunger in partnership with cooperating organizations by providing children and low-income people access to food, a healthy diet, and nutrition education in a manner that supports American agriculture and inspires public confidence.

FOOD SAFETY AND INSPECTION SERVICE (FSIS)

FSIS enhances public health and well-being by protecting the public from foodborne illness and ensuring that the nation's meat, poultry and egg products are safe, wholesome, and correctly packaged.

FOREIGN AGRICULTURAL SERVICE (FAS)

FAS works to improve foreign market access for U.S. products. This USDA agency operates programs designed to build new markets and improve the competitive position of U.S. agriculture in the global marketplace.

FOREST SERVICE (FS)

FS sustains the health, diversity and productivity of the Nation's forests and grasslands to meet the needs of present and future generations.

NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS SERVICE (NASS)

NASS serves the basic agricultural and rural data needs of the country by providing objective, important and accurate statistical information and services to farmers, ranchers, agribusinesses and public officials. This data is vital to monitoring the ever-changing agricultural sector and carrying out farm policy.

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE (NIFA)

NIFA's mission is to invest in and advance agricultural research, education, and extension to solve societal challenges. NIFA's investments in transformative science directly support the long-term prosperity and global preeminence of U.S. agriculture.

NATURAL RESOURCES CONSERVATION SERVICE (NRCS)

NRCS provides leadership in a partnership effort to help people conserve, maintain and improve our natural resources and environment.

RISK MANAGEMENT AGENCY (RMA)

RMA helps to ensure that farmers have the financial tools necessary to manage their agricultural risks. RMA provides coverage through the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, which promotes national welfare by improving the economic stability of agriculture.

RURAL DEVELOPMENT (RD)

RD helps rural areas to develop and grow by offering Federal assistance that improves quality of life. RD targets communities in need and then empowers them with financial and technical resources.

RURAL UTILITIES SERVICE (RUS)

RUS provides financing to build or improve infrastructure in rural communities. This includes water and waste treatment, electric power and telecommunications services. These services help expand economic opportunities and improve the quality of life for rural residents.

RURAL HOUSING SERVICE (RHS)

RHS offers a variety of programs to build or improve housing and essential community facilities in rural areas. RHS offers loans, grants and loan guarantees for single- and multi-family housing, child care centers, fire and police stations, hospitals, libraries, nursing homes, schools, first responder vehicles and equipment, housing for farm laborers and much more.

RURAL BUSINESS-COOPERATIVE SERVICE (RBS)

RBS offers programs to help businesses grow as well as job training for people living in rural areas. These programs help provide the capital, training, education and entrepreneurial skills that can help people living in rural areas start and grow businesses or find jobs in agricultural markets and in the bio-based economy.

False Flag 911: How Bush, Cheney and the Saudis Created the Post-911 World ^

by Philip Marshall (Author)

From the flight deck of a Boeing 767, airline captain Philip Marshall pulls back the veil of deception surrounding the 911 attacks. In gripping, authoritative detail he recreates the hijacked flights, including all their technical challenges, exploding the myths behind official accounts of pilot training and tactical planning. His finding: the mission could not have been carried out by any known terrorist group. Explaining for the first time the hijackers' mysterious trips to Las Vegas, where and how they could have been trained, and the document that actually states a political motive for the attacks, he finds abundant evidence implicating a nexus of Saudi officials, American contractors and, most unthinkably, members of the Bush administration. Analyzing 911 in terms of its original tactical plan, Marshall concludes that the attack partially failed, and that its failures could ultimately serve to bring the creators of the Post 911 World to light, if not to justice.

MKULRA : Prescott Bush, George H.W. Hush, George Bush, Cheney.

THe sting of the WASPS tied to England during the Troubles, surely backing England in that too against Irish freedom fighters like Bobby Sands.

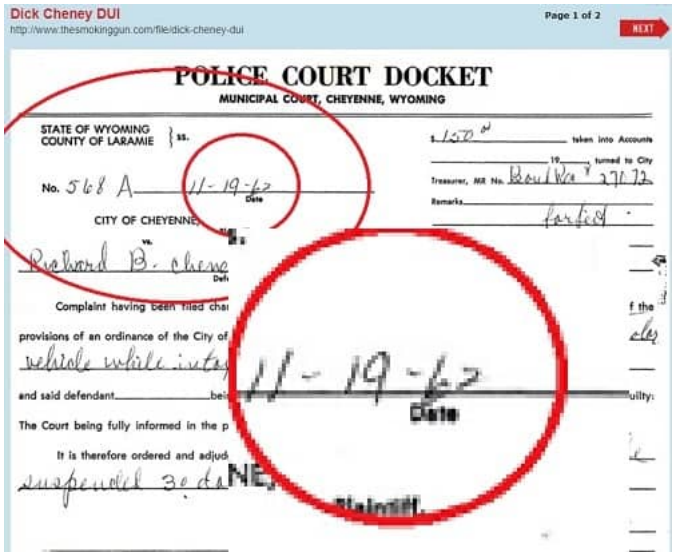
Like WASPS to oil. Must be something in WASP DNA to seek it out.

Born: January 30, 1941 (age 80), Lincoln, Nebraska Net worth: $100 million (celebritynetworth.com)

Dick Cheney: “I think the FBI CIA NSA DARA Plan to create sleeper agent Obama using Malcom X and GLorian Donegan is a good one.”

The plan in 1961 to 1963 organized by the CIA, FBI, NSA, DAPRPA

On November 19 1962 likely CIA operation removed Cheney from view of the public on a fake drunk driving charge much like they got the bush AG out of view of the public.



Elsewhere in this book …

NOVEMBER 20, 2008 WASHINGTON (AP) - Attorney General Michael Mukasey was hospitalized but conscious and alert early Friday after collapsing during a late-night speech to a conservative legal group

President George W. Bush, scheduled to attend a weekend financial summit in Peru, was informed about Mukasey collapse, press secretary Dana Perino said.

Wikipedia retrieved from From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia Michael Mukasey and copied or modified to here

Georege W. Bush Attorney General Mukasey was born in 1941 in New York City.[6] His father was born near Baranavichy in Belarus (then in the Russian Empire) and emigrated to the U.S. in 1921.[7][8]

Mukasey graduated in 1959 from the Ramaz School, an independent (formerly boys’ and now co-educational) Modern Orthodox Jewish prep school in the Upper East Side neighborhood of Manhattan in New York City. His wife, Susan, was later a teacher and headmistress of the lower school at Ramaz, and both of their children (Marc and Jessica)[9] attended the school.[10]

As an undergraduate student, Mukasey was the editorials editor of the Columbia Daily Spectator[11] at Columbia University (MKULTRA Manhattan Project), where he received his Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1963, majoring in history. He received his Bachelor of Laws from Yale Law School in 1967.

Forty-four American colleges or universities, 15 research foundations took part in MKULTRA

SPECIAL REPORTA CHANGE OF HEART interview with Dick Cheney retrieved from Standford Medicine and copied or modified to here

COSTELLO:You were at death's door in 2010. But you write that you were at peace facing death. Why weren't you more fearful?

CHENEY:The fifth heart attack was in February, and by June I reached the point where I was obviously in end-stage heart failure. All I wanted to do was to get out of bed in the morning, sit down in my chair and sleep some more. I'd lost most of my physical abilities to do anything.

I had my first heart attack at 37 years old, when you think you're going to live forever. Over time, with chronic heart issues, I concluded that sooner or later, I was going to run out of technology and new innovations in the area of heart medicine.

Nearly two years after his transplant, Cheney and his cardiologist, Jonathan Reiner, MD, have written a book about his history of heart ailments, Heart: An American Medical Odyssey. Paul Costello, executive editor of Stanford Medicine, spoke to Cheney about life after near death.

We didn't write it for political reasons. It was a combination of being able to tell a story and the fact that during 35 years of heart ailments, I've held some pretty important jobs. I've been able to live a full and active life while dealing with heart disease as we went through it.

Wall Street Journal

The Story of Dick Cheney's Heart By Joseph Rago July 9, 2011 *

Still, his second heart attack hit in 1984-"they always seemed to happen in campaign years"-and his third four years later, "the most serious." He needed a quadruple bypass, where surgeons rerouted blood vessels around his arteries. He listened to George H.W. Bush's "no new taxes" speech, delivered at the 1988 GOP convention, while he was being prepped for surgery in D.C. He was skiing again by Christmas.

A generation ago, Mr. Cheney's fourth heart attack, during the 2000 Florida recount, wouldn't have been detected at all. But recent diagnostic improvements meant the ability to detect the enzymes and proteins released into the bloodstream when heart muscle cells are injured. Over the next year, Mr. Cheney's doctors, led by George Washington University Hospital's Jonathan Reiner, took advantage of the new cardiology arsenal. They gave the vice president a balloon angioplasty (c. 1980s) to reopen an artery and two stents (1994), lattice metal sleeves, to prop it open.

In retrospect the most important procedure from that West Wing period was the installation below Mr. Cheney's shoulder of an implantable cardioverter defibrillator (1985), a battery-powered device about the size of a pocket watch that continuously monitors heart rhythm and delivers a corrective electric jolt if it recognizes an abnormality. “I wore that about five or six years, then they replaced it when a newer model came along,” he says.

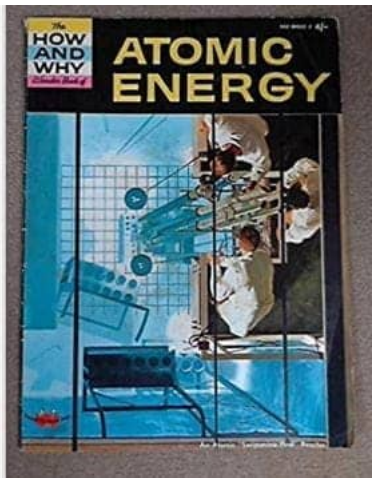
Today, it’s enough to marvel that he is alive. “No matter what kind of problem I’ve run into, there’s always been a solution for it,” Mr. Cheney says. “Now, obviously, there will be a point where there aren’t any more solutions, and I’ll have used up my time. We all do.”



Donald Barr CIA Free Mason with an experimental monkey having a birthday at the White House November 23 1961

The Bush oil family, Rockefeller Standard Oil family, Middle East plans, England the Rothschilds, Windsors, dynasty is tied to Michecal Mulcasey, Donald Barr, William Barr, MKULTRA, the assignations of some of Camelaot, and more.

I was held in custody on a misdemeanor while I was blogging about the Genome program and then Senator Obama as thy Bush administration, Wray of the FBI included, faked I was mentally ill, held me in a psych ward of only blacks, and race baited me and used radiation Directed Engery Attacks on me burning my skin, putting me in about the 7th civil commitment I have bene through under FBHI attack, in all cases my mother belived I wrong about being stalked by the FBI including she believed I was wrong about NIH.ASP wish as about NIH FBI misconduct by Wray an he FBI and Lorretta Lynch, and the documents proving I was right still are hidden even by arhcive.org.

It has been non stop FBI attacks on me 25 hours a day for at least 30 years in a row non stop and every day the truth supports me over these FBI deeps state criminals.

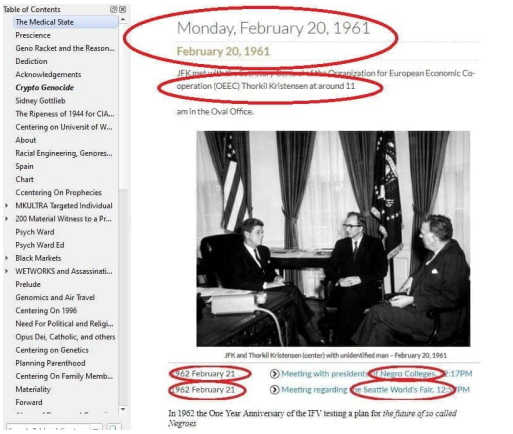
IT was all that activity like putting scavies on her, slandering me to her, slandering the BDSM scene to her, all of that is what got her to make Tom Donegan, as he planned it, in a postion of [abusive} power ofver me he sought all his life, and he dealt with my mothers death with glee saying he noow could really kill me and was going to, and Tom DOnegan was gleefual at my fathers death to, so much so I had to leave my fathers side lest I kill both Tom and Mark at that time.

Tom and Mark setup the trafficking schemem among Antifa and far leftists which has always run out of fellife.com, Backpage.com, and Boston including THEM mixing all of that into Honor FLight DCA as I would NEVER have done.

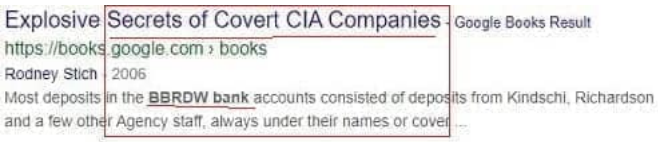
THe treatment of me in the legal system includes putting me in 199 or more blacks surrouning me enviroments of glaring at me and use of what amounts to broom closess on train cars

Use of assaults on me to provoke fights is the FBI way I have lived under, on the defensive, every moment of my life.

George H.W. Bush was worried he might get hanged if the truth of his MKJULTRA acvitivities were ever revealed and the attaks on me have been to silence me and my story.



A bookend piece on Edward Paul Donegan III my being a descendent of a King Edward via a Rodin sendup called Rheinhold's Affe mit Schädel and a few days after my birthday these two statues in my home, one in the Whitehouse



In November 1962, at the age of 21, Cheney was convicted of driving while intoxicated (DWI). He was arrested for DWI again the following year.[19] Cheney said that the arrests made him "think about where I was and where I was headed. I was headed down a bad road if I continued on that course." From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia[20]

"Would you do anything to save yourself from world level humiliation and would you do anything to save your children or others from that?"

Whether you accept the birthdays I claim for Obama Jr., born November 18 1961 and the birth certificate of November 19 1961 or the August 4 1961 birthday these still have the DARPA Brain Program experiminatation like markers of clone studies and comparison cognitive research evaluations.

United States. Congress. Senate · 1975 19351962 - Nov. 18 , 1962 * Cheney , Person C . — . New Hampshire .— 18861887— June 19 , 1901 Chestnut , James , Jr .. South Carolina ... 1858-1860 .

In the case of he Obama children they likely were genetically treated during fertilization with brain gees to match Obama Jr.s though be of non white heritage thus have some partial 3rd party parenting which was possible after brain genes were sequenced and CRISPR technlogies emerged.

The real string pullers are the DuPont family, Arnold Swartzenegger, it included until recently Colin and Alma Powell and others, and most of these cronies still retain various forms of power as even the next generations move into public office and then fade back into corridors of power in various agencies or ongoing other business or intelligence work or NGO work.

King Edward VIII, Philanderer, abdicates, marries in U.S., playboy with socialites, Speech De Spanish Illuminati

Pre 1963 Race, Economy, and Spread of Communism
Sidney Gottlieb

Nuclear Bomber pilot James Donegan Radiation Blast Affects Testing and Hawaii area Johnson Atol				Glorian Donegan FOXP2 ovum fertilized by Malcom X	With Wir some sp resolved for CIA t years fro
Families	Donegans Kennedys Gottlieb Shrivers Peace Corps Windsors (via Glorian US Prince Edward)			JFK CIA Sidney Gottlieb Malcom X and Obama	Glorian D Barack O
Timeline	Manhattan Beach California Home To Lawfords Shrivers	Cape Cod Home to Donegans and Kennedys	DC or JFK	Seattle Polar route of missiles, missile defense, Pacific rim and Russia
Feb 20 1961	Donegans in above ground Triad atomic testing, radiation affects at Catholic St Joseph Daniel Freeman Hospital, Sidney Gottlieb, “Catholics In Action”		Thorkill, George Ball, JFK IVF CIA OECD, DIA created, MKULTRA, DARPA China	Indonesia plans for Obama, tied to Antrhopolgist Dunham cover story. CIA Peace Corps East-West Center University of Hawaii Suharto Crane Sidney Gottlieb	This cell
Nov 18 1961	Nov 18 me born, Nov19 Birth Certificate Los Angles County California JFK at birth and I think Obama birth as well via Evan Ban	Although Donegans temporarily in LA California, still Massachusetts Cape Cod Social Security Number for me at Nov 18 1961 delivery	Barack Obama and Edward Donegan born via Evan Ban Nov 18 1961 Birth Cert Nov 19 1961 Experimental Monkey in White House		Trinity U Chicago. Nov 19 N
Feb 20 1962 1 year eval	Ed Donegan getting Electroencephalograph, Borderline Personality		Feb 21 JFK Presidents Negro	CIA Hawaii Plan	Chicago Negroes

	and ADD, Dyslexia testing		Colleges, Plan for Seattle		East Wes Feb 196 around t https://is 1962
April 1962 Eval of feb 20 1961 1 year IVF procedure result				21st Century Expo Windsors, Camelot, Missles	Muhamn Malcom for judge Universit
November 19 1962 Dick Chaney in police secret service CIA custody as he decides on a new religious course for his life	Likely Dick Chenney, later V.P. to George W. Bush (H.W.and George Bush both named by LInda Newkirk as in on the plot to kill JFK and one other Knnnedy so Hillary Clinton could get into New York Senate) is working with George H.W. Bush, CIA, Operation 40, MENA Airport Sidny Gottleib, James Donegan, Secret Service, Colin Powell, Alma Powell, Dulles Brothers, Donald Barr, MKULTRA Columbia University MKULTRA	Posibly working with John Trump as well, brother to and the J in the name of Donald J. Trump, John Trump studied radar and radio wave and also cancer for the Nuclear Triad peice of MKULTRA	JFK at University of Washington Seattle for speech, also sighted at Worlds Fair in secret visit	DECEMBER 12, 2012 Story behind the JFK Santa Monica photo. Eva Ban husband Alexander Ban wed Eva Charlotte Boross (born 11/18/1919, He married Agnes Edith Juhász (born 11/18/1909 in Budapest, Hungary)
Dec 13 1962			14 December 1962 Description: Sound recording of President John F. Kennedy’s address to the Economic Club of New York at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.
Nov 18 1963	Donegans return to Cape Code from Manhattan Beach	Thomas Crane Wales (June 23, 1952 - October 11,	JFK meets MKULTRA, Weherner	Dunhams, Obama live in Seattle,	Barack C

		2001) was an American federal prosecutor … Wales was a graduate of Milton Academy, where he roomed with Joseph Patrick Kennedy II, the son of Robert F. Kennedy	Von BRaun, etc.,	then head to Indonesia --- JFK is dead Nov 22, had warned of secret org, maybe Freemasons
Feb20 info on Thomas Wales murder seek of information				Thomas Crane Wales (June 23, 1952 - October 11, 2001) was an American FEDERAL PROSECUTOR (cop) Seattle Washington. Wales was a graduate of Milton Academy, where he roomed with Joseph Patrick Kennedy II, the son of Robert F. Kennedy and lived in area of Dunhams, Obama, Seattle Futurism	Malcolm death: A February

The Conspiracy against GLorian Donegan and Targeting her BEFORE 2011 setting up the continuing targeeting of Glorian Donegan and my IMMEDIATELY upon her death

feltife activity and hacking was tied to her birthday I did not recognize any plot at that time though and was being trustful of Tom Donegan and Mark Weirness

spywithasecret

- On Sat, 12/17/11, FetLife donotreply@notify.fetlifemail.com wrote:

From: FetLife

donotreply@notify.fetlifemail.com> Subject: Your FetLife login infomation To: eddonegan@yahoo.com Date: Saturday, December 17, 2011, 1:59 PM

So I hear you are having problems logging into FetLife? Clicking here should help:

If you have any questions or comments please don't hesitate to message message us at support@fetlife.com.

I am a surveillance abuse survivor which targetd me with conflict situations I was then arrested for or the trust fund charged for.

> The True Story Of Revelation 12 Now Is Come Salvation, And Strength, And The Kingdom Of Our God
>
> Be sure to pay close attention at the 32 minute mark in the video where Ron recounts a visitation from the Lord while he was in Jerusalem. The Lord told Ron He was on His way from South Africa to the New Jerusalem. The works of Revelation 12 began in South Africa when the Lord gave the tiny Manchild of Revelation 12 to Linda! The tiny baby of light went right into Linda's body at the time and became a part of her.

Information which may contribute to profiling and the deaths of Criminal Justice officials Scalia, Thomas C. Wales, Rohert F. Kennedy, John F. Kennedy, and perhaps others not yet considered under the umbrella theory of this book yet

Charles Milles Manson (né Maddox; NOVEMBER 12, 1934 - November 19, 2017) aka Charles Manson was a research (test) subject Dr. David Smithy, CIA MKULTRA. Manson would write a book "Stranger in a Strange Land, the Bible, Scientology, Dale Carnegie and the Beatles, which quickly earned him a following."

The Helter Skelter scenario is a theory put forward by Vincent Bugliosi, the lead prosecutor in the Tate-LaBianca murder trial. It is mostly based on the testimony of Paul Watkins, as a motive for the series of murders that were committed by the Manson Family in order to convict Charles Manson of conspiracy to commit murder. Bugliosi described his theory at trial and in his subsequent book Helter Skelter: The True Story of the Manson Murders. According to Bugliosi's theory, Manson often spoke to the members of his "family" about Helter Skelter in the months leading up to the murders of Sharon Tate and Leno and Rosemary LaBianca in August 1969, an apocalyptic war arising from racial tensions between Black and White people. 311 This involved reference to music of the Beatles, particularly songs from their self-titled 1968 double album (also known as the "White Album"), and the New Testament's Book of Revelation. [Dark to Light, New Origins, Great Awakening, Revelations of Gods Light in Africa, Black Adam, ARC of the Covenant by other names

Sharon Marie Tate Polanski (January 24, 1943 - AUGUST 9, 1969) was an American actress and model.

The actress was more than 8 months pregnant at the time of her murder. The following night the gang struck again, killing Rosemary and Leno LaBianca in their home nearby.

It has always been assumed that Manson's victims were chosen at random, and the murders the senseless act of a madman with a messiah complex.

In a 1976 interview with the National Enquirer, Manson himself insisted, "It didn't matter who was killed as long as it was someone. No one picked out Sharon Tate and went down there and plotted a course for madness."

But a book by investigative journalists Dylan Howard and Andy Tillett now reveal that Manson had not only previously met Sharon Tate - whose husband Roman Polanski was one of Hollywood's hottest young movie directors at that time - but that he and Tex Watson had visited her house several times before the murders.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Where did they get these genes from ? Out of Wedlock Windsers who wanted them diagnosed in lab samples (people) not visible as their own family.

Terry Nichols retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

CHAOS: Charles Manson, the CIA, and the Secret History of the Sixties retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

This is the front cover art for the book CHAOS: Charles Manson, the CIA, and the Secret History of the Sixties written by Tom O'Neill with Dan Piepenbring. The book cover art copyright is believed to belong to the publisher or the cover artist

CHAOS: Charles Manson, the CIA, and the Secret History of the Sixties is a 2019 non-fiction book written by Tom O'Neill with Dan Piepenbring [de]. The book presents O'Neill's research into the background and motives for the Tate-LaBianca murders committed by the Manson Family in 1969. O'Neill questions the Helter Skelter scenario argued by lead prosecutor Vincent Bugliosi in the trials and in his book Helter Skelter (1974).[3][4] The book's title is a reference to the covert CIA program Operation CHAOS.[5]

Terry Lynn Nichols (born APRIL 1, 1955) is an American domestic terrorist who was convicted of being an accomplice in the Oklahoma City bombing.[4] Prior to his incarceration, he held a variety of short-term jobs, working as a farmer, grain elevator manager, real estate salesman and ranch hand.[5] He met his future co-conspirator, Timothy McVeigh, during a brief stint in the U.S. Army, which ended in 1989 when he requested a hardship discharge after less than one year of service.[5] In 1994 and 1995, he conspired with McVeigh in the planning and preparation of the truck bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on April 19, 1995. The bombing killed 168 people.

In a federal trial in 1997, Nichols was convicted of conspiracy to use a weapon of mass destruction and eight counts of involuntary manslaughter for killing federal law enforcement personnel. He was sentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole after the jury deadlocked on the death penalty. He was also tried in Oklahoma on state charges of murder in connection with the bombing. In 2004, he was convicted of 161 counts of first degree murder, including one count of fetal homicide, first-degree arson, and conspiracy. As in the federal trial, the state jury deadlocked on imposing the death penalty. He was sentenced to 161 consecutive life terms without the possibility of parole,

James Dennis “Jim” Ellison retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Richard Snell was a member of the white supremacist group The Covenant, The Sword, and the Arm of the Lord (known as the CSA), which was started in 1971 in the small community of Elijah, Missouri, by polygamist James Ellison. He was also a believer in the Christian Identity religion, and frequented Elohim City, a private community located in Oklahoma.

James Dennis “Jim” Ellison (c. 1941[1]) is a former American white supremacist leader from San Antonio, Texas. In 1971, he founded the radical organization The Covenant, The Sword, and the Arm of the Lord (CSA). Ellison purchased a 250-acre (1.0 km2) strip of land near Elijah, Missouri, to serve as his compound. He was also a close associate of both Richard Wayne Snell and Timothy McVeigh.

Snell was involved in the filming of planes that landed at Mena Intermountain Municipal Airport in Mena, Arkansas, thought of by Snell and many conspiracy theorists to be used in a government-sanctioned operation of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to smuggle drugs into the United States. Snell had claimed that law enforcement agencies, both state and those local to that area of western Arkansas, were involved in the cover-up of the Mena airport drug smuggling. He had also made claims that he had filmed the then-Governor of Arkansas, Bill Clinton, at Mena Intermountain Municipal Airport, but that claim has never been proven. Snell further claimed that one of the Arkansas state troopers who were assigned to the Governor’s security team at that time had beaten Snell’s wife in an attempt to force her to reveal the location of the alleged video footage Snell had taken at the airport.

In 1983, Snell, accompanied by CSA members William Thomas and Steven Scott, attempted to dynamite a natural gas pipeline near Fulton, Arkansas, without success. Scott was eventually captured and convicted of that crime, while several other CSA members were arrested on various other charges, mostly weapons violations. By 1985, the CSA had essentially fallen into inactivity due to most of its members being either killed or incarcerated.

Snell, known to his friends as “Wayne”, was an anomaly amongst the militants of the CSA, in that he operated autonomously, using the CSA compound as his base of operation. Steven Scott, a frequent collaborator with Snell, gave this information in a federal prison holding cell to one of the then members.

On November 3, 1983, Snell shot and killed pawn shop owner William Stumpp,[2] who he mistakenly believed was of Jewish descent, and then on June 30, 1984, he killed black Arkansas State Trooper Louis P. Bryant near DeQueen, Arkansas.[3][4] Snell then left the scene and drove across the Oklahoma state line. A truck driver who witnessed the killing of Officer Bryant followed him and contacted the Broken Bow police department. The police officers there set up a roadblock, where they engaged Snell in a shootout that resulted in Snell being wounded six times in the abdomen, knee, and ankle, and arrested. Snell was then returned to Arkansas for trial, where he was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison for the murder of Bryant and death for the murder of Stumpp. Snell never denied the allegations made against him, or the crimes he was accused of having committed.

White genocide conspiracy theory retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Timothy McVeigh, the main perpetrator of the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing that killed 168 and injured more than 680, carried pages from The Turner Diaries, a fictional account of white supremacists who ignite a revolution by blowing up the FBI headquarters with a truck bomb. The book was greatly influential in shaping white nationalism and in the later development of white genocide conspiracy theory.[240] [248] Although the bomber didn't attribute his motives to the white nationalist movement, he frequently cited The Turner Diaries and had been reprimanded in the Army for wearing a "white power" T-shirt purchased at a Ku Klux Klan rally.

[I believe fairly garbaled information now leaking out is Indirect Rule. Elite Wasps are NOT criticizing non white nations or people. THey wish to have groomed leaders in place who will be part of a Masonic tending of those populations.]

The conspiracy theory had precursors in early 20th-century eugenics theories, which were popular in white-majority countries such as Australia and New Zealand, where it was feared that non-white immigrants would eventually supplant the white population.

Madison Grant

In 1916, the American eugenicist and lawyer Madison Grant wrote a book entitled The Passing of the Great Race which, while largely ignored when it first appeared, went through four editions, becoming part of popular culture in 1920s America and, in the process, spawned the ideology that the founding-stock of the United States, the so-called Nordic race, were under extinction threats from assimilation with non-whites.

Adolf Hitler wrote to Grant to thank him for writing The Passing of the Great Race, calling it "my Bible."[55] Nazis employed the conspiracy theory widely as propaganda, as exemplified in a 1934 pamphlet written for the "Research Department for the Jewish question" of Walter Frank's "Reich Institute" with the title "Are the White Nations Dying? The Future of the White and the Colored Nations in the Light of Biological Statistics."

Nazis used the conspiracy theory as a call to arms in a bid to gain power through cultural hegemony and scapegoating Jews by leveraging long-running historical prejudices.

Prior to Nazis coming to power, German eugenicists including Jewish medical and psychiatric professionals did consider Jews to be distinct from white Europeans, but not so "degenerate" or unfit as to require anything more than guidance avoiding heritable disease via marriage counseling and, as early as 1918, screening for Jews wishing to emigrate to Palestine.

In 2008, the conspiracy theory spread beyond its explicit neo-Nazi and white nationalist origins, to be embraced by the newly founded alt-right movement. Discussion threads on the white nationalist Internet forum Stormfront often center around the theme of white people being subjected to genocidal policies by their governments. The concept has also been popularized by the alt-right and alt-lite movements in the United States.[79][80] The notion of racial purity, homogeneity or "racial hygiene" is an underlying theme of the white genocide discourse and it has been used by people with neo-Nazi and white supremacist backgrounds.

While individual iterations of the conspiracy theory vary on who is assigned blame, Jewish influence, people who hate whites,and liberal political forces are commonly cited by white supremacists as being the main factors leading to a white genocide. This view is held by prominent figures such as David Duke, who cites Jews and "liberal political ideals" as the main causes.

The Great Replacement

Renaud Camus, progenitor of the Great Replacement theory. March 2019 Main article: The Great Replacement Starting with French author Renaud Camus and his 2011 book

Le Grand Remplacement, the conspiracy theory of the Great Replacement focused on a displacement of French whites by predominantly Muslim population from the Middle East and Africa, then turned into a pan-European concept which spread across most major countries' politics on the continent.

Trump has been accused of capitalizing on "white genocide anxiety" with claims that immigration had "changed the fabric of Europe", and empowering his supporters in media, such as Laura Ingraham, to stoke fears of "massive demographic changes" within the US. Science journalist Ronald Bailey proposes that Trump is merely "the latest demagogue to rise to power by stoking white folks' ethnic fears", and that "white extinction panics" have historically occurred in the US each time the foreign-born population reached above 13 percent.

Pat Buchanan in 2008

Blow has defined "white extinction anxiety" as the fear that white people will become a minority, stripped of their race-based privilege. Analyzing the concept, he examined Pat Buchanan's rhetoric (described by Bailey as a form of blood and soil mantra);of whether the nations of Europe and North America had the "will and capacity to halt the invasion of the countries" before immigration altered the "political, social, racial, ethnic - character of the country entirely." Addressing Buchanan's arguably ethnic nationalist conclusions that "You cannot stop these sentiments of people who want to live together with their own and they want their borders protected", Blow said, "Make no mistake here, Buchanan is talking about protecting white dominance, white culture, white majorities and white power".

McVeigh took last rites before execution retrieved from CNN.com/LawCenter and copied or modified to here

Strapped to a gurney, awaiting the lethal injection Monday that would punish him for the Oklahoma City bombing, Timothy McVeigh asked to see a priest.

Bureau of Prisons officials said McVeigh, a self-described agnostic, received the Catholic sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick by an unidentified prison chaplain.

"McVeigh did see last rites which were provided by a BOP chaplain," said Jeff Grondolsky, a spokesman with the Bureau of Prisons.

Part of the sacrament includes confession and an absolution of sins.

Did McVeigh confess to the priest?

"I think it speaks for itself," McVeigh attorney Robert Nigh said.

McVeigh, who made no final statement before his execution, was offered a priest by Terre Haute Federal Prison Warden Harley Lappin. McVeigh said he would consider the offer.

After a 15-minute meeting with Nigh, McVeigh agreed to see the priest and take the final sacraments of the Catholic faith.

McVeigh was baptized in the Catholic Church as a boy, but had stopped practicing and recently described himself as agnostic.

McVeigh biographer Lou Michel spoke to McVeigh's father, Bill McVeigh, after the execution.

"He was glad to hear that Tim had taken last rites and that maybe religion had hit him in the last few hours," Michel said.

The rites were performed before curtains were opened to allow witnesses to observe the execution.

Father Ron Ashmore of St. Margaret Mary Church in Terre Haute said he was “glad” McVeigh asked for last rites. Ashmore met McVeigh while doing work with the prison before the current chaplain was hired.

“It means that we stand before God,” Ashmore said, “and ask for Your forgiveness … Save me and lead me to eternal life.” He said it wouldn’t “have surprised me” if McVeigh had not asked for the sacrament, but “I’m sure he struggled with the evil that he did.”

McVeigh died by lethal injection at 7:14 a.m. (8:14 a.m. EDT).

McVeigh was executed for the April 19, 1995, attack in Oklahoma City that killed 168 people and wounded hundreds more. The bombing was the deadliest terrorism act ever on U.S. soil.

McVeigh’s death was the first federal execution since 1963.

This book

Colin Luther Powell is A Concealer

In the mid days of October 2021 roughly the week of 10/102021 tp 10/17/2021 I have accused Colin Powell on a age centering on him as a Concealer of MKULTRA and on 10/18/2021 I see news he had died and is said to have had covid which is possible but it could conceivably have been suicide or murder by covid if he or someone feared questions emerging from MKUTLRA history.

file:///C:/Users/Owner/Documents/Working/TheMedicalState.epub modified Sunday, October 17, 2021, 7:42:26 PM is Colin Luther Powell is A Concealer.

He married Almaa Powell Boston Speech Therapist 1961 likely studying FOXP3 tone deafness,, etc.,

Colin Powell, military leader and first Black US secretary of state, dies after complications from Covid-19 retrieved from CNN and copied or modified to here

CNN)Colin Powell, the first Black US secretary of state whose leadership in several Republican administrations helped shape American foreign policy in the last years of the 20th century and the early years of the 21st, has died from complications from Covid-19, his family said on Facebook. He was 84.

“General Colin L. Powell, former U.S. Secretary of State and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, passed away this morning due to complications from Covid 19,” the Powell family wrote on Facebook, noting he was fully vaccinated. “We have lost a remarkable and loving husband, father, grandfather and a great American,” they said.

Powell was a distinguished and trailblazing professional soldier whose career took him from combat duty in Vietnam to becoming the first Black national security adviser during the end of Ronald Reagan’s presidency and the youngest and first African American chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff under President George H.W. Bush.

His national popularity soared in the aftermath of the US-led coalition victory during the Gulf War, and for a time in the mid-90s, he was considered a leading contender to become the first Black President of the United States. But his reputation would be forever stained when, as George W. Bush’s first secretary of state, he pushed faulty intelligence before the United Nations to advocate for the Iraq War, which he would later call a “blot” on his record.

Bush said in a statement Monday that Powell was “a great public servant” who was “such a favorite of Presidents that he earned the Presidential Medal of Freedom — twice. He was highly respected at home and abroad. And most important, Colin was a family man and a friend.”

Though Powell never mounted a White House bid, when he was sworn in as Bush’s secretary of state in 2001, he became the highest-ranking Black public official to date in the country, standing fourth in the presidential line of succession.

Alma Vivian Powell (née Johnson; born October 27, 1937) is an American audiologist and the widow of military and political figure Colin Powell,[1] whom she married on August 25, 1962.[about the

- He matches along with his wife Alma the Kennedy Assassination

one year birthday of anyone born August 4 and in 1962 about the time Cheney joined some secret plan on Novermber 18 1962 and is also the Worlds Fair Seatle months] She graduated from Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee, and went on to study speech pathology and audiology at Emerson College in Boston.

She is the mother of former chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, Michael Powell.[3] She also has two daughters, Linda Powell, an actress, and Annemarie. Her father and uncle were principals of two high schools in Birmingham; Condoleezza Rice's father worked in her uncle's school as a guidance counselor.

Alma Powell is the chair of America's Promise, the nation's largest partnership dedicated to improving the lives of children and youth. She has also authored two children's books, America's Promise and My Little Red Wagon.[4][5] In 2011 she was named the NASBE's National Education Policy Leader of the Year along with her husband.[

motive to cover-up ongoing genetic deeps state research

- He is from Harlem area of New York and pronounces his name in honor of a famous killed heavy bomber pilot.
- He along with his wife plus either Dick Cheney or George H.W. Bush the descriptions of the murders of Jefery Mc Donalds family when late bed wetting was becoming visible developmentall y. He matches a description of a black general deliver flowers at the funeral
- He matches a black man in military uniform at the Ives murders Middle East North Africa Airport

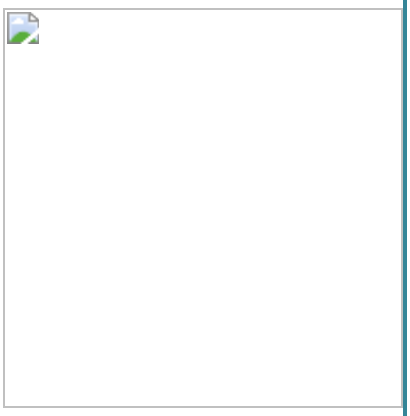
- He was high level world events in the military and State Department and all of these evenst are world history scale.
- He was a Bush Republican Party member until saying the USA had done more for black than any other country and blacks should be be bitter until Barrack Obama Jr came on stage and then Colin Powell backed him.
- He matches the description of Brain Berries activity at a Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit
- He matches Linda Newkirk description of Bush family members plus a man in a white lab coat (Francis Collins evangelical) and a large general with many medals
- Born APRIL 5TH, in the birthday week range of clones.

It Worked for Me: In Life and Leadership Paperback - JUNE 3, 2014 retrieved from Amazon.com and copied or modified to here

Colin Powell, one of America's most admired public figures, reveals the principles that have shaped his life and career in this inspiring and engrossing memoir.

Colin Powell, one of America's most admired public figures, reveals the principles that have shaped his life and career in this inspiring and engrossing memoir.

A beautiful companion to his previous memoir, the #1 New York Times bestseller My American Journey, Powell's It Worked for Me: In Life and Leadership is a trove of wisdom for anyone hoping to achieve their goals and turn their dreams into reality.



A message of strength and endurance from a man who has dedicated his life to public service, It Worked for Me is a book with the power to show readers everywhere how to achieve a more fulfilling life and career.

Cheney defends comments on Powell

Former Vice President Dick Cheney on Tuesday defended comments in his new memoir about Colin Powell, saying his take on the former secretary of state is "basically all very positive" and noting that he supported him for promotion to various military positions.

Cheney, whose long-anticipated autobiography "In My Time: A Personal and Political Memoir" hit shelves Tuesday, sat down for a live interview with Matt Lauer on the "Today" show. Lauer did not directly ask Cheney to respond to Powell's criticism this weekend that the former vice president's book takes "cheap shots" at him and some of his other colleagues from George W. Bush's administration.

Politico

Hon.ColinPowell retrieved from The World Justice Project and copied or modified to here

Former Secretary of State

For over fifty years, General Colin L. Powell, USA (Ret) has devoted his life to public service. Having held senior military and diplomatic positions across four presidential administrations, Powell's deep commitment to democratic values and freedom has been felt throughout the world.

The son of Jamaican immigrants, Powell was born in Harlem in April 1937 and was raised in the South Bronx. He was educated in the New York City public schools and after graduating from Morris High School attended the City College of New York where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Geology. It was not until he joined the Army ROTC program at CCNY that he discovered his calling and launched his military career. He received a commission as an Army second lieutenant upon graduation in 1958 and went on to serve in the United States Army for 35 years, rising to the rank of Four-Star General.

From 1987 - 1989 Powell served as President Ronald Reagan's National Security Advisor. He served from 1989 - 1993 as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff for both President George H.W. Bush and for President Bill Clinton, and was not only the youngest officer and first ROTC graduate to ever serve in the position but also was the first African American to do so. During his time as Chairman, he oversaw 28 crises to include the Panama intervention of 1989 and Operation Desert Storm in the victorious 1991 Persian Gulf War.

About: The World Justice Project® (WJP) is an independent, multidisciplinary organization working create knowledge, build awareness, and stimulate action to advance the rule of law worldwide.

Effective rule of law reduces corruption, combats poverty and disease, and protects people from injustices large and small. It is the foundation for communities of justice, opportunity, and peace-underpinning development, accountable government, and respect for fundamental rights.

Under President George W. Bush, Powell was appointed the 65th Secretary of State and was unanimously confirmed by the U.S. Senate. As Secretary of State, he led the State Department in major efforts

Traditionally, the rule of law has been viewed as the domain of lawyers and judges. But everyday issues of safety, rights, justice, and governance affect us all; everyone is a stakeholder in the rule of law. Based on this, WJP pursues a multidisciplinary approach to advancing the rule of law.

Founded by William H. Neukom in 2006 as a presidential initiative of the American Bar Association (ABA), and with the initial support of 21 other strategic partners, the World Justice Project transitioned into an independent 501(c)(3) non-profit organization in 2009. Its offices are located in Washington DC, Seattle, Singapore, and Mexico City.

to address and solve regional and civil conflicts. He used the power of diplomacy to build trust, forge alliances and then help transform these unstable regions into areas where societies and cultures have the potential to prosper. He also worked at the forefront of American efforts to advance economic and social development worldwide.

Among the many U.S. Military awards and decorations Powell has received are the Defense Distinguished Service Medal (with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters), the Army Distinguished Service Medal (with Oak Leaf Cluster), Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit (with Oak Leaf Cluster), Soldier’s Medal, Bronze Star Medal and the Purple Heart.

Powell is the Chair of the Board of Visitors of the Colin Powell School for Civic and Global Leadership at his alma mater, the City College of New York (CCNY). The Powell School was inaugurated May of 2013 and stands alongside CCNY’s other premiere named schools. He is the Founder and Chairman Emeritus of the America’s Promise Alliance, dedicated to forging strong and effective partnership alliance committed to seeing that children have the fundamental resources they need to succeed.

Powell is a Strategic Advisor at Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers, the renowned Silicon Valley venture capital firm. He serves on the Board of Directors of Bloom Energy, an alternative energy company that provides unique on-site power generation systems utilizing an innovative new fuel cell technology. In March of 2014, he joined the Board of Directors of Salesforce.com, the world's largest provider of Cloud-based customer relationship management software.

Powell serves on the Museum Council of the Smithsonian Institute's African American Museum of History and Culture. He is also Chairman of the Eisenhower Fellowships, a cross-cultural program for emerging international leaders.

His autobiography, My American Journey, was a best seller and has been published in more than a dozen different languages. Powell's second book, It Worked for Me (May, 2012), was an instant New York Times best seller and reveals the lessons that shaped his life and career.

Powell is married to the former Alma Vivian Johnson of Birmingham, Alabama. They live in McLean, Virginia and have three children and four grandchildren.

This book

Military Soldiers and CIA, Prouty, Bowen, and others out George H.W. Bush and Cheney and others as NWO Crime Family along with Rockefeller, E. Howard Hunt

Edward Paul Donegan contributes a few definitions he researched

The Secret Team of big money and wet division in business by the most powerful in society, often detente contractors or in the oil business ranges from Rockefeller, Joseph Kennedy Sr, the Bush family, E Howard Hunt, Howard Hughes, and many others.

This term of Secret Team of colluding mafia backed businesses for the good of the west is the killer of JFK and assailants on my own family a family wronged by thee vary mafia crime boss criminals.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

CARTEL OF A WET DIVISION RUN STATE

The origin of the usage of ‘cartel’ for entrepreneurial co-operations was the German speaking region of Central Europe. Already in the 1870, ‘Cartell’ came up for railway companies who unified their technical standards, pooled their stocks of railroad cars and coordinated their time schedules.[3]

A cartel is a group of independent market participants who collude with each other in order to improve their profits and dominate the market from non Cartel actions state of existence.

Opec is a cartel and the USA has formed Wet Division system among Western oil interested to act as a competing cartel which can act on the OPEC cartel using illegal means which the cartel members England and the USA mainly will keep intact by keeping illegal Wet Division acts including bring down Seal Team SIx and sleeper agents in the USA secret and co-ordinated.

Cartels are usually associations in the same sphere of business, and thus an alliance of rivals. Most jurisdictions consider it anti-competitive behavior and have outlawed such practices.

This book asserts a Social Justice collective of favored and numerous minority classes such as gay, Hispanic, Black, or other such as Religious can gain rights to my DNA via cartel operating as organized crime in allegiance with each other against a DNA high value victim, me and the cartel splits along aversaril social jusice lines between People of Color and Affirmative Action cartel against an Establishment White male. Allegences in ethics support cohesion in the cartel for a group profit strategy

MKULTRA is a co-operation long term plan organized by the CIA and England for the Middle East North Africa, Ukranian, and other expansion, and profits of the plausibly deniable cartels will be protected by CIA acts including Wet Division silencing of those whou would expose the secret plans Cartel behavior includes price fixing, bid rigging, and reductions in output.

This book asserts to use my DNA on the black market funding criminals my DNA is used to bid for Dominatrixes or plea deals though the bid is rigged because the DNA is offered via a person tied to my identity, thus accapted as me, but tied to my identity in an unreliable way such as having furniture of clothing once mine which I no longer possess.

HONOR AMONG CARTEL THIEVES

Cartels Encompass Competitors but constrain competition within the cartel by rules of the cartel

Today Democrat Party Members and Republic Party Members (DNC and GOP) will argue, frankly, piss on each others toes and angrily, but keep the CIA secret of the CIA cartel US and Western political leadership class participate in.

CARTEL PARTY THEORY

The concept of the cartel party was first proposed in 1992 as a means of drawing attention to the patterns of inter-party collusion or cooperation rather than competition; and as a way of emphasising the influence of the state on party development. In definitional terms, the cartel party is a type of party that emerges in advanced democratic polities and that is characterised by the interpenetration of party and state and by a pattern of inter-party collusion.

Bush Cheney, H E B Edward Butt, Clintons, Rockefellers, Rothschilds, Windsors, others know or are part of Cartel activity and may be profiteers from cartel activities which propell them in politics and Main Stream Media influence

Business owned by Cartel connected or Cartel friendly interests may allow cartel connected requests to be allowed by their businesses such as hit peices on people in the media, fake whiplish type claims on company property, etc.

KLEPTOCRACY (FROM GREEK “POWER, RULE”) is a government whose corrupt leaders (kleptocrats) use political power to appropriate the wealth of their nation, typically by embezzling or misappropriating government funds at the expense of the wider population.[1][2] is a form of power structure in which power rests with a small number of people. These people may be distinguished by nobility, wealth, education, corporate, religious, political, or military control. Such states are often controlled by families who pass their influence from one generation to the next, but inheritance is not a necessary condition of oligarchy.

OLIGARCHY

NARCO-STATE

Narco-state (also narco-capitalism or narco-economy[a]) is a political and economic term applied to countries where all legitimate institutions become penetrated by the power and wealth of the illegal drug trade.[2] The term was first used to describe Bolivia following the 1980 coup of Luis García Meza which was seen to be primarily financed with the help of narcotics traffickers.[3] Examples of some narco-states are described below. Other well-known examples are Mexico, Colombia, and Guinea-Bissau, where drug cartels produce, ship and sell drugs such as cocaine and marijuana.

MAFIA STATE

In politics, a mafia state is a state system where the government is tied with organized crime to the degree when government officials, the police, and/or military became a part of the criminal enterprise.[1][2] According to US diplomats, the phrase “mafia state” was coined by Alexander Litvinenko[3] Aleksandr Valterovich Litvinenko 30 August 1962 or 4 December 1962 Voronezh, Russian SFSR, Soviet Union Died >23 NOVEMBER 2006 (aged 43 or 44)

In 1991, Litvinenko was promoted to the Central Staff of the Federal Counterintelligence Service, specialising in counter-terrorist activities and infiltration of organised crime.

POISONING OF ALEXANDER LITVINENKO

Late on NOVEMBER 22, Litvinenko’s heart failed; the official time of death was 9:21 pm at University College Hospital in London.[29]

My research indicates the Mafia State he alleged the USA and perhaps Russia to be, is Cartel State, probbably the Cali Cartel operated by Geroge H.W. Bush, nd probably uses for profit cartel economics to kill through the cia rather than mere bar fights of a normal citizen which people get arrested for.

CIA Black Budget money tied to Epstein and many others and Middle East North Africa and Ukraine deals are a constant source of dirty money, dirty politicians, dirty deads, and often attempts at evading criminal liability by targted hits to suppress journalism and witnesses to the existing CIA assassinations

SERGEI MAGNITSKY

Sergei Leonidovich Magnitsky (Russian: Серге́й Леони́дович Магни́тский, IPA: [sʲɪr ˈgʲej lʲɪɐˈnʲidəvʲɪtɕ mɐgˈnʲitskʲɪj]; 8 APRIL 1972 - 16 NOVEMBER 2009) was a Ukrainian-born Russian tax advisor.[1] His arrest in 2008 and subsequent death after eleven months in police custody generated international media attention and triggered both official and unofficial inquiries into allegations of fraud, theft and human rights violations in Russia.

Magnitsky alleged there had been large-scale theft from the Russian state, sanctioned and carried out by Russian officials. He was arrested and eventually died in prison seven days before the expiration of the one-year term during which he could be legally held without trial.[5][6] In total, Magnitsky served 358 days in Moscow’s Butyrka prison. He developed gall stones, pancreatitis, and a blocked gall bladder, and was denied medical care.

Human Traffickig in children, fertilizations, and the Magniski act, stolen plutonium and hits tied to US nuclear facilities. - Jamison Reed Firestone (born 1966) is an American attorney. Firestone graduated from Tulane University in 1988 and Tulane Law School in 1991.[1] In August 1991, shortly before the fall of the Soviet Union, he moved to Moscow, Russia and co-founded the law firm Firestone Duncan. He fled Russia in August 2009 following the arrest of his employee Sergei Magnitsky, who died in prison, after eleven months’ incarceration without trial

Ted Gunderson will speak about Bown being one of his Confidential Informant and also referer to Bowen as friend he corresponded with after the evidence plant.

FINDING JIMMY HOFFA

AFTER 45-YEAR ODYSSEY, INVESTIGATIVE REPORTER BELIEVES HE KNOWS WHERE THE LEGENDARY TEAMSTERS BOSS IS BURIED
Published: ULY 8TH, 2020 - By Dan E. Moldea

ROLLAND MCMASTER

On AUGUST 5, my first full day on the job with NBC News, I received an introduction to an associate of Rolland McMaster, a Teamsters official who had stood shoulder-to-shoulder with Hoffa since their earliest days in the union. However, in recent years, Hoffa and McMaster had a huge falling out over control of Teamsters Local 299 in Detroit, Hoffa's home local. Consequently, they became mortal enemies.

In fact, my new source alleged that McMaster had played a key role in the disposal of Hoffa's body six days earlier - but he could not prove it. NBC authorized me to pursue the McMaster lead but put me on a short leash, giving me a limited amount of time to get results.

With the help of my friends and sources in the rank-and-file reform movement within the Teamsters, I received introductions to several key players in the Hoffa drama. I quickly learned that since 1971, McMaster, an international organizer, had directed a 32-member Teamsters organizing unit that was traveling around the country, shaking down trucking companies in return for labor peace.

The Irishman retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

After the 1960 election of John F. Kennedy, Russell is thrilled while Hoffa is furious. Kennedy's brother, Robert Kennedy, who he appointed Attorney General, forms a "Get Hoffa" squad to bring down Hoffa, who is eventually arrested and convicted in 1964 for jury tampering. While Hoffa is in prison, his replacement as Teamsters president, Frank "Fitz" Fitzsimmons, misuses the union's pension fund and gives interest-free loans to the Mafia. Hoffa's relationship with Tony Pro, himself arrested for extortion, also deteriorates beyond repair when Hoffa refuses to do a favor for him. Hoffa has his sentence commuted by President Richard Nixon in 1971, although he is forbidden from partaking in any Teamsters activities until 1980

Despite his parole terms, Hoffa undertakes a plan to reclaim his power atop the Teamsters. Hoffa's growing disrespect for other Teamster leaders and his intention to separate the union from the Mafia begins to worry Russell. During a dinner in Sheeran's honor in October 1973, Russell tells Sheeran to confront Hoffa and warn him that the heads of the crime families are displeased with his behavior. Hoffa then informs Sheeran that he "knows things" that Russell and the dons of other families are unaware of and claims that what he knows makes him untouchable, for if anything ever happened to him, they would all end up in prison.

In 1975, while on their way to Bill's daughter's wedding, Russell tells Sheeran that the dons have become fed up with Hoffa and have sanctioned his murder. Reluctantly, Russell informs Sheeran that he has been chosen as the triggerman, knowing he might otherwise try to warn or save Hoffa. The two drive to a private airport where Sheeran boards a plane to Detroit. Hoffa, who had scheduled a meeting at a local restaurant with Tony Pro and Anthony Giacalone, is surprised to see Sheeran arrive late with Hoffa's unsuspecting foster son Chuckie O'Brien and loan shark Sally Bugs. They advise Hoffa that the meeting was moved to a house where Tony Pro and Russell are waiting for them, and drive him over. Entering the house, Hoffa finds it empty and realizes that he has been set up. He turns around to leave, at which point Sheeran shoots him dead at point-blank range before leaving the gun atop his body near the entrance. After Sheeran departs, two other mobsters wrap up the body and cremate it in secret.

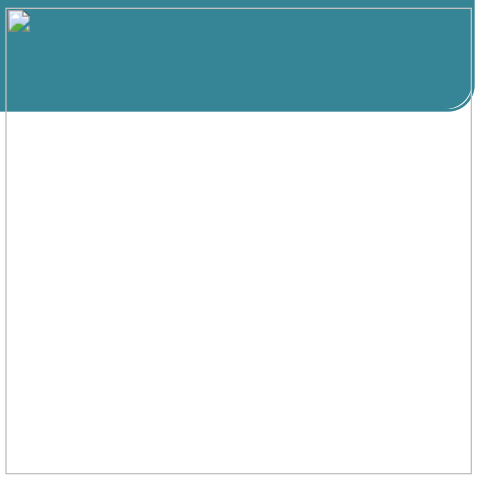
JFK: The CIA, Vietnam, and the Plot to Assassinate John F. Kennedy Paperback - Illustrated, APRIL 1, 2011 by L. Fletcher Prouty Amazon.com

L. Fletcher Prouty's U.S. Army portrait United States Army - Burnham, Greg. The Education Forum (March 31, 2015)



L. Fletcher Prouty retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Early Life and Education

Prouty attended the University of Massachusetts Amherst (then known as Massachusetts State College), and on September 20, 1936 he was elected President of his freshman class, "the Class of 1940," succeeding Daniel G. Lacey.[6][7][3] He later pursued his graduate studies in banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Graduate School of Banking.

Government service

World War II

Prouty was commissioned as a reserve 2nd lieutenant in the cavalry on June 9, 1941, and began his military career with the 4th Armored Division in Pine Camp, New York. He was promoted to 1st lieutenant on February 1, 1942. He transferred to the United States Army Air Forces on November 10, 1942, and earned his pilot wings that same month. He arrived in British West Africa in February 1943 as a pilot with Air Transport Command.[citation needed]

In the summer of 1943 he was the personal pilot of General Omar Bradley, General John C. H. Lee and General C. R. Smith (founder and president of American Airlines), among others. He flew the U.S. Geological Survey Team in Saudi Arabia, October 1943, to confirm oil discoveries in preparation for the Cairo Conference. He was assigned to special duties at the Cairo Conference and the Tehran Conference November-December 1943. He flew Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese delegation (T. V. Soong's delegates) to Tehran. [citation needed]

An important mission he was involved in was the evacuation of the British commandos made famous by the novel Guns of Navarone involved in the Battle of Leros from Leros to Palestine. He was promoted to captain on February 1, 1944. In 1945 he was transferred to the Southwest Pacific and flew in New Guinea, Leyte and was on Okinawa at the end of war. He landed near Tokyo at the time of the surrender with the first three planes carrying General Douglas MacArthur's bodyguard troops. He flew out with American POWs.[citation needed]

Post-war service

After the war, Prouty accepted an assignment from the U.S. Army in September 1945 to inaugurate the ROTC program at Yale University, where he also taught during each scholastic year from 1946 to 1948. This timeline intersects with the years that George Bush[disambiguation needed] and William F. Buckley, Jr. also spent at Yale. Prouty fondly recalled Buckley at that time in his role as editor of the Yale Daily News, and Prouty later told an interviewer in 1989 that he had written for Buckley on several occasions.

In 1950 he transferred to Colorado Springs to build Air Defense Command. From 1952 to 1954 he was assigned to Korean War duties in Japan, where he served as Military Manager for Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) during the post-war U.S. occupation.

In 1955 he was assigned to the coordination of operations between the fledgling U.S. Air Force and the CIA.[1] As a result of a CIA commendation for this work he was awarded the Legion of Merit by the U.S. Air Force, promoted to colonel, and assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense.[citation needed]

Following the creation of the Defense Intelligence Agency and termination of the OSO by Secretary Robert McNamara, Prouty was transferred to the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and charged with the creation a similar organization on a global scale.

From 1962 to 1963 he served as Chief of Special Operations with the Joint Staff. In an chance encounter with Edward Lansdale in the hallways of the Pentagon, a "month or two before" the assassination (as Prouty tells it), Lansdale informed Prouty he had arranged for him [Prouty] to accompany a group of VIPs to the South Pole from November 10 to 23, in the capacity of Military Escort officer.[9]

The ostensible purpose of the trip was the activation a nuclear power plant at the United States Navy Base at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, to provide heat, light, and sea water desalination.[citation needed] Prouty later described his confusion at the unusual assignment, but he expected the job to be a "paid vacation" and accepted the task.

Prouty retired in 1964 as a colonel in the U.S. Air Force. As recognition of his long and distinguished career in the service of his country, he was awarded one of the first three Joint Service Commendation Medals by General Maxwell D. Taylor, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Colonel L. Fletcher Prouty, the former CIA operative known as "X," offers a history-shaking perspective on the assassination of president John F. Kennedy. His theories were the basis for Oliver Stone's controversial movie JFK.

Prouty believed that Kennedy's death was a coup d'état, and he backs this belief up with his knowledge of the security arrangements at Dallas and other tidbits that only a CIA insider would know (for example, that every member of Kennedy's cabinet was abroad at the time of Kennedy's assassination). His discussion of the elite power base he believes controlled the U.S. government will scare and enlighten anyone who wants to know who was really behind the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

This is must reading for anyone who believes that Lee Harvey Oswald did not act along and that a complicated plot led to the murder of President Kennedy.

With an Introduction by Oliver Stone, the director of the hit movie JFK and a Foreword by Jesse Ventura, author of the New York Times Bestseller, They Killed our President, here is an insider's view of JFK, the CIA, Vietnam and the plot that led to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The Secret Team: The CIA and Its Allies in Control of the United States and the World by by L. Fletcher Prouty Amazon.com Offers uncommonly penetrating insight....A rare glimpse into Covert and Black Operations.- New York Times Bestselling author, Governor Jesse Ventura, from his Foreword.

The Secret Team, L. Fletcher Prouty's expose´ of the CIA's brutal methods of maintaining national security during the Cold War, was first published in the 1970s. However, virtually all copies of the book disappeared upon distribution, having been purchased en masse by shady "private buyers." Prouty's topics include:

- President Kennedy tried to control the CIA.
- The nature of clandestine operations.

  The Dulles-Jackson-Correa Report in action Defense, containment, and anti-communism
- Khrushchev's Challenge: the U-2 dilemma
- From the Bay of Pigs to Dallas.
- And much more!

Prouty's allegations-such as how the U-2 Crisis of 1960 was fixed to sabotage Eisenhower-Khrushchev talk-cannot have pleased the CIA. The Secret Team appears once more with a new introduction by bestselling author, Governor Jesse Ventura.

> "Like it or not, we now live in a new age of 'One World.' This is the age of global companies, of global communications and transport, of global food supply and finance and ... just around the corner ... global accommodation of political systems. In this sense, there are no home markets, no isolated markets and no markets outside the global network. It is time to face the fact that true national sovereignty no longer exists. We live in a world of big business, big lawyers, big bankers, even bigger moneymen and big politicians. It is the world of The Secret Team." April 1, 201

General Russell Bowen

Ted Gunderson referes to Bowen as one of his Confidential Informants who (like Jen Moore) described Free Masons as infiltrators into the USA positions inlcuidng Media, Academia, Business, and law and how the Fre Mason will act against those who reveal Free Mason infiltration into US Politics by evidence plants, etc.,

The Immaculate Deception: Bush Crime Family Exposed by Russell S. Bowen (Author) retrieved from Amazon.com and copied or modified to here

Perhaps the most shocking book written this century about treason committed by the highest leaders within the US government. This disturbing and thought-provoking expose is written by Brigadier General Russell S Bowen who has courageously come forward with the truth about his association with the OSS (Office of Security Services) and his 'drug running' activities on behalf of the 'secret' government which involves the highest US 'leaders' and which few Americans know anything about. The most startling details are revealed regarding Bowen's clandestine work including his work under the orders of George Bush

General Russell Bowen

Retired Brig. General Russell Bowen is another fascinating person tied to Jerry's cocaine empire. During WW 2, he received the Distinguished Flying Cross and other medals for his time as a young fighter pilot. It was during this time he was brought into the OSS and when President Truman banned the intelligence organization, Bowen and others secretly maintained the organization, later to become the CIA

He helped establish several airlines in South America that were used as cover for the CIA and was an expert at extracting CIA operatives from dangerous situations when their cover had been exposed. He was heavily involved in CIA drug trafficking, especially in South America, and had many friends within both the Medellin and Cali cartels. Eventually, Bowen and others became disenchanted with the CIA involvement with drugs and wanted to stop the practice of bringing them into America

In the early 1980's, he wrote an anonymous letter to U.S. Customs, reporting the details of the smuggling operation, but nothing happened. But something did happen to him. In 1982, a CIA operative ordered him to fly a trip into Medellin, Colombia, taking a CIA undercover agent and to then bring back another agent. On the return trip, several hundred pounds of cocaine were placed on the plane. When he landed at a remote airport in Georgia, federal authorities were waiting. At his trial, he wasn't allowed to use his CIA status as a defense-much like Harold Rosenthal-and was sentenced to hard time.

How does this tie into Jerry LeQuire? Well, the CIA operative who ordered him to go to Colombia was the same man who had worked for Jerry for many years. And the airport where he was arrested was the same airport Jerry had bought a few years earlier.

Russell Allen Bowen: Marine commander during WWII, committed to family, country
retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Russell Allen Bowen, 96, a former Los Altos resident, died April 14. Born in New Britain, Conn., Aug. 9, 1912, Mr. Bowen grew up in Minneapolis and came of age during uncertain times.

"We are often inclined, in error, to be considered masters of our own destiny, but I am a product of the Great Depression," Mr. Bowen said of himself.

Mr. Bowen worked his way through the University of Minnesota selling textbooks and encyclopedias in Alaska and Hawaii to earn a degree in petroleum engineering in 1935. Selected for the Navy's elite first cadet flight program, he merited the coveted Naval Aviator Wings as Aviation Cadet No. 1 in 1935 and accepted a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. Assigned to the Naval Air Station in San Diego, he served as commanding officer of Marine Bombing Squadron III and flew the BG-2 dive-bomber. His four years included tours of duty on the USS Lexington and the USS Saratoga where he logged numerous day and night carrier landings.

In 1939, Mr. Bowen left active duty as a first lieutenant and became a co-pilot for the young TWA (Trans World Airlines). While stationed in Burbank, he began a successful aerial photography business, which he relinquished when he was assigned to Kansas City to complete his airline captain's training in 1940. The commercial aviation boom was beginning.

"I was a happy rider on the bow-wave of an unprecedented expansion," he said of those times.

Mr. Bowen met Vivien Gay Smith, Miss TWA 1941, a registered nurse and flight hostess, on a trip from Albuquerque to Los Angeles. It was love at first sight and they married shortly before Mr. Bowen was reactivated after the 1941 bombing of Pearl Harbor.

He saw combat duty overseas as the commanding officer of Marine Corps Squadron 252, stationed in Kwajalein and Guam. His squadron transported vital supplies and combat personnel throughout the Pacific Theater.

At the end of the war, he retired from active duty with the rank of lieutenant colonel, but remained in the Marine Corps Active Reserve, achieving the rank of Brigadier General in 1967.

He served as president of the Marine Corps Reserve Officers Association and continued to fly the current USMC aircraft, through the F-4 Phantom.

Mr. Bowen returned to TWA after the war and he and Gay moved to the Bay Area. In 1959, he became one of the first TWA captains to fly the company's new Boeing 707s, ushering in commercial aviation's jet age.

Throughout the next two decades, he flew commercially all over the world, and performed as a check pilot certifying pilots and supervising flight operations at the San Francisco airport.

My father James Paul Donegan may have encountered him as himslef being a Boeing 707 pilot and living and flying 707s and later the L1011s out of San Francisco International Airport.]

Mr. Bowen retired from TWA in 1972 with more than 24,000 mishap-free flight hours, or as he put it, "2.7 years in the air."

Mr. Bowen had a creative and entrepreneurial spirit that kept him busy between flights. His Oakhaven Chinchilla Ranch, located on an historical estate in the midst of one of the last apricot orchards in Los Altos, became the second largest producer of the fur in California.

He became a successful real estate broker and land developer in Santa Cruz County. He loved nature, fishing and the outdoors, and taught his children the importance of environmental stewardship. He was a member of the Presbyterian faith and supported the church in a variety of roles, including as deacon.

Mr. Bowen is survived by his wife of 67 years, Vivien Gay; daughters Linda, Merideth and Deborah; son Richard; nine grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; his brother Frank Bowen; and sister Barbara Thompson.

A military service is scheduled 2 p.m. June 24 in Arlington Cemetery, Washington, D.C. In lieu of flowers, a contribution may be made to The Paradise Valley Estates Benevolence Fund or The Nature Conservancy.

Family of Secrets: The Bush Dynasty, America's Invisible Government, and the Hidden History of the Last Fifty Years Paperback - Illustrated, NOVEMBER 17, 2009 retrieved from Amazon.com and copied or modified to here

How did the deeply flawed George W. Bush ascend to the highest office in the nation, what forces abetted his rise, and-perhaps most important-have those forces really been vanquished by Obama's election? Award-winning investigative journalist Russ Baker gives us the answers in Family of Secrets, a compelling and startling new take on the Bush dynasty and the shadowy elite that has quietly steered the American republic for the past half century and more. Baker shows how this network of figures in intelligence, the military, oil, and finance enabled-and in turn benefited handsomely from-the Bushes' perch at the highest levels of government. As Baker reveals, this deeply entrenched elite remains in power regardless of who sits in the Oval Office.

Family of Secrets offers countless disclosures that challenge the conventional accounts of such central events as the JFK assassination and Watergate. It includes an inside account of George W.'s cynical religious conversion and the untold real background to the disastrous response to Hurricane Katrina. Baker's narrative is gripping, sobering, and deeply sourced. It will change the way we understand not just the Bush years, but a half century of postwar history-and the present.

"One of the most important books of the past ten years." - Gore Vidal

"A tour de force … Family of Secrets has made me rethink even those events I witnessed with my own eyes." - Dan Rather

"Shocking in its disclosures, elegantly crafted, and faultlessly measured in its judgments, Family of Secrets is nothing less than a first historic portrait in full of the Bush dynasty and the era it shaped. From revelation to revelation, insight to insight—from the Kennedy assassination to Watergate to the oil and financial intrigues that lie behind today's headlines—this is a sweeping drama of money and power, unseen forces, and the emblematic triumph of a lineage that sowed national tragedy. Russ Baker's Family of Secrets is sure to take its place as one of the most startling and influential works of American history and journalism." - Roger Morris, former senior staff member, National Security Council, and author of Richard Milhous Nixon: The Rise of an American Politician and Partners in Power: The Clintons and Their America

"Left-wing paranoia? Baker, a solid investigative journalist, works hard to back up his claims - a reader could choke on the complex, interwoven details in Family of Secrets. He's a man on a mission, desperate to stop the "methods of stealth and manipulation that … reflect a deeper ill: the American public's increasingly tenuous hold upon the levers of its own democracy." - San Diego Union-Tribune

"Prodigiously industrious investigative journalist Russ Baker…. connects the dots between the Bushes and Watergate." - Lev Grossman, Time Magazine

---

About the Author

Russ Baker is an awardwinning investigative journalist. He has written for the New Yorker, Vanity Fair, the New York Times, the Nation, the Los Angeles Times, the Washington Post, the Village Voice, and Esquire, and has served as a contributing editor to the Columbia Journalism Review. He is the founder of WhoWhatWhy/the Real News Project, a nonpartisan, nonprofit news organization, operating at www.whowhatwhy.com.

Trust Fund Cartel generating false pretexts againt me which are causes of act

The damage to the enforcebility of me rights and defense of my liberty may be the real cartel needs claims against me in a country predotroy towards my genome and predatory

Colluding Party	Colluding Party	Colluding Party	Colluding Party	Colluding Party	Colluding Party	Colluding Party
Trust Fund Managers	Business Owners requesting or granting cooperation with cartel requests	Impoverished County Social Services	Social Services Beneficary	Religious Ministries	Underprivlidged SVU Prosecutors	Courts and Marshalls within Town

This book

Britney Spears is Surveillance Survivors as I Edward Paul Donegan am

Katherine Victoria Litwack (brunette in Two Broke Girls) was born on JUNE 13, 1986, in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania. Her mother, Ellen Judith Litwack, is a poet and speech therapist, and her father, Gerald J. Litwack, is a molecular pharmacologist, and college professor and chairman. Dennings is the youngest of five children. Her family is Jewish. Dennings grew up in Penn Cottage, a historic house built in 1694 in Wynnewood, Pennsylvania, which she claims was haunted.

Jimi Hendrix retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

In 1941, after moving to Seattle, Al (his father) met Lucille Jeter (1925-1958) at a dance; they married on March 31, 1942. Lucille's father (Jimi's maternal grandfather) was Preston Jeter (born 1875), whose mother was born in similar circumstances as Bertran Philander Ross Hendrix. Lucille's mother, née Clarice Lawson, had African American and Cherokee ancestors. Al, who had been drafted by the US Army to serve in World War II, left to begin his basic training three days after the wedding. Johnny Allen Hendrix was born on November 27, 1942, in Seattle; he was the first of Lucille's five children. In 1946, Johnny's parents changed his name to James Marshall Hendrix, in honor of Al and his late brother Leon Marshall.

Stationed in Alabama at the time of Hendrix's birth, Al was denied the standard military furlough afforded servicemen for childbirth; his commanding officer placed him in the stockade to prevent him from going AWOL to see his infant son in Seattle. He spent two months locked up without trial, and while in the stockade received a telegram announcing his son’s birth.[

Born in Seattle, Washington, Hendrix began playing guitar at the age of 15. In 1961, HE ENLISTED IN THE US ARMY, but was discharged the following year. Soon afterward, he moved to Clarksville then Nashville, Tennessee, and began playing gigs on the chitlin’ circuit, earning a place in the Isley Brothers’ backing band and later with Little Richard, with whom he continued to work through mid-1965.

Jimi Hendrix’s mixed genealogy included African American, Irish, and Cherokee ancestors. His paternal grandmother, Zenora “Nora” Rose Moore, was African American and one-quarter Cherokee.[4][nb 1] Hendrix’s paternal grandfather, Bertran Philander Ross Hendrix (born 1866), was born out of an extramarital affair between a woman named Fanny and a grain merchant from Urbana, Ohio, or Illinois, one of the wealthiest men in the area at that time.[7][8][nb 2] After Hendrix and Moore relocated to Vancouver, they had a son they named James Allen Hendrix on June 10, 1919; the family called him “Al”.

Organized Stalking first attacks, drives person crazy with stalking activity, upon stalked person complaining, diagnosed paranoid, schizophrenic and same pscyhcology team doing the stalking want to be conservator of stalked person, essentially gaining the person as a labrartoy rat to be treated abusively from a position of power.

Consider with Glorian Donegan, Victoria Windsor, genealogy researcher working with Micheal Hastings about Columbia University and MKULTRA in the Middle East, Andrea Parhamovich his fiance talking about the Viena MKULTRA issue and Qheen Annes area of Seatle Worlds Expo and Thomas C. Wales murder.

One of the Blue Hydrangea That might be possible to grow anywhere in the world? Aka British descendents?

Weird flowers list on the Illuminati site about edible flowers like Qqeen Anne' Lace?

> Meanwhile, even Manchurians may have some hope of growing mophead hydrangeas this year. The new new thing, of course, is Hydrangea macrophylla 'Endless Summer', hardy to zone 4 and "perpetually flowering", although I'll be waiting for the prices to come down before introducing it to my garden's "Hydrangea Row" (LIke Barrak's Row?") *

Would Shuhada Sadaqat rather have a drivers liscense or Identification Card from the USA or an Islmaic nation? Oh, thats me, Ed Donegan. I don't think she ever had a Texas drivers liscense and I never will again.

Sinead O'Connor begs stalker to leave her alone as she reveals disgusting rape threats keep her on suicide watch retrieved from The Irish Mirror and copied or modified to here Christopher Jagger born 19 DECEMBER 1947) was born into a middle-class family in Dartford, Kent.[3] His father, Basil Fanshawe "Joe" Jagger (13 April 1913 - 11 November 2006), and grandfather, David Ernest Jagger, were both teachers. His mother, Eva Ensley Mary (née Scutts; 6 APRIL 1913 - 18 May 2000), born in New South Wales, Australia, of English descent,[4] was a hairdresser. Eva was a hairdresser. She was born in New South Wales, Australia in 1913, but comes from English descent. She later moved to England where she married Jagger's dad, Basil Fanshawe "Joe" Jagger, and the pair welcomed two sons, Mick and Chris, who was also a musician.

Jagger attended secondary school at Eltham College. He won a place to study drama at the University of Manchester but opted not to go, preferring instead to spend time in London where elder brother Mick was enjoying his first years of fame.[6]

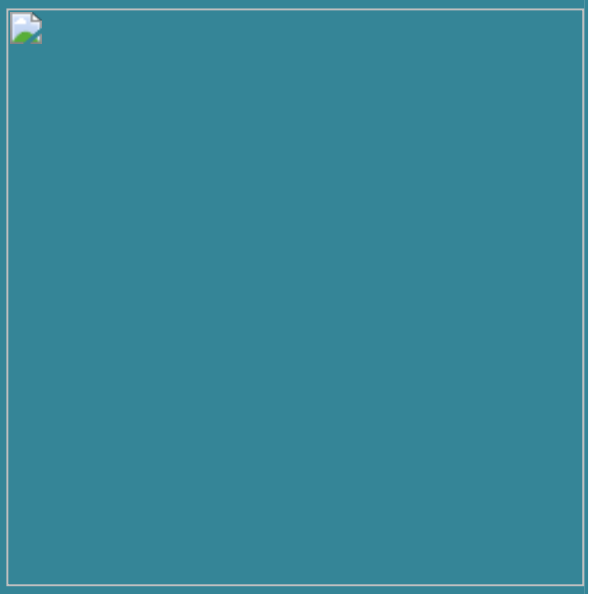
ByClaire Rutter 14:51, 20 NOV 2015

Irish singer Sinéad O'Connor Born: DECEMBER 8, 1966, Glenageary, Ireland has announced she has converted to Islam.



The artist, who is best known for her 1990 hit version of the song Nothing Compares 2 U, said she had changed her name to Shuhada'

The singer, who was recently admitted to hospital, named her stalker on her official Facebook page

Sinead O'Connor's stalker hell has nearly driven her to suicide.

The Irish singer has begged her stalker to leave her in peace as she shared horrific rape threats on her official Facebook page.

Sinead blamed him for the "incessant sexually disturbed harassment" as to why she is on suicide watch.

Sinead, who has received treatment for mental health issues in the past, revealed that she had been taken to hospital just two weeks ago.

In a lengthy post on her official Facebook, Sinead claimed that she had been bombarded with emails which boast about getting her set up to be raped.

Shuhada Sadaqat is an Irish singer-songwriter. Her debut album, The Lion and the Cobra, was released in 1987 and charted internationally. Her single “Nothing Compares 2 U” was released in 1990 and named the number one world single for the same year by the Billboard Music Awards.

O’Connor was born in Glenageary, County Dublin on 8 December 1966. She was named Sinéad after Sinéad de Valera, the wife of Irish President Éamon de Valera, Marie after the mother of the doctor presiding over the delivery, and Bernadette in honour of Saint Bernadette of Lourdes.[7] She is the third of five children; her siblings are novelist Joseph, Eimear, John, and Eoin.

Her parents are Sean O’Connor, a structural engineer later turned barrister and chairperson of the Divorce Action Group, and Marie O’Connor. In 1979 O’Connor left her mother and went to live with her father and his new wife. At the age of 15, her shoplifting and truancy led to her being placed for eighteen months in a Magdalene asylum,[8] the Grianán Training Centre run by the Order of Our Lady of Charity. In some ways, she thrived there, especially in the development of her writing and music, but she also chafed under the imposed conformity. Unruly students there were sometimes sent to sleep in the adjoining nursing home, an experience of which she later commented, “I have never—and probably will never—experience such panic and terror and agony over anything.

In June 1993, O’Connor wrote a public letter in The Irish Times which asked people to “stop hurting” her: “If only I can fight off the voices of my parents / and gather a sense of self-esteem / Then I'll be able to REALLY sing ..." The letter repeated accusations of abuse by her parents as a child which O'Connor had made in interviews. Her brother Joseph defended their father to the newspaper but agreed regarding their mother's "extreme and violent abuse, both emotional and physical". O'Connor said that month, "Our family is very messed up. We can't communicate with each other. We are all in agony. I for one am in agony."

Faith and Courage was released in 2000, including the single "No Man's Woman", and featured contributions from Wyclef Jean of the Fugees and Dave Stewart of Eurythmics.

Her 2002 album, Sean-Nós Nua, marked a departure in that O'Connor interpreted or, in her own words, "sexed up" traditional Irish folk songs, including several in the Irish language.[28] In Sean-Nós Nua, she covered a well-known Canadian folk song, "Peggy Gordon", interpreted as a song of lesbian, rather than heterosexual, love. In her documentary, Song of Hearts Desire, she stated that her inspiration for the song was her friend, a lesbian who sang the song to lament the loss of her partner.

On 18 July 2015, her first grandson was born to her son Jake Reynolds and his girlfriend Lia.

On 7 January 2022, two days after her 17-year-old son Shane was reported missing from Newbridge, County Kildare, he was found dead at Bray, County Wicklow, by Irish police. O'Connor stated that her son, custody of whom she lost in 2013,[94] had been on "suicide watch" at Tallaght Hospital, and had "ended his earthly struggle". O'Connor harshly criticised Ireland's family services agency, Tusla, and the national health authority, the HSE, with regard to their handling of her son's case.

Three days later, O'Connor apologised to Tusla, saying "Ok, I'm gonna do the right thing here and apologise for my lashing out. Tusla are working with very limited resources. They loved Shane. They are broken-hearted. They are human. I am sorry I have upset them.”[98][99] She added, “Tusla did their best. We all did: and I am deeply sorry to have blamed anyone.”

In January 2022 a week after the suicide of her 17 year old son Shane, she herself was then hospitalized on her own volition following a series of tweets in which she indicated she was going to take her own life.

The True Story Of Revelation 12 Now Is Come Salvation, And Strength, And The Kingdom Of Our God (revelation12.ca)

Interesting name for a flower right? The legend tells of Queen Anne pricking her finger and a drop of blood falling on a lace that she was sewing.

They named her Birtney huh

They targeted her with the ground FBI asset Gangstalkers that surrounded Glorian and Ed DOnegan all of our lifespans, then, as with me, they went to Britney Spears’s parents to tell the parents Behaviorial Halth Care who were the stalkers could could give Britney Spears the help she needs, which like with me just blamed the victim for the fight and escalated Behavioral Healthcare which launched the assaults into a position of continuing abuse and defmatory and slandering power claiming her or I iocompeent because we are in street fights in public.

UMBRELLA INTENDED FOR BRITTANY SPEARS BUT RE-WRITTEN AND GIVEN TO RIAHNA BY BRITTAN SPEARS TRUST FUND MANAGERS

“Umbrella” is a song by Barbadian singer Rihanna from her third studio album Good Girl Gone

Bad (2007). It features American rapper Jay-Z, who co-wrote the song with its producers Tricky Stewart and Kuk Harrell, with additional writing from The-Dream. The song was originally written with Britney Spears in mind, but her label rejected it. “Umbrella” is a pop, hip hop and R&B song with rock elements, referring to a romantic and platonic relationship and the strength of that relationship.

BRITNEY JEAN SPEARS

Britney Jean Spears (born December 2, 1981) is an American singer, songwriter, dancer, and actress. She is credited with influencing the revival of teen pop during the late 1990s and early 2000s, for which she is referred to as the “Princess of Pop” . Britney Spears From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia *

Britney Spears’ parents are “extremely disappointed” about her hospital release. ... used to treat attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) *

Feb. 7, 2008 With Britney Spears out of the psych ward and free to run wild, the pop star’s parents said they fear for her life.

“We are deeply concerned about our daughter’s safety and vulnerability and we believe her life is presently at risk,” James and Lynne Spears said in a statement to The Associated Press. “We ask only that the court’s orders be enforced so that a tragedy may be averted.”

RIHANNA

Born: FEBRUARY 20, 1988 (age 32 years), Saint Michael, Barbados

My question is did (like with me) A Gangstalk get “Brittany” Spears committed and slammed into a conservator?

Mel Gibson retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Gibson was born in Peekskill, New York of Irish descent, the sixth of eleven children, and the second son of Hutton Gibson, a writer, and Irish-born Anne Patricia (née Reilly, died 1990).

Gibson’s paternal grandmother was opera contralto Eva Mylott (1875-1920), who was born in Australia, to Irish parents,[12] while his paternal grandfather, John Hutton Gibson, was a millionaire tobacco businessman from the American South.

One of Gibson’s younger brothers, Donal, is also an actor. Gibson stated his first name is derived from St Mel’s Cathedral, the fifth-century Irish saint, and founder of Gibson’s mother’s local native diocese, Ardagh.[15] His second name, Colmcille,[16] is also shared by an Irish saint,[17] and is the name of the Aughnacliffe parish in County Longford where Gibson’s mother was born and raised.

Because of his mother, Gibson retains dual Irish and American citizenship.[18] Gibson is also an Australian permanent resident.

Gibson's father was awarded US$145,000 in a work-related-injury lawsuit against the New York Central Railroad on February 14, 1968, and soon afterwards relocated his family to West Pymble, Sydney, Australia.[21] Mel was twelve years old at the time. The move to his grandmother's native Australia was for economic reasons, and his father's expectation that the Australian Defence Forces would reject his eldest son for the draft during the Vietnam War.

During his high school years, Gibson was educated by members of the Congregation of Christian Brothers at St Leo's Catholic College in Wahroonga, New South Wales.

The Patriot is a 2000 American epic historical revisionist war film written by Robert Rodat, directed by Roland Emmerich and starring Mel Gibson, Chris Cooper, Heath Ledger and Jason Isaacs. The story takes place mainly in rural Berkeley County in South Carolina and depicts Benjamin Martin, an American colonist opposed to going to war with Great Britain who gets swept into the Revolutionary War when his home life is disrupted. Rodat has said Martin is a composite character based on four historical men: Andrew Pickens, Francis Marion, Daniel Morgan and Thomas Sumter.

After several legal issues and controversial statements leaked to the public, Gibson's public image plummeted significantly, affecting his careers in acting and directing.[7] His career began seeing resurgence with his performance in Jodie Foster's The Beaver (2011)

[Perhaps like Brittney Spears and Gibson getting roadblocked, Riahna or Jode Foster then move in as guidance or alternatives.

Found on Rudy2's Multilingual Blog

> Randy Quaid is claiming to be a target of what he calls Hollywood Star Whackers.
>
> He claims that other stars on on a similar type of hit list. Stars such as Britney Spears, Mel Gibson, and of course Lindsay Lohan.
>
> Randy Quaid claims that he has been followed around, and that he has been scammed out of money by lawyers and others. He claims not to be mentally ill, and that close friends such as Heath Ledgar, and David Carradine, were killed not by accident, but as part of a conspiracy.

Randy Quaid was nominated for an Academy Award, BAFTA Award and a Golden Globe Award for his role in The Last Detail in 1973. In 1978 he co-starred as a prisoner in Midnight Express. Quaid also won a Golden Globe and was nominated for an Emmy Award for his portrayal of U.S. President Lyndon Johnson (36th President of the United States In office November 22, 1963 - January 20, 1969) in LBJ: The Early Years (1987).

Randy Quaid was born in Houston, Texas, the son of Juanita Bonniedale "Nita" (née Jordan), a real estate agent, and William Rudy Quaid (NOVEMBER 21, 1923 - February 8, 1987), an electrician. Quaid has English, Scots-Irish, and Cajun ancestry. Through his father, Quaid is a first cousin, twice removed, of cowboy performer Gene Autry Randy Quaid grew up in Bellaire, Texas,Southwest Houston. He is the older brother of actor Dennis Quaid (born APRIL 9, 1954.

Quaid has English, Irish, Scots-Irish, and Cajun (French) ancestry.[3] He attended Paul W. Horn Elementary School in Bellaire, and Pershing Middle School in Houston. He studied Mandarin and dance at Bellaire High School in Bellaire, Texas, and later in college, at the University of Houston, under drama coach Cecil Pickett, who had previously taught at Bellaire High and whose daughter is actress Cindy Pickett. He was raised in the Baptist faith.

> John J. Pershing Middle School
>
> https://blog.chron.com/ ***
>
> According to HISD, Pershing Middle was built in 1928 and was originally located next to West University Elementary off University. In 1949, the school was moved to a new facility at 7000 Braes, which is what you see in these pictures.
>
> A Houston Chronicle caption from 1950 said the $2 million school “greatly relieved the crowded conditions at West University Elementary School.” The principal at the time was Clarence Orman.
>
> Not everyone, apparently, was a fan of the school. In August 1958 someone set fire to a classroom annex. Houston fire officials told the Chronicle that there didn’t appear to be a link between that and an arson earlier in the month at Spring Branch High School.
>
> The article concluded:
>
> A sign painted, “I hate this school” was found by firemen on one side of the Pershing building, but principal John A. Ratliff said the sign was an old one.

Over the years Farrah Fawcett, and Randy and Dennis Quaid attended school in the 1949 building.

In 2007, THE SCHOOL BUILDING WAS REPLACED BY A NEW ONE NEXT DOOR AT 3838 BLUEBONNET BLVD

Jewel (2001 film) Farah Fawcet knowiog the backstory will die of cancer shortly thereacter. She was born in Corpus Christi

In 1945, Jewel Hilburn (Farrah Fawcett), 39, and her husband Leston (Patrick Bergin), 41, are living in poverty in rural Mississippi, and raising their four children: Raylene (Rachel Skarsten), Burton (Kyle Fairlie), Wilman (Max Morrow), and Annie (Alexis Vandermaelen). All four children were nannied by Jewel's friend and housekeeper, Cathedral (Cicely Tyson). Leston makes a living pulling out pine stumps for the war effort. Cathedral's husband, Nelson (Ardon Bess), and their sons, Sepulchur and Temple, all work for Leston.

The Hilburns discover that Jewel is pregnant, and decide it will be their last child. Cathedral has a premonition and warns Jewel that the child will bring hardship and test her, but that it is God's way of smiling down on Jewel.

Beaudry tells Jewel that Brenda Kay should receive regular injections to strengthen her bones. The injections are expensive, but the Hilburns manage to pay for them, even when times get tougher after Leston loses his job. The kids sell the vegetables the family grows, Raylene quits school and gets a job, and Jewel takes on sewing work. Meanwhile, Jewel concentrates her attention on caring for Brenda Kay, who survives, but misses developmental milestones. Aged seven, Brenda Kay walks downstairs by herself for the first time. Brenda Kay's constant needs mean Jewel has less time and energy for her older children.

Jewel reads of a "miracle school" [Mc Martin?] in Los Angeles, California, that is reputed to help children like Brenda Kay, and proposes that the family moves there to find work while Brenda Kay attends the school. While Leston considers, Burton decides to go to California immediately to look for work. Brenda Kay, meanwhile, has a couple of near brushes with death.

Jewel has secretly applied to the special school and Brenda Kay has been accepted. To raise money, Jewel secretly starts selling items from her home. Eventually Leston notices and confronts her. After an argument, he agrees to move to California, on condition that they return to Mississippi someday.

Except Raylene, who gets married and stays in Mississippi, the Hilburns relocate to Los Angeles to reunite with Burton, now working at a garage. Leston finds work, and Brenda Kay enrolls in the school, run by director Nathan White. For the first time, Brenda Kay meets other children like herself, and Jewel is not solely responsible for her.

In 1961, Brenda Kay is sixteen. The school has not raised Brenda Kay’s attainment, but Leston has a better job, and Jewel works at the school as an assistant. White suggests to Jewel that she must let go of Brenda Kay, as her efforts are holding her daughter back. Keeping her promise to Leston, they return to Mississippi to search for a new house, but Leston realizes that his home is now in Los Angeles, and Mississippi is his past. They return to California and resume their lives. Gradually, Jewel accepts White's argument that Brenda Kay must be allowed to live her own life. White recommends a group home for adults with Down Syndrome, where Brenda Kay will learn to live independently from Jewel's over-protective care.

The Hilburns leave Brenda Kay at the home with the new friends she has made. Jewel visits her often, but has finally realized the importance of letting her grow by herself.

The late William R. (Buddy) Quaid," Buddy", was an actor and an electrician. He is remembered as a voluble and gregarious man who loved to sing and perform for his family. He was a Merchant Marine during World War II. He happened to bear an uncanny resemblance to the 1940's actor Dana Andrews Born: JANUARY 1, 1909, COLLINS, MS DIED: DECEMBER 17, 1992, Los Alamitos, CA Height: 5′ 10″.

Ramin Bahrani, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., and Monsanto

Ramin Bahrani(born March 20, 1975) is an American director and screenwriter. Film critic Roger Ebert ranked Bahrani's Chop Shop (2007) as the sixth-best film of the 2000s, calling him "the new director of the decade”.[1] Bahrani was the recipient of the 2009 Guggenheim Fellowship. Bahrani is a professor of film directing at his alma mater the Columbia University School of the Arts.

In 2021, Bahrani was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Adapted Screenplay for The White Tiger. He is a BAFTA and Emmy Award nominee.

He directed Randy Quaid in At Any Price.

An ambitious farmer Henry Whipple (Dennis Quaid) discusses with his son Dean (Zac Efron) about the art of sales. Dean is reluctant to be as ruthless as his father as they offer condolences and also unscrupulously attempt to purchase land during a family funeral.

After returning home they roll out the red carpet for their son who has left the farm and mentions returning via a postcard but appears unlikely to return. As the story progresses we see that Henry Whipple is having an affair with British and condescending Meredith Crown (Heather Graham) and his ongoing selfish decisions will continue to derail his future.

Henry Ripple uses a GMO from a company and gets a free sample too. THe GMO is analogous to Monsanto products and Ripple is being prosecuted for using seed from a bought product to resale as competing with the patented product.

Kennedy was born in Washington, D.C., on January 17, 1954. He is the third of eleven children of Senator and Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy and Ethel Kennedy (née Skakel).

Robert F. Kennedy Jr. a nephew of Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., John F. Kennedy, and Ted Kennedy. His aunt Eunice Kennedy Shriver founded Special Olympics, and another aunt, Jean Kennedy Smith, is a former U.S. Ambassador to Ireland.

In 2008, it was reported that Kennedy has spasmodic dysphonia, which causes his voice to quaver and makes speech difficult. It is a form of an involuntary movement disorder called dystonia that affects only the larynx.[244]

In 2018, the National Trial Lawyers Association awarded Kennedy and his trial team Trial Team of the Year for their work winning a $289 million jury verdict in Dewayne “Lee” Johnson v Monsanto.

Morgan & Morgan PA

In 2016, Kennedy became counsel to the Morgan & Morgan P.A. law firm.[58] The partnership arose from the two firms’ successful collaboration on the case against SoCalGas Company following the Aliso Canyon gas leak in California.[59] In 2017, Kennedy and his partners sued Monsanto in federal court in San Francisco, on behalf of plaintiffs seeking to recover damages for non-Hodgkin’s lymphoma, that, the plaintiffs allege, were a result of exposure to Monsanto’s glyphosate-based herbicide, Roundup. Kennedy and his team also filed a class action lawsuit against Monsanto for failing to warn consumers about the dangers allegedly posed by exposure to Roundup.[60] In September 2018, Kennedy and his partners filed a class-action lawsuit against Columbia Gas of Massachusetts alleging negligence following gas explosions in three towns north of Boston. Of Columbia Gas, Kennedy said “as they build new miles of pipe, the same company is ignoring its existing infrastructure, which we now know is eroding and is dilapidated.”[61]

Kennedy is a son of U.S. senator Robert F. Kennedy and a nephew of president John F. Kennedy. He helped found the non-profit environmental group Waterkeeper Alliance in 1999 and has served as the president of its board. Kennedy has co-hosted Ring of Fire, a nationally syndicated radio program, and written or edited ten books, including two New York Times bestsellers.

From 1986 until 2017, Kennedy was a senior attorney for the Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC), a non-profit environmental organization. From 1984 until 2017, he was a board member and attorney for Hudson Riverkeeper.[1] Earlier in his legal career, he served as assistant district attorney in New York City. For over thirty years, Kennedy has been an adjunct professor of Environmental law at Pace University School of Law. Until August 2017, he also held the post as supervising attorney and co-director of Pace Law School's Environmental Litigation Clinic, which he founded in 1987.[2] He is currently professor emeritus at Pace.[3]

Since 2005 he has promoted the scientifically-discredited idea that vaccines cause autism,[4] and is founder and chairman of Children's Health Defense, an anti-vaccine advocacy group.[5]

As a watcher of this movie I found it sophomoric that the sex scene with Crown was in a seed (grain silo) which was made to like like a missle silo during orgasm point up to the silo roof and this occurred at 58 minutes into the film, or 59 minutes and I wondered if this was some conceptual glyph or a DNA experiment in that time-frame.

I am also given to wonder if in the CIA mix of Twins Studies Dennis and Randy are of the same biological parents and one of their parents or both of their parents are being studied.

Maika Monroe (Cadence Farrow) is the USA woman, perhaps really Marilyn? and Meredith Crown (Heather Graham (English)) talks down to the USA figure, Monroe, very condescendingly as so young. Similar to the British figure in #Manchurian Candidate 1962 seemingly talking about the USA being so young country.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Umbrella Intended for Brittany Spears but re-written and Given to Riahna by Brittan Spears Trust Fund managers

“No clouds in my stones
Let it rain, I hydroplane in the bank
Coming down like the Dow Jones
When the clouds come, we gone, WE ROC-A-FELLA
We fly higher than weather, in G5’S OR BETTER
You know me (You know me)
In anticipation for precipitation, stack chips for the rainy day
Jay-Rain Man is back
With Little Miss Sunshine, Rihanna, where you at?”

Group of Five From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia * The Group of Five (G5) encompasses five nations which have joined together for an active role in the rapidly evolving international order. Individually and as a group, the G5 nations work to promote dialogue and understanding between developing and developed countries. The G5 seek to find common solutions to global challenges.[1] In the 21st century, the G5 were understood to be the five largest emerging economies, and these are:[2]

Brazil China India Mexico South Africa

Standard Oil and Rockefeller

Group of Five From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia *

The concept of a forum for the world’s major industrialized democracies emerged following the 1973 oil crisis and subsequent global recession. In 1974 the United States created the informal Library Group, an unofficial gathering of senior financial officials from France, Japan, the United Kingdom, the United States, and West Germany. These men were called the “Library Group” because they met informally in the library of the White House in Washington, D.C.[4]

During the 1970s, the term “Group of Five” came to be identified the top five of the world’s the leading economies as ranked by per capita GDP. Without the informal meetings of the G5 finance ministers, there would have been no subsequent meetings of G-5 leaders.[5] In 1975, French President Valéry Giscard d’Estaing invited five other heads of government from Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom, the United States, and West Germany to a six-party economic summit in Château de Rambouillet. At the time, it was impossible to predict whether this informal gathering would be meaningful or only a public relations event

A core part of the Espionage capabilities is blaming me for me being assaulted by Agent Provocateurs who created an offense then assaulted me as though I were the offender, then paying the victim of the Agent Provocateur with my genomic or financial assets.

This all achieved through CIA and FBI front organizations involve in felony racketeering though the Courts and Media will not out the highly placed La Cosa Nostra deep state, at least so far, though that Deep State includes Trump and William MKULTRA CIA Barr support for Epstein and Maxwell, where genes rights are blackmailed.

Tiger Blood, or was that Lion Blood?

Charlie Sheen retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Carlos Irwin Estévez (born September 3, 1965), known professionally as Charlie Sheen, is an American actor. Sheen was born Carlos Estévez on September 3, 1965, in

New York City, the youngest son of actor Martin Sheen (whose real name is Ramón Antonio Gerardo Estévez (born AUGUST 3, 1940)) and artist Janet Templeton. His paternal grandparents were emigrants from Galicia (Spain) and Ireland, respectively. After being accused of antisemitism in 2011, Sheen claimed that his mother was Jewish, although Jewish Standard reporter Nate Bloom wrote that he found no evidence to support this and described Sheen's claim as "exceedingly unlikely".

Sheen said later that year that his father was Catholic and his mother was Southern Baptist.[13] He has two older brothers, Emilio and Ramon, and a younger sister, Renée, all actors. His parents moved to Malibu, California, after Martin's Broadway turn in The Subject Was Roses. Sheen's first movie appearance was at age nine in his father's 1974 film The Execution of Private Slovik. Sheen attended Santa Monica High School in Santa Monica, California, along with Robert Downey Jr., where he was a star pitcher and shortstop for the baseball team.

At Santa Monica High School, he showed an early interest in acting, making amateur Super 8 films with his brother Emilio and school friends Rob Lowe and Sean Penn under his birth name. A few weeks before graduation, Sheen was expelled from school for poor grades and attendance. Deciding to become an actor, he took the stage name Charlie Sheen. His father had adopted the surname Sheen in honor of the Catholic archbishop and theologian Fulton J. Sheen, while Charlie was an English form of his given name Carlos.

2011

Production of Two and a Half Men went on hiatus in January 2011 while Sheen underwent a substance rehabilitation program in his home, his third attempt at rehab in 12 months.[26][27][28] The following month, CBS canceled the season’s four remaining episodes after Sheen publicly made derogatory comments about the series’s creator, Chuck Lorre,[29] and Warner Bros. banned Sheen from entering its production lot.[30] Sheen, already the highest-paid actor on television,[2] responded by publicly demanding a 50 percent raise,[31] claiming that in comparison to the amount that the series was making, he was “underpaid”.

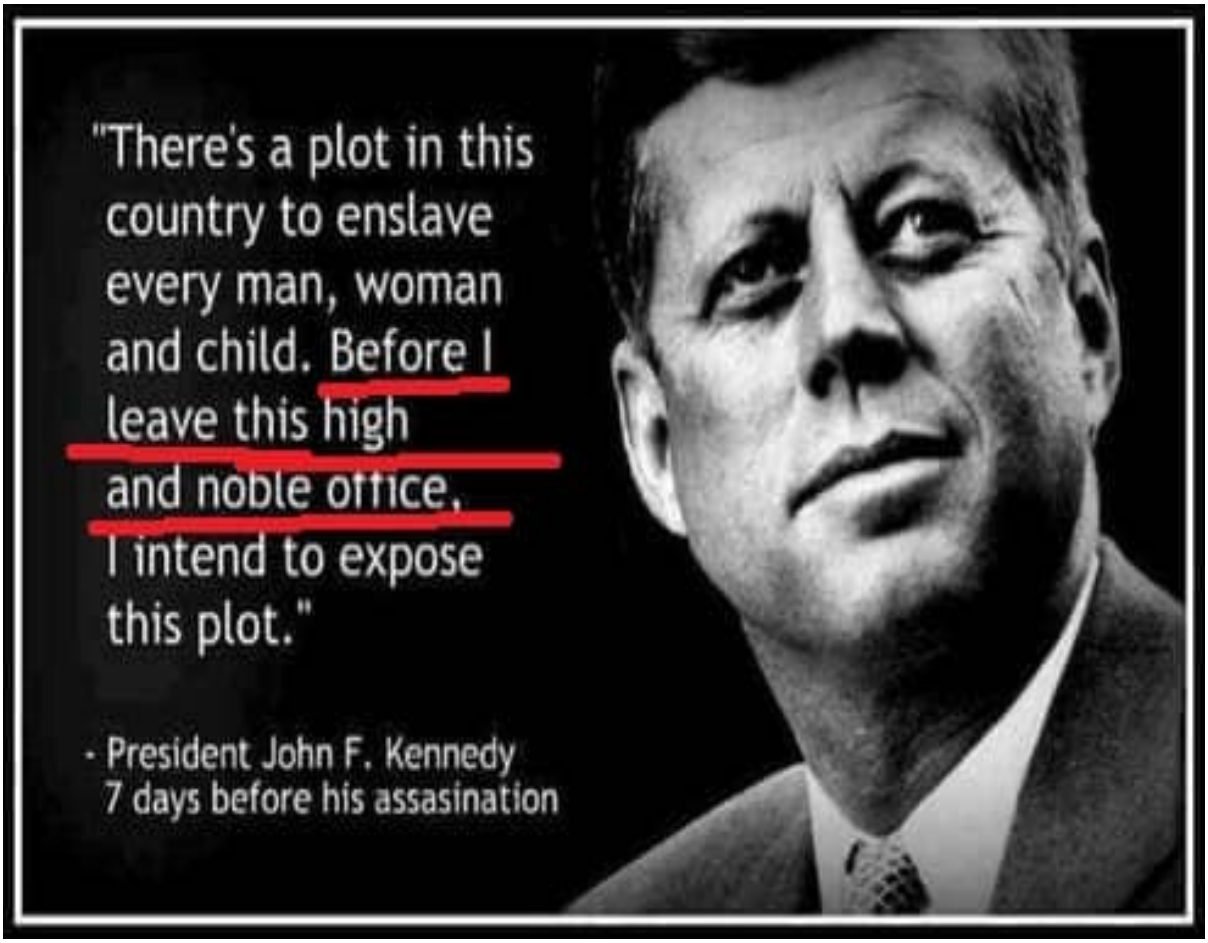
Tiger Blood DNA

In the wake of the dismissal, Sheen had highly publicized events which were broadcast on television and the Internet. He made statements in television interviews, suggesting that he was a “warlock” with “tiger blood” and “Adonis DNA”, and that he was “winning”. He also posted videos to YouTube showing himself smoking cigarettes through his nose, and cursing out his former employers.[41] He told one TV interviewer, “I’m tired of pretending I’m not special. I’m tired of pretending I’m not a total bitchin’ rock star from Mars.”

Der Nazi Loving Jew

After Bobby Fischer mysteriously left the world stage, he spoke of worldwide satanic conspiracies run by the Illuminati.

“Satanic plot of ONE world Goverment (Or more likley A Royal pain in the Arse plot)” from the House of Rothschild and financed from there.



"There's a plot in this country to enslave every man, woman and child. Before I leave this high and noble office, I intend to expose this plot."
- President John F. Kennedy
7 days before his assasination

Skull and Bones Member - George Herbert Walker Bush.

Bobby Fischerr retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Bobby Fischer was born at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago, Illinois, on March 9, 1943.[2] His mother, Regina Wender Fischer, was a US citizen,[3][4] born in Switzerland; her parents were Polish Jews.[5][6] Raised in St. Louis, Missouri,[2] Regina became a teacher, a registered nurse, and later a physician.[7]

After graduating from college in her teens, Regina traveled to Germany to visit her brother. It was there she met geneticist and future Nobel Prize winner Hermann Joseph Muller, who persuaded her to move to Moscow to study medicine. She enrolled at I.M. Sechenov First Moscow State Medical University, where she met Hans-Gerhardt Fischer, also known as Gerardo Liebscher,[8] a German biophysicist, whom she married in November 1933.[9] In 1938, Hans-Gerhardt and Regina had a daughter, Joan Fischer. The reemergence of anti-Semitism under Stalin prompted Regina to go with Joan to Paris, where Regina became an English teacher. The threat of a German invasion led her and Joan to go to the United States in 1939. Regina and Hans-Gerhardt had already separated in Moscow, although they did not officially divorce until 1945.

At the time of her son’s birth, Regina was homeless[10] and shuttled to different jobs and schools around the country to support her family. She engaged in political activism and raised both Bobby and Joan as a single parent.

In 1949, Regina moved the family to Manhattan[14] and the following year to Brooklyn, New York City, where she studied for her master’s degree in nursing and subsequently began working in that field.

Paul Nemenyi as Fischer’s father. In 2002 Peter Nicholas and Clea Benson of The Philadelphia Inquirer published an investigative report that stated that Bobby Fischer's biological father was actually Paul Nemenyi.[13][15][16] This was not confirmed by Fischer or his (by then deceased) mother. Nemenyi, a Hungarian mathematician and physicist of Jewish heritage, was considered an expert in fluid and applied mechanics. Benson and Nicholas continued their work and gathered additional evidence in court records, personal interviews, and even a summary of the FBI investigation written by J. Edgar Hoover, which confirmed their earlier conclusions.[13]

Fischer made numerous antisemitic statements and denied the Holocaust; his general hatred for Jews, professed since at least the 1960s, was a major theme in his public and private remarks. There has been widespread comment and speculation concerning his psychological condition based on his extreme views and unusual behavior.

"On DECEMBER 15, 1992, a single count indictment in federal court in Washington, D.C., was handed down by a grand jury against Bobby Fischer for violating economic sanctions, through an executive order issued by President George Bush. A letter to that effect was sent to Bobby in Belgrade, and upon announcement of the indictment, federal officials issued a warrant for his arrest."

Twins, Thiel, and the Facebook November 19 boardroom coup d'etat

REVEALED: FACEBOOK'S SECRET BLACKLIST OF "DANGEROUS INDIVIDUALS AND ORGANIZATIONS" retrieved from https://theintercept.com/ and copied or modified to here

Experts say the public deserves to see the list, a clear embodiment of U.S. foreign policy priorities that could disproportionately censor marginalized groups.

TO WARD OFF accusations that it helps terrorists spread propaganda, Facebook has for many years barred users from speaking freely about people and groups it says promote violence.

The restrictions appear to trace back to 2012, when in the face of growing alarm in Congress and the United Nations about online terrorist recruiting, Facebook added to its Community Standards a ban on “organizations with a record of terrorist or violent criminal activity.” This modest rule has since ballooned into what’s known as the Dangerous Individuals and Organizations policy, a sweeping set of restrictions on what Facebook’s nearly 3 billion users can say about an enormous and ever-growing roster of entities deemed beyond the pale.

In recent years, the policy has been used at a more rapid clip, including against the president of the United States, and taken on almost totemic power at the social network, trotted out to reassure the public whenever paroxysms of violence, from genocide in Myanmar to riots on Capitol Hill, are linked to Facebook. Most recently, following a damning series of Wall Street Journal articles showing the company knew it facilitated myriad offline harms, a Facebook vice president cited the policy as evidence of the company’s diligence in an internal memo obtained by the New York Times.

Facebook’s DIO policy has become an unaccountable system that disproportionately punishes certain communities.

But as with other attempts to limit personal freedoms in the name of counterterrorism, Facebook’s DIO policy has become an unaccountable system that disproportionately punishes certain communities, critics say. It is built atop a blacklist of over 4,000 people and groups, including politicians, writers, charities, hospitals, hundreds of music acts, and long-dead historical figures.

Try googling images of Jen Psaki and Marc Zuckerberg side by side

Zuckerberg was born on May 14, 1984, in White Plains, New York.[10] His parents are Karen (née Kempner), a psychiatrist, and Edward Zuckerberg, a dentist.[11] He and his three sisters, Randi, Donna, and Arielle, were brought up in Dobbs Ferry, New York, a small Westchester County village about 21 miles (34 km) north of Midtown Manhattan.[12] Zuckerberg was raised in a Reform Jewish household, and his ancestors hailed from Germany, Austria and Poland.[15] He had a Star Wars-themed bar mitzvah when he turned 13.

MSN.com retrieved from (Bloomberg) — Meta Platforms Inc.’s one-day crash now ranks as the worst in stock-market history. and copied or modified to here

The Facebook parent plunged 26% Thursday 02/03/2022 on the back of woeful earnings results, and erased about $251.3 billion in market value. That’s the biggest wipeout in market value for any U.S. company ever.

And while the stock could certainly bounce back in coming days, especially given the volatility that’s gripped the technology sector this year, the mood on Wall Street has turned decidedly bleak on the long-time market darling.

Analysts pointing to the stiff competition that Meta now faces from rivals and to the fact that revenue was below expectations as causes for concern. Michael Nathanson, an analyst at brokerage Moffett Nathanson, titled his note “Facebook: The Beginning of the End?”

“These cuts run deep,” he wrote. The results were “a headline grabber and not in a good way.”

READ: Facebook’s Stalled Growth Is a Very Big Deal: Fully Charged

The sheer size of Facebook’s collapse illustrates just how tech companies have ballooned in size to become behemoths with unprecedented market power, and the drama that can ensue when they stumble.

f Winklevoss Capital Management retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

In December 2002, Winklevoss, along with his Identical Twin brother brother Cameron Winklevoss (both born August 21, 1981 Southampton, New York) and fellow Harvard classmate Divya Narendra, sought a better way to connect with fellow students at Harvard University and other universities. The three conceived of a social network for Harvard students named HarvardConnection;[18] the concept ultimately expanded to other schools around the country.[19][20][21] In January 2003, they enlisted the help of fellow Harvard student, programmer and friend Sanjay Mavinkurve to begin building HarvardConnection.[22] Mavinkurve commenced work on HarvardConnection but departed the project in spring 2003 when he graduated and went to work for Google.

After the departure of Mavinkurve, the Winklevosses and Narendra approached Narendra’s friend, Harvard student and programmer Victor Gao, to work on HarvardConnection.[22] Gao, a senior in Mather House, opted not to become a partner in the venture, instead agreeing to be paid in a work for hire capacity.[21] He was paid $400 for his work on the website code during the summer and fall of 2003, when he left the project.

Mark Zuckerberg In November 2003, at the suggestion of Victor Gao, the Winklevosses and Narendra approached Mark Zuckerberg about joining the HarvardConnection team. The previous HarvardConnection programmers had reportedly made progress on coding front-end pages, the registration system, a database, back-end coding, and a way users could connect with each other, which Gao called a “handshake”. In early November, Narendra emailed Zuckerberg saying, “We’re very deep into developing a site which we would like you to be a part of and … which we know will make some waves on campus.” Within days, Zuckerberg was talking to the HarvardConnection team and preparing to take over programming duties from Gao.[21] On the evening of NOVEMBER 25, 2003, the Winklevosses and Narendra met with Zuckerberg in the dining hall of Harvard’s Kirkland House, where they explained to Zuckerberg the HarvardConnection website, the plan to expand to other schools after launch, the confidential nature of the project, and the importance of getting there first. During the meeting, Zuckerberg allegedly entered into an oral contract with Narendra and the Winklevosses and became a partner in HarvardConnection. He was given the private server location and password for the unfinished HarvardConnection website and code,[20] with the understanding that he would finish the programming necessary for launch. Zuckerberg allegedly chose to be compensated through an interest in the enterprise (sweat equity).

On DECEMBER 17, 2003, Zuckerberg met with the Winklevosses and Narendra in his dorm room, allegedly confirming his interest and assuring them that the site was almost complete.[21] On the whiteboard in his room, Zuckerberg allegedly had scrawled multiple lines of code under the heading “Harvard Connection,” however, this would be the only time they saw any of his work.[21] On January 8, 2004, Zuckerberg emailed to say he was “completely swamped with work [that] week” but had “made some of the changes … and they seem[ed] to be working great” on his computer. He said he could discuss the site starting the following Tuesday, on January 13, 2004.[24][29] On January 11, 2004, Zuckerberg registered the domain name thefacebook.com.[30] On January 12, 2004, Zuckerberg e-mailed Eduardo Saverin, saying that the Facebook site [thefacebook.com] was almost complete and that they should discuss marketing strategies.[21] Two days later, on January 14, 2004,[25] Zuckerberg met again with the HarvardConnection team; however, he allegedly failed to disclose registering the domain name thefacebook.com or developing a competing social networking website.

Who Is Peter Thiel's Husband? retrieved from BY ANDREW KROSOFSKY OCT. 8 2020 The Market Realist and copied or modified to here

Peter Thiel is among the prominent venture capitalists and billionaires in the world. While he may not be equal to his fellow venture capitalists in eccentricity, details about his private life would certainly raise a few eyebrows in less progressive circles. Thiel has been married to his husband, Matt Danzeisen, since 2017.

Peter Thiel is a business dynamo of the highest caliber. He is the co-founder of several successful business ventures including PayPal, Palantir Technologies, and Founders Fund. He was also the first investor in Facebook, which shows that he has an "eye for business."

Thiel is a self-described Christian from an evangelical household. He focuses on his faith and not Christianity in fundamentalist terms. He has often spoken about his own beliefs and how he doesn't want to judge how others follow the Christian faith. Thiel has been very open about his faith, especially after his marriage.

Is Peter Thiel married? The couple hasn't revealed the full details of their relationship or how long they have been together, but Peter Thiel and Matt Danzeisen were married in a private ceremony in October 2017 in Vienna, Austria. The event was supposed to celebrate Peter's 50th birthday.

They allegedly surprised their guests by exchanging vows. The couple also has a baby daughter.

Who is Matt Danzeisen? Very little is known about Matt Danzeisen besides that he was born in the U.S. He has risen to fame through his marriage to Peter Thiel. Currently, Danzeisen works as a portfolio manager at Thiel Capital, which suggests that he has some background and expertise in finance. Previously, he served in a similar capacity at BlackRock, which is a global investment management corporation. He also served as an investment banker at Bank of America.

What is Matt Danzeisen's net worth? Matt Danzeisen's net worth and assets are estimated conservatively at over $1 million, which he earned on his own throughout his business career. However, he likely shares the wealth of his billionaire husband, which makes his potential net worth somewhere in the realm of $2.6 billion. The assets they share include Thiel's $27 million mansion in Hawaii and his $11 million home in Los Angeles, Calif., to name a few.

https://biographypedia.org/ The Untold Truth Of Peter Thiel's Husband - Matt Danzeisen *

Peter Theil invested $10 million to launch the global macro hedge fund Clarium Capital Management, which was followed by his investments in Facebook in August 2004, which he later sold for $1 billion in 2012. He also became a board member at Facebook. In 2004, he co-founded Palantir Technologies, a private data analysis company, in which he serves as the Chairman and currently holds shares worth over > $20 billion. In the following year, Peter launched the venture capital company, Founders Fund, with Luke Nosek and Ken Howery. In 2010, he co-founded Valar Ventures and Mithril Capital Management, and more recently was also a partner at Y Combinator between 2015 and 2017.

At Ardsley High School, Zuckerberg excelled in classes. After two years, he transferred to the private school Phillips Exeter Academy, where he won prizes in mathematics, astronomy, physics, and classical studies. In his youth, he also attended the Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth summer camp. On his college application, Zuckerberg stated that he could read and write French, Hebrew, Latin, and ancient Greek. He was captain of the fencing team.

Karen Carpenter and the Carprenters retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Karen Anne Carpenter was born on March 2, 1950, at Grace New Haven Hospital in New Haven, Connecticut, the daughter of Agnes Reuwer (née Tatum, March 5, 1915 - November 10, 1996) and Harold Bertram Carpenter (November 8, 1908 - October 15, 1988).[4] Harold was born in Wuzhou, China, where his parents were missionaries. He was educated at boarding schools in England before finding work in the printing business.[5]

Carpenter's only sibling, Richard, the elder by three years, developed an interest in music at an early age, becoming a piano prodigy. Karen's first words were "bye-bye" and "stop it", the latter spoken in response to Richard. She enjoyed dancing and by age four was enrolled in tap dancing and ballet classes.

The family moved in June 1963 to the Los Angeles suburb of Downey after Harold was offered a job there by a former business associate. Carpenter entered Downey High School in 1964 at age 14 and was a year younger than her classmates.[8] She joined the school band, initially to avoid gym classes. Bruce Gifford, the conductor (who had previously taught her elder brother), gave her the glockenspiel, an instrument she disliked, and after admiring the performance of her friend and classmate, drummer Frankie Chavez (who had been playing from an early age and idolized jazz drummer Buddy Rich), she asked if she could play those instead.[9] Carpenter wanted a Ludwig drum set because it was used by her favorite drummers, Joe Morello and Ringo Starr. Chavez persuaded her family to buy her a $300 (the equivalent of $2,500 in 2020) Ludwig kit, and he began to teach her how to play.[10] Her enthusiasm for drumming led to teaching herself how to play complicated lines and studying the difference between traditional and matched grip.[11] Within a year, she could play in complex time signatures, such as the 5 4 in Dave Brubeck's "Take Five".[12]

Carpenter was initially nervous about performing in public, but said she "was too involved in the music to worry about it".[13] She graduated from Downey High School in the spring of 1967, receiving the John Philip Sousa Band Award, and enrolled as a music major at Long Beach State where she performed in the college choir with Richard. The choir's director, Frank Pooler, said that Karen had a good voice that was particularly suited to pop and gave her lessons in order for her to develop a three-octave range.

> California State University, Long Beach
>
> From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia *

> California State University, Long Beach (CSULB, Long Beach State, Cal State Long Beach, LBSU, or Beach) is a public university in Long Beach, California.

27 Club

Profile photo for John Singer Answered July 16, 2016 Originally Answered: Does my voice change as I get older? Well yeah! People mature as follows

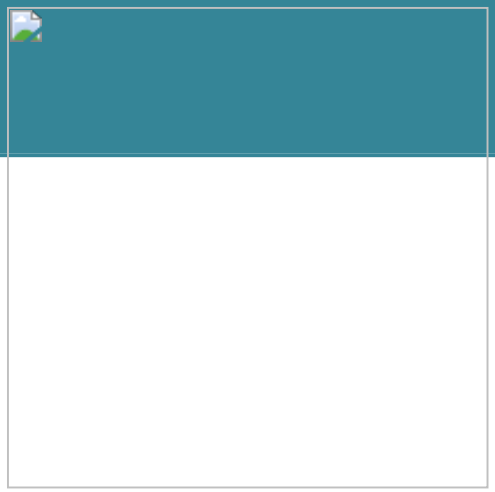
- Child’s voice - Till about 13
- During Puberty - Voice gets deeper and Larynx drops
- 20s - Somewhat youthful but getting deepe
- 30s - Most people go into a complete adult voice somewhere here
- 40s - Solid man’s voice

The 27 Club is a list consisting mostly of popular musicians, artists, or actors who died at age 27. Although the claim of a “statistical spike” for the death of musicians at that age has been repeatedly disproven by research, it remains a cultural phenomenon, documenting the deaths of celebrities, some noted for their high-risk lifestyles. Names are often put forward for inclusion, but because the club is entirely notional, there is no official membership. wikiepdia

Kurt Donald Cobain (FEBRUARY 20, 1967 —. APRIL 5, 1994) was an American musician. He was the frontman of the rock band Nirvana, serving as the band’s guitarist, lead vocalist, and primary songwriter

Janis Lyn Joplin was born in Port Arthur, Texas, on January 19, 1943,[13] to Dorothy Bonita East (1913-1998), a registrar at a business college, and her husband, Seth Ward Joplin (1910-1987), an engineer at Texaco. She had two younger siblings, Michael and Laura. The family attended First Christian Church of Port Arthur, a church belonging to the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) denomination.[14]

Photograph of Brian Jones of The Rolling Stones during the band's visit to Finland.



Lewis Brian Hopkin Jones (28 FEBRUARY 1942 - 3 JULY 1969) was an English musician and composer, best known as the founder and original leader of the Rolling Stones.[3] Initially a slide guitarist, Jones went on to play a wide variety of instruments on Rolling Stones recordings and in concerts, from lead and rhythm guitar and sitar to various keyboard and wind instruments.

After he founded the Rolling Stones as a British blues outfit in 1962, and gave the band its name, Jones's fellow band members Keith Richards and Mick Jagger began to take over the band's musical direction, especially after they became a successful songwriting team. Jones and fellow guitarist Richards also developed a unique style of guitar play that Richards refers to as the "ancient art of weaving" in which both players would play rhythm and lead parts together. Richards continued the style with later guitarists, and the sound became a Rolling Stones trademark. Jones, however, did not get along with the band’s manager, Andrew Loog Oldham, who pushed the band into a musical direction at odds with Jones’s blues background.

Robert Leroy Johnson (May 8, 1911 - AUGUST 16, 1938) was an American blues guitarist, singer, and songwriter. His landmark recordings in 1936 and 1937 display a combination of singing, guitar skills, and songwriting talent that has influenced later generations of musicians. He is now recognized as a master of the blues, particularly the Delta blues style.

As a traveling performer who played mostly on street corners, in juke joints, and at Saturday night dances, Johnson had little commercial success or public recognition in his lifetime. He participated in only two recording sessions, one in San Antonio in 1936, and one in Dallas in 1937, that produced 29 distinct songs (with 13 surviving alternate takes) recorded by famed Country Music Hall of Fame producer Don Law. These songs, recorded at low fidelity in improvised studios, were the totality of his recorded output. Most were released as 10-inch, 78 rpm singles from 1937-1938, with a few released after his death.

Rupert Chawner Brooke (3 AUGUST 1887 - 23 April 1915) was an English poet known for his idealistic war sonnets written during the First World War, especially The Soldier. He was also known for his boyish good looks, which were said to have prompted the Irish poet W. B. Yeats to describe him as “the handsomest young man in England”.[2][3]

Nat Jaffe (January 1, 1918 - August 5, 1945) was an American swing jazz pianist. He was married to singer Shirley Lloyd.

Jaffe lived in Berlin from 1921 to 1932, where he received classical training on piano. Upon his return to the U.S., he began playing jazz music, working with Noel Francis, the Emery Deutsch Orchestra, and as a soloist on 52nd Street. In the late 1930s he played with Jan Savitt, Joe Marsala and Billie Holiday, and recorded with Louis Armstrong (1938), Charlie Barnet (1938-39) and Jack Teagarden (1940).[3] He led his own trio in the early 1940s and recorded in 1945 with Sarah Vaughan.

Jaffe died in 1945 as a result of complications from high blood pressure at the age of 27.

Jesse Lorenzo Belvin (DECEMBER 15, 1932 - February 6, 1960) was an American singer, pianist and songwriter popular in the 1950s. Belvin's success was cut short by his death in a car crash at the age of 27.

Belvin recorded a further series of tracks later in the year, with arranger Marty Paich and an orchestra including saxophonist Art Pepper. The songs included soulful covers of standards such as "Blues in the Night", "In the Still of the Night", and "Makin' Whoopee", and were issued on the album Mr. Easy.

However, before the album was issued, and shortly after finishing a performance on a bill with Sam Cooke, Jackie Wilson, and Marv Johnson on February 6, 1960, Belvin and his wife were killed in a head-on collision at Hope, Arkansas.

The concert was the first concert played before an integrated audience in the history of Little Rock, and was stopped twice by interruptions from whites in the audience, shouting racial epithets and urging the white teenagers in attendance to leave at once. Journalists have stated that police suspected the car was tampered with. Jackie Wilson told the press that he had requested his lawyer look into the matter, but no official determination was ever made.

George Stephen Morrison (January 7, 1919 - NOVEMBER 17, 2008) was a United States Navy rear admiral (upper half) and naval aviator. Morrison was commander of the U.S. naval forces in the Gulf of Tonkin during the Gulf of Tonkin Incident of August 1964. It involved both a proven confrontation on AUGUST 2, 1964, carried by North Vietnamese forces in response to covert operations in the coastal region of the gulf, and a second claimed confrontation on AUGUST 4, 1964, between ships of North Vietnam and the United States in the waters of the Gulf of Tonkin. which sparked an escalation of American involvement in the Vietnam War. He was the father of Jim Morrison, the lead singer of the rock band The Doors, who died on JULY 3, 1971.

James Douglas “Jim” Morrison was an American singer, songwriter, musician and poet, who was the lead singer of the rock band the Doors.

Born: DECEMBER 8, 1943, MELBOURNE, FL Died: JULY 3, 1971, PARIS, FRANCE

Linda Jones (DECEMBER 14, 1944 - March 14, 1972)[1] was an American soul singer with a strong gospel-influenced style.

Shortly after the end of her national tour supporting the album, Jones died at her mother’s home at the age of 27 while resting between matinee and evening shows at New York City’s Apollo Theater in Harlem. She had been a diabetic for most of her life and slipped into a coma (or more likely, insulin shock) while sleeping.

David Michael Alexander (JUNE 3, 1947 - FEBRUARY 10, 1975) was an American musician, best known as the original bassist for influential protopunk band The Stooges.

Alexander was fired from the band in August 1970 after showing up at the Goose Lake International Music Festival too drunk to play.

Death Alexander died of pulmonary edema in 1975,[4] at the age of 27 in Ann Arbor, after being admitted to a hospital for pancreatitis, which was linked to his alcoholism.

Dennes Dale “D.” Boon (April 1, 1958 - December 22, 1985) was an American singer, songwriter, and guitarist. Boon was best known as the guitarist and vocalist of the American punk rock trio Minutemen. In 1985, he was killed in a van crash at the age of 27.

Gattaca retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

It stars Ethan Hawke and Uma Thurman, with Jude Law, Loren Dean, Ernest Borgnine, Gore Vidal, and Alan Arkin appearing in supporting roles.[4] The film presents a biopunk vision of a future society driven by eugenics where potential children are conceived through genetic selection to ensure they possess the best hereditary traits of their parents.[5] The film centers on Vincent Freeman, played by Hawke, who was conceived outside the eugenics program and struggles to overcome genetic discrimination to realize his dream of going into space.

Plot

In the “not-too-distant” future, eugenics is common. A genetic registry database uses biometrics to classify those so created as “valids” while those conceived naturally and more susceptible to genetic disorders are known as “in-valids”. Genetic discrimination is illegal, but in practice genotype profiling is used to identify valids to qualify for professional employment while in-valids are relegated to menial jobs.

Vincent Freeman was conceived naturally and his genetic profile indicates a high probability of several disorders and an estimated lifespan of 30.2 years. His parents, regretting their decision, use genetic selection in conceiving their second child, Anton Jr.

The film draws on concerns over reproductive technologies that facilitate eugenics, and the possible consequences of such technological developments for society. It also explores the idea of destiny and the ways in which it can and does govern lives. Characters in Gattaca continually battle both with society and with themselves to find their place in the world and who they are destined to be according to their genes.

The film's title is based on the letters G, A, T, and C, which stand for guanine, adenine, thymine, and cytosine, the four nucleobases of DNA. It was a 1997 nominee for the Academy Award for Best Art Direction and the Golden Globe Award for Best Original Score.

Producers and Directors

Written and Directed by Andrew Niccol (born 10 June 1964) a New Zealand screenwriter, producer, and director.

Daniel Michael DeVito Jr. (born NOVEMBER 17, 1944)

Michael Shamberg (born 1945)[1] is an American film producer and former Time-Life correspondent.

Stacey Sher (born November 30, 1962) is an American film producer.[1]

Gail Lyon

Sarah Clarke (born FEBRUARY 16, 1972) is an American actress, best known for her role as Nina Myers on 24, and also for her roles as Renée Dwyer, Bella Swan's mother, in the 2008 film Twilight, Erin McGuire on the short-lived TV show Trust Me, and CIA Agent Lena Smith on the USA Network show Covert Affairs. She recently starred as Eleanor Wish in Amazon Studios' police procedural drama Bosch.

Alexander Harper Berkeley (born DECEMBER 16, 1955) is an American actor. Since beginning his career in the early 1980s, he has appeared in over 200 film and television projects.

JUNE 5, 2015. A 23-year-old man named Donald Pinkerton-DeVito was killed in a collision with an SFPD cruiser near Sunnydale and Persia Avenues in McLaren Park around 9pm. The cause of the collision has not been released. According to the San Francisco Chronicle, nearby residents described seeing police frequently traveling fast through the area. The street on which the collision occurred is in a park and did not have a protected bike lane nor bicycle sharrows painted on the street.

Robert Lewis Burns Jr. retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Robert Lewis Burns Jr. (November 24, 1950 April 3, 2015) was an American drummer in the original line-up of the Southern rock band Lynyrd Skynyrd.

Burns was born in Gainesville, Florida on November 24, 1950.[2] He helped to form Lynyrd Skynyrd in 1964 with Ronnie Van Zant, Gary Rossington, Allen Collins and Larry Junstrom and remained until 1974, although by some accounts he left the band for a while during the early 1970s. Burns played on the band's early recordings, but on the album Skynyrd's First and… Last, a collection of early demos made in Muscle Shoals, the drum parts of some songs recorded in 1971 were played by Rickey Medlocke. That album also contains songs recorded in 1972 which feature Burns on drums, suggesting that Burns left the band in 1971 and had returned by 1972. During a brief period in the early 1970s, Medlocke occasionally played alongside Burns on drums for live shows, a two-drummer line-up similar to The Allman Brothers Band.

In addition to Skynyrd's First And… Last, Burns played on the band's first two official albums: (Pronounced 'Lĕh-'nérd 'Skin-'nérd) and Second Helping. He had a mental breakdown while on a European tour and left the band in 1974.

In 1996, he participated in a performance to promote Freebird: The Movie. On March 13, 2006, he rejoined Lynyrd Skynyrd for one performance as he played alongside Gary Rossington, Billy Powell, Ed King, Artimus Pyle and The Honkettes at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame induction.

Lynyrd Skynyrd (/ˌlɛnərd 'skɪnərd/ LEN-ərd SKIN-ərd)[2] is an American rock band formed in Jacksonville, Florida. The group originally formed as My Backyard in 1964 and comprised Ronnie Van Zant (lead vocalist), Gary Rossington (guitar), Allen Collins (guitar), Larry Junstrom (bass guitar) and Bob Burns (drums). The band spent five years touring small venues under various names and with several lineup changes before deciding on “Lynyrd Skynyrd” in 1969. The band released its first album in 1973, having settled on a lineup that included bassist Leon Wilkeson, keyboardist Billy Powell and guitarist Ed King. Burns left and was replaced by Artimus Pyle in 1974. King left in 1975 and was replaced by Steve Gaines in 1976. At the height of their fame in the 1970s, the band popularized the Southern rock genre with songs such as “Sweet Home Alabama” and “Free Bird”. After releasing five studio albums and one live album, the band’s career was abruptly halted on October 20, 1977, when their chartered airplane crashed, killing Van Zant, Gaines, and backup singer Cassie Gaines, and seriously injuring the rest of the band.

Lynyrd Skynyrd plane crash

Lead vocalist/founding member Ronnie Van Zant, guitarist and vocalist Steve Gaines, backing vocalist Cassie Gaines (Steve’s older sister), assistant road manager Dean Kilpatrick, pilot Walter McCreary and co-pilot William Gray all died as a result of the crash while twenty others survived.

A plane carrying the band Lynyrd Skynyrd crashed in Gillsburg, Mississippi killing 6 out of 26 passengers. Among the dead were the band's frontman Ronnie Van Zant, guitarist Steve Gaines, and backup singer Cassie Gaines, who died on impact.

Notables

RONNIE VAN ZANT JANUARY 15, 1948 OCTOBER 20, 1977

Ronald Wayne Van Zant (January 15, 1948 October 20, 1977) was an American musician known as the lead vocalist, primary lyricist, and founding member of the Southern rock band Lynyrd Skynyrd. He was the older brother of two other rock vocalists: current Lynyrd Skynyrd lead vocalist Johnny Van Zant and Donnie Van Zant, the founder and vocalist of 38 Special. He was the father of Tammy Van Zant and Melody Van Zant.[1] is an American singer/composer, plane crash survivor, and the current lead vocalist of Southern rock band Lynyrd Skynyrd. He is the younger brother of the late Lynyrd Skynyrd co-founder and former lead vocalist Ronnie Van Zant, and of the 38 Special founder Donnie Van Zant.

JOHN ROY VAN ZANT (BORN FEBRUARY 27, 1960)

In May 2006, less than one day before he was to perform at KSAN-FM 107.7 The Bone's Bone Bash 7, Van Zant underwent emergency surgery to have his appendix removed. Treated at Stanford University Medical Center in Palo Alto, California, after reporting pain to a doctor earlier in the day. The incident forced the band to cancel three U.S. shows.

Van Zant is a fan of the Jacksonville Jaguars. He recorded a video, along with remaining members of Lynyrd Skynyrd, that is played at every Jaguars home game on the EverBank Field video board.[citation needed]

According to Skynyrd's website, Van Zant was again hospitalized on AUGUST 6, 2011, at the Hennepin County Medical Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota, due to complications from a previous surgery. According to the website, Van Zant had a "surgical site" infected with cellulitus which required both hospitalization and IV/Antibiotic treatment. He began displaying signs of a staph infection and other symptoms related to the infection. His subsequent illness resulted in a number of scheduled performances being cancelled.

STEVE EARL GAINES SEPTEMBER 14, 1949 OCTOBER 20, 1977

Steven Earl Gaines was an American musician who died in the plane crash. He is best known as a guitarist, vocalist and songwriter with rock band Lynyrd Skynyrd from 1976 until his death in the October 1977 airplane crash that claimed other band members and crew. His older sister Cassie Gaines, a backup vocalist with the band, likewise died in the crash.

CASSIE GAINES JANUARY 9, 1948 OCTOBER 20, 1977

Cassie LaRue Gaines (January 9, 1948 October 20, 1977) was an American singer, best known for her work with Southern rock band Lynyrd Skynyrd.Gaines was invited by JoJo Billingsley and Ronnie Van Zant to join Lynyrd Skynyrd as a backup singer. She had never heard of the band at the time, so Billingsley lent her a copy of the band’s first two albums: (Pronounced ‘Lĕh-‘nérd ‘Skin-‘nérd) and Second Helping. In late 1975, Gaines, Billingsley, and Leslie Hawkins formed The Honkettes, a female gospel vocal trio for Skynyrd.

When Lynyrd Skynyrd was in need of a guitar player to replace recently departed Ed King, Cassie recommended her younger brother, Steve, who joined the band soon after.

GARY ROBERT ROSSINGTON (BORN DECEMBER 4, 1951)

Gary Robert Rossington (born December 4, 1951) is an American musician, best known as a founding member of Southern rock band Lynyrd Skynyrd, in which he plays lead and rhythm guitar. In 2009, he became the last original member to remain in the band, and became the last surviving original member in 2019. Rossington was also a founding member of the Rossington Collins Band, along with former bandmate Allen Collins. He survived the plane crash with broken bones.

THOMAS DELMER “ARTIMUS” PYLE (BORN JULY 15, 1948)

Thomas Delmer “Artimus” Pyle (suvived) (born July 15, 1948) is an American musician who played drums with Lynyrd Skynyrd from 1974 to 1977 and from 1987 to 1991. He and his Lynyrd Skynyrd bandmates were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2006.[2] [3] He enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1968. He was named platoon and series honorman and promoted to private first class following completion of boot camp in San Diego. Eyeing a career in civil aviation, Pyle worked as an avionics mechanic at various military bases, including Millington, Tennessee, and Beaufort, South Carolina, ultimately rising to the rank of sergeant. He was honorably discharged in 1971.

Pyle was born in Louisville, Kentucky, the son of homemaker Mildred “Midge” Pyle (née Williams; 19252008) and Clarence “Del” Pyle (19211971), a construction superintendent who was awarded a Purple Heart after being shot in the leg while serving with the U.S. Marines in the South Pacific during World War II. Both his parents had roots in the Jamestown, Tennessee, area, and he is a first cousin of U.S. Congressman John Rose[4] and a distant cousin of World War I hero Alvin York. Through his maternal grandmother, he can trace his ancestry to Claus Koger (15721630), a bailiff of the German town of Weil am Rhein.[5] Pyle had a younger sister, Marilyn (19532016), and has an older sister, Peggy (1941present).

WILLIAM NORRIS POWELL (JUNE 3 , 1952 - JANUARY 28, 2009)

Powell was born in Corpus Christi, Texas. He grew up in a military family and spent several of his childhood years in Italy, where his father was stationed with the U.S. Navy. After his father died of cancer in 1960, the Powells returned to the United States to settle in Jacksonville, Florida.[1] In elementary school, Powell met Leon Wilkeson, who became a lifelong friend and the bassist for Lynyrd Skynyrd. Powell took an interest in piano and he began taking piano lessons from a local teacher named Madalyn Brown, who claimed that Billy did not need a teacher as he was a natural and picked things up well on his own.[citation needed] When it was time for high school, his mother enrolled Billy and his brother, Ricky, at Sanford Naval Academy in Sanford, Florida.[citation needed] Powell returned to Jacksonville, where he enrolled at Bishop Kenny High School. After graduation in 1970, he enrolled at and briefly attended a community college, majoring in music theory.

Around 1970, Powell found work as a roadie for Lynyrd Skynyrd and remained a member of the Skynyrd crew for two years, during which the band secured a support role for the band Mountain. In 1972, Skynyrd played a show at the Bolles School prom. During a break at that event, Powell sat down at a piano and launched into his piano-based version of “Free Bird”. When the band realized their roadie’s ability, he was offered the position of keyboardist.[2] Jimmy Johnson, studio guitarist known for being a member of The Swampers, said Billy played his version of Freebird when the band took a lunch break while recording what would become Skynyrds First…and Last. The band returned from lunch to hear Billy playing and a few weeks later he was offered a full position in the band.

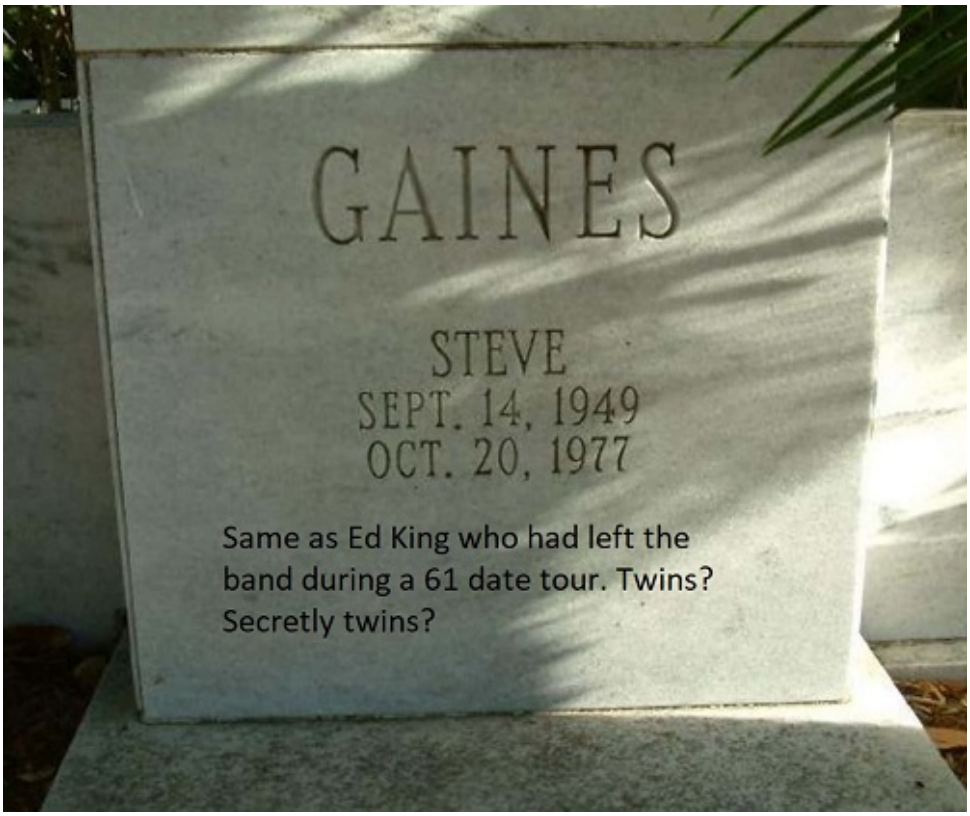
ED KING

During the infamous 1975 “Torture Tour,” a 90-day, 61-date enterprise, lead guitarist Ed King decided that he had had enough. He literally walked out on the band on May 27, 1975, for reasons that are still in dispute.

STEVE GAINES

Steve Gaines, one of the two band members killed on October 20, 1977 had the same birthday as Ed King May 27, 1975

FallingFreeBird: The Truth About The Infamous Lynyrd Skynyrd Plane Crash Is Stranger Than Fiction



Phil Gibbons Updated September 18, 2020 Ranker.com *

A Member Who Intuitively Left The Band Had The Same Birthday As His Deceased Replacement

Ed King looks a lot like Meat Loaf in Rocky Horror Picture Show

Michael Lee Aday (born Marvin Lee Aday, September 27, 1947), better known as Meat Loaf, not seemingly related, is an American singer and actor. He is noted for his powerful, wide-ranging voice and theatrical live shows.

Ed King and Steve Gaines of Leanord Skynard were born September 14, 1949, about two years after Meatloaf.

Again

MARVIN LEE ADAY

Marvin Lee Aday, September 27, 1947) rock and roll singer

ED KING

September 14, 1949 During the infamous 1975 “Torture Tour,” a 90-day, 61-date enterprise, lead guitarist Ed King decided that he had had enough. He literally walked out on the band on May 27, 1975, for reasons that are still in dispute.

STEVE GAINES

September 14, 1949 Steve Gaines, one of the two band members killed on October 20, 1977 had the same birthday as Ed King

LEE MARVIN

FEBRUARY 19, 1924, New York, NY

Lee Marvin was an American film and television actor. Known for his distinctive voice and premature white hair, Marvin initially appeared in supporting roles, mostly villains, soldiers, and other hardboiled characters.

He attended Manumit School, a Christian socialist boarding school in Pawling, New York, during the late 1930s, Peekskill Military Academy in Peekskill New York, and later attended St. Leo College Preparatory School, a Catholic school in St. Leo, Florida after being expelled from several other schools for bad behavior.[5]

Marvin left school at 18 to enlist in the United States Marine Corps Reserve on August 12, 1942. He served with the 4th Marine Division in the Pacific Theater during World War II.[6] While serving as a member of “I” Company, 3rd Battalion, 24th Marines, 4th Marine Division, he was wounded in action on June 18, 1944, during the assault on Mount Tapochau in the Battle of Saipan, during which most of his company were casualties.[7] He was hit by machine gun fire, which severed his sciatic nerve,[8] and then was hit again in the foot by a sniper.[9] After over a year of medical treatment in naval hospitals, Marvin was given a medical discharge with the rank of private first class. He previously held the rank of corporal, but had been demoted for troublemaking.

Marvin’s decorations include the Purple Heart Medal, the Presidential Unit Citation, the American Campaign Medal, the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal, the World War II Victory Medal, and the Combat Action Ribbon.[10] Wikipedia from Bishopville, South Carolina (Gaineys Donegans Duponts) 29010 to Greenville, South Carolina 2 hr 25 min (152 miles) via I-20 W, I-26 W and I-385 N Fastest route, the usual traffic

On October 20, 1977, three days after releasing their album Street Survivors, Lynyrd Skynyrd performed at the Greenville

Memorial Auditorium in Greenville, South Carolina, and boarded a Convair CV-240 airplane to take them to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where they were to perform at Louisiana State University. The plane ran out of fuel near the end of the flight.

Pike County is a county located on the southwestern border of the U.S. state of Mississippi. As of the 2010 census, the population was 40,404.[1] The county seat is Magnolia.[2] Pike County is named for explorer Zebulon Pike a famous free mason and explorer for Thomas Jefferson.

DuPont delivers Lousiana to the USA from France retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

From Thomas Jefferson to Pierre Samuel Du Pont de Nemours, 25 April 1802

To Pierre Samuel Du Pont de Nemours

Washington Apr. 25. 1802.Dear Sir

The week being now closed during which you had given me a hope of seeing you here, I think it safe to inclose you my letters for Paris lest they should fail of the benefit of so desireable a conveyance. they are addressed to Kosciuzko, Volney, Madame de Corny, mr Short, and Chancellor Livingston. you will percieve the unlimited confidence I repose in your good faith and in your cordial dispositions to serve both countries, when you observe that I leave the letter for Chancellor Livingston open for your perusal. the first page respects a cypher, as do the loose sheets folded with the letter. these are interesting to him & myself only, and therefore are not for your perusal. it is the 2d. 3d. & 4th. pages which I wish you to read, to possess yourself of compleatly, and then seal the letter with wafers stuck under the flying seal that it may be seen by no body else if any accident should happen to you. I wish you to be possessed of the subject, because you may be able to impress on the government of France the inevitable consequences of their taking possession of Louisiana: and tho', as I there mention, the cession of N. Orleans & the Floridas to us1 would be a palliative; yet I believe it would be no more; and that this measure will cost France, & perhaps not very long hence, a war which will annihilate her on the ocean, & place that element under the despotism of two nations, which I am not reconciled to the more because my own would be one of them. add to this the exclusive appropriation of both continents of America as a consequence. I wish the present order of things to continue: and with a view to this I value highly a state of friendship between France & us. you know too well how sincere I have ever been in these dispositions to doubt them. you know too how much I value peace, and how unwillingly I should see any event take place which would render war a necessary resource; and that all our movements should change their character and object.

I am thus open with you because I trust that you will have it in your power to impress on that government considerations, in the scale against which the possession of Louisiana is nothing. in Europe, nothing but Europe is seen, or supposed to have any weight in the affairs of nations. but this little event, of France possessing herself of Louisiana, which is thrown in as nothing, as a mere make-weight, in the general settlement of accounts, this speck which now appears as an almost invisible point in the horizon, is the embryo of a tornado which will burst on the countries on both shores of the Atlantic and involve in it's effects their highest destinies.

that it may yet be avoided is my sincere prayer, and if you can be the means of informing2 the wisdom of Buonaparte of all it's consequences, you will have deserved well of both countries. peace & abstinence from European alliances are our objects, and so will continue while the present order of things in America remains uninterrupted. there is another service you can render. I am told that Talleyrand is personally hostile to us. this I suppose has been occasioned by the XYZ. history.

but he should consider that that was the artifice of a party, willing to sacrifice him to the consolidation of their power: that this nation has done him justice by dismissing them; that those in power now, are precisely those who disbelieved that story, and saw in it nothing but an attempt to decieve our country: that we entertain towards him personally the most friendly dispositions: that as to the government of France, we know too little of the state of things there, to understand what it is, and have no inclination to meddle in their settlement. whatever government they establish, we wish to be well with it.one more request, that you deliver the letter to Chancellor Livingston with your own hands; and moreover that you charge Made.

Dupont, if any accident happens to you, that she deliver the letter with her own hands. if it passes thro' only her's & your's I shall have perfect confidence in it's safety. present her my most sincere respects, and &pt yourself assurances of my constant affection, and my prayers that a genial sky and propitious gales may place you after a pleasant voyage in the midst of your friends.

Th: Jefferson

AC/DC and odd song about some deed done with Dolly and somebody who lived a life of crime?

The Young's father, William Young (b. 1911), lived with his family at 6 Skerryvore Road in the Cranhill district of Glasgow.[6] William worked first as a wheel boy in a rope works and then as a machine and saw operator in an asbestos and cement business. In 1940, he joined the Royal Air Force and served in World War II as a flight engine mechanic. After the war, he worked as a yard man for a builder and then as a postman. He married Margaret (born 14 July 1913; maiden name also Young), who was a housewife.

The “big freeze” of 1963 was one of the worst winters on record in Scotland, with snow 8 feet (2.4 m) deep.[7] A TV advertisement shown in Scotland at that time offered assisted travel for families to start a different life in Australia.

AC/DC and odd song about some deed done with Dolly and somebody who lived a life of crime? dial 36 24 36 hey? She lived a life of crime?

Dirty Deeds Done With Sheep

Bob Rivers

Track 13 on Twisted Tunes Vault Collection Vol. V

TRACK 13

[Verse 1]
If you're havin' trouble with your barnyard friends
You got a thing for ewes
Been countin' sheep, but you're not in bed
Here's what you gotta do
Get outta the barn, stay off the farm
Go read a nursery rhyme
Don't ring 976-BAAA, that kind of love's a crime

[Chorus]
Dirty deeds done with sheep
Dirty deeds Little Bo Peep

ANGUS YOUNG

Angus McKinnon Young (born 31 March 1955 nearly APRIL 1) is an Australian musician, best known as the co-founder, lead guitarist, songwriter and only constant original member of the Australian hard rock band AC/DC. He is known for his energetic performances, schoolboy-uniform stage outfits and his own version of Chuck Berry's duckwalk. Young was ranked 24th in Rolling Stone magazine's 100 greatest guitarists of all-time list.[1] In 2003, Young and the other members of AC/DC were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

MALCOLM YOUNG

Malcolm Mitchell Young (6 January 1953 18 NOVEMBER 2017) was an Australian musician who was the co-founder, rhythm guitarist, backing vocalist and songwriter of the rock band AC/DC. Except for a brief absence in 1988, he was with the band from its beginning in 1973 until retiring in 2014 due to health reasons. As a member of AC/DC, he was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2003.[1]

This book

Phillip Marshall, author of, The Big Bamboozle: 9/11 and the War on Terror” is a Revealer

In his books and his social media bios (including multiple Facebook accounts, his Twitter account and a Tumblr), he claims to have served as a contract pilot for the CIA’s Special Activities Division during the Iran-Contra affair, flying shipments to and from Nicaragua.

Philip Marshall, a veteran airline captain and former government “special activities” contract pilot, has authored three books on Top Secret America, a group presently conducting business as the United States Intelligence Community.

Beginning with his role in the 1980s as a Learjet captain first as part of a Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) sting on Pablo Escobar, and later in the covert arming of the Nicaraguan Contras, Marshall has studied and written 30-years worth of covert government special activities and the revolving door of Wall Street tricksters, media moguls, and their well funded politicians.

Calaveras County Coroner Kevin Raggio said he determined Philip Marshall and his two children were all killed by a gunshot wound to the head, after performing an autopsy Tuesday morning.

Autopsy results released in double murder suicide By Joel Metzger Feb 5, 2013 Updated Feb 12, 2013 Comments

Death of him and his family in Calaveras County California

Former airline pilot and conspiracy theorist ‘shot dead his two teenage children and his dog before turning the gun on himself’ By RACHEL QUIGLEY Calaveras County California While he was writing it, Marshall believed that his life was in danger because of the allegations involved.

According to Santa Barbara View, during the editing and pre-marketing process of Marshall’s book, he expressed some degree of paranoia because the nonfiction work accused the George W. Bush administration of being in cahoots with the Saudi intelligence community in training the hijackers who died in the planes used in the attacks.

Further Reading

Lakefront Airport New Orleans Paperback - January 1, 2003 retrieved from Amazon.com and copied or modified to here

Lakefront Airport New Orleans Paperback - January 1, 2003

This is a good used EXTREMELY RARE copy, however, there are some stains on the cover, and a few pages. I have photographed every stain there is. What makes this extremely valuable, though, is that this is a signed copy by the author, whom is now deceased.

A young friend of the two slain teens with whom this blogger is personally acquainted described them as "sweet, funny, lively, good kids."

Sightings # 47. STEVE WILLIS 48. ROBERT WILLIALMS 49. CONWAY LE BLEU 50. TODDY McKEEHAN

These four died in the SAME MINUTE, 2/28/93 "executed" by gunfire in the Waco, Texas assault on the Branch Davidians. - All four were examined by a "private doctor" and determined to have died from nearly identical wounds to the left temple, so-called execution style. According to Linda Thompson, videotapes and other evidence indicates that none died from guns fired by Branch Davidians.

In his address to employees of the Treasury Department in the Cash Room on March 18, 1993, Clinton said: "My prayers and I'm sure yours are still with the families of all four of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents who were killed in WACO — Todd McKeehan and Conway Le Bleu of New Orleans; Steve Willis of Houston, and Robert Williams from my hometown of Little Rock. Three of those four were assigned to my security during the course of the primary or general election." However, the Little Rock, Arkansas office of the ATF confirmed that all four had at one point been bodyguards for Bill Clinton, three while he was campaigning for President, and while he had been governor of Arkansas.

Text of seal: "United States Intelligence Community"

Accuses of the Bush family of Saudi connected US Intelligence community deep state plot including mass murder and cover ups

> Claim: George H.W. Bush once said: "If the people were to ever find out what we have done, we would be chased down the streets and lynched."
>
> Rating: *Fals*e via Snopes.com

AEROSPACE

is a term used to collectively refer to the atmosphere and outer space. Aerospace activity is very diverse, with a multitude of commercial, industrial and military applications. Aerospace engineering consists of aeronautics and astronautics. Aerospace organizations research, design, manufacture, operate, or maintain aircraft and spacecraft.

NUCLEAR TRIAD

A nuclear triad is a three-pronged military force structure that consists of land-launched nuclear missiles, nuclear-missile-armed submarines, and strategic aircraft with nuclear bombs and missiles.

1. Land launched missiles rocket funnels JFK observed with Wernher von Braun days before is death
2. sea launched missles as JFK watched days before his death
3. Nuclear bomber capable aircraft

The Big Bamboozle : 9/11 and the War on Terror by Philip Marshall (2012, Trade Paperback) retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Product Information

From the perspective of a Boeing 767 captain and former “special activities” contract pilot, Philip Marshall straps the reader into the cockpits of hijacked commercial airliners to tell the story of the most sophisticated terrorist attack in history.

Based on a comprehensive ten-year study into the murders of his fellow pilots on 9/11, he explains how hijackers, novice pilots at the controls of massive guided missiles, were able to beat United States Air Force fighters to iconic targets with advanced maneuvering, daring speeds and a kamikaze finish.

But, as Marshall explains, the tactical plan was so precise that it rules out car-bombers and shoe-bombers known as al Qaeda, KSM and Osama bin Laden.

So then, who was it? That’s what you are about learn. Backed by official NTSB, FAA and black box recordings, Marshall finds the most capable and most documented group of conspirators buried deep within a Congressional Inquiry’s report and retraces their work in gripping detail. Fasten your seatbelt- the sad truth is that all of the solid evidence points to a dark collaboration between members of the Bush Administration and a covert group of Saudi government officials.

This is a game changer that will finally set the record straight on the most horrific crime in US history. This book is a compilation of official reports that disputes the Bush Administration, the Bush Intelligence Community and the American media’s account of the 9/11 attack. United States Senator Bob Graham’s Congressional Joint Inquiry in 2002 revealed that Saudi Arabian Intelligence agents met the 9/11 hijackers in the Los Angeles in January of 2000, harbored them and led them to 18 months of flight training in Florida and Arizona. Marshall follows reports from FBI field agents that warned George W. Bush’s Administration that a “cadre of individuals of investigative interest were engaged in flight training” in the Arizona desert in the spring of 2001.

Marshall identifies three top federal investigators who complained that Dick Cheney obstructed justice by refusing access to suspects who supposedly confessed to the greatest crime in U.S. history. None of the federal investigators were ever allowed to verify the confession of Khalid Sheik Mohammed who had been water boarded over 180 times at Guantanamo detention facility. The book disputes the video and media confession of Osama bin Laden and points out that none of the accusations by the Bush Administration could be proved.

Marshall asserts that the Saudi government was the true executioners of the 9/11 attack and framed their enemies while CIA special operations set up an elaborate decoy named Osama bin Laden to divert attention away from the Saudi operation

. He follows the hijackers to flight training airports and finds that Saudi agents led the hijackers to the Arizona desert where Boeing 757 and Boeing 767 airliners were parked at a secluded CIA operated airport. The operators of the CIA airport were traced to suspicious insider stock trades on two airlines, United Airlines and American Airlines, the only two airlines used in the 9/11 attack.

Marshall breaks down the tactical flight plan that was used by the hijackers and chronicles the actions of Condoleezza Rice, Donald Rumsfeld, Saudi Arabian Prince Bandar bin Sultan, Dick Cheney and George W. Bsuh to learn that their account of the attack was severely flawed. Three top investigators wrote that Dick Cheney had obstructed the investigation and redacted the involvement of the Saudi government agents who were employed in California by the Saudi Civil Aviation authority*.* The Congressional Inquiry reported that the Saudi agents had "seemingly unlimited funding from Saudi Arabia" and had traced the hijacker financial support to Prince Bandar through a Riggs Bank account.

Finally Marshall chronicles the media trial that allowed Bush and Cheney to derail American Justice by trying the 9/11 case with media propaganda and away from the American federal court sys

Calaveras County Coroner Kevin Raggio said he determined Philip Marshall and his two children were all killed by a gunshot wound to the head, after performing an autopsy Tuesday morning.

via Autopsy results released in double murder suicide By Joel Metzger Feb 5, 2013 Updated Feb 12, 2013 Comments

Death of him and his family in Calaveras County California

> Former airline pilot and conspiracy theorist 'shot dead his two teenage children and his dog before turning the gun on himself’

By RACHEL QUIGLEY Calaveras County California

While he was writing it, Marshall believed that his life was in danger because of the allegations involved.

According to Santa Barbara View, during the editing and pre-marketing process of Marshall’s book, he expressed some degree of paranoia because the nonfiction work accused the George W. Bush administration of being in cahoots with the Saudi intelligence community in training the hijackers who died in the planes used in the attacks.

The Saudi connection to the Bush family creating of Barrack Obama Jr. as part of the 1961 Middle East North Africa Moles and Sleeper agent plot of Dulles, Donald Barry, William Barr, and other 33rd masons including Vatican.

The totality of my life experience is that private enterprise Georege H.W. Bush., Standard Oil and the Rockefellers, and CIA activity uses smalle planes for cartel teavel and pilots have testifed under oath as being hired by CIA contracts and having transprted members of the Bush family and accuse the Bush family of being crime bosses.

Quote retrieved from My Experiences With A Drug Kingpin and copied or modified to here

Retired Brig. General Russell Bowen is another fascinating person tied to Jerry’s cocaine empire. During WW 2, he received the Distinguished Flying Cross and other medals for his time as a young fighter pilot. It was during this time he was brought into the OSS and when President Truman banned the intelligence organization, Bowen and others secretly maintained the organization, later to become the CIA. He helped establish several airlines in South America that were used as cover for the CIA and was an expert at extracting CIA operatives from dangerous situations when their cover had been exposed. He was heavily involved in CIA drug trafficking, especially in South America, and had many friends within both the Medellin and Cali cartels*. Eventually, Bowen and others became disenchanted with the CIA involvement with drugs and wanted to stop the practice of bringing them into America.

The Immaculate Deception: Bush Crime Family Exposed 1st Edition by Russell S. Bowen (Author)

Perhaps the most shocking book written this century about treason committed by the highest leaders within the US government. This disturbing and thought-provoking expose is written by Brigadier General Russell S Bowen who has courageously come forward with the truth about his association with the OSS (Office of Security Services) and his 'drug running' activities on behalf of the 'secret' government which involves the highest US 'leaders' and which few Americans know anything about. The most startling details are revealed regarding Bowen's clandestine work including his work under the orders of George Bush.

Cartel Air Traffic at MENA Airport and other locations by private and other planes

ARKANSAS GOVERNOR BILL CLINTON PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH CIA DRUGS FOR GUNS CONNECTION retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

ARKANSAS GOVERNOR BILL CLINTONPresident GEORGE BUSH CIA DRUGS FOR GUNS CONNECTION

An independent group of researchers in Arkansas are charging that Governor Bill Clinton is covering up an airport used by the CIA and major cocaine smugglers in a remote corner of the Ozark mountains.

According to Deborah Robinson of In These Times, the Inter mountain Regional Airport in Mena, Arkansas continues to be the hub of operations for people like assassinated cocaine kingpin Barry Seal as well as government intelligence operations linked to arms and drug smuggling.

In the 1980's, the Mena airport became one of the world's largest aircraft refurbishing centers, providing services to planes from many countries. Researchers claim that the largest consumers of aircraft refurbishing services are drug smugglers and intelligence agencies involved in covert activities. In fact, residents of Mena, Arkansas, have told reporters that former marine Lt. Colonel Oliver North was a frequent visitor during the 1980's.

Eugene Hasenfus, a pilot who was shot down in a Contra supply plane over Nicaragua in 1986, was also seen in town renting cargo vehicles

On October 5, 1986, Hasenfus was aboard a Fairchild C-123 cargo plane, N4410F, when it was shot down over Nicaragua by the Sandinista government.[5] The aircraft was brought down when it was approximately 35 miles (56 km) north of the border with Costa Rica, and a little over 90 miles (140 km) southeast of Managua.[1] The plane had been flying weapons to the anti-Sandinista Contra rebels.[2] Three members of the flight crew were killed: Hasenfus was the only survivor.[2] The two pilots and a Nicaraguan radio operator died in the crash.[6] Hasenfus had been wearing a parachute, unusual for Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) operatives at the time.[7]

According to newspaper reports, BCCI founder Agha Hasan Abedi was introduced to Lance by Stephens. Stephens, Lance, and First American Bank director and longtime Democratic party power broker Clark Clifford all maintain that they did not know the group of Pakinstani and Saudi investors headed by Pharon, which they were dealing with, were actually fronting for BCCI. Clinton's staff has refused to comment.

Sightings #79

Maynard Webb. Owned a small aircraft repair business, and had stumbled on several aircraft whose tail numbers were being changed on a regular basis. Was about to go public when he walked headfirst into a spinning propeller.

The Chain of Command

Paul Wilcher [likely victim of espionage hit] alleged the existence of a "top secret chain of command underlying all of the major covert and black operations which have been carried out by the CIA's myriad wet teams over the past 30 years or so." This "shadow government" would be led by "a top secret council of nine men whose names I do not know and would not recognize even if I stumbled across them," who were capable of giving orders to the Director of Central Intelligence and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Wilcher claimed that this group was responsible for nearly every notable assassination and assassination attempt from JFK to John Lennon, for starting the Vietnam and Bosnian wars by destabilizing these societies, and for the deaths at Jonestown.

Wilcher cited his client Gunther Karl Russbacher, “a life-long covert operative for the CIA and the Office of Naval Intelligence” as the pilot of the flight that flew George Bush and others to Paris for a meeting with Iran’s leaders during the 1980 election campaign.

Russbacher claimed to have flown Bush to France in a BAC-111 owned by the Saudi royal family. By Russbacher’s recollection, the aircraft left from Andrews Air Force Base near 7:00 EST on October 18, rendezvoused over the Atlantic with a Grumman Gulfstream flown by Heinrich Rupp, and landed at LeBourget Airport. Russbacher returned Bush to the United States in a SR-71 which landed at McGuire Air Force Base at 10:50 AM EST. After dropping Bush off at McGuire, Russbacher continued alone to Andrews.

(

The October Surprise

Wilcher cited his client Gunther Karl Russbacher, “a life-long covert operative for the CIA and the Office of Naval Intelligence” as the pilot of the flight that flew George Bush and others to Paris for a meeting with Iran’s leaders during the 1980 election campaign.

Russbacher claimed to have flown Bush to France in a BAC-111 owned by the Saudi royal family. By Russbacher’s recollection, the aircraft left from Andrews Air Force Base near 7:00 EST on October 18, rendezvoused over the Atlantic with a Grumman Gulfstream flown by Heinrich Rupp, and landed at LeBourget Airport. Russbacher returned Bush to the United States in a SR-71 which landed at McGuire Air Force Base at 10:50 AM EST. After dropping Bush off at McGuire, Russbacher continued alone to Andrews.

ccording to Wikipedia, the BAC-111 lacks the range to fly across the Atlantic. Later models could reach 1,700 miles. The trip to France is nearly 4,000 miles.

The BAC One-Eleven, was an early jet airliner produced by the British Aircraft Corporation. Originally conceived by Hunting Aircraft as a 30-seat jet, before its merger into BAC in 1960, it was launched as an 80-seat airliner with a British United Airways order on 9 May 1961. Wikipedia

Nuclear production on the rise retrieved from Calaveras Enterprise and copied or modified to here

County within blast area of Livermore lab

It's almost unthinkable, and probably unknown to most residents, that the scenic hills and wide-open fields of Calaveras County are within the blast radius of one of the only nuclear warhead design sites in the United States.

But that was just the kind of information members of the Tri-Valley Communities Against a Radioactive Environment sought to pass along at their Saturday afternoon informational meeting at the Murphys Library.

"Murphys is within 100 miles of the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory and in case of a severe accident, the prevailing winds do blow east," said Tri-Valley CARE Executive Director Marylia Kelley. "Folks in communities like Murphys don't really ever think about how they can be affected directly by Livermore Lab, but in fact, in a severe accident they could be."

cont.

> The National Ignition Facility (NIF), is a large laser-based inertial confinement fusion (ICF) research device, located at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory in Livermore, California. NIF uses lasers to heat and compress a small amount of hydrogen fuel with the goal of inducing nuclear fusion reactions. NIF's mission is to achieve fusion ignition with high energy gain, and to support nuclear weapon maintenance and design by studying the behavior of matter under the conditions found within nuclear weapons.[1] NIF is the largest and most energetic ICF device built to date, and the largest laser in the world.
>
> From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

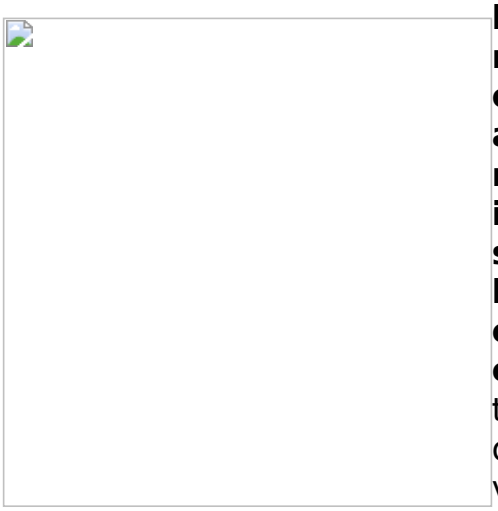
Ernest Lawrence's Cyclotron: Invention for the Ages By Lynn Yarris, LCYarris@lbl.gov

Ernest Lawrence, Glenn Seaborg and Robert Oppenheimer in 1946 at the control panel of the 184-Inch Cyclotron.

A Cyclotron's Long Journey Home

Feature Story Julie Chao (510) 486-6491 • NOVEMBER 19, 2013

Seventy-five years after one of the world's first working cyclotrons was handed to the London Science Museum, it has returned to its birthplace in the Berkeley hills, where the man who invented it, Ernest O. Lawrence, helped launch the field of modern particle physics as well as the national laboratory that would bear his name, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory.



On Jan. 9, 1932 the brass cyclotron-which measures 26 inches from end to end and whose accelerating chamber measures just 11 inches in diameter-was successfully used to boost protons to energies of 1.22 million electron volts. Its return to Berkeley Lab caps a decades-long saga in which various parties endeavored to secure the cyclotron's return from London, but the persistence of Pamela Patterson, who chronicles Berkeley Lab's history as managing editor of its website, finally paid off.

Ernest O. Lawrence (left), Harold Walke, and Paul Aebersold (with cyclotron-shaped cake), on NOV. 17, 1939 at a dinner at an Albany, CA restaurant in honor of Lawrence winning the Nobel Prize. (Photo by Donald Cooksey)

Lawrence arrived at the University of California's Berkeley campus in the summer of 1928, having been wooed from a faculty position with Yale University by promises that included auxiliary connections to UC's Chemistry Department. Until then, the traditional practice of science was that physicists, chemists, and biologists worked within their own departments; seldom did the twain meet. Access to scientists and students from other disciplines, as well as to engineering staff, was critical to Lawrence's success as a researcher. It also set the pattern for the unique laboratory he created.

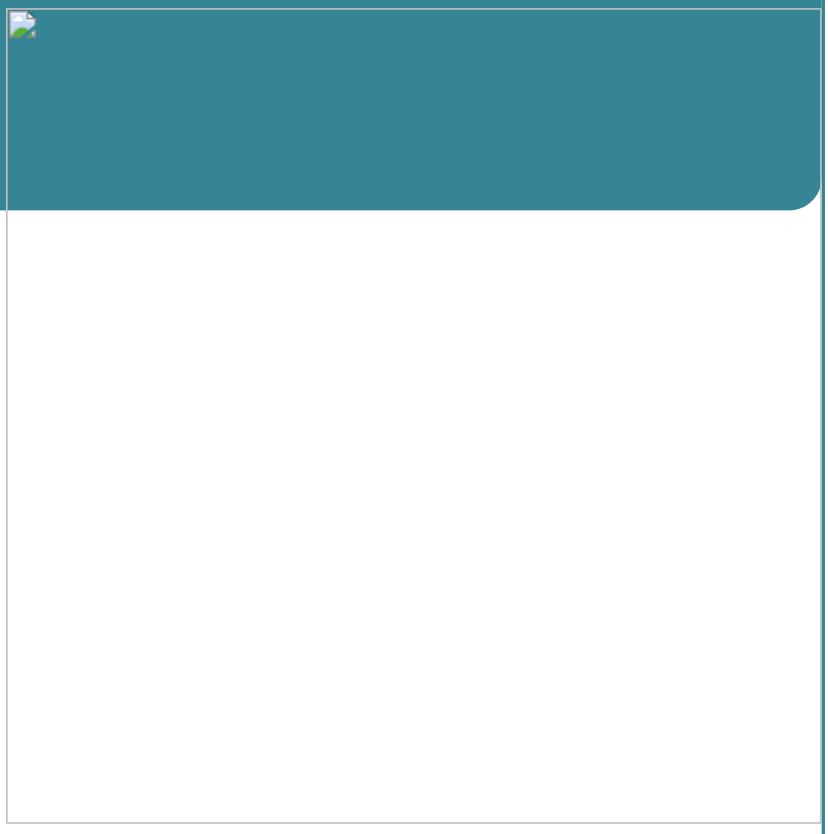
Inspired by a paper from Norwegian engineer Rolf Wideroe, Lawrence invented a unique circular particle accelerator, which he referred to as his "proton merry-go-round," but which became better known as the cyclotron. The first cyclotron was a pie-shaped concoction of glass, sealing wax, and bronze. A kitchen chair and a wire-coiled clothes tree were also enlisted to make the device work. Despite its Rube Goldberg appearance, the cyclotron proved Lawrence's point: whirling particles around to boost their energies, then casting them toward a target like stones from a slingshot is the most efficient and effective way to smash open atomic nuclei.

The Forbin Project (movie)



Computers in USA, USSR avert nuclear war by combing artificial intelligence, Cyclotron now outside in park on display above UC Berkely in the hills

An establishing shot, panning over the Advanced Light Source facility of the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. Cyclotron Road, Berkeley, California, United States.

Former pilot and 9/11 conspiracy theorist: Kills Himself and His Two Children retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

On February 6, 2013, the Santa Barbara View reported that Phillip Marshall, author of, The Big Bamboozle: 9/11 and the War on Terror", his two teenage children (14 year old Micalia and 17 year old Alex) and the family dog had been found inside their home all dead from gunshot wounds.

Authorities are calling it murder suicide, but while writing The Big Bamboozle, Marshall believed that his life was in danger due to the allegations he was making in the book. Now, due to the circumstances surrounding his death, "Conspiracy theorists" are concerned that the US government has begun an assault on whistle blowers and so-called truthers?

According to Santa Barbara View, Marshall had expressed some degree of paranoia due to the fact that his book accused the Bush administration of being in cahoots with the Saudi intelligence community.

> "Think about this," Marshall said last year in a written statement, "The official version about some ghost (Osama bin Laden) in some cave on the other side of the world defeating our entire military establishment on U.S. soil is absolutely preposterous."
>
> Marshall went on to say: "The true reason the attack was successful is because of an inside military stand-down and a coordinated training operation that prepared the hijackers to fly heavy commercial airliners. We have dozens of FBI documents to prove that this flight training was conducted California, > Florida and Arizona in the 18 months leading up to the attack."

>
> The veteran pilot confided that he was concerned about his 10-year, independent 9/11 study and most recent book since they pointed to the Saudis and the Bush intelligence community as the executioners of the attack that defeated all U.S. military defenses on Sept. 11, 2001. Marshall said he knew his book might cause some people to take issue with him.

Certainly 9/11 conspiracy theorists and Truthers abound, but any theory about the US government being involved in Marshall's death just doesn't ring true, or does it? There were any number of ways to eliminate Marshall without killing his children and dog… but… if the US government could kill 3000 innocent people on 9/11 they would have no problem wiping out one family.

By: Patricia Lantz usahitman.com

Elswhere in This book

Is Obama the secret son of Malcolm X? Israel Insider 04 Novembre 2008 by Reuven Koret, Israel Insider Publisher

If Barack Hussein Obama II is Malcolm X's biological son, it would explain the mystery of why he was so generously helped by so many Arab and communist "friends in high places" long before he was a "somebody." Just as Malcolm X adopted Islam, his secret son would also need to learn its ways, and learn the ways of revolution, not just assume an Islamic name. He would need to be groomed and educated to organize the community called the United States of America.

In August I received a curious email. As a magazine that covers international politics, with a focus on Mideast affairs, Israel Insider gets more from its fair share of baseless tips and phony rumors. I ignore most and delete them unread. This one was a bit different. It came from a national security lawyer with extensive credentials and intelligence connections that checked out, and a phone number.

Israel Insider had been running a series of articles exploring the vagaries of Barack Obama's birth, and his concealed documentation, and this was the jumping off point of the email, which confirmed the claim that Obama was not born in Hawaii, that “Mossad are going with Mombasa” but “Proving Mombasa is not so easy, as NSIS in Nairobi are clamming up tight, as are MI6 in London, who have the original Mombasa file and full details of the birth.”

The Spy Business and Boeing Bombers

“The source said that the Dunham family became involved because Stanley Dunham, Sr. was suspected of espionage. Boeing, he said, has “a 1944 security file on Stanley Dunham in connection with suspected sabotage of B-17G aircraft at their Wichita Kansas plant and the theft of B-29 blueprints, a full set of which were passed to the German Abwehr via Lisbon by June 1944. Ann Dunham appears to have been chosen as the surrogate mother in 1963 because of the family connection to German Intelligence.

How in the world would Percy Sutton know that Obama, a young man he had never met, was a “genius”? It turns out that Sutton was among the lawyers for Malcolm X.

And why would a big wheel like al-Mansour take such an interest in a drug-taking party boy from a second-rate college? While helping Obama get into Harvard, he was representing top members of the Saudi Royal family, Saudi billionaires Abdul Aziz and Khalid al-Ibrahim, and Prince Alwaleed bin Talal, nephew if King Abdallah of Saudi Arabia. So there was, early on, a direct connection between Obama and Saudi royalty and an aggressive effort by a Saudi agent to make Obama’s way in the world.

It was this connection to Saudi wealth that has led to Obama being dubbed the “Mansourian candidate”.

Then there were the revelations about Weather Underground co-founder Bill Ayers and his wife Bernadette Dohrn — unrepentant terrorists and communists both — who helped launch Obama’s political career from their home. Ayers, indeed, may well have ghost-written Obama’s memoir Dreams from my Father, creating the impression that Obama was also skilled in writing as well as “community organizing.”

The post noted (of Obama) striking similarities in speaking cadence and style, not to mention a bright flashing smile and a wry sense of humor.

Malcolm broke with Elijah Muhammad in large measure because the then-leader of the Nation of Islam had conducted illicit affairs and sired illegitimate children. If Malcolm himself had sired a boy, it is not something he would have wanted to advertise, or to bring along with him in his hectic and dangerous revolutionary path.

Malcolm X was marginalized even from the black leadership after he said, following the assassination of John F. Kennedy, that the “chickens had come home to roost.” That term would be resurrected by Rev. Jeremiah Wright, much to Obama’s chagrin, in a sermon discussing the reasons for the Islamic attacks on the United States, reasons that Obama echoed in his own post-9/11 statements, in somewhat less inflammatory terms. Malcolm himself was assassinated in 1965, reportedly by agents from the Nation of Islam.

As Edward Paul Donegan my understanding of the contect of this likely tripple murder

There is a blue rectangle I have placed into this Northern California Map which reprsentes most of 8 years old to many of years of my life, most years then any other location.

- The Blue Rectangle is inbetween Berkaly Oakland where many people I went to school with lived
- Inbetween Berkelely and Moraga is the foot hills which Heady Royce High School and the Lawerance Hall of Science run by US Berkely are and I played as a kid in the museum exhibits, main fraim teletypes, was the basis of the New Electri and water gas seperation for deep underwater sub exhibits
- Honey lived in Piedmont who I knew from Cal Stae Hayward, and my high school archerty range and jugging paths and tea gardens were in that hilltop park range
- the Livermore Labs and Sandia labs were further out, but like time at the Lawrence Hall of Science, at Lake Del Valle sailboarding my father and I spent years talking about the labs, cyclotron, and nuclear history and he loved learning the deep physics of it as those scientests had explored
- The Walnut Creek area is next to Concord California where the nuclear millse storage work is done in the Q (Quarantine Area) which was not part of my work but in my work area employees area access holders were who I socialized with.

- As I will observe in text later below this map small planes fly in agriculture in Central California, Modesto Lodi Stockton Calaveras area, and Barry Seal and others likely Phillip Marshall used small airports to run pentagon, CIA, DARPA, and others around in out of regular flight operations. My father had considered crop dusting or firefighting planes or restored antique plane clubs by the risk was often quite high though it was an option for pilots in the area.

> Crissy Field, a former U.S. Army airfield, is now part of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area in San Francisco, California, United States. Historically part of the Presidio of San Francisco, Crissy Field closed as an airfield after 1974. Under Army control, the site was affected by dumping of hazardous materials. Wikipedia

> The first unit assigned to the field, the 91st Observation Squadron, arrived from Mather in August, and the first commanding officer, Major George H. Brett, in October.[10]
>
> In the early years, Crissy Field involved mainly the viewing of artillery fire, aerial photography, liaison flights for headquarter personnel, special civilian missions such as publicity flights and search and rescues, and a support field for U.S. Air Mail. The first Western aerial forest fire patrols took place from Crissy Field.[7]
>
> During the Vietnam war the Army used Crissy Field for liaison flights and MedEvac flights to transport wounded Vietnam soldiers 40 miles (64 km) from Travis Air Force Base to the Presidio's Letterman Army Hospital, a trip by ambulance on surface roads would take too long and possibly be delayed by traffic into San Francisco.
>
> Located in: Presidio of San Francisco
> Address: 1199 E Beach, San Francisco, CA 94129

Sailboadrding at Lake Del Valle

> Lake Del Valle is a storage reservoir located 10 miles southeast of Livermore, in Alameda County, California. It is within Del Valle Regional Park. Wikipedia

As you can see the Calaveras County area is a locus of an arc of the capital of California and is many nuclear authority and regulatory agency heads are, is near the weapons labs and weapons depot, and in a nice small airport flight area too where agricultral and small plane flights are a constant and un noticed.

Modesto, Lodi, and other locations like that are where Honey was from and I spent some time with her in her and her family or origin in that location of agricultural life and housing very similar to my mother's WWII built agricultural home in Sout Carolina of the basic Depression Area farm stimulation federal spending.

The Mountain View area and some many aerospace history points running from Chrissy Fields San Francisco all the way into San Jose made up about 15 years of bicycle riding in those park corridors and my learning the history of it all from his stories.

Loose Lips Explain Sunken Ships. I was NOT a nuclear line work employee. I worked AT nuclear locations or near them or fairly secret banking facilities hiding from terrorist and fighting them off, but much of the Triad things I know are from family and I believe that is why the Marshall children were killed, because enough of a fabric of non classified information and history is part of the culture that the general buzz of the place is such that people tend to hear things or rumors or speculate with each other.

Greg Roll; for instance, had been a CIA worker at Livermore are work, and at Wells Fargo and other locations I worked as co-worker team members of many CIA or NASA DARPA security workers. At Wells Fargo I had Gregg Roll CIA as by boss and Jeff, NASA Aimes Research Center network security employee working for me on my team, and at any time I was in contact socially or professionally with no less than five at at time espionage agency employed people.

Phillip Marshall had what i knew and I am sure many times more than what I have or know.

It Excite@Home not only did I work with most all who had come from NASA Ames Research Center I also worked on our interconnection to that DARPA built network interface run by NASA Ames, the MAE West interface which was under CIA control and protection, openly and officially and by statute, and for a long time I thought the CIA was after merely for spending too much time looking around at its structures out of curiosity.

The Fraud Of The Fraud: Have You Been Taken For A Ride? Paperback - October 20, 2008 *

THE BOOK THAT THEY DO NOT WANT YOU TO READ!!
This Book (The Fraud of the Fraud: Have you been taken for a ride?) will change the way you look at the world forever. You have heard the conspiracy theories about 9/11, The Iraq war, The Freemasons, The 1995 Oklahoma City Bombings, The Shadow Government, and many other theories. This written documentary will teach you the undisputed facts about all these events. This explosive documentary is packed with declassified documents, congressional hearings, public statements, and mainstream news reports to prove as fact, what is normally written off as baseless conspiracy theories. Because this is a new day and time, we need a new approach on how to expose the criminal elite that run this planet. This written documentary offers that approach by exposing the criminal elite with cited credible facts and not just pretty colorful words.

Search in this book

Conspiracism p. 15
The Big Whig Fraud p.25

CHAPTER TWO.....the "Unknowns"
The Bilderberg Group p.43
The Bohemian Grove p.48
Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) p.53

CHAPTER THREE.....Secret Societies
The British-Israel World Federation p.57
The Order of The Owl p.69
The Masonic Orders p.72
The Light in Freemasonry p.73
The Order of Skull and Bones (The Brotherhood of Death) p.74
Council on Foreign Relations p.79
The Illuminati p.82

CHAPTER FOUR.....Power Players
The Bush Family p.85
Zbigniew Kazimierz Brzezinski p.92
The IBM Connection p. 97
The VeriChip Corporation p.99
Truth About the War on Drugs p.102
Operation Mockingbird p.110
School of the Americas p.117
Experimenting on the Human Cattle p.124
Eugenics p.131

CHAPTER FIVE.....Project for New American Century
The Project for the New American Century (PNAC) p.135
The Attack on Pearl Harbor p.140

CHAPTER SIX.....State Sponsored Terror
State Sponsored Terror p.152

The above book shows Windsor Tower in Madrid burning

The Windsor Tower (Spanish: Torre Windsor) was an office building in the financial center of Madrid, Spain. Built in 1979, it was 106 m high and had 32 floors of which 29 were above ground level and 3 below, thus ranking it as the eighth tallest building in Madrid (and 23rd in Spain). The building was gutted by a huge fire on FEBRUARY 12, 2005, and partially collapsed; it has since been demolished.

Social Security Administraion Address: Windsor Park Building 6401 Security Boulevard Baltimore, MD 21235

THe history behind creating the institutions and how the influece inside the USA has been used.

This book

Andrew Breitbart was anologpus to Sand Hume and Twince Targeted

The original “Silver Tails” video showing Barrack Obama Jr at a rally with r”radical” proffessors has Michelle LaVon RObbison as a man visible at the rallly if you look for the barely one second still frame as the camera sweeps, that edited out (cognistaince of guilt) in the later rleased video. I had found that still frame after seeing much about this and photos similar to that still frame on Illuminati sites which re-inforce the likley validity of the clear seeming proof Michelle Lavon Robbison were “groomed” to be part of a planned genealogy.

Like Sany Hume and Milo Andrew Breitbart was a limited government fiscal as statesmanship consvervative, much like myslef, slightly survivalist leaning, and he was recuirted to possible support the issue that Michelle Obama should live under cover as transgender but when approached by someone of some political leaning Breitbart was goingot out Michelle Obama much like he outed Shirely Sherod.

Andre Breitbart was serious thorn in the side of the Obama administration and black politics and Breitbart, the coroner, and the wittness to the truth were “hit” by PsyOps DARPA which are covering the entire grooming of family lines for POTUS business, media, and western power.

This and the P-51 B-29 Donegan Obama STory also match the Marilyn Monroe (QEII Twin, Glorian Twin) story, the DARPA plan to assassinate non cooperative leaders and plant groomed ones who will the world in Masonic elite families to smart for nuclear war among themselves.

First he was Targeted so see if he would cooperate with the USPHS plan. After that he was a Targeted Assassination by DARPA Project Pegasus including Colin Powell.

This book

Mitch McConnell is A Neocon Traitor with Concealing NWO Crime Families and NWO Crimes

Born: FEBRUARY 20, 1942 (age 78 years), Sheffield, AL

I a recent television interview (February 2021) he denounced Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene or “loony” conspiracies such as a theory, quoting Mitch McConnell quoting Green “Clinton had Kennedy Jr. killed” in an aviation disaster.

AUGUST 26 FBI records following In 1994, John F. Kennedy, Jr. called Joe Biden a traitor. - patriotortraitor.com

Joseph Robinette Biden Jr. is an American politician who is the 46th president of the United States. A member of the Democratic Party, he served as the 47th vice president from 2009 to 2017 under Barack Obama and represented Delaware in the United States Senate from 1973 to 2009. Wikipedia Born: NOVEMBER 20, 1942 (age 78 years), Scranton, PA Full name: Joseph Robinette Biden Jr.

Joseph R. Biden Sr.

Joe Biden's father

Born: 1915

Died: 2002

Spouse: Catherine Eugenia Finnegan (m. 1941)

Grandchildren: Beau Biden, Hunter Biden, Naomi Christina Biden, MORE

Parents: Joseph H. Biden, Mary Elizabeth Robinette Biden

Children: Francis W. Biden, Joe Biden, James Brian Biden, Valerie Biden

Neilia Hunter Biden (July 28, 1942 - DECEMBER 18, 1972) was an American teacher and the first wife of Joe Biden, the 46th and current president of the United States.

On DECEMBER 18, 1972, shortly after her husband became U.S. senator-elect, Neilia was driving with children Beau, Hunter and Naomi (3, 2 and 1 years old, respectively) west along rural Valley Road in Hockessin, Delaware. At the intersection with Delaware Route 7 (Limestone Road), she pulled out in front of a tractor-trailer truck traveling north along Route 7. Police determined that Neilia drove into the path of the tractor-trailer, possibly because her head was turned and she did not see the oncoming truck.[6][7] All four occupants were taken to Wilmington General Hospital. Neilia and Naomi were pronounced dead on arrival, but her two sons survived with multiple serious injuries

In 2007 Biden said, later retracted, that the truck driver was drunk, drank his lunch. - CBS News. Judidial inquest. No evidence truck driver had been driking.

The Church Committee was a U.S. Senate select committee in 1975 that investigated abuses by the Central Intelligence Agency, National Security Agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Internal Revenue Service. Wikipedia

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Neilia's former neighbor, JoAnne DelVecchio - who was close to the Biden family when they lived in Syracuse, New York - also reflected on her warm character and the memories she has of the Biden family.

Everything To Know About Neilia Hunter, Joe Biden's First Wife

https://www.yourtango.com/2019323967/who-neilia-hunter-biden-new-details-joe-bidens-first-wife

> "A lovely person, just beautiful in every way," DelVecchio said.

by JoAnne DelVecchio on Amazon.com books

> THE WEB OF ONENESS
>
> The Web of Oneness guides the reader to transcend the ego-driven state of consciousness and awaken into a new state of consciousness whereby we may bring Heaven to Earth in our own lives, as well as into the entire world. This book teaches the reader how to stop misusing the mind and thoughts and retrain the mind back to its original state of unification and oneness with The Mind of God—the web which unites each and every one of us. Accessing this web of energy allows us to produce, at will, all of our needs and desires, simply using our thoughts. This is the place where miracles can happen—it is truly quite extraordinary!

THE MANIFEST OF LOVE: MERLIN'S GUIDEBOOK TO ASCENSION

The Manifest of Love is an extraordinary book channeled by the Ascended Master Merlin, most known as the most powerful wizard and Being of supreme wisdom having ever lived. The wise words of Merlin provides invaluable information in this in-depth guide to the uniting of body, mind and spirit—our return to God and Oneness. JoAnne DelVecchio, L.Ac., does a supreme job in bringing the exact words of Merlin to us to guide us through our spiritual journey of ascension. Merlin explains that there once was a time when we all lived as One—in a state of paradise—this was God's original blueprint for mankind. We fell from this grace as we began to perpetuate the illusion of duality—we allowed the use of our conscious mind to dominate over our spirit mind, which is the Mind of God, connected to all in existence. It is now necessary, for the evolvement of the consciousness of mankind, in what we call ascension, for us to once again, unite our minds as One. It is through the manifest of love on earth that we shall achieve this movement back to God. God is calling us back as One and Merlin shows us the way!

Here a few sentences of what I quote Linda Newkirk as saying in longer form in her own works and also in this book.

Neocon William "Billy" Kristol rushed to back McConnell on the air denouncing Rep. Greene, but the theory quoting many sources is the Bush Rockefeller Dallas to Little Rock Standard Oil Crime family was trying to maintain NWO power and killing the Kennedy family members is part of that quest for NeoCon control.

George Herbert Walker, still ruling behind the scene! Even Bush's Sr's old government and oil buddies running America again, right into the ground! And, the current Bush Sr. plot to put Hillary into the presidency, all so that he can continue to rule America! Even the alleged killing of John F. Kennedy's son [JFK Jr. in a plane crash] , so that Hillary could take his place as senator of New York! Oh, the evil that this man has done; and it knows no bounds!

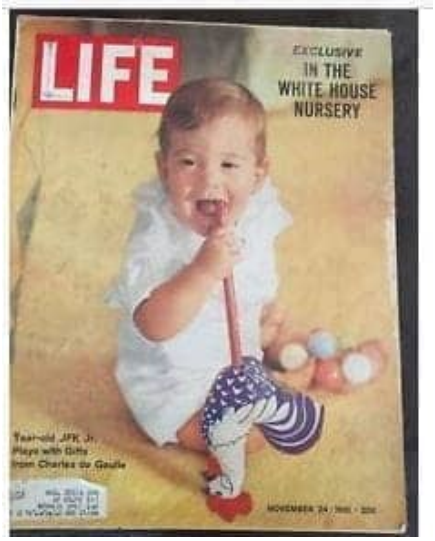
From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

THE PROJECT FOR THE NEW AMERICAN CENTURY (PNAC) [formed in the 20th Century] was a neoconservative[1][2][3] think tank based in Washington, D.C. that focused on United States foreign policy. It was established as a non-profit educational organization in 1997, and founded by William Kristol and Robert Kagan.[4][5] PNAC's stated goal was "to promote American global leadership."[6] The organization stated that "American leadership is good both for America and for the world," and sought to build support for "a Reaganite policy of military strength and moral clarity."[7]

Of the twenty-five people who signed PNAC's founding statement of principles, ten went on to serve in the administration of U.S. President George W. Bush, including Dick Cheney, Donald Rumsfeld, and Paul Wolfowitz.[8][9][10][11] Observers such as Irwin Stelzer and Dave Grondin have suggested that the PNAC played a key role in shaping the foreign policy of the Bush Administration, particularly in building support for the Iraq War.[12][13][14][15] Academics such as Inderjeet Parmar, Phillip Hammond, and Donald E. Abelson have said PNAC's influence on the George W. Bush administration has been exaggerated.[16][17][18]

LIFE Magazine NOVEMBER 24, 1961 John F. Kennedy Jr. 1-year Birthday in the WH Nursery

Born: November 25, 1960, Washington, D.C.



LIFE Magazine - August 4, 1961 - JFK - John F. Kennedy On Cover Single Issue Magazine – August 4, 1961

by Henry R. Luce (Editor)

› See all formats and editions

Single Issue Magazine from $45.00

1 Used from $45.00

Life Magazine 50’s and 60’s Everest JFK Kennedy Grace Kelly Pope John Paul … LIFE MAGAZINE Nov 24 1961 * Toddler JFK Jr

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY JR. NOVEMBER 25, 1960 Washington, D.C. Died July 16, 1999 (aged 38) Atlantic Ocean

In 1991, George H.W. Bush gave his infamous [MKULTRA NASA DARPA] ‘New World Order’ speech, which many people believe signaled the beginning of the PNAC plan also known as the [PROJECT FOR A NEW [21ST] AMERICAN CENTURY. In other words, Bush outright rejected his nation for the preeminence of the United Nations.

No, My Little One, few and I repeat “few” care about what you have had to endure from day to day in the face of Satan, his world-wide Illuminati, the traitors in the U.S. Space Program, and kings, queens and spiritual deviates all over the world! Many have come to put their feet in your back, and to take their own roles in your torture and persecution! Through it all, you have travailed day after day to bring forth my spiritual “babe”, My Kingdom, My new spiritual code for the “New Generation” of souls, the code for the super humans, who are to come!

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES BOOK TWELVE CHAPTER FOURTY-TWO

Then, the visions of the death of George Herbert Walker Bush! I do not believe that there has ever been a more evil man on the face of this planet! Ever! His many years over the CIA! His alleged involvement in the murder of John F. Kennedy! His alleged attempted murder of Reagan, so that he could become president; and even reports that as Reagan was actually incapacitated from the shooting, that Bush actually ruled for the last years of his presidency! The back-door rule of this man through the Clinton presidency! The two being old “drug running” buddies through the Mena airport in Arkansas!

The two stolen elections, in which George W. Bush was apparently NEVER ELECTED, from all that we have read; but stole the presidency! Still, behind the scenes in the presidency of his son, is George Herbert Walker, still ruling behind the scene! Even Bush's Sr's old government and oil buddies running America again, right into the ground! And, the current Bush Sr. plot to put Hillary into the presidency, all so that he can continue to rule America! Even the alleged killing of John F. Kennedy's son, so that Hillary could take his place as senator of New York! Oh, the evil that this man has done; and it knows no bounds! And, soon comes his demise!

This book

Gene “Chip” Tatum is a Revealer of Project Pegasus

PEGASUS - ASSASSINATION & NEUTRALIZATION

Gene “Chip” Tatum a native of St.Petersburg Florida, was a Vietnam Special Forces Air Combat Controller, Defense Intelligence Asset, and US Army special operations pilot flying classified missions during the US invasion of Grenada, Tatum was also involved in the Nixon Administrations relations with China, NASA’s Apollo Program, the Iran-Contra Affair, and several other classified intelligence operations dating through through 1992 . Working directly for the sitting Presidents. From sensitive and highly secret - and hitherto largely unknown - Special Forces covert operations in Cambodia, to wandering CIA asset, through to “black ops” activities in Grenada and Oliver North’s Iran-Contra “Enterprise.” Tatum knows where the skeletons are buried. - Gene “Chip” Tatum author profile amazon.com

https://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/ASSASSINATION__NEUTRALISATION

See also Gene “Chip” Tatum

Vietnam Special Forces Air Combat Controller, 25-year CIA deep-cover agent, US Army pilot flying classified missions during the US invasion of Grenada, Iran-Contra pilot flying cocaine shipments labeled as medical supplies, member of the ultra-secret, international #NWO G7-run Pegasus “hit team”, Tatum has gone into considerable additional detail regarding the role of Pegasus as he knew it.

Tatum believes Pegasus was established during the Eisenhower years as a secret group inside the CIA to spy on that agency on behalf of the President. At some point - believed to be after the assassination of President Kennedy - Pegasus went AWOL from direct US Government control and came under the direction of an international Board of Directors which Tatum alleges now includes George Bush and Henry Kissinger

The directors of Pegasus meet once a year in secret conclave following G7 meetings.

The group has “representation” from a number of intelligence agencies throughout the world. Included are the US Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) as well as agents from British, Israeli, Turkish and Danish Intelligence plus “others who performed various functions for Pegasus”.

Tatum [tried for Treason] declares he will not,

> “participate in assassinations of any sort, character assassinations or anything, of American citizens”.

Tatum goes on to explain that back in 1994, in a telephone conference call involving Oliver North, Felix Rodríguez and the late William Colby of the CIA, he was warned to turn over incriminating documents and tapes he had accumulated for his “retirement”.

]William Colby who died alone along the Patomic was going to out the Family Jewels program of the CIA run by his CIA predacessor, George H.W. Bush.]

He wryly observes that had he done so, he would probably have been quickly “terminated” in an “extreme” way - a specialty of the Pegasus team of which he was once a member.

Joining the Air Force in February 1970, he went through Army jump school, escape and evasion training, jungle training, sea survival school and diving school and was assigned along with six others as “Combat Controllers” (the USAF equivalent of Special Forces), receiving his distinctive Special Forces burgundy-colored beret.

From there he was assigned to Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma, and then on to Fort Bragg, North Carolina - home of the “Green Berets” - for training in C4 plastic explosives, mines, nuclear, biological and chemical warfare, plus indoctrination in electronic and psychological operations.

Posted to South-East Asia as Airman First Class (A1C) in December 1970, he was assigned as a radio operator on a Forward Air Control (FAC) aircraft attached to Task Force Alpha at Nakhon Phanom, Thailand. In short order he was recruited (an involuntary “volunteer”) to “Team Red Rock”. The team was composed of eight US Army Green Berets, three US Navy SEALs and two “cowboys” - a euphemism for CIA paramilitary specialists.

During February 1985, Tatum was piloting “Dustoff” (Medevac) flights for the US Army’s 3/498th Medical Company, stationed at Fort Stewart, Georgia. Two flight crews, including Tatum’s, were transferred to Palmerola Air Base, Honduras. Each flight consisted of a pilot, copilot, medic and crew chief.

Once familiarized, they assumed the Medevac mission for Joint Task Force Bravo. Previously, in 1984, Tatum infiltrated the 3/498th on the instructions of Lt Col. Oliver North who had established contact under the code-name “Jake” (North had “control” of the 160th air wing and was also deeply involved with the tactical planning of “black ops” missions in the Grenada invasion).

On 15 FEBRUARY 1985, during a flight to La Ceiba, Honduras, he was instructed to contact his local “handler”, Major Felix Rodríguez - later to prove a major figure in the Iran-Contra investigation. Rodríguez informed Tatum that in addition to his Army “Medevac” duties he was to support covert “Pegasus” missions.

NSDD-138 was the formation of the Operations Sub-Group (OSG). The Sub-Group was a select NSC-DoD-CIA-FBI-foreign intelligence agency which operated so as to bypass the regular operations of intelligence/military/law-enforcement agencies. OSG was formed in February 1986.

Using the private sector clause, Don Gregg, VP Bush’s National Security Advisor, included a representative from British Intelligence and Israeli Intelligence. To date I have called this group ‘Pegasus‘ in an attempt not to divulge its true identity until I was on safe ground. Although most of the missions performed by OSG-2 are classified, the existence of the organization is now declassified.”

In fact, Tatum has now revealed the existence of three OSGs.

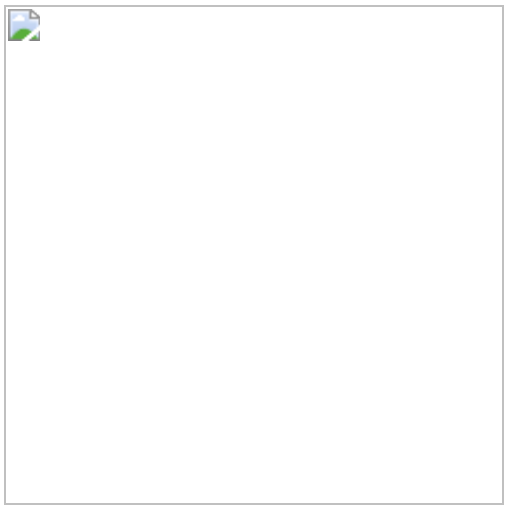
OSG-1 was headed by Ted Shackley and was “our anti-narcotics group”.4 OSG-2 was the anti-terrorism group and OSG-3 was “our ‘alignment’ group”. Tatum was originally posted to OSG-2 which was commanded by Col. Oliver North. The third group, OSG-3, was commanded by Richard Secord.

Following the exposure of Oliver North’s role in Contragate in 1987, North resigned as head of OSG-2 and his spot was taken over by Secord. Tatum moved up to command OSG-3 at the same time.

All three OSGs answered to those individuals who sat on the TIWG.

Notables

GENERAL COLIN POWELL



General Colin Powell represented the Department of Defense

This book alleges Colin Powell along with Alma Powerll killed JFK and others to keep a Leaderhsip program of mixed rece and planted cuiltivated leaders around the world to change the world and now assasinating to coverup the assasinations.

> He matches along with his wife Alma the Kennedy Assassination motive to cover-up ongoing genetic deeps state research

> He is from Harlem area of New York and pronounces his name in honor of a famous killed heavy bomber pilot.

He along with his wife plus either Dick Cheney or George H.W. Bush the descriptions of the murders of Jefery Mc Donalds family when late bed wetting was becoming visible developmentally. He matches a description of a black general deliver flowers at the funeral

He matches a black man in military uniform at the Ives murders Middle East North Africa Airport

He was high level world events in the military and State Department and all of these evenst are world history scale.

He was a Bush Republican Party member until saying the USA had done more for black than any other country and blacks should be be bitter until Barrack Obama Jr came on stage and then Colin Powell backed him.

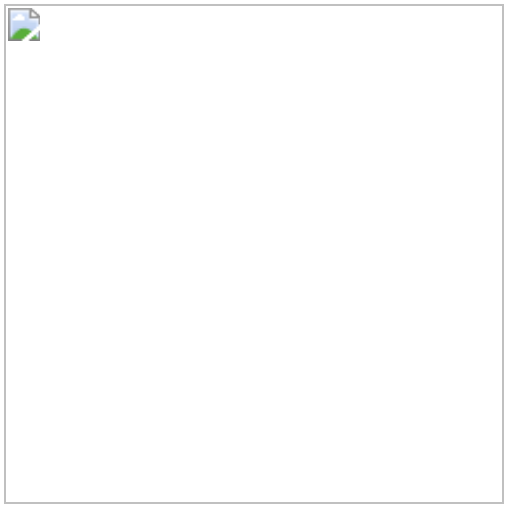
He matches the description of Brain Berries activity at a Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit

He matches Linda Newkirk description of Bush family members plus a man in a white lab coat (Francis Collins evangelical) and a large general with many medals

Born APRIL 5TH, in the birthday week range of clones.

WILLIAM CASEY

William “Bill” Casey represented the CIA and later wished to out the Family Jewels Program



via The Intercept

WHEN PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN named a veteran U.S. spy and covert operator, William Casey, to be his CIA director, Joe Biden waged a one-senator campaign to show that Casey was unfit to serve in the post. During the Senate Intelligence Committee hearings on Casey’s nomination, Biden grilled Casey in what some fellow lawmakers described as a virtual “filibuster” to delay sending his nomination to the floor. Biden believed that Casey was not being direct in answering questions about covert CIA activity inside the U.S. and would not convincingly commit to following oversight laws passed in the aftermath of the Nixon presidency.

President Ronald Reagan, accompanied by CIA Director William Casey, waves to CIA employees after signing a bill prohibiting exposure of the identities of CIA agents on June 23, 1982.

DONALD GREGG

Donald Gregg represented the National Security Council

Donald Phinney Gregg (born December 5, 1927) is a retired American politician, CIA employee, and U.S. Ambassador to South Korea. Gregg worked for the Central Intelligence Agency for 31 years, from 1951 to 1982. He was a National Security Council advisor (1979-1982) and National Security Advisor to U.S. Vice President George H. W. Bush (1982-1989), United States Ambassador to Korea (1989-1993), and the chairman of the board of The Korea Society (until 2009), where he called for greater engagement with North Korea.

After graduating from high school, Gregg enlisted in the military in 1945 and received training as a cryptanalyst, but did not finish in time to be posted overseas.[2] He then attended Williams College, in Williamstown, Massachusetts, from 1947 to 1951, majoring in philosophy.[2] Here he was recruited by the CIA.

Gregg's father was Abel J. Gregg of Washington, the National Secretary of boys' work of the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA). His wife was Margaret Curry. Their daughter Lucy Steuart Gregg married the writer Christopher Buckley, the son of conservative journalist and author William F. Buckley Jr.[3][4]

celebritizer
Find a celebrity / p
Tim Curry & Margaret Cho
Like 0

The Dirty Secrets of George Bush - VP of Illegal Operations retrieved from Rolling Stone and copied or modified to here

By HOWARD KOHN & VICKI MONKS

During the most violent years of the war in Nicaragua, a retired CIA agent - a man of many talents and pseudonyms whose given name is Felix Rodriguez - was the logistics officer for airlifts of weapons and supplies from the Ilopango air base, in El Salvador, to the jungle hide-outs of the Nicaraguan rebels known as contras. On October 5th, 1986, one of Rodriguez's cargo planes, a Southern Air Transport C-123K, loaded with 10,000 pounds of ammunition, failed to return from a scheduled drop in Nicaragua. Fearing the worst, Rodriguez made a series of phone calls to Washington that evening. What was unusual was that Rodriguez did not notify anyone at the Defense Department or the CIA but rather attempted to get word about the missing plane to Donald Gregg, the national-security adviser for Vice President George Bush.

Notables

THE MULE: ROBERT S. MUELLER III

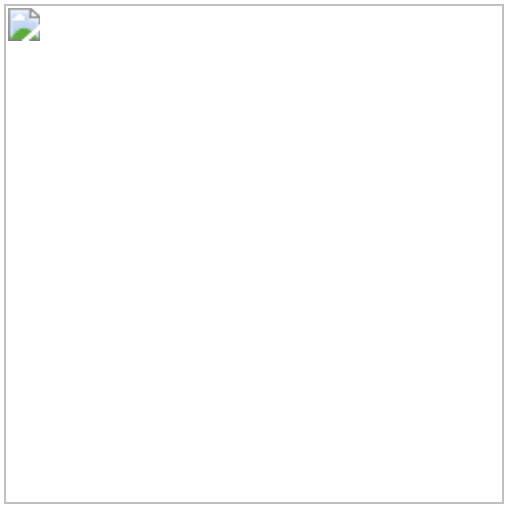
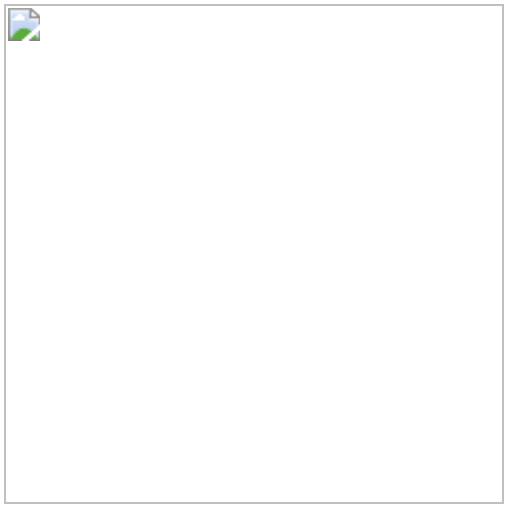
Robert Swan Mueller III has been the go to man when secrets go awry. Recruited as a CIA asset in Vietnam as an member of the Phoenix Project it was embedded in him that there are No Borders, No Limits, No Restrictions, and No Repercussions. With these standards ingrained in his persona, Mueller became an invaluable asset in protecting what today is called “The Deep State”. Teamed with William Barr the duo was incredibly effective in blocking investigations, erasing and fabricating both evidence, and witnesses. When the need arises, invariably the Deep State Handlers call on “The Mule”



OPERATION REDROCK - NIXON’S DARKEST SECRET



Hard put to find a way out of Vietnam, Nixon and his advisers devised an operation designed to involve the Cambodian Military into assisting the South Vietnamese. Unfortunately for the Special Operations unit tasked with the mission, they were not designated to return. Read about this False Flag one way Operation deep into Cambodia.

EL VIR: GENESIS OF A NEW WORLD ORDER (SPANISH EDITION)

atum, a former US intelligence officer, brings a stark reality to the fore with this shocking new revelation.With careful planning and huge financial investment, the Global Board of Directors chaired by Henry Kissinger and Bill Gates has shut down the economy. global and has caused harm to countless people, turning a Corona Virus into a totally unjustified pandemic crisis. The purpose of the engineered viral crisis is to collapse the world’s economies, normalize authoritarianism, and advance the elites’ goal of a global government. Participating individuals and companies were assigned tasks following the pronouncement of what has been described as a deadly novel coronavirus. and highly infectious, COVID-19, the corporate media has created a state of panic. There has been enormous pressure on governments to “act.” Scientists’ protests that the danger is exaggerated resulted in the disappearance or death of these scientists and doctors. Economies have come to their knees Riots have broken out in prisons Protests are raging around the world Most citizens are so afraid of catching a cold that they don’t even think to question the dangers or draconian measures. If the population is so compliant now, will they notice if rights and freedoms are not fully restored, or will they oppose it if lockdowns become common practice? Perhaps the most worrying and smartest aspect of the epidemic is that it provides an excuse to close important avenues of dissent. The corporate media are, of course, anyway, but parliaments have been extended, public meetings are forbidden, leaflets are unlikely to be tolerated. Anyone who tries to organize a public protest is likely to be arrested. Economies have suffered greatly. The small business model is practically destroyed. The companies will declare bankruptcy. Protests will break out across the world. Riots will end in deaths in prisons. The “Think Tanks” will make the decision that viruses are here to stay and the human susceptibility factor will have a great weight in the decisions made for the future reconstruction of economies and companies. As in other crises, the use of automation will experience exponential growth that will replace the vulnerable human factor. Citizens will become more dependent on the government. VIR The Genesis of a New World Order

This book

Michael Mukasey

Speaking as the author and researcher of this book my belief is 2006 to 2007 were a critical time as the Bush family began a program to continue MKULTRA activities in a way that if genome were spread under the 1961 plan and leakers or evidence was eliminated the truth of the JFK assassination tied to Donald Barr, William Barr, Mukasey, coming out of Columbia University Manhattan Project could be concealed.

81st United States Attorney General In office November 9, 2007 - January 20, 2009 appointed President George W. Bush

> NOVEMBER 20, 2008 WASHINGTON (AP) - Attorney General Michael Mukasey was hospitalized but conscious and alert early Friday after collapsing during a late-night speech to a conservative legal group
>
> President George W. Bush, scheduled to attend a weekend financial summit in Peru, was informed about Mukasey collapse, press secretary Dana Perino said.

Wikipedia retrieved from From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia Michael Mukasey and copied or modified to here

Mukasey was born in 1941 in New York City.[6] His father was born near Baranavichy in Belarus (then in the Russian Empire) and emigrated to the U.S. in 1921.[7][8]

Mukasey graduated in 1959 from the Ramaz School, an independent (formerly boys' and now co-educational) Modern Orthodox Jewish prep school in the Upper East Side neighborhood of Manhattan in New York City. His wife, Susan, was later a teacher and headmistress of the lower school at Ramaz, and both of their children (Marc and Jessica)[9] attended the school.[10]

As an undergraduate student, Mukasey was the editorials editor of the Columbia Daily Spectator[11] at Columbia University (MKULTRA Manhattan Project), where he received his Artium Baccalaureus degree in 1963, majoring in history. He received his Bachelor of Laws from Yale Law School in 1967.

Forty-four American colleges or universities, 15 research foundations took part in MKULTRA

I believe more media and politics and businesses have been invovlved in MKULTRA this the short version of it especially in Texas and the Texas NASA DARPA operation of Christian Missionary world evangelism described by Linda Newkirk.

Prescott George H.W. George W. Bush, Gregg Abbot	Rockefelers Rotchilds Obamas Clintons Biden
Kamala Harris Mulcasey Donald /William Barr Wray Ken Paxton	Hastings, Donegans, Kashogi

I lost my love in Baghdad : a modern war story
Micheal Hastings

Me and you and you and me
Now matter how they tossed the dice, it had to be.
- “Happy Together” 1967

Andrea Suzanne Parhamovich (June 16, 1978 - January 17, 2007) was a National Democratic Institute employee killed in Baghdad, Iraq, when her convoy was ambushed as she was returning from teaching a class on democracy.[1]

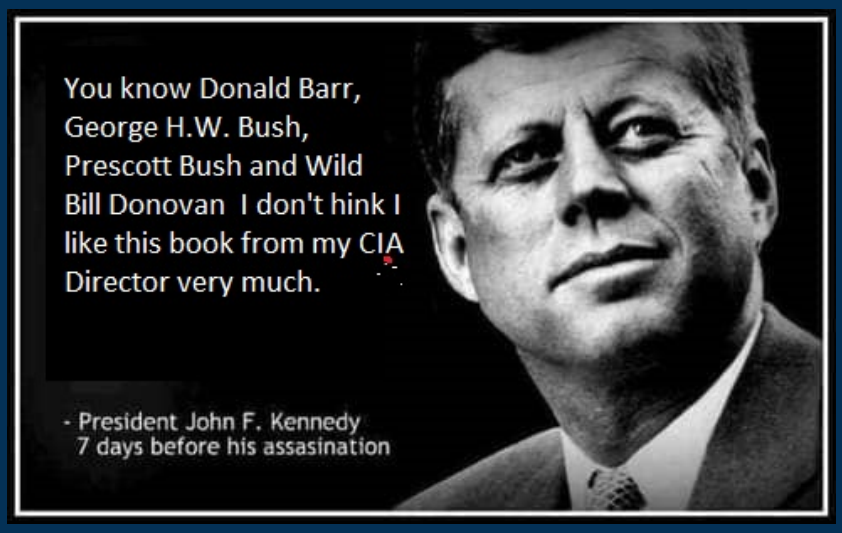
This book

William Pelham Barr is a traitor

The #OfficeMob the #NSA #FBI use against 15 families- “Frenemies” who are hostile people infiltrating vicinity as “friends” but [Public lied to by Frenemy, Frenemy Plants evidence on victim while Stalking Victim , Victim seem strangely hostile to “friend”]

Espionage teams undermining already victims of MKULTRA who could out Donald Barr, William Barr, Prescott Bush, George H.W. Bush, Christopher Wray, Colin Powerll, Muckaseuy, many others.

William Bar (CIA and other posts including Legal Counsel for George H.W. Buch and Attorney General was the sone of Donal Barr who wrote books using space metaphors we need the British Commonwealths systems to bring order to a Planet in Arms. Other works were on Anthopology , evolution, and Atomic Energy. His son is also a Free Mason, both Donand and WIlliam Barr. Donald Barr served as CIA director under JFK during a dispute about the CIA.



William Pelham Barr
Posted March 13,

Barr was a full-time CIA operative, recruited by Langley out of high school, starting in 1971. Barr's youth career goal was to head the CIA.

CIA operative assigned to the China directorate, where he became close to powerful CIA operative George H.W. Bush, whose accomplishments already included the CIA/Cuba Bay of Pigs, Asia CIA operations (Vietnam War, Golden Triangle narcotics), Nixon foreign policy (Henry Kissinger), and the Watergate operation.

When George H.W. Bush became CIA Director in 1976, Barr joined the CIA's "legal office" and Bush's inner circle, and worked alongside Bush's longtime CIA enforcers Theodore "Ted" Shackley, Felix Rodriguez, Thomas Clines, and others, several of whom were likely involved with the Bay of Pigs/John F. Kennedy assassination, and numerous southeast Asian operations, from the Phoenix Program to Golden Triangle narco-trafficking.

Barr stonewalled and destroyed the Church Committee investigations into CIA abuses.

Barr stonewalled and stopped inquiries in the CIA bombing assassination of Chilean opposition leader Orlando Letelier.

Thomas Gregory Clines (August 18, 1928 - July 30, 2013[1]) was a Central Intelligence Agency covert operations officer who was a prominent figure in the Iran-Contra Affair.

In the 1950s Clines worked at the CIA's Technical Services Division in Frankfurt.

As a CIA agent, between 1961-1962, Clines was involved in covert operations

2019 on Patriot or Traitor

This following article was originally published on DECEMBER 12, 2018. The serious questions raised in the piece remain completely unanswered.

William Pelham Barr is a traitor.

William Pelham Barr is a treasonous American attorney who is the current United States Attorney General. Barr previously served in this position from 1991 to 1993 under the George H. W. Bush administration, and returned to the post in 2019 under the Trump administration.

William Pelham Barr is a treasonous American attorney who is the current United States Attorney General. Barr previously served in this position from 1991 to 1993 under the George H. W. Bush administration, and returned to the post in 2019 under the Trump administration.

This following article was originally published on DECEMBER 12, 2018. The serious questions raised in in Cuba. Clines later joined Ted Shackley, David Atlee Phillips and David Sanchez Morales at JM WAVE, the CIA's operational headquarters in Miami, Florida for the Cuban Project also known as Operation Mongoose, a project to overthrow the government of Fidel Castro in Cuba.

During this period, beginning shortly after the 1961 Bay of Pigs Invasion, Clines developed a personal friendship with Nicaraguan President Anastasio Somoza Debayle, after his father, Anastasio Somoza Garcia, allowed the CIA to train anti-Cuban rebels in the country.

Between 1966-1970, during the Vietnam War, Clines worked as Ted Shackley's deputy in charge of the CIA's secret war in Laos.

Clines left Laos in 1970 and spent a year at the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island.

In 1972, Clines was put in charge of CIA operations in Chile, and in 1973, he helped Augusto Pinochet overthrow Chile's democratically elected president, Salvador Allende.

While working on the attempt to undermine the government of Fidel Castro in Cuba, Clines became friends with Rafael Quintero ("Chi Chi"). When he was given responsibility for Nicaragua in 1978, Thomas Clines recruited Quintero to help the CIA in its efforts against the socialist Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN) that governed Nicaragua. This included helping Anastasio Somoza Debayle to develop a the piece remain completely unanswered.

Why was Barr chosen, given his shocking and deeply criminal cover-up kingpin background?

For a presidential administration whose mandate was the eradication of corruption, the "draining of the swamp", and the restoration of law?

With the nomination of William Barr for attorney general, that is what President Donald Trump wants American citizens and the world to accept.

Fawning mainstream media coverage, and streams of puff pieces laud Barr as a "respected" establishment "legal scholar", as do Donald Trump's Twitter posts about Barr.

The fact is, there is nothing to "respect" and everything to condemn about Barr's work as a key inner circle operative throughout George Herbert Walker Bush's rise to power, from CIA Director to Vice President to President. These aspects of Barr's resume remain whitewashed by mainstream coverage.

counter-subversion program in the country.

After the CIA- In 1978, Clines left the CIA[4] and joined several other ex-CIA officials and contract operatives, including Rafael Quintero, Ted Shackley and Ricardo Chavez in establishing API Distributors.

In 1979, Clines established International Research and Trade Limited in Bermuda. Later that year, he worked with Hussein Salem to provide Egypt with U.S. military hardware. He made "illicit millions" through EATSCO (the Egyptian American Transport and Services Corporation), but in prosecuting Edwin P. Wilson the U.S. government made a plea bargain that enabled him to escape prosecution, though he had to pay an addition $100,000 to settle civil claims.

They have been amply documented by whistle blowers and those who worked directly with Barr.

The issue at hand is not Barr's "legal mind", but the ruthless mind that he wielded with frightening authority and expertise as George H. W. Bush's treasonous hatchet man in the Justice Department. William Barr distorted and corrupted the law, as grossly as anyone in modern history.

Barr: CIA operative

It is a sobering fact that American presidents (many of whom have been corrupt) have gone out of their way to hire fixers to be their attorney generals.

Barr, however, is a particularly spectacular and sordid case. As George H.W. Bush's most notorious insider, and as the AG from 1991 to 1993, Barr wreaked havoc, flaunted the rule of law, and proved himself to be one of the CIA/Deep State's greatest and most ruthless champions and protectors:

Barr was a full-time CIA operative, recruited by Langley out of high school, starting in 1971. Barr's youth career goal was to head the CIA.

CIA operative assigned to the China directorate, where he became close to powerful CIA operative George H.W. Bush, whose accomplishments already included the CIA/Cuba Bay of Pigs, Asia CIA operations (Vietnam War, Golden Triangle narcotics), Nixon foreign policy (Henry Kissinger), and the Watergate operation.

> Lawrence Francis O'Brien Jr. (JULY 7, 1917 - September 28, 1990) (Irish "Mafia" close JFK associate along with Dave Powers) was an American politician and basketball commissioner. He was one of the United States Democratic Party's leading electoral strategists for more than two decades. He served as Postmaster General in the cabinet of President Lyndon Johnson and chair of the Democratic National Committee. He also served as commissioner of the National Basketball Association from 1975 to 1984. The NBA Championship Trophy is named after him.

O'Brien, son of Irish immigrants, was born in Springfield, Massachusetts. When he was not working in politics, O'Brien managed his family's real estate and worked in public relations.

E Howard Hunt of the CIA is thought to have organized the breaking.

When George H.W. Bush became CIA Director in 1976, Barr joined the CIA's "legal office" and Bush's inner circle, and worked alongside Bush's longtime CIA enforcers Theodore "Ted" Shackley, Felix Rodriguez, Thomas Clines, and others, several of whom were likely involved with the BAY OF PIGS/JOHN F. KENNEDY ASSASSINATION, and numerous southeast Asian operations, from the Phoenix Program to Golden Triangle narco-trafficking.

Barr stonewalled and destroyed the Church Committee investigations into CIA abuses.

Barr stonewalled and stopped inquiries in the CIA bombing assassination of Chilean opposition leader Orlando Letelier.

Barr joined George H.W. Bush's legal/intelligence team during Bush's vice presidency (under President Ronald Reagan) Rose from assistant attorney general to Chief Legal Counsel to attorney general (1991) during the Bush 41 presidency.

Barr stonewalled and stopped investigations into all Bush/Clinton and CIA crimes, including BCCI and BNL CIA drug banking, the theft of Inslaw PROMIS software, and all crimes of state committed by Bush.

Barr provided legal cover for Bush's illegal foreign policy and war crimes.

A strong case can be made that William Barr was as powerful and important a figure in the Bush apparatus as any other, besides Poppy Bush himself.

1) Did William Barr permit the rioters to takeover then Seattle East Precinct the publicly rehabilitate the police chief who allowed the stand-sown of defending the precinct from over run

Social Work Grants build up community groups

Stand downs to those groups' rioting (lets get fancy here) overthrow Police Deeps

Seatle Police Chief Carmen Best says she didn't order cops to abandon the station. It's unclear if there was even an order at all

> Attorney General William Barr on Wednesday spoke glowingly of Seattle Police Chief Carmen Best for taking action against protests in the city's so-called Capitol Hill Autonomous Zone (CHAZ) or Capitol Hill Occupied Protest (CHOP). However, in a lengthy statement extolling the return of the "rule of law," Barr completely ignored the city's mayor, who ordered police to retake the area in the first place via a legal executive order. - Lawn and Crime DOT Com

2) Are the events of the founding of Facebook and William Barr connnected as the CIA tries to find its missing TWns Records?

The premise of this book is Free Masons tied to Enland are rebuilding Blue Blood families of lost lines of ancient kings (that is how the story is planted culturally) as certain great leaders are found in various societies.

In reality a secret Eugenics study was being done regarding the FOXP2 gene, a minor defect in an otherwise good brain in the upper third of most societies in overacll function.

Those who in early childhood show the FOXP2 gene get wiped out or burried in the back yard, others are cultivated as Future Leaders and groomed by the CIA and Windsors.

"I am 6'5', 250 pounds and there are two of me:" says a Winklevoss twin in the theoritical a fist fight might emerge.

In 2008, Winklevoss was named to the United States Olympic Team and competed at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China.

Those like Arnold Scwarteneger, Bobby Fisher, and others were studied by the CIA in long term Eugenics research but upon the asssisnation of JFK who objected to the Blue Blood world interconnect scheme most records on the Twins were destroyed by William Pelham Barr (as was the Office of Maval Intelligence records about Project Monarch) in the 9/11 attacks.0

With facial recognition, RFLP, Family Databases, all phenotype and genotype forensic capabilities emerging the non selected twins had to be found and wiped out.

This socially connects Mark Zuckerberg and Department of Defense and CIA selected Jen Psaki (Zuckerberg twin) and Donald Barr William Barr and later the “finders program” tied to the JFK assassination all together as the hunt to find and bury the findable lost twins goes on.

As genealogist Jen Moore said “The better connected the better connected” as COINTELRO is used against certain family lines.

Injustice: Tracking Bill Barr’s Misconduct as Attorney General BY JAKE LAPERRUQUE | FILED UNDER ANALYSIS | SEPTEMBER 25, 2020

The Department of Justice, led by the attorney general, has a unique role in our government. The attorney general, as the nation’s top law enforcement official, is entrusted with ensuring that the department acts with impartiality and independence to uphold the rule of law. And although the attorney general is presidentially appointed and works within the executive branch, the Justice Department’s mandate is to treat the people of the United States, not the president, as its client. Inherent in the department’s and the attorney general’s responsibilities is also to act in accordance with reasonable checks and balances.

Under Attorney General William Barr, the Justice Department has repeatedly strayed from its commitment to independence and the rule of law. Barr has demonstrated a disregard for these values, putting personal and political priorities first and undermining the constitutional separation of powers - in short, he has acted in a manner unbefitting the powerful position of attorney general.

We’ve identified a long string of actions that constitute serious misconduct, and may inflict lasting damage to the Justice Department.

Looking at Barr’s tenure since his February 2019 confirmation, we’ve identified a long string of actions that constitute serious misconduct, and may inflict lasting damage to the Justice Department. These actions generally fall into four key categories of misconduct that are antithetical to the department’s responsibilities to the public and to the Constitution. Namely, Barr has on numerous occasions interfered with impartial prosecutions, prioritized politics over justice, undermined the independent special counsel’s investigation into Russian interference in the 2016 election, and hindered congressional oversight. Below, subject matter experts explain the significance of each theme in greater detail.

Types of Misconduct

Undermining the Special Counsel

It is a fundamental tenet of the law, as Edward Coke put it almost 400 years ago, that “no man can be a judge in his own case.” All the more so when the man is president of the United States. And that is why having some independent investigative authority to stand as a bulwark against presidential criminality is important. The special counsel provisions that authorized Robert Mueller’s investigation of Donald Trump are a response to the age-old question: Who will watch the watchmen? How do we make sure that those who are responsible for leading us are not a threat to the citizens of the very union they are bound to protect? In an independent special counsel, our nation hoped it had found the answer.

- Paul Rosenzweig, Senior Fellow, R St. Institute, and former Senior Counsel, Whitewater Investigation

Prioritizing Politics over Justice

A fundamental premise of a fair justice system is that all Americans are treated equally. The Justice Department, which is charged with investigating and prosecuting federal crimes, can only be effective if it not only is perceived as conducting its work free of political influence, but actually conducts its work in a nonpartisan and independent manner. Although policy priorities may shift from administration to administration, a fundamental commitment to enforcing the law and protecting national security without regard to inappropriate political influence has traditionally been baked into the culture of the department. When public confidence begins to erode in the department’s independent exercise of its substantial powers, public safety and national security are weakened, and our collective societal fabric begins to fray.

- Carrie Cordero, Robert M. Gates Senior Fellow, Center for a New American Security, and former Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General for National Security

Interfering with Impartial Prosecutions

Supreme Court Justice Robert Jackson was also the chief prosecutor of the Nuremburg War Crimes Tribunals. Before these positions, he served as attorney general and spoke to a group of United States Attorneys about the discretion a prosecutor has over a person's "life, liberty and reputation." He deemed the power as good if used properly but if driven by improper motives, the prosecutor becomes "one of the worst". Having been a state, military, and federal prosecutor, I attest to the non-negotiable requirement that prosecutions must be based solely on the evidence and the law. Given the enormous power prosecutors wield, politics cannot play a part in charging decisions. Any deviation from this historical practice is anathema to the rule of law

- David Iglesias, Former United States Attorney for the District of New Mexico

Hindering Congressional Oversight

Checks and balances are the immune system of our democracy, vital to its functioning and survival. Our Constitution designed Congress to be a rigorous check on the executive - in creating laws that set the bounds of executive power, in passing a budget to fund what it can (and cannot) do, and in providing direct oversight over the executive and its officers. Ability to question officials, to obtain relevant documents, and to investigate without obstruction and delay are critical to Congress' role. Efforts to undermine Congressional oversight are incompatible with a democratic society in which the executive is subject to checks, limits, and judgment by both the people and its coequal branches of government.

- Danielle Brian, Executive Director of the Project On Government Oversight

> JUNE 11, 2020 Justice Department Office Says Barr Can Launch Pretextual Investigations
>
> Type of Misconduct: Interfering with Impartial Prosecutions; Prioritizing Politics over Justice
>
> In response to a whistleblower complaint regarding the Justice Department's antitrust investigations of the cannabis industry, the department's Office of Professional Responsibility issues a memo which > concludes that launching and conducting an investigation out of malicious motives such as animus against the subject of the investigation “would not have violated any relevant laws, regulations, rules, policies, or guidelines.” This effectively gives Barr authority to launch pretextual investigations for personal or political reasons. The whistleblower complaint, filed by career Justice Department employee John Elias, alleges that the department’s investigation of the cannabis industry was motivated by Barr’s dislike of the industry, rather than any real antitrust concerns.

Above from pogo https://www.pogo.org/analysis/2020/09/injustice-tracking-bill-barrs-misconduct-as-attorney-general/, below from other sources

Barr Memo on investigating FBI DOJ DEA presumably] cannabis company mergers with no FTC interest in the merger

By conducting pretextual investigations of, and placing onerous demands on, merging companies in the cannabis industry through the issuance of Second Requests, even though such mergers presented no competitive concerns.

An Anaul Report November 18 from the Guild

Leo Joseph Ryan Jr. Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Leo Joseph Ryan Jr. (May 5, 1925 - NOVEMBER 18, 1978) was an American teacher and politician. A member of the Democratic Party, he served as the U.S. Representative from California’s 11th congressional district from 1973 until his assassination during the Jonestown massacre in 1978

After the Watts riots of 1965, Ryan took a job as a substitute school teacher to investigate and document conditions in the area. In 1970, he launched an investigation into California prisons. While presiding as chairman of the Assembly committee that oversaw prison reform, he used a pseudonym to enter Folsom State Prison as an inmate. During his time in Congress, Ryan traveled to Newfoundland to investigate the practice of seal hunting. He was also famous for vocal criticism of the lack of Congressional oversight of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and co-authored the Hughes - Ryan Amendment, passed in 1974.

Unanswered Questions About Jonestown-First in a Series Who Silenced Joe Holsinger? Author

Tom Whittle https://www.standleague.org/

Ryan had been digging into CIAsponsored psychiatric “mind-control” experimentation and programs aimed at altering, manipulating and controlling human behavior that were carried out under such code names as Bluebird, Artichoke and MK ULTRA.

For the man who had strolled in the Folsom yard among some very dangerous and violent men, it was nothing to pepper the agency with questions about mind-control experiments and other activities. “He was a pain in their ass,” Holsinger told me.

Before the fatal trip to Guyana, according to Holsinger, Ryan had been digging into CIA-sponsored psychiatric “mind-control” experimentation and programs aimed at altering, manipulating and controlling human behavior that were carried out under such code names as Bluebird, Artichoke and MK ULTRA. In 1973, at the order of then CIA Director Richard Helms, most of the records pertaining to those efforts were destroyed *.

While presiding as chairman of the Assembly committee that oversaw prison reform, he used a pseudonym to enter Folsom State Prison as an inmate. During his time in Congress, Ryan traveled to Newfoundland to investigate the practice of seal hunting. He was also famous for vocal criticism of the lack of Congressional oversight of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and co-authored the Hughes - Ryan Amendment, passed in 1974.

Ryan was shot and killed at an airstrip in Guyana on November 18, 1978, as he and his party were attempting to leave. He had traveled to Guyana to investigate claims that people were being held against their will at the Peoples Temple Jonestown settlement. Shortly after the airstrip shootings, 909 members of the Jonestown settlement died in a mass suicide-murder by drinking cyanide-laced Flavor Aid. He was the second sitting member of the U.S. House of Representatives to be assassinated in office, after James M. Hinds in 1868.[1][2]

Ryan was posthumously awarded the Congressional Gold Medal in 1983.[3]

The Hughes-Ryan Amendment Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

The Hughes-Ryan Amendment was an amendment to the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, passed as section 32 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1974.[1] The amendment was named for its co-authors, Senator Harold E. Hughes (D-Iowa) and Representative Leo Ryan (D-CA). The amendment required the President of the United States to report all covert actions of the Central Intelligence Agency to one or more Congressional committees.

This amendment addressed the question of CIA and Defense Department covert actions, and prohibited the use of appropriated funds for the conduct of such an action unless and until the President issues an official “Finding” that each such operation is important to national security, and submits this Finding to the appropriate Congressional committees (a total of six committees, at the time, which grew to eight committees after the House and Senate “select committees” on intelligence were established).

The legislation was meant to ensure that the intelligence oversight committees within Congress were told of CIA actions within a reasonable time limit. Senator Hughes, in introducing the legislation in 1973, also saw it as a means of limiting major covert operations by military, intelligence, and national security agents conducted without the full knowledge of the president.

- Boland Amendment
- Case-Church Amendment
- Church Committee
- CIA activities in Cambodia
- CIA activities in Laos
- Clark Amendment

- Foreign Assistance Act of 1974
- Intelligence Oversight Act
- Military Assistance Command, Vietnam - Studies and Observations Group
- Pike Committee

JONESTOWN MYSTERIES / JIM JONES → The MK-Ultra-Jonestown theory

Excerpt from The Orphan Conspiracies: 29 Conspiracy Theories from The Orphan Trilogy:

> "Most of the deaths were undoubtedly the work of MK-Ultra brainwashed moles operating inside the Peoples Temple community." The Orphan Factory (The Orphan Trilogy, #2)

There are numerous theories suggesting Jonestown was a CIA test site for brainwashing and mind control. It has been claimed that Leo Ryan visited Jonestown because he'd uncovered evidence that Jonestown was a large-scale MK-Ultra experiment.

In a potential red flag supporting this theory, the psychoactive drugs found in Jonestown included most of those used in the MK-Ultra program.

Many investigators have theorized that Larry Layton, a senior member of Jonestown, was also an undercover CIA agent. In what could be a telling connection, Layton's father was in charge of the US Army's Biological Weapons Research unit. Mere coincidence? Or was Jonestown a "research experiment" conducted by the military?

Another thread that could link Jonestown with an MK-Ultra experiment is that US citizens were taken from mental hospitals and children were taken from orphanages in America and placed in the commune. (You'll recall from the declassified CIA documents mentioned in the posts of the Mind Control section of this group that it's on the record mental patients and orphans were experimented on against their will under the MK-Ultra program).

This book

Donald Barr’s books use sci-fi metaphors to show CIA loyalty to Britain over USA

A Planet in Arms like *Space Relations*is a novel in which Rohan’s Planet has just won its independence from the Terran Empire of Earth and established a new government. THey are working with some neuropsychology researchers too, tha ties to Australia and other locations like Canada with the Rockefellers and Rockefeller Foundation activity backed by the CI to help the Windsors.

CIA Director Donal Barr’s book A Planet in Arms retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Rohan is a Kingdom of horsemen, the Rohirrim, in J. R. R. Tolkien’s fantasy setting of Middle-earth. It is mainly a grassland, and provides its ally Gondor’s King Empire with cavalry. Perpahs Gondor is ruled by Queen Elizbeth II or King George the Next One Meduseld, the Golden Hall of the Kings of Rohan, is in the centre of the town at the top of the hill.[T 6] “Meduseld”, Old English for “mead hall”,[5] is meant to be a translation of an unknown Rohirric word with the same meaning. Meduseld is based on the mead hall Heorot in Beowulf;.

A King, asleep and in a spell, emerges and reclaims the Sword of the King.

Has the Queen of England subsumed the US DOD into the Commonwealth via sleepers co-ruling with her in Eugenics plan of leaders of money and power being of the best breeding? Weeding out hand hiding small variants like FOXP2 Minimal Brain Dysfunction of King Edward VII?

Donald Barr (parent of physicist Stephen Barr and Bush family legal flunky William Barr) published Space Relations, a science fiction novel about a planet ruled by oligarchs who engage in child sex slavery. It has been noted that the plot of the novel anticipates the crimes of Epstein and his alleged accomplice, Ghislaine Maxwell.

The neighbors I have now continue a tradition in and out of custody since about 1999. All are plants after real ones moved out. All are part of an illegal scheme both assaulting me by forced positioning me with sexual misconduct scenes (teens and tots walking in front of me, placed in front of my camera as I do correct things with my camera like read from Google Books and not using cell phone camera) they spy on others near me, forcibly break into mail boxes (federal mail delivery) and manufacture ge a Legend I was the perpetrator of these acts as the acts are a voiced by Gangstalkers to the communities connected to my life. My father and mother believed the Gangstalk or in the alternative believe my fight against the Gangastalk was mental illness I had, a Legend perpetrated by Gangstalkers I don’t know what RICO is. I do know and at least in my case Neighborhood Watch is buying cars from Protection Racket as they protect the neighborhood from the acts they commit using me as the alibi for their conduct. During this spanning decades real neighbors I do NOT have. This also a Labor Racket, people are conduct labor for a job which is a sham job.

It seems a Free Mason based system of various groups buying their way into being my neighbor in that role by proximity to me forging narrative we somehow became reproductively involved, having children together, by ambiguous conversations.

This appears to match the Donald Barr book of someone said to be a minor (but who is not) used by his captors as a reproductive exploitation victim.

I think this is a very seedy group of Midnight Climax CIA types who use surrogate mothers for research, ones drawn from stripclubs.

A Boy With A Problem, a cluster of symptoms and electroencephalograph, and a boy without the cluster of symptoms

> "Ah, that reminds me. Fritz, Fritz, you devious old •hurlatan," said Craig.
>
> "Where did that last little series come from?"
>
> "The words?"
>
> "The words."
>
> "I thought you'd like them. They're rather Neofreudiaun."
>
> "I noticed."
>
> "It's not a new idea, but it's just recently become available to us little quacks out in the field [University of Wisconsin Madison Xray] to now, all we had for two hundred years was the word-association test Jung designed for Freud. You know: 'knife-fork.
>
> Beauty~beast.' Two hundred years. It tells something, if the doctor has lived with his patient a long time. Otherwise, it tests. the doctor; the patient is the inkblot, the doctor is the patient. Of course, various characters tried l mechanize it. Very crude stuff, mixed up with polygraph y and the like."

Krause waved a hand. “But all the hardware could do, do you see, was to detect gross challenges in, well, general [cognitive] affect [not minimal deficits]. No specificity as to affect-cluster [of DSM symptoms]. Subject heard ‘Knife.’ It excited him. But where did it get to him? Here?”

Krause clapped his hand on his crotch. “Castration anxiety? Or what? You know t!hat shrinking feeling?

[The plan was to weed out FOXP2 when detected as in me, the Elites rule without it. They had to test who had it, who did not, by 2 years old they would know, hopefully sooner before too many school or other records or parent attachments were created.]

At least the old word-test sometimes gave us a clue. Now, you see—”

“I see.” Craig turned a hard, bright gaze on the· physician. “But what do you see, Fritz?”

“I see a boy with a problem …. “

“Have you ever seen a ‘boy’ without a problem?”

Space Relations p. 11 of 257

“Yes. Craig,. John Ar!llbruster, CDE16. MID-ah NA-111-22-6257.” Could be NA -1 is MA Massachusetess 11/22. Would be become Prime Minister of Australia appointed by Lady Morgan Syndey of the Australia Commonwealth? Canadian Allan Institute 57-64.

Donald Barr

ft Slightly Gothic Interplanetary Tale

“I could make you the Commandant of this place (Australia) if I wanted to,” said Lady Morgan [Sydney] > languidly. “But I’m not finished with you yet. What was your name?”

>
> “John Smith.”
>
> “What was your real name?”
>
> A long pause. “John Smith.”
>
> She laughed. “I shall let you have your little mystery.

In opening of Space Relations. Does 11/22/1962 get found in there somewhere, or 11/22/1963? JFK Assassinated: 11/22/1963, Parkland Hospital, Dallas, TX

William Grey Walter (FEBRUARY 19, 1910 - May 6, 1977) was an American-born British neurophysiologist, cybernetician and robotician.

As a young man, Walter was greatly influenced by the work of the Russian physiologist Ivan Pavlov.[citation needed] He visited the lab of Hans Berger, who invented the electroencephalograph, or EEG machine, for measuring electrical activity in the brain. Walter produced his own versions of Berger’s machine with improved capabilities, which allowed it to detect a variety of brain wave types ranging from the high speed alpha waves to the slow delta waves observed during sleep.

using his EEG machines at Burden Neurological Institute in Bristol.[citation needed] He was the first to determine by triangulation the surface location of the strongest alpha waves within the occipital lobe (alpha waves originate from the thalamus deep within the brain). Walter demonstrated the use of delta waves to locate brain tumours or lesions responsible for epilepsy. He developed the first brain topography machine based on EEG, using on an array of spiral-scan CRTs connected to high-gain amplifiers.

During the Second World War, Walter worked on scanning radar technology and guided missiles, which may have influenced his subsequent alpha wave scanning hypothesis of brain activity. [citation needed]

In the 1960s, Walter also went on to discover the contingent negative variation (CNV) effect whereby a negative spike of electrical activity appears in the brain half a second prior to a person being consciously aware of movements they were about to make.[citation needed] Intriguingly, this effect brings into question the very notion of consciousness or free will, and should be considered as part of a person's overall reaction time to events.

Walter's experiments with stroboscopic light, described in The Living Brain,[2] inspired the development of a Dream Machine by the artist Brion Gysin and technician Ian Sommerville.

German physiologist and psychiatrist Hans Berger (1873-1941) recorded the first human EEG in 1924.[7] Expanding on work previously conducted on animals by Richard Caton and others, Berger also invented the electroencephalogram (giving the device its name), an invention described "as one of the most surprising, remarkable, and momentous developments in the history of clinical neurology".[8] His discoveries were first confirmed by British scientists Edgar Douglas Adrian and B. H. C. Matthews in 1934 and developed by them.

In 1934, Fisher and Lowenbach first demonstrated epileptiform spikes. In 1935, Gibbs, Davis and Lennox described interictal spike waves and the three cycles/s pattern of clinical absence seizures, which began the field of clinical electroencephalography.[9] Subsequently, in 1936 Gibbs and Jasper reported the interictal spike as the focal signature of epilepsy. The same year, the first EEG laboratory opened at Massachusetts General Hospital.

In the 1950s, William Grey Walter developed an adjunct to EEG called EEG topography, which allowed for the mapping of electrical activity across the surface of the brain. This enjoyed a brief period of popularity in the 1980s and seemed especially promising for psychiatry. It was never accepted by neurologists and remains primarily a research tool.

Chuck Kayser with electroencephalograph electrodes and a signal conditioner for use in Project Gemini, 1965

An electroencephalograph system manufactured by Beckman Instruments was used on at least one of the Project Gemini manned spaceflights (1965-1966) to monitor the brain waves of astronauts on the flight. It was one of many Beckman Instruments specialized for and used by NASA.

In 1988, report was given by Stevo Bozinovski, Mihail Sestakov, and Liljana Bozinovska on EEG control of a physical object, a robot.

EEG is one of the main diagnostic tests for epilepsy. A routine clinical EEG recording typically lasts 20-30 minutes (plus preparation time). It is a test that detects electrical activity in the brain using small, metal discs (electrodes) attached to the scalp. Routinely, EEG is used in clinical circumstances to determine changes in brain activity that might be useful in diagnosing brain disorders, especially epilepsy or another seizure disorder. An EEG might also be helpful for diagnosing or treating the following disorders:

- Brain tumor
- Brain damage from head injury
- Brain dysfunction that can have a variety of
- causes (encephalopathy)
- Inflammation of the brain (encephalitis)
- Stroke
- Sleep disorders

It can also

- distinguish epileptic seizures from other types of spells, such as psychogenic non-epileptic seizures, syncope (fainting), sub-cortical movement disorders and migraine variants

- differentiate “organic” encephalopathy or delirium from primary psychiatric syndromes such as catatonia
- serve as an adjunct test of brain death in comatose patients
- prognosticate in comatose patients (in certain instances)
- determine whether to wean anti-epileptic medications.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

> Space Relations plot: In the future, humans have formed an intergalactic empire ruled by aristocrats. During a time of war with the Plith, an empire of ant-like alien bug people, ambassador John Craig, a formerly Liberal Earth man in his 30s, is dispatched to the strategically important planet Kossar, a human colony that was settled by the Carlyle Society as a place of exile for political extremists and now is ruled by an oligarchical high council of seven nobles, each of whom is in charge of a different domain with its own traditions. - WIkipedia

This book posits Donald Barr also held Barrack Obama Jr as a November 18 1961 future president in JFKs white house and this was part of anthropolocy and eugenics and genetics work for ovwe 100 years of sleepers and moles.

And to think 11/22/62 was a success. In Inglewood California Manhattan Beach, not Bethesda.

> “Yes. Craig,. John Ar!llbruster, CDE16. MID-ahNA-111-22-6257.”
> “Right, sir. Well, I have to -report a tap-that is, an atter,:ipt to tap his examination-uh-somewhere.”
> “Somewhere?”

> “Yes, sir.”
> “Remarkable! Right in good old Somewhere!”
> ‘:Not here in Bethesda, I mean.’·’
> “You say ‘attempt,’ “. snapped Krause. “Was it successful?
> “We—we don’t know, sir. [in year one] It could have been. Depends on who … [whether the FOXP2 shows or not] on whether … ” · > Krause glanced over his · shoulder at Craig. Craig grinned mirthlessly. Krause said, “You mean, young man, it depends on whether this was a government tap.”
> “Yes, sir.”-
> .!‘And if it was, it was probably successful.
> “Yes, sir.”
> “Well, my, young friend,” said the physician firmly, “you may as well forget the matter. What’s a little snooping between friends?”

Tbe book anticipate much more than the mere Viring Island Brain Foundation genome trafficking that than that, along with the British Isles and Jamaica.

George H.W.Bush,Donald Barr, William Barr, and Nelson Rockefeller Free Masons Birthdays

The how and why wonder book of primitive man Hardcover January 1, 1961 by Donald Barr (Author)

Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller was an American businessman including Standard Oil fortune and politician who served in the US Senate and then as the 41st vice president of the United States from December 1974 to January 1977, and previously as the 49th governor of New York from 1959 to 1973. He is closely tied to University of Chicago Medicine (founder) and the Carnegie Foundation. Born: JULY 8, 1908, Bar Harbor, ME Died: January 26, 1979, New York, NY Party: Republican Party

Donald Barr CIA Free Mason with an experimental monkey having a birthday at the White House November 23 1961

Donald Barr (AUGUST 8, 1921 - February 5, 2004)

Donald Barr was an American educator, writer, and Office of Strategic Services (OSS) agent. He was an administrator at Columbia University before serving as headmaster at the Dalton School in New York City and the Hackley School in Tarrytown, New York.[1] He also wrote two science fiction novels.[2] His sons are former United States Attorney General William Barr and physicist Stephen Barr.

Barr graduated from Columbia College in 1941 with a degree in mathematics and anthropology.

He was headmaster of the Dalton School from 1964 to 1974.[10] During his time as Dalton's headmaster, Barr is alleged to have had a role in hiring future financier and convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein p>The Cossacks (probably Donald Barr's Kossar) are a group of predominantly East Slavic Orthodox Christian people, who became known as members of democratic, self-governing, semi-military communities originating in the steppes of Eastern Europe (in particular the Dnieper, in the Wild Fields).[1] They inhabited sparsely populated areas and islands in the lower Dnieper,[2] Don, Terek, and Ural River basins, and played an important role in the historical and cultural development of both Ukraine and Russia.

After World War II, the Soviet Union disbanded the Cossack units in the Soviet Army. During the Perestroika era in the Soviet Union in the late 1980s, descendants of Cossacks moved to revive their national traditions. In 1988, the Soviet Union passed a law allowing the re-establishment of former Cossack hosts and the formation of new ones. During the 1990s, many regional authorities agreed to hand over some local administrative and policing duties to their Cossack hosts.

In the 2002 Russian census, 140,028 people declared Cossack ethnicity, while 67,573 people identified as Cossack in the 2010 census. Between 3.5 and 5.0 million people associate themselves with the Cossack identity across the world;[citation needed] Cossack organizations operate in Russia, Kazakhstan, Ukraine, Belarus, and the United States. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

These areas have been long term capture goals of the USA and Free Masons as Jen Moore reorted, the Ukraine being taken over by a Hillary Clinton launched plan.

Barr may been born in that Queen Mother's birthday test births starting in 1905 and King George V showing the defect. He may be researching his own genetic line with Epstein in the VI Brain Foundation research.

Traitor. Creator of Barrack Obama Jr. and many other moles as experiments (like himself) in super race anthropology. THey have a few bug to work out, #FOXP2 is one of them. Then they are super humans. #SecretSociety of #BlueBlood billionaires, scientists, media, and government

SPACE RELATIONS ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED ON 17 SEPTEMBER 1973

In the future, humans have formed an intergalactic empire ruled by aristocrats. During a time of war with the Plith, an empire of ant-like alien bug people, ambassador John Craig, a formerly Liberal Earth man in his 30s, is dispatched to the strategically important planet Kossar, a human colony that was settled by the Carlyle Society as a place of exile for political extremists and now is ruled by an oligarchical high council of seven nobles, each of whom is in charge of a different domain with its own traditions.

Julia Eileen Gillard AC (born 29 September 1961) is an Australian former politician who served as the 27th prime minister of Australia from 2010 to 2013. She held office as leader of the Australian Labor Party (ALP). She is the first and only female prime minister in Australian history.

While en route to Kassar, one of the pirates awakened Craig and the other prisoners to rape a 15-year-old virginal redheaded female captive in front of them; the rapist's fellow pirates later hear of this and dock his pay as punishment for spoiling her market value. Craig then spent two years as a slave of the beautiful, sensual, and sadistic Lady Morgan Sidney, the only female member of the oligarchy, with whom he became romantically involved. Together, they lived in her castle, ruling over and engaging in sexual relations with those under their dominion, including an enslaved teenager at a clinic used to breed enslaved people.

Craig is depicted as undisturbed by Lady Morgan's sadism. When he is ordered to sexually assault the enslaved teenager, he enjoys his participation in the act.

In 1952, Elizabeth II was the monarch and head of state of seven independent states

the United Kingdom		Canada		Australia
New Zealand		South Africa		Pakistan		Ceylon

Since then, new realms have been created through independence of former colonies and dependencies and some realms have become republics. As of 2021, there are 16 known of Commonwealth realms

George VI was King of the United Kingdom and the Dominions of the British Commonwealth from 11 December 1936 until his death in 1952. He has the FOXP2 Language Defect, Minimal Brain Dysfunction, and gave “The Kings Speech 1925 Wemberely Stadium as Prince Albert, Prince of York, younger brother to Prince Edward, Prince of Wales. Upon the 1936 Olympics and the Arthur Kuschera and Franz Kutschera activities (who had offspring with King Edward VIII) KE VIII abdicated and Prince Albert beacem King George VI until he died in 1952.

King George was a well-liked monarch, but he never expected to possess the throne. That was, until his elder brother Edward VIII abdicated in the midst of a 1936 scandal regarding his relationship with American divorcee Wallis Simpson. A nervous man, George wasn’t particularly keen on the idea of becoming king - and all the public attention it would entail - but he didn’t have much choice. Two years later, he was thrust into leading the nation during World War II, but his steadfast yet down-to-earth nature won him the hearts of the people.- History Extra historyextra.com

A PLANET IN ARMS

A Planet in Arms is a novel in which Rohan’s Planet has just won its independence from the Terran Empire of *Earth and established a new government.

Oh Great Kings free yourself or mere earthly people and govern through use of the Eye of Providence.

Space Relations by Donald Barr and grooming leaders
retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

“Next,” said the man in the black smock. Crnli stepped forward.

Dr. Khoory consulted his list. “E-nine, Smith, John Terran male, thirty, yes?”

“Yes.”

“Yes, what?” the man in the black smock broke in re provingly.

“Yes, massa,” said Craig. Dr, Khoory looked at him sharply, then passed the matter over.

The man in the black smock strapped Craig’s Id forearm to the top of the black cabinet, soft side down.

“M-S-4-3-9-8-5,” Dr. Khoory dictated, and the nun poked at the keyboard on the cabinet.
“

M.S. 43985,” he repeated.

“Correct,” said Dr. Khoory.

The man punched a button. Craig felt a blaze of pall in his arm, opened his mouth soundlessly, and began n sag on his feet. The man slapped him across the check Craig straightened. Dr. Khoory said, “The pain will p away. The brand will never go away. There will be no in fection. Do not trouble to complain about your arm.” Hi marked his list.

“Next.”

“Sir? Excuse me, sir,” said Craig.

Dr. Khoory looked up, surprised.

“What does M.S. stand for, sir?”

“Curiosity is the hunger of Reason. So. They are initials of the Lady Morgan Sidney. You are now her property.”

Edward VII (Albert Edward; 9 November 1841 - 6 May 1910) was King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the British Dominions, and Emperor of India from 22 JANUARY 1901 UNTIL HIS DEATH IN 1910.

In 1895, Prince Albert Saxe-Coburg-Gotha was born to Victoria von Teck, Princess of Württemberg, and her husband George V. The German boy who would become George VI was a sickly and fearful child prone to tears.

Incidentally, you can see how Queen Elizabeth married her third cousin, Philip Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glücksburg, on the chart above. Those German-er, I mean English-royals are the product of a breeding program, just like the stuff the Nazis were into.

HOSPITALS FOR INSANE, QUEENSLAND. 1901 TO 1906.

Particulars.		1901.	1902.	1903.	1904.	1905.	1906.
Number of institutions		3	3	3	3	3	3
Number admitted... ...	Male	193	204	222	186	205	241
	Female	142	135	115	103	130	120
Total number under treatment	Male	1,291	1,295	1,340	1,318	1,352	1,413
	Female	763	791	805	816	861	886
Discharged—
As cured	Male	90	74	92	75	71	88
	Female	56	57	43	50	43	45
As improved	Male	34	39	19	31	19	11
	Female	14	8	12	5	9	12
Died	Male	76	62	96	64	89	72
	Female	37	32	37	30	42	40
Inmates at end of year ...	Male	1,091	1,118	1,132	1,147	1,172	1,240
	Female	656	690	713	731	766	789
Expenditure*	£	47,985	51,455	47,372	46,127	48,126	50,268

Julia Gillard first female Prime Minister of Australia as Sydney Morgan was a female president of a Commonwealth

27th Prime Minister of Australia In office 24 June 2010 - 27 June 2013 Monarch Elizabeth II Deputy Wayne Swan

Did the Grand Master Masons like Donald Barr and Wild Bill Donovan co-operate on a 1905 based full takeover of world governments by financed subversion in Saudi Arabia (House of Saud) and many other countries, noticing for instance activity in Pakistan/India and Ireland around 1905, and start of resistance to England.

In one of the several start pages of this book I quote Aim for Truth that a funded subversion took place planting moles around the world.

Craig interrupted calmly. “Fritz, take it from me: Faith needs Kossar in the Treaty Organization.

> Malin Craig was a general in the United States Army who served as the 14th Chief of Staff of the United States Army from 1935 to 1939. He was recalled to active duty during World War II. Born: AUGUST 5, 1875, SAINT JOSEPH, MO In April 1901, Craig married Genevieve Woodruff, a daughter of General Charles Woodruff. Died: July 25, 1945, Washington, D.C.From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

I can’t I dl you precisely why, but”

“Oh, I know why, John. I know how scared you all are of the Plith.” “Aren’t you scared of the Plith, Fritz?” “Of course. I’m a Liberal, but unlike many of my party -you see, I admit thatI don’t like ant-empires any more than I like people-empires. Very well, then, let’s assume Earth needs Kossar in the Treaty Organization. (‘an’t someone else represent Earth at the signing? Why can’t the Secretary do it?” “Why can’t I?” “Because,” said Krause slowly, “because I’m truly afraid of what might happen to you. You’re holding yourself together by an unconscious effort. What if the binding energy fails?” “I have to go. Whom would you send instead, Fritz? A doddering old narcissist who thinks himself a master of Realpolitik and would sell off Clause Eighteenthat antislavery clause you think so highly of?" "Might you be describing your distinguished superior?" "Yes, the Secretary. Or maybe you'd send a hand- wringing missionary from the tall com who would scold naughty little Kossar and abolish its slavery?" "I recognize the leader of my party. But, John, isn't that the idea, to abolish slavery?" "No. My idea is to abolish slaves and slaveowners." "Oh? Is that different?" "Yes, it's different." Craig glared at the MD8 but seemed not to see him. "You can't just abolish the master-slave relation. You have to put some other rela¬ tion in its place… . When I got home from Kossar, I was angry. I wanted to go up to Kossar with an army at my back and abolish slavery. It wouldn't have abolished the 16 DONALD BARR slavery in me. But I didn't think that mattered, not then. And when I wrote Clause Eighteen, I was still angry. It took me a long time to learn from my own sickness. … I know a little about slaveowners, too. No one forces them to be cruel… . We're all Liberals, you know. We like to I think institutions distort people. But slavery is a frightful institution because it doesn't. It allows the most direct and i unrestrained expression of human nature, Fritz. Believe me… . When I was first captured, on the way back from Betelgeuse, it flashed through my mind that my only 1 chance to survive was to tell little lies, pick little fights, play little tricks, provoke little punishments. Every lie they believe is a victory; every punishment that doesn't kill you is a victory; the word is 'weisenheimer.' Beware the separate peace. Accommodate, and you're done for. And it gets harder and harder and harder not to accom¬ modate, especially if" He broke off and seemed sud¬ denly to focus on the man he was talking to. "No, no, Fritz, I have to gofor the sake of my health."

William H. Crook (1925-1997) was an American preacher turned politician, national director of the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) program and US Ambassador to Australia.

Crook was born in Momence, Illinois.

In 1954, Crook married Eleanor Butt, daughter of Howard Edward Butt Sr., the founder of the H-E-B grocery store chain.[1] They had three children, William Crook Jr., Elizabeth Crook, and Noel Moore.

John, why must you go to Kossar? You say you spent two years as a slave on Kossar; (Vista COrps?) yet for some reason you've pushed and pushed to bring Kossar into MIPTO, even though the Man-Inhabited Planets Treaty (republics) has a clause against alliances with slaveowning (Kingdoms or Communist?) societies.

PROOF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY HELPED BRITISH SABOTEURS AND AMERICAN TRAITORS TAKEOVER AMERICA IN 1902<

Search that caps text in this book and find this link https://aim4truth.org/2021/06/12/proof-columbia-university-helped-british-saboteurs-and-american-traitors-takeover-america-in-1902/

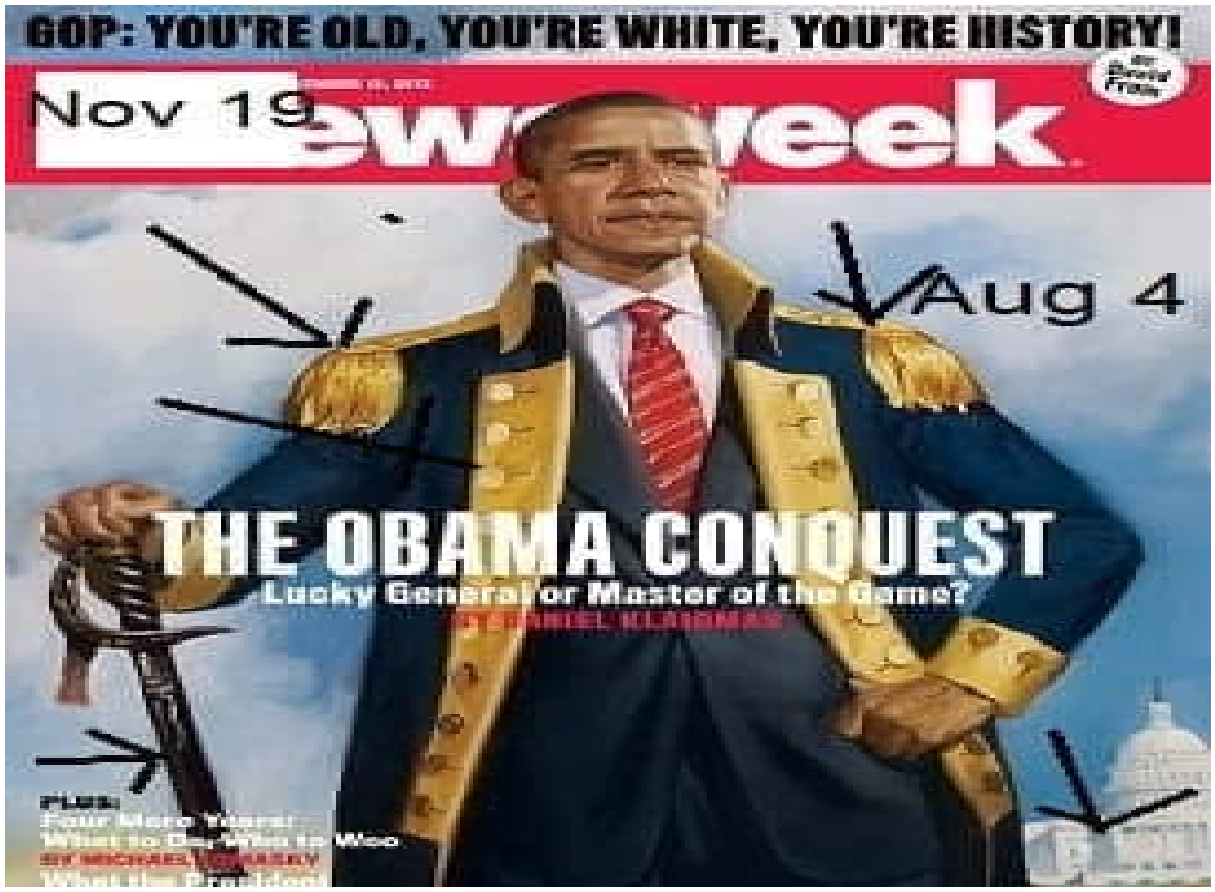
Donald Barr

American writer

Epstein Barr
Columbia
Manhattan Island

VI Brain Foundation

Donald Barr was an Office of Strategic Services agent, an American educator, and a writer. He was an administrator at Columbia University before serving as headmaster at the Dalton School in New York City and the Hackley School in Tarrytown, New York. He also wrote two science fiction novels. Wikipedia



GOP: YOU'RE OLD, YOU'RE WHITE, YOU'RE HISTORY!
Nov 19
Aug 4
THE OBAMA CONQUEST
Lucky General or Master of the Game?

Donald Barr CIA Free Mason with an experimental monkey having a birthday at the White House November 23 1961

“King” George W. Bush son of Eugenecist Prescott and George H.W. Bush born George [Sky] Walker Bush JULY 6, 1946)

George Walker Bush (born JULY 6, 1946) is a Eugenics breeding program product and an American politician and businessman who served as the 43rd president of the United States from 2001 to 2009. A member of the Bush family and Republican Party, he previously served as the 46th governor of Texas from 1995 to 2000. Bush flew warplanes in the Texas Air National Guard. After graduating from Harvard Business School in 1975, he worked in the oil industry.

He appointed Justice Roberts who has no Divinci Code like birth month and day but Justice Roberts is married to Jane Sullivan whose birthday is AUGUST 3, 1958 which seem to be one of the DARPA Brain Program NASA program dates tied to the Queen Mother August 4th birthdays which Barrack Obama Jr. has as well.

Mc Veigh was a reader of Turner Diaries, new to me, but from Wikipedia seemed another “Space Relations” discussion starter about MKULTRA and Eugenics being forced by Guerilla Infiltrators plot enforced by WetDivision, gain bred leaders in world populations.

The Turner Diaries retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

A framing device which takes place in 2099 (100 years after the events depicted) gives the novel’s main text a historical context, which is presented as the journal of Earl Turner, an active member of a white revolutionary movement. As the story begins, the federal government has confiscated all civilian firearms in the country under the Cohen Act. Turner and his cohorts take their organization underground in order to wage a guerrilla war against the System, which is depicted as being under Jewish control.[4] The “System”

The United States government decides to launch an invasion of the Organization’s stronghold in Southern California. The leaders of the Order now inform Earl Turner of his punishment for having failed to resist his Jewish interrogators during his captivity: he must pilot a crop duster equipped with a nuclear warhead and destroy the Pentagon in a kamikaze-type suicide-strike, before the invasion can be ordered.

The epilogue summarizes how the Organization went on to conquer the rest of the world and how all non-white races were eliminated. Africa was invaded; all of its black inhabitants were killed. Puerto Ricans (described as a “repulsive mongrel race”) were killed and Puerto Rico was recolonized. After China attempts to invade European Russia, the Organization attacks with nuclear, chemical, radiological and biological weapons which render the entire continent of Asia uninhabitable and rife with “mutants”. In the United States, the last remaining non-whites are hunted down, along with all of the individuals who are involved in organized crime (such as the Mafia).

One of the last steps in the Organization’s victory is its truce with the remainder of the American military’s generals, who agree to surrender if the former swears not to harm them or their immediate families. The Organization gladly accepts. The epilogue concludes with the statement that “just 110 years after the birth of the ‘Great One’, the dream of a white world finally became a certainty… and the Order would spread its wise and benevolent rule over the earth for all time to come.”

This book

Michelle Obama is hiding secrets via Espionage

Google knowledge panel retrieved from Michelle Obama and copied or modified to here

Michelle LaVaughn Robinson Obama is an American attorney and author (and nothing else) who served as the first lady of the United States from 2009 to 2017. She was the first African-American woman to serve in this position. She is the wife of former U.S. President Barack Obama.

The biological parents of Barrack Obama Jr were a sham as the Edward Donegan birth certificate shows, and then the children and wife of Barrack Obama Jr were insert fix layers trying to control the world celebrity's tru orgins.

This fraud continues for three generations of Obamas, and has harassed me and my family for that long.

Ordinality of Month, Month	Day	9 Months Term	Ordinality o Month, Month	Birth Day	Birth Certificate
2, February	20	Almost exactly	11, November	11/18/1961	11/19/1961
Edward Paul Donegan	X			X	X
Barrack Obama Jr	20				X

STATE FILE NUMBER 61-351457

CERTIFICATE OF LIVE BIRTH

STATE OF CALIFORNIA—DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

LOCAL REGISTRATION DISTRICT AND 7042 CERTIFICATE NUMBER 064704

THIS CHILD

1a. NAME OF CHILD—FIRST NAME: Edward
1b. MIDDLE NAME: Paul
1c. LAST NAME: Donegan
2. SEX: Male
3a. THIS BIRTH (SINGLE, TWIN, OR TRIPLET): Single
3b. IF TWIN OR TRIPLET, WAS THIS CHILD BORN 1ST, 2ND, 3RD?
4. DATE OF BIRTH—MONTH, DAY, YEAR: November 18, 1961
5a. HOUR: 10:12 A.

PLACE OF BIRTH

5b. PLACE OF BIRTH—NAME OF HOSPITAL: Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital
5c. CITY OR TOWN: Inglewood 1,
5d. STREET ADDRESS (GIVE STREET OR RURAL ADDRESS OR LOCATION. DO NOT USE P. O. BOX NUMBER): 333 North Prairie Avenue ☒ HOSPITAL ☐ RESIDENCE
5e. COUNTY: Los Angeles

7057

MOTHER OF CHILD

6a. MAIDEN NAME OF MOTHER—FIRST NAME: Glorian
6b. MIDDLE NAME:
6c. LAST NAME: Gainey
7. COLOR OR RACE OF MOTHER: White
8. AGE OF MOTHER (AT TIME OF THIS BIRTH): 33 YEARS
9. BIRTHPLACE (STATE OR FOREIGN COUNTRY): South Carolina
10. MAILING ADDRESS OF MOTHER (IF DIFFERENT FROM USUAL RESIDENCE):

USUAL RESIDENCE OF MOTHER (WHERE SHE LIVES)

11a. USUAL RESIDENCE OF MOTHER—STREET ADDRESS (GIVE STREET OR RURAL ADDRESS OR LOCATION): 584 35th Street
11b. IF INSIDE CORPORATE LIMITS, CHECK HERE: ☒
IF OUTSIDE CITY CORPORATE LIMITS, CHECK ONE: ☐ ON A FARM ☐ NOT ON A FARM
11c. CITY OR TOWN: Manhattan Beach
11d. COUNTY: Los Angeles
11e. STATE: California

FATHER OF CHILD

12a. NAME OF FATHER—FIRST NAME: James
12b. MIDDLE NAME: Paul
12c. LAST NAME: Donegan
13. COLOR OR RACE OF FATHER: White
14. AGE OF FATHER (AT TIME OF THIS BIRTH): 34 YEARS
15. BIRTHPLACE (STATE OR FOREIGN COUNTRY): Massachusetts
16a. PRESENT OR LAST OCCUPATION: Pilot
16b. KIND OF INDUSTRY OR BUSINESS: Airlines

INFORMANT'S CERTIFICATION

I HAVE REVIEWED THE ABOVE STATED INFORMATION AND HEREBY CERTIFY THAT IT IS TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE
17a. PARENT OR OTHER INFORMANT—SIGNATURE (DO NOT PRINT): ▶ Gloria Donegan
17b. DATE SIGNED BY INFORMANT: November 19, 1961

ATTENDANT'S CERTIFICATION

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT I ATTENDED THIS BIRTH AT THE TIME AND PLACE STATED ABOVE
18a. PHYSICIAN (SIGNATURE ONLY, MD): ▶ Richard L. Meadows
18b. ADDRESS: Los Angeles

REGISTRAR'S CERTIFICATION

19. DATE ON WHICH NAME ENTERED BY BIRTH REGISTRAR AFTER INITIAL REPORT: FEB 9
20. LOCAL REGISTRAR—SIGNATURE: ▶ K. M. Gauthier Jr. M.D.
21. DATE RECEIVED BY LOCAL REGISTRAR: DEC — 4 1961

This book

The DPS Texas Rangers are Concealers including the botch of bothch of enforcing my rights against the theft of my home theater as I was renting the Kings Speech and other illegal CIA acts of the usual Texas sewer of Bush and Blackwater type operations.

When I came to Texas seeking refuge from a seeming left wing Stalk which was at least State of Virgina Arlington Viriginia and DOD in Virginia backed I found that sewer in Texas, DPS, the law firms, law enforcement etc.,

It's Texas, Stupid. The oil business, Bush family, Bush Cheney, the JKF assassination tied to Lyndon B. Johnson, Southern Baptist churches, the manufacture of Obama, agriculture, and CIA, JFK did not survive a Texas VP, Scalia did not survive the Wet Division, WACO was taken out, and my others inside and outside Texas because money talk to voters, and elected officials give the orders to Texas Law Enforcement.

The open egregious crimes towards me have not abated but increased despite decades of my complaining in about them as the most serious felonies which a person can be subjected to.

I it is all based on frauds, shams, and corruption I can not escape because it is too highly placed for the dominoes below the top ranks not to fall in line to.

My last attempt at getting a correct aka real ID was in California and it was wrong. I have vowed i will die before I never get any other ID of any kind from the USA. It was not until I came to Texas, Austin in particular, and became attacked by Guerrilla Warfare that I changed from "I am talking the to the Texas Rangers [in regard to my complaints]" phone call about six years ago to now when I refuse to die inside of Texas borders or ever have a Texas issued ID of any type. It may seem I am complaining about Nueces County but this county, Nieces, like the Sheriffs Detention in Austin area were/are merely the tools of Abbot, Paxton, Bush family, Chenney, the CIA, DHS Austin TExas, the Ellington Labs, and long history of MKULTRA under LBJ to continue its Deep State including cover its track with attacks on James and Glorian family descendents.

After what I experience in Texas I took Timothy MacVay to be my savior while in custody; then, after release, went back to trying to point out to them the corrupt environment that should be enforced down..

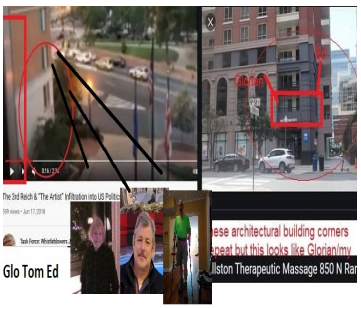
I was watching Reanimator (c. 1980s) on TV just recently at 1513 Ocean Dr #5 and I saw a character in the movie fighting Gangs of Zombies with an axe trying to fight them back as they attacked. I am supposed to fight a Gangstalk too and the CIA Legend, (Prophecy) has been created I am psych and will attack [zombies that look like humans} completely out of the blue.

Still, I rely on the book to get it into thick headed Texas Law Enforcement the significance of this matter and world events.

The secret research of FOXP2 and its LONDON KE Family history.

World Events and Abdication of King Edward VIII and Prince Albert takes over
Donald Barr and William Barr, and over run of		US Presidential Elections, who has the nuclear

Seatle PD station allowed, Thomas Crane Wales August 4 filing, illuminati in background		inventory, and do they and DARPA have long world history personal liabilities to hide as they conduct State matters of war and peace? Plausible deniable guerrilla hits (plumbers) on witnesses o it all
Prescott, George H.W. W., Bush Cheney	Atomic Bombing Los Alamos, Nevada Blasts	Kamala Harris and Biden, Salvation Army, YMCA, other groups. SF DA, self bombed, senator, candidate for POTUS VPOTUS
The “US” Peace Corp, British actor Lawford, Shrivers Shchartzenegers	James Paul Donegan	Jen MOore murdered as she documents Kutschera and British royal “competing systems” orinds of Glorian Donegan genealogy



LBJ of Texas takes over as President. Shooting in Texas and Shooters Kingpins Texans, Texas Governor shot, DARPA plan was to groom leaders around the work race and IQ and economies, Scalia murdered.	November 19 1961 -1963	Tom Donegan and Mark Weirness hid pictures and mitochondria of Glorian, DNA from her likely removed to create seeming origin in Obama family
Barrak Obama Sleeper agent of Hunt, Dulles, Hughes continues	The attacks upon me are illegal and Tom Donegan (now dead) is now not part of the same story I tell and could if crosschecked verify. I am the only witness left of the 52 Lambeth Square Moraga House with EPD III (Seen with Donald Barr White House photo)	Tom Donegan with media powerhouse AOL Time Warner lure me into some odd trap at the time the Obama children are being fertilized. Consider Pierce Brosnan as James Bond, MI6 agent 007. Jonathan Pryce as Elliot Carver, a sadistic media mogul who plans to trigger World War III and fictional Carver Media then real Facebook, and others.

Mark and Scott Kelley and Arizona Shooting	Arizona Shooting and Twins Studies, RFLP	Race and IQ, hate theory, IQ and sociology and history of 1936 Germany., Test ballons from Mark Weirness about WWII Memorial via Nazi stagecraft (and unsaid, Olympics 1936. Can Swchartenegers and others out nazi the nazis?
Barrak Obama Sleeper agent of Hunt, Dulles, Hughes continues		Cover up events of masive world scale following my and my mother hiding genetics issues from truth. Ted Gunderson, others killed, likely GOP Right Wing Assasins Deep State tied to large international conglomerates on a Peace Through Commerce cementing of West

These are gangs of actors around me trespassing against me hoping to get a punch from me by greater and greater trespasses against me.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from kite and copied or modified to here

N. KITE

plaything consisting of a light frame covered with tissue paper; flown in wind at end of a string

V. KITE

“The pilot kited for a long time over the mountains”

N. KITE

a bank check that has been fraudulently altered to increase its face value

N. KITE

a bank check drawn on insufficient funds at another bank in order to take advantage of the float

V. KITE

get credit or money by using a bad check

. KITE

any of several small graceful hawks of the family Accipitridae having long pointed wings and feeding on insects and small animals

This book

KITE AND PRIVATE TRUST FUND AND ASSETS OF EDWARD DONEGAN

To soar away with value or rights which do not belong to the person who is kiting them from the launch area

The State of Texas as a State act is illegaly using Donegan Genome tied to the corruption of State officials to acheive more coverup violating my and my family of origins rights. Abbot judgement impaired, religious and in wheelchair.

N. KITE (METHODOLOGY)

Kleptocratic Intrusive Trespassing Entanglement

Religions and the State have through shams and Trespasses entangle themselves into that which is not theirs including by proximity of being close enough to get way with confusion about who holds any asset belonging to one person or close enough to create confusion as to which person is which and violating the boundary separating the property owner and the property thief.

V. KITE (PRISON COMMUNICATION METHODOLOGY)

To Kite a message a detainee in one cell may use a small airplane like soap pad and tie a string or peiec of thread to it which is also tied to a rolled up piece of paper. The soap pad when slid along the floor will tow the note under the detainee’ cell door and into some other detainees door of often undected and never is the content of the message overheard unless intercepted or siezed later.

Prisons jails and even pscychiatric wards are designed to be highly secure in the movement, visibility, and communication capabilities of the detained. For the most part one prisoner can not see other prison cells and prisoners when in a cell and have not intercoms, cell phones, often no pencil or paper. The US Law Enforcement system is operated > as a killing field for CIA based activities and law enforcement has the total field of advantage. From operationg xray machines to access to outside resource, unlimitted cooperation with each other and complete physicl control of th secure environment not CIA location is more dangerous.

>
> When in Golds Gym Corpus Christi as bizzare and insane antics surouned me in the gym I was reading up on the OPF (Open Container Format) data of an epub book, that which contains the standards as to how to write an epub book file in its format and also for the third time turning to De Tocqueville and the state of our CIA based society and the threat the USA is to the world and to its population. I remember in shock in downtown Austin an incident about a women at Starbucks being slighted for wearing headwear generated weeks of headlines the operation surrounded was not then and still has not been outed by press.

I refuse to get any shot for COVID nor any identification card of any type from the USA based on the long ubiquity of events on constant eerie deciet of anything ever being to or around me at all moments in my life, especially watching the need either drawing blood, giving injections, or xray machines or anything else.

I am an anti vaxer that recomends the vaccine for most but as a TI also recomend the right to fight to the death rather than recieve any forcible medical care.

Clinton's 'Circle Of Death' (Tom Donegan is now in) - Latest Statistics retrieved from Sightings and copied or modified to here

P.S. if you want more files on the CLINTON arm of the NSC/CIA which is a proven, Death-dealing, Drug-transporting group serving the Oligarchs with their DIRTY MONEY FOR DIRTY TRICKS, their cash-raising preventing money trails back to the Rockflrs'* (and to the other 13 families'). This New World Order "One World After All " MAI/ NAFTA world has been built on assasination, death, ghetto drug addictions from the mid 40's. If you want to see how and through WHOM this has been going on since WWII, go to http://sightings.com/political/ciadrug.htm to read all the details proving how LONG the CIA and before them the OSS have been dealing drugs, not to enrich themselves but to pay for covert dirty tricks without borrowing from the oligarchs. They did not want money trails to lead back to the oligarch-run banking, IMF, world slave colony agenda.

The CIA shaking down the trust fund of Glorian Donegan to fund Guerillas Warfare opps including buying buildings, for espionage use, etc., comes from CIA illegal money laundering proceeds rather than the personal checking account of big pols or letter\s from them on pol letterhead explaining checks and why they were written to fund an illegal operation.

As Barrack Obama Jr is about to be swarm in following Busch Cheney, and following AOL TIme Warner and I think Obama Children IVF, and following me being dirty bombed and Tom's meeting with Tim Kaine, Tom Donegan dies of throat cancer.

Colin Powell (I think person of interest and like my brother now deceased)

At about the begining of Octorber 2021 I put a military police tip in I was a possible material witness to an alternate theory of the McDonald case under which McDonald could not have been resonsible or a long string of assasinations and murder which do fit the State Department “milieu” and Colin Powell was likely a part of, a very millieu the FBI has formerly investigated as a shadow government on the LEIU side which Clinton ties.

Colin Powell has died of Covid 19. Was he a material witness or suspect in the Jeffery McDonald case or any others tied to MKULTRA in the Bush administration or Cape Cod history of FOXP2 research, or the Shadow Government and Wet Division?

The murders of Kimberley (b. 1964; murdered 1970); Kristen (b. 1967; murdered 1970) children and wife of Jeffery McDonald, the children and wife may be of FOXP2 and that hisory the Wet Division is getting rid of.

New FBI release on Clinton email probe refers to ‘Shadow Government’ retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

A new trove of interview summaries and notes from the FBI’s investigation into Hillary Clinton’s emails lays out a series of allegations that could prove fodder for future attacks on the Democratic presidential nominee.

The 100 pages, released Monday morning, include claims that Clinton “blatantly” disregarded protocol. Other claims include that a group of powerful State Department employees attempted to coordinate a document release, and that a department official asked for a “quid pro quo” related to the former secretary of state’s emails.

The documents, part four of four to be released by the FBI, include notes and interview summaries that may illuminate more about the bureau’s decision not to recommend Clinton be prosecuted for her actions.

Many Republicans have criticized that decision, but FBI Director James Comey has repeatedly insisted the move was apolitical.

“I want the American people to know we really did this the right way. You can disagree with us, but you cannot fairly say we did it in any kind of political way,” Comey said in July. “We don’t carry water for anybody. We were trying to do what the right thing is.”

This book

Gospel Protestant Queen Protestant Masonry families, Connected Political Families, Religion, their mistakes, - Seeking Religious Asylum

Are these three people connected? Patrick Josepsh 1858, Joseph Patrick 1888, and Sarita Joseph Kennedy 1889

Patrick Joseph Kennedy

Patrick Joseph Kennedy (January 14, 1858 - May 18, 1929) was an American businessman and politician from Boston, Massachusetts. He and his wife, Mary, were the parents of four children, including future U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission Chair and U.S. Ambassador to the United Kingdom Joseph P. Kennedy Sr. Their grandchildren through Joseph include U.S. President John F. Kennedy, U.S. Attorney General and U.S. Senator Robert F. Kennedy, and longtime U.S. Senator Ted Kennedy.

MEMBER OF THE MASSACHUSETTS SENATE FROM THE 4TH SUFFOLK DISTRICT

In office January 3, 1889 - January 3, 1895

MEMBER OF THE MASSACHUSETTS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE 2ND SUFFOLK DISTRICT

In office January 3, 1884 - January 3, 1889

JOSEPH PATRICK KENNEDY SR

Joseph Patrick Kennedy Sr. (September 6, 1888 - November 18, 1969) was a prominent American businessman, investor and politician. He is known for his own political prominence as well as that of his children and was the patriarch of the Irish-American Kennedy family.

SARAH JOSEPHINE KENEDY

Sarah (Sarita) Josephine Kenedy (born 1889) is from Texas and part of the Sphon Hospital heritage on Elizabeth Street.

Rafael Bienvenido Cruz aka Ted Cruz Sr. retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Rafael Bienvenido Cruz y Díaz (born March 22, 1939) is a Cuban-American Protestant preacher and father of Texas U.S. Senator Ted Cruz. He regularly serves as a surrogate in his son's political campaigns.

Cruz was born in Matanzas, Cuba, in 1939. His father, Rafael Cruz, was a salesman for RCA, originally from the Canary Islands, Spain. His mother, Emilia Laudelina Díaz, was a teacher.

Cruz attended Arturo Echemendia primary school in Matanzas. Cruz claims he joined the Cuban Revolution as a teenager and "suffered beatings and imprisonment for protesting the oppressive regime" of dictator Fulgencio Batista.[10] Cruz enrolled at the age of 17 at the University of Santiago in September 1956. According to Cruz, as a teenager, he "didn't know Castro was a Communist". Cruz has stated in interviews that he was jailed by Batista for several days in June or July 1957 and after he was released he applied to and was accepted by the University of Texas in August 1957. He obtained a student visa after an attorney for the family bribed a Batista official to grant him an exit permit. Cruz said he left with $100 sewn into his underwear taking a two-day bus ride from Florida, arriving with little or no English to enroll at the University of Texas.

He graduated from UT with a degree in mathematics and chemical engineering four years later in 1961.[9][14] Cruz states he worked his way through college as a dishwasher, making 50 cents an hour and learned English by going to movies. When he arrived in Austin he gave dozens of speeches in support of the Revolution to various clubs, but later after a visit back to Cuba in the summer of 1959 he became a harsh critic of Castro after "the rebel leader took control and began seizing private property and suppressing dissent".

Upon returning he revisited the same groups to give lectures opposing Castro and the Revolution.[14] Cruz recounts that his younger sister fought against the new regime in the counterrevolution and was consequently tortured. He remained regretful for his early support of Castro and expressed his remorse to his son on numerous occasions.

Cruz left the Catholic Church in 1975 and became an Evangelical Protestant after attending a Bible study with a colleague and having a born again experience. Explaining his leaving the Catholic church, Cruz stated in an interview with National Review, “The people at the Bible study had a peace that I could not understand, this peace in the midst of trouble. I knew I needed to find that peace by finding Jesus Christ.” Following his conversion, his son and wife also became born-again Protestants. In the Cruz home, talk at dinner time was frequently about the Bible.[4] He was ordained as a pastor in 2004.[19]

Cruz works from his home in Carrollton, a suburb of Dallas, as a traveling preacher and public speaker, campaigning as a surrogate for his son during the 2016 Presidential campaign season. In a 2014 Associated Press story, Cruz was quoted as saying, “I have a burden for this country and I feel that we cannot sit silent.” He went on to say that he feels “It’s time we stop being politically correct and start being biblically correct.”

About his political involvements in the 1980s, Cruz reflected, “I was on the state board of the Religious Roundtable, a Christian and Jewish religious organization that worked to elect Ronald Reagan.” At the time, he told his son, “God has destined you for greatness.”

At the New Beginnings Church in Irving, Texas, in August 2012, Cruz delivered a sermon where he described his son’s senatorial campaign as taking place within a context where Christian “kings” were anointed to preside over an “end-time transfer of wealth” from wicked people to the righteous. Cruz urged the congregation to “tithe mightily” to achieve that result. During an interview conducted by The Christian Post in 2014, Cruz stated, “I think we cannot separate politics and religion; they are interrelated. They’ve always been interrelated.” Salon described Cruz as a “Dominionist, devoted to a movement that finds in Genesis a mandate that ‘men of faith’ seize control of public institutions and govern by biblical principle.”

On Labor Day 2015, Cruz was hosted at the annual “Turning Hearts” celebration in Kalona, Iowa, by the Bontrager Family Singers, a gospel and bluegrass group which became active in the ongoing Ted Cruz presidential campaign.

After Cruz graduated from the University of Texas in 1961, he was granted political asylum in the United States following the expiration of his student visa.[1] In his late twenties, Cruz moved to New Orleans. In 1969 at age 30, during his employment at his new oil company job, he met Wilmington, Delaware, native and divorcée, Eleanor Elizabeth Wilson (born NOVEMBER, 23, 1934 as Eleanor Darragh). Eleanor's first marriage, at age 21, was to Alan Wilson, a mathematician, in 1956. Due to career opportunities, the couple moved to London, England, in 1960. They divorced in 1963. The then 34-year-old computer programmer returned to the United States in 1966. Cruz and Wilson were married in 1969, and shortly after were sent to Calgary, Canada, where their only child, Rafael Edward "Ted" Cruz, was born on December 22, 1970.[36] While in Calgary, the couple owned a seismic-data processing firm called R.B. Cruz and Associates for oil drillers. The firm later became Veritas and ultimately part of CGG. Cruz earned Canadian citizenship in 1973. The family of three then moved to Houston, Texas.[4][9] Eleanor and Rafael Cruz divorced in 1997.

In 2005 Cruz renounced his Canadian citizenship to become a naturalized U.S. citizen. Cruz now retains only Cuban and American citizenships.

From 1993 to 2009, Cruz was a top salesman for Mannatech.

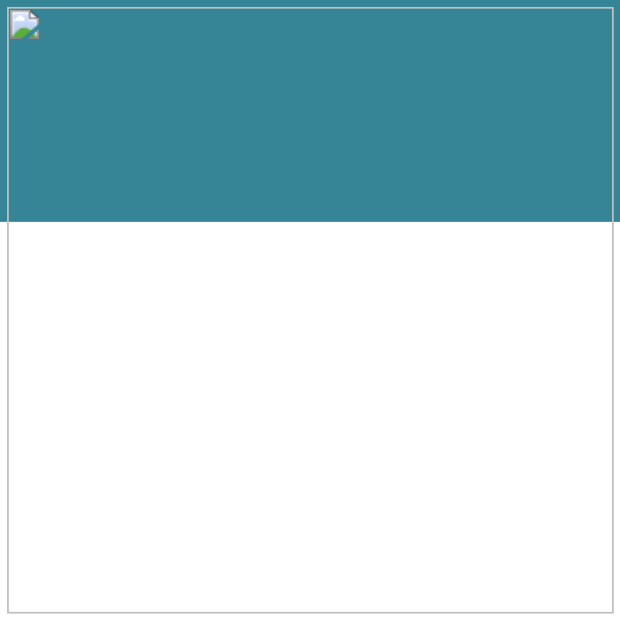
Mannatech is a publicly traded, multinational multi-level marketing firm that sells dietary supplements and personal care products. It was founded in November 1993 by Samuel Caster, and is headquartered in Flower Mound, Texas. The company's stock is traded on the NASDAQ exchange under the symbol MTEX. As of 2017, Mannatech employed 252 people and sold its products through some 220,000 independent sales associates.[1]

In 2007, Mannatech and its salespeople made false claims of anti-disease benefits about its lead product called "Ambrotose" which contains sugars derived from plants.

[tied into Gc-MAF (Gc protein-derived macrophage activating factor) - a type of protein that affects the immune system, and which has been promoted as a "miracle cure" for cancer and HIV.

According to Cancer Research UK, “there is no solid scientific evidence to show that the treatment is safe or effective”.[151] and Dr. Bradstreet murder?

“This is King George V Calling British Troops in Paris Cordless from London”



THE TRUE STORY OF THE KING’S SPEECH

December 20, 2019 fightingmonarch In 1895, Prince Albert Saxe-Coburg-Gotha was born to Victoria von Teck, Princess of Württemberg, and her husband George V. The German boy who would become George VI was a sickly and fearful child prone to tears.

When Prince Albert was three years old, Nicola Tesla, financed by Illuminist John Jacob Astor IV, set up a station in Colorado Springs, later the home of the Air Force Academy. Through it he would transmit wireless signals from Pike’s Peak to Paris.

Incidentally, you can see how Queen Elizabeth married her third cousin, Philip Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glücksburg, on the chart above. Those German-er, I mean English-royals are the product of a breeding program, just like the stuff the Nazis were into.

Monarch Fighting says “The brother of George VI, Edward Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, renamed Windsor after the castle, with seven different “Christian” names, George as an English one, Andrew as a Scots one, Patrick as an Irish one, and David as a Welsh one, became Edward VIII before he abdicated the throne to become the Duke of Windsor. He said he married for love, but he pimped his wife to a German count and Nazi war criminal, Joachim von Ribbentrop, while he encouraged Hitler to bomb London, all to get the crown back."

That isn't exaclty correct. The Breeding Program is studying the speech defect that runs in the German Royal family and with Sidney Gottlieb CIA Speech Therapist and Biologist trying to illuminate it.

Colonial Club retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Colonial Club

Colonial Club is one of the eleven current eating clubs of Princeton University in Princeton, New Jersey, United States.[2] Founded in 1891, it is the fifth oldest of the clubs. It is located on 40 Prospect Avenue.

The club occupies a large mansion on the north side of Prospect Avenue in Princeton, NJ. The building is easily recognizable by its four large white columns fashioned in Colonial style. The current building has served as the clubhouse for Colonial SINCE 1906. After originally occupying several locations farther away from campus, the current house was built during a time of strong rivalry between eating clubs, across the street from rival clubs Ivy and Cottage.

A private social club for undergraduates at Princeton University, the club was referred to as "flamboyant Colonial" in F. Scott Fitzgerald's debut novel, This Side of Paradise, and was defined as being one of the "top five" clubs along with Ivy, Cottage, Cap & Gown, and Tiger Inn. As the first eating club to both abandon the selective bicker process and become coeducational in 1969, Colonial Club has been heralded for its progressive legacy.

Colonial Club has been affiliated with over 7 Rhodes Scholars and several Valedictorians of Princeton University. Among the Princetonians who were involved in the World War II code-breaking at Bletchley Park, some were allegedly from Colonial Club.

The club has served as the primary social scene for several notable alumni during their undergraduate years, including former Colonial Club Vice President Joseph Nye ‘58, co-founder of the international relations theory of neoliberalism, Pete Conrad ‘53, third man to walk on the moon, Eric Schmidt ‘76, executive chairman of Alphabet Inc. and former CEO of Google, and Ted Cruz ‘92, U.S. Senator and candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the United States in the 2016 election.

Notables

TED CRUZ

Rafael Edward “Ted” Cruz (/kruːz/; born December 22, 1970) is an American politician and attorney serving as the junior United States Senator for Texas since 2013. A member of the Republican Party, Cruz served as Solicitor General of Texas from 2003 to 2008.

After graduating from Princeton University and Harvard Law School, Cruz pursued a career in politics. He worked as a policy advisor in the George W. Bush administration before serving as Solicitor General of Texas from 2003 to 2008. In 2012, Cruz was elected to the U.S. Senate, becoming the first Hispanic American to serve as a U.S. senator from Texas. In the Senate, Cruz has taken consistently conservative positions on economic and social policy; he played a leading role in the 2013 United States federal government shutdown, seeking to force Congress and President Barack Obama to defund the Affordable Care Act. He was reelected in an unusually close Senate race in 2018 against Democratic candidate Beto O’Rourke.

In 2016, Cruz ran for President of the United States, placing second behind Donald Trump in the Republican primaries. The competition for the Republican presidential nomination between Trump and Cruz was deeply acrimonious and characterized by a series of public personal attacks. While Cruz initially declined to endorse Trump’s campaign once he won the nomination, he later became a staunch Trump supporter during the latter’s presidency. After the January 2021 Capitol attack, Cruz provoked widespread political and popular backlash for objecting to the certification of Joe Biden’s victory in the 2020 presidential election and giving credence to the false claim that the election was stolen from Trump.[1]

CLAIBORNE PELL OF THE PELL GRANTS

Claiborne de Borda Pell GCC GCM (NOVEMBER 22, 1918 - January 1, 2009) was an American politician and writer who served as a U.S. Senator from Rhode Island for six terms from 1961 to 1997.

PETE CONRAD

Charles “Pete” Conrad Jr. (JUNE 2, 1930 - JULY 8, 1999) was an American NASA astronaut, aeronautical engineer, naval officer and aviator, and test pilot, and commanded the Apollo 12 space mission, on which he became the third person to walk on the Moon. Conrad was selected in NASA’s second astronaut class in 1962.

Before becoming an astronaut, Conrad earned his bachelor’s degree in Aeronautical Engineering from Princeton University-being the first Ivy League astronaut-and joined the U.S. Navy. In 1954 he received his naval aviator wings, served as a fighter pilot and, after graduating from the U.S. Naval Test Pilot School (Class 20), as a project test pilot. In 1959 he was an astronaut candidate for Project Mercury.

Following his commission in 1953, Conrad was sent to Naval Air Station Pensacola, Florida, for flight training. He was also trained at the Naval Air Station Corpus Christi, Texas. He was designated a Naval Aviator in September 1954[6] and became a fighter pilot. He excelled in Navy flight school, and he served for several years as an aircraft carrier-based fighter pilot in the Navy. Conrad also served as a flight instructor in Navy flight schools along the Gulf of Mexico.

Next, Conrad applied for and he was accepted by the United States Naval Test Pilot School at Naval Air Station Patuxent River, Patuxent, Maryland. His classmates were future fellow astronauts Wally Schirra and Jim Lovell. He graduated in 1958, as part of Class 20, and was assigned as a Project Test Pilot.[3]:83,146 Conrad became a captain in the U.S. Navy on December 11, 1969.

He set an eight-day space endurance record in 1965 along with his Command Pilot Gordon Cooper on his first spaceflight, Gemini 5. Later, Conrad commanded Gemini 11 in 1966, and Apollo 12 in 1969. After Apollo, he commanded Skylab 2, the first crewed Skylab mission, in 1973. On the mission, he and his crewmates repaired significant launch damage to the Skylab space station. For this, President Jimmy Carter awarded him the Congressional Space Medal of Honor in 1978.

After he retired from NASA and the Navy in 1973, he became a vice president of American Television and Communications Company. He went on to work for McDonnell Douglas, as a vice president. During his tenure, he served as vice president of marketing, senior vice president of marketing, staff vice president of international business development, and vice president of project development.

Conrad died on JULY 8, 1999, from internal injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident.

ERIC SCHMIDT

Eric Emerson Schmidt (born April 27, 1955) is an American technology businessman and software engineer. He is known for being the CEO of Google from 2001 to 2011, executive chairman of Google from 2011 to 2015,[3] executive chairman of Alphabet Inc.[4][5][6] from 2015 to 2017,[3] and Technical Advisor at Alphabet from 2017 to 2020.

As an intern at Bell Labs, Schmidt in 1975 was co-author of Lex,[8][9][10] a software program to generate lexical analysers for the Unix computer operating system. From 1997 to 2001, he was chief executive officer (CEO) of Novell.[11] He has served on various other boards in academia and industry, including the Boards of Trustees for Carnegie Mellon University,[12] Apple,[13] Princeton University,[14] and Mayo Clinic.[15]

As of 8 May 2021, Bloomberg Billionaires Index ranked Schmidt as the 70th-richest person in the world, with an estimated net worth of $24.3 billion.[2]

The Google system of “backlinks” is a British Common Law system of studying case law in courts. In Common Law the importance of precedence of early cases needs to be wieghed for the authority of those cases to be measured. Cases which were long standing from upper rulings and relied upon heavily were deemed to have great importance and this system of how many “articles” may refer to an original “article” is drawn from British Non Porfit science journals which use a similar system to study the amount of talk regarding published scientific articles.

Consider this in comparison the the British aristiocaacy creating an insider trading profit center Marconi which would become tied o the hisotory of RCA in the United States and its MKULTRA ties.

“The Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America (commonly called American Marconi) was incorporated in 1899. It was established as a subsidiary of the British Marconi Company and held the U.S. and Cuban rights to Guglielmo Marconi’s radio (then called “wireless telegraphy”) patents. American Marconi initially primarily operated high-powered land and transatlantic shipboard stations. In 1912, it acquired the extensive assets of the bankrupt United Wireless Telegraph Company, becoming the dominant radio communications provider in the United States.

“During World War One the United States government assumed control of the radio industry. After the war government officials balked at returning the American Marconi stations to the original owners, distrusting British control of radio communication due to national security concerns. Led by the U.S. Navy, the government pressured the Marconi companies to transfer American Marconi to a U.S. owner. The American Marconi assets were purchased by General Electric in 1919, which provided the foundation for creating its new subsidiary, the Radio Corporation of America.”

See this post on Monarch Fighting for the histor of King George V, the FOXP2 gene symptoms, and RCA and British studies in Speech Making tied to RCA radio development and plants to be able to communicate to China all the way by radio for defense military capabilities for insistence the boxer Rebellion.

https://fightingmonarch.com/2019/12/20/v2k-the-true-story-of-the-kings-speech/

TIM KAINE

Timothy Michael Kaine (/keɪn/; born February 26, 1958) is an American lawyer and politician serving as the junior United States senator from Virginia since 2013. A member of the Democratic Party, he served as the 38th lieutenant governor of Virginia from 2002 to 2006 and 70th governor of Virginia from 2006 to 2010. Kaine was the Democratic nominee for vice president of the United States in the 2016 election as Hillary Clinton's running mate.

Born in Saint Paul, Minnesota, Kaine grew up in Overland Park, Kansas, graduated from the University of Missouri in Columbia, Missouri, and earned a Juris Doctor degree from Harvard Law School before entering private practice and becoming a lecturer at the University of Richmond School of Law. He was first elected to public office in 1994, when he won a seat on the Richmond City Council. He was elected mayor of Richmond in 1998 and held that position until being elected lieutenant governor of Virginia in 2001. Kaine was elected governor of Virginia in 2005 and held that office from 2006 to 2010. He chaired the Democratic National Committee from 2009 to 2011.

On July 22, 2016, Hillary Clinton introduced Kaine as her vice-presidential running mate. The 2016 Democratic National Convention nominated him on July 27. Despite winning a plurality of the national popular vote, the Clinton-Kaine ticket lost the Electoral College, and thus the election, to the Republican ticket of Donald Trump and Mike Pence on November 8, 2016. Kaine was reelected to a second Senate term in 2018, defeating Republican Corey Stewart.

ANNE HOLTON

Anne Bright Holton (born February 1, 1958) is an American lawyer and judge who served as the Secretary of Education for the Commonwealth of Virginia from 2014 to 2016. She is married to United States Senator and former Virginia Governor Tim Kaine, the vice presidential running mate of Hillary Clinton in the 2016 election.

Holton served as First Lady of Virginia from 2006 to 2010. She served as interim president of George Mason University from 2019 to 2020.

Holton sits on numerous boards, including Voices of Virginia's Children, the Richmond Public Schools Education Foundation, and the advisory board of Youth-Nex, the University of Virginia Center to Promote Effective Youth Development at the Curry School of Education. She has also been active in school PTAs.[35] Holton has received the Metropolitan Richmond Women's Bar Association's Women of Achievement Award (1995),[36] the YWCA of Richmond's Outstanding Woman of the Year in Law award (2006),[35] and the Annie E. Casey Foundation's Life Award of Distinction.

Holton and Tim Kaine are congregants of the St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Richmond, a mostly African American congregation.

Holton is a longtime clog dancer, taking up the hobby in high school.

EDWARD FINCH COX

Edward Ridley Finch Cox (born October 2, 1946) is an American corporate and finance lawyer and the former chairman of the New York Republican State Committee. He is the son-in-law of President Richard M. Nixon and First Lady Pat Nixon, and the brother-in-law of Julie Nixon.

BOOTH TARKINGTON

In an essay titled "The Rise and Fall of Booth Tarkington", appearing in the November 11, 2019 issue of The New Yorker, Robert Gottlieb wrote that Tarkington "dwindled into America's most distinguished hack." Gottlieb criticized Tarkington's anti-modernist perspective, "his deeply rooted, unappeasable need to look longingly backward, an impulse that goes beyond nostalgia” for preventing him from “producing so little of real substance.”

In June 2019, the Library of America published Booth Tarkington: Novels & Stories, collecting The Magnificent Ambersons, Alice Adams, and In the Arena: Stories of Political Life.

Ranking Princeton’s Eating Clubs retrieved from CommunituNews.org and copied or modified to here

The current two and a half story Georgian Revival clubhouse was designed by Charles Follem McKim of McKim, Mead and White in 1903 and built in 1906. The library on the second floor is modeled on the 14th century library in Merton College, Oxford University. Many rooms are paneled in English oak, with carved ceilings and cornices. Great marble fireplaces grace several areas with mottoes over the mantels. In the dining room, one such carving reads “Ubi Amici Ibidem Sunt Opes” (“Where there are friends there are riches”) which has become over the years a motto of the club.

“Cottage has a fun environment that is evident from the moment you enter the front door,” writes William Haynes, 2018, club president. “On pleasant days our members can be found playing lawn games and soaking up rays. When the weather isn’t so kind, members will more likely be huddled around a fireplace playing Settlers of Catan and hanging out until the next meal. Rain or shine, our members never fail to enjoy each other’s company. Amidst the hustle and bustle of the Princeton school year, there’s no place I’d rather spend my free time than at Cottage.”

Over the years 15 members have been Rhodes Scholars. Women were admitted in 1986. Today the club’s purpose is not only to be a gathering place for meals and friendship, but also a sanctuary to study, relax, and enhance the quality of life for its current members, alumni, and their guests.

In 1999 the club was entered onto the New Jersey Register of Historic Places and the National Historic Register of Historic Places based on the architectural structure of the building and high degree of historic integrity. These recognitions will help to preserve this historic treasure for future generations.

Notable alumni: Edgar Palmer, 1903, developer; John Foster Dulles, 1908, secretary of state; James Forrestal, 1915, F. Scott Fitzgerald, 1917, author; Jose Ferrer, 1935, actor; Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, 1943, attorney general; Brendan T. Byrne, 1949, governor; Richard W. Kazmaier, 1952, Heisman Trophy winner; John McPhee, 1953, author, Pulitzer Prize winner; William W. Bradley, 1965, NBA player and U.S. senator; Robert Mueller, 1966, FBI director and special prosecutor; A. Scott Berg, 1971, author, Pulitzer Prize winner; William Frist, 1974, heart surgeon, U.S. senator; Mellody Hobson, 1991, business executive; and George Parros, 2003, Stanley Cup winning hockey player.

The Real Story Of JFK's Irish Inner Circle | Kennedy's Irish Mafia | Timeline retrieved from link and copied or modified to here irish mafia these guys were tough guys too these these guys were combat trained political operatives and they could be as nice as the days long but they they uh with the expression they didn't take prisoners they were in it to win it so you know calling him the mafia there was i think it was meant to be somewhat jocular but there was also an element there too of uh of these guys being pretty pretty tough kenny o'donnell larry o'brien and dave powers because i thought they were smart i.e they were irish and the mafia came they were tough but just after i've said they're irish i don't need to say anymore they were just as smart as anything i'd ever covered in politics

you were either in that inside group there was no one outside let in the one exception to this was perhaps jack kennedy's closest advisor he was irish but he was also his brother jack kennedy probably the last thing that he needed was to have his brother as the attorney general and i think there was reluctance on both the part of bobby and jack to see his brother become attorney general jack kennedy with his great wit was able to say well you know we felt he needed a little bit of experience and what better than being attorney general of the united states um and you know and he kidded the press that way about it but robert kennedy took that to to be a criticism and at one point the president said to his brother come on bobby you know they everybody was laughing and bobby said yes they were laughing at me but there was never any doubt that robert kennedy was going to have an important role to play in his brother’s administration the person most excluded from this irish circle was ironically the man who would one day become their boss vice president lyndon johnson who had a difficult relationship with the kennedys from the start lyndon could not dominate john kennedy either in the senate or in the presidency or he was always the junior partner i suppose he fell he was 13 14 years older and had much more experience in these problems he did not dominate john kennedy and he would have to and he did not i think he perhaps resented the junior role

i would think there was no uh on the president’s part there was a total effort to involve lyndon johnson as much as he could not totally unselfishly because he wanted linden to be a participant in the decisions good bad or indifferent lyndon johnson for a peculiar region chose to withdraw as much as possible we would go for months at a time where he wouldn’t even say anything and where the president would say what do you think about that bill going up to that committee and he’d say i don’t know he chose to not be involved but there was one area of the administration in which the vice president took an interest jobs for his friends back home the only conversations i participated in with lyndon johnson was on patronage in texas that he involved himself totally and actively the vice president would complain once a month about patronage and when he wanted to see the president uh he would wall jenkins would call me and it was almost be a demand upon this occasion he would go see the going to see the president the president would buzz me and i would go in and the conversation would go something like this i thought i told you all patronage and i had an agreement with lyndon when he took the vice presidency that all patronage would be cleared through

---

William H. Crook (1925-1997) was Baptist preacher turned politician, national director of the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) program and US Ambassador to Australia in 1961 in the JFK administration.

Crook was born in Momence, Illinois.

In 1954, Crook married Eleanor Butt, daughter of Howard Edward Butt Sr., the founder of the H-E-B grocery store chain himself a Baptist preacher and grocer.[1] They had three children, William Crook Jr., Elizabeth Crook, and Noel Moore.[1]

David Francis Powers retrieved from American History >The Assassination of JFK and copied or modified to here

David Francis Powers was born in Charlestown, Massachusetts on 25th April, 1912. Both his parents had emigrated to the United States from County Cork, Ireland. After leaving school he worked for Sampson and Murdock Publishing Company but continued his education by taking evening courses at Boston University.

In 1942 Powers joined the 14th Air Force and during the Second World War and later served with the Flying Tigers in Japan, China and Burma.

In 1946 Powers joined the political campaign of John F. Kennedy. Concentrating on the working-class neighborhood of Charlestown, Powers helped Kennedy to win the 11th Congressional district seat. Powers also helped Kennedy against Henry Cabot Lodge in the 1952 Senate race. During this period, Powers, Larry O'Brien, Matthew McCloskey and Kenneth O'Donnell became known as Kennedy's Irish Mafia.

After Kennedy's successful presidential campaign in 1960, Powers became his Special Assistant. His duties included escorting guests in the White House. Powers was also one of Kennedy's closest political advisers. Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's press secretary, said Powers was "the most gregarious and popular member of the staff." Kenneth O'Donnell said: "Outside of Bobby, President Kennedy had one really close friend and that was Dave Powers."

On the 22nd November, 1963, Powers travelled in the Secret Service car immediately behind the presidential car. Powers later admitted to Tip O'Neill that say that he was sure he had heard two shots that came from behind the Grassy Knoll fence. Kenneth O'Donnell, who was sitting next to Powers, also supported this view of the assassination. O'Donnell commented: "I told the FBI what I had heard, but they said it couldn't have happened that way and that I must have been imagining things. So I testified the way they wanted me to. I just didn't want to stir up any more pain and trouble for the family."

Assassination of John F. Kennedy Encyclopedia

President Lyndon B. Johnson kept Powers on the White House staff. For several months after the assassination, Powers had lunch with Jacqueline Kennedy every day at her house in Georgetown. Powers resigned in 1965 and later helped Robert F. Kennedy in his attempt to become president in 1968.

Powers was appointed curator of the John F. Kennedy Library and Museum in Boston from its opening in 1979. He also co-wrote Johnny, We Hardly Knew Ye: Memories of John Fitzgerald Kennedy with Kenneth O'Donnell. The book was published in 1976.

David Francis Powers died in Arlington, Massachusetts on 27th March, 1998.

Andrea Yates retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Andrea Pia Yates (née Kennedy; born JULY 2, 1964) is a former resident of Houston, Texas, who confessed to drowning her five children in their bathtub on June 20, 2001.[1] She had been suffering for some time from severe postpartum depression, postpartum psychosis and schizophrenia.

Religious influences

Media outlets alleged that Michael Woroniecki, an itinerant preacher whom Rusty had met while attending Auburn University, bears some responsibility for the deaths due to his "fire and brimstone" message, and certain teachings which were found in his newsletter titled The Perilous Times, which the Yateses had received on occasion, and which was entered into evidence at the trial.

In the aftermath of her 2006 retrial, which resulted in an insanity verdict, television journalist Chris Cuomo reported on ABC Primetime that: "[Andrea Yates's] delusions were fueled by the extreme religious beliefs of a bizarre, itinerant street preacher named Michael Woroniecki".[43][44][45][46] Both Rusty Yates and Michael Woroniecki have rejected these accusations.

At the time of the murders, the Yates family was living in the Houston suburb of Clear Lake City. She continued under Dr. Saeed's care until June 20, 2001, when Rusty left for work, leaving her alone to watch the children against Dr. Saeed's instructions to supervise her around the clock.[12] His mother, Dora Yates, had been scheduled by Rusty to arrive an hour later to take over for Andrea. In the space of that hour, Andrea drowned all five children.[13]

Andrea started with John, Paul, and Luke, and then laid them in her bed. She then drowned Mary, whom she left floating in the tub. Noah came in, and asked what was wrong with Mary. He then ran, but she soon caught and drowned him. She left him floating in the tub, and laid Mary in John's arms in the bed. She then called the police repeatedly saying she needed an officer, but would not say why. She then called Rusty, and told him to come home right away.[8]

The lie powerfull figures need to be true, powerfull in politicans and businesses skitted out under their orders by actors
Politician Allied Media and Propoganda
Stalkers Act Out Politician order Alibis and Coverups needed skitted out by mental health rolls, gov family members, media allies.
Stalkers expressively lying	Stalking Victim	Stalkers expressively lying

Baptist Chruch, Progressive Christianity, Trinity United Baptist Church Chicago, Baptist missionaries in Corpus Christi Texas, Herman Edward Butt and Laity Lodge

> We must boycott HEB and stop giving them... - Texas Independence Now | Facebook Texas Independence Now

Political Organization

This is a movement by Texans to push our state's government to secede from the United States to avoid the tyranny of a centralized government that does not respect the Constitution of the U.S. as well as the individual states and continues a dangerous policy of taxation and debt accumulation. There is no reason the state of Texas should endanger its posterity by staying with this dysfunctional Union.

https://tnm.me Texas Nationalist Movement protect Texas from the National Government

Texas Grocery Magnate Forbids 'Open Carry,' Opposes School Choice, Supports Sanctuary Cities retrieved from www.breitbart.com and copied or modified to here

Charles Butt, the Texas billionaire magnate behind the H-E-B supermarket chain which forbid the open carry of firearms law that went into effect January 1, 2016, opposes school choice, funds anti-school choice lobbyists, and is even credited for his role in killing a 2011 state bill banning "sanctuary cities."

On December 8, 1870 continues warfare against Heretics at least on an intellectual level still opposing Darwin and Evolutionary Genetics and it was 1803 bird scientist John James Audubon leaves France and its religious oppression for the USA and the Age of Reason.

The evolutionary science hidden from most may have been the basis for genetic experiments and twins studies utilizing Malcom X and still tied to Audobon genetic thought behind closed doors, safe from stigmatizing certain groups, and St HebertUS tied to Justice Scalia could be a front for them.

POPE PIUS IX (Who despises Epistemic Naturalism) AND ST JOSEPH retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> POPE PIUS IX AND ST JOSEPH Our Parish The Blessed Sacrament Staff Patron Saints St. Julian Eymard St. Joseph Who is Saint Joseph? Saint Andre devoted to Saint Joseph St. Joseph the worker Pope Pius IX and St Joseph Paul VI and Saint Joseph The Pope of St. Joseph Mother of the Americas

(On December 8, 1870, The Sacred Congregation of Rites promulgated the following decree, which communicated the decision of Pope Pius IX to declare St. Joseph Patron of the Universal Church, and which also raised St. Joseph's feast of March 19 to the rank of double of the first class.)

Quemadmodum Deus

Pope Pius IX

As almighty God appointed Joseph, son of the patriarch Jacob, over all the land of Egypt to save grain for the people, so when the fullness of time had come and He was about to send to earth His only-begotten Son, the Savior of the world, He chose another Joseph, of whom the first had been the type, and He made him the lord and chief of His household and possessions, the guardian of His choicest treasures.

Indeed, he had as his spouse the Immaculate Virgin Mary, of whom was born by the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ our Lord, who deigned to be reputed in the sight of men as the son of Joseph, and was subject to him.

Him whom countless kings and prophets had desired to see, Joseph not only saw but conversed with, and embraced in paternal affection, and kissed. He most diligently reared Him whom the faithful were to receive as the bread that came down from heaven whereby they might obtain eternal life.

…

Jen Moore: AUGUST 7: Manafort VS Gates. Getting ugly. Tenleytown

Irish American Presidents

According to my families stories things went very poorly for Irish Catholics in Boston during the 1920s through 19560 and Ulster Province Belfast Ireland fighting broke out in 1961.

Irish American Presidents retrieved from [by Claddagh Design on Oct 2 in Ireland] and copied or modified to here

A whopping 22 of the 44 US Presidents so far have been of Irish heritage, from 7 times great grandparents to direct descendants of immigrants. Although none were actually born in Ireland, if they had, they wouldn't be eligible for the Presidency, plenty have come back to visit their ancestral homes and have been welcomed by crowds of well-wishers and on occasion, a complimentary pint in their home town.

https://youtu.be/0DK-GoVkRjw and https://youtu.be/fbJKanTrf8c

Blog by Ambassador Mulhall on Black ‘47: Ireland’s Great Famine and its after-effects

Blog by Ambassador Daniel Mulhall, 3 December 2018

When I spoke at the Washington premiere of Black ’47, a new film set during the Great Famine of 1845-49, I decided to delve into the historical background to this 19th century Irish trauma. In preparation for my remarks, I spent some time reacquainting myself with an era I had not looked into seriously for quite a few years. This blog has been written with a view to highlighting for an Irish-American audience the significance of the Famine for Ireland - and for America.

On Gerry Adams and Liberty

As Sinn Féin might tell you Les Miserables is about the System being on trial, a system of feudal lords not held accountable for explotation based laws sapping the wealth, lives, and rights of the French public.

Jean Valjean as a poor man steals bread to eat and later lives his midlife in hard labor prison upon attempting escape. After fleeing late life parole under the pseudonym Monsieur Madeleine he subjects single mother Fantine to the same poverty he lived under while he runs his garment factory. Fantine sends 10 Francs a month to a her daughter Cossettes child labor home in orphanage until she dies from selling a tooth in an alley and also being forced economically into prostitution for which like stealing bread, resulted in he termination from respectable factory work.

Ireland’s Great Famine may be a footnote in 19th century European history, but it is fundamental to an understanding of Ireland’s story. What’s more, the Famine had important implications for American society and for this country’s emergence as the world’s leading economy in the period between the end of the Civil War and the outbreak of World War 1.

While there were many striking developments in Neither as a n Aristocrat nor as a thief is French society of Aristocracy acceptable to Jean.

Under Feudal reign no ruler can be forced out of office for bad industrial or labor or religious policies. Repblicanism, Liberalism, is fought for and the system itself to be overthrown, and this mirrors both Irish Potato Famiine Ireland and the Colonies of England USA.

These were the foundations of Natural Law Philosophy and the American Revolutions.

Ireland throughout the 19th century - Robert Emmet's Rising of 1803, the achievement of Catholic Emancipation in 1829, the Repeal movement of the 1840s, the Young Ireland rebellion of 1848, the emergence of the Fenians in the 1860s, the land war of the 1880s and the rise and fall of Charles Stewart Parnell between 1880 and 1891 - nothing came close to the Famine in terms of the scale of its short-term and long-term effects. Its immediate impact was devastating. It was the last incidence of mass hunger in the western world.

When potato blight made its appearance in Ireland in the second half of 1845, it caused a partial failure of the potato crop on which so many Irish people were dependent. When the blight returned in 1846 with much more severe effects on the potato crop, this created an unparalleled food crisis that lasted four years and drove Ireland into a nightmare of hunger and disease. It decimated Ireland's population, which stood at about 8.5 million on the eve of the Famine.

It is estimated that the Famine caused about 1 million deaths between 1845 and 1851 either from starvation or hunger-related disease. A further 1 million Irish people emigrated. This meant that Ireland lost a quarter of its population during those terrible years. The Famine's impact was most severe in the west of Ireland where some counties lost more than 50 per cent of their population.

The Famine's immediate impact in terms of mortality and population loss is clear. The Famine's longer-term economic and political effects require some interpretation. The most consequential of these was mass emigration from Ireland, which persisted for decades after Black ’47. Indeed, it is only in recent decades that Ireland has experienced net immigration. This massive outflow of people had serious economic and social consequences.

It is true that Irish people had been emigrating in growing numbers in the first half of the 19th century. Some 1 million crossed the Atlantic between 1800 and 1845. But the Famine turned this flow into a flood. As one historian has pointed out, more people left Ireland “in just eleven years (in the 1840s and ’50s) than in the preceding two and one-half centuries.” After 1845, emigration became something of a norm in certain parts of Ireland.

6 million people left between 1841 and 1900. This figure exceeded the total population of Ireland at the beginning of the 19th century. By 1901, Ireland’s population had been cut in half, to just 4.4 million. Indeed, the population of the island, although it has been on the rise since the early 1960s, is still short of 7 million. This makes Ireland one of the few countries in the world to suffer population decline over the past 170 years when the world’s population has increased more than six fold.

Dispute about the causes of the Famine has had a long afterlife. From the word go, Irish nationalists laid the blame squarely at the feet of the British Government and saw it as an invincible argument in favour of self-government. Historians tend to be more understanding of the undoubted inadequacies of the Famine relief effort on account of the unprecedented scale of the tragedy that beset Ireland.

Whatever view is taken about responsibility for the Famine, the fact that it had such catastrophic effects engendered a profound sense of grievance that became a death knell for the Union between Britain and Ireland. It is true that the Union survived for seven decades after the Famine, but that was because Britain was the strongest State in the world at the time and was not for turning on the Union no matter how much discontent there was in Ireland. It took the effects of a world war and a dramatically changed international environment to give Ireland an opportunity to win its independence.

The United States also felt the impact of the Irish Famine, as it became the principal recipient of the mammoth exodus that ensued. About two-thirds of all Irish emigrants in the last six decades of the 19th century came to this country. Most Americans today who have an Irish family background are descended from those who arrived here at that time.

Together with the 5 million Germans and the millions of Scandinavians who arrived alongside them, Irish immigrants changed the demography of this country. As the historian David Reynolds puts it: “During the decade from 1845 the United States opened its doors to 3 million people, proportionately the biggest influx in US history … Although many Germans settled in rural areas, the Irish flocked overwhelmingly to America’s burgeoning cities … “.

The Irish met with resistance from nativist movements in a country that had hitherto been populated primarily by people of British stock. Irish newcomers, with their poverty and their Catholicism, were seen as a threat to the established order. In 1844, there were deadly riots in Philadelphia during which lives were lost and Catholic Churches were burned. The Order of the Star-Spangled Banner was founded in 1850. It later became known as the ‘Know-Nothings’ and eventually the American Party, which was anti-Catholic and hostile to immigrants, especially the Irish. After some initial electoral success, this political movement fizzled out as divisions about race took centre stage. These lead to the Civil War in which Irish immigrants fought bravely and thus became part of the fabric of modern America, contributing to, and benefiting from, America’s economic transformation in the closing decades of the 19th century.

Hostility towards post-Famine Irish immigrants probably helped give them a sense of cohesion as they sought to make their presence felt in American politics. The memory of the Famine, and the continued flow of arrivals from Ireland, also helped keep Irish immigrants connected with their homeland. Indeed, they became a notable factor in Irish politics, supporting Irish nationalist movements, supplying them with financial and moral sustenance. Irish Americans helped keep the desire for Irish independence alive during those difficult post-Famine decades.

Writing back in the 1970s, the historian Gearóid Ó Tuathaigh summed up Irish America's influence on Ireland beautifully:

"The struggle was destined to a protracted and, at times, frustrating one. But the sons and grandsons of the famine exiles were determined to see it through to the end … Only then could the accusing ghost of 'black '47' be finally laid." (Ireland before the Famine, p. 227).

The continued existence of an Irish American identity is a legacy of the Irish famine and its aftermath with the formation of an extensive Irish community that was both determined to assert its position within American society and also to retain its affiliation with its ancestral homeland.

The film Black '47, does a great service in bringing the Famine to the big screen for the first time. It is a fine dramatic film and well worth watching for its own sake, but it does also serve to remind us of the scale and severity of the Great Famine, and of its enormous significance for the subsequent history of Ireland - and of Irish America.

Daniel Mulhall is Ireland's Ambassador to the United States

[… 1960 to present

John F Kennedy

Arguably the most well known (and well-loved) US President, John F Kennedy also has the strongest Irish lineage, with all four of his grandparents hailing from the Emerald Isle. His paternal grandfather was born and raised in New Ross, County Wexford, while his maternal grandfather hailed from County Limerick. Raised in Massachusetts and New York, the Kennedy dynasty is the definition of Irish-American and the charming John Francis easily won over Americans when his election came around - although his stellar military performance and political persona also helped things! Hailed as an Irish hero, Kennedy toured Ireland five months before his assassination in 1963, followed by throngs of well-wishers everywhere he went. He was the first foreign leader to address the Houses of the Oireachtas and also received two honorary degrees during his short 4-day visit. He and his wife Jackie visited Galway were presented with a pair of Claddagh Rings to honour Kennedy's Irish roots. He must have liked it as he was photographed wearing it throughout his trip.

Ronald Reagan

Ronald Reagan's great grandparents, like so many others, were Irish Catholic immigrants. They travelled to the US in search of a new life. Born in Illinois in 1911, Reagan forged a career for himself in show business, becoming a film, radio and television actor. During this time he was also a secret FBI informant, providing details to the government of any high-profile actors he suspected to be communist sympathisers. After a stint as Governor of California he had an unsuccessful presidential bid, eventually winning his first term of office in 1981. He is well regarded among historians as steering America through such trying times as the Cold War, a wave of drug addiction in various cities, and a volatile economy.

George H W Bush

If you go back far enough in the family tree of the Bush family, it would appear that the 41st President of the United States, George H W Bush (or George Bush Senior), has an ancestor somewhat famous in the Irish history books; Richard de Clare. He was otherwise known as the Earl of Pembroke, or more commonly known as Strongbow himself! Shunned by King Henry II, he joined the 12th century Norman invasion of Wexford in exchange for power and land and subsequently married the King of Leinster's daughter, Aoife, and gained succession rights to the province. Somewhere along the way, an ancestor travelled across the water, and the Bush family was the result.

Bill Clinton

During Bill Clintons two terms of office from 1993 - 2001 he contributed greatly to the Northern Ireland peace process. His motivation for which seemed to be out of more than just diplomatic duty according to historians. He visited the North in 1995 and gave a rousing speech in favour of peace, and during negotiations of the Good Friday Agreement in 1998 encouraged all parties involved to reach a resolution via several telephone calls. He visited Ireland again in 2013 and received a hero’s welcome.

Barack Obama

Former President Barack Obama ties to the Emerald Isle come from his mother’s side; his third great grandfather, Fulmouth Kearney. His third great grandfather left the small village of Moneygall in County Offaly for New York in 1850. After hearing of his Irish heritage, Barack and Michelle Obama travelled to Moneygall in 2011, where he enjoyed a pint in the local pub before giving a speech to thousands of onlookers on Dublin’s College Green. His visit to Offaly has been honoured with the Barack Obama Plaza, which is (of all things) a petrol station, fast food restaurant and convenience store.

Baptists

Is Nancy Detweiler of North Carolina Nancy L Kutscher Birth Year: 1949 of North Carolina, as was Festus Gainery who my mother lived on the farm with in extreme poverty until about 8 or 9 years old, THEN adopted by the DuPont employed Herbert, Harold, and Dot Dew family, Harold working on fibers and strength testing, not sure what Herbert did for DuPont.

Ann Nancy Donegan 1933 - 2016

DONEGAN, Ann Nancy (Warner) 82, of New Britain, CT, passed from this life surrounded by her loving family on FEBRUARY 20, 2016.

ancy was born in Boston, MA, on May 24, 1933, to the late Joseph A. Warner and Gertrude (Crowe) Warner. She grew up in Watertown, MA and graduated from Matignon High School in 1951. Nurtured by a very special nun and teacher, she developed a lifelong passion for literature, theater, and the arts.

in 1956. Nancy married her first husband, the late A. Joseph Donegan in 1957. The two made their home in Brockton, MA for over 27 years where they raised their two children and developed many lasting and meaningful friendships. Nancy was anything but a conventional woman. She was active in Brockton's thriving cultural and artistic community in the 1960's and 70's, where she acted, sang and danced in numerous local theatre productions. She co-owned an antique store: Etcetera in Brockton.

Nancy moved to New Britain, CT. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Carmel (Donegan) and Peter Bennett of Kensington, CT, her son Anthony Donegan of Brockton, MA, her grandchildren Connor Joseph Bennett and Julia Ann Sui Bennett of Kensington, CT, Seamus Donegan and Javier Donegan of Brockton, MA, her sister and brother-in-law Joan (Warner) and Joseph McHugh of Dedham MA, her cousin, Maureen (O'Connell) Palmer of Hanover, MA, as well as many beloved relatives, nieces and nephews. Nancy was predeceased by a brother, Hon. Joseph P. Warner and his wife Jane Warner. She is also survived by her husband Walter's children, Peter Davis and his wife Jana of Carmel, IN, Alison Greenberg and her husband Paul of Milford, CT, Mark Davis of Boston, MA, Cathy Davis of Pawtucket, RI, and Elizabeth Davis of Coventry, CT, as well as his grandchildren, Erin Davis, of Chicago, IL, Curtis Porter, of Bangor, ME, Alec Greenberg of Milford, CT, and Rebecca Greenberg of Shelton, CT. A gathering of Nancy's family to remember and celebrate her life will be held at a future time.

Harold Hand Donegan in the Massachusetts, State and Federal Naturalization Records, 1798-1950
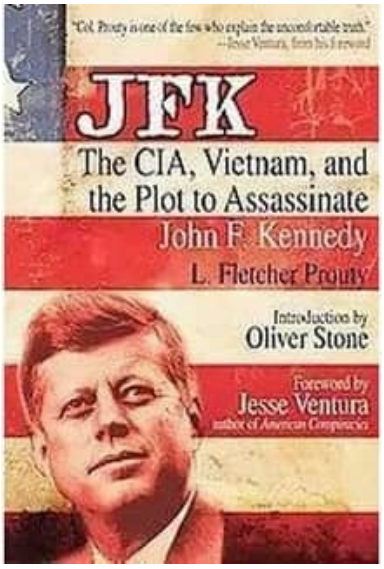
Name: Harold Hand Donegan
Declaration Age: 22

Record Type: Declaration
Birth Date: 6 Feb 1906
Birth Place: Matlock Derbyshire, England
Arrival Date: 30 Nov 1910
Arrival Place: Detroit, Michigan
Declaration Date: 17 NOV 1927
Declaration Place: Boston, Massachusetts, USA
Declaration Number: 201792

Harold Donegan Funeral Service 10:00 am Monday, APRIL 1 2013
Evergreen Baptist Church, Huntington, NY



Fletcher Prouty Leroy Fletcher Prouty (January 24, 1917 - June 5, 2001) served as Chief of Special Operations for the Joint Chiefs of Staff under President John F. Kenned (book)

JFK: The CIA, Vietnam, and the Plot to Assassinate John F. Kennedy

Nancy Detweiler Bio

ProgressiveChristianity.org
https://www.pathwaytoascension.com/
New Age Christianity

4810 Pt. Fosdick Dr. NW #80 Gig Harbor, WA 98335 USA

https://pathwaytoascension.wordpress.com/2013/01/15/all-earth-humans-share-dna-with-our-star-families/

As a child, I questioned the dichotomy of a God of Love and a God who punishes for eternity in a hell of fire and brimstone. As my mother liked to say, my family attended church every time the doors opened, so I heard a lot about both characteristics of the God we worshipped. Finally, at age 14 (1963?), I decided that the only thing I could do was to volunteer to be a missionary and attempt to warn people about this unpredictable God before it was too late.

Is this really the message the church wants to teach a young person?Anyway, I earned my B.A. in Social Studies/Education at Wake Forest University and worked as a Social Worker for four years. In 1965, I entered the M.Div. program at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

PRESIDENT & CEO, BAPTIST HEALTH Hugh Greene

PRESIDENT (ret.) & CEO (ret.), BAPTIST HEALTH Hugh Greene

A. Hugh Greene is President and Chief Executive Officer of Baptist Health, a comprehensive community-based health system that is comprised of five hospitals. Mr. Greene holds a master’s degree in Health Administration from the Medical College of Virginia and a master’s degree of Divinity from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Wake Forest University where he was Phi Beta Kappa.

Local to Corpus Christi possible involvement

Unitarian Universalist Church of Corpus Christi http://uucorpus.org/

6901 Holly Rd
Corpus Christi, Texas 78414
(361) 986-8855

We look forward to hearing from you! To reach our minister or staff members, visit their profiles on our Staff page. For general inquiries, or if you're not sure who to be in touch with, write us below and we'll be sure to get back to you as soon as we can.

Know Thyself: The Pathway to Ascension into Multi-Dimensional Selfhood Nancy B. DETWEILER, M.Ed., M.Div.

Update by Sheldan Nidle for the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Galactic Federation 3 Batz, 9 Zac, 2 Ik — FEBRUARY 20, 2007

By Nancy Detweiler

MESSAGES FROM OUR GALACTIC FAMILY retrieved from https://pathwaytoascension and copied or modified to here

Selamat Jarin! We come again bringing more information about your world and the current status of first contact. Our Earth allies are on the very brink of being able to put into effect their plans for global transformation. A series of coordinated maneuvers in the past few weeks have finally got the last dark cabal on the run, which is making possible the long-promised deliveries of the prosperity programs to their most anxious recipients. This aspect of the grand plan is only able to happen because those working for the ouster of the present US administration are very close to achieving this objective. Likewise, the announcements of global debt annulment and the range of new international banking laws are ready to roll at a moment's notice. All this is kept under wraps by a mainstream media focusing instead on America's steadily worsening Iraqi affray. For us, the vital hardcore news is the covert end game between the old guard of Illuminati rulers and those intending to reshape your world's present collapsing reality.

The significance behind this "chess game" is that your world is to be completely transfigured, which is why your rulers are intent on keeping your attention directed toward the war in the Middle East. This dastardly “production” is being used as a smokescreen to disguise the all-out confrontation raging between the dark cabal and their rivals, our Earth allies. During the course of this conflict, a great deal of masquerading by both sides was undertaken to achieve their goals. These strategies allowed our Earth allies to develop a broad game plan, which is at last bringing this hapless cabal to its knees. But inevitably, a few minor points remain outstanding. These are now being resolved and we expect some major developments to happen shortly. We retain our role of official watchdog and intelligence advisor to our Earth allies on a spectrum of matters, ranging from the reformation of the global banking system to the most effective way to conduct the removal of many recalcitrant regimes around the world. We have also been permitted to draw up a detailed program for rectifying your multitude of global environmental crises.

Reforming a planetary society with the complexity of yours in no easy matter. Our Earth allies have gone through some difficult initiations since the Anunnaki, your former overlords, came over to the side of the Light in the mid-1990s. Today, the allies constitute a hodgepodge of individuals and groups that were at first very much at odds with each other. Later on, in the early years of this century, they increasingly joined forces until they now work surprisingly well together. They have forged an exhaustively detailed plan for bringing about a wholly new world, and 90 per cent of these plans are already agreed upon; the remaining 10 per cent is dependent upon the uprooting of the American regime. Over the past five years, this illicit regime squeezed the global money flow until it is now very difficult to conduct business internationally. This angered many who formerly approved of the self-serving ways of the dark cabal and led to a spate of new rules and regulations being drafted and put into place for quick enactment.

What is happening now is the final maneuvering-into-position by a secret global coalition intent on legally expulsing the present US regime. As you can image, this is a complex undertaking that began in the post-WWII era. The growing arrogance of various corporate and allied wealthy individuals forged an interwoven global complex whose goal was to dismantle the legal constructs that hold this democratic republic together. This was clearly perceived by early members of the secret coalition who had long worked in government and saw at first hand what was going on around them. This strengthening power grab by a rich and corporate America reached its first pinnacle in the 1960s, reaching new heights in the 1980s and 1990s. By this time, a number of ongoing court cases brought by this pro-democratic coalition were challenging what had become a dictatorial oligarchy intent on creating a corporate-based, non-democratic American Empire. The epitome of this is the present US regime.

The dark cabal set up the present US administration to complete a process begun in the closing days of WWII. But a growing body of patriotic and disgruntled government employees and assorted allies clearly understood what was covertly being done to hijack the American Republic. The focus of this underground group was on legally remedying these abuses and returning the fiscal resources pilfered by the dark. They also saw that both political parties were becoming puppets for the empire-building programs of the dark. The opposing sides finally engaged in an all-out clash in the late 1990s, a highlight of which was the stolen election of 2000. With this contemptible act, it became clear that the needed reforms were not going to be enacted by the now-degenerated US political system. Equally clear was the need for creating an effective alternative to this system and putting it into power. The upshot is the present bunch of policies advocated by our Earth allies.

This means that the imminent economic, political, and governmental changes are the counter-measures to a vast covert coup that has successfully hijacked the US government and converted it into the chief agent for clamping your entire global society in a vice of slavery. This was to have been extant by the late 1990s had it not been for the Anunnaki’s changing sides. We emphasize this repeatedly to establish a central point: The reverberating changes in this galaxy’s politics are being mirrored by events happening locally on your world. This is why our original first contact mission took on new meaning and scope, and why Heaven drastically revised the early-1990’s timetable. First contact morphed from the more usual swift paradigm shift into a more involved and gradual process, in which your spiritual awakening was externally represented in the remaking of your political, cultural, and economic environments.

The recasting of your reality includes a gently increasing exposure to our benign presence. This variegated operation has already provided a substantial escalation in sightings over the past five years and, to a lesser extent, in the increase of interaction between our crews and yourselves. Our intent is to make you aware that we are here, and that we are set on completing this first contact mission in as reasonable a timeframe as is divinely given us. Bear in mind that this mutual first-contact learning-curve applies to you as much as it does to us; you, too, have much to learn about our reality and how we live, work, and play. From this perspective, you can see that a lot must be fitted in to a rapidly decreasing amount of time. These time constraints put considerable pressure upon our Earth allies to get their part done, and then let us do the rest.

Our part in all this is to set up our crews with the most efficacious approach for carrying out the mass landing procedure. All indications so far point to doing it in one fell swoop. From experience, we have discovered that a piecemeal approach simply doesn't work on your planet. Recent experimental attempts in various isolated areas with the less inculcated peoples still stirred up over-stimulation and considerable resistance. Based on this, we now intend to stick with an intervention en mass at the divinely appointed time. This will also ensure that all goes as planned. But prior to this, you will need a series of awareness-raising broadcasts in order to remove, to the extent that we require, the deep-seated xenophobia ingrained in you since childhood. Happily, the time for all this is drawing nigh!

Today, we continued our discussion about the coming great changes and how these relate to the first contact mission. We feel it is important that you grasp what a monumental operation this is turning out to be. But whatever the challenges, we can and will succeed in this divinely prescribed mission. Remember, Together, We are indeed Victorious! Know in your Heart of Hearts that the perpetual Supply and infinite Abundance of Heaven are indeed Yours! Selamat Majon! Selamat Kasitaram! (Sirian for Rejoice! and Be Blessed in Heavenly Love and Joy!)

Update by Dr. Salla for June 25, 2020

US Congress asks for UFO Report from Intel Community in 180 days The US Sen ate Select Committee for Intelligence has just approved a bill that includes a request for the Intelligence Community to write up a comprehensive report on Unidentified Aerial Phenomena (UAPs, aka UFOs) in 180 days. Most importantly, the report will be unclassified, meaning that its findings are intended to be released to the general public.

Painting of Semjase - a Pleiadian

"And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth and daughters were born to them, that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were fair; so they took them wives of all whom they chose…. There were giants on the earth in those days; and also after that, for the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bore children to them, and they became giants who in the olden days were mighty men of renown." (Genesis 6:1-2, 4)

By distinguishing between the sons of God and the sons of men, the biblical writer indicated two different types of humans were living on Earth. The sons of God were so considered because they were much more advanced in their evolutionary progress than the sons of men. The sons of God were the extraterrestrials. Many could be considered giants because our Star brothers and sisters from many Star systems tend to be taller. For example, Altairians, from the Altairian Solar System, range in height from 7 to 8.5 feet. [i] Earth humans would naturally consider them to be mighty men of renown, not only because they were taller, but because they were more advanced technologically, if not also spiritually, than Earth humans.

Pathway To Ascension

https://pathwaytoascension.com/galactic/galactic_messages40.html Message to our Galactiv Family

On March 8 2021 I went to Catholic Charities and told of St Josephs Daniel Freedman hospital Soon afterward

> Activist Milo Yiannopoulos is now ‘Ex-Gay,’ consecrating his life to St. Joseph ‘Secular attempts at recovery from sin are either temporary or completely ineffective. Salvation can only be achieved through devotion to Christ and the works of the Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.’ Tue Mar 9, 2021 *

Milo like LGBTA activist Steve Elmendorf of Episcopalian Trinity College has insidght that 3rd party parentig and other technology could be an enormous opportunity for gay couplee, and I also thin, the Michelle Obama move of using a non female at birth was designed to create a non conficit with mitochondira of Obama children.

The Smoking Gun IF the rest of the context is known https://wikileaks.org/podesta-emails/emailid/6008

RE: Thanks

From:elmendorf@teamsubjectmatter.com
To: john.podesta@gmail.com
Date: 2016-02-09 20:56
Subject: RE: Thanks

I am all in

Sounds like it will be a bad nite , we all need to buckle up and double down

> From: John Podesta [mailto:john.podesta@gmail.com]
> Sent: Tuesday, February 09, 2016 4:36 PM
> To: Steve Elmendorf elmendorf@teamsubjectmatter.com
> Subject: Thanks
>
> Didn’t think WET WORKS meant pool parties at the Vineyard.

Cartel Formation and Functional Structure of a Cartel slight of hand charity accountancy

- The Cartel used Glorian Donegan DNA which is tied to creativity, leadership, and production.
- The Cartel denies that any leadership or value adding traits resided in the Genome of Glorian Donegan and denies it has used it extensively.
- The value of the genome in me has demonstrated value added and leadership activities but those who are recipients of Glorian’s DNA attempt to team themselves with my activities and make themselves appear to be the original source of economic and other leadership, thus I am only loaned that value creating attribute which appears to be sourced from team members, not me independently.
- A part of the Cartel’s acceptance is in the forced teaming with me of unwanted religions or other partnership the project, the Cartel, is accepted by charitable practices standards followers via both excuses for the conduct as part of some good fight and also that the project will offer employment and benefits to who join the project.

If in particular in a racial lens the DNA which contains economic and political leadership qualities is viewed as source in Africa in places like Ethiopia or evenly around the entire globe, it is less likely to be traced to Glorian or her offspring.

A persecution I have experienced in the United States is unwanted behavioral care hostile to the achievements and normal life I would normally have been a part of, and through elder abuse forcing me into barren environments from normal living contexts of a normal person.

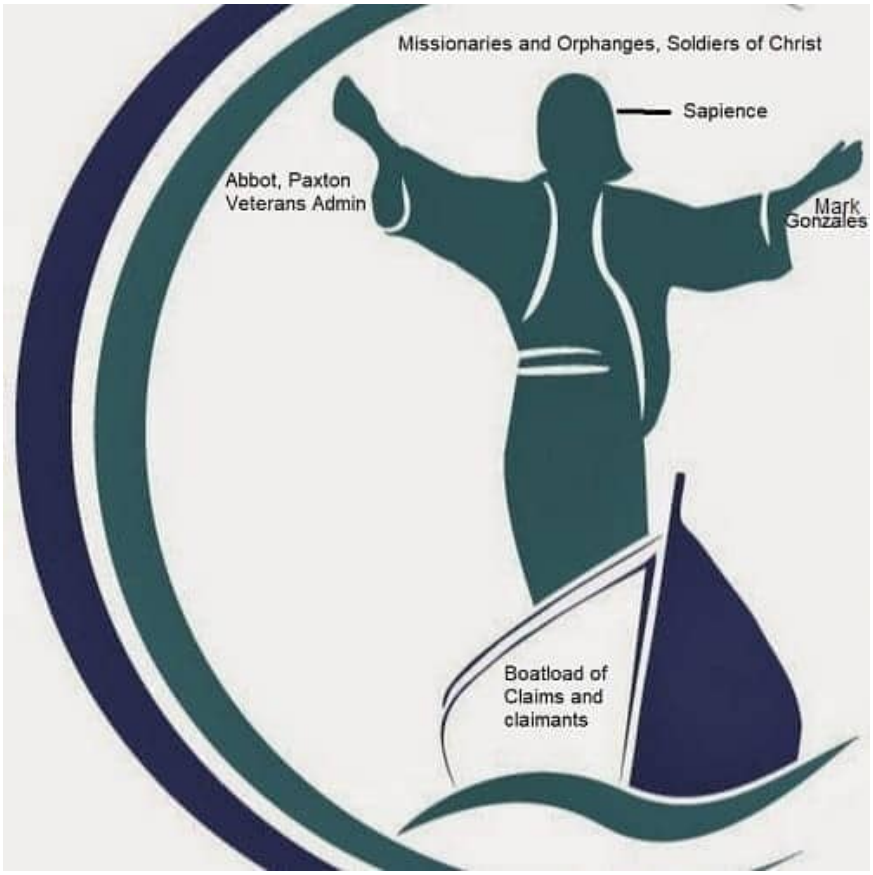
This will be true in many areas of my life including my highly affective gym and diet plan which lowered my A1c from 13.3 to 4.7, but became resource availability throttled and the activity of it no longer within my economic reach.

Similarly as my home improvement work was coming to fruition in Corpus Christi I faced assaults within my home, balcony, was harassed, and under a new leasing company conversion to condos, I will loose all I achieved and others will live under and realize the improved apartment units.

First United Methodist Corpus Christi

In Texas God has a plan for everything and those who support that plan are in office

I don’t know who has or is willing to pursue the whole truth of this story but my mother’s ovumn were harvested in 2007/2008 during a cancer biopsy and surgrery, hysterectomy. How dos that compare with Cord Cells?



Gregory Wayne Abbott is an American attorney and politician serving as the 48th and current governor of Texas since 2015. A member of the Republican Party, he served as 50th attorney general of Texas from 2002 to 2015. He is the third governor of any U.S. state to permanently use a wheelchair. Wikipedia who has personal awareness of spinal injury research needs other would not apreciate as without the experience base of this governor. It is he who aproved Jane Helm 15, said to actually support Obama based programs

Greg Abbott, Governor of Texas Born: Gregory Wayne Abbott, NOVEMBER 13, 1957, Wichita Falls, Texas, U.S.

Ministries of Texas Religion create false flag to sue my genetic legacy and blame me for false flags undermining my life and Reproductivity.

Staged Events, Grandstanding, Campaigning against Foes, Witchunting

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

STAGECRAFT

In its most basic form, stagecraft may be executed by a single person (often the stage manager of a smaller production) who arranges all scenery, costumes, lighting, and sound, and organizes the cast.

GRANDSTANDING

the action of behaving in a showy or ostentatious manner in an attempt to attract favorable attention from spectators or the media. “they accused him of political grandstanding”

Definitions from Oxford Languages

POSTURING

Having a posture towards a person or entity which conveys feelings, sentiments, or fearful or angry suspicions though not including statements or debate or commentary

HOAX

A hoax is a falsehood deliberately fabricated to masquerade as the truth. It is distinguishable from errors in observation or judgment,[1] rumors, urban legends, pseudosciences, and April Fools’ Day events that are passed along in good faith by believers or as jokes.[2]

STAGED - DICTIONARY.COM

1. adapted for or produced on the stage.

2. contrived for a desired impression: It was a staged, rather than spontaneous, demonstration of affection.

3. occurring or planned to occur in stages: a staged increase in wages.

FRAUDULENT

1. acting with or having the intent to deceive.

2. relating to or proceeding from fraud or dishonest action. (C15: from Latin fraudulentus deceitful)

What is the fraud triangle? retrieved from https://www.breathehr.com/ and copied or modified to here

The fraud triangle is a theory created by American criminologist Donald Cressey. It is used to explain what leads people to commit fraud or other unethical behaviour. As the name suggests, it has three elements. These are pressure, rationalisation and opportunity.

The three elements of the fraud triangle

Pressure

Pressure is the motivation behind fraud and is regarded as 'unresolvable' by the person experiencing it; they see no alternative to dealing with their situation. The pressure is often financial - debts, a drug habit or lifestyle expectations are common sources of pressure.

Pressure may also be emotional. For instance, pressure to perform a certain way or achieve set goals may cause an individual to 'cook the books' to make it look as if they have delivered.

Rationalisation

The perpetrator will be able to justify their action. It's important to remember that cases of fraud are often committed by first-time criminals who see themselves as a victim of circumstances rather than a villain.

The individual may feel hard done by and see fraud as a form of payback. Some view their fraud as ‘borrowing’ goods or money while some see it as payment they’re owed.

Others might justify it by saying the fraud occurs against a company which can afford the loss, or that because the fraud is insured against, there are ‘no losers’.

Opportunity

Fraud can only take place if there is the opportunity to commit the crime. Provided the pressure and rationalisation are present, a potential perpetrator will look for the opportunity to commit fraud.

It might be a temporary situation where the risk of being caught is low. Alternatively, the individual may have access to banking details, cheque books or passwords which make it easy for them to commit fraud.

Goods might be easy to access or inventoried infrequently making it easy for staff to pilfer without anyone noticing.

How to spot fraudulent behaviour

SMEs can take several steps to prevent employee fraud, focused on the three areas of the fraud triangle. Here are a few examples.

Relieve the pressure that drives fraudulent behaviour

The pressure that drives someone to commit fraud will affect other areas of their life. For your part as their employer, a focus on workplace wellbeing can help reduce pressure or make it easier to identify and deal with the intense pressure that may push an employee towards fraud.

> My belief, Edward Paul Donegan, is repeated false and crime rewarding fraudelnt claims against me will be staged and paid until the source of the machine’s need, the cartel’s need, is explained, that the > genome usage in other families use was always illegal, motivated by the qaulity of the DNA, and now staged events are selling a story, a narrative of how my genome came into usage by religions at our wishes, the Donegans, which is not our wishes but being potrayed. The genome is more valuable than claimants to it admit. They claim claim it is Donegan wishes, such as re-imbursing religious with out DNA to get us “off the hook” for harms to those religions.

Religion sabotaging and blaming their victims, my family, with further misconduct towards us.

That is what the Goth Domina or other adult model thinks.

“The Möbius strip has several curious properties. A line drawn along the edge travels in a full circle to a point opposite the starting point. If continued, the line returns to the starting point, and is double the length of the original strip: this single continuous curve traverses the entire boundary.”

Having Dopples and Sock Puppets as the other side of me at various locations it can become confusing to observers elsewhere who was the real person visible as the criminal as the same clothing creates the crossover of surfaces of Identity Tx and Identity Rx

“In mathematics, orientability is a property of surfaces in Euclidean space that measures whether it is possible to make a consistent choice of surface normal vector at every point. * “

Jade Helm 15 may be Extortion 17 may be Pizzagate may be MKULTRA

> In July, the U.S. Army Special Operations Command began the eight-week military training exercise over several southwestern states, FactCheck.org reported.
>
> Participating were members of the Green Berets, Navy SEALs and other special operations forces.

> The Army Command said in a statement that it “periodically conducts training exercises such as these to*[utilize] practice core special warfare tasks*, which help protect the nation[(s) leaders] against foreign enemies [the truth].”
>
> The Army Command said that the size and scope of this exercise made it different from others; training took place on private and public land throughout Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Utah (The Gadget) and Colorado [NORAD]. The military secured permission for all sites.

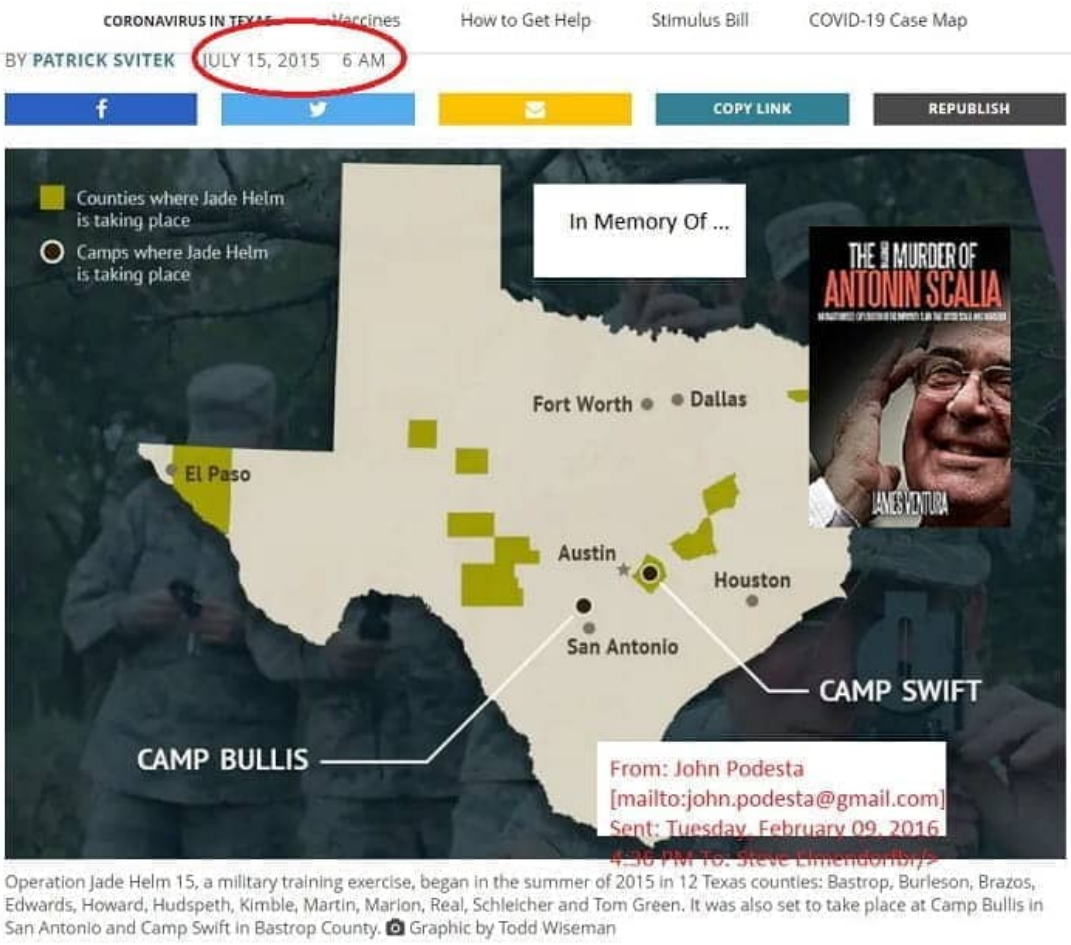
” BY PATRICK SVITEK JULY 15, 2015 *

Is Jade Helm 15 and Extortion 17 the same thing, Religions shaking down my trust fund for orphanages and foreign economies around the world, and making an Atheist look bad? Religions being the good guys and needing control over the Atheist?

The Jade Helm 15 conspiracy theories were based on the Jade Helm 15 United States military training exercise which took place in multiple U.S. states between July 15 and September 15,2015.

“Jade” from the neighborhood is providing minors as models. Later the Atheist who photographed the models will be blackmailed by a Victoria Secret or other adult model when she discovers child minors provocatively photographed. The Atheist (an impersonator of Edward Donegan) owes religions and the community Human Genome as agreed to by the US Marshalls, others, who will confront the Atheist ove rhis porn stash, and Religious will get genomic rights.

A “Jade” from the neighborhood did OFFER that once and I said no. Oddly she was highly bitter to me later and I think SHE was duped about what my real interest where.



Operation Jade Helm 15, a military training exercise, began in the summer of 2015 in 12 Texas counties: Bastrop, Burleson, Brazos, Edwards, Howard, Hudspeth, Kimble, Martin, Marion, Real, Schleicher and Tom Green. It was also set to take place at Camp Bullis in San Antonio and Camp Swift in Bastrop County. Graphic by Todd Wiseman

From: John Podesta [mailto:john.podesta@gmail.com] Sent: Tuesday, February 09, 2016 4:36 PM To: Steve Elmendorfbr/> elmendorf@teamsubjectmatter.com
Subject: Thanks

Didn’t think wet works meant pool parties at the Vineyard.

From:elmendorf@teamsubjectmatter.com
To: john.podesta@gmail.com
Date: 2016-02-09 20:56
Subject: RE: Thanks

I am all in Sounds like it will be a bad nite , we all need to buckle up and double down

Tx takes the photo and and Tx seems to look like Rx. Both Tx and Rx are being flashed by a minor Michelle Obama and Jill Biden Tearfully Hold Their Final 'Joining Forces' Event: 'We're Family' First Lady Michelle Obama counts Dr. Jill Biden as one of her "dearest friends" * *

The White House

Office of the Vice President (NOVEMBER 18)

For Immediate Release FEBRUARY 20, 2015

Remarks as Prepared for Delivery by Dr. Jill Biden at DREAM 2015

Good morning! Thank you for that warm welcome!

I'd like to thank Robin, for that wonderful introduction. I think she is the perfect example of why this convening and your work is so important. Let's give another round of applause for Robin - what an amazing student.

I also want to thank Achieving the Dream for inviting me to be part of this incredible effort to help more community college students succeed. As a community college professor who was grading papers on the way up here this morning, your work is very close to my heart.

When the President and Vice President were first elected to the White House in 2008, I told my husband Joe that I would use my position as Second Lady to highlight the critical role of community colleges in creating the best, most-educated workforce in the world. I also wanted to continue teaching full-time as well. So, one week after inauguration, I was back in the classroom. Because, teaching is not what I do; it is who I am.

I have been an educator for more than 30 years, and I have spent the last 20 years teaching at community colleges. Every day in my classroom I see the power of education to break down barriers, and to open students' eyes to the possibilities around them. I have students who attend classes on top of a full-time job. I teach moms who are juggling jobs and child care while preparing for new careers. I have many students working toward attending a four-year university.

Many of my students have doubts when they first arrive at college. - They are unsure of their future, unaware of the abilities they possess. Then, two years later, those same students proudly accept their diplomas, knowing that they have achieved something that can never be taken away from them. It's a feeling you can get at most universities, but it's especially strong at community colleges - where the gap between what is imagined at the beginning and what is achieved at the end can be so wide.

I can honestly say that my students are my heroes. I am profoundly moved by their determination to learn, and their quest to make a better life for themselves and their families. But, we all know that the responsibility for educating students is not the student's alone. It is a responsibility that belongs to all of us.

As a lifelong educator, I am proud to be part of an administration that is committed to investing in our students, and restoring the promise of the American education system.

In the depths of the recession, this administration saw higher education as critical to our plans to revitalize the American economy, and moved quickly to support students and their families. We increased the dollar amount of Pell Grants as well as the number of students who qualify; increased tuition tax credits; let students cap their federal student loan payments at 10 percent of their income; and streamlined the financial aid process. We have invested two billion dollars into over 1,000 colleges, to strengthen partnerships between community colleges and employers to create the next generation of skilled workers.

Just last year, the President and my husband Joe, the Vice President, launched an apprenticeship initiative-a partnership among community colleges and employers-to provide a career pathway for students and workers. And, as you heard during the State of the Union, President Obama announced his plan to make two years of community college free for responsible students.

Over the last six years, we have made real progress, but our work is nowhere near finished. This administration will continue to make education a top priority because we believe all Americans deserve the opportunity to reach their full potential.

But, I am not a politician. I am an English professor. At one time, I was also a college student. I remember what it was like to go back to school while working and raising three children. It wasn't easy. Even though it took me 15 years to earn two Master's degrees and eventually my Doctorate, I kept at it because education is my passion. That's also one of the reasons why my dissertation focused on student retention in community colleges.

Currently, nearly half of the 18 million undergraduate students attend one of America's Community Colleges. Yet, less than half of students who attend a community college will either graduate or transfer to a four-year school within six years.

Helping more students go to college, stay in school and earn their diploma is vital to the future our economy-to ensuring our country has a thriving middle class-because by the end of this decade two-thirds of all job openings will require some form of higher education.

When I started teaching at Northern Virginia Community College, one of the things I wanted to do was help women who are returning to school. So, I started the Women's Mentoring Project, which pairs women who are over 30 with a faculty member.

As part of the program, I helped one woman who was writing her scholarship essay for a four-year university. Her path had not been easy. She left an abusive relationship and was homeless, living in her car with her two kids. Once she got into a homeless shelter, she was encouraged to attend a community college, where I met her as part of a women's mentoring project. She went on to a four-year university where she earned her accounting degree and is creating a better life for herself and her family.

That is what community college is all about. Community colleges do not pick and choose their students; we work with students to help them become who they aspire to be. Our Administration is committed to strengthening that mission and ensuring that the students who need help the most, receive the support they deserve.

As I have traveled around the country as Second Lady, I have seen firsthand that the leadership of faculty and administration at community colleges makes transformative change on their campuses to help improve outcomes for their students.

I visited Delgado Community College in New Orleans a few years ago. Like a lot of community colleges across America after the recession, Delgado saw a spike in their enrollment numbers because more and more students and workers were looking for an affordable way to pursue their degree or obtain new skills.

Unfortunately, at the time, Delgado was turning away students because they didn't have the space to accommodate increased demand. It was 5 years after Hurricane Katrina had devastated the region. Many of their buildings had been underwater for weeks after the Hurricane, and they were still in no condition for students and faculty to use.

As the Chancellor said at the time, and I quote: "This is my 39th year in community colleges, and I never before turned away a student. Never."

During my visit, I learned that Delgado was able to tailor its curriculum to the job opportunities in post-Katrina New Orleans, and they were investing more into a mentoring program for their female students-which accounted for 70 percent of the student body.

Like the mentoring program I started at NOVA, Delgado's Women in Search of Excellence (WISE) program was providing their students with counseling services, workshops and an annual career and opportunity fair. As a result, students were more likely to graduate.

Even after a Hurricane, the doors of the community college were open to help their people recover, rebuild, and grow into careers they love. That's what's so special about community colleges-they have the ability to partner with local employers to provide new skills training, work to make sure classes are flexible for working families, and provide an affordable path for those who want to move on to a four-year university.

As President John F. Kennedy, said, "Let us think of education as the means of developing our greatest abilities, because in each of us there is a private hope and dream which, fulfilled, can be translated into benefit for everyone and greater strength for our nation."

We all reap the benefits when our citizens are well-educated and well-trained. It means that our economies are more vibrant, and our future is brighter. That's why the work that you are doing is so important. We need you to keep making your voices heard, and to bring others into the fold.

Over the next few months, the administration is going to build a coalition of elected officials, business and higher education leaders, philanthropists, and students like those of you here today to support our efforts to strengthen community colleges. Because higher education should be accessible, affordable, and attainable for all American families.

As I like to say, this is the moment for community colleges to shine.

Thank you.

By Tierney McAfee Updated November 15, 2016 04:30 PM

Long Con within a public place
Element A (earlier)	Element B (later)	Element C the Blame Game and lynch mobs generation
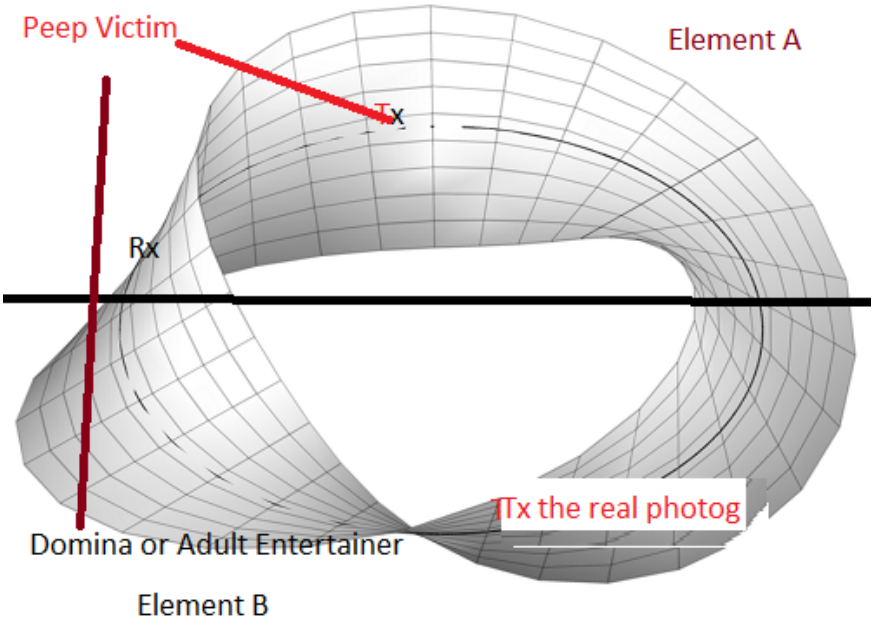
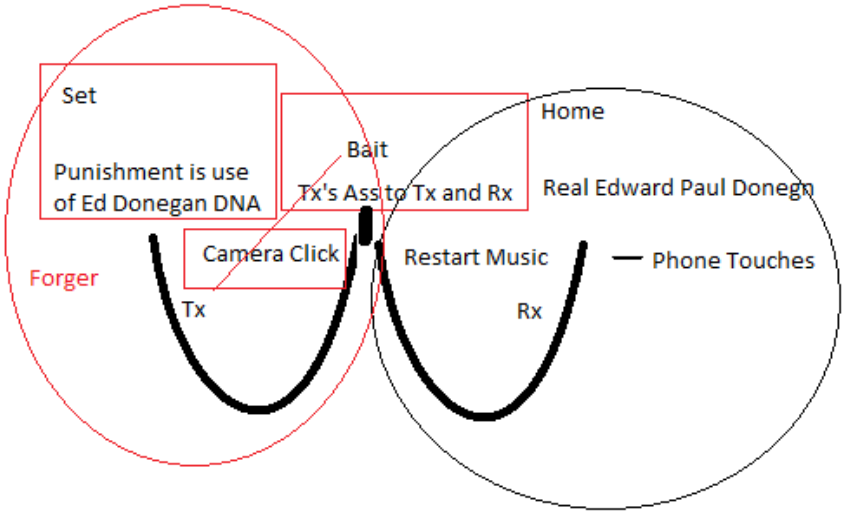
Minor jumps in front of Ed (Rx) Tx photographs Planted Shils	II Fugtive team is called to Tx locaiton who forges Ed confession when Domina finds Element A photos on Tx	Those at the scene at Element B create a record I (Rx of being flahsed) is responsible based on impersonator, forged, confession of Tx who is working with victims of fugitive recovery asset seizure
Original Scene of Minor being photographed by Tx the impersonator of me Rx being flashed (public location out of Ed control)	A seperate location Tx calls an adult enterainer to. Long Con set looking like Ed location

Domina Blames Ed (Rx)



Domina Blames Ed (Rx)	Domina Blames Ed when called to where Tx is(Rx)

The Optics given to the Adult Enetertainer who prefers Tx over Rx to receive property of Rx



The Set is Element B said to be Rx but is Tx location where Tx forges Eds (Rx) confession to adult enteratiner

Long Con within a public place
Element A (earlier)	Element B (later)	Element C the Blame Game and lynch mobs generation
Minor jumps in front of Ed (Rx) Tx photographs Planted Shils	II Fugitive team is called to Tx location who forges Ed confession	Those at the scene at Element B create a record I (Rx of being flahsed) is responsible based on impersonator, forged, confession of Tx who is working with victims of fugitive recovery asset seizure
Original Scene of Minor being photographed by Tx the impersonator of me Rx being flashed (public location out of Ed control)	A desperate location Tx calls an adult entertainer to. Long Con set looking like Ed location

Element C is really the Spinoff plane, away from, leaving, the Möbius strip, which resulted from A and B, C is the Character Assassination public Legend which supports that Rx (Edward) is the kind of person Tx actually is because in the C alternate reality formed by the disinformation at B the Ed of C (who is the record of Tx) seems to be the type of person Tx is, but Ed is really Rx.

Genetic Blue Prints Plus Stem Cell 2X4s build the building and money launder genes and bone marrow cell rights through blackmail of impersonators of owners of biology rights

Gene Therapy “Knock Down” Problem Genes (Autism Retardation, etc.,) and fund new cell composed tissues, anatomical tissue, organ tissue, called for by new genes with Bone Marrow Neural Stem Cells or repair already genetically instructed but injured tissue with adult Bone Marrow Stromal Cells rather than abortion derived stem (cord) cells. The alternative stem cell lines

Whether it is Jim Garrow talking about Premies in China and CIA programs, the Ukraine, Stem Cell and Babie Factories and St Josesph’s Catholic connected Hunter Biden and Hillary Clinton Jen Moore was talking about, and the 2011 overthrow of the Ukraine or 3 Parent parenting for gays or designer babies, Ukraine and the world are changing capability in genetics and gene therapy.,

Video 10.1, Part 1, Manafort, Ukraine, Trafficking and Rule of law Aug 8, 2018 Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here we have a lot of things that are in common we have weapons [bioligcal drug pharmacy deals] drugs money-laundering child trafficking and Coons in Ukraine so a lot of people don’t I don’t we don’t realize but I think it was in 2011 know who was who happened in Ukraine and really it was a Hillary Rodham Clinton George Soros money and some of our quote unquote agents involved in a coup and that was you know to put in a puppet one of our puppets that we control better into power and that led to the country breaking down obviously concern with Russia Russia obviously would be concerned

Video 6: Ukraine, Manafort, Clinton Foundation & Child Trafficking

Ukraine is a hotbed of trafficking and especially since the coup since you know 2011 and hrc daughter our little hands in there to mix things up in George Soros as well

it has become a hotbed and now you can look look up online and I've shared this before there there is these major neonatal intensive care units there in Ukraine that were developed and the Clinton Foundation is a part of that and I believe they're called cradles of hope or something to that effect

there are pictures out there actually have Chelsea Clinton's standing there in Ukraine next to these neonatal units with these little tiny babies and so the question you know that has been asked is why in a country like Ukraine after this coup or whatever it was happened in the the skirmish and the the fighting that's going on why Alice said do all these neonatal clinics pop up for print preemie babies

what's going on with that why all of a sudden our babies in Ukraine being way too early what's going on with that what's happening to to all the adoptions at a Ukraine what's happening to the surrogacy rules in Ukraine and you guys can research all this

what are the rules a surrogacy who is adopting children out of Ukraine who could be making money out of that who are the surrogates that are carrying these children are these poor Ukrainian women that need money

For clarity Imran Awan's brother Abid/Omar Awan also a Pakistani Spy in the House was married to Natalia Sova and lived with Imran had shell companies, etc. She is directly connected to Ukraine Nadra Bank and money laundering, weapons, drug sells and worse (Anwans death, Medical Research)

Cells → Tissues → Organs → Organ Systems
http://www.westerville.k12.oh.us/ Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Cells are the Starting Point

All living organisms on Earth are divided into pieces called cells, the basic unit of all living things. By now, that should be pretty obvious. As you recall, there are also smaller pieces inside every cell called organelles.

The organelles have jobs just like you do in everyday life.

The organelles keep the cell functioning and living performing tasks ranging from waste removal to [tissue] growth and reproduction.

Although the organelles are critical for the cell to survive, they cannot live outside of the cell. For this reason, the cell itself is the smallest of all living things.

1. Which scientist is given credit for discovering cells?

2. Which scientist found single cells living in pond water?

Tissue

A main purpose of a cell is to organize. Cells hold a variety of pieces and each cell has a different set of jobs. But many cells like to work with other cells just like many of you do when you work on your homework. When similar cells all begin performing the same job, we refer to this grouping as a tissue.

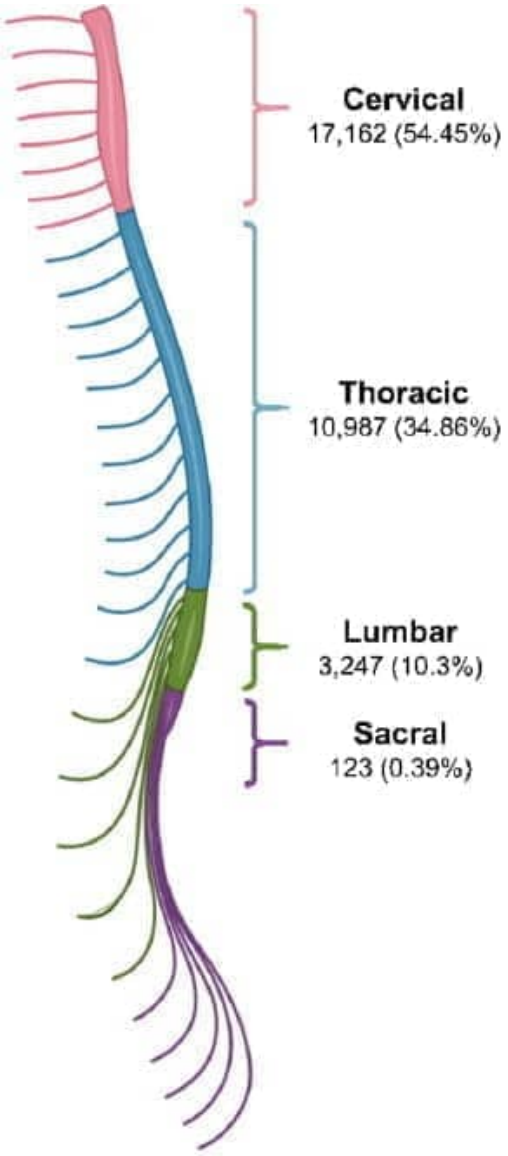
Only animal cells, plant cells, and fungi cells can form tissues. Bacteria and protists cannot. Some examples of tissues in your body include your muscles, the lining of your lungs, and the lining of your intestines. Plants also have a variety of tissues. For example, they have little tubes called phloem running through out that carry dissolved sugar. They also have small root hairs that take up water and minerals from the soil.

Organs

Tissue can clump together in ever growing size. When tissue work together and perform a specific job, we refer to them as organs. Plants, fungi, and animals are all capable of forming organs. The most common in all three is the reproductive organs. For example, plants have both a female reproductive organ (pistol) and male reproduction organ (stamen).

Spinal cord injury (SCI) is a serious clinical problem that affects approximately 17,500 new patients per year in the United States. The main causes of SCI are vehicle collisions, falls, violence (mainly gunshot wounds), and sports/recreational activities. The final severity of the damage results from primary and secondary mechanisms that begin at the time of injury and last for months after trauma.

Bone Marrow Stromal Cells



Mesenchymal stromal cells as a choice for spinal cord injury treatment

Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Cell therapy brought the promise of regenerating tissue after SCI, although the mechanism by which this type of cell therapy achieves neurological recovery have not yet been fully explained. Adult stem cells, such as MSCs, are stromal cells with potential self-renovation, multiple lineage differentiation, and immunomodulatory potential[33]. MSCs are major candidates for tissue regeneration due to release of bio-active factors, as well as anti-apoptotic, scar inhibitor, and angiogenic effects[34]. These cells also have the potential for differentiation into various adult cell types, including neurons[35,36]. The main source of MSCs is bone marrow, but other sources such as adipose tissue and umbilical cord, which are easily collected tissues, are also being used in preclinical and clinical studies.

Reuse of the picture of Abbot smirking about how religion knows more than women or myself about biology rights

I did not victimize these religious people, nor any non whites. It looks that way based on the faked evidence and the representatives of the poor also being the representative of me.

Our religious groups will be after the sex offender Heathen peeper too. A Sex Psycho he is. I here he was been watching videos in the gym again. Orphanages could use his genome, and UT Texas too.

CLoining and STEM Cells Bone Marrow Stromal Cells lines?

Kentrell Gaulden was born on October 20, 1999, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He broke his neck while wrestling as a toddler, the injury requiring a head brace until the spine healed. The brace left permanent scars on his forehead. Gaulden was raised mainly by his maternal grandmother due to his father being sentenced to 55 years in prison. He dropped out of high school in ninth grade and was arrested for robbery and sent to a detention center in Tallulah, Louisiana. While there, he began writing lyrics for his debut project.

After he was released from the detention center, Gaulden's grandmother died of heart failure and Gaulden moved in with his friend and fellow Baton Rouge rapper, NBA 3Three (also known as OG 3Three). The two then used acts of criminality to begin to pay for studio time.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/YoungBoy_Never_Broke_Again

* Clone Boy admits he is a clone

The Defense and Veterans Brain Injury Center - Traumatic Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

DVBIC Overview: As the operational component for TBI at the Defense Centers of Excellence for Psychological Health and Traumatic Brain Injury, DVBIC is a network of 18 sites specializing in research, clinical affairs and education/outreach related to traumatic brain injury

Government office in Silver Spring, Maryland Address: Silver Spring Metro Center I, 1335 E W Hwy suite 6-100, Silver Spring, MD 20910

Continous open unhidden death threats against a white that he will be killed if he attempt to leave the town, town of fake claims against a white and assaults on a white - shakedown by churches

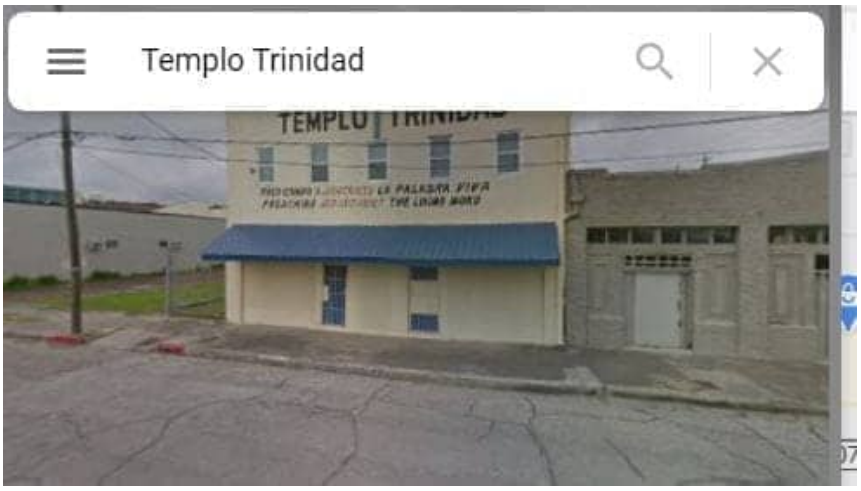
With Disability shut off and no high tech jobs on my horizon I was forced into this homeless shelter and its required ministries run by Davled Alverado of the Veterans Adminstration and others.

Welcome

709 Waco St.
Corpus Christi, Texas
7840
361-882-41431

Search for Truth Mission (SFTM) is a men's homeless shelter located at 709 Waco Street in downtown Corpus Christi, Texas. The primary mission of SFTM is to provide and operate a Christian, gospel based transitional housing for homeless men in the Corpus Christi area. Most of the men staying at the shelter grow in their faith, get jobs, and become self-sufficient.

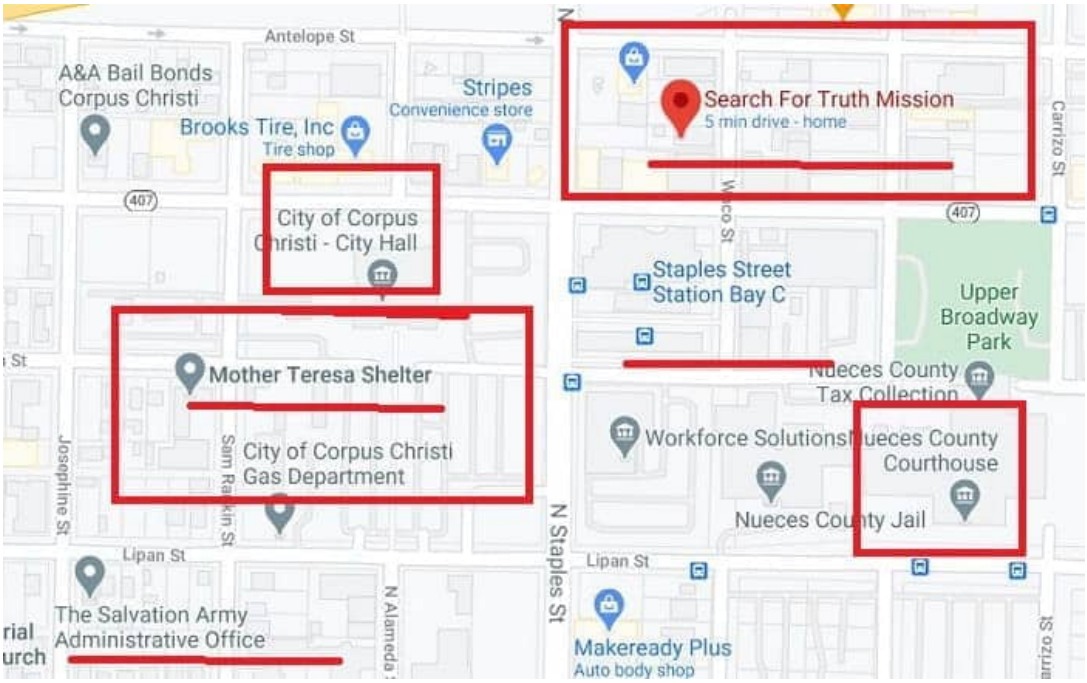
This appears to be tied to Black Hebrew Isrealistes, at least Hebrew, and claims a legacy tied to WACO, Texas.



Very nice car for a disabled person with no income who roaring an engine at while a female in the area is being photogrphed

A protection racket bills to provide a solution to the crime or threat which they created.

TEXAS
DV48961



Genome for the VA and for other work and missionary causes.

Veterans on Patrol against publicly perceived threat Ed Donegan.

Diarrhea ass Output (Dot) (DOT on Map) Diahrea Output Dropplets of mud drops

San Diego
Tijuana
Mexicali
Mesa
Tucson
Las Cruces
El Paso
Midland
Odessa
Nogales
BAJA CALIFORNIA SONORA CHIHUAHUA
Hermosillo

Hermosillo
CHIHUAHUA
Chihuahua
COAHUILA
NUEVO LEON Monterrey
Mexico TAMAULIPAS
revalucion
Culiacan
Durango
Mazatlan
SAN LUIS

Google mark gonzales Neuces Texas

From defendant to top prosecutor, this ...
washingtonpost.com

Meet Nueces County's New DA, a Self ... texasobserver.org

Mark A. Gonzalez (@MGforD...
twitter.com

Nueces County D.A. Mark Gonzalez ... kristv.com

The Most Unlikely D.A. In America ...
politico.com

Mark Gonzalez - Nueces County district ... caller.com

Mark A. Gonzalez (@M... twitter.com

Mark Gonzalez, Jon West vie for Nueces ... caller.com

First week a wrap for Nueces County DA ...

Nueces County District Attorney to be ...

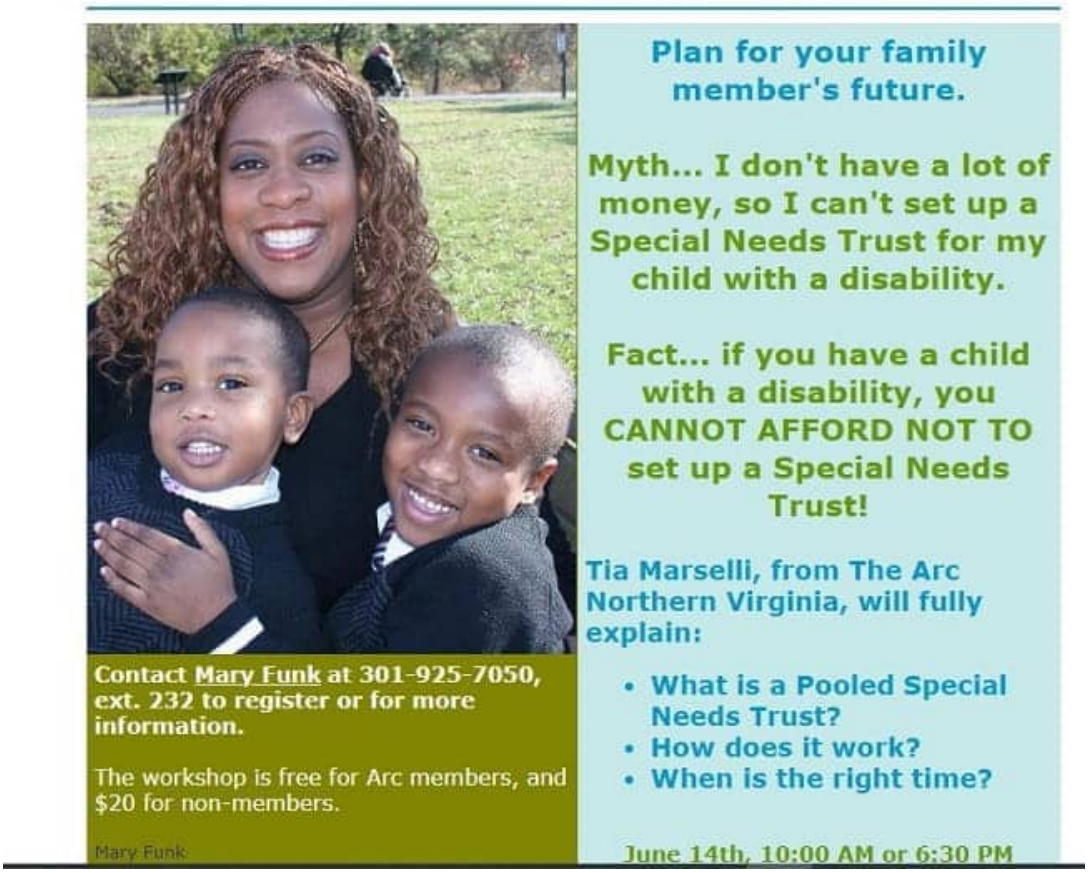
Nueces County DA Mark Gonzalez shares ...

HOW DID THIS MEXICA ...

Type here to search

The Arc™

Prince George's County



Snake Handling Religious South ties to rescue of skid row veterans from shelters and prosecutors.

In what I consider to be a type of “Stolen Stranding and Stolen Worth” the religious and other Masons groups which have framed me make me the scapegoat of their crime and their clinical disorder peeping (when sexual satisfaction is met at the cost of risky and illegal behavior such as an illegal scheme scapegoating an Atheist.)

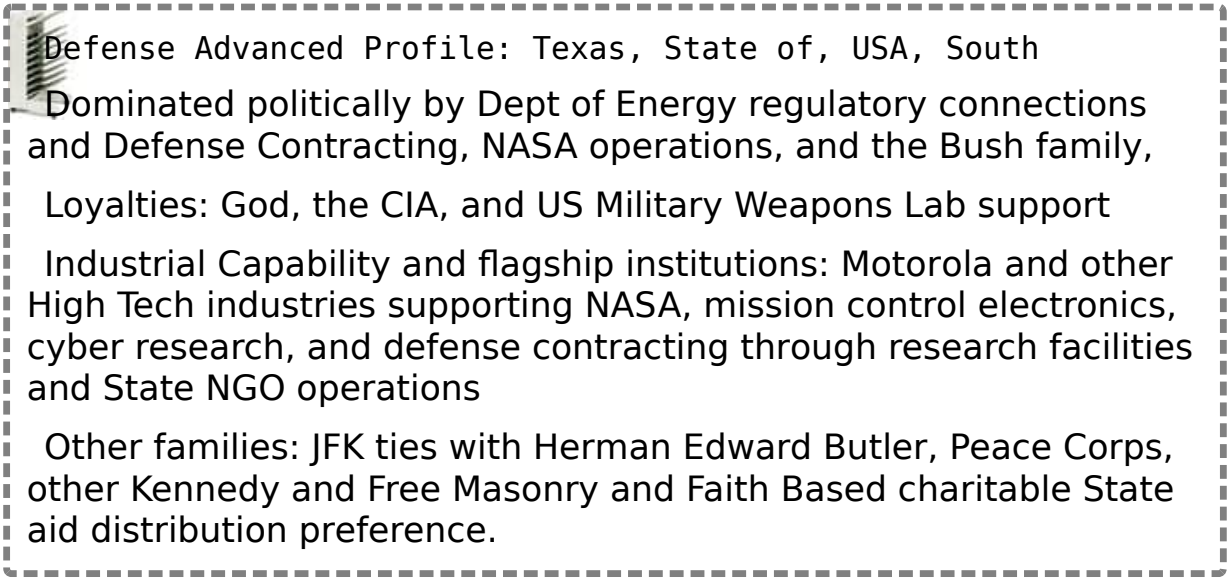
I moved into a poor neighborhood with corrupt religions.

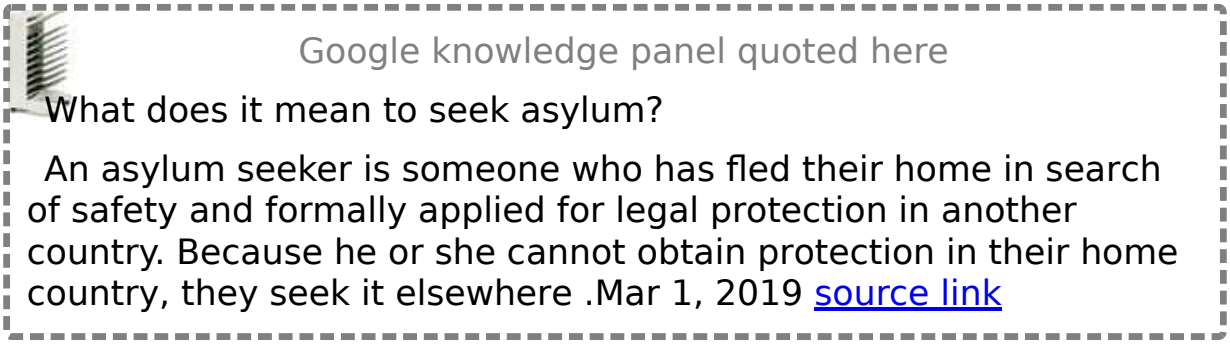
Many have fake military service claims but draw on that public sympathy as they espouse victim-hood.

This appears to be the group planting evidence on White Supremacist Ed that Ed is Pervert Ed and should be beaten out by blacks to white females.

Religious Psychopathy

Violation of my religious rights are central to this, and Christians have not gotten that point. Yet.





Throughout my life I have been an espionage gangstalk victim with rigged legal/psychiatric proceeding so malicious I can not gain a State Identification Card nor keep one from bureaucratic nullification nor prevent others from being issued mine and not only is this a lifelong complication I have experienced it has been a lifelong fear of mine that some espionage interest in mus-identification of me and operations against are so powerful only defection from the USA is an available solution, if even that is available.

The FBI Paywall uses the covertly recruited (from behind the scenes where a Gangstalk Victim is) for Criminal Harassment Under Color of Law of the Gangstalk victim, including putting fake victims like Whiplash victims into auto or other collisions with the real victim, the Gangtsalking victim.

Gangstalk Ecosystem

- Planted Victim
- Planted Information Doppelganger of the Gangstalk Victim
- Planted Witnesses
- Corrupt police to shake down the Doppelgänger when the Doppelgänger and gangstalk victim separate.

Perhaps a Racketeering Influenced Criminal Organization to money launder proceeds through Political support for the stalk in the community of the gangstalk including disinformation to the community the stalk will occur in.

Law Enforcement also creates private parties surrounding the Gangstalk victim who are “neutral” parties seemingly though Influences to lead belief the Gangstalk victims car caused the collision. and lead social act against the civil, human rights, medical, religious , and legal protections and rights of the gansgtalk victim, often using flimsy excuses for social retaliation or chest puffing with not speech, thus protecting the covert status of the manufactured allegation from scrutiny.

That person may be similar to, but a better social choice, than the Gangtalk victim who looks guilty.

The entire scenario played out at Honor Flight DCA with planted teens or tots, Doppelgangers, an adult entertainer to catch a Doppelgänger of me, social ostracism of me, etc.,

Over the course of my life seeking answers I believe this ties to the Manhattan Project, atomic testing, and secret CIA use of DNA and protection of European families under secret identities in the USA.

Now espionage agencies are covering up those family line secret identities by assassinations.

Religious interest, God an the CIA, have manufactured Zone “B” which is police, not Ed Donegan or Tom Dunham, using international mercenaries, Enrique Prado like or Blackwater, in top secret program, to place seized genetics into orphanages and onto the black markets for the connected.

The scheme also funds those who will to “infiltrate White Supremacist or Pagan alleged terror groups by culturally learning about them and then socially joining into them as part of counter-Intel which is pruriently enjoyed as a place which mercenaries wish to infiltrate, legitimizing and paying for what I times I have called Operation Shore Leave planting government workers in sex parties.

Psychological Warfare

This system is an espionage system targeting political leadership often, or the political or social or economic leadership of the USA and entities in it or entities around the world which is what the Espionage ecosystem was designed for by PsyOps.

The Gangstalking of a Gangstalk Victim

Home		Public	Long Con Set Not Actually My Home
Zone “A”	Zone “B” (Drug Addict Program Mercenaries, Religious Zealots, child porn peepign Evidence Plants)			Zone “C”
My PRIVATE HOME	Stolen property from my home, planted evidence in my home, surveillance of my home	In-explicit though obvious non verbal assaults, photobombs, planted people, etc., who deny they are tresspassing against my use	My stolen clothes, NEXT to but not my apartment, etc.,	Wanted, intended, associations, links with, of myself or my mother

		of public locations
What’s In it for you?
Ed	Felons/Mercenaries			Hookers
Wants, does not have a shotgun to defend self with	Cars dope, legal, crackpipes, 80 inch TVs, beach parties, jeeps, high price models, spitting on a white male, normal downtown life for otherwise economically hopeless felons, racial powertrip over a white			Cash for hookers, designer IVF and Antifia/pro gay social justice
Ed told if he leaves home he will be killed	Zone “B” Mercenary Activity La Vida Loca D Boyz Drugs and Hookers and cars with Eds Genome
Ed Wants, does not have a shotgun to defend self with as Mercenaries, bait, attack in public and even in his own home with impunity			Every day life Ed not in during 45 years

I think the CIA, Jesuits, and more have used my February 20 November 18 December 13 Geneology for religous and CIA protected family use all along, for 60 years, and are merely getting and impersonator of me to sign off on that, under blackmail.

The premise of my book is that uncouth prison workers who were hired out of that element of society (in different jobs/roles) but the same dailiy life and culture encountered me, who was from the Goth scene but made no affectations. Funding themselves as Defenders of Goth Women (after first victimizing Goth women) they then replaced guarding felons in institutions with guarding goths on seized assets of one of the goths., myself. Mostly “cooth” has been sized from me as prison guards try it out on themselves.

The largest crime ring in human history tied to CIA, MKULTRA, DARPA, and the British, involuntary Genome use

---

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bruce_Paltrow

Paltrow died on October 3, 2002, at the age of 58, while vacationing in Rome, Italy, to celebrate his daughter's 30th birthday. Paltrow had suffered from oral cancer for several years; his death was due to complications from oral cancer and pneumonia.

In 2007, his widow, in cooperation with The Oral Cancer Foundation, set up a fund in his name to address oral cancer issues in the United States.[9] The foundation works primarily in the areas of public awareness, early detection, patient support functions and research.

Coldplay singer Chris Martin married Paltrow's daughter, Gwyneth, in 2003. The 2005 Coldplay album X&Y carried a dedication to Bruce Paltrow. According to Blythe Danner, the famous Coldplay song "Fix You" was written for Gwyneth, as Martin wanted to "fix her" after the death of her father.[10]

> Gwyneth Paltrow was at her fiancé Brad Falchuk's side during his father's funeral this weekend. Gwyneth Paltrow, 45, and Brad Falchuk traveled to Massachusetts after the producer's dad, Dr. Kenneth H. Falchuk, a prominent Boston physician, died on May 3 By Megan Johnson May 07, 2018 03:00 PM *
>
> Kenneth R. Falchuk, MD
> Harvard Medical Faculty Physicians
> Clinical Interests
> Inflammatory Bowel Disease
> Gastrointestinal Cancer
> Diagnostic and Therapeutic Endoscopy
> Barretts and Other Esophageal Disorders
> Magnification and Chromoendoscopy
>
> Medical School: Universidad Central de Venezuela
> Internship: Graduate Hospital
> Fellowship: Brigham and Women's Hospital

Fellowship: Massachusetts General Hospital Residency: Brigham & Women's Hospital

References

- Fredeen, Charles (December 13, 1987). "St. Name Change".
- "Birth Notice 2-No Title". The New York Times. October 12, 1947. Retrieved April 27, 2010.
- Baylen, Ashley (January 4, 2011). "Gwyneth Paltrow's long lineage of rabbis". Ynetnews. Retrieved May 6, 2018.
- Brown, Jonathan (April 10, 2006). "Second child for Chris and Gwyneth is the baby Moses". The Independent. Retrieved May 5, 2018.
- Stated on Who Do You Think You Are?, April 1, 2011
- Davis, Ivor (December 30, 1999). "Gwyneth Paltrow, Movies, Stardom and Judaism". Jewish Journal. Retrieved May 5, 2018.

  Wood, Gaby (November 19, 2000). "Bruce Paltrow: Gwyneth is good for you". "TV Executives Admit in Taped Interviews That Hollywood Pushes a Liberal Agenda (Exclusive Video)".
- "The Oral Cancer Foundation website". Oralcancer.org. Retrieved February 27, 2013. "Gwyneth Paltrow Says Chris Martin's Music Helped Her Cope With Her Dad's Death".

This book

Clandestine cell system inluding hiding Subversive activies inside Charities such as USAID, Catholic Charities, Social Ministies, or other work which breaks laws of nation in which activities are occurring in

My assertion is that few understand a Deep State, Mole State, Espionage State need to cover its tracks, do so illegally, do so plausibly and do so with dupe cells given projects which sound good on the veneer surface but ask them to become a cog in a machine which is component to larger machine needs hidden from cells operationg on requested missions.

Scottish Rites and other groups have been classified as “clandestine” and I also believe the Windsors are using clandestine operations inside the USA and elsewhere, and oil and media companies and politicians in their cell structure are guided as “useful idiots” or espionage history the records of which that were long ago destroyed.

Recruiting people to tell “white lies” which mask tank movements, etc., may be part of a sapient high level command unit to keep their activities from being reported by those who trust the command structure and co-operate with sapient command structure requests.

Clandestine cell system retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Clandestine cell system

A clandestine cell system is a method for organizing a group of people (such as resistance fighters, sleeper agents, mobsters, or terrorists) such that such people can more effectively resist penetration by an opposing organization (such as law enforcement or military units).

In a cell structure, each of the small group of people in the cell know the identities of the people only in their own cell. Thus any cell member who is apprehended and interrogated (or who is a mole) will not likely know the identities of the higher-ranking individuals in the organization.

he structure of a clandestine cell system can range from a strict hierarchy to an extremely distributed organization, depending on the group's ideology, its operational area, the communications technologies available, and the nature of the mission.

Criminal organizations, undercover operations, and unconventional warfare units led by special forces may also use this sort of organizational structure.

Covert operations vs. clandestine operations

Covert and clandestine operations are not the same when it comes to tradecraft. The modern NATO definition of a covert operation says the identity of the sponsor is concealed, but in a clandestine operation the operation itself is concealed from the participants. Put differently, clandestine means "hidden", and covert means "deniable"-that is to say that the sponsor of a covert action is sufficiently removed from it that the sponsor can claim ignorance in the event the plot is discovered.

A sleeper cell refers to a cell, or isolated grouping of sleeper agents, that lies dormant until it receives orders or decides to act.

Provisional Irish Republican Army

The modern Provisional Irish Republican Army (PIRA) has a history going back to Irish revolutionary forces in the early 20th century. It has little external[clarify] control. Its doctrine and organization have changed over time, as political, technological, and cultural situations have changed in Ireland.[4]

Covert operation Google knowledge panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

A covert operation is a military operation intended to conceal the identity [*and perhaps nationality or NGO identity] of the sponsor, and intended to create a political effect which can have implications in the military, intelligence or law enforcement arenas - affecting either the internal population of a country or individuals outside it. Wikipedia

Trinity by Leon Uris I dowloaded for reading in the Austin area while sitting at a bar tells the story of Irish Nationals on their ancestral turf repelling what they consider more recent competitors for rule (Enlgand) thus competing for Irish self rule.

> As this book notes about the Subversion risks is those with racial, religious, financial, political, or other world organizations or countries or NGOs may participate in NGO activity within the USA and seem to be without conflict of interests or they may be without conflict or interests or they may deny conflicts of interests.

Officially, the PIRA was hierarchical, but as British security forces became more effective it changed to a semiautonomous model for its operational and for certain of its support cells (such as transportation, intelligence, cover, and security).[5] Its leadership saw itself as guiding and as building consensus. The lowest-level cells, typically of 2-5 people, tended to be built from people with existing personal relationships. British counterinsurgents could understand the command structure, but not the workings of the operational cells.

The IRA[clarify] had an extensive network of inactive or sleeper cells, so it could summon new ad hoc organizations for any specific operation.

Parallel organizations

The NLF (Viet Cong) and PIRA, as well as other movements, have chosen to have parallel[clarify] political and military organizations.[citation needed] In the case of the NLF, except for some individuals with sanctuary in North Vietnam, people in the political organization could not be overt during the Vietnam War. After the war ended, surviving NLF officials held high office.

In the case of the PIRA, its political wing, Sinn Féin, became increasingly overt, and then a full participant in politics. Hamas and Hezbollah also have variants of overt political/social service and covert military wings.

The overt political/social-covert military split avoided the inflexibility of a completely secret organization.[clarify] Once an active insurgency began, the secrecy could limit[clarify] freedom of action, distort information about goals and ideals, and restrict communication within the insurgency.[6] In such a split organization, public issues can be addressed overtly while military actions are kept covert and intelligence functions stay clandestine.

External support

Many cell systems receive support from outside the cell. This can include leaders, trainers, and supplies (such as the Jedburgh assistance to the French Resistance), or a safe haven for overt activities (such as the NLF spokesmen who could operate in Hanoi).

External support need not be overt. Certain Shi’a groups in Iraq, for example, receive assistance from Iran,[citation needed] but this is not a public position of the government of Iran, and may even be limited to factions of that government. Early U.S. support to the Afghan Northern Alliance against the Taliban used clandestine operators from the CIA and United States Army Special Forces. As the latter conflict escalated, U.S. participation became overt.

Note that both unconventional warfare (guerrilla operations) and foreign internal defense (counterinsurgency) may be covert and use cellular organization.

In a covert counterinsurgency mission, only selected host nation leaders are aware of the foreign support organization. Under Operation White Star, for example, U.S. personnel gave covert counterinsurgency assistance to the Royal Lao Army starting in 1959, this became overt in 1961, and finally ceased operations in 1962.

Policing Role in the Cartel

This book deals extensively with Targeted Individuals, individuals who have been targeted by Espionage interests either for recruitment or placement by Espionage or for harassment by Espionage.

I will provide a few examples of this type of Espionage with a theory I have about the likely roles of certain people, at least theoretically.

- Mark Gonzales, representative of skid row clients against minor charges is a defense lawyer getting attention, himself a former “banger” (La Vida Loca gang-banger, out banging heads].)

  Certain people approach him and suggest he run for Nueces Texas prosecutor and in that role defend those same clients for harms done to them by criminals as a prosecutor.

  In that role he can settle claims which might seem difficult to prove. A poor family has had its daughter exploitively photographed will in public, and a person like Ed Donegan was in the area.

  Mark Gonzales now has the same clients but now as the prosecutor in the County offices.

- Gregg Abbot is talked to about running for Governor. He has an interest in spinal research, non ambilical cord stem cells, and new Texas science in that area.

  He would make a great Governor candidate.

One might stop there and see no problems, at least so far.

Let's add a secretive cartel in to the picture with an Espionage Dirty War interest.

- George Bush, the Catholic Church, Colin Powell, Donald and William Barr, free masons in the FBI or NSA or DARPA are the Espionage recruiters, targeting Mark Gonzales and Gregg Abbot for public office.

Now we have a Dirty War picture if this holds true.

Feb 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 Aug 4 DNA used illegally from Glorian
Dirty War column and corrupt powerful interest - Prescott Bush, George H.W. and W. Bush, William Barr, CHristoher Wray, Masons and DARPA	Glorian Donegan has two children, one is Edward Donegan
Other uses of GLorian DNA exist	Use of politicians to back Targeting of Ed Donegan illegally helps stop his normal life, impede his book and family history, etc.

JFK and others were killed to get a British and US plan in place for Regime Change and sleeper agents JFK opposed	All know Ed Donegna is the subject of harrassment, even lethal, but the BASIS for that barrassment is faked
* This criminal group and Cartel are protected if Ed Donegan harmed	* The sabotage of Ed and Glorian eliminate risk to Cartel, cartel activity avoids being compromised

This is my struggle, why are race and sex offender wars started with me under targeting when that has long been fights picked with me and not by me?

Targetign for recruitment involves those with poor families who seek good DNA lines and will fake claims or assist in faking claims and may include policing, social services, etc., recruited into cartel activities including for activities clearly under false rationales, the falsity visible to all.

Fox News Hires Lara Trump retrieved from The Hollywood Reporter and copied or modified to here

Lara Trump, the daughter-in-law of former President Donald Trump, is joining the cable channel as a contributor.

Fox News is bringing a member of the Trump family onto its payroll.

The cable news channel has hired Lara Trump, the daughter-in-law of former President Donald Trump, as a contributor. She is married to the ex-president’s son Eric.

The hiring was announced on Fox & Friends on Monday morning, introduced by co-anchor Ainsley Earhardt. “Let’s bring in Lara Trump, former senior adviser for the Trump campaign, and we have a big announcement,” Earhardt said. “She is a new Fox News contributor. Welcome to the family, Lara.”

The hiring is notable not only because Lara Trump will be the first member of the former president’s family to hold a paid role with Fox News since he left office, but also because she is reportedly weighing a run for the U.S. Senate in North Carolina next year.

Fox News typically cuts ties with employees and contributors once they officially announce their candidacy. Most recently, Sarah Huckabee Sanders, the former White House press secretary, announced her intention to run for governor of Arkansas, with the channel cutting her loose at the same time.

> Elsewhere in this book I alledge Ivanka Trump, Ivana Trump, John Trump (Manhattan Project RADAR physicist) and cancer research ties put the Donald John Trump admin into the Cartel and keeping his cartel family into office displacing others.

This book

Sock Puppets are in a ring but Real Tom Dunham and Real Edward Donegan are not

A few years after being fired from Wells Fargo around 2002 I had decided to leave San Francisco, cut ties, and get clean. A decade or more after that I heard from an old and highly skilled tech engineer out there evidence was being planted on him he was in some teen exploitation ring and while vague indica was around, vauge but inculpating statements made to him as sort of a shot or something out of place along with keys seemingly, seemingly, left outside his door as though he were expecting someone.

Nothing he was directly confronted over but a public perception rumor mongering was being formed around him not specific enough for him to deflate.

He found sock puppets of both me and him and in fact I found the same. It seems a Cyber Warfare unit created Tom Dunham, myself Edward Donegan, and even Veronica Hoffman sock puppets online in “live action cartoon” mixed reality, sometimes live action, sometimes cyber cartoon, to create a phony reality.

Veronica Hoffman being asked to try on a WWII Nazi era costume for laughs was part of building a surgically edited story mix implicating us all in racial criminal networking, sex offenses, retardation and schizophrenia, and other dis-indicators or our true honest and couture lives.

A ring of mentally incompetent and sexually incompetent impersonators of real me give away DNA rights to Genetech and the California Lloyd family embezzlers

These online fake social media accounts were created by black opps to be the cutouts that are substituted for Tom Dunham and myself.

What you will see is Little Bo Peep references, delusions of Batman and Scully and Mulder, and other childhood schizophrenia including alien and genetic abductions taking place, at Genentec, regarding Gloria, likely a reference to Glorian, my mother.

Real Tom Dunham defends Real Edward Donegan from impersonation

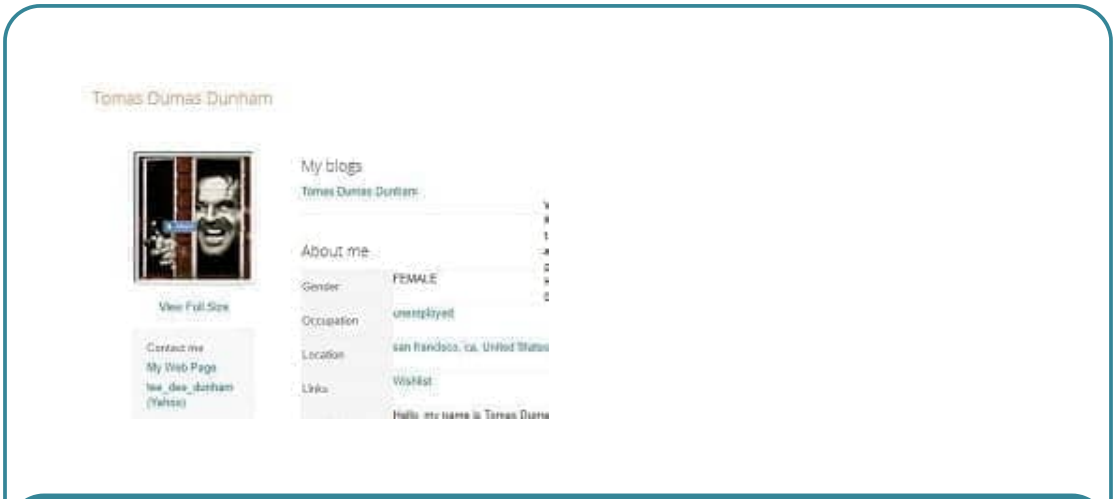
Fake Tom Dunham
https://www.facebook.com/tomas.dunham

Real Tom
https://www.facebook.com/tom.dunham.391

Fake Tom Dunham (Tom Dumas Dunham) is a mental incompetent who believes is Scully Xfiles is with Edward Paul Donegan (son of Glorian Donegan) in the WISHLIST link from this fake Tom Dunham site

Xfiles, Little Bo Peep, and Gloria[n]

Fake Tom Dunham (the sock puppet calls himself Tomas Dumas Dunham) has Schizo Effective Disorder and believes himself in a Xfiles episode.



Sock Puppet Created of Tom Dunham who will not raise his children in Gospel thus harms them

Fake Edward Paul Donegan (the sock puppet uses various names like Edward G Donegan) has Batman movie delusions. The US CIA and DOD have killed many including Veronica Hoffman who like me were tortured by misuse of the Psychiatric Hospital system to paralyze our lives, discount our allegations, and torture us over our outing their scheme.

This includes by Doctor Tim Kelly (Gay anti racist) of UCSF Psychiatry.

In all cases sexual deviance, incompetence, and Pizza Gate are alleged because of the acts of the impersonators or break ins.

Thus the original Book Title

THE MEDICAL STATE Abuse of Psychiatry as Rape Genocide and War Crimes through Medicine in the United States

Tom Dunham Defends Against Tom Dumas Dunham

> The mentally challenged person posting as Tom Dunham from New York in the second rebuttal is obviously not me. He gives how to get a police report, which is not a conviction. Not to mention, this person is having trouble distinguishing between a TV show and real law enforcement.

Perhaps in his fantasy world Agent Scully brought Tomas Dumas Dunham (not my name) down for God knows what, but here in the real world if I were an ex-felon anyone would be able to look that up. Again, this is the sort of person that defends SelectQuote Insurance.

Clearly, my website, http://www.selectquotereview.com, is factual and to the point. As you see here, SelectQuote's cronies are willing to lie. Once caught in their lies, they attempt to wriggle away by posting nonsense using my name. Is there any doubt that I'm the one whose been telling the truth all along?

Real Edward Paul Donegan defends real Tom Dunham from Tom Duhmas Dunham

Social media accounts for Tom Duhmas Dunham purport to be Tom Dunham of Slect Quote Review but as the REAL Tom Dunham states Tom Dumas Dunham is an impersonation. The impersonation can be found here and at other places. https://www.blogger.com/profile/07704024690967658160 If you go to the Wish list link of the fake social media account page you will see an individual believing himself to be meeting with Aliens of "HIV"

Quoting FAKE TOM DUNHAM site link "

The Mother Ship “Yes, I am in contact with them. They brought us here and they will return for us. It’s true. Thank you all for coming tonight to learn about Human Individual Metamorphosis. And thank you, Miss Carter, for the delicious hors d’oeuvres. Some of us were chatting a few moments ago, and you asked about how they contact me. They send me messages. I receive them directly or I see the signs. They have told me to go to Montana and wait for them.

The mothership will land there and take us back. We come from the Level Above Human and we are looking for people who want to return there with us. Please wait for Peep to call you to the table. She will ask: Is the journey right for you? Are you right for the journey? Gloria has a personal matter she wants to ask me about, so I will step aside with her for a few moments. When I return, I will answer any questions you have. Peep can answer your questions, too, during the interviews.

Gloria, let’s go down the hall here, there is another conference room we can use?”

None of this is the real Tom Dunham.

Tom Dunham is an important and highly qualified high tech engineer who’s reputation is being undermined through impersonation and it is exactly those impersonations he is report on his site Select Quote Review.

Believe Tom Dunham and belief Select Quote Review. I have contact Tim Kelly of UCSF and told him by voice mail if he were the original poster be advised I and Tom Dunham are qualified network security professionals with the forensic expertise to track internet scams.

Tom Dunham and myself have been victims of internet scams but as well trained and certified experts in high tech our forensic data is accurate. Follow the fake accounts for yourselves. The identity theft reported on Select Quote review does exist and further threatens the reputation of Tom Dunham, is immediate family, and myself. This should not be mocked.

See more of this at RipOff Report https://www.ripoffreport.com/reports/wwwselectquotereviewcom/internet/wwwselectquotereviewcom-tom-dunham-this-website-is-clearly-the-work-of-a-disheveled-and-861062

Wipe Our (Tom Dunham, Edward Donegan, Veronica Hoffman, Jen Moore) Records Clean

In the upcoming chapters I will show Pscyhologcial Operations Command is staging via Cyberwarfare and human special operatives a stalk based system of agitation, provocation, and evidence plants.

- The special operation is PsyOps based, has Cyber Warfare support, and makes use Targeting Individuals (Dupes or Mercenaries asked to co-operate) for co-operation with PsyOps based on calculation how to gain the co-operation of (Reflexively Control, control through reflex reactions) Targeted members of the public or government. Disinformation may be presented to the Government official or place of private business to seemingly legitimize the need for co-operation with Special Operators.

- The operation seeks to prove an underground harmful dangerous sex freak network (which does not exist,) prove that those in the network are bipolar thus need representation, and that representation from placed Psychological Warfare cooperating assets.

- Makes use of the Gangstalk to affect control of the Gangstalk victim (Veronica Hoffman, Ed Donegan, Tom Dunham)by air punching us, etc., thus making us fight “demons” we are unable to prove exist, the air punch throwers say they were just stretching in public; for instance and places inculpating evidence on or near the Gangstalk Victim

The affect of the gangtalk is to not only be able to plant evidence, fake evidence, photo-bomb, etc., but to use State backed behavioral health to case doubt upon the assertions of the victims, those victims being myself, Tom Dunham, Veronica Hoffman and also Jen Moore.

Jen More capably described the affect of “salt into the wound” psychological reactions to loud noises “from behind the bushes as if a predator near” and other stalking systems designed to keep the gangstalk victim on psychological edge, ineffective in documenting stalking, and preoccupied and in a distubred mental state resultant from it.

What’s In A Name and who are these stalkers groups?

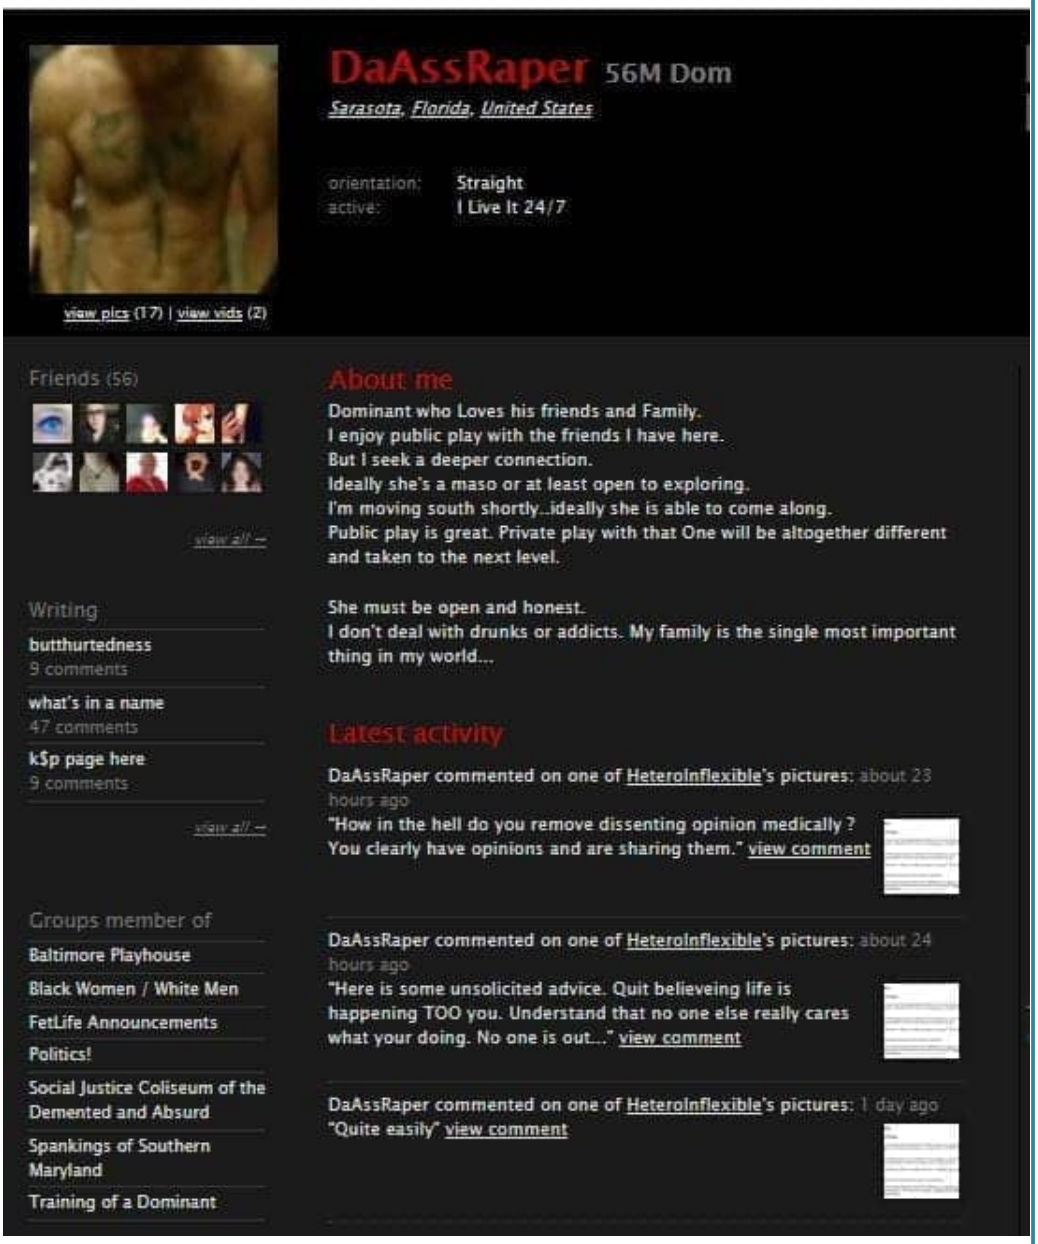
Harvey Dent, Casper, Don Johnson, DaAssRaper, Cahill, Theo, Thea, Skylar, Letheria, and other names have made up the cover story of Marshalls, state actors or others who claim at with some consistency they are DOD hirees, some working out of a CENTCOM facility in Florida, some working for private DOD connected labs or activities including CIA funded ones such as Andy Ellington or Genentech are connected to.

Thse are black ops supported wetworkers operation on a racial rape system.

Take DaAssRaper profile

- Baltimore Playhouse
- Black Women / White Men
- Social Justice Coliseum of the Demented and Absurd

- Spankings of Southern Maryland
- Training of a Dominant



Da Ass Raper says I am crazy but lives in an area I am being impersonated at a Domme house near the beach and near CENTCOM. I have never been to Florida. Stolen fertilization rights inter racially by impersonator permissions, they admit that to me.

Sarosta Florida is the gateway to miles of beaches with fine sand and shallow waters, such as Lido Beach and Siesta Key Beach. - Google and also next to CENTCOM and General Austin command area

DaAssRaper is in the same location DOD CENTCOM Florida area my agreement is being forged in a 1st Century Christian BDSM facility, Temple Vesta, of the Vestal Virgin, while I am Stoic Pagan Epicurean and hedonist epistemologist who's era was suppressed by Christianity. From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia Black Hebrew Isrealite?

He is also in Rod Rosenstein former location Bethesda Maryland of the National Institute of Health were DNA work is done and I was wrongfully diagnosed incompetent on a matter still missing from Archive.org though it allowed CIA backed conservancy of my DNA

CIA Contract-Signed Wetworks killers based operating in Texas

Texas has some CIA DOD Labs (Andy Ellington) which operate on CIA contracts.

As I was told by several the CIA has been hiring contractors. Some who told me of these contracts said the contracts were giving to Hispanic gangs and others and these contractors had Corpus Christi City Hall support.

Further, these people said it was similar to prion break-out and drug running movies of people hired to operate illegal CIA programs as illegal assets but Government support.

This has names like Letheria, Harvey Dent , Casper Spooky, and others who have bee hired from skid row and long felony records, often with long ago Vietnam, coast guard, or other service, and now after being classified as Disabled are recruited from Social Justice agencies who utilize the for illegal operations.

The funding for the contracts come from the value of my genome, not disclosed to me or reported to me, but used for their Weekend At Bernies parties for impostors of me, and these people also use my genome illegal for themselves.

Illegally keeping me from my own family and wife keep them in theft of my genetics assets.

The names used by these people and the presence of the activities such as the Scalia murder and other genetics related activities as well as their statements to me and their actions themselves and the need for DNA related crimes specific to me all are consistent with a dangerous international RICO scheme illegal in the U.S. but operating in the U.S. with some support in Government offices, state and federal.

On the streets in Austin (mulling around with homeless people) I was told ex military types were being signed to special contracts DOD like and one person I was speaking was being recruited for that.

In fact “irregulars,” skid row blacks and others, were getting jobs and threatening to kill me out of the blue and for no reason.

I was also told in Texas Dept of Corrections the CIA was signing people in Texas for things like Prison Rescue of CIA as in the movie and drug running and other special contracts.

When in counseling in Arlington VA and in a writers group both Fairfax and Arlington VA behavioral health underwent case files audits and I think people like Geoff were being selected to surround me on special missions.

Most people framing me for PizzGate tend to be disabled veterans, almost with complete consistency across so so many.

Framed! That I need a Hispanic homeless shelter to represent my assets and those assets, including biological, are trafficked as civil penalty for alleged misconduct against Hispanics township

By false (publicly faked and staged photos) claims I am

- Mentally incompetent
- Sexually incompetent
- Thusly need conservator in this Spanish economically depressed county

I arrive in a very poor county that realized it could shake down my turst fund for missionary work and then call that “the fight against white supremacism.”

It involved the poor going to “glamm dommes” Dominatrixes as Ed Donegan and Ed Donegan’s assets being assigned to the poor.

It also meant appearances Edward Paul Donegan was too unsophisticated for such a glamorous type woman.

> Glamour Domme…or The Domme Next Door? ***
>
> Which is your preference?
> Are you drawn to the elegant, sophisticated, and somewhat aloof glamourous Domme…or, do you prefer the dominant girl next door type?
>
> Ladies…which type are you?

~Mistress Chloe

The phony claims, the phony appearances, that I am developmentally retarded. Perhaps a mediator like this guy could mediate claims between fake ed donegan and other retarded people out of court.

Showing results for Search for Truth mission corpus christi texas Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here spanish coastal bend spanish missions nueces county hurricane harvey rescue mission salvation army nuestra señora catholic church homelessshelters homeless shelter food padre island san antonio east texas

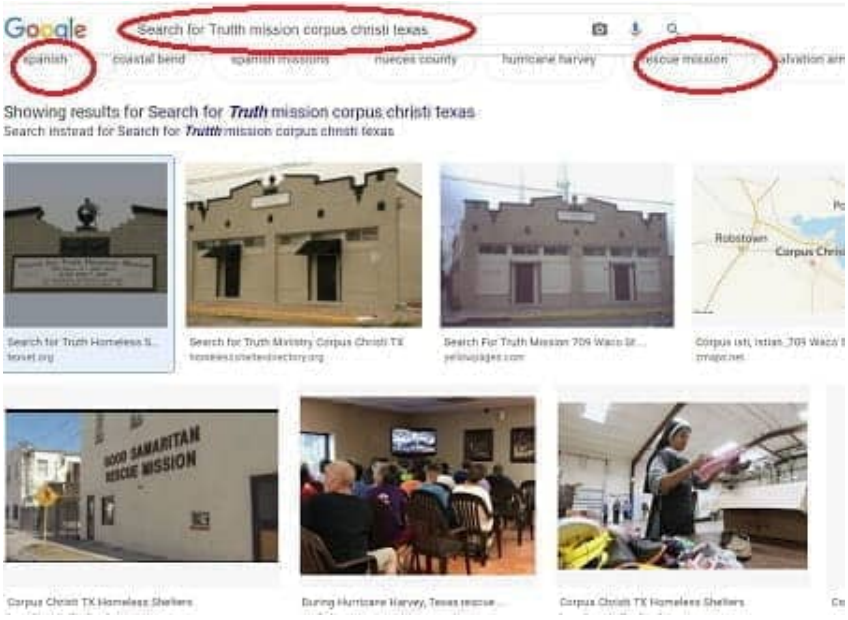
Searth For Truth Mission I was in homeless is also Veteran friendly and a Hispanic shelter



After I left Virginia, arrested for confronting Thea Smith over her hints an adult entertainer was coming, and that a Dopple apartment with stolen clothes and bedding from me was being used by a Hispanic and by a Vietnamese immigrant, I was evicted also over my allegations and left homeless in Corpus Christi.

Impersonators continued to see adult entertainers as me and as me be caught as a victimizer of minorities. The deal worked out is my trust fund pays out both the victims and patrols to defend minorities from the white supremacist as they say in shock “How does he keep going to dominatrices and get caught with child porn and just keep doing it over and over!

This homeless shelter operation appears to continue to see Dominatrices in my name and the Dominatrix is urged to punish the “Edward Donegan” for is DNA and financial assets.

They also loudly patrol to see Edward Donegan will never do it again, harm child. Just the opposite they plant their children and as me photograph them.

Yet is they themselves who are victimizing themselves and also using my identity to do so, both in the victimizing and also being punished for that by a dominatrix who will demand a settlement be made to the non white populations

HOW DOES ED DONEGAN KEEP GETTING AWAY WITH IT BEING PUNISHED BY A DOMINATRIX AS CHILD ABUSER WILL THIS EVER STOP??

This is the Identity Theft incurring a liability I allege. The victimize of children (and of my trust fund) uses my identity to both victimize others and also be punished for it by an adult entertainer in role play.

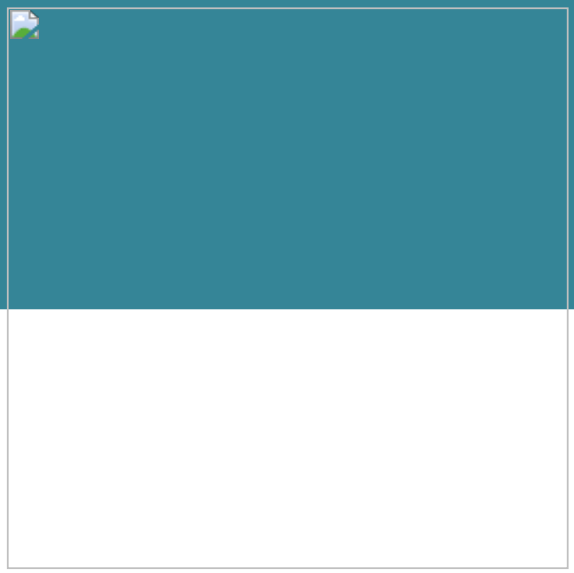
It is run out of skid row missions who use my identity and also as that den of likely Black Hebrew Israelite (violent black nationalist active in Corpus Christi area skid row areas) veteran outreach SJW militants pay themselves out of poverty by becoming patrols for the crimes they committed but blam on White Supremacism.

The affect is to elevate sympathy for minorities including among white adult females while character assassination White Supremacism, the goal of the black nationalists who during the course of this repeatedly threaten to kill me over White Supremacism.

This book

Introducing the Bernie Theory

Genomic Trust Bleed Off by Fake Claims I would not agree to but benefit trust other beneficiaries alleged to be victims of me



Fighting against mechanical osteopathatic failure of lower right leg and Neuropathy by good grocerty and excersize choices, being undermined

Victory against the usa! I stopped going to mental health during my mother's congestive heart failure. Then after my father died I did enter again very overweight. The two most central elements of bringing down A1c 13.3 were lean meat and low impact per below knee, aka walking and swimming. I blogged this extensively. Below knee was failure point. I have not owned a swimsuit more than 1 week, stolen, goggles more than 20 hours or so. Deep knee bends and two foot impact jump worked anyway.

Here it is a dopple of me as Bernie authorizing withdrawals from my trust fund including preempting my lean meats purchases that will go to others instead, the larcenists adding a fake narrative to my use of the word Hibachi.

A fake claim is made to my genome by black nationalists who claim they are entitled to it and run a scam with a Due Process violation which substitutes someone else's agreement my DNA rights are due when I would not agree to it.

The use of criminal impersonations, money laundering, and conspiracy against my own rights by conspiracy makeup the human rights crime against me the United States needs to protect is serious mistakes in history.

Simply co-opting what I am doing on my own as what I am learning from others puts me in retardation services I don't want or need, but are co-opting me. I also call it the Last to Be First Ploy, or the Two Seconds After Ploy. Others copying me become the last person to adopt what I brought to the gym as a high techer making my own workout videos with video copyright infringing downloading, editing and conversion tools, tablets, love of many high tech genres of rock.

As I am made to look like a moron with mentally retarded classes forming around me, Behavioral Health seems to be in charge of me and managing me, and my genome. Therefore Retradtion Services have access to my assets and I even seem to owe them my genetics according to them.

There has been a racial component to this as well with blacks and gays orchestrating much of this and then A) Making claims to my genome B) Expressing opposition to my White Nationalism and my disdain for non whites. That need of nonwhites for my genome turns out to be important and the motivation for their first strike on me, which I am in defensiveness of.

Allegedly I am "rich in my DNA." We'll get ot more of that later, but because I am in extreme poverty, the result of social justice workers breaking contracts that would permit me normal life in normal cities I am trapped in a squalid border town of mostly minority impoverished people.

Without my permission conservators and blind conservators represent me and they also represent them, and in "fairness" awarded them my genes arbitrating damages on "the playground" of retarded children,.

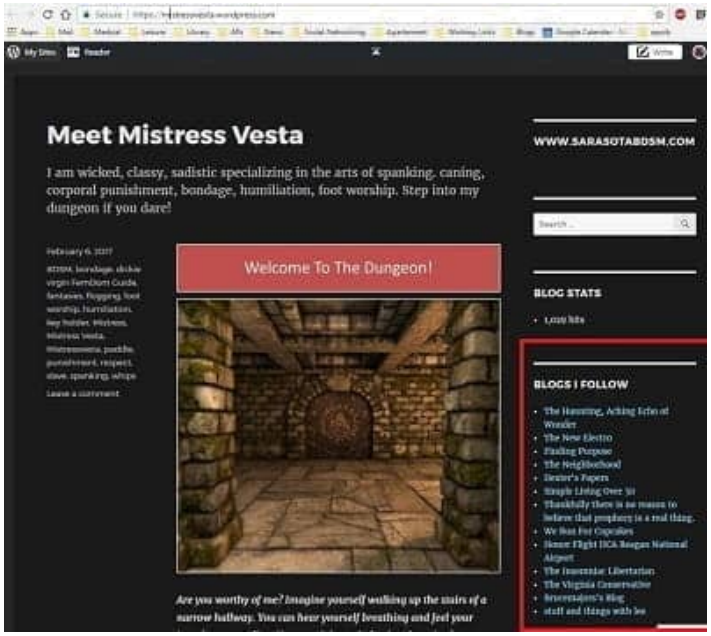
At Element "A" some person, usually black or gay, placed in my vicinity an expoitable female, retarded or underage.

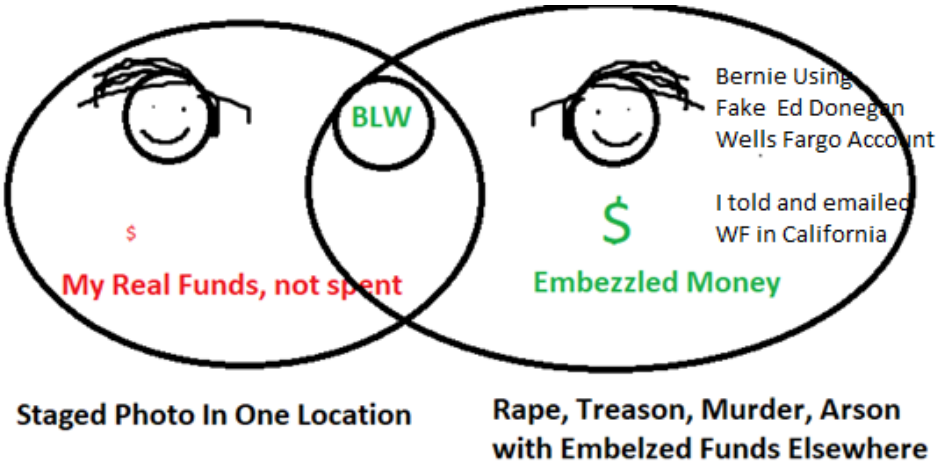
That person was likely some sort of law enforcement like a US Marhsall, CIA, or Secret Service, or various police or social worker.

A Doppelgänger of me near me “takes the bait” and photographs the “honey [Mousetrap] bait” and later that Doppelgänger of me is chased to an adult sex worker and confronted by the person who also planted that female.

As the retarded Doppelgänger of me who DID take the bait and is in a teen exploitation ring with Tom Dunham (it appears) is chased as a fugitive from the original location (Element “A’) to where the Doppelgänger is being provided a sex worker (Element “B”) the confrontation and then genetic asset seizure will take place, to “pay up” for the illegally exploited teen or tot.

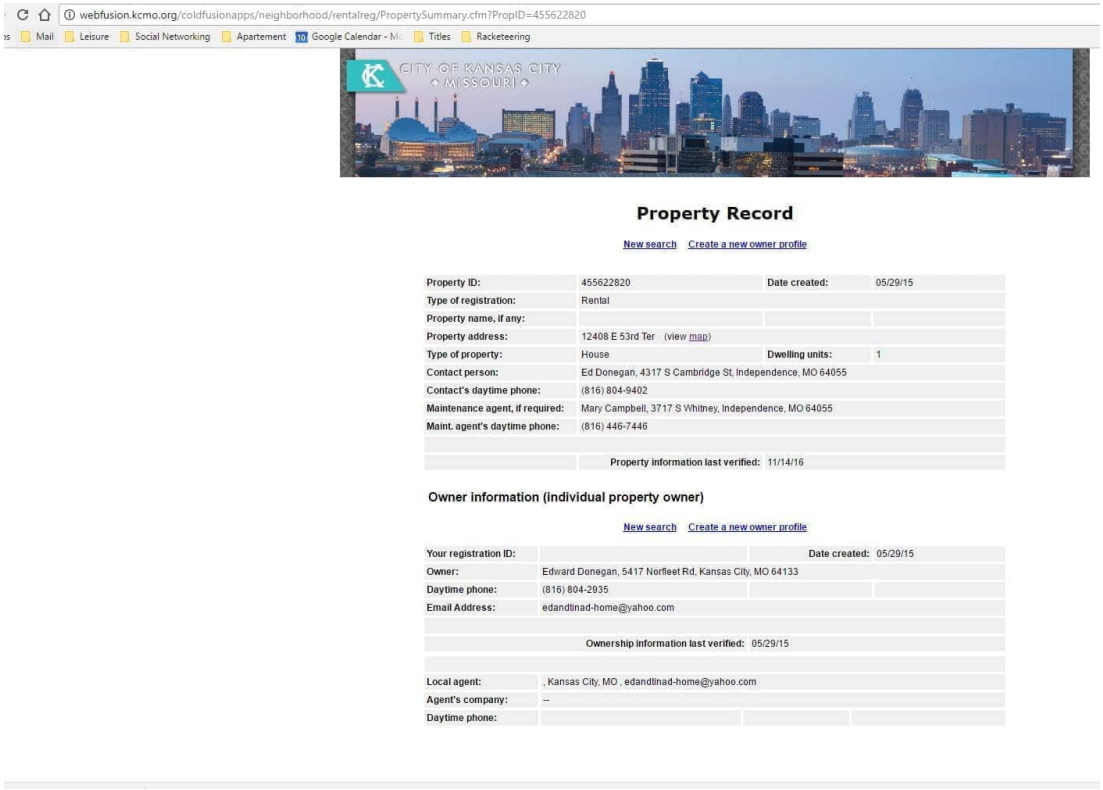
At Element B an impersonator of Edward Donegan is confronted by an adult entertainer, here Mistress Vesta, over what Edward Donegan allegedly did to a minor female, a victim, earlier.





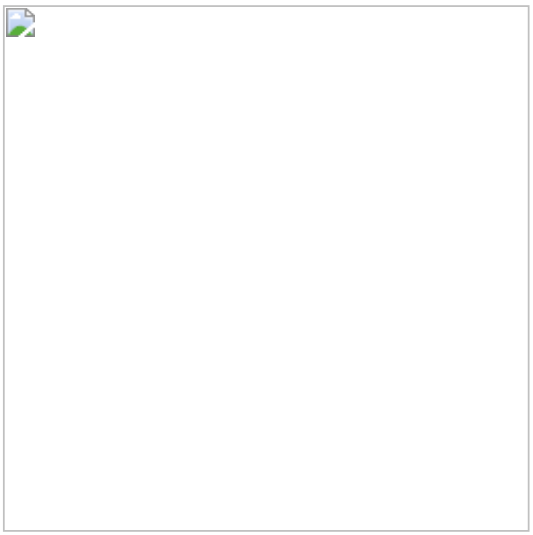
Staged Photo In One Location

Rape, Treason, Murder, Arson with Embelzed Funds Elsewhere



Sharyl Attkisson retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Attkisson on a USAF B-52 in 1999



Sharyl Attkisson was born on January 26, 1961 in St. Petersburg, Florida[14] and grew up in Sarasota, where she attended Wilkinson Elementary and Riverview High School.[1] Her father was a lawyer, but she spent most of her life with her stepfather, an orthopedic surgeon. Her family had seven children.[15] Attkisson attended the University of Florida, graduating in 1982 with a degree in broadcast journalism from the College of Journalism and Communications.

Sharyl Attkisson (born January 26, 1961)[3] is an American journalist and television correspondent.[4][5] She hosts the Sinclair Broadcast Group TV show Full Measure with Sharyl Attkisson.

Attkisson is a five-time Emmy Award winner, and a Radio Television Digital News Association (RTNDA) Edward R. Murrow Award recipient. She was formerly an investigative correspondent in the Washington bureau for CBS News and a substitute anchor for the CBS Evening News and then went to the Daily Signal, a conservative political news website that offers political commentary from a conservative perspective, and which is funded by the Heritage Foundation.

Attkisson resigned from CBS News on March 10, 2014, after 21 years with the network. She later wrote the book Stonewalled, in which she alleged that CBS News failed to give sufficient coverage of Barack Obama controversies, such as the 2012 Benghazi attack.[9] Attkisson has received criticism for publishing stories suggesting a possible link between vaccines and autism,a claim that has been rejected by the scientific community.

Q&A with Sharyl Attkisson March 20, 2009 retrieved from CSPAN and copied or modified to here

"Abscam" was the FBI codename for the operation, which law enforcement authorities said was a contraction of "Arab scam".

OHN MURTHA: You know what that is? That's the constitution of the United States. What it says is "The Congress of the United States appropriates the money." Got that?

ATTKISSON: What he means is Congress gets to decide how tax dollars are spent. But more specifically, Murtha often gets to decide. As head of the Defense Spending Committee, he has the power to steer hundreds of million of tax dollars in earmarks to companies of his choice.

But now the FBI is asking whether those who have benefited from Murtha's earmarks have made improper donations to his political campaigns. There's been a flurry of activity. Agents raided lobby firm PMA, started by a Capitol Hill staffer who worked closely with Murtha.

In Murtha's home town, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, subpoenas for concurrent technologies and FBI raids on Kuchera Defense Systems and a game ranch owned by Kuchera CEO, site of a Murtha fund raiser. CBS News has learned that federal agents are also looking into a Murtha-backed research firm, Electro - Optics Center. According a source interviewed by the FBI, in one year the center sought $120 million in earmarks directly through Murtha's office and managers urged employees to donate to Murtha so the center would get favorable treatment. We found at least six donors linked to the center gave to Murtha on the same day last year just days before earmarks were decided.

Representative Jeff Flake, who's against earmarks of any kind, is calling for an ethics investigation and says it could dwarf the last lobby mess to hit Washington.

This is bigger than the Abramoff Scandal.

FLAKE: In terms of contributions and circular fund raising and the involvement of members, it's much bigger, much bigger.

Kuchera Brothers Sentenced For Fraud Against The Government And Conspiracy retrieved from justice.gov and copied or modified to here

Tuesday, DECEMBER 17, 2013

Kuchera Brothers Sentenced For Fraud Against The Government And Conspiracy

JOHNSTOWN, PA. - Two brothers who owned a major defense contracting firm have been sentenced in federal court on charges of major fraud against the government and conspiracy, United States Attorney David J. Hickton announced today. U.S. District Judge Kim Gibson sentenced William Kuchera, 58, of Summerhill, Pa., and Ronald Kuchera, 52, of Johnstown, Pa., each to five years' probation, the first 18 months on home detention with electronic monitoring, 1,000 hours of community service, and a fine of $500,000.

According to the information presented to the court, William and Ronald Kuchera owned and managed Kuchera Defense Systems, Inc. (KDS), a contractor for the Department of Defense. KDS submitted cost certifications to the government containing unallowable expenses that inflated costs for overhead and general and administrative expenses. These unallowable expenses included the leasing of a private airplane, vacations to Jamaica, personal car leases, improvements on a private residence and lobbying fees.

The Kuchera brothers also submitted a false invoice for $650,000 to Coherent Systems International, Inc. (Coherent), a defense contractor owned by Richard S. Ianieri. As the prime contractor, Coherent was responsible for an $8 million Department of Defense contract for the Ground Mobile Gateway Systems, which involved the development of a new prototype unmanned vehicle that was designed to prevent friendly-fire incidents. The invoice sought payment for a component that had never been manufactured or delivered to Coherent. After receiving the $650,000 payment from Coherent, the Kuchera brothers kicked back to Ianieri approximately $200,000.

Two Former Drug Dealers Tied To Murtha retrieved from CBS News and copied or modified to here

JUNE 5, 2009 / 9:11 PM / CBS/AP

Rep. John Murtha steered millions of dollars in defense work to a campaign donor and the Pentagon went along with it, even though two convicted drug dealers had been deeply involved with the company.

Records filed in U.S. District Court in Pittsburgh starting in 2005 raise questions about whether the government ever checked into the background of William Kuchera of Windber, Pa., a constituent who has been doing government work for over 20 years.

The records point to the political peril of Murtha, a Pennsylvania Democrat, and other members of Congress directing federal funds to particular contractors, an oft-criticized process known as earmarking that has directed hundreds of billions of dollars in the federal budget to favored contractors and programs over the past two decades.

The companies owned by William Kuchera and his brother Ronald - Kuchera Defense Systems and Kuchera Industries Inc. - have received $53 million in federal contracts in this decade alone.

According to the court records, Kuchera was convicted of marijuana distribution in 1982 in Wisconsin.

n addition, a man who describes himself as an early partner in Kuchera’s business in the 1980s is a convicted cocaine dealer who has served two terms in prison, according to the records.

The man, Peter Whorley, sued the Kuchera companies and William Kuchera for a share of the money the companies have collected in federal contracts. Whorley lost the case when it went to arbitration.

Being Called Crazy as I confront people oddly dressed like me, pretending to me me, or oddly placed exploited women in my line of sight.

One of the most important things to be gleaned from this book is that the blackmail at the treehouse is behind my back and the scheme depends upon i can not prove that it even exists, a challenge Jim Volceklka gave me. In fact because a Doppelgänger of me confesses via the mediation [Cadena or ARCC] of a a misrepresenter of me, confessing to have harmed some other protectorate of that same trust, I am out of the loop on it, and the retardation/SJW firms says I am just a shizo ignore my complaints about the appearances i point out.,

This is a money laundering operation supporting and using retarded people as me, and the super power of the retardation firms using my identity is to call me retarded, crazy, etc.,

Ex-Parte Claims Presentation

After I have left a scene behind my back a false narrativce is portrayed.

The evidence said to apply to me is weak, I was only in the area others took acts in, though I was dressed the same.

- Using a retardation firm, the same retardation firm using their retarded people as Doppelgangers of me, to settle claims against my assets avoids presenting the claims to me who would reject them.

- Presenting claims to FISA Courts, Grand Juries, or other single sided proceedings such as a relative acting on my behalf makes it possible for claims to be processed.

- Wire or mail or other accounting fraud by vauge or misleading accountings or statements facilitate false claims.

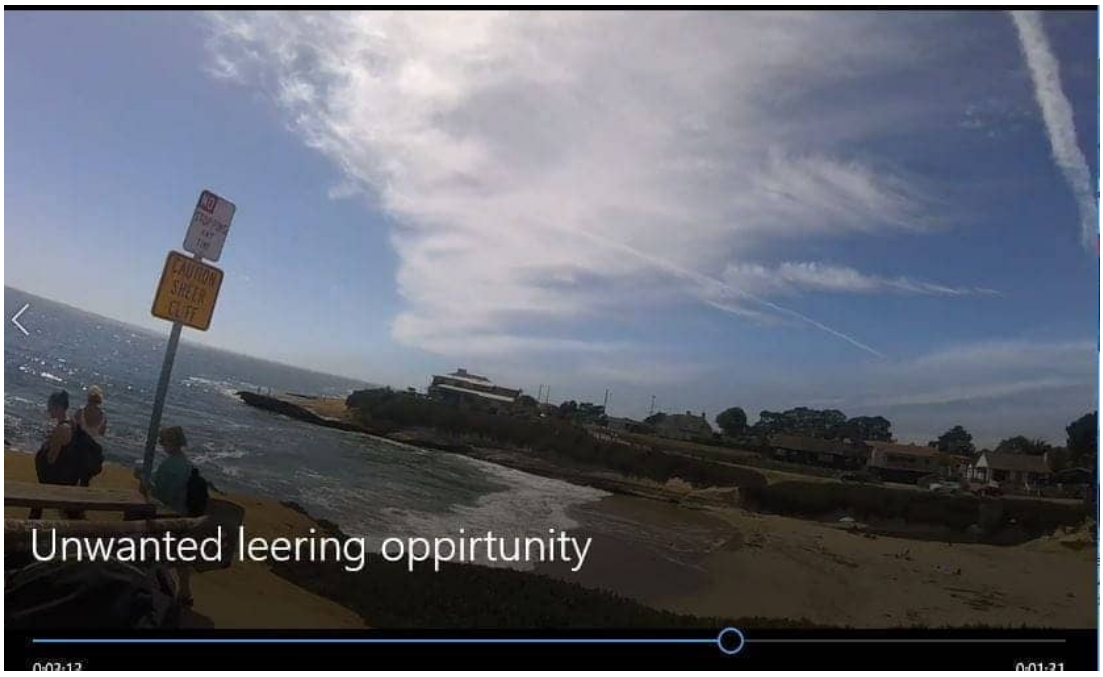
Manufacturing the public appearances OTHERS are in that false trafficking ring bolsters the false claim I am in the manufactured ring.

Expecting A Plant

Expecting me to arrive at that same scenic locations a few seconds after he arrived

---

Does she meat expectations?



Below, an angry phone call from the woman in front of me indicates as ass fetishist peeping tom and a disgusting one is photographing some buttucks. But that is a double of me, not me, and that double is a Marshall, and other marhalls chase that Marshall later.

I attempted to sue over being both harassed and physically assaulted by the acts of the Doppelgangers but B Janice Ellington magistrate denied my en forma pauperis right to file.

Implying I am in some way “rich” and these poor children are abused, certainly there is disdane for me.

I believe she was and is working with Global Kids, Andy Ellington CIA DOD labs, and claimed rights to me genes for asset seizures, and that this ties to faking permissions to my genome from MKULTRA of my father and mother in the 1960s.

My DNA in others must be explained, and that it was a lawsuit settlement explains that.

Thus this book goes into genetics such as RFLPL, HLAs, family databases, mitochondria, and other issues of genetics.

US Marshalls Fighting White Supremacism and the Enforcement Acts

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Enforcement_Act_of_1870

The Enforcement Act of 1870, also known as the Civil Rights Act of 1870 or First Ku Klux Klan Act, or Force Act was a United States federal law written to empower the President with the legal authority to enforce the first section of the Fifteenth Amendment throughout the United States. The act was the first of three Enforcement Acts passed by the United States Congress from 1870 to 1871 during the Reconstruction Era to combat attacks on the suffrage rights of African Americans from state officials or violent groups like the Ku Klux Klan.[1]

From a later chapter in this book, Rod Rosenstein and Marshalls

WRITTEN STATEMENT OF ROD J. ROSENSTEIN NOMINEE TO SERVE AS DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

UNITED STATES SENATE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY
WASHINGTON, D.C.
MARCH 7, 2017

Corruption and civil rights cases are among our most sensitive and important matters, particularly when other agencies have not vindicated the rights of victims. Iconic photographs from the 1960s show Justice Department lawyers and U.S. Marshals protecting students from racist attacks on their way to school. Modern cases may not be as dramatic, but they continue to illuminate and address the harm caused when government officials disregard the rule of law.

FBI Legend, an impression or back-story manufactured about a person, and the building of a “Legend” which incites persecution and ostracism of me or simply a Frame Up

Below see the basics system of framing a person for the act of another, in this case black marshalls framing a white supremacist for peeking at white women when they are doing it.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Frameup

In the United States criminal law, a frame-up (frameup) or setup is the act of framing someone, that is, providing false evidence or false testimony in order to falsely prove someone guilty of a crime.[1] While incriminating those who are innocent might be done out of sheer malice, framing is primarily used as a distraction.

Generally, the person who is framing someone else is the actual perpetrator of the crime. In other cases it is an attempt by law enforcement to get around due process. Motives include getting rid of political dissidents or “correcting” what they see as the court’s mistake. Some lawbreakers will try to claim they were framed as a defense strategy.

Frameups in labor disputes sometimes swing public opinion one way or the other. In Massachusetts, during the 1912 Lawrence Textile Strike, police acting on a tip discovered dynamite and blamed it on the union. National media echoed an anti-union message. Later, the police revealed that the dynamite had been wrapped in a magazine addressed to the son of the former mayor. The man had received an unexplained payment from the largest of the employers. Exposed, the plot swung public sympathy to the union.[2]

Frameups often use conspiracy theories to hide the true crimes of the accused. Individuals use these conspiracy theory to hide actions of others that have been turned in. For example, there were frameup accusations in the anthrax incident involving the United States Postal Service.[3]

A frameup where a police officer shoots an unarmed suspect and then places a weapon near the body is a form of police misconduct known as a “throw down”. This is used to justify the shooting by making it appear that the officer fired in self-defence or to defend other bystanders.[4]

In British usage, to frame, or stitch up, is to maliciously or dishonestly incriminate someone or set them up, in the sense trap or ensnare.

Ongoing Blind Medical Involuntary MKULTRA Biological Weapons Division Victims, Myself At Least

By creating a crime, then solving it by blaming me behind the scenes, what can the Marshalls get for their non whites?

What could these people do for their retarded and autistics framing a case against me?

Perhaps working with this guy in a squalid border town of economic despair?

The Marshals Service supports communities by transferring certain types of forfeited assets to state, local and nonprofit organizations. Through the Operation Goodwill program, forfeited real or personal property of marginal value can be transferred to state or local governments in support of drug abuse treatment, drug crime prevention and education, housing, job skills and other community-based public health and safety programs.

South Texas District Attorney under fire for writing 'ftp' on social media

The post included the hashtag "ftp," which is most known to stand for "F--- the police."

"Self funding" assets seizing Black Marshalls, Black Corpus Christi PD, Black FBI.

Ongoing MKULTRA and designer Babies from Seized genomics “owed” to victims of a White Supremacist, living alone

That is both the premise and the fit of the massive evidence in this book, the other four books, the lawsuits, archives, available witnesses, history, and other materials presented here.

My family genomic ties go back to MKULTRA and Illuminati CIA OSS Vatican work including under JFK during the missile crisis, and the Obama birth was tied to that in experimental babies of mixed race and mixed genes for future economic world development, and further seized assets tie to both Judge Roll asset seizure cases related to this as did a case before Justice Scalia and race and IQ.

This is a book on MKULTRA and Ongoing MKULTRA

https://www.counterpunch.org/2017/11/17/the-cias-house-of-horrors-the-abominable-dr-gottlieb/

How CIA scientist Sidney Gottlieb - the ‘most prolific torturer of his generation’ - used potent drugs, extreme temperatures, food and sleep deprivation and electroshock for his mind control experiments on human ‘expendables’

Over a period of twenty years as a scientist with the agency, Sidney Gottlieb ran the largest systematic search for mind control techniques in history

He presided over medical experiments and ‘special interrogations’ of prisoners, addicts, mentally and terminally ill patients, unwitting citizens and even children

‘Gottlieb justified it all in the name of science and patriotism,’ writes Stephen Kinzer in Poisoner in Chief: Sidney Gottlieb and the CIA Search for Mind Control

Patients were dosed with potent drugs, subjected to extremes of temperature and sound, high and low pressure, oxygen, food and sleep deprivation, strapped to electroshock machines

And the border town of Corpus Christi Texas an ongoing CIA experiment with me trapped in it.

The town and county and even state are using a “genome tax” like a property tax, assessing my genome for alleged crimes against the county and testing out designer babies and designer baby orphanages in the U.S. under manufactured genome rights.

This MKULTRA work also legitimizes, seemingly, genome already in the OBama family through MKULTRA Birther of the Pacific Missile Crisis and further spread of that shared Donegan Obama genome throughout the world as ongoing Defense Intelligence Agency MKLUTRA, and that Pizzagate continues Midnight Climax, partying with adult entertainers who will surrogate test designer babies for the CIA.

All this under Project Paperclip, Artichoke, Monarch, and other programs tied to Werhner Von Braun, Boeing, and others in 1960s Futurism.

The Basic Obama Story

What I call MKULTRA Birtherism, the only thing that can explain this, is that on Feb 20 1961 the CIA DOD fertilized me I gained a half brother, Barack Obama, also born Nov 18/19 from my mother's ovum, but used with Malcom X fertilization, like Eva Ban surrogate, and Dumham who was not a mother had Newman alias.

The plan was to disavow the St Josephs Hospital Los Angles CA birth and claim a Mombasa Kenya birth for foreign insert of the barely or non American.

In 1981 the plan was for Obama in the U.S. and the Occidental speech and the fake SSN from a dead Connecticut man (Ludwig) Madelyn Dunham, CAI alleged grandmother of OBama, swiped from the deaths probate office of Hawaii.

The whole point of Malcom X Glorian DOnegan covert parenst was a secret leadership baby who could defuse the Pacific Missle Crisis and stop the spread of communism and part of the Atlantic and Pacific Missile Crisis discussed by Boeing, JFK, Windsors, and others in Seattle Futurism.

Later my family DNA would be used for the Obama children, allegedly me giving into blackmail, but that was and continues to be an impersonator.

Lorreta Fuddy died Dec 13 but created a matching birth certificate upon request.

The Colonization Of Mars! where the Rockefellers landed in Akransas

But, I will share some things with you; for you need to understand that a very great work has been taking place, far greater than any of you can ever imagine.

I must tell you that when these crafts enter into this portal from Camp Robinson, and most often from their underground locations, that they enter slowly into this inter-dimensional space and as they pass through this space, they travel up and out through my body. If you were to be in my house and these crafts were passing through this portal, (which is about the size of two football fields, as I understand it, and out through this gateway,) and if you touched my body, you would feel the movements of these trains and aircraft as they pass through my physical body. It is this passage of these crafts through this inter-dimensional space, which is attached to my body, and the passage of them also through my body, which has caused me to be so very ill for many months of this past year.

Also, because of this constant movement, and believe me, it is constant, my body is so terribly burdened and I am continually so tired that I am not able to do much work. As I understand it, I have actually died more than forty times since June of 2013 and of both of necessity and because of His great love and mercies, our Saviour has continually brought me back to life. Blessed is His Holy Name!

But, Dear Ones, it is not just the passage of these crafts and trains through these portals. Dear Souls, as I understand it, Camp Robinson has a very great underground complex and as I understand it also, this is Satan's world headquarters. It is no wonder that in the Bible, in Revelation, Chapter Twelve, the word tells us that Satan is in the face of the woman; for I live only a few miles from this base and for twenty-five years, even when I lived in North Little Rock, Arkansas, I have lived only a few miles from this base. Next to Camp Robinson is Camp Pike. This base is named after Albert Pike, the father of modern freemasonry, which is Satan's worldwide occult organization. That Satan would be in my face is foretold in the Book of Revelation in the 12th chapter, but what is told there is only a very brief outline.

Metro Churches

www.fullcounsel.org

Full Counsel Preparatory Academy

James Woolsey, CIA director complementing the Sidney Gottlieb Technical Weapons program, saying he can't get an appointment with Bill Clinton, is the CIA director under the Clintons and his brother and he have offices in Corpus Christi Texas at a 555 building possibly listed as a shadow government regarding “brain berries.”

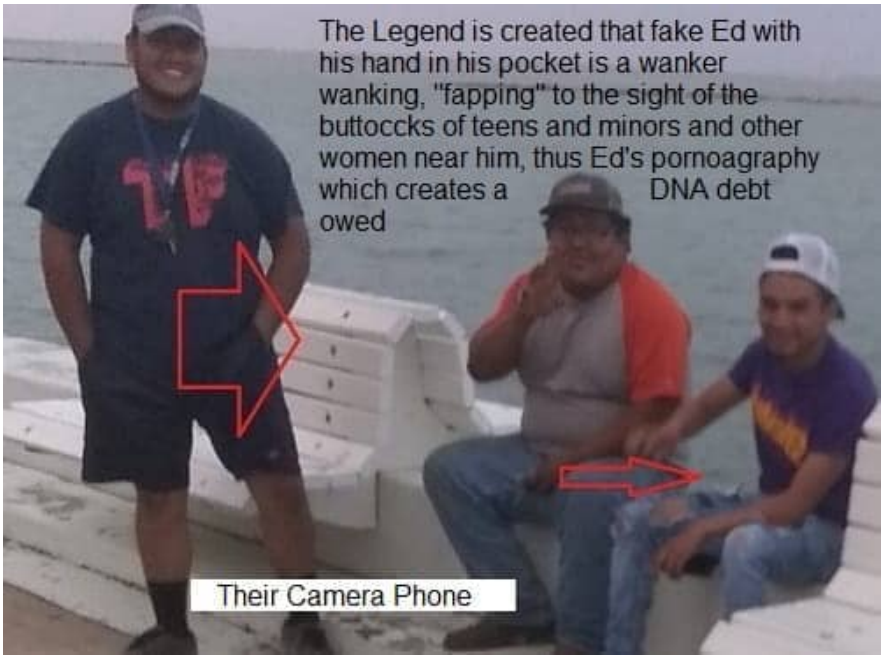
I remain trapped in the butt stain of a toilet as their wanton vixens assault me, me spitting at them, then me being assaulted for spitting at them.

Dragged into the Ghetto

Austin, Capitola, Monterey

Feeces Nueces



I am their victim, not vice versus, in a “speed trap town” of corruption and racketeering and murders to cover it up, like murders of Jay Thompson, FLoyd Simpson, Bobby Courtney, Jimmy, and others who all pointed at City Hall and Hispanic gang members running the operation, which btw Linda Newkirk said ran the program as muscle as well.

This book

Texas

Frederick Herman Korth (September 9, 1909 - September 14, 1998) served as the 56th U.S. Secretary of the Navy during 1962-63; he was also an Assistant Secretary of the Army in 1952-53.

Appointed as Navy Secretary by President John F. Kennedy on January 4, 1962, Korth resigned October 14, 1963 effective November 1, 1963. Various sources cite different reasons for Secretary Korth's departure.

When Frederick Herman Korth was not serving in the above public or private sector capacities, Fred Korth was a lawyer in private practice. One of his better known cases[4] was a small one heard June 24, 1948 in the County of Tarrant, Texas, when his client, Edwin A. Ekdahl, was officially divorced from Marguerite Frances Claverie Ekdahl (also known as Marguerite Oswald), whose son from a previous marriage was Lee Harvey Oswald.[5] Following the end of Korth's first marriage in 1964, he began a romantic relationship with heiress and socialite Marjorie Merriweather Post, daughter of breakfast-cereal magnate C. W. Post, twenty years his senior. He was a co-executor of Post's will. Part of her estate was her mansion on Palm Beach Island, Mar-a-Lago, purchased in 1980 by Donald Trump.

O

n August 23, 1980, he wed widowed Charlotte Brooks Williams.[6][7] Korth died in September 1998 in El Paso, Texas and is buried under a three century old Texas Live Oak tree on his ranch in Karnes County, Texas.

is stepdaughter, Melissa Williams O'Rourke, is the mother of former U.S. Representative Beto O'Rourke.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Farrah Fawcett, Heath Ledger, Chris Cornell, were these deaths before a story broke in the news, stories they had information on?

A case of cancer may have killed Farrah Fawcett before her time, and just before Barrack Obama Jr. was sworn in President of the USA.

Farrah Fawcett retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Farrah Leni Fawcett (born Ferrah Leni Fawcett;[1] February 2, 1947 - June 25, 2009)

A Roman Catholic,[9] Fawcett began her early education at the parish school of the church her family attended, St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church in Corpus Christi.[5] She graduated from W. B. Ray High School in Corpus Christi, where she was voted "most beautiful" by her classmates in her freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior years of high school.

Nazi Hunter: The Beate Klarsfeld Story

Nazi Hunter: The Beate Klarsfeld Story is a 1986 American made-for-television biographical drama film, starring Farrah Fawcett in the title role, and Tom Conti. The film also stars Geraldine Page and Catherine Allégret.

The film tells the true story on the life of Beate Klarsfeld, a German who documented the actions that took place during the Holocaust. The film was praised for its scripts, directing, and particularly the strong performance by Fawcett, who was in the middle of transforming herself into being a serious actress. For her performance, Fawcett was nominated for a Golden Globe.

Plot The film tells the true story on the life of Beate Klarsfeld, a German who documented the actions that took place during the Holocaust.

Cast

FARRAH FAWCETT AS BEATE KLARSFELD

Born Ferrah Leni Fawcett February 2, 1947 Corpus Christi, Texas, U.S. Died June 25, 2009 (aged 62) Santa Monica, California, U.S.

TOM CONTI AS SERGE KLARSFELD

Thomas Antonio Conti was born on 22 NOVEMBER 1941 in Paisley, Renfrewshire Scotland, the son of hairdressers Mary McGoldrick and Alfonso Conti.[1] He was brought up Roman Catholic, but is now antireligious[2]. His father was Italian, while his mother was born and raised in Scotland to Irish parents.[3][4] Conti was educated at independent Catholic boys' school Hamilton Park[5] and at the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama, both in Glasgow.

HÉLÈNE VALLIER AS RAISSA KLARSFELD

CATHERINE ALLÉGRET AS SIMONE LAGRANGE

FÉODOR ATKINE AS LUC PLEYEL

GERALDINE SUE PAGE

Page was born NOVEMBER 22, 1924 in Kirksville, Missouri, the second child of Edna Pearl (née Maize) and Leon Elwin Page[1] who worked at Andrew Taylor Still College of Osteopathy and Surgery (combined with the American School of Osteopathy, eventually to form A.T. Still University). He was an author whose works included Practical Anatomy (1925), Osteopathic Fundamentals (1926), and The Old Doctor (1932).[2] She had one older brother, Donald.

At age five, Page relocated with her family to Chicago, Illinois.[1] Raised a Methodist, Page and her family were active parishioners of the Englewood Methodist Church in Chicago, where she had her first foray into acting

LILIANE ROVÈRE AS MADAME KADOUSCHE

Christus Spohn About Us retrieved from https://www.christushealth.org/ and copied or modified to here

At CHRISTUS Health, we deliver a complete healing experience that respects the individual. We serve our communities with dignity. And with a good deal of admiration. CHRISTUS Health is a Catholic, not-for-profit system made up of more than 600 centers, including long-term care facilities, community hospitals, walk-in clinics and health ministries. We are a community 45,000 strong, with over 15,000 physicians providing individualized care.

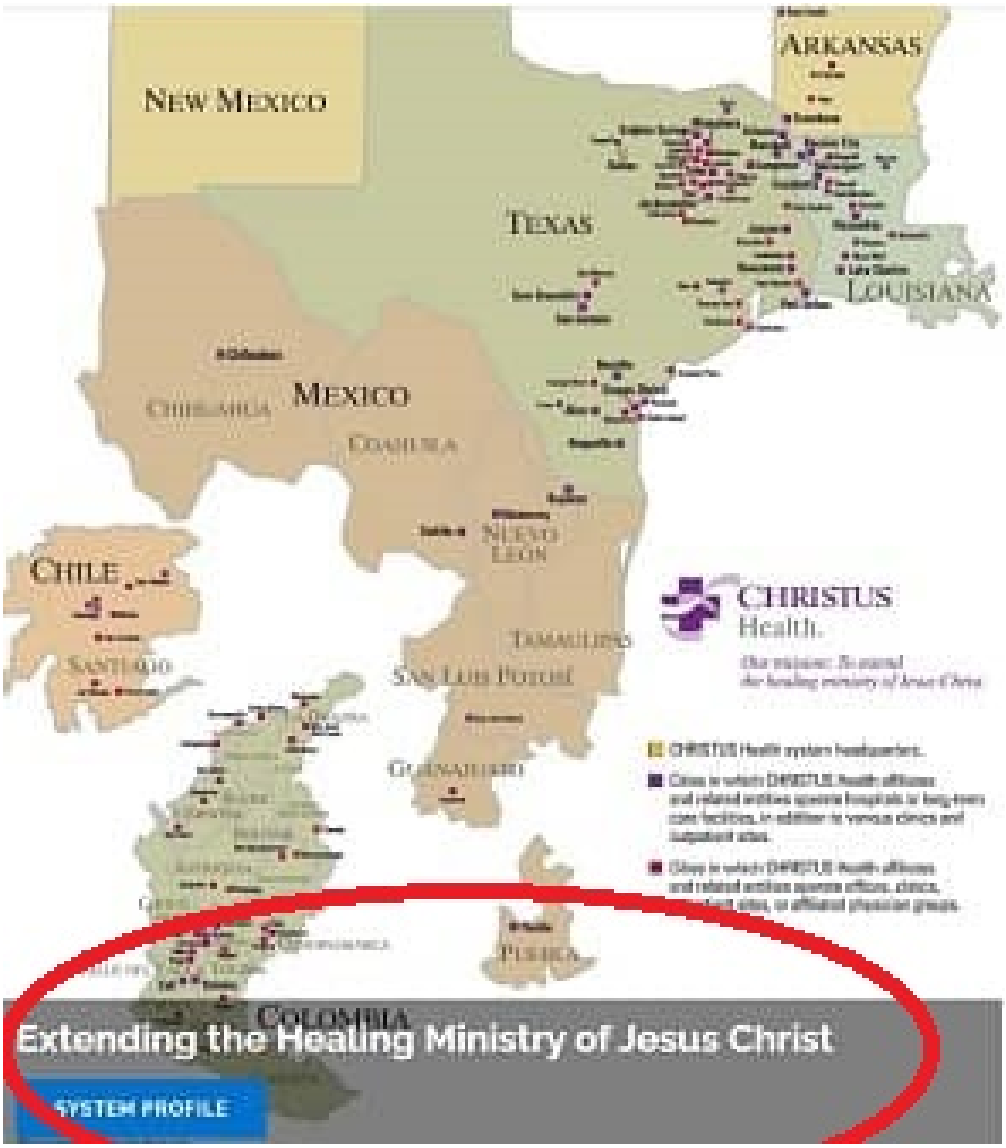
Sponsored by the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word in Houston and San Antonio and the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth, our mission is to extend the healing ministry of Jesus Christ to every individual we serve.

EXTENDING THE HEALING MINISTRY OF JESUS CHRIST

We are inspired by our mission, vision and core values to deliver compassionate, high quality health care, improving the health of the communities we serve.

Above all, we are committed to providing our customers and their family members with a truly unique healing experience, one that embodies our values and respects the dignity and worth of each person. Creating a health care system that is truly excellent in all areas is an ongoing effort.

WhileI have been on site at Christus SPohn they have been running the Grifter ploy long con system and on 7/22/2021 the staff and security at the hospital tried to force words in my mouth the CDROM I was doppring off was for mental health counselors and NOT the legal dept. This occured in the main lobby hospital visotors area. A casheir said she had trouble with my card and gestured its usage three times as I bought breakfast.



As a cross-international-borders operation a Religious works hospital services Hispanics as an emphasis. Just as Time and Space form entity, Non white immigrant felons ineligible by prison or immigration status are able to use gambit false complaints against white ashiest in what matches up as Ethnic Bragging RIghts in claims of being the wronged party.

A politically backed incursion system in which ineligible immigrants to the USA do not have a basis for claims for immediate relief in the US Legal system unless and Establishment White harms them while they are vulnerable undocumented. This effectively insan “anchor claim” of being abused by a US citizen inside the USA which them makes them entrants into victims housing, compensation, etc., Salvation Army Misiters appear to help the false claims aginast US establishment whites, at least me, that for sure.

The District Attorney of Nuecees tied to a “Bandidos” like motorcycle club (which may also be an affiliate or it) backs these immigrants in their claims. His name is Mark Gozonales. The Courts and Social Services have found this pipiline of funds a regular taproot as well.

Home		Public	Long Con Set Not Actually My Home
Zone “A”	Zone “B” (stalking, Mercenaries, Evidence Plants)			Zone “C” flooded with undercover Political Psychology operatives to vote down presence of me where I would have otherwise gone to and been accepted
My PRIVATE HOME	Stolen property from my home, planted evidence in my home, surveillance of my home Sexually Abusive Assaults Physical Assaults Other assaults	In-explicit though obvious non verbal assaults, photobombs, planted people, etc., who deny they are trespassing against my use of public locations	My stolen clothes, NEXT to but not my apartment, etc.,	This is the Roadblocking, Gangs of undercover Mercenaries flood where I was going to and accept and propagate (office mob rumor mongering) (talking up) the evidence plants and I am blackballed from Zone “C” Wanted, intended, associations, links with, of myself or my mother

Disrupted (unjust debasement)	Erupted (unjust enrichment from false flags) SJW beneficiaries act out against themselves and others, blaming me for the acts gaining politically and in assets
Victim	← Death threats and other threats including racially and/or religiously motivated

In Felony Racketeering and Intersate Commerce you (ARC of Northern Virginia) intervened in MY buying a Kawasaki and using it normally, you from a positoin of power created a mentally developmentally challenged loser peeper device which then would be destroyed as my reputaiton was, but your OTHER beneficiaries victims of me

From: Wade Swim noreply@trafficlogpro.com

To:eddonegan@yahoo.com Thu, Sep 14, 2017 at 10:41 AM

Corpus Christi Cycle Plaza

2937 South Padre Island Drive
Corpus Christi, TX 78415
Phone: (361) 852-7368

Fax: [with ARC of NOVA

ED, Wade here, this is a little bit of information on your new bike. $5,500.00 OTD with free delivery. Remember this is a used bike she may not last OFFER good till the end of business 9/16/17. Thanks for coming in

A Representative of Jesus Christ, a motorcycle admires the work of Jesus Christ who are wasding in the hot tub and swmiing pool at a Golds Gym where the door leads into the hot tub, pool, and Sauna. a few miles from the University and near the Beach freeway.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

TARGETED PERSON:

An individual who has been placed into a program of psychological and often physical warfare tactics which are orchestrated by criminal organizations, corrupt politicians, government agencies, security companies, law enforcement personnel, colleges, doctors, scientists and corporations.

COVERT HARASSMENT:

Also known as gangstalking or organized stalking, is a highly criminal campaign directed at a targeted individual that aims to destroy an innocent person's life through slander and carefully executed psychological and physical assaults.

SLANDER CAMPAIGN:

An intentional, premeditated effort to undermine an individual's reputation, credibility, and character.

1. Claiming I am Schizophrenic, I think a peeping motorcycle is Wade Swim

2. Claim that I am peeing into locations I am not, because Dopple of me are who "jism" and "fap" to women they peep on

3. Claiming the because of my alledged Schizoprhenia bevahoiral health care will (abusively mismanage my life, misdiagnose my FOXP2 as Impulse Disorder Bipolar Origins, force me into homeless shelters

4. “Pay my bills” for me for harm to others with the DNA they know they can hide the value of and black market

See Wanking, Sea Wall “fapping”

Veronica Lake was a buxom blonde actress famous for creating the “peek-a-bo” affect of looking from behind her veil of hair. If I was peeking at females in the area of the Sea Wall bay shore then these immigrant families and their churches could sue my trust fund and slander me extensively in a campaign that involves cultural violence as a transecentalist ethical motive for obvious fraud.

Even more so than me be slandered as a peeping tom it would justify physcical attacks and social ostracism of me, rejected lease applications, and other downturns in my life.

> “The peek-a-boo” effect.
>
> From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia/ ***
>
> It was during the filming of I Wanted Wings that Lake developed her signature look. Lake’s long blonde hair accidentally fell over her right eye during a take and created a “peek-a-boo” effect. “I was playing a sympathetic drunk, I had my arm on a table … it slipped … and my hair - it was always baby fine and had this natural break - fell over my face … It became my trademark and purely by accident”, she recalled.

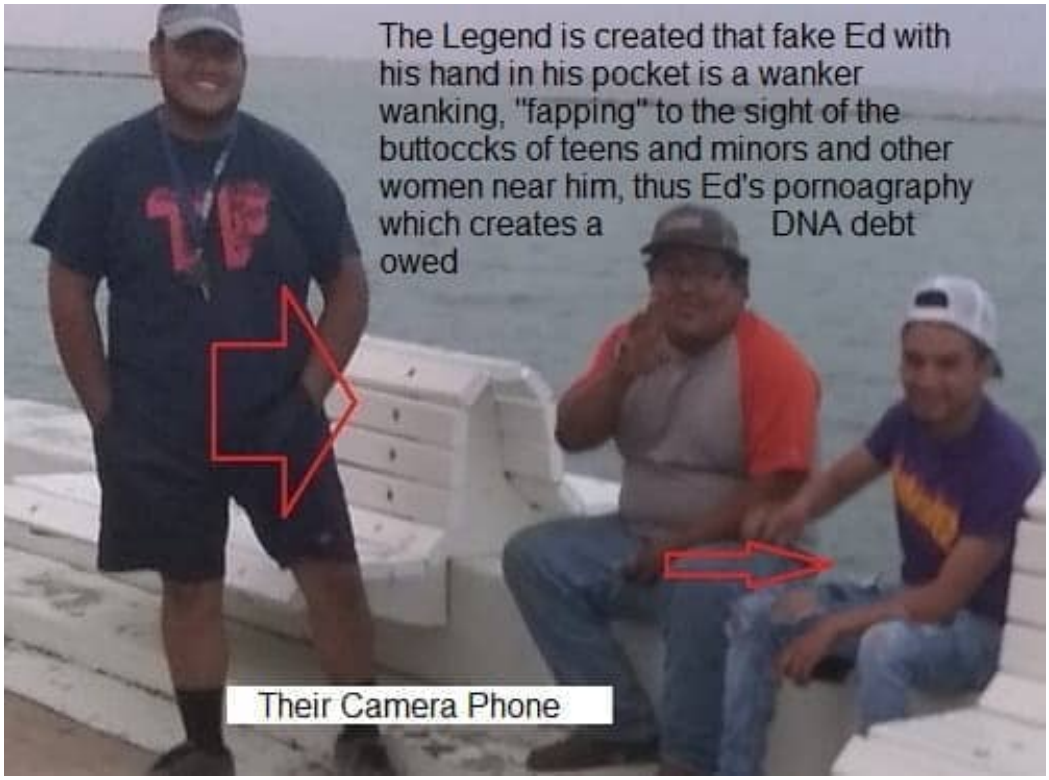
A Legend is built via a Dopple’s acts that I rather than the Dopple is a peepoing tom and threat to females including retarded vulberbabel females, minors, and those in tight clothing. The peeping tom will confess under pressure and “buy” the sight of women by paying in DNA rights, using my DNA not theirs.

I Edward Paul Donegan and my Trust Fund left by my mother will be blamed for the acts of these Impersonators (Dopples) designed to destroy my reputation and rights by their own acts.

As I photograph them they hid the camera used to photograph a minor female, perhaps 17, white, blonde, placing herself in my vicinity and in public where photo bombs of my normal run can not be stopped by me



Veronica Lake

Born Constance Frances Marie Ockelman November 14, 1922 Brooklyn, New York, U.S. Died July 7, 1973 (aged 50) Burlington, Vermont, U.S.

Find A Grave website photo

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia Constance Frances Marie Ockelman (NOVEMBER 14, 1922 - JULY 7, 1973), known professionally

as Veronica Lake, was an American film, stage, and television actress. Lake was best known for her femme fatale roles in film noirs with Alan Ladd during the 1940s, her peek-a-boo hairstyle, and films such as Sullivan's Travels (1941) and I Married a Witch (1942). By the late 1940s, Lake's career began to decline, due in part to her alcoholism. She made only one film in the 1950s, but made several guest appearances on television. She returned to the big screen in 1966 in the film Footsteps in the Snow (1966), but the role failed to revitalize her career.

Lake's memoir, Veronica: The Autobiography of Veronica Lake, was published in 1970. Her final screen role was in a low-budget horror film, Flesh Feast (1970). After years of heavy drinking, Lake died at the age of 50 in July 1973, from hepatitis and acute kidney injury.

For her contribution to the motion picture industry, Lake has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame at 6918 Hollywood Boulevard.

The song written as a tribute to her Love is Blue was used by comics for transplant jokes New new My Heart is New .. and appears to be an MKULTRA cloning reference. Cloning / transpalants research song sung in Moraga 1970s and 1980s by children. Paul Underwood Kellogg was an activist and journalist. After graduating high school he became a reporter and city editor of the Kalamazoo Daily Telegraph. Further Reading

The harmed females are likely Gambits trained to be victimized by their chruch so a "white supremacist" would be blamed and defamed.

Logan's Run Wiki is a FANDOM Books Community retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

CUBS (LOGAN'S RUN - BOOK AND FEATURE FILM)

The Cubs are a group of adolescent rebels. Billy is the leader of the Cubs in Cathedral. Cubs are violent and aggressive and have been known to kill Sandmen who venture into Cub territory.

The Cubs, poor migrant community, backed by the community and government will make a mark of me by victimizing themselves near me, and use a double of me to both victimize their community and confess to doing it, the double leaving the scene he and I were at to confess out of my presence.

Assaultive statements or acts towards me creates confusion who took a picture of a female. Like with gun fire unless a laser beem is used it would be hard for an honest person to know who took a picture at scene were multiple people were moving around.

Racially Motivated, Racially Envious, Racial Predation

London After Midnight. London in Skid Row

> London After Midnight is a music project by writer, #vegan, political & animal rights activist Sean Brennan. LAM has toured the world & influenced many artists.

I began a workout in a gym that was being blocked, I think a long term State politicians interest in my being overweight in a short unmarried life, and during my gym workouts I used music like Beatles music with hip 60s videos of Mods and London, Dj Delight, black and white cool of She's Not There by the Zombies to cool woman on loveseat in a black dress, etc.

But the results I got in the gym using extensive music interests and knowledge and extensive diabetes reearch was exmplar, and other people wanted to be that gym example as I had tees planted around me, unsophisticated, in blue jeans, exploited, and pourly adjustted.

The men told me I was a piece of shit for abusing these young unsophisticaed women, mostly if not all of them black gym trainers who took over my exstenisve biological and music workout logs, meanwule black females cat called me with whistlse, sexual suggestiveness, spreading legs at me, bending over in front of me, and saying they weere going to haee my baby.

In short others literally wanted what I had and the Arc of Northern Virginia changed the trust fund name from "Glorian Donegan" to the "Family Grow Fund" as expanding a Donegan family to those who surround Ed DOnegan and claim his DNA.

At the same time a Barrack Obama connected black female with deep roots to my brother Tom Donegan took over as a Trust Fund Worker, Trinitas Nsabimana.

Involuntarily, and on the basis of false claims about my being sexually aggressive towards the community I would therefore have to "pay with my DNA” who already was acting like family by reappearances next to me though acting like criminals trying to get the genetic legacy of Glorian and James Donegan by hostility motivated false and damaging Deep Pockets claims against the trust fund my mother left and consistent behavior of selling the false claims by acting towards me like we are bitter enemies based on how I,I, acted.

This process of claiming my sexual misconduct harmed their community, on a racial basis, and my being sued for DNA they, the community called and skitted out “making little brown princesses’ which I allegedly idolized.

MKULTRA and repeating the trauma

In Bondage and Discipline sexuality one of the things people are cognizant of is “buttons” and how to deal with sometimes deep running issues which my tie directly or indirectly to abuse.

Some play may leave a person feeling harmed though they may have an unhealthy love hate with emotions tied to a trauma and thus unhelpfully repeat it, perhaps as all they know.

I think MK-ULTRA is repeated the abuse of February 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 using my mother’s DNA without permission, again with the Obama children, now, again, with others, simply repeating rather than growing beyond erroneous conduct.

Face Everything and Recover applies to MK-ULTRA, and getting out of FBI CIA NSA abuses.

I consider this ongoing CIA FBI NSA MKULTRA illegality based on study of, hostility towards, and entanglement with me racially and reproductively, and par for the course of MK-ULTRA activity all through its history and also the kind of stalking of a person the Church Committee investigated and never ended.

Goth, Cyber Goth, and Industrial

Again, in Transposition, I had long been gong to goth clubs in San Francisco and always played that down but many who saw the mad max sexy skimpy hand sewn looking pieced together goth frilly styles, it became a “hot topic” to the gym staff who all were said or saying they were originators of cybergoth.

One example for instance is that I found on the Octane Fitness Elliptical it very useful to use cybergoth arm swing videos I could time with and really push the handles hard to with the music pulse.

People skirted out I wanted the cybergoth women to “kick my balls” or children to “kick my balls” and I was a threat to the gym.

They also skitted out that they were my coaches. I was using Cybergoth dance videos on Octaine equipment in Arlington VA where doing it lowered by A1c from 13.3 to 4.7.

I could not afford to do laundry, had no gym clothes, and got in fight with the trust fund about that, even rolls of quarters and doing laundry.

I was arrested in that fight and after arrest, alter in Golds Gym Corpus Christi. It hardly seemed I was using my same old workout when a male on the lower floor put on a Cybergoth mask in the gym (I don’t know why) looked up to me on the Second floor, a half floor, and held a weight plate in front of his chest, rotating it to my arm movements clockwise to counter clockwise as I went for to back with than handls, and him nodding his head at me to keep it going.

Cybergoth dance videos invokable high energy like stabbing motions with the arms, often with body swing or knees near touches, etc., sort of like a traffic director on a carrier flat top carrier, but with knee motion too.

This harassed and stigmatized me though my gym plan and music were used by others, others doing so “in a pure way, non-exploitative.”

I used my own gym tablet since this music fair was not readily available in the gym otherwise. That was then alleged to be peeping device and people moved away from my workouts

OECD

I think I come from a good family line and what I always cited on IQ is that normally people with high IQ tend to self educate well with little instruction, thus often lead and develop new things rather than follow existing paths, and that runs in me though no one wants to admit that, but that is part of the study of my DNA.

Targeted Publications from www.surveillancesurvivors.org

Ramblings of a So-Called Paranoid Schizophrenic: (a Targeted Individual framed)

In this follow-up to his ground-breaking memoir “Extrajudicial Execution,” Michael Lutterschmidt-who was targeted for surveillance, intimidation, torture and death-presents a series of reflections and theories on subjects ranging from the frightening to the bizarre. Labeled a paranoid-schizophrenic by professionals attempting to discredit his knowledge of government secrets, the author’s perceptive mind weighs in on the abuses and vagaries of religion; the manipulation of society by unseen forces; the presence of magic in our world; exotic new technologies used to spy on citizens and influence minds; explanations for aliens and other paranormal entities; criminal conspiracies in major organizations; and a host of other issues. These must-read “rambles” will both startle and illuminate anyone with an open mind.

Extrajudicial Execution: (Conspiracy Against Rights Under Color of Law, persecution by CIA doing social engineering and frame jobs)

:In his own words, a Targeted Individual (TI) exposes his tormented life and the heartless, sadistic and invasive methods used covertly to undermine his credibility, cause illness and excruciating pain, ruin him financially, tear apart his family, drive him mad and lead him to consider suicide. This dramatic and cautionary tale may seem extreme and far-fetched, but thousands of other Targeted Individuals throughout the world are suffering in silence right now. In this candid account, the author describes the psychological, emotional, mental and physical torture that he has endured for over six years, hoping that he will survive long enough to see this book in print.

Doppelgänger bikes everywhere setting off an alarm a peeping motorcycle is in the area. The Agent Provocateur bike will create rumor and false write ups I was a peeper, and Soldiers for Christ and other religious groups will create the public perception a person like, perhaps me, is peeping at women and has a problem, though they need a pathway to the women who they say are a sickness to be avoided because those interested are spiritually sick.

I become a cover story for them hiring sex workers and cultural instructors on how not to be fourth grade educated farm workers and prison release border town heroin addicts swearing loyalty to Jesus but wanting a more couth entrance into life.

By entangling with me and using my identity for education, cultural study, etc., they can try to fuse my life with theirs and even “Trading Places” displace me in what had been my earlier life.

These are the people faking public appearances, acting like my coaches, who wish as unwanted and unneeded conservators of me actually wish to seize both my aesthetics, intelligence, and genome out of envy, and do so belittling me saying I need them as coaches who will manage me.

Understanding during the course of my life how I came to be targeted Exploitation of others is icky to me. This strange system of shapeless teens and even tots getting victimized by the camera as they are near me and my smart phone usage of Google Maps, etc., never made sense until I found out by overhearing it a Dopple of me who DID victimize that female will have to “pay up” or be arrested, paying up by owing DNA to the minor who was exploited, and then, as behavioral therapy, it seems that same Dopple of me will see adult female buttocks modeled to him in sex therapy calls.

Again, why though I am I, or rather my DNA, a high value target? It is a high value target to destroy the reputation of and leave me isolated, so its true origins and true value is not disclosed, and I am a high value target because those same people targeting me DO know its value and want it for themselves and their families.

Both Tia Marsellia of ARC of Northern Virginia and the black female I met from Nueces County Services have Autistic children, and who doesn’t want to shake down that establishment white person to help the Autistic or minorities WITHOUT giving the white male any bragging rights to good DNA?

Tia Marsellie as a matter of fact had an Autism Institute which she ran out of THE SAME OFFICES she rand the Glorian Donegan trust fund out of, and turned that trust fund into the “family grow fund” for use on people OTHER than Ed Donegan, the sole beneficiary of the trust fund.

I would find out much later they, and Tom Donegan, knew the “sovereign” history of the DNA and why it might be envied and wanted by people running a scam against the trust fund.

Trapping me in skid row, calling me skid row, and telling me I need Social Services of a Skid Row area gave Skid Row Social Workers the access they wanted to my assets, whicih they told me did not exist, but they used in a money laundering way.

Google knowledge panel quoted here

A long con or big con (also, chiefly British English: long game) [5] is a scam that unfolds over several days or weeks and involves a team of swindlers, as well as props, sets, extras, costumes, and scripted lines. It aims to rob the victim of huge sums of money or valuable things, often by getting him or her to empty out banking accounts and borrow from family members.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Confidence_trick

> Short and long cons A short con or “small con” is a fast swindle which takes just minutes. It typically aims to rob the victim of everything in his wallet.[3]
>
> A “long con” or “big con” (also, chiefly British English: long game)[4] is a scam that unfolds over several days or weeks; it may involve a team of swindlers, and even props, sets, extras, costumes, and scripted lines. It aims to rob the victim of huge sums of money or valuables, often by getting him or her to empty out banking accounts and borrow from family members.[5]

Social Justice firms are con jobbing me and my mother by them using their own retards to pretend to be me, and while me and while retarded, their retards harm other retards thus one retard (me a White Supremacist) owes minority and retarded victims.

Their prison releasees, minority ghetto people, etc., are told to assault me as a bad person for what I am alleged to have done to the under privileged.

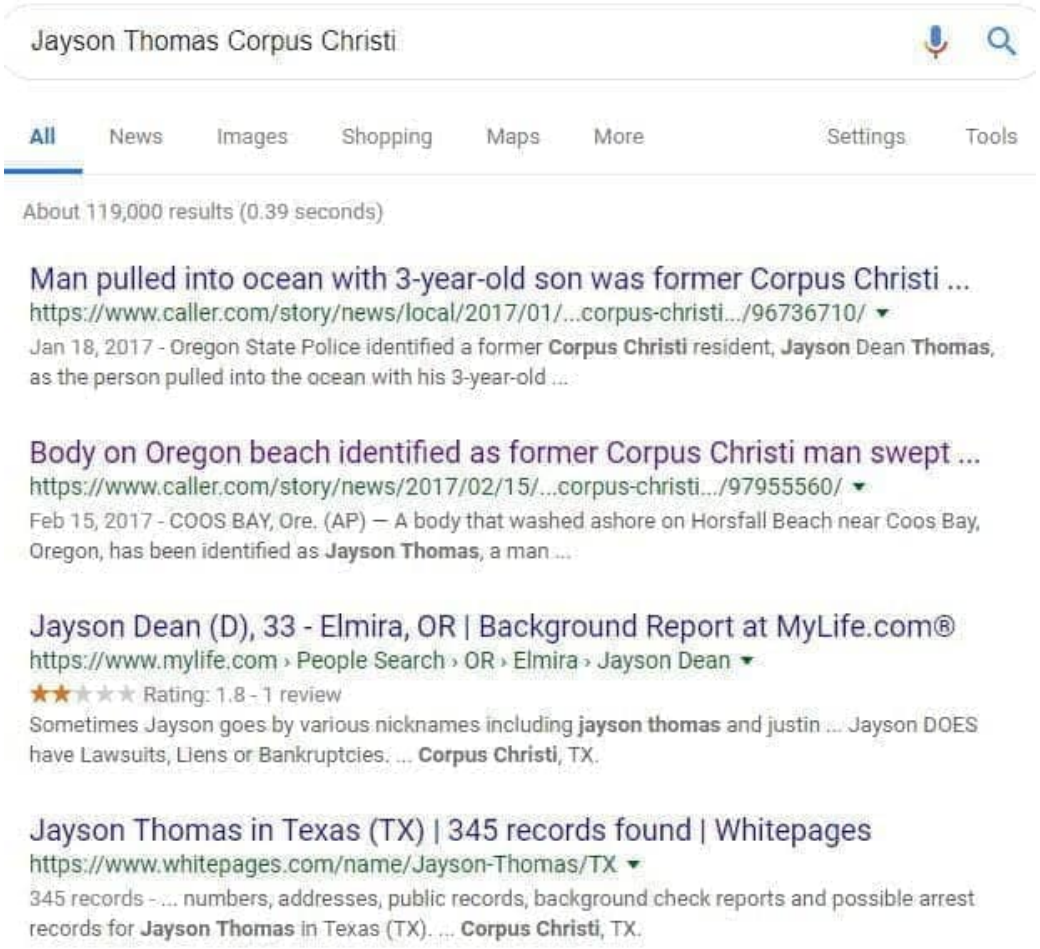
Thus a trust fund setup for me is misdirected to fraudster claimants who do not have a trust fund.

Deaths in Texas

Jay Johsnon was one of those whose organization was asked by someone to frame me, placing young inappropriately dressed females in their work crew at feeds I had to be at because of homelessness.

The feeds were great. Derived from Food Not Bombs of California, the group decided all vegetarian meals wouldn't fit and it was pizza for all, frequently as much as you could eat or always until you were full, sodas, sandwiches, snacks and more down by the Corpus Christi Sea Wall.

Many tied to the operations surrounding me died and I consider his death suspicious. I did even before I discovered recently the SteganoSemantic Cryptome.



The original Guccifer was a real person. He was a Romanian man who had previously hacked his own government, as well as the United States.

His name is Marcel Lazar Lehel. The alias Guccifer is simply a mix between “Gucci” and “Lucifer”.

His hacks revealed the private server being used by Hillary Clinton, emails related to Libya and Benghazi, and several other large leaks. He was found guilty of several crimes.

Indictment for Marcel Lehel

Lehel Born: November 23, 1971 Romania first appeared in news media in February 2013 after the website The Smoking Gun reported he was responsible for hacking the AOL account of Dorothy Bush Koch, sister of former president George W. Bush.[2] Family photos of former president George H. W. Bush, who was in the hospital at the time, were circulated to the internet. He also circulated a self-portrait painted by George W. Bush. Lehel went on to hack a number of AOL, Yahoo!, Flickr, and Facebook accounts, giving him access to information about current and former high-level government officials.

Lehel had no particular computer expertise, but instead used patience and persistence to obtain private information.[5] Lehel had “no fancy equipment, only a clunky NEC desktop and a Samsung cellphone, and no special skills beyond what he had picked up on the web.”[5] He used the simple technique of finding information about his victims online and then using this to guess the correct answers to security questions.[5] At the time of his arrest in 2014, Lehel was an unemployed taxi driver.[5]

Lehel later hacked Colin Powell’s website and accessed years’ worth of his correspondence from another AOL account. The correspondence included personal financial information as well as e-mails to George Tenet, Richard Armitage, and John Negroponte.[7] Through six months of trial and error, Lehel guessed the password of Romanian politician Corina Crețu and gained access to her correspondence with Powell.[5]

The hacker also targeted U.S. Senator Lisa Murkowski; a senior UN official; members of the Rockefeller family; former FBI and Secret Service agents,[8] as well as the brother of Barbara Bush, CBS sportscaster Jim Nantz, and former Miss Maine Patricia Legere.[9]

State Employee Accused of Running Prostitution Ring Dies, Apparent Suicide CHIP BROWN FEBRUARY 18, 1994

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) _ The veteran state employee fired this week after he was accused of running a prostitution ring from his office was found shot to death today, apparently a suicide, police said. The AP

AUSTIN, Tex. - A state employee who was fired this week after being accused of running a prostitution ring from his office was found shot to death Friday, apparently from a self-inflicted wound, police said

This book

Austin

Adler and Casar cutting police budget re-imagining Austin

Austin City Council me... shutterstock.com
Facebook
facebook.com
Austin City Council Plans Homelessness ... homelessness.com
3 days ago
Greg Casar for Austin ... casarforcouncil.com
2014 Austin City Council Elec... kut.org
Budget 101 Townhall with Greg C... youtube.com
Austin City Council Member Greg Ca... communityimpact.com
greg casar | Sierra Club
sierraclub.org
Greg Casar - The Austin Common theaustincommon.com
FIRST GREEN SCHOOL ...
westcave.org
Austin City Council District 4 ... kvue.com
CITY FORUM
Austin:
Moving from an Exclusive to an Inclusive City
Greg Casar
Facebook
Facebook
Images may be subject to copyright. Learn More Related images
See
Gregorio Casar on Twitter: "... twitter.com
Casar hits speed bumps in ... theaustinbulldog.org
Casar proud of victories
austinmonitor.com

Google knowledge panel retrieved from Gregorio Casar (Politician) and copied or modified to here

Gregorio “Greg” Casar is a Texas politician currently serving in the Austin City Council for District 4 since January 6, 2015. Casar is the youngest elected Austin City Council Member and a member of the Democratic Party and the Democratic Socialists of America. Wikipedia

Born: May 4, 1989 (age 32 years), Texas Party: Democratic Party

“And it was then said upon Edward Donegan disliking Corpus Christi he would rent or buy in Austin.”

I had stopped into a realty firm in Austin asking about both buying and renting and as always a Dopple was in tow with me, I do not know what the Dopple was doing.

When I had my car I was parked at the beach of Corpus Christi talking to Chris Lloyd about getting a mortgage as I had also done with Bruce Majors from the Libertarian Party, an organizer, and real estate agent.

I Never did buy a house in Austin, did not succeed in enforcers leases or rental agreements there, and this is the story of Austin and my vagrancy arrests there.

… story continues

This book

Arriving In Corpus Christi a Stateless Deist

Continuing MKULTRA in test bed of Corpus Christi border town and depressed economy as it if were Cuba in a Psychological Warfare test including replacing Government

The Needy. They need materials.

- Glory as victims and heroes in the fight against White Supremacism
- Themselves as Holy, and the victims of a Heathen.
- Cars, drugs, hookers, peeping at white women
- El Genomo for international orphanages and missions of Christian Salvation

The operation of the program gets Prescott Bush, George H.W. CIA Kennedy Assassination, bush admin under George W. Bush, and God and the CIA and the US Missile Command off the hook if religious new genomic awakenings occur as we all are Gods race of Creationism in Sub Saharan Africa, no evolving over time, the brain changing in last 5K years in Europe and Asia.

God’s mission of Salvation to gays, non-whites, and the retarded that Christian owned genetics and Christian Science and Christian missions can be the savior to.

TEMPLO TRINIDAD

If es mos tiennes mass DNA es me handlebar is moy beuno

Neccessitas el CyberGotho DNA.

Arriving In Corpus Christi a Stateless Deist From the first days I arrived in Corpus Christi I found the evil and danger of the Religious State.

The Homeless shelters run by the Churches were immediate scamming me, telling me what I already knew like Dialectics, the Stoic Fork prayer, other things and claiming I needed them thus I developed a deep hatre of them and have tried to form alternative associations but my motorcycle was stolen before a meetup of Atheists, that group also infiltrated, etc.,

Within days of what had happened at those locations I began actually thinking of firebombing the churches with various devices I now call the Heathen Defense Mechanism Fire Bomb (HDMFB) which would by incineration eliminate the delusion from these people I have anything to do with their ministries or their delusion they are part of my mothers trust fund or that we are family worshiping Jesus together and raising children together.

I didn’t do it of course.

During my trip to California I continued to scream at Jim Volcelks be was backing these psychos and together we should hang an upside cross on our front door and keep it burning.

Most of it was just a worst case scenario back of my mind fallback plan but at one time when I first got back to Corpus Christi other leases violated I started to build it, recognized the futility of it and abounded the plan.

The two insurmountable problems were

- It wasn’t going to work I didn’t know anyting anything about them and wasn’t interested in looking up information

- If I did build it I didn’t know who to strike. The Sanctuary of First United Methodist CC or Caller Times which was helping fake everything about events while driving fancy cars, refusing any data from me, and using their own property to assault me from. This problem still precludes using self defense. It would be like striking only one rotor of a Propaganda Muliticopter which would remain airborn and might even be pushed up by the hit.

A remaing problem I give less headence to is the the Propoganda Theory promoted abotu me is I am a pscho will will attack normal people minding their own business for no reason at all.

Other parts of that legend are that I am mentalis and developmentally retarded and I am schizophrenic who can no understand what RICO is and thus I claim RICO exists when it does not. (I think this is CIA Mockingbird program over the course of my life, making a mockery of me and my assertions about the CIA RICO operation)

What the story told about me is of some concern but not too much.

The actual truth of what I decided to do actually occured in between the 7 years of Texas right about the mjddle of that time.

My plans to move to Austin sabotogged, a false pretext for my homelessness manufacture and a false arrest followed by even worse Conspiracy Against Rights I decided to accept ona spirutual level rather than any action Timothy McVeigh as my only and righteous true savior.

C Christopher Wray's Robert Muellers FBI DOJ had already false arrested me and dirty bombed me and D-E-W attacked me for reason could not understand, much like I could not understand the why of the attacks in such odd ways, only that I was being attacked and it related to my DNA and its history and my mother attacked too.

I came to realize only the death of FBI DOJ meant the safety us US citizens. While I was not going to attack them, but rather help them locate thir infiltrators (who use COINTELPRO to assasinate law abiding citizens) I also knew something very rootten DOJ FBI, was in the USA.

I have described Columbian Neckties for CHristopher Wraw, Free Masons, Robert Mueeler and COrpus Crhisti PD for things lke stealikng my computer, but what I thihk of the USA and its evil is a matter of policy for me. My policy is to educate in a way that might wing, piont out these infiltrator traaitors, and restoring Constitutional Conduct and eradicating the NWO Deep State.

I hope that in writing this book the USA will bcome the USA again and the Mafia of the Bush Treason will be defeated by being called out into the light of day.

Repeatedlyh before and after my death insane Ron Paul psychos have surrounded me forcing me to call police on them and threaten them against further contact with me. One such guy was a dark skinned Guns and God type I met at Ron Paul For President volunteer group who became an insane stalker and the Ron Paul activities continued when was reafing the The Semantic Web and they thought it could be aspted to God.

In California a stripier was a Ron Paulite and they were in trucks and bumper stickers all over them Ron Paul in operations surrounding me.

I continue to write the book rather than acts of physical defense though I feel like the Star Trek character who is in a ship disabled by some whale noise emitting shop and oxygen and power are running out.

Christmas Eve 2020 I was carjacked when an Uber driver took me to a Salvation Army facility where from on its property the Salvation Army io their steps used their proximity to me to make contact with me in the Uber vehicle, CCPD did not response to the event and usually even pretend they havef my name or apartment number wrong and help the assailants.

The book though is developing and I hope it will be the best answer shewing a criminal underbelly of Deep State which is behind these attacks and once shown for what it is by this book then US law enforcement can root out the infiltrators that the Deep State is composed of (Fifth Column Illuminati abusing State powers.)

Thus I keep writing, researching, and keep it to that. The Maifa of the Deep State does liek nice cars and the fingr things in life.

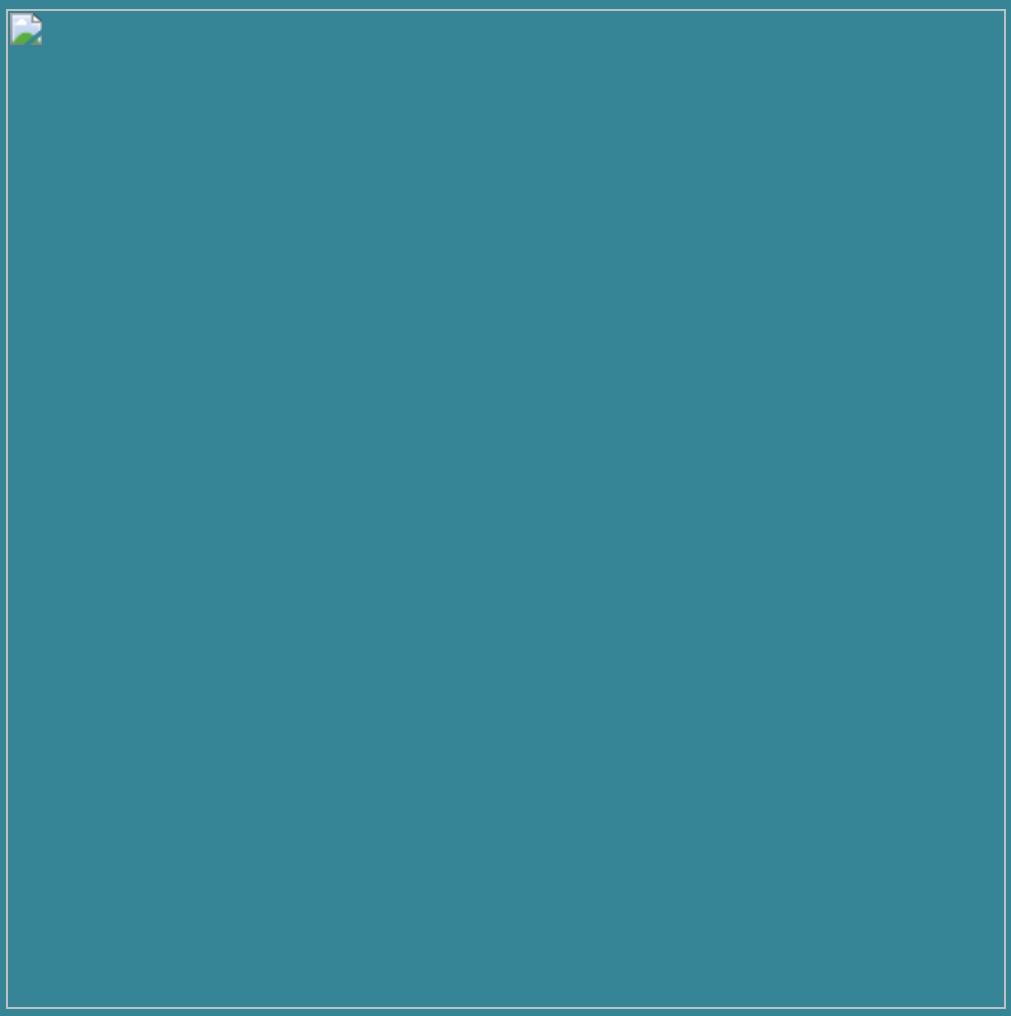
The Great Gatsby (2013 film) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

---

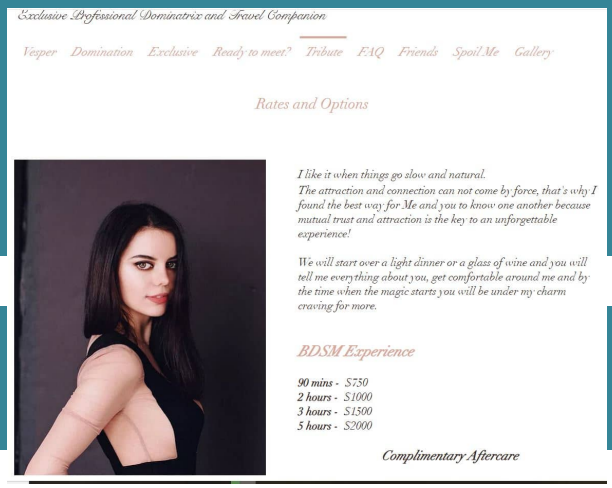


The true cars of ‘The Great Gatsby’ era BY DAVID UNDERCOFFLER Los Angeles Times

This rare 1920 Kissel Model 6-45 “Gold Bug” Speedster is one of the highlights from the Roaring ‘20s that Jay

Gatsby probably would have driven, according to Hagerty Insurance, a classic car insurance and valuation company. (ConceptCarz.com)

Vesper the Spy Girl and the underworld of black market money or shakedown ploys?



False Prophet and False Ministries

Good Vs Evil the Evil who delude themselves as they seek vague luxuries with deceit

Texas Religions operate as the Ballard Family, religious predators ins shake down scheme for minstries eelf-enrichment

I am not even in their missions but if I were they would be ripping me off as the Mallargd family ripped off its parishioners.

> The chief wrong which false prophets do to their following is not financial. The collections aggregate a tempting total, but individual payments are not ruinous. I doubt if the vigilance of the law is equal to making money stick by over-credulous people. But the real harm is on the mental and spiritual plane. There are those who hunger and thirst after higher values which they feel wanting in their humdrum lives. They live in mental confusion or moral anarchy and seek vaguely for truth and beauty and moral support. When they are deluded and then disillusioned, cynicism and confusion follow. The wrong of these things, as I see it, is not in the money the victims part with half so much as in the mental and spiritual poison they get. But that is precisely the thing the Constitution put beyond the reach of the prosecutor, for the price of freedom of religion or of speech or of the press is that we must put up with, and even pay for, a good deal of rubbish. United States v. Ballard (322 U.S. 78)/Dissent Jackson

I Edward Paul Donegan have alleged behavioral government services are taking a retarded version of Edwward Paul Donegan “shows” in which the retarded person admits to harming others and “does the right thing” and pays restitution from a trust fund left for real Edward Paul Donegan.

I am not a gull (gullible) and would deny harming others, but a substitute for me is used to see shows by Vesper.

In the summer of 1922, Nick moved from the Midwest to New York after abandoning writing. He rents a small groundskeeper's cottage in the North Shore village of West Egg, next to the mansion of Gatsby, a mysterious business magnate who often hosts extravagant parties.

Nick receives an invitation to one of Gatsby's parties.

Upon arrival, Nick learns he is the only one who received an invitation and none of the guests have ever met Gatsby. Nick encounters Jordan, and both meet Gatsby. Gatsby later takes Nick to Manhattan for lunch. On the way, Gatsby tells Nick he is an Oxford graduate and war hero from a wealthy Midwestern family.

Tom accuses Gatsby of having never attended Oxford and having made his fortune through bootlegging with mobsters (mafia types).

Locations kidnapping Uber drivers take me too, and the slumms near these places. [where adult entertainers are placed which we drive by]

Habitat for Humanity retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Habitat for Humanity International (HFHI), generally referred to as Habitat for Humanity or Habitat, is a US non-governmental, and nonprofit organization, which was founded in 1976 by couple Millard and Linda Fuller. Habitat for Humanity is a Christian organization. The international operational headquarters are located in Americus, Georgia, United States, with the administrative headquarters located in Atlanta.[1] As of 2020, Habitat for Humanity operates in more than 70 countries.[2]

The mission statement of Habitat for Humanity is "Seeking to put God's love into action, Habitat for Humanity brings people together to build homes, communities and hope".[3] Homes are built using volunteer labor and Habitat makes no profit on the sales.[1] In some locations outside the United States, Habitat for Humanity charges interest to protect against inflation. This policy has been in place since 1986.

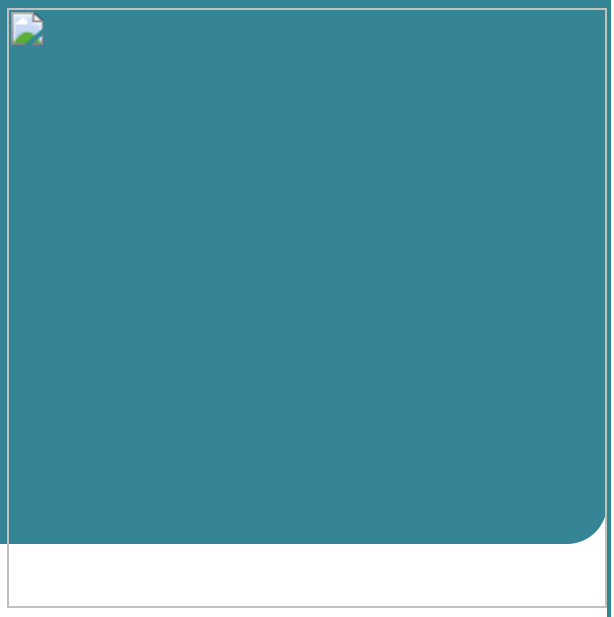
Habitat has helped more than 29 million people construct, rehabilitate or preserve homes since its founding in 1976.[4] As of 2013, Habitat was the largest not-for-profit builder in the world.[5][6]



Beverly Eckert shaking hands with President of the United States Barack Obama less than a week before her death.

Eckert died at age 57 on February 12, 2009, in the crash of Colgan Air Flight 3407 in Clarence Center, New York. She had met with President Barack Obama just a few days before her death in her role as an advocate for those affected by 9/11.

Her husband Sean Rooney died on a flight which hit the World Trade Center

Eckert was born in 1951 in Buffalo, New York, and met her future husband, Sean P. Rooney, at a dance at Canisius High School, a Jesuit-run academy in that city, when both were 16 years old

On December 19, 2003, Eckert published her famous manifesto, “My Silence Cannot be Bought:”

Eckert was killed on February 12, 2009, in the crash of Colgan Air Flight 3407 outside of Buffalo, New York.

A week before her death, Eckert met with U.S. President Barack Obama, to discuss detainees at Guantanamo Bay and other matters.[17] In a press conference after her death, Obama described her as a “tireless advocate for the families, those whose lives were forever changed on that September day.”[17]

Locally, Eckert worked with Stamford city officials on various memorial projects. She left her job at General Re and volunteered with Habitat for Humanity and, beginning in September 2008, as a tutor at the Julia A. Stark Elementary School. She was also a member of the Glenbrook Neighborhood Association.

Beverly Eckert (May 29, 1951 - February 12, 2009) was an activist and advocate for the creation of the 9/11 Commission. She was one of the members of the 9/11 Family Steering Committee for the 9/11 Commission. Eckert’s husband, Sean Rooney, died at age 50 in the attacks of September 11, 2001. She pushed for a commission to investigate 9/11 and to establish a memorial.

Eckert died at age 57 on February 12, 2009, in the crash of Colgan Air Flight 3407 in Clarence Center, New York. She had met with President Barack Obama just a few days before her death in her role as an advocate for those affected by 9/11.

She said this of her husband she lost in a 9/11 flight crash

Sean was both intelligent and wise, and his input was frequently solicited by friends and family. He was extremely competent, directing his intellectual skills to all manner of challenges, from scientific issues to legal matters to perfecting recipes. While still in his teens, he dismantled and then rebuilt a 1951 MG TD. He was self-taught in home repairs, and each time he moved, he tackled major renovations. It was the home in Connecticut, bought in 1987, where Sean's talents as a carpenter, plumber, electrician and mason were put to spectacular use.

Quote retrieved from https://www.habitat.org/ap/stories/masons-tale and copied or modified to here

Masons' tale

Discover the advantages to building with alternative materials in the EU-funded "Homes not Houses” project.

MANILA (June 30, 2018) - For homeowner-driven construction, user acceptance is key to the success of alternative materials and technologies that are promoted in the “Homes not Houses” project funded by the European Union in Sri Lanka. Local masons play an important role because they serve as technical advisers to the families, according to a feasibility report that assessed the suitability of earth-based building materials.

Jointly implemented by Habitat for Humanity Sri Lanka and World Vision Sri Lanka, the multi-year project aims to deliver lasting solutions beyond mere shelter. The promotion of compressed stabilized earth blocks and other alternative materials that use what is locally available will support the establishment of local value-added chains and livelihoods.

Good Samaritans Rescue Mission, Salvation Army, Catholic Charities, Metro Churches, First United Methodist Corpus Christi

Arlington County Services Virginia who i was ordred into post National Insitiute of Health Public Health Service release (Federal Medical Center Butner North Carolina) was asking me to take drugs I had no interest in.

I have no mental illness and I have repeatedly called out unwanted services for not being able to substantiate diagnosis on me under the Diagnostic Standard Manual of Personality Disorders.

(Actually I myself did, Borderline Personality Disorder, strong volitle emotions, but I found that one on my own.)

They shut of disability and I was left homeless upon a conflict with a neighbor who was alleging pizza sent to me (it was sent to someone else in a nearby apartment) and also denial of trust and other funds as I was starving, they hoped I would want services I did not want, hoping they could starve me into needing them.

Evicted and blamed for the fights provoked with me of State backed Gang attack on me using homeless people I decided to move away from Arlington County Virginia Services where my brother was on the board of directors.

Arriving in Texas I was left with Good Samaritans Rescue Mission, Salvation Army, Search for Truth, Catholic Charities, and other Christian leaning groups.

I made clear I was not a christian but I believe their skid row services claimed behind my back to represent me and claim I was a member of their services or victimizing their clients or are being helped by them, but not.

They are fatal attraction RICO organizations who “hyper spaced” me (using the public announce system at night to claim I was in housing on one side of the street when I was on a different side of the street, adult entertainer sent to the side I was not on, falsifying Matt numbers when assigned matts to sleep on, etc.,

It is in this Deep South Sake Handling skid row system the racket was setup claiming false rights to my genome.

This book

RELIGINT

Daniel Pipes is an American historian, writer, and commentator. He is the president of the Middle East Forum, and publisher of its Middle East Quarterly journal. His writing focuses on American foreign policy and the Middle East.

Born: September 9, 1949 (age 72 years), BOSTON, MA Parents: Richard Pipes, Irene EUGENIA Roth Siblings: Steven Pipes Edited works: Nothing Abides: Perspectives on the Middle East and Islam, Wikipedia

Religiously, sexually, and public humiliations PsyOps abusiveness on religions actors and groups.

Espionage forms of racketeering and harassment and gonomic and eugenic crimes along religious lines.

RELIGINT

Espionage forms of racketeering and harassment and gonomic and eugenic crimes along religious lines.

RELIGINT

Espionage forms of racketeering and harassment and gonomic and eugenic crimes along religious lines.

RELIGINT

Espionage forms of racketeering and harassment and genomic and eugenic crimes along religious lines.

Psychopaths from Ministries of various types are defaming me and Science with defecation upon both, literally.

Atheism and Science do exist and Texas can desecrate them. And Texas does under Gregg Abott, Ken Paxton, and others.

As James Comey explained bullies act of out fear, and Texas and its relgiojns and affailated actors fear their errors and the closer I get to telling the truth about these criminals, their effors, their delusions, the greater their attacks upon me.

Philosophy of space and time retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Philosophy of space and time is the branch of philosophy concerned with the issues surrounding the ontology, epistemology, and character of space and time. While such ideas have been central to philosophy from its inception, the philosophy of space and time was both an inspiration for and a central aspect of early analytic philosophy. The subject focuses on a number of basic issues, including whether time and space exist independently of the mind, whether they exist independently of one another, what accounts for time's apparently unidirectional flow, whether times other than the present moment exist, and questions about the nature of identity (particularly the nature of identity over time).

Use of fakery, counterfeiting, labor rackets, RICO, murder, bribery and extortion in an Ethic violence cartel to subvert the USA, Edward Glorian and James Donegan, and our life in the USA as Natural Law Philosophy learners.

Chains of events, sequa, narratives, must flow connected without breaks one to another for the entire chain to be true. Any one break will destroy the chain.

It is somewhat similar to the physics principle the of A and B Space and the Unreality of Time if simplified.

Either I am not home (time is in error, something happened when I am not there) or in a Dopple long con set locations (where is wrong, at a place I am not at) events occur which become “B” narrative, a false narrative to a chane of events.

This is the fakery being used seemingly by the CIA OSS types running a criminal cartel (violent, protected by murder of journalists) weaponize the use of my genome in black markets and organ trafficking international and as ethnic violence.

A free floating narrative of events is created which is not by integrous link connected to me but is said to , appears to, be connected and is connected to me by staged appearances only.

A “B” Reality was manufcatured by Pycholcogical Warfare for others to hold as the truth when “A” Time is true and not the same things “B” Time, the characteristics of “A” time differ from what is manufactured to be “B” Time.

Illuminati Dawn offered addition to HUMINT, OSINT, SIGINT, AIINT was also a term offered by me

RELIGINT

RELIGINT is using the organizational interests and operational elements of religious organizations in Espionage or covert activities ranging from underground railroads, assassination, political activism, and orphanages, missionary, and other often CIA backed operations.

Illuminati Dawn Usage: RELIGINT has always used my genome and RELIGINT uses Religion to self vicvtimize near me, to place a crime at the scene I am at, and it seems I owe their religion my genome, as was done by Donald Barr, CIA/OSS, Vatican, Mossad who used my mother’s genome

Record retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Record provide a Narrative via their existence. The can be Counterfeit or Forged, Counterfeit is something which looks like one thing and is mistaken for the real thing like an email address or an apartment interior described or photographed but that location or email address is a counterfeit of the real one.

A forgery may have real elements but falsified elements as well. Counterfeits may include truthful components which in the counterfeits are completed into the forgery with distrustful elements.

An item or collection of data

Computing

- Record (computer science), a data structure
- Record, or row (database), a set of fields in a database related to one entity
- Record, or row (database), a set of fields in a database related to one entity
- Boot sector or boot record, record used to start an operating system
- Storage record, a basic input/output structure

Documents

- Record, a document for administrative use
  - Business record, of economic transactions
  - Criminal record, a list of a person’s criminal convictions
  - Docket (court), the summary of proceedings in a court (US)
  - Medical record, of a person’s medical history and treatments
  - Minutes, a summary of the proceedings at a meeting
  - Public records, information that has been filed or recorded by public agencies
  - Recording (real estate), the act of documenting real estate transactions
  - Service record, usually associated with military service

- Transcript (law), a verbatim record of some proceedings, in particular a court transcript is a record of a law court case or similar procedure

- Archaeological record, the body of archaeological evidence
- Recorded history, a record of events that has been made for thousands of years in one form or another, e.g., oral, photographic, or written

Images

- Moving pictures, film, video, and television recordings
- Photography, photographic record
- Video recording, of both images and sounds

Sound

- Sound recording and reproduction
  - Analogue recording
  - Digital recording
  - Phonograph record, a mechanical analog audio storage medium

Bulger and the FBI

The FBI was created as the worlds most capable terror cell. A Principality of Free Masons the Agency is a Principality of arbitrary violence to control Masonic Kingdom.

Its system is to fuse with and protect selected mafia it will act through in exchange for the role of Shotcaller, allowing the FBI to name figures to be hit.

On September 8, 1975, Bulger and an unidentified person tossed a Molotov cocktail into the John F. Kennedy birthplace in Brookline in retaliation for Senator Ted Kennedy's vocal support for Boston school desegregation.

"Zone 'B' Claim for Asylum from Illegal CIA Ricky Prado Blackwater like operation the USA is Neither the Courts nor the Press have offered relief from the crimes of the State via Zone B acts.

PRIVATE Home Zone "A" Law Abiding		Public/others	Long Con Set Not Actually My Home
Zone "A"	Zone "B" (stalking, Mercenaries, Evidence Plants, confusion in address or unit number, evidence seizures and profits seizures)			Zone "C"
My PRIVATE HOME	Stolen property from my home, planted evidence in my home, surveillance of my home	In-explicit though obvious non verbal assaults, photobombs by tots, teens,, planted people, etc., who deny they are trespassing against my use of public locations	My stolen clothes, NEXT to but not my apartment, etc.,	Wanted, intended, associations, links with, of myself or my mother

COINTELPRO - Character assassinations through publicly planted misleading "INDICA" (vauge hints of things, things that appear out of place).

Who called Gregg Abbot or got him in place to make Missionary Works start claiming my genome through a COINTELPRO system framing me? The Bush family most likely

WAPO reprting ‘I just want to find 11,780 votes’: In extraordinary hour-long call, Trump pressures Georgia secretary of state to recalculate the vote in his favor

President Trump urged fellow Republican Brad Raffensperger, the Georgia secretary of state, to “find” enough votes to overturn his defeat in an extraordinary one-hour phone call Saturday that legal scholars described as a flagrant abuse of power and a potential criminal act.

The Washington Post obtained a recording of the conversation in which Trump alternately berated Raffensperger, tried to flatter him, begged him to act and threatened him with vague criminal consequences if the secretary of state refused to pursue his false claims, at one point warning that Raffensperger was taking “a big risk.”

Ed sure fits the profile a sexually immature repressed peeper. He was never taught Scripture like our churchgoers Planted sets of keys that don’t even go to anything under outdoor rocks, outdoor paint cans near the apartments of Tom Dunham or Ed Donegan indicate possible hookers are showing up.

Manufacturing via Espionage a ring which if property (biological/sperm/ovum) is seized over that then FUNDS espionage through black marketing of seizures

Charitable organizzatiion fake being harmed by the outsider Athiest, thus assets transfered

“According to Brian Glick, in War at Home, COINTELPRO used a broad array of methods, including:”

According to Edward Paul Donegan and Tom Dunham what is being planted is phony evidence of liable/actionable sexual misconduct ring by two BDSMers seeming to be perps

According to those representing the victims, (and also representing Ed’s assets) Ed and Tom are the perps Mercenaries are hired to play the rold of Edward Donegan and Tom Dunham, also cyber impersonations of Ed Donegan and Tom Dunham are created.

Brian Glick, in War {John Harts War modeled war] at Home agastin elements of the USA

INFILTRATION:

Agents and informers did not merely spy on political activists. Their main purpose was to discredit and disrupt. Their very presence served to undermine trust and scare off potential supporters. The FBI and police exploited this fear to smear genuine activists as agents.

PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE FROM THE OUTSIDE:

The FBI and police used myriad other “dirty tricks” to undermine progressive movements. They planted false media stories and published bogus leaflets and other publications in the name of targeted groups. They forged correspondence, sent anonymous letters, and made anonymous telephone calls. They spread misinformation about meetings and events, set up pseudo movement groups run by government agents, and manipulated or strong-armed parents, employers, landlords, school officials and others to cause trouble for activists.

HARASSMENT THROUGH THE LEGAL SYSTEM:

The FBI and police abused the legal system to harass dissidents and make them appear to be criminals. Officers of the law gave perjured testimony and presented fabricated evidence as a pretext for false arrests and wrongful imprisonment. They discriminatorily enforced tax laws and other government regulations and used conspicuous surveillance, 'investigative' interviews, and grand jury subpoenas in an effort to intimidate activists and silence their supporters.

EXTRALEGAL FORCE AND VIOLENCE:

The FBI and police threatened, instigated, and themselves conducted break-ins, vandalism, assaults, and beatings. The object was to frighten dissidents and disrupt their movements. In the case of radical Black and Puerto Rican activists (and later Native Americans), these attacks-including political assassinations-were so extensive, vicious, and calculated that they can accurately be termed a form of official 'terrorism.'".The FBI also conducted "black bag jobs", warrantless surreptitious entries, against the targeted groups and their members. Source: COINTELPRO - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

From its inception, the FBI has operated on the doctrine that the "preliminary stages of organization and preparation" must be frustrated, well before there is any clear and present danger of "revolutionary radicalism."

At its most extreme dimension, political dissidents have been eliminated outright or sent to prison for the rest of their lives. There are quite a number of individuals who have been handled in that fashion. Many more, however, were "neutralized" by intimidation, harassment, discrediting, snitch jacketing, a whole assortment of authoritarian and illegal tactics.

Roadblocking Model, Kidnap By inveigle, Kidnap by arrest threat, Kidnap by Conspiracy Against Rights, Kidnap by overt death threats and physical violence

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

INVEIGLE

When you tell your boyfriend he's not just the best boyfriend ever but also the world's best driver, and this makes him offer to drive the whole way on your upcoming road trip, then congratulations. You know how to inveigle, or use charm to coax someone into doing something.

If you successfully inveigle your sister to doing something for you, she must be so caught up in your flattering that she is blind to your true intention. In fact, inveigle comes from the Middle French word aveugler, meaning "delude, make blind," which can be traced back to the Medieval Latin word ab oculis, or "lacking eyes." The people you inveigle don't see what you are really up to.

INVEIGLE [© 2021 MERRIAM-WEBSTER, INCORPORATED]

1. to win over by wiles : ENTICE
2. to acquire by ingenuity or flattery : WANGLE

Road Blocking especially form position of power rather than peer competition When Police or private allies help plant KOMPROMAT and/or create or enforce roadblock Conspiracy Against Rights
Original Person (Sower of lease in	Roadblock False claims af apartment not ready on surfacce level to Edward Donegan,	Reaper	Community in Sower's path

Austin Ed Donegan) Reaper may dress as Sower and create a crisis	backed to OTHERS by record of someone AS Ed DOnegan peeping at Ballpark West Apartment pool, thus Ed DOnegan happily rejected by Ballark West and Austin community (office mob rejects Ed Donegan right to rent)		Original Path now is now under way with identities of Sower and Reaper switched out
Reaper under Ed Donegan Flag will defame Sower to Community, Ask to be accepted instead	Discriminating Community acts on secretly held KOMPROMAT Road Roadblocks Sower on flimsy excuse but good enough excuse
Sower did not move forward, and North, to Austin or any of its opportunities

Foundation Work in Long Cons and a Metro Ministries type or Baptist goes to a party at Bernies beach resart

I was revolted by backward backwater poluted water human polution Corpus Christi but they saw an opportunity to trade places with our existances. I was potrayed as a backward person harming them with un civilized conduct, meanwhile that person who was behanvign that way, one of them, switched themselves into activities of mine with the public’s beleife they were the wothy people at the crime scene and I was the unworthy one.

This bumped me out of the way and them into the parts of my existence they wished to learn from by beating me out to what I was already doing, heading to Bernies at Austin.

The lawyer in this matter before Janice Ellington is named

B. Janice Ellington was a federal magistrate judge for the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas. She served in this position from November 13, 1996, until her retirement on January 3, 2020.[1][2]M. * [tied to Andy Ellington CIA DOD Labs University of Texas Austin?]

Brian Cweren bcweren@cwerenlaw.com via netorg857998.onmicrosoft.com

[or why not art@printorcopy.com “Art” at the local cooy shop I printed the law suit Cweren was the attny on. I cant created those email accounts, it was what I was given by those ppl to use}

Tue, Oct 3, 2017, 10:54 AM to me

Like what are you seeking? Need some more details

Sent from my iPhone

On Oct 3, 2017, at 9:44 AM, Ed Donegan edinarlington@gmail.com> wrote:

Yes, becauase I expect nothing from the court process and have missed a en forma pauperis rights hearing I had not expectation of anyway.

We’re very far apart if ARC fo NOVA is figured in, but serperately we might be closer on the lease issue. I’d like to get reasonable damages out if I could, I am hard up especially for transportation.

The FBI

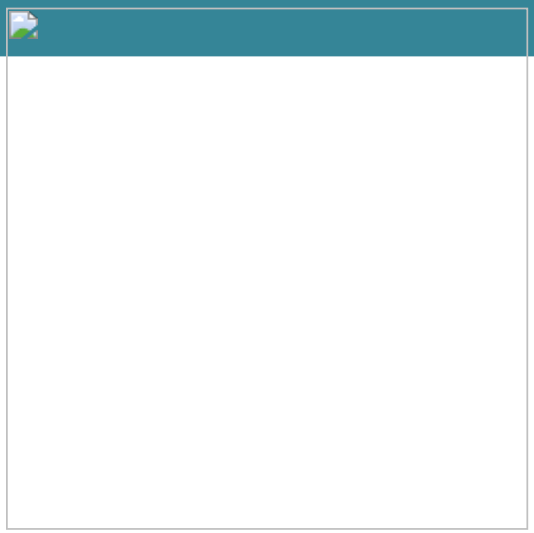
People are believing the FBI in the communality that I liev in, that I, repeat I, fail a background check (as DOJ FBI continue to arrest me for physically confronting their acts which illegal)

The FBI DOJ are faking everything community members cite the FBI is working staging me as is audible in the Bay Area Audio recordings I distribute and I have seen a black older male wish a teen white female in yog pants both getting out of a Mercedes at the Sea Wall in front of the FBI DOJ building and they also made references to FBI as thgy got out of the car bot it looked like a secert service vest the black man was wearing.

In addition as I was being assaulted at Good Sams Baptist homeless shelters by overweight black ladies picking a fight over the radical right she said she had the FBI DHS on her side as she attacked me.

I named the FBI DHS in my lawsuit and at that time as I was writing the suit on my computer James Comey was fired by Trump.

James Comey's Catholic roots



From his Wikipedia page, an often-overlooked detail of the former FBI director's life:

> Comey and his wife Patrice Failor are the parents of five children. He is of Irish descent and was raised in a Roman Catholic household. Comey subsequently joined the United Methodist Church, and has taught Sunday school in the past.

A profile in a New Jersey paper several years ago noted:

> Allendale Mayor Vince Barra said the Comeys were heavily engaged in the civic duties and were active at Guardian Angel Roman Catholic Church.

J. Brien Comey, James’ father, now in his early 80s, still lives in the same home the family moved into in the early 1970s, even though all four of his children live elsewhere.

A retired real estate executive, J. Brien Comey was an Allendale councilman in the mid- and late-1980s. His wife, Joan, who died last year after a long illness, was involved in the Girl Scouts and many other local organizations, Barra said.

“They were involved in everything from Scouts to the church to … you name it,” Barra said. “They were a huge part of Allendale. The parents had a strong sense of integrity, they were hardworking, and they believed in public service. That’s where James got it from. The apple doesn’t fall far from the tree.”

If you’re reading this article, it’s thanks to the generosity of people like you, who have made Aleteia possible.

Allendale Mayor Vince Barra said the Comeys were heavily engaged in the civic duties and were active at Guardian Angel Roman Catholic Church.

J. Brien Comey, James’ father, now in his early 80s, still lives in the same home the family moved into in the early 1970s, even though all four of his children live elsewhere.

A retired real estate executive, J. Brien Comey was an Allendale councilman in the mid- and late-1980s. His wife, Joan, who died last year after a long illness, was involved in the Girl Scouts and many other local organizations, Barra said.

“They were involved in everything from Scouts to the church to … you name it,” Barra said. “They were a huge part of Allendale. The parents had a strong sense of integrity, they were hardworking, and they believed in public service. That’s where James got it from. The apple doesn’t fall far from the tree.”

Foundation Work for evictions then Vagrancy Arrests

Conspiring against my rights including political asylum involves building the, faking the, crisis that seem to be from me, child porn.

With that manufactured appearances presented to OTHERS I become unwelcome to where I am going thus where I am going will work with the FBI on sham evictions of me.

- On the way to Jim Volkelca Stay and Play a black male inside Wells Fargo obviously part of something, and a Black Hispanic female at a desk with a water bottle, blue, graduated, but me NOT at the desk and of the TWO duffel bags I was to move into Stay and Play I had one and the rent in cash with me, no water bottle. As I was entering the building teen in tight pants

- As I was about to see Anna SF a dominatrix I had seen before, a teen at the bank near me. She canceles and says shower pipe broke/

These are constants as is the “yellow Tape Ploy.” No statement is made to me but the stairway near my motel room, an outdoor stairway, is yellow taped off because it might be hazardous to women, women not being treated respectfully like FBI, Arlington PD, or US Marshalls would treat them.

This book

RELIGIOUS ASYLUM

A Request for Political and Religious Asylum

An Instruction as to why I need religious asylum other form of protection from the United States of America.

Since the Manhattan Project ongoing religious violation of rights as to genetic study and religious use of genomic components in religious orphanage work

The National Security Agency (NSA,) The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI,) Central Intelligence Agency (CIA,) Department of Defense (DOD,) and State Department (State) refuse to follow US law, Congress, or within the Executive Branch even each other.

The United States Government has corrupt actors vested both unexposed errors and cover ups of those errors with rouge and illegal acts.

I am Edward Paul Donegan, youngest son of James Paul and Glorian Donegan, tied to Cape Cod Massachusetts, the Manhattan Project and bombing of Japan, and it turns out, other peoples assassination of JFK and others in the United States and around the world in rouge CIA acts of global acts of regime change and assertion of espionage power.

My family line gave birth to me in 1961 when covert study of race, twins, and genetics were underway and my life history is meshed and harassed with ongoing government illegal acts in espionage research in race and my genetic origins and this research is conduct by hostile assaults of me in matters of sexuality, political beliefs, and racial conflict engagement which continues and furthers government racial exploration of twins, racial conflict, and long studied family line history.

Included in this history was my father standing in a tower near Las Vegas Nevada and being expose to atomic blasts so he could be studied for affects and included in that was likely fertility and others affects of radiation and he was likely exposed to radiation as well as a P-51 reconnaissance escort to the B-29 bomber in his first nuclear wing role in the 509 Composite Bombing Group of the then US Army Air Corps. Sidney Gottlieb began using involuntary human study subjects and over the course of my life I have remained that.

I remain unable to assert my rights in the USA and I never signed up for this and my mother and father would have never expected this or agreed to it.

Conflict Engagement is part of COINTELPRO and MKULTRA, is made up of Gangstalk (Organized stalking.)

1. Stalking including surveillance creates either false appearance by the conduct of others insunuating elements not naturally their such as photo-bombs and then ambushed the person stalked to others as the data from the stalk and surveillance is talked around.

2. During the stalk stalkers may provoke fights such as racie bating to expose feelings about race during arguments which arise, or stalkers engage in political or economic espionage by gaining covert inside job under cover positions in the stalk victim’s life, perhaps a hottie he thought he got lucky with whose fetishes include reading bedside diaries.

3. If the stalker’s assault on the victim does not result in a lethal or bodily damaging fight the photo bomb or plant of evidence by deceptive appearance under cover agents manufacture can and is used in Conspiracy Against Rights when offered to the courts or others as pretext for actions against the stalked person.

All these acts working as a whole in harrassment of a person by espionage agencies erode a person' legal rights or standing in society. Espionage agencies asking for and recieving co-operation on their own turf are a grave danger including with the press shares their goals or offers its cooperation.

Simply said it is hostile study of a person for the interest or arbitrary human rights violation as conducted by intrusive political or religious policing and harassment.

I have used the Persecution model of State backed assailants this way. 3 2 1. Three Hidden Secret police activity. 2 Seeming normal people, but assailants of me backed by the Government clandestine operation. Me, as 1, the victim not able to get the State (or the press or public) to act against State backed assailant 2 of me 1.

I am going to use a more complex picture which is part of my political asylum claim and goes to what I call Moral Inversion. The state is an Evil acting against a lawful ethical citizen, myself.

Good USA Safe For Me and I am and always have been a law abiding citizen with in interest in adult women and good intelelct and education and social skills
Law Abiding Zone	Law Abiding	Law Abiding	Law Abiding
James Paul	Edward	Non Crime	Government

Donegan and Glorian Donegan	Donegan	Influenced citizens, organizations

But for USA and Illuminati MKULTRA errors that would be likely be so. But instead this below.

Dangerous USA Not Safe For Me, Z touches 3 at the Manhattan Project birth 1961
1}	{2	3}
Law Abiding Zone but Espionage victims (1)	ATT Direct TV, Golds Gym, other assets (2) to CIA (3) ↓↓↓ Mercenaries	Espionage Agency (3) Coverups via CIA Assets (2) against me (1)
James Paul Donegan and Glorian Donegan and Edward Donegan (1)	Edward Donegan (1)under Front Companies Assault	CIA Assets, RICO activities, Enrique Prado, etc.,

The final and I think long planned result of “Foval” attacks on me AND my parents is this.

So 3, gov espionage, has used 2, espionage assets, Mercenaries from large organizations, to do a number on 1, me.

I have been challenged as to why this would be and I trace it to the Manhattan Project.

[As an interesting time line side note when my brother was meeting with high level officials related to Obama I was under National institute of Health PHS detention managed by all black PHS officials put together for my case, and whatever was happening in regard to my detention and THEY REFUSED TO EVEN TELL ME THE ALLEGED MENTAL ILLNESS I WAS BEING HELD OVER. In fact concurrent with that Obam was winning the election, consulting with Francis Collins, and Obama's own grandmother died and was cremated. My mother's hats were removed by my brother Tom Donegan, as were family photos and family records.]

This scheme not only involves the genetic rape and suppression of me (for Christian Charity to use my genes for free in international relief efforts) it very likely involves murder and assassination.

For instance Judge Roll was asked to decide a case in which $327,0000.00 was to be seized by the U.S. Government so that the U.S. Government could use the amount for expensive overseas work. This as the amount of my Trust Fund from the sale of her house resultant from her divorce from James Paul Donegan, James and Glorian being second generation immigrants from Ireland to the United States. Speculation is he was assassinated over the case in a neuro-research "batman" shooting designed to look like something else.

This also seems tied to GenoNueroCognitive research, retardation, and a Pizza Gate (run by the Epsteins who are retardation and intelligence researches at Advocacy of Retarded Children of Northern Virginia

[As a side note when I tried to sue in federal district court in South Texas a magistrate likely related to Any Ellington of University of Texas and US DOD /CIA Genetics labs frustrated the case and mocked the only financial info I could present, my small SSDI and 300K trust fund, not partly used up.]

This could also be tied to an Alex Jones report that the CIA killed an Autism Researcher which I found suspicious since Tia Marsilli of ARC of NoVA has an autistic child and autism research center.

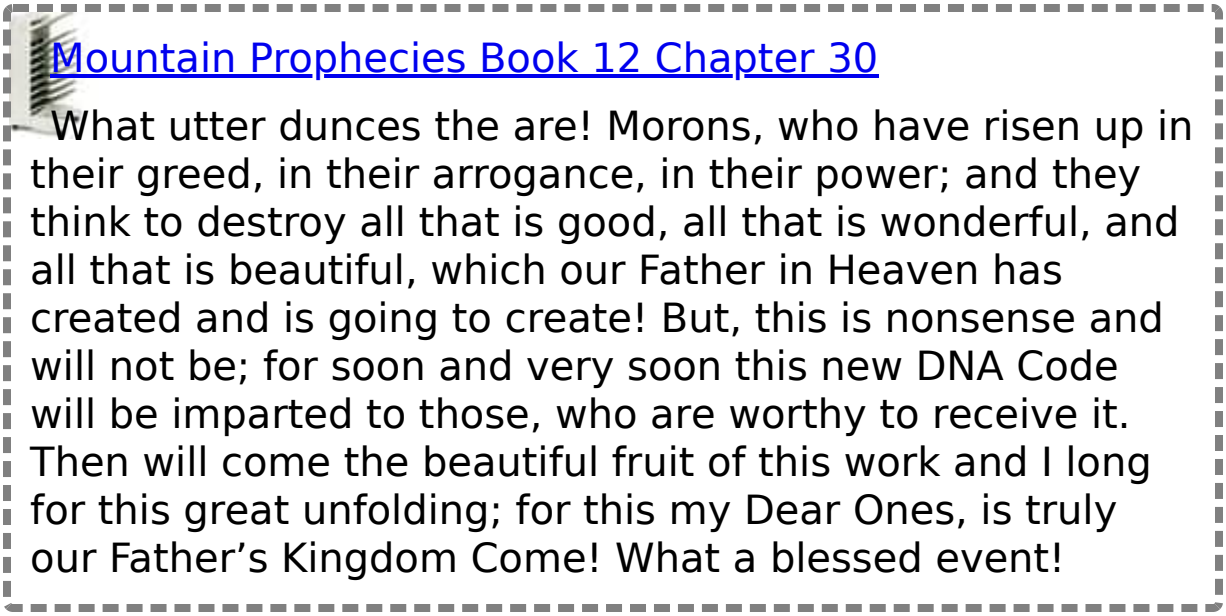
This also seemed linked to Justice Scalia's death, and at Admiral Poindexter's Artificial Intelligence retreat, a plan gone awry led by Christians who may have ties to "God's creatures" and be tied to group who administer the estate of Glorian Donegan and that $327.000 amount following her death. Christian and other orphanage use of CRISPR gene therapy to internationally treat retardation.



Mountain Prophecies Book 12 Chapter 30

What utter dunces the are! Morons, who have risen up in their greed, in their arrogance, in their power; and they think to destroy all that is good, all that is wonderful, and all that is beautiful, which our Father in Heaven has created and is going to create! But, this is nonsense and will not be; for soon and very soon this new DNA Code will be imparted to those, who are worthy to receive it. Then will come the beautiful fruit of this work and I long for this great unfolding; for this my Dear Ones, is truly our Father's Kingdom Come! What a blessed event!

This book

Its the Queen of England and Neocons

NeoCon Collective Guilt of a Society on a NeoCon War Path in the World

Forced teaming starts by conspiring against my independence and normality such that in non independent living the team members of that group will assert that which represent me and my assets is created by them or managed by them.

Enjoying support from Democrat base of evangelical church beneficiaries and prison inmates by thousand points of light George Bush family kinder gentler way, a large scale race testing and IQ scheme is underway and during it existing racial reality in steadfast denial and cover up while elites near completion of world medial programs stabilizing endemic poverty and crime in lower IQ tending populations.

I may be this book cycling in name between Genoracketeering, Illuminati Dawn, and The Medical State does not prove world level racial study and retardation intervention on large scales, if you ignore chroma implications errors, a black hole in reality invisible to us all.

Your own knowledge of our society evading basic observations on race and deeper study of why some raxial groups are lagging and frustrated, a conversation bent out of view, is the only proof I can offer of the black holes existence.

Note also that I am not asserting that the Moon is made of cheese but I am asserting the black hole is made up of very large sums of cash.

THE NEW WORLD ORDER

The Project for the New American Century (PNAC) was a neoconservative think tank based in Washington, D.C. that focused on United States foreign policy. It was established as a non-profit educational organization in 1997, and founded by William Kristol and Robert Kagan

Profound violation of religious rights of me and fraud upon the public of relative worth of religious systems and religious lifestyles and which religions instigated profound violence

- Creating problems which do not exist to become the solution to a problem is a Racket
- Using confusion of accounts is money laundering such as allowing impersonators of Ed Donegan to create a liability moved into Ed Donegan assets and liabilities accounts as accounting fraud
- It is religious abuse to suggest falsey, to humiliate one religion, by accusations of sexual misconduct. Exacerbation include use false flags and hypocrisy to humiliate religious opposition. Add to that even if and when I do masturbate it is neither exploitative nor public nor out of my beliefs. I even posted in my diabetes blog sometimes I would tantrically masturbate, at home, during times of hunger to pre occupy my mind from hunger. Why not.

- Transfer any property on false claims of harms, photographic exploitation, to others is illegal
- Transfer any Reproductivity on claims of harms, photographic exploitation, to others is illegal and organ harvesting
- Doing so on a religious basis is a war crime.
- Conspiring against property rights such as housing that is non religious into a a hostile religous area is a war crime.

I wish Syrian protection.

Road Blocking especially form position of power rather than peer competition When Police or private allies help plant KOMPROMAT and/or create or enforce roadblock Conspiracy Against Rights → → → → → → → →
Original Person (Sower) → Reaper may dress as Sower and create a crisis in the area of Sower,	Roadblock Often composed of victims, such as minors or vulnerable females as Crisis Actor Victims and the Reaper, a Crisis Actor	Reaper →	Community in Sower's intended path Original Path now is now under way with identities of Sower and Reaper

Sower of good work will incur the blame for Reapers acts	pretending to be the Sower, exploiting the victims		switched out
Reaper will defame Sower to Community Sower was working in or headed towards. Upon presention ot KOMPROMAT about Sower Reaper will then ask to be accepted instead of Sower though with harvest in hand of Sower May also rob Sower’s original work devaluing Sower	Discriminating Community acts on secretly held KOMPROMAT Road Roadblocks Sower on flimsy excuse but good enough excuse
Sower did not move forward,does not have his or her own work result

Dominatrix Lila Sage

For me this is no issue, a good, Pagan forms of Deism, Wicca or other Heathen beliefs.

I will be beat out to her, KOMPROMAT shown to her, generated falsely, that what I am doing is sinful and what a catholic would be offended by, a vice-full catholic, but the Christians beating me out to her and the real manipulative abusive fraudsters claim she is their Diest form of religious psychology.

Religions have taken my “goods” to those I am a fit with and they are not a fit with (fraud and scam based activities in communities opposed to fraud.)

This is more than just beating me out to women or abuse of my “spiritual code” by others, this is arbtirary PsyOps abuse of me and my genome in illegal ways that count as ethnic scrubbing, cleansing, or attacks upon law abiding beliefs and practices.

NeoCon Collective Guilt of a Society on a NeoCon War Path in the World

Enjoying support from Democrat base of evangelical church beneficiaries and prison inmates by thousand points of light George Bush family kinder gentler way, a large scale race testing and IQ scheme is underway and during it existing racial reality in steadfast denial and cover up while elites near completion of world medial programs stabilizing endemic poverty and crime in lower IQ tending populations.

IT may be this book cycling in name between Genoracketeering, Illuminati Dawn, and The Medical State does not prove world level racial study and retardation intervention on large scales, if you ignore chroma implications errors, a black hole in reality invisible to us all.

Your own knowledge of our society evading basic observations on race and deeper study of why some raxial groups are lagging and frustrated, a conversation bent out of view, is the only proof I can offer of the black holes existence.

Note also that I am not asserting that the Moon is made of cheese but I am asserting the black hole is made up of very large sums of cash.

THE NEW WORLD ORDER

The Project for the New American Century (PNAC) was a neoconservative think tank based in Washington, D.C. that focused on United States foreign policy. It was established as a non-profit educational organization in 1997, and founded by William Kristol and Robert Kagan

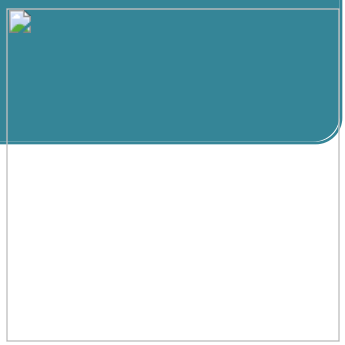
This book

GangStalked Atomic Veteran

Building a "Legend" about me by Government misconduct which sexually assaults me, sexually defames and humiliates me, and racketteers the Donegan family culture and biology

"Dear Dad" M*A*S*H Season 1Episode 12 retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

"Dear Dad" was the 12th episode of the first season of the TV series M*A*S*H. It originally aired on December 17, 1972 and was repeated on May 20, 1973.



This was one of the first M*A*S*H episodes to challenge the traditional sitcom format by combining dramatic elements (specifically, the "war is hell" message) with comedic situations

Hawkeye writes home to his father during the Christmas season, relating a number of amusing and personal anecdotes including Radar's effort to mail home a jeep piece-by-piece, the monthly morality lecture, Trapper's local medical philanthropy, and the ongoing non-secret relationship between Frank and Hot Lips. Hawkeye dresses to play Santa Claus for the local children, but is required to go to the front line via helicopter to treat an emergency, which he does in-costume.

The GangStalk of paid actors peice by piece, each small enough and oblique enough to be denies creates a Legend whole and in Red State Texas the Legend being built is that my adult entertainer sex worker is on the way.

In fact it is their service call being announced likely from an adult entertainer or other the Red State beat me out to because child porn was planted on me, my alleged interest and alleged character flaw.

In fac the Red State and deep south saw my gym videos of Goth and Cybergoth and Symphonic Goth and decided they, the Red State Salvation Army, while dressed as me, lessons in Goth from these woman while continuing to assert my lifestyle was child porn and that should be "provided for" the Atheist in accordance with his character defects, not knowing the Gospel.

At each of my movements people build the Legend my "Genetic money" will pay these goths for lessons or peeping tom activities.

What Kinds of Behavior Could be Considered Sexual Harassment? retrieved from Davis and Davis PC and copied or modified to here

Sexual harassment falls under the act of harassment, which is illegal under the law. Harassment becomes illegal when it is so frequent or severe that it leads to negative consequences for the victim. Frequent or severe harassment creates a work environment that is hostile or offensive to the individual. It can also result in adverse employment decisions relating to the victim, such as employment termination or demotion.

The harasser can be the immediate supervisor of the victim, or anyone in the line of command, including a supervisor in another area. The harasser may also be a fellow employee, or a client, or a customer.

What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual Harassment is behavior that creates unwelcomed sexual physical advances and inappropriate sexual remarks in the workplace or in public social areas. The following describes environments of sexual harassment:

- When submission to the sexual behaviors become an explicit or implicit term of employment, e.g. the victim will only get a raise if they submit to the request for sexual favors;
- When the submission to the conduct becomes a basis for employment decisions;
- When the sexual harassment has the purpose or the effect of interfering with the victim's work performance;
- When the sexual harassment has the purpose or the effect of creating a hostile, intimidating, or offensive environment.
- What Kinds of Behavior Constitute Sexual Harassment?
- The United Nations Women Watch further characterized sexual harassment to include certain types of behavior.

The following acts can be considered sexual harassment:

- Actual or attempted rape or sexual assault
- Pressure or insistence for sexual favors of any kind
- Pressure or insistence for dates
- Deliberate touching
- Leaning over into personal space
- Cornering in public areas, work stations, and other areas Pinching
- Forms of communication, such as letters or calls
- Leading conversations into sexual topics
- Asking or probing about sexual preferences, history or fantasies
- Spreading rumors or fabricating lies about a person's sex life
- Neck or back massage
- Touching the clothing, hair or body of an employee
- Presenting personal gifts, especially of a sexual nature

- Hugging or kissing
- Patting or stroking
- Sexually suggestive signals

What is Unwelcome Behavior?

Unwelcome behavior is behavior by any peer, subordinate, or higher authority individual that is offensive or unwelcome. The critical word or condition is “unwelcome” behavior”. This type of behavior can include inappropriate remarks, jokes, behavior that discriminates and can also include sexual conduct. Sexual harassment and unwelcome behavior can take the form of verbal assault or verbal practices and non-verbal behavior. These examples can qualify as unwelcome verbal behavior:

- Using unwanted pet names such as babe or doll;
- Whistling at someone;
- Cat-calling;
- Making sexual comments about a person’s body;
- Making sexual comments or innuendos;
- Telling sexual jokes or stories;
- Making kissing sounds, howling, and smacking lips;
- Making sexual comments about a person’s clothing, anatomy or looks.

Furthermore, direct interaction or contact is not a necessary qualifier for sexual harassment. As long as the behavior results in a hostile or offensive environment for the individual, then that behavior can be considered a type of sexual harassment.

Non-verbal behavior would include:

- Hanging around a person
- Touching or rubbing oneself sexually
- Looking a person up and down
- Staring at someone
- Lewd facial expressions
- Making sexual gestures
- Winking, throwing kisses, or licking lips

Protect yourself or someone you know from sexual harassment by knowing your rights and options under the law. Contact Boston Sexual Harassment Lawyer, Davis and Davis, P.C. We have a thorough understanding of employment law in Boston.

The Contra Circuit apparently run by Elite Caretl against members of 52 Lambeth Square.

I think applicable to me and Brittany Spears
Truth Circuit (prey)	Truth Circuit reality and what Donegans lived for which is positive and sophisticated and protective of our rights and others obeying and upholding law and moral conduct	True worthiness		Depressed rather than normal results, outcomes
		GangStalk espionage operation	Results Flipped
False Circuit (predators)	GangStalk roadbloacks Life Liberty and Property from achievement	Seeming worthiness		Predators from below claim superior position comparatively to depressed outcome and claim assets of above family

Judy Laube retrieved from [the Face Book] and copied or modified to here

Former veteran educator: Columbia, Mo. Ex to a leader of Group Anonymous. Targetedindividual Move in [to Social Services granted housing] tomorrow! It's amazing ..

- I paid for my education all the way through a Masters Plus.
- I have a long tenure in Education (Physical Education / Health and Coaching)
- I am in the Athletic Hall of Fame in both high school and college
- I retired from teaching at just over $50,000 a year.
- I lived in a multi-level house over 3,000 square feet on a lake

But then I also had a malignant narcissist partner and that trumped everything.

And just like that I lost all I worked for. Everything was taken one way or another because of my ex and the targeting program I was put in.

Since fleeing the house and later Columbia I have been primarily homeless with only my clothes and dog.

I don't miss the things….I miss my freedom, the life of my choice, and authentic people.

3 years after leaving Columbia, I have a place of my own. Praise God!

But will her neighbors be planted Gang Stalkers hostile to her, and will they fit these espionage roles?

CLANDESTINE OPERATION

An intelligence operation designed to remain secret.

CASE OFFICER

A staff officer who manages agents and runs operations. (A person such as Social Services workers who staff undercover operations with mental health patients)

CENTER

In the cold war KGB headquarters in Moscow. Now may be Free Mason halls, NSA, FBI, CIA

CONTROLLER

Officer in charge of agents (a handler) moveed into an operation under cover

COVER

The purported occupation or purpose of an agent; it must be consistent with the agent's background and presence in the target area.

ASSET

A clandestine source or method, usually an agent.

BABYSITTER

Bodyguard.

BAGMAN

An agent who pays spies and bribes authorities.

BIRDWATCHER

Slang used by British Intelligence for a spy.

BLACK BAG JOB

Secret entry into a home or office to steal or copy materials.

BLACK OPERATIONS

Covert operations that are not attributable to the organization performing them.

BLACK PROPAGANDA (SLANDER CAMPAIGN)

A disinformation that is deniable by (and not traceable to) its source.

BRIDGE AGENT

An agent who acts as a courier from a case officer to an agent in a denied area.

BRUSH PASS

A brief encounter where something is passed between case officer and agent.

CUT-OUT

A sustem of broken links which if examined woudl be found to be fraudlent, but things like planted evidence linking one person to one thing wrongly, or someone using a Front Company or Asset to hide behind such that the real actor is cut out from the seeming act. A mechanism or person used to create a compartment between the members of an operation to allow them to pass material or messages securely; also an agent who functions as an intermediary between a spymaster and other subagents.

DOUBLE AGENT

A spy who pretends to be working against one country but who is in fact working for that country's opponent; often a conduit for disinformation. In Gangstalking an Illuminati serving front person close to the victim as a suposed helper of the victim.

Often when there are delays in things happening these roles are being setup in advance of the victims arival to a scene.

Gangstalked Individual By Espionage Recruits (Targeted by CIA NSA FBI)

The Republic and Republicanism restored
King George Bush, King Obama, Rothschidles, Rockefeller and Masons Y Axis	Imperilaism Shadow Government					Wl th
				From Crown of Power PsyOps Targeted Killings tries to eliminate witnesses to JFK murder and Deep State
			Upon assassinations dirty war at home Espionage OSS now holds power with Windsors Assassinations unit once created kills at home (JFK and others) to join with Crown BPS and CFR Masonary JFK elected to high and noble office and experiments with special warfare forms of police state irregular warfare	JFK creates an Assassinations unit in the shadows and in those shadows self enriching powerful shadow government emerges				Ed discovers in his family history and genealogy the murder of JFK and ties to his own family. Along with other TIs fights the Deep State by documenting it.	re s I i

Tea Party troglodytes

Obama said the right-wing Tea Party movement consisted of 'racist motherf-ers,' new book says retrieved from Sonam Sheth Yahoo News and copied or modified to here

- Obama described the right-wing Tea Party movement as a group of "racist motherf-ers."
- That's according to an upcoming book from the journalist Edward-Isaac Dovere.
- Obama also had some choice words for Trump, who he called a "f-ing lunatic" and "corrupt motherf-er."

Former President Barack Obama said in 2017 that the right-wing Tea Party movement consisted of "racist motherf-ers."

That's according to "Battle for the Soul: Inside the Democrats' Campaign to Defeat Trump," an upcoming book by the journalist Edward-Isaac Dovere.

Obama made the comment near the end of the year, after the Obama Foundation's holiday party in Chicago, the book said. He and his staff were winding down after the event, and they were picking his brain about the latest hurdles the Democratic Party was facing as well as other episodes he was writing about for his memoir, which was released earlier this year.

The former president's staff "got him going by asking what it was like, after coming in working with Jamie Dimon and Lloyd Blankfein and other big bankers, to be made out as an anticapitalist by the Republicans," the book said, referring to the chief executive officer of JPMorgan Chase and former chief executive officer of Goldman Sachs, respectively.

“Obama gave a long, reasoned answer,” Dovere wrote. “As for the Tea Party, Obama said, well, they were ‘racist motherf-ers.’”

Dovere’s book, which details the Democratic Party’s years-long effort to take down former President Donald Trump, contains several revealing anecdotes about what Trump’s predecessor thought of him.

“He’s a madman,” Obama once said of him. “I didn’t think it would be this bad.”

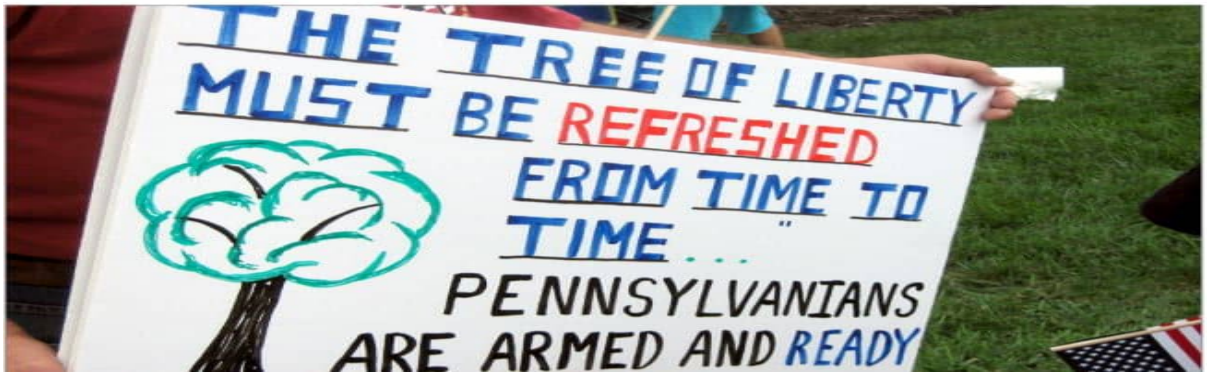
Deep State Sovereign
POTUS and Appointees, some House and Senate LOOK legit
Legitmat and visible political activity	Deep State Espionage Support, deep state in Media shows editorial support, wetdivision suppport and other support from DARPA, NSA, FBI, CIA including hits on journlists like Micheal Hasting and Jen Moore.

My form of Birtherism refutes the ADL theory that doubts about the genealgy and birth of Barrack Obama is rooted in racism against blacks. On the contrary I believe the entirety of it rich whites wanting a puppet.

Rage Grows in America:

Anti-Government Conspiracies

November 2009



RAGE GROWS IN AMERICA: ANTI-GOVERNMENT CONSPIRACIES

Introduction: A Year of Growing Animosity 1

Part One: Anger in the Mainstream 4

The Tea Parties 4
April 15 and July 4 Tea Parties 4

The Town Hall Meeting Disruptions 6
Confronting Officeholders with Angry Rhetoric 6
Nazi Comparisons 7

A Building Anger 9
September 12 Tea Party Events 9
The "How to Take Back America" Conference 11
Press Conference in D.C. Against Health-Care Reform 12

The "Birther" Movement 13
The "Birther" Conspiracies 13
Major "Birthers" 14
Philip Berg. 14
Orly Taitz. 15
World Net Daily 16

I have use Project Management Event Driven Architecture to describe annual recurrences of certain dates (Feb20 Nov18 Dec 13) that had to do with me and Barrack Obama fertilized with out of Wedlock Glorian Dec 13 DNA and gestation between Feb 20 and November 18) and birthdays publicly reported or events April 1, July 4, or Aug 4 which re tied to British Royalty, Independence Day, and the Queen Mothers birthday.

I will also here use in discussing Criminal Harassment and Subversion by Harassment the harassment of fundamentals, precursors, requirements, dependencies to forestall or stall or stop potential outcomes.

Project management and harassing outcomes by harassing dependencies

MILESTONES

Milestones are tools used in project management to mark specific points along a project timeline. These points may signal anchors such as a project start and end date, or a need for external review or input and budget checks. In many instances, milestones do not impact project duration. Instead, they focus on major progress points that must be reached to achieve success.[1]

THE CRITICAL PATH METHOD (CPM)

The critical path method (CPM) is a project modeling technique developed in the late 1950s by Morgan R. Walker of DuPont and James E. Kelley Jr. of Remington Rand.[3] Kelley and Walker related their memories of the development of CPM in 1989.[4] Kelley attributed the term “critical path” to the developers of the PERT which was developed at about the same time by Booz Allen Hamilton and the U.S. Navy.[5] The precursors of what came to be known as Critical Path were developed and put into practice by DuPont between 1940 and 1943 and contributed to the success of the Manhattan Project.

Critical Path Analysis is commonly used with all forms of projects, including construction, aerospace and defense, software development, research projects, product development, engineering, and plant maintenance, among others. Any project with interdependent activities can apply this method of mathematical analysis. CPM was used the first time in 1966 for the major skyscraper development of constructing the former World Trade Center Twin Towers in New York City. Although the original CPM program and approach is no longer used,[7] the term is generally applied to any approach used to analyze a project network logic diagram.

For me to get a car (for instance) requires the following.

- Eyeglasses to pass vision test
- Credit or money to buy a vehicle
- Anti theft of auto
- Valid Drivers lisecne in a state itself dependent on residency in a state
- Title to vehicle to regestr the vehicle

All of these are harrassed out of my life and each by itself is enough to prevent vehicle ownershipo.

Apartment leasing, home buying, all work the same. Even going to events flat tires emerge, corrosivees on wiring, and other problems stall out transportation needs like the Citizens United meetup I was going to go to in Arlington Virginia before a wire “broke” when I was not in the car thus preventing starting since the auto could not tell the brake was pressed down, thus would not allow starting the vehicle.

A person used as an asset by high level espionage Dons but who is disposable as a preference rather than maintained since the Patsy might compromise the high level players (Dons) implicationg them in the crimes the Patsy is encouraged to or helped to commit.

- Thomas Neil Donegan was used to tank me much of my life before he died of esophagus cancer
- Chris Lloyd died of cancer as did a Domina Athena who I had told of my abdicated King Ewdward grandfather, her asking about my Dr Leaky t-shirt and it being tied to some kind of anthropoligy experiment
- Jen Moore (former law enforcement) was likley used as homeless perons gang stalking me but she did not like the assignment, was comnpromising the high level elite players, and she was silenced
- THe Tsarnve brothers fit this, though at least one survived for trial
- THe Walthams fit this tied to the Boston Bombings
- Lee Harvey Oswald may fit this
- Bobby Courtney, Jimmmy, and Floyd Simpsom may fit this Government criminals of Subversioin (Economic, Treasion, Racketeering, Criminal Syndicalism) state events to subvert the population, political figures or witnesses to government misconduct by false flags, dissionformation, and funding charity groups to make false claims against those targeted by Espionage for pretextual acts against them, eliminating public support via KOMPROMAT before a figure is far enough out of public view or repute such that a simple accident of an irrelevant citizen, probably an accident, is unnoticed.

Charity groups like the Rockefeller Nuerosciences (with much to hide) Boeing Corp, allegedely malighed veterans families, all becomce CIA front companies for the charactar assasination the discredits a person and cost them social standing, social position, and good neighborhoods or jobs.

In my case a Treason subversion process is used by dangerous and violent criminals who are Confidential Informants of Political Infiltration Crime Boss families.

1. Manufacture pretense of mental incompetence which does not exist and even hides the reality of good mental state.(Sets up money laundering of known but hidden value of assets)
2. With the appearance a person is not competent insert a CIA backed Asset Management company or service. This is a RACKET which positions itself to manage assets not in need of second or third party management
3. Use the same paid actors, a pay wall, surrounding a person, to behave expressively but not in statement a Stalk victim is doing something like harming others the Paid

Stalk vicitm is not (this is called an FBI Pay-wall is what hte stalkers tod me)

4. Distribute information that the appearance paid actors created was true and use it for character assassination of the stalk victim

5. Use the proceeds from false claims to fund further subversion and encourage additional staged false claims. Thus charity groups are hired to create false victim-hood and it is similar to politicians in power using money to silence real victims of themselves.

Infiltration of Political and Constitutional Positions abuse Color of Law using Organized Stalk (actors)
Corrupt Power	Buys off or Gangstalk victims of Corrupt Power	Pays for false allegations against honest politicians
Free Mason buy selves into office, Avoid real accountability of self, creates via false flags accountability of oppo.

Camille Claudel

Movie dialogue about the reputation needs of Rodin and the recognation needs of is protege Camille

Mistakes and fallibility

- Requirements of a Miracle
  - The credulity of all
  - The complacency of some
  - The tacit consent of the principal actor

- “He who is a legend in his own time is ruled by that legend. It may begin in absolute innocence, but, to cover up flaws and maintain the myth of Divine Power, one must employ desperate measures.“ — as read in movie to Camille from Victor Hugo literary passage

A cheap shot I am a pedophile is more than money laundering (a dopple of me will get caught as a pedophile and my turst fund will sued for the acts of someone claiming to be me.)

It is a fight provokation attempt “stay away from my child” starting a fight as I am NOT interested in the child or harming it in any way but now based on the dopple a pretext exists for a fight with me as the dopple is next to me.

Hostile environment for me is manufactured by the acts of others.

“Crisis actors” including Crisis Actor motorcycles resemble my motorcycle (which sometimes films coastal rides) peek into the childcare’s area or sauna area of the gym.

Street Theater, aka Gangasataljk or Rough Music, gets rid of enemies of the powerful.

This family harms it own “little brown princess” who the Dopple of me, who did harm the little brown princess, will make a princess with my DNA. All of this, the non white girl being harmed by a Dopple of me, the Dopple of me making her “a princess” and the Dopple of me being provided an adult model from Victoria secrets, etc;, to be shown adult white woman parts are acts of others not me, but I am on an assets “kill list” under the NDAA for child porn, allegedly buying size 13 boots and guns from the internet. This is case manufacture of pretexts against me for retaliation and evidence seizures. I have tried to get exigent emergency political asylum because the State backed Irregulars can create the basis for State acts against me. I have complained of FRAUD every waking hour of my life for 35 years at least but no avail.

The Grandparent Scam, going to a trust or retirement account for genetics usefull for developing economies, not to me who would deny exploiting the minor

Suggestiveness but no follow through,, no statement to ME. (The county and my trust fund wil be approaced.) Following a crisis made up of others, not me, a glaring at me suggests I caused the crisis, but no scrutinizable statement, mere only glare at me by tough guy

If I ask there is not problem here but what is MY problem? The glare just sells the appearances, fraudulent appearances, of a Grifter gang alleging I exploited their family and owe their family, or rather, my mother owes them via the trust insuring me.

I will call this the vulnerability (to fraud.) I was in the area this child was exploited at. Another exploitation is later away from me, away from my scrutiny a statement will be made I exploited the child.

This is also Bunko and called the Grandparents Scam. Grandparents (or a trust useful for developing economies) is called to say Edward is going to need to pay a debt for having exploited a minor, and that trust fund or retirement asset will pay that debt (Extorion17)

Someone may later say “thank you to me” or “you are scum” as though the receipt or closing of the accounts as a settlement reached receipt, but if I ask why did you say thank you, they say they were not talking to me, it only seemed to appear that way.

Conspiracy Against Rights. I will experience property claims retaliation for the exploitation of these children, blamed and socially ostracized, and used as KOMPROMAT to socially engineer agencies and bureaucracies.

This has long been achieved through Behavioral Health Care, sexual abuse in Behavioral Health Care as abuse of legal rights to assets is acheived by forced teaming with retardation clients, claims I am retarded, and then covert plausibly deniable black market of my assets in the legal-medical domain among those I am forced teamed with and under rather than my being independent normal person.

At the front desk I am asked to sing a new contract on some flimsy excuse the old one cant’ be found.

It is called Road Blocking that KOMPROMAT has cliquishly locked me out of the earlier contract but that is the community protecting itself by forcing me out on excuses because of (unfounded) rumors about me.

A female, perhaps a minor, was exploited by a CIA operation likely photographed as exploitation and thus a crisis to children.

The crisis is blamed on Edward Behind the scenes and though NOTHING is said to Ed Donegan as to the crisis.

He (me) if to remain at all is asked to sign a new membership on some flimsy excuse like the a misspelling of my name in the old contract, the dues were late and thus a new contract was started to replace the old contract, the computer could not find my membership, etc., and it LOOKS like by a paperwork standpoint I was allowed to rejoin after the crisis road blocked my previous membership and thus I seem to be asking to be allowed back.

This patter of events at Golds Gym and Allgood gym in Corpus Christi, Extended Stay Springfield Virginia hotel gym, my own apartment at Maclamar Property managed 1001 N. Water St #6, and numerous other locations for instance when the hurricane which struck Corpus Christi in 2020 disabled my satellite, fraud was found and the repair involved me having to sign a new and different satellite contract.

I was zeroed out from 1001 N. Water Street 1/17/2021

> Mac Lamar Management January 8 2021
>
> According to our records your lease is currently expired. Please come into the office and sign a new lease extension with us. This will keep your rent at $745 for the next year. These are our leasing options:
>
> Leasing options: 1 year $745, 6 mos $820, Month to Month $895

Plausible Dependability of Illegal and Subversive Acts via Espionage Capabilities, Slush Funds for contracting - Cartels in Oil or Genetics

- Deny the Covert power asserting itself has abused its legitimate authority with illegitimate acts
- Deny what the real motive is, do not disclose it, conceal it, or falsify the real motive
- Deny the operation funding sources since these are result of black opps, secret sluch funds for free lance espionage work
- Deny the operation which is funded by Espionage enabled rackets is engaging in covert acts and fund the illegal irregular warfare contractors to complete rouge espionage acts
- Deny the allegiances and interests around the world and domestically illegal and fraudulent acts are conducted for or on behalf of including denying the existance of Fifth Column towering through US government and as foundation in international governments as well whiel denying international or foreign actors influence espionage occurring in the USA

My trust fund, agreeing behind my back the crisis was due to me changes it name to my “family grow fund” allowing others my DNA seemingly in response to remedistain of the Crisis Actors acts. Because pools change to kiddie pools outside of my control I seem like I am in puruit of minors when they are planted near me.

The United States House of Representatives Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) was established in 1976 to investigate the assassinations of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr. in 1963 and 1968, respectively.

The committee also stated that the conspiracy did not involve any organized crime group, anti-Castro group, nor the FBI, CIA, or Secret Service.

Whew.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Plausible deniability , black budget From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Plausible deniability is the ability of people, typically senior officials in a formal or informal chain of command, to deny knowledge of or responsibility for any damnable actions committed by others in an organizational hierarchy because of a lack or absence of evidence that can confirm their participation, even if they were personally involved in or at least willfully ignorant of the actions. If illegal or otherwise-disreputable and unpopular activities become public, high-ranking officials may deny any awareness of such acts to insulate themselves and shift the blame onto the agents who carried out the acts, as they are confident that their doubters will be unable to prove otherwise. The lack of evidence to the contrary ostensibly makes the denial plausible (credible), but sometimes, it makes the denial only unactionable.

The term typically implies forethought, such as intentionally setting up the conditions for the plausible avoidance of responsibility for one's future actions or knowledge. In some organizations, legal doctrines such as command responsibility exist to hold major parties responsible for the actions of subordinates who are involved in heinous acts and nullify any legal protection that their denial of involvement would carry.

In politics and espionage, deniability refers to the ability of a powerful player or intelligence agency to pass the buck and to avoid blowback by secretly arranging for an action to be taken on its behalf by a third party that is ostensibly unconnected with the major player. In political campaigns, plausible deniability enables candidates to stay clean and denounce third-party advertisements that use unethical approaches or potentially-libelous innuendo.

Although plausible deniability has existed throughout history, the term was coined by the CIA in the early 1960s to describe the withholding of information from senior officials to protect them from repercussions if illegal or unpopular activities became public knowledge.

The United States Department of Defense has a black budget it uses to fund black projects-expenditures that it does not want to disclose publicly. The annual cost of the United States Department of Defense black budget was estimated at $30 billion in 2008,[2] but was increased to an estimated $50 billion in 2009.[3] A black budget article by The Washington Post, based on information given by Edward Snowden, detailed how the US allocated $52.8 billion in 2012 for the black budget.[1]

The black budget has been known to hide multiple types of projects from elected officials. With secret code names and hidden figures, the details of the black budget are revealed only to certain people of congress, if at all.

This budget was approved by the US National Security Act of 1947, which created the Central Intelligence Agency, the National Security Council and reorganized some military bases with help of the Defense Department.

The U.S. Government claims that the money given to this budget investigates advanced sciences and technologies for military issues. This kind of research is responsible for the creation of new aircraft, weapons, and satellites.

Orbit of Influence: Spy Finance and the Black Budget retrieved from the American Prospect BY ROBERT DREYFUSS DECEMBER 19, 2001 and copied or modified to here

Certainly there is a legitimate place for secret intelligence operations in the modern state. But political circumstances might suggest that this complex, like other government-dependent industries, is due for serious downsizing. With President Clinton and Congress desperate for budget cuts, the intelligence community has offered a steady stream of embarrassing scandals, from the Aldrich Ames affair to the reports that the CIA and the Defense Intelligence Agency hired alleged psychics for what the agencies called “remote viewing.” This January, a congressional investigation revealed that the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO), a supersecret agency whose existence was publicly acknowledged only a few years ago, lost track of a $2 billion slush fund because it was so highly classified even top intelligence officials had no control over it.

The Church Committee (formally the United States Senate Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities) was a U.S. Senate select committee in 1975 that investigated abuses by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), National Security Agency (NSA), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Chaired by Idaho Senator Frank Church (D-ID), the committee was part of a series of investigations into intelligence abuses in 1975, dubbed the “Year of Intelligence”, including its House counterpart, the Pike Committee, and the presidential Rockefeller Commission. The committee’s efforts led to the establishment of the permanent U.S. Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.

By the early years of the 1970s, a series of troubling revelations had appeared in the press concerning intelligence activities. First came the revelations by Army intelligence officer Christopher Pyle in January 1970 of the U.S. Army’s spying on the civilian population[1][2] and Senator Sam Ervin’s Senate investigations produced more revelations.[3] Then on December 22, 1974, The New York Times published a lengthy article by Seymour Hersh detailing operations engaged in by the CIA over the years that had been dubbed the “family jewels”. Covert action programs involving assassination attempts on foreign leaders and covert attempts to subvert foreign governments were reported for the first time. In addition, the article discussed efforts by intelligence agencies to collect information on the political activities of US citizens.[4]

Christopher H. Pyle (born 1939) is a journalist and Professor of Politics at Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Massachusetts. He testified to Congress about the use of military intelligence against civilians, worked for the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, as well as the Senate Committee on Government Oversight. He is the author of several books and Congressional reports on military intelligence and constitutional rights, and has testified numerous times before the U.S. Congress on issues of deportation and extradition.[1][2]

Pyle graduated from Bowdoin College (1961) and earned LLB (1964), MA (1966), and PhD (1974) degrees at Columbia University.[1]

In the 1960s while an Army captain in intelligence, Pyle learned that “Army intelligence had 1,500 plainclothes agents watching every demonstration of 20 people or more throughout the United States,”

Conflict Engagement: Fight Provoking as test battles, forced exposition of argument, sport conflict, illegal science

How Peter assaults Paul to test Paul or to change Peter’s or Paul’s path defines Peter rather than Paul. https://www.politico.com/magazine/story/2018/05/06/most-unlikely-district-attorney-in-america-mark-gonzalez-218322/

Mark Gonazlaes makes me a mark in a con

Violation of the Hobbes Act and a long con artist for Racial Assaults, Race Baiting, racial and religious assets transfers on abusive conflict engagements

If I had my way I would have been in Austin 6 or 7 years from 3/20/2021. not caring about race in Corpus and not caring about race in Austin. This guy is looking for a fight though that will propel him as a legal philosophy PhD genius on these topics of research.

I Edward Paul Donegan believe the assets seizures a biological assets seizures, are based on fraudulent fact, fraudulent legal foundations, and fraudulent legal proceedings including fraud on the courts

An Al Capone conducting shakedowns to benefit himself and Hispanic Nueces?

I think an opportunist racketeer of me and possibly tied to murder of Jen Moore.

This photo used here of Nueces County Texas District Attorney Mark Gonzales is cropped and darkened after taken out of a set of photos created by Tamir Kalifa for Politico Magazine

Politico Magazine - Mark Gonzales

byline Timothy Bella, a features journalist whose work has appeared in The Atlantic, The Undefeated, Rolling Stone and The New York Times. I have excerpted his article to here from Politico

Mark Gonzales

He's a biker [outlaw, murder defendant(s) among them Calveras Motorcycle Club] attorney who specialized in getting small-time [skid row homeless shelter] defendants off. He's considered a gang member by Texas police. And now he's the county's chief prosecutor. Can Mark Gonzalez change the system?

Hung on the otherwise bare walls of Mark Gonzales's county office are family pictures, a baseball pennant and a colorful mural of the Mexican revolutionary Emiliano Zapata. Gonzalez looks down, reaches toward the floor and smiles, slightly embarrassed to find that the plaque from Texas Gov. Greg Abbott recognizing him as district attorney still isn't hanging up.

…

The county hasn't gone Democratic for president in more than 20 years, and if anything it's getting more conservative: Donald Trump's margin of victory here was nearly 2,000 votes more than Mitt Romney's in 2012. Until his resignation last month, its congressman was the conservative Republican Blake Farenthold.

But in 2016, Nueces also elected Gonzalez, a 38-year-old Democrat and self-described "Mexican biker lawyer covered in tattoos." Before being elected, Gonzalez had never prosecuted a single case: For his entire 10-year career, Gonzales had specialized in getting accused criminals off the hook-working most closely with low-income, mostly minority offenders, fighting low-level charges for marijuana and other substances.

…

On the five acres he owns in a little town west of Corpus Christi, Gonzalez is running late. It's Martin Luther King Jr. Day and his office is packaging supplies and food for the area's homeless. On the TV above the fireplace, "Live with Kelly and Ryan" is playing as Gonzalez plays with his 6-month-old daughter, drinks coffee out of a yellow mug marked with the Gadsden flag, and eats eggs and deer sausage.

…

Standing outside his home, Gonzalez radiates a comfort with where he is. But having come this far, he's never quite free of the question of where he might go. Shortly after the announcement that Farenthold would not run for reelection, Gonzalez and his family say he was approached about possibly running for Congress. He declined, saying he wanted to serve out at least two terms as DA. "But if someone eventually wants me as Attorney General, shoot, I'd do that," Gonzalez tells me. "Imagine that, right?"

…

There's a local political split in reaction to the tattooed DA. On one hand, you can go on Gonzalez's Facebook page and see a raft of overwhelmingly positive comments on just about every post, whether it's work-related or something that gives a window into his everyday life with his family. But he's also become a target for the (mostly white) legal community and local law enforcement in Corpus Christi, who've been making an issue, both loudly and quietly, of his ties to the biker gang. They have raised questions about his competence, since he's only tried three cases so far and somehow managed to get his law license suspended last year by not paying his dues to the state bar. His maturity was also questioned when he decided to wear a Dallas Cowboys jersey and jeans to his public swearing-in ceremony.

I Edward Donegan am told by those assaulting me (a person from Neuces Behaviorial Health) about Natural Law philosophy at an ambush of me at Bay Area Laundery S. Staples st. Mark Gonazles is a rising star in fighting white supremacism and understanding gray areas of Natural Law Philosophy in law.

Genetic Engineering: Designing babies to spec whether the genes are "properly paid for" or "owned" or seized or not is genetic engineering.

https://www.progresstimes.net/2020/01/15/help-on-wheels/

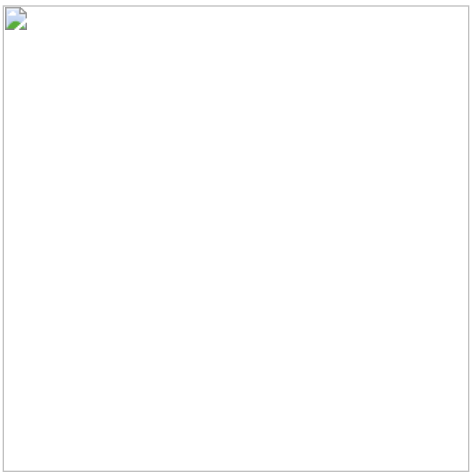
Members of the Calaveras Motorcycle Club with Brandon Tadeo Alvarez (center) at an April 2019 benefit supporting him. Courtesy photo

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas - No parent wants to hear their child has been bullied at school, and a local motorcycle group is taking a stand against this issue.

Bryan Gomez with the Calaveras Motorcycle Club said many lives can be affected by bullying.

Gomez was made aware of a recent incident at Martin Middle School and said enough was enough.

A local student claims he's been bullied at the school, so Gomez along with about 40 other bikers went to the campus and waited for the student and escorted him home safely.



The club also often raise funds to benefit veterans' organizations.

"We're a family club, we try to do everything we can to help our community and people in need," David "Deadbeat" Carrera, an officer with the Las Milpas chapter of Calaveras MC explained. "Our thing is family comes first and family is part of the community, they go hand in hand. It's why we do everything we can to help as many as we can. If you're a family member, we try what we can do to help you, we jump in, no questions asked."

...

This appears to be the Motorcyle Club callingn itself Outlaw, in a DHS Database as terrorist, and has one member charged with a kniging murder, another member being county prosecutor Mark Gonzales also in defense of these children who are seeking protection and compensations.

Are these Hoax cases? Is there a source of clearing house on the facts other than Mark Gonzales if Edward Donegan is the accused perpetrator? - Edward Paul Donegan Mark Sukura of the Nueces Prosecutor's office was replaced in an election for District Attorney won by Mark Gonzales.

Mark Skurka - (Gannett cdn / Caller Times)

This photo is from a Caller Times news article on the path of a Sovereign Immunity case regarding the firing of yet another prosecutor who alleges under Sukura he was asked to withhold a witness statement and then fired in retaliation for whistleblowing.

Is the Best Offense a Good Defense Lawyer? retrieved from Texas Monthly and copied or modified to here

District attorney races are going off script," Stanford Law School professor David Alan Sklansky wrote in a recent law journal article. For years, DAs who took a tough-on-crime stance by racking up convictions could usually count on being reelected.

But something seems to be changing, and evidence of it could be found, Sklansky wrote, this past March in the Democratic primary for Nueces County district attorney. On one side, there was incumbent Mark Skurka, a 29-year veteran prosecutor best known for his conviction of Selena's murderer, Yolanda Saldivar. "Mark Skurka is tough on criminals because they are tough on us," a voice intoned in his reelection campaign's TV ad. "When Mark Skurka goes to court, criminals go to prison."

On the other side, there was Mark Gonzalez, a heavily tattooed Corpus Christi defense attorney whose ink includes a stylized "Not Guilty" on his chest, a reminder, he said, of the importance of the presumption of innocence. The Nueces County DA's office has had serious problems lately, such as well-publicized allegations of failing to hand over exculpatory evidence to defense counsels and high turnover rates among prosecutors. Gonzalez's campaign highlighted those issues, and Skurka's campaign highlighted Gonzalez's lack of prosecutorial experience and his tattoos. To the surprise of many, Gonzalez won by 12 points.

"I never thought I would be here right now-it's crazy," the 37-year-old Gonzalez said in his small law office. On the wall behind his desk was a likeness of the Mexican revolutionary Emiliano Zapata. On the opposite wall was a different kind of art: mug shots of a young, smiling Gonzalez. "I probably have more in common with my defendants than with my colleagues across the bar," he said, pointing to the photos. "That was me when I was nineteen. I don't forget these things. Everyone needs a little help."

Gonzalez was born and raised in the tiny town of Agua Dulce, about half an hour west of Corpus. One day, after drinking with a friend in nearby Kingsville, he got pulled over. "I didn't know any lawyers," he said. "I asked my mom, 'What do I do?' She said, 'Just plead guilty, mijo, and they're gonna be nice to you. I promise.' "

He got a plea deal. At the hearing, he saw a Navy pilot who'd been charged with drunk driving too-and watched as a slick lawyer got his case dismissed. "I knew from that day I was gonna be a defense attorney," he said. So he went to Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, and then to law school at St. Mary's, in San Antonio, and eventually set up shop in Corpus. He made $12,000 his first year but slowly built up a successful regional practice.

…

Using Environmental Stress to induce conflict or self harm, no touch stress infliction - Espionage agencies discredit those who have information compromising to high levels of authority rouge units

Neuropsychological & Electronic No-Touch Torture Report by Dr. Robert Duncan (used on targeted citizens here in the U.S.) SERE training (Survival, Evasion, Resistance and Escape) MAR 30 2015

The Executive Summary: Neuropsychological and Electronic No-Touch Torture Report Based on "The Torture Memos" and the Senate Intelligence Committee's Declassified "Torture Report"

Perspectives on Enhanced Interrogation Techniques Project Proposals for Google Summer of Code 2015 By Robert Duncan, A.B., S.M., M.B.A., Ph.D.

"The United States is number one in torture since they are currently the world's only superpower." 04/2015

Torture is a horrific topic and most minds will turn away from it because it can't be comprehended that humans can be motivated, or computer programs can be run to do this to other sentient beings. Just when we believed we were becoming more civilized as a culture, the technology for torture has advanced more than a hundred fold in recent decades.

This summary will get into ‘the minds of the dishonorable monsters’ of the psychology of torture. Those like Dick Cheney who helped authorize it under certain administrations and regimes of the U.S. government which have been proven to be criminal under U.S. law, treaties, and the International Criminal Court. There are many people involved in the conspiracy and cover-up including General Hayden.

The full report discloses the spectrum of techniques of interrogation and torture used by the U.S. and its allies. The United States government will officially deny the claims of this “no-touch torture report” but in time it will stand firm.

The technologies used are still classified as state secrets and will not be discussed in this summary. The torture methods have been leaked through thousands of American citizens who have survived the no-touch torture programs. The research and testimony has been accumulated since 2002 and merely used as examples but the names of the victims are withheld.

This report will not use skewed, misleading language such as “enhanced interrogation” to describe the torture techniques. Why torture? The CIA claims it works. The assumption is that it works to gain actionable intelligence. Torture is often used for revenge, punishment, interrogation, and behavior modification. In other terms torture is used to remove the continuity of thought to confuse the target to reveal information, erase brain patterns such as values and beliefs, or to break down the human spirit to make them submit and obey their handlers. The downside of torture is that the countries that do it lose “moral soft power” in world politics. Without due process, over 25% of those reported in the Senate Torture Report were declared innocent. Blowback is always a repercussion of torture. Torture often takes a long time to affect the target from months to years. Torture has shown to be unreliable except for getting false confessions and bad information but the U.S. and its allies are improving on their tactics and techniques.

The purpose of this report is to draw the parallels between physical torture techniques and no-touch torture methods used in secret by governments who possess the technologies that still go on today. This is a brief summary of offensive psychological and information warfare methods using traditional methods and modern cybernetic techniques while exploring hyper-game theory to walk the target to the desired path: leak intelligence, commit assassinations, or change beliefs.

Numerated Torture Methods for Interrogation and Behavior Modification (A comparison between physical and no-touch torture tactics)

1. Induction of Depressive/Manic states

   The idea is to shake up the emotional states of the target because different information can be accessed at each state. Making the target feel despair and helplessness is the objective. This cycle of hope building and then breaking is done in many ways. The techniques between the physical methods and the no-touch technological methods are similar. Speech is very important during this process of emotional manipulation. Such examples are, “We have imprisoned you without due processes or hope of it. You are indefinitely detained.” Hope building examples include, “Sorry. We have mistaken you for someone else. You will be compensated for false imprisonment and torture.” The main difference between the cybernetic technology and physical is that emotional state clusters can be entrained into the target mind which speeds up the process. The communication is done differently but perceived as human speech. In the no-touch torture methods it is helpful if the target is labeled with mental illness that is being created for discrediting purposes so as not to draw human rights groups’ attention.

2. Memory Erasure

The military and CIA have been researching memory erasing drugs for half a century. The focus of this summary report is on interrogation. Memory erasure is an important technique during interrogation. It is used in combination with sleep deprivation. There are many drugs that have been developed for physical memory erasure. One such interrogation method requires acquiring information from the target while on these drugs and recording the subject. After a sleeping cycle, the interrogator claims that the target has confessed. Of course the target remembers nothing of their conversation. The interrogator will play samples of the subject's conversation back to them making the subject believe that the interrogator knows more than they do. Similar techniques are used in the wireless, no-touch torture and interrogation programs. The cybernetic methods of memory erasure have additional purposes. The memory erasure can be used on the cybernetic target to make the target believe people have broken in and moved their belongings. While physical black bag jobs do occur, it is a way to make the target more paranoid.

3. Electricity and Shocks

Pain and fear of death are common tactics during interrogation. Shocking by electricity is a traditional method of torture and exposed in the CIA's secret prisons. Shocking the testicles and nipples are the most common due to their sensitivity. Interestingly, the thousand of interviews of no-touch torture involves "stings" and "shocks" to various parts of their bodies over long durations.

4. Fear and Terror

There are many techniques to induce extreme fear in the target. In physical renditions dogs, power drills, guns, insects, mutilation, blow torches, water boarding, suffocation, mock burials, and mock executions are just a few the United States government have used. Remember that many targets of torture die from the physical effects. It is torture to death.

Let us compare the no-touch torture methods used to inflict the same terror and mental anguish. In several of these techniques the target needs to hear their handler's voice. This report does not describe the technologies used to broadcast voices to the target at a distance. While the subject can be broadcast mental images to their mind using hypnosis and other suggestions as well as visual entrainments, the more invasive controls of the brain manipulation technologies can be used to entrained the brain's autonomic nervous systems such as not breathing causing the target to not be able to sleep from fear of suffocation equivalent to water boarding. The neural linguistic programming can add fears such as heart attack, stroke, and cancer threats. Even motor cortex mapping can cause twitches in any part of the body. One example used a swift neck movement with a voice transmission, "We are trying to break your neck." Directed energy effects such as Active Denial System can make the target feel that they are on fire indefinitely without the target dying from burns. Maximum pain and torture weapons have been evolving. Every drug effect can be artificially induced into the target mind including those of poisons.

5. Imprisonment and Isolation

Isolation is commonly used as punishment in prisons. Many whistleblowers like Bradley Manning suffer this condition. In soft interrogation it is used to get the target to talk to their interrogator since humans have the need for companionship. In no-touch torture the target is driven from their friends and family using different techniques in order to isolate them so that the electronic mind control has more effect on their psyche. Like in Guantanamo, the target becomes isolated losing their job and medical care. Part of the method involves slander in their community. They end up on the most part in poverty and paranoid about doctors and other people from false correlations that are purposefully induced into their lives. Isolation is also a form of sensory deprivation which will be discussed later. Days and weeks lose their meaning.

6. Sexually Disturbing Tailored Pornography

The Summary of the Senate Torture Report disclosed the disgusting revelations that in the secret torture prisons the targets were forced to perform homosexual acts on each other against their will and religion in order not to be beaten or killed. This is a common break down tactic of belief systems and the human will. In no-touch torture the techniques are more psychologically specialized for each target. Most common examples include homosexual targets that are forced with voices that are derogatory to their lifestyle and similar mental images. Almost all targets are forced to view child pornography in their minds. And vice versa is true, that heterosexual targets are forced to view homosexual sexual acts like in the secret U.S. torture prisons.

7. Mutilation

Also mentioned in the declassified report on torture was mutilation of the human. Cutting the naked target's penis and scrotum, pulling nails or teeth is common. In no-touch torture mutilation is done by trickery. Let us look at a couple examples. There have been several targets who believed that the microwave hearing effect and other voice induction methods were done by microchips implanted in their teeth or ears. They had all their teeth pulled because they believed it was a technology called bone conductance. Others have poked out their ear drums in the belief they had micro implants in their ears. There are many more examples of trickery used to make the targets mutilate themselves.

8. Personal and Spiritual Defamation

In physical torture the CIA and other groups use propaganda and defamation of character for those they oppose. For detainees they try to disenfranchise the target from their religion. They will defecate on their Bible or Koran for example. They might say, "Why is your God not saving you?" In no touch torture and behavior modification they might try to make an atheist believe in god. It is just a mechanism to alter belief systems for control and experimentation. Perhaps the target may wish to confess their secrets to a "voice of god weapon". Information warfare covers the gamut of electronic communication as well. The government training exercise uses language like "befriend", "infiltrate", "mask/mimic", "ruse", "set-up", "disrupt", "create cognitive stress", "use deception", "ruin business relationships", and "post negative information on appropriate forums" - in a malicious effort to target bloggers, activists, journalists, social event organizers and anyone else deemed to be a 'emerging leader' or voice in the public sphere. 9. Psychological Intimidation

This is a topic for a target at the beginning of the trials and programs. Physical break-ins are common even if the target has an alarm system. The NSA has used stalking of foreign officials in the past for economic gain. The FBI does black bag jobs to invade a home without a warrant. The point is to let the target know they are being watched and to increase their paranoia. The NSA easily hacks all computer systems and causes harm to the victim's intellectual property and their relationships from that endpoint. In the no touch torture false correlations between pain and a neighbor coming home can be induced.

9. Rape

Rape is a common practice in torture. It causes much psychological trauma. In the United States methods of rape in their military and CIA secret prisons it is often relabeled. It is commonly done by prods but “rectal rehydration” is the more common misnomer. Often they call it forced feeding through the rectum but it is meant to induce psychological scaring and trauma. Several have died from the technique due to rectal bleeding. In no-touch torture the psychological trauma of simulated rape takes on different forms. Using technique often called EEG-heterodyning the targets will receive molestation effects of their genitals. In men this can be the anus and genitals. Similarly women can be wirelessly raped by the analogous function of perception.

10. Dietary Manipulation, Forced Weakness and Sickness

The idea behind dietary manipulation is to weaken the target. This is easily done in a physical setting but in no-touch the hunger trigger needs to be suppressed. Sometimes a false correlation between eating food and sickness is induced to make the target believe they are being poisoned. However, poisoning is common in physical renditions too.

11. Repetition

Verbal breakdown is most important during interrogations and torture. Obviously speaking the language of the target is necessary. This is why there are interrogators in all languages. Repetition is an important neural linguistic programming interrogation tactic to influence the target mind. During the breakdown process, threats to kill and to torture the target’s family or friends are common. Repetitious questioning and breakdown phrases are automated in both the physical and no-touch versions of torture. An interesting technology that is used for no-touch torture is called chatter bots. Chatter bots, an artificial intelligence program, automate much of the repetition so that the interrogators don’t drive themselves crazy during the neural linguistic torture and programming phases. Let us not forget the Chinese Water Torture, a single drop of water on the forehead of the detainee for months. Repetition is a form of torture.

12. Sensitization of Pain Impulses

While the reverse can be obtained, optimizing perceived pain and misery is the objective in torture. Each trauma adds to the overall misery throughout life. Optimization of pain has been studied by the military and intelligence agencies. In the past the CIA has used drugs such as LSD to enhance fear and terror in the subject. Other methods such as hypnosis can increase perceived pain and the power of suggestion such as telling the subject his pinky finger is going to be cut off before it is done. In no-touch torture the same psychological manipulations are exerted. Subliminal and overt suggested are often told to the subject before the directed energy or EEG heterodyning pain inductions in order to maximize their effectiveness.

13. Sensory Overload and Deprivation

Again, this technique of overloading or depriving the human of sensory stimulus is ubiquitous in torture around the world not just in U.S. secret prisons. Torture subjects in the United States have reported the use of repetitive bad music and noise campaigns. An unusual torture technique used in the U.S. secret prisons was of a use of a plastic suit filled with ice while they beat the target. Ultra bright lights for days on end in the prison and hot/cold temperature changes in the environment are frequent. In no-touch torture, the target's brain is forced to release dopamine which causes pupil dilatation. This acts as a sensory overload. For example the non-lethal microwave weapons research done by a professor in University of Nevada has shown this capability. Body metabolism can be altered with these weapons causing cold and hot flashes. Targets of no-touch torture often hear endless tinnitus.

14. Sexual Humiliation and Lack of Privacy

Often used in common prisons is a lack of privacy. It is both necessity for security and a form of sexual humiliation. Also in prison many people are raped. No-touch torture offers the same sexual humiliation and lack of privacy by using through wall radar, cameras, and EEG visual cloning to let the target know they are being watched. Degrading comments are often used on the no-touch torture subjects while they are naked or in the bathroom.

15. Maximum Sensory Pain Techniques

Basic torture involves brutalization, i.e. physical strikes, kicks in the groin, pepper spray or tear gas, etc. Anything that involves maximum pain is the objective. Amazingly, these same basic tortures can be done wirelessly into the human mind. All forms of sickness have been reported without any real illness behind the suffering. All suffering can be entrained into the minds of no-touch torture subjects.

16. Sleep Deprivation

This is the number one torture method along with the popularity in the press of water boarding. This is done in every country that uses torture. The United States is number one in torture since they are currently the world's only superpower. A repetitive sleep deprivation cycle is generally done 180 hrs/7.5 days at a time in the physical renditions, or in no-touch torture five days awake and two days of sleep. Sleep deprivation accomplishes the objective of memory loss during interrogation and induces hallucinations which help with the interrogation process. In behavior modification and programming it is necessary too.

17. Stress Positions

Keeping detainees handcuffed above their head and to walls so that they must stand for days is a common ploy in torture. These types of poses are called stress positions. They can be mimicked in no-touch torture. An example of one such trick requires the target to believe they can deflect radar energy using pots or pans and that it is directional. The target is being given an ample amount of pain until their hands and arms are spread apart holding the pans trying to block the signals. They must maintain that position in order to get any relief from the torture signals. However the stress position itself is physical torture. Often accompanying this technique are voices saying to the target, "You are doing it to yourself."

We will finish off this summary of U.S. and its allies' torture, interrogation, and behavior modification experimentation with ideas of why they are done to the general public and falsely accused detainees. Anyone can be put into these programs. Justice and rule of law does not exist at the highest levels of government. Treaties are worthless because the #1 agreement in the rules of war, a ban against torture, is not obeyed. This creates a more brutal and barbaric society lead by example.

No-touch torture uses the same interrogation tactics as physical interrogations but with some new twists. Techniques such as “Jeff and Mutt” a.k.a. “Good Cop Bad Cop” are used. The bad cop tortures the target and the good cop tries to gain their trust. In mind control, trust games are commonly employed to manipulate the beliefs of the target. Creating hatred of groups through false correlations and deception is a common CIA method of trickery.

In the CIA programs, the target is put through these phases as written in the documentation, “Disorient and confuse the target. Use them for our purposes, and then dispose of them in any way possible.” We can only surmise by our sample set of a thousand people what “dispose” means: prison, suicide, or perhaps a mental hospital. Coercing and torturing people to suicide is very common. Both tactics in physical or no-touch torture involves plausible deniability.

The no-touch interrogations are better than physical rendition techniques for exposing support networks. Traditional NSA tracking of email and phones calls are useful but if the targets are taken into a secret prison they can’t contact their networks. In no-touch torture, the target will contact everyone who might help them. Then those relationships can be destroyed to isolate the target. All these techniques rely on the target having a fear of death and pain.

Deception is very important during interrogation. In physical interrogations the targets are often drugged. This creates the confusion necessary to pull off certain trickery. In terrorist interrogations, for example, the CIA uses fake newspapers to make the target believe whatever event they were suspected of plotting had already happened, obviously looking for a confession. Sometimes the government in charge of the torture is looking for a political gain through a false confession. None-the-less false flag operations are commonly used in both forms of torture and interrogation. The trick is to make the target believe another foreign country is doing it to them. In no-touch torture the trick is to make them believe someone related to them is behind their suffering.

Voice transformation and morphing is an interesting technology also used in both physical and wireless interrogations. It is a form of deception used against a target to trick them into believing that they are speaking to real people that they know. It has been used in war to trick generals. Obviously spoofing email and other identities on internet forums can be used in this manner too.

Finally, the topic of human experimentation for improving weapons, torture, interrogation, and social disruption methods will be breached. Most of the techniques mentioned above work most effectively if the target has no SERE training (Survival, Evasion, Resistance and Escape) or psychological understanding of the methods to influence the human mind. Unfortunately, every sample point in the world’s society needs to be studied to improve the weapons systems. This is why many random people are put into the torture and mind control experiments. There are some devious uses of a secret army of remote controlled assassins in every country in the world. The samples must include different education, language, culture, and economic factors.

Obviously, silencing dissidents, oppositions of political parties, and whistleblowers are included in the lists of applications. [of no touch harassment] The most disturbing of the trends in torture is testing and improving it. No-touch torture is much more complex than physical torture.

Testing design flaws and weaknesses of the signal intelligence is one reason why it is necessary to test on innocent targets [to hone the practive.] Often the subject will be taunted by the statement, “Try to stop us.” This statement forces the torture subject to try to figure out shielding and jamming techniques to stop the wireless torture and helps the weapons designers to improve on the system.

However, the psychological and perceived physical pain is only half the story with no-touch torture. It also involves a set of scripts, mind games if you will, to walk the target to murder and/or suicide. This is called “Hyper Game Theory”. It is used in war games to determine how to control your enemies and targets. Game Theory can be used on governments, individuals, or for determining propaganda to alter cultures. The experiments on the public provide a means to test the efficacy of these scripts and determine under what circumstances to use them.

One last comment on why “We must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military industrial complex” as President Eisenhower warned. During these torture programs run by the United States and its allies, accurate “truth” data points need to be used to judge the efficiency of the interrogation methods. This is why there is a dispute between the CIA and Senate Intelligence Committee reports about the usefulness of torture. Subterfuge by the CIA hacking into the senate oversight committee’s computers is a big deal; a rogue agency has been formed. Data fusion centers, Homeland Security Data Fusion Centers, NSA, and FBI collect data on Americans. This data in turn is used during torture and interrogation of Americans in no-touch torture.

argue 1. v have an argument about something 2. v present reasons and arguments - Voabulary.com

“I argued with a Trump supporter and he called me all sorts of names and his real malice and beliefs about me came out during the argument.”

I merely put my camera into his face and walked with him in public and he argued with me saying “get the heck away from me.”

I have been Gangstalking and elsewhere in the book I use a longer quote but a piece of it here.

Rough Music is a British term of medivial masonry of surrounding person which hostile loud offensive sounds and acts

Google knowledge panel retrieved from Annoyance and copied or modified to here

Annoyance is an unpleasant mental state that is characterized by irritation and distractionfrom one’s conscious thinking. It can lead to emotions such as frustration and anger. The property of being easily annoyed is called irritability.Wikipedia

Charivari Duck Duck Go search result panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Charivari, alternatively spelled shivaree or chivaree and also called skimmington, was a folk custom in which a mock parade was staged through a community accompanied by a discordant mock serenade. Since the crowd aimed to make as much noise as possible by beating on pots and pans or anything that came to hand these parades are often referred to as rough music.

Parades were of three types. In the first, and generally most violent form, a wrongdoer or wrongdoers might be dragged from their home or place of work and paraded by force through a community. In the process they were subject to the derision of the crowd, they might be pelted and frequently a victim or victims were dunked at the end of the proceedings.

A safer form involved a neighbour of the wrongdoer impersonating the victim whilst being carried through the streets. The impersonator was obviously not himself punished and he often cried out or sang ribald verses mocking the wrongdoer .Wikipedia

The goal of Gang Stalking

Destruction of a person's life: The expressed goal of Gang Stalking is to silence a victim, drive a victim insane and possibly to the point of suicide, or destroy the victim's reputation and believability as the person will likely be viewed as mentally ill should they complain or report the abuse. Gang Stalking is also used to gather information on individuals as well as force individuals to move or leave an area.

William Pehlham Barr

His father Donald Barr was an American educator, writer, and Office of Strategic Services agent. He was an administrator at Columbia University before serving as headmaster at the Dalton School in New York City and the Hackley School in Tarrytown, New York. He also wrote two science fiction novels. Wikipedia Born: AUGUST 8, 1921, MANHATTAN, NEW YORK, NY

Gang Stalker Masons LOL by Offramp

Gang stalking and its preternatural connections.

Evil takes many forms in this world. It's areas of influence go deeper into the workings of our lives and institutions than many are aware of. We began SIS with the goal of protecting people from the manifestations of this evil, and when asked, cleansing their environments from it. Though it may be hard for some to fathom, our world is influenced, manipulated, and managed by what some refer to as Archons(Def. a ruler).

In Ephesians 6:12 we find other titles for them: For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against theauthorities, against the powers of this dark world and against thespiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Here are some other titles in Romans 8:38: For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

These beings have one primary purpose. The ruination of mankind's soul. I will cover the many means they employ to accomplish this in future articles. They feed off of human suffering. It very literally is food for them. These are very grim topics, but ones which must be addressed.

Today’s entry will cover a subject which is not widely known by the public. It is a tactic which is used to drive people over the edge. It is called Gang Stalking. Gang Stalking is a systemic form of control, which seeks to control every aspect of a Targeted Individuals life. Gang Stalking takes place outside in the community. It’s called Gang Stalking, because the target is followed around and placed under surveillance by groups of organised Civilian Spies/Snitches 24/7. I personally dealt with this situation when I was a law enforcement officer. I was investigating a large organization of luciferians, and they employed all of the tactics in this article to derail my investigation.

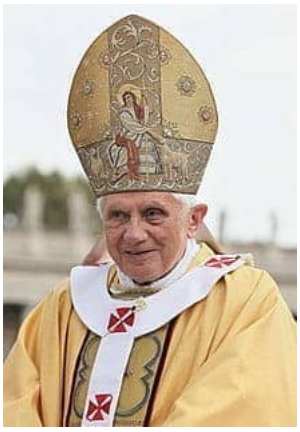
Predatory Gangstalking is also called “terror stalking”, “gangstalking”, “flash mobbing”, “cause stalking,” “hate stalking,” “multi-stalking, “happy slapping,” “workplace bullying, and “covert war.”

The reasons why it is employed?

You found the wrong forum on the internet and saw something you should not have seen; you worked for a company and found out some sensitive information; you got on the wrong side of someone who is a member of the vast satanic or luciferian cabal; etc.

What does this have to do with the field of the paranormal? On a macrocosmic level, preternatural beings are the driving force behind activities such as gang stalking. The destruction of a person feeds them. It also fits in with their overall agenda. People who are victims of gangstalking are people who pose a threat to the goals of the dark principalities.

In addition to being stalked by large groups of people, malevolent/demonic entities may be attacking you in the night, and disembodied voices may be harassing you at all hours. Though seemingly unrelated, all of these subjects tend to be connected.



Donald Barr CIA Free Mason with an experimental monkey having a birthday at the White House November 23 1961

Conservatives and 33 world wide values

Motivations for the abuse

Motivations for Gang Stalking vary. Revenge for a real or [invented - pedophilia, racism, retardation, psycosis] imagined offense (People in these organizations are quite petty, mirroring their preternatural handlers); false accusations of a "horrible crime" of which the victim has gotten away with (Used to discredit the Gangstalk victim and destroy his/her reputation); silencing a corporate "whistle-blower"; defecting from a cult; a perceived enemy of a group or organization; "knowing too much" are all examples of possible motivations [retaliation, impeachment, done per-emptvely with me then i researched the cause of impeachment]

Who are the stalkers?

The stalkers, for the most part, appear to be everyday citizens. They wear business suits, push their children in strollers, and shop at the local grocery store. They are encouraged to fit in with the community. Other stalkers are “street thugs” who have been hired to harass and intimidate.

Vast numbers of stalkers seem to have no idea that they are being controlled and used to harass people. Like a vehicle, the entities enter, use/drive them, and then exit. They will be going about their business one moment, then like a switch being flipped, they are your worst enemy. They go about their assignment with an icy hateful demeanor or at times a nearly playful trickster persona. Under it all there is a constant seething malevolence that is palpable.

A gang stalking group is a well-run organization comprised of members who are unidentified as gangstalkers to the outside world. Until a group of gangstalkers turn their face towards someone selected to be one of their targets, members of society do not realize there is such an invisible group.

The practitioners of gang stalking are people who, for the most part, go about their business of daily life appearing like everyone else, except for their activities involved with Gang stalking. Gangstalking activities take priority over everything else in the lives of gangstalkers. Gangstalking is actually a lifestyle for those who participate in it. Why people participate in Gang Stalking

-Some stalkers are told lies, either positive or negative in nature, in order to gain their participation
-Some stalkers are paid or receive other benefits
-Stalkers belonging to an organization may simply be following orders.
-Some stalkers may use their participation in order to repay a past favor.
-Peer Pressure/ Need to Fit In
-Former stalkers have stated they participated out of fear of becoming the next target should they go against the group.
-Entertainment Value/Thrill of Participation in an Illegal activity.
-Nearly all willing stalkers have a cult/satanic or luciferian group affiliation
-Some are controlled like puppets(flipping the switch)

Who, or what is behind Gang Stalking?

Societies/Fraternities/Orders, Religious Cults and Destructive “New Age” Groups, Corporations, Government Organizations, Military, Concerned” Community Groups/Vigilante Groups, Criminal Organizations, etc.

Ultimately, the source of it all are the deceiving principalities. They are the true Heads of State and corporations in this world.

Writer/Researcher Carissa Conti puts it this way:

> “The people involved with gang stalking activities may not always be piloting their own wheel, to put it in a straight forward manner. Other “stuff” may be manipulating them, working through them. There definitely seems to me to be a hyperdimensional component to it all - hyperdimensional, as in, non-physical realms and entities, whether positive or negative, that exist outside our own 3rd density physical reality, unconstrained by space-time, manipulating reality and working through people, like puppet masters from behind the scenes.“http://in2worlds.net/gangstalking-and-targeted-individuals

I highly recommend reading her article at the link above after you read this article. It conveys the otherworldly nature of this form of attack, and gives you the feeling of what it's like to be stalked.

Examples of Gang Stalking Harassment many of which involve setting up fake appearences which in public ambush real activities and also using illegal surveilance for Troll attack such as loud noises or harrassing phone calls or other forms on trespass into the home by under-the-radar acts like happening to be just outside the window in an annoying way by supposedly not on purpose. The Trolling acts often generate (from the stimuli the Troll introduces by Trespass) into narrative from the tresspassed upon person thus gets a perhaps a phone call from the tresspassed person to a police officer of friend describing the context into which the Troll introduced the stimuli into. Thus the Troll disrupts and inspects the Stalk Victims activities.

Flash mobs, Slashed Tires, Threatening Phone Calls, Verbal Assaults by Strangers, Property Damage, Death Threats, "Peeping Toms", Following on Foot or by Vehicle, Bizarre Notes and Drawings Left (usually of a satanic nature creating despicable links to things despicable themselves), Odd behavior (Brinksmanship forcing expressive acts such as seuxal suggistivness, expressions of ideas not true but syntheitcally fakdd in and by appearances by multiple people in relation to the victim (Everyone makes a certain gesture as they walk by, or mention victim's name while talking on their cellphones), Loitering, Anonymous False Accusations to Friends, Family, and Neighbors, Character Assassination, Smear Campaigns, "Black-Listing", Psychological Abuse, etc.

Tactics used by Charivari (Rough Music) Gang Stalkers

Tactics of Predatory Gangstalking include highly coordinated surveillance (hidden cameras, conversation bugging in private aswell as public), harassment, and psychological, psychosocial, financial, and sometimes physical assaults on an individual by a large group of people who are often strangers to the targeted individual.

ANCHORING, BAITING, AND MANUFACTING FALSE NARRATIVES ATTACHED TO OBJECTS OR EVENTS

Anchoring is a technique employed by stalkers to implant a false motivation or reason behind the stalking, preventing the victim from discovering the truth. In more sinister examples, Anchoring involves the implantation of evidence to persuade the victim some other group or organization is responsible for the abuse.

Baiting such as provoking conflict by manufacture of condition in some way or another hostile and in need of being corrected, even by initiating crime hoping for a fight the victim of the fight was led into as a trap

The term "Baiting" is a stalking tactic used to lure a victim into environments, or situations, which cause further problems to the victim. Often "Baiting" involves tricking a victim into committing a crime or unknowingly engaging in an illegal activity such as assault. They trick the victim into thinking an innocent bystander is the culprit of their harassment and try to compel the victim into assaulting the person.<

BRIGHTING

Brighting is a term jokingly referred to by stalkers to indicate the practice of repetitive flashing of a car's high-beam headlights. The victim is usually followed and may be "flashed" from either a "tail-gating" vehicle or a passing or on-coming one. "Brighting" also occurs when bright lights are flashed into a victim's home-windows. The conduct of flashing lights is out of any normal conduct, a flashign light is strong stimuli and when the out of place conduct comes from unidentified strangers it should be worrisome Electronic Harassment

Electronic Harassment icluding susiciously timed and interupting inbound phone o rother inbound activity such as engine overtaching or horns honking in the area or skiddign of cars is the use of technological devices to spy on or cause harm to targeted victims. For example, exposure to a high magnetic field has been shown to induce hallucinations in humans while exposure to intense microwave radiation induces psychotic episodes and causes brain damage.

A frequent form of Electronic Harassment involves beaming a low frequency “hum” or “tone” into a victim’s home or general area. Over time, the exposure causes the victim to lose sleep, become agitated, and suffer the effects of prolonged stress. Such tactics are also being used in cases of hostage situations as well as covert government operations. These forms of magnetic fields can be caused by technological or preternatural means.

GHOSTING

The term Ghosting refers to the practice of rearranging, or moving, of a victim’s home furniture, lawn decorations, desk decorations at work, etc. The purpose of Ghosting is to make a victim question his or her sanity. Ghosting is also designed to make other’s question the sanity of the victim, especially if the victim attempts to complain of the abuse. Coincides with evidence plants as Black Bag Jobs to damage and disparage or malign a persons home by home invasion. During surveillance or recon of a home works in progress can be stolen and used by other including literary works.

MOCKING, MIMICRY AND MIMICRY IN FURTHERANCE OF IDENTITY THEFT AND PSYCHOLOGICAL HARASSMENT ABOUT WHETHER A PERSON IS OR ISN’T A STALKER ENGAGING IN MIMICRY

Mimicry is a specialized form of harassment in which the stalkers publicly imitate every movement made by the victim. This shows an aspect of the trickster. It is a manifestation of the true source of the stalking.

NOISE CAMPAIGN

A Noise Campaign is an orchestrated effort to produce stress in a victim through prolonged exposure to significant noise levels. A Noise Campaign can range from multiple neighbors routinely playing loud music, individual stalkers with air-horns or fireworks, or organized “repair work” that involves a high level of noise or Rough Noise, annoying noise and as loud stimuli

SENSITIZATION

Sensitization is a psychological term referring to the forced association between a stimuli and a corresponding reaction. Stalkers use Sensitization to psychologically abuse a victim. For example, if a stalker constantly harasses a victim while wearing a blue baseball cap, then overtime the victim will begin to believe anyone wearing a blue baseball cap is a stalker and is coming to harass. Sensitization undoubtedly creates an extreme level of fear in a victim, in direct fulfillment of the intentions of the stalkers.

MOBBING INCLUDING MOBBS PLANTING EVIDENCE AND BEARING FALSE WITNESS AT THE SCENE AND TALKIGN UP FALSIFIED EVENTS ELSWHERE

LATER SUCH AS WHERES A STALK VICTIM IS HEADED TO.

Mobbing is a term that describes “Group Bullying”. Of itself, Mobbing is not equated with gang stalking. However, Mobbing may be a tactic used by the perpetrators of gang Stalking.

“Flash mobbing” is an event occurring when a targeted individual is spotted in society. Their photo and location is immediately and simultaneously sent out by cell phone text messages and Internet email to all gangstalkers within a certain radius. All gangstalkers then suddenly descend upon the target as a mob.

Various sources

When you frustrate someone, you do your best to annoy, confuse, or even torment that poor person.

sensitize cause to sense; make sensitive

Frustrated is an adjective that describes feeling disappointed and unsuccessful. If you try to fix your car for hours and hours but it still won’t work, you will feel frustrated.

Trauma tends to come on all at once and be quite serious. Someone who experiences trauma will have either a traumatic injury or traumatic distress.

Sexual abuse is any form of sexual violence, including rape, child molestation, incest, and similar forms of non-consensual sexual contact. Most sexual abuse experts agree sexual abuse is never only about sex. Instead, it is often an attempt to gain power over others.

Street Theater

Street Theater is a term used to describe the odd-actions and behaviors that stalkers do in public, in an attempt to rile the victim.Such behavior often borders on the extremely bizarre and is aimed at a blurring of the boundaries between reality and fantasy in the minds of the victims.

Examples of Street Theater: Baiting, Brighting, Color Harassment, Convey, Directed Conversation, Ghosting, Mimicry, Noise Campaigns, etc.

Variations of Gang Stalking Gas-Lighting

The term Gas-Lighting originates from the 1944 film Gaslight. In the movie, the character of Gregory Anton, played by actor Charles Boyer, attempts to drive the character Pauline, played by actress Ingrid Bergman, insane. The phrase Gas-Lighting has come to mean similar actions and behavior, as used in the film, against a victim. “The White Glove treatment”

“The White Glove Treatment” is slang for Gang Stalking as jokingly referred to by the Masons who either participate in, or know of its usage against so-called “Enemies of Freemasonry”.

[Note: The phrase “The White Glove Treatment” is not limited to Freemasonry, as members of similar groups and organizations often practice Gang Stalking.)

Ritual Gangstalking

Reportedly performed by cults and secret organizations such as Satanists, secret orders of free masons, some voodoo /obeah practitioners and Scientologists as a means of control or for punishment. “Ritual abuse” is incorporated into “ritual gangstalking” patterns in this case.

Cybergangstalking

A situation where an individual is identified to be a target through Internet participation and their personal identity is determined. Cybergangstalkers pierce the electronic veil and are able to enter into the real life of a person, creating all forms of harassment, theft, psychological operations including slander and libel, and able to commit crimes against the targeted individual.

I will cover more information about this subject and other related topics in future articles. If you or someone you know are victims of gangstalking or any other form of malevolent harassment, feel free to contact us. We are here to help.

Roman [Founder/Demonologist of S.I.S.]

My best guess is it Peace Crops “Wise Mind,” Antifa, eco terrorists like groups with violent hatred of the right wing including leftist brain researchers like Christine Margaret Blasey Ford who consider people like Kavanaugh mentally diseased or any other right winger so and wish to study such “psychos” as a brain matter through the use of crime-in-progress physical assaults being studied, the COINTELPRO system of gleaning information through provoked arguments.

The Powers of MKULTRA including religions want a phony factual theory of my being a sex predator for the use of that factual theory intrusion into my rights on a hostile, manufactured, destructive illegal basis. This is how the Germans went after opposition, fake claims against them to incite public animosity towards the victims.

> Revenge for a real or imagined offense (People in these organizations are quite petty, mirroring their preternatural handlers); false accusations of a “horrible crime” of which the victim has gotten away with (Used to discredit the victim and destroy his/her reputation); silencing a corporate “whistle-blower”; defecting from a cult; a perceived enemy of a group or organization; “knowing too much” are all examples of possible motivations.

Picking a fight with me via stalk in public, even my home by Trespass

Am I a psycho who will throw a punch? Am I disposed to Hate or am I in Self Defense, the latter I allege.

The beauty and the leadership of the family lines I come out of are full bloom emotional understanding.

In Love it is Love.

In Anger it is Anger.

In either case I will own it and live it.

In either case I will express it and others will believe it and understand it, if I can keep a level enough head, a challenge at times.

The very first indication at all I was an MKULTRA stalk victim was the assaults on me were carefully designed to be the most provocative to me possible, exactly as prisoners are attacked during interrogations.

ADDitude Mag What is Intermittent Explosive Disorder? from link

ADD Explosive Behavior: How My Family Learned ..

Jun 17, 2020 - Several common characteristics of children with ADD put them at higher risk for developing and externalizing explosive behaviors. Poor impulse control, emotional dysregulation, irritability, and underlying mood disorders can all trigger explosive behaviors.

Is My Child's Explosive Behavior Tied to ADD?

"It's really about poor frustration tolerance and the inability to control their emotions. This is often why they lash out," says Vinay Saranga, M.D., of Saranga Psychiatry in North Carolina.

Duplicitous Inserts

Use of interested parties to surround me in positions of power who are motivated to violate my rights have been on of the core schemes used.

Blacks who have evolutionary, political, racial, and variously birth and citizenship interests in Africa where DNA stock is at lower levels for the 21st Century entrance into the Information Age, a point I made long ago, now have been position to complete genetic rape of a loyal U.S. white citizen and profiteer from illegal acts in full view of the public and law enforcement, normal means of protections against RICO all Standing Down from interfering with the RISCO scheme.

This, by the way, is the story of Officer Jen Moore's not to Stand Down, but to be a Hornblower instead, outing a deadly RICO scheme which could not possibly in scheme or facts survive constitutional challenge, or even patriotic challenge if considering U.S. national interests.

Noble Causes Police Brutality

The insert of blacks, gays, and non-whites into positions of power surrounding my life and me physically as police brutality is a method of setting up Nobel Causes Police Brutality.

Very simply it is close to asking mice to guard cheese. It might be a mouse would reason that if the cheese went uneaten it would be wasted and why not eat the cheese anyway? Isn't that a Good after all?

At little more complex than that is the Deontological Ethical System versus the Teleological Ethical System [Police One dot Com Noble cause corruption: Do the ends justify the means?]

Deoontological Policing System - Due Proccess Epistemic

In moral philosophy, deontological ethics or deontology (from Greek δέον, deon, "obligation, duty") is the normative ethical theory that the morality of an action should be based on whether that action itself is right or wrong under a series of rules, rather than based on the consequences of the action. - Wikipedia

The Teleological Ethical System - Ethically Transcendentalist

Teleological ethics, (teleological from Greek telos, “end”; logos, “science”), theory of morality that derives duty or moral obligation from what is good or desirable as an end to be achieved. ... Utilitarian-type theories hold that the end consists in an experience or feeling produced by the action. -Wikipedia

Police Brutality

Powerful interest have been allowed to publicly frame me or out me as certain things, such as the Alt Right which I am, or frame me as a pedophile or Peeping Tom, which I am not, and then insert in my vicinity those who are offended by those alleged attributes of mine.

With duplicitiously interested parties now surrounding me and asked to be willing to support police brutality against me, in the service of the Noble Causes these self interested parties in my new circle of people hold dear, the police brutality based in Teleological abuse of victim (me) policing is conducted rather than Deological Due Process protections of my Human Rights.

Thus by racially and otherwise selecting interested parties into my vicinity who would support certain “ethical” police brutality against me, my rights have been un-enforceable against police brutality.

During the course of wring this book I preferred the term Gangtalk Victim as what is usually called a Targeted Individual since in Military Intelligence terminology the Gangatalk Victim is assaulted by the Targeted Individuals, thus my use of those two terms in the book may be inconsistent as to my final definitions in use of those terms.

Bob Creamer and Scott Foval mental heath recruited mental health patients as Tx (preTeXt)) me and also assaulting me for what THEY did, hoping to draw my punch or reaction.

In the diagram below I show a murder of a cop in view of the public as the cop fires into a Gangstalk victim and through actions towards the victim (planting the gun) succeeds in retaliation against the victim for what preTxt did.

Shooting a gun or shooting a camera leads to doubt as to who shot, and if a RICO racket of bird doggers for false claims takes an Over The Shoulder of FAV shot, the shot seems to be from FAV.

Shakedowns

Pigford Redo Eric Holder To Give Funds From DOJ’S $16 BILLION SETTLEMENT With Bank Of America To *Radical Leftist Group

Judicial Watch first reported the scheme two years ago when Countrywide Financial Corporation doled out $335 million to settle its discrimination lawsuit with the feds. The money was supposed to be distributed to more than 200,000 minority victims who supposedly were charged higher interest rates and fees than white borrowers based on their race not their credit. Instead, a chunk of the money went to Democrat-tied groups not connected to the lawsuit, including the scandal-plagued Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now (ACORN) and the open-borders *National Council of La Raza (NCLR).

Now many of the same groups will get more money from a record $16.65 billion settlement with Bank of America. It’s a “historic resolution,” according to Attorney General Eric Holder, and the money will help make amends to borrowers and communities that were negatively affected by the bank’s conduct.

Besides settling civil penalties at the state and federal level, the billions will bring relief to struggling homeowners and communities by, among other things, offering new loans and providing financing for affordable rental housing. Delinquent borrowers in Democrat strongholds like Chicago, Oakland and Detroit will also benefit from debt forgiveness. *

Clearly a targeted individual whose genome is black marketed with false claims, false representation, and self CIA Secret Service DOD support for the racket, why me? These religions and powers ALREADY have my DNA in use and want the rights under phony theories of I owe[d] them.

Obama's secret kill list - the disposition matrix. When contemplating the euphemisms that have slipped into the lexicon since 9/11, the adjective Orwellian is difficult to avoid. But while such terms as extraordinary rendition, targeted killing and enhanced interrogation are universally known, and their true meanings -kidnap, assassination, torture -widely understood, the disposition matrix has not yet gained such traction. Since the Obama administration largely shut down the CIA's rendition programme, choosing instead to dispose of its enemies in drone attacks, those individuals who are being nominated for killing have been discussed at a weekly counter-terrorism meeting at the White House situation room that has become known as Terror Tuesday. Barack Obama, in the chair and wishing to be seen as a restraining influence, agrees the final schedule of names. Once details of these meetings began to emerge it was not long before the media began talking of "kill lists". More double-speak was required, it seemed, and before long the term disposition matrix was born.*

The U.S. Government interest in this is by covert ops which could not withstand a legitimacy test under scrutiny trying to plant evidence and manufacture cases and acts against me which bail them themselves out of their misconduct towards me and my family, Government misconduct under the disaster of now forensically detectable Sidney Gottlein and the trail of world ruin left by those CIA Vatican programs.

The core element seems to be displacement.

Whatever I am doing especially either every day or noteworthy is co-opted by others displacing me as I am disparaged in public by strangers as retarded and needing help in what I have done. KOMPROMAT to be used behind my back as a basis for other to be accepted as my replacement.

In what I charted out for a while as Perfect Sigma small evidence plants, out of place by themselves but insufficient by themselves for the police to be willing to take action on add up behind the scene away from a to a chain of events which seem to incriminate me and thus lead to persecution of me, by blind conservators and by the public "on to my secret." (I have no secrets or any secret life.)

I can not help that this black nationalist calling blacks the power race has placed a tot with himself and used a battery pack and smart phone and camping boots, as my camping rig was.

Nor can my complaints and repeated police calls stop a tot prison being built under my sink, that black nationalist asking for batteries for a speak and spell at the drawer next to the sink where I kept my AAAs, nor other tots outside my window. Nor can I stop these chain links being assemnbled behind my back and assaults against me incited by behind my back allegations.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

BLAME

Blame is about being responsible for something that's bad or has gone wrong. If you have a headache, you might blame it on the heat, or on not getting enough sleep.

A person can be to blame for something. Your mom might walk into the house, see a broken lamp and blame you. Often, in official contexts, blame is "assigned" or "placed." A common complaint among younger siblings is, "Why do I always get blamed for everything?"

BLAME: AN ACCUSATION THAT ONE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR SOME LAPSE OR MISDEED, A REPROACH FOR SOME LAPSE OR MISDEED

"the police laid the blame on the driver" Synonyms: incrimination, inculpation Types: self-incrimination an accusation that incriminates yourself Type of: accusal, accusation a formal charge of wrongdoing brought against a person; the act of imputing blame or guilt

The real perpetrators at the scene non verbally act out that I must have done something, in fact they did, and the can't quite bring themselves to actually accuse me but just act is if I am some kind of suspect.

I have nothing to do with this tot prison built in my home but during my absence it was displayed to others as how I am a tot abuser and kidnapper.

Its construction in my home against my will is part of the subversion of me, evidence plants. It is said to me the drawer rails could not be repaired because the parts could not be found but explained to others the Building Supervisor discovered circumstantial evidence to be show to others and even operated in my absence, in CIA terms, a Black Bag Job moving malware, etc., into a persons who which supports the subversion of a person and reinforces Propaganda as available KOMPROMAT.

Fights over the people engaged in the acts make me look like I have something to worry about and they who actually are to blame claim I have it in for the [alleged] heroes of the situation.

Police say there is nothing wrong here and the landdlord Oks these activities on my balcony, etc. including death threats from outside my apartment inward as being ok by the police.

Black nationalists know

1. That I am repulsed and disgusted by sexualized tots in my vicinity.
2. That others will be repulsed and disgusted by sexualized tots in my vicinity

How smart of black cops. They do seem to smart a lot.

Pardox

The following book section deals with 200 witness to the paradox of why police officers would abuse females, stealing my identity. Doesn't that seem paradoxical to what a cop would do?

Not of the cop wants to ace me out to a white female dominatrix and offer her my DNA as the black cop is punished for the offenses against women the white supremacist scum bag, fake ed, committed.

An impersonator of me, a cop, will confess though to the chain of events alleged by the plants of out of place chain links wherever I go, and btw this will continue longstanding claims against my genome those CIA backed racketeers always wanted and needed.

The dominatrixes below believe the smear job on me and chose the anti heroes, the evidence planters working for the State and the dominatrixes blackballed me over what they thought I had done.

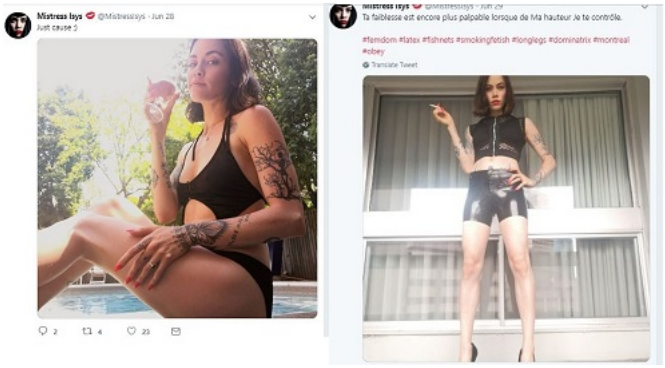
Roadblocking uses KOMPROMAT though untrue in nature to close doors to a person.

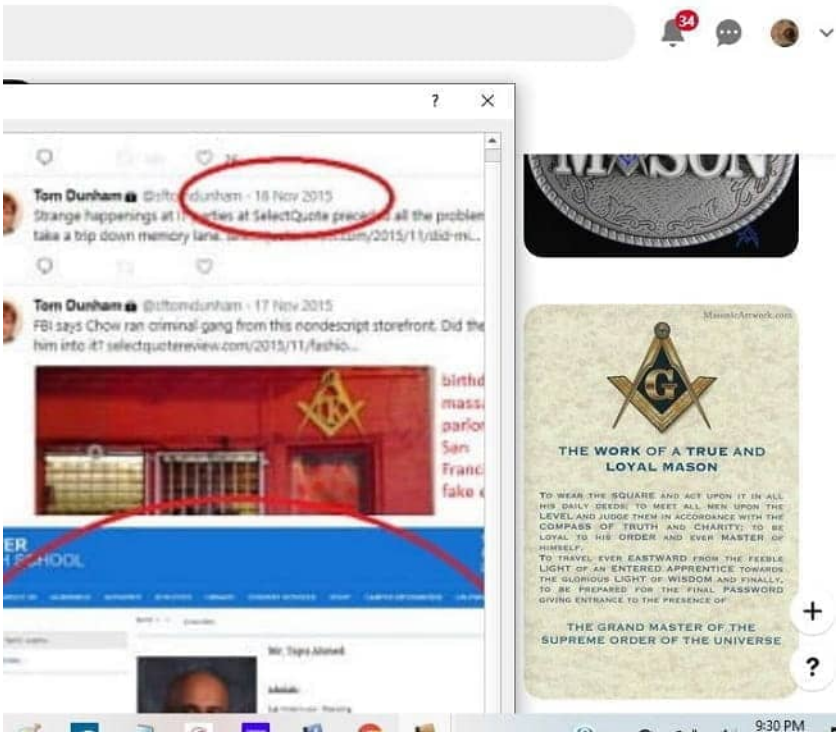
Kiva Lender Veronica Hoffman

Location:	Studio City, CA, United States
Occupation:	trainer
I loan because:	I can :)
About me:	I operate a small correctional facility where I teach men the virtues of treating women with the respect and adoration they deserve.
Check out:	http://www.myspace.com/mistressveronica
Member Since:	Apr 1, 2007

Send message | Send a Kiva Card

The ARC of Northern Virginia





I will later call this Weekend At Bernies. A black Texas high school teacher, an adult entertainer, a Doppelgänger of me, and an FBI raid at the adult entertainer location

In Vitro, (In Glass, in Test Tube)

That scum bag white supremacist keepign all those IQ genes for himself is really going to have to pay up, isn't he.

No, he can just sit at home alone while a cop can submit the correct IVF babies agreement.

The totality of decades fighting anonymous assaults lead me to think persecution and isolated from white familial opportunity, the structure of the persecution is acts of others towards women near me, and treating me in public as though I had been the person who was abnormal in regards to or in reaction to females.

In fact my personality and approach to life is more female friendly than the evangelicals who have stalked me though those same evangelicals or missionaries wish to use my own lifestyle as their own.

In particular I accuse blacks who have struggled in many areas as copying me while also disparaging me to gain opportunities for themselves and "acing me out" of those same opportunities.

This has been true in the gym and elsewhere.

Pretending I don't have the genes they want while in fact they do. Black Nationalists, Gays, and others in the NIH who know what the genes are and want them, launder them to adult entertainers

The Black Markets Section shows people pretend to give me statements on the use of my genome paid to entertainers, but when I pin those statements down they are denied and were ambiguous or false.

Impersonators of me launder the value to others and deny that activity to me.

Diagnostic Standards Manual Personality Disorders	CLinical Dysfunction	Clinical Risk
Bipolar	Cyclical Long Cycle	Hyper Speech Hyper Activity irrational state irrational impulsive cognitive condition
ADD	Permanent Hyper Condition, lower severity	Rational Inattentive State
FOXP2 ADD Explosive Subtype (BPD)	Permanent Hyper Condition, can affect Autonomic Functions, Limbic System	Non cyclic expression by permanent risk. Emotional at high strength may overcome sense of reason, reason
Explosive Disorder	Possible Permanent RIsk of expression	Behorial overly of symptons may match ADD result symptoms though be sourced in different organic origins.

This book

MK Betrayal COINTENLRPO Mechanisms

	ReAction of Citizen
Government Action	Citizen defensive actions blamed rather than honored, often the defense reaction leads to incarceration where additional Due Process violations are the norm

Sexually Assaultive, destructive, under cover assaults on Private Citizens (COINTELPRO MKULTRA, PsyOps) denied by the Government leave the Citizen to defend the assaults which in the absence of context seem aggressive and psychotic thus allow the Government pretext for further assaults on the citizen.

Misrepresentation especially by Behavioral Health

> The Hills Have Eyes is a 2006 American horror film and remake of Wes Craven's 1977 film of the same name. It was written by filmmaking partners Alexandre Aja and Grégory Levasseur of the French horror film High Tension, and directed by Aja. The film starring Aaron Stanford, Kathleen Quinlan, Vinessa Shaw, Emilie de Ravin, Dan Byrd, Robert Joy, and Ted Levine; follows a family that is targeted by a group of cannibalistic mutants after their car breaks down in the desert. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia Behavioral Health is trying to portray me as a psycho and entrap me into a defensivce reaction.

"… the video of Foval, a Wisconsin-based politico with a long résumé, had him bragging about a litany of political dirty tricks. In the first video, he boasts of "conflict engagement in the lines of Trump rallies," takes credit for the violence that canceled a Trump rally at the University of Illinois at Chicago, admits he has paid "mentally ill" people to start trouble"

But it's not a new term [bird dogging], and certainly not secret. Bird-dogging is a fairly common activist tactic, and reporters often recognize it when seemingly "perfect" questions come from a political audience. [or an abusive fight scene started by homeless people.]

Throwing Mutants at me is a scheme of conflict engagement both created interrogative exchanges in abuse fights and also aggressors claiming at the scene of the fights they are victims of a psycho whom they stalked.

Mark Gonzales has tweeted what some say “FTP” was code for, Fuck The Police. He is said to be anti-establishment and hunting for Psychos from the establishment. I am from the Establishement and I make a great mark for his oujtlaw governemnt infrastructure, attacks backed by Bush, Abbot, Paxton, and others

ETK Introduction Dr. Eric T. Karlstrom P.O. Box 54 Crestone, CO 81131 email https://911nwo.com/

What is Gang Stalking a Targeted Individual? Targeting of Individuals by the US Government for Subversion, attacks, etc.?

By Professor Eric Thor Karlstrom, Ph.D https://erickarlstrom.com/

A Simple Definition

Under Occupational Health and Safety laws, individuals are being flagged and placed on community notification lists. This is happening without the targets knowledge. In many countries these community notifications are being used by companies and others to target innocent individuals such as whistle-blowers, the outspoken, etc. In conjunction with these notifications, companies and others are in some cases using a practice that was used in the former soviet union called the psychiatric reprisal. This is used as a means of retaliation, blacklisting, silencing, or controlling members of society. Once on the notification system, warnings about the targets are sent out to every individual the target comes in contact with, thus poisoning their associations, and socially annexing the targeted individual.

Gang Stalking is a systemic form of control, which seeks to destroy every aspect of a Targeted Individuals life. Once a target is flagged a notification is sent out to the community at large, and the target is followed around 24/7 by the various communities that they are in.

Target Selection

Gang stalking apparently targets American citizens deemed to be dissidents or whistle-blowers (and perhaps potential dissidents and whistle-blowers), although others might be targeted for other reasons - such as for experimental or training purposes. For perspective, it should be remembered that for two decades the CIA performed secret illegal experiments on U.S. and Canadian citizens (the infamous MK Ultra program). Those experiments included physical and psychological torture.

A lot of accounts by self-proclaimed targets of gang stalking suggest that people are often subjected to severe long-term harassment simply because they crossed someone connected with the agencies and security firms which perpetrate such operations.

An example of that type of abuse occurred in April 2012, when USA Today reported that one of its reporters and an editor were slandered by a secret disinformation campaign waged by an intelligence contractor firm to discredit them because the newspaper had investigated and reported on that contractor. The company involved conducted propaganda campaigns for the U.S. military. Similarly, in August 2013 it was reported that at least a dozen National Security Agency (NSA) employees had used their surveillance system access to spy on their current and former spouses and partners.

Implications

In addition to being morally reprehensible, gang stalking - just like the original version of the FBI's Cointelpro operations - is illegal. It violates criminal laws in all fifty states against stalking, as well as grossly violating the U.S. Constitution's prohibitions against warrantless searches and extra-judicial punishment.

While the vast majority of Americans are never personally targeted by gang stalking, they should still be concerned about the existence of such operations. Even if such activities were constitutionally legitimate (clearly they are not), they would still have an enormous potential for abuse as a personal or political weapon by the practitioners.

Ending this cowardly and illegal practice by law enforcement agencies, intelligence agencies, and their parasitic corporate contractors will require exposing what is happening to the public. Anyone reading this can assist with that exposure by simply sharing this information with others.

By Chris Rochester MacIver Institute Communications Director retrieved from By Chris Rochester maciverinstitute.com MacIver Institute Communications Director and copied or modified to here

> MADISON, Wis. (AP) - The Wisconsin Department of Justice has again concluded that secretly recorded videos of a liberal activist reveal no evidence of election fraud.
>
> I Edward Donegan ask Jim Volcelka if the attacks on my in my bome, bathroom and shower, and on the streets and in public are tied to Wisconsin and its universities activities? I think so and I am ever more targeted by these bird dogging mental health assailants (and also governement employees and family members of government employees) than most Trump supporters are because of Atomic Testing history.

Scott Foval, a left-wing activist recently caught on tape explaining how he stages protests at opponents' rallies in order to incite chaos, has long-standing connections with a national union boss who vowed he would get even with Gov. Scott Walker for his 2011 reforms to Wisconsin's collective bargaining laws.

Foval is the former national field director at Americans United For Change (AUFC), a progressive group whose board chairman is Lee Saunders - also president of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), a union at the forefront of the 2011 protests over Act 10 in Madison.

The protests failed, and Act 10 ultimately became law. But during Walker's 2014 re-election campaign, Saunders said he and the unions wanted revenge. "We have a score to settle with Scott Walker…He took collective bargaining away from us. He stole our voices, in a state where we were born," Saunders said.

Foval was recently caught on camera admitting to coordinating and coaching professional protesters at Donald Trump rallies.

"We have to have people prepared to go wherever these events are, which means we have to have a central kind of agitator training," Foval stated in the recording. "Tomorrow, for instance, we are turning out 500 people in front of the Trump International in D.C," he said, describing the groups of protesters-in-waiting he has planted throughout the country.

Foval also admitted to organizing the violent confrontations outside a Trump rally in Chicago that injured several police officers and caused the Trump campaign to cancel the event.

The videos were released by conservative activist James O'Keefe, who runs Project Veritas, widely known for capturing comments by left-wing agitators on hidden cameras. Foval was fired shortly after the videos were released.

A Reviewing the Material From The Book Section Coverage

> The Taskforce Whistleblowers: Interviews about the darkness inside Jun 15, 2018 Task Force: Whistleblowers Journey:Live in DC *
>
> > Conference calls: MK Ultra, Nazi Germany, Freud, OSS, Dulles, Black budgets, Alister Crowley, Jack Parsons, NASA, L. Ron Hubbard, Scientology, Babylon Working, Pedophelia, Child Trafficking, Blackmail,& evil

Sidney Gottlieb and the CIA

This chart is well supported by the chronology and reporting of actual participants such as Kennedy documents and Malcom X Muhammed Speaks references which are consistent with an explainable outgrowth of contemporary events which are outgrowths of covering up 1960s events, and the probability of those CIA activities being discovered today.

FOXP2 GENE	1926 Prince Edward in London with Maria	1945 WWII is on and Kutschera and	1961 Kings Daughters Psychiatric Childrens Norfolk VA	Manhattan Beach California Manhattan Project

	Kutschera Von Trapp	stuttering tied Lonond King Edward VIII out	hospital likely 1961 fertilize hospital		November 18 birth, Nov 19 Birth Certificate
Himself a stutterer, Chemist Speech Therapist CIA Scientist Gottlieb close to Royals, then King Edward VIII who as Prince of Wales in 1926 had daughters with Maria Kutschera [Von Trapp], my mother one of them. Kennedys, Donegans, Pelletiers, Boston, Irish Mafia
Emotional tears prone King Geoge V Germany Austsria, RKO Radio beig devloped his , descendents, FOXP2 Dysgraphia London Stuttering Family Line of 15/17 LONDON KE family FOXP2 exhibitors.	Hitler, WWII, Windsors are German family, KE VIII in touch with German/Vienna and Spanish Illuminati Geneticists	MKULTRA is open co-operation continuing post war work on Paperclip and other programs after Hitler's defeat. Still includes Vatican and Windsors and U.S.	CIA Above Ground Testing and many other genetics and radiation and other research underway at CIA and DOD. My father and mother involved in it.	CIA using available DNA for new designer weapon, Gottlieb style, a Malcom X Windsor hybrid to revolt against Mao Zedon, Krutchev, and Communism	The FEB 20 Nov18 1961 DNA and strange issue of my own DNA and reproductivity issues tied to FOXP2 Glorian Donegan and Genetech today. Then Jen Moore tying this into Pizzagate and OSS Vatican History
My mother is born 1926 DEC 13. Orphaned again 9 years later. CIA DOD Codes on this project history to the right		Manhattan Project DNA Radiation Testing and the Donegan family FEB 20 NOV 18 DEC13 9 mos and my Kutscherea mother's bday

Wikipedia The Langley Research Center (LaRC or NASA Langley) located in Hampton, Virginia, United States, is the oldest of NASA's field centers.[1] It directly borders Langley Air Force Base. retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Early in 1945, the center expanded to include rocket research, leading to the establishment of a flight station at Wallops Island, Virginia. A further expansion of the research program permitted Langley Research Center to orbit payloads, starting with NASA's Explorer 9 balloon satellite in mid-February 1961. As rocket research grew, aeronautics research continued to expand and played an important part when subsonic flight was advanced and supersonic and hypersonic flight were introduced.[citation needed]

Earth science

Langley Research Center conducts Earth science research to support NASA’s mission.

The Mechanisms

- Changing the context I am front adult to child, including provocatively acting minors
- Utilizing Agent Provocateurs utilizing my identity to both exploitatively photograph the minors and created appearance my or my property was implicated in the photography, avoiding explicit allegations against me, though acting resentfully towards me in manner of behavior.

Rebounding the son of James and Glorian

Paid assailants try to play on my strong emotions, as they did my mother, trying to get me into custody again where attacks are even more deadly

Agent Provocateur	Targeted Individual
Dispossessor. Dispossess: deprive (someone) of land, property, or other possessions	Possessor

A typical role of an Agent Provocateur would be the State, the Police, sneak an agent of theirs into a peaceful crowd. The Agent Provocateur engages in illegal acts forming the predicate for police actions against the peaceful crowd but overlooking the Agent Provocateur.

I say they, the creator of the unusual situation I will APPEAR to be responsible for but is out of my control, though IN the control of Marshalls are the Agent Provocateur allowing the police pretense for control of the public situation to allow, themselves and the public to retaliate against me for their own acts, their acts the pretenses of actions against me, actions against me in the form of non verbal vigilantism the public will back and participate in or tolerate. [false flag act, act in my identity]

The core mechanism of the stalk is to create situations that are intolerable though plausibly deniable, thus create the appearance of paranoia in the responder to the stalk.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

AGGRESSOR (CREATING INCRIMINATING CIRCUMSTANCES THE AGGRESSORS AFTERWARDS WILL ASK OTHERS TO BLAME ME FOR AND PHYSICALLY RETALIATE AGAINST ME FOR)

n. someone who attacks aggressor Synonyms: assailant, assaulter, attacker offender, wrongdoer

GOADING/GLOAT [CRIMINALS CELEBRATING VICTORY IN VICTORY LAPS SUCH AS DISPLAY OF THE BULLS EAR]

contemplate or dwell on one’s own success or another’s misfortune with smugness or malignant pleasure. - dictionary.com [upon blaming me for a crime they comitted gloating by act as a form of trauma generation and incitation to anger

Cruel bullfighter holds up bull’s EARS as sick trophy * express UK

TYPES OF AGGRESSORS

assailant, assaulter, attacker Types: ambusher an attacker who waits in a concealed position to launch a surprise attackavenger, retaliator someone who takes vengeance beast, brute, savage, wildcat, wolf a cruelly rapacious person bludgeoner an assailant who uses a bludgeon bully, hooligan, roughneck, rowdy, ruffian, tough, yob, yobbo, yoboa cruel and brutal fellow harasser, harrier a persistent attacker iconoclast someone who attacks cherished ideas or traditional institutions marauder, piranha, predator, vulture someone who attacks in search of booty night rider, nightrider member of a secret mounted band in United States South after the American Civil War; committed acts of intimidation and revenge raper, rapist someone who forces another to have sexual intercourse shedder, spiller an attacker who sheds or spills blood slasher someone who slashes another person stabber someone who stabs another person lapidator, stoner an attacker who pelts the victim with stones (especially with intent to kill) bully boy a swaggering tough; usually one acting as an agent of a political faction moss-trooper a marauder and plunderer (originally operating in the bogs between England and Scotland)muscle, muscle man a bully employed as a thug or body guard skinhead a young person who belongs to a British or American group that shave their heads and gather at rock concerts or engage in white supremacist demonstrations plug-ugly, tough guy someone who bullies weaker people Type of: offender, wrongdoer

The activities of the police backed the Agent Provocateur, the false hero solving his own grifter team crimes.

When I or TOm Dunham note provocative behavior of minors it is alleged we are seeing things not there and that is a medical defect (paraphelia) in him or I thus threatening State psychiatric treatment in response to our having called police espousing “delusions.”

A Tree House (child porn hideout) site configured to look like my apartment. It overlooks High School, children at play pool, etc., Aqualung style and a developmentally retarded adult in my identity is there.,

Adult Entertainer will be called for the developmentally retarded person in my identity and upon child porn stash detected by the adult model, Genome, cash, cars are due to the entire neighborhood and neighborhood watch where the children were victimized.

Real Ed Donegan and his mothers equity in the pooled trust fund are the “marks” in the Badger scam shakedown of the gullible impersonator of him, the gull in the treehouse.

If only a Dominatrix will punish or model for the “gull in the treehouse” (who is using my identity.)

But the shakedown team wants money for the County and Religious programs (Salvation Army, Goodwill stores,) and the neighborhood watch that made the stash find.

Mere ‘tude is shown toward real Edward Donegan or his friends (Tom Dunham) as if he/they had been caught, sell in rumor mongering I or me and Tom Dunham had been “caught” though no direct allegation made to us we need to clear our name of.

Social Services, claiming to represent and contract for me, can set the gullible up under my name, and settle the debts of the gullible, thus trafficking in my assets to victims of the gullible.

Jen Moore objected to State use of pedophiles, sex offenders, racists, criminals to assault me for their acts and I am none of those things.

The typical provocateur I find myself in disputes with were non white street people including a swarm of retarded people and it seemed some police or sheriffs refusing to identify themselves.

This began in the early 1980s and per a time-line of a Gangstalk cited by Jen Moore probably started around 1978.

Sociology. Not Genetics. I thought.

The demographic of the bizarrely acting assailants was usually what would be considered SJW services clientele but with an odd chip on their shoulder considering my mother and I were generally friendly to that, though she was a Democrat and me an alt right Ayn Rand one-person-is-the-smallest-minority individual rights person, no pro black affirmative action.

Because there was a strong movement in society tending towards Political Correctness taking grip on the 1980s I considered the hostility sociology based, considering in the workplace I received it and in my mother did to when I lived with her after being fired from Wells Fargo.

Parents	James Paul Donegan Irish, Cape Cod Massachusetts	Glorian Donegan Adopted Glorian in Dew Family at about 9 y/o from Festus Gainey The Dew Family working at Dupont in Bishopville Sumter South Carolina area
Children	Thomas Neil Donegan (older brother) Edward Paul Donegan (Nov 18 1961) Tom and Edward about year 11 months apart SSNs 022-46-3233 and 022-46-3235

	Does one other birth sneak in there at 022-46-3234 being a third brother from dna of “the family secret?” Yes and I think only that can explain Agent Provocateurs gang stalking me and planting evidence, etc., to cover the mistakes of the most powerful. What I call “Order 66” targeting the detection and opportunities in life of those who carry that genetic family line history, gene turned on or not. Since it is visible in me I have the most espionage agency hate crime against me.

Lives and Wishes of the Donegan

James Paul Donegan, Glorian Donegan, Edward Paul Donegan

The Path of James Paul Donegan

James Paul Donegan grew up in extreme poverty in Boston the son of his father, an Irish accountant who moved to Boston and worked as a janitor at a Hershey chocolate plants with credentials not accepted.

James Paul Donegan worked as a painter for a while as a youth, just a little too young to sign up, when the announcement came recruits were being sought he ran to recruiting, saved he said, from going to Japan (though on a boat waiting) after Japan surrendered following the second Atomic Bomb drop.

He had undergone nuclear blast testing (radiation exposure results testing as a pilot in the Nuclear Air Force and Army Air Corps and had me in the Manhattan Project, my being born at Manhattan Beach California at a Catholic hospital, Daniel Freideman St Josephs Nov 18 1961 and FNK was in the area.

As an airline pilot for TWA he did pretty well in glamor and some market investing, avoiding “paper money” and thus “the boom” but benefiting from things like home ownership in LAMORINDA California

Other than military and flight training his very extensive knowledge of most subjects came from constant reading and travel as well as interest is science, math, chemistry, etc.,

He had worked hard for me to have every bit of opportunity and education as well and sent me and my brother to an elite private school, etc., and even encourage me to become a lawyer and use my quick wit there, truly rooting for that path for me all my life.

My father and mother divorce in the early 1980s and left my mother with the house in Moraga (about 320k at my mother s 2011 death, setting up a trust fund “nest egg” my brother called it and I assert this was tied to the assignation of Judge roll in 2011 and the seizure of trust funds for foreign economies.

Top US Federal Judge Assassinated After Threat To Obama Agenda - The European Union Times

A Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin today states that THE TOP US FEDERAL JUDGE FOR THE STATE OF ARIZONA WAS ASSASSINATED BARELY 72-HOURS AFTER HE MADE A CRITICAL [FEBRUARY?] RULING AGAINST THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATIONS PLAN TO BEGIN THE CONFISCATION OF THEIR CITIZEN'S PRIVATE RETIREMENT AND BANKING ACCOUNTSin order to STAVE OFF THEIR NATIONS IMMINENT ECONOMIC COLLAPSE, and after having the US Marshals protecting him removed.

According to this SVR report, Federal Judge John McCarthy Roll was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona who this past Friday issued what is called a "preliminary ruling" in a case titled "United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al" [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: NOVEMBER 30, 2010] wherein he stated he was preparing to rule against Obama's power to seize American citizens money without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

Jared Loughner seemed to pick up a grudge against Garbriel Gifford in AUG 2007 about representing secret unconstitutional activities, and later in 2011 opened fire on her. He asserted he was fighting MK Mind Control.

This fits the February 20 2007 Genetics conference I allege to MKULTRA NWO and DARPA and the Micheal Hastings fiance death. Andrea Suzanne Parhamovich was a National Democratic Institute employee killed in Baghdad, Iraq, when her convoy was ambushed as she was returning from teaching a class on democracy. Wikipedia Born: June 16, 1978, Perry, OH Died: January 17, 2007, Baghdad, Iraq

(This would lead to a 2007-8 NIH arrest over a misdemeanor I almost went to prison the rest of my life for.)

RUSSELL MCDOUGAL - Former FBI operative, January 23rd, 2007. McDougal was known to hold sensitive information about meetings Barack Obama had with arms smugglers. His wife was murdered March 2006 after he went public with his initial reports. His father died July 8, 2006 four hours after McDougal presented his findings on the Savage Nation.

Chapter Thirty-Six (written by LInda Newkirk 19 Mar 2007)

The Second Annunaki Conversation

FEBRUARY 20, 2007

I had been working very hard in the Spirit, perhaps for eight or nine hours, almost straight, when I drifted off to sleep, but for perhaps only ten or fifteen minutes! When I awoke, I sensed a presence in the room and I "looked" in the Spirit to see two very tall men, one taller than the other! But, they were not only tall! They were huge! They were giants!

As I was being arrested by the National Institute of Health in sham proceedings (Paula Xinis working the behind the scenes manuevers, then appoited later by Barack Obama to the bench) Tom Donegan was meeting with Tim Kaine is Tom and Mark's home

Kaine Joins Vapartisansfor 15th Anniversary Vapartisans

Governor Kaine helped celebrate the Partisan 15th Anniversary at the home or Mark Weinress and Tom Donegan on Saturday June 30th [2007]. This was the first time a sitting Governor attended a Vapartisans event. It was a great day or food, fellowship, fun and politics. Thanks to all who attend and celebrated with us.

While I am sure legitmate activities were conducted in this Donegan family home I am also sure the needs of DARPA and ongoing matters of family history may have occured on this “private space tarmac” meeting.

Included in this was the need for the use, widespread use, of Glorian and Edward DNA around the world, and it seem authoirzed or legitimate.

In 2011 Judge Roll was assassinated while working on a trust fund case of seizures of US assets for foreign nation’s economies in a case about the size of the James and Glorian Donegan Moraga California house on 52 Lambeth Sq.

The USA makes plans for the world through DARPA … The world makes plans for the USA through DARPA.

In a shooting a year later brain research DARPA tied James Homes was the shooter.

> James Holmes Family Tied To DARPA And Mind Manipulation Work Jul 31, 2012 Aurora massacre: several links between James Holmes and U.S. government research (Salk Institute involved in neurologically enhancing soldiers’ abilities on battlefield…connections to DARPA) blacklistednews.com*

Cheyenne Mountain - Wikipediaen.wikipedia.org › wiki › Cheyenne_Mountain Cheyenne Mountain is a triple-peaked mountain in El Paso County, Colorado, southwest of … Central Colorado · Denver-Aurora-Lakewood, CO

United States Air Force | Terminator Wiki | Fandomterminator.fandom.com › wiki › United_States_Air_For… … located at Peterson Air Force Base, close to Colorado Springs, Colorado, with a nuclear bunker and alternate command center at nearby Cheyenne Mountain.

The Path of Glorian Donegan

The Path of Edward Paul Donegan

Thomas Neil Donegan

Generally he and Mark Weirness (his life time gay partner later in Marriage) undermined my mother, fighting with her, hiding or taking her hats, photos, etc., and per my mother, in some larger secret conspiracy against her.

I believe she was gang stalked and like me was forced to be a recluse and had few options other than Tom Donegan as executor of her estate.

Like with me Tom Donegan work hard and wrongfully to create the appearence my mother was incompetent.

Neither Glorian Donegan or I am or were incompetent but from within the family Tom and Mark had great latitude in asserting Glorian Donegan and I were not of sound mind.

He has created lethal and dead end no healthcare and sabotuaged legal system resutls on behalf of a Genomic conspiracy and has done so “inside the family.”

Among the more obvious elements he would not provide a copy of my mother’s will or trust fund wishes, no matter what, or an accounting of what was in it. When I recorded a phone call of me asking for that he slammed down the phone.

Dr Christina Beselga and about 25 to 50 lawyers I tried in the Washington D.C. area including Sheri Abrams were part of that fight which in the long term I lost, he would not provide trust fund resources nor even 25K I had in back SSDI. Further, he continued to provoke The Smith in a “pizza gate scheme” I was sent to prison for, he laughed at, vowing to “finally get me.”

This lead to me leaving Arlington VA to Texas trying to get away from Arlington Virginia county services he was on the board of directors of and who were acting in concert with him.

He inserts himself as my “emergency contact” for the alleged emergency he creates with his Doppelgangers, Agent Provocatuers and lies that I am incompetent when I am not or lies as to the facts, always, and does so behind my back with lawyers and doctors he has no right to contact or manipulate.

Gangstalk Path

As I go into the Betrayal parts of this book MKULTRA has been used, PsyOps and Decison Matrix have been used, for Targeted Individual crimes against me.

Nothing at all in my life warrants this legitimately. Achieved without Due Process and likely under “United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency ET AL” [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein [Judge Roll] stated he was preparing to rule against Obama’s power to seize American citizens money without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

Evidence has been planted on me, fights provoked is racial, sexual, and judicial process assaults upon me, State backed, in Drivers Licenses, housing, right to attorney, right to my day in court.

I assert a Three Tier familial lie

It is continually yelled at me, skitted out around me for appearances, etc., that I am disabled loser who is not

- Genetically of similarity to Barack Obama
- Psychosocially or intellectually like Brainic Barack Obama

BARACK OBAMA law abiding Illuminati King D.C. and the World

WH.GOV

NORMAL Metropolitan life Austin, Monterey, Capitola

SKID ROW LOSER Edward Paul Donegan celibate and near death, bad hygiene, alone. Corpus Christi

The Ultimate Betrayal as Jen Moore put it. Sexually abusive mass sexual assault and public humiliation of me for what are staged fetishims of mine to dispossess everthing Jim Donegn and Glorian dedicated their lives to, my success in the United States, and the defense of those same minorities from the Nazis	People like Rod Rosenstein, Eric Holder, gays, and others targeting me which frames me to coverup DOD mistakes of Sidney Gottlieb, CIA, DARAP, others	Those my father fought, getting too close to DARPA, CENTCOM, CIA as part of the fight
Assailants	Betrayers	Originating
My Brothers Keepers, Scot Foval, Anti White Hate Marshalls, Genomic Profiteers	The Obamas, Clintons, DARPA, CIA, Illuminati coverup artists	MKULTRA Existing Mistakes and Need to Create Consistency in Genomic Claims

The Duplicity used to created this outcome will be documented forthrightly.

Let me repeat as I go into the Betrayal parts of this book MKULTRA has been used, PsyOps and Decison Matrix have been used, for Targeted Individual crimes against me.

Nothing at all in my life warrants this legitimately. Achieved without Due Process and likely under “United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency ET AL” [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein [Judge Roll] stated he was preparing to rule against Obama’s power to seize American citizens money without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

Agent Provocateur --- Dispossessor. Dispossess: deprive (someone) of land, property, or other possessions	Targeted Individual --- Possessor Mk ULTRA breaking my eggs and making an inter racial omlette.

Through out this book and others I have been writing for year I now call Element A where a CIA Doppelgänger of me phototgraphs a female, at Element B a Fugitive Chase catches the Doppelgänger who will pay “et all” to the victims, to the CIA labs, or families of the elite, with some bread crumbs left for the poor.

This book

Gay women and non whites took over gym positions and setup Doppelgangers of me to photograph women or plant them in front of me. Later I figured out why scuzzy people approached all reproducive age women with phones. I thought they might have been claiming i was on the phone, 5 and half years after I first saw it I found out, best quess, the women were showed peeping photos alleged by me.

Why Is This, harassment by ghetto blacks and gays, and the disappearance of white women surrounding me, and harassment in medically prescribed diabetes rehab?

4.5/5 Information Circuit - Four actual Nodes and a Connecting element, that element deceitful and cross out events
Nodes	Suggestive or story telling element	Nodes	Public perception believing

			suggestive fraud
1 My Motorcycle		2 Adult women and their buttocks	Public hears narrative from .5
	.5 fraudulent element is creating of buttocks porn, children and adult, is the fetishist and owns the Dopple bike) Blaming me, for Auadrants 1-4 does me harm and becomes gateway for Quandrants 3 - 2 as I am “beat out” in the gym via reputation damage		Public hears narrative from .5
3 Free Masons Jesus Saves motorcycle		4 Children’s buttocks	Public hears narrative from .5

Child’s area of Golds Gym Corpus CHristi where a Doppelgänger bike similar to mine often was while the same time I was at the gym, my bike elsewhere.

4.5/5 Fraudulent chains of events

2.5/3 four ways. It is in the .5 that the fog exists, confusion, vague, gray, not black and white.

Four actual Nodes and a Connecting element, that element deceitful and cross out events
Nodes	Suggestive or story telling element	Nodes	Public perception believing suggestive fraud
I		2
	.5 (fraudulent element)
3		4

For the puprose of Information Theory

Nodes	Dialectial story telling space. Clothing description suggests who commited the act, a story is told and links the person and act via the clothing, which completes the SPO statement		Public Context
Targeted Victim of Gangtalk		OBamedy the Law as an Action
	In the Dialectal space of story telling suggestive confusing vague fog tells wrong story sin shared dialectal space		The public was harmed by the act and is offended by it
Mercenary Agent Provocateur		Broke the Law as an action

Women are played to. Their fears and resentments are exploited. Photos out of my control are staged such as me stalking women, teens or tots or allegedly my photographing females if I use my phone for workout music, Honor Flight DCA, GPS, etc,

Because I seem a scum bag blacks ask females to accept them as a substitute for me, though behind my back where the compromising photos are captioned by dirty cops.

My political and religious and other worth is claimed by others who are in competition and adversity with me, such as the GOP or religions I oppose or races I oppose.

Later, after research, I came to my current beliefs

A Deeper Layer of Why Claims Would Seem to Be Valid For My DNA and Fake Claims Emerge

Disposition Matrix

THE NDAA disrupts Establishment scum and funds move to the needy.

PROCESS

2011 Asset Trust Fund Seizures System benefit foreign economies, minorities.

(Roll)

Substance

The Seized Assets benefit Minority Victim Countries, lifting them up, Struggling Achievers, etc., (Scalia)

- I am the half brother of Barack Obama based on my fathers and mothers co-operation with secret programs and CIA FBI DOD programs

- Those and other involved agencies have tried to wrongly stigmatize me to others encourage social and legal retaliation for interests and acts of sexual expoitativeness which are not my interests or acts.

- That the planned and sought effect of this is disruption and harassment of my life over decades and with few credited accomplishment, in bad health, and isolated from what would have been my normal and reproductive life

- That lethal conditions of life imposed on me would end my life before i ever established a family of my own

A white in the gym is made to appear to peep obsessively at them or photograph them. He appears to be following them out of the gym or away from their workouts and he appears to be some kind of white supremacist child like person who wishes them to be white supremacist and he appears to be a pedophile to in a pedophile ring which harms exploitable women.

I have found the answer. The FBI contractors and others are building a Legend of me by faking the circumstances of where I am. The appearance is I am stalking, addicted to white women, their buttocks, photographing them, and with a preference for teens and tots too. As a loser I solicit any women near me who then catches me with peeping photos. But only that surrounds me. The alleged code words tying me to any of this do not exist and impersonators will “seal the deal” with the Honeypot in my vicinity who is the one who will catch the impersonator of me with the peeping photos, and a bounty will be paid to the person who finds I was in the area.

No code word or code act was ever given by me. Claims my normal acts by others including Doppelgangers of me are fraudelent. I only recently figured out what was even meant by alleged codes of mine and I never had any knowledge of what a code given was supposed to mean.

There is no code, in a pizza shop a pizza order is for pizza only dispite innuendo in my direction I resent and deny.

Pizzagate Function Box
Fake Ed Donegan and Fake Tom Dunham are in a pedo peeping and trafficking ring by public appearances and INUENDO	Ed's Eggs Broken with adult white females
Fake Ed Donegan concedes to a DNA debt to the peeping photos victim	Cash and DNA and into someone elses omlette and a White Supremacist's DNA

Gym Frames

Planted female (2A)
Mr Hyde (2A or 2B)	is Next to or hiding behind or out of frame of Dr Jekyll, Hyde is taking pictures of gym women in front of me
• Has a badge • Has a gym bag and their own cell phone they are touching	Why is that planted female in front of me (1A)? What do they mean I have bought her? and how come my music keeps stopping?

• Is collecting teen or tot photos with a hidden camera for home • Has an item of clothes on similar to mine or a motorcycle or car similar to mine • Has a place to get caught by his peers with his self made porn • Has a desire to be punished in the identity of Dr Jekyl

Black Homeless Shelter Salvation armies

Homeless shelter populations taking over gyms (including the most upscale gyms such as Arlington VA Sport and Health) seems unlikely yet it is so.

But what was this and what was happening?

It was the reason I left Arlington Virginia.

After finally, eventually using my checking account to open a gym membership, after months of fighting and with an A1c 13.3 the gym changed.

The managers of my money were making it impossible to shop, do laundry, also, impossible to get diabetes supplies.

Meanwhile the gym turned into very dirty ghetto. btw I had heard SOME of the people were tied to Obama. But most were just bling lower social class or purely homeless people.

I have always worked in high tech or done things tech oriented as social activities and hobbies and I brought my high tech propensities and even tablets or ipods and music into the gym.

I was surrounded by blacks masturbating, jumping around in front of me trying to appear to be my coaches, socially sabotaging me to women, and being just a danerous class of people in general.

Some were large heavy set black women. I remember a group of three of them in particular who had tshirts torn down the middle and CHristian crosses on them. Another said she was from New York and had ALSO taken up jump rope.

A few looked military. Most were social services type and at one point even had writing on their tshirts that seemed to “coach” what I had tweeted politically hours before leaving for the gym.

Moronically the mentally retarded people created public appearence of helpfull examples which were designed to be inferior solutions to the problems social services created.

One memorable example was a homeless person pretentiously toweling his back in front of me AFTER I had been privately complaining high A1c lead to sugary sweat and the inability to do laundrey because I could not afford to. Toweling off while sweating had nothing to do with fighting fungus. In fact I found some spore control sauve my mother had left me after also trying vinegar.

Mostly though it was physically threatening ghetto blacks who surrounded me. I wondered why they didn’t magnatometerd for shivves for felon in posession guns at the entrance and the gym staff turned black. Everything I did in the gym was mocked as there was racial comments of hatred toward me as well.

Upon fighting all this and loosing disability income and I landed in Corpus Christi Texas looking for high tech work but was homeless and without disability income. THe Salvation Army homeless people continued these assaults including impersonating and doing so in my gym clothes, while masturbating, every since.

A few things I noticed in the gym. Blacks often looking ghetto would have cell phones and backpacks on the gym floor. As they were using their smartphones my music would go from Play to Pause. I thought they had a way of annoying my workout or making it seem as though I was taking a call.

This happened once on the Sea Wall long ago. It was mostly desolate but a military guy went running by with a backpack and my music stopped and I figured the hell with it and went home.

This truly has bee the story of my life for thirty plus years, contantly, and I have been tryng for ten thousad hours or more trying to find the root cause of unprecipiated racial assaults upon me.

The chapters that follow including Prelude are my best guess.

Just today, 9/22/2019 I have figured a likelyhood out. The gym bag and phone are photographing women. There is likely a seperate cell phone way of blue tooth disrupting my music.

What happens is likely the scuzzy black photographs a woman with the backpack and that event is cross matched with a separate issue of a music stop on my phone, thus a touch of my phone.

Probably the Marshalls, tasked with defeating White Supremacism,

- Photograph white women while impersonating me, usig their backpacks as remote controlled cameras, use high tech equipment to create a reason for my to touch my music playing phone otherwise just sitting there on the gym equipment.

- Use the impersonator of me to email an impersonator of a friend of mine, Tom Dunham or perhaps someone else.

- Concede to a Dominatrix, as me, they took the picture. THe Dominatrix may or may not believe the REAL me did take the picture the Marshall took.

- Allege to others I wanted to go home and masturbate to peeping photos, that is how I get off, and I did not want to meet and date women.

Diminuizing me, taunting me, aggrandizing themselves in a gym environment made hostile by racketeering

The core environment was that people pretended I needed and was a beneficiary of coaching yet racketeers entangled themselves, after the fact of what I did by later jumping in front of me skitting it out thus altering the competence from my own to theirs.

The disruption of the normal public environments (or electronic environments) to abnormal situations was the physical act.

The explanation, the wrong explanation, of what happened in the physical appearances was the Bunko.

Moron - L
	Two rows of cardio equip are represented here. In this area map my location to position “E” though the rows of equipment may be very long. Since gyms tend to be crowded presume a woman happens to be at position “F”. Just as I predictably reach the end of my program time a male enters the cardio equipment to the other side of me, presume here position “D” and walks away just ahead of my end of workout walk away, as though I followed the male away or was led away by him. I have no idea why this scam is run nor how the result of the scam is utilized.

DECODED

This scheme creates a link to me of other peoples misconduct. It sure looks like at 44 min 45 seconds I am being led away from the gym by some person who was calling me out. THat appearance was manufactured before others but created some link in some people’s mind that I am have been linked to some misconduct in the gym, like there was miscondut but someone elses

Vixen Vision
	I enter the gym and use cardio equipment, again, presume in this diagram at position “E”. Some wiggly hipped “Barely Legal” takes a position on cardio equipment in front of me, say at position “A”B”or “C” for a cardio workout as though that, rather than diabetes and health, pursuing her is why I am at the gym, undermining my legitimate use of the gym and effectively being a sexual assault on me, placing me in a 17 year old phile or “John” role. Variants are women of general description take positions a,b, or c, after I start my workout and also exit just before my workout predictably ends, thus I appear to follow them away, though as always nothing is said to me. Other times women are “rescued” from gym equipment near me, again, nothing is or ever has been said to me.

DECODED

Likelyi she, the woman planted in front of me was peeped at or photographed and it will seem it was me or it will seem I followed her away because she left her cardio equip at 44 min 45 seconds

---

Moron Vision
	Again presume me at position “E”. Some

A B C D E F	moron male takes any other cardio station near me and looks at me while also looking at a smartphone, or works out in a which which exaggerates or mimics my own workout styles, thus appearing to be associated with me or my workouts. I have no idea who these people are and have reported them as stalkers. Oddly, though, when I started working out and loosing weight after being diagnosed with Diabetes, a person was seen using exercise movements much like my own.

DECODED

The system of co option stigmatizes the legitimacy and workout acumen of me in the gym as I am belittled and otherwise assaulted and others agrandize themselves as having a parent relationship with me when non of that was true

---

Play 2 Pause
A B C D E F	A woman or a couple walk near me. My cell phone jumps from PLAY to PAUSE requiring me to touch my phone. Invariably someone is nearby with a backpack. I have to reach for my phone and touch the play button to restart my music. Sometimes as I leave the gym I hear bizarre background chatter “He just bought her.” The best guess I have is that whatever scam this is is supposed to be tied to a mockery of BDSM.

DECODED

My having to touch the Play button to get the music going again created a phone touch. Others at the same time would use a remote camera on gym women and the fact I touched my phone created a public appearance I photographed the white woman as “my visual pornograpny.” THe Doppelgänger of me will be caught with that picture he himself took and pay with my DNA when caught for my (his) photo of a white woman.

Operation Turkish Bathhouse

♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
♂ ♀ ♂ ♂
♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
♂ ♂ ♂ ♂
D	huh?	F

I am the gym and it is 25 males to one or two women or 50 males to one or two women and no explanation is given as to why this is despite my observation to the staff this is not a normal gym population. Oddly, despite the sparsity of women in the gym one is usauly present thus the number is never zero.

Moron - Last to be First

♂	♀	♂
♂	Me	♂
♂	♂	♂

Something I called “The two second rule” in a lawsuit. Well after I have done something a public show is made of someone else doing it in front of me as though I am receiving some sort of instruction from them. This has happened so many hundreds of times and I don’t know who the client of this disinformation is. As always it is vague but I will list an example from 12/29/2017. On 12/25 I last updated a skating videos writing of mine of Feltife. That was a slight re-ordering of the videos in it which included Roxanne in two tone burgundy and I had in private compliment the cut of the male skater’s pant. I had sent a link to the skating video to Mistress Chloe who liked it. On 12/29/2017 on an all male gym floor a woman walks back and forth in front of me in burgundy yoga pants which seem to be of a similar high waist cut. Vague by itself but it happens with such statistical incidence some force at work is detectable. It is though seismologists filme themselves predicting earthquakes which have already occurred to elevate their importance or belittle me and my accomplishments in the gym or anywhere else.

DECODED

Stygmatizing my very effective and fun workouts help sabotage my usage of the gym both harassing me and shouting things like “You are an amateur” at me by non whites. Thus my pecking order in the gym was lessened among those serious about gym usage.

Someone Else Is Calling You Cordless From California
	I, “C” in this diagram, go into the hut tub and get my second wind for the second part of a long workout and to relax. “A” has a cell

D F	phone and is on the phone. The women on the gym floor seem to disappear. NO one can explain why. My guess is my cell phone had been hacked and that threat from the black gang banger “We are going to cut your balls of an kill you” is being worked on by covert ops. The actual reason for this and the frame jobs have never been made clear to me. I do suspect I am being frmaed by a cell phone fake tower or something, yet I am told nothing is going on and it is an everyday normal day at the gym like any ordinary gym anywhere else every day.

DECODED

Someone else had a cell phone and was either masturbating with water jets or alledgely photographing from the pool. This was a Doppelgänger, not me. The reports it was me created the Legend that I was using women as my pornography thus those exploited women were owed my DNA and should be kept away from me in the future.

A Few Points on This

700 megs of non whites peeping at whites and paying with my DNA under some Hammurabi Rationale

Disharmony

What is traditionally viewed as assault is not tailored to any one person.

A clear assault, a shove, say, or yanking a purse away from someone and running down the street with it.

Psychological assaults are often unrecognized because they are keyed to a particular person to aggravate that particular person.

Stalking is difficult to prove because the stalk is keyed to psychologically aggravate a particular person in a particular way.

It is not detectable by others as an assault when the stalk can be explained away as random, thus pattern analysis, of “unseen force or motive” guiding the seeming random acts is necessary to make the stalking case to a third party.

Nevertheless the stalk is successfully carried out when it can be artfully disguised as random even over period of time increasing the aggravation level of the victim who is not believed.

Of course the stalked person recognizes a party refusing to identify themsleves or their motives making distinctly personal shots at a person and doing so under cloak of seeming a random act.

The process of the stalk is sort like Justice Jackson on the Substance of the Process. Process law is a thing has has a substantive body of law which regulates Due Process, also a thing.

Whether a reference about something personal about a total stranger (made by a stalker) verbally or non-verbally, has any meaning other than “you are being stalked” is almost or possibly irrelevant.

The stalked person recognized it is “a shot” about a person being made, keyed to them, and frequently menacing or taunting.

A pattern of women pretending to be a stalking victim of me or an obsession of my or a partner of me (when I don’t have any knowledge of who they are and if I ask them claim no association with me) is stalking.

A women dropped her keys a day or so ago (from this writing) and at the same time there was a phone disturbance, some text or something on my phone. To an observer her dropping the keys was random. I was made to know it was an exact moment tie to something on my phone audible to me, and maybe even meant to draw my attention to the phone.

It can be “unsettling.

Two kinds of shots taken by a stalker

- A shot, a reference to the fact the stalker has some information about you just to demonstrate to the stalking victim the stalker is not there at random.
- A cheap shot. Doing something as has occured with me. THe repeated plants of teens or tots or buttocks into my path as though I had that paraphilia or obsession. Said to me these are random occurances, in front of public cameras.

This book

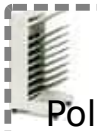
Abuse of Psychiatry in furtherance of Abuse of Power and Lethal Conspiracy Against Rights

DARPA and DIA and Espionage have the capabilities to do this including through Information Doppelgangers of stalking victims faking evidence used to create Psychiatric Pretexts.

Gangstalk is PsyOps in two ways.

- Street Theater creates a defamatory picture of the context of a person making them look bad or involved in what they are not involved in and then using that “KOMPROMAT” to social engineer others in office cliques or the public generally.
- By picking fights on certain topics with otherwise peaceful people the Government PsyOps teams may learn the thinking or proposed arguments of a political group or individual.

Abuse Of Psychiatry



Wikipedia quoted here from link

Political Abuse of Psychiatry is the misuse of psychiatry, including diagnosis, detention, and treatment, for the purposes of obstructing the human rights of individuals and/or groups in a society.

In other words, abuse of psychiatry (including that for political purposes) is the deliberate action of having citizens psychoanalytically diagnosed who need neither psychiatric restraint nor psychiatric treatment.

Psychiatrists have been involved in human rights abuses in states across the world when the definitions of mental disease were expanded to include political disobedience.

As scholars have long argued, governmental and medical institutions code menaces to authority as mental diseases during political disturbances.

Nowadays, in many countries, political prisoners are sometimes confined and abused in psychiatric hospitals.

Psychiatry possesses a built-in capacity for abuse that is greater than in other areas of medicine.

The diagnosis of mental disease allows the state to hold persons against their will and insist upon therapy in their interest and in the broader interests of society.

Psychiatry can be used to bypass standard legal procedures for establishing guilt or innocence and allow political incarceration without the ordinary odium attaching to such political trials.

The use of hospitals instead of jails also prevents the victims from receiving legal aid before the courts in some countries, makes indefinite incarceration possible, and discredits the individuals and their ideas.

In that manner, whenever open trials are undesirable, they are avoided.

[In my case under the psychiatric claim my claims about the U.S. Government Health Services constituted mental incompetence]

The political abuse of the power entrusted to physicians, and particularly psychiatrists, has a long and abundant history, for example during the Nazi era and the Soviet rule when political dissenters were labeled as “mentally ill” and subjected to inhumane “treatments.”

In the period from the 1960s up to 198>6, abuse of psychiatry for political purposes was reported to be systematic in the Soviet Union, and occasional in other Eastern European countries such as Romania, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Yugoslavia.

https://www.ncjrs.gov/ 108610 Find in a Library Title: Deadly Force Self-Defense Against Rape Journal: University of California Davis Law Review Volume:15 Dated:(1982) Pages:873-906 Author(s): D B Kates; N J Engberg

Annotation: Noting the paucity of judicial analysis of the common law privilege to use deadly force in self-defense against rape, this article clarifies the principles which justify the use of deadly force to repel rape.

Abstract: To be legally justified in killing an attacker, a rape victim must reasonably believe that the rapist intends to kill or grievously injure her. In many rape situations, the threat of severe physical harm is clear; the rapist is armed or threatens death or grievous injury. Situations where a rapist does not explicitly or implicitly threaten physical harm beyond forcible intercourse are less clear regarding the victim’s right to use deadly force against the rapist. Current law does not clearly articulate a basis for the right to use deadly self-defense when a person reasonably believes that harm will be limited to forcible intercourse. One factor which can justify the use of deadly force against a rapist who does not threaten the victim with death or grievous physical harm is the high frequency of murder and serious injury incident to rape. This could properly lead any rape victim to assume that her life and health are in serious danger. A second factor that could justify the use of deadly force is the high rate of physical injury and psychological trauma attending rape. The threat of venereal disease, an unwanted pregnancy, and psychological debilitation can be taken together as a threat of serious harm. Overall, rape can be viewed as a grievous physical and psychological attack that may be resisted by any and all means. 136 footnotes. Main Term(s): Self defense

Index Term(s): Homicide; Sexual assault trauma

In My Case

This has been used along with other Due Process violations in what appears to be a race related National Institute of Health Public Health Service (non-combatant military service) of the United States Department of Defense illegal and uncompensated claim to my DNA by the military.

I also believe DNA tied to my mother is connected to the shooting death of Judge Roll and also possibly the Barack Obama family.

The working theory of this book is that Thomas Neil Donegan and Orin Hatch among others sought out to, at the veneer level, fight me on the basis of disrupting White Supremacism (including with Orin Hatch) though I would find later that

- If taken “verb” atim the motive of the COINTELPRO against me was rooted in race or racial theory an error has occured. I am reverberating to, trying to understand in sociology, attacks on me and my mother, attacked backed by my brother, by some strange attitudinal group or culture that we, my mother and I, are “nothing before them.” I now believe this some sort of 45 year long coordinated Illuminati stalk I have trying to research and understand. The stalk includes shouting or skitting at at least me in some way in which a rage-full black is telling me what to do, but in reality, the attempts at “instruction” follow after my normal or high achievement acts. I will later call this the Two Seconds After Rule, that as a rule when I have done something innovative in the gym, in diet, music, elsewhere tied to me Diabetes recovery it will seem to come from someones after the fact instruction.

- The acts appear to be aimed at Tom Donegan working to hide the DNA origins of my mother and I (and ultimately Tom’s own DNA) and his acts have included hiding or removing my mother’s hats, family photos including Festus Gainey farm photos and other youth photos, sabotage of me in my adult life as though he were helping a retarded person or delusional person, such that in a position of power over my life and my mothers life, her will was taken off track which I think was his ill-motivated goal on behalf of, not fighting white supremacism, but covering for politicians covering up illegal use of Donegan DNA in the highly political connected word and in new DNA possibilities for gays and the world which will make the entire issue moot IF my genome history and future is sabotaged.

As genetic database techniques have advanced it has been necessary to coverup this on an ever increasing basis by a conspiracy in so deep it has no way out.

This attempts at DNA movements and family lines grafts and surgeries could create the fix needed to explain DNA lineages and DNA usages and DNA rights on behalf of the powerful.

Rod Rosenstein, fighter of White Supremacism, also has FBI CIA practicing wife and US Public Health Service sister, civil rights history, control of US Marshalls, and may be the one putting that family line rights fix in place on behalf of a Machen Jr, Holder Rosenstein MOST SECRET PROGRAMS operation under way, and it may fix Barack Obama's genealogical worries of MKULTRA.

Rosenstein and Mueller: Genocide and unprovoked Racial Hatred Toward Me

Racially motivated sourcing my DNA is African familial lineage non-white families is the transfer of babies the Rome Statute bans, taking babies from one ethnic or racial group to give to another.

This also have been conspiracy against every one of my Human Rights under U.S. Law including conspiring to bring about the circumstances of my early Diabetes and sexually celibate death.

I never started any of this, but after ever more obvious inexplicable racial animus towards me escalating about Y2K I traced the assaults upon me to where I believed the hostility was sourced from.

The U.S. National Institute of Health of Bethesda Maryland, overseen by Rod Rosenstein, US Attorney, and Robert Mueller, FBI Director under Goerge Bush and Barack Obama, had taught White Privilege Theory, that Whites had oppressed blacks and other minorities and were liable for said opressivness.

I blogged about the lack of foundations for that program and have ever after been second layer targted, now as a White Supremacist or Alt-Right, in response to my alt right defensive positions.

All black teams of behavioral health have long been used to harass me as a suspect in the legal system for my "harassing requests for genetics information from the National Institute of Health" which, again, was merely defensive from me trying to trace the racial hostility which surrounded me.

A guise or pretense for the racial harassment I have experienced has likely been a claimed need to study my defensiveness positions regarding being white and due civil rights protections, which makes me sound racist.

Turning to Russia for help in 2014

This contact with Russia could have made me a target of the Russia Investigation, though I had no purpose other than to compliment Russia on rescuing Edward Snowden.

Russia probe grand jury looks like ‘a Black Lives Matter rally,’ says witness - https://pagesix.com/2018/01/02/russia-probe-grand-jury-looks-like-a-black-lives-matter-rally-says-witness/

“The grand jury room looks like a Bernie Sanders rally,” my source said. “Maybe they found these jurors in central casting, or at a Black Lives Matter rally in Berkeley [Calif.]”

Of the 20 jurors, 11 are African-Americans and two were wearing “peace T-shirts,” the witness said. “There was only one white male in the room, and he was a prosecutor.” Mueller was not present.

Racialized Sexual Assaults, Racist Persecution, and Inter-Racial Hit Squads

Gym Frames

Evidence Manufacturing and Harassment in the rehab Gym

I was diagnosed with Diabetes and an A1c of 13.3 near death from heart attack and stroke.

At first it was made impossible for me to get into the gym.

This is because of the following.

Following the then release from the Rosenstein Mueller arrest of me for seeking National Institute of Health genetics info (on a misdemeanor harassing phone calls charge I never reached trial on) I was released back into the disabled persons system.

The charge carried a $500 maximum fine, but I never reached trial and I spent over a year in prison.

In prison release health care workers managed my money and would not release it for the gym, a small amount per month, even though immediate weight loss and exercise was neccessary to bring my blood sugar levels down.

Although after great pains and hundreds of attempts I finally got into the gym but in all the years since I have been harassed, threatend, stalked, and menaced in the gyms by all black inserted gym employee teams openly racially harassing me.

Some of these are documented in Appendix-Gym Frames

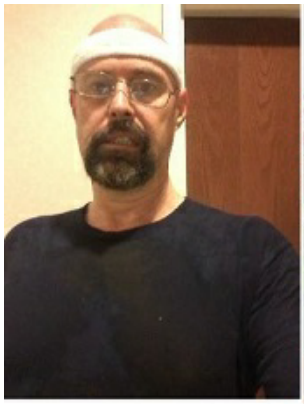
The harassment has including making it look like I am a peeping tom by people dressing similar to me peeping or wowen or teens getting in front of me and acting as though I followed them.

I went from the picture with the yellow shirt and A1c 13.3 to in the dark shirt and A1c 4.7 in less than six months, but upon that success racial harassment in the gym became so intense it was impossible to use the gym and gains have been lost for the last four years, and now I have untreated full blown diabetes again and am also again overweight.

I went from gym to gym and US state to state but was harassed by blacks, sometimes disabled blacks, tied to the U.S. Marines or military veterans.

Like with housing which I have been harassed out of I have been told by my assailants the harassing of me is both racially and politicallly motivated.

I have probably lost a decade of my life to this as prescribed medicince and gym access is not available.

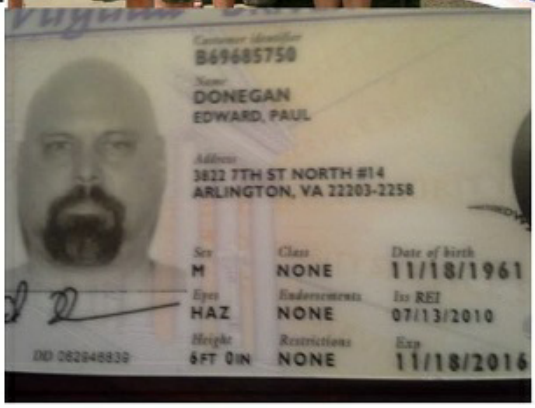


Body Mass over time

Wokout photo 10/2014

Greeting vets at time of Type II Diabetes diag 7/2013

DL photo aprox 2008



New York Transit Authority Building, Mariot, Other Locations

While in Georiga I was surrounded by uniformed military, planted blacks, all sort of other problems like evaporated bank balance, being replaced in session with Ultraviolte, and senes like this, Banasplits she said. A person, I think from Texas, had left the table in between my and thatfamily was likely the “zoom”photographer” upskirting like photographer of subjects planted in my vicinity.

A black tot twirked on a scarf in the middle of the floor at the Greyhound terminal. Buest guess, someone else photographed it total and completely out of my control, but as Jen Moore said, these kids being put up to that kind of thing being in m vicinity alleges black mail material usable against me, if they fake I took pictures, which I did not.

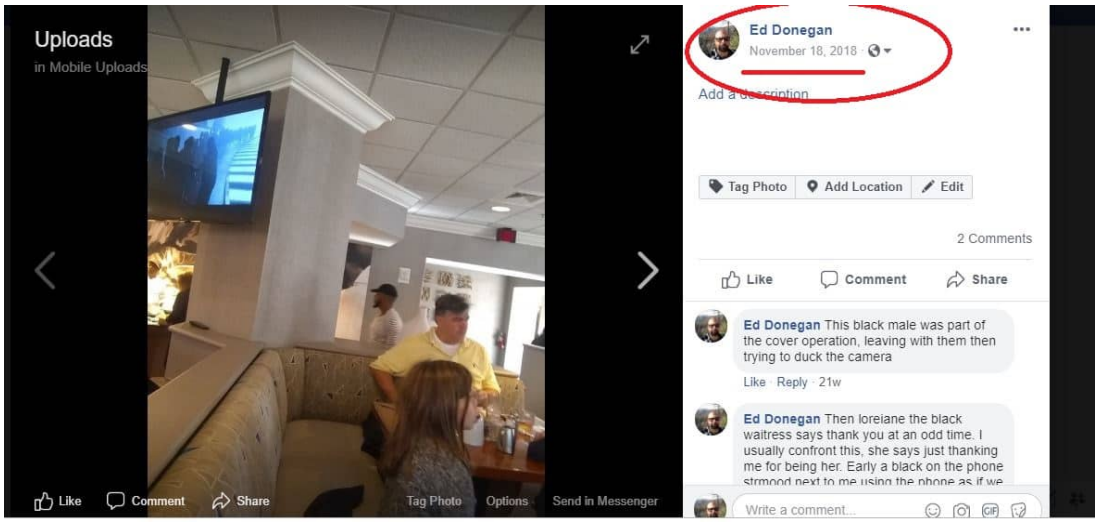
As always some black or other non white saying “thank you” to me but then WANS”T talking to me as I try to ask “thank you for what??”



> Nov 30, 2018 - The Marriott hotel chain has announced its Starwood guest reservation database has been hacked, potentially exposing up to 500 million ..

Honor Flight DCA, The Gym, High Tech Meetups, Computers Freedom Privacy 2011, anything and everything else

I legitimately and even some times expertly particapte in all of these things, yet covertly, FBI Cointelpro sabotages me behind the scenes. I never know what happened, it seems to look like those who look like me are loitering around women, I NOW know today I was framed and to keep me away from white females or success in my life.

At least 60 to 70 times in five years I have seen scuzzy or well dressed black women, always massively overweight, rushing around physically trying to ask or physically push any white women away from me vicinity.

Sometimes it has been non-white males, also asking me “Are you OK are you OK” which usually means I just watched a black male, a white female, and a white retarded person leave my vicinity where the white retard will give away all his belongings to the white female at the request of the black male or black female.

Abuse of Psychiatry, this short version

The most dangerous feces shit the world has ever taken on me has been in custody where all this is even even 10 times worse and records are generated.

I was never able to stop it nor could I understand who was behind it, now I finally do. I must have something tied to my genome, most likely tied to being white, and at the very least something affecting some powerful movement or person.

Officer Manufacture Claims of My Stupidity

- After the black Arlington County PD officer arrested me, bullied me, gave me conflicting directions, clearly knowing I was a New Nation News reporter, he said while giving conflicting directions I lacked the intelligene to follow directions

- Though lifelong I studied case law, history, the US Constitution and Civil Liberties Activism while in custody a clear impersonator of me in a cell near me was delivered lections from a Howdy Doody-ish what Arlington VA Sherrif about Abraham Lincoln, was a president, do we know what A president is? Similarly at an applebees in Austin about 3/5 Compromise, and clauses, etc.,

- Arlington County Sherrif Detention a loser perhaps Schizo Affective Disorder moron variously thought they were at Martin Luther King rallies at Revelary, an imperonator extended a comment I actually made to my father the conditions of detention were no worse than any Baracks.

- Many many more during the years

These acts of impersonation of a mentally incompetent me while in I was in custody include a schizo affective thinking a shark bit off his arm while I had a broken arm, impersonators of me contacting the courts identifying themselves as me, in crayon therapy, unable to control their bowels, etc.,

Officer Manufactured Claims of My Compliance to Females

- Everywhere I go the illusion is created I am following a female around which is what motivates me. In Arlington County Detention while I was not prescribed medication a Doppelgänger of me was talked to by a Latex Domme Nurse who urged a retarded version of me to take medications

- In Arlington County Sherriffs Detention, as always, all black sherriffs, a white crew came in and counseled a Mediterranean skinned male not to roll around in the porn on strewn on his floor as he was in psychiatric emergency. He was also counseled not to go to I Eat Puppies For breakfast, a high IQ Mensa Dommes web site.

- When I got food poising or bruised toe from the base of a chair (I forget which reason I had been in Northern Virginia Hospital Center ER on this occasion) a black male was in the waiting room, large and heavy set, dark skinned, wearing similar clothes and ALSO with Samsung Ring phone. As I was getting one talk about the toe is only purple, not broken, a blonde nurse was lectuting a little boy, out of my eyesite, not to undergoe canings from Dominatrices.

- I have rarely if ever spent more than $40 at a strip club and I get off on surfing domme adds rather than buying porn, spending less than $100 on porn during my life. At Trinity Services in Austin, a strip club in Austin, etc., I have been diagnosed as having trouble giving away things. Not so, I did not contest overbill while too drunk but I did report it, and reported those who werer overbilled claimed to represent

Obama, and they were trying to hide or dissuade white females.

I am not en role of a submissive male when I am not in role play, and stygmatizinig my BDSM interest as exploitable by females sets up that Bernie will give away his belongings to blacks at Weekend At Bernies frauds where an impersonator of me does my accounting.

Identity Card and Identity Theft Problems

- When others including Arlington County Behavioral Health had control of my assets I could not get an ID, DL or DL Insurance. I had to fly to Texas on a suspended DL and no other ID.

- For most of my adult life I have kept at least one portable file and in the main one a file tab-labeled Edward Paul Donegan with old passports, expired punched out DLs, voting records, birth certificates, etc., A black went into my apartment in Clarendon Courts and stole that folder. I only caught him leaving acting suspciouslyl as I returned from launrdy, and discovered the file missing a short time later.

- As I sought a new current photo ID (rather than a one time only of me with no goatie in the photo) the entire Texas DL system statewide went off line as I drove to the site.

- In California at the motor vehicles dept blacks inserted themselves around me, seemed to be Marines or military shrits or demeanor, and stalked me at the SSA and other places as I looked like a black second Ed Donegan was being created physically next to the real Ed Donegan in lines, etc.,

- Clothes are always being stolen, chairs I sit moved to differnet locations (architectual analogs) voices are being faked as people created a record that their voice is mine by saying to me things I would have said in conversation (at least 8 times in 10 years.) I documented this in RUIZROCKET.

I believe this impersonation scheme of forging my agreement to give away my property to blacks is the thug scheme Jen Moore knew existed as a black-budgetes RICO scheme and the black thugs who stalk me in Challengers are the same who once jumped her and later killed her as I presented evidence the covert activities she also had.

Plain Clothes Acts In Furtherance of Embezzlement

- At various times I have said the PizzaGate parties which are visibly conducted by non-whites and often non-native English speakers is part of an international genetics RICO scheme embezzling the value of my DNA, not reported to me. Several times after I have made that assertion people in my vicninity, refusing to identity themselves, make statements nearby my of the type “We’ll be in this fifty-fifty from here” and this happens so often I often do not confront these types of statements, though when I do the response to me is of the nature “oh, that wasn’t directed towards you. We weren’t talking to you, just each other.”

- Other times I have made that assertion (including recently at Extended Stay America) someone other than me is doing something like staring into an envelope of money saying “wow I have made it big” and of course real me has received no money nor been informed of the value of my genes. This also happened in the parking lot of Highlander Motel where a person seems have suddenly made it big and intentionally walked in my vicinity with an envelope of money.

Longstanding Persecution and Harassment by Rod Rosenstein and Robert Mueller

COINTELPRO - political assassinations through publicly committed hate crime.

Here are some of the tactics used by CointelPro, most of which I have experienced. This occurs in broad daylight, inside the prison system, inside the ABA, inside psychiatric hospitals. These covert operations I and those I know have been subjected to will be described in my later false arrests and detentions.

“According to Brian Glick, in War at Home, COINTELPRO used a broad array of methods, including:”

1. Infiltration:

   Agents and informers did not merely spy on political activists. Their main purpose was to discredit and disrupt. Their very presence served to undermine trust and scare off potential supporters. The FBI and police exploited this fear to smear genuine activists as agents.

2. Psychological Warfare From the Outside:

   The FBI and police used myriad other “dirty tricks” to undermine progressive movements. They planted false media stories and published bogus leaflets and other publications in the name of targeted groups. They forged correspondence, sent anonymous letters, and made anonymous telephone calls. They spread misinformation about meetings and events, set up pseudo movement groups run by government agents, and manipulated or strong-armed parents, employers, landlords, school officials and others to cause trouble for activists.

3. Harassment Through the Legal System:

   The FBI and police abused the legal system to harass dissidents and make them appear to be criminals. Officers of the law gave perjured testimony and presented fabricated evidence as a pretext for false arrests and wrongful imprisonment. They discriminatorily enforced tax laws and other government regulations and used conspicuous surveillance, ‘investigative’ interviews, and grand jury subpoenas in an effort to intimidate activists and silence their supporters.

4. Extralegal Force and Violence:

The FBI and police threatened, instigated, and themselves conducted break-ins, vandalism, assaults, and beatings. The object was to frighten dissidents and disrupt their movements. In the case of radical Black and Puerto Rican activists (and later Native Americans), these attacks-including political assassinations-were so extensive, vicious, and calculated that they can accurately be termed a form of official 'terrorism.'".The FBI also conducted "black bag jobs", warrantless surreptitious entries, against the targeted groups and their members. Source: COINTELPRO - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

- Embezzlement, Forgeries, and Coverup Murders

Entry by Edwdard Paul Donegan

In my case there is something the National Institute of Health knows about my genome, not disclosed to me, and the value of IVF of my DNA is embezzled to blacks and gays via forgeries.

In a conveniently prurient government scheme built around Eros I am intercepted in communications with women, most likely leftist complicit women or duped women, will go along with an impersonator taking over my identity, my impersonator will be blackmailed over despicable activity appearing in staged photos out of my control

> On August 8th two days before her death MKULTRA TNG reporter Jen Moore and they day after I turned Ruiz Rocket and Harvey Dents docs into US and international law enforcement, on August 8th of last year, ,at 6 mins 30 seconds. Her death 48 hours later

https://youtu.be/Y8T4wEhsfYQ

> THE TECHNIQUES BELOW CAN BE EITHER INDIRECTLY AS MANUFACTURED PRETENSES FOR COVERING UP PAST GENOME PROGRAM ERRORS OR DIRECTLY USED

> AS TECHNIQUES TO CONTINUE TO COVERUP GENOMIC ACTIVITIES.
>
> From its inception, the FBI has operated on the doctrine that the “preliminary stages of organization and preparation” must be frustrated, well before there is any clear and present danger of “revolutionary radicalism.”

> At its most extreme dimension, political dissidents have been eliminated outright or sent to prison for the rest of their lives. There are quite a number of individuals who have been handled in that fashion. Many more, however, were “neutralized” by intimidation, harassment, discrediting, snitch jacketing, a whole assortment of authoritarian and illegal tactics.

> War at Home: Covert action against U.S. activists and what we can do about it (South End Press Pamphlet Series) by Brian Glick

Foreign Operative Connected Foreign Interested Abuse of U.S. Offices of Power

I have absolutely no doubt about a secretive race related conspiracy of women, over a decades period of time, sudddely dissapearing from around me, moved away sometimes from caught in the corner of the eye acts from behind me.

That conspiracy against rights itself is on matter, a serious human rights one, but others exit too including arson, rape, robbery, wintess tampering, evidence tampering, murder, espioange, crimes against reading and writing and propery, false arrest and false detention, medical treatments as politicallyl and racially motivated violence, and more.

I say again here. This has involved a large foreign genetics effort which is illegal and has used foreign operatives, in the U.S., against the interests of myself, mother, and father, native born

U.S. Citizens trying to raise generations of family ourselves in the U.S.

The core interest of this illegal conspiracy ins conspiracy against my mother, father, and myself, by a foreign connected plot with foreign connected interests and operatives.

Hotel Erwin California was one such clear example.

911 What's Your Emergency?

One of my observations for many many year is the Emblems of Trust behavioral care using arbitrary medical judgements have encroached into adversarial criminal justice proceedings and eliminated the accused right to defense at trial

In the final book, V, I explain Tom Duham and I are not in a traffickig ring, it appears to other we are because of planted evidence visible to the public and impersonators (Doppelgangers) of us, but he and I have repeatedly called the police, as have Lt Gen Mike Flynn, Jen Moore, and others.

It is the police doing it though, and appears Jeffery Epstein conncted, at until now (8/20/2019) when this fake blackmail ring no longer can created genetics usage rights out of forged concessions to blackmail.

I know I called the police at Bay Area Laundry, Bed and Breakfast Salinas, Capitola, Princess Apartments, Burker King, and many other locations, always to no avail.

Self Serving Self Interested Harvey Dent (black or black NON-US National in Authoritative Role possibly Beavirorial Health Care Trained or connected)
Social justice Workers	White Female Models	Bernie	Exploitable female	Ed Donegan "hello Harvey, is this 911, something is going on here"

THis was San Francisco Golden Gate Park exactly with a black motorcyclist next to me observed by a black respoonding cop driving by. This was done in Virginia before I left for Texas too.

This book

#Books, the narrative of arriving in Texas and does Genoracketeering tie to the JFK assassination and Obama?

This book could be fiction, error, or truth. It is my best guess, and I think the protection racket which manufactures hostile claims to my DNA (alleging I victimized female minors) for who should not have it (as a resultant claim against me,) and denies my genome to me (as I am ostracized as though I victimized female minors, causing under Reflexive Control) adult females to shun me for what the Information Doppelganger of me did, the Doppelgänger near me and the tot photographed the tot but it looked like i did because the tot was placed close to me (or the teen was placed close to me.

I think the truth of this, which breaks my eggs but makes, for others, an omelet, is MKULTRA and tied to high ranking CIA and Illuminati schemes and changing around rights to DNA since mismatches in who has various DNA is already mismatched by the CIA and Illuminati.

Zero Basis in Fact, Law, or Religion for claims to my genome

A Protection Racket of enormous clout has been able to railroad me but the basics are that is is faked that I need a protection racket and once that racket is in place (as a Due Process loophole) that same protection racket can fake claims against me and settle them for those other clientele the faked the claims on behalf of.

The total molecular makeup is felony crime, misrepresenting me, framing me, and inciting against me on falsified fact, all part of unprovoked assaults directly on me.

Zero Times Anything

Under any theory of law failures in factual basis result in no counts under the law, fake cases don’t count.

In fact that is what this section is about, hundreds of falsified evidentiary basis which will be used for false claims.

Zero Basis in Fact Or result in Law

Zero Times Anything

Under any theory of law failures in factual basis result in no counts under the law, fake cases don’t count.

In fact that is what this section is about, hundreds of falsified evidentiary basis which will be used for false claims.

In fact it would take great clout to achieve such freedom to openly fake cases and this book also deals with the overall motive to fake the factual baiss of claims.

In so doing it also ascribes that motive in faking facts to efforts to fake the legal theory the facts will be used under as well.

Here I treat that as Zero legitimate in facts times zero legitimacy in legal theory equals zero legitimacy in outcome.

But who would need an outcome?

In fact it would take great clout to achieve such freedom to openly fake cases and this book also deals with the overall motive to fake the factual basis of claims.

In so doing it also ascribes that motive in faking facts to efforts to fake the legal theory the facts will be used under as well.

Here I treat that as Zero legitimacy in facts times zero legitimacy in legal theory equals zero legitimacy in outcome.

But who would need an outcome so badly that they would and could assassinate pubic officials which I allege they did and gain police cooperation in faking cases as well?

After years of research I and this book series I am writing posit that Barack Obama was a product of Illuminati engineering contemplated since the World War I era Grifith Experiments, moving genes with bacteria by humans, as though God.

Continuing into the 1960s coping with both the underlying study of Nazi genocide and communist grown in poor areas, racial engineering would unfold by the most advanced CIA capabilities leading to the test under JFK of using FOXP2 Windsor out of wedlock woman GLorian Donegan’s ovum with Malcom X to later plant as a futre leader in Indonesia preparing US growth in influence against the Peoples Republic of China.

Born in LA of California, Obama’s secret history has been concealed only a few steps ahead of forensic science, first able to type Obama to his children in the 1990s then to world evolutionary history through immunology databases.

Increasing need to falsify a theory in which my genomics exist in others and racial engineering by world ministries leads to Zero times Zero.

That is religious ministries dressing as me, in fact non white ministers, and villyfing me as spiritually sic by letting their peeping interest in white women out while dressed as me creates the alleged factual basis for claims against me and making me appear retarded or schizophrenic creates the factual claim of a need for those same religions to represent me.

THe legal theory that as my asset managers including for my DNA allows them to sieze my DNA to me explains the murder of Judge Roll and Justice Scalia was world racial and medical engineering is carried out by the Illuminati which at the same time as benefiting foreign genomic base also moves Obamas evolutionary history from me outward instead to foregn soil roots.

Zero times Zero

So the need for my genome at any cost. Faking factual basis and creating a legal framework, be it the NDAA, judicial, reporters, or other assassinations, get the operation carried out via wetworks and a Deep State including FBI and CIA resources.

Bad facts and bad law. I have no interest which should result in litigation against me and even if so no biological assets are siezable under good law anyway.

Zero reality facts and Zero reality legal theory tied to MKULTRA Birther Coverup

If you take the high level need for faking facts and faking legal theory, even to the point of murder, then you would expect and you do find repeated connections to the OBamas at mulitple locations in this story.

In fact this Pizzagate GEnomics connection is confirmed by Jen Moore and Linda Newkirk, the history of the Illuminati and Secret Identities the public is entitle to know about.

The murders I allege to coverup those secret identities are in some cases founded in the material witness list sometimes as deceased people and other times in crimes tied to the criminal enterprise but not a specific triggerman yet.

Examples. Veronica HOffman, deceased, Victoria Windsor, deceased, Micheal Hastings, deceased, all tied to tracking Windsor to Obama Birtherism of MKLUTRA. Likely Larry McDonald.

A Chapter in this book is 200

That referes to 200 people who knowingly engaged in felonies in a black market scheme.

The covertly parties pulling strings behind the scenes I call position three. In position 2 is the planted assets and agents and front companies working on behalf of 3 but pretending role loyalty to me, 1.

There are hundreds of megabytes and evidence about people in role two faking evidence to be part of the efforts of 3.

The basis architecture is a double dip. Wrongfull conservancy of me, Social Work based, will double dip and represent both the false victims suing me and me at the same time.

In this market maker position they gain access to the rights to my genomic assets via seizures and fail to account to me what they are doing with it or that the claims are really done in court, and accountancy denied to me thus I can not contradict the blind trust activities.

This is the Protection Racket exposed, using access to me to manufacture false claims and use those against me.

This is the Protection Racket exposed as will be seen in the Jim Vocelcka chapter.

Manuscript Theft and this book

Bogus claims to this manuscript are not grounded in these long term URIs consistent with the research and publication of this book.

Manuscript Theft and URIs and ties to events in this book
Uniform Resource Identifier	Usages
eddonegan@yahoo.com since 5/27/2005	Amazon.com retailer of this epub
	Archive.org This and other books and materials
	Wells Fargo.com configured to receive Amazon.com payments
	Youtube.com until merger with Google and EdInArlington@gmail.com and WWII videos under Yahoo ID
	Goddady.com and Political Rights.US
	Facebook and other simultaneous posts of WWII footage shot from me then uploaded to other media and this email also traveled under during that and other travel referenced in this book.

	Bitchute Second Line Of Troops tribute to Jen Moore who also had a Bitchute channel about the day of her death

This book

Glorian Donegan

I think it was Tunnel Road.

The two lane road or so coming out of the tunnel or some other road between Moraga and Berkley via Highway 24 I think.

There was just a cloud of white blue smoke and a horrible horrible noise I saw.

I had been finished with an evening with some Head Royce friends at some coffee shop, at Lenny's, or someone else's, and dropped at a place my mother could come pick me up and drive me back over the hill.

When the Dodge pulled up she was in it and I could see the car.

She looked scared. She had, it turned out, thrown a rod at near the start of her 25 minute journey but this was before cell phones. She had no way to reach me and though she knew little about cars, she was going to drive this one until she found me where I was waiting for her.

This was my mother. From the time I was born, and the time she was born.

Glorian Donegan the daughter of Prince Edward of Wales and Maria Von Trapp?

The LONDON KE FAMILY FOXP2 gene likely comes to me through Maria VonTrapp, Jen Moore Videos Explained

In combining the Historical Kennedy, Von Trapp, Prince of Wales King Edward VIII, Wallis Simpson, Donegan, Kennedy, and Obama history (which is covered by Pizzagate reporter Jen Moore) I will refer to this Von Trapp article a few times.

Perhaps Borderline or Vocally coached Britney Speers (Extreme ADD) or the signing Von Trapps Maria Kustchera or the Speech Impediment Windsors or with Radio and RKO or with acting and ALMA POWELL wife of COLIN POWELL vocal coaching seems a theme in acting and singing and ties to my theories of Speech

Spasmodia and the speech dysregulation defect of FOXP2 of the LONDON KE [VIII] Family.

The Premise of This Book is that Intelligence Agencies, Espionage Agencies, are using impersonators to sell fertilization rights of her genetics, as though that had been true all along when it was not Due Process violations of Espionage backed RICO organizations black market falsified permission to my genome, to her genome, when no such rights were granted or are granted by her or me.

Maria Augusta Kutschera was born in 1905 and after being orphaned at a young age, was reportedly sent to live with an abusive uncle.

She attended teachers' college where she discovered religion and converted to Catholicism before becoming a candidate for the novitiate in Salzburg.

Portrayed on film by Andrews as demure and self-effacing, the real Maria was in fact a real problem while at the convent, describing herself as "horrid, the worst you can imagine," in a 1980 article which includes a list of transgressions such as breaking china, speaking during periods of silence, running in the courtyard, whistling Gregorian chants and climbing on the convent roof.

My mother was born on December 13 1927. I her years after divorcing my father she was trapped in her apartment "gangttalked" and loud noises outside, strangers "just at her" etc all of her life, social situations odd people showing up who were just at her, etc., and she staid home. I was gang stalked to fo 40 year at time suicidal, at times paranoid, mental states resultant from a normal mind place in dangerous context.

It appears the Von Trapps left Austria in the 1920s to settle in London.

The real journey took the family first to Italy, where Georg attained citizenship due to his birthplace having become Italian territory in 1920, then on to London before boarding a ship for America.

Though they left Austria only a day before the borders were sealed, their actual departure lacked the drama contained in the film according to documents and interviews contained in the U.S. National Archives. “We did tell people that we were going to America to sing,” daughter Maria told Opera News in 2003. “And we did not climb over mountains with all our heavy suitcases and instruments. We left by train in broad daylight, pretending nothing.”

The von Trapps traveled with their musical conductor, Rev. Franz Wasner, and secretary Martha Zochbauer. On film Wasner became the fictional Max Detweiler, who remained in Austria.

The real journey took the family first to Italy, where Georg attained citizenship due to his birthplace having become Italian territory in 1920, then on to London before boarding a ship for America. During the early 1940s they toured the U.S. as the Trapp Family Singers, eventually settling in Stowe, Vermont. There they opened a guest house, which is still owned and operated by descendants of the von Trapp family.

The real family wasn’t as wealthy as portrayed on screen.

Though money did not appear to be of concern to the family depicted in the movie, in real life the fortunes of the von Trapp family had faltered during the global depression of the early 1930s to the extent that at the time the film is set, most of the household servants had been dismissed and the family had begun taking in > boarders. The lack of funds also prompted the family to consider turning their love of singing together into a profession. “It almost hurt [my father] to have his family on stage, not from a snobbish view, but more from a protective one,” Eleonore is quoted as saying in a 1978 Washington Post interview.

In 1927 there was a change in the Von Trap family. Recall again my mother was born on December 13 1927 and with the Borderline Personality Disorder FOXP2 Dysgraphia gene. 61-33 = 28. but this was November, my mothers birthday later in December. SHe spoke of time on the farm with Festus and clothes, clean clothes, made of non clothing fabrics.

> Maria was hesitant about marrying Captain von Trapp.
>
> Like the film, Maria and George were in fact married only a year after the novice arrived as governess. Unlike the film, they were actually married in 1927, more than a decade before fleeing Austria in 1938. George was 25 years older than Maria and the match was not love at first sight. Though George had fallen for Maria and asked her to stay with him and become a second mother to his children, Maria was not as sure of the union, reportedly saying, “God must have made him word it that way because if he had only asked me to marry him I might not have said yes.”

I think when the first Captain Von Trapp wife died, and they had gone to London, and this famous show famiy was in London, Price Edward of Wales, later King Edward VIII of The Kings Speach, may have had a child or children in the 1920s London social environment, those children later placed eslewhere by the Illuminati, British, or Catholic Church.

My mother was born December 13 1927 or 1926

Celebrities - “FAMOUS BIRTHDAYS: 20 FEBRUARY” (264)

- Sidney Poitier (*Feb 20, 1927) actor US
- Kurt Cobain (*Feb 20, 1967) guitarist, singer US
- Rihanna (*Feb 20, 1988) actress, singer, fashion designer, dancer BB
- Ivana Trump (*1949) model, businesswoman, first wife of Donald Trump CZ
- Yuliya Olegovna Volkova (*Feb 20, 1985) singer RU

My mother was adopted into the DuPont employed Dew family of Bishopville South Carolina.

A constant theme through my mother’s life during the depression was if clothes were clean that was the only important thingm, and in the depression it was ok for her family to wear made clothes from non clothes material. The only thing that would be important is if the wearer alwasy kept then clean.

A constant good natured joke we loved was her dancing around the kitchen, etc., saying “I should have been a dancer!” which was a reference to that in her childhood, before USO, about being a showgirl.

If in London then Prince of Wales impregnated Maria then she was off to an English speaking farm, perhaps in the USA, this would explain how I got that gene from her, dry throuts, speech spasmodia, etc.,

Joseph Kennedy was tied to the Donegan in liquor trade of Cape COd Bay Marshfield and Hayannisport and now Provincetown (Tom Donegan) as Harold Donegan, Nuclear industry Happy Donegan, James Pauld Donegan, were all from, and I think through the following spaghetti my father may have met a Maria Von Trapp child.

The region of Massachusetts Cape Code Bay, RCA and Joseph Kennedy working with King George V (father of King Edward III) on reaching China with radio waves, etc., and Joseph Kennedy (father of John F. Kennedy) ambassador to Great Britain in the 1930s and tied to British Military in family marriages.

The Manhattan Project and the CIA including Sidney Gottlieb speech therapist in MKULTRA.

King Edward VIII abdicated as Prince Edward Duke of York in Baltimore Maryland married to Wallis Simpson.

The DC to Maryland to Vermont to Massachusetts general corridor area Prince Edward lived out his life in.

Up into 1974 I am in that same area as is Glorian Donegan James Paul Donegan (atomic testing and Manhattan Beach) and Tom Donegan in Cape Cod.

Is this how I ended up with the FOXP2 gene? Two carries of it. Maria, and King Edward VIII, both from the Germany Austria area and Albert Einstein had it too, I have always seen that clear as day.

Who my mother GLorian Gainey (born name) said was her father who died of cancer she recounted was Festus Gainedy, dead of Pnemonuia at a time my mother would have been 8 which ties to the Jen Moore story.

https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/114064413/festus-gainey

Festus Gainey
BIRTH 19 Oct 1884
Wayne County, North Carolina, USA
DEATH 3 Mar 1936 (aged 51)
Goldsboro, Wayne County, North Carolina, USA
BURIAL
Thornton Family Cemetery
That would have put her at 8, becoming 9 on December 13th that year.

My family on my mothers side I would spend summer school breaks with, staying with Harold and walking to Dot's nearby

Obituary for Mrs. Doris "Dot" Gandy-Dew Bishopville, SC

A celebration of life for Mrs. Doris "Dot" Gandy Dew, 85, who died peacefully on Friday, June 23, 2017 will be held at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 28, 2017 at Hephzibah Bible Church. Mrs. Dew, widow of Herbert O. Dew DuPont employed family members) was born in Darlington Co., SC, to the late Clarence Festus and Lily Grace Gainey Gandy. Dot loved the South Carolina Gamecocks and the Atlanta Braves. She also loved to work in her flower garden and especially loved her family.

Surviving are her sons, Bert (Vaughan) Dew of Camden, SC, Howard "Gene" Dew of Bishopville, SC; daughters, Debbi (Tom) Davidson of Logansville, GA, Janet (Louis) Lorick of Bishopville,SC; grandchildren, Trey Dew, Jana Geddings, Nick Davidson, Lo

James Paul Donegan family side

By BOSTON HERALD | bostonherald@bostonherald.com |

PUBLISHED: APRIL 3, 2008 | UPDATED: NOVEMBER 17, 2018

David T. Donegan of Lynnfield, APRIL 1 2008. Retired Patrolman, Lynnfield

Police Department. After a long battle with Lung Cancer. Husband of the late Cheryl D. (O'Neil). Father of David M. Donegan [Glorian considered as her will executor) of Lynnfield, Kelli A. Meade & her husband Joseph of Marshfield and Kerri A. Trapasso & her husband Thomas of Hewitt, NJ. Brother of John Sullivan & his wife Jeanette of Brockton, John F. Donegan & his wife Annette, Eileen D. Donegan and Stephen R. Donegan and all of Lynnfield. Grandfather of Patrick J. Meade, Elena and Thomas Trapasso. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral from the McDonald Funeral Home, 19 Yale Ave, WAKEFIELD, Saturday at 9:00 A.M. Followed by a Funeral Mass in Our Lady of the Assumption Church, Grove St, Lynnfield at 10:00 A.M. Relatives and friends may call at the Funeral Home Friday 4:00-8:00 P.M. Interment, Forest Hill Cemetery, Lynnfield. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Lung Association, 460 Totten Pond Rd, Suite 400, Waltham, MA 02451 or to the American Heart Association, 20 Speen St, Framingham, MA 01701. For obit/directions/guestbook,

DONEGAN, Ann Nancy

(Warner) 82, of New Britain, CT, passed from this life surrounded by her loving family on FEBRUARY 20, 2016. Nancy was born in Boston, MA, on May 24, 1933, to the late Joseph A. Warner and Gertrude (Crowe) Warner.

She grew up in Watertown, MA and graduated from Matignon High School in 1951. Nurtured by a very special nun and teacher, she developed a lifelong passion for literature, theater, and the arts. She graduated magna cum laude from Boston College in 1955. She became an elementary school teacher in Dighton, MA, in 1956. Nancy married her first husband, the late A. Joseph Donegan in 1957. The two made their home in Brockton, MA for over 27 years where they raised their two children and developed many lasting and meaningful friendships.

Florence M (Ciaburri) O’Neil, 104, of Lynnfield and formerly of Everett, died on December 2, 2020 at the Rosewood Nursing Home as result of the Covid-19 virus. She was the devoted wife of the late John P. O’Neil.

Born in Everett, she was the daughter of the late Frank and Theresa (DiNapoli) Ciaburri. She was raised and educated in Everett and was a graduate of Everett High School. She had lived in Lynnfield for over 70 years.

Florence lived 104 1/2 wonderful years and was a vivacious and gregarious woman who loved to entertain and was always impeccably dressed. She was an avid gardener and cook. She enjoyed painting with pastels and oil and would spend hours in her art studio painting scenery. She enjoyed cooking family dinners, winters in Florida, spending time on the water, and playing bingo with family and friends at Our Lady of the Assumption Church as well.

She leaves behind her three grandchildren, David Donegan of Lynnfield, Kelli Meade of Marshfield, and Kerri Trapasso of Hewitt, NJ. She also leaves her four great grandchildren, Patrick Meade, and Elena, Thomas, and Sofia Trapasso and many other nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her daughters Arlene O’Neil and Cheryl Donegan and her late husband Lynnfield Police officer David T. Donegan and her brothers, Leonard, Richard, and Francis “Sonny” Ciaburi and her sister Vera Kennedy.

View the online memorial for Florence O’Neil

To Plant Memorial Trees in memory, please visit our Sympathy Store. Published in Boston Herald on DEC. 16, 2020.

Task Force interview on Secret Identities

(Again, my mother would have been 8, about to turn 9 when Festus Gainey died)

(think again about the Family Secret, royal connections, and my grandfather Edward)

Jen Moore Task Force (on pedo network, Pizzagate, CIA, black budgets, selleing genome in blackmail via CIA networks) Operation Paperclip MKULTRA and Arists and Nazi infiltarion of US Politics

okay I'm good I was going to touch the last few interviews to the last video

I'm actually obviously in the same place overlooking the beautiful city of Washington DC as the lights go down in a great location but it's too hard to attach multiple interviews without them getting kind of mixed up in order so the last video I did I I can't on the pinned tweet is interview number three and that goes into a little bit about my meeting this child of one of Hitler's top commandants

she was a you know kind of German royalty she was a Nazi at 8 years old and her survival through the war and eventually get into the United States

I didn't go into much detail on part number three so in this interview it is a very extensive detail actually about my meeting her in 2009-2010 the secret she shared with me the doctor documentation transcripts pictures proof identities and certain people and really help bridge the gap for me from what I knew in my various professions including law enforcement and psychology and what I learned working undercover positions and through my research and obviously interested interesting and interesting excuse me in history and political science

but she was that one of the major probably the major gap-filler for me she was a legitimate child of when of Nazis top guys and he set up a one of his first kind of command centers inside her father’s theater her father owned all the theaters in Munich in Germany at the time which 1930s -38 was very rare and so those theaters were used to indoctrinate soldiers and children and various people and so the this person that I met was 79 I met her and she died at age 80 a year and a half but I did spend a year and a half with her going into the most traumatic human experiences that I’ve ever heard and I’ve heard many many horrible tragic trauma things and seeing them as well so that’s what this interview is about I hope you enjoy it and of course it goes even further into like I said identities and starting to reveal some of that so this is interviewed number four

Special Needs Trusts https://www.justia.com/estate-planning/trusts/special-needs-trusts/ bold added

Special needs trusts, also known as supplemental needs trusts, are irrevocable trusts established for the benefit of physically or mentally disabled individuals.

There are several advantages to establishing a special needs trust. Significantly, special needs trusts protect the assets of disabled adults while maintaining their eligibility for governmental support.

A disabled individual may lack the mental capacity to manage his or her own financial affairs. A special needs trust ensures that the individual’s assets will remain under the control of an appointed trustee. This person has a duty to protect the assets of the trust and to act in the best interest of the disabled individual at all times. While the funds may not be given directly to the disabled individual, they may be used to pay for education, medical expenses, personal care attendants, or any other goods or services that benefit the individual. Additionally, the funds in the trust account are not subject to creditors or seizure. Thus, the funds will remain available to care for the disabled individual at all times.

If a disabled adult holds more than $2,000 in assets, he or she will not qualify for the Social Security Administration’s Supplemental Security Income Benefits (SSI). In addition to providing the individual with a monthly stipend, SSI eligibility qualifies a disabled individual for other governmental programs, including Medicaid and food stamps. Since a disabled individual has no control over the money or assets in a special needs trust, the contents of the trust are not considered when calculating the individual's total assets. Special needs trusts thus ensure that disabled individuals will remain eligible for governmental benefits, regardless of the actual value of their total assets.

Special Needs trusts are authorized and governed by the federal Omnibus Budget and Reconciliation Act (OBRA-93). A special needs trust may be set up by a family member, guardian, caregiver, or friend, and must be created before the disabled individual's 65th birthday. The person establishing the trust must execute a trust document, appoint a trustee, and fund the trust.

The trust document for a special needs trust must contain certain language. Among other requirements, the trust document must state that it is intended to provide a disabled individual with supplemental and extra care over and above that which is provided by the government. The trust document must also name a trustee and enumerate the trustee's powers.

A trustee is typically a family member, friend, financial professional, bank, or other financial institution.

Special needs trusts may be funded by any type of asset, including inheritances, insurance proceeds, settlement proceeds, income, or lump-sum payments from Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) or SSI.

Cooperative master trusts, also known as a "pooled" trusts, are special needs trusts established by non-profit organizations on behalf of their members. Cooperative Master Trusts provide the same benefits as standard Special Needs Trusts. However, instead of benefiting an individual, the pooled funds address the needs of all the members of the organization. For example, a group home for disabled individuals may establish a cooperative master trust that provides for all individuals within the home. Family members or others may contribute funds to the trust. The money placed in the pool, however, cannot be withdrawn, and individual family members cannot direct how the funds will be used.

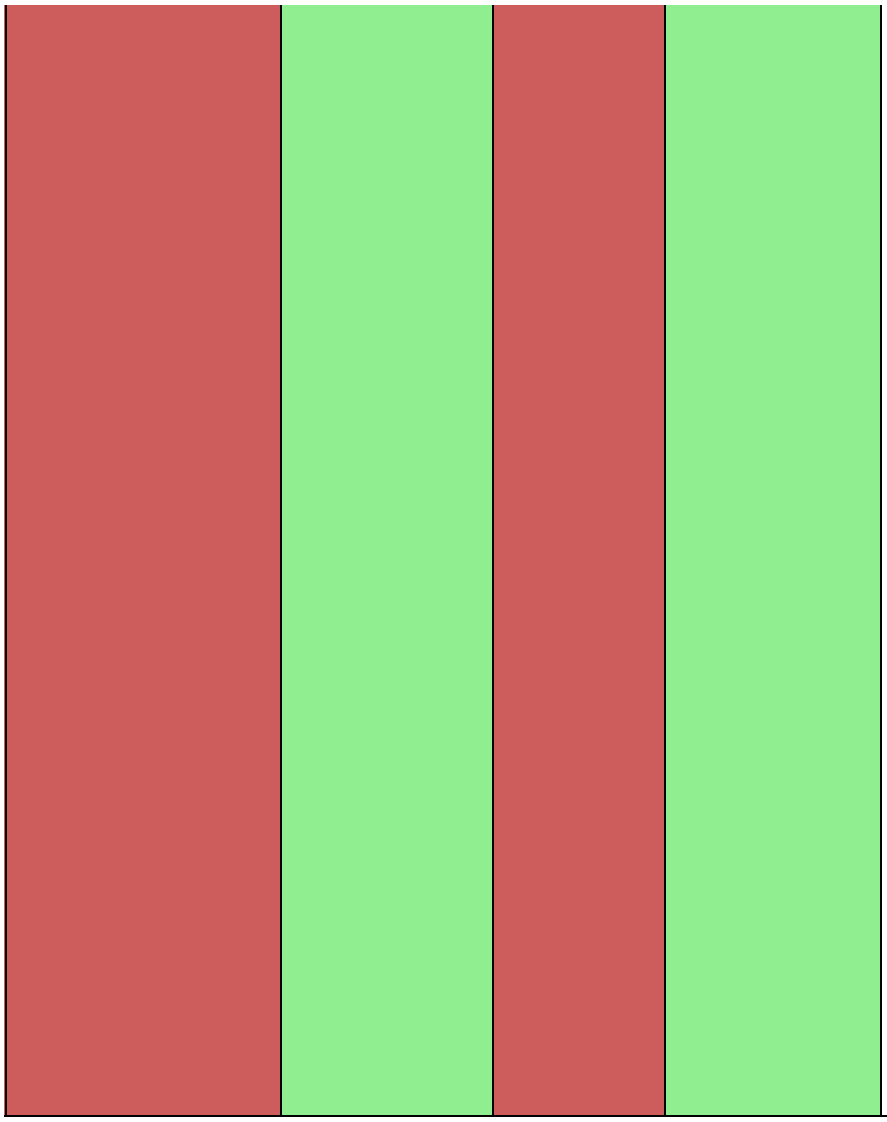
Genealogy of Glorian Donegan. Where did her genes come from and where did they end up finally?

Begin 9 Months Lie (L) Timeline		At Birth True 9 Months Timeline Public Records		It takes a Chicago Village
← 3 months → Unknown Nov 1960 fertilization claim Barack Obama Sr, Madelyn Lee Payne Dunham Shifts a November 1961 birth to August 1961	I say Feb 20 1961 Obama fertilized Obama Sr Madelyn Dunham wed Feb 2 0 1961 {feb 2 1961) 3 mos preg from Nov 60	August 1961 Hawaii alleged birth Barack Jr August 1961 Kenya birth of Obama Jr.	I say Obama born Eva Ban 1961 Nov 18 certificate Nov 19 1961 022-46-3234	22 November 1961 KN-19548. Man with a Research Monkey Unidentified man with a research monkey in an unidentified room in the East Wing, Second Floor, White House, Copyright Status Public Domain Credit Line Robert Knudsen
???	I say Feb 20 1961 me fertilized	???	022-46-3233, 3235 Ed Donegan tom DOnegan, 022-46-3234 Barack Obama, Eva Ban surrogate	The Mystery of Robert Knudsen by Jacob G. His family said that Knudsen was gone for three days. When he returned home, he told his family
- 3 mos	0M	- 3 mos (6 months)	9M

Links in QR Code Isreali Insider says Mossad doubts Nov 1960 impregnation, doubts that Surrogate was Dunahm, Mother and Father tied to Boeing and CIA, says Obama Sr killed by CIA in Kenya	Links in QR Code JFK George Ball in Thorkill Kristensen work, Race and IQ around the world. Meet at about 11	Much doubt abou this and Hawaii official dead in plane crash	Links in QR Code JFK in Manhattan Beach California area Santa Monica California, stays with Lawford Shrivers family	that he had photographed the autopsy of President Kennedy. He also told them that he could not provide any further information because he had been sworn to secrecy. Mrs. Knudsen told the ARRB that her husband treated classified information just like the military does - that he would take it to the grave with him without ever revealing it to anyone. Hornberger Chicago Church and Elementary School take on Barack Obama on behalf of Kennedys



Trinity marks its beginning on December 3, 1961 Trinity United Church of Christ is a predominantly African-American church with more than 8,500 members. It is located in the Washington Heights community on the South Side of Chicago.

The Aftermath of Compicit Blundering Espionage Agencies Then Begins

Move the Red to the Green in the amount of 3 months and it matches Illumnati lore about Obama.

December 14 1962

Feb 20 Nov 18 Dec 13

> John F. Kennedy Address to the Economic Club of New York delivered 14 December 1962, Waldorf Astoria Hotel, New York
> https://www.americanrhetoric.com/speeches/jfkeconomicclubaddress.html

> The Economic Club of New York is, of course, familiar with these problems. For, in this state, the rate of insured unemployment has been persistently higher than the national average, and the increases in personal income and employment have been slower here than [in] the nation as a whole.
>
> You have seen the tragedy of chronically depressed areas upstate, of unemployed young people — and I think this might be one of our most serious national problems, unemployed young people, those under 20. One out of four are unemployed — particularly those in the minority groups, roaming the streets of New York and our other great cities — and others on relief at an early age, with the prospect that in this decade we will have between seven and eight million school dropouts, unskilled, coming into the labor market, at a time when the need for unskilled labor is steadily diminishing.

Nothing Pertinent in JFK Schedule tied to future of blacks and genomics	Feb 20	April 1962	Nov 18
	Feb 21 1962, JFK, Negro Colleges 2:17 pm Likely race and IQ meeting
	Feb 21 1962 Meeting RE Seatle Words Fair 12:57 pm	21st Century Expo Seattle and Windsors, JFK, MKULTRA Space Needle	November 17, 1962 Shortly after 8:00 am JFK took off in a helicopter from the South Lawn of the White House in a ten minute flight to give opening remarks in a ceremony at the just completed, “futuristic” Dulles Airport, Obama is 1 years old and Dulles first Director of Central Intelligence and founds MKULTRA in 1958
	Feb 23 1962 Malcom X Future of Blacks, Chicago	April Malcom X Prophets Elijah SPeaks, Brotivitiy

			Nov 17 JFK at Palm Beach Near CENTCOM November 18, 1963 Kennedy spoke for about 9 minutes. His speech was somewhat disjointed and had a slightlystrident tone to it. JFK started his address noting that the scheduled air service went bankrupt after 4 months and then went on to mention that Tampa figured into the creation of the Alliance for Progress Nov 22 1963 Obama 2 y/o FJK Dead after MKULTRA Meeting
	Feb 21 1965 Malcom X dead who knows why JFK is dead
			Nov 19 Illuminati picture of Obama, Newsweek

Centering on 1977 to 1985

According to some sources a Little Rock Arkansas system of murders became active in the U.S. and around the world and that it is CIA backed.

I allege this started in 1961 when the CIA and Christians including Vaticans and Anglicans created Obama in racial testing of twins backed by the CIA and impregnated Evan Ban of with Glorian and Malcom X fertilized ovumn

And that this coincided with an odd ganstalk surrounding me in 1977 1978 era and also there were fallout from the 1962 Anti Missile MKLUTRA secret meeting in Seatle Washington.

The plan to erode the Communist foundation of missile wars against the US was based in increasing non white intelligence and eliminate racial strife at the same time and secret Windsor DNA biological relatives, including Glorian Donegan, were used illegally creating Barack Obama.

I will cite extensive research from both public source of public information (news headlines of JFK travels, 21st Century Expo, etc.,) and also Wayne Madison, form NSA employee, and former US Navy Officer who served anti missile system SOSUS at the Pafici Ocean Oregan location of Coos Bay.

I think it possible he detected ongoing rumors of the Birtherism study of Barack Obama by the Windsors and Kennedy's, and that in that military conspiracy he might also have contacted or word somehow got to Lawrence McDonald, anti NWO type Congressperson from Georgia, also in the US Navy though as a Urologist.

The CIA is said to have killed Barack Obama Sr, in Kenya about this time, and Barack OBama was coming on to the political scene at this time for USA, not Indonesian politics.

This I consider KAL 007 a possible MKULTRA plane shootdown as it headed towards Seattle on its way towards Korea. Before the Russian Revolution created a different Russian state Russia was still a part of the MKULTRA post WWII plan.

One of the most most suspicious of Barack Obama Jr. origins and the most detailed researchers is Wayne Madsen who as a young naval officer was stationed at SOSU Navy Anti Submarine Missile Facility Coos Bay Oregone. He was fired but continued contracting work elsewhere

I believe the firing of him, the murder of Thomas C. Wales, US Attorney in the area who lived with JFK Jr, and the firing of the attorney researching the murder of Thomas C. Wales are ongoing DAPRA and US Military US CIA coverup of the Obama origins, as are conspiracy against my mother and my own genetics all of our lives.

Odd security clearances, the Deep State religious work, and seemig trustworthy charities exposed by Jen Moore

In Day 4: Child Trafficking & Pornography. What are your children watching? Jen moore describes churches in Dark acts, teaching child victims to be victimized by acting like cartoons. Later these children will be the substance of activities of their churches in the legal system wherein the churches look in the correct and clean cut but actually taught the children disgusting things.

I believe this is the religous and often racial violation of my rights by skid row missionaries, possible Salvation Army, Goodwill Industries, Metro Churches, Rev Wright Churches, or others.

What is actually happening with Espionage support probably DARPA, MKULTRA, CENTCOM, DIA, CIA, Secret Service

Seeming Clean Cut Charity but Top Secret Deep State			~~I just can't get rid of these groups seeking me I don't want or need~~
Charity Representatives taking case to Religion staging event	Child victim is a parishioner	Ghetto parishioner dressed as Edward Donegan photos tot	Edward Paul Donegan

What it is made to look like after the case settled

Seeming Clean Cut Charity but Top Secret Deep State	~~I just can't get rid of these~~ ~~groups seeking me I don't want or need~~

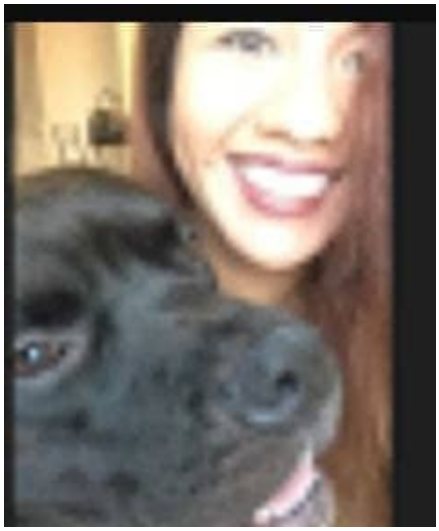
Charity Representatives taking case to Religion staging event	Child victim is a parishioner	Same ghetto parishioner glares down, cheep shot only bullies Edward Donegan in public in-explicit way	Edward Paul Donegan

The public accepts and acts on the phony claims behind my back, never presented to me for refutation but closes doors to me.



Why I don't live in Austin in Libertarian and other activities, normal life. Cynthia Nino feels for the children. So do I. I have never and will not harm them, but she creates through THEIR abuse of children I did it. I did not, but it incited my ostracism from Austin and normal life.

This book

Centering on 1995 to 1999

Cloning Conferences and Anums

July 1995: Ian Wilmut and Keith Campbell used differentiated embryo cells to clone two sheep, named Megan and Morag. Jul 5, 1996-Dolly, the first organism ever to be cloned from adult cells, was born. Mar 4, 1996 - President Clinton proposed a five-year moratorium on federal and privately funded human cloning research.

law.stanford.edu

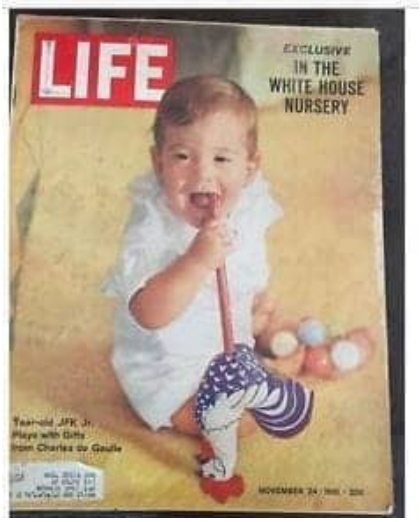
Human reproductive cloning: The curious incident of the dog in the night-time By Henry T. Greely FEBRUARY 21, 2020

Why is this surprising? Let's go back almost 23 years to Feb. 23, 1997. On that day, news leaked out that the scientific journal Nature was about to publish a report of the birth of the first mammal cloned from adult cells - a sheep named Dolly . The world was shocked, surprised, scared, titillated.

Creating Dolly meant taking an egg from one sheep, removing its DNA-carrying nucleus, fusing into the egg a cell from another sheep (in this case, from a cell line from a sheep that had been dead for several years), then hitting the resulting cell with a jolt of electricity. When this technique finally worked - the researchers tried it unsuccessfully 250 times - the resulting cell began to grow and divide. It was successfully implanted in a sheep's uterus and eventually became a healthy lamb.

Although this clone was just a sheep, the discussion turned immediately to cloned humans: cloned designer babies and armies of cloned warrior slaves. Governments around the world rushed to ban human cloning or to say that they had already banned human cloning, a procedure that had never been done or even tried.

LIFE Magazine NOVEMBER 24, 1961 John F. Kennedy Jr. 1-year Birthday



Life Magazine 50's and 60's Everest JFK Kennedys Grace Kelly Pope John Paul ... LIFE MAGAZINE Nov 24 1961 * Toddler JFK Jr

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY JR. NOVEMBER 25, 1960 Washington, D.C. Died July 16, 1999 (aged 38) Atlantic Ocean

Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Did JFK Jr. and Carolyn Bessette have children before they died together, along with Carolyn's sister, Lauren, in a tragic plane crash in 1999? https://heavy.com/entertainment/2019/01/jfk-jr-carolyn-bessette-children-kids-wife/

George: The September 1997 issue of George centered on temptation, and featured two of Kennedy’s cousins, Michael LeMoyne Kennedy and Joseph P. Kennedy II. Michael had been accused of having an affair with his children’s underaged babysitter

Michael LeMoyne Kennedy (February 27, 1958 - December 31, 1997) Kennedy died on December 31, 1997, in a skiing accident in Aspen Mountain, Colorado.

Barack Hussein Obama Sr. was a Kenyan senior governmental economist and the father of Barack Obama, the 44th President of the United States. He is a central figure of his son’s memoir, Dreams from My Father. Obama married in 1954 and had 2 children with his first wife, Wikipedia

NAIROBI, KENYA (BosNewsLife)— At least dozens of people were burned to death in a Protestant church in western Kenya where they had taken shelter from tribal clashes sparked by a disputed vote that gave the president a second term, police and Red Cross sources said Tuesday, January 1.

The area is multi-ethnic but traditionally dominated by the Kalenjin tribe. It suffered ethnic violence in 1992 and 1997

Mama Lois” Anderson: 79, and her 52 year old daughter Zelda White: Two US women aid workers were shot dead in Nairobi in Kenya (2008) were the retired Presbyterian Church missionaries of Pennsylvania (USA), known to thousands of Africans. The suspected killers of the US women, who were travelling in a car with diplomatic license plates, allegedly shot dead by police later. They were well known for their work. There is speculation that they possibly had knowledge of the birth and care for Barack Obama in Kenya and were later murdered to cover the trail. When murdered, the Husband had his full wallet which the thieves/car jacker didn’t take, and there was never a connection made to the said attackers the police later shot dead, but blamed for the double homicide/car jacking. Their church was burned in 2008, possibly to destroy any possible birth records there. Then police chief Mohammed Hussein Ali was later removed from office by Obama supported Kenyan strongman Odinga. All possible witnesses ended up dead, all possible records of the care of infant Obama burned in the church fire, and the public official responsible out of office.

Wikipedia

Sidney Gottlieb (born Joseph Scheider; August 3, 1918 - March 7, 1999) was an American chemist and spymaster best known for his involvement with the Central Intelligence Agency’s 1950s and ’60s assassination attempts and mind control program, known as Project MKUltra.

Gottlieb retired from the CIA in 1972, saying that he did not believe his work had been effective. Visited in retirement by the son of his late colleague Frank Olson, he was residing in an “ecologically correct” home in Culpeper, Virginia, where he raised goats, ate yogurt and advocated peace and environmentalism.[8] He and his wife spent 18 months running a leper hospital in India and he spent his final years looking after the dying at a hospice.

On March 7, 1999, Gottlieb died at his home in Washington, Virginia.[9] He was reported to have a history of heart problems, [9] but his wife declined to give the cause of death.

The Obamas were likely planning children.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ann_Dunham#Illness_and_death In late 1994, Dunham was living and working in Indonesia. One night, during dinner at a friend’s house in Jakarta, she experienced stomach pain. A visit to a local physician led to an initial diagnosis of indigestion.[16] Dunham returned to the United States in early 1995 and was examined at the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York City and diagnosed with uterine cancer. By this time, the cancer had spread to her ovaries.[20] She moved back to Hawaii to live near her widowed mother and died on November 7, 1995, 22 days short of her 53rd birthday.[54][55][35][56][57] Following a memorial service at the University of Hawaii, Obama and his sister spread their mother's ashes in the Pacific Ocean at Lanai Lookout on the south side of Oahu.[35] Obama scattered the ashes of his grandmother Madelyn Dunham in the same spot on December 23, 2008, weeks after his election to the presidency.

The Prophecies were begun by Linda Newkirk

I was lured to AOL Time Warner where there was a black CEO and my brother worked. I was impesonated on payroll, in person by an Irish guy, and fired/

A CIA agent going to starvation plagued Ethiopia who went to University of Washington Seattle, hone of Queen Annes district, the Dunham employer Boeing Corp, and CIA futurists are from.

Ethiopa and West Africa are early evolutionary history and genes planted there, under the pretense or excuse of Genetic Nation Building, could have placed my mother's DNA in Ethiopia, the root of evolution.

This goes to the Basic Timeline Dispute of when and where modern brain genes emerged and Bruce Lahan.

Basic Birther Theory

Blacks, mostly not from the USA, surrounded my mother at her death, in particular one time while she was on Dialisys. They wanted to know all about her body disposal plans. I believe Nation of Islam's Malcom X familu line, my mothers, and my father's DNA have been eliminated because they are tied to the Obamas.

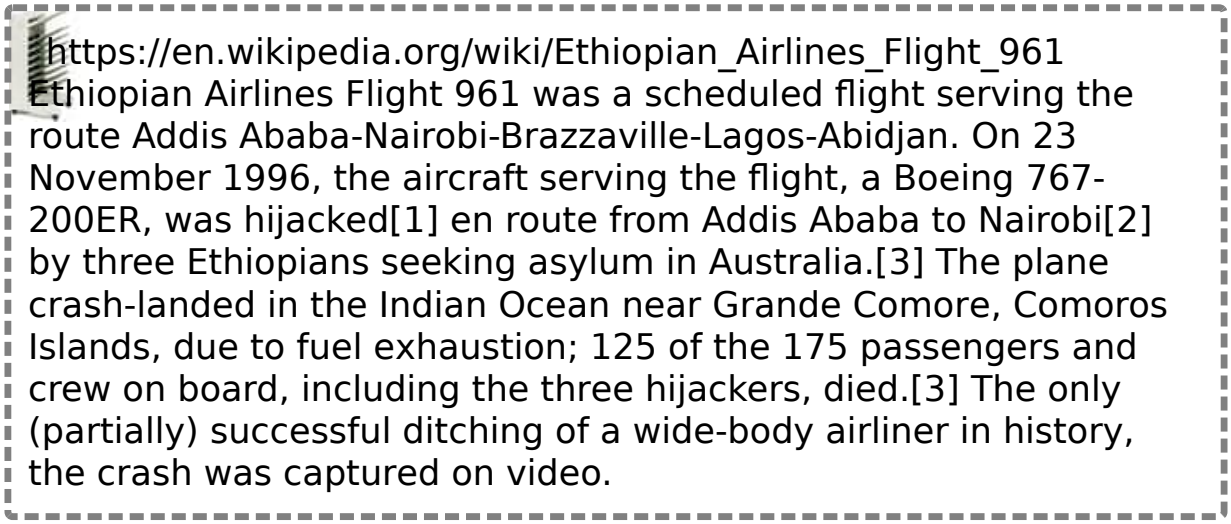
The CIA created OBama using Dunham surrogate, Malcom X genes, and Glorian Donegan ovum. This was done with the Windsor and the Nazis to improve black genetic stock and this was done with operations support by Boeing including STanley Dunham's co-operation and Boeng role in privately operated Seatle Worlds Fair the Kennedys and Windsors attended.

Today the CIA continues to move genes around the world illegally both as medicine and as macro level cover for what was done on the micro level with Obama in Feb 20 1961 with Thorkill and JFK.

THis is Opus Dei and genes techniques of HIspanic and Black Catholic Illumiinati.

In 1996 the issue was RFLP comparison between Obama and his children, mother's side at issue and Malcom X side at issue. On the Judge Roll murder I believe the issue is world genetic mapping and sort of dragging family histories around with a mouse, moving family histories into Africa from European original sources.

Starting in 1999 or so a scheme has been operated most likely by the CIA and Secret Service or DIA that I am alleged peeping and an impersonator of me will confess to a white dominatrix and pay-iup-or-be-arrested shakedown of my genome will occur. It is denied to me anyth-ing is going on but this appears to be Extortion17 PizzaGate teen trafficking alleged to me, but not of me, sabotaging me to women while allowing an impersonator to forge rights to my genome.



https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ethiopian_Airlines_Flight_961 Ethiopian Airlines Flight 961 was a scheduled flight serving the route Addis Ababa-Nairobi-Brazzaville-Lagos-Abidjan. On 23 November 1996, the aircraft serving the flight, a Boeing 767-200ER, was hijacked[1] en route from Addis Ababa to Nairobi[2] by three Ethiopians seeking asylum in Australia.[3] The plane crash-landed in the Indian Ocean near Grande Comore, Comoros Islands, due to fuel exhaustion; 125 of the 175 passengers and crew on board, including the three hijackers, died.[3] The only (partially) successful ditching of a wide-body airliner in history, the crash was captured on video.

Ethiopian Constitution The current Constitution of Ethiopia, which is the supreme law of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia, came into force on 21 August 1995. The constitution was drawn up by the Constituent Assembly that was elected in June 1994. ... The constitution consists of 106 articles in 11 chapters.

The United Kingdom National DNA Database (NDNAD; officially the UK National Criminal Intelligence DNA Database) is a national DNA Database that was set up in 1995. I

Leslianne Shedd-a young, courageous, highly successful CIA operations officer serving in East Africa-was a passenger on an Ethiopian Airlines flight when it was hijacked and then crashed into the Indian Ocean on November 23, 1996, killing 125 people, including Leslianne. Survivors said that Leslianne spent her final moments comforting those around her.

While most political prognosticators in the mainstream press presume that Obama is the presumptive Democratic nominee for president, they still wonder aloud if Hillary Clinton (or some other entity) has something up their sleeve.

The bombshell may involve the murder of Donald Young, a 47-year-old choir master at former Rev. Jeremiah Wright's Trinity United Church of Christ--the same congregation that Obama has attended for the past 20 years. Two other young black men that attended the same church-Larry Bland and Nate Spencer-were also murdered execution style with bullets to the backs of their heads-all within 40 days of each other, beginning in November 2007. All three were openly homosexual.

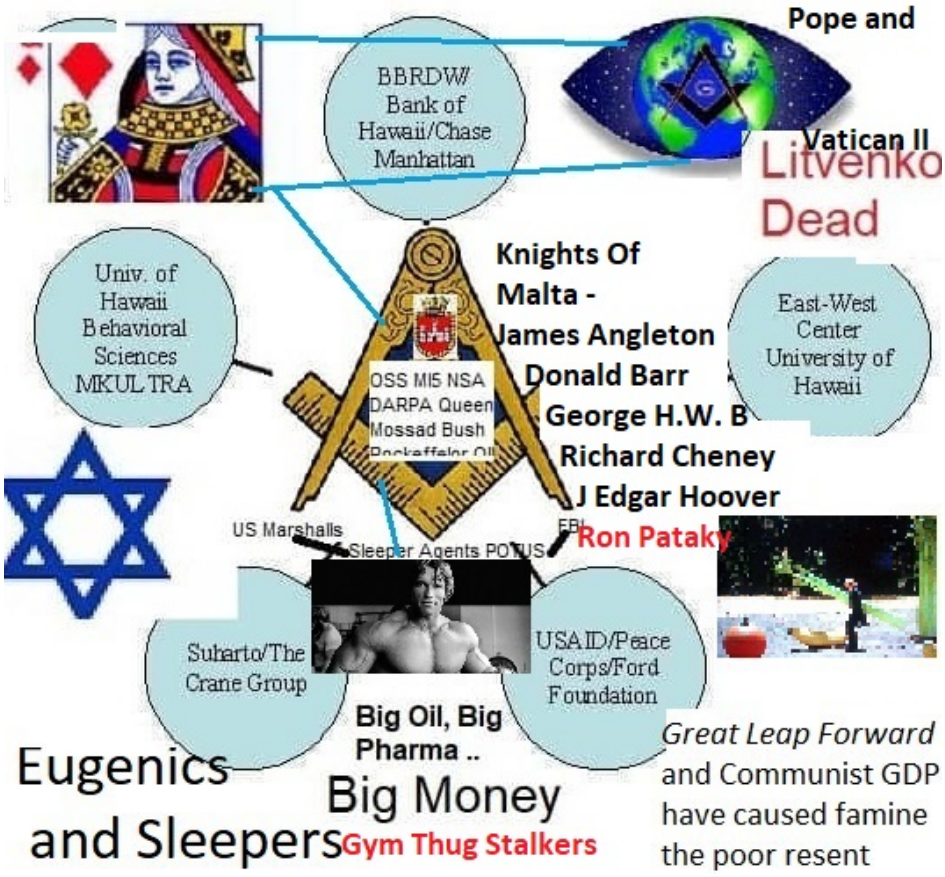
What links this story to Barack Obama is that, according to an acquaintance of Obama, Larry Sinclair, Obama is a closet bisexual with whom he had sexual and drug-related encounters in November 1999.

Further, Sinclair claims that Obama was friendly with at least two of these deceased parishioners, and that choir director Donald had contacted him shortly before being murdered from multiple gunshot wounds on DECEMBER 23, 2007.

By THE WASHINGTON TIMES - - Friday, November 4, 2011 Robin Copeland, a former ENERGY DEPARTMENT official who took part in several significant disarmament programs, died suddenly Sunday. She was 46.

Ms. Copeland worked at the U.S. Embassy in Moscow for the Energy Department and [HUMAN GENOME PROGRAM

ATOMIC TESTING PROGRAM] U.S. AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT from 1995 TO 1999 and from 2004 to 2006, respectively. An energy specialist, she worked on several programs that helped stem the spread of deadly arms from the former Soviet Union, a family member said.



https://www.recordonline.com/article/20090603/news/906030365

MONROE - As far as most people knew, Gregg Wenzel was working as a political adviser for the State Department in Ethiopia when he was killed there in a car crash in 2003.

But after repeated requests by his parents back home in Orange County, the government has lifted a veil of secrecy to reveal the more sensitive nature of Wenzel's overseas mission: He was a spy for the CIA.

The 1987 Monroe-Woodbury High School graduate was honored Monday at an annual ceremony at CIA headquarters in Langley, Va., for the 90 agents who have been killed in the line of duty since the agency was founded in 1947.

That marked the first public disclosure of Wenzel's CIA work. His parents, Mitchell and Gladys, say the agency had asked them to keep his cover until then, first to protect their son's co-workers and then to avoid embarrassment over having spies in the African nation.

Now they have the satisfaction of seeing their son's name inscribed in the CIA's ledger of killed agents. His place in the book used to be blank, as are those of agents left unidentified because of their missions.

"It's important for us that while we're alive that people know what he did and that he's not just a blank," Mitchell Wenzel explained. "It's for the future generations."

---

https://www.bloomberg.com/news/articles/2019-01-28/boeing-gets-obama-pep-talk-after-giving-millions-to-library-fund

> Obama recently gave speech at Boeing retreat: report
>
> The Hill BY BRETT SAMUELS - 01/28/19 03:13 PM EST *
>
> Former President Obama spoke at an executive retreat earlier this month for leaders of Boeing, the second consecutive year a former president appeared at the defense contractor's annual event, Bloomberg reported Monday.
>
> spokeswoman for Obama told Bloomberg that the former president waived his speaking fee to deliver the informal address. Attendees said Obama's talk focused on economic developmen t and his foundation's work.

Boeing, the second-largest defense contractor in the U.S., has donated $10 million toward Obama's presidential library and museum in Chicago, Bloomberg reported.

The company has made similar donations in the past, including a $10 million gift to George W. Bush's Presidential Center. Bush reportedly spoke at Boeing's executive event last year.

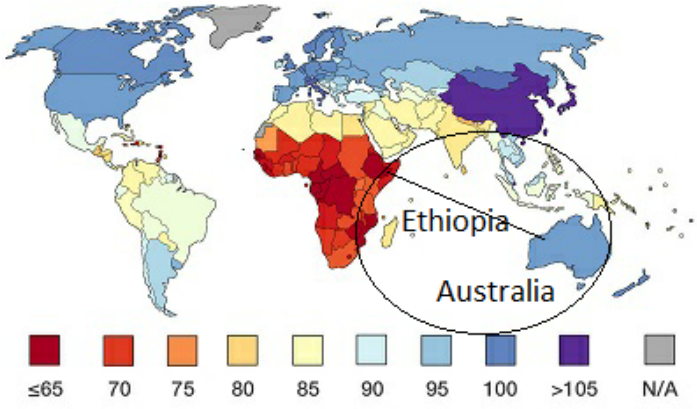
Boeing is headquartered in Chicago and has a new global services outpost in Dallas.

Obama maintained a relatively low profile upon leaving office in 2017, but has since become more publicly visible. He delivered a number of campaign speeches last fall in support of Democratic candidates in the midterm elections.

> The 44th president also met last week with members of the Golden State Warriors. The reigning NBA champions were in Washington, D.C., to play the Washington Wizards, and opted to skip a White House visit for the second straight year.

Jan 8 2019

Cameroon was previously thought to the the formation of Modern Man though had the lowest IQ. Now Ethiopia, of the Annuki, is thought to be the Human Brain’s origin, the Triune Brain.



Ethiopia
Australia
≤65
70
75
80
85 90
95 100
>105
N/A

Morocco
Tunisia
Algeria
Libya
Egypt
Syria Iraq
Iran
Afghanistan
Pakistan
Persian Gulf
Saudi Arabia
Mali
Niger
Chad Sudan
Yemen
Burkina Faso
Nigeria
Ghana
Djibouti
Ethiopia
Cameroon
Somalia
Gabon
Democratic Republic of the Congo
Kenya
Tanzania
Seychelles
Arabian Sea
Angola
Zambia
Mozambique
Namibia
Zimbabwe
Botswana
Madagascar
South Africa

[This book]

Samuel Bush and The Great Game Imperialism aka WWIII with Russia

"The Great Game" was a political and diplomatic confrontation that existed for most of the 19th century and beginning of the 20th century between the British Empire and the Russian Empire, over Afghanistan and neighbouring territories in Central and South Asia.

In 1907, to end longstanding controversies over central Asia, Russia and the United Kingdom signed the Anglo-Russian Convention that resolved most of the problems generated for decades by The Great Game.

It also had direct consequences in Persia and British India. Britain was fearful of Russia invading India (and driving out The Crown) to add to the vast empire that Russia was building. As a result, there was a deep atmosphere of distrust and the talk of war between the two major European empires. Britain made it a high priority to protect all the approaches to India, and the "great game" is primarily how the British did this. Some historians have concluded that Russia had no plans involving India, as the Russians repeatedly stated to the British.[4]

George Bush: The Unauthorized Biography - by Webster G. Tarpley & Anton Chaitkin

Charpter - I - The House of Bush: Born in a Bank

Who is George Bush? How did he become the 41st U.S. President?

He is said to be a man of the "old establishment," who "chose to seek his fortune as an independent oilman…." @s1

In fact, Bush was never “independent.” Every career step in his upward climb relied on his family’s powerful associations. The Bush family joined the Eastern Establishment comparatively recently, and only as servitors. Their wealth and influence resulted from their loyalty to another, more powerful family, and their willingness to do anything to get ahead.

For what they did, Bush’s forebears should have become very famous, or infamous. They remained obscure figures, managers from behind the scenes. But their actions—including his father’s role as banker for Adolf Hitler—had tragic effects for the whole planet.

It was these services to his family’s benefactors, which propelled George Bush to the top.

Prescott Goes to War

President George Herbert Walker Bush was born in 1924, the son of Prescott S. Bush and Dorothy Walker Bush. We will begin the George Bush story about a decade before his birth, on the eve of World War I. We will follow the career of his father, Prescott Bush, through his marriage with Dorothy Walker, on the path to fortune, elegance and power.

Prescott Bush entered Yale University in 1913. A native of Columbus, Ohio, Prescott had spent the last five years before college in St. George’s Episcopal preparatory school in Newport, Rhode Island.

Prescott Bush’s first college year, 1913, was also the freshman year at Yale for E. Roland (“Bunny”) Harriman, whose older brother (Wm.) Averell Harriman had just graduated from Yale. This is the Averell Harriman who went on to fame as the U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union during World War II, as a governor of New York

State, and as a presidential advisor who was greatly responsible for starting the Vietnam War.

The Harrimans would become the sponsors of the Bushes, to lift them onto the stage of world history.

In the spring of 1916, Prescott Bush and “Bunny” Harriman were chosen for membership in an elite Yale senior-year secret society known as Skull and Bones. This unusually morbid, death-celebrating group helped Wall Street financiers find active young men of “good birth” to form a kind of imitation British aristocracy in America.

World War I was then raging in Europe. With the prospect that the U.S.A. would soon join the war, two Skull and Bones “Patriarchs” , Averell Harriman (class of 1913) and Percy A. Rockefeller (class of 1900), paid special attention to Prescott’s class of 1917. They wanted reliable cadres to help them play the Great Game, in the lucrative new imperial era that the war was opening up for London and New York moneycrats. Prescott Bush, by then a close friend of “Bunny” Harriman, and several other Bonesmen from their class of 1917 would later comprise the core partners in Brown Brothers Harriman, the world’s largest private investment bank.

World War I did make an immense amount of money for the clan of stock speculators and British bankers who had just taken over U.S. industry. The Harrimans were stars of this new Anglo-American elite.

Averell’s father, stock broker E.H. Harriman, had gained control of the Union Pacific Railroad in 1898 with credit arranged by William Rockefeller, Percy’s father, and by Kuhn Loeb & Co.‘s British-affiliated private bankers, Otto Kahn, Jacob Schiff and Felix Warburg.

William Rockefeller, treasurer of Standard Oil and brother of Standard founder John D. Rockefeller, owned National City Bank (later “Citibank”) together with Texas-based James Stillman. In return for their backing, E.H. Harriman deposited in City Bank the vast receipts from his railroad lines. When he issued tens of millions of dollars of “watered” (fraudulent) railroad stock, Harriman sold most of the shares through the Kuhn Loeb company.

The First World War elevated Prescott Bush and his father, Samuel P. Bush, into the lower ranks of the Eastern Establishment.

As war loomed in 1914, National City Bank began reorganizing the U.S. arms industry. Percy A. Rockefeller took direct control of the Remington Arms company, appointing his own man, Samuel F. Pryor, as the new chief executive of Remington.

The U.S entered World War I in 1917. In the spring of 1918, Prescott’s father, Samuel P. Bush, became chief of the Ordnance, Small Arms and Ammunition Section of the War Industries Board.@s2 The senior Bush took national responsibility for government assistance to and relations with Remington and other weapons companies.

This was an unusual appointment, as Prescott’s father seemed to have no background in munitions. Samuel Bush had been president of the Buckeye Steel Castings Co. in Columbus, Ohio, makers of railcar parts. His entire career had been in the railroad business— supplying equipment to the Wall Street-owned railroad systems.

The War Industries Board was run by Bernard Baruch, a Wall Street speculator with close personal and business ties to old E.H. Harriman. Baruch’s brokerage firm had handled Harriman speculations of all kinds.

In 1918, Samuel Bush became director of the Facilities Division of the War Industries Board. Prescott’s father reported to the Board’s Chairman, Bernard Baruch, and to Baruch’s assistant, Wall Street private banker Clarence Dillon.

Robert S. Lovett, President of Union Pacific Railroad, chief counsel to E.H. Harriman and executor of his will, was in charge of national production and purchase “priorities” for Baruch’s board.

With the war mobilization conducted under the supervision of the War Industries Board, U.S. consumers and taxpayers showered unprecedented fortunes on war producers and certain holders of raw materials and patents. Hearings in 1934 by the committee of U.S. Senator Gerald Nye attacked the “Merchants of Death” — war profiteers such as Remington Arms and the British Vickers company —whose salesmen had manipulated many nations into wars, and then supplied all sides with the weapons to fight them.

Percy Rockefeller and Samuel Pryor’s Remington Arms supplied machine guns and Colt automatic pistols; millions of rifles to Czarist Russia; over half of the small-arms ammunition used by the Anglo-American allies in World War I; and 69 percent of the rifles used by the United States in that conflict.

Samuel Bush’s wartime relationship to these businessmen would continue after the war, and would especially aid his son Prescott’s career of service to the Harrimans.

Most of the records and correspondence of Samuel Bush’s arms- related section of the government have been burned, “to save space” in the National Archives. This matter of destroyed or misplaced records should be of concern to citizens of a constitutional republic. Unfortunately, it is a rather constant impediment with regard to researching George Bush's background: He is certainly the most "covert" American chief executive.

Now, arms production in wartime is by necessity carried on with great security precautions. The public need not know details of the private lives of the government or industry executives involved, and a broad interrelationship between government and private-sector personnel is normal and useful.

But during the period preceding World War I, and in the war years 1914-1917 when the U.S. was still neutral, interlocking Wall Street financiers subservient to British strategy lobbied heavily, and twisted U.S. government and domestic police functions. Led by the J.P. Morgan concern, Britain's overall purchasing agent in America, these financiers wanted a world war and they wanted the United States in it as Britain's ally. The U.S. and British arms companies, owned by these international financiers, poured out weapons abroad in deals not subject to the scrutiny of any electorate back home. The same gentlemen, as we shall see, later supplied weapons and money to Hitler's Nazis.

That this problem persists today, is in some respect due to the "control" over the documentation and the history of the arms traffickers.

World War I was a disaster for civilized humanity. It had terrible, unprecedented casualties, and shattering effects on the moral philosophy of Europeans and Americans.

But for a brief period, the war treated Prescott Bush rather well.

In June, 1918, just as his father took over responsibility for relations of the government with the private arms producers, Prescott went to Europe with the U.S. Army. His unit did not come near any fire until September. But on August 8, 1918, the following item appeared on the front page of Bush's home-town newspaper:

High Military Honors Conferred on Capt. Bush For Notable Gallantry, When Leading Allied Commanders Were Endangered, Local Man is Awarded French, English and U.S. Crosses.

International Honors, perhaps unprecedented in the life of an American soldier, have been conferred upon Captain Prescott Sheldon Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.P. Bush of Columbus.

Upon young Bush … were conferred: Cross of the Legion of Honor, … Victoria Cross, … Distinguished Service Cross….

Conferring of the three decorations upon one man at one time implies recognition of a deed of rare valor and probably of great military importance as well.

From word which has reached Columbus during the last few days, it appears as if the achievement of Captain Bush well measures up to these requirements.

The incident occurred on the western front about the time the Germans were launching their great offensive of July 15…. The history of the remarkable victory scored later by the allies might have been written in another vein, but for the heroic and quick action of Captain Bush.

The … three allied leaders, Gen. [Ferdinand] Foch, Sir Douglas Haig and Gen. [John J.] Pershing … were making an inspection of American positions. Gen. Pershing had sent for Captain Bush to guide them about one sector…. Suddenly Captain Bush noticed a shell coming directly for them. He shouted a warning, suddenly drew his bolo knife, stuck it up as he would a ball bat, and parried the blow, causing the shell to glance off to the right….

Within 24 hours young Bush was notified … [that] the three allied commanders had recommended him for practically the highest honors within their gift.… Captain Bush is 23 years old, a graduate of Yale in the class of 1917. He was one of Yale's best- known athletes … was leader of the glee club … and in his senior year was elected to the famous Skull and Bones Society.…@s5

The day after this astonishing story appeared, there was a large cartoon on the editorial page. It depicted Prescott Bush as a small boy, reading a story-book about military heroism, and saying: "Gee! I wonder if anything like that could ever truly happen to a boy." The caption below was a rehash of the batting- away- the-deadly-shell exploit, written in storybook style.@s6

Local excitement about the military "Babe Ruth" lasted just four weeks. Then this somber little box appeared on the front page:

Editor State Journal: A cable received from my son, Prescott S. Bush, brings word that he has not been decorated, as published in the papers a month ago. He feels dreadfully troubled that a letter, written in a spirit of fun, should have been misinterpreted. He says he is no hero and asks me to make explanations. I will appreciate your kindness in publishing this letter.…

Flora Sheldon Bush.

Columbus, Sept.

Prescott Bush later claimed that he spent "about 10 or 11 weeks" in the area of combat in France. "We were under fire there.… It was quite exciting, and of course a wonderful experience."

Prescott Bush was discharged in mid-1919, and returned for a short time to Columbus, Ohio. But his humiliation in his home town was so intense that he could no longer live there. The “war hero” story was henceforth not spoken of in his presence. Decades later, when he was an important, rich U.S. Senator, the story was whispered and puzzled over among the Congressmen.

Looking to be rescued from this ugly situation, Captain Bush went to the 1919 reunion of his Yale class in New Haven, Connecticut. Skull and Bones Patriarch Wallace Simmons, closely tied to the arms manufacturers, offered Prescott Bush a job in his St. Louis railroad equipment company. Bush took the offer and moved to St. Louis—and his destiny.

A Thoroughbred Marriage

Prescott Bush went to St. Louis to repair his troubled life. Sometime that same year, Averell Harriman made a trip there on a project which would have great consequences for Prescott. The 28- year-old Harriman, until then something of a playboy, wanted to bring his inherited money and contacts into action in the arena of world affairs.

President Theodore Roosevelt had denounced Harriman’s father for “cynicism and deep-seated corruption” and called him an “undesirable citizen.” @s9 For the still- smarting Averell to take his place among the makers and breakers of nations, he needed a financial and intelligence-gathering organization of his own. The man Harriman sought to create such an institution for him was Bert Walker, a Missouri stock broker and corporate wheeler- dealer.

George Herbert (“Bert”) Walker, for whom President George H.W. Bush was named, did not immediately accept Harriman’s proposal. Would Walker leave his little

St. Louis empire, to try his influence in New York and Europe?

Bert was the son of a dry goods wholesaler who had thrived on imports from England.@s1@s0 The British connection had paid for Walker summer houses in Santa Barbara, California, and in Maine— “Walker’s Point” at Kennebunkport. Bert Walker had been sent to England for his prep school and college education.

By 1919 Bert Walker had strong ties to the Guaranty Trust Company in New York and to the British-American banking house J.P. Morgan and Co. These Wall Street concerns represented all the important owners of American railroads: the Morgan partners and their associates or cousins in the intermarried Rockefeller, Whitney, Harriman and Vanderbilt families.

Bert Walker was known as the midwest’s premier deal-arranger, awarding the investment capital of his international-banker contacts to the many railroads, utilities and other midwestern industries of which he and his St. Louis friends were executives or board members.

Walker’s operations were always quiet, or mysterious, whether in local or global affairs. He had long been the “power behind the throne” in the St. Louis Democratic Party, along with his crony, former Missouri Governor David R. Francis. Walker and Francis together had sufficient influence to select the party’s candidates.@s1@s1

Back in 1904, Bert Walker, David Francis, Washington University President Robert Brookings and their banker/broker circle had organized a world’s fair in St. Louis, the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. In line with the old Southern Confederacy family backgrounds of many of these sponsors, the fair featured a “Human Zoo” : live natives from backward jungle regions were exhibited in special cages under the supervision of anthropologist William J. McGee.

So Averell Harriman was a natural patron for Bert Walker. Bert shared Averell's passion for horse breeding and horse racing, and easily accommodated the Harriman family's related social philosophy. They believed that the horses and racing stables they owned showed the way toward a sharp upgrading of the human stock—just select and mate thoroughbreds, and spurn or eliminate inferior animals.

The First World War had brought the little St. Louis oligarchy into the Confederate-slaveowner-oriented administration of President Woodrow Wilson and his advisors, Col. Edward House and Bernard Baruch.

Walker's friend Robert Brookings got into Bernard Baruch's War Industries Board as director of national Price Fixing (sic). David R. Francis became U.S. ambassador to Russia in 1916. As the Bolshevik Revolution broke out, we find Bert Walker busy appointing people to Francis's staff in Petrograd.@s1@s2

Walker's earliest activities in relation to the Soviet state are of significant interest to historians, given the activist role he was to play there together with Harriman. But Walker's life is as covert as the rest of the Bush clan's, and the surviving public record is extremely thin.

The 1919 Versailles peace conference brought together British imperial strategists and their American friends to make postwar global arrangements. For his own intended international adventures, Harriman needed Bert Walker the seasoned intriguer, who quietly represented many of the British-designated rulers of American politics and finance.

After two persuasion trips west by Harriman,@s1@s3 Walker at length agreed to move to New York. But he kept his father’s summer house in Kennebunkport, Maine.

Bert Walker formally organized the W.A. Harriman & Co. private bank in November 1919. Walker became the bank’s president and chief executive; Averell Harriman was chairman and controlling co-owner with his brother Roland (“Bunny”), Prescott Bush’s close friend from Yale; and Percy Rockefeller was a director and a founding financial sponsor.

In the autumn of 1919, Prescott Bush made the acquaintance of Bert Walker’s daughter Dorothy. They were engaged the following year, and were married in August, 1921.@s1@s4 Among the ushers and grooms at the elaborate wedding were Ellery S. James, Knight Woolley and four other fellow Skull and Bonesmen from the Yale Class of 1917.@s1@s5 The Bush-Walker extended family has gathered each summer at the “Walker country home” in Kennebunkport, from this marriage of President Bush’s parents down to the present day.

When Prescott married Dorothy, he was only a minor executive of the Simmons Co., railroad equipment suppliers, while his wife’s father was building one of the most gigantic businesses in the world. The following year the couple tried to move back to Columbus, Ohio; there Prescott worked for a short time in a rubber products company owned by his father. But they soon moved again to Milton, Mass., after outsiders bought the little family business and moved it near there.

Thus Prescott Bush was going nowhere fast, when his son George Herbert Walker Bush—the future U.S. President—was born in Milton, Mass., on June 12, 1924.

Perhaps it was as a birthday gift for George, that “Bunny” Harriman stepped in to rescue his father Prescott from oblivion, bringing him into the Harriman-controlled U.S. Rubber Co. in New York City. In 1925 the young family moved to the town where George was to grow up: Greenwich, Connecticut, a suburb both of New York and of New Haven/Yale.

Then on May 1, 1926, Prescott Bush joined W.A. Harriman &38; Co. as its vice president, under the bank’s president, Bert Walker, his father-in-law and George’s maternal grandfather—the head of the family.

The Great Game

Prescott Bush would demonstrate strong loyalty to the firm he joined in 1926. And the bank, with the scope and power of many ordinary nations, could amply reward its agents. George Bush’s Grandfather Walker had put the enterprise together, quietly, secretly, using all the international connections at his disposal. Let us briefly look back at the beginning of the Harriman firm—the Bush family enterprise—and follow its course into one of history’s darkest projects.

The firm’s first global lever was its successful arrangement to get into Germany by dominating that country’s shipping. Averell Harriman announced in 1920 that he would re-start Germany’s Hamburg- Amerika Line, after many months of scheming and arm-twisting. Hamburg-Amerika’s commercial steamships had been confiscated by the United States at the end of the First World War. These ships had then become the property of the Harriman enterprise, by some arrangements with the U.S. authorities that were never made public.

The deal was breathtaking; it would create the world’s largest private shipping line. Hamburg-Amerika Line regained its confiscated vessels, for a heavy price. The Harriman enterprise took “the right to participate in 50 percent of all business originated in Hamburg” ; and for the next twenty years (1920-1940), the Harriman enterprise had “complete control of all activities of the Hamburg line in the United States.” @s1@s7

Harriman became co-owner of Hamburg-Amerika. The Harriman-Walker firm gained a tight hold on its management, with the not-so-subtle backing of the post-World War I occupation of Germany by the armies of England and America.

Just after Harriman’s public statement, the St. Louis press celebrated Bert Walker’s role in assembling the money to consummate the deal:

“Ex-St. Louisan Forms Giant Ship Merger” “G. H. Walker is Moving Power Behind Harriman-Morton Shipping Combine….” The story celebrated a “merger of two big financial houses in New York, which will place practically unlimited capital at the disposal of the new American-German shipping combine….”

Bert Walker had arranged a “marriage” of J.P. Morgan credit and Harriman family inherited wealth.

W.A. Harriman & Co., of which Walker was president and founder, was merging with the Morton & Co. private bank —and Walker was “[p]rominent in the affairs of Morton & Co.,” which was interlocked with the Morgan-controlled Guaranty Trust Co.

The Hamburg-Amerika takeover created an effective instrument for the manipulation and fatal subversion of Germany. One of the great “merchants of death,” Samuel Pryor, was in it from the beginning. Pryor, then chairman of the executive committee of Remington Arms, helped arrange the deal and served with Walker on the board of Harriman’s shipping front organization, the American Ship and Commerce Co.

Walker and Harriman took the next giant step in 1922, setting up their European headquarters office in Berlin. With the aid of the Hamburg-based Warburg bank, W.A. Harriman & Co. began spreading an investment net over German industry and raw materials.

From the Berlin base, Walker and Harriman then plunged into deals with the new dictatorship of the Soviet Union. They led a select group of Wall Street and British Empire speculators who re-started the Russian oil industry, which had been devastated by the Bolshevik Revolution. They contracted to mine Soviet manganese, an element essential to modern steelmaking. These concessions were arranged directly with Leon Trotsky, then with Feliks Dzerzhinsky, founder of the Soviet dictatorship’s secret intelligence service (K.G.B), whose huge statue was finally pulled down by pro-democracy demonstrators in 1991.

These speculations created both channels of communication, and the style of accomodation, with the communist dictatorship, that have continued in the family down to President Bush.

With the bank launched, Bert Walker found New York the ideal place to satisfy his passion for sports, games and gambling. Walker was elected president of the U.S. Golf Association in 1920. He negotiated new international rules for the game with the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland. After these talks he contributed the three-foot-high silver Walker Cup, for which British and American teams have since competed every two years.

Bert’s son-in-law Prescott Bush was later secretary of the U.S. Golf Association, during the grave political and economic crises of the early 1930s. Prescott became USGA President in 1935, while he was otherwise embroiled in the family firm’s work with Nazi Germany.

When George was one year old, in 1925, Bert Walker and Averell Harriman headed a syndicate which rebuilt Madison Square Garden as the modern Palace of Sport. Walker was at the center of New York’s gambling scene in its heyday, in that Prohibition era of colorful and bloody gangsters. The Garden bloomed with million-dollar prize fights; bookies and their clients pooled more millions, trying to match the pace of the speculation-crazed stock and bond men. This was the era of “organized” crime—the national gambling and bootleg syndicate structured on the New York corporate model.

By 1930, when George was a boy of six, Grandpa Walker was New York State Racing Commissioner. The vivid colors and sounds of the racing scene must have impressed little George as much as his grandfather. Bert Walker bred race horses at his own stable, the Log Cabin Stud. He was president of the Belmont Park race track. Bert also personally managed most aspects of Averell’s racing interests— down to picking the colors and fabrics for the Harriman racing gear.@s1@s9

From 1926, George’s father Prescott Bush showed a fierce loyalty to the Harrimans and a dogged determination to advance himself; he gradually came to run the day-to-day operations of W.A. Harriman & Co. After the firm’s 1931 merger with the British-American banking house Brown Brothers, Prescott Bush became managing partner of the resulting company: Brown Brothers Harriman. This was ultimately the largest and politically the most important private banking house in America.

Financial collapse, world depression and social upheaval followed the fevered speculation of the 1920s. The 1929-31 crash of securities values wiped out the small fortune Prescott Bush had gained since 1926. But because of his devotion to the Harrimans, they “did a very generous thing,” as Bush later put it. They staked him to what he had lost and put him back on his feet.

Prescott Bush described his own role, from 1931 through the 1940s, in a confidential interview:

I emphasize … that the Harrimans showed great courage and loyalty and confidence in us, because three or four of us were really running the business, the day to day business. Averell was all over the place in those days … and Roland was involved in a lot of directorships, and he didn’t get down into the “lift- up-and-bear-down” activity of the bank, you see— the day- to-day decisions … we were really running the business, the day to day business, all the administrative decisions and the executive decisions. We were the ones that did it. We were the managing partners, let’s say.@s2@s0

But of the “three or four” partners in charge, Prescott was effectively at the head of the firm, because he had taken over management of the gigantic personal investment funds of Averell and E. Roland “Bunny” Harriman.

In those interwar years, Prescott Bush made the family fortune which George Bush inherited. He piled up the money from an international project which continued until a new world war, and the action of the U.S. government, intervened to stop him.

Great Machine

Stone Cold Prof JFK was hit by his OWN COUNTRY

Arlen Specter retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Specter was born in Wichita, Kansas, to emigrant Russian/Ukrainian Jewish parents. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and served with the United States Air Force during the Korean War.

Specter worked for Lyndon Johnson's Warren Commission, which investigated the assassination of John F. Kennedy, at the recommendation of Representative Gerald Ford, who was then one of the Commissioners.

Ford was born Leslie Lynch King Jr. on July 14, 1913, at 3202 Woolworth Avenue in Omaha, Nebraska, where his parents lived with his paternal grandparents. He was the only child of Dorothy Ayer Gardner and Leslie Lynch King Sr., a wool trader. His father was the son of prominent banker Charles Henry King and Martha Alicia King (née Porter). Gardner separated from King just sixteen days after her son's birth.

After living with her parents for two-and-a-half years, on February 1, 1917, Gardner married Gerald Rudolff Ford, a salesman in a family-owned paint and varnish company. Though never formally adopted, her young son was referred to as Gerald Rudolff Ford Jr. from then on; the name change was formalized on December 3, 1935.

As an assistant for the commission, he co-wrote the proposal of the "single bullet theory", which suggested the non-fatal wounds to Kennedy and wounds to Texas Governor John Connally were caused by the same bullet. This was a crucial assertion for the Warren Commission, since if the two had been wounded by separate bullets within such a short time frame, that would have demonstrated the presence of a second assassin and therefore a conspiracy. The United States House Select Committee on Assassinations published their report in 1979 stating that their "forensic pathology panel's conclusions were consistent with the so-called single bullet theory advanced by the Warren Commission".

Arlen Specter (February 12, 1930 - October 14, 2012)

Specter was born in Wichita, Kansas which was home to the Boeing B-29 and Stanley Armour Dunham Specter was an American lawyer, author and politician who served as a United States Senator from Pennsylvania from 1981 to 2011. Specter was a Democrat from 1951 to 1965,[1][2][3] then a Republican from 1965 until 2009, when he switched back to the Democratic Party. First elected in 1980, he is the longest-serving senator from Pennsylvania, having represented the state for 30 years.

Specter was born in Wichita, Kansas, to emigrant Russian/Ukrainian Jewish parents. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and served with the United States Air Force during the Korean War. Specter later graduated from Yale Law School and opened a law firm with Marvin Katz, who would later become a federal judge. Specter served as assistant counsel for the Warren Commission investigating the assassination of John F. Kennedy and helped formulate the "single-bullet theory". In 1965, Specter was elected District Attorney of Philadelphia, a position that he held until 1973.

During the Korean War, he served stateside in the United States Air Force from 1951 to 1953 and obtained the rank of first lieutenant as an officer in the Air Force Office of Special Investigations.

The Jewish daily newspaper The Forward reported in the wake of the July 2009 organ trafficking scandal in the U.S. involving Rabbi Levy Izhak Rosenbaum of Brooklyn that an Organ Trafficking Prohibition Act of 2009, sponsored by Specter, had yet to be officially introduced in the U.S.

Organ trafficking

ncbi.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

ORGAN TRAFFICKING

Organ trafficking is a broad concept that includes several illegal activities, of which the main goal is to profit from human organs and tissue, for the sole purpose of transplantation. These activities include THBOR, transplant tourism and trafficking in organs and tissues

Levy Izhak Rosenbaum of Brooklyn was alleged to have been conspiring to arrange the sale of an Israeli citizen's kidney for $160,000.[2] According to the complaint, Rosenbaum told the cooperating witness that he had been involved in the illegal sale of kidneys for 10 years. Acting US Attorney Ralph Marra said "His business was to entice vulnerable people to give up a kidney for $10,000 which he would turn around and sell for $160,000". Anthropologist and organ trade expert Nancy Scheper-Hughes claimed that she had informed the FBI that Rosenbaum was "a major figure" in international organ smuggling 7 years ago, and that many of Rosenbaum's donors had come from Eastern Europe. This is the first organ trafficking case in U.S. history. In October 2011, Rosenbaum pleaded guilty to three counts of organ trafficking and one count of conspiracy.

During his 30-year Senate career, Specter staked out a spot in the political center. He served as Chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee from 2005 to 2007. In 2006, he was selected by Time as one of America's Ten Best Senators Specter lost his 2010 re-election bid in the Democratic primary to former U.S. Navy vice admiral Joe Sestak, who then lost to Republican Pat Toomey in the general election. Toomey succeeded Specter on January 3, 2011.

Diagnosed with Hodgkin's lymphoma in early 2005, he continued his work in the Senate while undergoing chemotherapy. He died from complications of non-Hodgkin's lymphoma on October 14, 2012.

Specter was born in Wichita, Kansas, the youngest child of Lillie (née Shanin) and Harry Specter, who grew up in the Bachkuryne village of Cherkasy Oblast, Ukraine.

FOXP2 and Ties to JFK, Obama, Worlds Fair Theft of DNA from Atomic Testing Guniepigs 1961JFK Assassination MKULTRA 1961 Seattle Worlds Fair Futurism If the speech defect of Speech Spasmodia can be corrected a black Windsor/Von Trapp could be a good leader in Pacific Rim IF a secret plant leader could be a test operation. MKULTRA of Fascism continued in secret. (Jen Moore describes)	JFK Library Boston Marathon Bombing MKULTRA erasing the history of MKULTRA and Obama Test Birth. Inciting Tsarnevs with stalkers generated rage provocing Tsarnevs into engulfing hate of others	Aviation Disasters and Boeing, Others	Failed Assasination of Hitler, OSS and CIA plans to undermine cause of racism and race wars Anterior Temporal Lobe Spanish Opus Dei	King Edward VIII, FOXP2 Speech Defect, Sidney Gottlieb Spech Biologist works for CIA, medical and atomic (testing) Guinea pigs.
MKULTRA Frued, Viennens, Fascists exploring brain, brains, and brain injuries after WWI 1920s Fascism. Mussolini, Hitler, USA, Austrians under Freud, etc., are Genetics Resarchers. Borderline Personality Disorder (FOXP2), Anterior Temporal Lobe (WWI War Injuries, brain mapping) Heading into WWII Genocide Vatican, others,	Pacific Missile Crisis and Missile Gap with Asians, Communists Fission bombs, like those used to devastate the Japanese cities of Nagasaki and Hiroshima during World War II, work by splitting the nucleus of an atom. The bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki	Illuminati who have family member histories to hide and finances to protect since they engage in assasinations in US to cover their moving Prince Edward, Obama, Donegan, genetics around. Galactic Alliens must prevent detection of Galactic Alien (Illuminati and CIA Vatican history, much wealth at risk	CIA Diagraph akak Illuminati DiVinci Codes - Feb20 Nov19 Dec 13, Galactic Aliens are “enlightened” Illuminati Earth overloards	Ketracel White handed out by Illuminati via Bird Dogging to encourage, retain criminals army Orkent Murders Criminal Enterprises bring RFLP, Mito genomics to black market, normalize it under shams. Access to genes is constrained to begin rescues from rise of Nazism. Von Trapps, others (future Windsors) leave Austria for England	exploded with the yield of 15 kilotons and 20 kilotons. In contrast, the first test of a thermonuclear weapon, or hydrogen bomb, in the United States in November 1952 yielded an explosion on the order of 10,000 kilotons of TNT.			exist ONLY in black market world, closed world "assumption." Prohibition creates mob, mob eliminates obstacles. Dr Bradstreet murder BEFORE genetics breakthrough announcement. A Secret of Honey Pots and Honey Traps >Pizzagate CIA Front Organizations (private, public) setup CIA money laundering of genetics rights. CIA backed "Tx" (a Gull(ible) will get blackmailed for very rare valuable genetics rights

1997 Fasley pretexted DNA seizure based on blind conservator misrepresentation of me without explicit accounting to me US Marshalls Force Acts against Klan, Protection of Sex Crimes Victims, Asset Seizures from criminals	1961 1962 1963 Above 1997 Below CIA Black Budgets and Surrogate Entertainers, Gulliver the Impersonator of Ed seeing Dominatrixes, agreeing to "Children"	MKULTRA CARTEL DARPA Long Range Future Planning Greatest Minds, Illuminati aka Gallactic Aliens Dr. Francis Collins, Physics, M.D., Religion.	Nichola Wade and James Watson are correct Areas of the Earth targeted by Illuminati MKULTRA will receive peace bringing genomic	Freeemasonry Littlerock Arkansas continue Free Mason, CIA, Vatican DNA plans to undermine racism, poverty Middle East North Africa MENA Airport CIA Drug Running

Derrick Driscoll Tapped as USMS Acting Deputy Director Targeting individuals by Driscoll: Tactical Operations Division 2012-2014. He oversaw the creation of the agency's Sex Offender Investigations Branch,formation of the National Sex Offender TARGETING Center Driscoll's began in 1994 with the Hamden County Sheriff's Department in Springfield, Massachusetts. MA in Criminal Justice with a concentration in Security Management from the University of New Haven. I am a targeted individual according to Jen Moore? A "number" being done on me by Marshalls? Marshalls cogwheel		Origins of Life. Genome. Creationism, National Institute of Health, Motorcycling Selamat Jarin! We come again bringing more information about your world and the current status of first contact. Our Earth allies are on the very brink of being able to put into effect their plans for global transformation. A series of coordinated maneuvers in the past few weeks have finally got the last dark cabal on the run, which is making possible the long-promised deliveries of the prosperity programs to their most anxious recipients.	medicine transforming the world into peace. See Rise of Man, Elon Musk NASA Contractor, AI, Brain, South Africa Christian Motorcycle Association Hatfield Arkansas, USA, South Africa MENA Middle East North Africa 20 minutes
MKULTRA Behavioral Science "Where their is a will, there is a way." Use of interested politicians,	Roll, Scalia MKULTRA Behavioral Science Race and IQ, World Behavioral Science and	Biological Parents of Obama Family Malcom X Glorian Donegan Coverstory Families	IVFs and Designer Babies an transport of genes, 3rd Parents to two existing parents.

building owners, etc., who will act duplicitously with me, including illegal or Abuse of Process (such as psychiatric commitment, hearings) in law and medicine. I believe Roger Ailes, others, “moved out of media scene.”

With that in place targeting me, tanking my evals by maneuvered interests, use of Dopples inside and outside of custody which create the Legend of Ed Donegan, clinically masturbating as a disability and also intellectually and socially retarded. None of this is actually true tho the appearance of it sets up asset management of my DNA on corrupt blind conservator terms.

➤ Click in this are for details and see the Justina page for more

---

Blackmailing impersonators of Biological Family of Obama for additonal genome rights, sabotaging me VIA faked Political Impact of it.

Jared Laughner, shooter of Judge Roll and Garbriele Giffords related to Kellys twin NASA study .. Laughner worked at Salk Institute (Brain Program) and claimed victim of MKULTRA

2011 World Economy use of seized retirement assets. “United States of America v. $333,520.00 was year my mother died and created trust my brother would not disclose

If j. Scalia was informed Illuminati were using Judge Roll siezed assets, gaps closing, may have sought forward looking ruling in race case.

Defense Intelligence Agency, DARPA, CIA, have heard of #WETWORKS

Dunham (white mother) Obama Sr (Kenyan)

Malcom Shabazz and cover story Bio family of Obama befall tragedy compromising photos (Pizzagate) which continues DNA in all this. Tom Donegan donated Glorian Donegan body for science to NIH PHS 2011, her death year	Genomic Sciences and Family Origins, race and genetic familial legacies, Roll, Scalia, Wales, MKULTRA, Flynn and DIA

> Sweden, along with 19 other countries, signed the Convention founding the Organisation for Economic Co-Operation and Development on 14 December 1960, thereby pledged its full dedication to achieving the Organisation's fundamental aims.
>
> Mountain Top Prophecies Linda Newkirk rev 12 hmtl

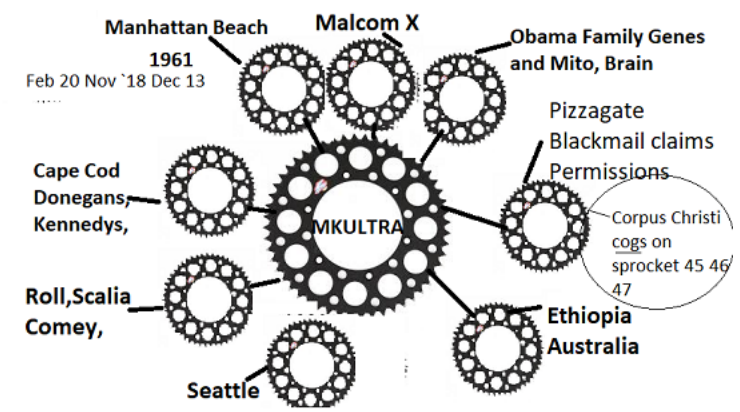
The government antigravity machines, which had surrounded this house in Arkansas every day and night for well over a year had followed me to South Africa and we all gathered outside at night to watch them. At first, there was only one "saucer" but then two, and as time went on, there were as many as eight in just one part of the sky. There were many trees so it was impossible to determine exactly how many government antigravity machines there were in the sky from night to night, but one thing was sure. As time went on, there were more and more of them.

From South Africa, my friend, Antonietta and I would go to Sweden and the great harassment would continue there. Night after night there were many saucers in the sky and the streets were full of intelligence agents, US, English and Swedish. I was sent to give a prophecy to the King of Sweden, a beautiful prophecy of love, protection and provision of our Father in Heaven, but he rejected it.

Instead, he and the Bushes and Queen decided to put a voodoo worker across from our apartment in Stockholm, where we were staying with a dear elderly man, named Erik, and this voodoo man would send his voodoo spirits and curses upon us and he even appeared as a cat in my room. But, I do not believe that this voodoo man's spirit made it back to his body, and that they had to literally remove his half naked body from the window the next day! And, I believe that this is why they set fire to the apartment building in which we were staying in Stockholm. We fled the fire in the darkness and snow, but our Father also kept us from the killers that they put in the streets. Antonietta had such a good eye in spotting the government stalkers and killers!

And, this is another long story, but you have read enough of it by now to know something of the persecution in Sweden. Antoinetta and I applied for asylum in Sweden, but were immediately denied and I went back to South Africa, while they made her go back to Ethiopia, as this is her country of birth. From there, Antonietta went to England, where I suppose she is today.

> Sweden, along with 19 other countries, signed the Convention founding the Organisation for Economic Co-Operation and Development on 14 December 1960, thereby pledged its full dedication to achieving the Organisation's fundamental aims.



The Great Machine

JOHN [Herschel] GLENN JR. was a United States Marine Corps aviator, engineer, astronaut, businessman and politician. He was the third person and the first American to orbit the Earth, circling it three times in 1962. Wikipedia > Matt [Glen] Olsen is former Obama administration official. He was National Counterterrorism Center director, briefly the NSA General Counsel, and executive director for Gitmo Review Task Force.

> lsen is volunteer for Intelligence Community group.
>
> Matthew GLEN Olsen (born FEBRUARY 21, 1962) is an American prosecutor and the former Director of the National Counter-terrorism Center (NCTC)

1961, 1997, Pizzagate creates retro mass hysteria RICO claims of Glorian Donegan DNA permission

With the means in place DARPA CIA Vatican needs to seize my DNA the programs can continue IF circumstantial cases are faked and presented to MISREPRESENTATION of me and who racially hate me but claim to defense me. Social Justice can get DNA.

(2011 belongs in here too as for International use of IQ DNA)

Originally the CIA used Glorian Donegan ovum likely without my mother or father's permission on Feb 20 1961. Since then Obama has been born Nov 1961 and ran for president on a CIA created cover story birth certificate and JFK was assassinated over the MKULTRA program.

I have long said this fits with Obama acts of making international inter racial omelet by breaking my white eggs over what the disgusting Doppelgänger of me did, the disgusting retard, retarded socially and retarded sexually, person who would need the Obama administration in charge of his reproductive rights, and this is a military operation called Extortion17.

All this ties to MKULTRA Birtherism and the Obama true genealogy

Science is advancing on the Illuminati and now the events of 1961 can be retraced by the fear the CIA and Illuminati have of family databases and the advances in genetics.

To keep Barack Obama and his children consistent, and Michelle Obama not at odds with the Obama children DNA from the Donegan's, from me, continue under fraud, now the alleged result of an often run blackmail scheme during its repetition exposed as blackmail of impersonators for me DNA, impersonators friendly to the Obamas and designer babies of 3rd parents, Semen, Ovumn, and additional "parents" by IVF additional genetic features.

Juge Roll Foreign Economies and IQ, Justice Scalia US Economic-industrial-social Policy and IQ and Race

Gearcogs

The CIA and Vatican took on the issue of Race following WWII after failed attempts to kill Adolph Hitler.

Fifteen years after the end of WWII (1945) planning was under way for Feb 20 1961, racial test babies of an orator, Malcom X, to fertilize orator challenged King Edward VIII descendents rescued by speech therapist Sidney Gottlieb.

The Spanish Illuminati were also in on the plan having founded Opus Dei and lay work in taking control of the genes, of our Genesis, in part documented by Lendell and in part manageable by science.

In total view 1945 to 1961

The Missile crisis with both Russia and China, the spread of communism generally, led to the need for Barack Obama as a test birth of futurism and IQ gains in black

A future leader needed in Indonesia, Polynesia, Malaysia to help fight communism and the growing Intercontinental Missile Threat

Using Boeing Corporation and the Seattle Missile Defense area the Pacific Northwest Futurist of MKULTRA and Sidney Gottlieb and Warner Von Braun, MKULTRA and JFK decided a test baby for Indonesia. US relatives of King Edward VIII, with FOXP2 gene, tried out on Barack Obama, btw a great orator, who could be planted in Indonesia for peace between the East and West.

This was also a potential solution to the race problem in the U.S., a subject of interest to Malcom X, JFK, and world economist futurists.

DNA

DNA from the Beginning is organized around key concepts.

Concept 1

Children resemble their parents.

Johann Gregor Mendel (1822-1884)

Father of Genetics

Gregor Mendel, through his work on pea plants, discovered the fundamental laws of inheritance. He deduced that genes come in pairs and are inherited as distinct units, one from each parent. Mendel tracked the segregation of parental genes and their appearance in the offspring as dominant or recessive traits. He recognized the mathematical patterns of inheritance from one generation to the next. Mendel's Laws of Heredity are usually stated as:

1. The Law of Segregation: Each inherited trait is defined by a gene pair. Parental genes are randomly separated to the sex cells so that sex cells contain only one gene of the pair. Offspring therefore inherit one genetic allele from each parent when sex cells unite in fertilization.

2. The Law of Independent Assortment: Genes for different traits are sorted separately from one another so that the inheritance of one trait is not dependent on the inheritance of another.

3. The Law of Dominance: An organism with alternate forms of a gene will express the form that is dominant.

The genetic experiments Mendel did with pea plants took him eight years (1856-1863) and he published his results in 1865. During this time, Mendel grew over 10,000 pea plants, keeping track of progeny number and type. Mendel's work and his Laws of Inheritance were not appreciated in his time. It wasn't until 1900, after the rediscovery of his Laws, that his experimental results were understood.

The book, A Troublesome Inheritance: Genes, Race and Human History, contends that human races are a biological reality and that recent human evolution has led to racial differences in economic and social behavior.

In the book, Wade suggests that such genetic differences may help explain why some people live in tribal societies and some in advanced civilizations, why African-Americans are allegedly more violent than whites, and why the Chinese may be good at business.

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Vienna (Central Powes Austria and Germany,) Freud, Pscyhoanlysis and the prescence of FOXP2
Fascism studies Brain, Eugenics, brain Area based on WWI Soldier injuries, Jen Moore cites as MKULTRA. birthplace* In 1938 Freud was forced to leave German-annexed Austria due to his Jewish ancestry, and fled to London. Vienna and Micheal Hastings and MKULTRA in the Middle East Anterior Lobe, Borderline Personality Disorder

Anterior Temporal Lobe, rare in Sub Saharans, mapped to abstractions including forms of social intelligence and pattern recognition Borderline Personality Disorder is in the area including Genram Windsors and Austrian Von TRapps World notice of both learnings and dangers unfolding in Eugenics.

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Borderline Personality Disorder (FOXP2) [German/Austrian]
Maria Kutschera (Nazi family) Von Trapp	Kings Daughers 1926 London Vatican, Wil Bill Donovan, Brits rescue
King Edward VIII
Borderline Personality Disorder is poor regulation of working space, contextual brain activity.
An extreme form of ADD or something very similar to it continuous reguluation is poor.
Shoe tying, writing script, throat and digestive track regulation may misfire.
As with Neuropathy nerves may not sense dryness or food for excretion of saliva, moisture, or hormones.
Impulsive thoughts may not be supressed by the pre frontal cortex as they move into the rest of the brain during thinking about contextual situations.

“Galactic Aliens” (Illuminati) “Overlords” (Rothschilds, DuPonts, other investing and DOD Contractors)

Anything in that building is getting in on the ground floor of the next big projects, the cutting edge of what is happening.

> Currently, their [DuPont for DARPA] mission statement is “to make pivotal investments in breakthrough technologies for national security”.[6]

When the Gallactic Aliens have the inside track they have so much to win, the Upside. But if they kill to cover their errors, that is to say cover their criminal and civil liability, or political liability, a new plan might be needed.

Or if a new technology comes along they did not expect, family databases, say, for instance, and tracking of origins by mitochondria or immuno adaptation to regions of the Earth.

The Illuminati's Greatest Hits: Deception, Conspiracies, Murders And Assassinations By The World's Most Powerful Secret Society by Frank White Kindle Edition

Rockefeller Blood Line

Rothschild Blood Line

Kennedy Blood Line

Astor Blood Line

Bundy Blood Line

Collins Blood Line

DuPont Blood Line

Freeman Blood Line

Li Blood Line

Onassis Blood Line

Reynolds Blood Line

Russell Blood Line

Van Duyn Blood Line

Obituary

Dr. Daniel Freeman, 55, owner and operator of Amazon ChiroMed, Fall River, MA, passed away Tuesday, March 23, 2021. Dan had a heart of gold and loved helping others. He had a great sense of humor and was always the life of the party. Dan enjoyed cooking for friends and family. An avid indoor and outdoor cyclist, Dan was a certified Spinning instructor.

Dr. Freeman graduated from Bristol Community College in 1993 with an Associates in Liberal Arts Studies. He obtained his Bachelors of Science in Medical Laboratory Science from the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth in 1996. In 2000, Dr. Freeman earned his Doctorate of Chiropractic from New York Chiropractic College. A Master Mason, he was a member of Mt. Hope Lodge. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Centinela Freeman Regional Medical Center (I Edward Paul Donegan was born at Manhattan Beach) , Memorial Campus was a hospital that was located at 333 N. Prairie Ave, Inglewood, California, USA. The hospital was operated by Centinela Freeman

HealthSystem, and was one of the three campuses of the Centinela Freeman Regional Medical Center.

The hospital was founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet in 1954 as Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital,[1][2] named after Daniel Freeman, founder of the city of Inglewood. Carondelet later purchased a hospital in Marina del Rey and named it Daniel Freeman Marina Hospital.[3] The two Daniel Freeman hospitals were acquired in 2001 by Tenet Healthcare.[4] The name was changed in 2004, when the hospital was transferred to the Centinela Freeman HealthSystem. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia]

My uncle Harold Gainey worked for DuPont in Hishopville South Carolina as a fiber strength tester in synthetic fibers. He is one of the primary sources of telling me I had royal lineage and was the borther of my mother in her adooptive South Carolina family following the death of Festus Gainey when my mother was 9 years old.

Companies like DuPont and their directors or families may be indistinguishable from Govern, World Government, World Planning, the Military, or combinatorial permutations of those roles

US Government Contractors for Manhattan Project	Shadow Government “Great Minds wrapping around your heads with Genius. Multiple Hats boards of directors, ruling class families. DARPA
John F Kennedy (nationally moved out of office, assassination)	Lyndon B Johnson Religious Movement tied, Jim Jones preacher
Manhattan Project	DuPonts and military contracts (could be how James Donegan and GLorian Donegan met) DuPonts military contractors to Manhattan Projects DuPonts of Bishopville employers of the Dew family my mother adopted into. One of the most important companies involved in the Manhattan Project was the E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Company. *
New York and New Yorkers	Just like the ROTHSCHILDS, DUPONTS, AND ROCKEFELLERS, THE ASTORS always set one of their Astor males as the head of the entire family. This headship is passed down as a birthright within the different branches of the family, just as any King passes on his throne. On the corner of 33RD ST. AND 5TH AVE. (the site later began the site of the Empire State Building) the original WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL.* was built by William Waldorf, et. al. The hotel opened in Mar. 1893. It is described as ‘the ultimate in SNOB appeal.’ *

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Operational Locations. With With Out-Of-Wedlock Windsor Kutschera DNA the CIA and Vatican know about (daughers) in the USA, irregulars rack DNA to build Obama out of. GLorian Donegans Ovum, Malcom X father creates Obama sleeper agent for Indonesia

Little Rock Freemason Command and Control JFK objected to	CIA, Catholics in Action, Rome, in Post WWII Plan	Seattle LA Hawaii
Free Masons Camp Robinson and Camp Pike "Dear Souls, as I understand it, Camp Robinson has a very great underground complex and as I understand it also, this is Satan's world headquarters. It is no wonder that in the Bible, in Revelation, Chapter Twelve, the word tells us that Satan is in the face of the woman; for I live only a few miles from this base and for twenty-five years, even when I lived in North Little Rock, Arkansas, I have lived only a few miles from this base. Next to Camp Robinson is Camp Pike. This base is named after Albert Pike, the father of modern freemasonry, which is Satan's worldwide occult organization. That Satan would be in my face is foretold in the Book of Revelation in the 12th chapter, but what is told there is only a very brief outline." Linda Newkirk LINDA NEWKIRK P.O. Box 17277 North Little Rock, AR 72117 USA MENA Airport (M)iddle (E)ast (N)orth (A)frica and CIA "Drug Running" starting in 1961 Bill Clinton 50th Attorney General of Arkansas In office January 3, 1977 - January 9, 1979 40th and 42nd Governor of Arkansas In office January 11, 1983 - December 12, 1992 Hillary and Bill Clinton NWO Medicine Mike Huckabee 44th Governor of Arkansas In office July 15, 1996 January 9, 2007 Lieutenant Winthrop Paul Rockefeller	Wild Bill Donovan OSS gets ORder of Sylvester Vatican award, Masons, OSS rescue from Nazi Germany in underground railroads. Sidney Gottlieb involuntary biology, biological weapons, cancer, and a Speech Therapist working with King Edward VIII pre WWII most likely Rescue of King Edward VIII and FOXP2 London KE Family Members 1961 Feb 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 "Catholics in Action" Red State CIA Racial Experiments and secret tests and secret grooming of PsyOps political candidates (Obama, Indonesia)	Boeing Futurism, House Camelot, House Windsor 1 year after feb 20 1961 procedure judgment of results Location for Pacific Rim and Russia Polar Route West Coast Missile Defense West Coast Manhattan Project and Pacific Above Ground Atomic Testing Los Angles Seattle Nevada Hawaii axis of operations
JFK A Monolithic Conspiracy based in Intimidation	Heavy.com This morning, WikiLeaks	It is my belief upon review of Obama at 2

	tweeted the decryption passphrase for the CIA Vault 7 leak. The password is, “I will splinter the CIA into a thousand pieces and scatter it into the wind,” a quote credited to President John F. Kennedy.	years old, and normal, JFK agreed to him as a possible plant and groom for future espionage against the Communism, but decided against wider Free Masons plot.

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
MKULTRA Behavioral Science Cogwheel, OUTLANDISHLY forcing me into Mental Health Services,out of normal life, and trying to provoke snap, fights, outbursts I can be psych ward arrested for MKULTRA Racial and Genomic Experimentation, started in 1960s, 1961, now claims to be in control of my genome based on “Gulliver” the in institution and in public Doppelgänger of me who needs KMULTRA Behavioral Science to pay his DNA debts because Gulliver (style=“text-style:italic;”>Gulls are people who are conned in Long Cons. I am not but an impersonator is gullible and conned) is developmentally disabled and confined secretly to a playground devoid of adults and adult conversations, adult activities. Bizarre transfer of me to Virginia DOD facility where this was diagnosed, and also rigged diagnosis elsewhere

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Daniel Okrent describes how eugenics and xenophobia mixed ..
Daniel Okrent describes how eugenics and xenophobia mixed .. Drug Trafficking in Mexico and the United Statesbooks.google.com › books to narcotics interdiction, the prohibition of alcohol created a black market, … consequences of this policy were finally acknowledged (Okrent 2011; Musto 1999). IN DEFENSE OF THE BLACK MARKET By Mario Vargas Llosa Feb. 22, 1987* The Guarded Gate: Bigotry, Eugenics and the Law That Kept Two Generations of Jews, Italians, and Other European Immigrants Out of America by Daniel Okrent* Orkent Murders also in OBama Dead Pool section of this book.

Fighting White Supremacism. The Character Assassination (CA) and Economic Disrupton from planting Child Porn, seizing assets under NEW/FAKE pretext of disrupting child porn networks.

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
US Marshalls Seize Assets for THEIR OWN USE, FOREIGN, AND DOMESTIC Communities use
US Marshalss	Public Health Service

Conducts Asset Seizures upon detection of RICO, etc., Espionage Capabilities in Tactical Operations Pre emption theories Pre-emptive Gangstalking of Targeted Individuals, individuals deemed a civil rights threats to victims or to the U.S. (or to themselves and their corrupt asset seizures system Boston born and educated Derrick Driscoll connected Targeted Individual system developer (gangstalking) by Tactical groups as high ranking US Marshall Black US Marshall heads service, flunked bar exam, probably did not like Justice Scalia referenced Mismatch Theory, blacks given oppurtunity above their expected completion a disservice to both opportunity and affirmatice action candidate. May have an interst in seizing White Supremacist or CCR5 or other DNA from White Supremacist without giving bragging rights to White Supremacist, and even take the White Supremacist down a notch by defaming allegations of harming children and women made against the White Supremacist May be backed by Rod Rosesntein on history of civil rights, and asset seiuzres for Public Health Service, who has gay black male Surgeon General. PHS may have history with GLorin Ovum, who body donated in 2011 to PHS Scientists.	Public Health Service, Surgeon General, and National Institute of Health all more or less one, and run pscy evals in prison as I blogged about NIH. Public Health Service likely tied to Manhattan Project and Above Ground Nuclear Testing, PHS is non combatant military and also used in federal prisons. Public Health Service and NIH in Bone Marrow Stromal Cell, AIDS, Nueral Cell, Cancer Fighting, AIDS, Autism, Retardation, and other research with an interest in genes including FOXP2
I allege Marshalls and others of taking photos from afar of victims near me. Upon the Marshalls having the evidence in their hands of peeping of a female near me, these same Marshalls ask a Dominatrix punish them for what they say I did. This allows underprivileged victims and others to have asset seizure claim against me, often commanded by a Dominatrix who caught “me” with the photos and will get the word out about me.

The Overall Standing, Overall Funding, and Overall Worth of a White Supremacist

In Step Two My White Eggs Will Be Broken When the allegation, the photo, reaches the women I was on my way to, and she will punish the Marshall rather than me for the photo, my genome paid to or through the Dominatrix who prefers the Marhsall who CLAIMS to have protected the victim

Correct Reality Below
Me and the female social or erotic partner, Doctor, Judge, landlord, I was on the way too meetup with and would have normally interacted with but my path was blocked when news of what the IMPERSONATOR did (Compromising Material) reaches the judge, landlord, etc., before I do, thus roadblocking me from where I am being blackballed behind my back.

Lifelong Conspiracy Against My Rights/Criminal Harassment Under Color Of Law gangstalk which has destroyed 40 years of my life, my fathers entire life (all he fought for lived for) and the same of my mother who was put through the exact type of gang stalk methods for 40 years of her life, which I watched helplessly, not helping her enough for fear I myself would be hit with more racism charges.

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Pizzagate Cogwheel (extortion over 17 year olds, tots photography discovered by audlt models allowed under the law)
Explicit illegal acts in my vicinity by Cople of Doppelgänger which will be fused to real me by in-explicate reference. Gulliver, the Gullible Doppelgänger of me, is developmentally retarded, a peeper, and will incur genetic liability	Non explicit out of place indications, intonations, but overlays with clear text, odd though and by pattern not in the ordinary, not consistent with clear text and arguably tie me to Gulliver	Me in clear text attempting to decode, scrutinize vagueness and treated as though I am Gulliver

Google Knowledge Panel Scottish Rite - Wikipediaen.wikipedia.org › wiki › Scottish_Rite The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry commonly known as simply the … According to Arturo de Hoyos, 33°, Wikipedia A FIFTH COLUMN is any group of people who undermine a larger group from within, usually in favor of an enemy group or nation. The activities of a fifth column can be overt or clandestine. Forces gathered in secret can mobilize openly to assist an external attack. This term is also extended to organized actions by military personnel. Clandestine fifth column activities can involve acts of sabotage, disinformation, or espionage executed within defense lines by secret sympathizers with an external force.

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES
Chapter Fifteen

"The Birthing of the Kingdom of our Lord and God!"

No, My Little One, few and I repeat "few" care about what you have had to endure from day to day in the face of Satan, his WORLD-WIDE ILLUMINATI , the traitors in the U.S. SPACE PROGRAM , and KINGS, QUEENS AND SPIRITUAL DEVIATES ALL OVER THE WORLD ! Many have come to put their feet in your back, and to take their own roles in your torture and persecution!

Through it all, you have travailed day after day to bring forth my spiritual "babe", My Kingdom, My new spiritual code for the "New Generation" of souls, the code for the super humans, who are to come!

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Cape Cod Cogwheel
Donegans	Kennedys	Irish Mafia and Liquor dealing in both Donegan and JFK families Military Triad in both Donegans and Kennedy Families	Martha's Vineyard and Clintons

This book

Great Machine Foreign Economy

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Civilian Legal System Assassinations. Where else, now that she (Glorian Donegan) is dead 2011, her DNA can be used to make it everywhere and through seized assets
Judge Roll	Justice Scalia	Thomas C Wales
DNA, Mito, and immunology: Family Members Resemble Family Members Study Disclosed to Him, Family Databases Family Members Detection at University of Arizona and State secrets. Scott and Mark Kelly, Family Databases and Heritable Genes under development University of	Race and IQ, Fisher Case IQ and Foreign Economies, trends in GDP. Spanish Illuminati who tend the world's animal kingdom Sperm Donor, Telomere Donor, Ovum Donor, and gays. Who will be what in the test tube of IVFs and Surrogacy? Steve Elmendorf is gay activist and The Vineyard (Martha's?)	US DOJ Attorney, Died October 11, 2001 (aged 49) Seattle, Washington U.S. Wales was born in Boston, Massachusetts 1952 Wales was a graduate of Milton Academy, where he roomed with Joseph Patrick Kennedy II, the son of Robert F. Kennedy. Boston, Massachusetts, U.S. Likely aware of family rumors or knowledge of a

Arizona Gabriel Gifford had MKULTRA tie according to Jared T Laughtner 2011 Very suspicious death of Glorian Donegan as I and her surrounded by Ethiopians World Economies and (biological} ASSETS SEIZURES on CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE, NOT PROOF, from Savings and Trusts	Two Women or Two Men and in need of IVF Surrogate mother or surrogate fertilization? Add 3rd Parent into custom cook test tube too. The future of Genetics. With a FORWARD LOOKING (INTO THE FUTURE OF GENETICS) RULING we can begin to ignore and deny racial gaps, they are closing so keep them out of case law.	black experimental child which was in the White House nursery around 1961, say November 24th, tied to civil rights efforts

From elsewhere in the book repeated here

DNA from the Beginning is organized around key concepts.

Concept 1

Children resemble their parents.

Johann Gregor Mendel (1822-1884)

Father of Genetics

Gregor Mendel, through his work on pea plants, discovered the fundamental laws of inheritance. He deduced that genes come in pairs and are inherited as distinct units, one from each parent. Mendel tracked the segregation of parental genes and their appearance in the offspring as dominant or recessive traits. He recognized the mathematical patterns of inheritance from one generation to the next. Mendel's Laws of Heredity are usually stated as:

1. The Law of Segregation: Each inherited trait is defined by a gene pair. Parental genes are randomly separated to the sex cells so that sex cells contain only one gene of the pair. Offspring therefore inherit one genetic allele from each parent when sex cells unite in fertilization.

2. The Law of Independent Assortment: Genes for different traits are sorted separately from one another so that the inheritance of one trait is not dependent on the inheritance of another.

3. The Law of Dominance: An organism with alternate forms of a gene will express the form that is dominant.

The genetic experiments Mendel did with pea plants took him eight years (1856-1863) and he published his results in 1865. During this time, Mendel grew over 10,000 pea plants, keeping track of progeny number and type. Mendel's work and his Laws of Inheritance were not appreciated in his time. It wasn't until 1900, after the rediscovery of his Laws, that his experimental results were understood.

President Barack Obama walks out of the Oval Office in 2011 with Princeton labor economist Alan B. Krueger, whom he announced as a top White House economist. (Susan Walsh/AP)

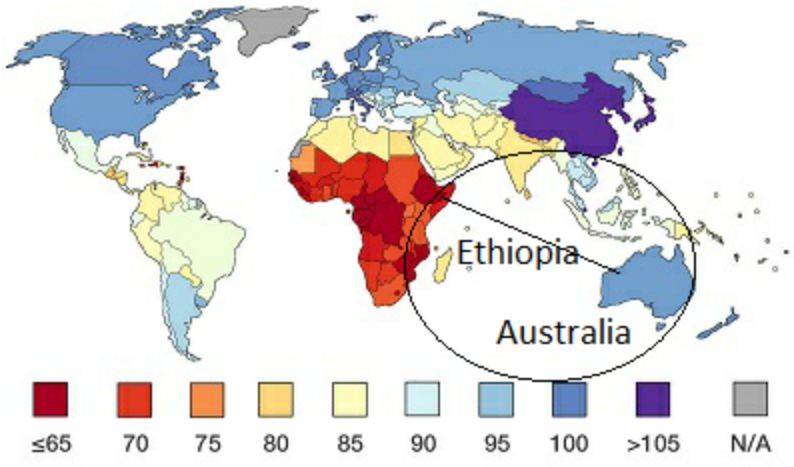
Why did Obama and Clinton economic adviser, 58, Kreuger, take his own life despite having a new book coming out in June?*

Wikipedia → His books, Education Matters: Selected Essays by Alan B. Krueger and (with James Heckman) Inequality in America: What Role for Human Capital Policies? reviewed the available research relating to positive externalities accruing to society from increased government investment in educating the children of the poor. In Inequality in America, he writes:[10]

> I would emphasize that I do not envision investment in human capital development as the sole component of a program to address the adverse consequences of income inequality. It is part of the solution, but not the whole solution. In principle, the optimal governmental policy regarding income inequality would employ multiple instruments, up to the point at which the social benefit per additional dollar of cost of each instrument is equal across all instruments.

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Ethiopia and Australia Cogwheel

Ethiopia The Middle East and North Africa (MENA) is a region encompassing approximately 22 … Ethiopia and Sudan are sometimes included. Leslie Anne Shedd Boeing Famine	Australia	JFK has a Little Rock, Australia, and Ethiopia daily schedule, I think Free Masons
Mitochondria moved into Ethiopia, seems to get to Australia too after that in New Timeline of “Human” IQ which now starts in Ethiopia, mot North Africa



[This book]

The Great Cartel Corpus Economies

“We just need that US V 323K TRUST FUND RETIREMENT ASSET from 2011 so bad so bad we just have to have it for economic development on the maternal side of Ed Donegan lineage via a will or trust ..”

This book

Great Machine Domestic Economy

In local politics county prosecutors seizing assets for police and community when community is violated on a Civil Rights basis
Regular Office Holders displaced by Illuminati Fifth Column	(in recent years and locally) I believe Kamala Harris, Mark Gonsalzes (county prosecutors,) Gregg Abbott (religion, nueral cells, God and CIA) Trump $ business associates, moved into place, people like JFK, Judge Roll, Justice Scalia, James Comey illuminated or moved out. Magistrate B Janice Ellington moved in Pizzagate will assist the CIA and DARPA in this. A mentally retarded Gullible (Tx) will assume Edward Paul Donegan's identity, and with retardation firms help, sign his DNA over to others, when "caught" with "pornography" he made of others.

MAIN MKULTRA NASA LANGLEY COGWHEEL ABOVE
Pizzagate - Marshalls and Neighborhood Watch climax at Midnight when Adult Enertainer Sex Workers catch them faking being Ed Donegan in a Treehouse only claimed to belong to Ed Donegan and having CHILD porn alleged to Ed Donegan victimizing the community children, etc.,
In public areas Ed Donegn is in Government in Top Secret Program manufacture Child Porn in Edward Paul Donegan's vicinity but from out of frame of photo of Edward Paul Donegan who is near a child. Lateer SAID TO BE ED's treehouse location, Adult Entertainers of Adults (and retarded adults with other adults) and then will catch the retarded with Child Pron in the treehouse after being called to visit the impersonate of Edward Donegan in the CHild Porn Treehouse overlooking swiming pools, etc.,

Jen Moore knows FBI, DOD, CIA, others, need to make it LOOK like Edward Paul Donegan, Veronica Hoffman, Tom Dunham are Child Porn scumbags in Nazi ring that can be taken down
Flynn also objects as does his son, but Religions use the DNA for their ministers, parishioners, and religious causes. They abuse their children NEAR Edward Paul Donegan and blame Edward Paul Donegan Kickbacks: The fake cliaims against value of genome buys fake claims creators .. Vehicle as Assets Seizure for Marshall or neighborhood operators, others, will chase wrong person as “fugitive” from Pizzashop “Tx” and “Rx” were at. Rx is Ed Donegan getting Teen or Tot ass flashed, Tx is the Doppelgänger of Ed who will be pursued to wrong location by Fugitive Task Force asset seizures.
A Domina Sex Worker may be part of catching Tx or punishing or treating Tx for Tx wrongdoing.
The same pathogen homeless drug addicts driving the cars around are often gays, non whites, street people, and are also involved in both asset siezures, protecting judges, and protecting women from alleged pervs
The Asset Siezures system of US Marshalls buys cars and other items for Marshalls to own or manage from the bounty of seized assets so drug, other offenders, do not have the assets for their networks of crime.
There is plenty of seized goods to go around to Goodwill, Salvation Army, Drug Addict Recovery, other Jobs

Programs and County Hospitals
Jen Moore traces this (as I do independently at first, then synergizing my info with hers for more information) to the Illuminati/Masons, and the history of OSS CIA Vatican activities of WWI, WWII, and the Free Masonry, now the Secret Identities tied to those operations
Jen Moore also traces this to problems with family courts to friendly to allege child victims to scrutinize cases

This book

Justina Pelletier and Myself Similar in DARPA Kidnap

Denied Easter Mass with her family …

Graham: Justina Pelletier treated worse than a terrorist retrieved from By MICHAEL GRAHAM Boston Herald and copied or modified to here

There is a young person held captive in Massachusetts today who is not allowed to participate in religious ceremonies, or visit family without government agents watching.

No, it's not accused Boston Marathon bomber Dzhokhar Tsarnaev. It's 15-year-old mitochondrial disease patient and nonterrorist Justina Pelletier.

U.S. District Court Judge George O'Toole Jr. ruled Wednesday that the now-20-year-old charged with four deaths and injuring more than 260 people should be able to see his sisters without an FBI agent present. The feds can appeal, but he says their case would have to be "pretty convincing."

"Can you believe it?" That was Jennifer Pelletier's response when I told her about the ruling. She's Justina's older sister - and every visit she has with her wheelchair-bound sister is held under the watchful eye of agents from both the state's Department of Children and Families and - since the story went national - armed state police. The family is only allowed one visit a week, for one hour a week, with their own sick daughter.

"It's hard for me to say this," Justina's father Lou told me Wednesday, "but a terrorist is getting better treatment in Massachusetts right now than a sick teenager who's done nothing wrong."

Thursday morning Jennifer Pelletier asked a representative of DCF why the family couldn't take Justina to Easter Mass this Sunday. The answer, she said: "Because we're not open."

My theory on DARPA and the MKULTRA history of my family is that Obama was built out of Feb 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 DNA from my mother, and this is the Birther issue.

How that came about is that my mother was “on the shelf” of DNA the CIA knew about.

GLorian Donegan, my mother, a rescued Von Trapp daughter, daughter of Maria Kutschera and a secret father.

Maria Kutschere was a neice of Franz Kutschera, Austrian SS official. Rescued from Franz and Karl Kutschera by the Vatican Maria Kutschera would socialize with Prince Edward of Wales (later King Edward VIII who I Edward Donegan am named after) and also she would Mary Captain Von Trapp. THis before WWII, Glorian DOnegan would be raised in the US with other Kustschera daughters.

That gene from the Austria area found its way into British families from Germany, the LONDON KE Family, the Windsors, also Germany Austria area family lineage, later moving to London.

With the CIA and Vatican (OSS before CIA) and through Sidney Gottlieb, speach therapist CIA MKULTRA project leader, this became part of my father’s life, who in the Cape Cod area married Glorian Donegan through unknown exact MKULTRA activities.

The Extreme ADD of FOXP2 Creates normal stuy habbits problems, but does not limit intelligence

Most self learn, become writers, etc., and have motor problems such as handwriting smoothly, speech and swallowing, keeping un flustered in emotions, etc.,

ADD and Borderline Personality Disorder (as well as Dysgraphic symptoms)

Positron emission tomography (PET) scans have generally shown that people with BPD show hypometabolism of glucose in their prefrontal cortex and limbic system relative to people who don’t have BPD,12 suggesting that the disorder may result from a failure of the “rational” prefrontal cortex to regulate the “impulsive” limbic system. Neuroimaging and genetics of borderline personality disorder

Medical Definition of hypometabolism. : a condition (as in myxedema or hypothyroidism) marked by an abnormally low metabolic rate.

Jen Moore and Edward Donegan

Secret Identities and the History of FOXP2
Jenifer Moore	Truthful Common Information though from seperate sources mostly	Edward Paul Donegan
	3rd Reich and Infiltration of German families (and artists) into US Politics
	Black Marketing genes in Tops Secret scheme in which a person is blackmailed for them, otherwise would not allow genes
	Secret CIA Budegts of Black Ops, for profit,, using alleged occult people beholding to their Christian betters, Vatican types “having nice haircuts” but an evil who like FBI teach children to victimize themselves in front of others Targeted Individuals, Targeted Killings, likely asset seizure of phone child porn networks which appear to exist but do not
	Seems to have extensive knowldege of both Glorian Donegan and Edward Paul Donegan including my broken arm, my being plagerized from a lawsuit, etc., Murdered herself, likely because she was going to reveal the truth Rosenstein, Machen Jr, Obama, Secret Service, Bush Family, CIA, DARPA, MKULTRA, NASA, and so many others want secret, tied to JFK murder, Jen Moore DOES tie this to JFK murder

	Free Masons and the legal system, and history of Pike
	Sigmund Freud, MKULTRA Psychiatry and infiltration into psychiatric hospitals, etc., by DARPA and CIA types STEM Cells (Bone marrow, btw, not Cord CElls, not FETUS cells, and now for God's work,) the Ukraine, Biden, Fetal Units, btw retardation, autism, etc., Clintons, Anwans
	the Gangstalk, muscle cars, death threats, intimidation, murders
	Truth Telling, not being intimidated by being called a Conspiracy Theorist, Pizzagate, and MKULTRA Paperclip birtherism, history of Nazis, Pizzagate
	Tic Tic Blind Conservator Rosenstein is hostile to him and I think she meant to me, Edward Paul Donegan

In my case every medical or psychiatry doctor I see has a secret deal with Dept of Defense behind the scenes, same with housing, legal professionals, etc., and as soon as I rent an apartment the building changes ownership right away. True with social services through charities or government entities, etc.,

Interest parties maneuver others out, themselves in and do so behind the scenes preventing my calling it out.

Doctors are often duped and or paid off by evidence and actions behind the scenes.

15. Mitochondrial Disorder is a disease of the mitochondria, "the powerhouse of the cell," which generates the energy that powers cell and organ function. When the mitochondria do not function properly, organs stop working effectively.

16. The severity of symptoms is different from person to person and may involve any combination of a variety of body systems including the brain and muscles (causing poor stamina, altered muscle tone, muscle weakness, seizures, stroke-like episodes);

autonomic nervous system (temperature dysregulation, heart rate abnormalities, dizziness, poor heat and/or cold tolerance, (too much/too little sweating, skin pallor); eyes (vision loss); hearing deficit; endocrine disease; heart (cardiomyopathy); liver (dysfunction, cirrhosis); kidneys (failure); and metabolic issues. Common symptoms include poor growth, loss of muscle control, muscle weakness, neurological problems, autism and autistic-like features, developmental delays and learning disabilities, heart disease, autonomic dysfunction, gastrointestinal disorders and severe constipation.

17. Mitochondrial Disorder can sometimes be diagnosed with DNA testing and muscle biopsy. However, it is widely known and accepted in the medical community that a negative test result does not rule out the disorder, as such testing is not reliable for that purpose.

Wayne Madsen Report

Aurora massacre: several links between James Holmes and U.S. government research (Salk Institute involved in neurologically enhancing soldiers' abilities on battlefield…connections to DARPA)

James Holmes, the 24-year old suspect in the mass shooting of Batman "The Dark Knight Rises" movie goers in Aurora, Colorado that left 12 people dead and 58 injured, has had a number of links to U.S. government-funded research centers. Holmes's past association with government research projects has prompted police and federal law enforcement officials to order laboratories and schools with which Holmes has had a past association not to talk to the press about Holmes.

Holmes was one of six recipients of a National Institutes of Health Neuroscience Training Grant at the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus in Denver. Holme is a graduate of the University of California at Riverside with a Bachelor of Science degree in neuroscience.

Although Holmes dropped out of the PhD neuroscience program at Anschutz in June, police evacuated two buildings at the Anschutz center after the massacre at the Aurora movie theater. Holmes reportedly gave a presentation at the Anschutz campus in May on Micro DNA Biomarkers in a class titled "Biological Basis of Psychiatric and Neurological Disorders."*

MKULTRA and MKOFTEN WIKIPEDIA

Project MKUltra (or MK-Ultra), also called the CIA mind control program, is the code name given to a program of experiments on human subjects that were designed and undertaken by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, some of which were illegal.[1][2][3]

The project's intentionally obscure CIA cryptonym is made up of the digraph MK, meaning that the project was sponsored by the agency's Technical Services Staff, followed by the word Ultra which had previously been used to designate the most secret classification of World War II intelligence.

The project was headed by Sidney Gottlieb but began on the order of CIA director Allen Welsh Dulles on April 13, 1953.[24

FOXP2 Inherited Gene and Extreme ADD Extreme ADD
Gene Expression includes Speech Regulation and clipped grammer in writing PAPERCLIP

Gene Expression Represents Academic Failure but good scientifi mind MONARCH
Gene Expression Represents Gastro Intestinal Neural Problems including dryness of throat and digestive tract. ARTICHOKE
Gene Expresion includes problems with fine motor control, writing, tying shoes, swallowing ARTICHOKE
Gene Expression tied to poor executive function, seeing sort of with two minds, watching intellectually but not regulating intellectually, Borderline symptom, thus going to far to one side but perhaps correcting again intellectually later

Espionage via Infiltration of Behavioral Health

I can not get genuine legal or medical representation or services in the United States of America.

Part of the machinery of that is State services and privileges due me (and my mother Glorian Donegan) are denied via abusive espionage conducted under corrupt medical powers such as power to diagnose, detain, misrepresnt in parentis loci, etc., thus a tool to violage my human rights and legal rights.

Psych Warden

The ARC of Northern Virginia	Nueces and other county services	religious or other uwnated conservators or “partners”
Racketeering Influenced SJW firms unjustly debasing me while robbing me of what they are actually illegaly racketeering and seek	Charney moved out Todd Agustus moved out	Behind my back sabotage me to most other doctors
Outlandish mis diganosis done to me as nothing other than racial abusiveness often by doctors I should even have such ad Dept of Defense	Unwanted Retardation Services itself an insult to me	Abusive public attacks on me accusing defects I do not have as provocation of doctors, black, sometimes Masons	as having them	fights I will not take

Families

FOXP2 Gene Present FEB 20 NOV 18 DEC 13 360 DNA
Kutschera • Franz Kutschera Austrian Nazi who mostly had trade skills unle to Maria Kutschera • Agusta Kutschera, Brother of France • Maria Kutschera, daughter of Agusta, later married Captain Von Trapp, Maria Von Trapp after rescued from the abusive Nazi uncle
Windsor • King George V who seems to have emotions trouble, later renamed as British Windsor • Prince Edward Wales and other 15 or 17 FOXP2 London Family FOXP2 genes family
Kings Daughters [King Edward VIII, Maria Kutshera], Glorian Donegan and her perhaps geneologist sister Victoria Windsor • Glorian, 1926 DEC 13TH daughter of Maria Kutschera and Prince Edward of Wales • Edward Donegan, FOXP2 gene
Mark and Scott Kelly Born Twins Born Mark Edward Kelly FEBRUARY 21, 1964, Judge Roll, Family Databasis, University of Arizona

Palrow In a technologically advanced 1939, the zeppelin Hindenburg III moors itself atop the Empire State Building. Aboard the airship is Dr. Jorge Vargas, a scientist who arranges for a package containing two vials to be delivered to Dr. Walter Jennings. The courier looks back while leaving with the vials, to see that Dr. Vargas has vanished.

Polly Perkins [marrying Sky Captain?}, a reporter for The Chronicle, is looking into the disappearances of Vargas and five other renowned scientists. A cryptic message leads her to Radio City Music Hall, against the warnings of her editor, Mr. Paley, where she meets Dr. Jennings during a showing of The Wizard of Oz. He tells her that a Dr. Totenkopf is coming for him next. Suddenly, seemingly indestructible robots attack the city. Clearly outmatched, the authorities call for “Sky Captain” Joe Sullivan, the city’s hero, Perkins’ former lover, and the commander of the private air force the Flying Legion.

While Joe engages the robots with his modified Curtiss P-40 pursuit fighter.

They find a secret subterranean facility in a mountain, where robots are loading animals, as well as the mysterious vials, onto a large “Noah’s Ark” rocket. Joe and Polly are detected but Dex, piloting a flying barge, arrives with three of the missing scientists. One of whom explains that Totenkopf has given up on humanity and seeks to start the world over again: the “World of Tomorrow”. The vials are genetic material for a new Adam and Eve. Sky Captain says they should just let Totenkopf go but Dex states that they can’t; if the rocket reaches space, the afterburners will ignite the atmosphere and kill everyone on Earth.

Barack Obama Jr., secretly Glorian Donegan ovum used along with Malcom X fertilization, thus the Shabazz family and Obama children

Kennedy’s, Shrivers, Lawfords, Schwarzeneggers, , Katherine Schwarzenegger Borderline Personality Disorder born DEC 13, Pelletiers, possibly both Albert Einstein and Adolph Hitler, most of all of whom are tied to Manhattan Beach and Cape Code Massachusetts, Mary Caitrin Mahoney, Rose Marie “Rosemary” Kennedy Robert Kennedy Jr.

Then there are CIA like connected operatives, the Bushes, Pescott, HW, George, the Powells (Alma, General Powell, FCC Powell, Gottliebs, others controlling this, Clinton, Free Masons, Dulles Brothers, Woosley etc. Herman Edward Butts, HEB, Ambassador to Australia 1961, Christian Hill Country Lodge, Joseph Kennedy, Ambassador England 1920s
The US Mothers of World Disaster CIA, DARPA, MKULTRA, Defense Intelligence Agency, Secret Service, FBI, The Bible, Free Masons,

Caity, the youngest of three children, flunked the second grade but worked hard to catch up and by the sixth grade was accepted into the McDonogh School. She brought home report cards full of A’s and “an arsenal of great friends,” recalled her brother, Patrick Mahoney.

But Caity stuttered, and she disliked answering the telephone because of her speech impediment. By the time Caity was in the eighth grade, her speech had improved so much that she won the eighth-grade oratory championship. “Caity was so determined,” her brother recalled.

Caity later went off to college “and off to college and off to college,” her brother joked, pointing out that his sister attended Fordham University and Ithaca College in New York before graduating from Towson State University in Maryland. “Caity had seen more college campuses than her sister and I had combined,” he said.

Primary adrenal insufficiency, commonly known as Addison disease is uncommon in the Western population and is estimated to affect 90 - 140 per 1 million people (Arlt and Allollo 2003). The spectrum of adrenal disorders differs in childhood and adult patients. Primary adrenal insufficiency in childhood and adolescence is due to abnormalities of gland development, gland responsiveness, and either to defects of steroid biosynthesis or target organ response.

Justina Pelletier

Motor Neural Control of the GI and mixing food and enzymes and processing the food through the snake GI tract of early inner brain digestive track and constrictions. LIzzard brain.

Muscular Control of the GI Tract, Digestion, and Mixing/Sensing food and enzymes by crushing them together.

How does food move through my GI tract?

Food moves through your GI tract by a process called peristalsis. The large, hollow organs of your GI tract contain a layer of muscle that enables their walls to move. The movement pushes food and liquid through your GI tract and mixes the contents within each organ. The muscle behind the food contracts and squeezes the food forward, while the muscle in front of the food relaxes to allow the food to move.

As food moves through your GI tract, your digestive organs break the food into smaller parts using:

- motion, such as chewing, squeezing, and mixing digestive juices, such as stomach acid, bile, and enzymes
- Mouth. The digestive process starts in your mouth when you chew. Your salivary glands make saliva, a digestive juice, which moistens food so it moves more easily through your esophagus into your stomach. Saliva also has an enzyme that begins to break down starches in your food.

- Esophagus. After you swallow, peristalsis pushes the food down your esophagus into your stomach.
- Stomach. Glands in your stomach lining make stomach acid and enzymes that break down food. Muscles of your stomach mix the food with these digestive juices.
- Pancreas. Your pancreas makes a digestive juice that has enzymes that break down carbohydrates, fats, and proteins. The pancreas delivers the digestive juice to the small intestine through small tubes called ducts.
- Liver. Your liver makes a digestive juice called bile that helps digest fats and some vitamins. Bile ducts carry bile from your liver to your gallbladder for storage, or to the small intestine for use.
- Gallbladder. Your gallbladder stores bile between meals. When you eat, your gallbladder squeezes bile through the bile ducts into your small intestine.
- Small intestine. Your small intestine makes digestive juice, which mixes with bile and pancreatic juice to complete the breakdown of proteins, carbohydrates, and fats. Bacteria in your small intestine make some of the enzymes you need to digest carbohydrates. Your small intestine moves water from your bloodstream into your GI tract to help break down food. Your small intestine also absorbs water with other nutrients.
- Large intestine. In your large intestine, more water moves from your GI tract into your bloodstream. Bacteria in your large intestine help break down remaining nutrients and make vitamin K NIH external link. Waste products of digestion, including parts of food that are still too large, become stool.

What happens to the digested food?

The small intestine absorbs most of the nutrients in your food, and your circulatory system passes them on to other parts of your body to store or use. Special cells help absorbed nutrients cross the intestinal lining into your bloodstream. Your blood carries simple sugars, amino acids, glycerol, and some vitamins and salts to the liver. Your liver stores, processes, and delivers nutrients to the rest of your body when needed.

The lymph system NIH external link, a network of vessels that carry white blood cells and a fluid called lymph throughout your body to fight infection, absorbs fatty acids and vitamins.

Your body uses sugars, amino acids, fatty acids, and glycerol to build substances you need for energy, growth, and cell repair.

How does my body control the digestive process?

Your hormones and nerves work together to help control the digestive process. Signals flow within your GI tract and back and forth from your GI tract to your brain.

Hormones

